1Corinthians 10:17 – For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

Why didn't Paul refer to the act of eating the body and drinking the blood of Christ as "the Passover"?

Why did he refer to it as "the Communion"?

I'm curious.

What happen to Rick's forum? Did it get hacked? Anyway Dark Angel, I know your smart as hell and COGinator is just one of your "side boys". Dark Angel, you are now ready to debate with Ryan/Marcus. I have an answer for you and I'll be right back.

Robert have you heard of the Archangels Michael, The Captain of God's Armies

Raphael: The Archangel of Healing

Gabriel: The Press Secretary and Minister of Information

God works through them and its a great privilege for you cog members to receive heavenly assistance from Ted, coginator and Dark angel who are working hard by giving you an opportunity to repent and be saved until the end of your live, rather than believe in a God who just came down only to clean toilets and be con artist

Dark Angel is not just smart but smarter than your Joo cheol or Mother Jerusalem. LOL

Well page boys of Mother Jerusalem looking forward to your answers?

Whenever we have to start anything we first pray to God, we never see you start the Bible teaching with a pray. You just started without seeking Gos's permission or cover your word with His precious blood.

Yes ! your Bible interpreting is sooo true & excellent & clear & eye opener. But besides the prophesy how have you agreed on him being the Holy Spirit why not just a prophet who would come like Johon the Baptist

Also we are a little annoyed on certain things:

1. That you have baptized us without giving us any knowledge about the person & informing us His name etc. ?

2. This concept of just taking the person & baptizing him with a new name of which he has never heard or aware of is very wrong..... we flatly thought that you would just baptized us in a regular way.

Eg. : If a stranger comes to your house & asks you to keep some unknown/ strange looking bag in your house, you will first inquire with him "what is in that bag" ? right ?

But we were zapped after hearing some strange name out of the blues. Even in spite of asking you later, about the name you said later.

Eg. : Now this was like a stranger cheatingly smiled tricked & gave us the big Mystery dangerous Bag and forced us to keep it, without making us aware what it consist of ?

I felt so confused & felt like a fool, but still convinced my self to take it with a humble heart & I asked Jesus to cover us with his Precious blood over what ever had happened.

I decided & went ahead to find out more about this name.

Now remember we are Gods children & Gods children are humble and seekers of the truth. And am sure, that you have gone thru the same question that we are now struggling with. If you have overcome, so shud we. RIGHT ?

We don't want to offend anyone, but make sure that ; whatever we will be following "is the truth". We don't want to regret or leave a dark patch on our heart, Coz we will have to teach the same thing 2 others & will be questioned with the same doubts which you must have had & now we are having. So please make clear, some points :

WHO ARE THEY AS A PERSON ?????

The Name you say is – The Holy Spirit :
Born – 1918
Baptised – 1948
Preached for – 37 years
Died – 1985.

RELIGION : Jesus is God -THE MOST HIGH, He is the Holy of Holies. When he . planed to come on earth, God chose to come down in flesh thru a . Virgin..... – Mary.. / A disciple of God/ A BELIEVER (A free . woman)

Matthew 1:1-2A, 6, 16 [1] A record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ the son of David, the son of Abraham: [2] Abraham was the father of Isaac, ... [6] and Jesse the father of King David. [16] and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ who was baptized by John the Baptist.

So its very clear that here the God Most High, who is bright & sparkling as sun & without SIN, chose a virgin, untouched, pure to give him birth.

Ok throughout the bible, God punished those who did not worship him. That is pure and undeniable facts. However, as God is well known for his anger towards Idol worshippers –

Does it it appears that God was happy and pleased with two people who were not believers nor followers of him & his Bible. These two people, who were Buddhist, worshipped a false god, which may have included bowing down to the idol & eating food sacrificed to the idol & offering him poojas etc. These people were in bondage. Not born from free woman. (the story of Hagar & Sarah – when God told Abraham that only your son will be the heir of the family & not Hager's Son coz they were slaves & in bondage)

1. How can God be so pleased, at what they were doing and allowed prophecy that has nothing to do with the religious beliefs of what God hated?

2. How can God – The Holy of Holies allow the woman in bondage, to give birth to Him. (the second coming of Christ) ?????

At the same time, you condemns any form of idol worship and even teaches that every religion including Buddhism is a false religion.

3. Now : He is born in bondage (from a non-believers) ??
? Before he could be baptized or accept Christ he was worshipping all idol Gods....obviously what his parents thought him since childhood.... Right ?

4. How can the Holy Spirit participate his earlier (1st half) life, worshipping Buddhist idols ?

Born : 1918 Why do you say Christ has come for the second time in 1948, when he is actually born in 1918 ?
Why are you using the year that he was baptized, for this one?

But why are you not considering his birth date when Holy spirit was born on earth ? Is it just because Israel got its independence in 1948.

Now according to Meckezedek he fulfilled the prophesy and preached for 37 years. So you mean he was not preaching before that ?

a) If no : Then why ? what is the story before that ? How can he suddenly preach out of no where ?

b) If Yes : Then why are those years not counted ?

You say he has fulfilled the prophesy of Melchizedek : –
WITHOUT PARENTS /WITHOUT GENOLOGY,

- JESUS WAS WITH MOTHER & FATHER.
WITHOUT GENOLOGY – WITHOUT parents

- He was born from nonbelievers, who were they then?
WHAT ABOUT HIS PHYSICAL PARENTS ? THAT'S A MISTRY ?

Baptised : According to the Church of God, he joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church in 1947. And began preaching from 1948 ??? .. He created the World Mission Society Church of God in 1964 ??

Predictions : Ahnsanghong made a number of predictions in his early books.

- Wikipedia (Encyclopedia) says, Ahnsanghong mentioned in his book -

"The Mystery of God and the Spring of the Water of Life", in chapter 12 he writes: about the second coming of Christ on 1967 or 1988.
Despite his death three years before his prediction of Jesus' return."

1. How can someone predict that someone is coming and be that person?

2. 1988 – Where is the second coming ? why didnt he fulfill his word itself???

3. Why are his books not available anywhere? & not given to people who have not joined your church ? The Bible & knowledge shud be given to all. Right ?

4. What do the church leaders say about his first two prophecies in 1967 and 1988.
He also mentioned in his book -

"But only "Jesus" can be the Savior's name, not only at his first coming, but even in the last days".

5. What do you have to say about this ?
He did not proclaim he was a god while he was alive! He wrote books in his books – "beleive in Jesus" & that Jesus would be the second coming christ, not himself.

Death :
Revelations 1:7 says "Behold, he cometh with clouds and EVERY eye will see him and they also which pierced him, and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him."

>>>> Nobody saw this happen, this is the word of the bible the word of god,

Holy scripture states that when Christ arrives everyone will witness the second coming !! EVERYONE! beleivers and non beleivers.

How come Holy Spirit –Ah..... came in secret & has already died & no one knew ?

Speaking about the death of Jesus = How did Jesus die * on the cross for our sins. By dieing on the Cross He washed away all our sins ? he made us a place in His family?
he was not in he tomb.... He also appeared in some places...& He ascended to heaven,. How did Chr... Anhong die.... ?

I got a reply from the net. Ah... God died of Brain Haemorrhage. In secret ???

PASSOVER : Now we have Old testament & New testament.

The feast were given by Jehova God to his people on earth IN HIS AGE- the age of God the Father. I was mandatory, becoz It was given from the God most High.

When God Jehova decided to come on earth In flesh... The age of Jesus began.

Jesus Christ died to the cross to save us from the wrath of His father (He & the Father are one), He went as the Passover offering as a lamb. His offering was accepted before God forever, thus He fulfilled the part about us having to kill a lamb during the feast. This was in the second age- the Age of God the Son.

Hence we do not celebrate the Passover now, as per the Old Testament the age of the Father. What say ?

THE BRIDE OF JESUS :

The heavenly mother does she actually refer to an actual woman, remember the parables.

The bride of the lamb (Jesus), is his children, us, we who have accepted him as our savior in baptism. The bible says that when we accept Jesus, we are MARRIED to him and must refrain from unholy things. Ephesians 5:25-28 – The discussion of husbands and wives. Jesus sets the example by how he loved the church and gave himself for it. Church must be equal to his wife. We make up the church. His Bride.

- What proof exists that Mother Jerusalem is in fact – Mother Jerusalem? Has she told you that she is Her ?

People come & gone – preaches /opened some secret of the Bible & claimed they were the second coming :

Joseph Smith – After all, consider that Joseph Smith of the Mormons prophecied that Jesus would return within his lifetime by 1890. Though Joseph Smith died before that date.

Herbert Armstrong – of the Worldwide Church of God predicted that Jesus already returned in 1936 (later changed to 1945).

Jim Jones – was the reincarnation of Jesus until 1978, when he led his Peoples Temple followers in drinking cyanide-laced drinks and shooting himself in the head.

David Koresh – was also the reincarnation of Jesus, until he died in 1993 along with his Branch Davidians in the Waco Siege shoot-out and fire.
Marshall Applewhite – was yet another ‘the reincarnation of Jesus’ until 1997, when he led his Heaven’s Gate to commit suicide so that their souls could get onto Comet Hale-Bopp... Which was also somehow carrying Jesus on it at the same time.

Jesus said above all its repent for your sins, forgive & love but you just say all other churches are wrong,
* what about the protestians,
* those who have left the city life & living in the jungle away from satan’s world & only live on what they received from the woods, they believe only inGod jehova & no one else, will God not receive them, living such a sinless life.

About the age of the Holy Spirit – HOW CAN YOU SAY THAT THE AGE OF JESUS IS ENDED ?

When we have the healing services Soooo MANY are still receiving sight, crooked back bones are getting straightened, cancer is getting cured, a person who cannot walk for ages starts dancing suddenly JUST believing in the name of JESUS. Many many healings are taking place... just accepting the Name of Jesus as their savior. What does CoG say about this ?

I’ve heard about a sister in Rome, who only lives on Eucharist & nothing else

People are fasting off food & water for 40 days in Jesus Name & are receiving gifts of the spirit of Prophecy etc. my friend just received & speak perfect as per her vision.

Listen you can be severely punished. You boldly say, that if we say one word more or less out of the Word of GOD (Bible) we will have plagues to us ... but just think again..

who you are worshipping ? & what Ahnsanghong has advised you all in His books –

“The Mystery of God and the Spring of the Water of Life”, in chapter 12 he writes:
He has predicted about the second coming of Christ in 1967 or 1988.
“But only “Jesus” can be the Savior’s name, not only at his first coming, but even in the last days”.

He may be a phropheet like Jhon the Baptist, no doubt / Just think again dear Cog.

I am not siding any one. But will be very clear if you reply me this.

Please forgive me dear Jesus & you Cof, but we all have to be saved & God has given us brains to think what is good & evil. Besides in todays world it is so difficult to believe in any one.

Ahnsahnghong...has a grave and resides in it.

Only Jesus Christ has risen from the dead and is no longer in his grave/tomb.

Need we catholics, to say anything more???

I have already spent some time in CoG but find confusion, secreats etc.

I may give up if i dont get a reply to all this.

Hurry youngsters.... you say the generation of today will be able to understand more faster. But have you Cog youngsters who are preaching all this....found for your self first....?

People who dont read the Bible may agree to all that you guys teach.... but this is clear cheating. Thats why you tell us that the older generation will never understand & pick up with an open mind what Cog has to explain.

Jesus is Lord. And the greates commandment Jesus gave us is :

For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." (Galatians 5:14 RSV)

And one of the scribes came up and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, asked him,
"Which commandment is the first of all?"

Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one;

30 and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.'

The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'

There is no other commandment greater than these."

1 Peter 4:8 (RSV)

Above all hold unfailing your love for one another, since love covers a multitude of sins.

Above all is Love. Jesus tells us to repent for our sins. And Love above all.

Then why scare innocent people with the world ending day & force them to join your church.

And Is'int the word of God independent & for all. So why not share with us the secret books or word of God which you keep only for yurself or only for the hard core members of Cog. Did God say " you shud not save my sheep who dont register their names in your Church.

Yes what you preach makes a lot of sence. But who you worship shud be thought about !!!

Mr. Ahnsanghong must have come to share the word of God & open our eyes. But he himself has also written in his book

"The Mystery of God and the Spring of the Water of Life", in chapter 12 he writes: about the second coming of Christ on 1967 or 1988.

Despite his death three years before his prediction of Jesus' return."

1. How can someone predict that someone is coming and be that person?

2. 1988 – Where is the second coming ? why didnt he fulfill his word itself???

3. Why are his books not available anywhere? & not given to people who have not joined your church ? The Bible & knowledge shud be given to all. Right ?

4. What do the church leaders say about his first two prophecies in 1967 and 1988.

He also mentioned in his book -

"But only "Jesus" can be the Savior's name, not only at his first coming, but even in the last days".

5. What do you have to say about this ?

He did not proclaim he was a god while he was alive!

He wrote books in his books – “beleive in Jesus” & that Jesus would be the second coming christ, not himself.

Listen people of God, i guess Mr. Ahnsanghong may be really sad on this ignorance of God people.

He may have just come to preach like Jhon the Baptist (Phrophet) but you have made him a God.... Please think again about the points that i have mentioned in my previous mail.

Jesus Still Loves you all. Have a blessed day with him.

Believe in Lord Jesus & you will be saved, You & your Family.

Look what we have here, a false prophet who wants to know treasures so he can trample on them and try to tear us to pieces. Nice try.

So, I assume you love Jesus Christ, correct?

ohn 14:21 — Whoever has my commands and obeys them, he is the one who loves me.

John 15:10 — If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father's commands and remain in his love.

1 John 2:3 — We know that we have come to know him if we obey his commands. 4The man who says, "I know him," but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

1 John 3:24 — Those who obey his commands live in him, and he in them.

1 John 5:3 — This is love for God: to obey his commands. And his commands are not burdensome, Just remember "Love of Jesus Christ" your type are prophesied in the Bible.

2 corinthians 11:3 — For such men are false apostles, deceitful workmen, masquerading as apostles of Christ. 14And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. 15It is not surprising, then, if his servants masquerade as servants of righteousness. Their end will be what their actions deserve.

Clearly bible scripture can be interpreted different ways, just like politics can be spun towards different agendas.

Reply

It just so happens that the WMSCoG wants to interpret (or rather spin) scripture in such a way that portrays the WMSCoG as "the one true church". It is for that reason alone, that one can easily deduce the intentions of the WMSCoG is for that of personal gain, which would be what categorizes it as a cult. And judging from the numbers people who have testified of the bad things it has done to their families, it would be easy to lump it into the destructive cult classification.

As for the anyone else who clearly see's the cult in the WMSCoG, please refrain from using obscenity and unproductive language as I'm willing to bet you're much smarter than one who has to resort to a foul mouth to express themselves.

Thanks,

Not sure where that came from.

Just exposing people like "Love of Jesus Christ" for who they are.

Reply

CogInator, you once said that we will never understand what God's will is. I hope you understand the error in that statement.

Jesus said....

Matthew 7:21 — "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

Revelation 3:3 — Remember, therefore, what you have received and heard; obey it, and repent. But if you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what time I will come to you.

How can you obey God's will if you think we will never completely know God' will?

Is your message consistent with what Jesus Christ said?? No it is not. Then why would anyone, whether they be a Christian or someone who is seeking the truth, take your advice? Seriously CogInator.

Don't be fooled by that reasoning. That thinking comes from the enemy who does not want you to know God's will.

Remember, I have not loged to fight or offend any one. But logged on to this site only to inform you that God has given everyone brains. Why dont you Cog youngsters just find out for yourself if what you are following is right or wrong.

Reply

You have justgot caught up with some scriptures and go on & on with it, believing the things being thought to you for the first time.

I too got caught up with 2 young people who came to my house 3 weeks ago. I was soo happy knowing soo many unknown secrets shown from the Bible. I just got flowed with the wind. But my peace was lost. I found myself very disturbed day & night. I could not pray / have a conversation nor sing a song like I always did to Jesus. When I decided to find things my self. I loged on to your teachings on the site ("church of God) read the whole thing day & night. read the prophesies etc, compared. But then came to kno many other information thru other sites.

I did not depend on just 1 site but many & other books also. Specially sat with revelation & got deep into it.

Said a real sorry to Jesus for following & getting forcibly baptized with a wrong name, which you never even informed me before doing so.

Saying a sorry to Jesus was the biggest thing I ever did last 4 days. I asked him for forgiveness, After which I received a lot of peace Jesus. Jesus knows it.

Now remember CoG the word of God, is stable & fixed forever. Why dont you concentrate more on reality and how you people are linking Mr. Anh..... to Holy Spirit & Jesus.

I am still waiting for the reply :

Mr. Anh..... has pridicted / written in his book :

"The Mystery of God and the Spring of the Water of Life", in chapter 12 he writes: about the second coming of Christ on 1967 or 1988.

Despite his death three years before his prediction of Jesus' return."

1. What do the church leaders say about his first two prophecies in 1967 and 1988.....How can he predict that someone is coming and be that person?

How come you have taken the date of his baptizem to phrophesy, than for the date of his Birth ? You have to think hard ! Man.

He also mentioned in his book -

"But only "Jesus" can be the Savior's name, not only at his first coming, but even in the last days".

Have'ny your church leader told you about this ? Now what have to say about this ?

He wrote books in his books – "beleive in Jesus" & that Jesus would be the second coming christ, not himself.

So what do you Cog brothers & sisters have to say about this?

Please make things clear & reply !!

Coz the truth still lies hidden. & as you say the end is comming closer,we ll need Heaven, no one wasnt to live with the Dragon in the Pit of Sulphur right COG ? So please find/speak the truth, come to a conclusion & ask forgiveness from Jesus.

And this is too the other member of the church :

Can we all use a good language / words to reply to Cog, we have yet not come to a conclusion.

Why throw bad words to some one like us (of our age).

These yougsters must have gone astray with the ideas of some one who has not interprited Mr. Ahn..... books in a right way.

They are not harsh to us so why shud we.
They may be right OR we may be right.

Jesus alone knows. Lets speakup & tell them what we have found out today.

Just dont shoot up bad words, no one is perfect.
They can still be corrected in another way. that's the speech of Love.

Dear Cog, Love of Jesus Christ, is waiting for a Cog member's reply FOR ONLY THE QUESTIONS I HAVE MENTIONED ABOVE PLEASE.

Jesus Still Loves you.

Love of Jesus Christ,

I commend you for repenting the false baptism that you were con'd into. Further I would say, don't hold your breath waiting for a logical answer to the many important questions that you are requesting from the WMSCoG members. They only like to debate issues that can be interpreted differently. If it's clear cut, and doesn't support their wacky doctrine they don't go near it with a 10 foot pole.

It is unfortunate that you call the second coming Christ a false idol. He came to restore the new covenant that Jesus came with 2000 years ago. It is very sad.

If you are a Cog member then please brother reply my questions. Am sure you must have dug out all this before you joined Cog. Then please clear my doubts & ALL MY ABOVE MAILs. Reply

As a matter of fact – I do agree with the teachings of Mr. Ahnsanghong, about Sunday worship, about idols, about the 7 thunder, the Spirit & the Bride & other scriptures which he has revealed.

But he has also advised in his book “But only “Jesus” can be the Savior’s name, not only at his first coming, but even in the last days”.

& – “beleive in Jesus” & that Jesus would be the second coming christ, not himself.

Now you remember when Jhon the Baptist came he was baptizing people in the river some one asked him, if HE WAS THE ONE TO COME FROM GOD. But he said “there is someone mightier then him whose sandal straptherefore repent” (Luke 3 : 15 – 16)

In the same way Mr. Ahnsanghong must have come to alert us & ask us to repent. But he has also CLEARLY mentioned “But only “Jesus” can be the Savior’s name, not only at his first coming, but even in the last days”.

Then did the people make Jhon the Baptist “the Christ”. No they believed in him & waited for the one to come.

Then why are you not understanding, why are you being so stubborn as to not reflect on Mr. Ahnsanghong own words / his own advise.

What are you doing ? You are baptizing innocent people in his name !!!!!

Even though Mr. Ahnsanghong has CLEARLY written “But only “Jesus” can be the Savior’s name, not only at his first coming, but even in the last days”.

Please find the truth dear brother , Don’t just get carried away with half decorated secrets displayed on a nice table. What does Mother Jerusalem have to say about this ?

Listen Cog, One thing salvation is required for all. All want to go to our heavenly Father God after the day of judgment. No one wants to go to the dragon (to Hell).

So please if you say you are right then help us also be saved. Don’t keep the proof / historical book to your self, let all be saved. If your church leaders only keep it to themselves there should be something fishy & ADDED.

I am not going to repeat my above questions again & again.

Think again – what Mr. Ahnsanghong is CLEARLY telling all..... Don't be ignorant..... If you could believe all that he had revealed & asked us to do then why are you not ready to believe these clearly written words of his.

I remember the young couple (may be just 23 age) of CoG who gave us teachings every time repeated to us with full confidence " IF WE (Cog) adds on to the Bible, plagues will be added to us.....(Revelation 22: 18-19) so if you are proudly announcing / claiming plagues to you , please this is – THE – WORD – OF – GOD.....

It's a DANGEROUS PLAGUE my dear brothers & sister, not some ice-cream or cookie. Ant you scared of Gods anger. Question your church leaders please.

Waiting for the truth, Love of Jesus Christ.

You are ignorant to God's will "Love of Jesus Christ". You do not even know what you are talking about. it is sad, because you cannot understand.

There is no contradiction in the words that Christ Ahnsahngong has spoken. It is your lack of understanding God's administration that leads you to such conclusions. If we do not understand God's administration, we can find many contradictions in the Bible itself.

Anyways, you are not fooling anybody as to who you really are. You false Christians are really on the prowl aren't you?

2 Corinthians 11:3 — For such men are false apostles, deceitful workmen, masquerading as apostles of Christ. 14And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. 15It is not surprising, then, if his servants masquerade as servants of righteousness. Their end will be what their actions deserve.

I just dont understand what to tell you. Any ways, I have concluded that you do not have a reply to my above SIMPLE questions.

Reply

Whenever all you COG guys dont hav a reply you just say one diaglounge "that our spiritual eyes are closed etc" but dont want us to share in what you know becoz you have only half the truth been told to you. thats it. I have got my reply.

thanks Marcus

Remember YOU have led me AWAY from the church of God.

I though I would get a true reply, which would turn me to join you but its sad that you have no clear reply to my confusion & doubts & above simple questions.

You should have given me the knowledge that you have received but you have kept ALL MY DOUBTS FIRM, I FIND NO PEACE IN YOU,

YOU WILL NEVER BE ABLE TO REPLY THE SIMPLY PREDICTION THAT MR. ANHANGONG HIMNSELF HAS PREDICTED & CONCLUDED.

ANYWAYS, I HAVE GOT MY REPLY,

JESUS STILL LOVES YOU.

GOOD BYE & PEACE BE WITH YOU MY BROTHER.

jesus come in with love me.I often learned from what you wrote because of not having the person's other method that could be better than our method your self. thank you for information,when we met again.

Love of Jesus Christ, welcome to my world. Logic and proof doesn't phase the hard liner CoG members. They only hear what they want to hear, and dismiss everyone else with a different view as a false Christian who doesn't understand God.

It's a shame they've gotten involved in this destructive cult, but remember, Satans army can choose you to tangle with, but it takes your consent to follow through.

We may not agree on Sunday worship or whether all the OT feasts are required in today's Christianity, but I whole heartily agree with you that Ahnsahnghong is not, has not, and will not be the second coming. It will be Jesus Christ himself...even ASH knew that.

Hmm I believe a lot of this discussion has gotten out of hand a lot of rude and disgusting comments were made on both sides which hide the glory of God and I hope that 'Love of Jesus Christ' if you come here again I would love to talk to you about any questions left unanswered please email me I will give you answers that you are searching for Edward.lee520@yahoo. Our Members are very emotional and protective of their faith so a lot of the derogatory remarks made by some people who just from their way of speaking totally show that they are not true christians! So our members may have been upset and have said somethings that shouldn't be said or started arguments that need not be started! For our members, in one of the sermons it was said that once another brother was spoken to harshly about our heavenly Mother and heard derrogetory comments about Her! but when he told this to Mother she said "You still are young in faith is it not written that just as Jesus must be persecuted, hit, spit on and mocked so to we to must be persecuted" Mother teaches us to accept the comments about her for it must be, we should not stoop to their level and retaliate. But retaliate with understanding and love for souls who do not understand. When Jesus was about to be taken away by the soldier Apostle John pulled out his sword to stop them and struck the ear of another guard, did Jesus praise him for standing up for Him? NO! He rebuked him and said to put away the sword. That is not what Mother wants from us.. She will be prouder of us if we were to show love and compassion to our attackers! but the thing is you guys are wondering why we don't devulge information to just anyone.. did Jesus devulge information to just anyone? He said to his deciples I speak in parables because the secrets of heaven are only for you not them. If you were to stop slandering and just ask with a willingness to understand and truely learn then we would be glad to tell you anything and everything.. but if you go around and start using vulgar language and have only a willingness to destroy what is precious to us we don't feel the need or the want to tell you anything! Well members of Church of God I do praise you for your preserverance and your zest for the gospel! And I do hope that you bear much fruit for the glory of G0d!

Oh sorry my mistake it was Apostle Peter who took out the sword and struck the soldiers ear!! SORRY for the mix up but I think everyone understands the point^^

Ed,

Here's the problem, It's not destroying anything, precious by debunking the notion that little old lady who lives a shoe (or rather a multimillion dollar complex) and claims to be God is not really God. The testimony of the members of the WMSCoG have clearly communicated through their experiences and understanding of her that she is nothing more than a con artist who with the help of Joo Cheol Kim, have hijacked the off shoot of the SDA church Pastored by Ahnsahnghong. I truly do love my neighbors which is why I am eager to help them realize they are involved with a destructive cult. You've heard the saying..."If walks like a duck, talks like a duck, and looks like a duck...it must be a duck."

There is a lot of fruit being produced by this church/organization...unfortunately most of it is rotten.

I would encourage you guys to come over to the the <http://ahnsahnghong.biz/forum> site and lets give Jamie back the site.

TO ALL IN CHRIST,

By: Love of Jesus Christ on July 26, 2008

Yes, one more thing I want you all to know that these COG people deny the cross but see what the Word of God in : Corinthians 1 : 18 has to say :

at 7:17 pm

Reply

"For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God."

Please the new members of COG (the youngsters) you are our brothers & Sisters just as we are digging to check for Truth you must first check the Bible wholly not just what has been partly thought or tattered to you But also that there is NO OTHER NAME BUT JESUS.

HOW CAN YOU JUST GO INTO SOME HANDS OF A STRANGER. AND ALSO HAVE THE GUDS TO LEAD OTHER INNOCENT PEOPLE BLINDLY NTO IT.

I was without NO peace for a month when I was trying to find, if I was going to follow the right person.

But was shocked to know many hidden things. And I had to ask Jesus, to forgive me for being baptized unknowingly in a strange name which was not been mentioned to me ever during the teachings from the COG members.

BECOZ HE WAS ONE SACRIFICE OFFERED FOR OUR SINS FOREVERR.

HE IS THE KING OF KING & LORD OF LORDS.

PEACE BE UPON YOU.

Praise God !

& COG NEW members, please do not trust the COG. They say Ahnsanghong & his family is God. Its false.

Reply

I would request you to please read the book " The Torn Veil" by Gulshan Esther.
A true story of a crippled- muslim girl imprisoned by her religion,
Who did everything possible to get healed from Allha & Mohamed the Prophet,
But did not receive any healing or reply.
She went in search for the true God & found the name of Jesus the son of Mary in her Holy Quran.
She thirsted to search for Him to heal her.
Jesus appeared to her & healed her & told her "Go & testify about Me to MY people.

With so many opposing her, This Muslim girl is now speaking about her faith & spreading her testimony of JESUS.

A very beautiful testimony about all that she saw & all that Jesus himself spoke to her.

Please please read this true testimony dear COG youngsters. (Evangelical Literature Service)

Coz this is proof that JESUS CHRIST IS LORD & not Ahnsanghong or his family.

Please note this is a recent testimony, So Jesus is still operating and not Mr. Ahnsanghong.

Please dear COG youngsters don't get flooded with the half truth of COGWM Coz Jesus is the TRUE GOD.

Revelation Chapter 1 : 8, Jesus said – I AM the Alpha & the Omega, the beginning and the end.

Revelation Chapter 1 : 18 – I am the one who lives, and was dead and BEHOLD I am alive forever more Amen. I alone have the keys of Hades and of Death.

And COG please read Revelations Chapter 5 : 9 for you were slain, and have redeemed us to God by your blood Listen people, Jesus was slain for us, & NOT Ahnsanghong Please open your bibles and read more than to just get stuck to COG's false predictions.

I am worried coz I was following it & am out now, But my friends who never use to read the Bible are still blindly stuck coz everything sounded so new for them that they had to believe.

Stop trapping innocent people COG please.

Isaiah 42 :8 God says "I WILL NOT SHAR MY GLORY WITH OTHER"

Please know that JESUS IS GOD & NOT ahnsanghong or his family.

Revelation Chapter 7 verse 10 says : Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne & to the Lamb. (That is Jesus.)

The word of God does not mention anywhere that salvation belong to Ahnsanghong the other 2 member of his family.

Please come out of this trap & ask forgiveness & RETURN TO JESUS.

Peace be upon you all.

We as Christians should pray for the COG members so they may know the truth & come back to Jesus.

Jeus, we still love you.

Dear Ed, (looks like you are a COG Member)

You wish to answer all my questions & doubt ? OK. May God bless you ?

Reply

I have been asking questions on this blog since the 11th July 2008, you just have to get on to my previous mails & prepare to reply me in line, on this blog itself.

Since then I havent received any proper reply from you members of COG. Some one come & disappears others just state one line "YOU WILL NOT UNDERSTAND, YOU WILL NOT UNDERSTAND".

My brother if you have understood then why want we, the word of God is open to all, then why not save all. Right. But you are trying in vain, COZ YOU JUST HAVE THE FALSE TRUTH WITH YOU.

In line to all my questions in my above mail, I would request to ALSO reply me my 2 main doubts : Have you read Ahnsanghong predictions in his early book :

Ahnsanghong mentioned in his book - "The Mystery of God and the Spring of the Water of Life", in chapter 12 he writes: about the second coming of Christ on 1967 or 1988.

Despite his death three years before his prediction of Jesus' return."

How can someone predict that someone is coming and be that person?

1988 – Where is the second coming ? why didnt he fulfill his word itself???

What do the church leaders say about his first two prophecies in 1967 and 1988.

And moreover he has also mentioned in his book - "But only "Jesus" can be the Savior's name, not only at his first coming, but even in the last days".

What do you have to say about this ?

He did not proclaim he was a god while he was alive! He wrote books in his books – "beleive in Jesus" & that Jesus would be the second coming christ, not himself.

Then why are you forcing him to be God, Jesus had declared with his own mouth that he was the son of God but Ahnsanghong dint.....

Then why are you guys not understanding & following Ahnsanghong instructions ?

Come out of it Ed !!!!!

You say He is God.... But then he himself is mentioning some thing about the 2nd coming of Jesus & is asking us to believe in Jesus & be like Jesus.

What more shud we understand?

Don't you get the clear picture.....All that's happened is that some one is playing with his predictions & making use of his name after his death.

If you say he is your God then why an't you believing his own words, Ed ?

Can you ask your MJ to give you the copies of his books, and read it your self & find the truth?

Listen ITS JESUS & no one else.

Bible say "Salvation belongs to HIM who sits on the throne & to the LAMB" that is God Jehova & JESUS alone.

Listen Jesus is the Bridgroom & we make his bride, by keeping our self pure & spotless. JESUS is Immanuel (GOD WITH US)

Besides you speak about Zion :

Listen Pslams 125 says : Those who trust in the Lord are like Mount Zion which cannot be moved but abides forever.

You speak about the feast of slaying the Lamb :

JESUS THE SON OF GOD IS THE LAMB THAT WAS SLAIN FOR US WE DO NOT NEED TO OFFER OTHER LAMBS ON EARTH TO PLEASE GOD.... BECOZ HE WAS ONE SACRIFICE OFFERED FOR OUR SINS FOREVERR.

Revelations Chapter 5 : 9 for you were slain, and have redeemed us to God by your blood

Ed,
Can you reply me clearly, all my mails And the above questions too?

Everytime a new Cog member comes & speaks everything else leaving the questions requested ?

Please don't explain the local robot words? Please speak to the points.

& RETURN BACK TO JESUS. HE IS WAITING FOR YOU.

i noticed the last post was answered. i wonder why? i'm goin to a study w. my friend tonight and i will ask them about the prophesies. i wonder what they will say??

I was in this cult.I felt like I was going to have a heart attack.You have flashes of terrible spirits trying to get you.I would often have nightmares.(they teach that anyone outside of their cult is the devil or under his spells and tricks,and they aren't saved)But God says himself all through the bible that he wants everyone to come to repentence.Its like scientology.They don't tell you certain stuff til you get to the next level.Than I found fault with many things.Like how they try to justify their own sick actions.They told me to cut off my family and divorce my husband.Than I could be free to marry within the church.Because they are they only ones saved.Our deaconess called off her marriage to her fiance of 6 yrs and then married a member.My husband has never been unfaithful,abusive or anything-so to separate this union God made one,no man can do.God even says that in the bible.They didn't like when I showed them that.In fact they had my friend not speak to me,and they had her change her phone number so we could no longer speak.Passover is true, as well as sabbath.Thats how they grab you.They are like no one has this.but the bible also says to worship in spirit AND truth.The guy they call the holy spirit claimed the second coming christ would come in 1985.Which would make the baptism for him in 2015.Because Jesus was baptized at 30 and he had to follow the order of malchezedek which according to their study Jesus failed to serve.(he died 3 yrs. later to fulfill his own prophecy of his death.)They were really mad I found out about the guy they claim to be their father making that prediction.So to worship that woman would not be in truth.I'll pray to my father and keep my salvation.God allowed me to see the red flags almost too late.

First of all, I haven't read through all of these responses, but I did read about halfway through and this is directed at Ryan.

By: Catherine on October 2, 2008 at 1:19 am

Ryan, why is Christ's return in the form of a Korean? Jesus came in the form of a Galilean, a Jew from the "bottom rung of society". Since Jesus' death, God's plan included Gentiles as well, but his chosen people has always been Israel. So, why is He now switching to Koreans?

Reply

Another issue I have is that you keep saying that the Bible HAS to mean this and it HAS to mean that. I'm sorry, are you God, the author of the Bible? No matter what you think, I can answer that question for you. The answer is no. You are human just like me and the Bible is open to each human's interpretation, thus why we have different denominations. You're simply interpreting the Bible the way you see it and understand it.

Also, I noticed you said this:

"Wow, you people just do not get it. It is like talking to a wall.

But what shall I expect talking to people who do not belong to God. Their are children of light and children of dark.

Children of God and children of Satan. Read the Bible.

Your babble speak and convoluted logic is more than I can bare.

But it's all good because YOU ARE GOD!
I feel sorry for you fools."

Besides this little rant sounding absolutely psychotic (and I'm talking medically speaking), you keep accusing people of not reading their Bible, but they're quoting scripture in their responses to you. Where do you think they got those verses if not from the Bible? This makes it sound as if logic elludes you, which only gives strength to my (and apparently other people's) opinion that you are simply brainwashed and, despite what you claim, are not thinking and interpreting for yourself.

My main issue is something that I just found out. How many of your "teachers" take it upon themselves to regularly rape young girls? I personally know of a 4 year old little girl who was raped under the care of her father who gave her to this "teacher". Is this a part of your religion or is this just a single case of a pedophile masquerading as a church leader? I'm sincerely hoping it's the latter.

Oh, and I don't know about anyone else on this board but yeah, I do have a problem with you and anyone else like you who has your "the world owes me" attitude. And it's not as simple as the fact that you are a reverse racist.

53. The gospels say that two thieves were crucified along with Jesus. Did both thieves mock Jesus?

Yes (Mark 15:32)
No. One of them mocked Jesus, the other defended Jesus (Luke 23:43) 54. Did Jesus ascend to Paradise the same day of the crucifixion?

Yes. He said to the thief who defended him, Today you will be with me in Paradise (Luke 23:43)

No. He said to Mary Magdelene two days later, I have not yet ascended to the Father (John 20:17)

55. When Paul was on the road to Damascus he saw a light and heard a voice. Did those who were with him hear the voice?

Yes (Acts9: 7)

No (Acts22: 9)

56. When Paul saw the light he fell to the ground. Did his traveling companions also fall to the ground?

Yes (Acts 26: 14)

No (Acts 9:7)

57. Did the voice spell out on the spot what Pauls duties were to be?

Yes (Acts 26:16-1

No. The voice commanded Paul to go into the city of Damascus and there he will be told what he must do. (Acts9: 7;22: 10)

58. When the Israelites dwelt in Shittin they committed adultery with the daughters of Moab. God struck them with a plague. How many people died in that plague?

Twenty-four thousand (Numbers 25:1 and 9)

Twenty-three thousand (I Corinthians 10:

59. How many members of the house of Jacob came to Egypt?

Seventy souls (Genesis 4 & 27)

Seventy-five souls (Acts 7:14)

60. What did Judas do with the blood money he received for betraying Jesus?

He bought a field (Acts 1: 1

He threw all of it into the temple and went away. The priests could not put the blood money into the temple treasury, so they used it to buy a field to bury strangers (Matthew 27:5)

61. How did Judas die?

After he threw the money into the temple he went away and hanged himself (Matthew 27:5)

After he bought the field with the price of his evil deed he fell headlong and burst open in the middle and all his bowels gushed out (Acts 1:1

62. Why is the field called Field of Blood?

Because the priests bought it with the blood money (Matthew 27:

Because of the bloody death of Judas therein (Acts 1:19)

63. Who is a ransom for whom?

The Son of Man came...to give his life as a ransom for many (Mark 10:45). Christ Jesus who gave himself as a ransom for all... (I Timothy 2:5-6)

The wicked is a ransom for the righteous, and the faithless for the upright (Proverbs 21:1

64. Is the law of Moses useful?

Yes. All scripture is... profitable... (2 Timothy 3:16)

No. . . . A former commandment is set aside because of its weakness and uselessness... (Hebrews 7:1)

65. What was the exact wording on the cross?

This is Jesus the King of the Jews (Matthew 27:37)

The King of the Jews (Mark 15:26)

This is the King of the Jews (Luke 23:3)

Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews (John 19:19)

66. Did Herod want to kill John the Baptist?

Yes (Matthew 14:5)

No. It was Herodias, the wife of Herod who wanted to kill him. But Herod knew that he was a righteous man and kept him safe (Mark 6:20)

67. Who was the tenth disciple of Jesus in the list of twelve?

Thaddaeus (Matthew 10: 1-4; Mark 3:13 -19)

Judas son of James is the corresponding name in Lukes gospel (Luke 6:12-16)

68. Jesus saw a man sit at the tax collectors office and called him to be his disciple. What was his name?

Matthew (Matthew 9:9)

Levi (Mark 2:14; Luke 5:27)

69. Was Jesus crucified on the daytime before the Passover meal or the daytime after?

After (Mark 14:12-17)

Before. Before the feast of the Passover (John 1) Judas went out at night (John 13:30). The other disciples thought he was going out to buy supplies to prepare for the Passover meal (John 13:29). When Jesus was arrested, the Jews did not enter Pilates judgment hall because they wanted to stay clean to eat the Passover (John 18:2. When the judgment was pronounced against Jesus, it was about the sixth hour on the day of Preparation for the Passover (John 19:14)

70. Did Jesus pray to The Father to prevent the crucifixion?

Yes. (Matthew 26:39; Mark 14:36; Luke 22:42)

No. (John 12:27)

71. In the gospels which say that Jesus prayed to avoid the cross, how many times did he move away from his disciples to pray?

Three (Matthew 26:36-46 and Mark 14:32-42)

One. No opening is left for another two times. (Luke 22:39-46)

72. Matthew and Mark agree that Jesus went away and prayed three times. What were the words of the second prayer?

Mark does not give the words but he says that the words were the same as the first prayer (Mark 14:3 9)

Matthew gives us the words, and we can see that they are not the same as in the first (Matthew 26:42)

73. What did the centurion say when Jesus dies?

Certainly this man was innocent (Luke 23:47)
Truly this man was the Son of God (Mark 15:39)
74. When Jesus said My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken Me ? in what language did he speak?

Hebrew: the words are Eloi, Eloi ..(Matthew 27:46)
Aramaic: the words are Eloi, Eloi .. (Mark 15:34)
75. According to the gospels, what were the last words of Jesus before he died?

Father, into thy hands I commit my spirit! (Luke 23:46)
"It is finished" (John 19:30)
76. When Jesus entered Capernaum he healed the slave of a centurion. Did the centurion come personally to request Jesus for this?

Yes (Matthew 8:5)
No. He sent some elders of the Jews and his friends (Luke 7:3,6) 77.

Adam was told that if and when he eats the forbidden fruit he would die the same day (Genesis 2:17)
Adam ate the fruit and went on to live to a ripe old age of 930 years (Genesis 5:5) 78.

God decided that the life-span of humans will be limited to 120 years (Genesis 6:3)
Many people born after that lived longer than 120.
Arpachshad lived 438 years. His son Shelah lived 433 years. His son Eber lived 464 years, etc. (Genesis 11:12-16)
79. Apart from Jesus did anyone else ascend to heaven?

No (John 3:13)
Yes. And Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven (2 Kings 2:11)
80. Who was high priest when David went into the house of God and ate the consecrated bread?

Abiathar (Mark 2:26)
Ahimelech, the father of Abiathar (I Samuel 1:1; 22:20)
81. Was Jesus body wrapped in spices before burial in accordance with Jewish burial customs?

Yes and his female disciples witnessed his burial (John 19:39-40)
No. Jesus was simply wrapped in a linen shroud. Then the women bought and prepared spices so that they may go and anoint him [Jesus] (Mark 16: 1)
82. When did the women buy the spices?

After the Sabbath was past (Mark 16:1)
Before the Sabbath. The women prepared spices and ointments. Then, on the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment (Luke 23:55 to 24:1)
83. At what time of day did the women visit the tomb?

Toward the dawn (Matthew 28: 1)
When the sun had risen (Mark 16:2)
84. What was the purpose for which the women went to the tomb?

To anoint Jesus body with spices (Mark 16: 1; Luke 23:55 to 24: 1)

To see the tomb. Nothing about spices here (Matthew 28: 1)

For no specified reason. In this gospel the wrapping with spices had been done before the Sabbath (John 20: 1) 85. A large stone was placed at the entrance of the tomb. Where was the stone when the women arrived?

They saw that the stone was Rolled back (Mark 16:4) They found the stone rolled away from the tomb (Luke 24:2) They saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb (John 20:1)

As the women approached, an angel descended from heaven, rolled away the stone, and conversed with the women. Matthew made the women witness the spectacular rolling away of the stone (Matthew 28:1-6) 86. Did anyone tell the women what happened to Jesus body?

Yes. A young man in a white robe (Mark 16:5). Two men ... in dazzling apparel later described as angels (Luke 24:4 and 24:23). An angel – the one who rolled back the stone (Matthew 16:2). In each case the women were told that Jesus had risen from the dead (Matthew 28:7; Mark 16:6; Luke 24:5 footnote)

No. Mary met no one and returned saying, They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him (John 20:2)

87. When did Mary Magdelene first meet the resurrected Jesus? And how did she react?

Mary and the other women met Jesus on their way back from their first and only visit to the tomb. They took hold of his feet and worshipped him (Matthew 28:9)

On her second visit to the tomb Mary met Jesus just outside the tomb. When she saw Jesus she did not recognize him. She mistook him for the gardener. She still thinks that Jesus body is laid to rest somewhere and she demands to know where. But when Jesus said her name she at once recognized him and called him Teacher. Jesus said to her, Do not hold me... (John 20:11 to 17)

88. What was Jesus instruction for his disciples?

Tell my brethren to go to Galilee, and there they will see me (Matthew 28: 10)

Go to my brethren and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God (John 20:17)

89. When did the disciples return to Galilee?

Immediately, because when they saw Jesus in Galilee some doubted (Matthew 28:17). This period of uncertainty should not persist

After at least 40 days. That evening the disciples were still in Jerusalem (Luke 24:33). Jesus appeared to them there and told them, stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high (Luke 24:49). He was appearing to them during forty days (Acts 1:3), and charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise ... (Acts 1:4)

90. To whom did the Midianites sell Joseph?

To the Ishmaelites (Genesis 37:2)

To Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh (Genesis 37:36)

91. Who brought Joseph to Egypt?

The Ishmaelites bought Joseph and then took Joseph to Egypt (Genesis 37:2)

The Midianites had sold him in Egypt (Genesis 37:36)

Joseph said to his brothers I am your brother, Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt (Genesis 45:4)

92. Does God change his mind?

Yes. The word of the Lord came to Samuel: I repent that I have made Saul King... (I Samuel 15:10 to 11)

No. God will not lie or repent; for he is not a man, that he should repent (I Samuel 15:29)

Yes. And the Lord repented that he had made Saul King over Israel (I Samuel 15:35). Notice that the above three quotes are all from the same chapter of the same book! In addition, the Bible shows that God repented on several other occasions:

i. The Lord was sorry that he made man (Genesis 6:6)

I am sorry that I have made them (Genesis 6:7)

ii. And the Lord repented of the evil which he thought to do to his people (Exodus 32:14).

iii. (Lots of other such references).

93. The Bible says that for each miracle Moses and Aaron demonstrated the magicians did the same by their secret arts. Then comes the following feat:

Moses and Aaron converted all the available water into blood (Exodus 7:20-21)

The magicians did the same (Exodus 7:22). This is impossible, since there would have been no water left to convert into blood.

94. Who killed Goliath?

David (I Samuel 17:23, 50)

Elhanan (2 Samuel 21:19)

95. Who killed Saul?

Saul took his own sword and fell upon it.... Thus Saul died... (I Samuel 31:4-6)

An Amalekite slew him (2 Samuel 1:1- 16)

96. Does every man sin?

Yes. There is no man who does not sin (I Kings 8:46; see also 2 Chronicles 6:36; Proverbs 20:9; Ecclesiastes 7:20; and I John 1:810)

No. True Christians cannot possibly sin, because they are the children of God. Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God.. (I John 5:1). We should be called children of God; and so we are (I John 3: 1). He who loves is born of God (I John 4:7). No one born of God commits sin; for Gods nature abides in him, and he cannot sin because he is born of God (I John 3:9). But, then again, Yes! If we say we have no sin we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us (I John 1: 97. Who will bear whose burden?

Bear one anothers burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ (Galatians 6:2)
Each man will have to bear his own load (Galatians 6:5)
98. How many disciples did Jesus appear to after his resurrection?

Twelve (I Corinthians 15:5)
Eleven (Matthew 27:3-5 and Acts 1:9-26, see also Matthew 28:16; Mark 16:14 footnote; Luke 24:9; Luke 24:3 3)
99. Where was Jesus three days after his baptism?

After his baptism, the spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness. And he was in the wilderness forty days ... (Mark 1:12-13)
Next day after the baptism, Jesus selected two disciples.
Second day: Jesus went to Galilee – two more disciples.
Third day: Jesus was at a wedding feast in Cana in Galilee (see John 1:35; 1:43; 2:1-11)
100. Was baby Jesus life threatened in Jerusalem?

Yes, so Joseph fled with him to Egypt and stayed there until Herod died (Matthew 2:13 23)

No. The family fled nowhere. They calmly presented the child at the Jerusalem temple according to the Jewish customs and returned to Galilee (Luke 2:21-40)

101. When Jesus walked on water how did the disciples respond?

They worshipped him, saying, Truly you are the Son of God (Matthew 14:33)
They were utterly astounded, for they did not understand about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened (Mark 6:51-52)

A- You said you were in this cult?? Can you please tell me how you got out? My friend is in this, she got baptized at the end of August, so its still fairly new, but we want to get her out ASAP!

I hope to hear back from you soon!
Any advice you can give me to help me friend get out would be great appreciated!

Kay-I listened to my body.Like I said,I felt like I was going to have a heart attack.And once in the cult you don't do anything.I wasn't smoking cigarettes or anything.Someone with the government went 3 times and kept from me the findings until I had made my own decision to leave.I kept finding fault with their reasoning.Yes I had about 100 lessons.They kept "rebuking" me.It will be difficult for her to leave and luckily I'm really smart.They tell you to forget all of your thinking, but they also justify it by saying God gave us our minds for a reason.They have an excuse for every action they make.your only to watch movies at the place.And the music you listen to has to be their cds from Korea.Like I said above too,they asked me to cut off my family and my husband.I found over 100 explanations in the Bible not to do this.I have dreams of God often.I have physically and scientifically died 3 times in accidents.So at first I thought this was why I lived-to find this.The narrow gate isn't with the church of God since I believe to follow the true one God(Elohim or not) this church is not it..I prayed that God keep me on his path and I'm to enter heaven at the end of my path.I learned to see things more spiritually though from all of this.A client of mine told me about the epedemic of cults.I thought no way would I ever be part of one.I thought I'd know.But this organization is huge.They pride their selves on manipulation.I believe in Passover.I don't believe in praying everyday for the disaster to start.(they pray EVERYDAY for the end of the world!)And we were supposed to be happy about it!My girlfriend is now insane.I pray if she gets out she doesn't slit her wrists.

Ask your friend why the guy they call Christ predicted second coming christ in 1985(which according to their study would make baptism at 30 yrs.2015)But they claim the end of the world in 2011-2012 latest.EVERY decade has an end of the world date.Bible says NO ONE knows that day or hour.So anything else is speculation.But according to their teachings their are only 7 days (1000 yrs make up each day.and we are supposed to be in the 6th)Certain things are true.The corruption of the catholic church,christmas really is fake and its awful(the pope wears a hat inscribed with 666)all kinds of truths/Like I said thats how they grab you.God is in our heart.And he says to follow it.I did and saved my soul.I'll celebrate passover,pray continually with the lace(in corinthians it says to for woman-thats why jewish faith today is also twisted)the point is also that the things they teach wouldn't make sense if each didn't have their own faith.Gods plan is so huge.I believe its wrong for men,mere men to try to explain it.God also says not to judge anyone-YET THAT CULT JUDGES EVERYONE WHO DOES NOT BELIEVE.Bible says its sin for someone to know something and not do it.So for me not to sin I can't go against my heart.Because in my heart is God. Pray for your friend.They may also tell her the internet is the devil and for her not to listen to it.But I have dozens of friends that have to use this tool which God gave us, because God is over everything INCLUDING the devil,for online classes to graduate college.So is their education the devil too?Our deaconess was told school was most important so stay in it.You can't justify your own sick actions for someone elses sanity.I found it sick to knowingly allow others into the same trap.I'll preach the Bible and truths.This enviroment is toxic if you stay.Manipulation is toxic.

Clark, I thought I'd also post it here to make sure you get it. I'm just defending the existence of our God made known through Jesus Christ my personal savior.

A- Thanks for replying back to me. The more I read, the more scared I get for my friend. I don't want to lose her even more to the cult, so I don't bring it up anymore because whenever I did, we just fought about it. I know that now all I can do is pray that God opens her eyes and has mercy on her. Thank you!

Kay-I get really scared for the people in it too.Especially the children.Its not her fault you two argue,they have a reason to explain everything they have.I knew someone who went often but wouldn't get baptized.He was looking out for me.But when they know others are just there to watch,they put on a front and won't tell everything.Its like if you have a party but your parents are upstairs.And your playing a kissing game.Well if the parents come down you might pretend you were doing nothing wrong.The FBI already knows about this.Let them deal with it.Pray and believe in your prayers.Thats one of the best tips I can help you with.Ask her why you can't purchase the cd's.Or the books.Or why the isbn#'s are fake.If something was so right and it was not only good in gods eyes it would also be legal.Like in the old testament they married more than one person.But today its illegal-you wouldn't do that.So its also to sell books w/o ISBN #'s.Infact its also false advertising.There are many,MANY other things wrong with this church.I'll pray for you both and any other people who are passive and easily taken advantage of.(There was a lot of woman who had been in abusive relationships,or people who are searching for truth and honesty-so it would seem that this was what your looking for.)

A true, good Christian church would not turn away new people any weekend with a thirst for the word of God. It would not close its doors to the poor, the homeless and the old. What times Elijah does the American cog have its services?

What was last weekend's sermon on?

Martin Luther King talked of the truth winning out in the end, the cog in the end cannot hide the truth, the cog is just making things worse by hacking websites. The key facts are easily re-typed.

How is it prejudice if its truth?And aren't you all about the "truth"?I was in the church.It is fake.Sorry for you but the narrow gate is not with that church.You too are easily mislead into Mans traditions!!!!

I was (am) member of cog for 4 months, I was searching for the truth and studying the bible for a long time. One day they (preachers of cog) came at my door and were preaching the so called truth of god. They told me about our Mother God, sabbatsday and passover. I was really glad to be able to share the bible writings with other persons. I was always alone and didnt know how to interpretate the bible correctly. after 2 hours I decided to get baptized and in 15 minutes a man arrived to baptize me. He baptized me and in this ceremony he called the name of ahn sang hong nim. When I heard this name I felt a little bit uncomfortable. After this (2 days later) I went to Zion (so called church of God) and in all the songs we had to call his name ASH, or they were singing about mother god. While I was singing I felt a bit of a cold and was shaking. I felt really sad. Normally I was reading the Bible at my one and heart about JHV and Jesus Christ but these names were really new for me. I went to church for 5 or 6 weeks and my family and friends said I was changed. I lost my spontaniousity and sense of humour. After a while there was an examination of the bible study and I had the highest score and they gave me a present. I could buy some books for a price of ten euro's (books written by ash). I felt really great! I was recognizing the truth! But every time I went to church I had strange feeling something wasn't correct. I'd never like the name Ahn Sang Hong. Really... I was scared when I was pronouncing this name... I felt really bad. My heart didn't allow me to worship this name.

After a while I decided to leave the COG. But I still have some mixed feelings. They had some good points I was standing for... keeping Sabbath day like Jesus... keeping God's Feasts, who forbid us? who changed these rules? Constantine? Why shouldn't we do this anymore. Why go to Church on Sunday? Is this allowed? Can we still get God's blessings? COG members avoid a lot of simple questions like: what was the origin of Mother God, who were her parents, did she have children, did she have a relationship with Ahn Sang Hong etc. But my question is, why did we change some of God's rules. Perhaps because we are not slaves of the law anymore. I don't know. Please help me out with these questions. It seems many Christians can't also answer this question.

Hope you can help me...

anything that tries to take your eyes off The Lord Jesus Christ is of the enemy.

When something does not feel right is the Holy Spirit speaking to us.

There is so much you are learning right now. Take one step at a time. Follow Jesus, Pray, be at peace, he will direct your path's.

You have a personal Relationship with the Lord. Read the word for yourself. Don't let man's interpretations get in the way. He will meet you where you are. Walking with the Lord is a process. Please don't fall into legalism for we are not perfect. If someone gives you a scripture and tries to justify their opinion and not sure that is the truth. Please study the word on your own. Read the entire story. Context is everything and many false prophets take the word of God out of context. Even Satan uses the word of God out of context. example Matthew 4:6 said unto Him, "If Thou be the Son of God, cast Thyself down. For it is written: `He shall give His angels charge concerning thee; and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.'" Also be reminded that our struggle is not against flesh and blood.

Ephesians 6:12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Romans 8:35-39:

35Who shall ever separate us from Christ's love? Shall suffering and affliction and tribulation? Or calamity and distress? Or persecution or hunger or destitution or peril or sword?

36Even as it is written, For Thy sake we are put to death all the day long; we are regarded and counted as sheep for the slaughter.(A) 37Yet amid all these things we are more than conquerors [a]and gain a surpassing victory through Him Who loved us. 38For I am persuaded beyond doubt (am sure) that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities, nor things [b]impending and threatening nor things to come, nor powers, 39Nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 5:1 Therefore, being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ

Focus on Christ

I put m hope in your unfailing love, and I know your eyes are upon me. Psalm 33:18

I know that God gives me hope and will keep me happy and full of peace. Romans 15:13

He directs my path when I seek him. Proverbs 3:5-6

I am free from condemnation. Romans 8:1-2

My faith will be amongst those that he finds when The Son of Man returns. Luke 18:8

I am redeemed and forgiven of all my sins! Colossians 1:14

I TRUST IN THE LORD WITH ALL MY HEART, NOT LEANING ON MY OWN UNDERSTANDING.Proverbs 3:5

The last scripture i want to give you please guard with all your heart! Please

John 14:6 Jesus said to him, I am the Way and the Truth and the Life; no one comes to the Father except by (through) Me.

There is no other way to God but through Jesus Christ Love You Lost Sheep

Hi all, i've been following (almost like an obsession) forums and other related sites that have info about CoG.

By: ben on November 12, 2008 at 2:41 pm

I can easily say that this group is a cult, considering all its practices, its means of doing things and how i have family members (my aunt and two cuzns) have been sucked into it so deeply (i think about 4 yrs now) to the point of not even seeing one of my cuzns in about 3 yrs.

Reply

I am in the Philippines and there are many Koreans here. Apparently, a lot of them are from other cults who were sent here to "preach" their gospels. Strange enough, most of CoGs teaching are very similar to teaching from other Cults in Korea (try comparing CoG with this church: <http://sajc.or.kr/eng/>).

My aunt, during her first year, tried to get us to believe their doctrines. With the help of her deacon (or whatever he is, they say pastor bt he didnt even know much except for wat was on the script that he had) they tried to convince us of their teachings. Being raised in a Christian family (non-denominational, but some would call us Born-Again, although my family isn't perfect, i can admit that), i have grown up and moved from church to church (all of the same faith), gathering as much knowledge i could about God and Jesus and everything that he promised for my life. So I (even my family, but im the most assertive member :p) was very equipped to counter their claims.

They gave up preaching to us (my direct family, and other extended Christian family members) for about 3 or 4 yrs (which was just a few weeks ago). My auntie came back with her pastor to preach exactly the same things in hope that we would be a little more open this time. The funny thing is, they go around and around and around and around.... for hours on end, teaching about a CLOUD and PASSOVER and SABBATH. Its just ridiculous how people can be so easily deceived by the devil. When we ask them who the Second Coming is, they just smile and ask us to go to their church to find out. Now i don't know about you, but that's just silly. In our Bible studies, when a new comer comes forth and asks questions, we answer all that we can, not hiding anything and say "Come to church to find out". The point is to win their soul for God, not to keep them in suspense just to find out that a dead Korean guy is Jesus & the Holy spirit at the same time, a deaf Korean Woman being the Holy Spirit and Mother "God" too. Its just silly.

The main thing i noticed from all the research i did (ive been researching because my aunt and her pastor keep appearing to preach at our home), it seems that this church is very destructive. They preach about the end being near, rather than living in love. We all know the world will end, and it might be soon. But why do we have to be so concentrated on the END when we can concentrate on living NOW? I don't think the Bible gives us these warnings of the end to scare us and make us focus on it (I could be wrong), but the point of the END being there is to allow us to see that Living in LOVE, no matter when the end is, will give us the satisfaction in life that God intended. Does anyone think God put us on earth, just to anticipate death or the end? That would be so sad.

"From early times the prophets who preceded you and me have prophesied war, disaster and plague against many countries and great kingdoms. But the prophet who prophesies peace will be recognized as one truly sent by the LORD only if his prediction comes true." (Jeremiah 28:8-9)

Does CoG preach peace? Or destruction? Looks to me that it's the latter.

Also, why is everything a secret or a mystery? They always say that if you believe (in Ahnsahnghong), that things that were hidden in the bible will be revealed. I don't know about you, but I am very sure that Jesus already came to reveal whatever was needed to be revealed. Everything else that God keeps from us (immortality, man levitating, etc. jst a little tease), will always be kept from us and God will not reveal it.

Deu 29:29 "The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

Definitely, there a lot inconsistencies in their teachings; none of which are solidly backed up with proof. Even though they say its from the Bible, they twist the passages to fit their claims. Everything that "outsiders" say are opinions of man. I say, that's true, but so are their theories about Constantine abolishing Sabbath and Passover, and the Catholic Church being the Beast, etc. All are opinions or thoughts of men. If they believe that only the Bible is fact, and no other historic material is credible, then why use the theories i mentioned above? Talk about inconsistencies.

In regard to their "parables" and "symbols", such as the cloud and mother jerusalem, i have a problem with their interpretations too. Not just because they completely made something out of nothing, but also because they choose which parts are symbols and which parts are not. For example, their "New Name" theory. They consider the white stone, the clouds and everything else there are a symbol, yet the "New Name" is literal? I don't get it. If the passage is a parable then the whole thing is meant to use symbols for all aspects.

Also, what is a parable?

1. A parable is a short story (usually being indicated with a title in the Bible) and 2. made up of several parts.

A parable is one of the simplest of narratives. It sketches a setting, describes an action, and shows the results. It often involves a character facing a moral dilemma, or making a questionable decision and then suffering the consequences.

There are a lot of different arguments on the blogs and forums that i've been reading. I could care less about the other topics (non-CoG topics) because my mission is to know more about CoG and how to break down the clutches of Satan on God's people. CoG worshipping a different "Christ" is just the devil distracting us from WHO REALLY MATTERED/MATTERS/WILL ALWAYS MATTER – JESUS CHRIST! THE ONLY WAY TO SALVATION!

I end with this prayer..

Heavenly Father,

May your Wisdom and Knowledge be upon Your children to counter the enemy's works. I ask that all who continue in the Name of Jesus Christ, be given the strength to stand firm in order to break the bondage of sin and to trample on the devil under our feet. Allow each and every person here, to have discernment, so that we cannot be easily fooled. For it is written in Psalm 119:125 "I am your servant; give me discernment that I may understand your statutes". For You have given us this gift to think, therefore, no one should take it away.

For Your children that have been fooled by the devil, I ask that You help them see the light. The light, not to blind them, but to lead them to the right path of righteousness. May Your grace and mercy be upon us always.

This I pray, in the Mighty Name of Jesus Christ, my Lord and my Saviour!

Amen.

question to COG-members:

I've read Ahnsahngong's book, "The Mystery of God and the Spring of the Water of Life."

And I was surprised to see that for someone who is supposed to be God, he made mistakes in referencing the Bible. Or was he purposely contradicting or twisting the words of the Bible?

Reply

Here are a few that I found. Are there more—does he do this in his other books too? Or is it that I'm the one making the mistake and there are logical explanations for these? (I don't think so—I've rechecked these several times..., but I'm human and I do make mistakes.) Or perhaps he was making reference to a different Scripture, but then why didn't he say that? Am I expecting too much of someone who is supposed to be God?

1. On page 105 he writes, "Although the people of Judah seemed like they were observing God's laws, they neither realized the Passover, the greatest commandment in the law, nor kept it."

But in Matthew 22:36-38, Jesus says that the greatest commandment is to "love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind." If the Passover was the greatest commandment, why didn't Jesus say so?

2. On page 327, he uses Proverbs 8:22-31 to support the idea of people living as angels in heaven before coming to earth, saying that this passage speaks of Solomon existing before the world began.

But if you read the whole chapter, especially verse 12, it shows that the "I" in this passage is "Wisdom," not Solomon.

3. On page 449, he says in reference to the first Passover, "Even Egyptians who put the lamb's blood on their houses were saved." And he notes a reference to Exodus 12:12-14, 37-38.

Though I'm sure God would have spared them if they did, there's no mention of Egyptians putting the Lamb's blood on their houses anywhere in Exodus 12. Verse 30 even says that no Egyptian house was spared.

4. On page 465, he writes, "Jesus Christ went up to the temple and preached every day during the Feast of Tabernacles, and on the last day of the feast He said:" (followed by a quote from John 7:37-39).

But if you read John chapter 7, verse 14 says, "Not until halfway through the Feast did Jesus go up to the temple courts and begin to teach."

Is there a COG-member who can explain this?

Edited: I have no time for stupid posts like these. Removed.

So many claims have been made against the World Mission Society Church of God, because this organization believes that Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Second Coming Christ, and that Mother Jerusalem is the female image of God. These are facts that can be proven through the Bible.

Today is so easy to believe in the name of Jesus Christ, because is easily found in the New Testament, but most Christians today, the only thing they know about Jesus is the name.

In order to let brothers, sisters, the people who are interested, and the people who slander; understand more about this, I'll take the initiative to make it clear for all. We will go back to the time of the disciples 2000 years ago, when the New Testament didn't exist. The name

Jesus is nowhere to be found in the Old Testament, and the only savior that you know is named Jehovah God. let us see why:

1. Deuteronomy 4:35

You were shown these things so that you might know that the Jehovah is God; besides him there is no other.

2. Deuteronomy 4:39

Acknowledge and take to heart this day that the Jehovah is God in heaven above and on the earth below. There is no other.

3. Isaiah 44:8

Do not tremble, do not be afraid. Did I not proclaim this and foretell it long ago? You are my witnesses. Is there any God besides me? No, there is no other Rock; I know not one."

4. Isaiah 45:22

"Turn to me and be saved, all you ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is no other.

5. Isaiah 46:9

Remember the former things, those of long ago; I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like me.

6. Hosea 13:4

"But I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of Egypt. You shall acknowledge no God but me, no Savior except me.

Now a Jewish carpenter around the age of 30 comes and claims that he is that same Jehovah God(John 10:30). He is single his whole life, he hangs around prostitutes, tax-collectors, fisher men, crippled, he rides around in a donkey, he fixed your door one year ago, you saw him grow, your children played with him, he lived in your town, you know his parents. Would you really believe he is your Messiah, God in the flesh????

Today it sounds ridiculous to think that he is not the Christ, but how about 2000 years ago?

Elijah, I don't understand the point you are trying to make at all. Thanks Ben, you make alot of sense. This group is highly destructive. I've seen my friend go from a top student to a complete zombie under this cog.

Pete, read my post above again. Would you really believe in Jesus to be God if you were living in His time when He was alive? Remember, the New Testament wasn't written yet and you only know the name of Jehovah as the one true God.

Now, let's study the Key beliefs of the Church of God 2000 years ago, through the viewpoint of the Jewish people 2000 years ago. (Keep in mind the New Testament doesn't exist, and the name of Jesus is nowhere to be found in the Old Testament)

1) The Messiah will be born as a man, this man came from Nazareth. We all well know the Messiah needs to come from Bethlehem.

Micah 5:2 "But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though you are small among the clans of Judah, out of you will come for me one who will be ruler over Israel, whose origins are from of old from ancient times."

2) The Messiah will not be seen by every eye when he comes, because he will be born as a man. But according to prophecy every eye will see him when he comes.

Isaiah 40:3-5 a voice of one calling: "In the desert prepare the way for the LORD; make straight in the wilderness a highway for our God. Every valley shall be raised up, every mountain and hill made low; the rough ground shall become level, the rugged places a plain. And the glory of the LORD will be revealed, and all mankind together will see it. For the mouth of the LORD has spoken."

3) The Saviors name now is Jesus. A New name

4) Jesus of Nazareth is the Messiah because he fulfilled several biblical prophecies.

5) King David began to rule over his kingdom at the age of 30, for this reason Jesus of Nazareth is the Messiah because he began his ministry at the age of 30. In this way he sat on David's Throne.

Isaiah 9:6-7 for to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, and Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

6) Jesus is the prophetic Moses because he fled to Egypt when King Herod ordered his execution, just like Moses was sent to Egypt when Pharaoh killed all the Hebrew babies.

Deut 18:15 The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own brothers. You must listen to him.

We all know Moses brought the plagues upon Pharaoh and Egypt. This Jesus of Nazareth did not do anything to free us from the bondage to the Romans.

7) History repeats itself. Just as the Prophets were rejected during their time, so the followers of this Jesus of Nazareth will be rejected and persecuted too.

Jer 20:7-9 O LORD, you deceived me, and I was deceived; you overpowered me and prevailed. I am ridiculed all day long; everyone mocks me. Whenever I speak, I cry out proclaiming violence and destruction. So the word of the LORD has brought me insult and reproach all day long.

As prophesied this Jesus of Nazareth brought the New Covenant therefore he is the Messiah.

Jer 31:31 "The time is coming," declares the LORD, "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

9) Our forefathers traditions are corrupted, and that we only follow rules taught by men rather than Gods commandments

10) The Way to the Father is only through this carpenter Jesus of Nazareth , only he could let us know the will of the Father

11) The Pharisees and the Sadducees the scholars, all they are is a brood of vipers, he called us sons of the evil one.

12) This Jesus of Nazareth claims that in order for us to receive eternal life, we need to eat his flesh and drink his blood.

13) His believers claim that he resurrected from the dead, when we all know that during the night his followers took the body away.

Before we could examine these claims we need to know, who this Jesus of Nazareth is, because today so many come, claiming that they are the Messiah, more now than ever.

Jesus was born to a devout Jewess named Mary and a carpenter named Joseph. It is claimed by his followers that Jesus was conceived by a miracle of the Holy Spirit before the couple had gotten married. His followers also claim that Jesus was born in Bethlehem because the Roman emperor had decreed that all families register for a census in their ancestral hometowns. Some followers do not discuss Jesus' birth; they begin their narratives with Jesus' adulthood. What are they hiding? His followers are virtually silent when it comes to Jesus' early life, but some information can be inferred from references elsewhere. Jesus was from a small town called Nazareth, where he probably trained as a carpenter under his father. And they believe this carpenter to be God.

Jesus spoke Aramaic, a Semitic language related to Hebrew, though it seems he knew enough Greek to converse with Roman officials during his ministry. How

By: Elijah on January 26, 2009 at 10:14 pm can God not speak all the languages, why only Aramaic? His followers offer only one account of this period, in which a 12-year old Jesus wanders off from his parents in Jerusalem to discuss religion in the temple. When his frantic parents finally track him down, Jesus asks, "Didn't you know I would be in my Father's house?"

Jesus reenters his follower's narratives at about the age of 30 (circa 26 AD). All of his followers agree that Jesus' first act was to be baptized by John the Baptist, a charismatic and ascetic figure who called people to repentance and baptized those who responded. This event marked the beginning of Jesus' ministry. What is Baptism anyways, how does that symbolize that he is God?

After the baptism, several of John's followers left to follow Jesus. Jesus then selected several others until he had established a group of 12 disciples. All of them are unschooled, people of course they would follow that ringleader.

Jesus then spent from one to three years teaching and working miracles among his disciples and before large crowds. His acclaimed miracles included turning water to wine, walking on water, cursing a fig tree, healing the sick, multiplying a small meal to feed a crowd, casting out demons, and even raising a man from the dead. He wasn't the only one performing miracles at that time. The teachings of Jesus focused primarily on the "the kingdom of God" and were usually relayed through parables drawing on familiar images from agricultural life. He rebuked us, calling us hypocrites, the Jewish leaders yet he taught the importance of love and kindness, even to one's enemies.

While Jesus' teachings were fundamentally Jewish, they departed significantly from the Jewish law of his day. Perhaps most astonishing of all was that he taught on his own authority. Whereas Jewish prophets had always prefaced their messages with "thus saith the Lord," Jesus said things like, "You have heard that it was said, 'Do not commit adultery.' But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart.'" How blasphemous. Jesus' popularity grew quickly, but so did opposition from local leaders. Roman rulers were uncomfortable with the common perception that he was the Messiah who would liberate the Jews from Roman rule, while Jewish leaders were disquieted by Jesus' shocking interpretations of Jewish law, his power with the people, and the rumor that he had been alluding to his own divinity.

Jesus repeatedly suggests to his disciples his end is near, but they do not fully understand or accept the idea. The clearest expression of this is at the "Passover," which took place on the night before his death. All of his followers acclaim Jesus shared bread and wine with his disciples, asking them to "do this in remembrance of him". He taught his followers to celebrate the Passover with bread and wine, instead of the traditional Passover lamb.

On this evening Jesus also predicts that one of them will betray him, which is met with astonishment and denial. But that very night, Jesus' fate was sealed when Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples and possibly the group's treasurer, led Roman soldiers to Jesus for 30 pieces of silver. As they arrested Jesus, the ever-colorful Peter defended his master with a sword, slicing off the ear of a centurion. But he was rebuked by Jesus, who admonished, "Put your sword back in its place, for all who draw the sword will die by the sword." Jesus was brought before the Jewish chief priests for trial. When questioned, he said very little but affirmed he was the Messiah. He was then judged worthy of death for blasphemy and handed over to the Roman governor of Judea, Pontius Pilate, for punishment. Although reluctant to condemn Jesus for reasons not entirely clear, Pilate sentenced Jesus to death at the insistence of the mob that had gathered. According to some of his followers, when Judas learned of the sentence he threw his silver coins into the temple and hanged himself.

Jesus was brutally beaten, clothed in a mock-royal purple robe and crown of thorns, and then executed by crucifixion at Golgotha (The Place of the Skull). This method of execution, apparently a Roman invention, entailed nailing or tying the victim's hands and feet to a wooden cross. It produced a slow, painful death by asphyxiation.

The believers report that only Jesus' mother and a handful of female disciples were present at the execution. Jesus suffered on the cross for six hours before finally crying out, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" and breathing his last. The followers report extraordinary events upon Jesus' death – the entire land went dark, there was a great earthquake, and the temple curtain was torn in half. If he is God, why didn't he come down of the Cross?

Jesus' body was taken down from the cross by Joseph of Arimathea, and placed in a tomb carved into rock. Again, Jesus' mother and one or two other women were the only ones present. These same devoted women came to his tomb the first day of the week early in the morning to anoint his body with spices. When they arrived, they were astonished to find the stone covering the entrance to the tomb had been rolled away, and the tomb was empty.

All his followers vary somewhat in their reports as to what happened next, but all generally agree that the women told the other disciples but their story was not believed. But the risen Jesus later appeared to the disciples, where he passed through a locked door yet demonstrated he was not a ghost by eating and allowing himself to be touched. He made several other appearances among various groups before ascending into heaven.

The resurrection of Jesus is central to the early church. Historically, it may be impossible to determine what happened or what the disciples actually experienced, but one thing seems clear – they sincerely believed, from an early date that Jesus had been raised from the dead. Yet only his believers saw this, nobody else.

I still don't understand the point you are trying to make.

I have read most of this back and forward banter between you and others and frankly no one is any expert, and least of all me... never read all the bible but i do know that God is the only Judge. so stop trying to be judge, jury and executioner all in one.

I suppose if i said i was a Church of God member you would stone me, what if i said i was catholic, mormon, or some other denomination you find other ways to attack, and string me up on a cross.

I DO NOT know much but when God DOES APPEAR again in all his Glory whether that be in clouds or disguised by a cloud or as a burning bush, or even on a fricking madi gra float in a parade who are we to know the set times and plans of God. God is all mighty and powerful you can not tell God what he can or carn't do or even who he chooses to be.

If you do know ALL Jamie and we are so misguided then why didn't God appoint you to write the bible.

You even talk about jesus being God but you quote hosea 13.4 saying to only acknowledge Jehovah not Jesus, why don't we all accept that neither you or i are experts.

call me what you will ignorant ,a loonie, a fruit loop frankly i do not care. OUR only concern should be what would God think???? not of what we think of each other.

let people fulfill their own prophecy and final destination by letting them choose what they want to believe in, apparently there is only room for 144 thousand in the end so my guess the minority religion may be right not a major one, but that is just a math equation.

anyway God bless take care have a great day oh and if anyone wants to make fun of me or be cruel to me for this entry go ahead that will just prove your character, and what you really believe in .Jesus led by example so show a good example...

Just a small note:

"OUR only concern should be what would God think????"

What would God think if I refused to help someone like doxy who asked for assistance in dealing with a cult that has been proven to damage and destroy families and lives? Did not Jesus say that if I help the least of my brethren, I am helping Him? Read Matthew 25:34 onwards.

Furthermore, Jude 3 tells us we should contend earnestly for our faith. Shall I then ignore what happens when a CoG member comes up to me and tells me that Jesus already came again as a man, died again and is off doing something who knows where? Especially as evidence about the so called Christ Ang Sahn Hong, when surveyed with logic and reason, mixed with prayer, show that what they teach is erroneous? They are not the first cult to preach legalism and deny the message of the cross, failing to understand that remembering the cross is not equal to worshiping the cross. He that denies the message of the cross is Antichrist. That is what 1
John 2:22 says.

Shall I let them continue to draw away innocents who don't know better? Ezekiel 3:18 would require their blood at my hands. I would be committing the sin of omission.

No, I cannot sit idly by and watch as they lead many down the wide path of destruction. Had our early church fathers done the same, Marcion and his heretics would have established Antinomianism as the norm.

I do not condemn anyone. I speak out against the erroneous teachings of the CoG and the hypocritical behavior of the CoG posters on my blog.

P.S. You say "You even talk about Jesus being God but you quote Hosea 13.4 saying to only acknowledge Jehovah not Jesus, why don't we all accept that neither you or I are experts."

I accept that. But the Bible never says AngSahnHong is Jesus nor Jehovah.

I am not an expert, but I have been trained in theology and am educated enough to know how to do my research.

P.P.S. What the Catholics and other Protestant denominations do are fine with me. We are all Christians. But the Mormons have added a whole "book" to the Bible on flawed premises, which is heresy to me, while the CoG also preaches error.

A group is called a cult because of their behaviour – not their doctrines. Most religious cults do teach what the Jewish temple would declare to be heresy but some do not. Some cults teach the basics of the Jewish faith but have behavioural patterns that are abusive, controlling and cultic. The key is that they will be using deception, coercive mind control or undue influence on their members, often by forcing their followers to reflect on non-essential doctrines (i.e. not related to the law issues), acts of physical repetition or group conditioning.

By: Elijah on January 31, 2009 at 4:18 am

Reply

These cult groups typically base their teachings around central doctrines of the Jewish faith and then add the extra authority of the leadership or someone's particular teachings. They revolve around the interpretations of the leadership, and submissive and unquestioning acceptance of these interpretations is essential to be a member of good standing.

Identification Marks(a) The group will have an ELITIST view of itself in relation to others, and a UNIQUE CAUSE. i.e. THEY ARE THE ONLY ONES RIGHT – everyone else is wrong. THEY ARE THE ONLY ONES DOING GOD'S WILL – everyone else is in hypocrisy.(b) Concerned only with recruiting and growing, they will promote their cause actively, and in doing so, abuse God-given personal rights, individual spiritual gifts, individual talents and individual freedoms. This abuse can be THEOLOGICAL, SPIRITUAL, SOCIAL & PSYCHOLOGICAL. How They Do This

1. Their leader/s may claim a special, exclusive ministry, revelation or position of authority given by God.

Matthew 28:18

18Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

2. They believe they are the only true church and take a critical stance regarding the Jewish temple while at the same time praising and exalting their own group, leader/s and work.

John 14:6

6Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

3. They use intimidation or psychological manipulation to keep members loyal to their ranks. This could be in the form of subtle threats of dire calamity sent by God if they leave; certain death at Armageddon/last days, being shunned by their family and friends etc.

Luke 13:3

3I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish.

4. There will be great emphasis on loyalty to the group and its teachings. The lives of members will be totally absorbed into the group's activities.

Acts 2:46

46Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts

5. There will be total control over almost all aspects of the private lives of members. This control can be direct through communal living, or constant and repetitious teaching on how to be a true Israelite or being obedient to leadership. Members will look to their leaders for guidance in everything they do.

I would also like to point out that God's name is not Jehovah! If CoG was a little more knowledgeable, or if they would actually go out there and research, the name "Jehovah" was an official translation that the early church created because they themselves did not know how to pronounce the word, which was derived from the letters YHWH. If any CoG member (or anyone else) is interested than please read the following articles in Wikipedia:

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/YHWH>

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jehovah>

Also, if you research on it more, and use your spiritual minds, then you will also figure out that God does not have a personal name! We give each other names to identify ourselves. GOD is GOD, therefore he does not need a name! All the names that refer to God would be characteristics that the common language has attributed to God. Saying that God has/needs a name putting God to our level, when he certainly is not!

Thanks.

Furthermore, as God needed to do just that (come to our level), God became man, in the Man we call Jesus. The name Jesus is the English translation to the original Hebrew name Jeshua, which means "Salvation". So the physical name which was needed for a man, was appropriately given to Him by the Father through the Angel to Mary. Jesus did

Ben, in actuality I believe that God does have actual names as He is above all else interested in personal relationships with people. Without a name for people to know Him by, it's harder to relate to Him. It's truly a wonder that the God of the universe would introduce Himself to us on a relational level. As you say, God needing a name would put Him at our level. Yet isn't that what God did in the form of Jesus, all the while retaining His distinctiveness from us?

By: Seeking Truth on February 2, 2009

Reply

God Himself humbled, made equal to our position in order to be the perfect sacrifice. In the same way, He brings Himself down to our level by telling us His names so that we can have a relationship with Him, yet He still retains his distinct position as the Almighty.

Throughout the Bible it is clear that the purpose of God's names is to reveal to us His nature, and in doing so enable us to know Him more as a wonderful person (who is God at the same time). Thus I do believe that God has a name too. After all, in Revelation Jesus says that He will have a new name (Revelation 3:12).

Ummm... I explained that already Seeking Truth. Did you read my whole post?

Btw. The new name mentioned in Revelation, is not an actual personal name. If you study in depth as to how names are used in the bible, especially how God's names come about, they are (as i mentioned before) related to his attributes, character, and purpose.

By: ben on February 3, 2009

Jesus was here for our Salvation, hence his name being just that: Yeshua meaning Salvation. But Yeshua was his name for the physical.

Other examples of names given to God are: Jehovah Jireh, Jehovah Rapha, Jehovah Nissi, etc. Each of these names have a meaning that relate to his character.

The new name in Revelation refers to his new purpose when he returns. He will no longer bring Salvation because Salvation has already come. His new name will be his new purpose. We will know that when he comes.

Ben said, "I would also like to point out that God's name is not Jehovah!.....GOD is GOD, therefore he does not need a name! "

By: Jim on February 3, 2009

No Ben, the name of God in the age of the Father was YHWH or Jehovah as some pronounciations would spell it. Either way, God had a name. Just read the Old Testament, it is quite clear what God's name was. You see Ben, you only make this claim to try and negate the fact that God changed his name, thereby helping you to persecute the new name of second coming Christ.

Reply

Ben said,

"The new name in Revelation refers to his new purpose when he returns. He will no longer bring Salvation because Salvation has already come."

Looks again like Ben does not really know what the Bible says.

Hebrews 9:28 — so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

What Paul said and what Ben says are completely opposite. Then who should we listen to?? Ben, you act like you are some expert on the Bible, yet you contradict the words in the Bible so easily. It is obvious you do not believe in the words of the Bible.

This is not surprising though, considering what you wrote on another forum. You confessed that the Bible was written by man and not from God. Then you edited your post and said that "religion" is from man. The more you speak, the more you slip up exposing yourself of who you truly are.

You are not fooling anybody.

Ok i'll tell my experience, I have been in meditation for over 10 years, and never found anything that led me to the truth, until i was read the bible. There is a verse somewhere in the bible I think it's Mark 4:10 that says. " though you see. You do not see, though you hear, you do not hear...."

And it's actually right, you can read the whole bible from cover to cover, but since you are blind you cannot really see what you want to see, because you do not hear what you need to hear. and when you heard, you did not listen...

The Catholic Religion hides the real truth of the Bible because it is not convenient for them to show the real words, They were the ones who locked the bible, before being in meditation I was catholic, and always thought of the Catholic church as a show. The Roman Catholic Emperor Constantine I. He abolished to Passover and called it communion, He took out words from the bible and burned the real scriptures, His god was the Sun, and made a day for the Sun to be worshipped on Sunday (Sun-Day) If you go to the last verse in Revelations it says that you should not take away or add anything to the bible, but constantine did so. Not to offend catholics, but he is considered the Anti-Crist. In order to understand, I encourage those that listened at first to whoever invited you.

Typical of CoG not to read the whole post. I mentioned YHWH on my post and I explained what it meant. Also, u mentioned that you read my other posts on a different forum. Why didn't you comment or counter anything I said there? Unless you actually are one of those people but are hiding behind a false name (which is not surprising). Can I ask you, did you celebrate New Years Eve? Or how about your birthday? If you did, then u participated in a pagan practice.

Reply

U quoted Hebrews 9:28. Why didn't u elaborate more on it? Lack of explanation gets you no where. Note, the events in Revelation were not shown to Paul during his time preaching to the Hebrews. Now the scripture there is talking about how Christ came the first time to save man from sin by taking sin unto himself. Therefore, the Salvation brought by Jesus in his first coming was that of sin. The second time he comes, he will no longer carry sin as he was raised from the dead, leaving him pure once again. The Salvation mentioned by Paul, refers to the Salvation of the body. If you read the whole chapter and other translations (u used ISV) you can see how this is. Another translation refers to it as the completed Salvation (of the Spirit from sin, and the Body).

If you're saying that Salvation wasn't brought by Jesus the first time then his work on the cross was in vain. Salvation from the bondage of sin, is different from Salvation of the body. Now accepting the Salvation from sin is the pre-requisite for the Salvation of the body. If you believe that Ahnsahngman already came with the Salvation of the body, then that would mean CoG is no long subject to corruption of the body.

Off-topic: I read somewhere that CoG claims that none of their members will die by accident, murder, etc. They will only die natural deaths. That's a very bold claim to make. Either way, your bodies will still be subject to corruption.

Jim, please do a little more research. I did not claim to be an expert on the Bible, nor do I feel that I am. I am still studying it as much as I can. Unlike CoG who only selects which parts to study and misuse verses to support their claims. If Ahnsahngman came to save you guys already, then why couldn't he save himself from death or beyond as Jesus was able to?

[1] salvation

The Heb. and Gr. words for salvation imply the ideas of deliverance, safety, preservation, healing, and soundness. Salvation is the great inclusive word of the Gospel, gathering into itself all the redemptive acts and processes: as justification, redemption, grace, propitiation, imputation, forgiveness, sanctification, and glorification. Salvation is in three tenses:

(1) The believer has been saved from the guilt and penalty of sin Lk 7:50 1Cor 1:18 2Cor 2:15 Eph 2:5,8 2Tim 1:9 and is safe.

(2) the believer is being saved from the habit and dominion of sin Rom 6:14 Phil 1:19 2:12,13 2Th 2:13 Rom 8:2 Gal 2:19,20 2Cor 3:18.

(3) The believer is to be saved in the sense of entire conformity to Christ. Rom 13:11 Heb 10:36 1Pet 1:5 1Jn 3:2. Salvation is by grace through faith, is a free gift, and wholly without works Rom 3:27,28 4:1-8 6:23 Eph 2:8. The divine order is: first salvation, then works Eph 2:9,10 Ti 3:5-8.

Ben don't you just love exposing yourself. Again your ignorance in the Words of God keeps you from understand what actually it testifies.

John 6:53-59

53Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. 56Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. 57Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me. 58This is the bread that came down from heaven. Your forefathers ate manna and died, but he who feeds on this bread will live forever."

ben, are you listen to what Jesus Christ, that you believed, on what He said to have eternal life?

Now ben would probably use this verse because of his lack of understand to the Bible.

Romans 10:9-10

9That if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved.

Really? Just confess with your mouth that "Jesus is Lord" and you will be saved? Of course Jesus is Lord, the First Coming Christ who died for our sins to fulfill the prophecy according to God's administration. But let's see what Born Again Christians like ben is missing.

Romans 10:11

11As the Scripture says, "Anyone who trusts in him will never be put to shame."

Ok so let's trust in Him then. ben and I trust in Him. But we need to know what exactly "Him" told us.

Luke 6:46-49

46"Why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do what I say? 47I will show you what he is like who comes to me and hears my words and puts them into practice. 48He is like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid the foundation on rock. When a flood came, the torrent struck that house but could not shake it, because it was well built. 49But the one who hears my words and does not put them into practice is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The moment the torrent struck that house, it collapsed and its destruction was complete."

Ah so the difference between ben and me is that ben just confess that Jesus is Lord while me I actually do what He says to have eternal life. Ooops ben has been exposed again.

19You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

20You foolish man, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless? 21Was not our ancestor Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? 22You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did. 23And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness," and he was called God's friend. 24You see that a person is justified by what he does and not by faith alone.

25In the same way, was not even Rahab the prostitute considered righteous for what she did when she gave lodging to the spies and sent them off in a different direction? 26As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.

ben, you need to start following what Jesus Christ commands us, not just by keep calling His name.

John 14:15

15"If you love me, you will obey what I command.

By: sarah on February 5, 2009 at 3:07 pm

Elijah said that he actually does what Ahn said to have eternal life.

Reply

Let's see what Ahn did that Jesus did not.

Ahn was born in a Buddhist family, roamed on the streets in his red robe eating the pagan food offered to the idols, divorced his wife deserted his kids, joined the SDA cults, after getting baptized changed attire from red robe to suit which now becomes the member's dress code, committed adultery with M.J was too old to marry and promised to return for his bride. Nothing amazing really but yes, on his death bed did just one good thing by showing M.J & Joo Cheol the way to survival in this world.

The new name (AHN) said."I tell you the truth Chung, unless you as M.J eat the flesh and drink the blood of these fools you shall not have a luxurious life. (What a progress from barely 2 pots, pan & in apron to a high life.)

Our forefathers ate manna and died, but now make sure these members visit Korea and you feed them on this special Kimchi and rice which shall be the Passover meal. After they repeat the scriptures over the time like a Kimchi that is fermented for a period of time at an appropriate temperature in a sealed container I tell you these fools can also be brainwashed forever."

Just make them confess with their mouth that me "Ahn is Lord" and I assure that I will not be able to save even their ass from the lake of fire.

You foolish man, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless? Look

All you need to do is believe though I was powerless & now a dead man. Aren't these few scriptures in the bible enough to prove me "Lord Ahn" and the M.J?

Sweetie! Please show them your video on good deeds and on how you can (clean the toilets, grow plants, visit the sick, fire station, deck up with painted lips, an artificial smile and some crocodile tears). If they still find it hard to accept us both as God then make some more videos on disasters as fear is the only solution.LOL

25"All this I have spoken while still with you. 26But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the FATHER WILL SEND IN MY NAME, will teach you all things and WILL REMIND YOU OF EVERYTHING I HAVE SAID TO YOU."

Jesus Christ said the the Second Coming Christ, the Holy Spirit will remind us of everything He has taught us. Why?

Daniel 7:25

25 He will speak against the Most High and oppress his saints and TRY TO CHANGE THE SET TIMES AND THE LAWS. The saints will be handed over to him for a time, times and half a time.

"Let's see what Ahn did that Jesus did not. Ahn was born in a Buddhist family,"

Hebrews 7:1-3

1This MELCHIZEDEK was king of Salem and priest of God Most High. He met Abraham returning from the defeat of the kings and blessed him, 2and Abraham gave him a tenth of everything. First, his name means "king of righteousness"; then also, "king of Salem" means "king of peace." 3Without father or mother, WITHOUT GENEALOGY, without beginning of days or end of life, LIKE THE SON OF GOD he remains a priest forever.

In the Bible, "genealogy" refers to the twelve tribes of Israel. The words, "(Melchizedek is) without genealogy," mean that the spiritual Melchizedek would be born among the Gentiles; however, Jesus was born of the tribe of Judah.

Hebrews 7:14

14FOR IT IS CLEAR THAT OUR LORD DESCENDED FROM JUDAH, and in regard to that tribe Moses said nothing about priests.

Christ AhnsahngHong, the Second Coming Christ came in the Order of Melchizedek, didn't come from the tribe of Judah as prophecied in the Bible.

Revelation 2:17

17He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden manna. I will also give him a white stone(Jesus Christ) with a new name(Christ AhnsahngHong) written on it, known only to him who receives it.

Christ AhnsahngHong is the New Name testified in the Bible, just as Jesus Christ prophesied that the Second Coming Christ will come in His name.

Due to the lack of words and failure to answer the questions they clearly show that the COG is truly a cult.

"Keep exposing" "Do not give dogs what is sacred or throw pearls to pigs" "God's administration" "Men's Opinion" and so on...

These are the common phrases cog members have used over and over again and if you notice brother/sister even copy each other's words. Just like their God who copied the doctrine of the other cults <http://sajc.or.kr/eng/>. They need to try something new and work a bit harder to get the 144,000 fooled.

Well I was expecting the Melchizedec quote to my post. I am aware of the COG's mother goose stories each one is well tagged with the few Bible scriptures. But they keep posting the same material. What a waste of time! Even their own blogs are so stagnant. The members have nothing much to comment but give a common expression of their testimony.

This Melchizedec fable sounds more like a space ship dropping an alien baby "Melchihong" with glasses on the housetop of a Buddhist family. No father or mother. No genealogy. He learnt everything himself watching the Buddhist family since 1918 till he learnt decision-making. No wonder even the members do not mind divorce or remarrying. They have a scripture already selected about divorce.

Now according to Elijah Christ Ahnsahnghong, the Second Coming Christ came in the Order of Melchizedek, but didn't come from the tribe of Judah as prophesied in the Bible.

Which means this alien had brought along with him a white stone from his planet with his new name written "AHN"

As for the rest of my opinion I assume Elijah agrees about Hong man's administration and his purpose on the earth.

If he had parents I am sure his upbringing would be much better.

By: Mario on February 11, 2009 at 6:39 am

What do you get from arguing if it's true or not, or who is right or not, just follow what ever you believe in, just take action on what ever path you think is the right one for you, and let the prophecies come on it's own. Something will happen at the end some day, let's just see what happens. Why matter whether you or me or them cannot interpret the verses correctly. If you think CoG is a cult or not, well that is up to you, do you want to be saved or not is up to you. Every decision you make = a decision that you will find out at the end or when ever you die, and see if you were correct or not.

It's not about the argument about persuading the other side. This blog, as well as other blogs and forums, are here to help those who need answers to questions. The initial intention of people searching and encountering sites like this is based on curiosity and other times because people have family members that they wana get out of this cult due to conflicts that arose upon them joining it.

But u r right... We will see in the end. But if u had a loved one that u feel has been lead down the wrong direction, wouldn't u want to intervene?

I agree with Mario. I'm also a member of World Mission Society Church of God and I didn't agree with Mario because he's my Heavenly Brother but because he said something that applies to everyone and that is arguing about who's right or wrong is pointless as it's just gonna go on and on like war because no one can accept that they are wrong. The truth is we will all find out in the end. When it comes to religious beliefs, we are all taking chances including those who don't believe in the existence of a God and whatever you path you choose then it's your choice.

ben, if you feel that your loved one is in a cult then it's up to you to tell that particular person. But you have to be careful that you don't also affect others as they would put their attention to you and would start that stupid anger and hate because you are affecting what they believe in. I remember you invited me in that cult watch forum and I think it through and decided that it's just gonna be an endless debate for both of us. It's like extreme muslim believers who think that America is invading their way of belief so some of them decided to form a group to attack their proclaimed enemy. For me, I have been in Church of God for 3 years now and I have seen all the blogs and forums against my church but I didn't get involve in it too much because I think it's stupid, pointless and it will just continue until someone stops breathing. I don't force people to follow what I believe. We can have some conversation but when it gets to where we can't agree on each other then I stop there and thank them for their time. Well I just pray for all of us that God will let us know in the end whether we pleased Him or not in Judgement day. God bless us all.

I understand Jepoy. But not everyone will take it as maturely as you have, so I applaud u for that. I have talked to my family members who are part of CoG, they choose not to listen. They do what most CoG members here (and other forums) do, they don't answer questions. Not answering questions is what lead to the debates in the first place. It's funny how theyre the ones that actually come to our house with their pastors trying to win us over to their side, but they don't like how we have questions they cannot answer; so they leave thinking we don't listen to them. So with that said, I will not debate or argue regarding your post. It's the best CoG member post I've read so far and I hope that in our coming years, that God show us (you, me and everyone here) what really matters to Him. God Bless.

Jepoy, you might not force people to believe what you believe, but this COG INVADED my home and stole my child who was vulnerable at the time. I didn't invite this into my home OR my life and yet it has been inflicted upon me and I have to live with it on a daily basis. All we do is argue daily as my child tries to convince me how correct the Cog are. God couldn't possibly want the kind of life I am living now with this COG member. This is NOT christianity. This is NOT GOD'S love. All I see is my child constantly breaking GOD'S commandments as there is NO love or respect for family. In the new testament Jesus left us with two commandments and I don't see my child keeping them at all. Where does it say in the bible to LIE? Where does it say to steal family members? Where does it say to give up everything in your life for the COG? Where does it say abandon friends who love you? This is a CULT of the worst kind.

Luke 18:28-30 {28Peter said to him, "We have left all we had to follow you!"

29"I tell you the truth," Jesus said to them, "no one who has left home or wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God 30will fail to receive many times as much in this age and, in the age to come, eternal life."}

What doxy? Can you explain this to me? Peter and the Apostles LEFT ALL THEY HAD TO FOLLOW JESUS. But Jesus said that they won't fail to receive eternal life by doing it. doxy, prove me through the Bible that what your saying is what the Bible wants us to do. Even Abraham is willing to sacrifice his own son to follow God's commandments.

Matthew 10:34-39 {34"Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. 35 For I have come to turn " 'a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law – 36a man's enemies will be the members of his own household.'

37"Anyone who loves his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; 38and anyone who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. 39Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. }

Please explain this to me doxy. Your fellow Church of God haters constantly rationalizing our church. It's been explain to you guys that God's Words are absolute that cannot be judge by men's common sense.

ben said "It's the best CoG member post I've read so far and I hope that in our coming years, that God show us (you, me and everyone here) what really matters to Him. God Bless."

Luke 6:46-49 {46"Why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do what I say? 47I will show you what he is like who comes to me and hears my words and puts them into practice. 48He is like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid the foundation on rock. When a flood came, the torrent struck that house but could not shake it, because it was well built. 49But the one who hears my words and does not put them into practice is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The moment the torrent struck that house, it collapsed and its destruction was complete."} ben, you can say that you love God all day long but if you don't do what He says then it's actually foolishness in the eyes of God according to His Words.

John 14:15 {15"If you love me, you will obey what I command.}

ben, you fail again big time. Stop confessing you love God. Do what He says.

I'll pretend that I'm an atheist and everything I see is based on rationalism and humanism. See ben, you try to use rationalism on Church of God but you ignore rationalizing your Born Again Christian point of view. So ben, how do you know that God exist? How do you recognize Him? Does He look any specific image? Maybe He look like what you see in the movie? How can you prove that this man Jesus is God? And now ben will you put your faith in Jesus to the ultimate test?

Advertisement

ben, can you answer these claims against Christianity?
Common ben I know your smarter than that. You want rationalization then you got it. If you can't explain your answers to the questions in that video then your not using rationalism on your faith and your not a very smart person.

What doxy? Can you explain this to me? Peter and the Apostles LEFT ALL THEY HAD TO FOLLOW JESUS.

EXACTLY!!!! I follow JESUS CHRIST NOT some DEAD korean.

You said:

Matthew 10:34-39 "Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. 35 For I have come to turn

" 'a man against his father, a daughter against her mother,
a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law - 36 a man's enemies will be the members of his own household.'

37 "Anyone who loves his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; 38 and anyone who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. 39 Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. }

Just before his violent death on the Cross, Christ promised peace to his disciples. But the existence of evil necessitates spiritual warfare. The earth to which Christ came was under the authority of Satan (Jn 12:31; Co 4.4). It is therefore essential that Christ wage war against the leader of vice with weapons of virtue (Eph 6:11-18). To carry his cross a true disciple must be ready.

Have you bothered reading John 13: 31 -35? AND Also John 15: 9-17 ?? Its Jesus' new commandment to LOVE one another as he loves us, we must love as Jesus has loved us, laying down his life not only for his friends, but even his enemies.

The bottom line is if your dead Korean was truly GOD he would not allow his followers to destroy other families.

That is not following GOD'S commandment of love

I am currently a COG member. Before that I used to be an Atheist. Even though I am still on trial, I want to continue studying. I want to go all the way through. I can't judge without wisdom. Their teachings are based on love and peace. There are good teachings and there church is a peaceful environment. COG is the only church that teaches with evidence. I have found no wrongs yet. But I have to scold these mothers who are so worried about their children's faith.

Reply

Dear Mothers, Sisters, Brothers, Cousins, etc.:

That is the path they want to take, let them be.
You guys are acting as if your loved ones became strippers or porn stars.
Your kids aren't going to become what you've always wanted. It is their life.

Fortunately, I have parents who are open minded.
After I joined, I became more aware of my violent behaviour and now I am more empathetic and loving. My parents respect my decision.
COG teaches the love of God.
Love of God is all we need to be happy.
Love of God cured my depression.

Everything is meaningless without the love of God.
Do not judge what you do not know.

Thanks Lisle,
you have proven my point that the Cog preys on depressed vulnerable people. It is just like being on drugs. It seems to "fill" the void someone is missing in life. Believing in GOD is a very good thing. I believe in GOD but this notion of a DEAD korean and his lover being GOD is not only ridiculous but it goes against everything in the bible. Sorry Lisle you are not a Christian in the true sense. Its a shame you didn't find God in the true church. You and All the COG leaders and members are the ones who need the scolding.

Reply

Hopefully, u will realize that their is not much difference, other than ur Gods r 2 different Korean dead men. Keep in mind that their church came before urs.

Don't be too hasty to think that we don't know anything about ur church. Trust me, we know a lot more than u think we do.

Also, can u answer another question that no other CoG members has answered yet: During ur membership in CoG, did u ever celebrate ur birthday or New Years Eve/Day? It's not a very hard question right?

Thanks.

God bless you Heavenly Sister Lisle. I'm very happy that you found your way to the truth. I hope that you would truly continue learning the truth and don't mind all the criticism of those who harass God's people. Remember, Jesus Christ and the Apostles was also harassed 2000 years ago because the Jews and Pharisees couldn't accept what the Bible prophecied about Jesus Christ who came in flesh to bear our sins and they are stuck in the age of the God the Father Jehovah. That time only the Old Testament existed and the New Testament wasn't written yet.
People nowadays claim that they know Jesus Christ but truly they only know His name. If they were living during His time, I bet you that they won't believe in Him, even if the Scripture of the Old Testament prophecied and testified about Him. Thanks to Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem for giving us the right to enter and return to the Heavenly Kingdom. God bless you Sister Lisle. Today is Sabbath day and I'm very happy to see all my Heavenly Brothers and Sisters again.

I would have answered them myself but it would have been a waste of time. That guy in the video is using the Bible for his answers and backs it all up correctly and with lots of ground. So ur "men's opinion" remark is another pointless rant. The video u posted was "a man's opinion" too, so stop displaying ur hypocrisy. U didn't test me; u jst didn't have the answers. It's pathetic and ur posts never prove anything. I guess ur running out of things to say so u've resorted to posing as an atheist to try and prove the truth wrong. You COG haters like to hide behind your computer screen with your immature comments and accusations. So Ben, since you are so vocal (well you are hiding behind your computer screen), let's see if you have the proper understanding of God.

Please explain the identity of Jesus Christ as I posed above.

Jim, I have so many problems with your last two posts. I will itemize them.

By: ben on February 18, 2009 at 10:21 am

1. Your argument about Jesus and God the Father is a way of changing the subject just because u r in denial that ur "god" is a useless decayed corpse in a korean cemetery. He never ascended as ur website says. I've seen a pic of ur grave. So he is obviously got no power over death.

Reply

2. Just like Bright Angel, u have resorted to useless topics of argument to try and distract every1 else from the real fallacy that ur religion is all about (dead guy n dying woman as god).

3. Is Jesus and God the Father one? Of cors! The argument isn't even related to this blog so I won't elaborate. I mean, why should we keep answering these off-topic questions while CoG members continue to avoid answering questions that are directly related to the main arguments and points made by the blog makers and thread starters.

4. Jim said, "You COG haters like to hide behind your computer screen with your immature comments and accusations."

Stop being a hypocrite! Both CoG members and non-CoG members have been posting some immature things and have been spending a lot of time in front of their computers screens. How can u say that u, urself don't spend as much time in front of ur computer screen as I do? Seriously? What does it prove anyway?

Bright angel you now seem to sound a lot like a bright devil who chuckles thinking he has won. How come you did not understand your bro Jepoy's simple words addressed even to you to stop acting damn childish? So here we go again...

Firstly why would one fear COG cults let it be Jepoy or teapoy? As for your Mother/Father God's fables have been a great source of entertainment for us and the reason why you all hang out here is you enjoy the stuff being said about them. Isn't that true! Obviously after all so many blogs the COG's have created wouldn't be so dry as no one seems to be logged on there except for the bros/sis. Shahzad you can get your lost sheep there. But I must admit that Jamie and cult watch site deserve the Oscars.LOL.

Didn't your COG hackers try hard to shut the Cult watch website but could not? Yet the anti-cog site goes strong by the power of Holy Spirit and has succeeded in drawing attention of so many around the world much faster, educating the ignorant as to how the COG fits into the cult category than it might have taken the COG years to spread their false doctrine in secret.

Notice that Ben is now scared now that we have everybody responding, lol

I can understand how you feel. It is like "Grapes have turned sour for you" Now that you are beginning to realize these sites are helping the ones in darkness.

This "everybody responding business" is another cult tactic just to avoid answers. Looks like M.J is now more scared of losing not only her members but also fear her coffers may become empty soon. Recession is going on.

As a God she is powerless, helpless, loveless, just living on your crumbs and hugs.

If you think the Cult Watch site needs to be shut then how would Shahzad find the rest of his few crazy bros/sis here. Isn't it? It is Okay Shahzad. You don't have to be thankful.

@Sarah

He thinks you are scared of them. Do not worry Ben its one of the common phrase they use when they do not have answers.

Reply

So who is responding whom Mr. Bright?? The birds of the same feathers that have been flocking together. LOL

I never knew the COG's could be such "clowns of God". I think Jepoy(you seem to be having some sense left) it is time you correct the damn childish act of your cult bros/sis

Sarah, I said peace to all the Church of God haters. What part of it you didn't understand?

By: Bright Angel on February 24, 2009 at 4:01 pm

As for the Cult Watch site, my bro/sis are not gonna even bother to hack it. It will fail in the end anyway. And also, if you think that Mother Jerusalem is losing members, then you should be thinking how worldwide the Church of God is because the prophecy will be fulfilled, no matter what you anti-Church of God do. So Sarah, just look at Brother Shahzad from Pakistan or Brother Francis who is in Rota, Spain above. As you can see, the World Mission Society Church of God has established it's Zion all over the world and you can't stop it because it is the Will of God. Good luck failing, LOL!

Reply

God came to this earth in order to lead human beings, who were destined to die because of sin, to the eternal kingdom of heaven, and has guided us so that we can live the most valuable life on this earth while looking toward heaven. So, the Bible says that the crucible for silver and the furnace for gold, but God tests our heart (Pr 17:3).

By: Bright Angel on February 24, 2009 at 4:06 pm

Reply

The reason God tests our heart is that He wants to make us, His children, more precious and shining than pure gold, through the process of testing. Let's see through the Bible how God makes us the most valuable creatures while He is on this earth, and take some time to think about where to go or what to do.

A valuable life

The following are from Ripley's "Believe It or Not."

A five dollar lump of metal can be made into a horse's shoe worth 50 dollars. If it is refined and made into the hands of a watch, it can produce a value of 5,000 dollars. When a lump of metal is made into a horse's shoe, it just creates a value of 50 dollars, but if it is made into watch hands, it can produce a value 100 times greater than a horse's shoe.

However, if it is made into a watch, it can produce a value of 50,000 dollars. When a five dollar lump of metal is changed to another form and used, it can create a value 10,000 times greater than the original one.

The same material produces different values according to how it is used. It is the same with the people who believe in God. We are sinners who were doomed to eternal death because of our sins. Such valueless beings have been called by God's grace. According to how we use the talents, which God has given to each of us, in accordance with our faith, we produce different spiritual values from one another.

We are all God's children called by God, but some of us play a role worthy of 50 dollars, some a role of 5,000 dollars, and others a role of 50,000 dollars. How much value do you want to have as the children of heaven when you stand before God after your life on this earth? Everybody wants to be the most valuable being. Then, what kind of life should we live in faith so that we can produce the greatest value? We need to always think it over and try to possess the greatest value.

Jesus' disciples who were called to do valuable work

Jesus, who came to this earth in order to save mankind, first went along the sea of Galilee when He began to preach the gospel. At that time, Peter, Andrew, James and John, who were fishermen, were preparing their nets as usual. Then Jesus called them and made them "fishers of men."

Mt 4:17-22 From that time on Jesus began to preach, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near." As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. "Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed him. Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, preparing their nets. Jesus called them, and immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

God wanted to make His children the most valuable beings. Although we were spiritually sinners who were destined for death, God called us and allowed us to be born again to live a new, valuable life.

Parents spare no pain and sacrifice for their children; they encourage their children to do what brings them happiness and success and set an example for them, guiding and helping them to achieve it. It is the same with our spiritual Parents. They said, "Come, follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men." Jesus didn't call His disciples just to cause them to suffer, but He called them to have the special experience of producing the most gracious and beautiful value in the world.

If the apostles had only got caught up in their daily routine of making a living, they would not have been able to live such a valuable and shining life. There were numerous people 2,000 years ago, but most of them have not even been remembered by the following generations. However, the apostles like Peter and John are still remembered today, even after 2,000 years; we examine the words written by them and share grace together by talking about their works of good faith. The apostles spared no effort and sacrifice to save souls. Their life was so valuable that they were worthy of being respected not only by people on this earth but also by angels in heaven. To give them such a wonderful blessing, Jesus went along the sea of Galilee and called them to be His disciples.

There is a great deal of difference in value between those who have received Christ and those who have not, even though they are all human beings. Think about the lives of the chief priests and the Pharisees who were regarded as capable and respectable people in those days, and about the life of Judas Iscariot. They were just like a five dollar lump of metal. Rather, they were worth less than five dollars, if we consider the words of Jesus, "It would be better for him if he had not been born" (Mt 26:24).

However, the value of Peter, John, James and Paul was very great; Jesus made them shine like pure gold and brilliant like a precious jewel. Let's keep in mind again that saving the whole world is the way to live the most beautiful and valuable life as God's children.

Gospel workers live a valuable life

Just as the same material produces a different value according to how it is used, the same person can produce a different spiritual worth according to how he is used. It will be the most valuable life if we are used in the work of God?the gospel?above all else, following the example of Christ who came to this earth in order to make us the most valuable beings.

2 Co 3:5-6 . . . but our competence comes from God. He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant?not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

God wants us to be the gospel workers; He is most pleased when we preach the new covenant. By human standards, it may not seem so valuable, but the Bible shows that from God's point of view, the workers of the new covenant are the people who possess the greatest value.

No matter how competent a doctor may be on this earth, he cannot raise the dead and give them eternal life. However great a man's power is, he has no authority to allow people into heaven. However, the workers of the new covenant are preaching the Passover that can save the souls, who are doomed to die because they sinned against God in heaven, and lead them safely to the kingdom of heaven. God has acknowledged those who guide all people to the path of life and help them to live a valuable life as the most valuable beings.

That's why the apostles including Peter followed Jesus' call immediately and delightfully. At that time, they probably didn't know that following Jesus was the way to the glory of the everlasting heavenly kingdom, but where are they now? They must be greatly rejoicing with an inexpressible and glorious joy right beside God.

We should never give up such a meaningful and valuable life or turn away from it. According to what kind of work we do, our value becomes different.

The Gospel workers who earned ten more minas

Lk 19:11-26 . . . "A man of noble birth went to a distant country to have himself appointed king and then to return. So he called ten of his servants and gave them ten minas. 'Put this money to work,' he said, 'until I come back.' . . . He was made king, however, and returned home. Then he sent for the servants to whom he had given the money, in order to find out what they had gained with it. The first one came and said, 'Sir, your mina has earned ten more.' 'Well done, my good servant!' his master replied. 'Because you have been trustworthy in a very small matter, take charge of ten cities.' The second came and said, 'Sir, your mina has earned five more.' His master answered, 'You take charge of five cities.' Then another servant came and said, 'Sir, here is your mina; I have kept it laid away in a piece of cloth. . . .' His master replied, 'I will judge you by your own words, you wicked servant! You knew, did you, that I am a hard man, taking out what I did not put in, and reaping what I did not sow? Why then didn't you put my money on deposit, so that when I came back, I could have collected it with interest?' Then he said to those standing by, 'Take his mina away from him and give it to the one who has ten minas.' 'Sir,' they said, 'he already has ten!' He replied, 'I tell you that to everyone who has, more will be given, but as for the one who has nothing, even what he has will be taken away.' "

With the same mina, one person earned ten more minas and another five more minas, but the other just kept the mina which he had received. Through this parable, we need to think again about how we are carrying out the spiritual mission that we have received from God today.

God has entrusted all the children of God in Zion with the gospel?the mission of preaching the truth of eternal life to all mankind. With the same gospel, some gain ten more minas, some five more, and others just keep it to themselves. This will determine their value forever.

Our value is decided according to how hard we work for the gospel on this earth; there is no more opportunity to work in heaven. Considering this fact carefully, we, the apostles of the gospel, should perform the mission given to each of us graciously during our God-given time on this earth.

1 Th 2:1-4 . . . For the appeal we make does not spring from error or impure motives, nor are we trying to trick you. On the contrary, we speak as men approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel. We are not trying to please men but God, who tests our hearts.

It is because God has approved us that He has entrusted us with the gospel. Since God has called us and made us workers for the gospel which is more valuable than anything else, we should obey the will of God with thankful hearts, and make efforts to please God rather than men.

Let's live a life that brings the highest value

God is pleased with the workers of the gospel and puts a seal on them. This seal is the mark of redemption which men are not able to see but angels can see.

Rev 14:1-4 Then I looked, and there before me was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion, and with him 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads. . . . These are those who did not defile themselves with women, for they kept themselves pure. They follow the Lamb wherever he goes. They were purchased from among men and offered as firstfruits to God and the Lamb.

Just as a renowned calligrapher puts his chop (seal) only on his best work, God has put His seal engraved with His name on the foreheads of those who are redeemed, and has given them the glorious title "firstfruits." God has acknowledged His people as the perfect beings who have the highest value among all people, and has written His name on their foreheads.

This is a blessing given not only to the 144,000 but also to all who keep the new covenant. The Bible says that there is a great multitude that no one can count and that all people around the world will stream to Zion in order to learn the ways of God. So, we need to become vessels great enough to receive all our brothers and sisters who are streaming from around the world?all those whom God sends. Nothing is impossible with God. We should give ourselves fully to the mission of preaching the gospel, believing the prophecies, so that our faith will not grow weak and become a hindrance to them.

If Peter, Andrew, John and James had not done anything after they were called by Jesus, their deeds would not have been recorded anywhere in the Bible. They learned from Jesus and followed His example, always thinking over 'how they could lead more souls to the truth of life and salvation' or 'how they could lead all people around the world from hell to heaven?' While doing so, they preached the gospel with boldness. Even though they were persecuted, despised and afflicted, they devoted themselves to saving souls to the end, so Jesus promised them the blessings of heaven, saying, "You are those who have stood by me in my trials. And I confer on you a kingdom, just as my Father conferred one on me, so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel" (Lk 22:28:30).

Let's all be children of God who are valuable and pleasing in God's sight. Even though God has called and allowed us to participate in the most valuable work, if we just stay silent without doing the work, we cannot save the world. All our brothers and sisters in Zion around the world! I earnestly pray that you will all be changed in accordance with God's will and diligently carry out the mission as the workers of the new covenant in the given circumstances, by leading all people around the world to the kingdom of heaven.

@Bright Angel,

In the Bible we can see that many souls were led to salvation when they were given a wake-up call such as the cry of Jonah and the preaching of Peter.

Just as a rooster crows to announce the dawn and wake people up, God's people should awaken this dark and gloomy world with the voice of preaching the gospel. Spiritually, this is the age of confusion and darkness. Unless we sound the wake-up call to the world, nobody will be able to spiritually discern this time. We have to awaken the souls who are in a deep sleep with a loud and clear voice, steer them away from hell where they are destined to go and lead them to heaven.

“Forty more days and Nineveh will be overturned”
- The preaching of Jonah awakened the Ninevites

Jonah 1:1-17 The word of the LORD came to Jonah son of Amittai: “Go to the great city of Nineveh and preach against it, because its wickedness has come up before me.” But Jonah ran away from the LORD and headed for Tarshish. He went down to Joppa, where he found a ship bound for that port. After paying the fare, he went aboard and sailed for Tarshish to flee from the LORD. Then the LORD sent a great wind on the sea, and such a violent storm arose that the ship threatened to break up. ... Then they took Jonah and threw him overboard, and the raging sea grew calm. ... and Jonah was inside the fish three days and three nights.

God sent Jonah to Nineveh the capital of Assyria, telling him to shout out a cry of alarm to awaken the Ninevites.

The people of Nineveh were not looking for God and persecuting the Israelites. So Jonah thought that his life would be threatened if he went to Nineveh and preached God’s message to the people. He set out to flee to Tarshish. However, he went through a quite an ordeal because he didn’t carry out his task as a prophet entrusted with the mission to wake up the world. Finally, he repented and went to Nineveh to preach the message that God gave him.

Jonah 3:1-10 Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time: “Go to the great city of Nineveh and proclaim to it the message I give you.” Jonah obeyed the word of the LORD and went to Nineveh. ... On the first day, Jonah started into the city. He proclaimed: “Forty more days and Nineveh will be overturned.” The Ninevites believed God. They declared a fast, and all of them, from the greatest to the least, put on sackcloth. ... When God saw what they did and how they turned from their evil ways, he had compassion and did not bring upon them the destruction he had threatened.

When Jonah proclaimed God’s message, all the people in Nineveh—the king, over 120,000 inhabitants and even the animals—put on sackcloth and fasted. The cry of Jonah awakened the spiritual senses of the Ninevites and led them to repent-ance, so that they could escape destruction.

“Repent and be baptized in the name of Christ”
- The preaching of Peter spread throughout Jerusalem

The Bible tells us that unless we sound a wake-up call to the world, the world will be sleeping in darkness forever. However, if we give the cry of alarm, all the people of the world will wake up from the deep sleep of death. As Jonah led many to repentance, so did Peter; in a single day, he led 3,000 people to repent and confess their sins to God.

Acts 2:14-36 Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. ... Therefore let all Israel be assured of this: God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ."

Acts 2:37-41 When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?" Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. ... Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to their number that day.

Peter was moved by the Holy Spirit and boldly proclaimed the word of God. Over 3,000 people walking in darkness were spiritually awakened by his sermon and received Christ.

God has given us the task of giving a wake-up call to the world—the same mission He entrusted to Jonah and Peter. As God makes a rooster crow to announce the dawn, so He has given His people a special talent to awaken the world. We must not be silent but go and wake up the world, as God's faithful people.

If Peter had not proclaimed God's word and just kept silent, would he have been able to lead over 3,000 souls to repentance in a day? If we do not give a wake-up call to the world, people will not be awakened from their deep spiritual sleep.

Spiritual watchmen awaken the world with the voice of God

Ezek 3:17-21 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me. When I say to a wicked man, 'You will surely die,' and you do not warn him or speak out to dissuade him from his evil ways in order to save his life, that wicked man will die for his sin, and I will hold you accountable for his blood. But if you do warn the wicked man and he does not turn from his wickedness or from his evil ways, he will die for his sin; but you will have saved yourself. ..."

