MOTION FOR LEAVE TO WITHDRAW AS COUNSEL

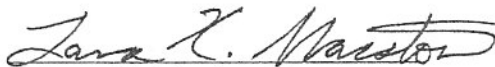

COMES NOW Plaintiff World Mission Society, Church of God, a New Jersey Nonprofit Corporation, by counsel, and respectfully moves this Court to permit the withdrawal of Plaintiff's counsel of record, Dozier Internet Law, P.C. and Laura K. Marston. In support of this request, Plaintiff represents that on August 6, 2012, John W. Dozier, Jr., Esq., lead counsel of record and the sole owner of Dozier Internet Law, P.C., passed away. On August 21, 2012, the executor of Mr. Dozier's estate announced his intention to close and dissolve Dozier Internet Law, P.C. Laura Marston, remaining counsel of record, represents that her employment with Dozier Internet Law, P.C. will terminate on September 7, 2012. Dozier Internet Law, P.C. will be fully dissolved shortly thereafter. Pursuant to Supreme Court of Virginia Rule 1:5, Plaintiff has been informed of counsel's intention to file this motion with the Court.

Dozier Internet Law, P.C. will serve as counsel for the September 7, 2012 hearings on the Motion for Sanctions and the Non-Suit. Because it is anticipated that the present case will be dismissed on September 7, 2012, withdrawal following the September 7, 2012 hearing can be accomplished without material adverse effect on the interests of the client, pursuant to Virginia State Bar Professional Conduct Rule 1.16. Thus, for good cause shown, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court to GRANT this Motion for Leave to Withdraw as Counsel.