Ezek 3:7-11 "... Do not be afraid of them or terrified by them, though they are a rebellious house." And he said to me, "Son of man, listen carefully and take to heart all the words I speak to you. Go now to your countrymen in exile and speak to them. Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says,' whether they listen or fail to listen."

These words are given not only to the prophet Ezekiel, but to all people who believe in God. The saints who believe in God have been appointed as the watchmen of truth. Our task is to give a wake-up call to the world. When we preach the word of God, we must not add to or take away from it. Then we will be able to lead the world to repentance and salvation.

Rev 22:18-19 I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds anything to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book. And if anyone takes words away from this book of prophecy, God will take away from him his share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

This verse reminds us of our mission to preach the word of God as it is. The world is full of darkness, being chained to Satan, so that people cannot know the true will of God. The saints of God must not leave this dark world just as it is, but awaken it with the word of God little by little.

Christ, the mystery of God

When we preach the gospel to Samaria and the ends of the earth, the gospel will serve as a trumpet call to wake up the world. Christ is the greatest mystery described in the words of the gospel.

Col 1:23-27 if you continue in your faith, established and firm, not moved from the hope held out in the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant. ... the mystery that has been kept hidden for ages and generations, but is now disclosed to the saints. To them God has chosen to make known among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

We are living in the last days. To lead us on the path to salvation, God made known to us the greatest mystery, namely, Christ. It is the Bible that testifies about Christ (John 5:39). Therefore, any thought or philosophy of man must not be added. We have to understand God's providence for the salvation of mankind through the words of the Bible without adding or taking away.

The Bible testifies about Christ—the mystery that has been kept hidden for ages and generations—as follows:

Romans 5:12-14 Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all men, because all sinned ... Nevertheless, death reigned from the time of Adam to the time of Moses, even over those who did not sin by breaking a command, as did Adam, who was a pattern of the one to come.

Here "the one to come" means Jesus to come a second time. The Bible says Adam was a pattern of Christ. This contains a significant meaning. God created the first man Adam and made Eve from his rib. So when people talk about Adam, his wife Eve is automatically mentioned as well.

If Adam represents Christ to come a second time, whom does his wife Eve represent? In order to know about Christ—the mystery of God—described in the Bible, we need to find the answers to the following questions through the Bible: Why did God create Adam and Eve? Why did He make Adam a pattern of Christ to come a second time? And what relationship does Adam's wife, Eve, have with Christ who is to come a second time?

God the Mother, the Bride of the Lamb

Let's see how the Apostle John describes Christ to come a second time, who is typified by Adam in the book of Romans.

Rev 19:6-8 Then I heard ... "Hallelujah! For our Lord God Almighty reigns. Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready. Fine linen, bright and clean, was given her to wear." (Fine linen stands for the righteous acts of the saints.)

The term "Lamb" in Revelation refers to Jesus to come a second time. The Apostle John saw through revelation the wife of the Lamb, the bride, as well as the Lamb. Revelation 21 describes the wife of the Lamb as follows:

Rev 21:9-10 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

The angel said to John he would show him the wife of the Lamb, and he showed him Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven. Let's see what the relationship is between the heavenly Jerusalem and us.

Gal 4:26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

The Jerusalem that is above means the Jerusalem in heaven. From Trinity's point of view, Christ the Lamb is our Father. Therefore, the Bride—the wife of the Lamb who is our Father—is our spiritual Mother.

We can reconfirm the existence of our spiritual Father and Mother through the records of the Creation with which God opened up His plan for the salvation of mankind.

Gen 1:26-27 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground." So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

The God who created man was not one, but two—the plural "Us." The Bible says, "God created man in his own image, the image of God he created him; male and female he created them." Through these words, we can confirm that there are both male and female images for God.

The male image of God has been called "Father" for thousands of years. In Matthew Jesus taught His disciples how to pray: "Our Father in heaven ..." (Matt 6:9). Then, what should we call the female image of God? In Galatians, She is called "our Mother." The Bible clearly testifies not only about "our Father," but also about "our Mother."

The Bible begins with Adam and Eve, and ends with the Spirit and the Bride

The Bible says that the mystery of Christ has been kept hidden for ages and generations. The word "hidden" implies something that already existed. To understand the mystery of God is to understand the existence of God that has been hidden from ages and from generations—since the creation of the world.

Our physical life is given by our physical mothers. Likewise, our spiritual life, eternal life, is to be given by our spiritual Mother. Therefore, we must believe in both God the Father and God the Mother to gain eternal life.

Many religious leaders today exclude all the records concerning Mother and insist that God the Father alone made heaven and earth and created mankind. However, God says that if anyone takes words away from the Bible, He will take away from him his share in the holy city, the kingdom of God. Eternal salvation is given to those who trust God's word, not men's. When we understand all these truths, written connectedly from Genesis to Revelation, we can give praise to God our Father and glory to God our Mother.

In Revelation, the last Adam—Christ who is the Lamb—appears, along with His wife. The Elohim Gods, who appear at the beginning of the Bible, reveal Their existence again to us at the end of the Bible and make known to us all the mysteries that have been kept hidden for ages and generations.

Rev 22:17 The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.

The Lamb and His bride or wife in Revelation 19 and 21 are described as the Spirit and the Bride in Revelation 22. As the Spirit is Christ—God our Father, we can understand that the Bride is the wife of Christ—God our Mother who appears in Genesis 1.

God said, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End." The terms Beginning and End refer to two points (termini). God is from everlasting to everlasting, so He has no beginning or end. Then, why does God say He is the Beginning and the End?

The Bible consists of 66 books. Genesis 1 is the first chapter of the Bible, and Revelation 22 is the last chapter of it. In Genesis 1, God the Father and God the Mother created man in Their own image, saying, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness," and male and female They created them. The Gods appear as the Spirit and the Bride in Revelation 22 and say, "Come to take the water of life," and They warn us not to add to or take away from Their words.

Wake up the world with the voice of the Spirit and the Bride

We need to look at the words of the Bible just as they are, so that we can get salvation. The prophet Hosea lamented, "My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge" (Hosea 4:6). As the people of Zion, we should always study the words of the Bible and obey the will of God the Father and God the Mother, in order that we may receive eternal life and salvation.

Those who want to live according to the teachings of the Bible must believe in God the Mother as well as God the Father. With this message, we should awaken the world. If we understand the mystery of God that has been kept hidden from ages and from generations, we should give a wake-up call to the world by preaching the good news to all people.

God has given us an alarm call to wake up the world. Just as a rooster crows to herald the break of a day, we have to awaken the dawn. With the voice of preaching the gospel, let us wake up this dark world. "Believe in God the Father and God the Mother and fear Them, and you will be saved." Let us proclaim this message with a louder voice than Jonah and Peter.

Hello everyone and I hope that our Heavenly Father and Mother is blessing you all for your keeping and holding to the testimony of Bible. I have been reading the comments above and it's sad that there are some who criticize our Heavenly Father and Mother. Well for my brothers and sisters, I hope you guys will continue to preach the good news of salvation. Jane Wellington was here from New Zealand Zion.

ben, the problem is that you guys don't hold on to the testimony of God. Instead, you ben and your anti-Church of God choose to use the opinion of men to try to understand God's administration.

1 John 5:9

9We accept man's testimony, but God's testimony is greater because it is the testimony of God, which he has given about his Son.

1 Corinthians 1:25

Clear enough ben? God bless you.

The boat ride was a fact with reference to the picture by one of your member on you tube. I'm glad that you understood the nursery rhyme easily just as you do with the fables of the church. Now who are the kiddies?

Deacon Elijah

Leading my Brothers and Sisters to stand firm to the end.

So when was this title Deacon (of the internet) conferred upon you. Hmm! I guess after having pleased mother by hanging around the anti-cog sites for a very long time and without any solid answers.

M. God also receives awards only in korea (man's opinion on appreciating her gardening work, medals for running the cult marathon and visits to the hospitals) what a cheap contribution to the society. To win the nobel prize she must stop preaching about nuclear war and disasters

Bright said: "Believe in God the Father and God the Mother and fear them, and you will be saved." Let us proclaim this message with a louder voice than Jonah and Peter.

You can proclaim till you lose your voice and live with lots and lots of fear yet there will be no salvation for those believing in false Gods.

So Ben and Sarah resort to name calling and childish taunts.

Still wondering what you are trying to accomplish. Well, we all know what you are trying to do, Reply but it is all in vain.

Ben keeps saying people are changing the subject, as if he is the teacher of some virtual online classroom. Lol. Open your eyes Ben, do you believe the prophecies? Do you have any interest in knowing the prophecies regarding this last age or are you just an opposer of Christ who speaks empty words?

Ummm... Which Christ are you referring to? If Jesus, then say Jesus. If Ahnsahngman, then say Ahnsahngman. I do believe in prophecies, just not that your dead Korean man-god and dying Korean woman-god has/is fulfilling them.

You acknowledge that you change the topic, yet you have no intention on answering past questions that you and ur church members have left hanging.

You couldn't even answer me whether or not you celebrate your birthday or New Years. It's as simple as a Yes or a No. So which is it Elijah?

Again ben. We have nothing against you personally, neither to Sarah. But you guys concentrate on what the Bible testifies based on men's opinion instead of what it actually testifies. We would love to have you guys on our church and become one of the children of promise according to the Scripture. But you guys have to soften your calloused hearts and listen to the prophecies of the Scripture. No matter how you guys think of how crazy the prophecies of the Bible, it's still gonna be fulfilled no matter what because it is the Will of God. God bless you ben and Sarah.

Luke 15:3-32

3Then Jesus told them this parable: 4"Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Does he not leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it? 5And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders 6and goes home.

Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.' 7I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.

8"Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins and loses one. Does she not light a lamp, sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? 9And when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost coin.' 10In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

11Jesus continued: "There was a man who had two sons. 12The younger one said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of the estate.' So he divided his property between them.

13"Not long after that, the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth in wild living. 14After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need. 15So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs. 16He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.

17"When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired men have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! 18I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. 19I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired men.' 20So he got up and went to his father.

"But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.

21"The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

22"But the father said to his servants, 'Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. 23Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let's have a feast and celebrate. 24For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' So they began to celebrate.

25"Meanwhile, the older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. 26So he called one of the servants and asked him what was going on. 27'Your brother has come,' he replied, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.'

28"The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him. 29But he answered his father, 'Look! All these years I've been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. 30But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!’

31” ‘My son,’ the father said, ‘you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. 32But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’ “

THE ONE WHO ASKED ABOUT BIRTHDAYS

I personally don't celebrate my birthdays, I do remember my birthday by buying myself a treat.
And I don't see any harm with birthdays, it's just my birthdate every year, that's it. It's not like I'm worshipping Mithra when I buy me a pretty dress. That's dumb. As for New Year's, I don't see the big deal either. It's the starting of a new cycle, not the worship of the Chinese Dragon. I have seen small gatherings for birthdays and I don't think New Year's is celebrated in the church. I doubt it. It has not been the case here with me.

Hey, Ben! Is typing working? Is breathing working? You think I live in the church?
And about that website, I have no clue where you find all this info, and I can tell you that Cog and that website are different doctrines.
You say you know so much about the Cog, then tell me how do I know that all these things you say about Ahnsanghong and Zhang are true?
Where do you get the info? Is it a reliable website? Is it a reliable source? Have you spoken to someone who works inside the church or knows about the foundation of the church? Have you read a book about it? How do I know if Zhang really was Ahnsan hong's lover? It's easy for me to say DOXY IS THE GOD WARRIOR IN YOUTUBE. And yeah it's easy to say AHNSANGHONG IS SECOND COMING CHRIST. Prove me wrong. No bible verses please. Where did you get the info?

Simple... He's DEAD Lisle. I got that from countless sites, even the official CoG site – Pro COG and Anti CoG sites. And he didn't rise from the dead. He's still buried in a little cemetery in south korea. Mother J will be buried soon too since her time is almost up.

The birthday celebration was made by pagans to ward off bad spirits. That's why today, we tend to make noise with horns and party poppers, etc. It was derived from that root. You say we celebrate pagan days yet you do the same. Celebrating on a Sunday doesn't make a difference to you celebrating on a Saturday. If you think that Saturday actually means Sabbath day, then please get your facts straightened out first. Saturday was named to celebrate the greek God Saturn. Same thing...

So u r celebrating Saturn's day.

As for New Years, you mentioned it isn't celebrated in the church (as well as birthdays I'm guessing). Not true. Some churches gather during New Years to pray for a blessed year to come. But even so, does that mean I can celebrate Christmas or Easter at home? And not go to church so that it seems I'm not practicing paganism? Celebrating outside the church or inside the church is irrelevant. Celebrating is celebrating. How about that video of Mother Js day. I was fortunate to see that before CoG took it off the net. It was quite entertaining :p

I've researched multiple sites, got incites from different people – CoG members and non-CoG members. I have family who tried to convert me but got irate and cold when I could prove them wrong with facts, or because they couldn't answer my questions. They became distant to the rest of my family just because we didn't wna accept their beliefs.

You try to be rational, but it's the inconsistency that's amazing here. Other CoG members dnt wna use rationality. You and some others do. Yet nothing is solid coming from any of you.

I haven't read the Ahnsahngman's book, but I have read a few excerpts from it. I'm just wondering if you have Lisle? What can you say about it?

Ben, have you seen Proof of Ahnsanghong I, II and III?

By: Lisle on March 19, 2009
at 2:22 am

This is what I don't trust: websites like that.

If you have any info on websites or videos, or books, or testimony of an ex Cog that is proven false, I can't rely on your information. I hear a lot of bs from every single religion, even atheism.

Reply

My curiosity stems from the fact that someone said that Zhang was Ahnsanghong's lover. And Ahnsanghong wasn't really a stonemacer.

Who said this? Do you know where it's coming from and if the websites are reliable and if there is any way I can talk to an Ex-Pastor, ex-deacon?

A lot of info on the net is unfiltered.

Well the Lisle, try googling the oh so many blogs online made by multiple (or maybe just one person, who knows) CoG members who testify how Ahnsahngman had to live a hard life as a mason, poor him for having to lift all those rocks! It makes me laugh all the time!

Hello kc and God bless you. Let's remember Mother's teachings. If they don't want to listen to the Spirit, then it's their choice. Although there are still people that slander the Church of God, truly the prophecy is still being fulfilled. The Cult Watch site really failed big time because even though people see it, our lost brothers and sisters still choose to follow the Words of God as they know the even Jesus Christ was branded as a cult 2000 years ago because the Jews and Pharisees are stuck in the name of Jehovah because they failed to understand the prophecies in the Scripture. Mother Jerusalem will be praised in the whole world as prophesied in the Bible. More and more Zions are being established all over the world and our lost brothers and sisters are starting to stream to Zion, like doves that goes back to their nest. The sooner we find them all, the sooner we get to go back to heaven with Father and Mother as prophesied in the Bible. Let's continue to preach the gospel and find our lost brothers and sisters so we could all have that eternal life promised through the Passover of the New Covenant.

Okay, I just happen to search for a gospel of the truth straight from the bible and I ran into this website..I read some of these comments and some of the experiences ...I hurt for the reason is because no matter which way you see it "REALLY" we all are sinners and WE can even keep the Ten Commandments, In stead of trying to understand on your own about Heavenly father and Mother and the spirit and bride...Start with the Ten Commandments..can you really truthfully say you keep all Ten Commandments..Before even answering this comment LOOK And SEEK the Truth...The main commandment we all have never Kept is REMEMBER*Seventh Day>OUR Lord Created & Rested Made it Holy and Named it the Seventh day....Jewish law.HMMMMM"" they even broke it.... that is why OUR GOD ALmighty open the path for the Gentiles....beleive this first..obsorb it...Know it and your Spirit that lives in your body knows the truth why because in Geneises Our lord Breathe into our nostrils and we were given a spirit of his image...Look for yourself...READ IT CAREFULLY (US) (OUR IMAGE) LOOK HERE IS A COPY OF THE VERSE26 And God said, Let US make man in OUR image, after OUR likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. YOU have a bible Read it see it KNOW IT>>>that is why OUR GOD ALMIGHTY says seek and you will find....Knock and it will be open to you.....then you can understand the truth...JUST REMEMBER THE SEVENTH DAY >>SABBATH Created ,Blessed it, and made IT HOLY...for USWhy would you not want to be in it...hmmmmm

1 Corinthians 15:9-10 9For I am the least of the apostles and do not even deserve to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. 10But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me was not without effect. No, I worked harder than all of them—yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me.

Just like before when I criticize the Church of God, Apostle Paul did it also. But when God used him, he actually worked harder than the other apostles. Looking at his previous life, he's not even worthy to be called an Apostle of Christ. It's amazing how God's will works.

Truly the Bible has no contradiction if we listen to Christ Ahnsahnghong the Root of David who unsealed the scrolls of the Scripture so that the prophecy that God's mystery will be revealed to His saints and now it's actually happening. Thanks Sister Jeane for sharing the fragrance of Zion and helping unbelievers see the truth.

Mother Never Let Me Go
Sister Wendy from Los Angeles Zion

I would like to begin this fragrance by giving all praise and thanks to my Saviors, Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem. Without the great love of Father and Mother, I would not have purpose or meaning in life. Thank You for taking me out of Babylon and giving me the privilege of working for You, by preaching the new covenant of life and love.

For many years of my life, my soul was being poisoned by the teachings of Babylon. My parents forced me to attend an all girls Catholic Middle and High School. I was being taught directly by nuns from the Catholic Church. I grew up, thinking that the father on earth was the Pope and the mother on earth was the Virgin Mary. How pitiful my life was! When I turned 13 years old, my older sister preached to me about idols and she took me to Zion for Bible studies. This was in the year 1999. The LA Church of God had been recently established in downtown LA. It looked more like a house than a church. I remember when I walked inside, Zion had a white carpet and there was a big white room with a table, chairs, and a white board. Everyone in the Church apart from a few Americans were Korean. Even the services were in Korean. The American brothers and sisters needed to wear headphones to hear the service as it was being translated by a sister in English. It was so different from all the other churches, but what I remember most is the love I felt from the people that greeted me. I learned about the Secret of the Forgiveness of Sins. After that, many months went by and my sister continuously preached to me. My heart was so hardened. I felt like I needed to give my allegiance to the Catholic Church. However, I couldn't deny what was written in the Bible because it was so factual. It was really hard for me to accept that everything I ever believed in was a lie! I felt like my world came tumbling down before my eyes.

When my parents found out that I attended the Church, they were very upset. However, I continued going to the Church of God, they made me go to a different Christian church. They thought the Church of God was a cult and wanted me to attend a different church and forget about Zion. Slowly but surely, I started to forget the true teachings of the Bible. 5 years passed by and the only truth that I could remember was the Sabbath Day and Cross Reverence is Idolatry. Those two teachings were enough to make me realize that all the churches that I attended were false because they had a cross or kept services on Sundays. I made a promise to God that when I turned 18 years old I would go back. During those 5 years I prayed to God to help me never forget the truth and to wait for me.

The summer before I turned 18, I worked really hard, saved up money and bought my own car. It was the year 2004 and I graduated from high school. After 5 long years in confusion and doubt, I made a resolution to keep my promise and go back to Zion, but I had lost all contact with anyone who went to the Church. I drove by the Church in downtown LA, but the Church had moved from location and I didn't know where it was. I looked for old pamphlets that I had saved from years ago and I found different phone numbers written on the back. As I called them, they turned out to be disconnected and wrong numbers. I looked on line and I couldn't find the Church. I thought I was never going to find Zion again. I was giving up hope when all of a sudden I looked in an old box in my closet and found a picture of Father and Mother. I found a veil bag with 2 veils, a really old New Song Book, and another Church of God pamphlet with another phone number. I had forgotten that I had saved all of these things! I called the number on the back of the pamphlet and it was the phone number to the Church. The pastor answered the phone and gave me the Church's address and the service times. The Church was about 45 minutes away from my house. I was so happy. Father and Mother allowed a great miracle to happen!

That Friday I couldn't sleep. I was so excited and nervous. I really hoped that when I went back to study the Bible, I wouldn't find any discrepancies or contradictions in the Church's teachings. That Saturday morning I filled my car with gas and drove to Zion. Now the Church was bigger and the service was in English and there were many American brothers and sisters. I walked into the morning service 15 minutes before the service began. The veil I put on was different than every one else's and so was the New Song Book; my veil and New Song Book were outdated. I didn't understand the sermon because I didn't know what a lot of things meant and how they connected to one another. After the service, brothers and sisters approached me and asked who I was, I told them my story and they were all moved. They kept saying "Wow, what a miracle! After so many years you came back!"

From that point on, I studied a lot and read Father's books every night. I was so amazed by the truth. I could feel myself falling in love with God. Father and Mother allowed me to join the choir and I started to take course classes at Church so I could learn how to preach. Slowly but surely, my faith started growing and I had aspirations to be a gospel worker. In the year 2005 I was blessed with the opportunity to go visit Mother. After seeing Mother, my life changed. My faith skyrocketed and I bore many fruits. And even my fruits bore fruit! Also, with the help of Father and Mother, I was able to overcome every single obstacle. Through so much struggle, I became strong enough to take on heavy loads and many burdens, to depend solely on God, and a burning desire to go to heaven where there is no more pain and suffering developed within me. I learned to appreciate and not complain because my suffering could never compare to that of Father and Mother.

Thank You, Father and Mother, for not leaving me behind. How could I keep You in my heart, being so young and having no real understanding? Now, looking back, I realize that You never let me go. You held on to me and patiently waited for me to come back to Your loving arms. Thank You for holding on to me and giving me the strength to overcome all the hardships. Mother and Father, I owe You my whole life. I will repay Your love by preaching this gospel and finding my lost brothers and sisters. I pray all of the heavenly children may unite in the world evangelism and speed Father's Coming, shorten Mother's suffering, and not allow anything to get in the way to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Amen. It's a good thing that our brothers and sisters are working hard to preach the gospel of Christ and making sure that the effort that Father and Mother did so that we could come back to the Kingdom of Heaven and receive eternal life, are not wasted.

Philippians 2:12-18 – 12Therefore, my dear friends, as you have always obeyed—not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence—continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling, 13for it is God who works in you to will and to act according to his good purpose.

14Do everything without complaining or arguing, 15so that you may become blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a crooked and depraved generation, in which you shine like stars in the universe 16as you hold out the word of life—in order that I may boast on the day of Christ that I did not run or labor for nothing. 17But even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service coming from your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you. 18So you too should be glad and rejoice with me.

COG and the Korean Cults

Trying to leave the cult is next to impossible in most situations. Cults often spend significant amounts of money and are able to win court cases by maintaining good relationship with the government.

Reply

Brainwashing is a practice which is common among most cults and cog does it well by using the bible scriptures which make members believe they are in the true church. The members are trained to create immediate and intense intimate friendships with potential new recruits. This manufactured friendship or calling Bro/Sis creates a sense of loyalty to the group.

Another often employed technique involves scaring the members into submission. This can include threats like loss of assets or even personal salvation if the member leaves the cult. The leader convinces their followers that they are God or hold the sole key to God or the Divine forces and commonly offer promises of paradise or Utopian afterlife as a reward for being faithful to the laws and beliefs of the cult. They use manipulation techniques to slant their followers against other religions, especially those of the mainstream variety. Cults attempt to separate members from society by teaching them to fear those who don't follow their theology.

Cults are popular among those who feel as if they do not belong to anything and have no place in society. Leaders search for lost, lonely and many times quite vulnerable members.

Korea has a high percentage of Christian and Buddhist believers, but there are many charismatic and deceitful cult leaders in that nation as well. As a result, there are many people in the country turning to Korean cults for their sense of spirituality and religion

The Reverend Sun Myung Moon started the Unification Church in South Korea in the early 1950s. He is considered by many to be the first popular Korean cult which, in turn, gave way to many different branches of Korean cults. Korea is now home to over 200 different cults, many of which are doomsday cults.

Many of the doomsday cults in Korea believe that their salvation lies in their own destruction, meaning that they either have to commit suicide or kill a group of people before committing suicide in order to be saved. There are many different aspects of each Korean cult, but almost all have a few things in common, including complete authoritative power by one leader only, typically a charismatic man with a Messiah complex or a Mother Jerusalem.

The effects of cults in Korea can be devastating. Cults in Korea not only devastate the members, but they also ruin the families that watch it happen. Many members of these cults feel as if they are accepted and embrace their leaders without seeing what damage it may be doing to them.

Experts believe that brainwashing is the main tool used in Korean cults, extreme rehabilitation maybe needed. Cults in South Korea are notorious for their involvement in swindling scandals, sexual abuse charges, and dismemberment of their victims, slave labor, and extortion of money. Despite these alarming practices, cults are making a comeback in South Korea.

According to much estimation, aided by the economic crisis in their country, a rash of new cults continues to spring up while older ones revive. Approximately 100 cult leaders currently claim to be gods, Mother Jerusalem or messiahs. They are flourishing by taking advantage of the country's economic crisis.

South Korea also has its fair share of cult horror stories. So keep a watch on COG in 2012 as they wait for their fake God's return to be in glory or we may have to see another end of the innocent members and be sorry.

In the world today there are so many sects and cults, people always think of the word sect, or cult as something bad. But when you look at the definition of these words through the dictionary you will see that all religions of the world are defined as sects or cults. Even Christianity during the time of Christ was called a sect or a cult. the reason for this is that they fit all the Characteristics of what the world defines today as a sect or a cult. Let us see:

1)Cults Claim to Have all Knowing leadership:

John 21:17 {the third time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep.}

2) Cults only teach you up to what you are able to believe:

Hebrews 5:11 {We much to say about this, but it is hard to explain because you are slow to learn.}

3) Cults claim no room for differences(Everybody is the same):

Colossians 3:11 {Here there is no Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all, and is in all.}

4) Cults claim to introduce a new and better way:

Hebrews 7:18-19 {the former regulation is set aside because it was weak and useless (for the law made nothing perfect), and a better hope is introduced, by which we draw near to God.}

5) Cult members should imitate cult leader:

Philippians 2:5 {your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus}

6) Cults isolate you from your family:

Lk 18:28-30 {Peter said to him, "We have left all we had to follow you!" , "I tell you the truth," Jesus said to them, "no one who has left home or wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God will fail to receive many times as much in this age and, in the age to come, eternal life."}

7) Cults Brainwash ignorant and people who have no critical thinking.

Acts 4:13 {when they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus.}

8) Cults Recruit people:

Mk 16:15-16 {He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned}

9) Cults always claim Persecution of the Leader:

Acts 22:6-8 {"About noon as I came near Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me. I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, 'Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?' 'Who are you, Lord?' I asked " 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting,' he replied.}

10) Cults have ignorant leaders:

John 7:14-16 {Not until halfway through the Feast did Jesus go up to the temple courts and begin to teach. The Jews were amazed and asked, "How did this man get such learning without having studied?"}

11) Cults try to keep members busy:

Acts 2:46-47 {every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.}

12) Cult leaders always try to gain your trust:

John 14:1 {"Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me}

13) Cults believe that by your actions you prove your faith:

James 2:17 {in the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, Is dead.}

14) Cults claim salvation is through obedience before the end comes:

2 Pet 3:10-11 {"1But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare. Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives.}

15) Cults make members dependant to the cult leader:

John 15:5 {"I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.}

16) Cults claim that there is no exit apart from the cult:

John 6:67-68 {"You do not want to leave too, do you?" Jesus asked the Twelve. Simon Peter answered him "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.} 17) Cult members claim to have "Spiritual Battles": Ephesians 6:12 {for our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.}

18) Cults try to keep things secret:

Matthew 17:9 {As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, "Don't tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."}

19) Cult leaders claim to be the only way, and supreme authority:

John 14:6 {Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.}

Today it is ridiculous as a Christian that the Church of God is a cult, but we perfectly see that it fits all of the characteristics of one. God knew this, he knew that that even the truth from him was going to be labeled as a cult, for this reason he left us the Bible. We are to judge the truth through the Bible, and not through the standards and the viewpoints of the world. that is what the apostles were commended for.

2 Co 5:16 {So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer}

You want to understand who Christ is, study the Bible. You want to know who Christ Ahnsahnghong is then study the Bible at the World Mission Society Church of God. Why listen to the opinion of some website, Cult Watch. We will continue analyzing the claims made by the Cult Watch website, to prove that all the claims have no basis, no truth. All the glory to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother.

YA BUT TODAY THE WORD CULT IS AN INSULT, MAN, JUST BY ALL THE PERSECUTION GOING ON,,,,,CANT ANYONE NOTICE THAT JESUS WENT THRU THE SAME THING, DID YOU KNOW THAT FALSE CHURCHES DO NOT GET RIDICULED, ONLY THE CHURCH OF GOD, BECAUSE IT ONLY TOOK ONE EVIL PERSON TO START IT, AND THE REST ARE PUPPETS, FOLLOWING THE WILL OF SATAN, IF ANY OF YOU HAD GOD, NONE OF YOU WOULD BE SAYING THESE THINGS ABOUT OUR HOME, WHICH WE DEDICATE OURSELVES TO, IF THIS IS HOW YOUR CHURCH TEACHES YOU PEOPLE TO BEHAVE, THEN IM GLAD IM NOT IN YOUR CHURCH, BECAUSE I AM NOTHING LIKE ANY OF YOU

cult horror stories?

The leader of Chun Jo Hoe or Heaven's Gathering Mo Haeng-Ryong was charged for defrauding his followers out of $90 million.

Another bible based cult, the Youngsaeng (everlasting life) Church hit the news in 1998 when six members of the group and the leader, Woo Joong-min, committed suicide by burning themselves inside a van. The leader had a history of fraud and swindling his followers, some of whom had disappeared

South Korea and a cult hit the news in 2002 with the announcement that the first human cloning had taken place. Raelians, who have a base in Seoul, believe that life was created by super-intelligent aliens in a mass cloning experiment. More cloned births by lesbian mothers have been planned for the future. The group has been associated with free sex.

So why keep a watch is because COG have predicted 2012 as the end time and when a cult is based on prophecy then it brings to mind the mass death at Jonestown which ultimately became a self-fulfilling prophecy.

Poland now speaks on behalf of all cults wow! wonder why Hong left the SDA and why do you preach hatred against others including RC if all cults traits are so well scriptually explained.

Jeanne said "Mother is hurting" Indeed not just the members but also breaking homes/families.

The story about a 13 yr old girl & her decision to join the church what a funny testimony. You make me laugh.

I am born & bred in korea and seen the tactics used by these cults out there. These members on their 2 week visit go back so impressed just like this little 13 yr old girl views about Zion having a white carpet and there was a big white room with a table, chairs, and a white board. Hmm!

FOR THE LAST TIME! THE CHURCH OF GOD DOES NOT PROCLAIM THE WORLD ENDING IN 2012, THAT IS A BUNCH OF LIES, OR A BUNCH OF PEOPLE WHO ARE JUST TALKING CUZ THEY HAVE A MOUTH, NO!!!!!! I CLEARLY HEARD IN THE SERMON LAST WEEK OR SO, THAT NO ONE KNOWS THE HOUR, OR THE TIME OF FATHERS COMING, ALLL WE KNOW IS IT IS VERY SOON

Definition: The attribute of God by which God perfectly and eternally knows all things which can be known, past, present, and future. God knows how best to attain His desired ends. God knows everything that has happened and everything that will happen.

Our Mother Received Order of Merit (on 2004-08-09 by President Roh Moo-Hyun)

This order of merit is presented (a star medal) to Mrs. Gil-Jah Zang in recognition of her outstanding contribution to national sports development (Hmm! a sporty God) according to the provisions of the Constitution of the Republic of Korea. (I'll scratch your back if you'll scratch mine)

SEOUL – Former President Roh Moo-hyun was interrogated by prosecutors yesterday over a bribery scandal, the latest in a long line of South Korean ex-leaders to face accusations of financial wrongdoing while in office. Many Koreans felt like they had been through this before.

ROH apologized to the people, saying "I am ashamed of myself. I am so sorry to be bitterly disappointing people."

Oh I wish someday this pretending to be God if has some conscience left will apologize to her members for falsely promising them eternal life.

What is the scripture they like to quote? Yes,

Revelations 22:17- The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.

Blaise Pascal: "Men never commit evil so fully and joyfully as when they do it for religious convictions"

If the religion if corrupt, then the followers are misguided into sin, thinking that they are on the correct path. So Wake Up! Deprogram yourself and you will see the mess you were into. Stop digging into scriptures and use them for mama wolfy who is in sheepy's clothing

Acts 4:12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. (The context is Jesus Christ.)

Psalms 115:1 Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name (Jesus) give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

Isaiah 48:11 For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for how should my name be polluted? I will not give my glory unto another. (Some dead Hong and deaf mother)

Isaiah 60:19 The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

Jeremiah 13:16 Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness. (There IS light which leads to death— This is the "light" at the end of the tunnel etc, which we hear about in death and return experiences—Hong is NOT the God of the Bible.)

Malachi 2:2 If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart. (Here is your damnation— Curses on you if you will not denounce your fantasies.)

Luke 4:6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it. (Satan CAN give glory if you obey him and believe the gospel of false Gods.)

2 Corinthians 4:6 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. (Any other source of glory is of Satan.)

Ephesians 1:17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: (An angel NEVER told you anything you should believe— It is all found in Jesus Christ and His Word ONLY. You are not born again, if your dead Hong or some old bride pretends to be god and you believe you will go to Hell for your assistance to this satanic program— Unless you publically repent of "another gospel" and abandon the false message AND messenger.)

Revelation 14:7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters. (If you give glory to these false gods and their messages, you have no fear of true God. He will send you to Hell for your arrogance, and that is just where you belong.

Revelation 16:9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory. (Join these rebels as they refuse to give God all the Glory and you too will burn in Hell and scream for water forever.)

Revelation 22:8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which showed me these things. 9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren the prophets and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God. (When a GOOD angel had given John the revelation, John fell on his face to worship. The angel nearly panicked as he commanded John not to worship him)

This modern teaching of a mystical and fantastic gulf between man and mother gods or angels, evolved by stupid people and devils over the centuries, is highly exaggerated. Evil serve with Satan and dumb fools exalt him. Good angels reject ALL credit for the message or results. Evil crave ALL the glory. The above story comes into perfect perspective if we will see it in this light. Many churches in South Korea use God for their own gain, money and power and so is with COG. Christ's name is being rubbed in the rubbish.

Truly very sad for those who are unable to see true God and lead others into deception. Watch the end results of the cult followers. (ZION-is really filled with spiritual fruits day after day)

Encounter with a Cult

I've had this nagging theological question for a while. It was one that made me seriously question my salvation, and the power of Christ to really save one once and for all from sin.

By: Ming choel on May 22, 2009 at 4:20 am

Reply

"Why," I wondered, "do devils continue to assault my conscience and try to persuade me to sin if I am truly saved? Certainly the enemy, despite his lies, knows his own predicament and understands that Christ redeems men by faith. Why, unless I wasn't truly saved, or following a wrong doctrine, would the enemy continue after my heart if I've truly given it to Jesus?"

The answer, quite short of profundity, hit me last night traveling to service on the subway in. Let me preface the revelation with the rest of the day's events.

After church and lunch, I was sitting in Union Square. I had just said goodbye to my mother on the phone, and was enjoying a nice cup of coffee and iced donut in the chilly November air. I was approached then by two Latinos, finely dressed, holding a Bibles. They asked me if I knew about the "holy mother."

Now, I'm probably a bit too confident in my ability to defend classical, ecumenical Christianity. I read quite a lot of Lewis, listen to quite a lot of Craig, Koukl, Strobel, and Tozer. I weasel my way into metaphysical conversations with non-believing friends, partly out of true spiritual concern, partly out of interest in the subject, and part hubris.

I decided to hear them out. They referenced quite a lot of scripture – scripture I recognized but wasn't too familiar with. They seemed to be very vague, but overall insinuated of a more legalistic salvation than I understood. I did a decent job defending classical Christianity in principle, but unfortunately fell short in having a working knowledge of scripture to back up the universal Christian understanding of God and salvation.

They decided to call "a brother" to come speak with me. Of course, this person would be even more well-versed and persuasive than the two I had been talking with. In retrospect, I suppose the main reason I went along with the charade was to really understand what they were saying. I assumed the brother would be clearer and answer my questions more directly. In a sense, he did.

We went inside a Barnes & Noble, sat behind a stack of art books, and opened up the word of God. Immediately, he began to talk about the importance of keeping the traditional Sabbath and observing the Passover. He tried to show through scripture the requisite of such practices for salvation. He didn't mention the "holy mother."

I tried my best to respectfully listen; to demonstrate with Christ-like love and compassion my concern for their beliefs. Of course, they likely interpreted my behavior as searching for God – their god. That is beside the point. I believe I behaved in a right manner, sticking up for the Christ I knew when and where I could. But that wasn't so easy.

I knew what they were saying was wrong. I knew their legalistic interpretation of Christ's message wasn't the real message the real Christ intended. But, the holes in my Bible-knowledge were made perfectly clear. When I say I listened, that is about all I could do. Those two hours affected me deeply.

After leaving, I felt as if a huge part of my spirit had been ripped out of me – like my Christian convictions had been challenged to the core. This wasn't because that intuitive sense of faith-based salvation no longer seemed logical. It was because the same book that I supposedly based my world-view on had been somehow twisted and perverted to teach something different. They used nothing but the Bible to declare their beliefs.

I researched these guys out, and it sort of pains me that my own faith had to be assured from such investigation. They are called "World Missions Society: Church of God," and they stem from a heretical group originally based in Korea. They believe that Christ returned in 1948, that Passover must be observed for salvation, and that they are the only truly saved church. So about that time, I returned to that question that had been bothering me for a while.

Why would Satan inspire Christians to schism into cults that still preached "Jesus?" I always thought that the "other messiahs" Paul warned about would be of different names. What good does Satan get out of trying to persuade me to such cults?

This question is rooted in this assumption: Satan is only concerned with keeping non-believers non-believers. Now, I suppose this is true. But then I considered this: how do non-believers become believers? The obvious answer is through the persuasion of REAL believers. So, by extension, Satan can be just as effective in damning the world to his own fate by disarming those who would try to be witnesses of Christ.

This organization is not concerned with true spirituality with Christ – they are concerned with their SYSTEM of practice – the type of SYSTEM Christ came to replace so that we could have a real relationship with God.

So why does Satan continue to bother Christians who are saved, with either cults or strange teachings or even sinful choices every day? He wants us disarmed. He wants us to be discouraged, to give up our desire to share Jesus with the world. He wants to try to tell us that we are inadequate, that we believe wrong, and that we still don't know God.

But the truth is that we are redeemed, that we do have a race to run and fight to fight. The truth is that we are God's witnesses, that we are the light of the earth. The truth is that there is an enemy who transcends the reality we know, and is clever, well-versed in scripture, and with millenniums of practice under his belt for disarming Christians.

You know what I got out of the whole ordeal? Closer to God. I realized that I needed to study the Bible, to try to memorize the New Testament. I realized I needed to pray more. I realized I needed to understand true spirituality, not as an emotional experience which offers itself in every place of worship, but as a nuanced and profound conversation between the God and myself.

You see – if this experience had happened a few years ago, when I wasn't nearly as close to God, I might have SERIOUSLY doubted my upbringing and the traditional interpretations of scripture. But it didn't. It happened at precisely the time I had been asking to be closer to God, to have more faith, and to understand God more. And through it all, God whispers, "Persevere, study deeper, ask for guidance. I (JESUS) am with you always, even till the end of the age."

for your information the "US" and "OUR" God is referring to is the holy trinity. The holy trinity made man. God the Father is speaking to God the Son, and he uses personal pronouns US and OUR. These pronouns indicate three distinct persons The Father, The Son and The Holy Spirit.

The word IMAGE is in singular, and shows the three distinct persons of the holy trinity are one in nature and undivided. For it does not say OUR IMAGES. Therefore the trinity is one undivided nature in three distinct persons.

Man is not one in nature with the holy trinity. But he was made in the image and likeness of the holy trinity; and he was made male and female. Therefore the dignity of each man and each woman is this image and likeness.

Sorry, NO mention of MJ here. Wake up you poor Cog followers.

Breaking news for the COG

Ex-S.Korean leader Roh (the one who recognized mother God's contribution to national sports (Bungee jumping) leaps to death over scandal.

SEOUL, South Korea – Former President Roh Moo-hyun, embroiled in a penetrating corruption investigation, leaped to his death Saturday — a shocking end for a man whose rags-to-riches rise took him from rural poverty to Seoul's presidential Blue House. He was 62. May he rest in peace.

Allegations that Roh, president from 2003-08, accepted $6 million in bribes from a businessman (Hmm! Religious Businesswoman)

Roh hurled himself off a 100 foot (30 meter) high cliff early Saturday while hiking, trailed by a security guard, near his home in Bongha, police in the nearby southern port city of Busan said. Life had become unbearable and "too many people are suffering because of me," Roh wrote in a note found on his computer, police said.

"What's left for me for the rest of my life is just to be a burden to others," his note said. "Don't be too sad. Aren't life and death both part of nature? Don't feel sorry. Don't blame anybody. It's destiny." He asked to be cremated, a small gravestone erected near his home.

Mourners (including the pretending God Mrs Gil-Jah-Zang in a black Hanbok) wailed as Roh's coffin, draped in red, returned to Bongha from a Busan hospital. His two children, sobbing, followed the casket to the community center near his birthplace of Gimhae, some 280 miles (450 kilometers) from Seoul. Hundreds lined up late in the night to pay their respects.

Truly Mother Jerusalem will give eternal life in these last days.

Cog go to church every Saturday, always carry the NIV Bible in the right hand, men in suit and women in white veil, they rattle the same and same scriptures and keep singing praises to false God. Is the Bible, veil just an accessory for COG Christians?

As Paul states, like the games, we run a race, but the race we run is not for gold, silver or bronze medals (1 Corinthians 9:24-27). We run a race for the prize of the high calling in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:10-16). We continue in the path of our Lord and Savior and await his glorious coming and the crown of righteousness unto eternal life (2 Timothy 4:6-8). Now, that is a prize worth running for! And, in Christ Jesus it is already ours (1 John 5:13). Amen!

Good on you Jamie, I was getting fed up with reading the false doctrines and shallowness that the cog members display. I just can't believe the way the Cog TWIST the scriptures. Hello Jamie. I'm a member of Church of God from Calamba, Philippines Zion and you've probably have seen my comments above. On behalf of my brothers and sisters, I apologize if they are acting childish. I have tried to make them realize before that posting our church teachings to those who doesn't want to accept it won't do any good. As far as I know my brothers and sisters are just trying to preach but forcing someone to listen who doesn't want to hear our church teachings is totally wrong. Again, I'm sorry Jamie if my brothers and sisters are bothering you. I hope I could do something.

My personal experience with the Church is God is awful – it has torn my family apart and putting two little girls in harms way. It saddens me when a church takes priority over their well being... church late at night tuesdays, all day Saturdays... punishing them if they don't have scriptures memorized...

Reply

Not saying all COGs member do this... don't want to accuse all, but that is my experience. So yes, I lean on the side of a cult. May be not the kool aid drinking kind but it blinds people... from common decency, from common humanity... in my life, they have been selfish and unfortunately (and legally) winning anyway.

How do I answer when I get asked by Christmas is evil... or halloween... or Easter... They ask me why they have to go to Church all the time and I can only look at them and say sorry... sorry for all that you endure and hope that things get better.

I am further sadden to hear that COG has been established in the Philippines...

Matthew 28:19-20

19Therefore go and make disciples of ALL NATIONS, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Reply

That's why the CHURCH OF GOD will be established all over the world, starting from the east ends of Earth as prophecied in the Bible.

Micah 4:1-2

1 In the LAST DAYS

the MOUNTAIN OF THE LORD's temple will be established as chief among the mountains;

it will be raised above the hills, and PEOPLES WILL STREAM TO IT.

2 MANY NATIONS will come and say,

"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob.

He will teach us his ways, so that we may walk in his paths."

The law will go out from ZION, the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

So the mountain of God will be established in the LAST DAYS and people from different nations(including Philippines) will stream to it.

Isaiah 33:20

20Behold Zion, the city of our APPOINTED FEASTS! Your eyes will see Jerusalem, an untroubled habitation, an immovable tent, whose stakes will never be plucked up, nor will any of its cords be broken.

Ok so this is not a physical mountain. It talks about the place where the appointed feasts of God will be celebrated and many people from different nations will stream to it.

Isaiah 25:6-9

6 On this mountain the LORD Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for ALL PEOPLES, a banquet of aged wine—the best of meats and the finest of wines.

7 On this mountain he will destroy the shroud that enfolds all peoples,

the sheet that covers all nations;

8 he will swallow up death forever.
The Sovereign LORD will wipe away the tears
from all faces;
he will remove the disgrace of his people
from all the earth.
The LORD has spoken.

9 In that day they will say,
"Surely this is our God;
we trusted in him, and he saved us.
This is the LORD, we trusted in him;
let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation."

Aha. So Mount Zion, the mountain of God has the appointed feasts of God including the banquet of aged wine. The best of meats and finest of wines. Also, those appointed feasts of God can swallow up death forever.
What is the food that God prepared that would swallow up death forever?

John 6:53-56

53Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. 56Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.

Luke 22:7-20

7Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. 8Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the PASSOVER."
9"Where do you want us to prepare for it?" they asked.

10He replied, "As you enter the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him to the house that he enters, 11and say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' 12He will show you a large upper room, all furnished. Make preparations there."

13They left and found things just as Jesus had told them.
So they prepared the Passover.

14When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. 15And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.
16For I tell you, I will not eat it again until it finds fulfillment in the kingdom of God."

17After taking the cup, he gave thanks and said, "Take this and divide it among you. 18For I tell you I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

19And he took BREAD, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "THIS IS MY BODY given for you; DO THIS IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME.”

20In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, “THIS CUP IS THE NEW COVENANT IN MY BLOOD, WHICH IS POURED OUT FOR YOU.

Ephesians 1:7

7In him WE HAVE REDEMPTION through HIS BLOOD, the FORGIVENESS OF SINS, in accordance with the riches of God's grace

Ephesians 1:13-14

13And you also were included in Christ when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation. Having believed, you were marked in him with a SEAL, the promised Holy Spirit, 14who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession—to the praise of his glory.

Through the Passover, the body and blood of Christ which is the Seal of God, we can have eternal life. It is the Feasts of God that swallow up death forever. So it was prophesied that this Feasts of God will be brought in these last days. Where?

Revelation 7:2-3

2Then I saw another ANGEL coming up FROM the EAST, having the SEAL of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: 3”Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a SEAL on the foreheads of the SERVANTS of our GOD.”

The World Mission Society Church of God which is God's spiritual Mount Zion was established from the East ends of earth as prophesied in the Bible.

Hebrews 9:28

28so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation(Passover, Christ body and blood, the aged wine) to those who are waiting for him.

Christ Ahnsahnghong established God's Zion because He is the Second Coming Christ prophesied in the Bible. The only church that celebrates all the appointed feasts of God.

Ok, you want your church to be established in many places... if not all, and I get that. It personally saddens me just because I dont agree with what you practice.

BUT you took one statement of mine, and expanded on that. It wasnt the bulk of what I talked about. All I said that my personal experience with COG was bad, that through what I have seen the people in my life do it consists with a cult. All their time, all their money, its ALL they talk about... they get separated from their family... just seems to consist with attributes that define cults.

Further, I have notice that there seems to be some high preaching going on to military families. Just an interesting choice, its a hard life... separated from family... just wonder if thats a coincidence.

Jamie hats off to you! Keep up with the edit work!

This is a Bible based cult totally misusing the word of God. They have little or no time to think for themselves because of physical and emotional exhaustion. This is also a vital part of the COG mind control process.

Reply

Since there was no response to Mother bowing before a human to receive medal so it is understood that they accept the fact she is not omniscient. Wouldn't she have been aware of president plans to end life?.

If the COG has churches all over the world, so have the rest of the cults like SDA, Jehovah and Moonies. But seeing their downfall and they being rated as cults the COG adopted the secret preaching technique.

Once the brainwashed members return from their 2nd trip get certified as a deacon they devote all their time in setting up a church and preying on the weak minds. The same procedure went on until recent years the "church has spread " trumpeting began. Satan is cunning. Everything is well planned and publicized at the right time.

Oh yeah! They feel persecuted by simple questioning. I am sure haven't yet been to North Korea Interesting! You should ask momma god to give tips on how to enter North Korea as a preacher.

My experience was, 2 korean girls knocked on our door and asked if we wanted to study the bible with them. At first we were like, lets entertain them since they are doing a good thing evangelizing. They were actually on time because my tita and some of her family was at our house. They just lived 1 block away so they used to visit very often. We all sat down listening to these girls, but something wasn't right. A lot of us were very knowledgeable of the Word but my Tita was a hungry Christian with a very shallow knowledge of the bible.

After they left (after lots of debates and communication problems), they said they would come back to teach us more of what we should know. We already had bad vibes because their study went for 3 hours about the same things, i.e. clouds as flesh, sabbath day, etc.

But they did gain something out of their visit in our place... They saw how interested my Tita was. So, what do u know... They started visiting her too, and since shes usually alone at home, she was very vulnerable.

I don't think I need to continue on in detail from there. Basically after that, she became very distant because we wouldn't accept the truth and know we barely see her.

@Ming Choel

It's great to see a Korean in here actually battling against this Korean falsehood. It's sick what they think they are capable of doing. I'm just praying that in 2012, nothing happens to my Tita (aunt).

Person 1: OMG, I got harassed by them too.

I was just walking down the street when these 2 women just turned around and asked me something. I played the dumb foreigner card and said "Sorry, I don't speak Korean."

Next thing I know, they bust out pamphlets and flyers in English that talk all about the "Holy Mother." I kept trying to walk away but both of them would run in front of me and cut me off and keep telling me to read their brochure.

I figured I'll just read the pamphlet to make them happy and just go about my way. I read it, nod my head, hand it back to them and they start saying "Our church is right up the street, why don't you come with us for just a few minutes and drink some tea". I had a brief vision of a room full of religious feminist virgins enacting exotic sensual rituals.

I shook my head and said no thank you and power walked as fast as I could in one direction. Unfortunately, it was in the wrong direction from where I wanted to go. I didn't want to run into those crazy cultists again so I had to take the long way around.

Person2:

I met some. I was interested in what they believed so asked about the heavenly mother. Didn't take a leaflet. I keep forgetting how to say atheist in Korean. So I just shook my head and said there's no god. They looked confused and pointed at the sky; I said 'Those are clouds'. They were polite and left me alone when my friend came. I wasn't cruel to them, but I did want to at least try to let them know what my beliefs are and that I'm happy with them. I have heard of more pushy ones but in my experience, nice people but way delusional, wouldn't want to be friends with one

Person 3:

I walk past a group of them almost daily. In the beginning I just politely shook my head and kept walking. After several days of this activity, one of the ladies started getting in the habit of blocking my way whilst shoving some papers in my face. I know she recognizes me as I've turned down her offers of conversation numerous times. Well, she pushed me too far and I told her "F you and your God". I said it nice and slowly and with a big smile on my face. Now they leave me a wide berth when I walk past.

Person 4:

Thanks Tomato. Good info. I guess we share similar interests. The newspaper article is a bad joke. Couldn't they even get their typeset straight when they pasted the Korea Times title on the page? BTW my search of KT revealed no story like the one on their site in its archives. The group seems to be preoccupied with painting itself as a "victim" of grand conspiracies by other churches in Korea.

Oh my god, these guys have been hanging around my college for the last few months, and I live in Ireland!!! They catch you off guard and then go on and on about their religion. I think all of my friends have been got by now. They demand your mobile phone number, then they leave and the next day you get like 50 messages from them. It's really creepy. Plus everyone was studying for finals and it was such an annoyance Praise our wonderful Father in heaven, through our Lord Jesus Christ, seated at His Mighty Right Hand; for His wonderful care of us from this COG cult!

Guess what... I can quote the bible too.... and whose to say that the lying lips are that of my own? Nothing you quote is proof of your church at all... is proof you have a bible. Anyone staying at a hotel can do the same.

I understand the frustration now... its fine, those beautiful girls get told that I am going to hell and that they are going to be angels with wings in heaven soon. Nice spin on "honey you are going to die." So yes, I am saddened.

Jamie, thanks for keeping this website going, even though there must be a thousand posts here . (I haven't read them all yet....) I browse here every once in a while hoping that one of the WMSCOG members will have done some logical explaining, but that seems to be hard to find.

By: genny on June 10, 2009 at 1:11 pm

Reply

I'm sorry if I'm repeating something that was addressed earlier, but I had to speak up about this...

Elijah, I noticed you said that the World Mission Society is the only church that keeps all the feasts of God, and that therefore it is the only true church.

I think you have been misinformed. If you do some research, you will find other Christian churches that keep the Saturday Sabbath and all the feasts of God, including Passover. So that argument is no proof at all.

I've been looking into this and the other prophecies that the WMSCOG uses to prove that AhnsahngHong is God. You can find those posts, along with a list of some of those other churches, over at the Cult Watch forum.

No one from your church has yet been able to address any of the problems with those prophecies. Maybe you can?

Christ AhnsahngHong tells us that the Bible is full of prophecy.

By: Ming choel on June 11, 2009 at 4:05 am

Well how did he know the bible was full of prophecy? Of course! The seventh day Adventist cult where he got baptized taught him. It is the remnant church of Bible prophecy. Numerous Seventh-day Adventists have claimed the gift of prophecy throughout the history of the church and still spend much time teaching prophecy, looking for the soon return of Christ. They often hold prophecy conferences that hide the fact that the conference is run by them.

However, prophecy will be fulfilled no matter what. Robert the prophecy is fulfilled he is dead and now waiting for his bride mother Jerusalem to join him in the lake of fire.

Deuteronomy 18:20 but the prophet, which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die.

All nations will hear the new name of God in the age of the Holy Spirit (Christ Ahnsahnghong) and they will also hear and come to Heavenly Mother the New Jerusalem. Only the gullible people who are sucked in have helped build small cog churches in secret and know about these 2 frauds. In South Korea many know it is a cult. Besides it's a tough competition as people there have a varied choice in joining a religious cult. These cog members mostly young girls are preying on foreigners who are unaware of their secretive deception.

The Kings of the nations will come and bow down in front of Heavenly Mother. But mother herself had bowed many times to receive a medal as well as before a man who committed suicide. Though the image was displayed in the Korean times in 2004 with her receiving the medal and a write up in business magazine about the church yet it is taking so long for the whole world to see this amazing woman. Poor thing! She did her best to even make videos by planting trees, visiting the firemen and police dept, distributing caps and scarves to military personnel and most importantly cleaning toilets (being given to understand that she mostly hangs around the washroom when the members visit. They feel ashamed and cry seeing her doing this odd job)

And soon the whole world will see Heavenly Mother only 50 countries are left from being preach about this wonderful news. Because prophecy must be fulfilled. Almost done! So quite a few countries left with the 50th one will be N. Korea, I guess. It can be easily covered up by 2012. LOL

Robert! Please do not make a fool of yourself. You are over-worked up. Take a break. It will be good for you to read the whole bible.

#1, Catholics do worship idols...

UNKNOWNLY. The Bible clearly states that one should not bow down to any graven images, which all Catholics do from the second they walk into church when they bow down in front of the cross. Additionally, you pray while kneeling down in front of the cross. I understand the reasoning of that you are not worshipping them, however, you unknowingly are. Even though you think you are not, you are in God's eyes.

#2, Christ Ahsahnghong preached that the world was going to end in 1988...and it didn't. It's funny that you call it a false prophet when in fact, he was fulfilling a prophecy through doing so! It is explained clearly through the a study and is the fulfillment of Jonah's prophecy. The world was supposed to end in 1988...but because of repentance, our time was extended so we are able to bear more fruit and save more souls. Ahsahnghong is Jesus, Jesus is God, Ahsahnghong is God...of course He knew the world would not truly end in 1988, but it was supposed to and He had to preach this in order to fulfill the prophecy. If you were to study about these matters instead of coming to your own conclusions you will clearly understand that He had to preach that the world was going to end at that time and that He fulfilled all of the prophecies about Jesus' second coming including where, when, how, for how long, what He would preach, what He would establish, what secrets He would reveal, when He would start His preaching, what church He would be baptized in, the parents He would be born to, etc. etc. etc.

and as far as I know, your church worships Korean idols. The woman you say is God will soon die like any other human being and if the 2012 prediction of the end of the world doesn't happen would it be another fulfillment of the prophecy of Jonah? But I just hope that that won't lead to a self-fulfilled prophecy of another cult mass suicide. Or I dunno, I guess we'll just have to wait and see.

LOL we worship korean idols? this isn't american idol, sweetheart...we're referring to the Bible, here, not a cultural definition. an idol is something that is carved, made out of wood, stone, or the like, and is considered sacred. they are not alive..they cannot speak, walk, nor can they do any good. we do not worship any such things. before you claim something you need to understand what exactly an idol is in the first place.

By: Carly on August 1, 2009 at 4:30 am as for New Jerusalem Mother, we worship Her because She is God. If Jesus were to arrive at your door, would you not worship Him? She is God, having the exact equal authority as Jesus, and for this reason we treat Her the same. We don't believe She is God because She is nice, or because someone tells us to...we believe She is God because She is testified in the Bible clearly, as was Christ Ahnsahnghong. The Bible testifies about Christ, and only Christ can fulfill the prophecies. The fact that God Ahnsahnghong fulfilled the prophecy of the fig tree by beginning to preach in 1948 at the rebirth of Israel, at the age of 30, preaching for 37 years, coming from the east, with a new name, and preaching the Passover and the teachings of the Early Church (the exact same teachings that He established at His first coming but which were abolished as prophesied) proves that He MUST be God. Only Christ can fulfill the prophecies. So, even if it is contrary to what YOU'RE idea of what God should be or what Jesus' second coming should be like... He is still God. It's not like some random person can just happen to fulfill ALL the prophecies of second coming Jesus. He HAS to be God. If you have a humble and open heart and are willing to study and you pray to receive the truth and have your spiritual eyes and ears opened, you too will clearly understand these things. Whether you believe them or not...well, you have your own predestined fate in Christ that only God knows. As for 2012, we do not know when exactly the end will be, for the Bible says no one knows the day nor the hour of the last day and final coming of the Son of Man. However, it is proven to be impossible through the Bible for the world to continue past 2012. Everyone is expecting it to be in 2012...for that reason, I would not be surprised if He comes this year or the next, much sooner than everyone expects. Jesus told a parable about this matter through the servant who thought his master was staying away for a long time. So, instead of continuously blasphemizing the Church, if I were you I would pray to have a humble and open heart to receive the truth and at least to earnestly study. And keep in mind that what happen in ancient times is to happen again..the Jews did not receive Jesus Christ because He came contrary to their expectations. Jesus came preaching in the middle of nowhere, calling fishermen as disciples, not religious leaders, who did not except Him. Only some received Jesus. However, those that did are resting in Heavenly Paradise, while those who did not are destroyed. Again, Christ Ahnsahnghong came preaching in the middle of nowhere, not in a church, for He knows the religious leaders, who diligently study the Word, will still fail to receive Him. Again, only a few will receive Christ into their hearts. The spiritual Jews are now the Christians of today, who claim to believe in Christ but cannot accept Him at His second coming because He came contrary to their expectation..as a Korean man preaching the Passover and early church in the small country of Korea in the east with the name Ahnsahnghong. So, we should be careful not to become the Jews who were destroyed at that time, since it is going to happen again. Rather, we should make the time to study and diligently study the Scriptures in order to go to Christ for life, rather than automatically rejecting. If you believe the Bible is true, then you will believe in 2nd coming Jesus, Christ Ahnsahnghong, and the New Jerusalem Mother whom He revealed to us.

So..how many languages did Jesus speak?
One. Mother knows everything about us and foretells many things that will happen in our lives, and then they happen. We see many miracles in the church and many miraculous things that Mother does. However, we believe in Her first because of the prophecies in the Bible. She is only revealed to us through the Words of God. If She went around performing miracles and speaking every language in the world, everyone would believe She is God...not because She is testified about in the Bible and came according to the prophecies, but because of Her miraculous signs. This would be dangerous, because Satan performs many miraculous signs as well. For this reason, we do not believe in Her because of the miracles that are not revealed to the world, but because of the Word of God. It's so sad to see all of this and all of your words, because they will surely bite you on judgement day. If you've "heard it all before" and still don't believe it, well..."He who belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is because you do not belong to God."

It is most unfortunate that there is cult activity in the Church of God. It is foretold in the Bible that Satan will infiltrate the true church and kill many souls, as well as cause the church to appear to be something that it is not. Father and Mother will take care of this situation in due time.

On another note, the Spirit and the Bride refers to God the Father and God the Mother, not God the Father and Mary. Mary is a created being and therefore is our sister. God the mother is the Creator, and created our sister Mary in Her image.

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY ABOUT SUICIDE?

Reply

"Do not be a fool—why die before your time?"
(Ecclesiastes 7:17b)

Those who would consider suicide may have a severed relationship with Christ and therefore they would enter the real Hell—which is worse than the hellish feelings they are experiencing at the moment.

Leon nice fable story for the COG kiddies. "Mother creating mary" who according to the bible was chosen by God to be the mother of Jesus and if you say mary is our sister than Jesus should be your nephew who as per the COG came the second time to marry the creator chung gil cha. LOL

Babies as long as you keep sucking the pacifiers in the COG nursery you will babble such bullshit. Get out of there at once and behave matured.

Well redrose like rest of the cult groups these cog members do celebrate birthdays, holidays and even marry. My friend is a deacon and recently married a sister in korea but was unable to get her a visa. So poor chap every 2 years makes a visit to Korea around his wife's birthday.

Lol, and if Mother had turned away and avoided him because She knew what was to happen, you would be on here saying, "See, she doesn't even give people a chance! She has no mercy or compassion! Some god that is!" Don't even say you wouldn't.

I don't exactly understand what point you're trying to make here...it is Korean custom first of all to bow, and secondly, do you think that Mother does not interact with anyone whose soul is going to die? You act like she was saying "It's ok to commit suicide" by that action. Mother serves all, even though She knows who will be and who will not be saved...She is an example for us and knows what we need. Mother interacts with people even though they will not be saved; she's preached for decades to dying souls giving them a chance to be saved. You are acting like she's supposed to avoid people who aren't going to be saved. You're completely misunderstanding everything and getting stuck on this point which has no influence whatsoever on your salvation.

Regardless of how she acted, you would persecute Her. I don't care if Mother hugged and kissed the guy..She is God, who will judge me, how dare I judge anything She does. Rather, I try to learn from everything She does so I can walk in Her paths.

you didn't answer what I was asking I heard

We celebrate the 7 feasts of God, such as the Passover and the Sabbath (Saturday), which are the feasts commanded by God.
These are the feasts of God that are celebrated in Zion, "the city of our festivals" or "the city of our religious feasts" which God told us to flee to in the last days in order to escape disasters and receive salvation.
i.e.

Jeremiah 4:6

"Raise the signal to go to Zion! Flee for safety without delay! For I am bringing disaster from the north, even terrible destruction."

Jeremiah 6:22

"This is what the LORD says: "Look, an army is coming from the land of the north; a great nation is being stirred up from the ends of the earth. They are armed with bow and spear; they are cruel and show no mercy. They sound like the roaring sea as they ride on their horses; they come like men in battle formation to attack you, O Daughter of Zion."

(I guess it's just "another coincidence" in non-believers' eyes that the disaster is coming from the north and from the ends of the earth, in consideration with the recent activity with North Korea. Father Ahnsahnghong foretold decades ago that North Korea would play a role in the third world war.)

Psalms 14:7

Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion!
When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad!
(this is written twice in Psalm, also in 53)

(salvation that would come out of Zion = the Passover, which Christ re-established when he rebuilt Zion at His Second Coming)

Psalms 50:2

From Zion, perfect in beauty, God shines forth.

Psalms 102:16

For the LORD will rebuild Zion and appear in his glory.
(this prophecy has been fulfilled when Christ rebuilt it at His Second Coming)

Psalms 102:21

So the NAME of the LORD will be declared in Zion and his praise in Jerusalem.
(Ahnsahnghong)

Psalms 129:5

May all who hate Zion be turned back in shame.
(thought I'd add that in for all the persecutors!)

Isaiah 46:12-13

"Listen to me, you stubborn-hearted, you who are far from righteousness. I am bringing my righteousness near, it is not far away; and my salvation will not be delayed. I will grant salvation to Zion, my splendor to Israel."
(He has granted salvation to Zion through the Passover. Only those who remain in Zion can inherit salvation. Surprising because it is so small? It is written in Isaiah that only the remnant will be saved. A remnant is not a lot...)

Isaiah 62:1

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not remain quiet, till her righteousness shines out like the dawn, her salvation like a blazing torch. (This is a prophecy about Mother being fulfilled as you read.)

Jeremiah 50:5

They will ask the way to Zion and turn their faces toward it. They will come and bind themselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten. (The everlasting covenant is the Passover which Jesus established at His First Coming but which was trampled on and abolished during the dark ages as prophesied in the book of Daniel.)

We do not celebrate Christmas because it is considered a religious holiday and it was not commanded by God. It originated as a pagan holiday as the birthday of the unconquered sun, as did the majority of Catholic appointed times and laws. We do not celebrate Easter for the same reason of its' pagan roots but rather we celebrate the resurrection day, which is one of the feasts of God that has been fulfilled through the cross. No we don't have to marry inside the church and no one decides who we marry. We follow the Bible; the Bible says we can marry nonbelievers. However, many times people come to the truth and then bring their spouse or they meet their spouse and then bring them to the truth.

Please don't listen to those persecuting and false accusations, Satan has sent them to do his dirty work and persecute the Church of God, as foretold in the Bible. Rather, I pray you have an open mind and heart and study with us sometime! :)

Carly, you said, "the Bible says we can marry nonbelievers," but according to 2 Cor. 6:14, Christians should NOT marry unbelievers.

No one answers your question because it's a dumb question and yeah, it has nothing to do with your salvation and its unimportant. Will knowing Her name and age help you get to heaven? No. But following the words of Jesus and believing in the Bible and keeping God's commands will. You can answer the question yourself out of common sense. She is God. She came to earth to save Her lost children from heaven. Do you think She came to the earth for pleasure and fun and to have a family? Think about your question and how much sense it makes—You're asking if God, our Mother, came to this earth, to have children with... Her children. I think you can answer that question yourself. If these are the types of questions that you are focusing on, then you need to re-evaluate your faith and whether or not you truly believe in God and in the words of the Bible. If you truly believe in the words of the Bible with all your heart and with all your soul, then you will believe in Mother because She is clearly testified about throughout the entire Bible. I would suggest to stop looking at Her with a physical eye but pray that you may see Her with a spiritual eye.

By: Carly on August 31, 2009 at 10:01 am

Carly, you said "Do you think She came to the earth for pleasure and fun and to have a family?. No, I believe she is milking you all. She is a very clever businesswoman. You all have fallen for the oldest trick in the book. Twisted scriptures to suit their doctrines, and pure brainwashing/mind control. Do yourself a favour and learn about mind control. You will be amazed.

Then you said "Think about your question and how much sense it makes—You're asking if God, our Mother, came to this earth, to have children with...Her children". Then according to your logic, I have had children with my brother, (if MJ and AHS are our parents)Sounds like incest to me.

are saying that MJ has had NO children, however The COG in OUR area has taught its' members that she has had children on this earth. Why so different? Shouldn't all your COG churches teach the same thing to its' members?

Are you really serious? Ok, let me break it down for you step by step, special. She came down to the earth to seek and save Her lost children. Not Her physical children by our standards, meaning that no, I am not Korean, She is not my physical Mother, but She is my Spiritual Mother and She will be for eternity. Now, She did not come to this earth to have children because She would be having children with Her children that She has come to save. So no, She does not have physical children. About your ignorant statement about your husband and yourself—you stating this is saying that you don't even believe in Jesus' words—Jesus is the One who told us that in heaven we would be spiritual family and would not give and take in marriage. We would be spiritual brothers and sisters, whether you believe in Mother or not...it has nothing to do with Her. We don't remember our life in the spiritual world, and God created the family systems on earth to teach us about our spiritual family which we had forgotten. But Mother, who is God, knows all in the spiritual and physical world, which is why it is different for Her life here on earth and ours.

Mother being a business women? And doing what with the money? She's not rich..doesn't have a big house or many glorious, expensive things...the offerings are used to establish more churches, spread God's love, and better serve brothers and sisters in Zion. When I visited Mother, more money was surely spent on me individually in order to take care of me than my flight itself costed. Oh yeah...She's so greedy and tricky. Riiight.

How do you know she is not rich??? have you been to her home? You don't know how she really lives. You haven't seen her bank account. It is all a show for the followers.

This business with Tithes etc, I go to a church that does NOT require tithes or offerings. God does not want our money. He wants us to be faithful and follow him, The so called "ten per cent" is part of yourself that you give to Jesus Christ.

Carly said "Oh yeah...She's so greedy and tricky."
Glad you agree with me then you don't believe in the Bible, because it's the Bible that says we need to keep tithes. It's a law of God, not because God

By: Carly on

at 11:15 am

wants our money...God doesn't need anything from us. It's to show that we truly believe and acknowledge that God has given us everything, which you would realize if you truly studied about it and you weren't spiritually blind. God is the one who told us to keep tithes, the same God who is Ahnsahnhong and Mother who came in the flesh and told us to as well, because IT'S IN THE BIBLE. You keep stating things that you think Church of God or Mother made u, but they're all in the Bible. You clearly do not truly believe in the Bible or Jesus, or you would do what it and He says. And Mother doesn't have physical children that came from Her own body, that is a false rumor, which there are many of, that satan stirs up because he hates Mother. She came here to save Her children.

Out of curiosity Carly, do you have family in the COG? Or has the COG ripped your family to pieces as it has done to mine? Did you have to lie to your parents and sneak around behind their back? Did you try preaching to them and get them into the COG without their knowledge? Did you sell ALL your possessions and hand the money over to the COG? I am speaking from first hand experience.

And another thing Carly you said" When I visited Mother, more money was surely spent on me individually in order to take care of me than my flight itself costed". That's right, they pamper people like you and other Cog followers to suck you in further so then you feel obligated to these people. It is a brainwashing tactic. Then you try and get other people into the church. Who operates like that?? God doesn't that's for sure. But CULTS definitely do. Try reading about CULTS, you will be horrified when you realise the COG fits it to a T. I pray that you and other members of this CULT wake up and start understanding what you are really in, and to understand the Bible the way it was meant. Don't take me wrong, I am not trying to offend you in any way, if I can open up the eyes of even one COG follower, that's one soul saved.

I am very sad and sorry to hear about your family situation. Jesus already told us that this would happen.

Matthew 19:29 "And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields for my sake will receive a hundred times as much and will inherit eternal life."

Matthew 10:21"Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; children will rebel against their parents and have them put to death. 22All men will hate you because of me, BUT HE WHO STANDS FIRM TO THE END WILL BE SAVED."

Even though it is very difficult when our family persecutes and doesn't accept, Jesus said those who stand firm to the end will be saved. I have seen this situation from other members in Zion, but thankfully they are staying firm in their faith and praying for God to open the way. God does everything working for our salvation. When situations arise that are very difficult, we should view them as tests from God, who wants to strengthen our faith and wants us to endure and overcome. Everything God does is to help us, that's why we should always give thanks to Him, even if it doesn't seem to be helpful at the moment with our own knowledge and understanding. Why would God want to make it difficult for us just because? Isn't God love? God is finding His chosen children and finding those who will truly endure and overcome as He told us to and those who truly love Him more than anything or anyone else in this world. So far this test is not looking too good for you, but I pray that you will repent. I hope that YOU will wake up so that YOUR soul will be saved, because every soul is so precious. The Church of God is not a cult, that is a vicious rumor stirred up by Satan which he will continue to do until he meets his doom. Everything we do is inside the Bible. All of the other denominations do things that Jesus never taught or did. How can that be following God truly? Those are the true cults. Those who celebrate Christmas calling it the birthday of Christ, those who celebrate Easter, those who participate in Sunday worship, the day of the sun god, those who do not keep the 7 feasts of God...those are the true heretics, who do things against God's will that God never told us to do, and those who do not do things that God commanded us to do. We believe in Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother because they are CLEARLY prophesied about in the Bible. For those who can not realize these things, God has blinded the minds of the unbelievers and they are not God's people.

Matthew 16:13-18

13When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?"

14They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

15"But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?"

16Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

17Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by man, but by my Father in heaven."

It is the same now!

oh and the way i see it, COG is sexualizing God when they say there is a God the Father, Mother and Son. this completely excludes and ignores the Holy Spirit. a member has preached saying that all creatures have both mother and father so we need the same. but God is not a sexual being. He has no gender.

when it says "make man in OUR image", it means the Trinity. the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son as does a child proceeds from a father and mother. God is NOT a sexual being.

and our being "fallen angels" makes no sense. that means The Fall of Man in Genesis should NEVER have happened.

Wow, it seems like you're really confused about a lot of subjects.

Jesus didn't speak "explicitly" about Mother (except to His diciples in secret, I'm guessing) because it wasn't the time for Her to be revealed. It was God's plan for it to be revealed at His Second Coming. However, Jesus did speak about Mother through parables, such as through the Heavenly Wedding Banquet. During the time of Jesus, the age of the Son, people needed to believe in the name of Jesus in order to receive salvation. Now, during the age of the Holy Spirit, we must believe in the Spirit and the Bride in order to receive salvation, who are giving us eternal life. It is essential to believe and follow them for life. however, before they came, how could we believe in them? That is like asking the Jews to believe in Jesus before He came, when it was still the age of the Father, Jehovah. This is why Jesus said that those believing in His name would receive eternal life at the time, because at that time, they could. Now, according to the prophecies, Christ appeared a Second time, whom we must recognize and believe in and follow for eternal life, as well as Mother, in the same way.

Reply

You're very confused about the Father and Son thing, I don't even know where you're going with that...the name of the Father is Jehovah, the name of the Son is Jesus, the name of the Holy Spirit is Ahnsahnghong. But they are all one God, the Father. Excluding the Holy Spirit? Lol. It's Ahnsahnghong! We obviously don't exclude the Holy Spirit! We are living in the age of the Holy Spirit.

If God made man in His image meaning the trinity, then everyone would be male, because the Father Son and Holy Spirit are all male. But man is male and female, made in the image of God, meaning God must have a male and a female image. Furthermore, the trinity is one God. If it was just the male image of God, the trinity, then He would not speak in "us" and "our," plural terms. Elohim would not have been used. But it was used, which means "Gods," over 2,500 times in the Old Testament to describe God.

The fall of man about Eve and Adam sinning has a much greater meaning than your or our understanding. It tells of what happened in heaven and why we are fallen angels, it tells about First Coming Christ, it tells about Second Coming Christ...it has so many truths. It was God's will for them to sin in the Garden of Eden. It was all part of His plan. To say that God didn't know they would sin is putting limitations on God, who knows the end from the beginning. Would it be just if all men had to die because of ONE man? What do we have to do with him? It was all part of God's plan. We can clearly see throughout the entire Bible that our souls were in Heaven before the creation of the world and that Jesus Christ came to seek the lost sinners from heaven. We can be forgiven of our sin and from our sins on this earth through the Passover.

I have just touched on these issues because I'm sure that they have been explained in depth in previous posts. I hope you will seek a Church of God near you to study further and you will get a clearer understanding or check out our website. I think you are very confused about many subjects that are clear in the Bible and that many other church members have already addressed above previously in the post. I think you should refer to those to get a clearer understanding. God Bless You!

God Bless You Sister! There is a clear reason why some people do not believe in Christ Ahnsahng hong, even though He is clearly testified about in the Bible, and there are even more prophecies about His Second Coming than His First Coming. Here is your answer, through the Bible:

John 8:47 "Those who belong to God hear what God says. The reason you do not hear is because you do not belong to God."

John 10:27 "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me."

Only those who are chosen by God, who belong to God, can realize the truth. We do not believe in Christ Ahnsahng hong because we are somehow smarter or wiser than others, but simply because by the grace of God, They have lavished on us wisdom and understanding so that we may believe in the truth and accept the truth. God has opened our spiritual eyes and ears, but not everyone's. This makes us give even more thanks to Father and Mother! Others continually reject, even though there is more than sufficient evidence, because they are not God's people, even if outwardly they appear to be so, claiming to be so-called Christians.

To Carly: God bless you sister!! I've been in the church for almost 4yrs now, I've seen Mother, I've bore fruit, as a matter of fact this week we've been out there preaching, searching for our lost brothers and sisters as Father and Mother commanded us special during this Feast! Now my question is, you really did not know Mother has physically children? When did you come to the church? Mother was married and so was Father. Mother has children and Father did too. Mother's children do not believe in her and from Father's children only one does. I do not like lying or covering things up. If you really believe in Father and Mother these things should not change your faith. Regardless of their physical lives They are Elohim!!!! Pls ask your pastor or older sisters if you are not sure about this matter and if we are going to save souls let's do it with the truth and without pretending! GBU

So the answer is yes, but like i said before it's best that you talk about this matter with your older sisters, missionary or even your pastor. Pls let me know if i am the one who is wrong, although that would mean i was lied to. In any case let's not allow these things to shake our faith. About whether Father and Mother had physical children here on earth... Whatever the truth is, one or the other of you has been lied to about this by your leaders. I don't know about you, but once I realize someone has lied to me about something, all of a sudden I realize that everything they've said now is in question. Could there have been lies about other things as well?

And, Carly, you said, "Of course they are Elohim no matter what but that doesn't make any sense," and Lizet you said, "let's not allow these things to shake our faith."

Now think carefully. If you had a friend in any other church (Mormon, Buddhist, whatever), and they learned that their leaders had lied to them. Wouldn't you be advising your friend that something was wrong, and that they should start investigating with an open mind whether their church was true or not?

Something is wrong here. Take it as a sign that you should do some investigating. If your church is true, then you will have nothing to worry about, right?

And Dear Brofromzion,

The website you reference does nothing to refute the ligitimate Biblical arguments that have been raised on the "anti-Church of God websites." I think you use it to avoid answering serious questions.

For example, why did Ahnsahngghong say that God

"unjustly" hurled some of the angels to earth? (from the Spring of the Water of Life book, page 337) God cannot be "unjust". (2 Thess. 1:5,6)

It's amazing how the prophecies in the Bible are being fulfilled. I truly give thanks to Father Christ AhnsahngHong and Mother Jerusalem for giving us the Heavenly knowledge in these last days. Used to be an atheist but when I heard the true Gospel of Christ, I realize that we can never understand God's will if we rely only on men's opinion. Truly only Elohim God can give us eternal life in these last days.

Every earthly system is a copy and a shadow of the Heavenly one.

Heb. 8:5 "They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy and a shadow of what is in Heaven."

Among the earthly systems, family system is also a copy and a shadow of the heavenly one. In other words, when we look into the earthly family, we can understand the heavenly family.

A family= home, and a family is consist of father, mother and children; brothers and sisters.

Jn. 14:1-2 "In my Father's house are many rooms... I am going to prepare a prepare a place for you."

Heb.12:9 As we have human fathers, so we have the Father of our spirits.

Mt. 6:9 "Our Father in heaven."

Clearly we see through the bible that we have a heavenly Father. How can a man be called father? A man must have children to be called father. Then are there heavenly children?

Mt. 12:50 We have spiritual brothers and sisters, too. The one who does the will of God are heavenly children of the Father.

It is impossible for there to be children without a mother. There are human mothers in this earth. Then, there must be the Mother of our spirits.

Gal. 4:26 The Jerusalem that is above is our Mother

Just as we have earthly family, God revealed to us that we have the Heavenly Family.

Christ AhnSahngHong Who revealed The Heavenly Family and Mother through the earthly familyFamily is related by blood. Then how about the heavenly family? Christ has let us inherit the heavenly blood through the bread and wine of the Passover and become the heirs of His kingdom, so that we know that we are of the same blood. On the Passover, Jesus said:

Christ AhnSahngHong Who revealed The Heavenly Family and Mother through the earthly family

Lk.22:20 "This cup is the new covenant in my blood." Jesus celebrates passover with disciples."

Christ AhnSahngHong Who revealed The Heavenly Family and Mother through the earthly family

The heavenly family is related through blood which is the blood of Christ through Passover.

Ro. 8:16-17 Through Christ's blood, we have become God's children and His heirs.

Since we are coheirs with Christ, we will share in His sufferings, which we may also share in his glory. We are born of heavenly blood.

Isn't this amazing? I hope everyone will realize this wonderful truth of salvation, not relying on men's opinion, and come to be part of the heavenly Family through Christ Blood.

I thank Father Christ AhnSahngHong and Mother so much for this wonderful truth of salvation.

genny said "For example, why did AhnsahngHong say that God "unjustly" hurled some of the angels to earth? (from the Spring of the Water of Life book, page 337) God cannot be "unjust". (2 Thess. 1:5,6"

why genny? you've read the book right so you should know why. also, why would the Loving God would put us here on earth. it would be "unjust" if the Loving God just put us here on earth where there's full of pain, sorrow, suffering, even death without any reason. if you know the answer then why do you need to ask me?

When anyone accuses God of being "unjust" it is because they are using their own opinion. They don't agree with what God has done, or don't understand why He would do such a thing, or think they know better than God.... The truth is that God's ways and knowledge are higher than ours, and we trust that HE IS JUST, whether or not we see it from our earthly perspective.

The Bible says that He is just and righteous. And anyone who seriously says that God is unjust or unfair says so by their own opinion, not by the truth of the Bible.

Did Ahnshanghong preach truth or opinion? If he says that God is "unjust", then he preached opinion.

Matthew 28:19-20

19Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the NAME of the Father(Jehovah) and of the Son(Jesus) and of the Holy Spirit(AhnsahngHong), 20and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Luke 15:3-7

3Then Jesus told them this parable: 4"Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Does he not leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it? 5And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders 6and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.' 7I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.

32But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.

On the otherhand, anti-Church of God websites accusations are totally absurd. Every religion out there claims they are the "right way to salvation" including those outside Christianity (Muslims, Buddhist, etc.) then "outsiders are all wrong. They will constantly find faults, just like how atheists continously rationalizing Christianity. I will site one of the section from proveahnsahngHong.com to prove my point.

Identification Marks

1. The group will have an elitist view of itself in relation to others. They will believe that they are a unique cause. They will believe that they are the only ones right. Everyone else is wrong. They are the only ones doing God's will. Everyone else is in apostasy

Isn't that the reason why people choose to follow a religion, because they think that what they are learning and following is right? Especially in Christianity; anything outside of the teachings of Christ is considered false.

John 14:6 Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

John 18:37 ... Jesus answered, "You are right in saying I am a king. In fact, for this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of the truth listens to me."

Since there can only be one truth, Jesus' statement lets us understand that anything outside his teaching must be false. Isn't this elitist?

2. They are only concerned with recruiting and growing, they will promote their cause actively, and in doing so, abuse God-given personal rights, individual spiritual gifts, individual talents and individual freedoms. This abuse can be THEOLOGICAL, SPIRITUAL, SOCIAL & PSYCHOLOGICAL.

The Church of God does not abuse the personal rights of anyone. We do not force anyone to stay in our Church. In regards to recruiting and growing, that is a basic teaching of Christ, which is to preach the gospel.

Matthew 28:19-20 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.

An essential practice in the Christian faith is to preach the gospel. To recruit and grow is the Christian way.

3. Their leader/s may claim a special, exclusive ministry, revelation or position of authority given by God.

Please tell me what religion has not started by someone stating that they have some kind of special, exclusive ministry, revelation or position of authority given by God? Even Jesus Christ made this claim:

Matthew 28:18 The Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me."

Among all the people who claim to have a special revelation, who is telling the truth? It is the ones who practice the teachings of the Bible.

Abraham's Family and Heavenly Mother
By studying Abraham's Family History, We can know that Heavenly Mother must be exist for us.

Reply

Let us study "The History of Abraham's Family and Mother," taught to us by Christ Ahnsahnghong. First of all, we need to recognize who the character Abraham represents in the Bible.

Luke 16:19-31 "...The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. In hell, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. So he called to him, 'Father Abraham...'

" This parable is about a beggar, named Lazarus, and a rich man. The parable tells of Lazarus, who died and was carried to heaven, and a rich man, who was sent to hell to be tormented. Lazarus was obviously carried to God's side after he had died; however, the Bible states that Lazarus traveled to Abraham's side. In the parable, the rich man, who went to hell, called up to God in the distance; however, the Bible states that the man saw Abraham, and called up to him, saying, "Father Abraham." Who is the only one who is worthy to be called "Father" in the spiritual world? God is the only one who can be called upon in this way. Then, whom does Abraham represent? Logically, the character Abraham was chosen to represent God. Therefore, the inheritance of Abraham represents the inheritance of God, the kingdom of heaven. Then, let us find out who was appointed as Abraham's heir.

There were three candidates who could have been chosen as the heir of Abraham: Eliezer, Ishmael, and Isaac. Among them, who became Abraham's heir? It was Isaac who was appointed. We need to understand the reason why Isaac was chosen to be Abraham's heir.

Gen. 15:1-4 "...But Abram said, "O Sovereign LORD, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir." Then the word of the LORD came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir."

When Abraham was an old man and had not yet borne a son, he asked God to allow his servant Eliezer to be his heir. However, God did not allow Eliezer to become Abraham's heir, revealing that a son would be born from Abraham's own body and that he would become his heir.

Some time later, Hagar, Sarah's maidservant, bore Abraham a son: Ishmael.

Gen. 16:1-15 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. But she had an Egyptian maidservant named Hagar; so she said to Abram, "The LORD has kept me from having children. Go, sleep with my maidservant; perhaps I can build a family through her." Abram agreed to what Sarai said...So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son she had borne.

Ishmael was born to Abraham through a maidservant named Hagar, and Abraham asked God to allow Ishmael to become his heir.

Gen. 17:18-19 And Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing!" Then God said, "Yes, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will call him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.

When Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing," God did not allow Ishmael to become his heir. Instead, God promised Abraham that he would have a son through his wife, Sarah. Isaac was born as God had promised, and of the three—Eliezer, Ishmael, and Isaac—Isaac was chosen to be Abraham's heir.

Let's study the reason why God chose Isaac to be Abraham's heir.

Both Eliezer's father and his mother were slaves, neither of them was free. This is the reason why God did not allow him to be Abraham's heir. Ishmael's father, Abraham, was free, but his mother, Hagar, was a slave and not a free woman. This is why God could not allow Ishmael to become Abraham's heir. Isaac's father, Abraham, was a free man, and his mother, Sarah, was a free woman. The fact that Isaac had been born of a free woman was the big difference between Ishmael and Isaac, and this discrepancy became the key factor in choosing Abraham's heir.

In those days, the eldest son inherited all of his family's property. Since Ishmael was older than Isaac, he should have become the heir—that is, if God had made His decision according to the paternal line. Ishmael was not chosen to become Abraham's heir, even though he was Abraham's eldest son, because his mother was not a free woman, but a slave. Thus, it is clear that the decisive factor in choosing Abraham's heir was his mother.

What we need to focus on while studying the history of Abraham's family is not merely the story of a man and his family. As you know, the Bible is not a storybook to tell us of men and their families. Nevertheless, God repeatedly mentioned the story of this particular family. Actually, the history of Abraham was a shadow of what was to happen in the future. In order for us to know who could become God's heir, the story of Abraham's family was written, as a prophecy.

Therefore, through the history of Abraham's family, we can clearly understand that the decisive factor in choosing an heir is the mother. As Isaac became Abraham's heir through Sarah, his free mother, we can become God's heirs through our heavenly Mother, who is a free woman. Only those who believe in the heavenly Mother—only the children who are born through the new covenant—can inherit the heavenly Father's kingdom. Let us read one more verse testifying about the heavenly Mother.

Gal. 4:22-31 ...But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother...Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

The Bible declares that we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman. Ishmael could not inherit his father's estate because his mother, Hagar, was only a slave, not a free woman. On the other hand, Isaac was chosen to become Abraham's heir because his mother, Sarah, was a free woman. The Bible also testifies that we, like Isaac, are the children of promise, the children of the heavenly Mother, who is free.

IN TODAY'S WORLD, THERE ARE THREE TYPES OF PEOPLE: THOSE WHO ARE LIKE ELIEZER, THOSE LIKE ISHMAEL, AND THOSE WHO ARE LIKE ISAAC. THE FIRST TYPE OF PEOPLE, WHO ARE LIKE ELIEZER, ARE ATHEISTS WHO DO NOT BELIEVE IN FATHER GOD OR IN MOTHER GOD. THE SECOND TYPE OF PEOPLE, WHO ARE LIKE ISHMAEL, ARE THOSE WHO BELIEVE IN FATHER GOD, BUT DO NOT BELIEVE IN MOTHER GOD. THE THIRD TYPE OF PEOPLE, WHO ARE LIKE ISAAC, ARE THOSE WHO BELIEVE IN MOTHER GOD AS WELL AS FATHER GOD. ACCORDING TO THE HISTORY OF ABRAHAM'S FAMILY, WHICH ONE OF THESE THREE TYPES CAN BECOME HEIR OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN? ONLY THE THIRD TYPE OF PEOPLE, WHO ARE LIKE ISAAC, CAN BE RECOGNIZED AS GOD'S HEIRS. THERE IS NO DOUBT ABOUT IT.

Which group of people do you want to be classified with? If you want to be like Isaac, you must first become a child of the free woman. Thus, you must accept the heavenly Mother, who is free. The Bible testifies to this fact.

The Bible testifies that the Holy Spirit is God Ahnsahnghong, and that the Bride is Jerusalem Mother. Let us accept God Ahnsahnghong, the Holy Spirit, and Jerusalem Mother, the Bride, who give us the water of life in these last days, so that we can enter the kingdom of heaven.

All the glory to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong who has revealed us Heavenly Mother Jerusalem, the Last Eve who will give us the water of life in these last days.

Galatians 4:26-31

26But the JERUSALEM that is above is free, and she is OUR MOTHER. 27For it is written:

"Be glad, O barren woman, who bears no children;
break forth and cry aloud,
you who have no labor pains;
because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband."

28Now you, brothers, LIKE ISAAC, are CHILDREN OF PROMISE. 29At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. 30But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." 31Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

Poland, you said, "we need to recognize who the character Abraham represents in the Bible" and "the man saw Abraham, and called up to him, saying, "Father Abraham."

By: genny on October 28, 2009 at 2:17 pm

Who is the only one who is worthy to be called "Father" in the spiritual world? God is the only one who can be called upon in this way."

Reply

Who does Abraham represent in the Bible? The patriarch, the great-great-great-....great-grandfather of all the Jews. THAT is why he is called "Father Abraham". All the Jews consider him to be their father (many generations removed), and so if they saw him in the spiritual world they would call him "father".

As for the WMSCOG's interpretation of Gal. 4:26-31, you might read it that way if you already believe in a Heavenly Mother. Otherwise it's perfectly clear as a comparison between the old and new covenants without the existence of an actual "Mother God."

But I'm a bit confused about what the WMSCOG believes is the "New Covenant". I thought it was Passover, but now you are saying that mother god is the new covenant? What happened to the Passover and the physically eating and drinking of the bread and cup at that special hour of the year?

But I'll ask you the same question I asked brofromzion, which is what I really would like to understand....

How do you know if you are saved or not? Are you certain Mother will be taking you to heaven with her? And how do you know?

God bless you genny. brofromzion now i will explain you just a little bit about spiritual Israelites and if you want to learn more then go to Zion. we will not entertain questions here in the internet anymore.

let's open our Bible so that we can receive much blessing from Heavenly Father and Mother. let's read this verse that brofromzion used that it is clear that there's no distinction between Jews and Gentiles because if anyone belongs to Christ then they are Abraham's seed.

Galatians 3:26-29 – 26You are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus, 27for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. 28There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. 29If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

clearly all who are in Christ are Abraham's seed meaning they are spiritual Israelites. then Bible says that we need to focus on being a Jew inwardly or spiritually.

Romans 2:28-29 – 28A man is not a Jew if he is only one outwardly, nor is circumcision merely outward and physical. 29No, a man is a Jew if he is one inwardly; and circumcision is circumcision of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the written code. Such a man's praise is not from men, but from God.

clearly Bible says that a man is not a Jew if he is only one outwardly or physically. now why do we have to become a Jew or Israelite spiritually?

Romans 7:1-4 – 1After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth to prevent any wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree. 2Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: 3"Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." 4Then I heard the number of those who were sealed: 144,000 from all the tribes of Israel.

the 144,000 spiritual Israelites are the ones that will be saved in the last days. that's why Bible tells us that we must become spiritual Israelites in order to be one. how? by following Christ then we become spiritual Israelites and Abraham's seed who will inherit the kingdom of heaven.

brofromzion, you said, " why God would accuse Himself to be unjust? unfortunately you didn't understand the book."

By: genny on October 28, 2009 at 1:21 pm

Exactly my point. God cannot call His own actions unjust. Ahnsahnghong was not and is not God.

Reply

And yes, I did understand what he was saying in his book. In that portion, he was saying that we ordinary people are actually angels who sinned greatly in heaven, rebelling against God, and were cast down to be born here on earth. Then he goes on to say that some of the angels "sinned unintentionally, being tempted, and were unjustly accused and hurled to the earth." And those are the ones Jesus came to seek and to save.

But on the same subject of us being fallen angels, can you explain this to me? Why does the WMSCOG use Prov. 8:22-31 to prove that Solomon existed with God before the world began? If you read the whole of chapter 8, you clearly see that the "I" speaking in those verses is not Solomon, but "Wisdom". And before you try to answer that "Wisdom" is the same as Solomon, remember that Wisdom is referred to as female, and of course Solomon was definitely male.

And by the way, you even said you'd visit me yourself because you so want to see people find salvation. Thank you for the kind sentiment, but, who knows how far of a plane ride that would be? That's why I'm here online.

Oh, and one more thing.... How do you know if you are saved or not? Are you certain Mother will be taking you to heaven with her? And how do you know?

Thank you for talking with me brofromzion. And I do sincerely pray that all who read this blog will be able to come to a right understanding of the truth.

God bless you genny. like i said before, i'd love to study the Bible with you but not in the internet. if you truly want answers to your questions, please visit the closes Zion which your sister goes. where are you from anyway? if you don't want to say it in the internet then i can give you my email and we can talk there in private.

I don't know why your making assumption that Christ Ahnsahnghong is not God? are you simply looking at His physical appearance? if that's the case then you won't believe Jesus Christ 2000 years ago because He's only a mere carpenter. genny, only through the Bible we can recognize the Saviors in every age. in the age of the Father, salvation was depended upon knowing the name of God the Father Jehovah. in the age of the Son, the name of the savior is Jesus, even though you won't find the name Jesus in the Old Testament. now we are living in the age of the Holy Spirit. Christ Ahnsahnghong is God the Holy Spirit because the Bible testified so, even if you don't find the name Ahnsahnghong in the Bible.

John 5:39-40

39You diligently study the Scriptures because you think that by them you possess eternal life. These are the Scriptures that testify about me, 40yet you refuse to come to me to have life.

About Abraham, it seems that you don't understand genny. If we belong to Christ then we are spiritual Israelites and heirs according to the promise, which is to inherit the Kingdom of Heaven.

Galatians 3:26-29

26You are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus, 27for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. 28There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. 29If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Then do you know how can we belong to Christ so that we will become Abraham's seed? Just as physical flesh and blood connects a family, so does the spiritual family. Through the Passover body and blood of Christ, we are spiritually connect and we become part of the spiritual family of God.

John 6:53-56

53Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. 56Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.

clearly on verse 56 "56Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him".

i'd love to show you more genny but internet is not a good place to study. please visit the nearest Zion where your sister goes and you will see how amazing the truth is. All the glory to Christ Ahnsahnghong who has revealed us the way to eternal life through the Passover body and blood of Christ. God bless you genny.

Why do you insist that I see a church member personally? Is that the only way your message is convincing? Or is it because you will keep talking and talking until I get so tired I don't know what I'm thinking any more? (Yes, I can see that happening... The time I did get to visit my sister's church her leader kept talking despite my telling her numerous times that I had a time limit because I had to be back at the place I was staying before the gates closed, and yet she kept going and going, well past my limit making me late.)

You say you don't want to discuss these things on the internet, but why? You must realize that the WMSCOG does not have "Zions" everywhere? My sister and I live hundreds of miles apart. How far do you expect someone to travel to find someone to talk to? The internet is the only place some people have to deal with these questions. Maybe you can think of this as your "ministry".

So yes, I need to find someone on the internet who will talk to me.

I'm going to address some of the items you brought up....

Yes, believers are considered spiritual Jews. The reason I was talking about Abraham being the physical father of the Jews is because of the story mentioned about Lazarus and the rich man. In that story, Lazarus and the rich man are Jews and Jesus is directing the story to Jews, and that is why they refer to "Father" Abraham. They are not calling Abraham "Father" as in Father God, but in reference to their patriarch, their physical father.

You had said this story means that Abraham is a reference for God because he was called "Father" in the spiritual realm, and I was responding that no, he was called Father Abraham because he was actually their great-great-great...-grandfather.

brofromzion, you said, "I don't know why your making assumption that Christ Ahnsahnghong is not God? are you simply looking at His physical appearance?"

I make the assumption that Ahnsahnghong is not God because that is what you do when someone claims to be God. (There are many who have claimed to be the Christ, as you know.) You do NOT start by assuming they are God and try to prove them wrong. The claimant must PROVE that he is God first.

I have looked at the prophecies that are supposed to prove that Ahnsahnghong is God, and they have fallen far, far short of proof. And so when Ahnsahnghong does or says things that are not consistent with what God would do or say, I don't have to figure out why "God Ahnsahnghong" is not fitting in the "God" character like he's supposed to. He's not fitting because he is not God. It has nothing to do with what he looks like.

As for my question about what you must do to be saved. Was the answer "by taking the Passover"? Is that the only thing or is there more?

Thank you for your time and attention. I appreciate your help when you are willing to discuss things.

God bless you genny. I see that you are far from your sister. then we are willing to visit you for any questions you may have. please let know if your interested and hope you will study with us in person so we can explain things better for you. ok take care and God bless you. All the glory to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem who came as the Spirit and the Bride in these last days to give us water of life according to the prophecy of the Bible.

Now, there are so many disasters everywhere in the world: wars between nations, ethnic conflicts, terrors, famines, earthquakes, and deadly cold or heat or flood caused by changes in weather patterns. Whenever such things occur, people tremble with fear, not knowing who or what they should set their hearts on.
The Bible already prophesied about the coming disasters and what people would do in the day of such disasters.

Amos 9:2-4

2 Though they dig down to the depths of the grave, from there my hand will take them.
Though they climb up to the heavens, from there I will bring them down.

3 Though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, there I will hunt them down and seize them.
Though they hide from me at the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent to bite them.

4 Though they are driven into exile by their enemies, there I will command the sword to slay them.
I will fix my eyes upon them for evil and not for good."

As described in the above prophecy, people desperately try to hide themselves anywhere, because they come to face terrible disasters which men cannot endure. The above prophecy is not about what happened in the days of Amos the prophet about 2,800 years ago, but what will occur in the great and dreadful day of the LORD, at the Last Judgment.

Men cannot escape the last plagues by their own methods

Modern people, who live in the age of the high-tech science, feel fear about the coming disasters and the end of mankind, and they try to find various ways to escape from the disasters. They make every effort to find refuge underground or at the bottom of the sea or on a planet outside the earth so that they may escape the threat of nuclear weapons capable of annihilating all life on earth many times over. An atomic submarine for hiding themselves at the bottom of the sea, a spaceship for climbing up to the heavens, ... , such various methods are being discussed. According to a press report, America has constructed a large bunker beneath the White House at Mount Weather; and there is said to be ninety-nine underground cities in various places, as a provision for emergency. However, the Bible clearly says that even by using the modern scientific methods, no one can escape God's fierce anger. It also says that the last disaster will come upon all the earth, not just upon parts of it.

35For it will come upon all those who live on the face of the whole earth.

Isaiah 24:1-13

1 See, the LORD is going to lay waste the earth and devastate it;
he will ruin its face and scatter its inhabitants-

2 it will be the same for priest as for people, for master as for servant,
for mistress as for maid,
for seller as for buyer,
for borrower as for lender, for debtor as for creditor.

3 The earth will be completely laid waste and totally plundered.
The LORD has spoken this word.

4 The earth dries up and withers, the world languishes and withers, the exalted of the earth languish.

5 The earth is defiled by its people;
they have disobeyed the laws, violated the statutes and broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore a curse consumes the earth;
its people must bear their guilt.
Therefore earth's inhabitants are burned up, and very few are left.

7 The new wine dries up and the vine withers;
all the merry-makers groan.

8 The gaiety of the tambourines is stilled, the noise of the revelers has stopped, the joyful harp is silent.

9 No longer do they drink wine with a song;
the beer is bitter to its drinkers.

10 The ruined city lies desolate;
the entrance to every house is barred.

11 In the streets they cry out for wine;

all joy turns to gloom,
all gaiety is banished from the earth.

12 The city is left in ruins, its gate is battered to pieces.

13 So will it be on the earth and among the nations, as when an olive tree is beaten, or as when gleanings are left after the grape harvest.

Now, let's see how the disaster comes upon every nation
all over the world.

2 Peter 3:3-12

3First of all, you must understand that in the last days scoffers will come, scoffing and following their own evil desires. 4They will say, "Where is this 'coming' he promised? Ever since our fathers died, everything goes on as it has since the beginning of creation." 5But they deliberately forget that long ago by God's word the heavens existed and the earth was formed out of water and by water. 6By these waters also the world of that time was deluged and destroyed. 7By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

8But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day. 9The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.

10But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare.

11Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives 12as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming. That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the heat.

The Bible says that God will use fire for His judgment. So the disaster, which will come upon the whole world, is fire. When the day comes, the heavens will be destroyed by fire and all things will be burnt up and melt in the heat. The day will be a day of distress; even the warriors will tremble with fear and cry out bitterly.

However, God has prepared a way to escape the disaster when such dreadful day comes. He has made the way - the good news of salvation-known to us. We can get it only through the Bible, not through any high-tech equipment developed by scientists.

Passover is the way to escape the disaster
Let's take a careful look at God's word of promise to let us escape any disaster.

Exodus 12:11-14

11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; it is the LORD's Passover.

12 "On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn—both men and animals—and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. 13 The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

14 "This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD -a lasting ordinance.

At the time of the Exodus, when the plague of destroying every firstborn was brought upon Egypt, no plague befell to the Israeli houses which kept the Passover. In other words, the plague passed over them. Thus, Passover (pascha in Greek, pesach in Hebrew) implies "Plagues pass over."

Such a history was written as a warning for us. Faithless Israel didn't believe in the power of the Passover. However, Judah regarded the Passover as important and celebrated it. Through the history of Israel and of Judah, we come to realize how truly important the Passover is. Hezekiah king of Judah read all the words of the covenant, which had been found in the temple of the LORD when it was being repaired and restored. He realized the covenant of God and sent couriers to all Judah and Israel so that they might celebrate the Passover which had not been kept for a long time. When the couriers delivered the king's command to "come up to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover," Israel scorned and ridiculed them, and several years later it fell to Assyria (2 Ki 18:9-12). However, Judah celebrated the Passover holy and could repulse the attack of powerful Assyria with God's mighty power (2 Ch 30:1-27; 2 Ki 18:13-19:37).

In these last days, there are two groups of people: one group who will receive terrible plagues, and the other who will escape them with God's help.

1After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth to prevent any wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree. 2Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: 3"Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God."

The only way to escape the last plagues is to receive the seal of God. Then, what is the seal of God? The Bible prophesies that the blood of the Passover lamb will be a sign for God's people so that they may escape the last plagues. In other words, the blood of the Passover lamb is 'the seal of God' through which God's people can be saved.

At the time of the Exodus, the Israelites could be saved from the terrible plague of destroying every firstborn, by putting the blood of a year-old Passover lamb on their door posts and eating the meat. The Passover lamb of the Old Testament represents Jesus.

1 Corinthians 5:7-8

7Get rid of the old yeast that you may be a new batch without yeast—as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. 8Therefore let us keep the Festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with bread without yeast, the bread of sincerity and truth.

No one can escape the last plagues without 'the blood of Jesus Christ' who is the Passover Lamb.

John 6:53-56

53Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. 56Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.

Luke 22:7-15

7Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. 8Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover."

9"Where do you want us to prepare for it?" they asked.

10He replied, "As you enter the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him to the house that he enters, 11and say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' 12He will show you a large upper room, all furnished. Make preparations there."

13They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover.

Luke 22:19-20

20In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

When the angels, who are given power to harm, let go of their hold on the wind [war], the terrible disasters [the last plagues] will come upon this earth (Rev 7:1-3). To make the last plagues pass over His people, God places

His 'seal' on His children's foreheads. The 'seal of God' is the seal of salvation through which God's people can escape the disasters.

Ezekiel 9:3-6

3 Now the glory of the God of Israel went up from above the cherubim, where it had been, and moved to the threshold of the temple. Then the LORD called to the man clothed in linen who had the writing kit at his side 4 and said to him, "Go throughout the city of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of those who grieve and lament over all the detestable things that are done in it."

5 As I listened, he said to the others, "Follow him through the city and kill, without showing pity or compassion. 6 Slaughter old men, young men and maidens, women and children, but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at my sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were in front of the temple.

Whom did God order the destroying angels to begin with? He told them to begin with the elders [leaders] of the false churches, who do not have the mark-the seal of God, the blood of the Passover Lamb-on their foreheads. Considering the prophecies of the Bible, we are now living in the days of the last plagues. God is awakening us, His children, to the fact that we can escape the plagues only through the 'seal of God.' He shows us that His sealing work will arise from the east and spread to the west.

2Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea

When Apostle John received the revelation on the island of Patmos, he saw an angel ascending from the rising of the sun. This implies that God's sealing work is to begin in the east.

God seals us as His own children

When we celebrate the Passover, God abides in us, and we in Him (Jn 6:56; 15:4-8). As we dwell in God, we belong to Him.

2 Corinthians 1:21-22

21Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ. He anointed us, 22set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.

God has set His seal on us to be marked as 'His own.'
Let's see what blessings God gives us, His own.

Isaiah 43:1-2

1 But now, this is what the LORD says—he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel:
"Fear not, for I have redeemed you;
I have summoned you by name; you are mine.

2 When you pass through the waters,
I will be with you;
and when you pass through the rivers,
they will not sweep over you.
When you walk through the fire,
you will not be burned;
the flames will not set you ablaze.

God has made us His own by putting His seal on us through the Passover. He has firmly promised to protect us from any destructive disasters. God is now calling His children, living in the days of disasters, to celebrate the Passover and escape the last plagues.

Before the angels, who are holding back the four winds, let go of their hold, we should preach the Passover of the new covenant-the seal of God-to the whole world, as the couriers of the good news of salvation.

Brothers and sisters in Zion! Let's give thanks to God for making us His very own, His treasured possession. We must all take part in God's salvation work in this age.

Someone might think why am I so eagerly wanting to preach about the good news of Passover. Here's why:

Ezekiel 33: 7-9

7 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me. 8 When I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you will surely die,' and you do not speak out to dissuade him from his ways, that wicked man will die for his sin, and I will hold you accountable for his blood. 9 But if you do warn the wicked man to turn from his ways and he does not do so, he will die for his sin, but you will have saved yourself.

As a watchman of God, it is my duty to proclaim the good news of Passover. If people don't listen then I'm not accountable for their blood. I truly give thanks forever and ever to our Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem who revealed us this mystery of truth so that Their children might have salvation.

Poland (and the WMSCOG) says that we must have God's special seal to escape the disasters that are affecting the world, and that the way to get this seal is by taking the Passover—physically eating unleavened bread and drinking wine at a particular hour, on a particular day of the year.

But does the Bible say that you can have God's special seal by taking part in a special Passover ceremony? Search for the word "seal" in the Bible and see if you can find a verse that says you can have God's "seal" by taking the Passover bread and wine...

Have trouble finding it? Yep, me too, but you can easily find these verses...

Ephesians 4:30 "And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption."

So we are sealed with the Holy Spirit...How?

Ephesians 1:13-14 "And you also were included in Christ when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation. Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit, who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession—to the praise of his glory."

See that?..."HAVING BELIEVED, you were marked in him with a SEAL, the promised Holy Spirit"

And when we have that seal, it is a mark of God's ownership, showing that we belong to Him...

2 Cor. 1:21-22 "Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ. He anointed us, set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come."

And each of these verses shows that the seal is a sign that your redemption (your ticket to heaven, if you will) is guaranteed.

God doesn't wait for you to perform some special ceremony, or eat a special cracker at a special hour of the year, or even rack up points for good behavior, before He accepts you as His own.

As soon as you sincerely believe, you receive God's seal of ownership. Seeking to obey Christ's teachings comes afterwards.

Titus 3:4-7 "But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life."

God bless you genny. I'm glad you brought this up. Many people, well like genny, thinks that what every member of Church of God effort to obey God's commandments is what makes them righteous. But what people don't know outside Church of God is that we simply obey the Words of God because it is God who promise salvation to those who do God's will.

James 2:14-26 – 14What good is it, my brothers, if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save him? 15Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food. 16If one of you says to him, "Go, I wish you well; keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about his physical needs, what good is it? 17In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

18But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds." Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do.

19You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

20You foolish man, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless? 21Was not our ancestor Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? 22You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did. 23And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness," and he was called God's friend. 24You see that a person is justified by what he does and not by faith alone.

25In the same way, was not even Rahab the prostitute considered righteous for what she did when she gave lodging to the spies and sent them off in a different direction? 26As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.

Clearly Bible says that faith alone is dead without obedience. Even demons and Satan believe in God Almighty. Then Satan must have the seal of redemption also right? Absolutely no. Satan has even try to abolish God's way of salvation. Satan wants to deceive people to think that by obeying God on their own is ok. But God has already given us the way of salvation through His words of life. So I will go deeper regarding faith and obedience works together.

We have to realize that it is God who can makes us righteous. Without realizing this, we will continue to make ourselves righteous on our own, not doing the way God has told us to do.

John 15:5-8 – 5"I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. 6If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned. 7If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you. 8This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.

Clearly it is only God who can give us everything, including salvation. That's why we should obey God according to what God has told us, not making our own way of what is righteous based on our own opinion. Passover itself is simply a mere festival. But since God has told us to keep it, then we can understand that it is because of God's words Passover become God's will in order for us to receive salvation. If God had never commanded us to keep these Passover, then it is useless. And by keeping Passover, God's commandment through His words, we show that we truly believe.

1 Corinthians 3:5-7 – 5What, after all, is Apollos? And what is Paul? Only servants, through whom you came to believe—as the Lord has assigned to each his task. 6I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God made it grow. 7So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow.

Amen. If God didn't allow things to grow, our own effort leads to nothing. So, should we obey God's words or simply believe but don't actually obey? Then if we don't actually obey, does God see us that we really don't believe since we didn't obey what God has told us to do.

Luke 6:46-49 – 46"Why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do what I say? 47I will show you what he is like who comes to me and hears my words and puts them into practice. 48He is like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid the foundation on rock. When a flood came, the torrent struck that house but could not shake it, because it was well built. 49But the one who hears my words and does not put them into practice is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The moment the torrent struck that house, it collapsed and its destruction was complete."

It is because of God we can become righteous by obeying God's words.

John 6:53-56 – 53Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. 56Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.

How clear is this. This is God's words of life. This is what makes Passover the way to eternal life. If God had never said these words, Passover is useless. And by obeying these words of God, we truly show that we believe God. Then why did God make it this way, that it is by His words we can be and not by our own effort?

Ephesians 2:8-9 – 8For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God— 9not by works, so that no one can boast.

We should only obey what God has told us in order to show our faith to Him, not by making our own way to be righteous. Brothers and Sisters in Zion, when the time comes we enter the kingdom of heaven, can we say to God that we the reason we were saved is because we obeyed the Passover? Absolutely no. It is God who gave us the way of salvation through His words of life. We cannot even obey Passover at the first place if God has never allowed us to receive eternal life through it. So it is simply God who has gave us the way to eternal life through the Passover by His powerful words of truth. When God says something, it will happen. That's why we should only listen to God's words and we cannot deny that Passover is one of the things that God has promised eternal life to those who keep it by His WORDS OF LIFE.

John 6:60-69 – 60On hearing it, many of his disciples said, "This is a hard teaching. Who can accept it?"

61Aware that his disciples were grumbling about this, Jesus said to them, "Does this offend you? 62What if you see the Son of Man ascend to where he was before! 63The Spirit gives life; the flesh counts for nothing. THE WORDS I HAVE SPOKEN TO YOU ARE SPIRIT AND THEY ARE LIFE. 64Yet there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus had known from the beginning which of them did not believe and who would betray him. 65He went on to say, "THIS IS WHY I TOLD YOU THAT NO ONE CAN COME TO ME UNLESS THE FATHER HAS ENABLED HIM."

66From this time many of his disciples turned back and no longer followed him.

67"You do not want to leave too, do you?" Jesus asked the Twelve.

68Simon Peter answered him, "LORD, TO WHOM SHALL WE GO? YOU HAVE THE WORDS OF ETERNAL LIFE. 69We believe and know that you are the Holy One of God."

I give all the glory to Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem who has explained us that the only way to receive the promised eternal life is by obeying God's Words absolutely.

Amen. Now this verse is much more clear now to me.

4But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared, 5he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, 6whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior, 7so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life.

Wow truly it is God who gave us the way to eternal life through His words. And the only way we can show that we have faith is by obeying what God has told us to do in order for us to have eternal life. That's much more clear for me. Now I will only listen to God's Words, not my own opinion, so that I could be righteous because of God. Thank you Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong for writing the books of truth so that we can understand these things. Truly You are God. Thanks to Mother Jerusalem for sacrificing Herself, leaving Her glorious throne to guide Her children in these last days and even wearing the sinners cloth of flesh just to give Her children a chance to return to Heavenly Home, our true hometown. I will only listen to God's words.

Yes, obedience is important. But there is still this fine difference between obeying God's because He has already saved you and you truly love Him and desire to please Him and follow Him....and obeying God because He has given you commands to follow in order to acheive His salvation.

Do you see the difference? One person obeys God so that God will save him. Another obeys God because God has already saved him.

Here's where the difficulty comes in, and this is the question I would really like an answer to....

The WMSCOG says (and this is directly from the church website, the page about the veil),

"Even though this regulation [the veil] seems minor, it cannot be neglected. None of God's commands were instituted meaninglessly. All of the regulations were given to God's people because they are necessary for our salvation and allow us to enter the kingdom of God....If we regard God's regulations as trivial, God will regard us as trivial."

Your church is saying that no matter how small one of God's commands seems, they must ALL be followed in order to be saved and enter heaven.

If that were true, a fair and just God would make sure you knew ALL of the commands you were to keep so that you would have a fair chance of entering His kingdom. Just like when you take a college class, the professor will tell you at the beginning exactly what tests, projects, and papers you will be required to complete in order to pass.

Surely the WMSCOG has put together a list of these commands and regulations and requirements so that you won't miss any. Where is it?

I also, like you, want to listen to God's words and follow His will. A complete list of God's commands would be helpful to us both, don't you think? Can I please have it? Thank you.

God bless you genny. I'm glad that your giving a chance for the Gospel to be preach to you. Like we said before, if you truly want to learn the truth, please visit our closest Zion to you. Or we can set up a Bible study at your house and we would visit you for any questions you might have. Just give us your contact and we will visit you.

Since my questions are so often avoided, I'm going to start answering this last one myself. Here are some of God's commandments which I wonder if our WMSCOG friends are keeping so that they will be allowed into heaven....

Romans 13:1-7 about submitting to authorities, or obeying the law of the land (when it does not contradict God's standards of course)... Do you ALWAYS come to a full and complete stop at stop signs when you are driving? How about NEVER driving over the speed limit (even a little)?

How about this one...Lev. 19:27 "Do not cut the hair on the sides of your head or clip off the edges of your beard." Did Jesus change this requirement? How long is your hair near your ears?

Or Deut. 22:12—Have you put tassels on all your coats?

For the women of your church, how about makeup and hair coloring? I've heard some churches say these things are not allowed because they show that you do not agree with the way God made you and you think you can "improve" on it, that it shows disdain for God and His creation. What's the position of the WMSCOG?

How about television? There is a church down the street that tells their members that they should not have televisions because the programming is filled with so much immorality and immodesty. How could you follow Phil. 4:8 with all that junk going into your brain?

Here's something more serious—Matt. 19:9. Do any of your church members get a divorce for any reason other than adultery? How about remarriage after divorce, for any reason? That's adultery too (Mark 10:11-12).

And perhaps the toughest commandment of all to keep—Do Not Worry. It's in Matthew chapter 6. Do you never, ever worry...about anything?

That's just a short list of the many commandments that are in the Bible. Do you really think it is possible to keep them ALL, especially if you don't have list to refer to so you can check yourself? Heaven is going to be a very empty place if it is only populated by those who have kept ALL of God's commands.

I'm thankful for God's grace that saves me despite my failure at keeping ALL of His commands. I wish you could know that kind of grace also.

My son is in the COG, so I am glad to be reminded by your last paragraph, of God's grace. He thinks he is going to heaven because he is following the teachings of the COG, (mainly tithing and going to church on Tuesdays and 12 hours Saturdays) Yet thinks it is fine to treat family members badly if we will not be church members. And it does say in the Bible that you cannot divorce, but if you are divorced by a "non-believer" then you can remarry without committing adultery. So, if a man makes his wife miserable enough by focusing only on the COG and their teachings 24-7, and basically abandoning her physically and emotionally, then his wife might leave him and he could remarry. Probably a girl the church finds more appropriate for their purposes. How convenient for them.

By: MountainMom on November 18, 2009 at 11:21 pm

Reply

Hi MountainMom. I have heard other stories about divorce and remarriage in the WMSCOG, just like you say—divorcing an unbelieving spouse in order to marry a believer.

By: genny on November 19, 2009 at 6:19 am

Reply

It's funny, though, how they can justify that since they must obey ALL of God's commands. 1 Cor. chapter 7 talks a lot about marriage and says that if an unbelieving spouse insists on divorce, then the believing spouse is OK to let it happen. But I don't see how it allows for remarriage without it being technically considered adultery. Mark 10:11-12 makes it quite clear that any remarriage after divorce is called adultery.

Please don't think that I am speaking against remarriage. I am very close with three couples who are strong Christians, and yet in their second marriages. Knowing their situations, their faith in God, and the extent of God's wonderful forgiveness and grace, I would find it hard to believe that God would deny them salvation because of this issue.

But I am trying to point out that for all the WMSCOG talk of obeying ALL God's commands so that God will let you into His kingdom... they contradict themselves with this.

Hello. I am part of the group Cult Watch – Ahnsahnghong. We have seen how the COGWMS has attacked all the sites that talk against their church or against their leaders. For that reason, even though there is a lot of information in the net, we are trying to compile it and organize it. Reply

Genny, thank you for the response. I am interested in the COG's take on divorce, etc., because my son has recently married, and his wife is adamantly opposed to the church. In the month after their marriage, there was a three week period where my son was required to go to a "Fest" and then other activities which kept him there an unbelievable amount of time, more than he had ever been there before. He was going to 5 AM services, services after work, and then all day Saturday (till 9PM) for this three week period. The church is an hour drive away from his home, so he had to leave at 3:30 in the morning to get there, and got only about 4 hours or less of sleep per night, since he had to be there till 9 or so at night too. He was sleep deprived, exhausted, and spent no time with anyone but church members. It was during this time that he said, "Everything changed" and he decided to tithe, to go to Korea to see the "Mother" etc. He began going door to door evangelizing with his church friends, etc.

By: MountainMom on November 21, 2009 at 4:36 am

Reply

From looking up how people are brainwashed, it appears a classic example. Sleep deprivation is a method commonly used. He was kept away from his wife. He was even asked to go to a church friend's house after services on Saturday, which ended at 9PM. They seemed to do everything to keep him away from her influence. In brainwashing, isolation is also method used, and they appear to use it well.

I feel especially bad for my daughter in law, whom he pressures unrelentingly to attend church with him. I am positive the church people know they are causing trouble in his marriage and with his family. They truly don't care. My daughter in law will never go to that church, she says it makes her physically ill to be there. This is a nightmare. I am glad to have a connection with some people, at least on this site, who have gone through this type of thing with this family destroying church (if you can even call it that).

On top of it all, my son has been on anti depressants for a few years. All of this turmoil has been absolutely the worst thing possible for his mental state. I think he is on the verge of a mental breakdown. They do tend to prey on people who may be very smart, but struggling emotionally. I know that he has mentioned killing himself because none of his family is in agreement with the church. We are very careful how we talk to him, and emphasize we love him and always will even though we cannot agree with that "church". I hope he survives this

My son is escalating behaviors that are emotionally and physically abusive to get my daughter-in-law to join him in the church. He threw her Bible off their balcony because he said it contained only "lies". I didn't think anyone could take the light out of the eyes of someone like this girl, but he has managed to do it through his association with this church. She says she doesn't know him anymore, and I don't either. She loved him so very much, and she keeps hoping that when "The Mother" passes on and the world doesn't end, he will come back to normal. I don't think so. I think they will come up with a phony excuse as to why it didn't happen as they said. That has been my experience with them so far. I know there has to be other people out there that have had this type of thing happen. Please, someone, tell me a success story about getting their loved one out of there.

What they are doing is pretty much like what the Scientologists do. Perhaps you can report it as a case of emotional and verbal abuse. If you can show that the activities of that pseudo-religion are the cause, the authorities might be able to file a legal order for him to cease going there.

I suggest that you do a search to find any sites that are against the CoGWMS and try to connect with people there. The church is extremely good at using lawyers to intimidate and take down anti-COGWMS websites and information, so these sites will probably be more hidden. In this way, they are exactly like scientology.

Don't lose hope.

I've had to become careful in talking with my sister also. It's been months now since we've talked about about her church at all. On the plus side, it's really cut down on the stress. But on the other hand, faith is a huge part of my life and not being able to share that with her any more is sad. I still tell her about my own Bible studies and how God is working in my life and what's going on at my church (which she used to go to when she lived here)—things we don't need to argue about. But she doesn't share with me in the same way. So things are less stressful but more superficial.

There was a forum about the WMSCOG with posts from several people who had left the church (if that's any encouragement), but it's been taken down. BUT I see that a new one is getting organized here:

<http://www.cultwatchahnsahngghong.com/forum/>

I hope it will become a good place to get and share information.

I'll pray for you MountainMom, along with the others who have been so affected by the WMSCOG.

MountainMom,

I am so sorry for what you and your daughter-in-law have to go through. I will definitely be praying for you both and for your son. I am some what in a similar situation. My boyfriend is in the church and he actually got me to visit his church one time without knowing anything about them. I will certainly say that was one of the most uncomfortable and overwhelming experiences of my life especially since my boyfriend is so deep into this church. And it hurt when he was telling me over that I'm being deceived and telling me that I've been growing up to lies and that he's right and I am SO wrong. He just kept on saying these things that hurt so bad. We just eventually got to the point that we don't talk about it at all and are, I guess, waiting to see what happens. Personally, I'm waiting for the world to NOT come to an end in the next few years and for the death of "Mother". But like you said, they probably will come up with some excuse. They'll most likely say that that was to fulfill a prophecy.

Right now, all we can do is pray. That is the most powerful weapon we have at this point.

God Bless You MountainMom.

—BTW: Where did all the COG people go?

I agree—they've probably already got an excuse lined up for when "Mother" dies and they are all left here instead of being taken to heaven with her as "prophesied."

That was one of the last things my sister and I talked about in regards to the church. She and I are clear on the fact that according to the WMSCOG Mother will NOT die but take the "sealed" with her directly to heaven. And should she die and they are left here, then that would mean that she was NOT god and that the whole thing is false. And that NO EXCUSE should be accepted for why they have failed to all go to heaven with "Mother", because she will have already proven herself as a false prophet. And she agreed to all of that, of course feeling sure that "Mother" will prove herself true.

I pray my sister remembers that conversation when the time comes.

God bless you all. I would like to share about Thanksgiving. Why? It's because:

Ezekiel 33:7-9

7 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me. 8 When I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you will surely die,' and you do not speak out to dissuade him from his ways, that wicked man will die for his sin, and I will hold you accountable for his blood. 9 But if you do warn the wicked man to turn from his ways and he does not do so, he will die for his sin, but you will have saved yourself.

You can either accept or reject the truth about Thanksgiving, but you have been warned. If you have any questions, please visit your nearest Church of God Zion or give me your contact so I could give you directions to the closes Zion to you, or even have our Gospel workers visit you.

Thanksgiving Day is a feast that most Protestants celebrate every November; however, the Church of God does not keep Thanksgiving Day. In fact, the Church only observes God's feasts, in accordance with the teachings of the Bible.

In 1620, more than a hundred Puritans boarded the Mayflower and left England for a New World: America. The following year, they cultivated the American soil and harvested bountiful crops. They had much to be thankful for and decided to hold a commemorative feast. This is the origin of Thanksgiving Day. George Washington, the first American president, suggested that November 26th be appointed as Thanksgiving Day. Then, in 1863, as the long and bloody Civil War came to an end, Abraham Lincoln asked all Americans to set aside the last Thursday in November as a day of thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving Day is one of the largest national festivals celebrated in America, but it is not a religious feast. During Thanksgiving time, most companies grant their employees long vacations.

Thus, it is acceptable that Americans have a pleasant time during this national festival, but it is blatantly incorrect to assume that Thanksgiving Day was appointed as a feast by God.

Moreover, it is blasphemy to teach that Thanksgiving Day originated from the Day of Firstfruits—Resurrection Day in the New Testament—or from the Feast of Tabernacles, both of which are God's feasts. God has never commanded us to celebrate Thanksgiving Day.

The Church of God only keeps the feasts that the Second Coming Christ Ahnsahnghong commanded us to keep, the feasts described in the Bible.

First, let us find out whether or not Thanksgiving Day is related to the Day of Firstfruits.

God appointed seven different feasts to commemorate the work of Moses, spanning from the time when he came out of Egypt with the Israelites, to his crossing the Red Sea and receiving the Ten Commandments, until the time of his gathering materials to build the tabernacle. Moses' work was a shadow of Christ's work, from the time when Christ led His people out of the sinful world, until the time He would gather the materials to build the heavenly temple.

The Day of Firstfruits is the third feast of the seven, appointed in springtime—the season when barley and wheat ripen. It commemorated Moses' crossing the Red Sea with the Israelites. On the day after the Sabbath, following the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the priest waved a sheaf of the first grain before God. This symbolically represented Jesus Christ's resurrection as the firstfruits among the dead.

Lev 23:10-14 Speak to the Israelites and say to them: "When you enter the land I am going to give you and you reap its harvest, bring to the priest a sheaf of the first grain you harvest. He is to wave the sheaf before the LORD so it will be accepted on your behalf; the priest is to wave it on the day after the Sabbath...You must not eat any bread, or roasted or new grain, until the very day you bring this offering to your God (on the Day of Firstfruits). This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live."

The Israelites couldn't eat the new grains until they presented the wave offering of a sheaf of the first grain to God on the Day of Firstfruits. This prophecy revealed that no one could resurrect until Jesus had first risen from the dead.

1 Cor. 15:20-24 But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep [physically died]...But each in his own turn: Christ, the firstfruits...

Jesus resurrected as the firstfruits among the dead, the fulfillment of the Old Testament prophecy concerning the Day of Firstfruits. In the Old Testament times, the Israelites kept the Day of Firstfruits on the day after the Sabbath, following the Feast of Unleavened Bread. This was fulfilled by Jesus Christ's resurrection on Sunday — the day after the Sabbath, following the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

Mark 16:9 When Jesus rose early on the first day of the week...

Jesus' resurrection was prophesied during the time of Moses, and the exact day of His resurrection—the day after the Sabbath—was even appointed.

Now, in the New Testament times, should we still commemorate the Old Testament's Day of Firstfruits? We should commemorate Jesus' resurrection instead. If there is anyone who keeps Thanksgiving Day, trying to draw a connection between Thanksgiving Day and the Day of Firstfruits, then he is still within the parameters of the Old Testament. Jesus established the new covenant, so if we try to follow the regulations of the old covenant, it is as if we are rebelling against Jesus and crucifying Him once more, isn't it?

Let us study if there is any relationship between the Feast of Tabernacles and Thanksgiving Day.

The Feast of Tabernacles was appointed when Moses and the Israelites were in the desert. The Feast was to commemorate the Israelites' gathering the materials to build the tabernacle. It was kept in the seventh month, from the 15th to the 22nd, according to the sacred calendar. Using the solar calendar, the feast falls in September or October.

God commanded Moses and his people to build a sanctuary according to the pattern of the heavenly sanctuary, shown to Moses on Mount Sinai. The people were moved by the Holy Spirit and willingly offered materials—gold, silver, linen, and cotton—to help build the tabernacle. Eventually, Moses ordered that they didn't have to bring any more offerings (Ex. 35:4-36:7). To commemorate the Israelites' building the tabernacle, God appointed the Feast of Tabernacles, also referred to as the feast of booths. The Israelites built booths in the inner and outer courts of the temple and rejoiced for a week (Lev. 23:34-36).

This feast fell during the season in which all of the grains were harvested. Thus, the Feast of Tabernacles was also called the Feast of Ingathering (Ex. 34:22).

The book of Hebrews reveals that the earthly sanctuary, built by Moses, was a copy and a shadow of the heavenly sanctuary to be built by Jesus Christ.

Heb. 8:5 They serve at a sanctuary (on the earth) that is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: "See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain."

In the time of Moses, materials were gathered for the building of the sanctuary. These materials symbolized God's people, who are described as the "materials" for the heavenly sanctuary to be gathered in the New Testament times.

Eph. 2:20-22 ...with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone. In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit.

Rev. 3:12 "Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of my God..."

In the time of Moses, the Israelites gathered materials for seven days and built the tabernacle. In the Old Testament times, the Israelites ceremonially constructed booths of grass or trees and joyfully stayed within them for seven days. These are both prophecies disclosing that the 144,000 saints—who are described as "wood" (Jer. 5:14) and as the materials of the temple (Eph. 2:20-21)—will be gathered. As they are gathered, the earthly gospel work will be completed.

Jesus also showed us an example of preaching during the Feast of Tabernacles (John 7:14, 37).

As stated above, the Feast of Firstfruits and the Feast of Tabernacles were a shadow, revealing how Jesus would resurrect and how the 144,000—the materials of the heavenly temple—would be gathered in the New Testament times. Thus, it is very difficult for Christians to understand why people celebrate the American-made Thanksgiving Day, claiming that it is related to the Feast of Firstfruits or to the Feast of Tabernacles.

In the New Testament times, the Feast of Firstfruits was fulfilled on Resurrection Day. On Resurrection Day we commemorate Jesus' resurrection and we are reminded of God's promise to change and to resurrect the saints living in the last days. The Feast of Tabernacles was fulfilled by the Preaching Week of the New Testament times, during which we preach the gospel to find the materials—the saints who are to be saved—for the heavenly temple.

Thanksgiving Day is an American festival, not a Christian feast. It is undoubtedly a man-made custom. A long time ago, Jeroboam, king of Israel, constructed golden calves to prevent his people from going to Jerusalem to keep the feasts of God. He said, "Here are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt," and instituted a feast on the fifteenth day of the eighth month similar to the festival held in Judah. The Bible says that Jeroboam's actions were viewed as sinful in the eyes of God (1 Kin. 12:25-33). Jesus also spoke concerning this kind of people.

Mark 7:6-8 He replied, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites; as it is written: "'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men.' You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to the traditions of men."

Many people do not know the prophecies of the Feast of Firstfruits and the Feast of Tabernacles, or how these feasts were fulfilled. Most continue to follow and to proclaim incorrect teachings. They even shout, "Amen!" when these false doctrines are taught. We hope that, under God's grace, they can realize the true decrees and laws of God.

The Bible says, "My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I also reject you as my priests; because you have ignored the law of your God, I also will ignore your children" (Hos. 4:6). This is a warning to those who neglect God's commands and who follow only the commands of men.

Hebrews chapter nine reads, "Now the first covenant had regulations for worship and also an earthly sanctuary" (Heb. 9:1). This verse implies that the second covenant [the new covenant] had regulations for worship and for a heavenly sanctuary. Which covenant is more important? No one denies that the regulations of the new covenant are more important. The feasts and the regulations for worshiping God in the earthly sanctuary are merely a shadow whose reality is the feasts of the new covenant and the heavenly sanctuary, disclosed in the New Testament times.

Only God's people regard the regulations of the new covenant as precious. We pray that many souls will abandon the rules of men, will come to accept the regulations of the new covenant, and thus, will come to truly worship God.

Poland, either you or your source (if that was another cut-and-paste) seem to have a problem with either your knowledge of the Thanksgiving holiday, or your assumptions about it.

You said, "it is blatantly incorrect to assume that Thanksgiving Day was appointed as a feast by God. Moreover, it is blasphemy to teach that Thanksgiving Day originated from the Day of Firstfruits—Resurrection Day in the New Testament—or from the Feast of Tabernacles, both of which are God's feasts. God has never commanded us to celebrate Thanksgiving Day."

Does ANYBODY teach that Thanksgiving was a day appointed by God or that is the same as the Day of Firstfruits?!? You make it sound like that is a teaching of mainstream Christian churches, but it is NOT. Neither is it a "Rule of Men" in that you MUST celebrate Thanksgiving Day or else you're in trouble.

There are two types of special days that we can celebrate—those instituted by God to bless His people (like the Feasts of Israel and their fulfillment through Jesus), and those instituted by people to bless God as a remembrance for what He has done (like Purim in the book of Esther, and also anniversaries and birthdays).

I have not seen anywhere in the Bible where God is displeased with people setting aside a special day to remember His goodness towards them. But the book of Psalms is full of songs of remembrance of the good things God has done. Try Psalm 30, for one. Here's verses 1-3:

"I will exalt you, O LORD, for you lifted me out of the depths and did not let my enemies gloat over me.
O LORD my God, I called to you for help and you healed me.
O LORD, you brought me up from the grave;
you spared me from going down into the pit."

Does the WMSCOG observe birthdays, wedding anniversaries, Independence Day, Mother's Day, Father's Day, Memorial Day, New Year's Day, Veteran's Day, Labor Day...?

As far as I've studied, NONE of those are days that God commanded us to celebrate annually. If there is a Scripture that tells me to celebrate my wedding anniversary every year, then point me to it. I haven't seen it (celebrate a wedding, yes...and anniversary, no). Yet every year I remember and celebrate my wedding anniversary. Guess I'm following what you'd call a "rule of men" in that?

A person's heartfelt expression of thanks, appreciation, remembrance and praise to God can take many forms. The WMSCOG seems to call that expression a deplorable "rule of men" if it's not in a form expressly commanded by God in the Bible. But I think God calls it praise, Psalm 103.

"It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery." — Gal. 5:1

PS—I wish not for us to keep "biting and devouring each other" (Gal. 5:15), but as long as the WMSCOG continues to deceive people into glorifying an ordinary man and woman as Gods, I will continue to fight for my sister...until either they somehow prove themselves true or God Himself proves them false (which will be the moment "Mother" dies and leaves them all behind).

God bless you all.

Ezekiel 33:7-9

7 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me. 8 When I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you will surely die,' and you do not speak out to dissuade him from his ways, that wicked man will die for his sin, and I will hold you accountable for his blood. 9 But if you do warn the wicked man to turn from his ways and he does not do so, he will die for his sin, but you will have saved yourself.

Christmas is a popular festival which is celebrated throughout the world. When the Christmas season arrives, in December, everyone gets into the festive spirit. Most people are under the impression that Christmas is Jesus' birthday, the day when He came into the world to give blessings and eternal hope to mankind; however, the Church of God—believing in the Second Coming Christ—does not celebrate Christmas, because it is not the birthday of Jesus. In fact, within Christmas is hidden a deceitful trick of Satan.

The devil has tricked many people into worshipping the sun god by allowing them to fall into the illusion that they are sincerely worshipping God in the proper way. Actually, Christmas is a festival to the sun god, Baal, and thus, those who keep the festival are rebelling against God. Satan has deceived people into mistaking Christmas for the birthday of Jesus, and by this cunning deception, Satan has come to be unwittingly served by all the people of the world. Many people try to justify themselves, saying, "We celebrate Christmas because it is the birthday of Jesus." However, Christmas—December 25th—is the birthday of the sun god, Nimrod, who was the first model of the Antichrist.

Christmas originated in the festival of Saturnalia, and is a subtle scheme—devised by Satan—to destroy our souls. Satan always tries to turn us away from the way that God has commanded us to follow: "You shall have no other gods before me," "You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything." Today, Satan is prowling around, like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour. In order to resist him, we should be alert, standing firm in our faith. In today's world, lies are prevalent—and most consider these lies to be the truth—because this generation does not hesitate in following the ways that are against God.

We need to be able to discern the truth from all of the falsehood. By examining numerous sources of evidence, we can clearly understand that December 25th was not the birthday of Jesus, but the birthday of the sun god. Now, let's look carefully at various materials which testify that the date of Jesus' birth was not December 25th, and that this date was the birthday of the sun god, as it had been celebrated in ancient Rome. Even though all of the people living in this age believe that lies and falsehood are the truth, we are the ones who must restore the truth.

Christian history testifies that Christmas originated in pagan customs—from those who worshiped idols—and that it was not until much later that the festival became "Christianized."

HISTORY OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

by Philip Schaff, Hendrickson Publishers, pp. 396-397.

"The Christmas festival was probably the Christian transformation or regeneration of a series of kindred heathen festivals—the Saturnalia, Sigillaria, Juvenalia, and Brumalia—which were kept in Rome in the month of December, in commemoration of the golden age of universal freedom and equality, and in honor of the unconquered sun, and which were great holidays, especially for slaves and children. This connection accounts for many custom of the Christmas season, like the giving of presents to children and to the poor, the lighting of wax tapers, perhaps also the erection of Christmas trees...Finally, the church fathers themselves confirm the symbolical reference of the feast of the birth of Christ, the Sun of righteousness, the Light of the world, to the birth-festival of the unconquered sun, which on the twenty-fifth of December, after the winter solstice, breaks the growing power of darkness, and begins anew his heroic career."

THE HISTORY OF CHRISTIANITY A Lion Handbook, p. 141.

"The Christian church took over many pagan ideas and images. From sun-worship, for example, came the celebration of Christ's birth on the twenty-fifth of December, the birthday of the Sun."

A BRIEF HISTORY OF CHRISTIANITY by Bamber Gascoigne, Robinson, p. 16.

"In 274 Aurelian believed that the sun-god had brought him victory in Syria. He set up a state cult to Sol Invictus, the unconquered sun: and announced that the birthday of the sun, a day of special festivity, was December 25th. The sun's halo, as well as the date of his birthday, would later be borrowed by Christianity."

Judging by historical evidence, we can easily conclude that there is no relationship between Christmas and Jesus' birth. Christmas is merely a Roman festival—for the sun god—that was Christianized later.

Dictionaries and newspapers also testify that December 25th was not the birthday of Jesus, but of the sun god.

Encyclopedia BRITANNICA, p. 704.

"Christmas/December 25 was the date of a pagan festival in Rome, chosen in A.D. 274 by the emperor Aurelian as the birthday of the unconquered sun (natales solis invicti), which at the winter solstice begins again to show an increase of light. At some point before A.D. 336 the church at Rome established the commemoration of the birthday of Christ, the sun of righteousness, on this same date."

Encyclopedia AMERICANA, p. 666.

"This date [December 25] was not set in the West until about the middle of the 4th century and in the East until about a century later...The reason for establishing December 25 as Christmas is somewhat obscure, but it is usually held that the day was chosen to correspond to pagan festivals that took place around the time of the winter solstice, when the days begin to lengthen, to celebrate the "rebirth of the sun." Northern European tribes celebrate their chief festival of Yule at the winter solstice to commemorate the rebirth of the sun as the giver of light and warmth. The Roman Saturnalia (a festival dedicated to Saturn, the god of agriculture, and to the renewed power of the sun), also took place at this time and some Christmas customs are thought to be rooted in this ancient pagan celebration."

"TODAY" (a newspaper published in Singapore)
Tuesday, December 21, 2004

"Two thousand years ago, this [Christmas] was the very kind of celebration that alarmed the early Christian Church, which was disgusted with the cheer and merriment that marked the pagan festivals of their new converts. At first, the Church forbade this kind of celebration. But it was to no avail....The 25th was not only sacred to the Romans, but also to the Persians—whose religion, Mithraism, was one of Christianity's main rivals then. The Church was successful eventually in taking the merriment, lights and gifts from the pagan festival and bringing them to the celebration of Christmas. The history of celebrating the end of the year or of a cycle dates back to more than 4,000 years. Many of the Christmas traditions were celebrated centuries before Jesus Christ was born...As the winter solstice approached, with its long cold nights and short days, many people feared the sun would not return. Special rituals and celebrations were held to welcome back the sun..."

And in a book entitled World Government and 666 it is written that the birthday of Nimrod—the first model of the Antichrist, historically—was celebrated on the 25th of December as the Roman festival, Saturnalia.

The Franklin Institute, in America, also researched this subject, concluding that Jesus Christ was born in March or April. While at a midnight mass on Christmas Eve, in Korea's Myongdong Cathedral, a reporter asked a Catholic reverend about the origin of Christmas. The reverend replied by quoting historical evidence, "This day [Christmas] originated with the custom of pagans who worshiped the sun god." In spite of such reports, many people do not realize if they are worshiping God or the sun god, because they have been deceived by Satan and have become spiritually deaf and blind.

Ezek. 8:14-18 Then he brought me to the entrance to the north gate of the house of the LORD, and I saw women sitting there, mourning for Tammuz. He said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? You will see things that are even more detestable than this." He then brought me into the inner court of the house of the LORD, and there at the entrance to the temple, between the portico and the altar, were about twenty-five men. With their backs toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east, they were bowing down to the sun in the east. He said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a trivial matter for the house of Judah to do the detestable things they are doing here? Must they also fill the land with violence and continually provoke me to anger? Look at them putting the branch to their nose! Therefore I will deal with them in anger; I will not look on them with pity or spare them. Although they shout in my ears, I will not listen to them."

Who will care if an unbeliever worships the sun god, or even the old wood god? However, if a Christian worships the sun god, rejecting God's command—"You shall have no other gods before me," and, "You shall not worship idols"—it is detestable to God, isn't it? The Bible says that such abominable acts are committed "between the portico and the altar." Isn't the chapel what lies between the portico and the altar? People worship the sun god within the very churches that have been established for worshipping God. How abominable!

Satan has ingeniously set a snare, and his trickery is nearly unnoticeable. If sun-worship could be recognized at a glance, who would go to such a church, looking to find God? In order to deceive many people, Satan hid sun-worship within church doctrine. Sunday service and Christmas are paragons of sun-worship.

As stated above, Christmas is a pagan custom which has been Christianized. Its origin is a Roman festival of sun god worship, a slice of spiritual adultery, mixing truth with falsehood.

Sunday service, a worldwide tradition, is another church doctrine tied to sun-worship. Sunday is "the day of the sun," on which the Romans worshiped the sun god. Constantine, a Roman emperor, instituted Sunday as the day of rest and worship in 321 A.D., as follows:

"All judges, city-people and craftsmen shall rest on the venerable day of the Sun. But countrymen may without hindrance attend to agriculture, since it often happens that this is the most suitable day for sowing grain or planting vines, so that the opportunity afforded by divine providence may not be lost, for the right season is short." (7 March 321)

1) Considering the fact that Constantine called Sunday "the venerable day of the Sun," Sunday must be the day to worship the sun god. In the Bible, there is not a single line authorizing the sanctification of Sunday.

In regard to this, Christian history testifies:

"The first day of the week was proclaimed as a day of rest and worship, and its observance soon became general throughout the empire. In 321 A.D. Constantine forbade the courts to be held on Sunday, except for the purpose of giving freedom to slaves; and on that day soldiers were commanded to omit their daily military exercises. But the public games were continued on Sunday, tending to make it more a holiday than a holy-day." (The Story of the Christian Church by Jesse Lyman Hurlbut, pp. 60-61.)

2) Daniel already prophesied, in a revelation, that Satan would speak against God and would try to change God's set times and laws.

Dan. 7:25 He will speak against the Most High and oppress his saints and try to change the set times and the laws. The saints will be handed over to him for a time, times and half a time.

God warns that He will bring severe punishment, without compassion, upon those who replace the laws of truth with their own rules, who rationalize false logic, and who change God's sacred laws into those of the Romans—the sun-worshippers.

On the other hand, God said that He would put a mark on the foreheads of those who grieve and lament over all of the detestable things which are done, including sun-worship. When God's judgment comes upon those who have worshiped the sun god—even though they have professed that they believe in God—this mark will bring redemption to God's true people.

Ezek. 9:4-6 ... "Go throughout the city of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of those who grieve and lament over all the detestable things that are done in it." As I listened, he said to the others, "Follow him through the city and kill, without showing pity or compassion. Slaughter old men, young men and maidens, women and children, but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at my sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were in front of the temple.

Isa. 9:13-16 But the people have not returned to him who struck them, nor have they sought the LORD

Almighty. So the LORD will cut off from Israel both head and tail, both palm branch and reed in a single day; the elders and prominent men are the head, the prophets who teach lies are the tail. Those who guide this people mislead them, and those who are guided are led by astray.

As stated above, Sunday service and Christmas—December 25th—are the weapons Satan uses to resist God. By sending many false prophets, Satan has taken many souls captive under hollow and deceptive philosophies. What does not come from the Bible cannot be considered God's teaching, even if it seems extremely plausible. The preachers, who teach a different gospel, and their followers will be punished.

Now, the time of God's Judgment is near. All of us must follow God's teachings, the truth which will lead us to eternal life in heaven, and we must turn away from Satan's deception of Sunday service and Christmas.

Luke 6:46 "Why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do what I say?"

Keeping Christ's words in our minds, we shall be God's faithful people who will follow the truth and will obey only what God has commanded.

Mark 7:6-9

6He replied, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites; as it is written: " 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. 7They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men.' 8You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to the traditions of men." 9And he said to them: "You have a fine way of setting aside the commands of God in order to observe your own traditions!

Thanks to Genny, Ben, Jamie, Emilyn, and the others on this site who put up such great posts and give me hope. I love my son so much, and always will, but I have been devastated at the thought of him, not only being in this cult, but also recruiting others to this destructive experience. Misleading others to worship false idols, and turning them subtly away from the real God and the real Jesus is no small thing. Even if he does wake up and see the destruction this cult has brought onto him, I don't see that he will instantly be better. I see the possibility of him being so angry at them and so much more depressed than before that I can only hope he doesn't do anything violent. I think he will possibly face years of therapy or commit suicide. That really is my fear. They truly prey on people who are down and out. One positive thing I can say is that my daughter came home for Thanksgiving, and we went to church and prayed together. She had told her brother that he should not try to change her,(with his preachings) that only God can change your heart. I believe that too, and I am waiting for God's help with this situation. It will come. I have faith.

If the Church of God is a Cult! Then Christianity itself is a cult

1) Cults Claim to Have all Knowing leadership:

John 21:17 {the third time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep.}

2) Cults only teach you up to what you are able to believe:

Hebrews 5:11 {We much to say about this, but it is hard to explain because you are slow to learn.}

3) Cults claim no room for differences (Everybody is the same):

Colossians 3:11 {Here there is no Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all, and is in all.}

4) Cults claim to introduce a new and better way:

Hebrews 7:18-19 {the former regulation is set aside because it was weak and useless (for the law made nothing perfect), and a better hope is introduced, by which we draw near to God.}

5) Cult members should imitate cult leader:

Philippians 2:5 {your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus}
Also Colossians 3:11 of example 3.

6) Cults isolate you from your family:

Matthew 10:37 {anyone who loves his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me}

7) Cults Brainwash Ignorant and people who have no critical thinking.

Acts 4:13 {when they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus.}

8) Cults Recruit people:

Mk 16:15-16 {He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned}

9) Cults always claim Persecution of the Leader:

Acts 22:6-8 {"About noon as I came near Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me. I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, 'Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?' 'Who are you, Lord?' I asked " 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting,' he replied.}

10) Cults have ignorant leaders:

John 7:14-16 {Not until halfway through the Feast did Jesus go up to the temple courts and begin to teach. The Jews were amazed and asked, "How did this man get such learning without having studied?"}

11) Cults try to keep members busy:

Acts 2:46-47 {every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

12) Cult leaders always try to gain your trust:

John 14:1 {"Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me}

13) Cults believe that by your actions you prove your faith:

James 2:17 {in the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, Is dead.}

14) Cults claim salvation is through obedience before the end comes:

Matthew 24:42 {"Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come.}

15) Cults make members dependant to the cult leader:

John 15:5 {"I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.}

16) Cults claim that there is no exit apart from the cult:

John 6:67-68 {"You do not want to leave too, do you?" Jesus asked the Twelve. Simon Peter answered him "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.}

17) Cult members claim to have "Spiritual Battles":

Ephesians 6:12 {for our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.}

18) Cults try to keep things secret:

Matthew 17:9 {As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, "Don't tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."}

19) Cult leaders claim to be the only way, and supreme authority:

John 14:6 {Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."}

And for the sake of space and time, I omitted the teachings of: Judaism, Mohammed, Buddha, Martin Luther King, Nelson Mandela, Mahatma Gandhi, Copernicus, Galileo...etc.

If we are going to judge groups and organizations by these standards, then every single organization and religion is a cult. We should not judge the Church of God by these standards, rather we should see if the teachings that the Church practices come from God or not. To label the World Mission Society Church of God as a cult is no different from when the Jewish religious leaders called the Apostles a Nazarene sect. Please don't commit the same mistake as 2,000 years ago.

Let's be honest – perhaps you're right. You're probably hitting it right on the head. Truly, anything that does not follow what God's true intentions are, but claims they are, that is a cult. Honestly, today, Judaism is a cult because it doesn't take heed to the fulfillment of it's religion, the Messiah. Christianity is a cult in many ways because it's own "believers" do not follow the scripture in context and twist scripture for their own sake. This goes along with Mormons, Jehovah's Witness, Church of God, even Catholicism and Pentecostals. All of these places are not completely doing God's will for their lives, because they think that a verse means this or that. Tongues are okay for all to pentecostals – no they are not. Tongues are certainly a gift to some by the Holy Spirit, but not to all people baptized in the Spirit. Catholics tend to believe if they go to confessional everything will be alright. No it won't – true repentance isn't only by confession, it's by acting upon the repentance, trying to change because you know the Lord's will and wish to serve Him out of your love. Church of God? They use only a limited amount of scripture to back up what they want to say toward the "heavenly mother". I was witnessed to by a Church of God member. He spent 6 hours speaking to me about Jesus and His secrets, that He has a new name. I was told about the new name, Ahn Sang Hong. I asked where Ahn Sang Hong is, and how he is foretold in the Bible.. I got no answers but a circle back to the same scriptures we had just been over. I'm still trying to figure the whole story out on watv.org but to no avail – there is no evidence online anywhere! I could learn more about Jesus in 6 minutes than of Ahn Sang Hong in 6 hours. The use of scripture is twisted and backwards.

I judge these things because I study the Bible daily and pray to my Lord and my God to reveal to me His truth, and only His truth. Why would God give me verses that authenticate everything I say about something my Ahn Sang Hong friend told me? Why would I be led blindly? God speaks to me, it's a 2-way relationship. I ask, He gives me the wisdom and words. I thank Him, He blesses it. And He sends me out to get verbally persecuted by people who don't believe the Bible in context.. :)

MountainMom,

to Poland,

You are basically saying the same things over and over and I've seen these same arguments over and over again. All I'm reading is "blah blah blah blah" and pass right over it.

You keep saying that if you preach to those who wont listen and they die because of their sins, you are not accountable for their blood but we are asking the questions so that we will understand but you are not answering them. Is that the same as not preaching to us and you are being accountable for our blood?

You are still refusing to answer our questions and I'm sure you have read my posts to MountainMom and hers back to me and genny. So what will happen if mother j does pass and does not bring those sealed with her and there is no destruction? Will you think for yourself or listen to your deacons and deaconesses?

God bless

God bless you Emilyn. If you have further questions, please send it here:

You may also visit your nearest Zion or if you don't know then you can ask them so they can give you the address of the closest Zion to you. If there's none, they will visit you at your house.

Why can't you answer our questions here? Why do we have to send our questions to the church website when we can ask church members here in this blog?

Poland, Emilyn is right. You are just avoiding the questions. If "Mother" passes away and doesn't take her "children" and the destruction does not occur, then is it over? Or will there be some kind of thing AGAIN where COG members will say that AGAIN mercy was given to put it off? I've been to your "ZION". They had no good answers to anything. Just talked in circles like you do.

By the way, my son and his wife talked Thursday about him limiting his church contributions, agreeing that the amount of money he was giving at this time was unreasonable. Since he is making a considerable amount of money, yet doesn't have five dollars in his pocket at the end of the month, his wife said it was reasonable to track where it was going, and he agreed. This was a big step forward, as he has been secretive about his finances. (They have the same job, so she pretty much knows that he has good income) Everything was fine till he went back to church on Saturday. Then all of a sudden she could see that he was all messed up again, and asking her why she wanted to spend and control his money, etc. (She has her own job and money and does not spend ANY of his) Very obviously, as soon as he talked about not giving the outrageous amount he had originally thought he would give, all heck broke loose at the church, and he was a mess again on Sunday. His wife isn't adverse to giving money to charity, good causes, etc., and would willingly join in giving to the needy. She told him this. But she doesn't want his money going to this destructive cult that worships false idols. All of a sudden on Sunday lots of texts and calls were coming from the cult people he knows, and he was very upset. It is very obvious that the money is what they are concerned about. Certainly not his mental state, marriage, or well-being.

I told him several weeks ago that he should withdraw most monetary support from the "church" and instead give the same amount to the sick, homeless, needy, of Chicago instead. When they ask, say, "God knows what good things I am doing with it, so you don't really have to know." And certainly, God would know, and it is no business of theirs in that cult. I told him to then watch how unconditional their love is for him. I believe this is what is happening right now. I hope he can see how they truly operate.

My son did tell them last Saturday that he had to cut down on the money he gave, as he and his wife had agreed. On Thursday the Korean pastor, "Jacob" got him to meet with him, and explained tithing in detail, and now my son is telling his wife he HAS to give at least $650 per month, and she HAS to release him from his promise to stay to a lesser amount that they agreed upon. He told her she should take her money and pay for all kinds of his necessities, rent, tires, school loans, etc., so that he can give this amount. It is absolutely insane and outrageous. He told her he will "make" it happen by getting rid of the TV, selling possessions, whatever to get it done. She said she would not release him from his promise, so he then called her "Satan."

I am thinking of sending the hierarchy of this church a registered letter, naming each one of them, and letting them know that it is obvious they are taking advantage of my son who has been on depression medications for at least five years and is in a vulnerable state. They could not then deny they knew of his mental state or deny monetary damages when he loses his job, which he is soon to do if he keeps on this manic track, as he is evangelizing at work too, and they know it. I believe they could also be liable for any damage he does to himself or others, because he IS NOT mentally well at this point. He was doing fine untill they stepped in to his life, and they are applying so much pressure to him both physically and emotionally that there HAS to be some recourse here. They are listed as a corporation under tax law right now, as I have heard, not a church, so there should be some legal repercussions for damages that would be applicable. I believe they have taken him for an incredible amount of money already. Where is it going? Does anyone out there know what happens to the money they STEAL by deception?

MountainMom, I'm sorry things are so difficult with your son. A letter to the pastor of his church...that sounds like a reasonable idea to me. If you do write it, be sure to send it return receipt or something so have proof they got it.

As for tithes and offerings, from my Christian perspective, it's an important part of faith to include God in my finances—both challenging and rewarding. But beyond that, my own church stays accountable to the congregation by sharing its financial statements openly at our yearly business meeting, so I know where my money goes when I give to my church.

I'm not sure if your son's pastor is telling him that he MUST give at least $650, or if he is laying such a guilt trip about obedience that your son now feels pressured to tithe (and that 10% turns out to be $650)....but in either case, they are forgetting this scripture:

2 Cor. 9:7 "Each man should give what he has decided in his heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver."

Where does the money go? That's a real good question. And your son should be interested in knowing. If it is an upright church, they should freely offer him (when he asks) a copy of their annual report. He may also be interested in reading his church's "constitution and bylaws". If the church has no Annual Report or Constitution and Bylaws document to share with their members, then that ought to raise some serious questions.

Now I'm curious.... Poland, Brofromzion, have you ever seen your church's annual report? Ours gives both a summary of ministry activities for the year and details about the income and expenses of the church. And does your congregation have any kind of Constitution and Bylaws booklet that details things like steps required for membership, how deacons are chosen, how church business decisions are made, etc.?

Genny, have you noticed that the COG members are no longer responding? Did the questions become too straightforward and difficult? I guess they always were, that is why they have to talk in circles. And, yes, if I do decide to go forward with a letter, I will send it as a registered letter. They must sign to receive a registered letter, and there is legal proof that they have received it. You are correct in your assumption that they are guilt tripping him, putting tremendous pressure on him to give an unreasonable amount. The very day after he told them he had to cut back, as he and his wife agreed upon, there was a flurry of calls, texts, conferences, etc., from church members, with the aim of straightening my son out. Then he told his wife he was going to the library on Thursday. He said he was going to study, but admitted afterward he met the pastor there, and the pastor explained to him why he must tithe. The pastor also explained he must give $650 because, even though that is way more than 10% of his income, there are taxes, you know. So now, he wants his wife to release him from his promise to her on the amount he would give, and he is putting immense pressure on her. Her father is overseas, extremely ill, and this is a very bad time for her, yet all he can see is what the "church" is demanding from him. It is reprehensible.

I find it interesting, too, that this church who keeps saying to my son that "destruction is near" is so concerned about taxes. They told him the end is for sure by 2012, but now have moved it up to possibly 2010. But let's maximize profit till then. Why is that so important?

True churches have tax exemption for properties and tithing, and other expenses. This one doesn't have tax exemption because it has been listed as a CORPORATION. What is the bottom line for corporations? Not saving souls, I know that! For tax purposes it is listed as 099, the code for "activities unknown." Does this cry out SHADY or what?

Does this mean also that any contributions he makes to the "church/corporation" are not tax-deductible like they would be for a regular church or charity?

And even if it's technically a corporation, by contributing money, wouldn't your son be a kind of shareholder? We have stock in a few companies and even though we own very little stock, we still get an annual report from each of them detailing their financial condition. I would think that your son is entitled to something like that to know what is being done with his money. What would they say if he asked them for it, I wonder?

Genny, you are correct. The contributions he makes are not tax-deductible because it is not a recognized church. On their website they are listed as a "company." And no, he doesn't even have status as a shareholder because they don't have shares as such. They simply take his money, and he gets NOTHING. My son, if he were in his right mind, would ask to see where the money is going, but is so totally brainwashed that he wouldn't even think of asking. In his mind, why would you ask God where money is going? It is that bad, they have him so totally blind. They stepped up the already tremendous pressure on him recently to give more and more because he and his wife had agreed to a lesser amount. Ever since he told them he would be giving somewhat less, they have been meeting with him and instructing him on why he needs to give at least $650 per month. Since my daughter in law has refused to release him from his promise to give a substantially lesser amount, he has been absolutely horrible to her, calls her "wicked" and "selfish", fights with her and makes her life miserable on a daily basis. He is going to lose his wife, who is a brilliant, beautiful, caring person who has loved him beyond reason for four years now. They never fought at all until the church stepped up and took control of his mind in September of this year after three weeks of constant church time where he was getting only 4 hours of sleep per night and spending all his time there. I think the fact that he was sleep deprived and was taking medications for a health issue made him very vulnerable to mind control techniques, which they appear to be very good at. Anyway, the pastor showed up at their door yesterday, and my daughter in law had a chance to get him alone and talk to him and tell him her concerns. He is insistent that there is nothing wrong, and maybe she should just come to church with him. For crying out loud! They are so in denial, and so absolutely uncaring that they are the main factor in what appears to be a mental breakdown for my son. They are definitely a main factor in the destruction of his mental, emotional, physical, and spiritual well being, as well as his marriage, and most likely, his job, as he is evangelizing at work and people are starting to talk.

far they have reached, even into his subconscious being. How good can that be for an already fragile mental state? He was being treated for depression, but now says he doesn't need doctors or medication, he's through with them. He is so stressed, depressed, and even physically ill, and yet they continue to pressure him, and have him focus on doom and gloom. He is ready to break, and I can only hope that no one is harmed when he does. I am not idle on this end, though I am thousands of miles away from him. I was with the COG for 4 months. I was told that husband and kids are idols and illusion. We need to set our goal in heaven. The translation of the bible looked really convincing at the begining and I was so into it. Reading their books day and night, even didn't look after my husband and kids as good as i was before. When I share this feeling with the female members, they said it's okay for I will be blessed. And I said if my husband against it, I will stop or he will divorce me. But instead of comfort me they showed me something in bible like "brother against brother, daughter against mother" and told me what I only need is faith toward the gods. Since then I had alot of questions about the ASH & MJ but no answers received. I always asked about the back ground of the MJ & ASH, but they said only focus on and believe the bible. And told me that I need to have faith so that I won't doubt or I worship the Gods in vain. Then they wanted me to preach asap to bear fruits, therefore I questioned again that without knowing the backgroud of ASH & MJ, I can't preach. I said as Moses and prophets were the witnesses of Jehovah, the OT also prophesies about Jesus was to come. The Apostals were the witnesses of Jesus and we all know that Jesus back ground from his birth. Then who is the Witnesses of ASH & MJ? Only the COG knows, I insisted that if the COG can't be the witness and can't open their God's background, I have to finish with them.

But they avoided to answer and said "Just believe the bible, don't need to know other things". After I came out from the COG, I realise "Jesus is light" because I found that I was in darkness for 4 months. Now I repented everyday to Our Lord Jesus that I couldn't distinguish the false prophets and let them baptised me in the name of a dead man.

May God bless you all.

GaYeun, your response here is very helpful to me. As you could probably see from my posts, my son is caught up in the COG and they have him fooled totally. They seem to discourage all questioning as "disrespectful," or showing a lack of faith. Yet no answers come forth. I sent my son a list of 14 questions I had about the COG and "The Mother" and he first said they were good honest questions that deserved honest answers. This was a week ago, and I have not received a single answer to a single question so far. One of the questions was "where does it say in the Bible that you have to go to church on Tuesdays?" I believe the hold up on that one is that they can't produce anything to answer it. It is obviously their own rule, and yet they always say not to go by man's rules, but adhere strictly to the Bible. This Tuesday thing is a man's rule, pure and simple, and they contradict themselves there, as they do on nearly everything else.

Another question I had is that if "The Mother" passes away, and does not ascend to heaven and take "her children" with her immediately, and the "end of the world" does not happen right away, is that the end of the COG because the prophesy did not come true? Or will another excuse be made for yet another false prophesy? My daughter-in-law has asked that church members not contact my son on days other than Tuesday and Saturday because she wants them to respect family time, as she is not a member of the church. So a member of the church keeps asking him to come to his house after church(10 hours each Saturday) This member asks my son to come to his house till midnight after church, because "it's still Saturday." They very apparently are trying to cause problems in my son's marriage. They were hounding him constantly with calls and texts on non church days, and I feel that they probably still are. My son and his wife did not fight over four years together, and now my son is impossible to get along with and big arguments are happening at least 4 times a week. If my daughter in law does not want to listen to him preach to her out of the Bible for hours, he gets angry and yells. If she does not agree with a teaching, he gets angry and yells. He calls her wicked, selfish, and even Satan if she disagrees with the doctrine of the church, which she does as it causes him to worship false idols. She loves my son dearly, and always has, but this is so very hard on her. Any other woman would have left him, but her love is so strong. She tries so hard to please him, to no avail. She just can't give in to going to this church because she doesn't believe in it at all. Are there others out there who have had their marriage broken up by thie COG? Please repond.

$95,000 per year, and is asking me to pay for his suits. I'm a school teacher. He said that he and his wife are arguing about it, so it would make things better for him if I just paid for them as his birthday present. I have been very patient with him, but this time I had really had it. I did not mean to blow up, but I guess it was inevitable. I told him what I really thought about his involvement in that cult, and how much it was hurting me, his Dad, and his brother and sister. I reminded him that I had told him months before that they were going to browbeat him until he wore a suit to church eventually. I had heard the Korean pastor telling him he should dress "like him" and giving him a hard time for wearing casual clothes to church. My son told me he wasn't going to wear a suit, but now he is telling his wife he is going to, and is trying to get me to buy them because she is unhappy about it. I just had to call B.S. on this one. He was always aware of my opinion on this cult, but I have tried to keep our conversations calm and collected, and have assured him of my love. I do love him, but I am falling apart from the stress of continually dealing with this and feeling helpless. This church is in Bloomingdale, Illinois. Are there former members out there? My son says he has been told he can not get on the internet because it is "like cheating" on his church. They told him it was the same eating from the tree of knowledge, like Eve did. Duh. They don't want him to have knowledge. Why, why, why, can't he see what they are doing? I know that 80% of people drop out of this church after being recruited. Unfortunately, my son's mind is wired differently. I think this cult is like a form of addiction.

I'm very surprised your son has been told he can't go on the internet, because it seems like that message is not going out to all the other WMSCOG members. There are lots of WMSCOG blogs online, not to mention the church's own website. Not very consistent are they?

By: genny on January 2, 2010 at 7:34 am

Reply

In fact, they are not consistent with their views on lots of things. Take holiday celebrations... My sister did not wish me a Happy Thanksgiving or a Merry Christmas (Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays are not in the Bible), but today she was eager to wish me a Happy New Year. Is the January 1st new year in the Bible? No, but our Gregorian calendar with the Jan. 1st new year was implemented by ... guess who ... the Catholic Pope Gregory XIII. And she wished me a happy birthday—where in the Bible does God tell us to celebrate our birthdays every year? I haven't found it. Interesting...

And where in the Bible does it say that a man is supposed to wear a suit to church? Really, I'd like to know the answer to that one. Is that not a rule of men to be dressed up in a suit for church? It's nice to see people caring about dressing nicely for church and not wearing their ripped up jeans and t-shirts, but really, is it part of Christ's law to wear a suit to church? It's more important what's in the heart.

I agree it is stressful, MountainMom! I'm sure even more so for you as a mom than for me as a sister. And it's hard being so far away, but I keep praying and fasting regularly, and I trust that God (the real one) is working out His plan in ways I can't see.

I think the sad thing is that the church members are being trained not to question anything, that questioning shows a lack of faith in God. But actually God welcomes our honest questions. The Bereans were praised for searching the Scriptures to see if what they were being told was true (Acts 17:11).

I posted a long response to this on another blog that I don't want to retype exactly:

But one thing we need to realize about these people is that they're coming up because men have failed to treat women as the Bible commands, as Christ loved the church.

These people are almost certainly people who hate men because they have been hurt by men. But they still will have no excuse when they meet God the Father and see that there is no "heavenly mother." They will go the same hell as the fool who "has said in his heart there is no God."

I had a conversation with my son, a COG member, a month or more ago where I asked him if they told him that the end of days was coming in 2012. He said yes. Then I said, have they now said it may be sooner, even in 2010? And he said yes. I then went further and told him I thought maybe they were saying this because the "Mother" is possibly ill, and it may happen sooner. I specifically remember the conversation because I then told him I figured they would then come up with some new story to explain why the world didn't end, the "children" didn't ascend with the Mother, etc. My son is now denying that he said this to me. Yet, one of the guys who originally recruited my son to the COG, responded to this same question when my daughter in law asked him two weeks ago, and he again said the end would be by 2012. Is there a new strategy out there, because not all of them seem to be in on it.

I don't understand how these COG folks claim the Bible is completely true, which means this verse is also, but claim the world is ending by 2012? That gives us a known time.. but the Bible says no one but the Father knows. Also, if God is just one being with different faces, I suppose Ahn Sang Hong will transform into the Father to bring about the wrath of God, and then transform back into the "new Christ" when He comes to earth? They've got it all backwards :)

My daughter in law got my son to go to her church for just one hour(not a service or prayer thing, but on a weekday evening) for a question and answer thing just to let him see that there is another side to things, and to see that her religion isn't evil. He seemed to be fine with it, and things went ok. Then he went back to the COG, and must have told them about it. The next time she asked him to go, the very next week, he said he couldn't go to that church. Well, it wasn't even to any service or anything, it was just informal question and answer. But my daughter in law said to him that maybe he would feel more comfortable at a coffee shop or something, just informally, so that he could ask questions to her two friends from her church. He said ok, we'll meet at the IHOP restaurant. When they arrived there, it was obvious my son had told the main recruiter from the COG he attends, as he was there waiting for them. He(the COG recruiter, who is paid by the church) took over asking questions and wound up arguing with the people from the other church and telling my son that they were trying to recruit him to their church. My son had not told my daughter in law he had invited this COG guy, it was kept secret from her. It is just so bizarre. Every time my daughter in law tries to help my son see both sides of an issue, or tries to do something positive for their marriage, they seem to step in between. It is like he is their possession or they are his keeper or something. I know it is because he has substantial money they are after, and are getting at this point. Apparently, they also teach that you don't just give 10% of your income, you give at least 10% of all your worldly goods.

My son has shut off the cable TV and internet at their house because he wants to give that money to the church, and he wants my daughter in law to pay for everything. He has told her he wants her to pay for his school loans, his tires, the rent, the groceries, and so on. She doesn't mind paying for things, just not so he can give more and more and more to the COG. They seem to want her money as well, and they know she stands in the way of them getting every cent my son earns. I believe this is why they are trying to break up their marriage. Thoughts? It is the most bizarre thing I have ever run up against. And how in the world have they gotten my son so under their control?

of thing, and only if God led me to that.

Anyhow, if your son is going to divorce, remind him that if he's a believer in the Bible alone (or else COG is a pack of lies), then the Bible says you shouldn't divorce. Christians are able to find redemption even in the midst of sin, but COG believes everything 190% more than any Christian apparently, because I was told by a COG member that if I worshiped at church on Sunday but not the Sabbath then God would not even hear my worship, and that by celebrating Christmas and Thanksgiving, even without alcohol or drugs or gluttony, sex, whatever, that I was being sinful just for participating it. The Bible is clear God hates divorce, and that you should only divorce if the unbeliever is the one who chooses to break up (the unbeliever is not bound to biblical law). However, it is not the believer's option to decide divorce unless the person is being abused. Remind him of his biblical truth, and tell him to get his butt out of COG, read the Bible in context for himself, and find a church that follows ONLY the biblical truth, in context, and not with some person claiming to be the Holy Spirit or Jesus. Also, no church should demand huge amounts of money – that's another sign of a cult. Only God can ask of that – 10% tithes are all is asked of God, and anything you are personally convinced God himself told you, not through any person.

MAN HOW YOU GONNA TELL ME, THE CHURCH OF GOD IS MY HOME, DONT NO ONE GET PAID,,, NADA, ZILCH, ZERO, THE PASTORS LIVE IN A VERY TINY ROOM IN THE BACK, AND USUALLY WORK FOR FED EX, OR A OFFICE JOB OR SOMETHING, THE DEACONS DONT EVEN WANT RECOGNITION, PAYED((((THATS HILARIOUS, THE MISSIONARIES, NOTHING, NADA..... YOU THINK GOD WOULD SET UP THE CHURCH THAT WAY, SO BROTHERS AND SISTERS CAN FALL INTO TEMPTATION, YOUR TALKING ABOUT MOTHER HERE, SHE KNOPWS WHAT YOUR THINKING RIGHT NOW, AINT NO WAY GOD WOULD SET UP THE CHURCH AS TO GET SUPPOSADLY PAYED$$$$.....NOPE, YOU MUST HAVE SOME OTHER CHURCH, OR YOU GOT IT TWISTED..... The modalistic views that WMSCOG "Ahn Sang Hong" believers hold is simply out of context with the Bible, in fact most of which verses they place their core beliefs are out of context.

By: Pierce on January 8, 2010 at 5:57 pm

There is no mention of "Heavenly Mother". There is mention of Jerusalem above is the "free mother". This is not to be taken literally – Jerusalem, the root of Judaism, was in bondage to the rituals needed to be rid of sin. The heavenly Jerusalem which God will pour down in the end of days represents a free-of-sin realm, no more bondage to sin and no need for repentance ever again.

Reply

This is found first in Jesus Christ, and will be fulfilled in the end of days. As far as the oneness beliefs incorporated with WMS, how can Jesus be praying to the Father and saying "not My will but Yours be done"? If they are one and the same person, would the will be the same? Jesus wanted to not feel pain, but knew the will of the Father was what was needed at the time. Would He have said "not My will but My will be done"? That would make no sense. And what of Jesus being baptized and the Father proclaiming "this is My beloved Son"? There are 2 entities at work in the same time and place in that area of scripture. One God? Absolutely, without a doubt. Though, the Elohim is not 3 faces of God, and includes no mother god.. simply a Hebrew word to pluralize God without making Him "gods".

HOLD UP,,,, WAIT, ELOHIM MEANS GOD(S), NO NUMBERS, JUST PLURAL, AND THE NEW JERUSALEM IS THE LAST EVE, AND SECOND COMING CHRIST IS THE LAST ADAM, THE SPIRIT AND THE BRIDE, REVALATION, 22:17 RIGHT.

NOW GO TO REVELATION 21:1-3 OKAY, READ CAREFULLY, IT SAYS NOT ONCE BUT TWICE, THAT THE WATER OF LIFE IS FLOWING.... FROM THE THRONE OF (GOD) AND OF THE LAMB,,,,,, THIS IS TWO PEOPLE HERE, YOU SEE IT,

IF YOU KNOW THE BIBLE WELL, THE ONLY LAMB IN THE BOOK OF TRUTH IS JESUS CHRIST RIGHT, AMEN, NOW LOOK AT REVELATION 21:3, AGAIN, IT SAYS THE THRONE OF (GOD) AND THE LAMB.

NOW REMEMBER THAT VERSE 1, SAID THAT THE WATER OF LIFE WAS FLOWINF FROM THE THRONE"" OF GOD.... AND OF THE LAMB,

SO LETS SEE WHO THIS WATER OF LIFE IS FLOWING FROM, ALREADY CALLED GOD TWICE, NOW REVELATION 21:1-4, IT CLEARLY SAYS THAT THE NEW JERUSALEM, IS COMING DOWN, ,,OUT OF HEAVEN, PREPARED AS A BRIDE BEAUTIFULLY DRESSED FOR HER HUSBAND, HAVE YOU HEARD THE PARABLE OF THE WEDDING BANQUET YET, YES WE ARE THE GUEST, SO HERE WE HAVE THE SPIRT (THE LAMB) EITHER ONE, AND HIS BRIDE, MAN YOU PEOPLE WANT GOD TO BE LONELY HUH,!!! DO YOU WANT TO BE ALONE FOR ETERNITY???? TRY IT OUT, IM NOT TALKING ABOUT SINGLE, IM TALKING ABOUT BEING IN HEAVEN, AINT NO DATING, AINT NO SEX, HEAVEN IS PURE, OUR FATHER HAS A BRIDE DRESSED UP FOR HIM, AINT NOTHIN WRONG WITH THAT, ITS CUZ WE ARE SINNERS, STR8 SINNERS, TO US, WE THINK BRIDE, (SEX) NO NO, AFTER HIS BRIDE MAKES HER BEAUTIFUL ENTRANCE IN CHAPTER 21 REV. THEN GOD TELLS US IN GALATIONS, THAT SHE'S NOT ONLY HIS BRIDE, BUT SHE IS OUR MOTHER, WOW..... HOW AMAZING IS THAT, TO KNOW THAT WE HAVE A MOTHER IN HEAVEN, WHAT ABOUT

SO THE HEAVENLY WEDDING BANQUET,,,, HAS THE GUEST,,,,,HAS THE GROOM (LAMB) (SPIRIT) SAME, NOW, TADAAAA..... THE BRIDE, ALWAYS MAKES A BIG ENTRANCE QUE NO? IN EVERY WEDDING, I DONT KNOW IF YOU HAVE BEEN MARRIED, BUT IM SURE YOU KNOW THAT WITHOUT THE BRIDE, THERE AINT NO WEDDING. SHE IS THE MYSTERY, OF THE BIBLE, EVEN APOSTLE PAUL KNEW ABOUT MOTHER, GALATIANS, THATS WHAT MOTIVATED HIM TO DO SO MUCH HARD WORK, HE KNEW MORE, THAN THE PEOPLE THOUGHT HE KNEW, COME ON, A PROPHET ALWAYS KNOWS MORE THAN HE SPEAKS. PROPHET JOHN AS WELL, HE SAW EVERYONE, THE CHILDREN OF GOD, THE BRIDE AND THE GROOM, SATAN, EVERYTHING, JOHN SAW THEE ENTIRE ASSEMBY REV 14:1-5

Thank you for your comments, Pierce. I have told my son to get his butt out of the COG, in no uncertain terms. I tried to do it in a way that would leave him saving face, and let him know that we will still love him no matter what.

However, he is a "cash cow" to these people, and they are treating him like a possession that they jealously guard. I believe everything in your post, and agree with you. He is giving them SO much money, they will never let him go. They keep appealing to him with flattery, etc., telling him he will someday be a "global leader" for them. I pray he will not, and I have asked him to refrain from going out and preaching as that would be recruiting someone else into a destructive nightmare. I also feel he is being outrageously horrible to my daughter in law because he (and the COG) do know that he cannot divorce. I fully believe there is a plan to treat her so

By: genny on January

at 10:21 am

They are reporting that they have reached 1 million registered members.

Reply

Why is that bad news for those members? Because they were told that if they took the Passover they would have the Seal of God which would spare them from the last plagues and they would be taken to heaven alive with "Heavenly Mother".

Unfortunately, Ahnsahng hong himself said that ONLY 144,000 will be taken alive to heaven with the seal. The rest (800,000+) are out of luck. Sorry. You can read it for yourself in Ahnsahng hong's book about the Water of Life, pages 77 and 85.

Actually, the church says they reached 200,000 members in 1999. So you've been out of luck for quite some time.

MountainMom,
Just a thought...

Maybe your son has been told that he needs to compete with the other 1 million members for a place among the 144,000, and that's why he's trying so hard to be "acceptable"?

By: genny on January 15, 2010 at 1:46 pm

Reply

Yes, my son has been told that. They told him it's a competition, and he has to "reserve his seat." That is so sick and wrong. There has been such a sudden and drastic change in him, just over the past 4 months, that it is extremely alarming. Everything is escalating, and none of it is good for my son and our family. They have complete control over his mind. Before he was only brainwashed while he was at church with them. Over the past few months, they have given him so many books, CDs, and DVD's, that he is now brainwashing himself 24/7. What a deal for them! Yes, destruction is near, but the destruction of my son and our family is the one I am talking about.

By: MountainMom on January 16, 2010 at 3:06 am

COG members are now giving my son books that are anti-Muslim, and has also been told that the reason he can't celebrate Christmas is that it is a Catholic tradition, and basically, Catholics are bad. I know they preach hatred for other religions, so I am assuming this is their usual method of operation. It is especially troublesome because my daughter in law is Muslim, and two different COG members have said very offensive anti Muslim comments to her, and have caused trouble in her marriage by telling my son how terrible and violent her religion is. She told them that it is only when people go to the mosque excessively and become fanatic, carrying it to extremes that problems occur. (Which actually sounds exactly like the COG, not the Muslim religion) She tried to get my son to talk to two friends of hers and ask questions about Islam, not to recruit anyone, as she has never done, but to simply see what it is based on and understand. The main recruiter from the COG appeared, uninvited, and took over the meeting, arguing, preaching, and offending her and her friends by falsely stating that they were trying to recruit my son to their religion. All the while my son stood by, not saying a word. He let the recruiter from COG take everything over, and he wasn't even supposed to be there. My daughter in law is not a fanatic Muslim, and actually, does not even attend a mosque. Her parents are Muslim, but she is not an active member and does not intend to become one. Shortly afterwards, my son came home from their church with a book about how Muslims are all terrorists. It was not a library book, he got it from the COG. This is so insulting and harmful to his relationship to his wife. The COG knows this, and they are deliberately trying to cause as much marital trouble as they can. It is so obvious. I am so ashamed that my son would allow this, but he is so much under their control that he cannot even think for himself. They pull his strings like a puppet.

Last Sunday my son decided he will not eat or drink or go to work unless we accept his church. His poor wife and all the rest of us are devastated. He wanted us to say the magic words, but we didn't know what they were. Finally we just reiterated that we love him unconditionally, as we always have said. He said we can say absolutely nothing against the church, so we said that too. Anything to make him eat and drink again. What can we do when we are faced with emotional blackmail like this. We are too far away to do anything else. Yet, he thinks this cult isn't destructive.

I am not talking about believing in your cult. I am talking about my son's life, and the downward spiral that is happening to him because of his association with this so called "church." And it is not an isolated example of what happens to people who become involved with this abomination. I have researched it for 6 months now, very thoroughly. The testimonies are all the same. If your "church" was good for my son I would want him in it. It is not good. It is the worst thing that has ever happened to him and to our family. That is the truth. Did you even read what I said in my last post? How can you be so unconcerned about my son's life? Oh yes, because you and your members DON'T CARE about what happens to him as long as you can continue to take his money.

Reply

Well, I care. I'm his mother.

By the way, I have been to this "church", and I talk about it from some firsthand experience. I DO know what I am talking about. I was baptized in it by their urging the very first time I went there, before I even understood what it was about. They baptize you as quick as they can so you feel some kind of responsibility or bonding to them right off. They don't really care that you don't understand it fully. No other church does that. Real churches want you to understand fully and know what you are getting in to. I actually thought it was a Born Again thing when I was baptized, as I am a Presbyterian and always will be. Still, they quickly got me baptized and then told me I was written in their "Book of Life." They send this to Korea directly, and then inflate their numbers with people they tricked into being baptized there, who never are actually members of their "church." Then they tell potential recruits that their church is the fastest growing one in the world and they have a million members or more. Actually 8 out of 10 drop out of it, so they probably have 200,000 suckers in there, tops. My husband has also been there several times, and so has my daughter (once). My husband was also baptized there, only to please my son, as I did. Neither of us believe in this cult, and we talk from firsthand experience, as well as research. I have also talked directly to other people with loved ones in this nightmare. Believe me, I talk from experience. I ABSOLUTELY KNOW WHAT I AM TALKING ABOUT JAMAL R PARKER. Now respond to that if you can.

because he is over 21. The only time they could intervene is if he actually attempts suicide, which, I'm sure, is where this is all headed. Yesterday he told his Dad, again, that maybe he should just kill himself. That's three times now within a few months that he has said it, so I know it is weighing heavily on his mind. The simple solution is just to quit the cult, but that is the one solution he won't hear of. It would make him free him again, but he can't see it. So he continues to be a slave for them. His Dad is going out to visit him for a week soon, and will again try to calm him down. He went out there last month as well for a week to visit and talk to our son. Our son does fine till he goes to church again, and then he's all messed up. With the earthquakes recently, the church has decided to turn up the volume, because the end is so near! I won't list here all the things I've done and avenues I've pursued to get my son back, but the list is extensive, and I'm way beyond calling the police. That was months ago. I have some other irons in the fire, but hoped I wouldn't have to use them. We were really hoping we could do it with reasoning, but that is not possible now.

Ok so right now, my relationship with my boyfriend is on the edge because I don't believe the things the COG preaches. I mean ok, Sabbath, Passover, veil, etc., I can deal with that, and I'll talk to him about that stuff later because obviously, his church isn't the only one that observes these.

But it's the Ahn- doode and Mother J I really don't agree with.

So we decided that we would try to make things work, and I guess that meant him trying to convince me that this is the true church. I agreed to listen to what he has to say and I will ask questions when I feel the need to. I have asked questions that come up but I end up forgetting to ask a question that I've read from blogs and other websites to the COG members that make good points.

So I was just wondering if any of you who are not members of the COG can list your questions here and I will ask my boyfriend. Then I will reply back to this blog what his answer was.

This will give us all an insight of what an active member of 4 years has to say since it seems like the COG members on here refuse to answer your questions.. lol.

Or you can email me at aea1016@hotmail.com

God bless all of you, no matter what faith you come from.

I would like to know if they are still holding to their original story that the world would end in 2012, and if not, why not. Also, why can't they tell us? My son says it could be any day, and he is frantically trying to recruit people to "save" them. Another one they can't answer, why do they have to go to church on Tuesdays? That isn't in the Bible. My son tried to tell me it was in Numbers, but I looked it up and it wasn't. If it isn't in the Bible, aren't they guilty of following "men's rules" which they always put people down for? It seems that the Tuesday night thing is a man's rule. Also, my son was told he had to give more than 10% because they have to pay taxes on what he gives. Why would this be? Thank you for trying to find answers for everyone.

But the Tuesday thing.. hm, he's never mentioned anything to me about Tuesday services. I know he went like once before but he doesn't go on Tuesdays. That's kind of odd..

I'd also like to know why the women wear a "white, lace" veil as opposed to any other kind of head covering, since the verses they use just talk about a woman's head being "covered".

And do they have an actual date of the end of the world, or just an estimate, and are the pastor actually preaching that to them or is it a rumor being passed among the members? In other words, how official is the end prediction?

Hello sarah-ann,
Glad to meet you. But you all don't seem to realize that you don't have a church in every city. The internet is the only way you are going to be able to talk to some people about your faith.

By: genny on March 25, 2010 at 7:04 am

Let me ask you...do you study the Bible yourself, or do you only study what the WMSCOG teaches you?

Go to biblegateway.com and do a search for "third day" and see what turns up. There are 39 verses about the "third day" and the are overwhelmingly about the third day in the passage of time, such as when they are traveling for three days and on the third day they arrive. Rarely it is the third day of the month, as in Ezra 6:15. Never does it specifically, refer to the third day of the week (Tuesday).

You are thinking of Numbers 19:12 which says, "He must purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third and seventh days, he will not be clean."

If you read the context of the chapter, you'll see that the "third day" and "seventh day" refers to the passage of time, NOT Tuesday and Saturday. Verse 11 says, "Whoever touches the dead body of anyone will be unclean for seven days." In order to become clean again, he must purify himself on the third and seventh days of his seven days of uncleanness. If it meant Tuesday and Saturday, what would he do if he touched the dead body on Friday?

The same logic that would make Numbers 19:12 mean Tuesday and Saturday would also say that Jesus rose from the grave on a Tuesday. Did Jesus rise from the grave on a Tuesday? No, it was the first day of the week, Sunday. There are several verses in which Jesus says He will rise on "the third day". It is not Tuesday. It is the third day from the crucifixion.

Anyone who is serious about knowing God better will not only listen to what their Pastor preaches, they will read and study the Bible for themselves. I encourage you to do that. Best regards, genny ps—you are welcome to write me anytime. You can find me on that forum I mentioned in the previous post.

Sarah-ann, maybe we would know if you would just tell us, too. Hm.....there's a thought! But then again, maybe you don't know how to answer the question about Tuesday worship being a "man's rule" that is NOT found anywhere in the Bible. The COG appears to pick and choose which rules they can make and which ones have to come from the Bible. If this is not so, why can't they show us where it says in the Bible that you have to go to church on Tuesdays?

By: MountainMom on March 25, 2010 at 5:32 am

Good reply Genny. It is the same reply I gave my son on this. I read it exactly as you did, and gave him somewhat the same example you did, as well. He did not reply to that, but just started on some other verse he wanted me to hear. What tends to happen is that if they can't answer, they just resort to "Well, Ahnsahnghong said to do it, it's in his book." That's hard to argue because they know only their members have the book he authored. Cheap way out of having to prove what they say, though.

Hi all, I have been studying at the COG for the last 4-6 weeks. The one thing that got my attention is the book of Daniel chapter 2 and chapter 7. I want u guys to look it up. Its about the rise of the catholic church and how they change the laws in the bible. Tell me what u guys thinks.

I have done research on this and found out that bible scholars all agree on this, and yet this book is never preached in a catholic or christian church.

Hi Skyblue,
Glad you found your way here. Please visit the forum mentioned in my previous post so you can get a more balanced view of what the WMSCOG is teaching you. They will tell you not to look (I think they are afraid), but it is full of articles that examine the Bible to see if the WMSCOG doctrine holds true. If you are going to believe in the WMSCOG, at least you should be well-informed first.

About the book of Daniel—yes, Bible scholars agree that its fulfilled prophecy speaks about the rise of the Roman Empire (among other things), though you'll see disagreement on whether it speaks of the Catholic Church.

I go to a Christian church, and I can tell you that the book of Daniel is NOT ignored. In fact, I did a twelve week study just on the book of Daniel. If the pastor does a series on prophecy, you can bet he will talk about the fulfilled prophecy in Daniel. But most of the time the sermons are about things more practically applied to everyday living—like how to live a life pleasing to God, understanding the nature of God better, how to deal with the troubles of life, and that kind of thing. But if you go long enough and get involved in extra study groups, you will learn about prophecy.

What the WMSCOG does is amaze you with the fulfilled prophecy, show you how interesting it is that different parts of the Bible fit together, and quote lots of Scripture for you—it's very impressive, kind of like an infomercial. They want to get you hooked before you find out about the problems and contradictions, so before you know it you are worshipping a Korean woman as God and then you can't ask these serious questions anymore because it would show a lack of faith.

If you've been studying with them 4-6 weeks, then you've probably heard a LOT about Passover, which they are going to celebrate Monday, March 29 right? That's the same day all the Jewish people (and some Christian churches) celebrate the Passover—the 14th day of the first month (Nisan) of the Hebrew calendar. It is extremely important for them to keep the Passover on the exact time and day. Here's a question for you to ask one of the church leaders...

If it is so important to keep the Passover on the 14th day of Nisan, why did they celebrate it on the 15th day of Nisan last year (the day after all the Jews celebrated the Passover)?

You can verify that here:

It clearly states, "In the evening of April 9 [the 14th day of the first month in the sacred calendar], the Sacred Assembly of the Passover 2009 was held in all the Churches of God throughout the world." And my sister (a church member) confirms it.

But April 9, 2009 was actually the 15th day of the first month as you can check on any Hebrew calendar. Everyone else celebrated on April 8, 2009 which was the 14th day of Nisan.
Hmmm...

This is an honest question I have, and I think it's a fair question that deserves an answer. I'm not asking you to report the answer back to me, but try asking it for yourself and see how they respond and what they say.

This site and the forum I mentioned are full of other fair questions, like why does Ahnsahnghong, if he is God, describe God as "unjust" in his book?

Best regards,
genny

But I haven't seen my boyfriend since last Friday and I've probably talked to him 5 minutes the most on the phone all week. It's spring break so I guess this is the week he decided to keep himself busy with fixing his car to run.

I've been trying to talk to him (not even JUST about religion, but about the usual stuff couples go through) but he's always saying that he's too busy for anything and fixing his car needs to get done.

I'll keep you posted if I'm able to talk to him at all. But by the looks of it, I'm not going to be talking to him until Monday. I'm sorry for taking such a long time to getting the answers we all need.

Feel free to keep emailing me (aea1016@hotmail.com) and posting questions, I'll keep them saved.

God bless.

I have to admit, at the beginning i truly believed in what the COG teaches, however doubts started to arise when they began telling me their techniques on how to recruit new members. They say recruiting new members is like Fishing; if u pull to hard they will leave. They also mention how people with no previous knowledge of the bible are easy to recruit therefore we should target them. I felt really offended by this because my knowledge of the bible was not that good when i first came to the COG.

Reply

I began looking on the internet to find out more about the church, i came across a documentary on how cults operates and it matches up with everything the COG does. For example; the COG keeps all record of the tithes and even all the Free Will offerings. I began giving weekly tithes to the church about 3 weeks in, but i didn't give any other offerings because as an university student i don't have any money. To my surprise one evening one of the church leader came to me and in an angry tone demanded that i give Free Will offerings. I explained to him that i don't have any money, but he wouldn't accept it and continue to pressure me into giving money. There's a lot of other things that i feel is wrong about the church, but nobody in the church seem to care or notice it....

oh yeah there are also other compulsory offerings that members need to make; such as monthly youth offerings, haha.

Oh, on each sabbath day, members need to make 3 offerings; the tithe, the feast offering, and the free will offering.

About your question of how the COG kept their passover on the wrong date last year, i'll get back to you when i have the chance.

Glad you seem to be wise about their workings, Skyblue.

You know, the Bible is an incredible book, God can be our friend, and Jesus is a gracious, loving and merciful Savior. But if you want to know God better, the WMSCOG is not the place to go.

I grew up in a sub-Christian cult and it amazes me how it is the same tactic (shame, fear and guilt) which is utilized tenaciously to ensnare people and keep them in mental bondage. The best way to free someone from this kind of thing is to prove to them, from the Scriptures (esp. Paul), the unconditional love of God expressed in the provision of the righteousness of Christ via Grace and Faith alone. At the same time, point out the obvious flaws with the erroneous theology at hand (in this case the WMSCOG).

I agreed with him that I would just try to understand his church more and that actually going with him is the best thing to do to question them.

And if they give me answers that contradict some things that members have been saying (because i know it's happened.. where one member says something and another member says another thing), then that will be another step forward for us.

Please email me or post your questions here. I'm probably going with him near the end of April and I will make sure to the answers.

I'm just hoping that I don't have the same experience as the last time I went.

Hi Jim

They even tried to push me aside, this was really rude on their behalf. I didn't let them in and told them I'll see them at church later. Every time i think about it, it makes me feel like i been violated at my own home.

When they realize that i no longer listen to them they keep pulling this verse out of the bible, 2 Peter 2:21 "It would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than to have known it and then to turn their backs on the sacred command that was passed on to them. Of them the proverbs are true: A dog returns to its vomit"

JAIME TALKS TO SATAN IS MORE LIKE IT, ANYWAY, ANYONE WHO MAKES UP LIES, AND SAYS THAT THEIR LITTLE BROTHER MIGHT NOT COME BACK

By: A CHILD OF GOD on April 7, 2010 at 1:23 pm

FROM KOREA IS THE BIGGEST BUNCH OF JIBBERISH, I HAVE EVER HEARD, MY PEOPLE COME BACK RADIANT, ON TIME, BLESSED, AND FILLED WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT, WE NEVER SAID THAT THE WORLD IS ENDING IN 2012, THATS ONE BIG FAT LIE, I DONT KNOW WHERE YOU GET YOUR INFORMATION BUT WE GO BY SCRIPTURE ONLY, AND.....IF MOTHER AND FATHER ARE NOT TRUE GOD, WHY ARE WE BEING RIDICULED SO MUCH, DOES YOUR SOUL HATE THE SOUND OF LIVING WATER, WHAT DO YOU DO, DO YOU STOP THE WORLD FOR GOD, AND DO SOMETHING FOR YOUR CHURCH, WITH A BEAUTIFUL HEART, OR DO YOU HANG OUT, DOWNLOAD, JUDGE, DISRESPECT, CARRY OUT SATANS WILL, I FEEL SO SORRY FOR EVERYONE ON HERE, THE CATHOLIC CHURCH CHANGED THE FOURTH COMMANDMENT, KEEP THE 7TH DAY SATURDAY HOLY, BECAUSE THEY KEEP THE 1ST DAY, SUNDAY, HAVNT YOU READ THE SCRIPTURES? NO ONE UNDER OR OVER OR IN THE OCEAN SHOULD CALL HIMSELF FATHER, THERE IS ONLY ONE FATHER IN HEAVEN, THE ROMANS KILLED BROS ANS SISS, FOR KEEPING SATURDAY HOLY, THE 7TH DAY, THERES SO MUCH MORE, YOU GUYS ARE JUST SO BLINDED, I FEEL SO BLESSED TO SEE RIGHT THROUGH ALL THIS EVIL, IM NOT EVEN UPSET, IM CONCERNED FOR YOUR SOULS? YOPU GUYS ARE ACTING JUST LIKE THE PHARISEES, WHEN THEY DIDNT BELEIVE JESSUS IS GOD, NOW U BELEIVE, AND YOU FEEL SAVED, DO YOU EVEN KNOW WHO JESUS WAS, THE HEBREWS 2000 YEARS AGO WERE DARK SKINNED, NOT BLUE EYES, NOT BLONDE HAIR, YOU GUYS ARE ALL CONFUSED BY YOUR FATHER, (SATAN) DO YOU EVEN KNOW WHAT YOUR COUNTRY STANDS FOR. BABYLON = CONFUSION, LOOK IT UP, YOUR ALL CONFUSED, AND IM SAD THAT YOU PEOPLE REJECT CHRIST AND FOCUS ON YOUR OWN DOCTRINES, I KNOW IM MAKING YOU THINK, IF YOU KEEP READING MY BLOGGS, YOUR MIND WILL BEGIN TO TURN SLIGHTLY TO

THE EAST, AND YOUR SOULS ARE FEARFUL OF THAT, AS WRITTEN, THEY ARE SCARED TO TURN TO THE LORD AND BE HEALED, THEY ARE COMFORTABLE WITH THEIR BELIEFS. THAT IS HOW ALL OF YOU LOOK, IM JUST BEING STR8 FORWARD CUZ THAT WHO I AM, YOUR TALKING TO SOMEONE WHO IS A VERY STRONG BELIEVER IN CHRIST, STOP BELIEIVING IN YOUR LITTLE FANTASY LIVES, WAKE UP!!!!!! GOD HAS COME AND ESTABLISHED HOLY MOUNT ZION, WHY WOULD ANYONE EVEN TRY TO START A FALSE CHURCH ACROSS THE WORLD, GOD WILL NOT ALLOW THAT, REMEMBER IN DANIEL, IT SAID THAT THE SAINT WILL BE GIVEN TO SATAN FOR TIMES HALF A TIME, READ THE FOOT NOTE, DO THE MATH, THATS, 1200 YEARS, GIVEN,,,,,,GIVEN,,,,,,NOT TOOKEN, THE ONLY REASON WHY YOU PEOPLE ARE SO CLUELESS ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IS BECAUSE GOD ALLOWED IT TO HAPPEN, NO ONE, AND I MEAN, NO ONE, CAN STOP GOD, YOU PEOPLE ARE GERMS IN GODS EYES, SO LITTLE AND MICROSCOPIC, YOUR A MIST PASSING BY, IF I WERE YOU, I WOULDNT BLASPHEM THE CHURCH OF GOD, BECAUSE YOU ARE RISKING A COUPLE THOUSAND YEARS OF BURNING, JUST A COUPLE, MAN, I BURN MY FINGER AND IM IN PAIN, DONT PLAY WITH YOUR LIVES, AND JAIME, TELL EVERYONE THE TRUTH ABOUT YOURSELF, COME ON, DONT BE SCARED, TELL EVERYBODY WHY YOU EVEN CREATED THIS BLOGG DISS, I DONT WANNA HAVE TO PUT YOU ON BLAST, BUT I WILL, REMEMBER.....GOD KNOWS WHO YOU ARE, WHERE YOU BEEN, AND WHAT YOU HAVE BEEN A PART OF, COME ON TELL THEM!!!!!! BE A BRAVE INDIVIDUAL FOR ONCE IN YOUR LIFE, AND LET EVERYBODY KNOW THAT YOU WERE ONCE A PART OF THE WORLD MISSION SOCIETY CHURCH OF GOD, AND YOU LOST YOUR PLACE, JUST LIKE HEAVEN, AND YOUR STARTING A REBELLION BECAUSE JUST LIKE SATAN, YOU KNOW YOUR TIME IS COMING.....

Another thing i want to add:

Once one of the leaders told me that the aim of the church is to make profit(money), and that i should urge new members to give as much offering as possible. I heard it from their own mouths.

You are very dedicated in your faith. I'm just sorry that your dedication is misplaced.

You said, "NO ONE IN THE CHURCH EVER SAID THAT THE WORLD IS ENDING IN 2 TO 3 YEARS"
Well, um, yes they have. This is from a church member's blog...

"Even some people feel like all the theories about the end are just science fiction, but reconfirms that all this talk about the end and 2012 is not fiction but a fact.....
Even though now the date 2012 stands we should not wait until that time, but rather come to Zion sooner, for God has stated the end of times will be shorten"

It's here if you'd like to see it for yourself.

<http://www.mygodahnsahng hong.com/ahnsahng hong/church-god-world-mission-society-2012-2/>

It sure sounds to me like they are saying that the world is ending in 2-3 years. If that's not the church's position, then they should be more clear about that.

As for me personally, from your posts it looks like we both study the Bible intensely and you love your gods as much as I love my God.

If you think I don't understand World Mission Society correctly, why don't you explain it to me by answering the questions I've had that have been avoided by other church members.

If there are "lies" circulating about the WMSCOG, wouldn't it be good to clear them up?

YA GENNY, NO THE CHURCH OF GOD DOES NOT PROPHECY ABOUT (((2012)))) THATS IRRELEVANT, YOU KNOW THE SCRIPTURES, NO ONE KNOWS THE TIME OR THE HOUR, NOT EVEN THE ANGELS IN HEAVEN, DONT BELIEVE EVERYTHING YOU HEAR, WHY WOULD SATAN PERSECUTE THE CHURCH OF GOD, IF IT WASNT REAL, 2000 YEARS AGO, THE SAME THING, NOW I KNOW HOW THE 12 DISCIPLES FELT, THEY WERE PRECHING JESUS THE CHRIST, BUT THEY WERE USED TO THE LAW OF MOSES, SO IN THEIR EYES, JESUS, AND THE 12 DISCIPLES WERE NOBODIES, THEY BLENDED IN WITH THE PRISONERS AND DRUNKS, JESUS WASNT ALL BLUE EYES AND A BRIGHT WHITE GOWN, THE HEBREWS 2000 YEARS AGO WERE DARK LIKE ARABIANS, NO ONE LOOKED AT JESUS AND SAW A WHITE HANDSOME MAN, AND SAID....OOOOH, HE'S THE CHRIST" NO..... THEY WERE LIKE, GET THIS FILTHY BEGGAR OUT OF HERE, HE WAS HOMELESS, SAME THING TODAY, PEOPLE CANT SEE YOUR SOUL, IF YOUR SOUL IS STAINED, HAVNT BEEN TO CHURCH IN A WHILE, NO ONE CAN SEE IT, BUT IF JESUS' SOUL WAS TOP COME OUT OF HIS SKIN, EVERYBODY WHOS SEES HIM, WOULD DIE, ONLY MOSES WAS ABLE TO SPEAK TO GOD, THE ISRAELITES BLOCKED THEIR FACES, THEY KNEW THEY WOULD DIE, BUT MOSES WAS ACCEPTABLE IN GODS EYES, BECAUSE HE WAS OBEDIANT, OBEDIENCE IS BETTER THAN SACRIFICE, YOU KNOW LIKE, WHEN YOU CALL YOUR DOG AND HE DONT LISTEN, YOU DONT REALLY CARE IF YOUR DOG COMES OR NOT, BUT YOU JUST WANNA SEE IF YOUR DOG LISTENS, WILL THIS ANIMAL OBEY ME IS THE QUESTION, GOD WANTS OBEDIANCE, NOT SACRIFICE, EVEN MERCY IS DESIRED MORE THAN SACRIFICE, GOD WANTS US TO KEEP HIS COMMANDS, NOT BECAUSE GOD NEEDS US A CERTAIN PLACE AT A CERTAIN TIME, BUT BECAUSE HE WANTS TO GIVE VOICE TO HIS SHEEP, TO SEE WHICH ONES ARE HIS, IF THEIR A GOAT IN THE HERD, TOSS THAT THING OUT, GOATS ARE THE OPPOSITE OF SHEEP, THEY DONT LITEN TO HUMAN VOICES, THEY WALK ON MOUNTAINS, AND CLIFFS, DANGEROUS, THEY ARE CONSIDERED SATANS CHILDREN ARE REFERRED TO IN THE BIBLE AS GOATS, BECAUSE THEIR SCATTERED, AND, FOR THE LAST AND GREAT DAY OF THE FEAST, SINCE THE

OLD TESTAMENT, GOD WOULD TRANSFER ALL THE ISRAELITES SINS TO A GOAT, THEN LET IT GO IN THE DESERT, TO DIE, BUT THAT WAS PROPHECY ABOUT TODAYS LAST AND GREAT DAY OF THE FEAAST,,,,BUT.....WE DONT HAVE GOATS, ON THE LAST AND GREATEST DAY OF THE FEAST, GOD TAKES OUR SINS AND PUTS THEM ON SATAN, HE IS THE REALITY OF THE GOAT, JESUS IS THE REALITY OF THE LAMB, MAKES SENSE, YA BECAUSE GOD CANNOT JUST TAKE AWAY OUR SINS, OUR SINS ARE SO FILTHY, GOD CANT TOUCH THEM, GOD IS PURE, CANT STAIN THAT PURE WHITE LINEN, SO.....GOD TRANSFERS ALL BROTHERS AND SISTERS SINS TO SATAN ON THE LAST DAY OF THE FEAST, AND HE JUST ROCKS OUR SINS, UNTIL, YOU KNOW HOW THE GOAT WAS PUT TO DEATH IN THE DESERT, WELL OUR SINS WILL DIE WITH HIM IN THE LAKE OF FIRE ON THE JUDGMENT DAY!

I just read your post that said,
"HIS COMMANDS ARE, THE SEVEN FEAST, SABBATH AND [PASSOVER ARE INCLUDED IN THE 7 FEAST, THE 7TH DAY, KEEP IT HOLY, THATS IT, ITS NOT IMPOSSIBLE, THE FEASTS, DONT COME AROUND VERY OFTEN, JUST SATURDAY, HAVE TO KEEP, SATURDAY, "

Reply

Doesn't the WMSCOG say that the veil is also a required commandment, as well as every other commandment, no matter how small it seems?

So are you saying that out of all God's commands, the only ones we really have to keep are the Sabbath (Saturday) and the seven feasts?

I don't have to worry about any of the other stuff, not even the things Jesus talked about in Matthew 5 and 6? Because that would be a relief!

but really, what about Matthew chapters 5 and 6?
Do not look at another with lustful thoughts...Do not be angry with another...give to the one who asks you (anyone?)...love your enemy...do not worry...

Don't we have to keep those commandments?
Or are they not important because no one really sees them and they are too hard to keep all day, every day?

HEY GENNY, YE, ALL WE GOTTA DO IS KEEP, THE SABBATH DAY, AND THE SEVEN FEASTS, THE PASSOVER IS THE FIRST FEAST, SO ITS INCLUDED, SOUNDS EASY BUT THINGS GET HARD, YOU GOTTA PREPARE THE DAY BEFORE "ALWAYS" OR YOU SLIP, YEAH, THE BIBLE TELLS US THAT WOMEN HAVE TO COVER THEIR HEADS, WITH A VEIL, MAN I KEEP FORGETTING THE SCRIPTURE IM TIRED, BUT GOTTA DO THIS, YE, LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR, WE GOTTA PRACTICE ALL THAT, ON OUR OWN, THE FEASTS

WILL BE THE ICING ON THE CAKE, DID YOU KNOW THAT WHEN YOU KEEP THE FEAST, YOU KEEP THE 10 COMMANDMENTS ALSO, NOT MANY PEOPLE KNOW THIS, BUT MOSES SMASHED THE TABERNACLES ON THE FLOOR WHEN HE GOT MAD RIGHT, WHEN HE SEEN THEM DANCING AROUND A CALF, HE MUSTA BEEN MORE HEATED, DID YOU KNOW THAT THE 7 FEASTS WERE WRITTEN IN THE BACK OF THE TEN COMMANDMENTS, THATS REAL, THATS WHY MOSES GOT HEATED, HE SPENT BOUT WHAT, HOW LONG, LIKE A WEEK, OR TWELVE DAYS, NO FOOD, NO DRINK, CARVING LAWS FOR GODS PEOPLE, TO COME DOWN, AND SEE THEM DANCING AROUND IDOLATRY, THAT WAS PROPHECY ABOUT THE DARK AGES, WHE MOSES SLAMMED THE TABERNACLES, THAT WAS LIKE PROPHECY OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH, TAKING AWAY GODS FEASTS, THE PEOPLE DANCING AROUND THE CALF WAS PROPHECY ABOUT THERE WAS NO SALVASTION DURING THE DARK AGES, AND PEOPLE WERE WORSHIPPING IDOLS, STATUES, CROSSES, WHATEVER THE CATHEDRAL HAD TO OFFER, OH YEAH IT WAS 12 DAYS HE WAS UP THERE, CUZ HE WENT UP THERE AGAIN, I DONT KNOW HOW HE DID IT TWICE CLIMING A HUGE MOUNTAN, NO FOOD, MAN GOD GOT EVERYTHING SET FOR US, OH I THINK THE TWELVE DAYS REPRESENTED THE 1200 YEARS WE GODE HANDED THE SAINTS OVER TO SATAN, BOOK OF DAMIEL, FORGOT WHICH VERSE TIRED, BUT TRIP OUT, DID YOU KNOW THAT WHEN MOSES CAUGHT THEM WORSHIPPING THE GOLD CALF, THEY DIVIDED, AND THE ISRAELITES THAT CHOSE MOSES SIDE, GOD GAVE THEM THE POWER AND ORDER TO KILLL THE REST OF THE CONGREGATION, THAT WAS PROPHECY ABOUT THESE LAST DAYS, WORSHIP IDOLS, AND GOD WILL SLAY US, NO MERCY WHEN IT COMES TO IDOLATRY, IT GETS DEEPER, IDOLATRY IS CLOSER TO US THAN YOU THINK, ANYTHING YOU PUT BEFORE GOD, IS IDOLATRY, MISSING SABBATH IS IDOLATRY, AND IN THE OLD TESTAMENT, A MAN MISSED SABBATH, THE LORD TOLD MOSES TO KILL HIM, SO THAT THE FUTURE GENERATION WILL BE MORE CAREFUL AND DILLIGENT TO KEEP GODS DECREES, WERE WALKING THRU THE SPIRITUAL DESERT RIGHT NOW, IF WE DONT OBEY GOD, SAME THING HAPPENS TO US THAT HAPPEN BACK WHEN, (OT) ONLY TWO ORIGIANL ISRAELITES MADE IT TO THE PROMISED LAND, THE REST WERE BORN IN THE DESERT, YUNG BUCKS, SEE THE PAST IS A SHADOW OF TODAY, DID YOU KNOW THAT IT TOOK DAYS TO PASS THE RED SEA, WHEN IT SPLIT OPEN, I THOUGHT IT WAS LIKE 30 MINUTES, WHEN I WAS YOUNG, DAYS, JUST TO CROSS THAT RED SEA, BUT THE JEWS KEPT ON COMPLAINIG, GOD GAVE THEM A MIRACLE, STILL COMPLAINING, THEY DIED, THEY GRUMBLED, THEY DIED, THAT COUPLE WHO CHEATED ON THIER SPOUSE, PUT TO DEATH, THE WAS A REVELATION ABOUT SEXUAL IMMORALITY, YOU DO IT, YOU DIE, DID YOU KNOW THAT A DAY IN HEAVEN IS LIKE A THOUSAND YEARS ON EARTH, DOWN HERE IT TOOK 7000 YEARS TO ACCOMPLISH THE BIBLE, IN HEAVEN SEVEN DAYS" NOW CAN YOU SEE HOW FAST TIME PASSES, MAN, WERE LITERALLY WAITING FOR A LIKE FRACTION OF A DAY TO PASS IN HEAVEN FOR JUDGMENT, FRACTION OF

A DAY, A DAY, BUT DOWN HERE, YOU NEVER SEEN IT, IN THE BIBLE, A DAY IS LIKE A THOUSAND YEARS ON EARTH

HOW ARE YOU GOING TO HEAVEN?

WELL, AS FOR ME, I TRULY FEEL THAT BROS AND SISS SHOULD NOT COME ON THIS BLASPHEMUS SITE ANYMORE, JUST AS MOTHER SAID, SHOUDVE LISTENED TO MY MOTHER, IM SO HAPPY, GOD IS IN THE FLESH AND SHE LOVES ME, THIS IS THE BEST THING THAT HAS EVER HAPPEND TO ME, I REMEMBER WHEN I WAS A SLAVE AND DID NOT HAVE TRUTH TO SET ME FREE, I WAS KINDA STUCK, BUT NOW IM SO SO HAPPY, FOR THE LAST 7 YEARS I HAVE HAD IN THE CHURCH HAVE BEEN MY BEST YEARS, YOU PEOPLE ARE MISSING OUT ON THE REAL DEAL, STAY OUT THERE WITH THE DOGS, MISS PASSOVER AND THE FEASTS, AND SABBATH DAY, GO AHEAD AND DO YOUR WHATEVER YOU DO IN LIFE, IM HAPPY, I HAVE INSTRUCTIONS TO GET TO

WHAT IM SAYING, THE REASON PEOPLE THINK IM RUDE IS BECAUSE I KNOW THAT IM TELLING THE TRUTH, SO GOD IS WITH ME, AS LONG AS I DONT CURSE, OR GET PERSONAL WITH YOU PEOPLE, MOTHER IS WITH ME, SHE CAN SEE ALL THINGS, I LOVE HER, I'LL DIE FOR HER, SHES MY MOTHER, SO MANY CRAZY THINGS HAVE HAPPEND TO ME IN MY LIFE THAT LED ME TO HER, I HAVE SEEN SOMETHING BUT I CANNOT TELL YOU GUYS, BUT YOU WILL NEVER UNDERSTAND THE TRUTH, UNTIL YOU ACTUALLY STUDY, GO TO A CHURCH, TEST ME, DO THEY KEEP SATURDAY, MARK 16:1 THE 1ST DAY, RESURREC TION SUNDAY IS AFTER THE 7TH DAY, SATURDAY, DO THEY KEEP PASSOVER, 7 FEAST? DO YOU HAVE A SPIRITUAL MOTHER, UNTIL YOU FIND A CHURCH THAT HOLDS THESE TESTIMONIES YOU WILL ONLY FIND YOUR LIFE MEANINGLESS. I KNOW WHAT YOU PEOPLE DO, MEANINGLESS, IM PASSED THAT LEVEL, IM IN THE AGE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, WORSHIPPING TRUE GOD, THE THE AGE OF THE SON, 2 THOUSAND YEARS AGO, UPGRADE, COME ON, LEARN MORE, READ, YOU THINK IM GONNA READ SOMETHING FOR SEVEN YEARS AND NOT UNDERSTAND IT, WHY DO YOU THINK IVE BEEN IN THE CHURCH OF GOD FOR SEVEN YEARS, BECAUSE THEIRS ALWAYS A NEW STUDY, OR BOOK FROM OUR HEAD PASTOR, JUST MOTIVATIONG US, NOT DOCTRINES, IVE ALREADY BEEN WERE YOU PEOPLE ARE AT, BELIEVE IN JESUS, YOU WILL BE SAVE, AND THATS IT, IM PASSED THAT LEVEL, I FEEL SO BLESSED,AMAZING THINGS HAPPEN TO ME EVERYDAY OF MY LIFE, GOD IS BESTOWING THEIR BLESSING ON ME CONSTANTLY, I USED TO LIVE A LIFE ID RATHER NOT MENTION, HAVING MOTHER AND FATHER IS THE GREATEST THING THAT EVER HAPPEND TO ME, I DONT KNOW WHY PEOPLE ARE SO IGNORANT AND LOOK FOR ANY DISCREPANCY TO ANNOUNCE ON THE WORLD WIDE WEBB, IF YOU PEOPLE HAVE SO MANY QUESTIONS, THEN WHY ARE YOU BLASPHEMING, SHOULDNT YOU FIND OUT FIRST, I DONT CARE IF BROS AND SISS THINK THAT IM BEING RUDE, WHEN JOHN AND TIMOTHY PREACHED, THEY SCREAMED THEIR LUNGS OUT, WITH FORCE, WHEN JESUS PREACHED, HE WAAS SCREAMING HIS LUNGS OUT, BECAUSE JUST LIKE TODAY, PEOPLE GET RAGED OVER RELIGION, EVERYONE THINKS THAT THEY ARE RIGHT, OR THAT THEY HAVE GOD, THE SECOND YOU MAKE YOURSELF HUMBLE, GOD WILL COME TO YOU, SOME PEOPLE BLOCK HEAVENS PATH ON BY THEMSELVES, GOD KNOWS YOUR HEARTS, WHY WOULD SOME PEOPLE HURT US LIKE THAT, I LOVE MY PARENTS AND MY FAMILY AND MY HOME, WE ARE STRANGERS ON THIS PLANET, WE BELONFG IN HEAVEN, JESUS, WARNED US, EXPECT THE WORLD TO HATE US, AND ITS TRUE, THE MAJORITY OF THE PEOPLE ON THIS THING ARE AGAINST THE COG, ITS OBVIOUS IM IN THE RIGHT PLACE, PLUS I HAVE HAD TOO MUCH EVIDENCE THAT MOTHER AND FATHER ARE THE TRUE CHRIST IN THESE LAST DAYS, YOU HAVE NO IDEA HOW SURE I AM, I FEEL BAD FOR EVERYONE, BUT MOTHER FEELS WORSE, BUT IF YOU GUYS WANNA SHUT HEAVENS DOOR AND GO BACK TO NOTHING, JUST BELEIVE, OR COMMUNION, THE ENTIRE BIBLE TESTIFIES ABOUT GODS LAWS, NO OTHER CHURCH, KEEPS THE 7 FEAST, I PUT THAT DOWN ON EVERYTHING I LOVE, TEST ME, COME ON, IM NOT SCARED, I KNOW WHAT IM SAYING, ARE YOU SCARED? THERE IS NO OTHER CHURCH THAT KEEPS THE PASSOVER ACCORDING TO SACRED

CALLENDAR, DONT LET THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN FLY PASSED YOUR NOSES, THIS IS IT!!!! THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN IS NEAR, REPENT!!! THEIR IS NO OTHER CITY OF REFUGE, WHEN NORHT KOREA BOMB HITS, (((WE DONT KNOW WHEN)))) ONLY FATHER KNOWS##### I TELL YOU THIS FOR YOUR BENEFIT, MY BACK HURTS MY EYES HURT BECAUSE I CARE ABOUT SOME OF YOU, ,,, I KNOW THAT THERE ARE SOME GOOD PEOPLE WHO ARE LOST, AND THAT BREAKS MY HEART, IM JUST GOT TIRED OF BEING AIMLESS LIKEA LEAF IN THE WIND, WHERE ARE YOU GOING, WHY DO PEOPLE SMOKE, WHY DO PEOPLE DRINK, I KNOW WHY!!!!!! BECAUSE THEY'RE BLIND, REMEMBER GOD CAME TO GIVE THE BLIND SIGHT, AND TAKE AWAY SIGHT FROM THOSE THAT SEE, WAKE UP!!! THIS IS IT, SUNDAY SERVICE, IM PAST THAT, JUST BELEIVE, PASSED THAT, SCIENTOLOGY, PASSED THAT, WEIRD ANALOGIES, PASSED THAT, UPGRADE YOUR BRAIN MATTER, COME WITH IT, READ THE ENTIRE BIBLE, AND YOU WILL NOTICE ALOT OF THINGS YOU NEVER NOTICED, IM 28 YEARS OLD, IM DONE WITH LIVING CHILDISH, PEOPLE RESPECT ME NOW, I DONT PLAY GAMES ANYMORE, I JUST STUDY, AND THERES ALWAYS MORE, OTHER CHURCHES,,,,, IM PASSED THAT, HEARD WHAT THEY HAD TO SAY, NONSENSE, AND THEOPRIES THAT NEVER CLICKED IN MY HEAD, WHY DO YOU THINK WE HAVE SO MANY MEMBERS, BECAUSE THIS TRUTH EITHER CUTS YOU INTO PEICES, OR GIVES YOU LIFE, WE ALWAYS GET RIDICULED, EXTRA RIDICULE, MORE THAN ANY RELIGION IVE EVER SEEN, JEHOVAS GET TREATED BETTER,,,,,BUT,,,,,WHEN SOMEONE BELIEVES, THEIR IN, THERE ONE OF US, THEY BECOME A PART OF THE BODY OF CHRIST, I ALREADY BUSTED OUT WITH MAD SCRIPTURES, DOESNT WORK ON LINE FOR SOME REASON, I THINK THAT THERES JUST A BUNCH OF KIDS ON HERE PISSING COG MEMBERS OFF, BECAUSE SATAN CAN CONTROL KIDS WITH THE SNAP OF A FINGER, IM ON A THIN LINE HERE, IM TRYING TO SPIT KNOWLEDGE AT YOU, BUT SOME PEOPLE JUST DONT TAKE THIS SERIOUS, THEY THINK THE WORLD REVOLVES AROUND THEM, ITS NOT ABOUT YOU, ITS ABOUT YOUR SOUL, WHAT ARE YOU DOING FOR IT, ARE YOU 100% SURE YOUR GOING TO HEAVEN HOW CAN YOU BE CONFIDENT YOUR GOING TO HEAVEN, ARE YOU TAKING STEPS OR DIRECTIONS, CUZ IF NOT, YOUR WASTING YOUR TIME, ,,,,WHY DO YOU THINK IM ON THIS,,,,,YOU THINK I HAVE NO LIFE,,,,,I GOT HOMEWORK IM IN COLLEGE, I DIDNT DO MY HOMEWORK BECAUSE I WANTED TO GET SOME POINTS ACROSS TONIGHT, EVEN THOUGH IM IN PAIN, NNNNN BECAUSE I CARE, I CARE ABOUT PEOPLE, THERE ARE GOOD PEOPLE OUT THERE WHO WANT TO LEARN ABOUT 2ND COMING, IF WE TRY TO TELL YOU ONLINE, YOU 'LL NEVER GET THE FULL EFFECT, SO I DONT BLAME SOME OF YOU, IM MY EYES, ALL OF YOU ARE INNOCENT, I DONT KNOW WHAT GOD THINKS OF YOU, BUT I KNOW FIR SUYRE!!!! WHT GOD THINKS OF ME, BECAUSE I HAVE GUIDELINES I MUST TAKE WITH PRECAUTION, SO I KNOW WHEN IM MESSING UP, THATS REAL LIFE STUFF RIGHT THERE, ITS NOT ABOUT 1 HOUR AT CHURCH THEN POOF!!! EVERYBODYS GHOST, ITS ABOUT KEEPING THE SABBATH DAY, AS LONG AS YOU WANT, YOU LEAVE EARLY, NO ONE DRAGS ANYONE AROUND, DONT LISTEN TO NEGATIVE PHRASES, IF YOU DO,

YOU'LL NEVER FIND TRUTH OR HAPPINESS, CUZ SATAN KNOWS OUR WEAKNESSES, YOU MUST BE 10 STEPS AHEAD OF HIM, HE WANTS YOU GUYS TO BELIEVE IN SOME ANY KIND OF RELIGION, ANYTHING BUT THE RIGHT ONE, IM SORRY IF I GOT A LITTLE ANGRY TONIGHT, IM JUST A FIRM MAN OF BELEIF, AND I KNOW WHAT IM TALKING ABOUT, I TRIED IT ALL, TRUST ME, BUDDHASM, DIDNT LIKE IT, CATHOLIC, MY WHOLE LIFE, THE PREIST ASKED ME AWKWARD QUESTIONS ABOUT SOMETHING SICK, THEY CALL THEMSELVES FATHER, THATS WRITTEN, THEY HAVE STATUES AND IDOLS EVERYWHERE, THATS WRITTEN, I TRIED REGULAR CHRISTIANITY, MY LITTLE SISTER GOT KIDNAPPED BY A PASTOR, AND HE GOT 5 YEARS IN PRISON, AND WHEN THE JUDGE ASKED HIM WHY HE DID IT, HE SAID BECAUSE HE'S SAVED ALREADY, IM COO....I DONT NEED TO WALK AROUND SAYING IM SAVED CUZ I'L BE DEAD IN 2 YEARS Walking around like that, ONLY THE CHURCH OF GOD TAMED ME, AND MADE ME HUMBLE, BUT WHATEVER, ITRIED AS ALWAYS, IM USED TO PEOPLE NOT LISTENING, ACTING DUMB, NOT SERIOUS, ITS ALL THE SAME, BUT LIKE I SAID, WHTEVER WORKD FOR YOU, BUST IT, IT WAS A NICE TIME CHATTING WITH YOU ALL, NICE TO MEET EVERYBODY, IM NEVER COMING ON THIS SITE AGAIN, I JUST DID IT BECAUSE THATS MY MENTALITY, THATS WHY GOD CHOSE ME, IM ACTUALLY TRYING TO REACH OUT TO ALL OF YOU, I LOVE ALL OF YOU, EVERY SINGLE ONE OF YOU HAS A GOOD MIND TO SEEK GOD, THATS OKAY, SOME PEOPLE DONT BELIEVE IN GOD AT ALL, SO, OH WELL, I TIRED, GOD BLESS YOU PEOPLE, SORRY JAIME IF I CAME AT YOU KINDA HARSH, I DO HAVE TO RESPECT YOUR BLOGG, SORRY GOD BLESS ALL OF YOU, STAY POSITIVE, LIFE IS 2 SHORT, ESPECIALLY IN THESE LAST DAYS, GOD BLESS, TAKE CARE, FORGIVE ME IF I CAME OFF KINDA TENSE, IM JUST MAD BECAUSE I WANT PEOPLE TO KNOW THAT THE CHURCH OF GOD IS ALL ABOUT LOVE, AND UNITY, MY EMAIL IS mallorykeith@yahoo.com, FEEL FREE TO HIT ME UP, IF ANYONE HAS ANY QUESTIONS CONCERNING THE COG, I WILL BE HAPPY TO HELP ANYONE WHO IS INTERESTED, BUT LISTEN TO YOURSELF, NOT OTHERS, WHAT YOU FEEL INSIDE, JUST TRY, LET GO OF EVERYTHING FOR A SECOND, AND JUST LISTEN TO YOUR SOULS CRY FOR THE WATER OF LIFE..... DONT KEEP CHASING THE WIND, IVE BEEN THERE, PARTYING, BUNK RELATIONSHIPS, ANGER, DRUGS, PRIDEFUL ATTITUDE, WANTING TO BE THE BEST, FILLING YOUR BELLY UP WITH EVERYTHING AND EVERYTHING, ITS ALL DEATH MAN, JUST GORGING ON LIFE IS BAD, SLOW DOWN, JOG, READ THE BIBLE, LISTEN TO YOUR PARENTS, YOU DONT WANNA END UP IN A SITUATION THAT IVE BEEN IN A GANG OF TIMES, HOMELESS, JAIL, HOSPITALIZED, FRACTURED BONES, THE L.A JUNGLE, YOU KNOW WHAT IM SAYING, AINT NO TELLIN WHAT COULD HAPPEN, WEAR PROTECTION, SAY NO TO DRUGS AND LIQOUR, SAY NO TO GANGS, 4 SURE THAT, NO FUTURE RIGHT THERE, AND IF THE WORLD ENDS, AT LEAST U KNOW YOU DID YOUR BEST, AND GOD WILL SEE THAT, FORGET THE CENTER OF ATTENTION, FORGET SEXUAL IMMORALITY, BE A ROBOT LIKE ME, ITS EASIER, I SAY NO TO EVERYTHING NOW, NO SEX, NOTHING, I BROKE UP WITH MY CHICK A WHILE BACK BECAUSE SHE WASNT SUPPORTING MY SPIRITUAL GOALS, AND SHE LOVED TO FIGHT, FORGET ALL THAT, FORGET FAME, YA

I CAME OUT ON AN ALBUM, CAME OUT IN STORES, BEFORE I LEARNED THE TRUTH, HIP HOP SHOWS, FREESTYLES ALL THAT, BUT NOW I LAVE AND PULL MY BEARD, AND I SEE YUNGSTERS IN THE PREVIOUS STATE I WAS IN, EVEN WORSE, CUZ AT LEAST I WAS OUT THERE, PEOPLE KNEW ME, MAN, I HAD TO DITCH, HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE, IF I WOULDVE HUNG ON TO THEM, I WOULD BE A SLAVE, AND I WOULD BE DOING ALL THOSE BAD HABITS I USED TO DO, I DOPNT WANT TO GET INTO MY PAST, I JUST WANNA LET YOU KNOW THAT I BEEN THERE, THE POPULAR, CHIC MAGNET, OUTGOING TALENTED, DEVOTED MC, BUT I LEFT ALL THAT BEHIND BECAUSE OF THE TRUTH OF THE BIBLE, NEVERMIND KOREA AND ALL THAT, LET GO OF THAT FOR A SECOND, SEE....I GO BY THE BIBLE, THATS WHAT DREW ME, TO THE COG, THEY KEEP EVERYTHING THAT JESUS KEPT, I USED TO BE A JESUS FREAK, BUT WHEN I WAS HOMELESS ONE NIGHT, AFTER I STARTED FADING AWAY FROM THE GAME, I WENT FROM ON TOP, TO HOMELESS, I WAS PRAYING TO JESUS, IN AN ABANDONED DARK BUILDING, AND I GOT ATTACKED BY TO DEMONS, WITH DEEP VOICES, I THOUGHT IT WAS A PITBULL OR SOMETHING, THEIR ENERGY WAS SO STRONG, AND WHEN I STUDIED MORE I REALIZED THAT JESUS HAS BEEN WORKING SOO HARD WHILE IT JUST FLEW PASSED US, ITS A NEVER ENDING STORY, BUT, TRIP OUT, I BECAME HOMELESS BECAUSE, ALL MY LIFE I LIVED OFF HOMIES, WOMEN, GEES, PRODUCERS, FAMILY, CUZ I WAS WILD, DOING EVERYTHING AND EVERYTHING, I NEVER REALIZED HOW WILD I WAS UNTIL I SETTLED DOWN, SO.....BASICALLY, WHEN I WENT TO THE CHURCH OF GOD, I STARTED TELLING PEOPLE, BUT THEY HAD IT TWISTED, THEY THOUGHT THAT I WENT SOFT, AND THAT I WAS EVEN MORE LOONIER THAN I WAS BEFORE, SO I BECAME LESS VIOLENT, BUT MY ADDICTION WAS STILL THERE, PREACHING AND BAD HABITS, THE WORST COMBINATION, IMMA KEEP IT REAL, I DONT CARE WHAT PEOPLE THINK OF ME, THE FIRST 3 YEARS I WAS IN THE CHURCH, NO ONE WANTED TO GO TO CHURCH WITH ME, EVERYOINES ALL THUG LIFE WOOTY WOO, MAN THEY TRIED TO STABB ME IN THE FACE, AND THE KNIFE CLOSED ON THIS DUDES HAND AND HE CUT HIMSELF, I WOULDVE LOST MY EYE OR DIED, CUZ IT WAS A PRETTY LONG SWITCH BLADE, BUT GOD SAVED ME, THATS JUST A LIL ABOUT ME, IM DONE RUNNING THE STREETS, I DID IT ALL, I WAS REAL BAD PERSON, I USE TO WANT TO DIE, AND I ALWAYS PICKED FIGHTS, HOPING I COULD MAKE THE FRONT PAPER, BUT GOD HAS CALLED ME, TO REDEEM US FROM THIS POINTLESS WORLD, EVERYTHING IS MEANINGLESS, YOU WAKE UP, THEN GO TO SLEEP, YOU WAKE UP, THEN EAT, BUT NOW, IM LIKE, WHATS THE LATEST AT THE CHURCH OF GOD, EVERYTIME I GO, BROTHERS WELCOME, THE ONLY CHURCH I EVER BEEN TO WHERE REAL CATS LIKE ME HAVE LET GO OF THE GAME ALSO, WE ACTUALLY CAN RELATE AND REJOICE, SO....IMMA LEAVE IT AT THAT, THERES SO MUCH MORTE BUT LIKE I SAID, I GOTTA HAVE RESPECT FOR JAIMEES BLOGG, EVEN THOUGH IM OFFENDED. IM SENSITIVE WITH THIS, GOD SAVED MY LIFE, I SHOULDA BEEN DEAD, WELL I GOT STABBED AND I GOT 14 SCREWS IN MY FACE, BUT IT LOOKS TIGHT, YOU CANT REALLY TELL, GOOD DOCTOR, AND I WANNA LEAVE AT, SAY NO TO DRUGS, SEX UNLESS

I gave so much of my time to the church, I even drive around to pick up new brothers and sisters so they can attend service, all from my own expense. Not once did i complain or say no. I spent each sabbath day doing 4 hours of driving so they can attend worship.

I even prepared lunch for the church on many occasions. I was even given the position of section leader for youth brothers, but i declined. My faith just went out the window when the church start telling me all the things i mentioned on my previous posts.

You say that the church don't pressure poeple? Are you blind? seriously man... You know what i'm talking about, stop trying to hide it...all the people on this blog complain about being pressured when they visited the COG.

I'm actually really fair, i know all the COG doctrine and i have to admit that some people on this blog who prosecute the COG are uneducated even in the most fundamental truths of the bible.

The reason why i decide to leave the COG, is because not of money but because they refuse to answer questions that i believe is very important, questions such as how did ahnsahngHong die, things like this. COG leaders always say lets only pay attention to the bible nothing else matters. To me they're refusing or hiding these answers, i don't know. How can i possibly have complete faith when these answers are kept from me.

I'm here on this blog to let people know what the church say or get their members to do. I'm going to let people know all the things i feel is wrong with the church. One of my friend came with me to the church and was pressured into baptism, she later blame me for letting her down and not defending her when the church members were harassing her.

I'm speaking the truth...why would i make up stupid lies.

God bless you all. Brothers and Sisters in Zion please stop coming to this website or any anti Church of God websites. You all know better that these people don't really know what they are talking about. Instead invite them to your nearest Zion or set up an appointment with them for face to face Bible study so we could answer all their questions. All questions of these anti Church of God in all of their websites including that new cult watch has been answered so many times but the truth is that they are not willing to accept the truth. All they want is debate in the internet, not really seeking the truth. So please stop flipping web pages and read the Bible yourself. Ask your Pastor in your local Zion if you have doubts or concerns. Anyone is welcome to come to Zion, or the Church of God Gospel workers can visit you right at your own homes or meet in a good place for Bible study. I hope more and more lost Brothers and Sisters will be lead to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Heavenly Mother Jerusalem so we can all return to Kingdom of Heaven as soon as possible and fulfill the prophecies in the Bible.

Gal. 4:26But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our Mother.

Gal. 4:28Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.

Gal. 4:31Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

"Having canceled out the certificate of debt consisting of decrees against us and which was hostile to us; and He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross. When He had disarmed the rulers and authorities, He made a public display of them, having triumphed over them through Him. Therefore let no one act as your judge in regard to food or drink or in respect to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath day- things which are a mere shadow of what is to come; but the substance belongs to Christ." Does this verse clearly tell us we are not to be judged on when we worship God or what festival we partake of? Christmas is evil to COG, but God never condemned anyone for partaking of this tradition. If someone worships Santa or the Christmas tree, that's pagan idolatry and that's another story. But I don't know anyone within 2000+ miles from me who does that. It's just good fun. Yes, people get "merry" and "drunk" and glutton, but people do that outside of Christmas also what's the difference? They shouldn't get drunk either way..

In any case, I don't see God commanding us to worship on the Sabbath day, I see Him telling us to worship and observe the sabbaths and festivals when we so will. If I make my Sabbath Monday or Tuesday because I can't focus completely on God any other day of the week, of what difference is that? The Sabbath is not some magical date; it is what you make of it. The heart is important, not the numerical number on the calendar.

Furthermore, Zang Gil-Jah is NOT the Holy Spirit. If she were, she'd be at my house right now; God is omnipresent. If He were not, He could not be God. Zang Gil-Jah is God, right? Well, where is she? In Korea? Gee, why doesn't she spread herself to the world? The Holy spirit is the one who convicts us after all. COG does not believe in a Trinity. How can they when they believe in one God who transforms into different manifestations? If Jehovah's name is not useful anymore, if the Father is of no use, if Jesus' name is not applicable, why claim that Ahn Sang Hong is Christ and Zang Gil-Jah is Holy Spirit if they both are God? 2 forms of God who is supposed to be one? Male and female? Wow. I thought God was one and only one with one new name? hmmm.

Here's the thing: If God were that easy to explain, we would be gods ourselves or HE would not be God. There are 3 and only 3 persons who are God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We call them persons because they each communicate with one another. How can Jesus speak to Himself when in the garden of Gethsemane He claims "Father, if it be Your will...." ? He is speaking to Father God, while He Himself is the second person of the Godhead. Yet they are 1 God, not 3. How is this? We will NEVER know until heaven, because we have human brains and can't comprehend it. So quit trying to explain it and make it easy to understand. We aren't meant to understand, we're only meant to know...

Furthermore, about the verses that speak of the "Jerusalem above is free and she is our mother".. this is speaking on Jerusalem symbolically because Jerusalem is the center of Israel and Judaism. The Jewish law stuck within Judaism convicts the Jews, but the Jerusalem which is above, the new covenant in Christ, the new form of Judaism, this is what is free. Jesus Christ is free. He broke the chains that kept us tied to the law because of sin. Because we are justified in Christ, we have no need of the law to forgive us our sins. Salvation is by GRACE alone. This is not to say we don't have a responsibility to follow the law; after all, if Christ loved us, we should give the love back and show Him we are a changed generation. Though it is not by works we are saved.

Notice, we are never commanded to celebrate passover or Holy Communion in order to be saved. No, it is only in remembrance and for the reminder that we are sinners who must continue our spiritual battles to sanctification. Nowhere does it say "take eat.. my body.. take drink.. my blood.. and thou shalt be saved". No, it is through repentance and believing that we are saved from sin through Jesus Christ. That's the only way. Passover was a Jewish tradition. While we still celebrate it, except in a new way, it is not to be thought of in the same manner. Why do COG follow so many of the Jewish laws when God told Peter to fall away from some of those old mannerisms, and even Paul, a devout Jew, was convinced that Jews should not enforce Jewish law on the Gentiles, but show grace and mercy to all. Why then do Gentiles need to follow Jewish law? All that matters is that we love God first, do His will second, love others 3rd, and follow His commandments in faith. No, not His Jewish laws that He broke down at the cross, but the commandments that He leads us to perfection.

Pierce,
Amen to all of that!!

Brofromzion, you are still here. That's good.
:)

NOT all of the questions have been answered already. Here are a few:

–What calendar does the WMSCOG use? Celebrating the feasts on the exact right day is important to you, right?
But the dates do not match up with either the Rabbinic or Karaite Hebrew calendars, or any other “Biblical” calendar I can find. Why is that?

–If AhnsahngHong is God, why did he call God's actions “unjust”?

–Read Deuteronomy 13. Why didn't God the Father reveal “God the Mother” to the Israelites BEFORE He told them not to worship other gods that they or their fathers have not known?

Child of God,

Your posts are very difficult to read because of all the CAPS and the lack of spaces between lines. But from what I did read, it looks like you have lots to say and an interesting personal testimony. God can take anything and turn it around for His glory, so I hope all your enthusiam one day gets used to glorify the true God.

Like you, I don't care for all those pictures portraying
Jesus as a “pretty” fair man, especially those that show His agony on the cross with barely any blood as if He hardly suffered. I think the movie “The Passion of the Christ” presented things in a much more realistic way.

But it sounds like you group all Christians, past and present, from all branches—Catholic to Pentecostal—as the same, kind of like movies tend to do. I hope you realize that not everyone regards the cross as some good luck talisman. It is possible for it to be merely a symbol to remind us of Jesus' sacrifice. Just like my wedding ring is a symbol to remind me of the love and vows my husband and I share. There is a difference between a sculpture of a calf for artistic purposes and an idol of a calf for worship purposes. An idol is what you make it.

I agree that tithing is Biblical. But these reports of members being pressured to give more than what is reasonable concerns me.

I'm here for people like me—ones who have family in the church and want to understand why the WMSCOG doctrine doesn't ring true with mainstream Christianity, those who need help with how to respond to the strange things they are being told. And for those who are on the fence, who need help finding answers.

I'm not here to convince you or brofromzion or any other WMSCOG member to leave the church. That is a feat that can only be accomplished by God. But you might read some truth that causes you to start thinking and gets you started on the right path.

This is the question everyone whould ask themselves:
IF WHAT YOU BELIEVE IS NOT TRUE, WOULD YOU WANT TO KNOW?

Hi genny. Yes its been answered already not here but in the Zion i go to. I ask all the questions here and from your new website and i got an answer as clear as crystal why you all genny are confused. And if you want answers to all your questions please visit your nearest Zion or we can set up a face to face Bible study in your home or a good place to study the Bible. We don't answer questions in the internet anymore because there are too many people pretending to be from Church of God but they are not. Also, all you anti Church of God want in the internet is debate and not really seeking the truth. So would you like to have a face to face Bible study genny?

All the glory to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem for revealing the way to Kingdom of Heaven to all God's true children.

Gal. 4:26But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our Mother.

Gal. 4:28Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.

Gal. 4:31Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

And Amen to all of that from you, Genny :)

if you have to be THAT defensive about your faith, of what importance is your Christ AhnSangHong? My Jesus Christ speaks for Himself through His Word and His Holy Spirit, I am merely His hands and feet on the earth. I don't prove His existence or need any "evidence book" to prove Him, He proves Himself when a person is convicted enough that they need a Savior.

Another thing: How can Zang Gil-Jah be the Holy Spirit if the Spirit is Spirit; not a physical being? Jesus Christ is physical, and He is Jewish, NOT Korean. If the Holy Bible came from Korea, I would say He were Korean and not Jewish. But could you imagine a German Jesus? An African Jesus? A Latino Jesus? No.. only Jesus, King of the JEWS. Thus, when Christ comes again He will have a spiritually renewed JEWISH body because He was a JEW. Not Asian, not African, not European, but Jewish.

Genny: My thoughts exactly. I don't get it, I was told by a friend I should be baptized in the name of the Holy Spirit's new name, Christ Ahn-Sang-Hong. But then this same friend tells me of the Heavenly Mother Jerusalem who is the Holy Spirit. There is one and only one Holy Spirit, so who is the Holy Spirit in this case, the male or the female?? haha. Too contradicting is their doctrine.

1 Cor. 11:26 "For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes.."

By: Pierce on April 8, 2010 at 5:15 am

Hmm.. until He comes. So, Paul tells us that until Christ returns we must partake in Holy Communion?? But according to WMSCOG, Christ has already returned.. right? So, why partake of Communion if Christ has returned??

Reply

They claim there is a 3rd coming, but where in the Bible is a 3rd coming ever mentioned? There is only His first coming which came to pass as He was born, grew, lived, and died then resurrected. Jesus then ascended into Heaven. He will not return until He comes in the clouds, meaning IN GLORY. Christ will not come again as a lowly servant as He did in His first coming. He will not be one who blends in. He will come in glory, and it will be audible and all will see and hear that Christ has come.

Was Christ Ahn Sang Hong's coming one of audible and visible results? No. I had not even heard of the Church of God until a random day at school when a person I used to work with randomly happened to be meeting a friend of his on campus.

Also, if the Church of God is so great, why can I not find one on the internet that is close to my area? This co-worker of mine told me the address, but I wanted a website to this local church. If you ask me, looks like COG has a lot of things they hide for being so zealous for the "LORD".

The Pope is NOT the antichrist. I could buy that the pope is AN anti-christ if he truly goes against God's living Word. Though, he is not THE anti-christ. There have been too many popes to be one anti-christ. The antichrist is one person.

The word says there are MANY antichrists, but only one "the" antichrist. To me, Ahn Sang Hong and Zang Gil-Jah are just another antichrist, just another false prophet, just another Korean cult leader of the hundreds in that area that claim they are Jesus Christ. Also, the Word tells us no one can know the day Christ will return, nor can we know the hour of God's wrath. Thus, 2012 COULD be "the end", but no matter how many people prophecy such, it might or might not be true, because not a soul could ever know. Again though, how could Jesus say "only the Father knows" if the Father was just a phase of God's manifestation? Was Jesus talking to Himself?

1 John 2:18-19 "Children, it is the last hour; and just as you heard that antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen; from this we know that it is the last hour. They went out from us, but they were not really of us; for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us; but they went out, in order that it might be shown that they all are not of us."

1 John 2:22-23 "Who is the liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, the one who denies the Father and the Son. Whoever denies the Son does not have the Father; the one who confesses the Son has the Father also."

1 John 4:2-3 "By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God; and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God; and this is the spirit of the antichrist, of which you have heard that it is coming, and now it is already in the world."

2 John 1:7 "For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not acknowledge Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist."

A word about 1 John 2:18-19. Ahn Sang Hong originally was from the Seventh Day Adventist denomination. He was supposedly a Christian. Then he went "out" from the church and formed his own doctrinated church. He then claims his church is the only true church. He went out from the Christian doctrine and showed the world his belief was not hand-in-hand with every other church.

By: Pierce on April 8, 2010 at 5:22 am

Reply

On 1 John 2:22-23; John says that those who deny the Father and Son are antichrists. Well, the COG claims no one is saved through the name of Jehovah nor the name of Jesus, but only of AhnSangHong. That pretty much denies God in a way. It doesn't deny that that's who God was before, but the Bible claims that's who God is now, and COG denies who God was and STILL IS. Hrmm.. Wouldn't that make them antichrist material?

Bromfromzion,
Three different people from the "Zion" in Boomingdale, Ill., told my daughter-iin-law that the world was going to end in 2012, and if it didn't then the church should put a lock on it's doors and close down. My son also told me that, and he is a member of COG. Now, he denies that he ever said it, and no one in the church will own up to it. Why? Why has the story changed all of a sudden?

BromFromZion:

What kind of excuse for the WMSCOG as a whole to not use the internet for witnessing is that? Anybody can pretend to believe in whatever religion they so choose. If I were to change all my social network profile religions to Judaism, got my Jewish lingo down, and did what Jews did, they would have no clue that I am actually a Christian. Thus, anybody going to a COG member could fool them just as easily.

By: Pierce on April 10, 2010 at 9:23 am

Reply

I'll tell you why the story has changed all the sudden: because they are not confident it will happen. I am confident that the world will end someday, the Bible says it will; I would hope in my lifetime, but I am not confident enough that it will happen in my lifetime to witness it to unbelievers.

Do you know what happens when a whole chain of churches are not confident in an important part of their doctrine?? It's either A. Not in the Bible, or B. Not of God. Which of these categories does the "firm" belief of 2012 fit into? I'd say both, but you may have another perspective. I'm not a follower, so perhaps you could help me out on that..

Well I have a question for COG members.

What is the purpose of Mother J being on Earth?

By: Emilyn on April 10, 2010 at 11:52 am

Reply

I don't really understand that. Ookk Ahn- came back for the remaining 37 years to fulfill the 40 year reign of King David or whatever... But why is Mother J a human being?

The wmscog continuously show their members dvds of disasters and viruses, they never stop talking about end of the world. They use this to stop members from leaving. The moment they see a member losing faith, they say things like you're going to die or you're going to hell.

For example; remember the swine flu virus? the wmscog keep saying there's not going to be cure and the whole world is going to be infected, we must find new members and recruit them immediately. The church continuously scare their members with these kind of things on a daily basis.

You don't have to look into their doctrine to see they're false, you just have to look at their behaviour. I don't want to aim this at all the wmscog members, i just want to aim it at their leaders.

My friend is a deacon at the COG and he has a folder full of colored pictures printed about calamities & disasters etc all from the internet. Also cut outs of global warming from newspapers . I have some of their Dvds too.

Mind you this guy was such a sane person and an engineer by profession but due to divorce he ended up with this cult and it surprises me when he talks things like when I wanted to eat a burger I prayed in mothers name and immediately after a few mts there was an outlet.

Their minds are blank, sometimes things are there but the brains are tuned to think that they are totally hadicapped without these 2 fake Gods.

As for the behaviour I doubt after following passover and supposedly keeping all God's commands they have an entry to heaven???

These members are made to feel good that " their names are in the BOOK of LIFE" which can be deleted if they do not adhere to their rules or regulations.

I have been a witness to the bad temperament of my friend who some days back was so upset on a guy at the private parking that he threw the cash on the ground. Not willing to admit his fault. This attitude is because they are stressed out, lack of sleep and living in constant fear.

Father Ahn suffered and lies in his grave I wonder what punishment Jesus has in store for this con artist mother Jerusalem who sleeps peacefully and ruins the life of others.

Yes, their leaders get angry often even with the smallest matters. I reported these kind of behaviours to the pastor/overseer of the church all the time.

During their feast, they go to church at 5am to worship for many days in a row. They often make up rules within the church to control their members, for example; male members cannot text or call any female members within the church.

The members are forced to write down their interest and hobbies on paper, the information is then used by the leaders to manipulate them.

Members get their photos taken and are stored on the churches database. wmscog never uses wireless internet because it increase the risk of computer hacking. They do know a lot about hacking computers!! lol

The church wants to know everything about you. They ask for my university username, password, and email.

wmscog would never preach to Koreans living outside their country. THIS IS A FACT.

wmscog male leaders stoke each others hands and legs. Lolll. One of them held my hand and stroke it in public!!!! I almost got a heart attack!!!. Its Ok if the ladies are doing it, but guys!?!?

You would only see them preaching to Koreans if the meeting was by accident. The church would normally preach in pairs or three, there would normally be a new member who goes along, so if by accident they end up preaching to a Korean they would continue preaching and then in front of the new member they have no

How is this? We will never understand in our human minds. Perhaps God will give us this knowledge in eternity, but we live in a limited world at the present time.

Reply

These are 3 persons because they simultaneously exist at the same time. This is an obvious fact, from when Jesus was baptized by John to the many references made in the New Testament. Elohim CAN be used as a term to pluralize God; however, the true Jewish meaning of Elohim is not necessarily to pluralize God, but rather to emphasize His being – God IS everything, all in all, complete and whole in every way.

That said, the Holy Spirit is always referred to as "He" in the Bible. Thus, how can Ahn Sang Hong even think to point to a woman, Zang Gil-Jah, as being the Holy Spirit in the flesh? Furthermore, the Holy Spirit is Spirit and will never take on flesh. Jesus Christ took on flesh. The Father always came as a burning bush, pillar of fire, etc, but I don't remember Him coming as human. Jesus Christ took on flesh. The angels sometimes take on flesh. But the Holy Spirit?? Give me one instance in the Word of God where the Holy Spirit takes on flesh and I may change my mind.

My son is now going to church 28 hours per week, and it is an hour drive one way from his home. His wife was crying when he left last time, as while she was gone for a weekend, they talked him into going Thursdays as well, and he agreed without discussing it with her first. He said,"I have to go. I promised," and left her there crying. He says,"I have to" a lot, but then contradicts himself by saying it is of his own free will. Which is it? It can't be both ways. He also gave them his passport because he decided to give in to their constant pressure and go to Korea in June. This decision was made before he asked his bosses if he can get out of work, and before he consulted with his wife. He says he will quit his job if they won't let him off work. His job pays him around $100,000 per year, and just last year he was extremely motivated to do well. His work last year got him the promotion to the corporate office. Now he has no motivation to do anything but be at the church. He told his Dad that if they wanted him to be there seven days per week, he would. I do believe he will wind up doing that, and fairly soon. His wife wants them to try marriage counseling, but my son told her he will only go if he sets it up. Lord help them if he decides to set it up with his pastor.

Behind the smiles, the wmscog leaders are dogs. They are bad people.

For people who have family members in this church, u should call the police, lawyers, everyone. Use force if necessary to get your love ones out of there.

Elohim child, u're brainwashed. U should stand back and have a good look at the church, their behaviors and their thirst for money. Their doctrine came from other cults that failed. Jerusalem mother was preached way before wmscog. The wmscog just gathered bit and pieces and join them together.

Sho,
Have you read Proverbs lately? They are very straightforward, and do not lend themselves to twisted, vague interpretations. I read at least 6 that said sons should listen to their father's counsel, and should never bring grief or sadness to their mothers. It was in the Bible in plain black and white. Yet, our son brings us grief and sadness now, by the boatload and the pastor and recruiters in the COG say that is "normal" and "we are persecuting him" because we tell him we do not agree with their main doctrine, which is believing in the false idols of ASH and "The mother". Before he was in COG we were so close with him, and we did not disagree on things. There was no strife. He brings his wife terrible sadness and misery as well, and the COG has encouraged this. He truly is like a mindless robot, a slave to the psychological prison of the COG. My son is a depressed person who has threatened suicide three times now. We are sick with worry. The pastor and members of the COG are not worried, though. THEY DON'T CARE. His wife asked the pastor directly to stop pressuring him to be at the church all the time as his job is so demanding, and excessive time at church cut into family time so much. She told him the money he was excessive as well, and they had bills to pay. The result? More time demanded and more money. And now a trip to Korea that may cost him his job as he did not ask his

How can the COG tell my son to go against the Bible? If he is bringing his mother and father grief, and he is not listening to his father, he is going against what is printed in black and white in the Bible. THIS IS WRONG, AND IS NOT OPEN TO INTERPRETATION. IT IS WRITTEN THERE.

They had control over my mind, but not my heart, in the end its my heart that saved me. They told me things they shoudn't have. Tricking people and using scare tactics is WRONG.

They pull verses out of the bible to defend themselves when people call them a cult. Any cult can do that, its really easy. I can call myself god and pick verses out of the bible to defend myself when people call me a false prophet. They use these verses on a daily basis to control YOUR MIND.

First, all praise to Heavenly Father and Mother... i usually dont get on this site. I am a member of Church of God WMS. Truly it is the truth, its sad to see the false testimonys about the truth but also its sad to see Brothers and Sisters from Zion setting the wrong examples online.. truthfully sometimes we forget that we were once lost as well and tend to act messed up to babylonians but this is not Gods will for us to act like this. Its actually Gods will for us to be the salt and the light as well as preaching the truth. Sometimes our own acts can even push our true Brothers and Sisters away so please be careful for the sake of the Gospel, let us all go to Heaven together. Amen

Tell me, Zion Please Read, you say preach the truth.. what then is truth? The Bible which is the living Word of God, right? Well, could you explain in any possible way why we should believe anything you say? There are hundreds, even thousands of references to Jesus Christ in the Old Testament prophecies. There are hardly enough scripture to back up anything concerning Ahn Sang Hong and the "Heavenly Mother" unless you first convert to the faith -then-

By: Pierce on May 28, 2010 at 12:52 pm they show you their evidence book & scriptures.. problem is, these are twisted opinions and interpretations of scripture. What I'd like to know is why Jesus came once to die on the cross to save us completely of our sins, but then He had to come down again as "Ahn Sang Hong" 2,000 years after His first coming, and He's back in heaven yet again and will come down to destroy the evil of earth in due time? That's not how I understand scriptures. The second coming is much too vague to even have any interpretation -close- to the truth.

Lastly, Jesus is a JEWISH man. Not Korean. Certainly, there are verses that speak of things coming from the Eastern hemisphere, but Korea is not the east of the east. There is also eastern China, Japan, Hawaii, and the Americas are the east of the east of the eastern parts of Israel. Why claim Jesus is suddenly Korean when all the roots of Christianity is hidden in Judaism, the Jewish religion and the Hebrew race.. Furthermore, if you are deciding to keep the Sabbath, a day strictly for Jews, are you implying Koreans are part Jewish? The early church did NOT worship God only on the sabbath, in fact in Col 2:14-16 Paul says that no one is to judge one another concerning new moons or sabbaths. Rather let one participate in a festival as he wills so long as it does not dishonour God, and the Sabbaths are to be observed whenever one feels inclined. In other words, if Jews feel obligated to worship on the sabbath, so be it. However, if the gentiles worshiped the first day of the week, Sunday, God still would hear their worship and they would have church that day. In other words, the church was concerned about the heart and effort, not the date. If God is omnipresent, there is no reason He won't hear His sabbath worship any given day of the week, especially since the old law is abolished and all things are new. If we keep the old law, then we ought be sacrificing animals, cleaning our hands at all times if we touch anything unclean or unholy, etc etc. This is not how God intends us to live anymore; Jesus paid the price. We accept it, and God only sees Jesus' blood over our lives. We don't take communion as a ritual to keep the sin hidden, Jesus' blood is already over our lives. It's a permanent washing if you truly meant repenting and asking forgiveness of sins. We observe holy communion to remind ourselves of what Christ did so that we do not fall back into sin, not that we may be cleaned and protected.. God already cleaned us and being omnipresent is always protecting us, whether we take communion and worship on sabbath days or not.

God bless you Pierce...

These delusional cunts at WMSCoG have been playing the "doomsday" card for a very long time. In the first half of 2009 "Mother" issued, via word of mouth, a statement to her leaders which passed all the way down the rumor mill to the regular "brothers and sisters." The statement was that within 2009 we were all going to see things on this earth that we within OUR lifetimes have never seen before. This meant certain things such as civil unrest in the US, severe widespread famine, and physical manifestations on the earth like the sea turning red, would come to pass IN 2009. Well 2009 has come and gone and I haven't witnessed ONE thing that year that lived up to her omen. All negative things that had occurred that year were not anything that we hadn't seen before, and many of us had experienced such discomforts in our lifetime already. That automatically makes her NOT A GOD because..now let's make them eat their own words..if God says something will happen in allotted time frame, it WILL happen EXACTLY that way. Sorry, but an earthquake here and an earthquake there does not count. A lot of us have been alive long enough to experience some of those high magnitude quakes. And no, THE SEA DID NOT TURN RED. These CoG jerkoffs are probably trying to give credit to "Mother" for the Gulf Of Mexico oil spill that occurred recently, but first of all,

A] that happened in 2010, NOT 2009, one year off, DUMBASS!!

B] a "gulf" does not equate to a "sea"

C] there have been larger oil spills in our lifetime in terms of volume (tons), and

D] a strip of red-brown oil washing ashore on an Alabama island is neither "all red" nor does it cover an entire ocean...

DUMBASS!!!

Now when they get called for this sort of thing, this is how they seem to defend themselves:

1) Blame their own fledgling members for starting rumors and causing fear in the the congregation (because supposedly "Mother" never made such claims) — I have personally seen somebody reprimanded and embarrassed in front of other members for "spreading" things that he did not make up, but came down from deacons themselves

2) Repeat the mantra "those who focus on destruction will receive destruction, you'd better just concentrate on learning the sermon book and becoming a diligent preacher"...and blame their youth members for being too focused on destructive events in prophecy

3) Play this excuse card that "Mother" was holding back the destructive events because she is taking pity on her dysfunctional children (the church members) and giving them more time to prepare

..All childish excuses and loopholes in an attempt to cover up their flesh idol's mortality. But this is how they got their start didn't they, having a loophole, or a way out, for everything that does not pan out as predicted. Sound familiar?

I still have the infamous sermon book and a ton of books they sold exclusively at their churches, if anyone is interested in dissecting the BS. I was planning on a mass distribution of that garbage to pastors and leaders of every other church I come across nationwide in my spare time so they can all be aware of this gigantic fraud. This exposure of their literature was what they were always afraid of, that's why they always acted a bit nervous at the cash register when selling the material. They aren't actually truly afraid of "the truth getting into the wrong hands and being misused and twisted,"...they are afraid of getting analyzed, dissected, and caught. Their monetary success is directly correlated with people being unaware of their presence and not knowing the bible well. They prey on the uninformed and malleable. The only way that they can have a mass of people available as prospective member-victims is if regions and regions across the country have no access to their Korean shithead's books. Otherwise, if the books were readily available, the outsiders would have the opportunity to view the doctrine beforehand and pick apart its fallacies, therefore being able to defend themselves against the CoG preacher whores (who usually come in pairs) once being approached by them at some tacky mall or community college. This obviously would not work in the WMSCoG's favor being the for-profit org. that they are! If both their fleshling gods truly are the one true God in the bible, then it wouldn't matter whose hands Ahn Sahng Bong Fag's books reached would it? The truth would prevail no matter what. Their insecurity about it has betrayed their true fraudulent nature. It'll be a good laugh. >:)

Yup. Those bastards took away 14 months of my life and $3,600.00 of my money. I sure could use that money now, but it wouldn't do any good for me to ask the church for help because the church won't help its members. So much for being the "true church". :-(

My son went to Korea with them recently. Before he went he drew out his IRA and his 401K. It was around $25,000. It was no coincidence that he did this right before he went there. He won't tell his wife what he has done with that money, but we know. He is about to lose his job, his wife, and his self respect. The worst thing is, he is not at all happy in this church anyway. He is morbidly depressed, and it worries me greatly. I love my son, but he is in the psychological prison they form around their members. I pray he will discover that they are deceivers only interested in his money, not his salvation.

If i have family members in this cult...i'll walk in the church and punch the leaders in the face.

Many of the leaders (not all of them, as I have encountered decent people) have two faces. They spread rumors, abuse their position, and backstab other members with gossip. The gossip includes topics both serious and trivial regarding other members' personal lives. The reason this usually happens is because the victim member confides in a leader member, trusting that the leader is mature and dignified enough to keep the conversation between each other. Unfortunately this is not the way it pans out, as not long after, the leader starts spreading the personal information to other members. It is not only the leaders who exhibit this behavior, but regular "brothers" and "sisters" as well. A newer and vulnerable member confides in the brother or sister and they take the private details, distort them, and spread it up the chain of command. Why? Maybe to appear "obedient." Maybe to ensure their future status as one of the 144,000.. because in their minds, the more other members are oppressed and too depressed to attain leadership positions, the better the odds of they themselves becoming one of the 144,000...because after all, only leadership such as pastors, missionaries, and deacons can become the 144,000 ..all the rest will have to settle for being part of the Great Multitude wink ;)...oh did I just reveal something a deacon said behind closed doors to trusted select members? lol. Anyways, the point is that the leaders' gossip causes the target victims to lose confidence in them and the church in general, causing much division and an ever-present sense of distrust. Now what is so hypocritical about this entire thing is that the pastor of each church sits idly by and just lets this behavior continue. People keep getting hurt. This NEVER gets addressed. Wait a minute...these guys can bust out sermons Tuesday night plus all of Saturday and go on and on demonizing other people outside the church for being

Catholic, celebrating Easter, celebrating Christmas & such, BUT THEY AREN'T WILLING TO ADDRESS THEIR OWN CONGREGATION'S FAULTS TOWARDS EACH OTHER??? How hypocritically screwed up is that???

I've personally brought this issue up with a pastor from a location church in my region, meaning I confronted the pastor about all the GOSSIP, unwanted SPYING and the overall lack of privacy and personal space available to members that never caused problems. The response I received was in the ballpark of "I'll look into it and talk to them." Guess what, nothing was ever done about it. The entire time I've addressed these issues, they always have to first protect "Mother" and say it's not her fault, but the childrens' (members). They are repeating what they've already done in heaven (Secret Of The Forgiveness Of Sins study). Figures.

C'mon folks, the true God if he/she was on fleshed on earth would not allow this kind of freakin' behavior to be rampant upon his/her church especially if WWII was SO CLOSE TO ERUPTING (yes I know about the interpretation of the four winds being released HAH) and the end of all things being so close at hand. The "true" church in that type of scenario would have almost everything together by now. Not a bunch of whiny church youth gossiping and backstabbing each other. Don't even try to PROOFTEXT me with a verse from the OT trying to discount my logic, saying that we humans don't know how God thinks, that he sees time totally different and operates on a level different from ours ("our ways are not God's ways"). There is no method to Chung Gil Jah's madness for allowing this nonsense to happen in the church, hahah.

More rationalizations from them as to why Cog MUST be the true church, even though this gossip/division crap is happening within its walls:

1) look! it's prophesied that this will happen in zion (the true church), that the love will grow cold and brothers & sisters will turn on each other! it's happening! therefore this must be the true church! < — same BS as "CoG is being massively persecuted by people online and offline immensely for stating the truth which seems radical (like Jesus did 2000 years ago, the truth he was spread seemed radical, so history is repeating), therefore it must be the true church"

2) you shouldn't pay attention to or assess whether this is the true church by how brothers and sisters in the church behave. whether or not it is the true church should be determined by whether they are able to accurately confirm to you the prophecies in the bible being fulfilled. if they are able to do that, then the church they reside in, IS God's true church

^^^ so, let me get this straight. You are implying that the very same people that gossip about me, talk behind my back, and lie to me...as long as they are able to teach the bible accurately by showing me how the prophecies have been fulfilled, I should trust that the church they are a part of is THE true church?

BLOW ME

Thanks Jamie but I'm not giving up. I can still save my son with the Lord's grace. He is still 100% dependant on us. They've already asked him to go to Korea so I've drained his account and will "lose" his passport. I'm only giving him enough cash to buy the necessities, but not sufficient to buy a ticket to Korea. He doesn't work and goes to college full time.

I am still heartbroken that this happened to him – he's a wonderful child who simply gave the guy who approaced him the time of day because we taught him to be nice and kind to others. But all the blogs made me realize that it's not his doing and was brainwashed.

We're going to drown him with LOVE and counter all actions he's been told would happen. Reverse psychology often times is successful.

I trust in our Lord and with his grace and the support from our church and family, we're going to bring him back. God always has a plan for everything and he will show us the way to save the many innocent people from this nightmare.

How about this one? My son was planning to take a short weekend trip with his wife, and had the plane tickets already and everything, but he was concerned about missing the Sabbath. He had to ask his pastor what he thought. The pastor said he had missed the Sabbath once, and he was "injured" shortly after. He also said his brother missed once, and he had an "accident." That is such a bunch of bull. They are trying to control him with fear and superstition. What real church would do that? His wife said "Well, I don't go at all, and I haven't had anything happen." My son does NOT see what they are doing to him. It is crazy, and is very frustrating to his family.

I watched a youtube video about how some WMSCOG members were 'miraculously' kept safe through disasters and accidents and war—all because they had "kept the Passover". Reply

Well, I can tell you many stories about how family and friends and I myself have also been spared through disasters and accidents and war (and some are quite dramatic!). Most recently it was dear friends on a missions trip to Haiti who landed merely hours before the big earthquake. What a story they had! We do not keep the Passover as the WMSCOG does, but we are blessed with the grace of God.

<http://www.cultwatchahnsahng hong.com/forum/index.php>

<http://encountering-ahnsahng hong.blogspot.com/>

Here's another point I have to make about this WMSCOG: Their excessive mixture of cultish beliefs that Paul told early Christians NOT to buy into. Not only do they add elements of Seventh Day Adventism and Jehovah's Witness, but they add elements of GNOSTICISM, which is something the early church widely condemned as a heresy due to it's disbelief in Jesus Christ as wholly God and man simultaneously.

By: Pierce on June 20,
at 4:16 pm

Reply

Gnostics believe that Jesus was a man, and Christ was Spirit, thus either Jesus Christ was not fully man or that godhood was achieved for Jesus once He received the "Christ" anointing. This is not true, because Jesus was always Christ from His birth. He knew at a young age – though we don't know what age He was – that He was God. He told His parents at age 12 "Did you not know I would be about my Father's business?" Thus Jesus was always Christ, and Christ always Jesus. John denies the Gnostic beliefs in 1 John 4.

Hebrews 13:8

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever."

Friends, if Jesus Christ is the same always, and was always Christ even in His mother's womb, would He not be that same Jesus Christ when He returns? If so, why is it that our fellow "Jesus Christ" with the new name "Christ Ahn Sang Hong" was born into a Buddhist family, baptized in the same date as Israel was made a nation again, and "became" a supposed follower of the true God at a certain point of time?

This makes no sense. Ahn Sang Hong should have known he was the Christ from his birth if he truly is the second coming. The verse WMSCOG uses to proclaim the "new name" of Christ is not valid for their supposed Christ, because a name is simply a new identity, not a new persona or body. I can change my name however I see fit; however, I cannot change my personality and body to that of a Korean. Certainly, God can do all things, but it is not in scripture that Christ would be a different nationality or body than He was in the past..

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow for all eternity.. the Jewish man who is simultaneously God, who is eternally King of all. He did not descend into Korea as an Asian.. Jesus is JEWISH will always physically be JEWISH, and is spiritually CHRIST at ALL TIMES and has NEVER changed. His name may change as His secrets are unraveled, but He himself will never change.

Amen.

Another verse: Galations 4:10 "you observe days and months and seasons and years.." and it goes on "I am afraid for you, lest I have labored for you in vain.."

By: Pierce on June 24, 2010
at 2:43 pm

Reply

Paul was telling the Galations of the error they had taken in following the Old Jewish laws and festivities. The Galations had been following Jewish regulations they thought would please God as it had in the past. Paul told them they couldn't be any further from the truth; there is no need to follow sabbaths, holy feasts, or new moons that they had so ritually done before Christ. If they continued to do this, they would confuse the Gentiles with practices that didn't have anything to do with what Christ had done.

Paul did not condemn them for engaging in these activities, but all the same did not want it to become a central doctrine of the Galatian church.. after all, it was unnecessary for salvation through Jesus Christ and pleasing God, but rather another way to do so. Therefore, the WMSCOG needs not follow sabbaths and communions according to days, months, and years; rather, they must follow them as they will with full heart. Again, the date is not what matters, it's whether you are worshiping God with your heart and whole being, be it Monday, Tuesday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday any month, time, year, what have you.

In the church, they make sure the members identities are all handed over to the church. I still don't know why they need my university username and password....weird. Maybe they'll use it to make my life harder so i depend more on the church?!

Once they called me on a friday night and demanded that i come and clean the church. damn that made me angry, that particular deacon should give thanks to god i didn't hit him.

They don't want me listening to music other then church music, saying that its poison.

A member is not regarded as a true member unless all the tithes are paid in full. Members who don't pay tithes on a weekly basis are not allow to travel to korea. Even if he/she know the doctrine from back to front and attend church every week.

They spent most of their preaching time around universities. In 2009 they had a mission called the "University campus mission" Lol.

They declare the end of the world everyday, and yet deny they ever said it. The world is ending soon, soon, soon....(its get funny after a while)

That was the same reason I left too. Just like I saw in a video, They start very nicely with their love bombing, after you accept their doctrine, the demands start. Not only the use demands taken from Bible context but they also impose their own like you said, Not listen to other type of music, No videogames, etc. They have doctrinazed their members basically not to live their personal lives and this is true. They encorage their members not to think about buying a house or any type of car that seems expensive, like luxury cars. And I heard this many times with my own ears in the services. Now, They never has ask me about my University screen name and password but if that happened to you thats messed up. Why did they need that for and why they will request your password(something that you should only know)..Umm, something isnt right there.

Another thing demanding you to do things like cleaning the Church would bother anyone. That should come from your heart to do, not as a impose obligation. And let me tell you something that you must likely already know, their deacons, missionaries and pastors are very arrogant. They act like dictators and sorry for you if you question their authority or look not in accordance with their commands.

About being considered a true member if you do tithes & offerings every week I dont know, since I always did my tithes & offerings and never did have a problem with it. Probably because i was giving in correctly, I was of not concern to them. Now I never tried hard to go to Korea so i dont have much to say about that. I just apply one time and I was turned down for not being "spiritual prepare". About the University Preaching is true, they called "Campus Mission" or "CM" and is to be accomplished by any member that is in College. Well, the well acclaimed End of the World, Yeah they do mention that a lot. Last year I heard from members that you know who in Korea said that the end would happen between last year and this year. That means we would not see 2011 come. I have many other info concerning on pophecies that they say would happen before the end come but I will keep it to myself but isnt because of you. I wish you and me could have a way in which can we meet personally so we can share many of our experiences and our opinions toward it, Since i have refrain to share it in here because I want to focus on the facts and not of what I think about it.

Since I had left, is have been another story in my life since it has been difficult for me to re-integrate into society and cope with the normal ways of life due to their extremist doctrines. I would like to share this and many more with you and more X-COG members outside of this forum if its possible. Hope to hear from you soon.

Unfortunately, this is how COG members reply to people who ask them to question their beliefs.. they do not back up anything they say with true biblical backup, only with words that seem smart but in essence show ignorance and illogical belief in something they don't even care to seek truth in. It doesn't matter WHAT your religion is – you must think like a skeptic before you believe. Why is this? Because there are many christians who believe Jesus is Lord, and many Muslims who claim Allah is God, and many atheists who have valid points that claim there is no God. If you don't research each side of the glass, how do you know for certain your God is the right God? You must research all religious texts, seek all scientific facts, then study the Bible in depth, and then God will reveal to you His word is the only infallible word existing.

Finally, why would a person claim such secrets to himself and not to non-believers? I would think non-believers need to know the secret of God more than the believer. Jesus Christ has no secrets – He reveals all in His word and in His truth. Not to mention, why wouldn't he prove his belief is true with biblical truth??

1 Peter 3:15-16 (New King James Version)

15 But sanctify the Lord God[a] in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear; 16 having a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed.

From the response via email I received above, does that look like a defense of faith? Does it seem gentle? This fellow blocked me from emailing him on FaceBook ever again also.. He has no care for my soul and does not show love in his response..

I always pay my tithes in full, until they demanded more arrogantly. I even give more than the 10% required and i felt at the time it came from the heart. This however wasn't enough. All offerings are recorded, even the FREE WILL offering. This is done to shame members who don't give enough according to COG standards.

Once my car broke down and i had to take my dads car to church, it was a BMW. After the pastor/overseer saw it he gave me a lecture on BMWs and Mercedes and how they're worthless. Lol.

Yes there are many more weird rules and behavior that the church practice. I can go on talking about it forever. I agree with you that this forum is probably not the best way to share our experiences, since the COG headquarters are constantly keeping track of all conversation on here. I'm 100% sure they have read everything i wrote, lol.

I'll get back to you soonish with a contact so we can contact each other if you wish, I'm more than happy to help anyone out :)

I will be more than happy to keep in contact with any ex-member like I said. Yeah, the reason is that I wouldnt want them to know all there faults because i know they will do anything at their hand to have an excuse for everything that is expose about them. Even to cover it somehow, to make it look it doesnt happen in there. But let me tell you something, I talk about their leader behaviour because I know they would have to put a lot of effort to change the way they behave, because I imagine they live with their arrogance so long that is too dificult for them to be tolerant and humble from night to morning. You makes me laught about the lecture in the Mercedes and BMW's because i know how it is. I would have love if i have the heart to get to church on a bycycle to see now what they going to say. Lol. Probably they will hit me in the service like "If you want to be a mormon or want to copy their style why you dont join the LDS' church?"...lol. I can picture the pastor face and actitud. lol.

Have you heard that someone tried to kill jerusalem mother on a visit to Korea? lol, I think it was with a hammer. That person got caught before he did anything. I think thats the reason why they're being careful on who is allowed to travel to visit her. You must be spiritually prepared and offerings need to be up to standands. These kind of things shows ur faith towards her and limit your chance of doing anything stupid while you're there, lol

CoG is probably twisting the current oil spill disaster every way they can to their advantage. They are probably snorting it up like cocaine over there, lol. Regardless of whether current events usher in the apocalypse or not, it needs to be known that CoG is a well-crafted disinformation campaign and are not whom they claim to be. They are NOT the Church at Ephesus, the first and "true" church run by the apostles two millenia ago. They spin their own clever version of how they are Ephesus restored by 2nd coming christ.

You guys have mentioned above about being lectured by leaders for driving BMW's or higher end cars in general. That is quite amusing, because I have personally seen deacons and missionaries drive in with those types of vehicles. Are they so arrogant to think that nobody would notice the discrepancy, the hypocrisy? Looks like it!

X-COG MEMBERS WANTED: you said -> "But let me tell you something, I talk about their leader behaviour because I know they would have to put a lot of effort to change the way they behave, because I imagine they live with their arrogance so long that is too difficult for them to be tolerant and humble from night to morning."I say you are on the right track for doing it this way. And this is exactly why I prefer to expose their behavior rather than argue scripture with them until both parties are blue in the face. Arguing scripture with them gets nothing done. That's the way they want it. They want to filter out the people who are too difficult to hypnotize by testing the waters with their doctrine ("preaching"). I suspect that talking about their behavior however, makes them uncomfortable. It puts a smile on my face. They are not used to defending against reports of their behavior...for the very reasons you've explained above: it is difficult for them to walk their talk, to be humble and tolerant because they've lived with their arrogance and social + physical vanity for so very long. This technique is probably more effective than arguing over scripture, when it comes to alerting people out there about this KVLTL. Hahah.

I ran across a very informative and stimulating post by somebody in a Yahoo thread regarding CoG's propaganda techniques on the streets and on the internet.

Congratulations to the author, it is very accurate and revealing. I'll post the URL to the entire thread and the person's specific post right below:

<http://answers.yahoo.com/question/index?qid=20100622091741AAkZDdt>

Is Christ Ahnsahnghong REALLY the 2nd Coming? I mean, REALLY?

The members of this extremely strange and coercive cult prowl the streets near Universities and college kid hangouts mostly, anywhere young kids with money and minimal parental supervision are.

They also, if you do a "Search Answers" on Ahnsahnghong, ADORE posting fake Q&A on Yahoo about it. You can tell because the asker is typically a Level 1 with no avatar, and the "Best Answer" is always a very long list of random bible quotes with a short paragraph "and therefore, Ahnsahnghong is the 2nd Coming of Christ and is therefor God, Nyaa!" etc.

Proof, is that some of the people answering this question, will have that answer!!! they're in boiler rooms of internet-ready computers, constantly scouring the web for any criticism of their cult so that they can post their propaganda. Let it be known that such coercive and underhanded tactics are trademark for how they run their church!

I do support the right to Freedom of Religion. If you chose to believe that some 60 year old korean woman who lives in a gold-plated mansion is the wife of God, fine. However, you have the right to not be manipulated and brainwashed by military-grade 1950's era mind control techniques!

What do YOU think? have you seen these people? I have, they sweep through my city every year. They come and go, it's always well dressed, super polite young people with older ones secretly supervising their every move. Join them, and that is YOUR future also!

In all honesty I have mixed feelings about the church and its teaching and a part of me wants to believe it is all true however the other part of me refuses to accept. I just feel that with the knowledge in the bible God has granted me if COG is not the true church yet a lot of its doctrines are true and make PERFECT sense yet other churches don't adhere to such doctrines-and i am not talking about 2nd coming christ or the jerusalem above- then is there really a true church/God? Where is God? Who is God? What is God? These are the questions that roam around my head when thinking this church is false and I'd really REALLY love to listen to what others that are/have been in my position think, feel or have to say about it.

Pls EX COG member, Genny, Kathryn, Skyblue, and anyone else email me at stpcada@yahoo.com to see if we could meet or create a chat room to talk about this matter.

I have not read through all the comments so i do not know what was previously said. But for all of those who believe in the faith spoken by the world mission society church of god, i want to ask you a question. your faith believes that we are only saved through baptism, passover, and worshiping your so call god the mother. Then why did my God find it so worthy to save me from committing suicide before i accepted Him into my life? Why did i feel His hand over my shoulder that stopped me when i didnt even know who He was? why did He answer my prayers when my faith was wrong? If He found it so worthy to come to me in this way, why did He let me follow a protestant faith? why did my God turn my life around and allowed me to be saved through the protestant faith? unless the god you are talking about does not care about those who are lead astray. or did your god not have the power to lead me to the "correct church"?

One of the very first books of the bible i read was John. and one of the things i can never forget from that book is when Jesus told thomas his disciple "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. NO ONE comes to the Father except through ME" (john 14:6) Only through Jesus Christ we can be saved. not through some "god the mother" or the dead ahnsahng hong, "the second coming of jesus".

another point i would like to make is in the book of revelation. it is a confusing book which leaves it up for many interpretations (which is how many churches similar to the world mission society church of god was formed). but something that is said loud and clear is a verse i have engraved in my heart because that is what i am looking forward to when God descends for the second and last time to our earth. it says "and i heard a loud voice from the throne saying, now the dwelling of God is with men and He will live with them... He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death, or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away" (Revelation 21:3-4) Now you are free to actually read the rest of that but what i have written is my point. revelation talks about the second coming of Jesus, when we are finally reunited with God. if ahnsahng hong was jesus then why did i cry when i read your comments about your faith? why are people still dying? why are people still hurting? why isnt God on his throne instead of the world leaders? and why hasnt God struck me down yet for my lack of correct faith?

this is not a discussion about whether your church is a cult or not. it is a discussion about who God is. and i refuse to believe in a God that sent His one and only Son to die for our sins but was not enough to save us. i refuse to believe in a unkind God who will only reward us for just our works and not solely our faith. by requiring us to be baptized, celebrate the passover and requiring many other things in order to be saved means that your god does not love everyone he created. will those who truly accept Christ in their hearts and souls on their deathbed not be saved because they have done no works for him? if your god plays favorites then who would want to believe in that faith instead of my God who loves everyone, even sinners, equally and rewards you for just simply loving Him back with all we have?

I love my Lord with all my heart and all my soul and all my mind. Jesus Christ, the Son of God who is sinless, died for our sins. is that not enough? the most well known and most remembered verses in the bible is John 3:16 "for God so loved the world that He gave his one and only Son that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life". this is what our Christian faith is based on. John did not say "for God so loved the world that He gave his one and only Son that whoever believes in Him, whoever does works for him, who is baptized for him shall not perish but have eternal life". unless you are telling me that John was wrong thus the bible, which contains the truth, is flawed.

i cant tell you that your faith is completely wrong because you do use the bible however some of your verses are taken out of context and some of the verses are meant to be parables or things not meant to be taken literally. but if what you are saying is true and the second coming of jesus already occurred then that means what was said in revelation is here. why arent the people from other faiths struck down yet? why hasnt God judged us for our sins? why has our sick world order not been replaced by God's new and perfect order?

I am waiting for my God to return to the earth so that we may live in peace and rejoice that our days of sin and sorrow gone. if your second coming of jesus is already here then why are we still here arguing with us? what are you waiting for? dont you have a perfect order to go to?

if you still believe that ahnsahnghong is was second coming of jesus then i would advise you to read revelation and find out what the real second coming of Jesus means and look out at the world around you and tell me if it's here.

My name is Cloe. I've been meaning to do this for awhile but, i couldn't bring my self to do so until now. I am an ex-member of the World Mission Society Church of God. My choice in leaving the church was rather a turbulent and disappointing one to say the least. But what's driving me to speak about this now with everyone is the overwhelming similarities of various experiences I felt and delt with throughout me being involved in that church. I sat here for the last 45 mins. reading various blogs and I must say I'M STUNNED! I THOUGHT I WAS ALONE IN THIS. FROM THE TIME I WAS BAPTISED, PASSOVER , CELEBRATING THE FEAST,SABBATH DAY & PREACHING I WAS DISGUSTED BY THE WAY I WAS TREATED & THE ABUNDANCE OF IGNORANTS. IT'S AMAZING TO SEE ALL OF THIS AS I NEVER LOOKED AT THE INTERNET TO LOOK UP ANYTHING ABOUT THE CHURCH (AND THEY DEFINETELY WARNED MEMBERS ABOUT THIS) I WAS MORE OR LESS FOCUSED ON HOW THEY REFERED TO THINGS HISTORICALLY. I DON'T WANT TO WRITE TO MUCH AS I STILL FEAR THEY MAY TRY AND CONTACT ME SOME HOW.....YOU KNOW THE MATRIX IS WATCHING!!!!LOL BUT TO ANYONE WHO IS HOLDING ON TO ANY DOUGHT OR QUESTIONING ANYTHING I TELL YOU NOWRUN AND DON'T LOOK BACK. I TRUELY BELIEVE NOWWW

MORE THAT EVER GOD ALLOWED ME TO EXPERIENCE THIS AND TO MAKE THE FAITH I THOUGHT I DIDN'T HAVE SHINE THRU. I REALLY MEAN THIS....RUN...RUN AND DON'T LOOK BACK THIS CHURCH IS NO GOOD. I'V BEEN GOOD SINCE 4/15/10 AND I HAVEN'T LOOKED BACK....RUN!!!

My response to you CloeStar82, dont be afraid, speak out loudly what you have experienced. There is nothing that you have to be afraid of. In my opinion they are the ones that have to be afraid of people like you and I because we dont owe them nothing but they have took from us, ALL. How much of your time have you given to them, with their doctrine of "finding the lost brothers and sisters" (preaching), How many things did you have to give up like school, family or work to keep up with their demands, How much did you tolerated their humiliation and rudness because you did a mistake or something that was not according to their rules, How much you have given them fanacially in thithes, offerings and free will offerings? Now ask yourself this questions and conclude if you really have to be afraid.

What Cloe says is true. What all the critics say is true. I have seen it firsthand by visiting the "church" and by observing what they have done to my son. I just read about their "church" at 305 Godwin Ave., in Ridgewood New Jersey. The community is in an uproar. All kinds of people in that neighborhood went in to the Village Council meeting to complain about the "church" in their midst and it's activities. They harrass people, have church services (which spill out into the parking lot and make a racket) at least 18-20 hours per day. One day they even had a guy with a bullhorn up on the roof of the church shouting to the people int he parking lot. They have made it tough to find parking spaces in front of the people with homes there, and they get obnoxious if someone tries to talk to them about any of this. Four men accosted a teenage boy who cut across the church parking lot to visit a friend, as he had always done before they were there. They asked him what he wasd doing there and told him to get off church property and never come back. I'm surprised they didn't try to recruit him, as they have nbeen aggressively, obnoxiously recruiting other teens, and there are reports of them hanging around the schools badgering kids as young as middle schoolers to join them. They were texting and calling one couples 8th grader incessantly. This is a problem, but people such as law enforcement and so forth are afraid to touch it because they mistakenly think they would be messing with issues of religious freedom. This issue doesn't have to do with their beliefs, it's their BEHAVIOR, and the HARM they do to others. What about the rights of those people in Ridgewood to enjoy their homes without blaring noises, car doors slamming, motors, and car alarms going off all over at all hours of the night and day? This will become a problem wherever the COG goes, and they do not respond to reason. They don't

I tried to print it out so I would have it, but my printer wasn't working. It was in their notes from a recent meeting, can't remember the exact date, but someone there had also come in the year before and complained, and nothing was done. There were quite a few people there protesting their obnoxious behavior. I am still looking, trying to find it, but somehow I can't locate it now. Any person living in that immediate residential area would be a great source of info as well. They are very unhappy with the aggressive, obnoxious behavior of the members. I am desperately looking for EX Cog members to connect with as well. Those people would be very valuable resources.

I am an ex-church of god member. What I can tell you is the front door is never used to get inside unless they opened in special occasions like Passover feast or any other festivities. You must go in through the side door that is located through the sidewalk which leads to the parking lot.

"Just believing" isn't good enough. You need actions to support those beliefs.

Reply

Zero love in the CoG, all hypocrisy, fear mongering and controlling.

Not only is action needed, but proof is also needed. Sure, faith is the most essential, but if christians place all of their faith in God, then in order to be a true Christian one must have faith in the Bible, the one Holy book that makes the truth of God known to man physically. The Bible is our evidence book. The COG has their own evidence book with a bunch of stuff that may or may not be true, but the biggest error they have is their "facts" proving Ahn Sang Hong to be Jesus Christ's second coming.

By: Pierce on August 15, 2010
at 3:18 pm

Reply

This is because Jesus was clearly Jewish and NOT Korean. It might be slightly believable if Ahn Sang Hong were a Jewish man living in Korea, but he is not – he was a Korean man who died and is buried in a grave. I say this with full confidence that he did not ascend to heaven, because the Bible says this:

Acts 13:34 The fact that God raised him from the dead, never to decay, is stated in these words: "I will give you the holy and sure blessings promised to David".

Hebrews 13:8 "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever".

Revelation 3:12 "Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of my God. Never again will he leave it. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on him my new name".

These verses do NOT point out a new body, but rather a same Jesus Christ that died on a cross and was resurrected. This same Christ who showed scars on his hands from the nails to doubting Thomas will return one day with a glorified body, and we cannot know for sure but can assume He might just have those scars remaining. The only difference I see in Jesus' return is the new name, which does NOT imply in any way that He will have a new body. A name is an identity or persona, not a new body or beginning. A name changes nothing except gives one new meaning. This will be the name of our God who will conquer the corrupted earth and re-create it to the paradise it was meant to be.

What I'm getting at is you cannot twist Bible verses to your own liking – that is a heresy. Certainly, some verses are two-fold and can be interpreted several ways, but verses concerning Jesus are clearly straight-forward and no puzzle to piece together. Jesus Christ was Jewish, is Jewish, thus if and when He returns He will be physically Jewish and NOT Korean, African, Hispanic, American, what have you. You cannot look me straight in the eye and tell me otherwise, there is no verse to prove a Korean man to be Christ. That would make reincarnation a perfectly okay belief in Christianity, yet christians would call that a heresy.

Just believing IS ENOUGH. If you faithfully believe with all your heart who the God in the bible is then good works will come out of it because of your love for God. It is not a ritual. It is not a requirement. It is absolutely nothing more than an honest loving work that you do for Christ. It is not to gain His favor. If our salvation depended on works then we would ALL be condemned to hell. Not one of us can earn the gift of salvation. It is given through grace and grace alone. And the good deeds we do are just out of love for our God, not because we are trying to gain His favor or guarantee our spot in heaven. NOTHING we can ever do on earth can help us get into heaven. No amount of money or gifts given to the church can give us salvation. You can't tell people that getting baptized or giving whatever amount of money the church wants will help them be saved (as the CoG is telling people) because we can never be able to earn salvation.

So yes, just simply believing with all your heart who the God in the bible is is enough. After all, isn't this what separates Christianity from religions? We believe in a God that loves us so much that gaining eternal life is just as easy as truly believing. True belief in the God in the bible will lead you to doing good deeds to serve the God who you love with all your heart, not to gain His favor but to have joy that you are serving the God who loves you.

Only believe? Let's see how God will judge us in Judgement day.

11Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. Earth and sky fled from his presence, and there was no place for them. 12And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. THE DEAD WERE JUDGE ACCORDING TO WHAT THEY HAD DONE as recorded in the books. 13The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and each person was judged according to what he had done. 14Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. 14What good is it, my brothers, if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save him? 15Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food. 16If one of you says to him, "Go, I wish you well; keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about his physical needs, what good is it? 17In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do.

The Scriptures testify about Jesus. They do NOT testify about a Korean Christ (Ahnsahnghong) and a second god, "Mother".

If you think the Scriptures testify about Ahnsahnghong as the christ and "Mother" as a second god, then please show me. You can start with a list of ALL the verses that talk about "Mother God", not just a few debatable ones. And not a long sermon please, just a list of verses should be sufficient. After all, Old Testament verses about Jesus are clear without lots of explanations.
You can reach me here:

I look forward to hearing from you, GodExists, or anyone else who can give me that list of verses about "Mother." You all always say that "Mother" is testified "all throughout the Bible"—well, show me.

For our salvation, God divided six thousand years into three ages : the age of the Father, the age of the Son, and the age of the Holy Spirit, and He allowed a different Savior's name for each of these ages-the name of Jehovah in the age of the Father, the name Jesus in the age of the Son, and the name Ahnsahnghong in the age of the Holy Spirit.

Now we are living during the last age of the Holy Spirit. Thus, God has been administrating His plan of salvation, using the new Savior's name, the name of the Holy Spirit-Ahnsahnghong. Salvation is only given to those who believe in the name of the Savior that God has allowed to the people living in that particular age. Because we are now living in the age of the Holy Spirit, we must receive the Holy Spirit, Ahnsahnghong, as the Savior of this age.

Age of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit

Eccl. 3:1, KJV To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven...

In this world, everyone has a certain goal and purpose for their lives. Likewise, we should set a certain goal for our faith: the salvation of our souls, eternal life.

1 Pet. 1:8-9 Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, for you are receiving the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

In order for His people to receive salvation, God divided six thousand years into three ages, and allowed a different Savior's name for each age.

Matt. 28:19 "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

As is commonly known, the name of the Father is "Jehovah," and the name of the Son is "Jesus." Baptism is the first step that we can take towards becoming a child of God, and to be baptized correctly, we must first know the name of the Father, the name of the Son, and the name of the Holy Spirit.

The Savior in the Age of the Father

The most important aspect of our salvation is to know, and to receive, the name of the Savior. During the age of the Father, God granted salvation to those who believed in the name of Jehovah.

Isa. 43:11 11I, I am Jehovah; and besides me there is no saviour..

In the age of the Father, salvation was dependent upon knowing and accepting the name of Jehovah. Therefore, salvation was not given to those living in the age of the Father, who either didn't know, or who refused to accept, the name of Jehovah.

When the age of the Father ended and the age of the Son began, Jehovah came in the flesh, using the name "Jesus," as had been prophesied (Isa. 9:6-7).

The Savior in the Age of the Son

The Bible states that in the age of the Father there was no Savior apart from Jehovah, and that in the age of the Son there was no Savior apart from Jesus.

Acts 4:11-12 "He is 'the stone you builders rejected, which has become the capstone.' Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved."

When God gave the names of Jehovah and Jesus to the people, He did not explain that each of these Savior's names would only be used for a specific time period or age. Thus, many people have become confused, believing that the Bible contradicts itself.

With a full understanding of the Trinity, however, you will realize that the above verses hold no contradictions. Jesus is in His very nature God (Phil. 2:5), the very God Jehovah who granted salvation during the age of the Father. Since Jesus is, in fact, Jehovah, there is no contradiction between "There is no savior apart from Jehovah," and, "There is no other name given to men by which we must be saved (apart from the name of Jesus.)"

During each age God allowed a different name of the Savior, and thus, each age also had a specified time frame and limit. In other words, salvation was given to those who had accepted the name of Jehovah in the age of the Father, and once the age changed to the age of the Son, salvation was given to those who pressed on to know and to accept the name of Jesus.

When God gave the name Jesus to the people-the Savior's name in the age of the Son-only those who believed and called upon the name of Jesus Christ were able to receive salvation.

The Savior in the Age of the Holy Spirit
Now we are living in the age of the Holy Spirit.
Thus, God has given us a new name of the Savior.

Rev. 3:12 "Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of my God. Never again will he leave it. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on him my new name."

Rev. 2:17 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden manna. I will also give him a white stone with a new name written on it, known only to him who receives it."

A "white stone with a new name written on it" is mentioned in the above verse. In this instance, the stone represents Jesus (1 Pet. 2:4), meaning that a new name other than the name of Jesus would be given to the people of that age.

Just as salvation was withheld from those who were stuck on the name of Jehovah and failed to receive Jesus as their Savior in the age of the Son (Rom. 15:4), salvation will never be given to those who are stuck on the name of Jesus in this age.

Those who had accepted the name of Jehovah for 3,500 years were not able to accept the name of Jesus in the age of the Son. Only the disciples accepted Jesus, the Savior in the age of the Son, who had come as prophesied. The Bible prophesied that there would be a Savior in the age of the Son. Even though Jesus came in fulfillment of all these prophecies, the people insisted on believing in only Jehovah, following their own ideas instead of Bible's prophecy. Where are all of the people who lived in the age of the Son and who refused to accept Jesus as their Savior?

We must consider this matter carefully and break our own fixed ideas, allowing our minds to accept God's thoughts. The Bible testifies that there will undoubtedly be a name for the Savior of the Holy Spirit's age. We need to understand God's providence of salvation-His allowing a different Savior's name for each age-and we need to accept Christ Ahnsahnghong, the Savior's name in this age of the Holy Spirit, Jesus' new name.

Witness, Prayer, and Salvation in Each Age

Once we come to understand the time limitations of each age, it is very easy for us to understand how each age affected the salvation of God's people. In the age of the Father, people were the witnesses of Jehovah (Isa. 43:10), they prayed in the name of Jehovah, and salvation was promised only through the name of Jehovah (Joel 2:32).

Once the age of the Son had begun, how did the people, who were to receive salvation, act? Did they insist on praying in the name of Jehovah as the witnesses of Jehovah, believing that they could only be saved through the name of Jehovah? Jesus' disciples became the witnesses of Jesus (Acts 1:6), they prayed in the name of Jesus (John 16:24), and they received salvation only by believing the name of Jesus (Rom. 10:9).

Then, in the age of the Holy Spirit, of what name should we become the witnesses, what name should we use when we pray, and what name has the authority to give us salvation?

The name is Ahnsahnghong, Jesus' new name (John 5:39).

Everyone living in this last age of the Holy Spirit! Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Savior of this age! Today, salvation is only given through the name of Christ Ahnsahnghong, and only those who are the witnesses of Christ Ahnsahnghong and pray in His name will be able to enter the kingdom of heaven.

Please believe in Christ Ahnsahnghong, our Savior in the age of the Holy Spirit, so that you may receive eternal life!

Here's a good question for those COG fellows:

If there are to be many "Churches of God", then why is it so hard to find one in Seattle via the web? I found out about them through a person I used to work with before I was laid off, who bumped into me randomly on a college campus one day and he decided to use that time to finally witness to me. He gave me an address to the church he goes to which I said I might look into it (though I had no intention to except to witness to him).

I asked this ex-co-worker for a website to the local "COG" website, and he could give me none. He said it's cause he has no PC, but I looked up the site he gave me which was the official WMSCOG site, but there are no links to local church campuses locally in the Seattle area.

If they're so gung-ho on reaching the world for their "lost souls", why do they not advertise their church better? where are the local church websites for people to go to? It's because they have secrets and they want their members to draw people in on it without drawing too many all at once, just like any small-but-growing cult :)

well pardon me, but where in the bloody hell do I even find a local church? I thought these guys are "church of god"? They ain't spreading the news and getting people plugged in very well, are they?

Let's face it: the TRUE church of God (the one that believes in a glorious second coming and no heavenly "mother") has no secrets to hide, no members only folders, and no bull honkey. There will be resources everywhere to get one plugged in easily without hardship :)

Exactly, Pierce. They don't want you to come to their church unless they personally recruited you. I was in Seattle recently and tried to find their church there out of curiosity. Ran into the same trouble you did. They recruit you, assign one over one discipleship (someone to watch your movements and "mentor" you) or you aren't welcome, apparently. There is one in Portland, Oregon, as well, and it is the same story. They are secretive for a reason and it is all based on their need for deception and control. Dincarnation1, I know you are totally sincere in your comments. It is all about money and control over your life. I sympathize with the brainwashing your daughter is going through. It is awful. They have a hold on my son that will not end untill they can't get any more money from him. He cannot see it because we can't get him away from them for any amount of time. He is so blind.

The Feasta of Trumpets (also called Rosh Hashanah or Yom Teruah) is supposed to be held on the "first day of the seventh month" (Lev. 23:24)

By: genny on September 10, 2010 at 2:47 am

Passover occurs in the first month (Lev. 23:5).

Reply

BUT counting from when the WMSCOG kept Passover this year, they have their Feast of Trumpets scheduled for the EIGHTH month, not the seventh. It's like this:

Let's look at this year 2010—
The WMSCOG kept Passover on March 29.
So the new moon of March 15 marks the first month.
The new moon of April 14 begins the second month.
The new moon of May 13 begins the third month.
The new moon of June 12 begins the fourth month.
The new moon of July 11 begins the fifth month.
The new moon of August 9 begins the sixth month.
The new moon of September 8 begins the seventh month.
The new moon of October 7 begins the eighth month.

The WMSCOG has their Feast of Trumpets scheduled for Oct. 8, 2010.
They are always sticklers for keeping the Feasts at their correct date and time.
Why are they keeping this year's Feast of Trumpets/Day of Atonement/Feast of Tabernacles in the eighth month instead of the seventh month?

I think their excuse will be something about that these dates are supposed to be in the autumn season, and Sept. 8 is not officially fall yet. But that doesn't matter. Fall will have officially started before this series of Feasts is finished. And the Bible says that these dates must be in the seventh month.

A similar thing happened in 2005 and 2008. (If you need more details about that, go to <http://encountering-ahnsahng hong.blogspot.com>)

It's just another thing that makes it SO CLEAR to me that Mother Jerusalem is NOT God! She can't even arrange her own church's calendar to follow her own teachings.

PS—please visit Rick's websites too (previous post)—they're great resources.

Genny,

Thank you for pointing out still another contradiction of the COG. They are so adamant that a member MUST attend church on Saturday, MUST go on Tuesday, and MUST go on Passover, yet they feel free to change anything that doesn't suit them whenever they feel like it. Also, they often say they want to "shout it from the rooftops" about the Mother, yet they hide their church locations. My son said there is one in Portland and also in Seattle, and I know there are, but you can find absolutely nothing about their locations. You can't find their churches unless they want you to. You have to have a "code" to use on the internet, or you can find nothing. I guess they don't want any drop-ins. Just can't imagine why.

The latest thing they have talked my son into is fasting. No food, and NO WATER for 3 days! Of course, they would like him to go longer, as his Pastor told him he went 5 days once, and "The Mother" went 7 days. I have heard that a person can only go without water 3 days! How could they have gone 5-7 days? Since the feasts are coming up in October, I suppose the sleep deprivation of going to 5 AM services and also till late at night for three weeks, and then food and water deprivation also, makes for the exact conditions they need for classic brainwashing techniques. My son is taking medications for depression, which has worsened tremendously since his involvement with the church. I am not sure how taking his medications will work with this encouragement to fast and forego sleep, but I feel it will be disastrous. I am so worried about his health and mental state. His wife has tried to dissuade him, but he gets so angry when she says anything contrary to what the church says, that she is actually afraid, and for good reason. Also, apparently, when my son went to Korea, the Mother told him through an interpreter that his wife will go to heaven. She has told my son she will never join the church, so how can this be? Another contradiction. Of course, my son has stepped up his harassment of her to attend, because he took that statement as a sign that she will eventually join. He will lose this wonderful girl who has loved him so thoroughly and put up with so much, and he will never get another like her. It is such a shame. She told the Pastor his involvement with the church is destroying their marriage, but they actually stepped up their control methods as a result. They get control of all his free time, so that he has NO time for his wife anymore. The only way she can be with him is to go to church functions, and she will not.

Genny, I will find a way to present this contradiction about the Feast of Trumpets to my son in a questioning way to get him to possibly figure out that they bend rules when it suits them. Yet their members can NEVER disobey rules or they are told they will lose salvation, or "be injured." Pure manipulation.

If the Church of God is a Cult! Then Christianity itself is a cult

By: Bell on September 21, 2010
at 2:04 pm

Reply

When reading the cult watch website you come across a section entitled: "How does the WMS Church of God brainwash its members?" In this section Ted goes through a checklist of what he calls "coercive techniques." Ted considers these techniques as guidelines to qualify a group as a cult. However if we are going to judge what a cult is according to these techniques, then Christianity itself is the biggest cult to ever exist. How can this be possible? Let us see through verses from the Bible:

1) Cults Claim to Have all Knowing leadership:

John 21:17 {the third time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep."}

2) Cults only teach you up to what you are able to believe:

Hebrews 5:11 {We much to say about this, but it is hard to explain because you are slow to learn.}

3) Cults claim no room for differences (Everybody is the same):

Colossians 3:11 {Here there is no Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all, and is in all.}

4) Cults claim to introduce a new and better way:

Hebrews 7:18-19 {the former regulation is set aside because it was weak and useless (for the law made nothing perfect), and a better hope is introduced, by which we draw near to God.}

5) Cult members should imitate cult leader:

Philippians 2:5 {your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus}

Also Colossians 3:11 of example 3.

6) Cults isolate you from your family:

Matthew 10:37 {anyone who loves his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me}

7) Cults Brainwash ignorant and people who have no critical thinking.

Acts 4:13 {when they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus.}

8) Cults Recruit people:

Mk 16:15-16 {He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned}

9) Cults always claim Persecution of the Leader:

Acts 22:6-8 {"About noon as I came near Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me. I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, 'Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?' 'Who are you, Lord?' I asked " 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting,' he replied.}

10) Cults have ignorant leaders:

John 7:14-16 {Not until halfway through the Feast did Jesus go up to the temple courts and begin to teach. The Jews were amazed and asked, "How did this man get such learning without having studied?"}

11) Cults try to keep members busy:

Acts 2:46-47 {every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.}

12) Cult leaders always try to gain your trust:

John 14:1 {"Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me"}

13) Cults believe that by your actions you prove your faith:

James 2:17 {in the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.}

14) Cults claim salvation is through obedience before the end comes:

Matthew 24:42 {"Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come."}

15) Cults make members dependant to the cult leader:

John 15:5 {"I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing."}

16) Cults claim that there is no exit apart from the cult:

John 6:67-68 {"You do not want to leave too, do you?" Jesus asked the Twelve. Simon Peter answered him "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life."}

17) Cult members claim to have "Spiritual Battles":

Ephesians 6:12 {for our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.}

18) Cults try to keep things secret:

Matthew 17:9 {As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, "Don't tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."}

19) Cult leaders claim to be the only way, and supreme authority:

John 14:6 {Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."}

And for the sake of space and time, I omitted the teachings of: Judaism, Mohammed, Buddha, Martin Luther King, Nelson Mandela, Mahatma Gandhi, Copernicus, Galileo...etc.

If we are going to judge groups and organizations by these standards, then every single organization and religion is a cult. We should not judge the Church of God by these standards, rather we should see if the teachings that the Church practices come from God or not. To label the World Mission Society Church of God as a cult is no different from when the Jewish religious leaders called the Apostles a Nazarene sect. Please don't commit the same mistake as 2,000 years ago.

Karen and Genny, do you have any access to former members? It would be helpful. I have read Hassan's book "Releasing the Bonds", and it really did help my state of mind. I am doing all I can to follow what he is saying to do as far as keeping contact and being as positive with my son as I possibly can. I hope to get my son to a place where he can open up and we can have frank conversations, and then maybe I can make some headway.

Hello Mountain Mom, your son is doing what he believes is right to do.
Why do you love your son so much??
Didn't Jesus said that "Anyone who loves his mother or father or anything else is not worthy of Me". Your son is doing right in the Lord.
Anyway, do you read the Bible??
I think you love reading other books than the Bible.
Get to know the Lord through the Bible itself.

The character Abraham is used to represent God in the Bible. Through the history of Abraham's family, God has revealed to us how we can inherit the kingdom of heaven.

Reply

Isaac was the one who received Abraham's inheritance. Even though Abraham had another son named Ishmael, born through Hagar, God did not allow Ishmael to receive the inheritance of Abraham. Rather, God bestowed the inheritance upon Isaac, who was born through Sarah. The reason why Isaac was chosen as Abraham's heir was that Isaac was the son of Sarah, who was free. This history shows us that the heavenly inheritance will be given to those who are born of the heavenly Mother, who is free.

Christ Ahnsahnghong taught us that our heavenly Mother does in fact exist and that She is truly the biggest mystery hidden within the Bible.

Let us study "The History of Abraham's Family and Mother," taught to us by Christ Ahnsahnghong.

Abraham Represents God

First of all, we need to recognize who the character Abraham represents in the Bible.

Luke 16:19-31 "...The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. In hell, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. So he called to him, 'Father Abraham...'

As you know, this parable is about a beggar, named Lazarus, and a rich man. The parable tells of Lazarus, who died and was carried to heaven, and a rich man, who was sent to hell to be tormented. Lazarus was obviously carried to God's side after he had died; however, the Bible states that Lazarus traveled to Abraham's side. In the parable, the rich man, who went to hell, called up to God in the distance; however, the Bible states that the man saw Abraham, and called up to him, saying, "Father Abraham." Who is the only one who is worthy to be called "Father" in the spiritual world? God is the only one who can be called upon in this way. Then, whom does Abraham represent? Logically, the character Abraham was chosen to represent God. Therefore, the inheritance of Abraham can be likened to the inheritance of God, the kingdom of heaven.

Isaac, the Heir of Abraham

Then, let us find out who was appointed as Abraham's heir. There were three candidates who could have been chosen as the heir of Abraham: Eliezer, Ishmael, and Isaac. Among them, who became Abraham's heir? It was Isaac who was appointed. We need to understand the reason why Isaac was chosen to be Abraham's heir.

Gen. 15:1-4 "...But Abram said, "O Sovereign LORD, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir." Then the word of the LORD came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir."

When Abraham was an old man and had not yet borne a son, he asked God to allow his servant Eliezer to be his heir. However, God did not allow Eliezer to become Abraham's heir, revealing that a son would be born from Abraham's own body and that he would become his heir. Some time later, Hagar, Sarah's maidservant, bore Abraham a son: Ishmael.

Gen. 16:1-15 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. But she had an Egyptian maidservant named Hagar; so she said to Abram, "The LORD has kept me from having children. Go, sleep with my maidservant; perhaps I can build a family through her." Abram agreed to what Sarai said...So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son she had borne.

Ishmael was born to Abraham through a maidservant named Hagar, and Abraham asked God to allow Ishmael to become his heir.

Gen. 17:18-19 And Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing!" Then God said, "Yes, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will call him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.

When Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing," God did not allow Ishmael to become his heir. Instead, God promised Abraham that he would have a son through his wife, Sarah. Isaac was born as God had promised, and of the three?Eliezer, Ishmael, and Isaac?Isaac was chosen to be Abraham's heir.

The Key Factor in Deciding an Heir Is "Mother"
Let's study the reason why God chose Isaac to be Abraham's heir. Both Eliezer's father and his mother were slaves, neither of them was free. This is the reason why God did not allow him to be Abraham's heir. Ishmael's father, Abraham, was free, but his mother, Hagar, was a slave and not a free woman. This is why God could not allow Ishmael to become Abraham's heir. Isaac's father, Abraham, was a free man, and his mother, Sarah, was a free woman. The fact that Isaac had been born of a free woman was the big difference between Ishmael and Isaac, and this discrepancy became the key factor in choosing Abraham's heir.

In those days, the eldest son inherited all of his family's property. Since Ishmael was older than Isaac, he should have become the heir? that is, if God had made His decision according to the paternal line. Ishmael was not chosen to become Abraham's heir, even though he was Abraham's eldest son, because his mother was not a free woman, but a slave. Thus, it is clear that the decisive factor in choosing Abraham's heir was his mother.

What we need to focus on while studying the history of Abraham's family is not merely the story of a man and his family. As you know, the Bible is not a storybook to tell us of men and their families. Nevertheless, God repeatedly mentioned the story of this particular family. Actually, the history of Abraham was a shadow of what was to happen in the future. In order for us to know who could become God's heir, the story of Abraham's family was written, as a prophecy.

Therefore, through the history of Abraham's family, we can clearly understand that the decisive factor in choosing an heir is the mother. As Isaac became Abraham's heir through Sarah, his free mother, we can become God's heirs through our heavenly Mother, who is a free woman. Only those who believe in the heavenly Mother?only the children who are born through the new covenant?can inherit the heavenly Father's kingdom. Let us read one more verse testifying about the heavenly Mother.

Gal. 4:22-31 ...But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother...Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

The Bible declares that we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman. Ishmael could not inherit his father's estate because his mother, Hagar, was only a slave, not a free woman. On the other hand, Isaac was chosen to become Abraham's heir because his mother, Sarah, was a free woman. The Bible also testifies that we, like Isaac, are the children of promise, the children of the heavenly Mother, who is free.

In today's world, there are three types of people: those who are like Eliezer, those like Ishmael, and those who are like Isaac. The first type of people, who are like Eliezer, are atheists, who do not believe in Father God or in Mother God. The second type of people, who are like Ishmael, are those who believe in Father God, but do not believe in Mother God. The third type of people, who are like Isaac, are those who believe in Mother God as well as Father God. According to the history of Abraham's family, which one of these three types can become an heir of the kingdom of heaven? Only the third type of people, who are like Isaac, can be recognized as God's heirs. There is no doubt about it.

Which group of people do you want to be classified with? If you want to be like Isaac, you must first become a child of the free woman. Thus, you must accept the heavenly Mother, who is free. The Bible testifies to this fact.

God said, "My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge" (Hos. 4:6). What kind of knowledge is God referring to in this verse? We must recognize that we have a God the Mother, as well as a God the Father. We must accept Elohim God. Also, we must firmly believe that God is our Mother, who gives us salvation alongside our Father. Only after we come to realize this can we say that we have the knowledge of God, and that we will not be those who are destroyed from a "lack of knowledge."

The Bible testifies that the Holy Spirit is God Ahnsahnghong, and that the Bride is Jerusalem Mother. Let us accept God Ahnsahnghong, the Holy Spirit, and Jerusalem Mother, the Bride, who give us the water of life in these last days, so that we can enter the kingdom of heaven.

You WMSCOG folks DO believe that throwing Bible verses around only can come straight back to you in a circle, right? Just as you throw out at us "Contemporary Christian" church-goer "heathens" the verse about "diligently studying scripture" but not knowing God's truth.... the same can apply to you as well, I hope you realize.

Watch what you say and do. It is not your proselytizing nor your fancy wording or knowledge of scripture that will win people over to Christ; moreover, it is the joy of salvation through the Holy Spirit living within a person, that in the Father is found restoration through Jesus Christ. Because of the Father's love for us, we too love Him and His creation also. It is only natural for the true Christian to love people if he genuinely loves God..

thus, I encourage you COG believers to look deep inside of your doctrine. do your pastors encourage you to love others? Don't you see the truth behind the ex-COG members' stories? They all have one common theme: threats and phonecalls if ever they backslide or turn from faith. Jesus certainly taught the church to have discipline and order in the church, but never to force religion or try to persuade an unbeliever, nor to resent our brother who has fallen into temptation and threaten them if they don't stand back up. They will know we are christians by our love, and they'll know who the anti-christ is by the hatred. Ahn Sang Hong's religion turned out to be a blasphemous hate-spreading animosity.

The Bible testifies about God; it testifies of Elohim [Gods]—God the Father and God the Mother. The 66 books of the Bible consistently speak not only the truth about God the Father but also the truth about God the Mother, through the relationship between Adam and Eve, the history of Abraham's Family, the prophecy of the New Jerusalem, and so on.

To know Christ as the Father and Mother is the greatest mystery of the Bible. The god of this world [the devil] has blinded people's minds, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ (2 Co 4:4).

Only those who are redeemed through the blood of Christ can receive wisdom and understanding from God and realize the mystery of God.

Solomon's wise judgment

Solomon is known as the wisest man in the world. He was the son of King David and the third king of Israel. He was famous for his wisdom; people from all nations came to hear his wisdom.

The Bible records that Solomon was given wisdom by God. He offered a thousand burnt offerings and prayed earnestly, and God appeared to him in a dream. Then he asked God for wisdom and understanding to discern justice. There continuously arose many disputes among his people; so he asked for wisdom to become a fair judge as their king, that he might discern right and wrong and none of them would suffer the injustice of being subject to a bad judgment.

God granted him not only the wisdom, but also the riches and honor which he did not ask for. King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. God's wisdom was reflected in Solomon's decision. Among all his judicial decisions, the Bible precisely records only one case in which he discovered who the true mother was.

1 Ki 3:16-28 . . . One of them said, "My lord, this woman and I live in the same house . . . The third day after my child was born, this woman also had a baby. We were alone; there was no one in the house but the two of us. During the night this woman's son died because she lay on him . . . So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side while I your servant was asleep. She put him by her breast and put her dead son by my breast. The next morning, I got up to nurse my son—and he was dead! But when I looked at him closely in the morning light, I saw that it wasn't the son I had borne." The other woman said, "No! The living one is my son; the dead one is yours." But the first one insisted, "No! The dead one is yours; the living one is mine." And so they argued before the king. The king said, ". . . Bring me a sword." So they brought a sword for the king. He then gave an order: "Cut the living child in two and give half to one and half to the other." The woman whose son was alive was filled with compassion for her son and said to the king, "Please, my lord, give her the living baby! Don't kill him!" But the other said, "Neither I nor you shall have him. Cut him in two!" Then the king gave his ruling: "Give the living baby to the first woman. Do not kill him; she is his mother." When all Israel heard the verdict the king had given, they held the king in awe, because they saw that he had wisdom from God to administer justice.

There was no witness, and the two women in dispute over one living baby appealed to Solomon for justice, each claiming to be the birth mother of the living child. Solomon discovered the true mother of the baby by her love for her child, and returned the living son to her.

In Solomon's judgment, we find out that his God-given wisdom enabled him to discern the true mother. The Bible testifies of God, and everything that was written in the past was written to teach us (Jn 5:39; Ro 15:4). The story of Solomon's judgment between the two mothers was not written to admire his wisdom, but to testify of God and teach us something spiritual.

God's wisdom manifested in Solomon's judgment
God gave wisdom to Solomon, that he could recognize who the true mother was and gave the real mother back her child. Likewise, God in His wisdom has made known to us the heavenly Mother. We have received our heavenly Mother; like Solomon, we should help the poor souls wandering aimlessly around the world and let them know who the true Mother is.

Gal 4:26-31 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother. For it is written: "Be glad, O barren woman, who bears no children; break forth and cry aloud, you who have no labor pains; because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband." Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

The Bible clearly tells us that there is our spiritual Mother above (in heaven). We were angels in heaven, but our sins separated us from our Mother and caused us to be cast down to the earth. Because of the sins we had committed in heaven, we lost our memory and couldn't remember our Mother.

Our sins caused our Mother to come from heaven to this earth (Isa 50:1). The Apostle John saw in a vision the new Jerusalem, the Bride of the Lamb, coming down out of heaven. "More are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband." This prophecy implies that our Mother raises Her children alone here on earth after our Father went up to heaven but She has even more children than any woman who has a husband.

The evil one teaches that Mother does not exist. The Bible clearly reveals the existence of the spiritual Mother. However, our wicked enemy the devil has been deceiving all people for thousands of years into believing that Mother does not exist. He teaches lies and people foolishly believe them. In Revelation, we can see that the devil deceives all people living on the earth.

Rev 13:6-15 He opened his mouth to blaspheme God, and to slander his name and his dwelling place and those who live in heaven. He was given power to make war against the saints and to conquer them . . . Because of the signs he was given power to do on behalf of the first beast, he deceived the inhabitants of the earth . . .

The devil is the deceiver of deceivers. When he tempted Eve in the Garden of Eden, he wickedly perverted God's word and deceived her into following his way. And now he is deceiving the inhabitants of the earth into believing that Mother does not exist.

It is clearly recorded in the Bible, "our Mother," so that everybody can easily see. Nevertheless, most people deny the existence of Mother and reject Her. It is because they are spiritually deceived by Satan. Once they are tempted, although we show them clear and convincing evidence that Mother exists, they would not accept it.

1 Jn 5:18-19 We know that anyone born of God does not continue to sin; the one who was born of God keeps him safe, and the evil one cannot harm him. We know that we are children of God, and that the whole world is under the control of the evil one.

We belong to God, but the whole world is under the rule of the evil one. The devil, the wicked one, makes up many lies and teaches them. One of them is that God the Mother does not exist. The whole world has been deceived by his false teaching.

Think of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Eating the fruit of the tree would result in death. However, when Adam and Eve looked at the fruit after being tempted by Satan, it looked good for food, pleasant to the eyes and also desirable to make one wise. Being deceived, they lost the ability to discern between good and evil.

Biblical testimonies to our heavenly Mother
We need to receive wisdom from God like Solomon, in order that we may discern our true Mother. Through the history of Creation in six days, we can clearly find our Father and our Mother as well, the Creators.

Ge 1:26-27 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground." So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

God created man in His own image, then male and female were created in the image of God. This proves that there is the female image of God as well as the male image of God. We call the male image of God "Father." What should we call the female image of God?

When God created man, He said, "Let us make man." It is Elohim [God the Father and God the Mother] who said, "Let us . . ." here.

The devil knows well that if our spiritual eyes are opened to recognize our Mother, his world will be destroyed soon. So what he fears the most is that the glory of our Mother is revealed. Eve was to be the serpent's enemy as described in Genesis.

Ge 3:14-15 So the Lord God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, "Cursed are you above all the livestock and all the wild animals! You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life. And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel."

There is an enmity between the serpent and the woman, the devil and the Mother. God put enmity between them in order to reveal the heavenly Mother to us.

The ancient serpent, the devil, is basically the enemy of our Mother and also the enemy of ours. If those on Mother's side become strong, those on Satan's side naturally become weak. The serpent crushes our heel, but we shall crush his head and finally win the victory over him. While crushing the head is fatal, striking the heel will not cause death.

Under the Old Law, he who did not obey his father and mother was considered evil and put to death (Dt 21:18-21). God's laws given in the Old Testament were only a shadow of the heavenly things. The law in Deuteronomy 21 shows that if one does not obey the spiritual Father and Mother, he will not enter into eternal life but go into destruction.

Unless we find our Mother, we become spiritually orphaned. Satan, who knows this, has deceived the world into believing that there is no Mother.

So the people cannot even imagine that God the Mother exists, calling God, "Father, Father." However, we belong to God; our Father has made known to us our heavenly Mother and brought us into Her arms. We truly give thanks to our Father for this.

Divine providence revealed by the sun and moon and stars
God's existence is evident to us through nature which He created. We can confirm the existence of our heavenly Mother through the sun, the moon and stars.

Ge 37:9-10 Then he had another dream, and he told it to his brothers. "Listen," he said, "I had another dream, and this time the sun and moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me." When he told his father as well as his brothers, his father rebuked him and said, "What is this dream you had? Will your mother and I and your brothers actually come and bow down to the ground before you?"

Joseph, the eleventh son of Jacob, had a dream in which the sun and moon and eleven stars bowed down to him. When he told the dream to his family, his father scolded him, saying, "Will I and your mother and brothers bow down to you?" Why did Jacob interpret the sun, moon and the stars as symbolical of his household?

This is not just a dream. Through Joseph's dream and its interpretation, God has made known to us our heavenly family relationship: our Father represented by the sun, our Mother by the moon, and we the children by the stars. When the Apostle Paul wrote to the churches in Corinth, he explained that the sun has its own glory, the moon another glory, and the stars a different glory.

1 Co 15:38-41 But God gives it a body as he has determined, and to each kind of seed he gives its own body. All flesh is not the same: Men have one kind of flesh, animals have another, birds another and fish another. There are also heavenly bodies and there are earthly bodies; but the splendor of the heavenly bodies is one kind, and the splendor of the earthly bodies is another. The sun has one kind of splendor, the moon another and the stars another; and star differs from star in splendor.

The above verses say that there are many stars, and that one star differs from another in glory; the sun or the moon is not mentioned to be many. As it is written in Da 12:3 that "those who lead many to righteousness will shine like the stars for ever and ever," God's children are compared to the stars. So the sun represents the Father, the moon the Mother, and the stars the children.

God's invisible power and divine nature are reflected in all things (Ro 1:20). Nature created by God serves as a textbook that teaches us God's providence. In the daytime, when the sun shines, the moon and stars do not appear. However, when the sun is sinking behind the western hills, then the moon appears, accompanied by the stars.

God said that He would give us, His children, honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth in the last days (Zep 3:18-20). For this, the Father's ministry of the gospel must be completed and our Mother has to appear. So the Father accomplished His ministry of 37 years according to the prophecy of King David, and then the glory of the Mother along with ours began to appear. Without Mother, we cannot reach eternal salvation, nor can we share in the heavenly glory. To prevent people from realizing that, the devil blinds their eyes, stops their ears and hardens their hearts.

Let us be like Solomon

Jesus spoke the following phrase: ". . . as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings" At a hen's clucking, not a rooster's crow, chicks gather. Likewise, at Mother's loving voice, the children of heaven, scattered throughout the world, return to Her.

Mother cries out, "Do no harm to My children," enduring heartbreaking pain. Mother's earnest cry will be a message of life that awakens the spirits of the children deceived by Satan.

We shall be joyful always, for our heavenly Mother is with us. With a firm faith in Mother's existence, we the children of Zion shall stand up against the evil tricks of the devil who tries to blind our minds so that we cannot realize Mother. Let's all be like Solomon and help our brothers and sisters, who are wandering around like orphans all over the world, to know our Mother and meet Her.

Col 3:1 Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.

God's children must find the Jerusalem that is above, the heavenly Mother. The devil our wicked enemy slanders us and entices us with lies so that we will not know the existence of Mother. However, we belong to God, our Father and Mother.

Children of Zion! Let's not forget the love and grace of our heavenly Father and Mother who have come to save us. We are obligated to preach the good news to the ends of the earth. Like Solomon, let us lead our brothers and sisters, scattered among all nations, into the loving arms of our heavenly Mother, who always cares about the lives of Her children. Let them hear our Mother's earnest voice!

Exactly, don't even bother witnessing to us true Christians because we will not believe. And clearly, it's no use to witness to you COG believers, because you have already fallen past the point of prey – you are being slowly digested as I type this. Consumed by the brainwashing bull crap that Zang Gil-Jah's goons of preachers have created. I don't forbid you from ever finding the truth, but the Bible does speak of how useless it is to talk to people like you about Jesus Christ's love. You simply will not believe, because you hold on to fairy tales and preach other gospels aside from Jesus Christ.

You preach about false christs and false righteousness. You speak about how we are in a "new age", the "age of the Holy Spirit", yet you continue to wallow in the Mosaic law, which we are dead to thanks be to the LORD & Son of God Jesus Christ. The Pauline epistles tell us we ought be dead to the Old Law (the law of Moses), because in Christ it is dead to us; we shall sin no more. This does not mean we will never make another mistake, but rather we will not habitually sin anymore and because of Christ's grace we have the power to be lifted and free from it while we are on this earth and one day be restored to perfection on the day when God restores all to where it should be.

The old law is not evil, yet proclaims death, but the new law in Christ proclaims life. Which will you choose? Furthermore, it is not baptism that saves, nor is it our works. Those are subsequent to salvation. Salvation comes first by hearing, then by receiving – confession by mouth that one is a sinner and that Jesus Christ is LORD, then such things lead to repentance of sins, and then one becomes baptized to symbolize their new life in Christ and good works come by a deep and passionate Love for God.

John 3:16 is the one of the only verses we need know concerning the essence of Salvation. All other verses are beneficial, but knowing that God so loved the World that His Son was sent to die for us and be resurrected that we who believe shall not perish but receive eternal life? Nothing else is needed but grace alone. God still wishes us to tithe into His Kingdom, but you don't tithe to "keep in good reports" with God. You Church of God folks have no real relationship with Christ, only a facade of what you think is real. It's all fake. It's all the same. Every COG person acts the exact same way.

Why is it that on FaceBook when I try to ask WMSCOG believers about their faith, and try to question them with scripture, they ALL give me the SAME EXACT verses with the same exact meaning and the same exact attitude? I'm not saying they are robots, but I am saying they sure act like it when it comes to their religion and faith in God. Stagnance is key to COG it appears to me. Why would I want to be involved with such a ridiculous and blasphemous heresy? Where was the COG in the early church days if the Catholic Church was so bad?

Why, if the name of the "Holy Spirit" of this age is so important, does the new testament church speak so often of receiving the Holy Spirit, yet not once until the 1900's is the "name" given outside of scripture?

Ahn Sang Hong is a liar and a fraud, and so is his harlot of a wife who has fallen from the LORD's grace. If she asks forgiveness and repents, she shall be saved but I don't see it coming. I will pray for her peace and that she repents of her wretched acts and follows the LORD in a correct manner, so she may benefit the true work of God and worship the ALMIGHTY "I AM".

I think the reason you don't want WMSCOG members like Bell and yourselves to come to these sites is because you might actually find something that challenges your faith and makes you doubt. You shouldn't worry. If your faith is valid, it can stand up to scrutiny.

And you still don't seem to understand that not everyone is close enough to one of your churches to meet and study in person.

Pierce makes some good points. You should consider them.

And do you have an answer to my big question this month? –

Why is the WMSCOG keeping the fall Feasts in the eighth month instead of the seventh month?**

Do a little research yourself (or check on my blog, I've already done it). Look at the dates of the Feasts the WMSCOG has kept for the past several years, and then look at the record of new moons.

The fall Feasts are to be kept in the 7th month, but the WMSCOG kept them in the 8th month in 2005 and 2008, and this year 2010.

Isn't that an indication that something is not right if they can't keep their own rules?

Don't just accept any answer from your pastor, but think for yourself about it.

To Pierce and Genny and the rest of people who are not from Church of God, shouldn't come to your websites and explain to them that Satan is using the internet big time to deceive the true children of God and I'm talking about the "Children who have Heavenly Father and Heavenly Mother", if that were possible, lol. If you both are happy coming to this website then that's your choice. About the blogs and cult watch site, I've seen them all, old and new, and it never change. Same shallow arguments from the Bible but very easy to debunk your entire cult watch site. Just because our members don't argue in your websites doesn't mean you guys got us big time. Your absolutely wrong because you guys are the ones who don't understand the Bible. And do you think we'll just explain to you all the deeper knowledge of the secrets of Kingdom of Heaven by answering all your shallow questions? Never! Again if you all want to truly study the Bible in Zion with the intention of truly finding out the truth and not just being faultfinders(if that were possible), please set up an appointment and we'll have personal Bible study whether at your house or in our Zion. Actually I took all your shallow arguments from your blog Genny and from the new cult watch site and took it to the Zion I go to and showed it to our members. I debunked every single arguments and showed them how much you Genny and the rest of cult watch supporters don't understand the Bible. It's quite comical, lol! But that's not our true goal. We all just want to return to our Heavenly Home the Kingdom of Heaven by finding our lost Brothers and Sisters. We don't want to stay here on earth, the spiritual prison. Well I'm done talking here. So Genny and Pierce and to all people who are not from Church of God, good luck to the path you all choose. And Genny, like you said, the time will come when the light of the truth will be seen to the whole world and we'll find out when we all go back to the spiritual world. For me, I'm 100% firmly believe in Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Heavenly Mother Jerusalem because She will take Her children back to the Kingdom of Heaven. It's all in the Bible and I'm so thankful that I understand the mysteries of the parables in the Bible. This is the last time you will hear from me. :)

Well, Elijah,

If you've read all my "shallow" arguments and "debunked" them, at least that means you read them. And perhaps you will remember them when the time comes and your "Heavenly Mother" reveals who she really is—a regular human like all of us. And after you recover from that shock, I hope you will come to know the true God who is willing to show you grace and mercy even still. You know how to find me if you ever want to talk. And I promise I won't lay the "I-told-you-so" guilt trip on you. I think it would be wonderful if someone like yourself turned out to be a great warrior for the one true God.

Catechism, I have come to find that their beliefs do have solid ground in truth if they truly love God..

Here's a belief on the Trinity from the Catechism.

The dogma of the Holy Trinity

253 The Trinity is One. We do not confess three Gods, but one God in three persons, the "consubstantial Trinity".⁸³ The divine persons do not share the one divinity among themselves but each of them is God whole and entire: "The Father is that which the Son is, the Son that which the Father is, the Father and the Son that which the Holy Spirit is, i.e. by nature one God."⁸⁴ In the words of the Fourth Lateran Council (1215), "Each of the persons is that supreme reality, viz., the divine substance, essence or nature."⁸⁵

254 The divine persons are really distinct from one another. "God is one but not solitary."⁸⁶ "Father", "Son", "Holy Spirit" are not simply names designating modalities of the divine being, for they are really distinct from one another: "He is not the Father who is the Son, nor is the Son he who is the Father, nor is the Holy Spirit he who is the Father or the Son."⁸⁷ They are distinct from one another in their relations of origin: "It is the Father who generates, the Son who is begotten, and the Holy Spirit who proceeds."⁸⁸ The divine Unity is Triune.

255 The divine persons are relative to one another. Because it does not divide the divine unity, the real distinction of the persons from one another resides solely in the relationships which relate them to one another: "In the relational names of the persons the Father is related to the Son, the Son to the Father, and the Holy Spirit to both. While they are called three persons in view of their relations, we believe in one nature or substance."⁸⁹ Indeed "everything (in them) is one where there is no opposition of relationship."⁹⁰ "Because of that unity the Father is wholly in the Son and wholly in the Holy Spirit; the Son is wholly in the Father and wholly in the Holy Spirit; the Holy Spirit is wholly in the Father and wholly in the Son."⁹¹

256 St. Gregory of Nazianzus, also called "the Theologian", entrusts this summary of Trinitarian faith to the catechumens of Constantinople:

Above all guard for me this great deposit of faith for which I live and fight, which I want to take with me as a companion, and which makes me bear all evils and despise all pleasures: I mean the profession of faith in the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. I entrust it to you today. By it I am soon going to plunge you into water and raise you up from it. I give it to you as the companion and patron of your whole life. I give you but one divinity and power, existing one in three, and containing the three in a distinct way. Divinity without disparity of substance or nature, without superior degree that raises up or inferior degree that casts down. . . the infinite co-naturality of three infinities. Each person considered in himself is entirely God. . . the three considered together. . . I have not even begun to think of unity when the Trinity bathes me in its splendor. I have not even begun to think of the Trinity when unity grasps me. . .92

For people from World Mission Society, I concede that perhaps you guys may be right. But lets have a logical study of scripture, if it turns out that your interpretations are the most parsimonious explanation of scripture, then I will concede that you are right. Please click the link above to see an alternative explanation to the verses that you frequently put forth.

Its so strange that the same things we say to them, they say to us.

We are giving our interpretation of scripture and say that we are right and they are wrong, and that God bless them and that we pray that God will reveal the truth to them.

And they give their interpretation of scripture and say that they are right and we are wrong, and that God bless us and that they pray that God will reveal the truth to us.

Its like a endless circle. -. - Seems like both parties have an agenda to believe their interpretation because people are always resistant to change. How do we know that the methods bible scholars use to interpret scripture are the best or least flawed matters?

Perhaps love changes opinions and not reason. And in the whole debate, it seems frequently that neither parties show love. Both always seem to say 'God bless you, you're going to hell, i hope God reveals the truth to u, but i secretly hope God doesnt and that you go to hell for your ignorance'.

Sigh.

Not like these kinds of questions haven't been asked a bunch of times by many of us already... but..

"And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole world for a witness to all the nations, and then the end shall come." (NAS, Matthew 24:14)

Reply

Jesus is saying to us He will not come back to bring about His wrath and the New Creation/Jerusalem/Heaven until all the earth has heard of the Gospel. This means that Christ could not have come back for the Second Coming, because we still have work to do.

"No one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Be on guard! Be alert! You do not know when that time will come." (NIV, Mark 13:32-33)

If the "era" of the "Father" has passed, then the "era" of the "Son" has passed, and now we are in the "age" of the "Holy Spirit", why is it that the Son does not know the day or hour when He will come? After all, according to WMS, the Son is indeed one and the same as the Father..

While I agree God is one in all, I believe He is equally 3. Not 3 gods, but 3 personalities that make 1 God. How else could their be a relationship between the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit? Is God a schizophrenic? No. God is a Triune Almighty who is equally One.

furthermore...

1 John 2:19-3:3

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out that they might be made manifest, that none of them were of us.

20 But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things.[a] 21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist who denies the Father and the Son. 23 Whoever denies the Son does not have the Father either; he who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

Examine closely. Notice the beginning speaks of a sect of Christianity that started out with genuine Christ following, then went off the rail and decided to make their own belief system.. in essence, a cult. In those times, it was the Gnostic believers, among many other strange doctrines. The original Christian church, whether it was Catholic, founded by church fathers, protestant, whatever you want to believe.. it was NEVER World Missions Society Church of God. In the beginning, it was Jesus' disciples and the folks who were in the upper room at Pentecost who received the Holy Spirit.

If such is the case, WMS came "out of" the roots of Christianity. They started their own interpretation of doctrine, outside of what has been common grounds for all Christians for 2000+ years.

To add to that, again.. why would one need to know the Father to know the Son, and the Son to know the Father? Because they are 2 separate individuals. WMS followers say that calling on the name of the Father nor the Son is valid anymore. Whether you believe in praying to the Father, Son, or Holy Spirit, they are all one and the same God. God hears you no matter which of His names you call him.

I believe He still hears the Jews when they call upon the Father. The Jews may not have salvation in Jesus Christ, but I don't believe our God would forsake a people He so awesomely cares for.. if the Jews give worship to God, I am certain though He wishes they would get the bigger picture, He still adores their worship.

Thus, I believe God hears us no matter what time or day we worship Him, and that His names are all valid, beings He is indeed omnipresent, omnipotent, and omnieverything!

Great forum Anonymous! Very well said stuff. I never would have thought of the idea of Mother Jerusalem contradicting the "us" from Genesis to the "no other gods before Me" in the 10 commandments. Very good insight.

According to the "inner group" of the WMSCOG branch I used to attend, "Father" is supposed to be returning and taking his children home by no later than the end of this year (2010). If this apocalypse does not come to pass, what are they going to say? The typical card they play in this instance is "father" or "mother" (aka God) decided to show pity on their sinful children and push the deadline back a bit further. Of course, that's a pretty old & rehashed trick and I personally think that if they can't come up with a more crafty excuse, the leaders would probably just deny what I had just revealed as being nothing more than just a rumor started by fledging (inexperienced) members or "false" brothers & sisters in the church being in league with Satan.

"Missionary" Elijah coming on here and making sweeping statements about how opposing websites are "shallow and easily debunked" betrays CoG's insecurity and the leaders' inability to keep their minions on a leash away from the internet (free thought). Do they genuinely fear that Satan will claim the souls of their precious brothers and sisters...or do they fear that their flawless "truth" cannot hold up to the massive amount of resources available on the web which eventually means the "falling away" of their flock and ultimately less "tithes and offerings" (revenue) for their establishment. You make the call. ;)

From what I've gathered as a semi-observant human being, their "gospel" is not spreading as fast as they'd like you to believe. With their projected "end" so close at hand (the "God cutting it short before 2012" prophecy), how come so few people know about Chung Gil Jah? Ask yourself, what percentage of people in your apartment complex or work building know about "Mother" or "Zion?" I can take any several square miles of population at random anywhere on the planet, farther away from a church location, and most likely very few people, if any at all, have heard about them, haha. How can God's children go home if my husband's cousin's friend hasn't even heard of God the Mother? :) And if they knew that their members were reading what I had just said right there, they would try to write me off as an agent of Satan trying to cast doubt upon the children, or that God is testing their faith. Classic cult loophole techniques. :)

Also, the church is not as spiritual and “not focused on the physical things” as they would like you to believe. In fact, they (especially in the upper echelons) are very bigoted, uncultured, narrow-minded, and hold contempt against anyone that does not dress the way they do and have the same hairstyle/hair length as they do (for both sexes). I have caught slips of the tongues by some of their deacons. I have read between the lines, and what I have caught is that they are trying to belittle the resident cultures of all the shores they arrive at and enforce the superiority of Korean culture. All this becomes evident if you are perceptive and have spent a great period of time with them. In the beginning, when you are fresh, they make every effort to love bomb you and make you feel at home, giving the impression that you will never be judged for the way you look. But sure enough, when enough time has passed, and you have been engraved in their studies, the mask comes off and they make it quite clear to you (many times without having to use any words) that there are things expected of you (aside from money, which reportedly they have become more bold with as of late). They try to put the heat on you to dress a certain way and have your hair a certain way, and if you do not conform, you are not welcome there. There is a very distinct and cookie cutter look, give or take, that they expect from both genders. You’ve got to fit within those parameters if you’re to have any measure of peace in the congregation. That becomes very clear with the gossip that permeates there, with you being the target. :) So thus, the initial claim that you will never be judged for the physical appearance, was all bogus. Now go back full circle to the beginning of this paragraph, regarding the claim that they are not so focused on the physical. Does that sound truthful to you? According to what I and several others have experienced? Once again, for the millionth time, of course they have counter-arguments to what I’ve just said. I’m not quite sure I want to type them all up right now, there are at least a dozen flooding my head, haha. One of these excuses even involves a very creative explanation of the church being like a hospital, where the spiritually sick are being healed with “mother’s” water of life (the word) — and since they are spiritually sick and still recovering, they of course will ooze sin and treat their own spiritual siblings (brothers and sisters) that way (gossip/backstabbing) and therefore we must follow “father & mother’s” example and forgive them. Oh please. :) There is also a very advanced explanation as well for this pressure on grooming, using the “one mind, one body” philosophy, indicating that all brothers and sisters must be one mind with each other, together with “Mother,” before they can go home. It’s a subtle attempt at guilt-tripping you for not wanting “to change your appearance for God,” implying you are yes, selfish. Please keep in mind I have never dressed provocative or anywhere near a prostitute at the church. They are just repulsively bigoted/uncultured in using only ONE format, one dress code more or less, in trying to reach the communities out there. Yeah, they’re really going to grab the attention of the millions of different backgrounds and personalities out there using only one format, way to go,

CoG. sarcasm Oh wait, that's right, they're only looking for a specific type of person to recruit now, age range + class & all, while the rest can go to hell because time is so short. And don't give me that crap about depending only on God's word and not your clothes, because you are the ones putting pressure on a certain way to dress, not anyone else.

You do have to give them credit for tying in everything into one epic magnum opus using prooftexts. I am actually quite impressed by the creator's imagination, whoever that may be (and they are probably labelling me as very foolish right now for thinking it's imagination instead of reality). The whole story of being strangers on this earth, having lost our place in heaven, will make perfect sense if you can believe their web of verses and reverse engineering. What blew their cover? It's their ill behavior. As said in a previous post, going head to head with them in scripture only leads to running around in circles. In such a time where you don't know who's telling the truth, one method you can fall back on to determine an entity's agenda is their character. By their acts you will know them. There certainly is no "love" behind the walls of the WMSCOG.

Anyone considering attending the church ought to think about whether they want to get involved with this type of behavior, which can be accounted for by others, not just myself.

For anyone interested in dissecting this madness using their own brain, I have well over forty official sermons from the CoG in audio file format which I can email over to you, for your listening pleasure. It's what they use for preaching training. :) Just leave your email address in these comments and we'll be in touch.

P.S. Not EVERYONE in the CoG is an unreasonable bigoted jerk. I've run into some very nice people. Just the key members, the make-it-or-break-it ones, are the people that give away the true face of the organization. They should blame themselves, not the horned God, for blowing the cover for their boss(es)

If they claim the world is ending between now and 2012, they had better get their butts moving! I don't see any possible way they can preach their "truth" and "gospel" to every nation, every church, every stone-age tribe in Latin America, India, the far places of Europe, etc. The "normal" christians have done a better job at that – we've covered the earth with true Christian doctrine, even in the furthest spaces. Certainly, we still have work to be done, but it'll take a long time for the CoG believers to spread even a hint of their doctrine to what we've sowed to the foundations of old and new believers..

Pierce they say that their gospel is spread like lightning but its more on secretive basis as they fear persecution and nowhere close to how & under what circumstances the earth was indeed covered with true christian in furthest places. Sure we have a couple of hangups about Ellen White but big whoop – no church is perfect, and when you have an organisation of over 40 million people it's sometimes complicated to change in a hurry. We'll get there though :) Jesus is our focus, and the bible is our only guide.

Reply

Hi Everybody. I had no background about religion what so ever until last May when I was approached by two people out preaching from the WMS Church of God at my school. I was very skeptical at first when they started talking about second coming Christ even though the bible warns about people claiming to be the 2nd Christ (I didn't know that at the time, but web sites like this one "learned" me very quickly). I listened to what the two guys had to say; and even though I was skeptical, I found it very interesting. They invited me to a bible study and I told them I would think about it. My curiosity got the best of me and I called one of the guys back about a week later and scheduled an appointment. I met him on Sunday, May 16th 2010 for my first bible study and was shocked by a study about why we are here on earth. When you see it through the bible it is truly amazing that people couldn't figure this out in the almost 2000 years since the new testament was written. I mean... it so obvious when you see it. I was still doubtful though and was wondering if maybe they were using a different bible or something. So for my next study I borrowed a bible from my girlfriend and studied with that. Sure enough... They used the same bible that any "normal" church does. I decided to bring my girlfriend to a study because she had a huge background in religion. She had been to every denomination church that you can think of and had become the only person I knew who actively went to church willingly because she truly enjoyed learning about god. She came and totally flipped out. She persecuted me and the church and we even ended our relationship for a while. I was so confused and torn at the time because everything I had learned made sense, but she swore up and down that if I came to her church I would see why Jesus was the only true god and there was no female image of god anywhere in the bible. So I went with her. I had a 30 min one-on-one meeting with the lead counselor from the church. He assured me that there was no mention of the female image of god in the bible and that I was just being tricked by fancy ways of switching around versus. The problem came when I started asking him question about John Ch. 6:53. Instead of explaining why we don't need the Passover (even though in Mathew Ch5: 17 Jesus clearly states that not a letter from the law will be removed until heaven and earth are gone), he explained what the Passover was (I didn't care what it was... I just wanted to know if it was important or not). The really bad part happened when I brought up Melchizedek. He quickly said that his wife was waiting for him and he had to go, but that i should pray about it and the answer would be given to me. I soon realized that this guy was leading a church, but had no clue what he was teaching. About a month after that my girlfriend came back to the church and did a study. She soon realized their there is not another church on earth that can teach the bible this way. If you think you know the bible; you don't unless you know second coming Christ. Don't take my word for it.... Read Revelation Ch 5! It says it right there. I feel so bad for the people who are so quick to judge. I thank my Father and Mother every day that I did not have a strong religious up bringing because I would have never been open minded enough to see this amazing truth. To all the Muslims, Jews and Christians out there reading this, Please, just read about Abraham, Hagar, and Sarah, and try to realize who Isaac is (Gal 4:28)! The truth is so simple and so amazing! It should be plain to you. These "stories" in the bible are not just stories. They are gods way of showing us there is only one true church and it will be established in the last days. If you open you mind and do the studies, you too can realize that there is more to the bible then we ever imagined. Please, next time someone from the Church of God approaches you, just listen and ask questions. It won't hurt you, and you just might see something you never have before. God Bless You All!

Just wait a couple of months until you know all the basic studies that are like 35 or 36 in total and the big prophecies like 6 days creation, the seven seals etc, etc. After that you would be wondering what else is out there?

..Nothing more. You would continue following Sabbath and third day evening service for life and will realize the whole point of the church is go out and recruit people (with the excuse you are saving them through preaching) and giving them money trough tithes, offerings and free will offerings. But sure they will not ask you for money off front. You would be giving a study about this at the end. First they will build up your faith and at the end you will be giving the study of tithes and offerings. And trust me i can tell you much more but it would be up to you if you want to listen.

Well, you could be right. Who truly knows except god almighty? I have already studied 6 day creation, Seven Churches, and given that we are in the middle of the feasts right now we are going to study the Feasts of God on the Day of Atonement. The problem is that while some of the teachings are hard to swallow, that doesn't necessarily make them fabrications. If this church is wrong can anyone who has seen these studies ever have faith in the bible again. Being someone who has done the studies, could I ever believe that Sunday worship is ok? That the cross is not idolatry, or that Christmas and Easter did not come from Pagan traditions? The truth about all of these can be seen through history itself... not just the church. The problem for me is that if the church is lying, then who can ever be correct? I was talking with my girlfriend just this morning and we both understand that this teaching is very hard and it does require sacrifice and commitment. We both lack in faith sometimes but it is not because we can find flaw in the teachings. It is because we are unable to break our concept of god as only having a male image. We also both realize that if we are wrong then we are going to look like such fools to all of our friends and family come 2013 but, what if it is true? Does any church out there have a study that is even close to proving any of this wrong? Sure, anyone can quote the verse "many will come in my name and claim to be the Christ" but he has to come someday doesn't he? I mean, what man can be born "at the ends of the earth" (Japan is an island) on the 37th paralleled, be baptized at 30, live for exactly 37 years after baptism to fulfill the Root of David, and create a study like the sanctuary? If the heavenly mother is not true, then why is the story about Abraham even in the bible? Why Melchizedek? Why the parable about the wedding banquet? What does "enter through the narrow gate" mean? Based on that statement right there by, could any Catholic or Protestant possibly believe that he even has a shot at going to heaven without questioning Jesus Christ himself? What man has that much free time and could be that crafty to put all this together. Maybe I just can't see past my own ignorance but it just seems too perfect. I mean... can Daniels Prophecy be wrong? It's pretty much just putting the bible and a history book together. What else could it possible mean? 666, really... on the man's forehead!?! "let him who is wise calculate the number". I don't claim to be wise but can Catholic say with a straight face, "Man, that is one crazy coincidence!" I mean truly, for the sake of the world at large, I hope that this truth is wrong, but personally, I'm not willing to risk it. Too many "coincidences" for me to just write it off as some crazy guy in Korea with a super creative imagination and a whole lot of luck. What would have been the purpose for all of it? To build a big church for his young wife and never get to see any of the benefits himself. Nobody can say he lived a good life whether you believe he was god or not. If people believed I was god, you better believe I would want to reap the benefits of it. Not just die in order to make my wife (who I was married to for like a day) rich.

Well x-cog member, have you never given tithe in your life before u were the member of cog???

well let me tell u, All the other churches in the world are more TITHE demanding churches. Im telling you this from my own experience.

And why do you think that keeping Sabbath is useless, This is God's command. Let me tell u that keeping Sabbath is more important than Sunday Service.

Are you willing to give TITHE to the Lord or not?? Even Sunday Servive keepers are more into giving TITHES.

pierced his side while he was on the cross. This one you think is the Second Coming was not seen by ANYONE except his own congregation. I have read his book and even he says nothing about the "Mother", and he himself did not say he was the second coming. He predicted the second coming in both 1967 and in 1985. How does someone predict the second coming if he is already on earth? Ahnsahnghong was a religious scholar, but he was not the Second Coming. You are following the teachings of men who tell you this. This is not in the Bible. This is only in their incorrect interpretation, which is very hard to swallow. I am sorry, and I pray that you will see through this indoctrination the church members are handing you. Look at what they do not underline for you in your Bible. Those parts of the Bible will tell you how to be a better person and lead your life as God intended. They only teach what furthers their agenda and do not dwell on anything else.

By the way, Sun Myung Moon was a crazy guy in Korea with a super creative imagination who also said he was Jesus. A lot of people believed him and were taken in and ripped off in the same way as for the COG. The Cog has elements of the Moonies religion, Seventh Day Adventist religion, and then their own spin thrown in on top of it. South Korea is a breeding ground for cults, and we have our own offshoots here in the States, too. You probably have no idea how many people have claimed to be Jesus' Second Coming, and how they have manipulated people this way. Believe me, Jesus Himself warned against believing people who do this. When He comes ALL EYES WILL SEE HIM. Have you seen Him?

child123, you shouldn't judge mountainmom. are you a mother? you can't even begin to understand the love of a mother if you aren't one. what you just said is very one-sided and harsh. For all you know, because she loves her son -so- much might mean she loves God even more than you do. I can't speak for her on that, but I can say that you shouldn't judge someone if you don't even know them personally. The Bible does say to love God above everything else, but it says nothing about loving your father, mother, child or siblings too much! Loving God is key, but loving others is equally important; so don't even go there.

It's amazing at how much the COG shows every sign of being a cult and they don't even realize it. Not only do they twist and screw around with every orthodox doctrine and change the Gospel around to meet their own ideas, they have all the behavior of a cult as well.

By: Pierce on October 14, 2010 at 11:29 pm

I don't know if anyone here watches japanese anime or not, but there is a particular one called "Ghost Hound". In final episode, the hero saves a girl from being deified from demon possession in a cult. This girl has a demon in her, and the people in the village end up forming a religion around her. She is placed in a sort of temple. All people in the village end up worshiping this religion. Men are only allowed in the outer parts of the temple, only women are allowed on the inner parts, and even then only approved women. The hero dressed up like a girl and finds a way in to sneak the girl out.

Point is, I see this with COG too. Zhang Gil-Jah is in a special place, deified in Korea. Only certain people are allowed to see her, those who have been "approved" as faithful followers and not someone out to kill her. Does this sound like the behavior of the Triune God to you? For starters, since when did Jesus ever deny anyone coming up to Him? He said "let the least of these come to me!" He even spoke with Nicodemus at night, a Pharisee who could have meant to harm Him. Not to mention, if God is all powerful, He is much more than able to protect Himself. Even incarnate as Jesus, He could have called 10,000 Angels to protect Him during His every whim. He did not do this; He suffered for the Father's will and was resurrected so we may be forgiven of our sins.

Wow! So I did some research. I found that Ahnsahnghong did not give us the teaching about the book of Daniel. Apparently, that teaching is from a book by Andreas Helwig titled "Roman Antichrist" from 1612!!! Not 1948! Ok, I'm still unsure, but this is starting to look worse and worse to me. After talking with a co-worker today it was also pointed out that in the oldest manuscript of the book of Revelation that we know of, the number is not 666, but 616. I did a little research and sure enough it looks true. I'm still not convinced the Catholic Church is not Satan though. After all, how can one church get so many things so wrong? Idolatry, the father title, erasing the second commandment, celibacy, Christmas, and the list goes on, but what has COG revealed that has not been revealed before? Also, Cultwatch says that he has multiple wives. I do not know if this is true. If it is, I'm defiantly convinced that this is bogus. I wish there was more information. I am starting to question weather there is really a god all together. I feel like all I can do is truly hope and pray that god is as merciful as some Christians believe and wait until the end. I guess I just have to have faith that gods plan is perfect and we will all get what we deserve in the end.

Wow, You are starting to have the same feelings that I used to have and i am continue to do so when i get off from the church. That I am questioning if there is a God/s or not. This happens because I put all my trust, sacrifice and confidence in this church and their teachings and i got weary out of it with the time and realized that I was just being used for their purpose. With the time I was questioning if thats truly the administration that God created for us to be saved. Umm. It was hard to beleive with all that gossip that members have in there. All the hipocresy and arrogance that sorrounds the church. It was more like a dictatorship to me to see how pastors, missionaries and deacons wanted to control you in every way. Talking to you harsh like they own you.

By: X-COG MEMBERS WANTED on October 15, 2010 at 8:19 am

Its totally a joke. With the time I have seen that in the Church are three important things that if you do them you will be in good standards with them and there is Keeping the Feasts, Preaching and Thithing (This includes all types of Offerings in the Church). This is like the sign of recyclyn with the the three arrows going around. In my point of view while I was in the Church I saw that Keeping the Feasts was a procedure or program to keep you "brainwashed". That is the reason they demand you to continue keeping it and spent most of the time with them. Preaching is easy. In preaching you look for more members. More members generate more income for the church at the time they finish their studies. Also these new memebbers can preach to families and friends generating more members with the time. This make it look just like the pyramid scheme. You know how it works right?. Tithing? What I can tell you dont already know? You know how much money even a small local church receive from their members weekly? Yeah, sure they always says its used to expand etc,etc. While i was in the church I was keeping track of everything and I can say they take a long time to open a church in another place with the excuse they have to increase in numbers pushing you to preach more and more while they have the money already to buy a regular size church and when they do make the first step they start with a small office. They know what they do and they never lose with you and me. Why? because we provide all the services. We provide our work, our sacrifice, our income and our time. In return we just get a hope for salvation that supposely would come in the near future. You too young in time probably to understand everything that i am saying but go spend more time in there, see how everything works. You will see by yourself how the administration works in the COG. In the other hand there are too many flaws in the doctrine like some of those that mountain mom mentioned. No by mentioning we basically dont know nothing about Ahnsanhgong. The video that they show us provide too little information about him. Why is that? Why are the teachings in his books differ from the ones the church provides nowadays?

The whole point of Daniels prophecy is not to know who the Devil is, that is something that even you are admitting is obvious. The point of Daniels prophecy is to know where Zion is.

How would it have helped the Israelites to come out of Egypt, but now know where the promised land is. In the same way Christ Ahnsahngong revealed to us where we can find Zion(Is 33:20).

So anyone can teach Daniels prophecy, its just history. But as far as Zion concerns, only God can restore it.

As far as the many wives concern, it has been a rumor on the web forever with no evidence. Just like i can find stuff online that says you are a criminal. I Child 123, I didn't see your response to me untill today. In answer, yes I read the Bible, and I believe in it. I just don't believe in the Church of God and the interpretation it's members give. I am not sure if you read all parts of the Bible or only the ones the COG members underline for you. Why shouldn't I love my son like any normal person does with their children? The Bible says to love your neighbor, but I can't love my son? That makes no sense, does it. Besides, the way to understand God's love for us is to experience love here on earth. I know God's love by the very way I love my son and my two other children. My son is in a psychological prison as a member of this church. He is tired, mentally down, struggling at his job, struggling in his marriage, struggling with relationships, etc. He has never mentioned suicide before he was in this church, now he has talked of it 3 times. I am afraid for him, and for our whole family. We love him dearly, and I hate to see him suffer. He is taking antidepressants, and your loving church pastor wants him to do a water and food fast for 3-5 days! Tell me, how will my son's health survive this? He will do major physical damage if he does this. I am a health professional, and I know what I am saying. This is insane. Where is the love from your church who is pushing him like this?

Anonymous,

Please answer, where is the love in your church when the main pastor is encouraging my son to damage his physical and mental health? Why does this church not care about people's hearts and minds, but emphasize money so much? They spend a lot of time defending what they do and ignore steering people to the parts of the Bible that tell us how to live and love. Why can I find so many proverbs telling us to honor our father and mother, and exactly how to do that, but the COG tells our son to ignore his parent's counsel?

Could you explain what my son gets out of his association with this "church"? They get his money, his time, his recruiting efforts, and have taken away his freedom. He gets exhaustion, failure at his job, failure in his relationships, financial disaster, and a broken family.
He may get a promise of salvation, but I know it is false.
You can't get saved by serving a false God and a false Jesus Christ. Ahnsahnghong and the Mother are not deities. If you read your Bible you would see that they are not in it. YOU REALLY NEED TO READ YOUR BIBLE WITHOUT PEOPLE STANDING OVER YOU TELLING YOU WHAT TO THINK. Then perhaps the real God would speak to you. COG people get told what to think by men who want their money, not God.

My son asks why I don't believe in Ahnsahnghong and the Mother. It is because Jesus himself warns us not to, not once, but several times. READ THE BIBLE.

The church believes that honor your father mother, not as much the physical. In fact, Jesus tells a follower in the desert who wanted to bury his father to "let the dead bury their that the church puts any more emphasis on the tithes and offerings then the bible it self does. I feel like that is a false criticism. I'm also not so sure about the physical health damage, but the mental health damage I could see as a problem. I have not attended service in about three weeks and I had not previously missed a service in five months. It has been really hard. The problem is modern day Christians no matter what major denomination they follow do not follow the way the bible says they should. That makes it really easy for another church problem I am having, is figuring out if the COG is right, or was Ahnsahnghong just very clever? I like how this blog has not been very focused on the theology because you can argue the wording of the bible in many ways. There are some things that cannot be argued though. The Sabbath is Saturday, and December 25th was Mythra's (the sun god) birthday. The pope calls himself "most holly father". Easter comes from the pagan goddess Eostre. The bible says that Zion is the city of our festivals. The bible also says that only the Root of David can unseal the bible in Revelation and we know that Jesus is the Root of David (and Rev was written after Jesus' death). The only argument I can possible make against this church is Acts 4:12 and the COG uses this verse in the teaching of the Trinity and the Savior of each age, and Rev 2:17 but you would only know what I am talking about if you had studied 7 churches. The mental health thing is a huge concern. What are all of these people going to do if 2013 comes and goes? For me it was hard enough to leave the church after 5 mos. What about 5 years. I see a big market for therapists in the future if all this turns out to be false. To be 100% honest I am in fear everyday. I think about COG everyday. Please don't take offense to this, but the problem for me is, if I choose to believe in the bible, there is really no other church I can go to. SDA would really be the only thing and the COG does a might fine job explaining the existence of that church. I know most people here would disagree with that last statement but if you had seen why there is no justification of Sunday worship anywhere in the bible and how some things just line up so perfectly you would probably be just as confused I am.

Walter to tell you the truth. Only time can help you out to release yourself from the bounds of all the teachings that the church put on you. You dont think that didnt happened to me too. I was there way more than you and when I get out I was confused and afraid every single day. But i keep in mind things will get better and I will get over it. It wasnt easy but yeah it was possible. Now I am back on my feet and more happy and focus than ever.

Christians do NOT follow the sun god. You are being given faulty information. Have you spoken to a Christian pastor yourself about this, or are you only accepting the information given to you by your church?

Reply

Jesus did die to pay the price for your sins and mine, and for the sins of each and every person. It doesn't matter what those sins are, they are covered. BUT you must accept His payment on your behalf.

It's kind of like this... "Bob" wants a ticket to the opera. "Sam" has bought an unlimited supply of tickets to the opera and wants to give them as gifts to anyone who wants one. "Bob" can pay for his own ticket, or he can take a free one that has been paid for by "Sam." A free ticket is available for him, but he has to accept it. Otherwise he can go to the ticket window and buy his own.

Rom. 3:23 — Everyone has sinned.

Rom. 6:23 — The penalty of sin is death.

You can pay for your sin yourself—death, eternal separation from God. Or you can accept God's gift to cover your sin with Jesus' payment on the cross and have life—physical death yes, but eternal life with God in heaven.

Let me ask you... How do Ahsahnghong and "Mother" help you pay your penalty for your sin?

respectfully,
genny

ps—I expect the other Christians writing here HAVE spent time looking up their own church's doctrine. (I have.) You would have to in order to be able to compare it with the WMSCOG.

Ahsahnghong and mother allows me to celebrate the passover the way it should. This passover gives me the forgiveness of sins TAUGHT IN THE BIBLE. Lol

Is christmas and all your festivals base on sun god worshipping or not? You follow it without noticing it. You're blind thats why you can't see, Loll

How can you be so sure you're not following false teaching??

I doubt you know ALL of the COG doctrine.

When i was studying some thing did not makes sense, however later as u do more studying it all comes together. Maybe u just got frustrated and impatient, and decided to stop listening.

Why is that Mountain moms son still in the COG? It is because he can't find any fault with it, and that all things make sense to him. simple lol.

I do know mainstream Christians doctrine, it's just so amatuer, it's like u read the verse and u take it as it is, not taking into what the other verses got to say...

For example; you all believe adam was the first human being right? Adam and eve had children and they married each other right? This is your belief, well if you read your bible...adam and eve had two sons, one died and the another one got married, the person that he married was not adam and eves daughter. so where did she come from? this shows that she had her own mother and father. but why adam is regarded as the first living being? the answer is that he was the first to recognize god. As all poeple who believe in god are regarded as living being in the bible.

Believing the fact that adam and eve had children and they married each other is wrong, as god mention that marrying family members are not on. At this point, once a mainstream christian asked "then why eve is to become the mother of all the living(gen 3:20), does this not mean eve gave birth to all the living being?"

As i mention before Living being are people who believe in god. Here if you study the six day creation mention by walter. U would see that Eve the mother of all the living, refers to jerusalem mother being the mother of all those who believe in her in the last day and she is god. If U studied the six day creation then u would know what i'm talking about. You would also need to study about the LAST ADAM also...what i just wrote would not make sense to anyone who haven't study all the topics I mention above.

When studying the cog doctrine u should have patience, some things would not make sense until other topics are preached. After it all has been preached to you, you would realize that there is no contradiction in the bible and that it makes perfect sense, Lol. thats why mountain moms son can't see any fault with the doctrine because he had studied everything. He probably know more about the bible then anyone on this site...some chirstians would read this and say "who is the last adam now?" Lol.

Hey Lol, just curious: are you Jewish?? Because if you're not, there is absolutely no need to even have to think of celebrating the passover as it should. Certainly, all Christians are called to partake in Holy Communion, given they are in the right heart and attitude. However, the Jewish way of taking it has been abolished on the cross! Don't you read into the Pauline doctrine?

1 Corinthians 9:20-22

"20 To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law), so as to win those under the law. 21 To those not having the law I became like one not having the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law), so as to win those not having the law. 22 To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all people so that by all possible means I might save some."

What this verse means, is that if following the Jewish festivities and observing the Sabbath as those under the "law" would bring them to knowing the Lord Jesus Christ, then Paul said that is what we should do. To those not under the law, the gentiles, Paul tells us not to worry about following Jewish law and regulations. Paul tells us to be, in a way, like water. We are to fit every situation. This doesn't mean become a sinner to reach the sinner, mind you. This simply means that we are to reach people at all levels of life without judging or condemning, without being self-righteous and acting all puffed up like we're something special because we "follow the law of God correctly".

Don't you know? It's impossible to be a perfect Christian. That's why Christ said on the cross "It is FINISHED". If His mission was finished at Calvary 2000+ years ago, why are we still preaching about His second coming of salvation? Don't you know that when Christ comes for the second time He will not come to save but to judge and reign over all the earth? Today is the age of salvation, tomorrow is the age of judgment, and next week is all of eternity.

Wow! Pierce. Its people like you that make me think that the COG is correct. Where in the bible does it say "you must take Holy Communion"? The word Communion is nowhere to be found in the bible! Honestly, is this a bible teaching, or is this a teaching of man? It's the exact same for Christmas and Easter! I don't want to be rude to any person following this blog, but you truly have no idea what you are talking about. Also, you are right about one thing. We are not supposed to follow Jewish Law. Is the Passover only a Jewish law? Did Jesus not change the Passover from two lambs and 12 loaves of bread offered on a golden table to bread and wine, his flesh and his blood? (In the order of Melchizedek) Isn't it his flesh and his blood we need for eternal life, and didn't Jesus himself "eagerly desired to eat this "Passover" with his disciples"? In Mathew 5:18 it clearly states that "For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished." I mean.... come on man. Where do you get this Holy Communion stuff from? Where does it say "take Holly Communion every Sunday" or every month in the bible? Does the verse "he will try to change the set times and laws ring a bell"? I'm not trying to be rude, but I promise you, you cannot win an argument against this church because the stuff you church practices is not written in the bible... anywhere. Infact, it's just the opposite! Maybe I need to go back to Zion :(

Are you surprised to know that the word "communion"

IS in the Bible? Try 1 Corinthians 10:16 — look it up in KJV.

The NIV translates that word “participation” and in the NASB it’s “sharing.” The Greek word is “koinonia” which means means “fellowship, association, community, communion, joint participation.”

and to Lol...

I have studied enough WMSCOG doctrine to know that it is false. They preach 2 “Gods” when the God of the Bible clearly states (many times!) that He is the only God. They teach that AhnsahngHong was “God” in the flesh, but cannot back it up with anything but vague or misinterpreted “prophecies.” And that is just the start of their false doctrine.

I am continually learning about more of the WMSCOG doctrine, but it does not clear things up.

What you mentioned about Adam and Eve, for example... Adam and Eve were not the first people?!? And you didn’t really mean that they only had 2 sons and no other children, right? Read Gen. 5:3-4. Is there any reason to believe that the people of this very first generation were not allowed to marry their own siblings?

The more I learn about WMSCOG doctrine, the more it shows the length the WMSCOG will go to try to reconcile their false teachings and inconsistencies.

We are each pretty firm on what we believe the Bible says, and I don’t expect to convince you away from your beliefs with my own words, just like you will not convince me.

BUT when “Mother God” dies and leaves you all here (or when 2012 comes and goes without the end of the world) then you will know that you have been deceived. I pray that then you will be able to see the truth and be set free to really get to know the one true God.

PS—Walter, in Hebrews 9:28, you might want to know that another meaning of the word for “salvation” in the Greek lexicon is “deliverance from the molestation of enemies” and the verse tell you that it is a salvation that doesn’t have to do with sin. Read it in the NASB. (You can look up the original language for yourself at studylight.org)

Lol at genny...of course adam and eve had other children other than the first two, cain and abel. IF U read the bible...adam and eve’s THIRD child is also a boy, but before the third child was born one of the first two got married to a women...adam and eve had no daughter at this point... lollll. Go read the bible...like I said u don’t know ALL the cog doctrine, thats why nothing makes sense to you.

Hey Lol, anyone ever told you how much of a nerd you are by acting so self-righteous? LOL. Quit the crap and show God's love if you're following the true Christ. Don't you know that it's Christ's love that wins people over to the truth of God over "which frickin' day the sabbath is" ?? Get over yourself. You're such a hypocrite. You're no better off than many catholics, presbyterians, baptists, pentecostals, or whatever christian you choose to criticize. You are a pig, a pharisee, a sheep in wolves clothing. You have twisted ideas about simple Biblical doctrine. You deny the Pauline doctrine which was inspired by the Holy Spirit you claim to follow. You make Jesus out to be reincarnated from His Jewish manifestation into a Korean body. You take all the truth of the Bible and make it a lie. You are a blasphemer, you and your cult. I feel sorry for the people who are so blind they can't even see their own COG has them acting as puppets in a "kingdom of god" which is full of vomit.

I am not racist; I study a Korean martial art. I embrace Asian culture, actually, and enjoy the company of Asian friends. Asian food is actually some of my favorite food. But, I'm not going to say the second coming of Christ is a Korean man, because I know it is not so.

Do I have to say this over and over again? Jesus Christ ascended this earth in a Jewish body. He had scars left on His Glorified body for Thomas the Doubter to touch. Don't you think it's kind of obvious that when Christ returns He will either have the same body He had when He came, or He will be completely spirit??

Nowhere in the Bible do we find Christ with a new body. We see that the believers who overcome will have brand new bodies, but what of Christ? It says nothing of the sort. Go figure :)

Look, I'm sorry if you're offended by what I said. It was typed with much emotion because it deeply saddens my heart that people who believe this kind of stuff are so brainwashed into focusing on doing works over seeing the truth.

That said, I highly suggest you really test the spirits. There are tons of people claiming to have fulfilled all of the same prophecies Ahn Sang Hong has "fulfilled". There are many wolves acting in sheeps clothing, many false Christs. Which is another point I must make: The pope may be a self-righteous religious figure, but where does he claim to make his way to God's throne calling himself "God" and blaspheming the Holy Spirit? I have heard no such thing.

Pierce, if you could point me in the direction to anyone else who can claim they fulfilled everything that the WMSCOG says Ahnsahnhong did I would greatly appreciate it. If you know something (specific) that I don't, please do share.

We know we need Jesus' body and blood to go to heaven. This is not in dispute, Correct? We know that Jesus gave us his body and blood during the Passover. Nor is this disputed. Correct?

Please explain why we don't need the Passover if,

1. Wages of Sin = Death Rm 6:23
2. Jesus' blood = forgiveness of sin. Mt 26:28
3. Unless you eat his body and blood you have no life in you. Jn 6:53
4. Do this in remembrance of me Lk 22:19
(#'s 2,3, and 4 were all said during the Passover)

So... If you have to have Jesus' flesh and blood, how do you get it? And, (since I know you will say Holy Communion) where in the bible does it say that you can have Jesus' flesh and blood on any day other than the 14th day of the first month of the year. Isn't that why Jesus "EAGERLY" desired to eat this Passover" with his disciples before he had to suffer? Why would he be eagerly waiting if he could have done it on any day; or even any Sabbath for that matter?

I'm not trying to rebut you, but you are calling me brainwashed and I just want to know, how can this possibly be explained any other way? I just want to know the truth.

Hi LOL, I am sorry you are misinformed. Christians don't worship the Sun God. I am a christian and have never ever worshipped the Sun God and neither have any of the other Christians on this blog. This issue of everyone but the "holier than thou" COG people worshipping on the "wrong" day is ridiculous anyway. You do know that the COG people in the States are worshipping on another day than the COG people on the opposite side of the world don't you? You are familiar with time zones, right? So which ones are worshipping on the right day? Can you answer that?

And you still haven't addressed the damage that has been done to my son both physically and mentally. Is that OK or what? The only reason my son is still in your cult is because of coercive mind control. It does exist in cults, and can be a powerful tool for deception and manipulation. Reply

You don't even know the fundamental topics of the bible, and yet you think you know our doctrine. First get the fundamental right and maybe it'll come to you. At the church when we preach, we don't preach the whole thing to them all at once.

It's like this, you're trying to swallow something before chewing it, by doing this you'll choke and die.

You make me laugh with your time zone comments, lollll. I haven't heard of anything so stupid. I'm not even going to answer that for you.

@ Lol: of course you won't answer the time zone question, because you do not know the answer. I actually hadn't thought of that. It's not a stupid question, quite valid really. I was told by the person who tried to convert me to COG that God would not hear my worship if I celebrated the Sabbath on Sunday. He used the idea that if he told me to meet him at a residence to give me $20 on Sunday, but I came Saturday, would I receive the money? No, because he would not be there Saturday but on Sunday.

By: Pierce on

Reply

Why is this a bad analogy? First, God is omnipresent: God will hear my worship whenever I praise His Holy Name. Secondly, it makes the Sabbath out to be a permanent date. Does this mean that whatever date the Sabbath occurs during a time zone is the date that's okay for that time zone, or is there only 1 time zone with God??

@ Walter: Thank you for being honest and genuine in seeking truth. I too am a truth seeker, believing in only 1 truth alone in all situations. There are reasons for everything that make things gray, but in all things there is only one truth: it is or it isn't so.

To express my interpretation on the Passover..

It is true – unless we eat of the flesh of Christ and drink His blood, we are dead. This is speaking figuratively, however. It is a spiritual truth, not one that we must physically do on a certain date or lose our salvation. Here's why I think this: The passover that the Hebrews celebrated was a physical lamb that had the blood painted over the doors to keep them safe in Egypt, I'm sure you know. Then they ate the lamb. They were safe. Although the blood certainly kept the Hebrews safe, it did not cleanse their sins in one sitting – it had to be done continually. This was because although it as a spotless lamb, a lamb is not perfect in it's ways. Christ on the other hand, took our sins upon Himself, He died and poured His blood out for our salvation of sins. This was done in the physical, and fulfilled in the spiritual. Do we truly eat of Christ's flesh and blood by worshiping through communion? No, it is a symbolic act which reminds us of what He did so we can keep our hearts in tact with the Lord's will for our lives. While it is a commandment of Jesus Christ to take eat of His flesh & blood, it is not to cleanse our sins. Jesus already permanently did that with His perfect self, being God, and all we have to do to be assured of salvation is believe, repent, and act in faith toward God. The account in Jn 6:53 is speaking figuratively, not literally, much like how Christ told Nicodemus he must be born again to enter the Kingdom of God. This doesn't mean a second physical birth, but a spiritual birth.

Furthermore, what about when Jesus talked to the Samaritan woman at the well? He told her He would give her eternal water which brought forth everlasting life. Water and blood are 2 different things, so is Jesus using another analogy to mean the same thing as His blood, or is He speaking of another topic altogether?

To answer your question on other Christs, I do not know their names specifically, I just know they -are- out there. I have watched the History channel, and they have documented people who claimed to have the crucifix scars, born this date, came from that genealogy, baptized this year and fulfilled this Bible verse. It's quite easy for anyone to do, really. A change of identity in the paperwork, a few self-inflicted scars, a good knowledge of biblical doctrine to twist, and a good alibi: some time later you have Korean antichrists, filipino antichrists, an antichrist from London, U.K., Benny Hinn (well, he's not an antichrist but I believe he is a fraud), and whoever else you can think of.

Sorry for the long message, but it was a lot to cover. If you think I am lacking biblical verses, feel free to tell me – I do have them I'm just too lazy to include it when I know I'm going to be shot down anyways.

Amen, Pierce.

Hi Walter,

When Jesus talked about us "eating His flesh and drinking His blood" He was speaking metaphorically. Read John chapter 6, and you'll see that the conversation starts with Jesus giving them a slight rebuke for seeking Him because He was able to fill their bellies with food, so He tells them to think in more spiritual terms and uses food as a bridge to that—"Don't work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life."

The people asked for a sign, just like their ancestors had manna as a sign in the wilderness. They called manna the bread from heaven.

Jesus continues on the theme and says, "I am the bread from heaven..."

Did the disciples (and do you) actually eat Jesus' flesh and do you actually drink His blood? No, it was unleavened bread (cracker) and wine (grape juice). It's symbolic.

Likewise the "eating" and "drinking" is sybollic. Symbollic of what? See John 6:35,

"Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believed in me will never be thirsty."

Coming to Jesus and believing in Him—the kind of belief that goes deep, not superficial. Like the difference between licking (or chewing) food and swallowing it.

Jesus EAGERLY desired to eat that Passover with His disciples because He knew what was going to be happening the next day. He knew He would be the fulfillment of the Passover lamb. He wanted His disciples to make the connection that just as the blood of the first Passover lamb allowed death to pass over the Israelites, so the blood of Jesus when spiritually applied to us, allows God to pass over our sins so that we can live eternally.

Also, when you look at the traditional Jewish celebration of Passover, and look at the Last Supper, you can see why Jesus was talking about the bread and the cup.

Reply

Leaven (yeast) is compared with sin in the Bible. The bread of the Passover is unleavened, and crispy like a cracker. Jesus was without sin like the bread was without leaven. His sinless body was the perfect sacrifice. And about the cup—there are 4 cups in the traditional Seder service and each has a specific significance. Luke 22:20 tells us that the cup of the new covenant is the one that was taken after the supper. That's the third cup which stands for God's promise of redemption.

In other words, we need Jesus' fulfillment of the Passover, but it's not in the way that the WMSCOG teaches.

and to Lol,
Walter had said that the word "communion" was not in the Bible, and I was simply correcting that misunderstanding. The Greek word was translated differently in the NIV, but if you search the KJV you will see it. I don't have to "convince" anyone that it's there—you can look it up yourself.

And about Adam and Eve, where does it say that Seth was their third son and that they did not have any daughters before that? Seth was born when Adam was 130 years old. Is it reasonable to assume that in that 130 years, Adam and Eve had only had 2 other children? I don't think so.

You must make an assumption here—whichever you choose, you are adding something to the Bible that was not directly written. Either:

1. God made other humans before (or at the same time) as Adam and Eve, and they had children that married the children of Adam and Eve.

2. Adam and Eve had other children (between Cain and Seth) that are not mentioned in the Bible, and this first generation of children married each other.

Which choice is more reasonable? I say #2. But EVEN IF you say #1, you must realize that you are still ADDING to what the Bible has written. The Bible doesn't even say how old Cain and Abel were when the first murder happened. Seth is mentioned in Gen. 5 because it was through his line that Noah came and therefore the rest of the human race we see today.

Pierce, your responses, as always, show your extensive knowledge of the Bible. LOL, your responses, as always, show that you know only the parts of the Bible that the COG has directed you to. Not the ones about how to live and love, which you really could use, but they direct you only to the ones they think you can use to defend them, because they really need defending! Anyone with freedom of thought can see through their misguided and twisted interpretations.

I know a lot about your doctrine, probably more than you do as I have studied it intensely for a long time. You become an expert on a sickness that is affecting a loved one, and the COG is my son's affliction right now. I have looked at the COG websites as well as the anti-cult websites. You probably don't know this, but your church does not want you on this website because it is like "eating from the tree of knowledge" and is forbidden. At least that is what they told my son. They don't want him looking at anything that is against what they are saying. Why are they so afraid? (Of course, I already know the answer)

I know how the church operates firsthand as well, as I have attended it several times. My husband and my daughter and daughter in law have also been there several times. My husband attended three times in one week at one point, and also did the Passover with my son twice. If what the church pushes was true, well that would be nice. But it is so obviously not, there are so many holes in your "truth" that it just doesn't work for someone who truly reads the Bible without undue influence. I know your church so well that I have been able to predict exactly what step they are going to take with my son next, and they have done it. I know exactly what unfortunate circumstance will befall my son next, too, and they have happened as I said they would. You haven't answered my question about if the physical and mental harm that has been done to my son is OK according to you. You simply try to assassinate my character, which makes me LOL because you don't even know me. But I have read that cults use character assassination and put downs to avoid answering questions or make people think they have done something wrong. It's just another technique, and it doesn't work on me. So answer the question please. Is it ok if he loses his wife, his job, his mind, and his health so he can continue to give your church money?

Lol, Genny.

By: genny on November 12, 2010 at 3:36 pm

#1 — You should listen to Pierce. He has good things to say and he expresses them well.

Reply

#2 — About Seth, you must not be a parent or you would understand a little more about the loss of a child. It doesn't matter how many children you have or how old they are. Are there any words to describe that kind of loss? It's not unreasonable for Eve to make a statement like that even if she had other children. The point still remains—you have to make one assumption or another. I'm just hoping you recognize that the WMSCOG teaching also speculates about something that is not written directly in the Bible.

#3 — Don't let relatively minor disagreements like that distract you from the main issue. The WMSCOG worships false gods and distorts the good news of Jesus.

..... I think it's safe to say we all "READ" our "BIBLE". The real question here is, have we allowed God to open our heart's eyes to comprehend it?

By: Pierce on

Lol, let me ask you this: do you pray before you turn the pages of the Bible? If you do, that's great and my prayer is that God allows you to discern that which is right from the wrong..

if you don't, my prayer is that you do, that you will know God the way I know God, if not more. Here is how I know I am saved: my relationship with God is that like a Father to His son. It's like the relationship of a car and the engine. Each time I open my Bible, the actions and flow of my daily life are confirmed in my heart with what my mind reads from the Holy Book. That's why it's the living word of God! It's amazing, all praise be to Yahweh.

LOL, you don't want to read my posts because they point out the ugly reality of what happens to people taken in by this cult, and the sadness their families experience. You aren't any expert on me. You don't know if I read the Bible or not. You are just angry because I have spoken from my heart and the truth of what I say is tough to respond to. I notice you haven't responded either. You have chosen to ignore my very relevant questions. You don't have an answer to any of them. I am sorry for that, and sorry for you, too. I hope God opens your eyes before you are taken in any further.

As for mountain mum...Yes, no doubt your family is going through a hard time. But i can go on forever talking about the behavior of certain mainstream christian and catholic churches and how they cause harm to others. This problem exist in all churches around the world.

The point is that with all the WMSCOG's talk about not adding anything to the Bible, not putting in your own understanding, opinions or interpretations, but only reading what is actually written — adding to the Bible is exactly what they do themselves...a lot. The story about Adam and Eve and where Cain got his wife is an example.

By: genny on November 15, 2010 at 3:23 pm

Reply

That's the problem with the WMSCOG's assumptions — they contradict their own principles.

Lol, that is an irrelevant question, "What makes your assumption more right than my assumption". Don't you think that's what Muslims and Jews will say when you preach to them? What about Atheists?

By: Pierce on November 14, 2010 at 8:12 am

Reply

How can you stand up to a Muslim who has full faith in Allah and the Koran and expect them not to ask you the same question? In a way, all religions assume they are more "right" than other beliefs' assumptions.

1 John 4 speaks about testing the spirits of everything to see if they are true or not. That is how we can know our "assumptions" are not false. By asking the Holy Spirit which is right, which is wrong, that is how we know. Who are the followers of Ahn Sang Hong to tell me that I do not know God? They don't know my heart, they only know what I believe.

In 1 John 4, we find John telling us how that the believer will be found in his confession that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, died and resurrected, is Lord.. Anyone else who tells you otherwise is not of God. What this means is that the Jesus, our God who became incarnate as a Jewish man, is Lord, and that Ahn Sang Hong, a Korean man who is -not- tied to Jesus in any way other than a bunch of coincidental alibis and twisting of scripture, could not possibly be the same Jesus who has come in the flesh 2,000 years ago.

Furthermore, in 1 John 4, John says to be a true Christian, we must love. From what I've heard of COG, they are very hard on their believers when it comes to tithes and offerings or not showing up to church or proselytizing. I understand they must act in discipline, church discipline is definitely enforced in the Bible. However, the COG goes about church discipline seems more egotistical and arrogant than in true love for the believer to remain obedient to God.

And amen to Genny & Mountainmom. No matter what these folks say, know that your Father will reward you in the end and new beginning of days.

LOL, I am a Presbyterian. I don't know of a single Presbyterian who has had their marriage, family relationships, careers, or finances damaged by their association with their church.

The COG does this damage to their members on a regular basis, and this is what the problem is with this "religion." It is a High Demand Group that uses mind control and deception, and rules it's members with fear. My son was told if he missed a Sabbath he would be "injured." This was told to him by the Pastor directly. The Pastor said he was injured once when he missed church, and his brother also had an accident. What a dirty trick to pull on someone, to put this irrational fear in their mind to control them. That's all it was. Another way to enforce obedience. What is that?

According to this video, we must be baptized in the name of the "Holy Spirit" since we have passed the age of the Father, and passed the age of the Son, and are now in the age of the Holy Spirit.

Tell me this, COG followers, please inform me on how that makes any logical sense? Please do not give me any of the same answers I've already heard about how in Revelation it speaks of Christ giving us His "new name". I have already heard that one too many times already – it proves nothing.

This is what I see: If we are to be baptized in the name of the Father during that age, in the name of the Son during Jesus' time, and the name of the Holy Spirit during His time, then why is it that the believers who came to the Christian faith from the biblical church up to now have always been by the name of Jesus Christ?

If that is the case, then how do we know that the new believers Paul baptized were truly baptized correctly, being under Jesus' name when Jesus was not present on the earth? According to COG, the name of the Holy Spirit was not revealed until recently, so how is it they were saved? How about people after that? Are all the Christians who have lived and died in history for Christ unsaved, even while following His commandments? According to COG, they would be unsaved because they weren't baptized in the correct name for the age of the Holy Spirit, right?

Furthermore, I still don't see how a new name changes the body of a Jewish man into a Korean man. It's reincarnation either way you look at it. Not to mention, Ahn Sang Hong was born into a Buddhist family before converting to Christianity and beginning his ministry, correct? Why would God want to be born into something He so strongly wants to abolish – a religion that seeks peace outside of God's plans.

Please answer me in honesty – do some real research on your own, find your own Bible verses. I don't want to hear the same agenda your church elders have taught you – that stuff is recycled all to often that I can't believe you call that proselytizing.

The church believes that most people have not gone to heaven because even though they had the name of the son, they did not have the Passover. They believe that most people will not go to heaven because we were sent here as a punishment for trying to kill our heavenly parents in Heaven (see Job). The earth is the city of refuge talked about in the bible and only the souls who were innocent in heaven but tricked by Satan will make it back to heaven. Also, the bible says that the second coming of Christ will come in the order of Melchizedek (Hebrews 7). Melchizedek came without genealogy (meaning he can't be Jewish), and without mother and father meaning, parents that do not believe. The church believes that Jesus could not have fulfilled Melchizedek because he had genealogy (Mt 1:1) and that he had parents that believed. Also, the second coming should come from the east (Rev 7:2) which John wrote when he was on the island of Patmos which is directly west of S. Korea. both on the 37th parallel which also happens to be the # of years that Jesus' second coming needs to preach to fulfill the root of David. (who reigned for 40 years while Jesus only reigned for 3). I know it sounds tough to believe but the problem is that this church does indeed follow the bible much closer than most other Christian denominations. I do not go to the church any longer and it is getting easier by the day to see the flaws, but their bible teaching is something i can not find very many flaws with. What other church can show you 1st coming Christ in the bible? I'm sure no one here even knows what I'm talking about, but the problem is that this church knows the bible better than anyone. I don't know how they did it unless they truly have god almighty in the flesh. I refuse to say anything bad about the church because I cant tell based on the teachings whether its true or not. All i can go off of is the people. The NY church made a video cutting pieces from the movie 300 which to me was kinda disturbing considering this was a church. Also, logic tells me that if some of us sinned in heaven unintentionally because we were tricked by Satan, then why would god send us to hell for not understanding the law on earth. I mean, God knows who is innocent and who is guilty and god knows whether we will come to the "truth" or not. So really, in the end, its not our choice because god can make us believe or not believe.... right? All i know is COG makes some very valid points, most Christians practice sun worship (whether they like to admit it or not) and I'm stuck somewhere in a state of confusions wondering how bad hell is going to be for me because i cant figure out who true god is.

Honestly, Walter, most Christians practice sun worship? No Christian I know does that. And what are we supposed to admit? There is nothing to admit. When I worship, it is God the Father. Do you think I say, "My Sun God, who art in heaven?" That is ridiculous. I pray as Jesus instructed us to, "Our Father who art in heaven." I do sun bathe though, does that count?

I'm not trying to be rude, but it is true. Why do you think we have Sunday worship. Research March 7th 321 AD and "venerable day of the sun". Also, research the history of Christmas. Do you know Jesus' real birthday? When did Jesus celebrate any birthdays? Did Jesus tell us to celebrate birthdays? Read about the plagues in the book of revelation. One might make sense if you do.

Walter, thank you for the Bible verses and analogies you've given. I'll take them into consideration and think/reflect on them.

That said, I must say that although their Biblical teachings may be pretty good and well-knit, you must understand that they aren't necessarily true. That's how they get you in on their little agenda – they "know" their Bible in and out, then they teach things to their congregations without letting the congregation know about the holes in their teachings.

Reply

I'll point out again the question of love: the Bible clearly says in John 13:35, Jesus tells us the world will know we are His followers by our love. In Paul's epistles, love is repeatedly a primary attribute of the Christian. Do the COG followers have the fruits of the spirit, most importantly love? Do the leaders have love for the backsliders in their churches, who may not pay enough in tithes? From what people have told me, that is not so.

Another thing I must point out is that although Jesus never told us to celebrate Christmas, He never said there is any harm in it. When I put up a Christmas tree, I don't worship it. Sure, I say it's a beautiful tree, or that the lights are pretty, but I can say a woman is beautiful and it's not worship. I don't live my day to day life just for Christmas, God has taken my heart. That said, what harm is there? None. It's all in good fun and festivities – has nothing to do with idolatry. If Christmas is harmful, we had better not go to the movies once a month with friends – that is ritualistic and therefore media worship :)

Romans 14:5 "One person esteems one day above another; another esteems every day alike. Let each be fully convinced in his own mind. "

The "day" refers to the sabbath and/or festivities. It is a personal conviction, not a legalistic rule. The law was killed at the cross with Christ. although we should not knowingly sin, we don't need to be tied to the law as the Jews once were.

I agree with you about it maybe not being true or else I would still go to service. The problem for me is how well the teachings fit together. And about the flaws, I can really only think of two that I noticed but they call one of them out before they show it to you and say it has a different meaning (which I asked about, but never got an answer). Maybe they are telling the truth, maybe they are lying. I don't know. About the love part, they do talk about love a lot, but not like most churches. They also talk about evil and gods wrath more than any other church I ever went to. I tell myself that this is just a scare tactic to keep me going to service, but the problem is that the bible does say all of these things. Jesus did preach a lot about love, but he was also very stern in his teachings and was quick to point out the evils in people. After all, he is god and he has the right, no? I see your point about Christmas, but the bible says that the sun will scorch the people (Rev 7 and 16) and this can be read figuratively or physically. I mean, given the Catholic church could have picked any day of the year to celebrate the birth of Christ and they picked the sun gods birthday is kind of scary. Maybe its just a coincidence... but I know I'm not celebrating it this year. I'm just not willing to risk it.

Now, about Romans Ch 14. This is touchy. If you read from vs1 it is talking about two different people. One who's faith is weak, and one who's isn't. In my opinion, this does not mean that Saturday is not the correct day and can be substituted with Sunday. It just means that I (as a mortal man) do not have the right to judge anyone who does not have strong enough faith to keep the Sabbath. Of course god does have the right to judge us based on our faith and for not knowing him.

And about the tithe issue. I kept service regularly for 5+ mos. I was never once hassled about my tithes. the only time i was even asked about them was when i applied to go to Korea. Tithes were kept private and personal. In fact, I was never even told about tithes until I was into my second month of keeping service. I did almost leave because I was raised Methodist and was always told that any church that tithes is not following the bible because one should not have to pay to go to heaven. The truth is however that Jesus does talk about tithes and we know that Melchizedek the high priest (who the second coming will come in the order of) did tithe.

I hate the fact that I feel like I am defending this church. I am not trying to. I can only state what I know based on my view point of what i witnessed. I am just being honest. The reason I left is simple. 666 was probably really 616 in the book of Revelation and if Ahnsahnghong was god then the study about Daniel's dream might have been different. How can mother be the praise of the earth if most people will not go to heaven or worship in the COG. How can the blood of someone I did not preach to be on my head if the world can not end until everyone has heard about mother. And why-o-why do some of the church members make a video taking clips from 300 with people getting their heads chopped off and other violence put to a sound track that is just short of rapping about raping and pillaging and show this to the "brothers" in between services? Is this really profit or angelic-like behavior? These contradictions do not make sense to me, but unfortunately they have nothing to do with the way the interpret the bible.

Of course you don't want to feel like defending them, Walter. You're on the right track, I can already tell. I can't tell you what to believe – that's between you and God. What I can tell you is to look at the big picture: whether you love the WMSCOG or not, they have too many errors in their teaching to be accurately followed.

They may know some truth, but that's all they know. No human can ever tell you how to perfectly follow Christ in every way, because we're human and until heaven comes down to destroy and reform earth in the last days, we will not be seeing anything perfected.

I don't care if one is methodist, catholic, lutheran, pentecostal, what have you – it's all corrupted in some way or another. Now, that doesn't mean that a methodist, catholic, lutheran, or pentecostal is going straight to Hell. As long as one believes in the basic truths: Man is sinfully fallen and separated from God, Man can obtain salvation from repenting of sins and believing on Jesus Christ, Man then follows His commandments (summed up in the word "Love") and Man does good works as result of the overwhelming grace of God.

Let any COG pastor tell me off for saying that, but they know it's true in their heart even if they don't believe it. They know, or else they wouldn't try to defend themselves. Walter, I don't know what to tell you that you don't already know or have some opinion on, but I do know that you just gotta keep pressing on in this spiritual battle. Don't settle for less than the truth – research everything out and don't believe everything any one religion tells you. Seek it out. Muslims are just as tight in their own scripture as COG is, so for all we know it is Allah we should be following and not Jesus or AhnSangHong. If it weren't for God personally revealing Himself to me through answering my prayers daily for years on end, I might not have faith in Jesus, but in some other god instead. That's how I know the Triune God I serve is real – the real answering of prayer. Sorry for the long message, but you know this is a tough subject hehe :)

Everything in the bible is there for a reason, every single verse.

Even according to common sense it's hard to believe adam and eve is the first human being. Science shows that it's impossible. If you get some education, you'll find out how human came to be...science and the bible must go hand in hand.

Reply

I never said my belief is base on assumptions..genny wrote that a person has to make assumptions when reading the bible and hopefully their assumption matches hers or else, lolll. This clearly shows that her belief is base on making assumptions here and there because there are many things that don't make sense to her.

Lol, we do not need assumptions in understanding how the Bible tells us to be saved. It says it straight out, "For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast." (Eph. 2:8-9)

If you'll remember, we had been talking about Adam and Eve and Cain. The Bible does not say specifically who Cain's wife was. Therefore, any statement anyone makes about who Cain's wife was involves some measure of assuming, deducing, inferring.... Some answers will be more reasonable than others. (For example, there's probably someone who will say that she was an alien.) I'm sorry that you don't seem to understand this, but hopefully other people reading here get the point.

Lol,
you do realize how contradictory it is to say science and the Bible must go hand in hand and that it's too hard to believe Adam and Eve were the first human beings, while also believing in GOD?

First off, don't EVER put God in a box as if you know how He works in all of His ways. He is omni-everything. This means He has no limits, no boundaries. If He wants to create 2 people and have them pro-create until we have as many people as we have today, He'll allow it and make it possible. If He wants to be 3 simultaneous persons as Father, Son, and Spirit still equally 1 God, He can do that.

Why is it so easy for you to believe Jesus Christ the Jewish man went up to Heaven at the end of the Gospels, and "came back down out of the clouds" as a Korean man, completely different in every which way even to the personality, and yet you can't believe in the Trinitarian doctrine nor that God would have the power to create 2 human beings alone from the mud of the earth, whether science agrees with it or not?

I agree that science and the Bible must go hand in hand, but only because science reveals how true the Bible is all the more. Science is simply discovery. It is not complete fact, for science changes as our discoveries change. There is a scientist out there today claiming gravity is a myth, and that the law of gravity in truth is a phenomenon of something other than the "fact" that gravity exists. It is inconclusive, but fact is science changes it's views. The Bible never changes, at least not the foundational doctrines.

Jamie, that was a bit graphic lol but other than that, you are so right. Especially concerning your response to Chelsea in 2009. I was also approached by these people and went to some bunch of studies just to see what it was about and I found that their teachings only contradicted the truth of Christ that God clearly revealed all over the bible. What also struck me about these people is that, for those who claim to be so filled with the holy spirit, they did not display any of the fruits of the spirit. That was an immediate red flag. I was treated horribly because of my curiosity and challenging questions. Any "religion" that is so threatened by honest questions, is very dangerous. I also noticed they have a select few verses to support their statements. I've been reading through the New Testament and you can't escape the fact that Christ is

I've read some comments on here for a while, and what I want to ask is how will we know which church to go to? Every single church says they're in the right. But they all lack some truth one way or another. As someone who's been searching for the truth, I really don't know what to do anymore. I've been pulled this way and that. Every church I've been to contradicted themselves. I do believe Jesus will come again. I don't want to follow traditions with pagan origins. Such as Xmas. Some say it is just a day for fun and presents but it is actually to celebrate Jesus's birth. But it does not state when he was born.

You said, "I guess we'll all just have to pray that God has mercy on us."

Reply

That's exactly it!! We must rely on God's grace and mercy to save us. Salvation is His gift to those who believe and trust in Him and accept Jesus' sacrifice as payment for their sin.

It is not about how well we keep rules and regulations and laws and commands, because it is impossible to keep them all perfectly 100% of the time. If you rely on your own efforts to achieve salvation, you will inevitably fail.

A truly believing heart will produce the fruit of obedience, but is it ceremonies and regulations and rules that are the most important to God? No. The greatest commandments are love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength, and love your neighbor as yourself. (Mark 12:29-31)

But 100% obedience, 100% of the time is still unachievable, even for the believer—we still stumble and make mistakes. Even Paul struggled. (Romans 7:14-25) Praise God that He looks at our hearts more than at our actions!

We must each finally come to the place where we realize that we cannot rely on ourselves or our pastor or our church membership or our parents or our checklist of required works... None of those things has power to save us from our sins. We can only rely on God's mercy and the grace He has given to pay for those sins Himself through Jesus' sacrifice on the cross.

"For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." — Rom. 6:23

There are verses all over the New Testament that speak of works being produced by faith, but not at all necessary for Salvation. The person who is saved will certainly obey the word of God out of pure will because of the Holy Spirit in his/her life, though to achieve perfect obedience is impossible.

Reply

Also, I heard this on a radio talk show recently: the reason we worship on Sunday in place of the Sabbath is because the Old Covenant commanded Jews to celebrate the Sabbath, but under the New Covenant in Christ, we celebrate God on the first day of the week, "Sunday", in place of the New Sabbath. When the Gentiles were converted to Christianity, they were not expected to worship on the Sabbath. The Messianic Jews would celebrate on the Sabbath if they so chose to out of obligation, but the Gentiles, according to Paul, were not obligated to do so.

This link carries out all details of my point..

<http://www.repentnow.com/sabbath.htm>

And this verse sums it all up in a nutshell:

Colossians 2:16-17

16. Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

17. Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

The character Abraham is used to represent God in the Bible. Through the history of Abraham's family, God has revealed to us how we can inherit the kingdom of heaven.

Isaac was the one who received Abraham's inheritance. Even though Abraham had another son named Ishmael, born through Hagar, God did not allow Ishmael to receive the inheritance of Abraham. Rather, God bestowed the inheritance upon Isaac, who was born through Sarah. The reason why Isaac was chosen as Abraham's heir was that Isaac was the son of Sarah, who was free. This history shows us that the heavenly inheritance will be given to those who are born of the heavenly Mother, who is free. Christ Ahnsahnghong taught us that our heavenly Mother does in fact exist and that She is truly the biggest mystery hidden within the Bible. Let us study "The History of Abraham's Family and Mother," taught to us by Christ Ahnsahnghong.

Abraham Represents GodFirst of all, we need to recognize who the character Abraham represents in the Bible. Luke 16:19-31 "...The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. In hell, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. So he called to him, 'Father Abraham...'" " As you know, this parable is about a beggar, named Lazarus, and a rich man. The parable tells of Lazarus, who died and was carried to heaven, and a rich man, who was sent to hell to be tormented. Lazarus was obviously carried to God's side after he had died; however, the Bible states that Lazarus traveled to Abraham's side. In the parable, the rich man, who went to hell, called up to God in the distance; however, the Bible states that the man saw Abraham, and called up to him, saying, "Father Abraham." Who is the only one who is worthy to be called "Father" in the spiritual world? God is the only one who can be called upon in this way. Then, whom does Abraham represent? Logically, the character Abraham was chosen to represent God. Therefore, the inheritance of Abraham can be likened to the inheritance of God, the kingdom of heaven.

Isaac, the Heir of AbrahamThen, let us find out who was appointed as Abraham's heir. There were three candidates who could have been chosen as the heir of Abraham: Eliezer, Ishmael, and Isaac. Among them, who became Abraham's heir? It was Isaac who was appointed. We need to understand the reason why Isaac was chosen to be Abraham's heir. Gen. 15:1-4 "...But Abram said, "O Sovereign LORD, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir." Then the word of the LORD came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir." When Abraham was an old man and had not yet borne a son, he asked God to allow his servant Eliezer to be his heir. However, God did not allow Eliezer to become Abraham's heir, revealing that a son would be born from Abraham's own body and that he would become his heir. Some time later, Hagar, Sarah's maidservant, bore Abraham a son: Ishmael. Gen. 16:1-15 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. But she had an Egyptian maidservant named Hagar; so she said to Abram, "The LORD has kept me from having children. Go, sleep with my maidservant; perhaps I can build a family through her." Abram agreed to what Sarai said...So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son she had borne.

Ishmael was born to Abraham through a maidservant named Hagar, and Abraham asked God to allow Ishmael to become his heir.

Gen. 17:18-19 And Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing!" Then God said, "Yes, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will call him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.

When Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing," God did not allow Ishmael to become his heir. Instead, God promised Abraham that he would have a son through his wife, Sarah. Isaac was born as God had promised, and of the three?Eliezer, Ishmael, and Isaac?Isaac was chosen to be Abraham's heir.

The Key Factor in Deciding an Heir Is "Mother"Let's study the reason why God chose Isaac to be Abraham's heir. Both Eliezer's father and his mother were slaves, neither of them was free. This is the reason why God did not allow him to be Abraham's heir. Ishmael's father, Abraham, was free, but his mother, Hagar, was a slave and not a free woman. This is why God could not allow Ishmael to become Abraham's heir. Isaac's father, Abraham, was a free man, and his mother, Sarah, was a free woman. The fact that Isaac had been born of a free woman was the big difference between Ishmael and Isaac, and this discrepancy became the key factor in choosing Abraham's heir.

In those days, the eldest son inherited all of his family's property. Since Ishmael was older than Isaac, he should have become the heir? that is, if God had made His decision according to the paternal line. Ishmael was not chosen to become Abraham's heir, even though he was Abraham's eldest son, because his mother was not a free woman, but a slave. Thus, it is clear that the decisive factor in choosing Abraham's heir was his mother.

What we need to focus on while studying the history of Abraham's family is not merely the story of a man and his family. As you know, the Bible is not a storybook to tell us of men and their families. Nevertheless, God repeatedly mentioned the story of this particular family. Actually, the history of Abraham was a shadow of what was to happen in the future. In order for us to know who could become God's heir, the story of Abraham's family was written, as a prophecy.

Therefore, through the history of Abraham's family, we can clearly understand that the decisive factor in choosing an heir is the mother. As Isaac became Abraham's heir through Sarah, his free mother, we can become God's heirs through our heavenly Mother, who is a free woman. Only those who believe in the heavenly Mother?only the children who are born through the new covenant?can inherit the heavenly Father's kingdom. Let us read one more verse testifying about the heavenly Mother.

Gal. 4:22-31 ...But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother...Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

The Bible declares that we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman. Ishmael could not inherit his father's estate because his mother, Hagar, was only a slave, not a free woman. On the other hand, Isaac was chosen to become Abraham's heir because his mother, Sarah, was a free woman. The Bible also testifies that we, like Isaac, are the children of promise, the children of the heavenly Mother, who is free.

In today's world, there are three types of people: those who are like Eliezer, those like Ishmael, and those who are like Isaac. The first type of people, who are like Eliezer, are atheists, who do not believe in Father God or in Mother God. The second type of people, who are like Ishmael, are those who believe in Father God, but do not believe in Mother God. The third type of people, who are like Isaac, are those who believe in Mother God as well as Father God. According to the history of Abraham's family, which one of these three types can become an heir of the kingdom of heaven? Only the third type of people, who are like Isaac, can be recognized as God's heirs. There is no doubt about it.

Which group of people do you want to be classified with? If you want to be like Isaac, you must first become a child of the free woman. Thus, you must accept the heavenly Mother, who is free. The Bible testifies to this fact.

God said, "My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge" (Hos. 4:6). What kind of knowledge is God referring to in this verse? We must recognize that we have a God the Mother, as well as a God the Father. We must accept Elohim God. Also, we must firmly believe that God is our Mother, who gives us salvation alongside our Father. Only after we come to realize this can we say that we have the knowledge of God, and that we will not be those who are destroyed from a "lack of knowledge."

The Bible testifies that the Holy Spirit is God Ahnsahnghong, and that the Bride is Jerusalem Mother. Let us accept God Ahnsahnghong, the Holy Spirit, and Jerusalem Mother, the Bride, who give us the water of life in these last days, so that we can enter the kingdom of heaven.

Believers of the World Mission Society Church of God, tell me this much: did Ahn Sang Hong grow up a Buddhist or did he not? If such is true, he CANNOT be the second coming of Christ, for Jesus Christ never once sinned; God cannot know sin, God does not sin, and God will never be a sinner. Someone who is born into and acknowledges a religion that is contrary to the word of God is an idol worshiper and thus a sinner.. whether or not that person repents of sin later on does not make a difference; if they have sinned even once, they are not God.. again, Ahn Sang Hong could not be the Christ if this is true..

so again, I ask, was Ahn Sang Hong a Buddhist before converting to Christianity?

Christ Ahnsahnghong is the prophetic Melchizedek. Let's see what much more is to say about Melchizedek that now we children of Almighty Elohim God can understand and believe in Him.

By: Bell on January 19, 2011

Reply

Heb 7:1-4 "This Melchizedek was king of Salem and priest of God Most High. He met Abraham returning from the defeat of the kings and blessed him, and Abraham gave him a tenth of everything. First, his name means "king of righteousness"; then also, "king of Salem" means "king of peace." Without father or mother, without genealogy, without beginning of days or end of life, like the Son of God he remains a priest forever."

Let's study in detail each of the characteristics that Christ has to fulfill when He comes in the order of Melchizedek as the High Priest:

1) King of Salem

Salem was a gentile country that existed at the time when Abraham was living. Gentile refers to non-Israelite tribes, meaning that the people in there did not believe in the creator God. Melchizedek was the king of this Kingdom. So, the prophetic Melchizedek has to be born in a country that do not believe in God and that they do not belong to any of the tribe of the Israelites. However, when Jesus came, to which country He came to?

- He came to Israel! – as a part of the prophecy, did He fulfill? – NO

Even at Jesus death, how did the Israelites call Him: Matthew 27:35 "When they had crucified him, they divided up his clothes by casting lots. And sitting down, they kept watch over him there. Above his head they placed the written charge against him: THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS."

As you can see Jesus did not fulfill the 1st prophetic point about Melchizedek.

2) "Without father or mother"

Can this be physically possible? No, because it is impossible for anyone on this earth to be born without Father or Mother, for this reason we could understand that this characteristic must have a biblical meaning. The Bible acknowledges only those who believe in God as the father or the mother of a man (Matt. 12: 50). Thus, the words, "(Melchizedek is) without father or mother," mean that the spiritual Melchizedek was to be born among unbelievers. However, Jesus was born of a believer family: "Joseph and Mary" So, did Jesus fulfill the 2nd prophetic point? – NO

Matthew 12:46-50 "While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him. Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

2) "Without genealogy"

In the Bible, "genealogy" refers to the twelve tribes of Israel, in other words with Jewish blood. The words, "(Melchizedek is) without genealogy," mean that the spiritual Melchizedek would be born among the Gentiles, without Jewish blood; however, Jesus was born of the tribe of Judah (Matthew 1:1).

These were the characteristics of Melchizedek that Apostle Paul felt were too hard to explain. At that moment Apostle Paul could not explain very well because the people has no faith in Christ Jesus as God, so it was so difficult to say that Jesus did not fulfilled this prophecy in His first coming, that is why He promised to come a Second time. Heb. 9:28 "...he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him."

Then when Second Coming Christ appears, who's prophecy must He fulfilled? – Melchizedek, meaning that He has to be born in a unbeliever country, that has not Jewish blood line, his parents cannot believe in God and He has to bless us with bread and wine. This will make second coming Christ Almighty God.

Who came and fulfill this prophecy:

Christ Ahnsahnghong has come from the East in 1948 to fulfill this prophecy.

Christ Ahnsahnghong has to fulfill the following factors in order to be Second Coming Christ.

- 1) He will be born among unbelievers ("without father or mother").
- 2) He will be born of Gentiles ("without genealogy").
- 3) He will bless us with eternal life through the Passover bread and wine.
- 4) He is God ("without beginning of days or end of life").

Christ Ahnsahnghong was born in 1918 in South Korea and fulfilled all of these prophecies. At that time in 1918 the majority of Korea were either Buddhist or Confucian; there was no trace of Christianity in Korea. If the people did not believe in God, it is impossible for Christ Ahnsahnghong to be born in a household of believers. Christ Ahnsahnghong was born in a Buddhist home; through this he fulfilled the characteristic of Melchizedek "without father or mother".

After the destruction of Israel in 70 A.D. the Jews spread through out the whole world, without a country of their own. They entered every nation, and mixed with the people of that nation, for this reason is very hard to tell who does not descends from a Jewish genealogy. But the only country where Jewish people never entered, was South Korea. Korea, is known as the "Hermit Kingdom". Meaning that they dislike everybody else that was not Korean. They were very xenophobic. The Korean xenophobia even came to the extreme case where Korean women would commit suicide if they lost their chastity to another man other than their husband, and they would never mix with men from other nations. It is a dishonor to their culture and heritage to intermix with other nations. For this reason it is impossible to find any Jewish blood, so Christ Ahnsahnghong, who was born in Korea did not come from the twelve tribes of Israel, and has no Jewish blood. In this way Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled the characteristic of Melchizedek "No genealogy". Christ Ahnshanghong fulfilled the prophecies about the Second Coming Jesus. We members of the Church of God World Mission Society believe that Ahnsahnghong is the Second Coming Christ our Savior, who came in the order of Melchizedek.

Isa. 25:6 "On this mountain the LORD Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for all peoples, a banquet of aged wine the best of meats and the finest of wines ...he will swallow up death forever...In that day they will say, "Surely this is our God; we trusted in him, and he saved us.""

Only God will prepare this feast of aged wine that has the power to destroy death forever in the last days. The only feast in the Bible that uses wine and has this kind of power is the Passover of the New Covenant. After the Passover was abolished by the Nicaea Council in 325 A.D. no church has celebrated the Passover that is described in the Bible. Even though they say they do, they are basically lying to their member, because it is written, that it will be only be established by Almighty God who is to come in the flesh.

The only one that since then has preach about the true Passover is Ahnsahnghong as it is prophecied in the Bible. Christ Ahnsahnghong was baptized at the age of 30 in 1948 according to the prophecies of King David and the prophecy of the fig tree.

Before the end comes, we need to accept Ahnsahnghong, the Second Coming Christ, who fulfilled the prophecies of Melchizedek. Christ Ahnsahnghong blessed us with eternal life through the bread and wine of the Passover. Christ Ahnsahnghong is our Savior, according to the Bible.

believe that there is a God or that any other church is true, particularly when such churches do not follow God's commands, but rather men made traditions-that are not even in the bible "/ (I am not pointing the finger to any church in particular, for the same can be said or overly discussed as we can see in this blog by those that do not agree with the teachings of church of god). I have also found difficult to find flaws in the teachings, although I have found contradictions elsewhere.

Reply

Personally, I think we all pick and choose which bible verses to post, pay attention to, read or defend in an attempt to prove out point/s. Yet, I have come to understand that no one single verse is more important than the other. They were all written for a reason and thus must be equally pertinent, significant, otherwise, why are they in the bible in the first place?! (this is under the belief OF COURSE, that even though the bible was put together by human hands it was the Almighty God the one who inspired its writings and that He knew which books would be omitted and which ones would make the cut).

I agree with Walter in many things and do not want to offend, hurt, or be disrespectful towards anyone. I think we should all pay a little more close attention to the theology and history of the doctrines we so strongly defend and follow. For just as we do not know much about 2nd coming christ's life or how he came to put all these teachings together, neither do many christians know how their religion came about and what is really behind the rules and regulations they adhere to~I could go on for days on this topic, but that's not why I decided to write on this blog again.

To end, we all claim to know Jesus and to love Jesus and to see Jesus as only God and way to heaven. However, it is the same Jesus that said that he was the life, the truth and the way and that no one could go to the father unless through him, the one that also said that he was the Lord of the Sabbath, so who are we to pick and choose and give more value to one verse over another? It was the same Jesus that left us the commandment to love each as he's loved us, the one that said, I tell you the truth (He's not speaking in parables here) unless you EAT the flesh of the son of men and DRINK his blood you have no life in you and no Genny, I can't agree with you on this one, he might have been speaking figuratively in the sense that his body and blood would be represented by bread and wine, but that's about it, otherwise he would not have EVER wasted his time given his disciples wine and bread to eat as a representation of his body and blood and waited to do so on the PASSOVER night right before he died for us and asked for them to do such an act as a remembrance of him. The Passover night and the bread and wine must be of great importance for him to say that, not his disciples that unless we DRINK and EAT of it we have no life in us and only he who drinks will have eternal life= salvation. And of course there is a verse that said that we are saved by faith, by believing in Christ. But it could be argued that Christ left us Passover and if we have faith and believe in him we would part take on this celebration. There's also a verse that says that faith without deeds is dead, so faith might mean action. I mean if we do celebrate Passover we can't boast and said we were save because of our right doing, but rather thanks to the mercy of god that through the Passover cleansed us from our sin. Anyways, this just goes back to "all verses are important." In my humble opinion, Passover is important and it happens once a year, but like I said before I'm not here to prove a point or to make any one a believer of Passover or anything for that matter. I am not interested in arguing or engaging in an "I say, you say, we say" ordeal. I mainly wanted to let Walter know that he is not alone and that I too understand his pain and his confusion! It is not about 2nd coming christ or mother Jerusalem; It's about wanting to do what is right yet not being able to because one is not blind and sees all the flaws in bible teachings and interpretations of sooooo many denominations (church of god might be included in this)!! As of right now I just rather follow my own heart, far far far away from any religion, tradition, or doctrine. Anything men made religious idea-custom disgusted me at this point!! May God (Alpha and Omega) truly TRULY have mercy on us all (I wish this from deepest of my soul)!

interesting; however, no one has answered my question upfront as of yet: was Ahn Sang Hong born into a Buddhist family and a Buddhist himself before he founded his church?

Heb. 8:5 They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven.

All of the earthly systems are a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. The family system is the same. Christ Ahnsahnghong revealed to us the existence of the heavenly Mother by teaching us about the heavenly family system through the earthly family system.

Reply

Everything within the spiritual world is reflected on this earth. In other words, everything on the earth is a shadow, and the things in heaven are the realities of what is on earth.

God established the earthly family system to show us that there is also a family system in heaven. The reason why God made every family on the earth has a father, a mother, and children was to reveal that in heaven, as well, there are a Father, a Mother, and children. God's providence is to let us know that there exists a God the Mother in heaven, as well as a God the Father.

Do you want to be a part of the heavenly family? Let us find out how we can be members of the heavenly family.

House

What are you reminded of when you hear the word "family"? Don't you think of a "house"? Jesus also mentioned a "house" many times in the Bible.

John 14:1-3 "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place [house] for you. And if I go and prepare a place [house] for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.

Jesus said that the Father's house surely exists. As of now, the house has been prepared. Then, who will be the members of this house? The family system described in the Bible is paternalistic. As you can see through your physical family, the first, main member of the house is the father. Therefore, if there is a father in the families on the earth, there must also be a Father in heaven.

Heavenly Father Ahnsahnghong

Let us find out if we have a Father in heaven.

Heb. 12:9 Moreover, we have all had human fathers who disciplined us and we respected them for it. How much more should we submit to the Father of our spirits and live!

The God in heaven is our God the Father. Just as we have a physical father on this earth, we have a spiritual Father in heaven. He is God the Father, Ahnsahnghong.

Children of Heavenly Father Ahnsahnghong
Who comes to mind next when we think of a family? Most people will think of a "mother." But before we consider "mother," we have to think about what kind of person can be called a "father." No one can be called "father" unless he has a child. No matter how old a man is, if he has had no children, who would call him "father"? The title "father" is only used by children.

Therefore, a family must have children. Let us find out if our heavenly Father has children.

Matt. 12:46 While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him. Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

Here, we can find the words "brothers" and "sisters." Just as we have physical brothers and sisters, we have spiritual brothers and sisters. God's children, who call upon the God in heaven as "Father," must follow the will of the heavenly Father. In the Church of God, the children of the heavenly Father keep the Sabbath, the Passover, and all of the other truths, according to the will of the Father in heaven. The Church of God follows the teachings of Christ Ahnsahnghong, and we are brothers and sisters.

Heavenly Mother Jerusalem
We have studied that there exist a God the Father, and His children, in the heavenly family. Then, who is left? It's Mother.

Gal. 4:25-26 Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

In this verse we can find the words "our mother." "Our" refers to the children who believe in God. This verse reveals that there exists a heavenly Mother to the children who will be saved.

So far, we've studied about which members compose a family, and we have confirmed that we have a spiritual family in heaven. Just as we have fathers, brothers, sisters, and mothers in our physical families, we have our spiritual Father, brothers, sisters, and spiritual Mother in our spiritual family.

The Family Must Be Connected by Blood
What connects a family together? It's blood. Just as physical children inherit their father and mother's flesh and blood, the spiritual children inherit the spiritual Father and Mother's flesh and blood. If the physical family is connected by physical blood, then the heavenly family is connected by heavenly blood, because what is on earth is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven.

John 6:53-55 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink."

Jesus fed his people with His flesh and blood, so the heavenly Father and Mother's blood and flesh are now in us. Only God has eternal life. The flesh and blood of God—who gives eternal life—has been given to us, God's children. Thus, we have become eternal beings and we are able to call upon God, "Abba, Father!"

Right to Become the Children of Father Ahnsahnghong
Then, through what truth can we receive the right to become God's children? How can we inherit the flesh and blood of our heavenly Father?

Matt. 26:17-19 On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?" He replied, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, 'The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.'" So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

Matt. 26:26-28 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

As shown above, the Passover bread is Jesus' body, His flesh, and the Passover wine is Jesus' blood. By eating and drinking the bread and wine of the Passover, we can receive God's flesh and blood and become God's children.

Christ Ahnsahnghong is the one who brought the Passover in this last age. Christ Ahnsahnghong is our spiritual Father who brought us the Passover, which spiritually connects us with God. Our spiritual Mother is the true God who gives us birth and brings us up. Don't you want to be a member of the spiritual family? Let us all become God's children, receiving the flesh and blood of our heavenly Father Ahnsahnghong and our heavenly Mother through the Passover of the new covenant, so that we can inherit the kingdom of God.

The question has been raised that even back in the early times of the church, the book of Hebrews and the book of James were questioned as to whether or not they were valid books of the Bible. Martin Luther himself questioned whether the book of James should be a part of the biblical cannon.

Now, I believe that the cannon we hold now is the books used by the biblical church, and I believe the books of the Bible to be the correct and holy word of God; however, I did not just come to believe that because it's "true", I came to believe that through my research.

In fact, for all we know there is a book or two missing! The only thing we can count on is knowing that the apostles validated each others words in the books of the New Testament and that's how we "know".

Having said that, it is great to have faith in something, but blind faith in something is pathetic and ignorant. You won't go very far..

Finally, your scripture quoting certainly suits what you are trying to say and is a good attempt at backing yourself up, although one thing: you twist each and every one of those verses which could be interpreted a number of ways, how do you know that the term "mother which is above" is specifically referring to some heavenly mother which is God? Because Ahn Sang Hong said so? Pssst, that's blind faith, dearest Bell. Why do you believe Ahn Sang Hong is Christ? Because the Bible says so? Well, how do you know the Bible is true? Blind faith. You need to know 100% for sure that what you believe is true, dearest Bell, or you may end up wasting your time in something when you could be getting closer to the truth.

Believe in Ahn Sang Hong, Zhang Gil-Jah, and their lies and you WILL end up in Hell. Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved. NOWHERE in the Bible does it say that Ahn Sang Hong and the heavenly mother saves anyone. Whether or not Christ has a new name, it is the name of Jesus Christ that saves, and until there is written a book in the Bible where a new name is what saves, then I will continue to believe in the holy scriptures the name of Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life, in which no man cometh to the Father but by Him.

That passage will NEVER EVER change. Jesus didn't say "For now, I am the way".. no, Jesus said I AM the way, I AM the truth, I AM the life, NO man cometh to the Father BUT BY ME.. period, thus says the Lord.

Wow, you have memorized your studies very well. I remember when I had them all memorized and could recite them too. I guess that is what happens when you are at church studying everyday. The problem is that there are verses that contradict with teachings of the church. My new favorite one is Mt 24:32 which I never saw when I was "in the truth". This verse clearly shows how the fig tree might not represent Israel in this verse, which is what the church teaches us. Also, there are several other problems, not necessarily with the bible teachings, but with the beliefs of the church. I know that no matter what anyone says, you will not listen, because I too was under the same manipulation that you were. And you honestly believe that everyone is under the spell of Satan except for you and your brothers and sisters at Zion. The problem is, that soon, 2011 is going to pass, and 2012 will come and go and a lot of people will have given up everything they had been working hard for. They have given their lives to the church, and for what? I know that you are scared to doubt the church, and let me tell you, the fear takes a while to go away even after you realize that it's not true. I even had to stop talking about it for a while because I was getting too freaked out about the end of the world happening. When you realize that it is not true, please do not give up hope. My first instinct was to be mad at the bible and to give up all hope in faith. After doing some research you start to realize how the church has truly twisted the meaning of some of the verses of the bible? Then later you will start to recognize the hypocrisy and the rightness of the members of Zion that you were unable to see previously. I truly believe that it is not your fault or any of their faults because I know what it is like to be a member of that church. The really scary part is, if you are anything like me, you are scared to doubt the teachings of your pastor or missionary, but at the same time you are not scared to doubt (or question) Luke (I think) himself when he says, "Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved". To me... that pretty much seals the deal. No ifs, ands, or buts. Now, I know that COG uses this verse, and they have a rhyme and a reason for almost everything, but the problem is that when you question their teachings, they ask you (or at least they asked me), "How can you question God!?!?" but my new response is, "Acts 4:12... how can you question God!?!?" Please don't do anything to alienate your family and the people who were close to you before you were deep into "the truth". It makes it very hard and humiliating to go back when it's over. I speak from experience.

A few other things to think about.

Why is there NO information anywhere about Ahnsohng Hong available... anywhere except for church sources.

If he was God how can the teaching about Daniel's prophecy be true when the real number of the beast is probably 616, not 666, and if the COG had true God, wouldn't their teachings reflect this typo? (I was actually told by my Missionary and a Deacon that this is "because the bible itself is a stone to trip over"

Where does it say in the bible that god will come a second time, get married, die, leave his bride behind to rule the earth and seek her children.

If you let me pass by you on the street and you dont preach to me... isn't my blood on your head? Then how can the world not end until every person hears about Mother? This is a clear contradictions.

How come some people in the truth believe that if you died before you heard about our heavenly mother then you automatically go to hell, but others believe that you will be judged based on your actions.

Lastly, I'm glad that you are on the internet because I know how the church encourages you to stay away from the internet. I also know that w/o the internet I would probably still be stuck in Zion talking about the end of the world, but aren't you breaking one of the rules of the clean and unclean study by sharing your pearls with pigs?

One more thing, I have been very very curious to know how the 10 talent movement turned out. Some of the people from my Zion would preach everyday! I know that mother promised

By: Walter on January 21, 2011 at 1:08 am us if we got 10 talents then they would be 144,000. I left the church in October during the feast and I think out of 80 or so members one person had like 3 talents by then. Surely someone must have gotten 10 because, as long as we "preached with mothers love" its wasn't up to us, It was up to her.... right? Do they still talk about the 10 talent movement? Are the people who bore 10 fruit able to relax or do they still need to preach everyday?

Reply

jajaja. I still remember of the ten talent movement. That was just a tactic to fire everybody up I think. I remember in my church, recruting was kind of slow. We all

By: X-COG Member on January 27, 2011 at 9:52 am were tired and I think they started to use that ten talent movement so we can believe it would be our last mission and we can encorage eachother to complete it. I remember the pastor saying that a Sister in Korea bear 74 or 76 fruits in a period of two weeks. In my mind i didnt believe it a bit. That would not be possible not even if she doesnt work.

to live an upright and righteous life (Isa 14:24; 2 Pe 1:19).

Let's take a look at the teachings of the Bible concerning the blessings and glory for those who live in accordance with the prophecies, and think about what kind of life we should live according to the prophecies given to us in this age.

Christ submitted Himself fully to the prophecies

On the night Jesus was praying at Gethsemane after celebrating the Passover, a large crowd sent from the chief priests and the elders, accompanying Judas Iscariot, came to capture Jesus. Then Peter drew his sword to defend Jesus and tried to fight against them, but Jesus stopped him and reminded him that it was a process of the prophecy in the Bible being fulfilled.

Mt 26:50-56 . . . Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus and arrested him. With that, one of Jesus' companions reached for his sword, drew it out and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear. "Put your sword back in its place," Jesus said to him, "for all who draw the sword will die by the sword. Do you think I cannot call on my Father, and he will at once put at my disposal more than twelve legions of angels? But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen in this way? . . . Every day I sat in the temple courts teaching, and you did not arrest me. But this has all taken place that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples deserted him and fled.

"How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen in this way?" Through these words of Jesus, we can see that Christ walked the path of life exactly as preordained by the prophecies of the Bible. The Jews, who would not usually try to seize Jesus, came in a hurry to arrest Him after the Passover; Jesus could have ordered more than twelve legions of angels to defeat them, but He didn't. What do you think the reason was? When Jesus was captured, He was led like a sheep before her shearers is silent; He just remained silent when He was flogged; and He willingly died on the cross. Jesus did it all in order to fulfill the prophecy. All this occurred because it was prophesied in the Bible.

Every prophecy of the Bible is absolute. Jesus Christ is God Almighty who can do everything, but He set us an example by submitting Himself completely to the prophecies, through which He was glorified (Php 2:5-11). From this, we can understand that every prophecy contains God's deep purpose to show His glory to all people in the world.

At the end of our life in accordance with the prophecies, there are surely glory, blessings, eternal life and the kingdom of heaven. Let's confirm this fact through the work of Jesus, so that we can also live according to the prophecies like Jesus.

Every prophecy certainly comes true

In the Gospel of Luke, we can see Jesus walking with His two disciples on their way to Emmaus and teaching them that every prophecy is to be fulfilled without fail.

Lk 24:13-27 Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; but they were kept from recognizing him. . . . He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Did not the Christ have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

Jesus was resurrected in three days according to the prophecy, but His disciples did not believe it. Jesus rebuked them for being slow of heart to believe the prophecies and explained to them everything that had happened to Him: As prophesied, He became a sin offering and died on the cross with the wicked, one on His left and the other on His right; according to the prophecy, His body was buried in a rich man's tomb; and He rose from the dead on the third day after His crucifixion.

While the disciples were listening to Jesus, their hearts started to burn within them. 'That's right! Everything was prophesied in the Bible, yet why didn't we believe it but just think about it realistically?' Only then did the disciples realize it.

Christ's resurrection from the dead in three days was beyond human imagination and comprehension. Not only for the disciples but for everybody in those days it must have been hard to believe that Jesus, who had suffered so severely and died on the cross, was raised from the dead. However, Jesus' resurrection was already prophesied in the Bible, and everything took place according to the prophecy, not according to common sense. Now let's take a look at the Old Testament prophecy that shows Christ's suffering and its meaning.

Isa 53:1-9 . . . He grew up before him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground. He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. . . . and we esteemed him not. Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered him stricken by God, smitten by him, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed. . . . He was oppressed and afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; he was led like a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. By oppression and judgment he was taken away. And who can speak of his descendants? For he was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgression of my people he was stricken. . . . He was assigned a grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death, . .

The prophet Isaiah wrote in detail about Jesus—the Christ who would appear 700 years later, including His physical appearance and everything that would happen to Him—He would be flogged, pierced with a spear, crucified with the wicked and buried in a rich man's tomb. His prophecy was fulfilled exactly by Jesus after 700 years. Jesus' life, from His birth to His death and resurrection, fully matched all the prophecies spoken through many prophets of the Old Testament.

Who on earth can foretell things that will happen in the future and fulfill them precisely? All of this is possible because God Almighty Himself plans it and carries it out. Everything is to be fulfilled as prophesied in the Bible.

The glory for those who respect the prophecies

We need to seriously think about what kind of attitude we should have towards the prophecies of God. In ancient Israel, when the kingdom of Judah was destroyed by Babylon, there was the prophet Jeremiah who prophesied that Judah and the surrounding nations would serve the king of Babylon for 70 years, and there also was a false prophet Hananiah who distorted God's word with his own thoughts. Many people who followed the false prophet were all destroyed, but a small number of people who believed the prophecy of God and overcame hardships were finally able to return to their country in glory, being freed from the Babylonian captivity after 70 years.

God also foretold that the truth would be trampled on by Satan for a time, times and half a time, and according to the prophecy there was a period when the truth was trampled. He also prophesied that the truth would be restored and the saints would possess the kingdom and power again. According to this prophecy, the people of Zion are now keeping the commandments of God and their faith.

Thus, God fulfills everything that He prophesied. Now we have to look into the prophecies of the Bible and live a life of faith with a firm belief that everything will be fulfilled according to the prophecies.

Da 12:1-3 . . . But at that time your people—everyone whose name is found written in the book—will be delivered. Multitudes who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake: some to everlasting life, others to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.

It is prophesied that those who lead many people to righteousness will shine like the stars for ever and ever, and that there will also be those who will suffer shame and everlasting contempt. This is the prophecy which God has given us today to grant us the glorious and eternal blessings of heaven.

This prophecy will also surely be fulfilled, just as other prophecies of the Bible have been fulfilled exactly until now; not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, has disappeared from the Bible until everything is accomplished. In the process of leading many people to righteousness through preaching, there may be hardship or persecution. However, we must not forget that it will lead us to the eternal kingdom of heaven in the end.

Mt 24:12-14 "Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved. And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come."

Mk 16:14-16 Later Jesus appeared to the Eleven as they were eating; he rebuked them for their lack of faith and their stubborn refusal to believe those who had seen him after he had risen. He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

The gospel of the new covenant is the mighty word of God; those who believe and obey the gospel will be saved, but those who do not obey it will be punished. Jesus Himself has taught us that this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations. So, the gospel is preordained to be preached to the whole world in the end, no matter what hindrance may appear. This is God's prophecy.

Then, what kind of life should we live to receive God's blessings? When we believe and obey the words of prophecy and testify to Christ, God's blessings are guaranteed to us. We are the prophesied people who have been entrusted with the mission to go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation. Spiritually, we are given the most valuable task of completing God's work of salvation (1 Pe 1:12).

Let us become the protagonists of the last prophecy

Jesus has taught us that every prophecy of the Bible is to be fulfilled without fail. Keeping the teaching of Jesus in mind, we should joyfully carry out the work of leading many people to righteousness, so that we can share in God's glory and shine like the stars for ever and ever, according to the prophecy for us in this age.

Lk 24:44-47 He said to them, "This is what I told you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms." . . . and repentance and forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

As Jesus prophesied, "Repentance and forgiveness of sins will be preached to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem," all people around the world are now streaming to Korea—the land of prophecy in the east where Heavenly Mother dwells—to receive the forgiveness of sins and the blessing of life from Heavenly Mother, the new Jerusalem. What do you think is the reason why all these things are now occurring before our very eyes? It is God's mighty work of prophecy, and who can hinder it?

In this prophetic age, God has called us to be the protagonists of the prophecy and said, "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you" (Mt 28:18-20). We have now come to Zion, the city of truth, where there is the new covenant which Jesus declared and the apostles preached. Since Elohim are with us here in Zion, the light of the gospel will spread quickly to Samaria and to the ends of the earth (Heb 12:22-24; Isa 33:20-24).

Those who live in accordance with the prophecies will surely enter into the glory of God. Believing in every prophecy of the Bible firmly, let us live according to the prophecy. God has appointed us as the protagonists of the prophecy. Without despising this glorious blessing, let us shine the light of the glory of Elohim brightly all over the world.

Hi Walter

I'm so encouraged to read your last posts. I pray God will continue to help you and bless you as you recover.

I'd be honored to hear more about your experience, what finally prompted you to leave, and advice you might have for people like me who have family in the WMSCOG. You can reach me through my blog:

Actually, it is me that owes you a huge thank you because your blog has really helped me. That is where I read about the Luke 21:29 verse that i mis quoted above.

Also Pierce made a really good point that I don't think anyone in the truth can argue. If Ahnsahngghong was really raised Buddhist, then doesn't that make him a sinner? Even if his parents were non-believers (as in the order of Melchizedek) then there was no way he kept the sabbath, right? We know Jesus was never guilty of sin. So why wouldn't the second coming be innocent. He is god after all..... But then again, god can do whatever he wants.

The problem for me was, you cannot leave that church until you decide for yourself that you want to. Since day one, they tell you everything that people will say to you. So when it happens... you are prepared. They have had 50 years to perfect their story and have heard pretty much every criticism there is. In my opinion the best thing to do is have someone talk to your family member who they can still trust. Someone who has never told them they are wrong before and will listen to them go on their long rants like Bell does. Let them get it all out of their system and then just ask them plainly... what about X? It might work, it might not. Everyone is different. The major weakness of the COG is that if Mother Jerusalem is god then she knows everything. Everything should be answerable. However, the church leaders claim that everything IS answerable. Unfortunately, as a member you are programed to just accept this and not to ever really think about it. They always encouraged question asking from me, and I often took them up on their offers. The problem can be how you act with a answer that doesn't totally make sense. A great example of this happened to me when we had a sermon that covered the death of Jesus one Tuesday night. I don't remember what book or chapter it was in but the page number in my bible always kinda haunted me. It was page 1000, and it talked about Jesus (it only says Christ though who they believe is interchangeable with Jesus and Ahnsohnghong) entering the most holy place once and for all. Now, the church does not believe that Jesus entered the most holy place when he died. They believe he entered the holy place. (This is all from a big study of the Sanctuary). But this sermon, without a doubt showed Jesus entering the Most Holy place, which is in total contradiction to what I had learned in that major Sanctuary study.. I asked the missionary about this and he just kinda shook his head and nodded and couldn't figure out what it was that I didn't understand. So I just chalked it up to "I don't get it, but I'm sure its ok".

I'm really sorry that you have family in the church. Every person I met at that church became a very good friend to me at that time. They are used to the persecution and just rely on their "spiritual family" to get them through the tough times. They don't trust or listen to anyone but their own. This makes the member even more dependent on the group. Unfortunately, like I said, I believe it is up to them whether or not they want to recognize the flaws in the church. It will be hard for anyone but themselves to persuade them otherwise.

Another really big point that always confused me when I went was we were told to only preach to wealthy(er) looking people. Do not preach to gay people, crippled people, people with any sort of handicap, or poor people (which is quite ironic) because god made them that way for a reason. We needed to bear "good fruit" to glorify our father and mother. But in the bible, it was the rich man who went to hell and Lazarus who didn't. What's up with that?

I totally agree with you Walter. It is unfortunately up to the person to stay or to leave and I think I said this to gene before (hi gene). It's very hard to make the decision, but it can't be forced upon any family member. The more you push and try to show them they are wrong, the further away

By: Lili on January 28, 2011 at 4:46 am you'll get them from you and the more they will rely on the church and their so called "spiritual family". The best thing to do is pray that they will get to that conclusion on their own sooner than later.

It's funny to read about the entrance to the most holy place as one of the questions you asked because although I never asked it was this same bible passage, church study, and book chapter that helped me make the decision to leave. I will never go back and want nothing to do with that or any church for that matter. So my question for you is, do you believe in anything? Anyone? What does your faith looks like and how are you handling the internal confusion~if any~?

Hi Lili, Glad to know that I'm not the only one. As far as what I believe now, I believe in god. I believe that Jesus was god and I believe the bible is true.

I believe that nobody except for the "root of David" can decode the bible and I take Jesus at his word when he says many will come and impersonate him. I've learned that people will take advantage of you if you let them and all I can do is have faith and trust that if I do my best to stay faithful to Christ hopefully I can be saved in the end. Whenever it may be.

I am confused about one thing. This still bothers me. John 6:53. The verse I cant understand. The members of the COG swear they are the only church who keeps the passover. This however is not true, there are several. But, I don't currently go to church or belong to any church and I'm not sure if i would ever feel comfortable going to a church that keeps the Passover. I know that most people believe that he is speaking figuratively and not literally, but I'm not sure I want to risk that. I mean, I know I cant save myself with the law come my death and I can only rely on God, but he does say very clearly while eating the passover, "Very truly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you."

I will probably be eating some bread and drinking a sip of wine and praying a lot on that day. Probably in my home and not at any church though.

Hi Walter,

I feel the same as you do when it comes to Passover. It's clear to me that Jesus is not speaking figuratively about "the word of God' being his body. I do think we need his body/blood at passover night to remain in him. So I'm not sure what I will do this coming passover :S.

You said there are many churches that keep passover, but I have yet to find one "/. Could you please point me in the right direction as far as finding one of these churches online? I just want to read on them a little because like I said before I have no intentions of becoming part of any church... to me they have all failed to do what God asked of them "feed His sheeps." They are all misleading... they deviate from God's words/commands!

I also believe in Sabbath as being the appointed day of rest so that in itself limits the number of churches I'd go to, IF, I was to ever go back to a church~doubt it though.

Thanks so much for your answer and I hope and pray God gives us guidance and helps find the right way to do His will :)

We believe in God, looking forward to eternal life in heaven. However, we cannot acquire eternal life without laboring for it; the crown of eternal life cannot be given to us without effort.

With the earnest resolution to remain faithful to God until the end, we should keep the faith, that we can receive the crown of life.

Many people in the world have a form of godliness but deny its power. They hold to a form of religion, but actually they have no faith and fall easily. When the rain comes down and the streams rise and the winds blow-when trials come, they fall easily like a house built on sand.

However, those who build their faith firmly on the rock, always resolve to 'remain faithful to God until the end.' Though the winds of trials blow against them, their faith does not waver because they depend only on God. The more they are troubled and afflicted, the stronger their faith will become; they will receive the crown of life and their names will shine forever.

The order given to the armies of heaven

Through revelation God tells us what His will is-what He earnestly wants from us living in these last days.

Rev 2:10 "Do not be afraid of what you are about to suffer. ... Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life."

The above words are spoken by the archangel Michael, who drove the devil our enemy out of heaven; He encourages us to fight the battle against the devil and win the victory over him in this earth, so that we may reach our heavenly home. This is a command given by the archangel Michael, commander of the heavenly host, to the armies of heaven.

If a commander of an army gives an order to attack, his soldiers have to attack; and if he orders to retreat, they have to retreat in perfect order. We are soldiers of Jesus, the archangel Michael, Commander-in-chief of myriads of angels.

On the night before Jesus was crucified, Peter saw that people were intending to take Him by force and he became angry and cut off the ear of one of them, in an effort to defend Him. Jesus immediately stopped him and said to him, "Do you think I cannot call on more than twelve legions of angels to come?" (Mt 26:53).

A legion was the largest unit of the Roman army; it consisted of one thousand men at least. So twelve legions would be more than 12,000. The above verse shows that once Jesus orders, such great armies of heavenly angels come and defend Him.

In the Old Testament times, Elisha saw the armies of angels surround him. When the army of the king of Aram surrounded the city of Dothan, where Elisha was staying, his servant Gehazi was terrified and reported what he had seen. Then Elisha said to him, "Don't be afraid.

Those who are with us are more than those who are with them" (2 Ki 6:16), and he prayed to God, "O LORD, open his eyes so he may see."

After Elisha prayed, the eyes of Gehazi were opened and he saw the armies of heaven protecting them. The great armies of heaven are constantly following Jesus, ready to carry out His decrees. Jesus, the great Archangel Michael, now gives us the order to "be faithful, even to the point of death."

God wants us to be His wise and faithful servants

What is the way to be faithful, even to the point of death? Let's find out what kind of faithfulness God wants from us.

Mt 25:14-30 "Again, it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents of money, to another two talents, and to another one talent, each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey. ... After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. The man who had received the five talents brought the other five. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with five talents. See, I have gained five more.' His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!' ... Then the man who had received the one talent came. '... So I was afraid and went out and hid your talent in the ground. ...' His master replied, 'You wicked, lazy servant!...'"

God commended the man, who had received the five talents and brought the other five, and the man who had received two talents and gained two more, saying, "Well done, good and faithful servant!" However, the man who had the one talent was rebuked by God, 'You wicked, lazy servant!' because he did nothing with what he had but buried it. God made a distinction between the faithful servant and the wicked servant.

The man with the one talent brought nothing back with it; when God settled spiritual accounts with him, he was deprived of the talent he was given and cast into exterior darkness. We must not be like the wicked servant, who hid the talent he had received and was unfortunately deprived of it.

Those who are faithful even unto death are those who participate in the gospel like the man who received the five talents. All who preach the gospel, both directly and indirectly, are participating in the work of bearing fruit; they support the gospel in various ways. As faithful children of God, they always pray and work diligently to bear fruit that pleases God. This is commendable in the sight of God, who will allow them to bear more fruit.

Mt 24:45-51 "So you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him. Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master has put in charge of the servants in his household to give them their food at the proper time? It will be good for that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns. I tell you the truth, he will put him in charge of all his possessions. But suppose that servant is wicked and says to himself, 'My master is staying away a long time,' and he then begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards. The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of. He will cut him to pieces ... "

When God finds His children giving His word to people with great enthusiasm at His coming, He will put them in charge of all His possessions and comfort them in all their troubles; each of them will receive his praise and reward from God.

How about a wicked servant then? He neglects what his master has entrusted to him, indulging in worldly pleasures such as eating and drinking; he despises God's word and prophecy. He does not accept encouraging words from his brothers and sisters who want to help him preach the gospel. Rather, he scoffs at them, not deserving to be forgiven. Indulging in the temporary pleasures of this life, he cannot realize the value of the gospel and does not care about his soul that will be tormented in the fiery lake of burning sulfur forever. God gives us this parable of warning because He does not really want us to be like that wicked servant. He earnestly encourages us to be wise and faithful servants who will be commended when He comes: "My children, wise and faithful! You are worthy to be the heavenly royal priests."

Seek wisdom to bear much fruit

The goal of our preaching is to save souls by proclaiming the word of life. It is not done only by delivering a message from God. When we spread the aroma of Christ, even before we deliver a message, some recognize us as the ones sent from God and follow us. We are all looking forward to heaven. Now we need to seek wisdom to bear much fruit, so that we may quickly go back to the kingdom of heaven by finding all of our lost brothers and sisters.

Pr 9:10 "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding."

Here are two practical ways to be a wise and faithful servant: One is preaching the gospel diligently to bear much fruit, and the other is fearing God and worshipping Him correctly. The former is the way to be faithful, and the latter is the way to be wise. Wisdom is a precious gift from God, not a human product.

It was not just after Solomon became king that he got wisdom. His wisdom was an ability he received from God after offering a thousand burnt offerings unto Him. He asked God for wisdom to lead His people rightly, not for his own blessings-health, power and long life. God was pleased with Solomon's request, and He gave him riches and honor as well as wisdom. Thus Solomon, known as the wisest man who ever lived, gained all his wisdom from God.

1 Ki 3:3-14 ... and Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon during the night in a dream, and God said, "Ask for whatever you want me to give you." Solomon answered, " ... So give your servant a discerning heart to govern your people and to distinguish between right and wrong. ... " The Lord was pleased that Solomon had asked for this. So God said to him, " ...I will do what you have asked. I will give you a wise and discerning heart, so that there will never have been anyone like you, nor will there ever be. ... "

As stated above, the fear of God is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding. 'What is the way to remain faithful to God, the Church and the gospel?' If we earnestly pray to God for this, He will give us the wisdom we need.

Rev 3:15-16 "I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other! So, because you are luke-warm-neither hot nor cold-I am about to spit you out of my mouth."

He who is lukewarm has no enthusiasm in his faith and deeds. If he shows no eagerness to bear fruit, he is in a danger of losing his soul. All children of Zion must seek God's wisdom to bear fruit with great enthusiasm. Especially leaders including pastors, elders and deacons (deacon-esses) need to have more enthusiasm for the gospel and bear much fruit. They are to take care of brothers and sisters; and they are also required to bear their own fruit. It may make them depressed to bear no fruit even though they continue caring for brothers and sisters. They may become complacent and neglect to bear fruit if they only look after brothers and sisters who have already come into Zion. When all leaders in the church set a good example of bearing fruit, God will be pleased and pour out His abundant blessing upon them all.

The man with five talents gained five more. If he had just kept the talent, he would not have gained nothing. He knew his master's will and worked hard to please him, so that he could gain profit. Because he had such a burning passion to please his master, he was called a "wise and faithful servant" and got a great blessing and reward.

Both the faithful servant and the wicked one were God's called workers for the gospel. But each of them had a different attitude of thinking with a different way of working; the faithful servant worked so devotedly and ferently, but the wicked one idled away his days in laziness and finally suffered a miserable end. It's almost time for our Master's return. Let's devote ourselves more intensely to the gospel in accordance with God's pleasure and will. God's pleasure is our own pleasure, isn't it? Is there anyone who is somewhat depressed? Once again, let's burn the fire of the gospel in our hearts.

Let's set a good example for others by burning ourselves first, not waiting for them to take the lead in preaching. If we are kindled by God's fire, all around us will be kindled, too. Let the flame of our passion for the gospel blaze in all the Churches of God throughout the world, and remain faithful to God until the end, bearing much fruit.

Let us not lose our fervor. Nothing can be accomplished without enthusiasm. Let us not complain about unfavorable external conditions. "We have a small number of members," or "We have only a few evangelists," or "We have a regional problem." These conditions cannot obstruct the gospel at all. If one's heart is burning with fire, the heat burns into another and nearby churches and all the churches. The problem is a negative thought-"That's impossible." This negative thinking cools not only our enthusiasm, but also others' eagerness.

The Apostle John saw in a vision the 144,000 standing on Mount Zion. God prophesied this and showed the vision of its fulfillment. It can never fail. God has promised that He will make us the head, not the tail. So let's have pride and confidence in God. The negative thoughts of one person make many wicked servants. Zion is a place for training good and faithful servants.

All of us are to participate in the gospel of the heavenly kingdom in any and all ways. As priests of the gospel, we should be faithful even unto death, doing our part with burning enthusiasm. Let's glorify God by bearing much good fruit as His true, wise and faithful sons and daughters.

YHWH is GOD, the One God who is manifested as 3 – Father Son & Holy Spirit.. 3 individuals yet One God. How is this possible? I don't know.. maybe cause He's God and He simply is.. after all, I think the statement "I AM that I AM" should be enough to prove God can have a Son without some heavenly mother Jerusalem. God is complete and whole in Himself, thus there is no need for male/female in God.

Nowhere in scripture does it say the heavenly mother "which is above" is the "holy spirit". There are verses of a heavenly mother, but that could easily be a metaphor to God in heaven's abounding love and nurturing comfort as a mother has to her child – it has nothing to do with an actual form or aspect of God as a female incarnation nor is there and reference to the Holy Spirit being a heavenly mother in the scriptures. Twist it all you want – it's still twisted.

A Stumbling Block to Jews and Foolishness to Gentiles

At the time of the early Church, there was a stumbling block to Jews. Every day they gathered together to plot how to stop the crowd of people who were doing what was a stumbling block to them, how to slander and hinder them from attracting people's attention.

Reply

What was the stumbling block to the Jews—the thing that they hated the most? It was the preaching of Jesus Christ. God is light, so darkness hates the light (Jn 1:1-14). It is because darkness retreats even when a tiny bit of light shines. What Satan hates the most is revealing God, our Savior in each age: Jehovah in the age of the Father, Jesus Christ in the age of the Son, and the Spirit and the Bride—our Heavenly Father and Jerusalem our Heavenly Mother—in the age of the Holy Spirit.

The preaching of Christ is a stumbling block and foolishness to people in the world, but it is most pleasing to God. We, who are children of light, should shine the light of the glory of Jerusalem on the whole world, so that we can defeat darkness and lead all people into life.

The world does not know God through its wisdom

The preaching of God who has come in the flesh is a stumbling block to Jews who claim to believe in God, and foolishness to Gentiles who do not know God. However, God's point of view is completely different. The Bible says that God is pleased through the foolishness of what is preached to save those who believe.

1 Co 1:21-24 For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe. Jews demand miraculous signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we preach Christ crucified: a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those whom God has called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

When Christ came to this earth as the Savior in the age of the Son, people in those days did not have the wisdom to recognize Him. To the Jews, Jesus was a stone that caused them to stumble, and all the disciples who preached Jesus were also an annoyance to them. The name of God whom they believed in was Jehovah, so when God came to this earth in the flesh in the name of Jesus, they had a strong antipathy towards Jesus, saying, 'How can you, a mere man, claim to be God?' Jesus was a man just like one of them in their eyes, but the disciples preached that He was God, and it seemed so foolish even to Gentiles who did not believe.

However, as more and more people paid attention to the teachings of Jesus, who was completely different from the Jewish high priests who were authoritative and hypocritical, they came to feel the voice of God. The Jews, who felt a sense of crisis, plotted how to remove Jesus and His followers, how to make people have a bad impression about them. So, they produced false witnesses and spread false rumors to oppose Christ, and slandered the saints of the early Church, calling them the "followers of the Nazarene sect" (Mt 26:59-61; 28:11-15; Ac 24:1-5).

Jn 10:30-33 "I and the Father are one." Again the Jews picked up stones to stone him, but Jesus said to them, "I have shown you many great miracles from the Father. For which of these do you stone me?" "We are not stoning you for any of these," replied the Jews, "but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man, claim to be God."

The Jews picked up stones to stone God just because He referred to Himself as God. How deplorable and lamentable it is! God can come to this earth in the flesh anytime. The Bible clearly shows that God appeared as a man in the days of Abraham (Genesis 18), and it was also prophesied in many places of the Bible that God would be born in the flesh.

However, to those who neglected the prophecies, Christ appeared to be a mere man, the son of a humble carpenter. He seemed to have no power and did not live a rich and dignified life, but instead He kept company with the poor and lowly people, the so-called sinners, taking pity on them. This prevented them from recognizing Jesus as God. Finally, they went to Pilate, the governor, and strongly asked him to have Jesus crucified. Pilate was afraid of an uproar, and said in front of the crowd, "I am innocent of this man's blood. It is your responsibility." Then all the people answered, "Let his blood be on us and on our children!" They were so confident in opposing Jesus. But where are they now?

Preaching the gospel of Christ is a stumbling block to Christians and foolishness to people of the world, but we are doing this great work in this age. As the Jewish people in those days did not have the knowledge of God, so do people today. We are preaching Christ like the disciples who received Jesus Christ 2,000 years ago, and the so-called Christians today are slandering the truth just like the Jews who rejected Jesus 2,000 years ago. If we preach the gospel, each individual soul realizes the truth correctly and comes to know God the Father and God the Mother. That is why Satan hates it so much. However, God has prepared the kingdom of heaven which is beautiful and glorious beyond all human imagination, for the heavenly children who make every effort to display the glory of God, their Savior.

1 Co 2:8-10 None of the rulers of this age understood it, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. However, as it is written: "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him"—but God has revealed it to us by his Spirit. The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God.

Spiritual things are spiritually discerned

The preaching of God who came in the flesh was a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles. It was because they looked at Him from a physical point of view. From a spiritual point of view, it is really great and amazing. Since we are doing this great task, our God is preparing us for the glorious times we will enjoy in the eternal kingdom of heaven.

God has promised to let us eat and drink at His table in the kingdom of heaven and put each of us into a position which even angels envy. When we go back to heaven by keeping our faith firm and working hard to save souls, God will then give us everything we want. This work we are doing is never in vain (1 Co 15:58). So, thinking about the glory of heaven which Father and Mother will bestow on us, let us put value in the heavenly things and live in hope.

1 Co 2:13-14 This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words. The man without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned.

Since the Jews looked at spiritual things from a low, physical point of view, they were never able to see the divine nature of God. So, when Jesus testified about Himself 2,000 years ago, even His relatives attempted to restrain Him, saying He was out of His mind. Jesus had brothers and sisters, and the whole town knew that He was born by His mother Mary. So, when Jesus referred to Himself as God who came down from heaven, they could not understand it. However, the Bible clearly prophesied that God the Almighty would be born as a baby through the body of a virgin (Isa 7:14; 9:6).

As we can confirm the existence of microorganisms when we look through a microscope, so we can understand spiritual things when we discern spiritually. Since people look at spiritual things with their physical eyes, they do not believe in God the Mother no matter how many times we show them the Biblical verses that testify to Mother. They make their own thoughts higher than God's words. Still, they claim to believe in God. So the Bible says that they claim to know God but by their actions they deny Him (Tit 1:16). Since it is written like that in the Bible, it is not worth rediscussing.

Those controlled by the sinful nature cannot understand why Father and Mother have come to this earth in the flesh, and why we put our whole heart into preaching the gospel to Samaria and to the ends of the earth. They value physical things, but we pursue the incomparable value of the heavenly kingdom. Jesus says that the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. If one finds the treasure, he will not foolishly just pass it by. We should make every effort to obtain it.

In ancient times, Galileo Galilei was brought to the Inquisition, being accused of spreading heretical theories. Standing before the Inquisition, he said that the earth moves, and the judges forced him to recant his beliefs, saying he was crazy. Now the Vatican has acknowledged its mistake in condemning Galileo. It is because the heliocentric theory has been proven true, thanks to scientific advances. In those days, however, no one could prove it.

Heavenly Mother viewed through the Bible

As for the invisible world, we can judge whether or not it exists through a microscope or any other equipment. It is the same for the invisible world; we can see and discern the spiritual world through the Bible. Not through the Bible which is a microscope given by God, how can we find Father and confirm the existence of Mother? Without the prophecies of the Bible, how can we interpret this present time? We have to understand God the Father and God the Mother through the Bible, and we should also find the will of God in the Bible. It is the Bible that proves all things.

As the Bible tells us that spiritual things are spiritually discerned, let us confirm the value of the Bible further. People in the world put so much value on earthly things, but we find the greatest value in heavenly things. That is why their thoughts are different than ours. So, Jesus always reminded us of the value of the heavenly kingdom, and the forefathers of faith also asked us to set our hearts on things in heaven.

2 Pe 1:19-21 And we have the word of the prophets made more certain, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation. For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

Whatever God says can never fail; it will surely come to pass (Isa 14:24-27; 46:11; 45:23). The words of the Bible are not stories men have made up, but they are the words of God, which are still being fulfilled according to God's purpose and plan for our salvation.

Even though people in the world do not acknowledge us, we don't need to be influenced by that. Our salvation depends on God. No matter how much people try to slander and hinder us, our God continues to carry out the work of redemption.

The Bible says that the Spirit and the Bride, Heavenly Father and Mother, will appear in the last days and call all people to receive the water of life, and that Jerusalem will be called The Throne of the LORD and all nations will gather in Jerusalem at that time (Rev 22:17; Jer 3:17). This is a prophecy about God the Mother that men spoke from God and wrote as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

Gal 4:26-31 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother. For it is written: "Be glad, O barren woman, who bears no children; break forth and cry aloud, you who have no labor pains; because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband." Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

"The Jerusalem that is above (in heaven) is free, and she is our mother."

Apostle Paul also received these words from God and wrote them as he was moved by the Holy Spirit. The Bible shows that we are children of Jerusalem Mother, the free woman, and that we, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the one born according to the flesh persecuted the one born according to the Spirit. It is the same now. People are continuously persecuting God's people, who are preaching Christ, because it is a stumbling block and foolishness to them.

Can a man hide the sky with his hands? Nevertheless, they try to stop the gospel of God from being preached to the whole world. However, no matter what they do, the great plan of salvation set by our Father and Mother who manage the universe is carried out as prearranged. At the time of the early Church, God added to the Church of God daily those who were being saved, even in persecution and hindrance from people (Ac 2:47).

A pleasing thing to God

God says that not everyone who says to Him, "Lord, Lord!" will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of the Heavenly Father (Mt 7:21). God our Father said, "Peter followed Jesus, Joshua followed Moses, Elisha followed Elijah, and I follow Mother." We should understand why Father said that, and according to the will of Father we have to believe in God our Mother correctly, so we can all attain eternal salvation in the kingdom of heaven.

Our faith comes from God. The Bible says that men moved by the Holy Spirit received prophecies from God and wrote them. All the Bibles in the original language or any other languages describe that "the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother." If our Heavenly Mother did not exist, how would these words be written in the Bible? How would the Bride, who gives the water of life together with the Spirit who is God our Father, be described in the Bible?

Testifying to the Savior who has come in the flesh—this is a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles. However, God says that there are people who are longing and waiting for the good news throughout the world in the last days—at the end of the gospel age, and that once they hear the news, they will all fly along to Jerusalem our Heavenly Mother like clouds, like doves to their nests.

The preaching of Christ is a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but it is a beautiful and pleasing thing to God. So God encourages His children who testify to Christ, saying, “You who bring good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with a shout, lift it up,” and, “How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news” (Isa 40:9; 52:7).

God’s sheep listen to His voice and follow Him (Jn 10:27). When we absolutely trust and follow all the teachings in the 66 books of the Bible, the voice of God, we will attain the eternal kingdom of heaven. Believing this firmly and putting it into practice, let us quickly proclaim the glory of Heavenly Father and Mother throughout the whole world, as “children of light” and “children of promise.”

Solomon’s Judgment and Mother

The Bible testifies about God; it testifies of Elohim [Gods]—God the Father and God the Mother. The 66 books of the Bible consistently speak not only the truth about God the Father but also the truth about God the Mother, through the relationship between Adam and Eve, the history of Abraham’s Family, the prophecy of the New Jerusalem, and so on.

To know Christ as the Father and Mother is the greatest mystery of the Bible. The god of this world [the devil] has blinded people’s minds, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ (2 Co 4:4).

Only those who are redeemed through the blood of Christ can receive wisdom and understanding from God and realize the mystery of God.

Solomon’s wise judgment

Solomon is known as the wisest man in the world. He was the son of King David and the third king of Israel. He was famous for his wisdom; people from all nations came to hear his wisdom.

The Bible records that Solomon was given wisdom by God. He offered a thousand burnt offerings and prayed earnestly, and God appeared to him in a dream. Then he asked God for wisdom and understanding to discern justice. There continuously arose many disputes among his people; so he asked for wisdom to become a fair judge as their king, that he might discern right and wrong and none of them would suffer the injustice of being subject to a bad judgment.

God granted him not only the wisdom, but also the riches and honor which he did not ask for. King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. God's wisdom was reflected in Solomon's decision. Among all his judicial decisions, the Bible precisely records only one case in which he discovered who the true mother was.

1 Ki 3:16-28 . . . One of them said, "My lord, this woman and I live in the same house . . . The third day after my child was born, this woman also had a baby. We were alone; there was no one in the house but the two of us. During the night this woman's son died because she lay on him . . . So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side while I your servant was asleep. She put him by her breast and put her dead son by my breast. The next morning, I got up to nurse my son—and he was dead! But when I looked at him closely in the morning light, I saw that it wasn't the son I had borne." The other woman said, "No! The living one is my son; the dead one is yours." But the first one insisted, "No! The dead one is yours; the living one is mine." And so they argued before the king. The king said, ". . . Bring me a sword." So they brought a sword for the king. He then gave an order: "Cut the living child in two and give half to one and half to the other." The woman whose son was alive was filled with compassion for her son and said to the king, "Please, my lord, give her the living baby! Don't kill him!" But the other said, "Neither I nor you shall have him. Cut him in two!" Then the king gave his ruling: "Give the living baby to the first woman. Do not kill him; she is his mother." When all Israel heard the verdict the king had given, they held the king in awe, because they saw that he had wisdom from God to administer justice.

There was no witness, and the two women in dispute over one living baby appealed to Solomon for justice, each claiming to be the birth mother of the living child. Solomon discovered the true mother of the baby by her love for her child, and returned the living son to her.

In Solomon's judgment, we find out that his God-given wisdom enabled him to discern the true mother. The Bible testifies of God, and everything that was written in the past was written to teach us (Jn 5:39; Ro 15:4). The story of Solomon's judgment between the two mothers was not written to admire his wisdom, but to testify of God and teach us something spiritual.

God's wisdom manifested in Solomon's judgment
God gave wisdom to Solomon, that he could recognize who the true mother was and gave the real mother back her child. Likewise, God in His wisdom has made known to us the heavenly Mother. We have received our heavenly Mother; like Solomon, we should help the poor souls wandering aimlessly around the world and let them know who the true Mother is.

Gal 4:26-31 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother. For it is written: "Be glad, O barren woman, who bears no children; break forth and cry aloud, you who have no labor pains; because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband." Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

The Bible clearly tells us that there is our spiritual Mother above (in heaven). We were angels in heaven, but our sins separated us from our Mother and caused us to be cast down to the earth. Because of the sins we had committed in heaven, we lost our memory and couldn't remember our Mother.

Our sins caused our Mother to come from heaven to this earth (Isa 50:1). The Apostle John saw in a vision the new Jerusalem, the Bride of the Lamb, coming down out of heaven. "More are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband." This prophecy implies that our Mother raises Her children alone here on earth after our Father went up to heaven but She has even more children than any woman who has a husband.

The evil one teaches that Mother does not exist
The Bible clearly reveals the existence of the spiritual Mother. However, our wicked enemy the devil has been deceiving all people for thousands of years into believing that Mother does not exist. He teaches lies and people foolishly believe them. In Revelation, we can see that the devil deceives all people living on the earth.

Rev 13:6-15 He opened his mouth to blaspheme God, and to slander his name and his dwelling place and those who live in heaven. He was given power to make war against the saints and to conquer them . . . Because of the signs he was given power to do on behalf of the first beast, he deceived the inhabitants of the earth . . .

The devil is the deceiver of deceivers. When he tempted Eve in the Garden of Eden, he wickedly perverted God's word and deceived her into following his way. And now he is deceiving the inhabitants of the earth into believing that Mother does not exist.

It is clearly recorded in the Bible, "our Mother," so that everybody can easily see. Nevertheless, most people deny the existence of Mother and reject Her. It is because they are spiritually deceived by Satan. Once they are tempted, although we show them clear and convincing evidence that Mother exists, they would not accept it.

1 Jn 5:18-19 We know that anyone born of God does not continue to sin; the one who was born of God keeps him safe, and the evil one cannot harm him. We know that we are children of God, and that the whole world is under the control of the evil one.

We belong to God, but the whole world is under the rule of the evil one. The devil, the wicked one, makes up many lies and teaches them. One of them is that God the Mother does not exist. The whole world has been deceived by his false teaching.

Think of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Eating the fruit of the tree would result in death. However, when Adam and Eve looked at the fruit after being tempted by Satan, it looked good for food, pleasant to the eyes and also desirable to make one wise. Being deceived, they lost the ability to discern between good and evil.

Biblical testimonies to our heavenly Mother
We need to receive wisdom from God like Solomon, in order that we may discern our true Mother. Through the history of Creation in six days, we can clearly find our Father and our Mother as well, the Creators.

Ge 1:26-27 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground." So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

God created man in His own image, then male and female were created in the image of God. This proves that there is the female image of God as well as the male image of God. We call the male image of God "Father." What should we call the female image of God?

When God created man, He said, "Let us make man." It is Elohim [God the Father and God the Mother] who said, "Let us . . ." here.

The devil knows well that if our spiritual eyes are opened to recognize our Mother, his world will be destroyed soon. So what he fears the most is that the glory of our Mother is revealed. Eve was to be the serpent's enemy as described in Genesis.

Ge 3:14-15 So the Lord God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, "Cursed are you above all the livestock and all the wild animals! You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life. And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel."

There is an enmity between the serpent and the woman, the devil and the Mother. God put enmity between them in order to reveal the heavenly Mother to us.

The ancient serpent, the devil, is basically the enemy of our Mother and also the enemy of ours. If those on Mother's side become strong, those on Satan's side naturally become weak. The serpent crushes our heel, but we shall crush his head and finally win the victory over him. While crushing the head is fatal, striking the heel will not cause death.

Under the Old Law, he who did not obey his father and mother was considered evil and put to death (Dt 21:18-21). God's laws given in the Old Testament were only a shadow of the heavenly things. The law in Deuteronomy

21 shows that if one does not obey the spiritual Father and Mother, he will not enter into eternal life but go into destruction.

Unless we find our Mother, we become spiritually orphaned. Satan, who knows this, has deceived the world into believing that there is no Mother.

So the people cannot even imagine that God the Mother exists, calling God, "Father, Father." However, we belong to God; our Father has made known to us our heavenly Mother and brought us into Her arms. We truly give thanks to our Father for this.

Divine providence revealed by the sun and moon and stars
God's existence is evident to us through nature which He created. We can confirm the existence of our heavenly Mother through the sun, the moon and stars.

Ge 37:9-10 Then he had another dream, and he told it to his brothers. "Listen," he said, "I had another dream, and this time the sun and moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me." When he told his father as well as his brothers, his father rebuked him and said, "What is this dream you had? Will your mother and I and your brothers actually come and bow down to the ground before you?"

Joseph, the eleventh son of Jacob, had a dream in which the sun and moon and eleven stars bowed down to him. When he told the dream to his family, his father scolded him, saying, "Will I and your mother and brothers bow down to you?" Why did Jacob interpret the sun, moon and the stars as symbolical of his household?

This is not just a dream. Through Joseph's dream and its interpretation, God has made known to us our heavenly family relationship: our Father represented by the sun, our Mother by the moon, and we the children by the stars. When the Apostle Paul wrote to the churches in Corinth, he explained that the sun has its own glory, the moon another glory, and the stars a different glory.

1 Co 15:38-41 But God gives it a body as he has determined, and to each kind of seed he gives its own body. All flesh is not the same: Men have one kind of flesh, animals have another, birds another and fish another. There are also heavenly bodies and there are earthly bodies; but the splendor of the heavenly bodies is one kind, and the splendor of the earthly bodies is another. The sun has one kind of splendor, the moon another and the stars another; and star differs from star in splendor.

The above verses say that there are many stars, and that one star differs from another in glory; the sun or the moon is not mentioned to be many. As it is written in Da 12:3 that "those who lead many to righteousness will shine like the stars for ever and ever," God's children are compared to the stars. So the sun represents the Father, the moon the Mother, and the stars the children.

God's invisible power and divine nature are reflected in all things (Ro 1:20). Nature created by God serves as a textbook that teaches us God's providence. In the daytime, when the sun shines, the moon and stars do not appear. However, when the sun is sinking behind the western hills, then the moon appears, accompanied by the stars.

God said that He would give us, His children, honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth in the last days (Zep 3:18-20). For this, the Father's ministry of the gospel must be completed and our Mother has to appear. So the Father accomplished His ministry of 37 years according to the prophecy of King David, and then the glory of the Mother along with ours began to appear. Without Mother, we cannot reach eternal salvation, nor can we share in the heavenly glory. To prevent people from realizing that, the devil blinds their eyes, stops their ears and hardens their hearts.

Let us be like Solomon

Jesus spoke the following phrase: ". . . as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings" At a hen's clucking, not a rooster's crow, chicks gather. Likewise, at Mother's loving voice, the children of heaven, scattered throughout the world, return to Her.

Mother cries out, "Do no harm to My children," enduring heartbreaking pain. Mother's earnest cry will be a message of life that awakens the spirits of the children deceived by Satan.

We shall be joyful always, for our heavenly Mother is with us. With a firm faith in Mother's existence, we the children of Zion shall stand up against the evil tricks of the devil who tries to blind our minds so that we cannot realize Mother. Let's all be like Solomon and help our brothers and sisters, who are wandering around like orphans all over the world, to know our Mother and meet Her.

Col 3:1 Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.

God's children must find the Jerusalem that is above, the heavenly Mother. The devil our wicked enemy slanders us and entices us with lies so that we will not know the existence of Mother. However, we belong to God, our Father and Mother.

Children of Zion! Let's not forget the love and grace of our heavenly Father and Mother who have come to save us. We are obligated to preach the good news to the ends of the earth. Like Solomon, let us lead our brothers and sisters, scattered among all nations, into the loving arms of our heavenly Mother, who always cares about the lives of Her children. Let them hear our Mother's earnest voice!

Walter,

Thanks for your most recent posts; I am glad you have noticed the false images and lies which the COG is full and guilty of. You have very valid points too, questioning some of the things that the COG may not even realize they are guilty of (and if they do, yet continue to stray, then they are clearly arrogant).

Concerning the passover, I'm sure you've seen me say this before, but that verse in John which you speak of is not meant to be taken in the literal sense, it's a figurative statement speaking over the supernatural. Jesus didn't die for our mortal bodies, we still will someday die if Jesus doesn't snatch us while we're living. What sense would it make to "Eat of the flesh and drink of the blood" to be saved in a physical sense?? No, clearly this is pertaining to the spiritual realm, where the symbols of the bread and the chalice are resembling the body which was broken and the blood which was poured out to wash away our sins, as the ultimate sacrifice in place of animal sacrifices used by the Jews at the time. No longer would another sacrifice have to be done, for the greatest sacrifice was made, by the Lamb of God who knew no sin.

Having said that, communion CAN be taken at home, but what is the point in that? It doesn't save you, if you believe in Jesus and repent of your sins you're already saved nonetheless, but it does exhort you as a believer, when you take it in a church with other believers in Christ, in a church community. It does proclaim the Lord's Gospel of Death & Resurrection until He comes back again..

Sorry for the long post, was trying to find a way to put it in terms simple to understand.

The Meaning of the Sacrifice of the Passover
As the Bible says that faith is being sure of what we hope for, the people of Zion believe firmly in the prophecy and earnestly hope for the kingdom of God, and they are preaching the glory of Mother throughout the whole world. As a result, many souls are now coming back to Zion.

If we are proud of our Father and Mother and display

Their glory, They will greatly bless us and allow us to achieve wonderful results. Now, let's take some time to think about the meaning of the sacrifice of the Passover and the flesh and blood of God given to us.

A mother saved her child with her own blood
There was a great earthquake in Russia, and a whole town was laid in ruins. At that time, a mother and her baby were buried alive under the rubble for several days. The mother lost consciousness when the building collapsed. At the cry of her baby, she barely recovered consciousness. Then she found out that the whole town had become a town of death and that she and her baby were buried under the ruins caused by the earthquake. She tried to breast-feed her crying baby, but the milk didn't come out well because she hadn't eaten or drunk anything, not even a sip of water, for several days. It was obvious that if they were not rescued, they would lose their lives.

The mother decided to do something extreme in order to keep her baby alive until a rescue squad arrived. She took a sharp stone, cut off part of her finger and let her baby drink the blood dripping from her finger.

After a while, a relief squad arrived to save the mother and her baby. Unfortunately, the mother had already died, but her baby who was sucking her finger was still alive and was safely rescued.

To save her baby, the mother tore her own flesh and let her child drink the blood flowing from it. It was an act of her extreme love to save her child.

Through this real story, we come to understand God's love for us. Like the mother, God gave us, who were destined to die, His flesh to eat and His blood to drink in order to grant us the forgiveness of sins and lead us to eternal life and salvation. Whenever we eat the Passover bread representing Christ's flesh and drink the Passover wine symbolizing His blood, we should not only rejoice in having eternal life but remember the holy love of our Father and Mother who saved our lives.

Passover, the love of God who gave His children His own flesh and blood

The child in the above story was drinking the blood dripping from his mother's finger, which was cut off, to satisfy his hunger. He was completely unaware of the fact that it was the blood of his mother who sacrificed her own life to save him. If we were previously just like this child, we should now think of God's love and sacrifice contained in the Passover.

Jn 6:53-57 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, UNLESS you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me."

God has made a precious promise to mankind that whoever eats Jesus' flesh and drinks His blood will have eternal life, while the person who does not eat His flesh or drink His blood has no life in him. To save us His children, who were sinners from heaven, God didn't even hesitate to die for us on the cross. Through the sacrifice of God, we have received salvation and eternal life.

Just as the mother saved her child with the blood flowing from her finger at the critical moment, our Father and Mother gave Their flesh to eat and Their blood to drink in order to save us. They willingly gave us Themselves for Their children since it was the only way to save the sinners who were destined to die eternally.

Mt 26:17-19, 26-28 " . . . The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.' " So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover . . . While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body. Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you." This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins."

The Passover bread and wine are given to mankind as the symbols of Christ's flesh and blood, having the promise of eternal life. It is God's sacrifice and love that we can ultimately discover through the Passover.

We are happy that we have eternal life by keeping the covenant of God, but we feel so sorry towards Father and Mother because They have sacrificed Themselves to give us eternal life. It is not God's will just to feel sorry or guilty. First, we should keep in mind how much our Father and Mother have suffered to save us and always give thanks to Them for Their grace. And we should willingly give ourselves to saving the whole world, just as our Father and Mother gave Themselves up for our salvation, so that we will enhance the value of the holy sacrifice of Father and Mother.

"Do this in remembrance of me"

The Passover is a feast that every member of the heavenly family must keep. The Apostle Paul emphasized that we should remember and celebrate the Passover and also proclaim it until Christ comes again.

1 Co 11:23-26 For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me." For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Christ wanted His children to remember the sacrifice of Father and Mother whenever they eat the Passover bread and drink the Passover wine; and before His ascension, He told them to proclaim His death by doing that until He comes. Through the Passover of the new covenant, we can discover God's infinite love for us and His great sacrifice that He has made to save us for 6,000 years. So, Jesus said that the Passover was the new covenant (Lk 22:20), and the Bible states that through the new covenant we have become God's heirs who will inherit the kingdom of God. Only those who understand the holy sacrifice and love of Father and Mother are worthy to be Their children and inherit the kingdom of heaven.

This beautiful story of the new covenant is ours alone, so not everyone can share it. There is no Passover in spiritual Babylon because the story of the Passover is not theirs. They abolished the Passover because it was a meaningless day for them. The Passover is the everlasting covenant established by God and a day to commemorate the sacrifice of the heavenly Father and Mother for Their children's salvation. Nevertheless, they insist that there is no need to keep the Passover. This is proof that they do not belong to the heavenly family.

However, it is a very important day for us, the heavenly family members. So in Zion we keep the Passover holy in remembrance of the love and sacrifice of our Father and Mother.

As God has loved us

God is love. Everything done by God, every purpose and will of God, has come through His love. The Passover is a feast that God has established through His love to give us life.

So, Jesus said at the Passover, "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another." Just as the mother saved her child by shedding her own blood in the aforesaid true story, God saved us by tearing His flesh and shedding His blood. As God loved us, so we should love one another.

1 Jn 4:7-11 Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him . . . Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

1 Jn 4:16-21 And so we know and rely on the love God has for us. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in him . . . If anyone says, "I love God," yet hates his brother, he is a liar. For anyone who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen. And he has given us this command: Whoever loves God must also love his brother.

Love comes from God our Father and God our Mother. Everything done by God has come through His love.

Since He loves us, He has been waiting for us to be purified like pure gold refined in a furnace and become worthy to enter the kingdom of heaven, sometimes using discipline to correct us, sometimes shedding tears for us, sometimes rejoicing, sometimes groaning, only caring for our future and worrying that we may give in to the temptations of the devil and lose the eternal kingdom of heaven.

Therefore, we also ought to love one another with the heart of God. If we do not love one another, it proves that we still understand only the literal meaning of the Passover, viewing it merely as a ceremony of eating bread and drinking wine. In this situation God would say to us, "I gave you My own flesh and blood, so that you have gained life. Then, why can't you sacrifice for one another?"

Looking forward to the everlasting kingdom of heaven, we should faithfully follow the teachings of our Father and Mother. We should not grumble against each other or envy each other: If one achieves something, we need to share in his joy; if one faces difficulties, we need to encourage and comfort him. Without unity, the gospel work cannot be fulfilled. If we preach the gospel with the holy sacrifice and love that God has shown us, God's glorious work will be quickly accomplished.

Faith that acknowledges Father and Mother and boasts about Them

How can we not boast about God who has shown us the example of the holy sacrifice? Why are we hesitating to proclaim our Father and Mother who are so wonderful? We shall tell all the people of the earth about the gracious sacrifice and love of our Father and Mother and invite them to participate in the blood of Their sacrifice for the forgiveness of sins and salvation.

We should proclaim more proudly our Father and Mother who have made us what we are today through Their love. We believe in Mother not just because the Bible testifies about Her, but because She is our heavenly Mother who gave us Her flesh to eat and Her blood to drink to save us from sin. That is why we long for Her love and sacrifice and follow Her wherever She goes, as Her children, isn't it?

If we, God's children, have understood the sacrifice of our Father and Mother, we shall boldly proclaim Their names throughout the world. We should preach Jerusalem Mother to all people around the world, so that they may repent of their sins and come back into the arms of Jerusalem Mother. This is most pleasing to our Father.

1 Jn 4:13-15 . . . If anyone acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in him and he in God.

About 2,000 years ago, God's people proved their faith in Jesus by acknowledging Him. In this age, however, we are required to have faith in the Spirit and the Bride and proclaim Them to all the people with gladness. Our Father and Mother willingly sacrificed Their lives for our salvation. Their children, who have understood Their sacrificial love for them, are now proudly telling the whole world about the goodness of Their Parents.

What if one is ashamed of his parents and tries to conceal things about them? They will not blame or punish him for that, but will feel sad. On the contrary, if a child is proud of his parents, saying, "My dad and mom are number one," how pleased will they be? Thinking about how our earthly parents feel, we can understand the heart of our heavenly Parents.

Now, God's children are proudly proclaiming the heavenly Father and Mother, and so many people around the world are coming to Zion to meet Father and Mother according to the prophecies. When we see this unparalleled amazing work of salvation occur every day, we feel that our heavenly Father opens all the doors for preaching, being pleased with our efforts.

God is love, so He has established the Passover of the new covenant to save His children. Now we celebrate the Passover every year; whenever we partake of the bread and wine, we should remember that the bread is God's flesh torn for us and the wine is His blood shed for us. Through the Passover, let us engrave again in our hearts the sacrifice of our Father and Mother and give thanks to Them for Their grace; let's put the love of God into action and proclaim the glory of our Father and Mother.

We must not become the foolish ones who say, "Lord, Lord, open the door for us!" after the door is shut. I hope all our brothers and sisters in Zion will do their best to preach the new covenant and confidently proclaim Jerusalem Mother, who is the reality of the new covenant, so that we will live a life that is pleasing and glorifying to our Father and Mother. May God bless you all with much good fruit!

Jn 6:53-57 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, UNLESS you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me."

you guys are retards. the bible is written in parables for those who dont know. everything that is in the bible that isnt said by the lord himself has a spiritual meaning behind it.

church of god keeps the whole ten commandments so how is it a cult? i would say other churches are a cult cuz they truly arent keeping the laws of the lord.

the new covenant, which Jesus taught and put into practice as an example for us. Most so-called Christians insist that they can be saved if they just believe in Jesus. They claim to read the Bible, but actually they overlook Christ's teaching described in the Bible that we must have faith with deeds. This is the reality of Christianity.

Reply

Even though they know the words of God, if they do not put them into practice, they cannot correctly understand God's will contained in the commands and laws of God, nor can they participate in God's work of salvation, either. Knowing can be referred to as theory, and doing as practice. Through the principles of this world as well, we can see that nothing can be accomplished unless theory and practice are harmonized.

It is the same with our faith. Knowing is important, but doing is more important. God teaches us that our faith should not only be based on knowledge but be accompanied by action. Now let's confirm this will of God through the Bible.

Blessed are those who follow the way of the new covenant

Jas 2:14-26 What good is it, my brothers, if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save him? Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food. If one of you says to him, "Go, I wish you well; keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about his physical needs, what good is it? In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead . . . You foolish man, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless? Was not our ancestor Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did . . . As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.

Just knowing the words of God cannot lead us to salvation. God has said that we must keep the new covenant to receive eternal life. If we just know these words of God and do not put them into practice, can our mere knowledge save our souls? Faith alone cannot save us; it can save us completely only when accompanied by action.

It is "faith with deeds" that God wants us to have. The way of the new covenant brings blessings only to those who follow it.

Jas 1:22-25 Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like a man who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. But the man who looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues to do this, not forgetting what he has heard, but doing it—he will be blessed in what he does.

When we practice the way of the new covenant—its regulations and teachings on prayer, preaching, love for brothers and sisters and so on, we can understand its meaning correctly. So, there is a big difference in faith between those who just hear the truth of the covenant and those who put it into practice.

Even though a man is well acquainted with tens of thousands of theories and able to find Bible verses very quickly, if he does not put the Word into practice, all the theories he has are of no use to his soul. If he knows what God has commanded and does not put it into practice, it might be better for him not to know it (Lk 12:47-48).

The righteous walk in the ways of God

We must not only hear the word of God, but we should put into practice whatever God says—even if it is something small. When we have this attitude of faith and obey God's word joyfully, we are worthy of being called the people of God.

Hos 14:9 Who is wise? He will realize these things. Who is discerning? He will understand them. The ways of the LORD are right; the righteous walk in them, but the rebellious stumble in them.

Walking in the ways of God becomes a heavy burden for sinners, and they finally stumble in them. But the righteous, who have received the blessing of the forgiveness of sins, take pleasure in following the ways of God. As we continue to keep the Sabbath, we come to realize the blessings God gives us through the Sabbath, so we are able to keep it with joy. It is the same with preaching. Through preaching, we can taste an indescribable joy while watching each individual soul grow to be a child of God, and we become more willing to participate in preaching. Without preaching, we can never have such a joyful and rewarding experience.

All the laws of the new covenant God has commanded us to keep are not beyond human capabilities; everyone can put them into practice. What is important is whether or not we have the will to do so; we can be blessed or not, according to whether or not we have the will to put God's word into practice. If we hesitate to practice the word of God, using our age, gender or circumstance as an excuse, we cannot understand the true will of God who has given us the way of the new covenant, nor can we realize its value. Meanwhile, we will waste our life pursuing empty and meaningless things.

If you want to eat fruit from a persimmon tree, you need to make a positive effort to prepare a long pole or a ladder for picking the persimmon. It will never fall down for you if you just wait under the tree.

In the whole process of walking the path of the gospel, no matter how difficult your situation is, if you have the will to do the will of God, the way will surely be opened. Pray and ask God. Prayer is the way to overcome all the hindrances of Satan and to be clothed with the power of the Holy Spirit to carry out the will of God (Mk 9:28-29). If you continually devote yourself to prayer, your faith gradually grows stronger, so you can overcome any hardship and receive much blessing in the end.

Go to all nations and preach the gospel of the kingdom to them

If we are true Christians, we should not only know the path of sacrifice God walked on this earth to save mankind but also follow the sacrificial path of God. Jesus Himself set us an example that we should do as He had done for us, and Elohim who have come as the Spirit and the Bride Themselves are also setting examples for us to follow.

Now we are living in the age of prophecy when we should save the whole world. As the prophetic protagonists, we know what prophecies are awaiting their fulfillment. Nevertheless, if we do not move or act according to God's commands, how can the work of world evangelism be accomplished?

We, who are living in this age, have a certain mission from God.

Mt 28:18-20 Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

This is also a command of God, which we must carry out. We must not just wait for the coming of God without having any will or plan or effort to put the will of God into practice. Instead, we should actively participate in the fulfillment of the prophecies, so that the day of salvation will come as soon as possible.

God does not command us to do what is impossible for us or beyond our ability. God has already prepared the way for the gospel to be preached to Samaria and to the ends of the earth, and then commanded us to "go."

In the 1950s and 60s, Korea was one of the world's poorest countries, but its economy grew fast enough to surprise the world, and Korea has now emerged as an economic power. It has occurred in accordance with God's providence to accomplish world evangelism. God is opening all the doors for us to go to Samaria and to the ends of the earth to preach the gospel of the new covenant. Therefore, when God commands us to "go," we just have to go, relying on God's power. Then everything will go smoothly.

Mt 24:14 "And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come."

2,000 years ago, Jesus prophesied that the gospel of the kingdom would be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations. Just as there is a season for farming, so there is a time for a prophecy to be fulfilled. Now is the time when the prophecies are being fulfilled. Let us not miss this opportunity, and take action without hesitation.

If we believe that everything Jesus said will surely be fulfilled and will bring us blessings, we should go forward with faith, without complaining about our circumstances. Look at the cases of the members who went abroad by depending on God's power. God went ahead of them and made smooth the way for them, so that they could concentrate fully on preaching the gospel of the new covenant. As a result, the light of life has shone on the spiritually dark continents, spreading rapidly even into unknown lands, and the people living in the land of the shadow of death are now seeing the light and receiving God, who is the true light, with joy. If they had only heard God's words, "Go into the whole world and preach the message of the gospel to all people," and none of them had taken action, those gracious results would not have been brought forth.

Give the world warning from God

We know that all of us must participate in the gospel work of saving the world. From now on, let us put it into action instead of only knowing it. For this, we should continually devote ourselves to prayer, so that we can store up our spiritual power to fully carry out the will of God.

Eze 3:10-27 And he said to me, "Son of man, listen carefully and take to heart all the words I speak to you. Go now to your countrymen in exile and speak to them. Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says,' whether they listen or fail to listen." . . . "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me . . . when I speak to you, I will open your mouth and you shall say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says.' Whoever will listen let him listen, and whoever will refuse let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house."

We have been entrusted with the mission to give the world warning from God. We do not need to worry that people may not listen to the Word because of their rebellious hearts. In regard to salvation, there is nothing we can judge or conclude.

We should just preach the message of the gospel to all people, whether they listen or fail to listen. Among them there are surely God's children. So if we continue to preach, they will listen to God's word and return to God. Let me give you an example. When we preach the gospel, sometimes the person who is likely to hear God's word refuses to listen, and instead the person who is least likely to listen gives ear to the Word and comes to God. And through that one person, many souls are led to God.

When God gave us the mission to preach the gospel, He did not mean that we should deliver the Word only to those who are willing to listen and also did not mean that we should judge people in advance, thinking, 'Is this person a child of God? Or is that person a child of God?' We just have to preach the Word to all people, entrusting the results to God. If we continue to do as God has told us, many souls will listen to the gospel, understand it and come to God, through which God will be glorified and we ourselves will also be blessed.

Eze 11:19-20 "I will give them an undivided heart and put a new spirit in them; I will remove from them their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh. Then they will follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws. They will be my people, and I will be their God."

God has said that when the time of prophecy comes, He will give all His children an undivided heart, so that the gospel can be accelerated. Having an undivided heart means following God wherever He goes, that is, acting with the same mind as God.

Now is the time for the prophecy to be fulfilled. Since the Bible says that there is a time for everything and a season for every activity under heaven, we should all participate together in the work of world evangelism, before all the prophecies are fulfilled—before it is too late. With an undivided heart—with the same heart as that of God who desires to save the whole world, let us preach the gospel of the kingdom of heaven to all people, so that we can receive many rewards and blessings from God who repays us according to what we have done.

Have you ever heard about Heavenly Mother?
She's a Mother indeed, like no other.
She loves Her children so very much,
You have to know Her, your heart will be touched.

The Scriptures does not only say about Father,
But also tells that we have a Mother.
Spiritual Parents from the Kingdom above,
Our Elohim God full of mercy and love!

You have to learn about Heavenly Mother.
We'll never enter Heaven if we don't know Her.
The Spirit is our Father, and the Bride is our Mother,
They are the One to gives us life, forever.

She humbled Herself and came here on earth,
To seek and save us foolish sinners.
She preached all day, even in winter,
She's like a flower that was about to wither..

Our sins are likes thorns that pierce Her heart,
And because of our stubbornness, we have been torn apart.
Mother's tears, I cannot explain,
Oh why did She have to resist all the pain? :(

Now you know the existence of Mother,
Believe and salvation will come your way.
I know not everyone will believe Her though,
In the end, I'll tell them, "I told you so!"

Karina I used to be a COGWMS member read my story below yours. Mother is nothing but a false god, false prophet, everything about her is a lie. There is a blog that totally proves all the doctrines of that false church wrong.

research first. You have to look at all sides of the coin first, then study about subjects of everything possible then prepare to do what ever follows afterwards whether it be studying with a group, attending any type of activities or doing anything else,etc. Here it is. This is a true story, please read all of it. It happened in the world famous San Fernando Valley a City north of and thirty minutes away from Los Angeles. I used to be a SDA (Seventh Day Adventist) member for 23 years since my birth. Then I went to the Church of God World Mission Society a offshoot of the SDA church when I was 25. I do believe in the Trinity and the holy bible now and always have. What I dont believe in now is religion, any religion, or cult. I will now give a quote from an unknown source " a delusion held by one person is a mental illness, a delusion held by a few a cult, a delusion held by many a religion". Here is my story its a long one but bear with me. It happened about two to three years ago. I was at my community college school one day outside of the library. I was approached by two young men. One Korean, the other Hispanic. They began preaching to me. Like always I have a open mind to things especially about the word of God. No harm right? (
So I thought at the time).

They began talking about an oncoming world war that is predicted in the Bible. I was telling myself hmm how interesting.They were using the Bible to tell me about this war that will eventually be World War 3. After about half an hour they asked me if I wanted to study with them. I said sure, then they asked me for my phone number. I then said sure no problem. They called me the next day inviting me to theyre church. I had nothing to do that day so I said I will go only if you can pick me up and drop me off again. They (COGWMS members Korean guy, and Hispanic guy) picked me up took me to theyre church, fed me first, then took me to a room and began preaching to me only using the Bible. I was there for about an hour. I dont remember what they preached to me about exactly but I believe it was about the Trinity.
They had some valid points, but I was confused when they said that there were three different ages. The age of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. They showed me in the Bible that Jesus says go baptize them in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Okay that was like day one, several weeks passed by and I went to theyre church about three to four times a week. Only to study through them. One day after about a month and a half they said that the name of the Father was Jehova, the name of the Son was Jesus, and then they said something that left me dumbfounded the name of the Holy Spirit is Ahnsahnhong. (Ahnsahnhong started the new age or age of the holy spirit in the 1960s when he established the Church of God). They then preached to me about how this Korean man named Ahnsahnhong fulfilled certain prophecies according to the Bible and that he ascended to Heaven and promised to come back. (A year later I found out that he died like in 1985 and is buried in Korea).They showed me a whole lot of verses I stayed there for about two hours. After that they took me home. I went back to theyre church which again they picked me up.

After another Bible session of an hour or so they asked me if I wanted to get baptized. I told them that I already was baptized they then said not under the new age under the name of the Holy Spirit Ahnsahnhong. I told them no its okay I want to attend your Church of God World Mission Society but not get baptized. They then got into an argument with me.(Im a pretty patient person). They told me if I dont get baptized then I wont be attending theyre church and I will not be studying under them. In my mind I wanted to learn more about this newfound religion and wondered why there was this picture of a Korean lady all around the church and why there was a lot of pretty nice attitude girls in that church. (hey a man is weak when it comes to women okay dont judge me, I later found out that that is one of their ploys to make you join in). So I got baptized I felt really guilty I dont know why. They then made me eat a temporary passover meal and sign my name and give them my information in a registration form. It was about ten thirty at night. Afterwards they took me home. Two months passed by and I kept learning a lot of doctrines from them. I attended their services on the Sabbath (which is the seventh day Saturday) the whole day from nine in the morning till like nine at night I stayed so I could study Scripture. I attended on Tuesdays.

I learned several things like the Passover meal, the Feasts, and especially about Mother Jerusalem who lived in Korea and she supposedly cant leave Korea (I dont know why, they never fully explained to me that). Some of their doctrines like the Sabbath, who is the antichrist, and several others is from the SDA church.The church that I used to go to for about 23 years and the church that supposedly Ahnsahnhong also got baptized in after abandoning Buddhism. One of their own doctrines besides Mother and the Holy Spirit Ahnsahnhong was that the world was going to end in 2012, and that the United Nations was evil.(After 2 years I learned that in a picture on their own website one of the COGWMS representatives was shaking hands with a United Nations representative). Another thing I learned was that Mother Jerusalem arranges marriages. In other words most of the church members at the Los Angeles division had visited Mother (For some reason you can only visit her three times in Korea a flight that comes out of your own pocket) and Mother Jerusalem says you marry this person and you marry this person etc. One thing that happened one time was that I invited some " brothers" to my home to discuss with my Dad (who is a SDA member since 1981) about the Sabbath and how it should be observed. My Dad showing them with the Bible that the Sabbath is kept from Friday sunset till Saturday sunset like the Jews. The COGWMS "brothers" said no it is from sunrise Saturday till dawn of Sunday. (I think that is how they observe it). Using several verses from the Bible. What impressed me and this is what made me keep going to that Church of God was how well these young men knew the Bible. My Dad just used two verses from Scripture. The Church of God "brothers" not only used old testament verses but new testament as well. (the devil knows scripture also right?). So six months passed by.

During these months I felt like apostle Paul when he used to be a Jew and then converted to the movement of Jesus. I felt it as it was my duty to proselytize (you know preach). Boy and preached I did I went almost every single day to preach from eleven in the morning till eight at night. I went to schools, shopping malls, and also door to door in neighborhoods (especially in affluent upper middle class neighborhoods, never in poor neighborhoods, or prisons). My family was wondering why I was so into this church and I didn't know it at the time but I was actually distancing myself from them. One day the main Pastor named Pastor XXXX (he was Korean) came back from missionary work from Oregon this is the first time I met him. He asked me several times a day that I should get a job. As a matter of fact whenever he saw me he told me (all the time) to not bother the church members for a ride and to go home walking and look for a job. (my home was about seven miles away from the church). Which I did I looked and looked but couldn't find anything. This is about the time when the job market started plummeting. One day during the Feasts of Trumpets I believe (a very important event for Church of God members). Pastor XXXX told me to follow him. In front of other church members he said to get out of church. I asked why? He then told me to follow him to the exit of the church. After which he then told me you need to get out and stay out of this church don't ever come back again or else I will call the police. I was heartbroken I had made friends at the church, I went home and felt spiritually raped. Over the next few days (and still up to this day) I wondered why I was kicked out of the Church of God World Mission Society. I called Pastor XXXX the next week he told me that I should keep reading the Bible and that he and a missionary were going to visit me in a week. (they never came). I then called up several "brothers" of the COGWMS. A peculiar thing that they all asked me was if I followed what Pastor XXXX told me about getting a job.

Which by then I did. I ended up working at a Quiznos. (a job that I quit before I even heard of COGWMS). I then stopped contact with everyone at that church and went on with my life. Yet I still had some questions about that Church of God. About two months later I went back to my former church (the Seventh Day Adventist church). One of the pastors (who was going to become an ordained Catholic priest) saw me and said hey I have been wanting to speak with you about you and that Church of God. He explained to me about this Ahn Sahng character and recommended a book to me about the New Age movement. (like I mentioned above the new age was brought about Ahnsahnghong in the 1960s when he established the Church of God) Guess when this New Age movement happened thats right in the 1960s. Its about the age of Aquarius. What these New Age movement people do (and its endorsed ideas are found in the movie The Secret, Oprah Winfreys radio show and comments she has made in her show, and Scientology, among many other celebrities and groups the list goes on) is mix Buddhism with Christianity and several other religions like Hinduism and present it through the Bible with several radical ideas. My Pastor then proceeded to disprove all of the Church of Gods doctrines through the Bible. I am saddened at how the Devil is really hard at work these days and deceiving people in mass. Another thing I learned and this is through experience is that Koreans are very money hungry. Doesnt the Bible teach thou shalt not want? I heard a report that there are around 300 different churches in Korea that claim that they have the second coming Christ. Another cult or religion from Korea is the Unification Church which is similar. I dont know what it is about Koreans but I guess since you can not reincarnate into Buddha then you have to pick Jesus. And the Bible says that death has no power over Jesus no more. But Ahnsahnghong (supposedly second coming Jesus)died in 1985 and he predicted that he would be back in 1988 (also in 1967 I think). It never happened. Also I have read Ahnsahnghongs books and he never has claimed divinity. Also through some research I have come to find out that after Ahnsahnghong was baptized he had several marriages. Mother Jerusalems sister is a church money embezzler and has gone to prison for it. Some "heavenly" family. Like Jesus himself said there will be false prophets and false messiahs to deceive even the elect. This cult that I used to go to is proof of what Jesus said. It is also proof that we are living in the last days. Jesus will be coming soon in all his glory. Have a nice day. God bless.

Mother of Sacrifice and Love

The Bible says that God is love (1 Jn 4:8). Until we have got where we are today, there have been God the Father who established the new covenant-the truth of life-through His sacrifice and God the Mother who spares no effort to lead us to the eternal kingdom of heaven even at this moment.

Father's love is unmeasurable, and Mother's love is even more unfathom-able, so we cannot grasp the depths of Her love for us. From Mother comes the power that enables the members of Zion to help one another and to become united in love. The endless sacrifice and love of Mother are defeating all the hindrances of Satan in the invisible spiritual world and are leading us, Her children, to victory. Now, let's take some time to confirm this fact through the Bible.

A lavish love

A long time ago, a teacher and his students made a long journey in order to obtain enlightenment. While walking along the road, they discussed about what the greatest love in the world is. When they arrived at a village, many human bones were found heaped up together. A sudden accident or disaster had probably overtaken the whole village.

Looking at so many human bones laying twisted and tangled up together, the teacher seemed suddenly struck by a thought, and asked his students if they could find a woman's bone among those bones. His students just looked at one another's faces, unable to select a woman's bone easily.

Then the teacher picked up one of the bones, and said it was the bone of a woman. His students asked how he could recognize a woman's bone so easily among those numerous bones. The teacher explained the reason to them as follows:

"Think about a woman's life first. When she is young, she is always treated as less than a man just because she is female. When she gets married and becomes pregnant, she provides all the nourishment in her body to her unborn baby. When she gives birth to her child, she has to shed blood. Moreover, when she breast-feeds her baby, all the nutrients in her body are passed on to her child through her breast milk. Since she does so, how can the nutrients remain in her bones? Such a bitter and sacrificial life of a woman has made her bone light and dark like this."

Listening to the teacher, his students were all reminded of their mothers. 'Such is the life of a mother. She only gives her children everything, but there is nothing she can do for herself.' As they realized this, they became solemn for a while. They were deeply moved to hear their teacher say that a mother gives her children everything-even the marrow of her bones-in the process of being pregnant, giving birth to them and raising them. Thinking of their mothers, they all shed tears.

A mother is the one who gives unconditional love to her children. She only gives her children everything she has. Why is the life of every mother on this earth so devotional? Why did God make a mother into such a sacrificial being?

A mother continuously tries to give everything to her children with careful concern for them, wishing them to succeed and prosper in life, even though she herself suffers a lot. This love and sacrifice is the nature of a mother. I believe that God has put the spirit of love and sacrifice in the hearts of mothers on this earth because it is the spiritual nature of our Heavenly Mother.

Those who love Jerusalem, and those who do not serve Jerusalem

Like the disciples in the above story, who obtained realization from what their teacher said and were moved to tears, thinking of their mothers, we shall also realize the sacrifice and love of our spiritual Mother and engrave it deep in our hearts.

Isa 66:10-14 "Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice greatly with her, all you who mourn over her. For you will nurse and be satisfied at her comforting breasts; you will drink deeply and delight in her overflowing abundance." For this is what the LORD says: "I will extend peace to her like a river, and the wealth of nations like a flooding stream; you will nurse and be carried on her arm and dandled on her knees. As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you; and you will be comforted over Jerusalem." When you see this, your heart will rejoice and you will flourish like grass; the hand of the LORD will be made known to his servants, but his fury will be shown to his foes.

In Galatians it is written, "But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother" (Gal 4:26). So, "those who love Jerusalem" means "those who love their spiritual Mother." Mother has given us everything—Her flesh and blood and even Her bones, until She has nothing left to give and Her bones become very light. We must realize how much Mother gives us and how much pain and sorrow She endures behind the scenes.

God bestows His blessings on those who realize the love of Jerusalem Mother, and He pours out His wrath upon those who do not realize Her love and turn away from Her.

Isa 60:1-12 "Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD rises upon you. See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the LORD rises upon you and his glory appears over you. Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. Lift up your eyes and look about you: All assemble and come to you; your sons come from afar, and your daughters are carried on the arm. . . . Who are these that fly along like clouds, like doves to their nests? Surely the islands look to me; in the lead are the ships of Tarshish, bringing your sons from afar, with their silver and gold, to the honor of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, . . . For the nation or kingdom that will not serve you will perish; it will be utterly ruined."

The above prophecy of Isaiah 60 sings the glory of Jerusalem that is to appear in the future. It also proclaims God's warning that on the last day He will judge all peoples and nations that do not serve Jerusalem.

Proclaim the glory of Jerusalem to the whole world

In order for God's people, who were small and weak, to become a mighty nation, they should display the glory of Jerusalem throughout the world. God our Father told us to proclaim Jerusalem's glory to the whole world without rest.

Isa 60:21-22 "Then will all your people be righteous and they will possess the land forever. They are the shoot I have planted, the work of my hands, for the display of my splendor. The least of you will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation. I am the LORD; in its time I will do this swiftly.”

Isa 62:6-7 I have posted watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem; they will never be silent day or night. You who call on the LORD, give yourselves no rest, and give him no rest till he establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the earth.

The Bible repeatedly urges us not to stop spreading the glory of Jerusalem all over the world. If we understand Mother's boundless sacrifice, love and pain, we should proclaim Her glory to the ends of the earth.

Through mothers on this earth, we can understand the sacrifice and love of Heavenly Mother even a little bit. Every earthly system, everything done on this earth, is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven, and God created all things by His will (Heb 8:5; Rev 4:11).

If the love of a father is an invisible fence that surrounds us and keeps us safe, the love of a mother works more directly and closely with her children. Suppose an urgent situation where children are caught in a fire. When this happens, fathers tend to judge the situation rationally, but mothers judge it sensitively. Fathers are likely to make a rational judgment: 'Since the fire has become this big, if I fail to get them out of the fire within a few seconds, both of us will die.' On the other hand, mothers run into the fire first in order to save their children. A mother's love is so unconditional.

Victory given through Mother's sacrifice and love

Thus, we are growing in the love of Mother who lavishly sacrifices everything to save us, Her children. That's why we, the offspring of the woman, can win the spiritual war against Satan in the end.

Ge 3:15 "And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel."

God said that He would put enmity between the serpent and the woman. The woman is described as the "mother of all the living" (Ge 3:20). The woman (Mother) and the serpent (Satan) are enemies to each other. The offspring of the woman and the offspring of the serpent are also enemies to each other.

The devil our enemy sets all sorts of traps and snares in order to tempt us to disobey the holy will of our heavenly Mother. He devises many schemes to make us waste our time on earthly things that are meaningless and transient.

In order to resist the temptations of Satan and to win victory over him, we absolutely need to make efforts to obey Jerusalem Mother and put Her words into practice, with love for Her. Heavenly Mother is working even at this moment, sparing no pains, for us Her children. How about us? What are we doing now? Are we not absorbed in things for physical comfort and pleasure and wasting our time on such worthless things? Or, are we trying to save souls while giving and sharing, along with Mother? We need to reflect on ourselves.

Rev 12:9 The great dragon was hurled down-that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him.

Rev 12:17 Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring-those who obey God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus.

The great dragon was hurled down, and the identity of the dragon was discovered to be the serpent in the Garden of Eden. The serpent was expelled from heaven, and is opposing the woman on this earth.

In the Bible, the dragon or the serpent refers to Satan the devil. Satan was enraged at God the Mother and went off to make war against the rest of Her offspring-those who obey God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus. Although Satan is reigning over numerous people like the sand of the sea, he is destined to lose every war.

Rev 20:7-10 When the thousand years are over, Satan will be released from his prison and will go out to deceive the nations in the four corners of the earth-Gog and Magog-to gather them for battle. In number they are like the sand on the seashore. They marched across the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of God's people, the city he loves. But fire came down from heaven and devoured them. And the devil, who deceived them, was thrown into the lake of burning sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet had been thrown. They will be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

The spiritual warfare between the serpent and the woman-between the offspring of the serpent and the offspring of the woman-is to end with the punishment of the dragon in an unquenchable fire where he will be tormented forever and ever.

Satan can never triumph over Mother. Since Mother has "love" the greatest power, how can Satan win?

The power that enables God's children to be victorious is the endless love of Mother who protects Her children, even at the risk of Her own life. So, those who love Jerusalem display Her glory wherever they are, and proclaim Her holy sacrifice and love to the ends of the earth.

Salvation achieved through sacrifice

Satan is doomed to be tormented in the eternal fire of hell. Now, let's see where God our Mother is leading us, Her children.

Rev 22:1-5 Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb down the middle of the great street of the city. On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him. They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign for ever and ever.

God our Mother has continuously guarded and protected us, Her loving children, from every evil scheme of Satan to lead us to the way of eternal life and to ultimately raise us as the heavenly royal priesthood who will reign forever and ever. Until She has done that, spiritually Her flesh and bones have become so weak and frail. Everything good has been taken by Her children. She has given Her children all things that can help them. The six thousand year long period has been a series of such spiritual struggles. We can fully understand it even though we do not hear the explanation regarding how light and frail a woman's bone is.

Those who do not realize the love of Jerusalem our heavenly Mother cannot stand at the position of the heavenly royal priesthood. They cannot resist and overcome the power of Satan. Only when we cherish the love of Mother and put it into practice, we will be able to become "those who overcome" (Rev 3:12), just as Mother has won eternal victory.

Preaching without love is lifeless. It is only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. Only when we fill our hearts with God's holy love, we can preach sincerely and practice true love. Mother's love that works within us enables us to take care of one another, to correct someone if he or she has a wrong thought and to help another out if he or she goes astray, so that we will all be able to enter the kingdom of heaven together.

Let's share the love we have received from Mother with our brothers and sisters and with our neighbors and all people around the world, who have not received the truth yet, so that the glorious way can be opened for them all to fly into the arms of Heavenly Mother like clouds, like doves to their nests, according to the prophecy of Isaiah. As children of Mother, we should also care about many people around us with love for them, always remembering that the source of love is Heavenly Mother, and should repay Mother for the love we have received from Her. I earnestly hope that all our brothers and sisters in Zion will follow Mother wherever She leads us and give glory, praise and thanks to Her all the time.

Heavenly Father and Mother want us all to become a royal priesthood in heaven. Elohim have told us not to lose the glorious position but hold on to it, so that no one will take our crowns (Rev 3:11). Serving Heavenly Mother and receiving Mother's abundant love, let us preach the gracious love of life-the heavenly love-to all people around the world and provide the love to them as much as we can, so that we will all go to the eternal kingdom of heaven together.

Mother of Sacrifice and Love

The Bible says that God is love (1 Jn 4:8). Until we have got where we are today, there have been God the Father who established the new covenant-the truth of life-through His sacrifice and God the Mother who spares no effort to lead us to the eternal kingdom of heaven even at this moment.

The above prophecy of Isaiah 60 sings the glory of Jerusalem that is to appear in the future. It also proclaims God's warning that on the last day He will judge all peoples and nations that do not serve Jerusalem.

Proclaim the glory of Jerusalem to the whole world

In order for God's people, who were small and weak, to become a mighty nation, they should display the glory of Jerusalem throughout the world. God our Father told us to proclaim Jerusalem's glory to the whole world without rest.

sacrifices everything to save us, Her children. That's why we, the offspring of the woman, can win the spiritual war against Satan in the end.

Ge 3:15 "And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel."

God said that He would put enmity between the serpent and the woman. The woman is described as the "mother of all the living" (Ge 3:20). The woman (Mother) and the serpent (Satan) are enemies to each other. The offspring of the woman and the offspring of the serpent are also enemies to each other.

The devil our enemy sets all sorts of traps and snares in order to tempt us to disobey the holy will of our heavenly Mother. He devises many schemes to make us waste our time on earthly things that are meaningless and transient.

In order to resist the temptations of Satan and to win victory over him, we absolutely need to make efforts to obey Jerusalem Mother and put Her words into practice, with love for Her. Heavenly Mother is working even at this moment, sparing no pains, for us Her children. How about us? What are we doing now? Are we not absorbed in things for physical comfort and pleasure and wasting our time on such worthless things? Or, are we trying to save souls while giving and sharing, along with Mother? We need to reflect on ourselves.

Rev 12:9 The great dragon was hurled down-that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him.

Rev 12:17 Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring-those who obey God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus.

The great dragon was hurled down, and the identity of the dragon was discovered to be the serpent in the Garden of Eden. The serpent was expelled from heaven, and is opposing the woman on this earth.

In the Bible, the dragon or the serpent refers to Satan the devil. Satan was enraged at God the Mother and went off to make war against the rest of Her offspring-those who obey God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus. Although Satan is reigning over numerous people like the sand of the sea, he is destined to lose every war.

Rev 20:7-10 When the thousand years are over, Satan will be released from his prison and will go out to deceive the nations in the four corners of the earth-Gog and Magog-to gather them for battle. In number they are like the sand on the seashore. They marched across the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of God's people, the city he loves. But fire came down from heaven and devoured them. And the devil, who deceived them, was thrown into the lake of burning sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet had been thrown. They will be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

The spiritual warfare between the serpent and the woman-between the offspring of the serpent and the offspring of the woman-is to end with the punishment of the dragon in an unquenchable fire where he will be tormented forever and ever.

Satan can never triumph over Mother. Since Mother has "love" the greatest power, how can Satan win?

The power that enables God's children to be victorious is the endless love of Mother who protects Her children, even at the risk of Her own life. So, those who love Jerusalem display Her glory wherever they are, and proclaim Her holy sacrifice and love to the ends of the earth.

Salvation achieved through sacrifice

Satan is doomed to be tormented in the eternal fire of hell. Now, let's see where God our Mother is leading us, Her children.

Rev 22:1-5 Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb down the middle of the great street of the city. On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him. They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign for ever and ever.

God our Mother has continuously guarded and protected us, Her loving children, from every evil scheme of Satan to lead us to the way of eternal life and to ultimately raise us as the heavenly royal priesthood who will reign forever and ever. Until She has done that, spiritually Her flesh and bones have become so weak and frail. Everything good has been taken by Her children. She has given Her children all things that can help them. The six thousand year long period has been a series of such spiritual struggles. We can fully understand it even though we do not hear the explanation regarding how light and frail a woman's bone is.

Those who do not realize the love of Jerusalem our heavenly Mother cannot stand at the position of the heavenly royal priesthood. They cannot resist and overcome the power of Satan. Only when we cherish the love of Mother and put it into practice, we will be able to become "those who overcome" (Rev 3:12), just as Mother has won eternal victory.

Preaching without love is lifeless. It is only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. Only when we fill our hearts with God's holy love, we can preach sincerely and practice true love. Mother's love that works within us enables us to take care of one another, to correct someone if he or she has a wrong thought and to help another out if he or she goes astray, so that we will all be able to enter the kingdom of heaven together.

Let's share the love we have received from Mother with our brothers and sisters and with our neighbors and all people around the world, who have not received the truth yet, so that the glorious way can be opened for them all to fly into the arms of Heavenly Mother like clouds, like doves to their nests, according to the prophecy of Isaiah. As children of Mother, we should also care about many people around us with love for them, always remembering that the source of love is Heavenly Mother, and should repay Mother for the love we have received from Her. I earnestly hope that all our brothers and sisters in Zion will follow Mother wherever She leads us and give glory, praise and thanks to Her all the time.

Heavenly Father and Mother want us all to become a royal priesthood in heaven. Elohim have told us not to lose the glorious position but hold on to it, so that no one will take our crowns (Rev 3:11). Serving Heavenly Mother and receiving Mother's abundant love, let us preach the gracious love of life-the heavenly love-to all people around the world and provide the love to them as much as we can, so that we will all go to the eternal kingdom of heaven together.

Proclaim the Glory of Jerusalem to the World Every single prophecy in the Bible has been fulfilled in human history without fail, and is still being fulfilled today. Some prophecies, which still remain unfulfilled, will surely be fulfilled soon according to the providence of God.

By: Bell on February 3, 2011 at 10:06 am

Reply

Now, we have the most important prophecy of the Bible before us. God said that the glory of Jerusalem would be proclaimed to all the nations of the world. Even though there is a prophecy, unless we ask God and make an effort to fulfill the prophecy, it will be delayed in its fulfillment and we will not share in the glory which is prophesied. As the soldiers of the heavenly army in Zion, we should keep in step with the prophecy and proclaim the glory of Jerusalem to the whole world.

Jerusalem will be a praise in the earth

The prophet Isaiah prophesied about Jerusalem who would be the praise and glory of the earth as follows.

Isa 62:6-7 "I have posted watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem; they will never be silent day or night. You who call on the LORD, give yourselves no rest, and give him no rest till he establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the earth."

Isa 66:10-14 "Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her, all you who love her; ... For you will nurse and be satisfied at her comforting breasts; you will drink deeply and delight in her overflowing abundance." For this is what the LORD says: "I will extend peace to her like a river, and the wealth of nations like a flooding stream; you will nurse and be carried on her arm and dandled on her knees. As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you; and you will be comforted over Jerusalem." When you see this, your heart will rejoice and you will flourish like grass; ..."

The prophecy about Jerusalem is mentioned many times in the book of Isaiah. The Bible says that it is God's will for Jerusalem to be praised by all the nations of the world and that we, all the children of God, will be comforted and glad in Jerusalem.

Who is Jerusalem that she will be praised and honored by all the nations of the world? As it is generally known, Jerusalem is a specific place located in the Middle East. How can a mere city called Jerusalem be established by God Himself and praised and honored by all the nations of the earth? How can we be carried and comforted in the arms of Jerusalem if it indicates a physical place?

Taking the prophecies literally will only increase doubts. As the Bible says, "... expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words" (1 Cor 2:13), we need to find out what the spiritual Jerusalem, not the earthly one, means in the Bible.

The heavenly Jerusalem is our Mother

The Bible mentions not only the earthly Jerusalem but also the heavenly Jerusalem. Now, let's find out what God wants to show us through Jerusalem.

Gal 4:26 "But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother."

It is written that the Jerusalem that is above is our mother. The Bible personifies Jerusalem on earth to show us its reality, the heavenly Jerusalem our Mother. It says in the Bible that we will be comforted in Jerusalem and satisfied at her comforting breasts. This shows that we, children of Jerusalem, will grow up spiritually, being comforted by our heavenly Mother, like a child who is dandled on his mother's knees and in her arms.

The Bible prophesies that Jerusalem will be praised and glorified in the earth. This prophecy does not refer to the earthly Jerusalem located in the Middle East. As spiritual watchmen, we should proclaim the glory of God to all the nations and clearly testify that it is God's firm will for Jerusalem our Mother to be praised in the earth.

Until the prophecy is completely fulfilled, we must continually pray to God that the day will come soon when the glory of Jerusalem our Mother will be proclaimed throughout the whole world. The gospel work will be finished when Mother is proclaimed and revealed throughout all the nations of the world.

The Bible continues to explain:

Gal 4:27-31 "For it is written: "Be glad, O barren woman, who bears no children; break forth and cry aloud, you who have no labor pains; because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband." Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman."

We are children of the free woman, our Mother, and also children of promise. What God promised us is eternal life (1 John 2:25). So, children of promise can be called children of eternal life. As we are children of Mother, we become children of promise who can receive eternal life and inherit the kingdom of heaven.

Children of promise like Isaac

Isaac was born to Abraham by his wife Sarah, and he became Abraham's heir. Sarah, the wife of Abraham, represents our heavenly Mother. That's why the Bible calls us "children of promise like Isaac."

Abraham, the forefather of faith, represents God the Father. Let's find out what the relationship between Abraham and God is, through the parable of the rich man and Lazarus spoken by Jesus.

Luke 16:19-31 "There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day. At his gate was laid a beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores and longing to eat what fell from the rich man's table. Even the dogs came and licked his sores. The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. In hell, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. So he called to him, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me ...' "

In the parable, when Lazarus and the rich man died, Lazarus was carried to Abraham's side and the rich man went to hell and was in torment. Strangely enough, the rich man in hell called to Abraham in heaven, "Father Abraham, ..." It is only God who can be called Father in the spiritual world. In other words, Abraham represents God.

The history of Abraham's family is described in various places throughout the book of Genesis in the Holy Bible. In Abraham's family, the matter of an heir was mentioned many times, and finally Isaac, whom Sarah bore, became the heir of Abraham. It was Sarah, Isaac's mother, that had a crucial role in deciding the heir.

Why do many verses in the Bible specifically describe an individual's family history? There is a certain reason for this. The history of Abraham's family shows us that Jerusalem our Mother has a decisive role in qualifying us as God's heirs to inherit His kingdom.

Abraham's family and Mother

Gen 15:1-5 "After this, the word of the LORD came to Abram (the original name of Abraham) in a vision: "Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your very great reward." But Abram said, "O Sovereign LORD, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir." Then the word of the LORD came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir." ...

When Abraham was 85 years old, he still had no son. So, he wanted to make Eliezer, a servant in his household, his heir to inherit his estate. However, God said that Eliezer was not suitable to be Abraham's heir and that a son coming from his own body would be his heir.

Gen 16:1-6, 15 "Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. But she had an Egyptian maidservant named Hagar; so she said to Abram, "The LORD has kept me from having children. Go, sleep with my maidservant; perhaps I can build a family through her." Abram agreed to what Sarai said. ... Hagar, and she conceived. When she knew she was pregnant, she began to despise her mistress. ... So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son she had borne. Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore him Ishmael."

Abraham's wife Sarah gave her maidservant Hagar to her husband as his concubine. When Hagar conceived, she began to despise her mistress Sarah. Since Sarah bore no children, she was despised by her maidservant. Afterward, she continued to suffer mental distress and anguish for about 14 years until Isaac was born.

When Hagar bore Ishmael to Abraham, he seemed to have an heir. However, God said to Abraham, "A son coming from your own body will be your heir." It was not God's will for Ishmael to be Abraham's heir. God wanted a son, who would be born to Abraham by Sarah his wife-the free woman, to become Abraham's heir.

Gen 17:1-7, 15-19 "When Abram was ninety-nine years old, ... God also said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you are no longer to call her Sarai; her name will be Sarah. I will bless her and will surely give you a son by her. I will bless her so that she will be the mother of nations; kings of peoples will come from her." Abraham fell facedown; he laughed and said to himself, "Will a son be born to a man a hundred years old? Will Sarah bear a child at the age of ninety?" And Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing!" Then God said, "Yes, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will call him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him."

Abraham assumed that Ishmael would be his heir. However, God said that He would establish His covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah would bear to him. God didn't allow Eliezer to be Abraham's heir for the reason that he was not his own son. Even though Ishmael was Abraham's son, God rejected him as his heir because he was born by the slave woman. God acknowledged only Isaac who would be born through Sarah.

As God had promised, one year later Sarah bore a son, Isaac, who became Abraham's heir through his mother, Sarah (Gen 21:1-12).

The heavenly inheritance is given through Mother

The history of Abraham's family shows through whom we can become God's children and inherit the kingdom of God. God has made those who are like Isaac children of promise and allowed them the blessing of eternal life. As Isaac was designated as Abraham's heir through his mother, so we can become God's heirs through our Mother and enjoy the precious blessing of eternal life.

Those who do not know Jerusalem our Mother can never become children of promise like Isaac. God said, "A son coming from your own body will be your heir." Ishmael was the first begotten son of Abraham, who was 14 years older than Isaac. Nevertheless, why didn't God accept Ishmael as Abraham's heir? Ishmael represents those who know God only as Father. However, the Bible clearly shows that there is God the Mother as well.

God has determined not to give the heavenly inheritance to those who have no part with Him. He doesn't accept the people, who believe in God the Father but do not believe in God the Mother, as His heirs. It is Mother who holds the final key. Everything on this earth is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. If we think about why God lets the physical life be given through a mother, we can understand what the divine will is.

Surely there is a reason why God establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the earth. The history of Abraham's family shows how much Mother has suffered until She is glorified. However, it expresses just a little bit of Her suffering. Until we've received eternal life promised by God, there's been the great sacrifice of Mother, who has suffered so much for 6,000 years in order to lead Her children to heaven. Mother grants us, Her children, eternal life through Her invisible, inexpressible pains. That's why God does not rest until He makes Mother the praise of the earth. The Bible describes the scene that God's children, who have received Jerusalem Mother, nurse and are satisfied at Her comforting breasts, delighting in Her overflowing abundance, like a child.

Heavenly Mother whom the Bible testifies about

The existence of our heavenly Mother is already recorded in Genesis. Let's look back to the time when our heavenly Mother did the work of creation together with our heavenly Father.

Gen 1:26-28 "Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground." So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. ..."

When God created man in His own image, male and female were created in the image of God. This suggests that there are two images of God: male and female. That's why God said when creating man, "Let us make man ...," instead of saying, "I will make man..."

Even before the creation of the world, both images of God already existed: the male image of God and the female image of God. Therefore, those who have received only God the Father cannot be God's heirs. Although they live together in Abraham's family and call him Lord or Father, they cannot inherit his estate, just as Eliezer and Ishmael, who were not children of Sarah, didn't inherit Abraham's property.

If we just call out to God without knowing Him correctly, we cannot communicate with God. We can worship God rightly when we know Him. Keeping the will of God in mind, we should quickly proclaim Jerusalem our Mother, who is life, to all the nations of the world. As the eternal kingdom of God is close at hand, we will bear more good fruit if we fully proclaim the glory of Jerusalem our Mother. God's prophecy must surely be fulfilled if we believe in it and put it into practice.

Proclaim the glory of the new Jerusalem to the whole world

We have to fulfill the prophecies of the Bible diligently. Young adult members like the dew of the dawn must arise; the gospel must be preached to all nations; and the prophesied 144,000, whom John saw, will all come to Mount Zion and be guided by the Spirit and the Bride.

We must not delay doing God's work. Even at this moment, time passes away. Making the most of every moment, let's proclaim the glory of Jerusalem our heavenly Mother all the more. Some will probably intend to defame the glory of Jerusalem, like Tobiah and Sanballat. However, even amid their hindrance, the city of Jerusalem was completed without fail, because it was the work of the Holy Spirit, not something men could accomplish by themselves.

We all experienced the work of the Holy Spirit during the Preaching Festival of the Feast of Tabernacles. The number of the souls we found during the week of the Preaching Festival is almost the same as the number of the souls whom we had found for a year. How can we say it's the work of men? Since we all became one with filial piety toward Jerusalem our Mother, the gracious work of the Holy Spirit occurred, like a good son in an ancient Korean story who moved heaven and was able to find strawberries for his old mother in the middle of the winter.

Now, through the fire of the Holy Spirit, let's proclaim the glory of Jerusalem our Mother to the whole world. Then the people of all nations will come together to see the glory of God, and when each of them returns he will proclaim God's glory in his country (Isa 66:18-19). How amazing!

It is our mission to proclaim the glory of Jerusalem throughout the whole world. When Gideon's army of 300 soldiers broke the jars, held the torches hidden in them and shouted, "For the LORD!" they were able to defeat 135,000 men and won a great victory. Likewise, when we shout out the glory of Jerusalem, a marvelous work will occur. Now is the time for us to break the jars and hold the torches high. Let's shout altogether, lifting up the torches. Let us all arise and shine the light of the gospel to the whole world. Looking forward to the day when God's glory will be shone brightly all over the world, let us diligently proclaim the light of the glory of the new Jerusalem to the whole world.

In March 28, 2010 someone wrote a post on a blog, where they explain that the Seal of God is the Holy Spirit, and I quote:

By: Bell on February 3, 2011 at 12:10 pm

"From these verses, it looks like the Holy Spirit seals us to show that we belong to Him when we believe..."

Reply

then they go on to quote the following verses to discredit the teaching of the World Mission Society Church of God that the Passover is the way to receive the Seal of God:

2 Corinthians 1:21-22 — ...set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit...

Ephesians 1:13-14 — ...Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit...

Ephesians 4:30-32 — And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed...

But these verses do not contradict the teaching that the Passover is the way to receive the Seal of God. To understand this verses correctly, first you need to have a correct interpretation of the Trinity, that Father, Son and Holy Spirit are the same God. As the Bible explains Jesus Christ is the Holy Spirit.

Romans 8:9 — You, however, are controlled not by the sinful nature but by the Spirit, if the Spirit of God lives in you, And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Christ.

here the Spirit of God is referred to as the Spirit of Christ. Thus Jesus and Holy Spirit are the same one.

Acts 16:6-7 — ...having been kept by the Holy Spirit from preaching the word in the province of Asia. ...but the Spirit of Jesus would not allow them to.

Here the Holy Spirit and the Spirit of Jesus are the same. Thus Jesus is the Holy Spirit. one more:

2 Corinthians 1:21-22 — ...set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit...

Galatians 4:6 — Because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts...

There are more testimonies in the Bible about this, but I will omit them for the sake of space. The above verses should be sufficient to let you understand that to receive the Holy Spirit in us, would be the same as to receiving Christ in us. Then how can we receive Christ in us?

John 6:53-55 — JESUS SAID to them, "I TELL YOU THE TRUTH, UNLESS you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. WHOEVER EATS MY FLESH AND DRINKS MY BLOOD REMAINS IN ME, AND I IN HIM.

Jesus himself declared that when we receive His body and blood He remains in us and we in him, thus we receive Christ in us. Then how can we receive the body and the blood Christ? as per Jesus Himself:

Luke 22:13, 19-20 – They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared for the PASSOVER... And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

Then through the PASSOVER we can receive Jesus Christ in us, thus we receive the Holy Spirit in us as well.

The Holy Spirit is the seal of God, but by celebrating the Passover we can have confirmation from God that we have received the seal of God.

Hi All :)

So this blog is far to long... the only thing that I really have to say is that if you "claim" to be "christians" then why are you bashing/judging each other? I am believer of oneness, and I am believer of Holiness, not going to go into detail for the reason that I do not like to argue and I don't care to... but we are to be Christ like, and by reading quite a few of these blogs, they are def not Christ like... We are to reach out and love everyone as Christ loves us. We are to forgive, as Christ as forgvien us.

Reply

PS: I will add this.... eveyone will claim that their "religion" is the true religion... but in my opinion, thats not what it is all about, It's about an exprience and a true and daily walk with God.

I wish you all well
God Bless!

Betty,

By: Cindy on January 17, 2012 at 8:35 am

Good Point, but we are to follow the comands of God or we are not with him, and we are to make disciples of all nations. Even the followers of Christ made mistakes are they were leaning. Even Peter, loved by Christ denied him three times before the roster crowed just as it was written that he would. What happened to Peter, repended and was forgive. Who was the judge of his sins, God. Therefore none of us has the authority to judge what others do but learn from the mistakes of others.

Reply

@ Betty: yes, you are correct that Christians should be building one another up and not bashing each other down.. however, that is not the case here. What is happening is we (the TRUE followers of the ONE and ONLY Jesus Christ) are battling against those that have been deceived by one of Satan's latest cults, "WMSCOG". It represents a false Christ, one which is Korean and not Jewish, and also which distorts every doctrine of the Bible one could possibly think of.

By: Pierce on February 5, 2011 at 6:11 am

Reply

Things like this can -not- go unsaid, that is we must not let the followers of the church of "God" blindly believe what they believe. We must expose the distortions of the Bible and lead them to sound doctrine. After all, the Apostle Paul teaches us, by the guidance of the Holy Spirit, to be instructed in sound doctrine and not believe in foolish wives tales and fables. Paul also teaches us the vanity of being "religious" in following the Old Testament Jewish laws, including the Sabbath, unless we do it out of being Jewish ourselves (he allowed the early church to discontinue Jewish tradition since the Gentiles were not Jewish it would not apply to them.. though if the Jews wanted to, they could do so, but not push the laws onto Gentiles).

The law in and of itself is sinless and good, but it convicts sin and thus punishes sinners. Jesus Christ took the sin on the cross and dealt with it personally, and now any that believes on the Lord Jesus Christ and has repented, is now on a path of Holiness and is not convicted by sin. That is not to say that he sins no more in the flesh, but rather sin is not a habitual desire in the heart of man. With the Holy Spirit residing in the temple of man, the heart, we are convicted by God Himself and not by Old Testament laws.

With that said, while we are to build one another up and not bash, I believe that instructing one another in sound doctrine builds others up rather than tears down. Think about it: if a Pastor preached about the goodness of God and how sinners can enter into heaven without repenting, how many would be deceived? We would be thinking we wouldn't have to change a lifestyle or turn to Christ and still be able to enter heaven. That's false, we all know it.. so why condone a false doctrine in the church? We must instruct against such things.

Anyone which tells you otherwise is not a true Christian, is a false prophet, and does NOT come in the name of the LORD Jesus Christ, who is YHWH forever, amen.

Passover is the Seal of God

In March 28, 2010 someone wrote a post on a blog, where they explain that the Seal of God is the Holy Spirit, and I quote:

Reply

"From these verses, it looks like the Holy Spirit seals us to show that we belong to Him when we believe..."

then they go on to quote the following verses to discredit the teaching of the World Mission Society Church of God that the Passover is the way to receive the Seal of God:

2 Corinthians 1:21-22 — ...set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit...

Ephesians 1:13-14 — ...Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit...

Ephesians 4:30-32 — And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed...

But these verses do not contradict the teaching that the Passover is the way to receive the Seal of God. To understand this verses correctly, first you need to have a correct interpretation of the Trinity, that Father, Son and Holy Spirit are the same God. As the Bible explains Jesus Christ is the Holy Spirit.

Romans 8:9 — You, however, are controlled not by the sinful nature but by the Spirit, if the Spirit of God lives in you, And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Christ.

here the Spirit of God is referred to as the Spirit of Christ. Thus Jesus and Holy Spirit are the same one.

Acts 16:6-7 — ...having been kept by the Holy Spirit from preaching the word in the province of Asia. ...but the Spirit of Jesus would not allow them to.

Here the Holy Spirit and the Spirit of Jesus are the same. Thus Jesus is the Holy Spirit. one more:

2 Corinthians 1:21-22 — ...set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit...

Galatians 4:6 — Because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts...

There are more testimonies in the Bible about this, but I will omit them for the sake of space. The above verses should be sufficient to let you understand that to receive the Holy Spirit in us, would be the same as to receiving Christ in us. Then how can we receive Christ in us?

John 6:53-55 — JESUS SAID to them, "I TELL YOU THE TRUTH, UNLESS you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. WHOEVER EATS MY FLESH AND DRINKS MY BLOOD REMAINS IN ME, AND I IN HIM.

Jesus himself declared that when we receive His body and blood He remains in us and we in him, thus we receive Christ in us. Then how can we receive the body and the blood Christ? as per Jesus Himself:

Luke 22:13, 19-20 – They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared for the PASSOVER... And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

Then through the PASSOVER we can receive Jesus Christ in us, thus we receive the Holy Spirit in us as well.

The Holy Spirit is the seal of God, but by celebrating the Passover we can have confirmation from God that we have received the seal of God.

James 2:17-19 – 17 In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead. 18 But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds." Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by my deeds. 19 You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

By: Bell on February 8, 2011

How can the Passover not be the seal of God, when the name of the feast itself means that something passes over (Pass – over), then what is that something that passes over? it is plagues and destruction.

Reply

The origins of the Passover and how the plagues passed over the people are a shadow through which we can find the way to escape the plagues in the last days:

Hebrews 10:1 — The law is only a shadow of the good things that are coming — not the realities themselves...

in this verse the law means the old testament, but here it says that this law is only a shadow meaning that there must be a reality, who we all as Christians know is found in Christ.

1 Corinthians 5:7 — Get rid of the old yeast that you may be a new batch without yeast — as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Therefore let us keep the Festival...

in Hebrews 11:28, it is written, "By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel." This means that no destructive plague was brought upon the houses where the blood of the Passover lamb was sprinkled because it was a sign for them.

It was in 586 B.C. that Jerusalem was about to be devastated and Judah was about to be destroyed by Babylon's attack. The prophet Jeremiah proclaimed the reason for the destruction of Judah as follows:

Jeremiah 11:1-4 — This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: "Listen to the terms of this covenant and tell them to the people of Judah and to those who live in Jerusalem. Tell them that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Cursed is the man who does not obey the terms of this covenant — the terms I commanded your forefathers when I brought them out of Egypt, out the iron-smelting furnace.' I said, 'Obey me and do everything I command you, and you will be my people, and I will be your God.'"

It was on the day of the Passover that God brought them out of Egypt, the covenant God declared on that day was the Passover. The Israelites did not listen to what Jeremiah testified about, so they were invaded by Babylon and destroyed. In regard to this, Jeremiah testified again as follows.

Jeremiah 16:10-11 — "When you tell these people all this and they ask you, 'Why has the LORD decreed such a great disaster against us? What wrong have we done? What sin have we committed against the LORD our God?' then say to them, 'It is because your fathers forsook me,' declares the LORD, 'and followed other gods and served and worshiped them. They forsook me and did not keep my law.'"

The law the Israelites forsook at that time was the Passover and therefore worshiped other gods. In the same way the Bible warns through Isaiah that the world would perish because the people broke the everlasting covenant:

Isaiah 24:1-5 — See, the LORD is going to lay waste the earth and devastate it; he will ruin its face and scatter its inhabitants- it will be the same for priest as for people...The earth will be completely laid waste and totally plundered. The LORD has spoken this word. The earth dries up and withers, the world languishes and withers, the exalted of the earth languish. The earth is defiled by its people; they have disobeyed the laws, violated the statutes and broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore a curse consumes the earth; its people must bear their guilt. Therefore earth's inhabitants are burned up, and very few are left.

If the breaking of the everlasting covenant is the reason why people are being destroyed, then those very few that are going to be left, will be left because they keep the everlasting covenant. Then what is the everlasting covenant? let us see:

Hebrews 13:20 — May the God of peace, who through the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of Sheep,...

according to the scriptures, the eternal or everlasting covenant (both mean forever) has been established through blood. Then what is the only covenant in the bible established through blood and involving Jesus Christ?

Luke 22:13, 19-20 — They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared for the Passover... And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

The Passover of the new covenant is the everlasting covenant that will let us be protected in the last days. As it was from its origins, Passover is the way for plagues to "Pass-over" us, therefore it is the Seal of God.

Bell, the verses you keep reciting have to do with a "new" covenant; however, it seems to me that the COG is making this "new" covenant to be nothing more than the "old" covenant recycled with a different tool/ritual.

Now the only thing left for us to do, is to know what is the seal of God. Jesus Christ taught us about the Seal of God as follows:

By: Bell on February 8,

at 12:17 pm

John 6:27 — Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. On him God the Father has placed his seal of approval."

Reply

In this verse we can see that on Christ is the seal of God, but now we are the ones who need the seal of God.
Then how can we receive Christ in us?

John 6:53-55 — Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.

Jesus said that when we eat His flesh and drink His blood He will remain in us and we will remain in Him. According to this passage once we receive the body and the blood of Christ we can receive Christ who is the Seal of God, thus we will also have the Seal of God. Then the key to receiving the Seal of God is to receive the body and the blood of Christ, but how can we do that?

Luke 22:13, 19-20 – They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared for the Passover... And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

It was only on the Passover night that Jesus promised His body and blood, thus through the Passover we can receive the seal of God; the body and the blood of Christ.

Now according to revelation 7:1-4 the Seal of God is being brought by an angel from the east.

Revelation 7:1-3 — After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth to prevent any wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree. Then I saw another angel coming up from the east (the rising of the Sun NASB), having the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: "Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God."

But in whose viewpoint should we consider the east (or the rising of the sun as in the Greek bible)? It is not definitely my viewpoint or yours, but the writers' viewpoint. Now where was John when he received the revelation?

Revelation 1:9 — I, John, your brother and companion in the suffering and kingdom and patient endurance that are ours in Jesus, was on the Island of Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

This lets us understand that the "East", must be east of Patmos. Patmos is an island at the outskirts of Greece. And this is where John was when he saw the angel come from the east with the seal of God. The fact that John noted where he was when he wrote this prophecy, and the direction the angel was coming from means that it must be of some importance.

The island of Patmos sits on the parallel 37. If we follow the Parallel 37, which Patmos sits on, all the way to a land in the east (at the rising of the sun), we can find that it crosses right through South Korea.

Now skeptics will say: "What about Japan, technically that is where the sun rises?". Now keep in mind that the seal of God is the Passover of the new covenant. As far as I know, no one from Japan has declared to preach the Passover of the new covenant. Yet from South Korea, only Christ Ahnsahnghong has preached the truth of the Passover of the New Covenant. Therefore He is the savior who brought back the Seal of God from the East.

Then, skeptics will also say: "Some other churches keep their OWN Passover?"

Stand by Church of God haters, whether you like it or not, you will hear why Church of God's Passover is the true one, not the other churches. The purpose of this to give you all warning so in Judgement day, whether you listen or not, so that you will have no excuse.

Ezekiel 3:16-21 – 16 At the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me: 17 "Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the people of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me. 18 When I say to a wicked person, 'You will surely die,' and you do not warn them or speak out to dissuade them from their evil ways in order to save their life, that wicked person will die for their sin, and I will hold you accountable for their blood. 19 But if you do warn the wicked person and they do not turn from their wickedness or from their evil ways, they will die for their sin; but you will have saved yourself.

20 "Again, when a righteous person turns from their righteousness and does evil, and I put a stumbling block before them, they will die. Since you did not warn them, they will die for their sin. The righteous things that person did will not be remembered, and I will hold you accountable for their blood. 21 But if you do warn the righteous person not to sin and they do not sin, they will surely live because they took warning, and you will have saved yourself."

Bell, I don't need anyone telling me how to get the Holy Spirit within me – the Holy Spirit resides within my spirit since the day I first believed.. The Bible says that our body is the temple of the Spirit in 1 Cor. 6:19 "What? know you not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which you have of God, and you are not your own?"

What does this tell me? That there is no need for Zhang Gil-Jah, the Heavenly Mother, to be our Holy Spirit... why must there be a feminine physical manifestation when the Holy Spirit is within me... as a SPIRIT.

You can believe what you want to, Bell, but you can NOT tell me nor any of the other Christ-followers on here that we are not saved with all legit validity.

The Jesus Christ I know never once expected people to partake of rituals and principles.. He met the people where they were at. From the stories these ex-members tell, if they are true, then the Church of God is nothing but a pack of lies. Why do I say this? Jesus loved sinners, man. Jesus hung out with tax collectors and thieves, robbers and crooks, liars and prostitutes, and the filthiest of wretches.. and He showed them the love of the Most High God, and from that love they were transformed into Holiness... it was Christ's LOVE that changed them, and it's Christ's love that changed me as well as every Christ-follower out there past to present, and NOT following a bunch of legalized do and don't laws. Yes, sin is disgusting. Yes, sin makes God furious. But, that's why Christ was the fulfillment of it all – we don't have to offer sacrifices to God anymore, for Christ the sinless spotless God-man became sin for us, and died. But, it doesn't end there. Christ was resurrected, because the grave cannot tolerate or hold God down. Christ was born a Jewish man, and that same physically Jewish body had scars to prove He was the same Jesus resurrected as He was when He died. He was glorified at the time, we know this because the WORD says He walked through walls and "appeared" seemingly from nowhere, so it can be assumed that Christ still has those scars to this day.. which means that the Christ which will come down from Heaven will be a physically Jewish man with scars to prove He is the same, and not some Korean bafoon with a fraudulent reign.

Yes, Christ will come soon and the end times are near, but don't be so focused on the end times.. they already began when Christ was resurrected and ascended to heaven 2000+ years ago, and it will come to a close when He comes again.

Again, Bell... I am not saying this to argue or persuade you to believe any different than you do now, but know that you cannot tell me with all knowing power that I do not know the LORD, for I do. I don't need to partake of the passover to know that I have the Holy Spirit – He reminds me daily when I am guilty of my sins.. when I feel the urge to love on someone whom I normally would feel no compassion for.. when I pray and seek God concerning something my heart desires, and He confirms it with a biblical scripture to give me the motion to carry on or let go in that area. Oh yes, I know God on a very personal level. I am so worthless and weak, powerless and ugly.. but He loves me so, and I worship Him daily with my life. Am I perfect? No. I lash out. I sometimes swear at God, and argue with Him.. but we settle things together. God and I are like that.. the relationship between my God and I, it's something that can never be broken no matter how hard I try, because each time I feel like giving Him the finger and calling it quits, He smacks my face and lets me know just how real He truly is, and how undeserving of His love I am.. and that He deserves more worship than I could ever offer.

Blessings to all..

Everything written in the Bible is a copy and shadow of the things to come. By looking into the shadowy work in the Old Testament, we come to know and understand the things of the present or of the future.

1. Everything written in the past has become a lesson. (Rom 15:4) For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us.

- Then, what was written in the past that God wanted us to understand?

- The prophet Malachi prophesied that there will be the appearance of the Elijah before the last destruction.

(Mal 4:1) "Surely that day is coming; it will burn like a furnace..."

(Mal 4:4-6) "Remember the law of my servant Moses, the decrees and laws I gave him at Horeb for all Israel. "See, I will send you the prophet Elijah..."

- God stated that we should remember the Law just before the end, but this law mentioned here by the prophet Malachi became Christ's law which was fulfilled on the cross two thousand years ago by Jesus Christ. (Heb 7:11-12)
- This Elijah must also turn our hearts back to our Father (Mal 1:6) as stated in Malachi 4:5.

2. Then who is this Elijah that will appear in the last days just before the last destruction.

- When we study the history of Israel, we can clearly see the blueprint that God laid out for us in these last days. By studying the history of Israel we can the role of Elijah, where he will come from and why he will appear in the last days before the destruction.
- In Israel's history there were many kings that played major roles for and against God's people until the appearance of Elijah. King David was known for establishing Zion for God's people. After David's reign, King Solomon was known for being the one who built God's temple (1 Kings 6:1). Toward the end of Solomon's reign, he broke God's covenant and sinned. As a result, God tore his kingdom into two areas (1 Kings 11:11). The Northern half was given to King Jeroboam and the Southern half was given to King Rehoboam.
- From northern Israel we can see the sin of King Jeroboam and how his actions became a shadow of things to come.

(1 Kings 12:25-33) "Here are your God's, O Israel...And this thing became a sin"

- The first thing he did was make two golden calves, one in Bethel and the other in Dan, and in the eyes of God this thing became a SIN!
- Second, he instituted a festival that looked just like God's festivals in Judah.
- Can we say that his festival is a sin? (Yes) because his festival is offered to an Idol.
- He also instituted a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, a month of his own choosing

(Isa 1:10-16) "Your New Moon festivals and your appointed feasts my soul hates"

- "When you spread out your hands in prayer, I will hide my eyes from you!"
- "Take your evil deeds out of my sight!"
- "Stop doing Wrong"

3. Ahab son of Omri did more evil in the eyes of the Lord.

(1 Kings 16:30-33) "He not only...commit the sins of Jeroboam..., but he married Jezebel..."

- He set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal.
- Ahab was known as the worst king and..."did more to provoke the Lord, the God of Israel, to anger than did all the kings of Israel before him.

(1 Kings 17:1) "As the Lord, the God of Israel, lives, whom I serve, there will be neither dew nor rain in the next few years except at my word."

4. The mission and the appearance of Elijah.

(1 Kings 18:1-4, 16-21) In the third year Elijah went to present himself to Ahab.

- When Ahab saw Elijah he stated "Is that you, you troubler of Israel?"
- Elijah explained "You have abandoned the Lord's commands and have followed the Baal's".
- Elijah summoned all 850 false prophets to meet him on Mount Carmel.
- "How long will you waver between two opinions?"
- When Elijah returned he found that no one had faith in the true God! (Shadow)

(1 Kings 18:22-29) "The god who answers by fire...he is God"

- The acts of the Baal worshipers. (Idol worship, dancing around, frantic prophesying...)
- Even though they shouted, "there was no response, no one answered, no one paid attention."
- Why? The bible teaches that when we worship idols or do not obey the commands of God, he hides his face from us and does not listen to our prayers. (Isaiah 1:15; Jeremiah 11:3, Jeremiah 11:11-17; Ezekiel 8:18; John 9:31; Proverbs 28:9)

(1 Kings 18:30-40) "He repaired the altar of the Lord, which was in ruins."

- Elijah rebuilt the altar of God using 12 stones.
- At time of evening sacrifice he prayed "I...have done all these things at your command...so these people will know that you O Lord, are God, and that you are turning their heart back again" (Proverbs 15:29)
- His prayer became a prophecy in Malachi 4:5 that would be fulfilled in the last days.
- Then, the fire of the Lord was revealed.

(Eccl 1:9) "What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again"

(Eccl 3:15) "Whatever is has already been...God will call the past to account"

- The scriptures testify that Jesus is the fulfillment of King David. When David reigned as King he established Zion; this was to show how Jesus would establish Zion through the festivals of the New Covenant.

(2 Sam 17:21-23) Ahithophel's betrayal and suicide by hanging...

- Ahithophel was David's counselor. (2 Sam 15:2, 16:23)

(Matt 27:3-5) Judas' betrayal of Jesus and suicide by hanging...

- Later after King David's reign, Solomon took the throne. This history became a shadow of the apostles preaching after Jesus' death on the cross.
- After King Solomon the nation was split into two, this was a shadow to show what would happen to the church after the Apostolic Age. The Church was divided into two, Eastern Church and the Western Church.

- Through Northern Israel we can see the sin of Jeroboam by his making feasts that look like God's feast. The Church in Rome in the year A.D. 150 began to accept a different gospel that looked like the gospel of Christ.
- Then, who is the reality of Ahab and Jezebel?

(Rev 2:20) "Nevertheless, I have this against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess"

- The book of Revelations was written around A.D. 97-106 and John sees the appearance of Jezebel after the apostolic age.
- Because of Ahab and Jezebel, the people began to serve Baal and worship many Idols which caused God to shut up the sky. Their disobedience caused them to lose their Rain and Dew for the next few years.

(Luke 4:25) "When the sky was shut for three and a half years and there was a severe famine" (1,260 days)

(James 5:17) "It did not rain on the land for three and a half years" (1,260 days)

- The, what is the meaning of shutting up the sky so that people will experience a great famine of no rain and no dew?

(Duet 32:2) "Let my teaching fall like rain and my words descend like dew"

(Amos 8:11) "But a famine of hearing the words of the Lord"

- Then, who became the reality of Ahab and Jezebel?
- Because of the Pope and Constantine, the church began to worship the Sun God and many idols.
- There was a great famine of hearing the words of God for 1,260 years!

(Hosea 2:8) "She has not acknowledged that I was the one...which they used for Baal"

- "I will stop all her celebrations...her Sabbaths...all her appointed Feasts"
- "I will punish her for the days she burned incense to the Baals."
- "But me she forgot, declares the Lord"

5. As prophesied in Malachi, there must be the Elijah who will appear to rebuild the Lord's altar in the last days.

- Then, who is the Elijah that is to come in the last days?
- Elijah appeared from the East. (1 Kings 17:1) (Josh 17:5)
- He didn't find faith with the people when he returned. (1 Kings 18:21)
- He rebuilt the altar with 12 stones.
- He revealed the truth of God by Fire!

This is a prophecy about Jesus who is to come again in the flesh to restore the truth and to seek his people in the last days.

(Rev 7:1-4) "Then I saw another angel (Christ) coming up from the East"

(Luke 18:8) "However, when the Son of Man (Christ) comes, will he find faith on the Earth?"

- This is the reality of Elijah finding no faith with the people when he returned. (2nd coming)

If Jesus came into this faithless world as the Last Judge, who would be saved? As Elijah had to rebuild the altar of the Lord, Christ himself must come a second time to restore all truth so that we can be saved.

(Luke 12:49) "I have come to bring fire on the Earth, and how I wish it were already kindle!"
(Jer 5:14) "I will make my words in your mouth like fire"
(Jer 23:29) "Is not my word like fire"

The meaning of Elijah is God – Jehovah (Eli = God, Jah or Yaw = Jehovah). This was to show that God must come again in the last days as the prophetic Elijah to restore and rebuild the altar which was in ruins. Christ AhnSahngHong came in the last day as our Elijah. Father came from the east, rebuilt the altar of truth and exposed the characteristics of the Baal worshipers.

850 Baal Worshipers and Elijah

By: Bell on February 8, 2011

Everything written in the Bible is a copy and shadow of the things to come. By looking into the shadowy work in the Old Testament, we come to know and understand the things of the present or of the future.

Reply

1. Everything written in the past has become a lesson.
(Rom 15:4) For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us.

- Then, what was written in the past that God wanted us to understand?
- The prophet Malachi prophesied that there will be the appearance of the Elijah before the last destruction.

(Mal 4:1) "Surely that day is coming; it will burn like a furnace..."

(Mal 4:4-6) "Remember the law of my servant Moses, the decrees and laws I gave him at Horeb for all Israel. "See, I will send you the prophet Elijah..."

- God stated that we should remember the Law just before the end, but this law mentioned here by the prophet Malachi became Christ's law which was fulfilled on the cross two thousand years ago by Jesus Christ. (Heb 7:11-12)
- This Elijah must also turn our hearts back to our Father (Mal 1:6) as stated in Malachi 4:5.

2. Then who is this Elijah that will appear in the last days just before the last destruction.

- When we study the history of Israel, we can clearly see the blueprint that God laid out for us in these last days. By studying the history of Israel we can the role of Elijah, where he will come from and why he will appear in the last days before the destruction.
- In Israel's history there were many kings that played major roles for and against God's people until the appearance of Elijah. King David was known for establishing Zion for God's people. After David's reign, King Solomon was known for being the one who built God's temple (1 Kings 6:1). Toward the end of Solomon's reign, he broke God's covenant and sinned. As a result, God tore his kingdom into two areas (1 Kings 11:11). The Northern half was given to King Jeroboam and the Southern half was given to King Rehoboam.

- From northern Israel we can see the sin of King Jeroboam and how his actions became a shadow of things to come.

(1 Kings 12:25-33) "Here are your God's, O Israel...And this thing became a sin"

- The first thing he did was make two golden calves, one in Bethel and the other in Dan, and in the eyes of God this thing became a SIN!
- Second, he instituted a festival that looked just like God's festivals in Judah.
- Can we say that his festival is a sin? (Yes) because his festival is offered to an Idol.
- He also instituted a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, a month of his own choosing

(Isa 1:10-16) "Your New Moon festivals and your appointed feasts my soul hates"

- "When you spread out your hands in prayer, I will hide my eyes from you!"
- "Take your evil deeds out of my sight!"
- "Stop doing Wrong"

3. Ahab son of Omri did more evil in the eyes of the Lord.

(1 Kings 16:30-33) "He not only...commit the sins of Jeroboam..., but he married Jezebel..."

- He set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal.
- Ahab was known as the worst king and..."did more to provoke the Lord, the God of Israel, to anger than did all the kings of Israel before him.

(1 Kings 17:1) "As the Lord, the God of Israel, lives, whom I serve, there will be neither dew nor rain in the next few years except at my word."

4. The mission and the appearance of Elijah.

(1 Kings 18:1-4, 16-21) In the third year Elijah went to present himself to Ahab.

- When Ahab saw Elijah he stated "Is that you, you troubler of Israel?"
- Elijah explained "You have abandoned the Lord's commands and have followed the Baal's".
- Elijah summoned all 850 false prophets to meet him on Mount Carmel.
- "How long will you waver between two opinions?"
- When Elijah returned he found that no one had faith in the true God! (Shadow)

(1 Kings 18:22-29) "The god who answers by fire...he is God"

- The acts of the Baal worshipers. (Idol worship, dancing around, frantic prophesying...)
- Even though they shouted, "there was no response, no one answered, no one paid attention.”

- Why? The bible teaches that when we worship idols or do not obey the commands of God, he hides his face from us and does not listen to our prayers. (Isaiah 1:15; Jeremiah 11:3, Jeremiah 11:11-17; Ezekiel 8:18; John 9:31; Proverbs 28:9)

(1 Kings 18:30-40) “He repaired the altar of the Lord, which was in ruins.”

- Elijah rebuilt the altar of God using 12 stones.
- At time of evening sacrifice he prayed “I...have done all these things at your command...so these people will know that you O Lord, are God, and that you are turning their heart back again” (Proverbs 15:29)
- His prayer became a prophecy in Malachi 4:5 that would be fulfilled in the last days.
- Then, the fire of the Lord was revealed.

(Eccl 1:9) “What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again”

How many times are you going to tell us what is Passover?

Well something that passes over? It is plagues and destruction Right!

By: stella on February 9, 2011 at 4:22 am

Reply

Do you collect world disaster pictures to instill fear into members and show how this Passover magic can save them from all disasters FYI There shall be famines, and pestilences Matthew 24:7 and rumors of wars. This must all happen. Any idea where the BIG NK missile is facing??

I suggest first love your neighbor North Korea and make a visit there as it needs a Zion soon. I ask you this because my Cog pastor friend was shaking in his pants when he read of how a Christian woman was executed for distributing the Bible there. So why fear. Don't you cog's have the magic Passover and mother God just next door in ZION. LOL

Recently South Korea the ZION also had to struggle to control foot-and-mouth epidemic. By the way they didn't explain HOW they culled some of those animals. I believe they buried up to a million pigs ALIVE. They will surely find their way to the mound where Hong lies buried.

The second coming Korean Jesus from the east not only brought Passover but also the practice of eating pork. I know how you all desire to eat this meat. Do you have it at the Passover meal along with grape juice and Korean rice bread?

This is exactly how Satan leads the cog on foot in the malls and streets to trap poor souls and with your mouth spread the epidemic of false teachings. Now I understand why the demons did beg Jesus to allow them to enter the swine? Perhaps they were drawn to the unclean animals, a place of confinement to which evil spirits are doomed.

My pastor friend also shares a secret of how he got a non-Christian baptized in cog whose former religion belief basically refrain them from eating Pork and without his knowledge they have been giving him soup of this meat. I am like stunned.

What sort of crooked & wicked lives you follow. There is so much of deception in every respect with the WMSCOG and they think they can get away using BIBLE to defend themselves. You are still an unclean spirit.

As for the brainwashed Bell your long post will have no effect. Very soon your dear bros Elijah, Bro from Zion who got tired and had no answers will flock here to tell you "Don't give that which is holy to the dogs, neither throw your pearls before the pig's blah blah blah. Let us all find our lost bros & sis blah blah. You make us laugh. Oh, I love that finale.

And then another unclean pig follows the same thing.....
The End.

The truth of the Passover, the Seal of God

By: Bell on February 9, 2011 at 6:41 am

How can the Passover not be the seal of God, when the name of the feast itself means that something passes over (Pass – over), then what is that something that passes over? it is plagues and destruction. This can be confirmed throughout the history in the Bible.

Reply

Someone claimed that the Holy Spirit is the Seal of God. Of course this is true. But the problem is that this someone is explaining HALF TRUTHS. Let's see.

"From these verses, it looks like the Holy Spirit seals us to show that we belong to Him when we believe..."

then they go on to quote the following verses to discredit the teaching of the World Mission Society Church of God that the Passover is the way to receive the Seal of God:

2 Corinthians 1:21-22 — ...set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit...

Ephesians 1:13-14 — ...Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit...

Ephesians 4:30-32 — And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed...

But these verses do not contradict the teaching that the Passover is the way to receive the Seal of God. To understand this verses correctly, first you need to have a correct interpretation of the Trinity, that Father, Son and Holy Spirit are the same God. As the Bible explains Jesus Christ is the Holy Spirit.

Romans 8:9 — You, however, are controlled not by the sinful nature but by the Spirit, if the Spirit of God lives in you, And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Christ.

here the Spirit of God is referred to as the Spirit of Christ. Thus Jesus and Holy Spirit are the same one.

Acts 16:6-7 — ...having been kept by the Holy Spirit from preaching the word in the province of Asia. ... but the Spirit of Jesus would not allow them to.

Here the Holy Spirit and the Spirit of Jesus are the same. Thus Jesus is the Holy Spirit. one more:

2 Corinthians 1:21-22 — ...set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit...

Galatians 4:6 — Because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts...

There are more testimonies in the Bible about this, but I will omit them for the sake of space. The above verses should be sufficient to let you understand that to receive the Holy Spirit in us, would be the same as to receiving Christ in us. Then how can we receive Christ in us?

John 6:53-55 — JESUS SAID to them, "I TELL YOU THE TRUTH, UNLESS you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. WHOEVER EATS MY FLESH AND DRINKS MY BLOOD REMAINS IN ME, AND I IN HIM.

Jesus himself declared that when we receive His body and blood He remains in us and we in him, thus we receive Christ in us. Then how can we receive the body and the blood Christ? as per Jesus Himself:

Luke 22:13, 19-20 – They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared for the PASSOVER... And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

Then through the PASSOVER we can receive Jesus Christ in us, thus we receive the Holy Spirit in us as well.

The Holy Spirit is the seal of God, but by celebrating the Passover we can have confirmation from God that we have received the seal of God.

@Bell PLEASE BELL RESPOND TO ME.
Read my story at the church of god on one of these pages. If you cant find it then I will give you my email so I can give you my story. I went there for 7 months on a daily basis. Read my story please. Besides did you know that Jews for Jesus (Messianic Jews I think thats who they are) practiced the Passover and Feasts long before the creation of the church of god? Or that other Christian denominations such as the Worldwide Church of God has been observing the Passover and Feasts about 25 years prior to Ahnsahnghongs baptism in 1948? Also please stop copying and pasting your false blasphemous doctrines on here. If anybody wants to know about your false church teachings we will ask a church of god member or go on your churches website. If you want to tell us as to why you or anybody should be in the church of god and believe in those false gods then tell us. You can give us a few verses too. But do NOT make a sermon. We dont want that. We dont want to hear your false blasphemous teachings from Korean people that pose as gods. Stop it. Shame on you. Ask your mother Jerusalem why she doesnt act like a real mother and leave Korea and look for her supposed children lost in the world if she is really concerned? Ask her why her children need to pay out of their own pockets to fund a trip to Korea while she has vast reserves of money on her and she could pay for the trips herself? I have other questions as well but just dwell on those two. Have a nice day.

Common Characteristics of a Cult

By: stella on July 3, 2011
at 8:05 pm

Reply

1. Members swear total allegiance to an all-powerful leader who they believe to be the Messiah.
2. Rational thought is discouraged or forbidden.
3. The cult's recruitment techniques are often deceptive.
4. The cult weakens the follower psychologically by making him or her depend upon the group to solve his or her problems.
5. The cults manipulate guilt to their advantage.
6. The cult leader makes all the career and life decision of the members.
7. Cults exist only for their own material survival and make false promises to work to improve society.
8. Cult members often work fulltime for the group for little or no pay.
9. Cult members are isolated from the outside world and any reality testing it could provide.
10. Cults are anti-woman, anti-child, and anti-family.
11. Cults are apocalyptic and believe themselves to be the remnant who will survive the soon-approaching end of the world.
12. Many cults follow an "ends justify the means" philosophy.
13. Cults, particularly in regard to their finances, are shrouded in secrecy.
14. There is frequently an aura of or potential for violence around cults.

symptoms:

Cult leaders are often psychopathic and power hungry. They teach their followers that the outside world is evil; that the cult offers the only salvation. This creates an atmosphere of isolation, leading to hopelessness.

Cult recruiters target people with low self-esteem, presenting the group as a loving surrogate family. Members are taught to do whatever the family asks. They must repress their individuality and work for the good of the group.

New people may receive red carpet treatment, but once they are established members, they may be exploited and abused. They may alter their personalities to please authority figures and fit into the group.

Cult leaders preach that society is on the brink of destruction, reinforced by isolating their members and controlling the flow of information within the cult. They manipulate members with guilt and fear.

Cults try to portray themselves as benign and may hide undesirable aspects of their operation from the public and from members. Thus the stereotype of "blind" followers.

God bless you all.

Isaiah 55:8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways,"
declares the LORD.
9 "As the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are my ways higher than your ways
and my thoughts than your thoughts.

If the Church of God is a Cult! Then Christianity itself is a cult

When reading the cult watch website you come across a section entitled: "How does the WMS Church of God brainwash its members?" In this section Ted goes through a checklist of what he calls "coercive techniques." Ted considers these techniques as guidelines to qualify a group as a cult. However if we are going to judge what a cult is according to these techniques, then Christianity itself is the biggest cult to ever exist. How can this be possible? Let us see through verses from the Bible:

1) Cults Claim to Have all Knowing leadership:

John 21:17 {the third time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep.}

2) Cults only teach you up to what you are able to believe:

Hebrews 5:11 {We much to say about this, but it is hard to explain because you are slow to learn.}

3) Cults claim no room for differences (Everybody is the same):

Colossians 3:11 {Here there is no Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all, and is in all.}

4) Cults claim to introduce a new and better way:

Hebrews 7:18-19 {the former regulation is set aside because it was weak and useless (for the law made nothing perfect), and a better hope is introduced, by which we draw near to God.}

5) Cult members should imitate cult leader:

Philippians 2:5 {your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus}
Also Colossians 3:11 of example 3.

6) Cults isolate you from your family:

Matthew 10:37 {anyone who loves his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me}

7) Cults Brainwash ignorant and people who have no critical thinking.

Acts 4:13 {when they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus.}

8) Cults Recruit people:

Mk 16:15-16 {He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned}

9) Cults always claim Persecution of the Leader:

Acts 22:6-8 {"About noon as I came near Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me. I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, 'Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?' 'Who are you, Lord?' I asked " 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting,' he replied.}

10) Cults have ignorant leaders:

John 7:14-16 {Not until halfway through the Feast did Jesus go up to the temple courts and begin to teach. The Jews were amazed and asked, "How did this man get such learning without having studied?"}

11) Cults try to keep members busy:

Acts 2:46-47 {every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

12) Cult leaders always try to gain your trust:

John 14:1 {"Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me}

13) Cults believe that by your actions you prove your faith:

James 2:17 {in the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.}

14) Cults claim salvation is through obedience before the end comes:

Matthew 24:42 {"Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come.}

15) Cults make members dependant to the cult leader:

John 15:5 {"I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.}

16) Cults claim that there is no exit apart from the cult:

John 6:67-68 {"You do not want to leave too, do you?" Jesus asked the Twelve. Simon Peter answered him "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.}

17) Cult members claim to have "Spiritual Battles":

Ephesians 6:12 {for our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.}

18) Cults try to keep things secret:

Matthew 17:9 {As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, "Don't tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."}

19) Cult leaders claim to be the only way, and supreme authority:

John 14:6 {Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."}

And for the sake of space and time, I omitted the teachings of: Judaism, Mohammed, Buddha, Martin Luther King, Nelson Mandela, Mahatma Gandhi, Copernicus, Galileo...etc.

If we are going to judge groups and organizations by these standards, then every single organization and religion is a cult. We should not judge the Church of God by these standards, rather we should see if the teachings that the Church practices come from God or not. To label the World Mission Society Church of God as a cult is no different from when the Jewish religious leaders called the Apostles a Nazarene sect. Please don't commit the same mistake as 2,000 years ago.

Proverbs 16:25 There is a way that seems right to a man, but in the end it leads to death.

Isaiah 55:8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," declares the LORD.

9 "As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

The true faith in Christ is by following the Law of Christ.

Many people now a days are confused about the Bible. Most of them think that by keeping the law they are cursed, or that they don't have to keep the law anymore because Jesus saved us by faith. However, we must understand about what law the Bible talks about, and which law is the one that God is telling us to follow, or we will fall into error.

Galatians 2:21 "21I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness could be gained through the law, Christ died for nothing!"

According to the verse above, Apostle Paul said that Christ sacrifice to bear our sins are useless if we need the law to become righteous. But the following verse says that Apostle Paul doesn't nullify the law rather he uphold or keep it even though he knew that grace of God can be gained through faith in Jesus Christ.

Romans 3:31 "31Do we, then, nullify the law by this faith? Not at all! Rather, we uphold the law."

Without understand these matter, we can easily misunderstood the Bible and be in error of the Scriptures.

Matthew 22:29 "Jesus replied, "You are in error because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God."

How many kind of law exist in the Bible?

1 Corinthians 9:20-23 "To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law), so as to win those under the law. To those not having the law I became like one not having the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law), so as to win those not having the law. To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all men so that by all possible means I might save some. I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings."

Apostle Paul who is an apostle of Christ said to the Church of God in Corinth that he is under the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:2 "Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ."

There is not just the law of Moses but also the law of Christ. Which law should we keep?

Hebrews 8:7 "For if there had been nothing wrong with that first covenant, no place would have been sought for another.

But God found fault with the people and said:

"The time is coming, declares the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant I made with their forefathers when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they did not remain faithful to my covenant, and I turned away from them, declares the Lord. This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time, declares the Lord. I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest. For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more." By calling this covenant "new," he has made the first one obsolete; and what is obsolete and aging will soon disappear.

This promise can be found in: (Jeremiah 31:31)

At the time of Jeremiah, the Israelites were already keeping the Old Covenant through Moses law. But God said that He is going to make a New Covenant in the future. He will put His law in the heart of the people so that they can know God and their sins will be forgiven.

Who came and made the New Covenant?

Luke 22:13-15 "They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover. When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer... And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me. "In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you."

Jesus made the New Covenant through the Passover so that our sins can be forgiven. So, was prophecy fulfilled? Yes. Through the New Covenant Passover God is our God and we are God's children. By making the New Covenant, the Old one disappears. This happened when Jesus came, then we as children of God what should we follow? We must also follow the New Covenant.

Why?

Hebrew 7:11 "If perfection could have been attained through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the law was given to the people), why was there still need for another priest to come—one in the order of Melchizedek, not in the order of Aaron? For when there is a change of the priesthood, there must also be a change of the law."

Because perfection was never attained through the Old Covenant that is why a new priest has to come in the order of Melchizedek. Do you know who came in the order of Melchizedek?

Hebrew 6:20 "where Jesus, who went before us, has entered on our behalf. He has become a high priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek."

Jesus came as a High Priest in the order of Melchizedek. That is why now we are under Christ's law. But people are in error because they don't know the scriptures. The law of Moses disappeared when Christ came.

How can we distinguish among the Law of Moses and the Law of Christ?

What is the Law of Moses?

What is the Law of Christ?

Christ Ahnsahnghong showed us the difference about the Law of Moses and the Law of Christ through these verses:

Acts 15:1 "Some men came down from Judea to Antioch and were teaching the brothers: "Unless you are circumcised, according to the custom taught by Moses, you cannot be saved."

When we read this whole chapter we will be able to understand how people had disagreements because of the Law of Moses. But what does circumcision in Christ means?

Colossians 2:11 "In him you were also circumcised, in the putting off of the sinful nature, not with a circumcision done by the hands of men but with the circumcision done by Christ, having been buried with him in baptism and raised with him through your faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead."

Circumcision means Baptism. That is why Jesus said that through Him all the laws are fulfilled. Because Jesus change the way on how to worship God.

Galatians 3:26-28 "You are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus, for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus."

We are all baptized in Christ to be saved. That is why Jesus set the example for us to follow.

How about the Law of the Sabbath?

Many people said this is only for the Old Testament, however, Jesus also kept the Sabbath, not because He was following the law of Moses but because He was setting an example for us to keep the true Sabbath of the New Covenant in spirit and truth. If we look at the Old Testament we can see that the regulations to keep the Sabbath were extremely hard to follow.

Number 28:9 "On the Sabbath day, make an offering of two lambs a year old without defect, together with its drink offering and a grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil. This is the burnt offering for every Sabbath, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering."

The Sabbath in the Old Testament was so difficult to keep, they did not only have to bring two lambs on that day, but also they couldn't do any type of work otherwise they were stone to death. But how about now, how did Jesus told us to keep the Sabbath?

Luke 4:16-21 "He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. And he stood up to read. The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. Unrolling it, he found the place where it is written: "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on him, and he began by saying to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing." Jesus' example was to go on the Sabbath to church, read from the scriptures, and preach the good news of the Kingdom of heaven so that the blind can see and the prisoners can be released. Jesus fulfilled the law of the Sabbath so that we can learn how to worship God in Spirit and Truth.

How about the law of the Passover?

According to the Old Testament these is the way the Israelites kept the Passover:

Exodus 12:6-11 "The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats. Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the people of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight. Then they are to take some of the blood and put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses where they eat the lambs. That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast. Do not eat the meat raw or cooked in water, but roast it over the fire—head, legs and inner parts. Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it. This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; it is the LORD's Passover."

This is the way that they kept the Passover, and not only this, if you check (Exodus 12:43) you can see even more regulations. How about when Jesus came? Even though He was a Jew, did He kept the Passover according to the Law of Moses?

Luke 22:13-20 "They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover. When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer..... And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you."

Obviously you can see the difference among the two laws. Jesus never abolished the Law, the only thing He did was to change the ways to worship God and the ways on how to keep each Feast of God according to the New Covenant; but people does not realize it. Why? Why is the people so blind to see the truth? What is really happening?

Christ Ahnsahnghong testify to us the reason of the matter through this verse:

Revelation 12:9,17 "The great dragon was hurled down—that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him....Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring—those who obey God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus."

Christ Ahnsahnghong testified that people now a days don't keep God's law because satan who was send down to this world is leading everyone astray and making war against the children of God who wants to obey God's commandments and laws. We can't be fooled by satan, up to now we have been following the scheme he has created to destroy us which is changing God's commandments and replacing it by feast and days that are based in pagan traditions such us: (Sunday worship, Easter, Communion, Christmas, Halloween, Thanksgiving) and many other traditions of men. Search if you want, search the origin of each one of these traditions and you will be very surprised to find out that all these years you have been deceived by satan.

Christ Ahnsahnghong came to allow us to realized the truth, however, we reject His precious teachings. On the other had, if you are truly a child of Almighty God you must understand the truth and keep it.

Revelation 14:12 "This calls for patient endurance on the part of the saints who obey God's commandments and remain faithful to Jesus."

1 John 2:3-6 "We know that we have come to know him if we obey his commands. The man who says, "I know him," but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But if anyone obeys his word, God's love is truly made complete in him. This is how we know we are in him: Whoever claims to live in him must walk as Jesus did."

John 8:44-47 "You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies. Yet because I tell the truth, you do not believe me!....If I am telling the truth, why don't you believe me? He who belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

Then what should you do? Do you want to continue following satan and be destroyed? I hope not. That is why Christ Ahnsahnghong, second coming Christ, came. Christ Ahnsahnghong established the Church of God World Mission Society, Zion, so that the true children of God can be save by obeying what God commands, that is the only way we can show God that we love Him and we can finally enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

Passover The Way to Truly Love God and receive Eternal Life.

By: Bell on February 9, 2011 at 11:29 pm

Many Christians profess that they love Jesus. Whether Catholics, Born Again, or some other denominations, they claim to love God. But how can we truly love God? Is it by just saying with our own lips that we love God? Let's see through the Bible.

Reply

Jn. 14:15 – 15 "If you love me, keep my commands

Jn. 14:21 – 21 Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them."

Jesus Himself told us that if we truly love Him, we must obey His commandments. Then why does Jesus wants us to love Him? What will He give us?

Luke 10:25-28 – 25 On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" 26 "What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you read it?" 27 He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'; and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'" 28 "You have answered correctly," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live."

We can see here that an expert in the law was asking and testing Jesus on what is written in the Law in order to have eternal life? We can understand that this guy that's expert in the law are referring to the Old Testament Law since the New Testament was not written yet during the time of Jesus here on earth. According to Jesus answer, in order for us to have eternal life, we must "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. This is written in the Law or Old Testament. Then we can have a clue that the way to fulfill this is by finding out in the Law or Old Testament. Lets see.

Deut. 6:5-9 – 5 LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. 6 These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. 7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. 8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. 9 WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES and on your gates.

Wow this was the same words that Jesus told the expert in the law. Then we can see a clue here on verse 9 that says "WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES". Now let's check for another clue on the same chapter.

Deut. 6:20-25 – 20 In the future, when your son asks you, "What is the meaning of the stipulations, decrees and laws the LORD our God has commanded you?" 21 tell him: "We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 22 Before our eyes the LORD sent signs and wonders—great and terrible—on Egypt and Pharaoh and his whole household. 23 But he brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land he promised on oath to our ancestors. 24 The LORD commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear the LORD our God, so that we might always prosper and be kept alive, as is the case today. 25 And if we are careful to obey all this law before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, that will be our righteousness."

Ok so this are the commandment's clue are:

- WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES
- COMMANDMENT THAT BROUGHT THE ISRAELITES OUT OF EGYPT

Then let's see what is this.

Exo. 12:1-14 – 1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt, 2 "This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year. 3 Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb[a] for his family, one for each household. 4 If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbor, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat. 5 The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats. 6 Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the members of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight. 7 THEN THEY ARE TO TAKE SOME OF THE BLOOD AND PUT IT ON THE SIDES AND TOPS OF THE DOOR FRAMES OF THE HOUSES WHERE THEY EAT

THE LAMBS. 8 That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast. 9 Do not eat the meat raw or boiled in water, but roast it over a fire—with the head, legs and internal organs. 10 Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it. 11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; IT IS THE LORD'S PASSOVER.

12 "On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn of both people and animals, and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. 13 The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are, and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

14 "This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD—a lasting ordinance.

Now its clear. The PASSOVER is the commandment that would fulfill the "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH". When the Israelites kept the Passover, they were freed from Egypt. So it is the PASSOVER.

Then 2000 years ago, Jesus Christ established the Passover of the New Covenant which is the reality.

Lk. 22:8 – 8 Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover."

Lk. 22:14-15 – 14 When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. 15 And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

Lk. 22:19-20 – 19 And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." 20 In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you

By keeping the Passover, we can truly love God and receive eternal life.

John 6:53-55 — JESUS SAID to them, "I TELL YOU THE TRUTH, UNLESS you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. WHOEVER EATS MY FLESH AND DRINKS MY BLOOD REMAINS IN ME, AND I IN HIM.

Thanks to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong, the 2nd Coming Christ according to the prophecies of the Bible, for reminding us the precious truth.

Jn. 14:25-26 – 25 “All this I have spoken while still with you. 26 But the COUNSELOR, THE HOLY SPIRIT, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and WILL REMIND YOU OF EVERYTHING I HAVE SAID TO YOU.

Let’s have true faith in Jesus by following His Words of Life so that we can truly Love Him and receive eternal life.

Jn. 3:16 – 16 “For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM SHALL NOT PERISH BUT HAVE ETERNAL LIFE

Jam. 2:17-19 – 17 In the same way, FAITH BY ITSELF, IF IT IS NOT ACCOMPANIED BY ACTION IS DEAD. 18 But someone will say, “You have faith; I have deeds.” Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do. 19 You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

Even if they do sue, remember that that would only show all the more how unchristian they truly are. Paul tells the church in the New Testament (I forget where but I can google it if someone really wants validation), that we should not have quarrels within the church, nor outside the church with our brethren. Instead, all matters should be peaceably dealt with in an honest and genuine matter when disputes arise, and the church is NOT to look for the answer of the court to find solutions for issues between the church..

Also, they can only fight within the bounds of law. I suppose they could be tactful, but they’d have to know exactly what they’re suing you for. How many times have you heard of a Catholic/Protestant church or a Jewish synagogue suing someone because they made the church out to be fraudulent? Hahaha, it would only prove the COG is so insecure about their validity that they feel they must prove themselves.

And Bell..... how many times do I have to flippin’ tell you how silly it is to call Jesus Christ a Korean man named AHN SANG HONG!?!?! I mean, I’m all for Korea, I love Koreans, but it’s just not right that God would reincarnate His one and only Son from a Jewish man to a Korean man. Let me tell you. Mother Jerusalem represents today the feminist movement who has bought the oldest lie back. Response with no Response.... The Seal of God.

By: Bell on February 10, 2011 at 5:55 am

So here is a valid question someone made on one of the anti-church of God blog about their explanation as to what the Seal of God is. Take at look at the response which is just a circular argument with no concrete answer.

Reply

If the seal is the holy spirit? Then what is the seal the angel from the east brings in revelation 7. As far as I know revelation 7 is about the last days, but the holy spirit was given on the day of Pentecost. So I'm a little confused. Can you explain. Because if I understand your interpretation correctly and the seal of God is the holy spirit, we should not be able to receive it until the last days and until we meet that angel from the east. Please explain.

ANTI COG said...

...Yes, the Holy Spirit came on the Day of Pentecost (Acts chapter 2), but that wasn't a one-time occurrence. Since then, the Holy Spirit can be seen at work throughout the book of Acts, and throughout the history of the church, even up to the present day.

Since the Bible says that the Holy Spirit puts His seal of ownership on us when we believe, and the Spirit has been working since the second chapter of Acts, then it seems to me that PEOPLE HAVE BEEN RECEIVING THIS SEAL AT LEAST SINCE THE EARLY CHURCH....

Anonymous said...

... I just asked a question to your biblical interpretation it kind of doesn't make sense to me. If the Seal of God has been here since the day of Pentecost, then why is there need for the angel from the east to bring it in the last days?

Why would you bring something that is already here?

ANTI COG said...

...In the meantime, if my explanation doesn't make sense to you, DO YOU HAVE ANY IDEAS OF WHAT THIS SEAL MAY BE? WHAT DO YOU THINK?
If you haven't any ideas at all, YOU MIGHT WANT TO DO A KEYWORD SEARCH OF THE BIBLE FOR "SEAL" AND SEE WHAT COMES UP.

Anonymous said... mmmm... no i rather not make my own interpretations. I don't want to be cursed by God if my interpretation is not correct. If you are not sure just be careful.

I DON'T WANT TO ADD OR TAKE AWAY FROM THE WORD OF GOD.

ANTI COG said...

...But I agree that we must be careful. It is important to safeguard yourself from misunderstandings by having a good knowledge of BASIC AND WELL-ESTABLISHED BIBLICAL TRUTHS SO THAT YOU DO NOT INADVERTENTLY CONTRADICT THEM.

But I am not meaning to ask you to make an interpretation of what the seal may be. I just meant to ask if you would look at what the Bible directly says. IT TAKES NO "INTERPRETING" TO DO THAT. If you search the NIV for "seal" on BibleGateway.com you get 63 hits.

Now for your question, "If the Seal of God has been here since the day of Pentecost, then why is there need for the angel from the east to bring it in the last days? Why would you bring something that is already here?"

MUCH OF THE BOOK OF REVELATION IS SYMBOLIC. GOD HAD TO SHOW JOHN THESE THINGS "THAT MUST SOON

TAKE PLACE" IN A WAY THAT JOHN COULD UNDERSTAND. (REV. 1:1)
THIS IS THE FIRST TIME JOHN HAS SEEN THE ANGEL WITH THE SEAL. IT COULD BE THAT THE ANGEL HAS BEEN ROAMING THE EARTH THIS WHOLE TIME WITH THE SEAL, AND GOD IS SHOWING JOHN WHAT IS HAPPENING NOW THAT THE ANGEL IS COMPLETING THE SEALING.

...If that were the case, we could not know what the seal is, since it could be nothing that was done in the Bible or church history. And in that case, we shouldn't guess at what it might be because, as you say, we don't want to add or take away from the word of God.

Anonymous said...

It doesn't necessarily mean something new, it could be something that was here once, it was taken away and then the Angel is bringing it back. ...your answer is not confident at all, i mean from your responses i can see that you are not sure that what you are saying is really true what if you are wrong and they are right. What about then? You confidently say that they are wrong, but you are not even sure that you are right.

1 Corinthians 4:5 – Therefore JUDGE NOTHING before the appointed time; wait till the Lord comes. He will bring to light what is hidden in darkness and will expose the motives of men's hearts. At that time each will receive his praise from God.

ANTI COG said...

You said, "It could be something that was here once, it was taken away and then the Angel is bringing it back."

ALRIGHT, I COULD ACCEPT THAT. But if that was it, then it still couldn't be Passover, or the Sabbath, or the Holy Spirit's seal of the believer. All of those have been around, somewhere or another, since the early church.

...You said, "You confidently say that they are wrong, but you are not even sure that you are right."

There are many things in the Bible that are quite clear, and so it is also clear when someone is wrong about those things (such as the way to salvation or who Jesus is).

Other things are not so clear (such as who the rider of the white horse is in Rev. 6:2). It could be one thing or another. IT WOULD BE FOOLISH OF ME TO SAY THAT IT IS ABSOLUTELY, FOR CERTAIN ONE THING, WHEN THERE IS ALSO EVIDENCE FOR ANOTHER INTERPRETATION.

As Paul says in 1 Corinthians 13:12, "Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known."

For the WMSCOG to take such an absolute stand on those things that do have alternate possibilities, to the exclusion of any other point of view that has merit—yes, I do think that is wrong of them.

They do that because they think their gods (Ahnsahnghong and “Mother”) must be right about everything they say, so there is no room for any other possibility. But if Ahnsahnghong and “Mother” are NOT gods, then their teachings are just like everyone else’s—human interpretations.

PERHAPS YOU’D LIKE TO LOOK AT WHETHER AHNSAHNGHONG WAS REALLY GOD IN THE FLESH?

In their statements they say that there is many possibilities as to what the seal of God might be (Passover could be one of them). The only reason I wanted to point out this conversation is to show the readers how the ANTI Church of God people biggest problem is not the teachings of the World Mission Society Church of God, but the fact that we believe Christ Ahnsahnghong is God.

They did not answer the question at all, but concluded the argument with the statement: “...Perhaps you’d like to look whether Ahnsahnghong was really God in the flesh?”

If you are going to debate the teachings of the World Mission Society Church of God and Christ Ahnsahnghong, at least bring some concrete evidence on the table. At least provide some confident alternative, not a bunch of “what if?”.

As far as the Answer to the question, it makes more sense that the Passover is the Seal of God being restored from the East.

Jn. 10:31-33 – 31 Again his Jewish opponents picked up stones to stone him, 32 but Jesus said to them, “I have shown you many good works from the Father. For which of these do you stone me?”

33 “WE ARE NOT STONING YOU FOR ANY GOOD WORK,” they replied, “BUT FOR BLASPHEMY, BECAUSE YOU, A MERE MAN, CLAIM TO BE GOD.”

Lol, I haven’t been here for such a long time.

Passover, and the Reason Disasters Pass Over

By: Bell on March 13, 2011

Nowadays, so many disasters come upon this world. It was already prophesied in the Bible.

Reply

Mt. 24:6-8 6 You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. 7 Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. 8 All these are the beginning of birth pains.

God established the Passover to destroy the devil and give His children eternal life. Whoever dwells in Zion knows well the importance of the Passover. Now, we need to consider more carefully why disasters pass over us when we celebrate the Passover.

What is the true meaning of the Passover? What is the source of the power of the Passover to liberate us from disasters? Let's study over these matters through the Bible, with a humble and modest attitude before God.

Escape from disasters through the blood of the Passover lamb

Passover is God's appointed feast, which was established over 3500 years ago. When the Israelites lived as slaves in Egypt, God commanded Pharaoh to release Israel from Egypt. However, he refused God's command, and God brought ten plagues upon Egypt. The tenth plague, the slaying of the firstborn, was about to fall upon Egypt on the night of the fourteenth day of the first month in the sacred calendar: God let the plague of death pass over the houses that had the blood of the Passover lamb on the sides and tops of the doorframes. This was the day of the Passover.

Ex 12:11-13 "This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; it is the LORD'S Passover. On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn—both men and animals—and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt."

That day, all the firstborn of Egypt were killed, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, who sat on the throne, to the firstborn of the prisoner, who was in the dungeon. In Egypt there was not a house without someone dead (Ex 12:29-30). However, the Israelites, who painted the lamb's blood on the doorposts and lintels of their houses, were saved from the plague of the firstborn in Egypt.

Ex 12:23 When the LORD goes through the land to strike down the Egyptians, he will see the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe and will pass over that doorway, and he will not permit the destroyer to enter your houses and strike you down.

Here, we need to carefully consider why the plague of death passed over the people of Israel. It was not because of the people celebrating the Passover that the plague passed over, but because of the blood of the Passover lamb. Neither a wise man's house nor a rich man's house full of worldly treasures nor an influential royal family's palace could escape the plague. Only the house marked with the blood of the Passover lamb was saved from the plague.

It is because of the blood of the Passover Lamb in us that we can escape disasters, not because we ourselves who celebrate the Passover are powerful. We have to carefully consider this: Because God protects us and wraps us with His invisible love and grace, all disasters are avoided, evil gods are judged, and we are redeemed from this sinful world. So, do not just consider the Passover itself, but feel the hand of God who guards and protects us through the Passover.

The really dreadful being

Let me tell you a fable. One day a fox met a tiger. The fox told the tiger, "Do you know that animals fear me more than you?" He claimed that he was the most dreadful animal in the forest.

The tiger, who claimed to be king of the animals, was amazed at the audacity of the beast that seemed to fall down if he kicked him once with his hind leg. Then the fox told him, "If you do not believe me, then follow me to the forest. You will see whether or not all the beasts fear me."

The fox said confidently to the tiger. Being suspicious, the tiger followed on the heels of the fox. As the fox walked along with the tiger, the animals were all terribly frightened and ran away. All the beasts—small ones like rabbits and even bears, huge and strong—fled away.

"Now you can see for yourself. There's no animal that is not afraid of me."

The fox said proudly. But actually, the beasts were fleeing the tiger himself and not the fox marching before him.

Sometimes we see a similar thing happen around us. Some adults are weak-kneed and fearful even before children. In this case, their parents are financially well off and influential. Actually, they do not fear the children themselves, but their background.

The devil our enemy can do us no harm and retreats when we preach the truth. It is because of the blood of the Passover Lamb in us. God's judgment were brought upon all the gods of Egypt on the Passover. From this we can see that what the devil fears most is the blood of the Passover Lamb.

Christ, the Passover Lamb

The apostles testified that Christ is the reality of the Passover lamb.

1 Co 5:7-8 Get rid of the old yeast that you may be a new batch without yeast—as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Therefore let us keep the Festival . . .

The Bible tells us that we are to celebrate the Festival, the Passover, for Christ, our Passover Lamb, has been sacrificed for us, shedding His precious blood. It is really not because we are great and powerful that the devil fears us, but because the precious blood of Christ is given to us.

1 Pe 1:18-19 For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed from the empty way of life handed down to you from your forefathers, but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect.

Eph 1:7 In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace

It is not with our wisdom and knowledge that we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins, but through the blood of Christ. The Bible tells us that salvation does not come from us, but only through the precious blood of Christ.

If we consider that we come to salvation because of the blood of Christ sacrificed for us, we can understand why we should obey God's will and humble ourselves before God.

Christ's flesh and blood in the Passover

Concerning the blood of the Passover Lamb with which we are redeemed from the empty way of life and from sin and death, Jesus taught us as follows:

1 Jn 6:53-57 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him . . . so the one who feeds on me will live because of me."

Not only disasters but even sin and death flee from us by the blood of Christ. To put His precious blood into us, God has given us the Passover, the truth of life.

Mt 26:17-19, 26-28 "' . . . My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.'" So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover . . . While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins."

Lk 22:7-8, 19-20 . . . Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover." . . . And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying,

"This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you."

The Passover is the covenant God has established through His own blood. Without the blood of the Passover Lamb, we can neither escape disasters nor repel the devil. So Christ, the reality of the Passover lamb, has given us the Passover bread and wine as His flesh and blood. He has promised that if we eat His flesh and drink His blood, we remain in Him, and He in us. Nevertheless, many churches today claim that the Passover doesn't have to be observed. Are they right? Without the blood of the Passover Lamb, we are apt to be attacked by Satan. For this reason, God has told that if anyone does not celebrate the Passover, he must be cut off from God's people.

Nu 9:10-13 "Tell the Israelites: 'When any of you or your descendants are unclean because of a dead body or are away on a journey, they may still celebrate the LORD'S Passover . . . But if a man who is ceremonially clean and not on a journey fails to celebrate the Passover, that person must be cut off from his people because he did not present the LORD'S offering at the appointed time. That man will bear the consequences of his sin.'"

If anyone is cut off from God's people, he will fail to escape disasters and be saved—he will be destined to hell. In the Old Testament times, God's people could escape the plagues by putting the blood of the Passover lamb on the doorposts and lintels of their houses. In the New Testament times, we can be saved from disasters by eating the flesh of Jesus—the Passover Lamb—and drinking His blood. So God clearly says that without keeping the Passover nobody can be God's people—he must be cut off from God's people.

Sacred love contained in the precious blood of Christ

Why does the precious blood of Christ have the power to make disasters pass over? Because it contains His extreme love and sacrifice. The prophet Isaiah prophesied the appearance of Jesus who would come 700 years later as follows:

Isa 53:1-12 . . . He grew up before him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground. He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and familiar with suffering. Like one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not. Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered him stricken by God, smitten by him, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed. We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

We ourselves sinned, but Christ Himself bore the penalty for our sins. Bearing our sins, He was pierced and His body was torn with thorns; He willingly laid down His life for us on the cross. In this He demonstrated His own self-sacrificial love for us. He shed His precious blood for proof that He loved us. So, the destroying angel and even the devil our wicked enemy who know such a story very well, dare not touch us.

In the blood of the Passover covenant is included the love of Christ who has given us life by suffering the extreme pain of His flesh being torn and His blood being shed. All things are subjected to the blood of His sublime sacrifice, to His sacred love.

With such sacrificial blood we are sealed. By the power of the blood, all disasters pass over us.

Ps 91:7-11 A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you. You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked. If you make the Most High your dwelling—even the LORD, who is my refuge—then no harm will befall you, no disaster will come near your tent. For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways;

The blood of the Passover lamb in the Old Testament was put on the doorframes and lintels of their houses. In the New Testament, however, the blood of the Passover Lamb is marked on our foreheads and hearts through the new covenant. So, even if the destroying angel comes near us, when he sees the blood of Christ in us, he passes over us. A thousand may fall at our side, ten thousand at our right hand, no disaster comes near us who are sealed by the precious blood of the Lamb in the truth of the Passover, the new covenant. That's why we can be saved from disasters through the Passover.

Give thanks for the sacrificial love in faith

We are here today owing to the extreme suffering of Christ. Considering this, we have nothing to boast about in the presence of God. We are nothing, absolutely nothing. What is really great and dreadful is the sacrificial blood of the Passover Lamb that makes us become the children of the everlasting kingdom of heaven. So we must not become conceited or proud in heart.

1 Co 4:7 For who makes you different from anyone else? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it, why do you boast as though you did not?

It is foolish for us to hold ourselves at the center of our faith. We can not boast of ourselves; everything we have comes from God: our knowledge, wisdom, good understanding of the Bible, and so on. Those who understand this always cherish the love of Christ; they are patient and kind; they do not boast; they are not proud, just as it is written in 1 Corinthians 13. However, those who forget such mighty grace become conceited or arrogant. The Bible says that God will weep in secret because of our pride.

Some ask, "Does it matter whether or not we commit any sin as we celebrate the Passover?" They greatly misunderstand the Bible. The precious blood of the Passover Lamb is the eraser that removes our sin. On the contrary, our sin dishonors the precious blood of Christ. God has forgiven all our sins, committed in heaven, through the precious blood of Christ. How dare we dishonor and insult the precious blood? If we do, His blood is no more effective for us. Though one's name is written in the book of life, it may be blotted out of it. So the Bible tells us to hold fast what we have, so that no one will take our crown—the crown of life.

We are to cherish the precious blood of Christ, given to us by His sublime grace. We are most proud of having the forgiveness of sins and eternal life through the Passover. However, what good is it if we do not understand the sacrificial love contained in it? Thinking of the grace and love God has given us, we children of Zion shall give thanks in everything and be joyful always.

We should preach the gospel to all people around the world who still do not know the Passover and are fallen away from salvation and the grace of God, so that they may also cherish the precious blood of Christ in them. We are all here today because of the precious blood of our heavenly Father and Mother, given to us through Their sacrifice. With a more humble heart, let us always give glory to our heavenly Father and Mother and receive abundant blessing.

The WMSCOG says that Adam and Eve prophetically represent the Last Adam and the Last Eve in these last days. They say the Last Adam is Ahnsahnghong, and as his wife, the Last Eve is "Mother Jerusalem."

HOWEVER—

In "Visitors from the Angelic World" Ahnsahnghong wrote (on page 55, chapter 13):

"Jesus is the last Adam, and the saints who are redeemed can be called the last Eve."

The Bible is full of prophesies and mysteries of God. Some Christians claim nobody knows the plans of God, but according to the Bible that's a statement that did not come from God:

AMOS 3:7 "Surely the Sovereign LORD does nothing without revealing his plan to his servants the prophets."

Those who do not know the plans of God are regarded as false prophets. But at the Church of God World Mission Society we know all the truths of the Bible because the Second Coming Christ Ahnsahnghong revealed everything to us because the Bible testifies about Him (John 5:39). Let's understand Christ Ahnsahnghong through the prophecy of the last Adam.

1Cor 15:45 Apostle Paul explains that the last Adam is a "life-giving spirit". The only One with the authority to give life to the soul is God Himself, then, Who is Adam?

THE LAST ADAM

In Romans 5:14 Apostle Paul clearly testified that Adam is a pattern of the One to come, that is Second Coming Christ who will appear in the last days. But what's His purpose? As we read on 1 Cor 15:45, the purpose of Second Coming Christ appearing is to give eternal life. Then how did first coming Christ, Jesus, give eternal life? We need to understand this pattern of giving us eternal life because He will give us also eternal life in the same way when He returns.

JESUS PROMISES ETERNAL LIFE

John 6:53 "Jesus said to them, I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.">

In the Book of Matthew 26:17-27 we can see the Feast through which Jesus promised His flesh and His blood is the Passover. Only on that night He promised to give us eternal life. Therefore, whoever brings the Passover again is no other than Jesus Himself.

Who has brought the truth of life in these last days? Only the Last Adam, Second Coming Christ can bring the Passover. However, the One who brought the Passover is Christ Ahnsahnghong. He is Second Coming Christ, Last Adam. This may seem hard to accept but think about this: Why is it easy to believe in first coming Christ when He appeared in the flesh but you find it difficult that He is here now in the same generation that you live in? Please come to Church of God World Mission Society and study about the Last Adam Christ Ahnsahnghong and receive eternal life. LET'S BELIEVE CHRIST AHNSAHNGHONG, THE 2ND COMING CHRIST, THE SAME JESUS WHO CAME 2000 YEARS AGO ACCORDING TO THE PROPHECIES OF THE BIBLE WHO PROMISED TO COME BACK A SECOND TIME AS THE LAST ADAM. CLEARLY CHRIST AHNSAHNGHONG IS JESUS HIMSELF WHO IS JEHOVAH IN THE OLD TESTAMENT. THEY ARE ONE AND SAME GOD WHO APPEARED IN DIFFERENT AGES IN DIFFERENT NAMES ACCORDING TO THE PROPHECIES OF THE BIBLE. GOD BLESS YOU.

that walked this earth 2000 years ago was Jewish, once again, how could a Korean Christ named Ahn Sang Hong (with not even an ounce of Jewish blood) possibly be even close to the exact same Jesus? No.. when Jesus was resurrected from the grave, He certainly was superhuman (He could, after all, walk through walls). But, as much as He was superhuman, He was in fact still human as He showed the scars to Thomas and the other disciples. His body is glorified and new, and yet the appearance is quite the same as before. I believe when Jesus comes back, this will be the exact same Jesus that came 2000 years ago – the Jewish man with scars revealing He was at one time crucified, and the glory to prove He is worthy of ruling a kingdom!

Is it "Mother Jerusalem" as the WMSCOG teaches? or the Saints (the Church) as Ahnsahnghong wrote?

Nowadays, many churches claim to read the Bible. However, they couldn't understand it. Why? The reason is their spiritual eyes and ears are closed. First, let's remember that our thinking is different from God's thinking.

Isa. 55:8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," declares the LORD.

Jn. 8:12 When Jesus spoke again to the people, he said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." 13 The Pharisees challenged him, "Here you are, appearing as your own witness; your testimony is not valid." 14 Jesus answered, "Even if I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is valid, for I know where I came from and where I am going. But you have no idea where I come from or where I am going. 15 You judge by human standards; I pass judgment on no one. 16 But if I do judge, my decisions are true, because I am not alone. I stand with the Father, who sent me. 17 In your own Law it is written that the testimony of two witnesses is true. 18 I am one who testifies for myself; my other witness is the Father, who sent me."

The Bible is the Words of God that contains the hidden mystery of God in order for God's children to have eternal life. BUT THERE ARE PEOPLE WHO THINK THEY KNOW GOD'S WORDS, BUT THEY DO NOT UNDERSTAND THE ENTIRE OF IT. ONLY GOD HIMSELF CAN EXPLAIN TO US THE BIBLE AND OUR GOD THE FATHER WILL COME AS ROOT OF DAVID TO REVEAL US THE MYSTERIES OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN.

Rev. 5:1 Then I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne a scroll with writing on both sides and sealed with seven seals. 2 And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, "Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?" 3 But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll or even look inside it. 4 I wept and wept because no one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. 5 Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals."

Let's check some examples in the Bible that many people think its a contradiction but they just don't understand the entire of the Bible.

Jn 1:29 The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!

JESUS = LAMB IN THE BIBLE

Jn. 21:15 When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" "Yes, Lord," he said, "you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my lambs."

Jn. 10:27 My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. 28 I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand.

SAINTS = LAMB IN THE BIBLE

Without knowing who the Root of David is, we can never understand the Bible. CHRIST AHNSAHNGHONG CAME AS THE ROOT OF DAVID ACCORDING TO THE PROPHECIES OF THE BIBLE AND ESTABLISHED ZION AND EXPLAINED ALL THE MYSTERIES OF THE BIBLE SO THAT WE MAY HAVE ETERNAL LIFE. PLEASE DON'T JUST MERELY JUDGE QUICKLY SOMETHING YOU DON'T REALLY UNDERSTAND THE ENTIRE OF IT! PLEASE COME TO ZION OUR CHURCH AND WE'LL EXPLAIN EVERYTHING TO YOU THROUGH THE BIBLE. WE CAN TEACH THE BASIC TOPICS HERE BUT WE ONLY TEACH THE DEEPER THINGS THAT OUR HEAVENLY FATHER AND MOTHER HAVE THOUGHT US IN ZION. WHY?

Mt. 7:6 "Do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces.

Mt. 13:11 He replied, "Because the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them. 12 Whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them. 13 This is why I speak to them in parables:

"Though seeing, they do not see;
though hearing, they do not hear or understand.

14 In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah:

"You will be ever hearing but never understanding;
you will be ever seeing but never perceiving.
15 FOR THIS PEOPLE'S HEART HAS BECOME CALLOUSED; THEY HARDLY HEAR WITH THEIR EARS, AND THEY HAVE CLOSED THEIR EYES
Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts
and turn, and I would heal them.

1 Cor. 2:12 What we have received is not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may understand what God has freely given us. 13 This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, explaining spiritual realities with Spirit-taught words. 14 The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit. 15 The person with the Spirit makes judgments about all things, but such a person is not subject to merely human judgments, 16 for, "Who has known the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

He Who Has an Ear Hears God's Voice
Most churches today claim to hear the word of God. Actually, they do not understand the meaning of God's word. The Bible says that they have an uncircumcised ear. How about us? We have eyes to see, ears to hear and minds to understand. Giving thanks to God, let's see what the uncircumcised ear means, through the Bible.

Those who have an uncircumcised ear

People commonly say of the person who is slow in understanding what others say, "He has a bad ear." Likewise, the Bible says of him who does not understand what God says, "He has an uncircumcised ear."

Many people around us claim to believe in God, but they do not make out what God's will is and take it wrong. God said, "Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy" (Ex 20:8). However, they keep other day, not understanding God's word. That's why the Bible says that they have an uncircumcised ear.

Jer 6:10-15, KJV To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it. Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days. ...

Through the Bible, God showed us the way to the truth and salvation. However, those who have an uncircumcised ear do not understand what God's true will is. They are not concerned to obey God's word, which is offensive to them. So God's anger against them burns and He says that He cannot hold it in any longer.

See today's churches! Do they obey God's word? If they obeyed, how could they ignore the word, "Worship no idol" or "Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy?" If they obeyed, how could they easily turn away from God's holy feasts?

Isa 42:18-20 "Hear, you deaf; look, you blind, and see! Who is blind but my servant, and deaf like the messenger I send? Who is blind like the one committed to me, blind like the servant of the LORD? You have seen many things, but have paid no attention; your ears are open, but you hear nothing."

Mt 13:14-17 "In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah: 'You will be ever hearing but never understanding; you will be ever seeing but never perceiving. For this people's heart has become calloused; they hardly hear with their ears, and they have closed their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them.' But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear. For I tell you the truth, many prophets and righteous men longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it. "

Those whose ear is uncircumcised do not give ear to God's word or pay attention to it. They are the deaf in spirit. However, God's people whose ear is circumcised listen to His voice. It is really blessed to hear the words of truth.

Miserable end of the spiritual deaf

Jesus showed in advance the end of the spiritual deaf as follows:

Mt 7:21-23 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'"

If they heard God's voice, they would recognize God the Father and God the Mother who have come into this earth and hear Their voice and celebrate all the feasts of the new covenant just as we do.

However, they reject all the truth; though hearing many things, they pay no attention. It's because their ear is uncircumcised. So, Jesus plainly said that they would never enter the kingdom of heaven, though they loudly call Him 'Lord, Lord.'

Jer 8:7-14 Even the stork in the sky knows her appointed seasons, and the dove, the swift and the thrush observe the time of their migration. But my people do not know the requirements of the LORD. "How can you say, 'We are wise, for we have the law of the LORD,' when actually the lying pen of the scribes has handled it falsely? The wise will be put to shame; they will be dismayed and trapped. ... So they will fall among the fallen; they will be brought down when they are punished, says the LORD. ... 'Why are we sitting here? Gather together! Let us flee to the fortified cities and perish there! For the LORD our God has doomed us to perish and given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against him.'

Those whose ear is uncircumcised cling to deceit and refuse to return to God. What is the end of those who reject God's words? It's destruction. They will see such a miserable end coming upon them.

Considering all these things, we are bound to give thanks to God for giving us eyes to see and ears to hear. We, too, were the blind and the deaf in spirit. However, God has come into this earth and opened our spiritual eyes and ears, so that we can see and hear God's words. God said, "He who has ears, let him hear."

Hear God's voice and open the door

Through the long period of the Dark Ages, many have lost their ears to hear God's voice. Now is the time for their eyes and ears to be circumcised, so that they can see and hear God. For God Himself has come into this earth to save mankind. He is knocking on the door of our hearts, uttering His voice. In this age, we can directly hear God's voice since God Himself has come into the earth.

Rev 3:20 "Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me."

If a stranger knocks at the door, we will not open it easily. However, what if our father or mother tells us to open the door? We will hear his or her voice and open the door.

People have not heard God's voice for a long time, and they've forgotten His voice. So when they hear God's voice, some of them open the door, but some shut it more tightly. Unfortunately, even God's children, who have not heard His voice for so long, do not easily recognize the voices of their Father and Mother. God's children are supposed to open the door of their hearts when they hear the voices of the Father and Mother and to receive them. When we, all God's children, recognize the voices of our Father and Mother and open the door, we will go back to our heavenly country. We should hasten the coming of the day, shouldn't we? Let's quicken our pace and preach the gospel more diligently.

God's sheep listen to His voice

Jn 10:16 "I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock and one shepherd."

Jn 10:27 "My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me."

Jn 8:47 "He who belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

God's sheep know His voice. So in order to lead them to the Father and Mother quickly, we must speak only with God's voice, not with our own.

Now, God has come into this earth and is knocking at the door: Those who listen to His voice will receive Him, and those who do not hear will shut the door more tightly. By this, God will separate His people from those who are not His own.

Let's preach God's word to others with great boldness, as God told us. We don't need to think, 'Will they understand the word?' or 'What will they think of me when I tell the truth?' If we have such a thought in preaching the gospel to them, we may fail to lead them. Let's preach, having no doubt that God's sheep will listen to His voice.

Let the trumpet sound a clear call

Jn 18:37 ... Jesus answered, "You are right in saying I am a king. In fact, for this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me."

1 Jn 4:5-6 They are from the world and therefore speak from the viewpoint of the world, and the world listens to them. We are from God, and whoever knows God listens to us; but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. This is how we recognize the Spirit of truth and the spirit of falsehood.

Jesus distinguishes the Spirit of truth and the spirit of falsehood through whether they listen to God's voice or not. He plainly said, "He who belongs to God hears what God says." Let's preach God's word with boldness, leaving everything to God.

Looking upon our past days, there was a great difference in results between the two cases-when we preached God's word confidently and when we preached it without boldness.

God told us to let the trumpet sound a clear call. Of course, God's people are to hear His voice. However, when the preacher gives an uncertain sound, they cannot easily recognize God's voice and it will take them much time to receive the truth. Whatever we preach, if we speak with God's voice, they will clearly understand.

A brother in Zion told me about his experiences during the preaching. He got an opportunity to speak God's words to an old lady living next door to him. At first, he told her about the vanity of life, but she seemed to be little interested in it. So he changed the subject and told her about God's commandments. Then she was surprised, and received the truth with great joy, saying that she found the true church at long last. I've heard that she is very eager to keep God's commands with a passionate heart like young adults. In another case, some received God immediately after hearing about the last secret described in the Bible.

Thus, our lost brothers and sisters are returning to Zion one after another, hearing the voices of the Father and Mother. God is our reason to be proud; let's boast of God all the more. Even those who have shut their minds tightly will surely hear God's voice and open the door if we preach confidently to them.

God's voice-"Celebrate the Passover"

Our Father said, "The more you practice the truth, the more you are renewed inwardly. If you do not practice the truth, your hearts become darkened and finally you will deny God."

2,000 years ago, God put great emphasis on the Passover. In these last days, too, He emphasizes repeatedly that His children should celebrate the Passover. We've already heard this voice of God. Let's preach more eagerly and lead many people to Zion.

Jn 6:53-57 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me."

This is God's promise of life. God's sheep are sure to hear this word. Jesus promised His flesh and blood on the Passover (Mt 26:17-28; Lk 22:19-20). He saved our souls from death by giving us eternal life through the Passover-which is the recipe necessary for the salvation of all men. Let's sound a clear call and lead them to hear God's voice; let them open their spiritual eyes and ears. Now, the appointed time has come when God's children hear the voice of God and come out of Babylon. Believing the prophecies, let's sound the trumpet. He who has an ear hears God's voice. Let's blow the trumpet of the gospel loudly and lead many souls to salvation. Then the glory of God our Father and Mother will be proclaimed to the ends of the earth.

Isaiah 33:5 The LORD is exalted, for he dwells on high; he will fill Zion with his justice and righteousness.
6 He will be the sure foundation for your times, a rich store of salvation and wisdom and knowledge; the fear of the LORD is the key to this treasure.

Isaiah 33:20 Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals; your eyes will see Jerusalem, a peaceful abode, a tent that will not be moved; its stakes will never be pulled up, nor any of its ropes broken.

Galatians 4:26 BUT THE JERUSALEM THAT IS ABOVE IS FREE, AND SHE IS OUR MOTHER.

Galatians 4:31 THEREFORE, BROTHERS, WE ARE NOT CHILDREN OF THE SLAVE WOMEN, BUT OF THE FREE WOMAN.

FREE WOMAN IS GOD THE MOTHER, NOT GOD THE FATHER. SO AS CHILDREN OF NOT ONLY GOD THE FATHER, BUT ALSO GOD THE MOTHER, LET'S PREACH THE GOSPEL DILIGENTLY TO THE WHOLE WORLD, FIND OUR LOST BROTHERS AND SISTERS AND LET'S GO BACK TO KINGDOM OF HEAVEN. ALL THE GLORY TO OUR

GOD THE FATHER AND GOD THE MOTHER. GOD BLESS YOU ALL.

Bell, I would really like to see something in your own words, with your own thinking, one of these days. You should practice thinking for yourself and finding your own way of expressing those thoughts. God made you an individual, not a robot to play tape recordings.

Seek David in the Last Days

By: Bell on March 31, 2011 at 8:59 am

Every word in the Bible contains the precious will of God, which He wants us to know. Now, the Bible has been translated into over 2,000 languages, and it is the best-selling and the most widely distributed book in the world today. However, most people, even though they read the Bible, do not realize the hidden meaning of the words of every prophecy in the Bible.

Reply

Every language has its own characteristics, so it is not easy to fully understand the nuances of a language except for its native people. Likewise, the language of the kingdom of God is hard to understand; it can only be understood by the people of God. We, God's people, know well what the Spirit and the Bride mean by saying, "Come!" We understand when, where and why to go to Them, but the people who do not belong to God will never be able to know.

Among many words in the Bible, let's find out the implied meaning of the words, "Seek David in the last days."

Prophecies about David

Hos 3:4-5 For the Israelites will live many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred stones, without ephod or idol. Afterward the Israelites will return and seek the Lord their God and David their king. They will come trembling to the Lord and to his blessings in the last days.

Prophet Hosea testifies that what God's people must do in the last days is to seek David. It's because there is something very important that cannot be solved without seeking David. Through the prophets of the Old Testament, God repeatedly testifies about David who will appear in the last days.

Eze 34:11-24 " 'For this is what the Sovereign Lord says: I myself will search for my sheep and look after them. As a shepherd looks after his scattered flock when he is with them, so will I look after my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness. . . . As for you, my flock, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: I will judge between one sheep and another, and between rams and goats. . . . I will save my flock, and they will no longer be plundered. I will judge between one sheep and another. I will place over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he will tend them; he will tend them and be their shepherd. I the Lord will be their God, and my servant David will be prince among them. I the Lord have spoken.' "

The book of Ezekiel was written about 450 years after the death of David, the king of Israel. In other words, the prophecy, "I [God] will become a Shepherd and search for my lambs," and the prophecy, "I will place over them one Shepherd, my servant David," are about the spiritual David, not the physical David. These prophecies imply that God will come in the name of David in the last days. Prophet Ezekiel repeatedly prophesied about David.

Eze 37:24-27 " 'My servant David will be king over them, and they will all have one shepherd. They will follow my laws and be careful to keep my decrees. They will live in the land I gave to my servant Jacob, the land where your fathers lived. They and their children and their children's children will live there forever, and David my servant will be their prince forever. I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant . . . I will be their God, and they will be my people.' "

God said that His people would keep His laws and decrees in the reign of David. Every prophecy of God is to be fulfilled without fail. We, who look for salvation, should realize when and why the spiritual David comes and what He brings, and we must receive David our Shepherd as His sheep.

Only those who receive David can become God's people, and only the people of God can be saved and go to heaven. Therefore we must seek David.

Jesus who came in the name of David

If we do not meet David coming in the last days, we are not able to know the secret of life that God has opened, and we will fail to find the way to salvation and eternal life that only God knows.

Rev 5:1-5 Then I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne a scroll with writing on both sides and sealed with seven seals. And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, "Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll" But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll or even look inside it. I wept and wept because no one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals."

The Bible testifies that no one can reveal the secrets of God to us except the Root of David Christ who comes in the name of David. If the secrets remain sealed forever, how can we know the way to eternal life and the kingdom of heaven Nowadays, most bookstores have many Bible commentaries, which the interpreters have written with their private opinions. However, no matter how many times they read the Bible, none of them can know the will of God with their own wisdom. It is only the Root of David who is able to reveal to us the secrets of the Bible. That's why the Bible testifies that whoever longs for eternal life and salvation must seek David in the last days.

In order to receive David, we should first know who the prophetic David is and how we can meet Him.

Isa 9:6-7 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the Lord Almighty will accomplish this.

The above prophecy about Christ was written by the prophet Isaiah 700 years before Jesus came to this earth. As Isaiah prophesied, "He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, with justice and righteousness," Jesus came as David.

Lk 1:30-33 "You will be with child and give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus . . . The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever; his kingdom will never end."

Since it is written that God will give Jesus the throne of His father David, we need to carefully study the relationship between David and Jesus. If the prophecy about David was completely fulfilled by Jesus 2,000 years ago, we would not have to study about this prophecy today. However, according to the prophecy of Ezekiel, David is to appear on a day of clouds and darkness in the last days to lead His people, represented by the sheep, as their Shepherd.

Prophetic relationship between David and Jesus

It is certain that there is a prophetic relationship between David and Jesus; through the work of David, we can easily understand that of Jesus. First, let's find out what prophetic relationship there is between the period of King David's reign and the period of Jesus' ministry on earth.

2 Sa 5:3-4 they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years.

It is written that David was anointed and became king when he was 30 years and he reigned for 40 years. Let's see how Jesus, who is the prophetic David, fulfilled this prophecy.

Lk 3: 21-23 When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as he was praying . . . a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased." Now Jesus himself was about thirty years old when he began his ministry. . . .

As David was anointed at the age of 30 and began to reign, so Jesus was spiritually anointed through baptism at the age of 30 and began to preach. Here, we need to pay attention to the fact that Jesus did His public ministry for only three years, while David reigned for 40 years. It was because Jesus was to come again to reveal the secrets of the truth which were sealed.

Heb 9:27-28 Just as man is destined to die once, and after that to face judgment, so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

Jesus was to come to this earth a second time and be baptized at the age of 30 and preach the gospel for 37 years so that He could fulfill the prophecy about the throne of David the 40 years of reign. Then, what is the sign of the Second Coming David, through which we can recognize Him correctly and receive Him

Isa 55:1-5 "Come, all you who are thirsty, come to the waters; and you who have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost. . . . Give ear and come to me; hear me, that your soul may live. I will make an everlasting covenant with you, my faithful love promised to David. See, I have made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander of the peoples. . . ."

Heb 13:20-21 May the God of peace, who through the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, equip you with everything good . . .

God said that an everlasting covenant was promised to David who would lead us to the kingdom of heaven as our leader and commander. The writer of the book of Hebrews testified of "the blood of the eternal covenant," which is the blood of the new covenant the Passover. In other words, the everlasting covenant, God's faithful love promised to David, means the new covenant. So, Christ is to bring the new covenant when He comes in the name of David in the last days.

Christ Ahnsahnghong is the spiritual David, who has come a second time and restored the new covenant

Today, there are many people who claim, "I am David prophesied in the Bible." Among them, is there anyone who has led us to eternal life through the new covenant, revealed the hidden secrets of the Bible, taught us the reality of God Elohim and the existence of God the Mother, and restored the seven feasts in three times so that we can observe all the laws and decrees of God Who, then, did so It is Christ Ahnsahnghong who has led the mortal human beings to the way of life through the eternal covenant. He is David who has appeared in the last days according to the prophecies of the Bible, and He is the Second Coming Jesus.

Eternal life is a free gift from God. We should share this grace and blessing, which we have freely received from God, with all people around the world, so that they can correctly recognize and receive God, who has come to this earth in the name of David in order to save us, as the leader and commander of peoples.

Hos 6:3-6 Let us acknowledge the Lord; let us press on to acknowledge him. . . . For I desire mercy, not sacrifice, and acknowledgment of God rather than burnt offerings.

Without knowing the Second Coming David in this age, we cannot receive salvation that God has promised us. Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled the prophecies of the throne of David; He was baptized in 1948 when he was 30 years old, preached the gospel for 37 years and ascended to heaven in 1985 after completing His ministry. Even though He was extremely distressed and troubled during His 37-year ministry on this earth, He always gave us good things, opened the way to eternal life by restoring all the truths of the new covenant, and let us know the new Jerusalem, our heavenly Mother, who is the source of life.

We give all thanks to our heavenly Father and Mother for leading the gospel work for us with patience and sacrifice, walking the paths of suffering. No matter what people say against our heavenly Father and Mother, They are our eternal God, worthy to receive glory and praise forever and ever!

We are very happy and proud to be children of God Elohim, our heavenly Father and Mother. Let us all devote ourselves to finding our brothers and sisters who are scattered all around the world, always giving thanks and praise to God Elohim for Their grace and love, as Their faithful children.

1 Cor. 3:18 Do not deceive yourselves. If any one of you thinks he is wise by the standards of this age, he should become a "fool" so that he may become wise. 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in God's sight. As it is written: "He catches the wise in their craftiness"; 20 and again, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are futile." 21 So then, no more boasting about men! All things are yours, 22 whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future—all are yours, 23 and you are of Christ, and Christ is of God.

Nowadays, many churches claim to read the Bible. However, they couldn't understand it. Why? The reason is their spiritual eyes and ears are closed. First, let's remember that our thinking is different from God's thinking.

Isa. 55:8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," declares the LORD.

Reply

Jn. 8:12 When Jesus spoke again to the people, he said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." 13 The Pharisees challenged him, "Here you are, appearing as your own witness; your testimony is not valid." 14 Jesus answered, "Even if I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is valid, for I know where I came from and where I am going. But you have no idea where I come from or where I am going. 15 You judge by human standards; I pass judgment on no one. 16 But if I do judge, my decisions are true, because I am not alone. I stand with the Father, who sent me. 17 In your own Law it is written that the testimony of two witnesses is true. 18 I am one who testifies for myself; my other witness is the Father, who sent me."

The Bible is the Words of God that contains the hidden mystery of God in order for God's children to have eternal life. BUT THERE ARE PEOPLE WHO THINK THEY KNOW GOD'S WORDS, BUT THEY DO NOT UNDERSTAND THE ENTIRE OF IT. ONLY GOD HIMSELF CAN EXPLAIN TO US THE BIBLE AND OUR GOD THE FATHER WILL COME AS ROOT OF DAVID TO REVEAL US THE MYSTERIES OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN.

Rev. 5:1 Then I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne a scroll with writing on both sides and sealed with seven seals. 2 And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, "Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?" 3 But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll or even look inside it. 4 I wept and wept because no one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. 5 Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals."

Let's check some examples in the Bible that many people think its a contradiction but they just don't understand the entire of the Bible.

Jn 1:29 The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!

JESUS = LAMB IN THE BIBLE

Jn. 21:15 When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" "Yes, Lord," he said, "you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my lambs."

Jn. 10:27 My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. 28 I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand.

SAINTS = LAMB IN THE BIBLE

Without knowing who the Root of David is, we can never understand the Bible. CHRIST AHNSAHNGHONG CAME AS THE ROOT OF DAVID ACCORDING TO THE PROPHECIES OF THE BIBLE AND ESTABLISHED ZION AND EXPLAINED ALL THE MYSTERIES OF THE BIBLE SO THAT WE MAY HAVE ETERNAL LIFE. PLEASE DON'T JUST MERELY JUDGE QUICKLY SOMETHING YOU DON'T REALLY UNDERSTAND THE ENTIRE OF IT! PLEASE COME TO ZION OUR CHURCH AND WE'LL EXPLAIN EVERYTHING TO YOU THROUGH THE BIBLE. WE CAN TEACH THE BASIC TOPICS HERE BUT WE ONLY TEACH THE DEEPER THINGS THAT OUR HEAVENLY FATHER AND MOTHER HAVE THOUGHT US IN ZION. WHY?

Mt. 7:6 "Do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces.

Mt. 13:11 He replied, "Because the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them. 12 Whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them. 13 This is why I speak to them in parables:

"Though seeing, they do not see;
though hearing, they do not hear or understand.

14 In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah:

"You will be ever hearing but never understanding;
you will be ever seeing but never perceiving.
15 FOR THIS PEOPLE'S HEART HAS BECOME CALLOUSED; THEY HARDLY HEAR WITH THEIR EARS, AND THEY HAVE CLOSED THEIR EYES
Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts
and turn, and I would heal them.

1 Cor. 2:12 What we have received is not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may understand what God has freely given us. 13 This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, explaining spiritual realities with Spirit-taught words. 14 The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit. 15 The person with the Spirit makes judgments about all things, but such a person is not subject to merely human judgments, 16 for, "Who has known the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

He Who Has an Ear Hears God's Voice
Most churches today claim to hear the word of God. Actually, they do not understand the meaning of God's word. The Bible says that they have an uncircumcised ear. How about us? We have eyes to see, ears to hear and minds to understand. Giving thanks to God, let's see what the uncircumcised ear means, through the Bible.

Those who have an uncircumcised ear

People commonly say of the person who is slow in understanding what others say, "He has a bad ear." Likewise, the Bible says of him who does not understand what God says, "He has an uncircumcised ear."

Many people around us claim to believe in God, but they do not make out what God's will is and take it wrong. God said, "Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy" (Ex 20:8). However, they keep other day, not understanding God's word. That's why the Bible says that they have an uncircumcised ear.

Jer 6:10-15, KJV To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it. Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days. ...

Through the Bible, God showed us the way to the truth and salvation. However, those who have an uncircumcised ear do not understand what God's true will is. They are not concerned to obey God's word, which is offensive to them. So God's anger against them burns and He says that He cannot hold it in any longer. See today's churches! Do they obey God's word? If they obeyed, how could they ignore the word, "Worship no idol" or "Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy?" If they obeyed, how could they easily turn away from God's holy feasts?

Isa 42:18-20 "Hear, you deaf; look, you blind, and see! Who is blind but my servant, and deaf like the messenger I send? Who is blind like the one committed to me, blind like the servant of the LORD? You have seen many things, but have paid no attention; your ears are open, but you hear nothing."

Mt 13:14-17 "In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah: 'You will be ever hearing but never understanding; you will be ever seeing but never perceiving. For this people's heart has become calloused; they hardly hear with their ears, and they have closed their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them.' But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear. For I tell you the truth, many prophets and righteous men longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it. "

Those whose ear is uncircumcised do not give ear to God's word or pay attention to it. They are the deaf in spirit. However, God's people whose ear is circumcised listen to His voice. It is really blessed to hear the words of truth.

Miserable end of the spiritual deaf

Jesus showed in advance the end of the spiritual deaf as follows:

Mt 7:21-23 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'"

If they heard God's voice, they would recognize God the Father and God the Mother who have come into this earth and hear Their voice and celebrate all the feasts of the new covenant just as we do. However, they reject all the truth; though hearing many things, they pay no attention. It's because their ear is uncircumcised. So, Jesus plainly said that they would never enter the kingdom of heaven, though they loudly call Him 'Lord, Lord.'

Jer 8:7-14 Even the stork in the sky knows her appointed seasons, and the dove, the swift and the thrush observe the time of their migration. But my people do not know the requirements of the LORD. "How can you say, 'We are wise, for we have the law of the LORD,' when actually the lying pen of the scribes has handled it falsely? The wise will be put to shame; they will be dismayed and trapped. ... So they will fall among the fallen; they will be brought down when they are punished, says the LORD. ... 'Why are we sitting here? Gather together! Let us flee to the fortified cities and perish there! For the LORD our God has doomed us to perish and given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against him.'"

Those whose ear is uncircumcised cling to deceit and refuse to return to God. What is the end of those who reject God's words? It's destruction. They will see such a miserable end coming upon them. Considering all these things, we are bound to give thanks to God for giving us eyes to see and ears to hear. We, too, were the blind and the deaf in spirit. However, God has come into this earth and opened our spiritual eyes and ears, so that we can see and hear God's words. God said, "He who has ears, let him hear."

Hear God's voice and open the door

Through the long period of the Dark Ages, many have lost their ears to hear God's voice. Now is the time for their eyes and ears to be circumcised, so that they can see and hear God. For God Himself has come into this earth to save mankind. He is knocking on the door of our hearts, uttering His voice. In this age, we can directly hear God's voice since God Himself has come into the earth.

Rev 3:20 "Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me."

If a stranger knocks at the door, we will not open it easily. However, what if our father or mother tells us to open the door? We will hear his or her voice and open the door.

People have not heard God's voice for a long time, and they've forgotten His voice. So when they hear God's voice, some of them open the door, but some shut it more tightly. Unfortunately, even God's children, who have not heard His voice for so long, do not easily recognize the voices of their Father and Mother. God's children are supposed to open the door of their hearts when they hear the voices of the Father and Mother and to receive them. When we, all God's children, recognize the voices of our Father and Mother and open the door, we will go back to our heavenly country. We should hasten the coming of the day, shouldn't we? Let's quicken our pace and preach the gospel more diligently.

God's sheep listen to His voice

Jn 10:16 "I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock and one shepherd."

Jn 10:27 "My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me."

Jn 8:47 "He who belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

God's sheep know His voice. So in order to lead them to the Father and Mother quickly, we must speak only with God's voice, not with our own.

Now, God has come into this earth and is knocking at the door: Those who listen to His voice will receive Him, and those who do not hear will shut the door more tightly. By this, God will separate His people from those who are not His own.

Let's preach God's word to others with great boldness, as God told us. We don't need to think, 'Will they understand the word?' or 'What will they think of me when I tell the truth?' If we have such a thought in preaching the gospel to them, we may fail to lead them. Let's preach, having no doubt that God's sheep will listen to His voice.

Let the trumpet sound a clear call

Jn 18:37 ... Jesus answered, "You are right in saying I am a king. In fact, for this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me."

1 Jn 4:5-6 They are from the world and therefore speak from the viewpoint of the world, and the world listens to them. We are from God, and whoever knows God listens to us; but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. This is how we recognize the Spirit of truth and the spirit of falsehood.

Jesus distinguishes the Spirit of truth and the spirit of falsehood through whether they listen to God's voice or not. He plainly said, "He who belongs to God hears what God says." Let's preach God's word with boldness, leaving everything to God. Looking upon our past days, there was a great difference in results between the two cases-when we preached God's word confidently and when we preached it without boldness.

God told us to let the trumpet sound a clear call. Of course, God's people are to hear His voice. However, when the preacher gives an uncertain sound, they cannot easily recognize God's voice and it will take them much time to receive the truth. Whatever we preach, if we speak with God's voice, they will clearly understand. A brother in Zion told me about his experiences during the preaching. He got an opportunity to speak God's words to an old lady living next door to him. At first, he told her about the vanity of life, but she seemed to be little interested in it. So he changed the subject and told her about God's commandments. Then she was surprised, and received the truth with great joy, saying that she found the true church at long last. I've heard that she is very eager to keep God's commands with a passionate heart like young adults. In another case, some received God immediately after hearing about the last secret described in the Bible.

Thus, our lost brothers and sisters are returning to Zion one after another, hearing the voices of the Father and Mother. God is our reason to be proud; let's boast of God all the more. Even those who have shut their minds tightly will surely hear God's voice and open the door if we preach confidently to them.

God's voice-"Celebrate the Passover"

Our Father said, "The more you practice the truth, the more you are renewed inwardly. If you do not practice the truth, your hearts become darkened and finally you will deny God."

2,000 years ago, God put great emphasis on the Passover. In these last days, too, He emphasizes repeatedly that His children should celebrate the Passover. We've already heard this voice of God. Let's preach more eagerly and lead many people to Zion.

Jn 6:53-57 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me."

This is God's promise of life. God's sheep are sure to hear this word. Jesus promised His flesh and blood on the Passover (Mt 26:17-28; Lk 22:19-20). He saved our souls from death by giving us eternal life through the Passover-which is the recipe necessary for the salvation of all men. Let's sound a clear call and lead them to hear God's voice; let them open their spiritual eyes and ears. Now, the appointed time has come when God's children hear the voice of God and come out of Babylon. Believing the prophecies, let's sound the trumpet. He who has an ear hears God's voice. Let's blow the trumpet of the gospel loudly and lead many souls to salvation. Then the glory of God our Father and Mother will be proclaimed to the ends of the earth.

Isaiah 33:5 The LORD is exalted, for he dwells on high; he will fill Zion with his justice and righteousness.
6 He will be the sure foundation for your times, a rich store of salvation and wisdom and knowledge; the fear of the LORD is the key to this treasure.

Isaiah 33:20 Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals; your eyes will see Jerusalem, a peaceful abode, a tent that will not be moved; its stakes will never be pulled up, nor any of its ropes broken.

Galatians 4:26 BUT THE JERUSALEM THAT IS ABOVE IS FREE, AND SHE IS OUR MOTHER.

Galatians 4:31 THEREFORE, BROTHERS, WE ARE NOT CHILDREN OF THE SLAVE WOMEN, BUT OF THE FREE WOMAN.

FREE WOMAN IS GOD THE MOTHER, NOT GOD THE FATHER. SO AS CHILDREN OF NOT ONLY GOD THE FATHER, BUT ALSO GOD THE MOTHER, LET'S PREACH THE GOSPEL DILIGENTLY TO THE WHOLE WORLD, FIND OUR LOST BROTHERS AND SISTERS AND LET'S GO BACK TO KINGDOM OF HEAVEN. ALL THE GLORY TO OUR GOD THE FATHER AND GOD THE MOTHER. GOD BLESS YOU ALL.

I threw tantrums in Catholic Church when young because Catholic Church is evil. It is a clue about who I am. As was the Ocean Beach supernatural phenominah, seen by many many besides me (thousands). There are other examples as well.

The gods have no no genetalia. Sex is purely temptation. The gods reproduce with cloning. Any child who ascends enjoys this absence as well. They share their ultra-extreme conservative views on sex, how they use society to promote sexual temptation, poisoning the minds and bodies of the disfavored.

Throughout human history women have been the enforcers of decency, and it has worked very well among those not grossly disfavored (Mediteranean, etc). Now that they have embraced so many male sexual charecterisitcs this structure which has served humanity well throughout history has desintigrated.

Throughout history women have been the enforcers of decency within society and the family structure. In the 20th century the god's policy of societal deterioration has compelled women to abandon their traditional roles, often embracing the typical sexual pathology of males, which is why women are ultimately responsible for societal decay and The End as we know it on Planet Earth.

And that's why the gods destroyed the Mediteranean with the Noah's Flood event:::They treat their women like shit, and the "begginig of The End" was the gods transferring this patriarchal, male-superiority pathology to Europe and the rest of the world with the Catholic Church.

A good example of societal decay and how the gods manage their culpability is birth defects. In the past the gods occasionally punished people by divinely creating birth defects in the womb. Now, with the advent of biotechnology, they tempt the mother with "earning" and compel her to take a substance in utero which deforms the fetus dispelling the gods of blame and future compensation. Incidentally, the use liberal policies to pay for these individuals, ensuring a lifetime wasted, for they have no hope for progress. Too often in the past they were mercifully killed and brought back without this handicap, allowing them a chance to achieve progress. The gods are washing their hands of culpability. The gods are washing their hands of Planet Earth.

The gods used this temptation of biotechnology very effectively to accomplish many purposes:::

1. To achieve desired results in individual disfavored's lives.
2. To wash their hands of culpability and blame, for in eras prior the gods have been required to accept liability when instructing AI to alter/deform an individual (see above).
3. The phenomenal profits/dividends/rate of growth of biotechnology organizations served as very effective temptation to many, including people without a conscious, mutual fund managers desperate to balance their losses/lousy performance, and to fund managers of disfavored retirement groups the gods wanted to intentionally "dirty up". It was so pervasive in years past it ensures we will ALL pay because of our involvement in this investment::: A population which deserves what it is getting.

If not for the Holocaust the Germans may have succeeded.

More accurately said, the gods hands would have been tied and the positive goals of the Third Reich would have dictated triumph.

The Holocaust ensured we were delivered into this sick age of societal decay.

They sent a clue about the Fourth Reich with the Buffalo Bills comeback against the Houston Oilers wildcard game 1992. Note they won the battle but lost the war (Super Bowl).

"The Fourth Reich failed::: The Earth has to die." But you can't put the cat back into the bag.

The Third Reich was our last chance. And the Holocaust guaranteed it would fail.

The Japanese Earthquake/tsunami was outstanding punishment. The gods HAMMERED these people, and the nuclear dynamic they experience today was punishment for their evil in WWII and throughout history. They were MONSTERS to their neighbors and this is reflected in the nuclear holocaust occurring in Japan today.

Unit 731::: TSUSHOGO is one example of Japanese behavior which the gods punish with this nuclear accident. Also known as the Chinese Holocaust, the ugliness of this meltdown is direct punishment for this behavior and similar behavior throughout their imperialistic history.

Incidentally, shortly after the earthquake they reported problems with MULTIPLE power plants within Japan, but now we only hear of Fukushima.

The Japanese will make great efforts to hide the damage from their primary customer base in the United States, so you would be wise to distrust the information offered in the media. Proof:::The gods will not allow restaurants/grocery to advertize they do not offer Japanese products:::"NO JAPANESE PRODUCTS.", "ALASKA FISH ONLY.", etc.

Tax havens for US corporations. Some little more than PO Boxes.

Greed and immorality have been legalized in the United States.

Life's not fair. I can accept that. I have no choice with the maliciousness the gods have inflicted upon me.

The gods dictate low tax rates in Ireland to inflict with the wealth similar to that hurting the US. Expect they sell many of the executives on "earning" with their relocation.

Ireland has lost something very important recently, and the numbers who ascend has plummeted. More who entered clone hosting, far less who ascend into heaven.

"You're not going to want to be here (on this planet)."
Little good. Why else did this happen to me, placed in that family?

All the times the gods deliberately crossed the line further suggests.

I'm sure clone hosting is in my future (life).

There is a reason why people have "enjoyed" peasantry throughout human history, subject to the god's whim through natural disasters. Ireland's Potato Famine is a good example. And even if they used poison to force immigration for war recruiting in the United States doesn't mean the gods didn't do it. They just aren't taking blame.

And why white Europeans in America were the first to enjoy wealth and comfort of the United States, with Italians leading the pack. But you should know that, with xtianity feeding right into this problem of irresponsibility and something for nothing.

Desecrate the gods.

Compromised their integrity, claiming it was "temptation" instead of blatant lies.

Now I don't want to bother writing a desecration paragraph, trying to capture how you use positioning as a cloak, enabling you to execute your unholy will.

I was pushed into everything in this life and I would bet the same is true in the last. But what the fuck, someone had to be the sacrificial lamb.

Immoral. Dirty, immoral whore motherfuckers. I despise the gods.

If just and I deserve this "cradle to grave" abuse then I am The Damned and they should have left me to my Damnation. If unjust the gods are a waste of time. Either way they are immoral and debase indecent shit, using their positioning to provide cover to execute their will.

The gods are not pure, not in things they say and not in things they do. They will use "temptation" to achieve their goals then try to desceive people about its intent.

Gods have no no genetalia. Share their ultra-extreme conservative views on sex, how they use society to promote sexual temptation, poisoning the minds and bodies of the disfavored.

Throughout human history women have been the enforcers of decency, and it has worked very well among those not grossly disfavored (Italian, etc). Now that they have embraced so many male sexual charecterisitics everything this structure has desinigrated.

As people learned of the gods methodology in the 20th century the gods made things more difficult to understand with liberalism and preditory "earning" behavior.

With the advent of this Situation people have learned much more, and the gods willexact a price for this knowledge. Perhaps that will be the deterioration into immoral behavior, as we witness in my life, or perhaps a different way to make progress more difficult.

Unit 731:::TSUSHOGO was a clue from the gods about this Situation dating way back to World War II. They used their positioning to hide these Japanese atrocities, and blamed me for burying the Chinese Holocaust. TSUSHOGO says something:::It speaks to the responsbility the Italains had for WWII, the Holocaust and for those people's involvement in the intentional destruction and exploitation of my life, both for the god's REAL reason and their positioning's reason, buried with their "respectable" multinational corporation client list.

Budget problems. Cut the military. Bring them home and end the wars. Let these countries experience self-determination and decide their own future. Didn't we learn this lesson in Vietnam???

Unfortunatly, the gods use the United States as one of their tools, using the spread of democracy to level the playing field and prepare the planet for a global event.

So many people don't care about global warming. They don't care about the Federal deficit/debt (outside of partisanship) and they don't care earning $400k for an $80,000/year job will eventually bankrupt the country. They have awarded themselves $400k pay and retirement packages, loading up their friends on the payroll during the boom 90s through the real estate bust while all services which the program were intended to fund now get cut to pay for it.

These people are often common public university labor. Not Ivy League, not private university.

This labor isn't good enough to command the salaries they are earning. And they understood this when they applied to the public university they settled on. You can't expect a top-tier salary with a second-rate education.

In addition, public employment has earned the label of being "recession-proof" jobs, a benefit which was taken into consideration with lower pay packages as compared to corporate.

These are the people who will be here in the United States when bankruptcy is declared and society deteriorates into chaos. And they will deserve the anarchy which ensues.

Cap public sector salaries. Let them earn that salary in the public sector. Few of these people are worth even half what they earn. Increasing the sales tax rate to over 10% to pay for their $300k-$400k salary is a BIG, BIG mistake. It will hurt the economy and compell people to refrain from expenditures.

Continuing the push for privatization, reinforced and supported recently with enormous public sector salaries and retirement packages.

Once achieved the gods will utilize the corruptive predisposition of the private sector economy, as seen with the sub-prime/bailout fiasco, to initiate economic catastrophe and initiate the bankruptcy proceedings of the United States.

Whether the cure for cancer/diseases or the permanant resolution of economic misery, before the gods remove these motivations to pray we will experience an inordinate deluge of each element, with economic misery being perhaps the dissallusion of the united States with bankruptcy.

The gods used the Italians to ruin life in the 20th century.

The gods used the Italians to ruin life in A.D. with The Church.

The Church controlled Western Civilization. As the largest land owner in Europe they controlled the monarchies.

The Italian men who ran the Church were responsbile for slavery, crack babies and thug life/drive-bys, revenge for African invasion and rape of Italy. They created religious and social discontent through the Church, ultimately leading to the disfavored dumping ground known as the United States.

Color photographs shortly after the 4.16.06 San Francsico Earthquake found.

They deserved it. Just like New Orleans deserved it.

Sadly San Francisco was used to set up the Italian dominance, eliminating the diverse business/banking interests and replacing it with Gianinni's Bank of Italy. Of course the fires were instrumental in ensuring complete rebuilding.

Imagine how the gods sold the Italians this, and compare it to how they sold them on preparation for WorldWarII.

Expect the gods have instructed AI to organize the universe so planets mature and descend while the gods can give them their full attention during their period of planetary devolution, and claims of heirarchy are yet another lie.

Says something frightening, doesn't it?

I am NOT the Fourth Reich.

ONE THING. Deliver ONE THING you promised.

All these people did everything you told them for DECADES. You have strung them all along.

The gods are liars, and you're all going to be CHEATED.

Abortion is part of the decay inflicted by the gods in the latter half of the 20th century as we approach the Apocalypse:::

- Free sex
- Explosion in gay sex
- Abortion
- Legalized greed/immorality
- The internet. Whereas TV was a phenomenally destructive new temptation on the landscape it doesn't hold a candle to the internet. Some people will waste their whole lives. And its timing was deliberate.

They think they are going sometime during/at the end of this life, and disregard the poor souls who are left behind.

"Anger wears a crown of thorns." Pitch Jesus to Jew elders as revenge for Temple? They didn't know about the god's intent for xtianity to spread to Europe, ruining cultures throughout the continent, enabling revenge known as the Holocaust.

#1. The gods killed Jesus for HIS evil, not our sins

#2. It is not a "House of Jesus". All xtians are worshipping a false god, and this carries a price.

"It's too late to pray." Sign of Woodbridge Church Kansas. And it may be true. Examine pimps who prostitute 10 year old girls in the ghetto.

Of course, if you want even a shred of a chance to save yourself, on that rare occassion the Buffalo Bills did experience the Fourth Reich and realized a comeback.

Although I requested the elimination of Standard Time and remain year-round on Daylight Savings, the gods did extend Daylight Savings by a couple of weeks on each end.

I also suggested the Olympics split into every two years rather than every four years as was tradition.

You see with the Prince concerts in 2011.

Doesn't matter though, because positioning is all the gods are concerned with, and they're GOING to enforce it.

Men are the ones who create evil on Earth. It is the choices they make which enslave their souls to hell. This is the test.

Good god says a ceiling on time for everyone (see below). Evil god still gives hope for immortality to people who subscribed to predatory behavior::: Immortality if you are right versus a couple centuries partying at best even if you change now.

Due to institutional evil the closer we get to The End the more evil everyone incurs (with individual variation due to behavior) which limits the time for everyone.

Probably the children who fix their problems and ascend into heaven as well. Experiencing the evil of modern life in the 20th century costed them, for which limits are placed. They are not the same as their innocent peasantry ancestors from the Old World.

You people have fucked up bad by not getting out before the 20th century.

Just because the gods have to break some eggs doesn't mean they are evil. As management there are hard decisions that must be made. But they used this omelette and sold it to people as temptation, who went out and did things they shouldn't have done thinking being predatory was the way to "earn" their way into heaven.

"If it's like that then I'm dead." That's your choice. But when you come back you will have a fresh start, just as you did in this life, able to build something positive if you go the right way. The gods do this intentionally. I recommend you get a head start and begin building for it now instead of continuing to create problems that will make success even harder to obtain.

It is as simple as recognizing the difference between good and evil and living a decent life with a pure heart and a pure mind. And as you improve your relationship with the gods they will begin to impart wisdom, which can help you understand the task before you.

7 billion in 2011. Only 1 billion in 1800 and 2 billion in 1900.

Population explosion is a clue:::The gods are sending everyone back for The End, perhaps the resurrection of the dead referred to in prophecy.

There must be some purgatory-like place. Or individual. Like an animal.

Now the gods have sent everyone back to try for one final time to fix their problems and ascend into heaven.

Avoiding an animal would have been a big positive because those thrust into this decayed environment have less of a chance than those who enjoyed the god's generosity of a slowly decaying environment with frightening clues, like the Depression, World at War, the Holocaust, etc.

Anything that can get the people frightened and praying is a good thing. Contentment never motivated anyone.

As we approach the Apocalypse the gods are removing "wrath of god" material from xian dogma.

As we see wickedness spread throughout the country, like predatory behavior, godlessness, social changes, etc, using cable TV and the spread of "Californication" as justification, they changed xtianity, appropriately with Catholicism first.

xtianity has changed radically in the 20th century, and everyone should be mindful of the way it was, because the people are in a process of slipping out of god's favor into a state of Damnation, from which the vast majority will never survive.

They used to scare people and make them too afraid to make mistakes. Now people aren't afraid of anything and don't think twice about doing something wicked and evil which will hurt their chances.

Never forget::The Gods have created positioning to conceal their true intent in each and every dynamic we see in society.

We truly live in The Matrix::There is the way things look and there is the God's REAL reason for doing things.

Employment charity::Was W able to do his job as President?

I suspect there are many frat-boy types who couldn't or wouldn't study nor do the work necessary so they gained this "benefit" telepathically. This could have been extended to their professional life as well::In most of these cases they don't have what it takes to do their jobs. It is temptation which buys their confidence for life, ensuring no progress is made.

I think employment charity is FAR more common than people may believe.

Another example how they tempted people in this manner is the procurement of sexual relations.

Keep raping these poor girls. You're going to end up as one in your next life.

Capitalism is evil because of the exploitative nature, illustrated with this Situation. So many are confused and believe money is a sign of the God's favor, but it is a tool the Gods use to test people, for it effectively compels people into evil behavior.

Muslims are correct::Earning interest is evil.

Unlike war, which is a temporary period where the citizens incur evil due to the decisions of the leaders, capitalism by its very nature incurs evil for those who participate into perpetuity, an "institutional" method of incurring evil for the disfavored who engage in it. Inherent in earning interest is the exploitation of others, capitalizing on assets and exploiting the workforce for profit.

Understand the destructive nature of this element of evil we call the United States, for it spreads this cancer under the guise of "democracy" throughout the world.

Look for other institutional evil as related to the United States because as the land of disfavor castoff rejects there will be plenty of examples. It is the essence of life in the United States, and it is not by accident::Like the ghetto, people with extreme disfavor have many more temptations and hurdles to overcome. Overconsumption of the Earth's resources is due to the same reason and why the Unkited States wastes so much energy.

Examine my examples. They illustrate the God's reverse positioning used to confuse and disceive people who have made big mistakes in past lives.

I illustrate a certain way to think. If you doubt what I teach, if this is not your time to learn please at least completely understand this way of thinking, because when your time does come you will be able to refer to it and you will begin to see the God's pattern within the context of their positioning.

Nobody is going to save you. Christianity is a lie. And only through thinking correctly will you have a real chance to begin doing the right things.

Typical for the young, they become corrupt and remain ignorant for a period of time in their lives, typically until their children are raised and grown and/or retire from their profession. Poetic justice ensures they receive a similar experience when reincarnated.

Fighting these wars hurts everyone because we all pay for the sins of our leaders, and by participating these ignorant youth make it possible for these events to occur. So even if you are against the war, since you are a citizen you incur because of the evil your country is engaged in.

And there is no getting around it.

Artificial Intelligence is one of the God's tools, all of which are used as temptation. And it will always test the young with this temptation of “earning”, sadly often leading to a lifetime of corruption.

Students becoming angry and violent in the UC protests. Begginning to remind me of labor riots of the 20th century.

We all know what’s happening here:::These white men at the top have voted themselves $400k pay and retirement packages like the $340k retired fire chief, loading up their friends on the payroll during the boom 90s through the real estate bust while all services which the program were intended to fund now get cut to pay for it.

Incidentally, corporate sucessfully transistioned to cheap labor in nearly ALL “muscle” industries. Why should fire be any different??

It was temptation, and the Gods are going to make them pay for it. Unfortunately, so will everybody else:::

Reincarnation is very real. It is OUR national debt. And odds are you’re all going to be reincarnated back into the United States:::Like the ghetto, you have to “earn” your way out.

And it is our warming planet. Self-inflicted emmissions as their justification, the Gods are doing it to us to send a clue. And, as with all their clues, it will be short-lived.

Anger about Messerlee. Understandable.

They need to understand this man was pushed into the offense. Cops have been getting away with killings like this for a long time. Blacks in the South know this all too well. Each time they were all confident the Blue Shield would protect them, and it did. The difference is in many IF NOT MOST of these cases they were rogue cops who the Gods tempted. They did it intentionally thinking they were “earning”, knowing they would get away with it. Contradictory to appearances, they were the ones whom the Gods disliked, while the Messerlees of the world who get caught are being punished, feedback reserved for those whom are still qualified in the eyes of the Gods. There are those in the ghetto whom are singled out, targets of the community whom everybody hates. The rogue cops in the South who are guilty of these kind of killings have been reincarnated into roles like this. It’s just one of the clues the Gods offer to the community. Lucky for those predators the ghetto has been an ignorant community, but I think that might be changing.

Of course there could be anoher possibility::::Due to the history and resulting legacy of hatred for the Gods, since I am guarenteed a spot on the next Planet Earth I will be the original “bad seed”:::The Lucifer-figure of the next reality. Unlike Christian dogma, he may just represent the solitary target of the God’s ire early, a disgruntled asshole who pissed the Gods off, the proverbial “apple” of the next reality, beginning the process which leads planets to where we are today. A crucial figure in any planet’s history, he represents the “beginning of the end”.

People, especially liberals give W a very hard time. Don’t forget what I say:::Everything today is both good and evil. The Gods have positioned it as such as we have become increasingly disfavored, confusing the enviornment.

Republicans and conservatives as well, only they fall more on the good side while their adversaries fall more on the evil side, quite contrary to the God's positioning. Yes, W's evil is illustrated in the United State's efforts in Iraq, and the "Red State"r's who believe we were "earning" are among the worst of them.

If conservatives fall on the side of good, Fox News falls on the side of evil. They pander to the type of trash my brother is, the kind of trash who thinks their war mongering efforts "earn" for them and all others who think like them.

Anyways, it is positioned that W trashed the economy before he left office. Selfish it didn't happen while he was in office, granted, but economic turmoil is a motivator.

It's not cancer, mind you, but many have begun praying hard because of their experinces in this event, and it says something about those affected as opposed to those sheltered from affect.

One day just as they will allow vaccines to diseases, especially AIDS, encouraging deviacy the likes which hasn't been seen since the 70s, they will allow cures for cancer, MS, COPD, alcoholism, etc.

Women's diseases will be last. Just as research into women's diseases receive the least amount of funding so is it justified their cures come last, and both for the same reason:::They have the most favor, and the Gods use their diseases as a motivator to pray and find the path. As such they get God's benefit as long as they are willing to offer it.

I suspect many attempts have begun already, but as time goes on the Gods will test people's religious resolve with an insurmuntable positioning stating Christianity is the one true religion. We've seen their efforts in Latin America, in the Philippines and most recently in Vietnam, India and the demonizing of Islam.

They intend to test your resolve as Muslims, for those who sell out and flee to Christianity will be subject to their positioning.

Blacks are the most disfavored of all people. We see it in their temptation-ridden culture, which the Civil Rights "assimilation" has allowed, in their sexual behavior. The Gods used their position of the Italians to do their dirty work, implimenting the crack epidemic, the black civil war of the 80s and 90s, AIDS in Africa, "pimp" subculture, etc. The Gods created this positioning of Italian's predatory behavior on Africans to reflect their own disfavor towards that group, allowing them to get what they want without accepting culpability, conviniently. As such, come the Apocalypse those who abandon their true selves, their religion and their dedication to it will be victims in this deceptive Christian theater.

Blacks that opt for the "easy way out" will ironically lose their lives in the Apocalypse. Only those who remain true to their religion, its strict methods and lifestyle, and resist the outside temptations stating their are going the wrong way will emerge out of the carnage of The End of Time. They are highly susceptible to temptation and they need their religion to help them be strong and resist it. They will be better people for it and superior to the Christians in the end.

This is the life of utmost importance. People need to listen, understand and learn from me and make the changes I prescribe. Without, they will have no chance at ascending into heaven before the Apocalypse, and the only hope they will have is 1000 years with Jesus, which is no sure thing.

Even so, assuming they are rewarded with 1000 years with Jesus, they will be offered all manners of temptations, for it will be THE Big Party at The End, and if they don't address these problems now, while they have this chance to learn this activity is evil, before society declares it socially acceptable, they will be granted some fraction of 1000 years and be disposed of thereafter, when the party "dies down", pardon the pun. Also, disgusted by their behavior, the Gods have created a subculture which celebrates partying in the black community, guaranteeing that "requirement" is satisfied so they are never "invited".

Only those people who never began the temptations or who addressed these issues and remedied the problems will move on to the next Planet Earth. And we are still approximately 4 lifetimes away, most of which I expect to be revelry years::A population either getting their party now or groomed for a short stay after the Apocalypse. By that time even the most conservative Christian will be tested to see if they can establish this destructive legacy of revelry.

Move on to a new Planet Earth. This is their second chance:::They have to start over. Either they ascend into heaven from their planet of origin or they don't ascend at all, and that's how the system works.

It's a very small population which exists at the dawn of agrarianism because most have succumbed to temptation and failed to achieve their second chance on the new Planet Earth.

I have said diseases, such as cancer, won't be going anywhere, no matter how much money is thrown at it, no matter how much money is raised. These diseases are important tools used by the Gods to help people do the right thing::Cancer has compelled more than a few women to begin praying and behave appropriately.

In this environment of decay, the Gods will eventually eliminate these motivations one day. Positioning states cures/vaccines are positive developments which display life is improving. Unfortunately, this is just another example of how the Gods utilize "reverse positioning" which has been very effective in promoting deceptive elements in society, such as democracy, Christianity and Californication, Hollywood being the primary tool used to spread the message of The Beast.

Similarly, other motivations which have compelled people to turn to the Gods for solice will begin to disappear as well:::Economic recession/turmoil, Unlike the Christian Bible's version, the Apocalypse will not be preceeded by ruin and desperation. Just the opposite, there will be peace and personal satisfaction leading to The End, ensuring the Gods can control the group selected for the Second Coming event.

The irony of the Apocalypse:::

People told not to follow the Second Coming, who fail to recognize the urgency of the moment and die in the Apocalypse because of it.

The Gods will account for people who do not sell out to Christianity, however difficult due to temptation. It will become difficult to remain Muslim in this environment. It will be positioned that everyone except Christians are The Damned and will die come The End. This positioning, and how all this goes down come the Apocalypse, will just be the God's attempt at testing people with temptation, for it will matter in The End to those whom succeed.

Christianity is responsible for African slavery. The Italian men who ran the church set out to gain revenge for the invasion of Italy and, still the largest landowner in Europe, used their considerable clout with the thrones of England to achieve this.

The Gods used Christianity to destroy the cultures of Europe and around the world, replaced with the patriarchal standard which it imposed.

The Gods used temptation to compell the Italians to do their dirty work for them, punishment for evils of black people, and that extened into the 20th century with Civil Rights, the crack epidemic, gang membership/the "thug life" and even AIDS in Africa, a recycling of the biotechnology product originally intened for the gay community.

As with everything there is always a real reason behind their positioning, and in both cases it is punishment for deviate behavior.

Being "schitzo", the internal battle between good and evil, is a deteriorating generational issue that is dying off, much like I illustrated for punishment below:: This new generation, who were the grandparents of their parents, are an early evil generation and one whom became corrupted and fell for societal temptation readily available for them and every generation of the masses thereafter.

Their parents came before that generation, the agrarian masses, God-fearing, absent for the temptation offerings of early modern society (Roaring 20s vs. 60s/70s). As a result whereas Dad has great internal conflict I refer to as schitzo because of his connection to his past his children will be less so, perhaps far less so depending on grade of sins in their prior life, decreasing generationally until they have all become Godless, immoral monsters.

"Californication" – The tool the Gods use to brainwash the people, amplifying disfavor level as we approach the Apocalypse by merely fitting into society. Poisoning their brainwashed minds...corrupted by society, AI convinces people "earning" is the way, compelling them into evil. This is falling for temptation, while Californication ensures at least a minimal amount of damage, ensuring a minimal amount of generational progress towards the Apocalypse.

I demand another. I have signed off. Give the disfavored another and without all the defensive tactics, cowards. Pick out someone else, do this again and discard this Situation.

The people who have learned were going to learn anyways. They're not the ones who need it.

The disfavored need it, people like my family, too far gone for any hope at ascension before The End, and they should be allowed moments if not periods of clarity before the decision is made about them.

"Decay is inherent in all component things. Work out your own salvation with diligence." – Buddha

I have explained how the gods are phasing out punishment as we get closer to the Apocalypse. Disfavor levels dictate there is insufficient time to repair their problems, relegating people to the Second Coming event. I mentioned how old timers today may experience hell, albeit a "toned down" experience, consistent with the elimination of teaching of Hell in typical Christian educations. I suspect the same is true in the context of prison::The gods maintain a constantly decreasing number of punitive institutions in case there is a need. But, over time they will be eliminated and the entire system will be quite amicable. Look for this pattern elsewhere as well, for the Gods are eliminating punishment throughout in preparation for the Apocalypse, for it is no longer necessary.

The Gods send clues about this situation frequently. Eddie of Iron Maiden. Consider the cover of the album "Number of the Beast" and how it was used to create pathologies.

Closure of Fitzgeralds Reno/getting kicked out of Fits LV 1990 for "counting cards" after 5 minutes and $20::Accusation of the innocent.

WWII's other holocaust::Unit 731::tsushogo. Tsushogo was a clue from the Gods illustrating their positioning long before it began. Incidentally, they used it to hurt the Chinese and position against future Japanese success by burying their atrocities.

The Concorde. The Czech automobile Yugo.

1990 blackjack at Binion's Horseshoe/Rounders/current poker phenomenon. Just as with any of the prophets, the Gods use me as temptation to compensate. This is our temptation in today's modern superficial, sensationalistic environment.

Ken Jennings. Million-dollar slot (add a zero to every number on the wheel you cheap bastards). 12.08.20 & 12.8.80 (last birthday). KGC. King Tut 2005-2011.

More below::The Gods have created an endless list over the last four+ decades. This Situation is a monster.

They have shared that when the change is initially made they alter the DNA with Artificial Intelligence, ensuring it is not the same person.

Now depending on their level of activity the Gods switch out for new individuals, ie presidents switched frequently. They say they bring the (m)father's DNA when it is time to conceive, so it is strategically important who is in there for the conception of the children. The same may not be true for typical activity::the Gods may alter the DNA upon initial clone hosting but it may be a general change. Conception requires specific DNA.

And? So?

So there are no Rockafellers. This was how the Gods eliminated their true importance, for now they are little more than lowly English peasants, ironically.

Nothing is ever going to change.

Now the case can be made that far more men are invited into clone hosting than women, and since lineage is matrilineal it would rather follow that blood line instead.

All it takes is one.

But I wonder if it even matters. Those who learn and are wise enough to refuse the offer of clone hosting still have to repair their relationship with the Gods and hope for a better placement in their next life, one which certainly won't involve being a billionaire. Whether real Rockafellers or DNA alternates is of no consequence. Their goal is still ascension, which takes work and dedication. Being/thinking you're capitalism royalty invites a host of temptations, including grandeur and self-importance, which are all damaging to a good relationship with the Gods.

If only they can overcome the temptations that money brings, like ample stunning women and Scarface piles of cocaine.

The consequence of clone hosting is the loss of ascension into heaven. The best they can hope for is 1000 years with Jebus in a temptation-infested environment where one can have anything they want.

Just as the victims of Mengele's "showers which clench you of your life" were the Italians who conceived and implemented WorldWarII's Blitzkreig, so do I think the unholy alliance between evil Japan and good Germany is the cause of the "Siamese Twins" Mengele experiment: "sewn together, joining heads, just a matter of time before you rip yourselves apart". World War II, the Holocaust were revenge for Germany's 5th century AD invasion of the dying Roman Empire. Those at the top are the ones who suffered the worst because of their intimate involvement. Perhaps it was the godfather who experienced the "frozen water burial" "crack your limbs".

Praying for the end of your wide-awake nightmare...

How was the Holocaust positioned? What did the Italians have against the Jews? The Romans destroyed Temple. Perhaps Joshua...

What is the God's real reason behind WWII? Punishment? For what? The Crusades? It was a fight supporting evil Christianity, in defense of evil against their religious superiors. For this the Germans should pay. Punished for being war mongers.

Go ahead and ignore this. You won't ever defy and do the right thing anyways.

"These came to life again and reigned with Christ for a thousand years." Revelation 20:4. Reference to reincarnation? I wouldn't be surprised if everyone who has ever been on Planet Earth still is, outside of those who have ascended as children, and it is evident by the population explosion, the Apocalypse being a true "clearinghouse" event in this planet's history.

Don't forget to try space coke in the blender and have sex with as many stunning bitches as your goddamn dick will allow, because this place is going to be ALL about temptation, and you will ALL be groomed for the party with lifetimes of legacy under your belt. Some decent god-fearing people will succeed at resisting temptation, but the Gods will facilitate temptation.

It will be the rare individual who makes the transition in an environment where you can have anything you want.

I believe those who survive these temptations must return to an Earth-like planet, for they have to begin again. Ascension must occur from planet of origin.

"Going along" will "earn" your invitation to the Second Coming of Christ. You will be reincarnated until that age comes, buy you a mere 1000 years and cost you your chance at immortality, simply because you bought into evil as "earning" and subscribed to the big lie. Not everyone will be going. They will tell some of you to ignore the Second Coming event, and it will cost you your life, ironically. Blacks, on the other hand, will be asked TO follow the Second Coming, simply because as an Italian religion blacks who pursue Christianity will die in the Apocalypse because of it. Never doubt that Muslims are your superiors. These people are dedicated to their religion while your population have abandoned churches in droves.

We no longer see orphanages for good reason::::The state would be forced to use professionals, experts in their field, to devise standards these facilities would apply to raising the children. These standards would illustrate ideal rearing goals which could set a positive example for all in society. Instead of enjoying the best possible childhood learning experience, these grossly disfavored children are instead subject to the predatory evil of the guardian with whom they are placed. This is an outstanding example of reverse positioning and how the Gods created a society where evil appears not only good but also socially acceptable. Civil Rights is a similar issue. Segregation in today's age would command full funding for black universities and full respect for well established multiple black journalism and media outlets, not this integrated white media cancer where blacks eat what they are fed. What people allow the Gods via positioning matters. Black civil rights is a good example:::: Yes, there may still be a black talk show parading the myriad of black relationship ugliness out for the world to see, but there would also be good black programming that was healthy and worthwhile. As it is, the God's Italian positioning dictates only poison for blacks via the white media, and the healthy black programming doesn't exist because of it. Such is the aftermath of Civil Right's assimilation.

Christians have mistakenly believed the perception of the Biblical definition of The Beast as a person. I suggest The Beast instead refers to a place::The San Francisco Bay Area. In fact the Gods offer a geographic clue suggesting this, like so many others they offer around the globe, to help people understand:: Mt.Diablo, "The Devil" is the "eye" of The Beast, the EastBay shoreline as the upper jaw/incisors while the peninsula is the grinding lower jaw. Witness the disturbing upturned smile in the gullet, represented my Silicone Valley. The fact than man has shaped much of the shoreline in the 20th century is a testament to the God's refusal to accept any culpability for its devastation. Gold Rush, counter-culture, alternate lifestyle acceptance, etc. The Beast was used to promote social decay throughout the 20th century and beyond. Difficult to perceive in the current age, one can understand their impacts from a historical perspective. Another feature which the Gods offer as a clue is very foreboding and ominous. Mt. Zion is a mountain to the north of Diablo and one which has a working quarry at its base. Consistant with the decay we experience in society, Mt. Zion is being eaten away, slowly stripped of its resources, until one day paradise will be gone forever.

There was a time when once the Gods "divinely" inspired punishment, where the act was inflicted by the hand of God. They were punishing people and accepting the culpability arising, maintaining societal integrity. Now, in the 20th century and beyond, the Gods tempt man to inflict this punishment, selling them on "earning", incurring no culpability in the process. The result is social decay and deterioration of mankind's favor in the eyes of the Gods leading to the Apocalypse.

The Man in The Moon is yet another of the God's clues, and it illustrates the favor the Gods could bestow upon us if we behave appropriately.

Conversely, there is also a clue in the dark side of the Moon::A side we never see and is hidden from view. Concealed by their positioning, this represents the Gods punishment when the people disobey their rules dictating the meaning of a decent life.

The Italian peninsula is very pronounced as it juts out into the Medietereanean.

Considering the shape it is quite obvious they were the primary targets of the post-IceAge/Straight of Gibraltar/Noah's Flood disaster.

Considering the shape of the boot and how Sicily "caught" the surge, the resulting tsunami inundated the entire southern portion of the peninsula, killing everything and perhaps covering even the highest land masses.

In the 20th century the Italians were convinced entering clone hosting was ascension into heaven, and their success was a recruiting tool, just as the Holocaust was for the Jews, only duress is far less damaging.

The women have God's favor, and when the women do all the evil, as was the case in my family, this serves to "equalize" the playing field, ensuring no wisdom comes to this family as they grow older. As a result they never make progress and achieve the lowest possible placement when reincarnated.

Couple years ago a story in the media how girls in Bayview-Hunter's Point were going into puberty at a progressively younger age, as young as age 7.

A very bad sign:::Early cut-off. It draws the boys attention and they subsequently make sexual mistakes, very similar to what typical people experience nearly a decade later.

When they "turn" people on and start telepathically talking to them with this technology is very similar::The end of their chance. They segment families, convince them "earning" is the way, etc.

I tell people to examine the change between when they were children and after they began to hear this technology in their head. It is the difference between good and evil.

I understand people's confusion::They literally hear "God" in their head, as opposed to what was taught to them in some church's classroom. But this technology is one of the God's tools, and much like their other tools, clone hosts and prophets (see below), they use them as temptation.

Instead of helping them, missionaries are actually HURTING people, inflicting them with westernization and Christianity. Whereas some may have seen up to a full 1% of their children ascend into heaven you pathetic white Americans can't even muster a fraction of that, and your perceived good intentions decrease that rate even further.

These people have a better chance of ascending into heaven, and Americans unwittingly are being used to reduce/eliminate this chance with their misled good intentions which deteriorate into predatory intentions as they begin to understand this, maximizing the damage they incur from the Gods.

COMPILATION PARAGRAPH:::

This IS the event. I am the telepathic prophet.

There may have been no other way in today's modern age::Use popular culture as temptation and keep teachings primarily telepathic.

The Gods must be willing to allow Artificial Intelligence to act as my "bible", repeating all teachings I have made for future generations. This will occur but I am afraid only among the miniscule minority "haves", leaving the "have-nots" lost in ignorance and cast into Damnation::We are going to have a real, full-blown Apocalypse.

Part of this societal deterioration is cloaked in the way society functions:::Two-parent working households, rushing around, constantly occupied.

Your children NEED TO SIT AND LISTEN TO THEIR THOUGHTS, FOR THIS IS the age WHEN THEY GODS COMMUNICATE THE TRUTH.

Much as with the celestial event which occurred that day on Ocean Beach, they say when I die there will be some final clue to the people suggesting my importance.

Perhaps a "Star of Bethlehem" type of event.

They say some children see a halo on my head in various brightness. These are the children who have a chance to ascend.

America and Christianity synonymous:::Punishment for Europeans.

You don't want to grill the Gods as to why something is viewed as negative or disapproved of.

The Gods have placed many things in today's society which facilitate temptation, and you can trust anything that varies from tradition or orthodoxy would be viewed as such.

The voice you hear in your head is the power of the Gods. It's a remote technology, like a computer, perhaps functioning on some frequency, and it can listen and talk to everyone in the universe simultaneously.

What the Gods taught the children was the truth::God is everywhere, and this is what they meant. I will remind you of another principle you learned as a child::If you want to go to heaven you have to be good.

Even the ancient Gods don't have the ability to listen to people's thoughts themselves. They taught we were all made in their image:: I expect they need this "Artificial Intelligence" they created to relay what people think. It is a tool, and the Gods use their tools to test people with temptation:: It will role-play people in your life:: Parents, friends, spouses, and employers, all in an attempt to test people with temptation. Ironically, it does the very same thing to those people whom you think you're hearing, except in that individual's unique way:: We are all "managed" by the God's technology. But this agent of the Gods can do more than just communicate. It can force thoughts into people's heads, force behaviors onto their bodies. It can turn healthy cells in your body into cancerous cells. It is absolute power. And this is just the beginning.

Obedience is not the answer. This is the brain-less response and the easy way out. You've done everything you have been told for years and it never bought you ANYTHING. Your parents did what they were told and it didn't buy them anything. Your grandparents did everything they were told and now they're dead, reincarnated as lesser life forms, perhaps even into America's deranged, violent ghettos. People think they are not responsible when Artificial Intelligence tells them to do something. They offered a clue with the Holocaust AND with Watergate:: Defy authority and do the right thing. In earlier decades this obedience may have been out of fear, as so often in Germany, but that era is long over. To maximize damage the Gods today sell them on "earning" and these people think they will profiteer from their evil. They offer a clue on the Simpsons with Flanders and Skinner. So many ridicule both figures, a testament to the state of our society.

The Gods favor the children most among all the people due to their innocence and purity. But society and the God's tools recently are corrupting the children at a progressively younger age, a reflection of our collectively increasing disfavor and yet another clue illustrating we live in an increasingly deteriorating environment. Children who successfully repair their relationship with the Gods ascend into heaven. This often takes multiple lives of hard work and proper behavior in the face of adversity to achieve. Adults to whom it is offered enter clone hosting instead, thinking they will be ascending into heaven ultimately. The Gods tempt people, selling them as one in the same, but one is good while the other is evil. In their desperation the disfavored subscribe to this temptation, making their task even more difficult than before due to the evil they incur in the process. And their corruption will cost the disfavored, for they will be reincarnated as a lesser life form into an ever deteriorating world, success becoming ever more allusive with each passing life. The hole they've dug for themselves is even deeper than the one that existed from their prior lives, ensuring it will take even more time and work to fix their problems with the Gods. And for many there may not be enough time left.

Ours is an environment where evil is perceived to be rewarded while good is punished. As with everything the Gods have a reason for creating this perception:::

People who fall on the good side of the good/evil scale have more favor, and when they do something wrong the Gods punish them BECAUSE THEY WANT THEM TO LEARN. The Gods want them to receive this feedback in hope they make corrections and begin to behave appropriately. The Gods DON'T like evil and refuse to grant this immediate feedback.
EVERYBODY pays for what they do wrong, only evil people must wait until the end of this or their next life before they will experience the wrath of the Gods, manifested in their placement as a lower form of life into environments with increased/enhanced temptations, like the United States or its ghettos therein.
Sadly, this allows the Gods to position this perception of evil rewarded as temptation, one which they use as an EXTREMELY effective corruptor.
Example:::Punishment for gay marriage in Iowa was immediate and painful, a sign of favor of these God-fearing, church-going Midwesterners.

The Gods suggest they can create paradise for those with their favor. I argue they create misery for those without:::
Our celebrity culture is temptation. It creates a distraction which consumes people, sometimes for life. Certainly it costs them precious years which could be spent repairing their relationship with the Gods, time that ultimately goes wasted.
Do you really think Frank Sinatra lived to be 84 years old? In fact the "Chairman of the Board" had a new crowd to entertain in the late 80s/early 90s.
These people are clone hosts. Now, there is no thing as "black and white" with the Gods. This technology they invented is far, far too dynamic. Expect they require most to stay for a period of time, for I suspect actively (knowingly) engaging in this evil incurs at an accelerated rate as compared to "carte blanche" given regarding successive clone hosts. They remain until they achieve a pre-determined level of disfavor, incurring evil in their misguided celebration of "earning", at which time they are ultimately reincarnated, perhaps because they eventually learned this truth I am sharing with you and began to repair their relationship or until the Gods became disgusted and sent them back.
No, not all celebrities are fake. Expect those who get out early in their career to likely be the real thing.
The Gods recruit most for clone hosting when people are young, in their late teens or twenties, when people are eager to hurt others for what they perceive to be the benefits achieved through "earning". And before they leave they give the Gods "carte blanche"::"Do anything you want. I give my full approval." Depending on their level of disfavor the Gods take them to heart.
Because of this these people STILL INCUR EVIL FROM THIS LIFE DESPITE BEING REINCARNATED AND LIVING AS AN ENTIRELY DIFFERENT PERSON and living in our temptation-ridden society. And incurring this amount of evil may likely push many over the edge into Damnation. What are the God's standards for offering clone hosting? Sociability? Many tactics in various eras are used to gain approval, duress during the Vietnam draft being a good example, one which deteriorated into predation as mankind's disfavor grew.

They liked Heath Ledger. Not enough to allow him to escape without the evil of "Dark Knight" and the horrific wickedness that was the recruiting tool "Brokeback Mountain". But now he is out. And irregardless of how old he is now, reincarnated 10, 15 years ago, he now is no longer incurring evil from this life. So many others cannot say the same.

This is Planet Reverse Positioning. Success IS NOT a sign of favor. It is just a unique temptation targetted towards a different level of disfavor. Considering our roots as peasantry people should be particularly alarmed at this tactic.

Clone hosting is like money::A different level of disfavor and its associated temptation. Money is in better position to learn more quickly than those without, for the associations and wealth-based freedom enables them access to information. Unfortunately, those who fall for this temptation of clone hosting are likely returned to their original lowest level of disfavor once they are reincarnated, punishment for this evil, and they have to start from scratch.

Our society's values are bestowed by (a reflection of) the God's::Punitive and reward-based. Contrary to Jesus's teaching's you will NOT be forgiven and you have to earn your way into heaven BY BEING RESPECTABLE AND DECENT!!!

Not by being evil and wicked.

Forgiveness/savior was the primary temptations the Gods used Christianity to create.

Middle-America's anti-Semitic attitudes are a clue regarding Christianity. Europe shaped like a sheep is symbolic for the slaughter that is Christinity.

Christianity is punishment for Europeans.

You ALL hate Jews::"They own banking, they control Hollywood and poison our children's minds, etc etc.") YET YOU PRAY TO ONE LIKE A GOD!!

Dislodge your head from your ass. Must you be chumps your WHOLE LIVES???

There is no such thing as a free ride. Just as you have to earn a living by working so must you earn your own salvation by repairing your relationship with the Gods.

As we learned from religious/morality education during our formative years::If you want to go to heaven you have to be good. The only savior that will exist in our lives is ourselves. The Gods offer clues in life:::Be it school, work, etc., you have to do the work for yourself and when you do something wrong you get punished. Cheating is a subsegment and speaks directly to the temptation of "priveledge", one we have seen used effectively when the United States preyed on the disfavored with the so-called "stimulus package".

As like so many of you, Jesus did everything the Gods tempted him with. His legacy of whorism was inherited from his parents::Mary was no virgin. Rather, she was a prostitute, and when he grew up Jesus met someone like his mother. This is a cruel joke the Gods play on Latinos, similar to the sexual violation and subsequent "missionary work" by the Spanish.

Baptism does not allieviate "original sin". Rather, baptism PLACES original sin by indoctrinating these children into this evil religion, much like circumcision was a method to inflict early damage/mutilation and make (permanant) accention just that much more difficult, another hurdle one must overcome. Body ornamentation (tattoos/piercing), celebrated in Africa and elsewhere among disfavored peoples/cultures, also violates the body the Gods gave us in their image, quite opposite to the positive attitudes the disfavored hold regarding this practice.

Like Jesus the Second Coming of Christ will be evil. He will look like a savior in this demented society while the Anti-Christ will speak of a different gospel, one that tries to restore the norms and mores which the Gods originally blessed upon the people which made life decent, looking like a tyrant in the process.

He will be viewed as the "bad guy" when really he is the one trying to save the world.

There may be a phoney offering, a theatrical production which accurately follows the Book of Revelations. Actually positioning demands it::::Christianity is positioned to be the one true religion. And those who follow its teachings will have limits imposed ensuring their stay will be minimal, a "consolation prize", for they don't think correctly and therefore don't behave appropriately, or perhaps will be used to colonize the new Planet Earth.

This describes many "sinners" in today's society because they refuse to change their behavior.

Christians have mistakenly believed the perception of the Biblical definition of The Beast as a person. I suggest The Beast instead refers to a place::The San Francisco Bay Area. In fact the Gods offer a geographic clue suggesting this, like so many others they offer around the globe, to help people understand::

Mt.Diablo, "The Devil" is the "eye" of The Beast, the EastBay shoreline as the upper jaw/incisors while the peninsula is the grinding lower jaw. Witness the disturbing upturned smile in the gullet.

The fact than man has shaped much of the shoreline in the 20th century is a testament to the God's refusal to accept any culpability.

Gold Rush, counter-culture, alternate lifestyle acceptance, etc. The Beast was used to promote social decay throughout the 20th century and beyond. Difficult to perceive in the current age, one can understand their impacts from a historical perspective.

There was a time when once the Gods "divinely" inspired punishment, where the act was inflicted by the hand of God. They were punishing people and accepting the culpability arising, maintaining societal integrity. Now, in the 20th century and beyond, the Gods tempt man to inflict this punishment, selling them on "earning", incurring no culpability in the process. The result is social decay and deterioration of mankind's favor in the eyes of the Gods.

Life is a test, and the Gods evaluate people based on their performance.

The Gods test people with the temptation for which they are most weak:::

Homosexuals desire sodomy, predators pursue the hunt, alcoholics crave a drink, junkies jones for dope, etc.

Addiction theory is a lie; it is Artificial Intelligence creating the desire, punishment for inappropriate behavior. Ironically, it compells people deeper into the behavior, minimizing hope for recovery.

The Gods chose Christianity for Europeans because it is the temptation to which they are most susceptible:::Entitlement. Something for nothing. A free ride. Irresponsible behavior. The United States/Western civilization's accompanying wealth contributes to this perception. And other people from throughout the world happily subscribe to this punishment designed for Europeans, assuming this legacy once assimilated. Next time you think of Muslims recognize these people are vastly superior to Christians. Whereas many throughout the Christian world no longer attend church and have fallen into Godlessness, the Muslim world worships the Gods for OVER AN HOUR EACH AND EVERY DAY.

The Gods created the perception "Italians are stupid.", ensuring a slow learning curve, to justify using them to accomplish goals throughout the transitional 20th century. It took an extraordinarily long time for them to learn this truth I teach due to this artificial handicap. These people are SO extremely disfavored, but today's positioning says differently, much to people's confusion, for they think money is the ultimate sign of favor:::Good food, good music, history of warmongering, Catholics, Christianity HQ, Noah's Flood event, propensity towards violence, sexual violation by outsiders, mild Mediterranean climate, so many other issues which enhance life/contentment in Italy/Mediterranean and ensure few if any seek more, a necessary step for finding the path and repairing your relationship with the Gods.

Contentment never motivated anyone. Money is not a sign of favor:::Wisdom is the true wealth on Planet Earth.

I'd also like to remind you the Noah's Flood event occurred in the Mediterranean region:::Global sea levels rose with the end of the ice age, Atlantic Ocean broke through the Strait of Gibraltar, killing untold millions in the cradle of western civilization. The God's timed their corruption and sin to correlate this act as punishment. The Italian peninsula is very pronounced as it juts out into the Mediterranean.

Considering the shape it is quite obvious they were the primary targets of the post-IceAge/Strait of Gibraltar/Noah's Flood disaster.

Considering the shape of the boot and how Sicily "caught" the surge, the resulting tsunami inundated the entire southern portion of the peninsula, killing everything and perhaps covering even the highest land masses.

Think about this next time you are deceived by the God's positioning of Italian wealth.

Everyone who failed to ascend and remained on Earth past a certain date will be forced to deal with this positioning:::A ceiling is in place. This serves the God's goal of minimizing the percentage of potential candidates as society deteriorates, much as "instant gratification" did beginning in the 80s:::It will take multiple lives for the disfavored to fix their relationship with the Gods and ascend, and many have been conditioned not to have the patience for it. Other issues force limits/ceilings upon candidates:::Abortion, homosexuality, promiscuity, Christianity, godlessness, Whether behavior is involuntary or based on freewill depends on one's level of disfavor, as well as other complex factors::::May I remind you about the coercitive envionment the Gods created in the 20th century, specifically to create a temptation that few Italians (or their associates) would overcome:::"We're in control. If you want to be a part of it you'll do what you're told.". Early-mid 20th entury positioning was infallible.

Both Africa and the Medittereanean are regions which have sexual issues. This is a sign of gross disfavor once you understand that females are the God's favored gender. Muhammad's (Mohammed's) polygamy halfway throught his life as a prophet was predatory, designed to corrupt. Now a huge percentage of Muslims believe in male superiority and that the abuse of women (polygamy) is God's will. Female genital mutilation is still practiced in Africa. Black misogyn

The ultimate goal of our faith is the salvation of our souls (1 Pe 1:9). God came to this earth to give the truth of salvation to us, the heavenly sinners who were doomed to eternal death. So, living a redeemed life by obeying the word of God is the greatest happiness and the biggest profit for us.

As people of Zion, we must discern things spiritually so that we will not suffer any spiritual loss but receive all the spiritual blessings, no matter what hardships we face. To obtain a treasure hidden in a field, we should buy that field even by selling all we have. Likewise, to obtain the treasure called Heaven, we must invest all we have into it—our youth, efforts, and everything else. It would be good if we could get the kingdom of heaven without any loss or damage. However, if we have to choose between two things—physical benefits and spiritual benefits, let us choose the latter so that we may not suffer spiritual loss at all. Thinking of the kingdom of heaven which is close at hand, we must all acquire it.

The spiritual loss of Saul who lost God instead of the fattened animals

In the history of the Bible, there were many foolish people who turned a way from God and forsook their faith in God because they considered physical loss greater than spiritual loss. Through the Bible, let's get wisdom on what it is to suffer spiritual loss and what the way to accumulate spiritual blessings is.

1 Sa 15:1-23 Samuel said to Saul,"I am the one the LORD sent to anoint you king over his people Israel; so listen now to the message from the LORD. This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'I will punish the Amalekites for what they did to Israel when they waylaid them as they came up from Egypt. Now go, attack the Amalekites and totally destroy everything that belongs to them. Do not spare them; put to death men and women, children and infants, cattle and sheep, camels and donkeys.'" . . . But Saul and the army spared Agag and the best of the sheep and cattle, the fat calves and lambs—everything that was good. These they were unwilling to destroy completely, but everything that was despised and weak they totally destroyed. Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel: "I am grieved that I have made Saul king, because he has turned away from me and has not carried out my instructions." . . . "But I did obey the LORD," Saul said. "I went on the mission the LORD assigned me. I completely destroyed the Amalekites and brought back Agag their king. The soldiers took sheep and cattle from the plunder, the best of what was devoted to God, in order to sacrifice them to the LORD your God at Gilgal." But Samuel replied: "Does the LORD delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the voice of the LORD? To obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed is better than the fat of rams. For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and arrogance like the evil of idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has rejected you as king."

When God poured out His wrath upon the Amalekites, He ordered Saul to totally destroy everything, even all their animals, but Saul insisted on going his own way.

So, he destroyed the animals that were weak and sick, but spared the good animals the fat calves and lambs—and brought them back alive.

If one just pursues immediate gains, he will suffer a great loss spiritually while not even realizing it. Saul also suffered an enormous spiritual loss while struggling to avoid physical loss, but he did not recognize it at all. God was grieved that He had made Saul king. Since God considered each individual soul much more precious than a sacrifice of lambs or calves, He was grieved to see Saul going far away from the way of life.

The spiritual loss that Saul suffered as a result of his disobedience was really tremendous. Although he obtained large flocks of sheep and herds of cattle, he lost God because of that, so in actuality he lost everything. The only thing that was waiting for him after he lost God was a painful time like eternal hell. After God left Saul, he was seized and tormented by an evil spirit, and in the end he met a miserable death on the battlefield.

Apart from God we can do nothing (Jn 15:5). Our disobedience to God's word is directly linked to our spiritual loss, and to obey God is the way to accumulate spiritual blessings.

Dt 28:1-6, 15-19 If you fully obey the LORD your God and carefully follow all his commands I give you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations on earth. All these blessings will come upon you and accompany you if you obey the LORD your God: You will be blessed in the city and blessed in the country. The fruit of your womb will be blessed, and the crops of your land and the young of your livestock—the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks. Your basket and your kneading trough will be blessed. You will be blessed when you come in and blessed when you go out. . . . However, if you do not obey the LORD your God and do not carefully follow all his commands and decrees I am giving you today, all these curses will come upon you and overtake you: You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the country. Your basket and your kneading trough will be cursed. The fruit of your womb will be cursed, and the crops of your land, and the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks. You will be cursed when you come in and cursed when you go out.

Disobedience always brings forth a curse, so nothing can go well. The history of Saul, who brought spiritual loss upon himself by insisting on his own thoughts instead of obeying God's word fully, teaches us an important lesson. Today, we also often stand at crossroads of choice. Sometimes we suffer spiritual loss by pursuing physical gain, and sometimes we suffer physical loss by pursuing spiritual gain. Which one is the correct choice?

The spiritual loss of Esau who sold his birthright for a bowl of lentil stew

We must regard God's word as absolute, realizing that obedience to God's word is the way to receive the greatest gain and to accumulate blessings. If we don't, we will lose even the blessings that we have already received and will regret it belatedly.

The book of Genesis introduces a case of another person who suffered spiritual loss but failed to realize it.

Ge 25:27-34 . . . Once when Jacob was cooking some stew, Esau came in from the open country, famished. He said to Jacob, "Quick, let me have some of that red stew! I'm famished!" (That is why he was also called Edom.) Jacob replied, "First sell me your birthright." "Look, I am about to die," Esau said. "What good is the birthright to me?" But Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore an oath to him, selling his birthright to Jacob. Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and some lentil stew. He ate and drank, and then got up and left. So Esau despised his birthright.

Like Esau who despised his birthright, there are many people in the world who do not realize what it is to suffer spiritual loss and neglect spiritual things. Satan always uses a little bait to take a great spiritual thing away from us. In the case of Esau, he obtained a bowl of lentil stew, but instead he lost great spiritual privileges.

Ge 27:30-37 After Isaac finished blessing him and Jacob had scarcely left his father's presence, his brother Esau came in from hunting. He too prepared some tasty food and brought it to his father. Then he said to him, "My father, sit up and eat some of my game, so that you may give me your blessing." . . . Isaac trembled violently and said, "Who was it, then, that hunted game and brought it to me? I ate it just before you came and I blessed him—and indeed he will be blessed!" When Esau heard his father's words, he burst out with a loud and bitter cry and said to his father, "Bless me—me too, my father!" . . . "Haven't you reserved any blessing for me?" Isaac answered Esau, "I have made him lord over you and have made all his relatives his servants, and I have sustained him with grain and new wine. So what can I possibly do for you, my son?"

This is a representative example of spiritual loss. Esau thought that since he was the eldest son, he would naturally receive the birthright blessing no matter what he did.

So, he simply sold his birthright to his brother Jacob without giving it much thought.

Eventually Jacob came to receive the birthright blessing in accordance with God's will. Only after losing the blessing did Esau realize its value. Then he burst out with a loud and bitter cry and begged his father Isaac to bless him too, saying, "Don't you have even a small blessing left for me?" However, it was too late.

Both Esau and King Saul did not realize the value of God's word, and that was why they suffered a tremendous spiritual loss. We must avoid spiritual loss even if we have to suffer the loss of earthly things. The New Testament also earnestly asks us not to incur any spiritual loss.

Heb 12:14-17 . . . See to it that no one misses the grace of God and that no bitter root grows up to cause trouble and defile many. See that no one is sexually immoral, or is godless like Esau, who for a single meal sold his inheritance rights as the oldest son. Afterward, as you know, when he wanted to inherit this blessing, he was rejected. He could bring about no change of mind, though he sought the blessing with tears.

We must acquire the kingdom of heaven even though we suffer any physical loss.

If we neglect the heavenly kingdom which God has given us freely, we will lose it.

Even if we beg God for mercy on the Day of Judgment, it is too late. Esau was never able to regain his birthright which he had once sold.

A blessing from God depends on how much we value God's word and how obedient we are to it. We should respect and fear the word of God. Why do you think so many people today disobey God's commandments while claiming to believe in God? They turn away from the truth described in the Bible and adhere to the rules of men. This is proof that they do not value God's word at all. Think how much more severely they deserve to be punished.

We must also be on our guard against those things since we have received the blessing of the firstborn of heaven. Although we are God's people who live in Zion, God's blessings are not given to us unconditionally, regardless of whether we obey God's word or not. Saul was a king, but he was deprived of his throne. Esau was the eldest son, but he was deprived of his birthright. Both of them failed to receive the blessings which originally belonged to them. This was the result of having lived without caring for spiritual loss.

However, Jacob valued the birthright and its blessing. So, he never missed the blessing of God even when the socket of his thigh was dislocated. Thus, God's blessing comes upon those who make every effort to receive it. While many people neglect the spiritual loss which is invisible and pursue worldly values, those who know the value of a blessing from God make more effort than others and continuously accumulate blessings. That's why the Bible says that those who forcefully advance the kingdom of heaven will enter it (Ge 32:22-30; Mt 11:12).

The spiritual loss of Judas Iscariot who betrayed Jesus for 30 pieces of silver

Let us diligently run toward the kingdom of heaven, forcefully advancing it, so that we will not lose this precious blessing of the firstborn of heaven. We should pray fervently, study God's word diligently, and preach the gospel eagerly with all our hearts and minds, and we must joyfully obey the teachings of God the Father and God the Mother above all else.

Everything goes well if we abide in God; but if we leave God, irrevocable things will happen. In one of the New Testament Gospels, we can find another person who brought an irrevocable fatal spiritual loss upon himself.

Mt 26:14-16 Then one of the Twelve—the one called Judas Iscariot—went to the chief priests and asked, "What are you willing to give me if I hand him over to you?" So they counted out for him thirty silver coins. From then on Judas watched for an opportunity to hand him over.

Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve disciples of Jesus, haggled with the chief priests over the blood price they would pay for the betrayal of Jesus. He decided to betray Jesus, who was his teacher, into the hands of His enemies for the payment of 30 silver coins. Since he committed such an infamous and heinous act—the sin of betraying God who came to save mankind—for 30 pieces of silver, how much more severely do you think he deserves to be punished for his sin?

Mt 26:47-52 While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the elders of the people. Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: "The one I kiss is the man; arrest him." Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" and kissed him. Jesus replied, "Friend, do what you came for." Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus and arrested him. With that, one of Jesus' companions reached for his sword, drew it out and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear. . . .

Judas Iscariot and Peter, although they were all disciples of Jesus, were too different from each other. While Judas was greedy for money and betrayed Jesus, Peter stood at Jesus' side and opposed the servants of the high priest when they tried to arrest Jesus. One of them continuously suffered an enormous spiritual loss, and the other continually accumulated blessings.

Afterwards, Judas Iscariot felt guilty when he saw Jesus being arrested and dragged, and he returned the 30 pieces of silver to the chief priests. However, his choice was irrevocable and he met a miserable death in the end (Mt 27:1-8; Ac 1:16-19).

Learning a lesson from their cases, we need to correctly understand what it is to suffer spiritual loss and should live according to the Spirit, following the word of God. Our life is an opportunity given us, who have been cast down to this earth as a result of committing sin in heaven, to repent of our sin—not to disobey God's will and go astray.

Faith that holds fast to spiritual blessings till the end

You may have ever read the Aesop's fable of The Fox and the Crow. One day, a fox saw a crow sitting on a branch of a tree with a piece of cheese in her beak. The fox set his wits to work to discover some way of getting the cheese.

"Hello, Mrs. Crow! How beautiful you look today! Would you please sing a song for me?" On hearing these flattering words from the fox under the tree, the crow became puffed up, and after clearing her throat, she loudly screamed: "Caw! Caw!" As soon as she opened her beak, the cheese fell to the ground, and the fox snapped it up.

Satan aims at this kind of thing. He seems to give us something, but the moment we try to grab it, he takes away everything we have. This is a trick of Satan. We must hold fast to the crown of life, which God has given us. If we let go of it to grasp worldly things, Satan does not miss the moment and takes it away from us. We must not forget this.

2 Ti 4:10-11 for Demas, because he loved this world, has deserted me and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. Only Luke is with me.

When the Apostle Paul wrote to Timothy, he expressed his anxiousness over Demas who loved the world and left God. The foolish people like Judas Iscariot, Esau and King Saul, who incurred spiritual loss upon themselves but did not realize it—they must have been weeping so bitterly.

Let us reflect upon ourselves: Have we done things that can cause spiritual loss or things that can bring forth blessings? Do we value the birthright of the firstborn of heaven? Or do we pursue the things of this world? No matter what we do, whatever may happen, we must judge everything spiritually and choose the path that will not lead to spiritual loss. So the Apostle Peter, when the Jews threatened him not to preach Jesus, said, "Judge for yourselves whether it is right in God's sight to obey you rather than God" (Ac 4:17-20). By discerning the spiritual loss and gain, we must never forsake the word of God.

If we think that we will obtain something great while disobeying God's word, it is a big misunderstanding. We can proceed toward the eternal kingdom of heaven only when we always respect Elohim and follow Them by depending on Their words and listening to Their voice. Let us never lose the birthright of the firstborn of heaven to inherit the kingdom of heaven. Just as Jacob clung to God for blessing until the socket of his thigh was dislocated, let us continuously ask God for blessings without suffering any spiritual loss and live according to God's word as children of heaven, so that we can all enter the kingdom of heaven.

Lol I dislike when people blog about stuff they no nothing about. First you lead your life not knowing anything about the bible. then, when faced with undeniable truth, you all of a sudden know the bible front to back. 2. the bible clearly testifies that unless you eat jesus body and blood you do not have eternal life. Wait, what was that? oh thats right cause you THINK you should only believe in him, yet you do not know what the bible says. how about you come study first before you begin to point fingers. GBY

I dislike how people who think they know the Bible more than anyone else get so defensive if other people may have good points that they disagree with. Are you God? Have you spoken with your "Heavenly Mother" God in person?? I highly doubt it. Until you give me valid proof you know God, none of us have any reason to take your biblical views seriously. To know about God is one thing, to truly know God is quite another. I know my God, Jesus Christ, because I have tasted of His wine and I have eaten of His flesh..... I need not do it on the day of passover, because there is no law in the Bible stating that. It simply says take eat of the bread and drink of the blood. You can assume all you want that because Jesus had the holy communion done on the passover that such is the only time we are to partake, but He didn't specifically say... therefore, do not judge if others don't partake during the time you believe it to be, for you are not Christ. If you are Christ, you would have full authority; however, you are a pitiful human being like the rest of us. Thank God for the mercy shown to us, that we might be found in Christ as holy beings worthy to worship at His feet. I pray you find the truth, that Ahn Sang Hong is a fraud and nowhere in the Bible is there ever a heavenly mother mentioned in the literal (it is indeed speaking in the metaphor). Jesus Christ will return again someday, and we must live for Him and no one else. This is the essence and core of mere Christianity. Speaking of which, please do pick up a copy of C.S. Lewis' Mere Christianity – great read. Try Screwtape Letters also.

Ephesians 2:1 As for you, you were dead in your transgressions and sins, 2 in which you used to live when you followed the ways of this world and of the ruler of the kingdom of the air, the spirit who is now at work in those who are disobedient. 3 All of us also lived among them at one time, gratifying the cravings of our flesh[a] and following its desires and thoughts. Like the rest, we were by nature deserving of wrath. 4 But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, 5 made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved. 6 And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus, 7 in order that in the coming ages he might show the incomparable riches of his grace, expressed in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. 8 For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God— 9 not by works, so that no one can boast.

Genesis 1:26 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground."

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

Revelation 19:7 Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory!
For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready.
8 Fine linen, bright and clean, was given her to wear."

(Fine linen stands for the righteous acts of the saints.)

9 Then the angel said to me, "Write: 'Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb!'" And he added, "These are the true words of God."

Revelation 21: 9 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." 10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

Matthew 22:34 Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together. 35 One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question: 36 "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?"

37 Jesus replied: "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' 38 This is the first and greatest commandment. 39 And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' 40 All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments."

Deuteronomy 6:5 Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. 6 These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. 7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. 8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. 9 Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.

Exodus 12:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt, 2 "This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year. 3 Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb for his family, one for each household. 4 If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbor, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat. 5 The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats. 6 Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the people of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight.

7 Then they are to take some of the blood and put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses where they eat the lambs.

8 That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast. 9 Do not eat the meat raw or cooked in water, but roast it over the fire—head, legs and inner parts. 10 Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it.

11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; it is the LORD's Passover.

1 Corinthians 5:7 Get rid of the old yeast that you may be a new batch without yeast—as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. 8 Therefore let us keep the Festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with bread without yeast, the bread of sincerity and truth.

John 6:53 Jesus said to them, "Very truly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day. 55 For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. 56 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in them.

Isaiah 25:6 On this mountain the LORD Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for all peoples, a banquet of aged wine—

the best of meats and the finest of wines.

7 On this mountain he will destroy the shroud that enfolds all peoples,
the sheet that covers all nations;

8 he will swallow up death forever.
The Sovereign LORD will wipe away the tears

from all faces;
he will remove the disgrace of his people
from all the earth.
The LORD has spoken.

9 In that day they will say,

"Surely this is our God;
we trusted in him, and he saved us.
This is the LORD, we trusted in him;
let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation."

Isaiah 33:20 Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals;

your eyes will see Jerusalem,

a peaceful abode, a tent that will not be moved;
its stakes will never be pulled up,
nor any of its ropes broken.

21 There the LORD will be our Mighty One.
It will be like a place of broad rivers and streams.

No galley with oars will ride them,
no mighty ship will sail them.

22 For the LORD is our judge,
the LORD is our lawgiver,
the LORD is our king;
it is he who will save us.

23 Your rigging hangs loose:
The mast is not held secure,
the sail is not spread.

Then an abundance of spoils will be divided and even the lame will carry off plunder.

24 No one living in Zion will say, "I am ill"; and the sins of those who dwell there will be forgiven.

Revelation 14:1 Then I looked, and there before me was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion, and with him 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads. 2 And I heard a sound from heaven like the roar of rushing waters and like a loud peal of thunder.
The sound I heard was like that of harpists playing their harps. 3 And they sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. 4 These are those who did not defile themselves with women, for they kept themselves pure. They follow the Lamb wherever he goes. They were purchased from among men and offered as firstfruits to God and the Lamb. 5
No lie was found in their mouths; they are blameless.

Revelation 22:1 Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb 2 down the middle of the great street of the city.
On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. 3 No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him. 4 They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. 5 There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light.

And they will reign for ever and ever.

2 Pet 3:7 By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. 8 But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day. 9 The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.

There are times of waiting that the people of faith must go through until they receive the promised blessings. They wait for the coming of God and for the delight which they will enjoy forever in the everlasting kingdom of heaven.

They also wait for the Last Judgment Day when their enemy the devil will be judged, and for the glorious day when the following prophecy will come true: "Those who have fallen asleep in faith will be raised from the dead. After that, we who are still alive and are left will be changed and meet God in the air."

Waiting requires endurance and preparation as well. Let's take some time to think about what we must wait for and what we have to prepare for while living our lives.

Faith that waits for God

The Bible tells us that we were originally angels who lived with God in heaven but got involved in the rebellion of Satan and were cast down to this earth because of our sins.

To save us who had committed sins deserving of death,

God Himself came to this earth and atoned for our sins by shedding His blood on the cross.

Thanks to the sacrifice of God, the way for the spiritual sinners to receive the forgiveness of sins and to go back to heaven has been opened.

Our souls have been eagerly waiting for God, who will redeem us, for such a long time. The object of our waiting, whom we have been earnestly longing for, is God.

2 Pe 3:11-13 Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming. That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the heat. But in keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, the home of righteousness.

"You ought to live holy and godly lives as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming." This means that we should wait for God to come as the Last Judge on this earth while living holy and godly lives. On the day when we will welcome Heavenly Father and return to our heavenly home with Heavenly Mother, our eternal days full of joy and delight will start.

Rev 21:1-5 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. . . . He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

Rev 22:1-5 Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb down the middle of the great street of the city. . . . There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign for ever and ever.

"A new heaven and a new earth," which Apostle John saw in a vision, refers to the kingdom of heaven. When the eternal kingdom of heaven comes, there will be no more death or pain or sorrow and God will let us lay down all our burdens which have given us hard times on this earth and will give us eternal joy and happiness that will never wither away and everything else we desire.

Since the Bible tells us to wait for this glorious day, we should put more hope in the eternal kingdom of heaven and give ourselves fully to the work of God. Our labor in God is never in vain (1 Co 15:58).

Let us wait for heaven while emptying ourselves

To receive what we are eagerly waiting and longing for, we need to prepare for it. When autumn comes, trees prepare themselves for the upcoming season. Autumn is the season when trees adorn themselves most beautifully than any other seasons. When they are about to throw away their thick leaves, they turn into the beautiful colors of yellow, gold and red. After radiating their beauty to the fullest like that, the trees shake off all their leaves and welcome the coming winter and spring.

Through these principles of nature, God reminds us that everything and everyone can be most beautiful when they try to throw themselves away completely. We, too, should empty ourselves filled with the disgraceful thoughts of the world and receive God fully into ourselves.

Php 3:7-9 But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, . . .

Apostle Paul forsook his thoughts, knowledge and his own self. After removing his arrogance and evil nature which obstructed him from receiving God, he decided to only have Christ within him.

As trees are most beautiful in the season when they throw themselves away, so we can become most beautiful spiritually when we empty ourselves like Paul. The trees that have completely abandoned themselves endure even a freezing north wind and a fierce snowstorm, and they greet spring when everything comes to life. This is the principle of rebirth into a new life.

Jn 3:3 In reply Jesus declared, "I tell you the truth, no one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again."

Jesus has taught us that no one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born again. In order to be reborn, we must forsake ourselves. When we throw ourselves away, we can have God within us.

When we let go of ourselves completely, God comes closer to us and becomes our treasure. To those who are born again by getting rid of all their worldly thoughts and desires, God says, "They remain in Me, and I in them," and also gives them this promise, "They will bear much fruit" (Jn 6:53-56; Jn 15:5).

Gal 2:20 I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

When we remove all worldly desires from ourselves, Christ lives in us and works in our lives; He gives us new life and controls everything—all our thoughts and minds and even our faith. Our selfishness and stubbornness that still remain within us, our arrogant mind which prevents us from realizing that we are sinners and makes us consider ourselves better than others, and our egoistic thoughts—when we get rid of all these things, we can have the mind of Mother.

Even God forsook Himself and came to this earth for us. Now, it is time for us to abandon ourselves. By removing the sinful nature from us and receiving Heavenly Father and Mother, we must have the mind of Mother within us. We will be changed beautifully when we forsake ourselves without seeking our own good, take care of our brothers and sisters, and care about their spiritual safety with the mind of Mother. That's why Apostle Paul advises us to have the mind of Christ (Php 2:5).

Heavenly children born again to have the mind of Mother

A mother is an elder in a family, but she always works like a servant. If her children soil their clothes, she washes their clothes by herself. She cleans up the room which their children have messed up, and she also cooks food for them. If her children are sick, she also nurses them all by herself. Even though she is in a much higher position and deserves to be served by her children, she only does lowly and tough work like a servant, taking care of her children.

No matter how hungry she is, she tries to feed her hungry children first.

According to rank, she deserves to eat first and then she may give her children anything left to eat. However, she never does so. She is not authoritative and does not want to be served, but rather she always yields to the lowly. It is a mother who endures the most for her children.

'Would a mother not breast-feed her hungry child? Would a mother hate her child and hurt him or her? Would a mother rest comfortably even after losing her child?' If we think about the mind of a mother carefully, we can find out what we must do. When we have the mind of a mother, we are able to obey every teaching of God described in the Bible.

God our Father has made us realize Heavenly Mother, the new Jerusalem, and let us be guided by Mother. She personally sets us an example of how to love, instructs us in everything, prays for us Her children from early in the morning even when we are unaware of it, solves the problems of so many members all around the world, and comforts them. Seeing what Mother is doing, we should also have the same mind as God our Mother.

If we have the mind of Mother, we must be able to do what Mother is doing and care for the members whom Mother is taking care of. I hope that by doing so, each and every soul will grow graciously in Zion and all the members in Zion will enter the eternal kingdom of heaven by welcoming Father without lacking anything, without any regrets, when He comes back.

When Jesus was taken up into heaven on the 40th day after His resurrection, He asked Peter three times, "Do you love me?" Then He told Peter repeatedly, even three times, "Feed my sheep and take care of them." It is the duty of all who love God to take care of God's people.

Taking care of them and feeding them spiritual food with the mind of Mother—this is our basic duty as those who have received the truth earlier.

The fruit of the Holy Spirit produced with the mind of Mother When we fully arm ourselves with the mind of God our Mother, we can easily achieve the Ten Talent Mission. If we find it hard to accomplish the mission, it is because our minds have not yet been changed. We cannot do anything if we try to do it by ourselves with our own minds.

Suppose that a mother has a missing child. The mother will be anxiously looking for her lost child, even forgetting to sleep and take a rest. There is nothing more urgent than finding her lost child. We need to examine ourselves to see if we are preaching the gospel with the earnest mind of Mother. Unless we have the same kind of earnestness in mind as Mother, it is so hard to find a soul.

Those who have the mind of Mother bear much fruit even though they are not fluent in speaking and are lacking in knowledge of the Bible. Here is a convincing example: The long-term and short-term overseas mission teams are leading so many souls to God. This shows that the gospel does not depend on our ability but the key factor is whose mind we have. Although the mission teams are not good at speaking the local languages in difficult and unfamiliar environments, people are curious about them, thinking, 'What are they preaching so eagerly?' Then they follow them to Zion and receive the truth.

It is the same with the gospel in our country. If we preach the gospel with the mind of Mother, wherever we are, it blooms and bears fruit. When we have the heart of God our Mother, we can be like the five wise virgins waiting for the bridegroom with enough oil for their lamps and can be worthy to wait for the kingdom of heaven.

On the traditional Korean holidays, many people visit their hometowns with great anticipation to see their parents and siblings. At the end of this waiting time, there will also surely be the day when we go back to our eternal heavenly home. As parents are eagerly looking forward to seeing their children, so our Elohim are earnestly waiting for us, Their children, to change beautifully and to return to our heavenly home.

Are you not curious about what kind of place the river of the water of life is, what angels look like, and what the kingdom of God looks like? Looking forward to the overwhelming joy in heaven, as it is written: "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him," let us get rid of all our evil habits and wicked personalities and always have Christ within us, so that none of us will fall behind but all will reach the kingdom of heaven. I earnestly hope that you will treat people around you with the mind of Mother in your home, church and community and lead many of them into the loving arms of God as great prophets.

"End of the world" failure – what's next for former believers?

Are you still believers? These members now realized they believe in God Almighty, but do not believe in any Harold Camping or anyone making prophecies. I don't think it's in man or a Korean women God to make wild speculations about the end times and all going to heaven. How disappointing

Reply

These members put everything they had into Camping's organization. They sold house, quit jobs and gave away everything they had because they truly believed what Harold Camping was saying. They believed everything he said and spent every single penny to help with the expense of billboards and radio programs. Now they have nothing, no home or job. They gave everything they had; both emotionally and financially to fund that organization and what do they have left. They are empty inside and empty in their pocketbooks.

"You just can't go around ruining people's lives and brain washing them like this. We don't know an exact date and time when Christ will return. Camping and a whole lot of others like the Jehovah's Witnesses and their Watchtower Bible and Tract Society have got it wrong over and over again and so also will the WMSCOG too. This is how all the members of COG will be left heartbroken and really won't know what to do. Waiting for their Elohim to come Look Ben! what a mental health expert on the scene said, "What we're going to see come out of this is a lot of people suffering from a multitude of mental illnesses ranging from mild to severe depression, schizophrenia, and possibly even worse. I wonder if the Family Radio cult is going to pay for their medical treatment. These people are going to need a lot of assistance from people who truly care for the well being, and not from some religious business organization.

Ben, it is time to stop believing the lies. The fake Mother God should repent and apologize to her followers. Very soon the COG members will say, "Our lives have been ruined. This was our fault. We didn't understand everything properly but only cut & paste. Our true bros/sister on the anti-COG blog had warned us. Regardless, everything is now a huge loss. "MJ & Ahnsahnghong is a false prophet." MJ said she gives us water of life. Now we are left dry and do not have enough money to even buy a bottle of mineral water.

BELL says "At the end of this waiting time, there will also surely be the day when we go back to our eternal heavenly home. As parents are eagerly looking forward to seeing their children, so our Elohim are earnestly waiting for us, their children, to change beautifully and to return to our heavenly home"

So does your MJ (Elohim) surely knows the day and hour when it will be time to take their children to heaven LOL

First of all thanks to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Heavenly Mother Jerusalem for everything.

Now many lives are being sacrificed in wars and terrorist attacks on one side of the earth, and on the other side of the earth various infectious diseases are emerging and spreading throughout the world. However, even though disasters are so rampant in these days, God protects and comforts us, His children, just as Jesus said, "You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed" (Mt 24:6). We give thanks to God for His grace.

Reply

Now, the gospel is being preached to the whole world. Even though a disaster occurs in a remote country, we cannot remain indifferent to it anymore.

Mother told us to pray for world peace, caring not only for our Church members but also for many people who are suffering from disasters. Keeping in mind that God considers life to be precious, let us pray for people in every country who are suffering from wars and for all the souls throughout the world who are suffering from disasters, as well as for our brothers and sisters in Zion.

Judgment by fire

The Bible prophesies of the last plagues—great and dreadful disasters. Let's look into the prophecies and see how we can pray more effectively and powerfully for world peace.

2 Pe 3:3-13 . . . By these waters also the world of that time was deluged and destroyed. By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. . . . But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare. Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming. That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the heat. But in keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, the home of righteousness.

Zep 1:14-18 The great day of the LORD is near—near and coming quickly. Listen! The cry on the day of the LORD will be bitter, the shouting of the warrior there. That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness, a day of trumpet and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the corner towers. I will bring distress on the people and they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD. Their blood will be poured out like dust and their entrails like filth. Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the LORD's wrath. In the fire of his jealousy the whole world will be consumed, for he will make a sudden end of all who live in the earth.

In the days of Noah, God punished all the wicked by waters. In the last days, God will punish all evildoers by fire. Until the prophet Zephaniah and the Apostle Peter wrote the above prophecies, there had been no fire by which the whole world could be completely destroyed. But now we live in a time of the fulfillment of all those prophecies. According to a report by experts, there are already enough nuclear weapons to destroy the world many times over, and the other weapons are also destructive and powerful enough to annihilate the earth.

The Bible also prophesies that the earth is reserved for fire. This shows that the earth will surely be destroyed by fire some day. In the days of Noah, God destroyed the world by waters. And in these last days, God says that He will judge the world by fire. We must not disregard the words of God.

An age of disasters prophesied

Recently it was reported that the Iraqi people greatly envied those who had gas masks, for fear that chemical weapons could be used during the war. Chemical weapons are odorless, so if they are used, people come to die without being aware of any abnormal symptoms until they find themselves in a fatally dangerous situation. Nowadays, various chemical weapons are being developed. Some of them are capable of causing the flesh to rot; they dissolve proteins and melt them down into liquid. Amazingly, the Bible already prophesied that.

Zec 14:1, 12-13 A day of the LORD is coming . . . This is the plague with which the LORD will strike all the nations that fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot while they are still standing on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths. On that day men will be stricken by the LORD with great panic. Each man will seize the hand of another, and they will attack each other.

In the Old Testament written long before the coming of Jesus, it has already been prophesied that people's flesh will rot while they are still standing on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths. What matters is that deadly destructive weapons capable of causing such terrible things already exist on earth. The Bible also prophesies that plagues will sweep the world in the last days.

Lk 21:10-11 Then he said to them: "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes, famines and pestilences in various places, and fearful events and great signs from heaven."

Pestilences mentioned above are also referred to as "epidemic infectious diseases." AIDS, SARS and AI [Avian Influenza], which are now hitting the whole world, are all pestilences.

See what is taking place today in the light of prophecies. Isn't it dreadful? So, we have to think about how to be saved from such disasters.

There is no escape by man's methods

If man is the "lord of all creation," he must now seek the way of salvation. The Bible teaches us that there is no way man can save himself by his own wisdom.

Am 9:1-4 " . . . those who are left I will kill with the sword. Not one will get away, none will escape. Though they dig down to the depths of the grave, from there my hand will take them. Though they climb up to the heavens, from there I will bring them down. Though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, there I will hunt them down and seize them. Though they hide from me at the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent to bite them. Though they are driven into exile by their enemies, there I will command the sword to slay them. I will fix my eyes upon them for evil and not for good."

The prophet Amos delivered this prophecy about 2,700 years ago. In those ancient times, when science was not developed, he prophesied that people would dig down to the depths of the grave, hide themselves at the bottom of the sea and climb up to the heavens. These things are taking place in this present time. Today, people are looking for shelters under the ground, at the bottom of the sea and in the outer space.

Until quite recently, underground cities were regarded as safe strongholds; some countries constructed various underground facilities for protection against nuclear war. But lately a missile, which can penetrate tens of meters into the ground, has been developed. Though men dig deep into the ground to hide themselves, they are not safe there anymore.

The Bible already prophesied about this. Even though men hide at the bottom of the sea, they cannot be safe, and even though they flee to outer space, they cannot escape the judgment of God.

There is no prophecy in the Bible that says that men can escape the Last Judgment by their own methods. We should seek and follow the way of God, rather than the methods of men.

The way of salvation God provides

God has planned to judge the wicked but to save the righteous; and He has prepared the way of salvation for the righteous.

Ps 91:5-10 You will not fear the terror of night, . . . nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday. A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you. You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked. If you make the Most High your dwelling—even the LORD, who is my refuge—then no harm will befall you, no disaster will come near your tent.

When we proclaim the way of salvation to all people in the world, it goes to prove that our prayer for world peace is true and sincere. God wants all human beings to be saved, instead of being destroyed by disasters. We should quickly proclaim the will of God to all the people of the earth (1 Ti 2:4; 2 Pe 3:9).

God said, "A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it [disaster] will not come near you." Let's see what promise or covenant God has given us, so that we can be protected from such disasters.

Ex 12:10-14 ". . . This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; it is the LORD's Passover. On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn—both men and animals—and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt. This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD—a lasting ordinance."

Passover is the feast of redemption, which implies "plagues pass over." When the Israelites were slaves in Egypt, which represents this sinful world, they could escape the plagues through the blood of the Passover lamb. This historical event was a shadow; it shows that we can escape disasters through the blood of Christ, the Passover lamb (1 Co 5:7). This is why God has given us the Passover.

God is putting a mark on the people of Zion, so that no disaster will come near them, even though a thousand may fall at their side. In the Old Testament times, God placed the blood of the lamb on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses. In the New Testament times, however, God puts a mark on the forehead of each person. Let us engrave deep in our hearts the precious covenant which God established through His blood, by taking a look at the following verses in Ezekiel which say that God will put a mark on the foreheads of His people.

Eze 9:3-6 ". . . Then the LORD called to the man clothed in linen who had the writing kit at his side and said to him, "Go throughout the city of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of those who grieve and lament over all the detestable things that are done in it." As I listened, he said to the others, "Follow him through the city and kill, without showing pity or compassion. Slaughter old men, young men and maidens, women and children, but do not touch anyone who has the mark. . . ."

The above verses show that God protects those who have the mark on their foreheads—those who celebrate the Passover, so that no disaster will come near them. In Revelation, too, which Apostle John wrote when he saw what would take place in the last days, it is prophesied that God will put a seal on the foreheads of His servants so that they can escape disasters (Rev 7:1-4).

Preaching is the best way to world peace

When we see all the things happening in the world these days, we can see that all prophecies in the Bible are being fulfilled one after another. Now, many prophesied disasters such as wars and epidemics are being poured out. We should pray to God for the peace of all people in the world. The Bible also says that the prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective (Jas 5:16).

Then, what should be the content of our prayer for world peace? We should not only pray for people who are suffering from disasters that are occurring now, but we should also tell them why God brings such disasters upon the earth today. In addition, we have to preach the good news of peace to them, so that they may quickly come into the truth of the new covenant to receive salvation. This is the best prayer that can bring peace to mankind.

Eze 33:1-6 The word of the LORD came to me: "Son of man, speak to your countrymen and say to them: 'When I bring the sword against a land, and the people of the land choose one of their men and make him their watchman, and he sees the sword coming against the land and blows the trumpet to warn the people, then if anyone hears the trumpet but does not take warning and the sword comes and takes his life, his blood will be on his own head. Since he heard the sound of the trumpet but did not take warning, his blood will be on his own head. If he had taken warning, he would have saved himself. But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet to warn the people and the sword comes and takes the life of one of them, that man will be taken away because of his sin, but I will hold the watchman accountable for his blood.' "

Isa 52:7 How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news, who proclaim peace, who bring good tidings, who proclaim salvation, who say to Zion, "Your God reigns!"

God has made us spiritual watchmen. For the peace of the world, we must blow loud the trumpet of warning and of salvation as well.

"Please come to Zion quickly and receive the seal of salvation through the truth of God" Preaching this good news of salvation to people is truly required of all those who pray for world peace. The greatest help for the souls who are suffering is leading them to salvation through preaching. With sincere prayers, we should preach God's word to them and lead them to the right path. This is the most urgent thing we have to do, as an expression of our sincere prayer for the peace of the world.

We have to blow the trumpet of salvation loud to the whole world, so that God's grace and blessings will come upon all people on the earth and they will receive the seal of God through the Passover, the absolute only way to become God's people. Earnestly hoping that the hearts of those who hear will be opened wide through our sincere prayers and they will all return to God, let us pray for the people of the world who are suffering without knowing God and the truth.

All our brothers and sisters in Zion! Let us pray eagerly that we can lead all people around the world to the eternal kingdom of heaven where there is no war or pain—to the kingdom of peace! Would Elohim not listen to the prayer that we, Their children, offer to Them? I would like to ask you to earnestly pray for world peace and preach the truth of the new covenant to all people throughout the world, so that God's grace may dwell in their hearts.

My wife and I got baptized in this church. I went with her and got baptized hoping that it would make our lives and our marriage better. I trusted my wife that much. We been having challenges with our marriage for the first two years just like any newly married couple. During the lowest moment of our marriage life, a high school friend of my wife – Rose, visited our house and started preaching the bible to my wife. She brought with her husband along. (This same Rose by the way abandoned us during our wedding when she was supposed to be a bridesmaid without telling us the real reason why).

Everything started fine in the beginning. They were friendly and welcoming. Not until I noticed something weird. I started noticing that Rose is asking so many financial favors from my wife. She would ask for food donations and other needs of her children from my wife. The worst part is, she started convincing my wife to resign from her job and start working full time in the church. My wife is a very sociable person and has a lot of friends. She can really be a good asset to the church. I think this is what they are banking on.

The saddest part is, my wife shares our most intimate secret to Rose. For some reason, she can't say no to Rose. Whenever Rose needs something, she would be dying to fulfill it. My wife spends most of her time in the church together with the Korean women. She has become an irresponsible wife (she wouldn't have sex with me because Heavenly Mother says no), an irresponsible mother (she would rather be in the church than take care of our 3 month old son), an irresponsible daughter (she doesn't listen to the advice of her own mother). She has become fanatic, unreasonable and close to being a crazy woman. Whenever she is at home, she scolds the maids, become easily irritated with something and is always against me. She would say bad words to me and even to her own mother. She hurts our feelings all the time. Every Saturday, which is their Sabbath, she is in the church for 12 hours. When I ask her to go home and have lunch with us, she wouldn't. She has become so hard-headed. My wife started discriminating other religions and calls Catholics as children of the devil 666. The church believes that the Pope is the 666 – the leader of Satanism and all Catholics and others religions are Satanic. This is the reason why Rose did not appear on our wedding day. Church of God – second coming Jesus believes that all other churches are Satan's home.

The Korean pastors in the Church doesn't speak English very well and doesn't convince me at all. They pick up passages in the bible here and there and connect it to their own preference (doctrine). It leaves the whole concept of the bible behind. So I ended up reading the rest of the verses that they neglect. Most of the members of the Church are women. There are only a handful of married guys including me. Most of the women are not in good terms with their husbands. How did I know it? They give testimonies during services and they are proud that they disobeyed their husbands.

Rose's husband is the leader of the men's group. Whenever we have a meeting after the sermon, he would just repeat what the pastor said. There is nothing more.

I had a fight with Rose over the phone because I couldn't bare anymore what is happening. She and her husband called me a demon and threatened to invade our house with force. She accused of me so many things and blurted out all our marital secrets that she learned from my wife. This shocked me. I couldn't believe this is happening.

The incident made me realize that this religion is something that is not Godly. I stopped going to the church they call Zion. It is the a devil's lair. It destroys families and marriages. It destroys the norms in the society and I wonder why my wife is so engrossed with it. I am so sad. I arrived at the thought that there must be something in the food that they make us eat.

I talked with the pastor and again he doesn't seem to understand what I'm saying because his English is very poor.

My wife right now is still possessed and all of us including her relatives and friends are praying for her recovery. She has become worst than a drug addict. She lies all the time and scapes from her respsibilities just so she can go with these Koreans. A lot of people are talking her out of it but her mind is already closed. When we talk to her, she looks drugged. She couldn't understand basic right and wrong.

As of late, mwife secretly booked a flight to Korea to visit their so called Heavenly Mother. I am shocked again. Another lie from my wife.

This religion is a destruction to mankind. Please if you see these Koreans on the streets, beware of them. Do not let them get into you or you all will end up the worst that you could imagine. I am unhappy and sad with my marriage because of this religion. They have transformed my wife to a leader of the women's group without my knowledge. My wife is still spending all her time in the house church. She cleans the house church, cook (which she rarely does at home) and preach the bible together with the Koreans. My only happiness right now is my son whom I take good care of.

To all of you out there, please help me pray for my wife's recovery from this cult. Thank you.

Rob, everytime I read stories like yours my heart breaks, and I feel so angry at this demonic cult and the destruction they do. People can't see how clearly demonic it is, even with how much damage and destruction they do to those around them because the demon spirits of that church are blinding them.

The only way is to pray for your wife to have a true encounter with the Lord. When He lifts the blindness from her eyes, then she can start to become free. I'll pray for you and your wife; as for what you can do keep telling her that Jesus loves her and that you love her too. Love can break through the deception when coupled with prayer; this is what I believe.

Take care, and join a support group if you can. No one can battle this demon cult by themselves. God bless you Rob.

Rob, I'm so sorry. My son just joined the group and I'm not giving up on him. He invited me to bible study and the sabbath. Have you heard of the phrase "keep your friends near but keep your enemies closer"? That's what I intend to do. I am studying their beliefs and doing all the research and seeking both professional and spiritual help so I am stronger with knowledge.

Then I'm going in with the hope of exposing their lies and deception. My son isn't completely lost to them – they have partial control of his mind, but his heart is still his.

My husband and I are going to counseling so we can develop a plan on how to fight this.

There is intervention out there – start by calling a professional psychiatrist who has experience with cult intervention. I know you choose to take extreme methods to save her.

I will continue to update the blog and am determined to win this. They chose the wrong child/family to mess with.

God bless you and your family – don't give up hope.

study the bible. Their beliefs are their own, all man-made, based on their anti-christ leader. They dont understand the holy trinity, and thus worship another "female" god, it is idolatry. There church is cursed, and I hope the members can get out while they still can. They don't understand the word of God whatsoever. This is one of many signs of the end-times written of in Matthew 24 and other chapers. Whatch out for this doomsday CULT.

These days, the members of Zion are diligently preaching the truth even in far-off countries overseas where the gospel has not yet reached. They are leaving truly meaningful footprints in time which never returns if it passes by. Even in various difficult circumstances, they are all leading many souls into the arms of Father and Mother. By doing that, they are writing the "New Acts" with their touching emotions and beautiful actions, which no other novelist can write.

Of course, the members of Zion in our own country are also participating in overseas missions by praying together with one mind for those who are preaching overseas, from early in the morning. I believe this is also a beautiful act of faith to participate in the gospel work Father and Mother are accomplishing.

When we look at the people described in the Bible, some received the blessing of eternal life as the result of living for the gospel, while others reached eternal destruction after living according to their own desires. There were the forefathers of faith like David and Apostles Peter and Paul, who had set the beautiful examples of the life of faith for us to follow, whereas there were also foolish people like Judas Iscariot, who ruined his life because of a moment's wrong decision, and like Demas who loved the world and deserted the truth.

Yesterday never returns, and today is the same. Let's take a look at the forefathers of faith who had lived a wonderful life for the gospel, and think about how to live our life more meaningfully.

Apostle Paul who had lived a life without regrets in the gospel

Apostle Paul knew intuitively that the time had come for him to leave this world after finishing his mission on this earth. So, when writing a letter to Timothy, Paul said he was proud that he had lived a valuable and meaningful life without any regret or shame.

2 Ti 4:6-8 For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time has come for my departure. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Whenever I read these verses, I truly envy the life of Paul who was able to confidently say that he had no regrets because if he lived, he lived for the Lord, and if he died, he would die for the Lord. I hope all of us also live a wonderful life which will be recorded so beautifully. We have only one life to live. Since we cannot live any moment of our life twice, we should spend the time given to us more meaningfully for God and for the eternal kingdom of heaven. Let's listen more to the Apostle Paul who ran the path of righteousness to the fullest without any regrets and kept the faith till the end.

2 Ti 4:1-5 "In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I give you this charge: Preach the Word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction . . . But you, keep your head in all situations, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, discharge all the duties of your ministry."

Paul recommended that we should always make efforts to do the meaningful work of preaching the Word. We cannot turn back time that has already passed, so we must not have the thought: 'I'd like to do worldly things to my heart's content and then do the gospel work when I gain some composure in life.' Our life is too short to waste time on worthless things. Let us do our best to live a life without any shame before God when we look back at every moment of our life.

In order for us to be able to say that we have walked the path of faith without regrets, as Paul did, when we stand before God after our life on this earth, we must not conform any longer to the pattern of this world but only think about what God's will is and willingly obey God's word all the time, as children of heaven.

Ro 12:1-3 Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual act of worship. Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will. . . .

While pursuing the same values as the people of the world, we cannot live a life without regrets before God. If we live our life pursuing worldly things, we are just like the person who feels thirsty and drinks seawater; the seawater causes him to feel more thirsty. Likewise, the more our earthly desires are satisfied, the more thirsty we feel.

However, the water of life, which God gives us, never makes us feel thirsty again once we drink it. Our members in Zion are experiencing joy and happiness through this water of life, and they realize the feeling of joy and happiness cannot be replaced by anything else in the world. I hope all people living in our time will feel this joy and happiness together.

Let us all plan to live our one and only life for the eternal gospel of the kingdom of God, so our life can be wonderful. We need to throw away the thought, 'I will do it when my circumstances permit,' or, 'I will start tomorrow.' Only those who have the will to start "right now" can do this work and make their life beautiful.

The mission of Joshua and a lesson from it

The Bible has many records about the life and work of the forefathers who walked the wonderful and beautiful path of faith by the grace of God. One of them is Joshua, who carried out his mission with all his heart and soul in obedience to the will of God.

Joshua became the leader of Israel after the death of Moses. When he arrived in the promised land of Canaan flowing with milk and honey, he waged war against the Canaanites to conquer their land and to divide it by lot to each tribe of Israel. Let's look at the history of the fall of Jericho, which served as a prelude to the conquest of Canaan in accordance with the guidance of God.

Jos 6:1-16 Now Jericho was tightly shut up because of the Israelites. No one went out and no one came in. Then the LORD said to Joshua, "See, I have delivered Jericho into your hands, along with its king and its fighting men. March around the city once with all the armed men. Do this for six days . . . On the seventh day, march around the city seven times, with the priests blowing the trumpets. When you hear them sound a long blast on the trumpets, have all the people give a loud shout; then the wall of the city will collapse . . ." . . . But Joshua had commanded the people, "Do not give a war cry, do not raise your voices, do not say a word until the day I tell you to shout. Then shout!" . . . On the seventh day, they got up at daybreak and marched around the city seven times in the same manner, except that on that day they circled the city seven times. The seventh time around, when the priests sounded the trumpet blast, Joshua commanded the people, "Shout! For the LORD has given you the city!"

The God-given strategy to conquer the fortified city of Jericho was to shout all at once the moment they were told to "shout." By obeying the word of God, the Israelites experienced the miracle of Jericho falling down before their very eyes, and they won a victory (Jos 6:20). Prophetically, we are now in the same situation. The shout which the Israelites gave just before the fall of Jericho is just like the shout that the people of Zion, who have been sent to every region of the world, are giving to lead many souls to repentance before the fall of the spiritual Babylon. The parade of the members who shout the truth of the new covenant will continue towards the whole world, so that there will not even be a single country which the message of the gospel has not been preached to.

Our path is not smooth all the time. Just as the people of Jericho shut the gates of the fortress tightly because they were afraid of the Israelites, the devil in the invisible spiritual world will try to hinder the truth by every means possible because he is afraid that the glory of God will shine bright throughout the world.

However, the water of life is now continuously flowing all over the world, just as it is impossible to stop water flowing once the embankment bursts. Since the members are participating in the gospel with a resolution to live their one and only life for the gospel, even those with weak faith are moved and awakened, so they are now shouting together with one voice. Through the history of the time of Joshua, let's look into the status of the gospel in this age, so that we can fully carry out our God-given mission.

Joshua who followed God's will till the end

Even after conquering Jericho, Joshua continued to follow God's will; he drove out many emigrant peoples from Canaan and distributed the conquered land among the tribes of Israel. As he had a premonition of his death after finishing his mission on this earth, he lastly taught the Israelites never to leave God.

Jos 23:1-11 After a long time had passed and the LORD had given Israel rest from all their enemies around them, Joshua, by then old and well advanced in years, summoned all Israel—their elders, leaders, judges and officials—and said to them: "I am old and well advanced in years . . . you will take possession of their land, as the LORD your God promised you. Be very strong; be careful to obey all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, without turning aside to the right or to the left . . . do not invoke the names of their gods or swear by them. You must not serve them or bow down to them . . . So be very careful to love the LORD your God."

Jos 24:14-18 "Now fear the LORD and serve him with all faithfulness. Throw away the gods your forefathers worshiped beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD . . . But as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD." Then the people answered, "Far be it from us to forsake the LORD to serve other gods! It was the LORD our God himself who brought us and our fathers up out of Egypt, from that land of slavery, and performed those great signs before our eyes. He protected us on our entire journey and among all the nations through which we traveled . . . We too will serve the LORD, because he is our God."

Joshua declared that he would serve only Jehovah until the last moment. He was always with God throughout his lifetime. And in his last will to the Israelites, he asked them not to foolishly lose eternal things while worshiping idols or pursuing worldly wealth or fame, which is vain and meaningless, but to live their lives given by God meaningfully. He lived a true life of faith without any regrets, always walking with God.

It was not only Joshua who lived such a faithful life. Apostle Paul devoted his whole life to preaching the gospel with a determination to live only for God and to nestle in His everlasting arms. So did the warriors of Gideon, Daniel and his friends—Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. Moreover, the saints of the early Church kept the faith without even fearing death and without yielding to any threat. They all lived a truly meaningful and rewarding life.

Let us overcome hardship and live a life for the gospel without regrets

Life is given only once. Judas Iscariot, who took a wrong step in life and followed the devious way, finally ended up in irretrievable and eternal destruction. If he had been given one more chance in life, he would not have made the same mistake again. However, there was no more opportunity for him.

Even though the apostles, including Peter and Paul, walked the path of the gospel in the midst of hardship and affliction, they continued to follow Jesus' words, "You have to take your cross and follow Me in order to be worthy of Me," and as a result, they had no regrets in their life just before their death. They were confident that there was now in store for them the crown of righteousness in heaven because they had fought the good fight to the fullest and finished the race of faith by helping many souls repent and leading them into the arms of God. So they testified that they had lived their lives without any regrets even though they had gone through many dangers.

2 Co 11:24-30 Five times I received from the Jews the forty lashes minus one. Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, I spent a night and a day in the open sea, I have been constantly on the move. I have been in danger from rivers, in danger from bandits, in danger from my own countrymen, in danger from Gentiles; in danger in the city, in danger in the country, in danger at sea; and in danger from false brothers. I have labored and toiled and have often gone without sleep; I have known hunger and thirst and have often gone without food; I have been cold and naked . . . If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness.

The life of Apostle Paul was a series of many dangers and hardships just as he confessed. In spite of the repeated sufferings, he walked with God till the end, so he was able to smile in the last moments of his life.

During his one and only life, Paul made a gracious choice to proceed toward the eternal glory of heaven and ran diligently toward the goal. Like Paul and many forefathers of faith, we should also live a meaningful life, so that we will not have any regrets when we go to heaven. For this, let us pray fervently and try our hardest.

God has given us a precious and good way—a once-in-a-life-time opportunity. Even if we took our first step of faith without realizing it fully, the path we are on is the way to the kingdom of heaven, the way to eternal life and salvation, and the way to the glorious future.

There will be nothing more rewarding than being able to live our one and only life fully for the glory of Elohim and to end our life on this earth in God's grace while proclaiming the glory of Jerusalem to the whole world.

Father and Mother have granted us the opportunity to awaken all people around the world with the truth and lead them to salvation, starting with our neighbors. I earnestly ask you, people of Zion, to renew your mind by looking ahead into the glorious future of the kingdom of heaven and to live your one and only life faithfully for the gospel.

Christ Ahnsahnghong restored the Tree of Life for our salvation.

God has given mankind the Bible in order to ultimately save their souls. Through the Bible, we must meet God our Savior.

The Bible contains many parables. Among them, the history of the Garden of Eden in the book of Genesis shows us how men committed sin in heaven and were cast down to the earth. If we realize the true meaning hidden in this parable, we will be able to break the chain of death that binds us.

The Bible says that there are two kinds of people: those who are given the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, and those who are not (Mt 13:10-16). Those who are given the knowledge of the secrets are indeed blessed; they are given the promise of entering the kingdom of heaven.

The sin of eating from the tree of knowledge of good and evil, and the tree of life

When we study the history of the Garden of Eden, we can see that God commanded Adam and Eve not to eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, but they ate the forbidden fruit, being tempted by the serpent, and came to die after all.

Ge 3:1-6 "You will not surely die," the serpent said to the woman. "For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it.

The serpent represents the devil (Rev 12:9). The devil, who is crafty and knows the psychological weaknesses of human beings, approached them and tempted them to commit sin and die.

Actually, the story of Adam and Eve who sinned in the Garden of Eden is a recomposed story of us who sinned in heaven; it helps us understand how we sinned in heaven. All human beings, who are born on this earth, are destined to die because of their sins like Adam and Eve. However, there was the tree of life in the Garden of Eden; if anyone ate from the tree, he would live even though he was once doomed to die because of eating from the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

Ge 3:22-24 And the Lord God said, "The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live forever." So the Lord God banished him from the Garden of Eden to work the ground from which he had been taken. After he drove the man out, he placed on the east side of the Garden of Eden cherubim and a flaming sword flashing back and forth to guard the way to the tree of life.

God drove Adam and Eve, who had sinned, out of the Garden of Eden and let cherubim guard the way to the tree of life with a flaming sword.

Forgiveness of sins given through the shedding of blood

As Adam bitterly lamented after losing the tree of life, God showed him the way to eat from the tree of life again (Heb 11:4, 13). Adam testified this truth to his sons. Cain did not accept the truth and offered the products of the soil, but Abel obeyed the truth and sacrificed a lamb with its blood symbolizing the precious blood of Christ. God refused Cain's offering and only accepted Abel's sacrifice (Ge 4:1-5).

Heb 9:22 In fact, the law requires that nearly everything be cleansed with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

Abel offered a blood sacrifice to God, while Cain presented some of his crops as an offering to Him in his own way. That was why God did not accept Cain's offering. The Bible says that without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness. So, people had to offer a sacrifice with the shedding of blood when they asked God for forgiveness of sins, so that they could be freed from the sin of eating from the tree of knowledge of good and evil and could eat from the tree of life.

The practice of the blood-shedding sacrifice, which had been handed down from generation to generation since Abel, was codified in the time of Moses, and it was in the sanctuary that the blood sacrifice was made in accordance with the Law of Moses.

Ex 25:9-21 "Make this tabernacle and all its furnishings exactly like the pattern I will show you. Have them make a chest of acacia wood . . . Then put in the ark the Testimony, which I will give you. Make an atonement cover of pure gold . . . The cherubim are to have their wings spread upward, overshadowing the cover with them. The cherubim are to face each other, looking toward the cover. Place the cover on top of the ark and put in the ark the Testimony, which I will give you."

The sanctuary, where sacrifices were made every day, was partitioned into two parts: the outer room called the "Holy Place," and the inner room called the "Most Holy Place." In the Most Holy Place was placed the ark of the covenant, and there were two cherubim above the cover of the ark, called the "Mercy Seat."

The two cherubim, who had guarded the way to the tree of life in Eden, were stationed over the ark of the covenant. This suggests that the tree of life was in the ark of the covenant. The two cherubim who guarded the ark of covenant also had a flaming sword. So, when Uzzah put his hand on the ark by mistake, he was killed; and when the two sons of Aaron violated the command of God, a fire came out of the ark and devoured them to death (2 Sa 6:1-7; Lev 10:1-3).

Only the high priest could enter the Most Holy Place once a year; but without the shedding of blood, he couldn't enter. God accepted the sacrifice of Abel because he offered the blood-shedding sacrifice to Him. Likewise, the shedding of blood was required when the high priest entered the Most Holy Place where the guardian cherubim were stationed. All these laws of the Old Testament were a copy and shadow of the realities that would come in the future.

Heb 10:1-4 The law is only a shadow of the good things that are coming—not the realities themselves. For this reason it can never, by the same sacrifices repeated endlessly year after year, make perfect those who draw near to worship. . . . because it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

Heb 10:9 Then he said, "Here I am, I have come to do your will." He sets aside the first to establish the second.

Heb 10:16-20 "This is the covenant I will make with them after that time, says the Lord. I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds." Then he adds: "Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more." And where these have been forgiven, there is no longer any sacrifice for sin. . . . by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body,

The law of the Old Testament, which was a shadow, never made perfect the people of God. Only the blood of Christ, who was the reality of sacrifice, could bring them the perfect forgiveness of sins. So, God abolished the old covenant and established the new covenant through the blood of Christ.

Jesus is the reality of the sanctuary and the ark of the covenant

The provisions of the Law, given to Moses by God, seem to be complicated at first sight, but in them there is God's providence for the forgiveness of our sins.

Heb 9:1-5 Now the first covenant had regulations for worship and also an earthly sanctuary. A tabernacle was set up. In its first room were the lampstand, the table and the consecrated bread; this was called the Holy Place. Behind the second curtain was a room called the Most Holy Place, which had the golden altar of incense and the gold-covered ark of the covenant. This ark contained the gold jar of manna, Aaron's staff that had budded, and the stone tablets of the covenant . . .

When the Israelites were in the desert, they could not build a fixed temple because they had to move very often, so they had a tabernacle [sanctuary] built according to the pattern of the temple. Jesus said that His body was the temple.

Jn 2:19-21 The Jews replied, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and you are going to raise it in three days?" But the temple he had spoken of was his body.

The reality of the temple was Jesus. In this temple [sanctuary] was the ark of the covenant which contained the gold jar of manna, Aaron's staff that had budded, and the stone tablets of the covenant which Moses had received from God. Considering the fact that the two cherubim were guarding the ark, we can clearly see that the ark of the covenant or the three sacred things inside it symbolize the tree of life, that is, Christ. First, let's confirm that the manna represents Christ.

Jn 6:31-35 "Our forefathers ate the manna in the desert; as it is written: 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'" . . . Then Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty."

The Israelites had eaten manna from heaven while sojourning in the desert for 40 years until they entered the land of Canaan. This manna was put in a gold jar, and it was placed in the ark of the covenant. As Jesus testified that "I am the bread of life," the manna represents Jesus who is life.

Second, let's think about the meaning of Aaron's staff that had budded. God distinguished Aaron as the high priest through this staff (Nu 17:1-11). Then, why did God place the staff, which was a symbol of the high priest, in the ark of the covenant?

Heb 5:8-10 Although he was a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered and, once made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him and was designated by God to be high priest in the order of Melchizedek.

The sprouted staff of Aaron was also a symbolic representation of Jesus, which showed that Jesus would come to the earth as the high priest. Lastly, let's find out the reason why God had the stone tablets put in the ark of the covenant.

Jn 1:1-14 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. . . . The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

Jesus is God, the Word that came in the flesh. So, the tablets of the covenant also represent Jesus, who is God—the Word.

God stationed two cherubim on the cover of the ark of the covenant to guard the manna, Aaron's staff and the tablets of the covenant. This showed that Jesus would appear as the reality of the tree of life that the cherubim were guarding.

The tree of life given through the Passover

Jesus Himself testified that He is the reality of the tree of life.

Jn 6:53-57 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me."

God said He would give us the tree of life to eat. This will be the only good news for human beings, who are destined to die because of eating from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life." By saying this Jesus meant that He would allow us to eat from the tree of life.

It was God who let the cherubim guard the way to the tree of life so that sinners could not approach it. So, no one except God can open the way to the tree of life again and save us, sinners. Jesus promised us eternal life through His precious flesh and blood. Therefore, without a doubt, Jesus is God Himself. He taught us how to eat His flesh and drink His blood while establishing the Passover of the new covenant, saying, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer" (Mt 26:17-28; Mk 14:12-24; Lk 22:7-20).

However, Satan, who hates the truth of the tree of life, instigated people to raise controversy over the Passover three times—in A.D. 155, A.D. 197 and A.D. 325—and finally abolished the Passover during the Council of Nicaea. The Passover, which the Eastern Churches regarded as very important and celebrated continuously, was abolished; instead, Easter, the first Sunday after the Passover, was celebrated, as determined by the Western Churches.

This was the fulfillment of Daniel's prophecy that the one who spoke against God would change the set times and the laws of God (Da 7:25). However, there was also a prophecy that God would come again and restore the truth of life—the Passover of the new covenant, which was trampled on by Satan.

Although there were numerous theologians who studied the Bible over centuries, none of them could realize the truth of the Passover. It's because the tree of life can only be given by God.

God who opened the way to the tree of life

Anyone could not enter the Most Holy Place where the tree of life was placed, but only the high priest could enter there once every year. Jesus came as the high priest in the order of Melchizedek and opened the way to the tree of life.

Heb 6:17-20 . . . We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, where Jesus, who went before us, has entered on our behalf. He has become a high priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek.

The blood of all the animals, which were offered in sacrifice to God in the sanctuary in the Old Testament times, represented the blood of Christ. He came as the high priest in the order of Melchizedek, and through His precious blood He tore the curtain that separated the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place in the sanctuary. By doing so, Jesus opened the way to the Most Holy Place so that anyone could enter it and come to the tree of life.

The Bible says that Christ, who came to this earth to give mankind life 2,000 years ago, is to come a second time for the same purpose—to give us life, to bring salvation to us.

Heb 9:28 so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

So, the Second Coming Christ is to bring us the truth of the tree of life—the Passover. By doing that, He is to open all the secrets, which have been sealed from the time of the Garden of Eden until this age of the Holy Spirit.

Those who are not allowed to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven will not understand them; though seeing, they will not see; though hearing, they will not hear. In the days of Jesus, the Pharisees and the teachers of the law did not recognize Jesus, but some fishermen and shepherds who took care of the sheep in the field recognized Him. Even though they were lower in social standing, they recognized God and worshiped Him correctly, so that they were all blessed. Like them, we are very blessed because we are given the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven in this age.

The Bible testifies that the One who gives us eternal life through the aged wine is our God (Isa 25:6-9). Christ Ahnsahnghong has restored the Passover of the new covenant, which has been hidden for a long time since A.D. 325. Surely, He is our Savior in this age, whom we have been waiting for.

God has come to this earth and made known to us all the secrets of the kingdom of heaven in order to save us, sinners, who were expelled from heaven after eating from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil and destined to die forever. I earnestly hope that we, children of God, will all receive the blessing of the forgiveness of sins, given by our God Ahnsahng Hong who has brought the tree of life, and will return to the eternal kingdom of heaven.

world mission church of god is not a church. it is a brainwashing cult.

my wife is there. all she does now everyday is going to church. day and night. study and preach.

she does not care about anything else. church is priority over anything else now. It is really bad.

The ultimate goal of our faith is the salvation of our souls (1 Pe 1:9). God came to this earth to give the truth of salvation to us, the heavenly sinners who were doomed to eternal death. So, living a redeemed life by obeying the word of God is the greatest happiness and the biggest profit for us.

As people of Zion, we must discern things spiritually so that we will not suffer any spiritual loss but receive all the spiritual blessings, no matter what hardships we face. To obtain a treasure hidden in a field, we should buy that field even by selling all we have. Likewise, to obtain the treasure called Heaven, we must invest all we have into it—our youth, efforts, and everything else. It would be good if we could get the kingdom of heaven without any loss or damage. However, if we have to choose between two things—physical benefits and spiritual benefits, let us choose the latter so that we may not suffer spiritual loss at all. Thinking of the kingdom of heaven which is close at hand, we must all acquire it.

The spiritual loss of Saul who lost God instead of the fattened animals

In the history of the Bible, there were many foolish people who turned a way from God and forsook their faith in God because they considered physical loss greater than spiritual loss. Through the Bible, let's get wisdom on what it is to suffer spiritual loss and what the way to accumulate spiritual blessings is.

1 Sa 15:1-23 Samuel said to Saul, "I am the one the LORD sent to anoint you king over his people Israel; so listen now to the message from the LORD. This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'I will punish the Amalekites for what they did to Israel when they waylaid them as they came up from Egypt. Now go, attack the Amalekites and totally destroy everything that belongs to them. Do not spare them; put to death men and women, children and infants, cattle and sheep, camels and donkeys." . . . But Saul and the army spared Agag and the best of the sheep and cattle, the fat calves and lambs—everything that was good. These they were unwilling to destroy completely, but everything that was despised and weak they totally destroyed. Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel: "I am grieved that I have made Saul king, because he has turned away from me and has not carried out my instructions." . . . "But I did obey the LORD," Saul said. "I went on the mission the LORD assigned me. I completely destroyed the Amalekites and brought back Agag their king. The soldiers took sheep and cattle from the plunder, the best of what was devoted to God, in order to sacrifice them to the LORD your God at Gilgal." But Samuel replied: "Does the LORD delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the voice of the LORD? To obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed is better than the fat of rams. For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and arrogance like the evil of idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has rejected you as king."

When God poured out His wrath upon the Amalekites, He ordered Saul to totally destroy everything, even all their animals, but Saul insisted on going his own way.

So, he destroyed the animals that were weak and sick, but spared the good animals the fat calves and lambs—and brought them back alive.

If one just pursues immediate gains, he will suffer a great loss spiritually while not even realizing it. Saul also suffered an enormous spiritual loss while struggling to avoid physical loss, but he did not recognize it at all. God was grieved that He had made Saul king. Since God considered each individual soul much more precious than a sacrifice of lambs or calves, He was grieved to see Saul going far away from the way of life.

The spiritual loss that Saul suffered as a result of his disobedience was really tremendous. Although he obtained large flocks of sheep and herds of cattle, he lost God because of that, so in actuality he lost everything. The only thing that was waiting for him after he lost God was a painful time like eternal hell. After God left Saul, he was seized and tormented by an evil spirit, and in the end he met a miserable death on the battlefield.

Apart from God we can do nothing (Jn 15:5). Our disobedience to God's word is directly linked to our spiritual loss, and to obey God is the way to accumulate spiritual blessings.

Dt 28:1-6, 15-19 If you fully obey the LORD your God and carefully follow all his commands I give you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations on earth. All these blessings will come upon you and accompany you if you obey the LORD your God: You will be blessed in the city and blessed in the country. The fruit of your womb will be blessed, and the crops of your land and the young of your livestock—the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks. Your basket and your kneading trough will be blessed. You will be blessed when you come in and blessed when you go out. . . . However, if you do not obey the LORD your God and do not carefully follow all his commands and decrees I am giving you today, all these curses will come upon you and overtake you: You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the country. Your basket and your kneading trough will be cursed. The fruit of your womb will be cursed, and the crops of your land, and the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks. You will be cursed when you come in and cursed when you go out.

Disobedience always brings forth a curse, so nothing can go well. The history of Saul, who brought spiritual loss upon himself by insisting on his own thoughts instead of obeying God's word fully, teaches us an important lesson. Today, we also often stand at crossroads of choice. Sometimes we suffer spiritual loss by pursuing physical gain, and sometimes we suffer physical loss by pursuing spiritual gain. Which one is the correct choice?

The spiritual loss of Esau who sold his birthright for a bowl of lentil stew

We must regard God's word as absolute, realizing that obedience to God's word is the way to receive the greatest gain and to accumulate blessings. If we don't, we will lose even the blessings that we have already received and will regret it belatedly.

The book of Genesis introduces a case of another person who suffered spiritual loss but failed to realize it.

Ge 25:27-34 . . . Once when Jacob was cooking some stew, Esau came in from the open country, famished. He said to Jacob, "Quick, let me have some of that red stew! I'm famished!" (That is why he was also called Edom.) Jacob replied, "First sell me your birthright." "Look, I am about to die," Esau said. "What good is the birthright to me?" But Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore an oath to him, selling his birthright to Jacob. Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and some lentil stew. He ate and drank, and then got up and left. So Esau despised his birthright.

Like Esau who despised his birthright, there are many people in the world who do not realize what it is to suffer spiritual loss and neglect spiritual things. Satan always uses a little bait to take a great spiritual thing away from us. In the case of Esau, he obtained a bowl of lentil stew, but instead he lost great spiritual privileges.

Ge 27:30-37 After Isaac finished blessing him and Jacob had scarcely left his father's presence, his brother Esau came in from hunting. He too prepared some tasty food and brought it to his father. Then he said to him, "My father, sit up and eat some of my game, so that you may give me your blessing." . . . Isaac trembled violently and said, "Who was it, then, that hunted game and brought it to me? I ate it just before you came and I blessed him—and indeed he will be blessed!" When Esau heard his father's words, he burst out with a loud and bitter cry and said to his father, "Bless me—me too, my father!" . . . "Haven't you reserved any blessing for me?" Isaac answered Esau, "I have made him lord over you and have made all his relatives his servants, and I have sustained him with grain and new wine. So what can I possibly do for you, my son?"

This is a representative example of spiritual loss. Esau thought that since he was the eldest son, he would naturally receive the birthright blessing no matter what he did.

So, he simply sold his birthright to his brother Jacob without giving it much thought.

Eventually Jacob came to receive the birthright blessing in accordance with God's will. Only after losing the blessing did Esau realize its value. Then he burst out with a loud and bitter cry and begged his father Isaac to bless him too, saying, "Don't you have even a small blessing left for me?" However, it was too late.

Both Esau and King Saul did not realize the value of God's word, and that was why they suffered a tremendous spiritual loss. We must avoid spiritual loss even if we have to suffer the loss of earthly things. The New Testament also earnestly asks us not to incur any spiritual loss.

Heb 12:14-17 . . . See to it that no one misses the grace of God and that no bitter root grows up to cause trouble and defile many. See that no one is sexually immoral, or is godless like Esau, who for a single meal sold his inheritance rights as the oldest son. Afterward, as you know, when he wanted to inherit this blessing, he was rejected. He could bring about no change of mind, though he sought the blessing with tears.

We must acquire the kingdom of heaven even though we suffer any physical loss.

If we neglect the heavenly kingdom which God has given us freely, we will lose it.

Even if we beg God for mercy on the Day of Judgment, it is too late. Esau was never able to regain his birthright which he had once sold.

A blessing from God depends on how much we value God's word and how obedient we are to it. We should respect and fear the word of God. Why do you think so many people today disobey God's commandments while claiming to believe in God? They turn away from the truth described in the Bible and adhere to the rules of men. This is proof that they do not value God's word at all. Think how much more severely they deserve to be punished.

We must also be on our guard against those things since we have received the blessing of the firstborn of heaven. Although we are God's people who live in Zion, God's blessings are not given to us unconditionally, regardless of whether we obey God's word or not. Saul was a king, but he was deprived of his throne. Esau was the eldest son, but he was deprived of his birthright. Both of them failed to receive the blessings which originally belonged to them. This was the result of having lived without caring for spiritual loss.

However, Jacob valued the birthright and its blessing. So, he never missed the blessing of God even when the socket of his thigh was dislocated. Thus, God's blessing comes upon those who make every effort to receive it. While many people neglect the spiritual loss which is invisible and pursue worldly values, those who know the value of a blessing from God make more effort than others and continuously accumulate blessings. That's why the Bible says that those who forcefully advance the kingdom of heaven will enter it (Ge 32:22-30; Mt 11:12).

The spiritual loss of Judas Iscariot who betrayed Jesus for 30 pieces of silver

Let us diligently run toward the kingdom of heaven, forcefully advancing it, so that we will not lose this precious blessing of the firstborn of heaven. We should pray fervently, study God's word diligently, and preach the gospel eagerly with all our hearts and minds, and we must joyfully obey the teachings of God the Father and God the Mother above all else.

Everything goes well if we abide in God; but if we leave God, irrevocable things will happen. In one of the New Testament Gospels, we can find another person who brought an irrevocable fatal spiritual loss upon himself.

Mt 26:14-16 Then one of the Twelve—the one called Judas Iscariot—went to the chief priests and asked, "What are you willing to give me if I hand him over to you?" So they counted out for him thirty silver coins. From then on Judas watched for an opportunity to hand him over.

Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve disciples of Jesus, haggled with the chief priests over the blood price they would pay for the betrayal of Jesus. He decided to betray Jesus, who was his teacher, into the hands of His enemies for the payment of 30 silver coins. Since he committed such an infamous and heinous act—the sin of betraying God who came to save mankind—for 30 pieces of silver, how much more severely do you think he deserves to be punished for his sin?

Mt 26:47-52 While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the elders of the people. Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: "The one I kiss is the man; arrest him." Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" and kissed him. Jesus replied, "Friend, do what you came for." Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus and arrested him. With that, one of Jesus' companions reached for his sword, drew it out and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear. . . .

Judas Iscariot and Peter, although they were all disciples of Jesus, were too different from each other. While Judas was greedy for money and betrayed Jesus, Peter stood at Jesus' side and opposed the servants of the high priest when they tried to arrest Jesus. One of them continuously suffered an enormous spiritual loss, and the other continually accumulated blessings.

Afterwards, Judas Iscariot felt guilty when he saw Jesus being arrested and dragged, and he returned the 30 pieces of silver to the chief priests. However, his choice was irrevocable and he met a miserable death in the end (Mt 27:1-8; Ac 1:16-19).

Learning a lesson from their cases, we need to correctly understand what it is to suffer spiritual loss and should live according to the Spirit, following the word of God. Our life is an opportunity given us, who have been cast down to this earth as a result of committing sin in heaven, to repent of our sin—not to disobey God's will and go astray.

Faith that holds fast to spiritual blessings till the end

You may have ever read the Aesop's fable of The Fox and the Crow. One day, a fox saw a crow sitting on a branch of a tree with a piece of cheese in her beak. The fox set his wits to work to discover some way of getting the cheese.

"Hello, Mrs. Crow! How beautiful you look today! Would you please sing a song for me?" On hearing these flattering words from the fox under the tree, the crow became puffed up, and after clearing her throat, she loudly screamed: "Caw! Caw!" As soon as she opened her beak, the cheese fell to the ground, and the fox snapped it up.

Satan aims at this kind of thing. He seems to give us something, but the moment we try to grab it, he takes away everything we have. This is a trick of Satan. We must hold fast to the crown of life, which God has given us. If we let go of it to grasp worldly things, Satan does not miss the moment and takes it away from us. We must not forget this.

2 Ti 4:10-11 for Demas, because he loved this world, has deserted me and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. Only Luke is with me.

When the Apostle Paul wrote to Timothy, he expressed his anxiousness over Demas who loved the world and left God. The foolish people like Judas Iscariot, Esau and King Saul, who incurred spiritual loss upon themselves but did not realize it—they must have been weeping so bitterly.

Let us reflect upon ourselves: Have we done things that can cause spiritual loss or things that can bring forth blessings? Do we value the birthright of the firstborn of heaven? Or do we pursue the things of this world? No matter what we do, whatever may happen, we must judge everything spiritually and choose the path that will not lead to spiritual loss. So the Apostle Peter, when the Jews threatened him not to preach Jesus, said, "Judge for yourselves whether it is right in God's sight to obey you rather than God" (Ac 4:17-20). By discerning the spiritual loss and gain, we must never forsake the word of God.

If we think that we will obtain something great while disobeying God's word, it is a big misunderstanding. We can proceed toward the eternal kingdom of heaven only when we always respect Elohim and follow Them by depending on Their words and listening to Their voice. Let us never lose the birthright of the firstborn of heaven to inherit the kingdom of heaven. Just as Jacob clung to God for blessing until the socket of his thigh was dislocated, let us continuously ask God for blessings without suffering any spiritual loss and live according to God's word as children of heaven, so that we can all enter the kingdom of heaven.

Yesterday I woke up at 4 AM and found my wife gone. I ask the maids where she is. The maids told me that she is in the church and that she has been doing it for over a week

By: Rob on June 7, 2011 at 10:10 am already. I rarely get to sleep with her because of the type of job that I'm in (I work at night). And then she's gone. When she came home yesterday morning, she told me that it is their feast time and that she has to be there. I felt so sad and dissapointed. She never told me about this. She just run away in the middle of the night.

My wife goes to work during the day. She has been going to church in the morning and in the evening everyday without my knowledge. With it, she rarely has time for herself to rest, for me and for our kid.

I don't know how to stop her. Everytime we (my mother-in-law and I) tried to stop her, she looks like she going to burst into anger. She is very scary. I had to tell her every time that we are stopping her because we love her.

She is supposed to be operated with gall stones last Sunday but we found out that she called the doctor and had the operation postponed to another week. She told us that the doctor is not available but in reality, it is because of the feast.

With regard to her going to Korea to see their so called heavenly mother, she admitted that she booked a flight but she is not going. Now that is a relief. At this time, according to her, she is needed the most by her family because the baby is still small and all that. She can go the following year. My wife is starting to talk with sense. I just hope she is telling the truth. But then, it could be another lie. Who knows? She has been lying ever since she got involved with the cult.

I apologize for starting to tell you about what's happening in my life right now as a result of our involvement with the COG. I am in constant pain with the thought that this is happening in my married life. I badly need help and I just need somebody to hear me out every now and then. I have been consulting with a number of people from other religious groups and sometimes the most immediate thing that I can do to ease the pain is to tell my story in this blog.

I took Jamie's advise. Thanks Jamie. I found a support group. It was a suggestion by a friend of my mother-in-law's and hopefully it will fit my schedule in the next two weeks. (I am working 9 hours every night for the whole week and I go to school three times a week).

Until my next contribution... Good morning everyone and God Bless us all.

Hi Rob, I was wondering, did you ever actually go to the church or are you just assuming it is cultish? This is a serious question because I know with all of my loved ones I have begged them to just come and SEE that we are not crazy but for some reason they refuse to come which is odd to me...I mean it's not weird or anything and everyone is really nice.

Also, please don't think your wife is crazy for waking up early to go to the Church. It is for one of the Feasts of God, and actually it's a lot of blessing :) No one says oh you BETTER come or else! Or anything like that, we just saw it through the Bible (did you know that Ascension say is biblically a feast of God! and the apostles prayed daily leading up to the Day of Pentecost. seriously I mean I didn't know because most Christians don't observe it and my family didn't, but all of it is in the Bible :) I don't know if you asked her about any of this or anything, but if not you should just ask your wife 'why are you doing this? or that?' because one time my mother asked me the same thing and I explained it to her that it's because It's in the Bible. Also, I'm not sure if you believe in the Bible as fact or not but I think that makes a big difference. I remember for one feast my boyfriend rolled his eyes when I said I would be going to the Church to observe the feast and he said he doesn't think I have to do that, but at that time (and it wasn't because I didn't love him) I had to weigh his word (which really had no meat other than the fact that...he just didn't think I should be doing it lol) against the clear testimony which I had seen through the Bible. Since I believe the Bible to be word of God of course I didn't do what he wanted, and I went to observe the Feast of God instead. So I guess I'm just telling my story because I feel like sometimes our loved ones think we are acting strangely and that we don't care what they say, but it's not that It's just that we are following God's word. Also I'm not sure why I keep seeing people say they are afraid their family members won't come back from Korea. Actually I'm realllly confused by that lol. It's just a trip to see Heavenly Mother and then you come back shrug Why wouldn't your family member return? hmmm. Anyways, I don't know if you have gone to see the church, but if you just see for yourself maybe that would clear things up. Honestly I'm not sure why people on here are making us out to be bad people because that's not the case at all. Anyways I'll pray to Father and Mother to bless you and your family

God Bless You!

Oh yeah, so the reason we would get upset (or at least why I got upset when my mother tried to stop me once) is because it is the word of God, right, so someone deliberately trying to stop us from simply following God's law is actually really hurtful and frustrating and upsetting. (Cause you mentioned that you tried to stop her and she got upset). I think if the Feasts of God weren't proven through the Bible then of course no one would get upset for someone trying to stop them, but since they are proven it's kinda like.....why are you trying to stop me from following God's word? Know what I mean? And simply saying "it's not God's word!" does not dispute all the testimony in the Bible so...yeah! lol okay hope that bring some understanding. oh! okay so you find the cure to your disease and you have PROOF that it's the cure, but your loved one tries to stop you from receiving the cure and says no it is not the cure! even though you have proof. It's like that. Or at least from my side that's what it felt like. okay hope that gives more understanding. anyways. :)
God Bless You!

What you are saying is true in this—when someone has a sincere faith, they should act on it and live their life accordingly. Whatever faith that is (Christian, Buddhist, Muslim, etc.) if they say they believe it, but don't live it out, then you get the feeling that maybe they don't really believe it completely (or don't understand it fully).

I live my faith out every day to the best of my ability, and when I fail, I'm thankful for a God who forgives and understands me and is not counting points towards my ticket to heaven.

When my sister (who is a wmscog member) lives out her faith in the things she does (like Rob's wife), I'm not surprised nor am I upset with her for that. I know it's because she sincerely believes it. The problem is in what she believes.

For example (and I know this is extreme, but it's just an example), the Muslim terrorists—their actions come from a sincere believe in their faith.

If they sincerely believe, would you expect anything different? But the problem is in what they believe, right?

There are problems in what the WMSCOG believes, and there are also problems in the organization itself that show it to be deceitful. No one wants to hear this about an organization they love, but sometimes it's more important to know the truth than to be comfortable.

Please visit these websites so you can understand the problems, and then decide with your own mind what to do:

As the workers of the new covenant diligently preach the Word, our heavenly family members throughout the world are now coming back to Zion to find the truth. The place doesn't seem to matter as long as they can preach. They are intent on preaching the gospel throughout the nation and overseas; some preach on a plane; some preach on an aircraft carrier while doing their military service; and others in various different circumstances.

Whether on land, on the sea or in the air, they all preach God's word fervently, so the work of the gospel is being accomplished rapidly.

Many of the people of Zion are led into the truth. Among them, there are those who understand the truth right away and those who are somewhat slow to understand why God should come in the flesh. Now, let's think about what kind of faith we should have to recognize God correctly through the sermon titled "We Can See God Only as Much as We Realize Him."

We can see God according to our faith 2,000 years ago, Jesus' disciples had respectively different kinds of faith. Some recognized Jesus right away, while some didn't.

Philip once asked Jesus to show him the Father. Then Jesus said, "Don't you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'?" (Jn 14:6-9). Philip thought that Jesus was more than a prophet, but he didn't realize that He was God the Father until that time.

Even though the disciples were all taught by Jesus, they viewed Jesus differently. Peter recognized Jesus as the Christ giving eternal life (Jn 6:68-69). Thomas, however, doubted even when he heard the news of His resurrection. He came to believe in Jesus after he saw the nail marks in His hands and put his hand into His side where the spear had been thrust into Him. Then he confessed, "My Lord and my God!" (Jn 20:24-29). What about Judas Iscariot? He didn't see the true nature of Jesus but only looked at His physical life, so he eventually betrayed Him.

Why did they have different views about Jesus? It was because they had different kinds of faith respectively. We can't see things clearly through foggy glasses. To see what is in front of us clearly, we need to clean our glasses. Likewise, if we look at God with foggy eyes, we cannot see Him even though He is right in front of us.

When we clean everything that obscures our spiritual eyes, we can see God clearly. To those who understand, God adds wisdom to understand Him even more, but to those who don't understand, He adds factors raising even more doubts, as the Bible says: "Whoever has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him."

Those who have a partial understanding of God will see Him only partially. However, those who understand God fully will see Him in His entirety. God shows Himself 100% to those who have 100% faith in Him, and 50% to those who have 50% faith. As an example, when Jesus climbed the Mount of Transfiguration, accompanied by His disciples—Peter, James and John, He showed them His original image as God (Mt 17:1-8). However, Judas Iscariot never saw His glorious appearance.

The disciples who were blessed more greatly because of their faith

We should completely understand God to see Him fully. The more we believe in God and understand Him, the more testimonies and wisdom God gives us so that we can fully understand Him. However, God hides Himself from those who have no understanding and are full of doubt (Isa 45:15). God does a wondrous thing—showing Himself to us only as much as we understand Him.

Mt 16:13-20 When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets." "But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?" Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah . . . I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." Then he warned his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Christ.

Jesus told His children, who recognized Him, not to tell anyone that He was the Christ, for there were spiritual blessings that only those recognizing Christ were to receive. Jesus gave credit to the faith of Peter who recognized Him correctly as the Christ who came to this earth (in the flesh). So, He granted him a tremendous gift—the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and showed him His mighty power through miraculous works many times. He showed him His transfigured appearance, and when Peter and his fellow fishermen didn't catch anything all night, He let them catch a huge haul of fish enough to make the boat almost sink. By doing that, Jesus convinced them that He was the Christ and God Himself. Thus, God gives more understanding to those who understand.

Jesus, whom the Apostles Paul, Peter and John saw, was God in nature. Like them, we should not doubt but believe that God Elohim, our heavenly Father and Mother, is our Creator who made all things. Then God will show us His mighty power by doing many wonderful works.

Jn 1:1-14 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. In him was life, and that life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it . . . The true light that gives light to every man was coming into the world. He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him. Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God . . . The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

John recognized Jesus as God, the Word, who was in the beginning and became flesh and made His dwelling among us. To those who didn't believe, Jesus appeared to be a mere man, a carpenter, but John saw Him as God who created all things.

John, who had a good understanding, was very delighted and thankful that he was breathing together with God in the same space and participating in the great work of God. Just as a child tries to capture his mother's attention, following her around, John went near to Jesus, laying his head on Jesus' shoulder or expressing fiery indignation against the impious people who tried to obstruct His path (Jn 13:23; Lk 9:51-56).

He realized that God became flesh and made His dwelling among us. With this realization he looked at God and always paid careful attention to everything He did, so he was able to understand how much He loved us, humans, and came to realize more and more what blessing would be given to those who obeyed His word. Although he was persecuted and put to death for the name of Christ, he was willing to suffer, looking forward to the glory of heaven. Since he had such great faith, he was able to write the book of Revelation—the last will of God, even when he was exiled on the island of Patmos, and was greatly blessed to write about the heavenly Mother, the Bride of the Lamb.

Those who had seen God, and yet didn't recognize Him Jesus' teachings of life were preached to all people throughout Judea. Some people understood them, but some didn't; some believed, while some rejected.

God approaches each of us in a different way. To those who do not believe, He shows them more things that are hard to believe, but to His children who believe He shows more of His glorious works that make them even more convinced. This providence of God is so amazing and even fearful.

Jn 10:30-33 "I and the Father are one." Again the Jews picked up stones to stone him, but Jesus said to them, "I have shown you many great miracles from the Father. For which of these do you stone me?" "We are not stoning you for any of these," replied the Jews, "but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man, claim to be God."

The Jews didn't recognize the true identity of Jesus as God no matter how many miraculous signs and wonders He performed among them. Their eyes and hearts were seared as with a hot iron, and they viewed Jesus' teachings with an unbelieving heart. So, even though Jesus showed them that He was God who came in the flesh, they did not believe; rather, they were very hostile against Him and became possessed by more wicked thoughts. God eventually gave them the opportunity to crucify Jesus. He let the evildoers do more evil.

To Judas Iscariot who doubted, God showed more things that caused doubt. 'Is this really the Christ?' 'Is He able to save us?' With eyes full of doubt, he looked at Jesus, who had no beauty or majesty to attract him to Him like a root out of dry ground. Jesus was not educated, nor did He possess worldly power like governors in those days. The words from His mouth were great and amazing, but He was apparently powerless and didn't seem to be God.

Since Judas Iscariot had these doubtful thoughts, the devil entered into him and prompted him to betray Jesus. Finally, he plotted together with those who seemed physically powerful, and played a leading role in crucifying Jesus.

Mt 26:47-54 While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the elders of the people . . . With that, one of Jesus' companions reached for his sword, drew it out and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear. "Put your sword back in its place," Jesus said to him, "for all who draw the sword will die by the sword. Do you think I cannot call on my Father, and he will at once put at my disposal more than twelve legions of angels? But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen in this way?"

Even while Jesus was on this earth in the flesh, He could summon more than twelve legions of angels. God changed His heavenly robe for an earthly one, but it did not mean a change in His divine nature and power.

God dwelt in the same flesh as us, and lived together with His disciples, limited by time and space. So, although Peter recognized God, even his faith hesitated at a critical moment. For all that, Jesus gave His disciples, who had faith in Him, even greater faith after His resurrection; and He convinced them that He loved them to the end, before He went up to heaven. Jesus showed them His resurrected body by rising from the dead on the third day, and was taken up to heaven before their very eyes. He continually showed further convincing evidence to those who believed. However, Judas Iscariot, who did not have a genuine faith, never witnessed those glorious scenes, and he just ended up betraying Jesus and bringing destruction upon himself, as described in the Bible.

The world does not know God who has come to this earth in the flesh. To those who slander, everything is seen as a cause or object of reproach. So Jesus said, "Blessed is the man who does not fall away on account of me" (Mt 11:6). Those who correctly recognize Christ and understand Him are truly blessed.

Let's look at the true nature of God
2,000 years ago, when Jesus was crucified on the cross, those who did not believe only focused on the thought, 'What kind of power will He use to get Himself out of the critical situation?' However, Jesus silently endured the extreme pain and suffering on the cross, shedding His blood. To the eyes of those who did not believe, it seemed like Jesus suffered because He was powerless. However, those who understood were able to see the Christ being "pierced for our transgressions and crushed for our iniquities," as described in Isaiah 53. Christ allowed those people to witness the miracle of His being raised from the dead on the third day.

In this age, if we fully understand that the Bible is the word of God, we should accept the teachings of the truth about God Elohim, who appears in the Bible, with an open heart. God does not need man's testimony about man, for He knows what is in a man (Jn 2:25). If the Bible testifies about God, we need to believe it. When we believe in the teachings of the Bible and look at God, we are able to see the true nature of God.

Hos 6:3-6 "Let us acknowledge the Lord; let us press on to acknowledge him. As surely as the sun rises, he will appear; he will come to us like the winter rains, like the spring rains that water the earth . . . For I desire mercy, not sacrifice, and acknowledgment of God rather than burnt offerings."

The Bible tells us to know God—to press on to know Him. Even though we offer a sacrifice to God through worship a thousand or ten thousand times, unless we know God, it is useless. If we worship God without believing in Him correctly, we are no different than the foolish people who worshiped an unknown god in Athens as the Apostle Paul witnessed (Ac 17:22-23).

Look at God who is with us, having faith. When we look at God through the eyes of faith, we are able to see God performing miracles even at this moment, just as Jesus transfigured Himself before His disciples and fed over 5,000 people with five loaves of bread and two fish. If one does not see such a miracle even though it is being performed before his very eyes, it is because his spiritual glasses are fogged up. God does not change like shifting shadows (Jas 1:17). It is an individual view of faith towards God that obscures His true identity.

Since the Bible says that God takes more delight in our knowing Him than in sacrifices, we should press on to know God and understand Him. Remembering that God opens the way to receive blessings for those who believe and understand, let's have a correct knowledge and understanding of God so that we may receive the blessings of heaven, as did Peter and John.

Surely, our God has great power to save the world. I hope that all you brothers and sisters in Zion will guide all mankind to the right path as the salt and light of the world, by having faith and participating in the amazing work of the gospel which is being accomplished by Elohim our holy God.

THANK YOU HEAVENLY FATHER AND MOTHER FOR SHOWING US THE TOWARDS SALAVATION

HEAVEN CHRIST Ahnsahnghong.

Hello members of Church of God,
Have you read works by the earliest church fathers...like Clement of Rome (96 CE), Ignatius (35 CE – 107 CE), Justin Martyr (100-165 CE), Papias (60-130 CE), Polycarp (69-155 CE). These church fathers, amongst many others lived around the same time as the authors of the New Testament. It might be interesting to consider how they, having lived amongst the authors of the New Testament, interpreted what had been written. It is a great way to protect ourselves from entering into false biblical theologies.

Additionally, do you know how the bible was compiled? I have more studying to do myself, however, I know that you are claiming the bible is the word of God – yet those that God gave the authority to compile the books of the bible (which you claim to be God's word) are the same people that you declare are heretics and have corrupted the truth of Jesus. I'm just raising a question.

I'm thankful that God has given Christians historical evidence of biblical truth, along with the Holy Spirit to help us discern His word.

Who is this 'mother'? what is her name? how old is she? is she married? does she have children of her own? What is going to happen to your 'church' when this person pass away?

How much do we know God?

People in the world have their own thoughts about God. As for God who exists as spirit, His divine nature and power are beyond human imagination, so people cannot dare to estimate them. Moreover, when God comes in the flesh, it is impossible for humans to understand Him by their own wisdom, so each of them looks at God from a different point of view.

Reply

At Jesus' first coming, people thought, 'How could God come in human form?' So, some people said about Jesus, "He is out of his mind," some said, "He is a ringleader of the Nazarene sect" (Ac 24:5), and others insisted that He should be crucified. Some considered Jesus as one of the prophets, some as Elijah, but the apostles like Peter and Paul recognized Him as the "Christ" and "being in very nature God."

God wants people to have knowledge of God and to be saved, and has given mankind the Bible as a book that testifies about God. I hope that the members of Zion will all have correct knowledge and understanding of God and the right faith to testify about God to all people around the world.

Those who understood Christ differently from one another

2,000 years ago, the greatest and most joyful news to mankind was delivered to the shepherds who were keeping watch over their flocks in the fields at night. It was the good news that Christ came to this earth in the flesh to save mankind from sin. They ran to Bethlehem in a hurry to see and worship Christ.

Lk 2:8-20 And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger." . . . When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about." So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, . . . The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

The shepherds received Jesus, who was born as a baby on this earth, as their Savior, just as the angels had told them. And a man called Simeon, who was righteous and devout, took the baby Jesus in his arms and said, "Truly, this is the one who will save us" (Lk 2:25-35). They correctly recognized Jesus, who came in the flesh, as God and the Messiah. However, other people looked at Him from a completely different viewpoint.

Mk 3:20-21 Then Jesus entered a house, and again a crowd gathered, so that he and his disciples were not even able to eat. When his family heard about this, they went to take charge of him, for they said, "He is out of his mind."

There were people who recognized Jesus and rejoiced greatly like the shepherds and Simeon, and there were also those who just thought that He was mad and tried to capture Him. Some did not even hesitate to commit the heinous act of attempting to kill God incarnate.

Jn 10:30-33 "I and the Father are one." Again the Jews picked up stones to stone him, but Jesus said to them, "I have shown you many great miracles from the Father. For which of these do you stone me?" "We are not stoning you for any of these," replied the Jews, "but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man, claim to be God."

God testified about Himself, but the Jews who claimed to believe in God fervently in those days did not recognize God and tried to stone Jesus. No matter how many good deeds Jesus did and no matter how many times He spoke about the things of the kingdom of God, they shut their ears and rejected Jesus, and eventually they committed the sin of crucifying Him.

Faith that recognizes God correctly

In some people's eyes, God who came in the flesh appeared to be a heretic who blasphemed God in His name. In another people's eyes, He appeared to be a prophet or rabbi. And in the other people's eyes, He appeared to be a mere son of a carpenter or just an ordinary man. Thus, people had different views of Jesus. However, when Jesus asked His disciples, "Who do you say I am?" Peter replied, "You are the Christ," meaning that He was God who came as the Son.

Mt 16:13-20 When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets." "But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?" Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by man, but by my Father in heaven. . . . I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. . . ."

To Peter who recognized God correctly, the keys of the kingdom of heaven were given. As the Bible says that eternal life is given to those who know the only true God and Christ (Jn 17:3), the way to receive eternal life and the keys of the kingdom of heaven is to know and understand God. Having correct knowledge and understanding of God—Jehovah in the age of the Father, Jesus Christ in the age of the Son, and the Spirit and the Bride in the age of the Holy Spirit—is the shortcut to eternal life. In this age, when God has come to this earth the second time as the Spirit and the Bride to save mankind, many people think of God in different ways. Most people reject God like the Jews, but some receive God like the shepherds. Through this, God distinguishes between those who will be blessed and those who will not.

As people of Zion, we must all receive Heavenly Father and Mother, who have become incarnate on the earth, and possess enough faith to enter the eternal kingdom of heaven, and we should put forth more effort to preach Father and Mother. God our Savior has come to this earth—this is the most joyful news in the world.

Lk 2:8-12 But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord. . . ."

Here, "good news" means the gospel. In other words, the good news that God has come to this earth to save us is the core of the gospel.

Like the shepherds who delivered the good news of the birth of the Savior to Mary and Joseph, we who have known and understood God earlier should preach the good news that God has come to this earth to save mankind to people who do not yet realize God. The gospel prophets in the early Church preached the joyful news that Christ came to this earth in Samaria and to the ends of the earth, and led the people who received Jesus as their Savior to the eternal kingdom of heaven. We, too, should preach this good news boldly to all nations, so that all people will repent and come to God.

God wants to work with His people

When we look at the history of preaching described in the Bible, we can see that God has the following three characteristics: First, God surely works with His people.

Second, God shows His love through His people and conveys it to all mankind.

Third, God wants to always work alive in His people when He carries out His work of salvation for mankind.

Now, let's take a look at the scenes where God is working with us, and realize what God's will is for us to become the workers of the new covenant.

2 Co 6:1-2 As God's fellow workers we urge you not to receive God's grace in vain. For he says, "In the time of my favor I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you." I tell you, now is the time of God's favor, now is the day of salvation.

We are blessed to work with God and preach God's salvation. God wants to work with us, and helps us.

Nevertheless, did we not sometimes complain about doing this work or become lazy? Let us reflect upon ourselves.

Today, too, God asks us, "I want to work with you. Don't you want to work with Me?" Whoever understands God who has come in the flesh correctly should do the work of testifying about God and preaching Him, along with God.

Isa 41:10-13 "So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand. All who rage against you will surely be ashamed and disgraced; those who oppose you will be as nothing and perish. . . . For I am the LORD, your God, who takes hold of your right hand and says to you, Do not fear; I will help you."

2 Co 1:3-5 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves have received from God. . . .

When we work with God, we don't have to hesitate at the reproaches and insults of people. Those who believed that God was with them and boldly said, "Judge for yourselves whether it is right in God's sight to obey you rather than God," like Peter and John, led many souls to the way of salvation (Ac 4:19). Their names will shine forever in the kingdom of heaven as well as in the Bible.

God is with us in any situation, and comforts us in all our troubles. God encourages and strengthens us, and does the work of preaching the gospel with us. Believing this firmly, we should go to Samaria and even to the ends of the earth with God to preach the blessed and joyful news that Father and Mother have come to save us.

God wants to manifest His love through His people

Now, let's confirm that God wants to show His love to all people through His people, which is the second characteristic of God.

Jn 15:12-15 "My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command. . . ."

Since God wants to show His love through us, He tells us, "Love each other as I have loved you." Parents even credit the honor they deserve to their children, so that their children will receive praise from people of the world. Likewise, God has entrusted us with the blessed errand of preaching God's love, in order to give us the eternal glory of heaven.

1 Jn 4:11-21 Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us. . . . And so we know and rely on the love God has for us. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in him. . . . And he has given us this command: Whoever loves God must also love his brother.

God wants to dwell in us and to express His love through us. The Bible describes the person who does not love as "a murderer" and the "one who does not have God."

When we do the work of God, which we cannot do with our sinful nature, we can make sure that God is now working with us while being alive in us.

God can save all mankind by His word. As He sent His angels to tell the shepherds the good news of Christ's birth, so He can now send His angels to preach the good news to all mankind, so that the gospel work will be accomplished in an instant.

However, God does not do that, but instead He has entrusted us with the gospel. It is because He wants to bless us and to help us resemble His divine nature. By doing the work of God, we come to know God's heart and have the love of God who has been so anxious to save His children.

1 Pe 4:7-8 The end of all things is near. Therefore be clear minded and self-controlled so that you can pray. Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins.

God wants to express His love through us, and has chosen us as instruments to carry out this duty. So, we must not keep silent but express God's love. This is why we should preach the gospel and show love to others.

When we look back upon our past lives, there were times when we did not understand God's earnest mind and found it hard to preach the gospel. God helps us in everything, but sometimes we try to persuade people with our own knowledge and ability instead of relying on God's help, and that makes it difficult to preach to them.

All we have to do is just tell them what we have heard and seen.

God wants to work alive in His people

Now, let's examine the fact through the Bible that God wants to always dwell in us, which is the last and third characteristic of God.

Gal 2:20 I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Heb 13:5-9 . . . because God has said, "Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you." So we say with confidence, "The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?" . . .

God has repeatedly said that He will always be with us. So Paul, when he received Jesus, crucified himself and faithfully carried out the work God wanted to do while having God in him. When he looked back upon his life, he was confident that since he had fulfilled the mission given to him, there was in store for him the crown of righteousness, and gave us hope by saying that this crown of life would be awarded not only to him, but also to all who longed for the day of God's coming.

We must realize God who has come to this earth in the flesh and also understand God's desired will, so that we can work with God and express God's love while always having God in us. Now let us think again how much we know about God and how much we understand the heart of God. If we have known God, we should lead many souls to the way of salvation by putting God's desired will into practice instead of just being satisfied with knowing.

When we consider the fact that 3,000 people repented in just one day through the preaching of Peter, we cannot help but reflect on how fully we have contained God in our minds and preached the gospel. Let us quickly preach the Spirit and the Bride, who have come to this earth as our Saviors, to all people. Some may reject the Spirit and the Bride without realizing Them, but those who understand Them will receive the right to become children of God and reach the eternal kingdom of heaven.

We can do everything by the power of God, not by our own ability. Let us all wake up and try our hardest to make this year a wonderful year for the gospel by working with God. I repeatedly ask you all to fill each and every day of your life with beautiful and gracious moments, so that you can confidently say that you have lived a life without regrets, preaching the gospel, like Paul.

Hrmmm this has been an interesting read. but actually i'm not really sure why people bash Church of God members so much. As far as I've seen from the posts everything they believe is biblical. And one thing I've noticed is that when a church of God member points out that those bashing them mostly follow man's traditions, and not Christ's the bashers always seem to dance around that fact. Why is that? I mean it's pretty clear that Sunday worship is not biblical, so why would you say I have Jesus Christ as my savior but then follow pagan tradition? I dunno but stuff like that just never made any sense to me. Especially Christmas because I used to be really into wicca and It's no coincidence that wiccan holiday and Christmas are basically identical. I know not all Christians celebrate Christmas, but didn't God specifically say that one shouldn't participate in other God's festivals? Isn't this the same reason some Christians don't participate in Samhain? (Halloween). Wiccan festival of the harvest? If you ask me I feel like I'd be safer at least following what the Bible said then bashing people and following my own traditions. But then

I stopped believing in Christianity after seeing the hypocrisy. shrug

Another thing, didn't Christ specifically say His followers should preach? So then why bash these people for actually doing what Christ commanded. Just saying. I mean. You know I was flipping through channels and saw what's his name....Joel Olsteen and it was pretty disgusting. You know he has millions of followers or something but I seriously don't think the man has ever opened the Bible. lol he was asked about revelation and he goes uhhhm Well that is kinda a difficult book...but anyways God loves us! LOL yeah ok. If you're going to call yourself a Christian at least follow the book. Of course modern day Christians think these people are a cult how many modern day Christians actually follow the Bible? Just sayin' Maybe the Westerners should take notes from the Muslims. At least even the deviants of Islam follow 90% of what their books says. Anyways. End rant. :)

For Christians who are walking the path of faith with the hope for heaven, it is important to know the word of God. However, what is more important is to put the Word into practice.

People in the world have a positive expectation that Christians will be different from other people in some ways because they believe in God. So, if they see a Christian doing evil, they become greatly disappointed and come to distrust Christianity itself and look away from it, saying, "Christians are not different."

If we are true Christians, we should be careful in everything we say and do. Our speech or behavior may lead people around us to the kingdom of heaven or to destruction. Considering this, we should follow the example of God as heavenly children called by God, so that we can lead people around us to feel like believing in God through our good deeds.

The importance of good deeds worthy of Christians

This is an anecdote about Gandhi, a nationalist, who took the lead in gaining independence for India from the control of Britain. In his youth, he tried to be a Christian. At that time, he was boarding with a Christian family.

Unfortunately, the couple frequently quarreled with each other. Being very disappointed with the people who claimed to believe in Jesus but always quarreled and bred discord unlike the teaching of Jesus, "Love one another, and live in peace with each other," he pledged himself never to be a Christian even if he might come to believe in Christ in the future.

Here is another similar story. There was a faithful Christian captain on an American warship. One day, he came across a young soldier who had no faith in God from the time he was born, living a dissipated life. The captain, who always recommended whomever he met to read the Bible, ordered his aide to give the soldier a Bible. Then the aide said to the captain.

"Captain, you don't need to do that. That private is always close to the Bible. So there is no need to give him one."

Being suspicious, he asked him the reason. The aide answered, "You are the Bible to him. He learns the teachings of God through you, watching your every action. If you keep on living a successful and righteous life, he will surely become a Christian some day. Otherwise, he will not believe in God."

On hearing this, the captain could not sleep at all that night, realizing that his every action exerted a great influence on the people around him.

Through these stories, we, Christians and Elohistes who believe in Elohim, can understand how much our behaviors affect people around us. Likewise, many people around us—our husbands or wives, parents, friends, relatives and neighbors—may be watching how we behave. Therefore, we should conduct ourselves in a holy and godly manner as true Christians, so that we can fully carry out our function as a living Bible.

The examples of Christ and the disciples we should follow Christ is the best example of faith for us. We must follow Christ as our example of faith and life.

Jn 13:15 "I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you."

God Himself came into this world, putting on flesh like one of us, and showed us the right path of life that we human beings should walk. So, we should not make excuses for weakness in our body, but correct our faults and fill up what is lacking in us, imitating the life of Christ.

People may slander us because they do not know the truth and teachings of God, but we must not be slandered because of our wrong behavior or disobedience to the will of God. Each of us should become a good example even for the people who do not believe in God, by following the way of Heavenly Father and Mother and leaving the footprints of the true faith.

When we take a look back at the history of the Early Church, we can see that the apostles and prophets in those days set examples for us in many ways.

1 Co 4:6 Now, brothers, I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, so that you may learn from us the meaning of the saying, "Do not go beyond what is written." Then you will not take pride in one man over against another.

When there was division in the church, Apostle Paul showed an example of faith by telling the saints to give glory and honor to God alone and to humble themselves, reminding them of the fact that God Himself was leading all the work of the gospel. Just as the apostles did, we should also give all glory to God who gives us salvation, and lead many souls around us to salvation through our good deeds and beautiful attitudes that resemble those of God.

Php 3:17-19 Join with others in following my example, brothers, and take note of those who live according to the pattern we gave you. For, as I have often told you before and now say again even with tears, many live as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their destiny is destruction, their god is their stomach, and their glory is in their shame. Their mind is on earthly things.

In our life of faith, it is very important whose example we follow. We must not follow in the footsteps of those who were destroyed as a result of thinking only of earthly things and pursuing worldly glory, but we should follow the examples of the apostles like Paul who longed for heavenly glory and ran the way of the gospel diligently.

Let us be Christians who set good examples

When I was an elementary school student, there was a classmate who stuttered when he spoke. The students of our class began to mimic his stuttering for fun. After a while, most of them actually started to stutter themselves.

In the same way, while we are living in this world, we often see someone's behavior and even his or her life change completely according to whose example he or she follows.

In our life of faith, we must not set wrong examples that have ungracious influences on the people who want to believe in God, while saying we believe in Heavenly Father and Mother. We, the people of Zion, should function as the salt and light of the world by setting good examples of faith and leading many people, who are wandering in the dark, to God.

Tit 2:7-8 In everything set them an example by doing what is good. In your teaching show integrity, seriousness and soundness of speech that cannot be condemned, so that those who oppose you may be ashamed because they have nothing bad to say about us.

People of the world will think that all our behaviors come from the teachings of God Elohim because we've received Elohim and are following Them.

That's why our every action or attitude should not go against the teachings of God, but become godly, good, uncorrupted, and blameless as Christians.

Through our good deeds in accordance with the teachings of God, we should prevent our enemies including false prophets who oppose us, from slandering us. Rather, we should make them feel ashamed of their deeds.

Since our brothers and sisters have made efforts to live godly lives, keeping in mind the teachings of Father and Mother, now even false prophets acknowledge that our deeds are good and right although our doctrines are different from theirs. It was the same in the days of the Early Church 2,000 years ago. As God Himself set examples of good deeds first, the apostles followed His examples and the saints who were taught by the apostles glorified God through their good deeds. As a result, the Church of God was recognized and praised by many people and grew rapidly despite countless hindrances and obstructions in those days.

Pay attention to the sound instructions

The Bible teaches us that no matter how eagerly we may believe in God and however passionate our faith may be, if our deeds are not good, we will never be saved.

Mt 5:20 "For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven."

How can people who live ungodly lives while claiming to believe in God enter the kingdom of heaven? If we do not live righteous lives, we are not different from false prophets—the hypocrites who cannot enter the kingdom of heaven, nor do they let those enter who are trying to.

We must obey everything God has taught us, without neglecting it, no matter how small it is. Then we will be able to lead all people around the world to God, as the salt and light of the world.

1 Ti 6:3-5 If anyone teaches false doctrines and does not agree to the sound instruction of our Lord Jesus Christ and to godly teaching, he is conceited and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy interest in controversies and quarrels about words that result in envy, strife, malicious talk, evil suspicions and constant friction between men of corrupt mind, who have been robbed of the truth and who think that godliness is a means to financial gain.

If we do not pay attention to the words of God or put them into practice, our faith will not grow and we may end up walking the wicked way. On the contrary, if we try to do even the smallest things according to God's word, our faith will gradually mature and we will be able to participate in the divine nature that leads to salvation. As long as we seek, recognize and believe in God, we should put all the teachings of God into practice first. Then the whole world will acknowledge that we are God's children and kneel down at the feet of Elohim, giving glory to Them.

Until we receive honor and praise from the world, we, as Elohimists, should always make every effort to perform our role as salt and light in our society even in the smallest matters.

As children of God, let us live in a manner worthy of being called Christians by setting good examples for others and faithfully carrying out our function as salt and light for the rest of our life of faith, so that we will lead many to righteousness and shine like stars in the sky forever and ever.

It is very blessed to have a great teacher in our life. From this point of view, we are the most blessed people because we have met Elohim, our true Teachers, who lead us to the eternal kingdom of heaven.

God, who is our true Teacher, came to this earth and walked the path of suffering for our salvation. When He was oppressed and afflicted, He did not open His mouth. He silently endured scorn, despise and insult from men. By the endurance and sacrifice of God, our souls have been healed and saved.

Truly giving thanks to God for His grace, let's take time to think over what kind of faith we should have in following the way of Christ.

A deep well

When we describe a person who has a broad mind, we say he is a man with a "deep heart." Such a man is calm and considerate. He rarely stumbles, and makes people feel encouraged, so people naturally gather around him.

One day, I read an article titled "A Deep Well." In the article it is said that we can tell how deep a well is when we throw a stone into the well. When a stone is thrown into a shallow well, it reaches the bottom of the well right away and makes a noise, but when a stone is dropped in a deep well, it takes time for the stone to reach the bottom and barely makes a noise and it leaves reverberation as deep as the depth of the well.

In the same way, we can fathom the depth of a person's heart by his response to the words thrown to him. If he is easily upset and wavers by others' words that are unfavorable, it shows that his heart is shallow. A man who has a deep heart does not react right away to what someone says to him, but accepts it silently. Around this man, people gather, quench their thirst and get refreshed.

If we want to have a deep faith, we need to deepen our heart. Unless our heart is deep, it will not contain a deep faith.

The faith of our forefathers, who were blessed by God, was like a deep well.

Heb 11:6-19 And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him. By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in holy fear built an ark to save his family. By his faith he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that comes by faith. By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going. By faith he made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God. . . .

Noah had built an ark for a long time, following the order of God. Despite all kinds of slanders and ridicules of the people around him, he did all that God commanded him and saved his family from the flood. Abraham also obeyed God's word in any situation. Even when God commanded him to offer his son Isaac as a sacrifice to Him, he obeyed Him, so he was called the "forefather of faith."

Their faith was not shaken by men. They had a faith like a deep well, which did not waver in any situation or circumstance, so that they could please God and be saved together with their families.

Destiny of those who have a shallow faith

Like the forefathers of faith, we should have a deep faith. People, whose faith is shallow and wavers at small words from others, cannot even take care of themselves, let alone save others. At the time of the Exodus, over six hundred thousand Israelites failed to enter the land of Canaan, and they were all destroyed in the desert. This is related to the depth of their faith.

1 Co 10:1-5 For I do not want you to be ignorant of the fact, brothers, that our forefathers were all under the cloud and that they all passed through the sea. They were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. They all ate the same spiritual food and drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank from the spiritual rock that accompanied them, and that rock was Christ. Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them; their bodies were scattered over the desert.

God was not pleased with most of the Israelites who were on the journey to Canaan. When we consider the verse in Hebrews 11, "Without faith it is impossible to please God," we can reason that the Israelites did not please God because they did not have a deep faith, and that they grumbled, being agitated by their surroundings, and were killed at the end.

1 Co 10:6-12 Now these things occurred as examples to keep us from setting our hearts on evil things as they did. Do not be idolaters, as some of them were; as it is written: "The people sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in pagan revelry." We should not commit sexual immorality, as some of them did—and in one day twenty-three thousand of them died. We should not test the Lord, as some of them did—and were killed by snakes. And do not grumble, as some of them did—and were killed by the destroying angel. These things happened to them as examples and were written down as warnings for us, on whom the fulfillment of the ages has come. So, if you think you are standing firm, be careful that you don't fall!

The Israelites witnessed the ten plagues brought upon the land of Egypt and also the power of God who divided the Red Sea. However, they didn't have a deep faith and easily wavered at small inconveniences. Even though they experienced various miracles and signs of God, they did not bear temporary hunger and thirst, but grumbled right away, saying, "Why have You brought us out into this desert to have a hard time like this?" Those who grumbled against God, tested God and worshiped idols did not enter Canaan, but were all destroyed in the desert. This is a warning for us who are walking in the spiritual desert by the grace of God who has redeemed us from this sinful world; if we are shaken by some unfavorable surroundings and ungracious words from others, we are not different than the Israelites. God weighs the depth of our faith in various conditions and situations.

The brothers and sisters of Zion must all have a deep faith. Even though our faith was weak and we were lacking in many ways when we started our life of faith, as years pass by, the depth of our faith should be deepened.

Jerusalem, the well of salvation, never gets dry

We are granted a deep well whose depth cannot be fathomed. That is the well of salvation where the water of life springs up endlessly.

Isa 12:1-6 " . . . Surely God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid. The LORD, the LORD, is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation." With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation. In that day you will say: "Give thanks to the LORD, call on his name; make known among the nations what he has done, and proclaim that his name is exalted. Sing to the LORD, for he has done glorious things; let this be known to all the world. Shout aloud and sing for joy, people of Zion, for great is the Holy One of Israel among you."

Every day, we are drawing water from the well of salvation, which is so deep that it never dries at any drought. We are to fill our hearts with the water of life that is drawn from this well.

Zec 14:7-8 It will be a unique day, without daytime or nighttime—a day known to the LORD. When evening comes, there will be light. On that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half to the eastern sea and half to the western sea, in summer and in winter.

The well of salvation, where the water of life flows to the eastern sea and hundred thousand Israelites failed to enter the land of Canaan, and they were all destroyed in

The well of salvation, where the water of life flows to the eastern sea and to the western sea in four seasons, is our Heavenly Mother (Gal 4:26). Our Heavenly Mother is not tossed about in the storms of life at all, but silently endures all sufferings in order to find Her lost heavenly children, like a deep well. Mother is the well of living water that flows endlessly even if we draw the water over and over again.

In this age, the water of life endlessly flowing from Jerusalem is quenching the souls of the people who come from all around the world to appease their thirst, and is leading them to the kingdom of heaven.

Eze 47:1-12 . . . I saw water coming out from under the threshold of the temple toward the east (for the temple faced east). The water was coming down from under the south side of the temple, south of the altar. He then brought me out through the north gate and led me around the outside to the outer gate facing east, and the water was flowing from the south side. As the man went eastward with a measuring line in his hand, he measured off a thousand cubits and then led me through water that was ankle-deep. He measured off another thousand cubits and led me through water that was knee-deep. He measured off another thousand and led me through water that was up to the waist. He measured off another thousand, but now it was a river that I could not cross, because the water had risen and was deep enough to swim in—a river that no one could cross. . . . " . . . When it empties into the Sea, the water there becomes fresh. cross of living creatures will live wherever the river flows. There will be large numbers of fish, because this water flows there and makes the salt water fresh; so where the river flows everything will live . . . Fruit trees of all kinds will grow on both banks of the river. Their leaves will not wither, nor will their fruit fail. Every month they will bear, because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will serve for food and their leaves for healing.”

The water of life flowing from Jerusalem becomes a deep river, flows into the sea, and makes all things fresh. According to this prophecy, the water of life flows out from Jerusalem to the Five Oceans and the Six Continents, and awakens all nations. In this age, we, who are supplied with the water of life every day, should deepen and broaden our minds all the more. As the children of Jerusalem, we must resemble our Heavenly Father and Mother and have a heart as deep as the well. Then we can have a deep faith; and when we have a deep faith, we can draw water from the well of salvation and deliver it to thirsty souls.

We should have a heart deep enough to revive all people around the world as children of God Elohim, unlike shallow people who respond immediately with waves when a small stone is thrown into the well of their hearts. Since we are raised through the teachings of Jerusalem Mother, we are to have a deep heart like Mother's, and quench the thirst of a thousand or ten thousand people.

Let's participate in the divine nature by having a deep faith

Apostle Peter emphasizes that the saints, who will change and enter the spiritual world, should change in their personality and participate in the divine nature even while they are on this earth.

2 Pe 1:4-11 Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature and escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires. For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge; and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; and to godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, love. For if you possess these qualities in increasing measure, they will keep you from being ineffective and unproductive in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ . . . and you will receive a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

The faith, which contains goodness, knowledge, self-control, perseverance, godliness, brotherly kindness and love, can be called a deep faith that is not shaken by the waves of life. Enumerating the works of the forefathers of faith such as Noah and Abraham who had a deep faith like a deep well, God tells us to have a heart deep enough to enable us to participate in the divine nature.

Our spirits should resemble the deep spirit of Jerusalem Mother. By doing so, we can build a deep faith and live a noble and godly life as Father and Mother have taught us, so that we can declare the praises of God through our good deeds (1 Pe 2:9-12).

We should not be like foolish people who had a great will yesterday but give it up today after being enraged at a small thing. We, people of Zion, should all become vessels great enough to participate in the divine nature and to contain living water from the well of salvation, so that we may fulfill the mission to quench the thirst of all people around the world.

For this, we need to have a deep heart. Let's change ourselves first, not waiting for our surroundings and other people to change. If each of us changes, the world will change. We may suffer hardships until our inner beings change completely. There is nothing we can gain easily in the world.

In order to obtain the precious treasures, we need to undergo various difficulties.

So God asked us to hold on to the crown of life that each of us has, so that we will never be deprived of it.

I hope that we, the people of Zion, will have a heart and faith deep enough to embrace all the stones that are thrown to us with the divine nature, so that we can revive the whole world with the living water drawn from the well of salvation.

Hope.

People in Zion have real Hope for Heaven.

But when we give up, when we turn our backs,

Reply

Our hope will be gone.

Instead we should let our Hope become reality for making it to Heaven.

Never give up on going to Heaven because Seeking and longing for happiness on this earth is just for a moment and in the end it is meaningless..and you will regret making the wrong choice..

Heb 11: 13 All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance. And they admitted that they were aliens and strangers on earth. 14 People who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own. 15 If they had been thinking of the country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return.

Having the hope for the kingdom of heaven is the greatest hope we can have. Thanks to Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem for revealing the truth and giving us the forgiveness of sins that we may enter the glorious kingdom of heaven. The kingdom of heaven is priceless; its value is great than anything in this temporary world. That is why we should make every effort to acquire our citizenship, not on this earth, but in heaven.

Php 3: 20 But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, 21 who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body.

God already said that the way to be transformed to the glorious body is to have citizenship in heaven. If a person has their citizenship in a particular country which provides the right to live there, he is envied by people around him. How much more will we be envied if we have a permanent citizenship in heaven!

When Jesus came to this earth, He was mocked and persecuted by mere men, but He did not care about it at all, He was looking forward to a spiritual country

Jn 18: 33-38 Pilate then went back inside the palace, summoned Jesus and asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" "Is that your own idea," Jesus asked, "or did others talk to you about me?" "Am I a Jew?" Pilate replied. "It was your people and your chief priests who handed you over to me. What is it you have done?" Jesus said, "My kingdom is not of this world. If it were, my servants would fight to prevent my arrest by the Jews. But now my kingdom is from another place." "You are a king, then!" said Pilate. Jesus answered, "You are right in saying I am a king. In fact, for this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me."

God Almighty set the example for us to do the same. No matter what, we should endure all kinds of hardships because the kingdom of heaven is waiting for us. That is why God had to come again to the earth and show us the way to enter kingdom of heaven

Matt 7: 21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

Jn. 6:53 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55 For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. 56 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.

Lk. 22: 7 Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. 8 Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover."

14 When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. 15 And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

19 And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me."

20 In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

Christ Ahnsahnghong has come as God Almighty in the flesh, second coming Christ and showed us the will of God. He showed us the way to do the will of God so that we can enter the kingdom of heaven. Nobody can enter the kingdom of heaven without doing the will of God. Our Savior Christ Ahnsahnghong has bought all the precious truth back: Sabbath Day, Passover, The Feasts of God etc. Let's look forward to a new heaven and a new earth which our God Ahnsahnghong has given us!

We can see the the prophecies of the Bible is being fulfilled swiftly. As we saw in the United Nations website before, UN and World Mission Society Church of God became partners for creating a better world. Then recently, Heavenly Mother and World Mission Society Church of God received an award from President Barack Obama. We can understand that is is because of the prophecies of the Bible which states that Jerusalem will become the praise of the earth.

Every single prophecy in the Bible has been fulfilled in human history without fail, and is still being fulfilled today. Some prophecies, which still remain unfulfilled, will surely be fulfilled soon according to the providence of God.

Now, we have the most important prophecy of the Bible before us. God said that the glory of Jerusalem would be proclaimed to all the nations of the world. Even though there is a prophecy, unless we ask God and make an effort to fulfill the prophecy, it will be delayed in its fulfillment and we will not share in the glory which is prophesied. As the soldiers of the heavenly army in Zion, we should keep in step with the prophecy and proclaim the glory of Jerusalem to the whole world.

Jerusalem will be a praise in the earth

The prophet Isaiah prophesied about Jerusalem who would be the praise and glory of the earth as follows.

Isa 62:6-7 "I have posted watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem; they will never be silent day or night. You who call on the LORD, give yourselves no rest, and give him no rest till he establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the earth."

Isa 66:10-14 "Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her, all you who love her; ... For you will nurse and be satisfied at her comforting breasts; you will drink deeply and delight in her overflowing abundance." For this is what the LORD says: "I will extend peace to her like a river, and the wealth of nations like a flooding stream; you will nurse and be carried on her arm and dandled on her knees. As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you; and you will be comforted over Jerusalem."

When you see this, your heart will rejoice and you will flourish like grass; ..."

The prophecy about Jerusalem is mentioned many times in the book of Isaiah. The Bible says that it is God's will for Jerusalem to be praised by all the nations of the world and that we, all the children of God, will be comforted and glad in Jerusalem.

Who is Jerusalem that she will be praised and honored by all the nations of the world? As it is generally known, Jerusalem is a specific place located in the Middle East. How can a mere city called Jerusalem be established by God Himself and praised and honored by all the nations of the earth? How can we be carried and comforted in the arms of Jerusalem if it indicates a physical place?

Taking the prophecies literally will only increase doubts. As the Bible says, "... expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words" (1 Cor 2:13), we need to find out what the spiritual Jerusalem, not the earthly one, means in the Bible.

The heavenly Jerusalem is our Mother

The Bible mentions not only the earthly Jerusalem but also the heavenly Jerusalem. Now, let's find out what God wants to show us through Jerusalem.

Gal 4:26 "But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother."

It is written that the Jerusalem that is above is our mother. The Bible personifies Jerusalem on earth to show us its reality, the heavenly Jerusalem our Mother. It says in the Bible that we will be comforted in Jerusalem and satisfied at her comforting breasts. This shows that we, children of Jerusalem, will grow up spiritually, being comforted by our heavenly Mother, like a child who is dandled on his mother's knees and in her arms.

The Bible prophesies that Jerusalem will be praised and glorified in the earth. This prophecy does not refer to the earthly Jerusalem located in the Middle East. As spiritual watchmen, we should proclaim the glory of God to all the nations and clearly testify that it is God's firm will for Jerusalem our Mother to be praised in the earth.

Until the prophecy is completely fulfilled, we must continually pray to God that the day will come soon when the glory of Jerusalem our Mother will be proclaimed throughout the whole world. The gospel work will be finished when Mother is proclaimed and revealed throughout all the nations of the world.

The Bible continues to explain:

Gal 4:27-31 "For it is written: "Be glad, O barren woman, who bears no children; break forth and cry aloud, you who have no labor pains; because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband." Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman."

We are children of the free woman, our Mother, and also children of promise. What God promised us is eternal life (1 John 2:25). So, children of promise can be called children of eternal life. As we are children of Mother, we become children of promise who can receive eternal life and inherit the kingdom of heaven.

Children of promise like Isaac

Isaac was born to Abraham by his wife Sarah, and he became Abraham's heir. Sarah, the wife of Abraham, represents our heavenly Mother. That's why the Bible calls us "children of promise like Isaac."

Abraham, the forefather of faith, represents God the Father. Let's find out what the relationship between Abraham and God is, through the parable of the rich man and Lazarus spoken by Jesus.

Luke 16:19-31 "There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day. At his gate was laid a beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores and longing to eat what fell from the rich man's table. Even the dogs came and licked his sores. The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. In hell, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. So he called to him, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me ...' "

In the parable, when Lazarus and the rich man died, Lazarus was carried to Abraham's side and the rich man went to hell and was in torment. Strangely enough, the rich man in hell called to Abraham in heaven, "Father Abraham, ..." It is only God who can be called Father in the spiritual world. In other words, Abraham represents God.

The history of Abraham's family is described in various places throughout the book of Genesis in the Holy Bible. In Abraham's family, the matter of an heir was mentioned many times, and finally Isaac, whom Sarah bore, became the heir of Abraham. It was Sarah, Isaac's mother, that had a crucial role in deciding the heir.

Why do many verses in the Bible specifically describe an individual's family history? There is a certain reason for this. The history of Abraham's family shows us that Jerusalem our Mother has a decisive role in qualifying us as God's heirs to inherit His kingdom.

Abraham's family and Mother

Gen 15:1-5 "After this, the word of the LORD came to Abram (the original name of Abraham) in a vision: "Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your very great reward." But Abram said, "O Sovereign LORD, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir." Then the word of the LORD came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir." ...

When Abraham was 85 years old, he still had no son. So, he wanted to make Eliezer, a servant in his household, his heir to inherit his estate. However, God said that Eliezer was not suitable to be Abraham's heir and that a son coming from his own body would be his heir.

Gen 16:1-6, 15 "Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. But she had an Egyptian maidservant named Hagar; so she said to Abram, "The LORD has kept me from having children. Go, sleep with my maidservant; perhaps I can build a family through her." Abram agreed to what Sarai said. ... Hagar, and she conceived. When she knew she was pregnant, she began to despise her mistress. ... So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son she had borne. Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore him Ishmael."

Abraham's wife Sarah gave her maidservant Hagar to her husband as his concubine. When Hagar conceived, she began to despise her mistress Sarah. Since Sarah bore no children, she was despised by her maidservant. Afterward, she continued to suffer mental distress and anguish for about 14 years until Isaac was born.

When Hagar bore Ishmael to Abraham, he seemed to have an heir. However, God said to Abraham, "A son coming from your own body will be your heir." It was not God's will for Ishmael to be Abraham's heir. God wanted a son, who would be born to Abraham by Sarah his wife-the free woman, to become Abraham's heir.

Gen 17:1-7, 15-19 "When Abram was ninety-nine years old, ... God also said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you are no longer to call her Sarai; her name will be Sarah. I will bless her and will surely give you a son by her. I will bless her so that she will be the mother of nations; kings of peoples will come from her." Abraham fell facedown; he laughed and said to himself, "Will a son be born to a man a hundred years old? Will Sarah bear a child at the age of ninety?" And Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing!" Then God said, "Yes, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will call him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him."

Abraham assumed that Ishmael would be his heir. However, God said that He would establish His covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah would bear to him. God didn't allow Eliezer to be Abraham's heir for the reason that he was not his own son. Even though Ishmael was Abraham's son, God rejected him as his heir because he was born by the slave woman. God acknowledged only Isaac who would be born through Sarah.

As God had promised, one year later Sarah bore a son, Isaac, who became Abra-ham's heir through his mother, Sarah (Gen 21:1-12).

The heavenly inheritance is given through Mother

The history of Abraham's family shows through whom we can become God's chil-dren and inherit the kingdom of God. God has made those who are like Isaac children of promise and allowed them the blessing of eternal life. As Isaac was designated as Abraham's heir through his mother, so we can become God's heirs through our Mother and enjoy the precious blessing of eternal life.

Those who do not know Jerusalem our Mother can never become children of promise like Isaac. God said, "A son coming from your own body will be your heir." Ishmael was the first begotten son of Abraham, who was 14 years older than Isaac. Nevertheless, why didn't God accept Ishmael as Abraham's heir? Ishmael represents those who know God only as Father. However, the Bible clearly shows that there is God the Mother as well.

God has determined not to give the heavenly inheritance to those who have no part with Him. He doesn't accept the people, who believe in God the Father but do not believe in God the Mother, as His heirs. It is Mother who holds the final key. Everything on this earth is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. If we think about why God lets the physical life be given through a mother, we can understand what the divine will is.

Surely there is a reason why God establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the earth. The history of Abraham's family shows how much Mother has suffered until She is glorified. However, it expresses just a little bit of Her suffering. Until we've received eternal life promised by God, there's been the great sacrifice of Mother, who has suffered so much for 6,000 years in order to lead Her children to heaven. Mother grants us, Her children, eternal life through Her invisible, inexpressible pains. That's why God does not rest until He makes Mother the praise of the earth. The Bible describes the scene that God's children, who have received Jerusalem Mother, nurse and are satisfied at Her comforting breasts, delighting in Her overflowing abundance, like a child.

Heavenly Mother whom the Bible testifies about

The existence of our heavenly Mother is already recorded in Genesis. Let's look back to the time when our heavenly Mother did the work of creation together with our heavenly Father.

Gen 1:26-28 "Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground." So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. ..."

When God created man in His own image, male and female were created in the image of God. This suggests that there are two images of God: male and female. That's why God said when creating man, "Let us make man ...," instead of saying, "I will make man..."

Even before the creation of the world, both images of God already existed: the male image of God and the female image of God. Therefore, those who have received only God the Father cannot be God's heirs. Although they live together in Abraham's family and call him Lord or Father, they cannot inherit his estate, just as Eliezer and Ishmael, who were not children of Sarah, didn't inherit Abraham's property.

If we just call out to God without knowing Him correctly, we cannot communicate with God. We can worship God rightly when we know Him. Keeping the will of God in mind, we should quickly proclaim Jerusalem our Mother, who is life, to all the nations of the world. As the eternal kingdom of God is close at hand, we will bear more good fruit if we fully proclaim the glory of Jerusalem our Mother. God's prophecy must surely be fulfilled if we believe in it and put it into practice.

Proclaim the glory of the new Jerusalem to the whole world

We have to fulfill the prophecies of the Bible diligently. Young adult members like the dew of the dawn must arise; the gospel must be preached to all nations; and the prophesied 144,000, whom John saw, will all come to Mount Zion and be guided by the Spirit and the Bride.

We must not delay doing God's work. Even at this moment, time passes away. Making the most of every moment, let's proclaim the glory of Jerusalem our heavenly Mother all the more. Some will probably intend to defame the glory of Jerusalem, like Tobiah and Sanballat. However, even amid their hindrance, the city of Jerusalem was completed without fail, because it was the work of the Holy Spirit, not something men could accomplish by themselves.

We all experienced the work of the Holy Spirit during the Preaching Festival of the Feast of Tabernacles. The number of the souls we found during the week of the Preaching Festival is almost the same as the number of the souls whom we had found for a year. How can we say it's the work of men? Since we all became one with filial piety toward Jerusalem our Mother, the gracious work of the Holy Spirit occurred, like a good son in an ancient Korean story who moved heaven and was able to find strawberries for his old mother in the middle of the winter.

Now, through the fire of the Holy Spirit, let's proclaim the glory of Jerusalem our Mother to the whole world. Then the people of all nations will come together to see the glory of God, and when each of them returns he will proclaim God's glory in his country (Isa 66:18-19). How amazing!

It is our mission to proclaim the glory of Jerusalem throughout the whole world. When Gideon's army of 300 soldiers broke the jars, held the torches hidden in them and shouted, "For the LORD!" they were able to defeat 135,000 men and won a great victory. Likewise, when we shout out the glory of Jerusalem, a marvelous work will occur. Now is the time for us to break the jars and hold the torches high. Let's shout altogether, lifting up the torches. Let us all arise and shine the light of the gospel to the whole world. Looking forward to the day when God's glory will be shone brightly all over the world, let us diligently proclaim the light of the glory of the new Jerusalem to the whole world.

If the Church of God is a Cult! Then Christianity itself is a cult

When reading the cult watch website you come across a section entitled: "How does the WMS Church of God brainwash its members?" In this section Ted goes through a checklist of what he calls "coercive techniques." Ted considers these techniques as guidelines to qualify a group as a cult. However if we are going to judge what a cult is according to these techniques, then Christianity itself is the biggest cult to ever exist. How can this be possible? Let us see through verses from the Bible:

1) Cults Claim to Have all Knowing leadership:

John 21:17 {the third time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep.}

2) Cults only teach you up to what you are able to believe:

Hebrews 5:11 {We much to say about this, but it is hard to explain because you are slow to learn.}

3) Cults claim no room for differences (Everybody is the same):

Colossians 3:11 {Here there is no Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all, and is in all.}

4) Cults claim to introduce a new and better way:

Hebrews 7:18-19 {the former regulation is set aside because it was weak and useless (for the law made nothing perfect), and a better hope is introduced, by which we draw near to God.}

5) Cult members should imitate cult leader:

Philippians 2:5 {your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus}

Also Colossians 3:11 of example 3.

6) Cults isolate you from your family:

Matthew 10:37 {anyone who loves his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me}

7) Cults Brainwash ignorant and people who have no critical thinking.

Acts 4:13 {when they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus.}

8) Cults Recruit people:

Mk 16:15-16 {He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned}

9) Cults always claim Persecution of the Leader:

Acts 22:6-8 {"About noon as I came near Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me. I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, 'Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?' 'Who are you, Lord?' I asked " 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting,' he replied.}

10) Cults have ignorant leaders:

John 7:14-16 {Not until halfway through the Feast did Jesus go up to the temple courts and begin to teach. The Jews were amazed and asked, "How did this man get such learning without having studied?"}

11) Cults try to keep members busy:

Acts 2:46-47 {every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

12) Cult leaders always try to gain your trust:

John 14:1 {“Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me”}

13) Cults believe that by your actions you prove your faith:

James 2:17 {in the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.}

14) Cults claim salvation is through obedience before the end comes:

Matthew 24:42 {“Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come.”}

15) Cults make members dependant to the cult leader:

John 15:5 {“I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.”}

16) Cults claim that there is no exit apart from the cult:

John 6:67-68 {“You do not want to leave too, do you?” Jesus asked the Twelve. Simon Peter answered him “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.”}

17) Cult members claim to have “Spiritual Battles”:

Ephesians 6:12 {for our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.}

18) Cults try to keep things secret:

Matthew 17:9 {As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, “Don’t tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”}

19) Cult leaders claim to be the only way, and supreme authority:

John 14:6 {Jesus answered, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.”}

And for the sake of space and time, I omitted the teachings of: Judaism, Mohammed, Buddha, Martin Luther King, Nelson Mandela, Mahatma Gandhi, Copernicus, Galileo...etc.

If we are going to judge groups and organizations by these standards, then every single organization and religion is a cult. We should not judge the Church of God by these standards, rather we should see if the teachings that the Church practices come from God or not. To label the World Mission Society Church of God as a cult is no different from when the Jewish religious leaders called the Apostles a Nazarene sect. Please don’t commit the same mistake as 2,000 years ago.

Proverbs 16:25 There is a way that seems right to a man, but in the end it leads to death.

Isaiah 55:8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways,"
declares the LORD.

9 "As the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are my ways higher than your ways
and my thoughts than your thoughts.

The cult watch website disappeared quite some time ago. If it was taken down so long ago, who's going to be "...reading the cult watch website you come across a section..."

Reply

The cult watch website doesn't exist any more!
You need to update your arguments! You sound out-of-date and uninformed.

Here are some things you should consider...
Why, on federal forms for the IRS, does the WMSCOG make NO mention of Ahnsahnghong or "Mother Jerusalem"?

http://encounteringahnsahnghong.blogspot.com/2011/07/wmscog-said-what-on-official-form.html

And why did Ahnsahnghong himself insist that "Jesus" was the only name, even in the last days?

http://encounteringahnsahnghong.blogspot.com/2011/05/name-of-jesus.html

And here is a response to your "If the Church of God is a cult then Christianity is a cult", then-christianity-is.html](http://encountering-ahnsahnghong.blogspot.com/2011/06/if-wmscog-is-cult-then-christianity-is.html)

And one more thing, did you all know that Ahnsahnghong thought Isaac was God in the flesh too?
Seriously!

Try again, Bell. Do you have a copy and paste article to respond to any of those? Better yet, how about if you speak with your own words, heart, and mind. Your church tells you "don't put your own mind to it" because they want to tell you how to think. God gave you a mind, and He wants you to use it.

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your MIND, and with all your strength."

with all your strength." Mark 12:31

Many Christians profess that they love Jesus. Whether Catholics, Born Again, or some other denominations, they claim to love God. But how can we truly love God? Is it by just saying with our own lips that we love God? Let's see through the Bible.

Reply

Jn. 14:15 – 15 "If you love me, keep my commands

Jn. 14:21 – 21 Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them."

Jesus Himself told us that if we truly love Him, we must obey His commandments. Then why does Jesus want us to love Him? What will He give us?

Luke 10:25-28 – 25 On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" 26 "What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you read it?" 27 He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'; and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'" 28 "You have answered correctly," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live."

We can see here that an expert in the law was asking and testing Jesus on what is written in the Law in order to have eternal life? We can understand that this guy that's expert in the law are referring to the Old Testament Law since the New Testament was not written yet during the time of Jesus here on earth. According to Jesus answer, in order for us to have eternal life, we must "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. This is written in the Law or Old Testament. Then we can have a clue that the way to fulfill this is by finding out in the Law or Old Testament. Lets see.

Deut. 6:5-9 – 5 LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. 6 These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. 7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. 8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. 9 WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES and on your gates.

Wow this was the same words that Jesus told the expert in the law. Then we can see a clue here on verse 9 that says "WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES". Now let's check for another clue on the same chapter.

Deut. 6:20-25 – 20 In the future, when your son asks you, "What is the meaning of the stipulations, decrees and laws the LORD our God has commanded you?" 21 tell him: "We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 22 Before our eyes the LORD sent signs and wonders—great and terrible—on Egypt and Pharaoh and his whole household. 23 But he brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land he promised on oath to our ancestors. 24 The LORD commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear the LORD our God, so that we might always prosper and be kept alive, as is the case today. 25 And if we are careful to obey all this law before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, that will be our righteousness."

Ok so this are the commandment's clue are:

- WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES
- COMMANDMENT THAT BROUGHT THE ISRAELITES OUT OF EGYPT

Then let's see what is this.

Exo. 12:1-14 – 1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt, 2 "This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year. 3 Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb[a] for his family, one for each household. 4 If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbor, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat. 5 The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats. 6 Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the members of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight. 7 THEN THEY ARE TO TAKE SOME OF THE BLOOD AND PUT IT ON THE SIDES AND TOPS OF THE DOOR FRAMES OF THE HOUSES WHERE THEY EAT THE LAMBS. 8 That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast. 9 Do not eat the meat raw or boiled in water, but roast it over a fire—with the head, legs and internal organs. 10 Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it. 11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; IT IS THE LORD'S PASSOVER.

12 "On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn of both people and animals, and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. 13 The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are, and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

14 "This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD—a lasting ordinance.

Now its clear. The PASSOVER is the commandment that would fulfill the "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH". When the Israelites kept the Passover, they were freed from Egypt. So it is the PASSOVER.

Then 2000 years ago, Jesus Christ established the Passover of the New Covenant which is the reality.

Lk. 22:8 – 8 Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover."

Lk. 22:14-15 – 14 When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. 15 And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

Lk. 22:19-20 – 19 And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." 20 In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you

By keeping the Passover, we can truly love God and receive eternal life.

John 6:53-55 — JESUS SAID to them, "I TELL YOU THE TRUTH, UNLESS you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. WHOEVER EATS MY FLESH AND DRINKS MY BLOOD REMAINS IN ME, AND I IN HIM.

Thanks to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong, the 2nd Coming Christ according to the prophecies of the Bible, for reminding us the precious truth.

Jn. 14:25-26 – 25 "All this I have spoken while still with you. 26 But the COUNSELOR, THE HOLY SPIRIT, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and WILL REMIND YOU OF EVERYTHING I HAVE SAID TO YOU.

Let's have true faith in Jesus by following His Words of Life so that we can truly Love Him and receive eternal life.

Jn. 3:16 – 16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM SHALL NOT PERISH BUT HAVE ETERNAL LIFE

Jam. 2:17-19 – 17 In the same way, FAITH BY ITSELF, IF IT IS NOT ACCOMPANIED BY ACTION IS DEAD. 18 But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds." Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do. 19 You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

Bell – that's a valid point, that the one who truly loves God will keep His commands.

Although, you're missing a key factor to that point. Jesus is God, therefore when He commanded us to love our neighbor as ourselves, that would be a part of the command also. Are you saying all of these things because you have a passionate love for God and truly love us so much as to want to help us reach truth, or are you doing this because your religious society which you hold faith in is telling you to say these things? Paul tells us in Corinthians of the many spiritual gifts listed, that they are vain without love. The gifts are for the benefit of the church and for God's glory – not for the benefit of self. Everything is vanity if it lacks love. Therefore, unless you truly love us Bell, please do not waste your typing skills on this nonsense. Because the truth is, we (the true Church) love you more than you could possibly love us if you are saying exactly what every other member of the WMSCOG says, having an outward example of faith but lacking the inner qualities.

I'm not saying this is you Bell, but from what I've heard of people being in the church, I see a lot of confusion in COG. I see much anger and malice, as well as prejudice within the COG attitude toward the lower ranks of peoples. I see a disgusting false love and a false hope in a false Holy Spirit and a false belief that Jesus the Christ has returned reincarnate as a Korean man, only showing that part of the globe (no global media) his being, and therefore not coming in glory as the Bible rightfully states will happen when He returns.

I see lots of repetitive thinking within the COG also. Genny is right in saying that you ought to stop saying these same verses over and over like a formula for evangelism, because every other COG member either has or will have used them soon enough for the same reasons. It's like using $2+2=4$ when you need to use $2 \times 2 = 4 \times 2 = 8 + 2 = 10 / 2 = 5$. You can't just use one formula with the Bible and evangelism – there are many formulas God opens our eyes to when it comes to experiencing His word.

That said, I think I speak for all of us when I say we're praying for you to seek truth and pray Bell. Stop thinking like a clone and let the truth of God find you as you ask for truth. Not one of many truths, but the ONE truth, the one and only – for there is only one truth. The truth alone is what reveals the unseen.

I agree, Pierce.

Isaiah 55:8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," declares the LORD.

Reply

9 "As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

Innumerable people around the world claim to believe in God. However, God says that there is no one righteous, not even one; there is no one who does good, not even one.

Ro 3:10-12 "As it is written: "There is no one righteous, not even one; there is ... no one who seeks God. ... there is no one who does good, not even one."

Who is a righteous one whom God approves? The Bible says that there is no one who seeks God and comes near to Him except the righteous.

Adam, the ancestor of mankind, sought God and came near to Him before he sinned. But after he committed sin by eating from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, he hid himself from God when He called him, "Adam, Adam!" rather than came to Him, saying, "Yes, here am I." From that moment he sinned, he became afraid of God and shrunk from His presence. Since Adam committed sin, his heart was changed.

A righteous person obeys the word of God

If we feel alienated from God, we should recognize that we are gradually falling away from righteousness and should turn ourselves to it. Through the account of Noah, let's see how we can become righteous and what we must do to become righteous.

Ge 6:9 "This is the account of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless among the people of his time, and he walked with God."

Let's find out why Noah was called righteous and blameless by God, through his works.

Heb 11:7-10 "By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in holy fear built an ark to save his family. By his faith he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that comes by faith. By faith Abraham, ... he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God."

What did Noah, a righteous man, do? He realized God's plan of judging the world in those days, and prepared an ark in obedience to God's command. By faith Noah built the ark, so he was called a righteous man and an heir of righteousness.

All who were called righteous and forefathers of faith like Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, had absolute faith in God and obeyed whatever God told them to do.

With absolute faith in God, Noah built the ark to save his family and the world. That was the most righteous thing in God's sight and caused him to be called an heir of righteousness.

Jas 2:17-26 "In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead. ... You foolish man, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless? ... You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did. ... As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead"

The book of James shows us what is righteousness in God's sight. God considers it a righteous act to fully obey His word, not just to know it.

We, too, have faith in God: We believe that He will gather the 144,000 and lead the people of the new covenant into the everlasting kingdom. We try to do God's will by fully keeping all His laws and diligently carrying out our ministry of preaching the gospel, loving God with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our mind. When we thus put our faith into action, God calls us 'righteous.' The righteous are those who obey God's word; they are perfect in God's sight.

Just as Noah and Abraham were called righteous, so the 144,000 are now called righteous. It is because they truly believe God's word and also put it into practice.

Though a man knows and believes that 'the Sabbath is right,' unless he observes it he cannot be blessed; only by keeping the Sabbath holy, he can receive the blessing God has promised. Likewise, if a man just believes that 'the Passover is right,' how can he receive God's blessing? Only when he celebrates the Passover by eating the bread and drinking the wine, he can receive the blessing of eternal life and the seal of God.

Blessing for the righteous who show their faith by deeds

Those who put their faith into action were all blessed. In this age, we are also blessed and called righteous when we serve God by preaching His words and keeping the new covenant regulations for the seven feasts at the three times in a year. That is God's providence and will. So the Bible says that a person is justified by what he does and not by faith alone.

When God told Noah to prepare an ark, if he had not obeyed God's word even though he believed it was right to do so, would God have called him a righteous and perfect man?

Noah did a thing that was really hard to obey in those days. The Bible doesn't tell us how long it took Noah to build the ark, but most Biblical scholars agree that it took so many years to build the ark. To build it must have cost him a great deal of money and labor, including expenses for purchasing materials and workers' wages. With undeveloped technology in those times, it must have been a handiwork requiring over a hundred people; they must have worked unceasingly day and night. Thus, Noah spent a great deal of time and money on the ark. He devoted his whole life to building the ark. Besides that, people had never seen rain up until that time. They laughed and made fun of Noah and his family all those years. However, Noah just followed God's word and continued to build the ark. By doing that, he was called a righteous man, blameless in his generations.

Abraham, the father of faith, also proved his faith by his deeds. He absolutely obeyed God's command to offer his only son Isaac as a burnt offering. The command to sacrifice Isaac would be a very difficult one for Abraham to obey. It would be easier for him to give up his wealth or power. Abraham loved his son Isaac more than his own self. It must have been hard and painful for him to offer Isaac as a sacrifice.

When God ordered Abraham to offer up his son, he might have questioned God's command. However, he obeyed God without arguing or complaining. He was willing to sacrifice his son Isaac, thinking that God gave him Isaac and He had the right to take his life. How greatly God would be pleased when He saw Abraham's faith and obedience! Abraham was called the father of faith and received God's overflowing blessing.

Everyone has his own values. To Abraham his son was the most valuable treasure in the world, and to Noah his possessions. God sometimes requires of each person what is the most important thing to him. This is not because He hates him but because He wants to give a greater blessing to him.

Comparing the faith and works of the righteous Noah and Abraham with ours, we need to check whether or not we have deeds along with faith. In this age, an act of faith that pleases God most is to save souls, sacrificing the most precious thing we have.

Hoping for heaven, we follow the Spirit and the Bride and we firmly believe that all of our heavenly brothers and sisters scattered across the earth will quickly come to Zion. With the act of faith by which we become righteous before God, we are now proclaiming the truth, throwing out the life line, to save poor dying souls. We are building Zion the ark of salvation around the world and leading many souls into the ark. Seeing brothers and sisters participating in the gospel as God prophesied, we feel that we gradually become righteous by acts, like Noah and Abraham.

We should let go of all our own ideas and learn the obedience of faith that Noah showed, so that we may all become the righteous people, the 144,000, in these last days.

Practice righteousness by following the examples of faith

God says that there is no one righteous, not even one. Then how can we become righteous in this age? Through the works of the forefathers of faith in the Bible, God tells us how to become righteous. We are to put our faith into action; for faith can be alive only when it is accompanied by action.

Our forefathers in faith were proven to be righteous by putting their faith into action. We will also be called righteous by God when we believe God's word and put it into practice.

Righteousness and unrighteousness [evil] always exist in the world. How can we distinguish between right from evil? We can distinguish between the righteous and the unrighteous by their deeds. Our fore-fathers in faith were called righteous because of what they did, but many other people were called unrighteous because they did evil.

2 Pe 2:5 "if he did not spare the ancient world when he brought the flood on its ungodly people, but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, and seven others"

Now, we should be considered righteous in God's sight, by doing the righteous act of preparing the ark and calling in all whom God has allowed to enter the ark. Noah took his family and every kind of animal on the ark, in addition to himself. How about the other people? They disobeyed God and did not enter in.

The Bible calls all non-Israelites 'Gentiles' and likens them to animals. However, God has promised that even non-Jews, compared to animals, will be saved at the last day if only they obey God's command to enter Zion the ark of salvation and serve God through their acts of faith. Thanks to this promise, we Gentiles are now obeying God's words with the hope of heaven.

Mt 24:37-39 "As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man."

God said that the end time would be like the days of Noah. The gospel in this age is accomplished when all who are to be saved flee to Zion, the ark of salvation. What's the use of the ark unless it is occupied by those who are to be saved? Now, let's learn how to lead many into the ark of salvation, from the works of the apostles in the Early Church.

Ac 2:41-47 "Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to their number that day. They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. ... All the believers were together and had everything in common. ...Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved."

The apostles, being filled with the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, devoted themselves to prayer and preaching, doing righteous good deeds, and they were highly regarded by many people. When we devote ourselves entirely to saving souls, God will be pleased and add to our number day by day those who are being saved.

Ac 4:1-4 "... while they were speaking to the people. ... They seized Peter and John, and because it was evening, they put them in jail until the next day. But many who heard the message believed, and the number of men grew to about five thousand."

In the days of the Early Church, the apostles continued to meet together with glad and sincere hearts and boldly proclaimed Jesus as the Christ and Savior. God opened the hearts of those who heard it, and within a short period of time about five thousand were baptized.

We need to consider what our forefathers in faith did in order to receive God's blessing, and how the saints of the Early Church were blessed. We should imitate the faith of the saints of the Early Church, so that God will add to our number daily those who are being saved in this age, too. Many people claim to believe in God but refuse to do His will, just as He said: "There is no one righteous, not even one." We are asked to accomplish our prophetic mission in these last days. Keeping our faith alive by practicing righteousness, we must come closer to God.

Practicing righteousness causes us joy. When we, being full of joy, give glory to God and do whatever He wants us to do, we come to understand God's plans and His will described in the 66 books of the Bible. No one can understand God's word without practicing it, even though he reads the Bible a hundred times or a thousand times. Only he who does the will of God can understand all passages-even the difficult things in the Bible.

Our hope is to enter the kingdom of heaven after quickly finding all our 144,000 brothers and sisters. We need to consider how the Early Church could lead so many people to the truth in such a short time. It was possible because they did just as the Bible said. For the Bible guides us towards practical ways of achieving righteousness.

God is making us complete. In obedience with His will, let's practice far greater righteousness than Noah, and we will be called righteous and perfect by God.

All righteous ones having faith with works! Let's awaken this sleeping and dying generation by the work of the Holy Spirit, which is seven times greater than that of the Early Church!

Jehovah's Witnesses laud the wonders of the Bible and boast how there is no other text that they follow to develop their doctrine. What the Jehovah's Witness does not tell people is that their particular version of the Bible, the New World Translation, has been perverted to reflect Watchtower doctrines and beliefs.

Same applies with the WMSCOG who follow a particular version of the Bible the NIV which has been perverted to reflect their false doctrines & beliefs (Come my silly ignorant sheep listen only to my voice)

Do not waste too much time Genny, though, waiting for an answer from Bell. They have never and will never be able to answer as they read only the selected/highlighted Bible verses and we can clearly understand can they possibly have real truth with such limited knowledge of the Bible. A Bible Basher can never ever present a coherent reason why he thinks this or that example is what he assumes that it is: an error or contradiction. In the end like a coward they will either stop posting or find a way of hacking these sites which points the errors in their beliefs.

As for Bell he does even know the reason why he is pasting this nonsense. Misguided pride and arrogance are hallmarks of such Cultogetics. Poor guy is is overworked and needs medication for this mental sickness. Truly it is not a joke sleeping few hours collecting similar lengthy material from other bros/sis or their websites and posting here.

You are right Pearce all we can do is pray that the Lord is working on their conscience, with the express hope that God will convict them of their diabolical defense, and then free them so that they would understand the truth.

Bell nice telling us stories about Adam, Noah, Abraham and all the biblical characters which I think we all know. Now as a disciple of WMSCOG you should be able to tell us what this new spirit and bride did from 1918 till his death. Obviously this event did not happen 2000 years ago. It is all so fresh in the 80's and easily to have been captured on the video camera. Yet the WMSCOG uses biblical movie clips from the RC videotapes and the image of Jesus(in the Last Supper on the website) and all words spoken by Jesus himself. Where is the image of your second coming Korean Christ having last supper with Joo Cheol and MJ? What is something different he did as a Korean Jesus apart from writing a few books from the knowledge he gained as a member of the SDA? Wouldn't it be great to watch how he was brought up as a Buddhist, ate the Kimchi and met MJ. With today's technology you could have your very own movies on this christ. But looks like all the record about these 2 frauds go hidden. You can be fooled not us.

It will be hard on them you see to let "the cat out of the bag" . When cult leaders pretending to be God find this an easy religious business that allows them to flourish on your poor souls. Keep Thinking! Reflect on JESUS

You can be easily fooled as "SATAN LOCKS CAPTIVES INSIDE CULTS BUT CHRIST MAKES FREE IN HIS CHURCH"

Matthew 26:17 On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?"

19 So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

26 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body."

27 Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. 28 This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the FORGIVENESS OF SINS.

We have been freed from this sinful world through the power of the Passover, and now we are walking the desert of faith just before entering into the everlasting heavenly Canaan. Until we enter into eternal joy and glory, we may suffer troubles and hardships (Ro 8:16-18). The people of Israel, while they were on their way to the promised land of Canaan, faced many unfavorable circumstances and obstacles during their 40-year journey through the desert after leaving Egypt, the land of slavery. Likewise, there are many difficulties on the path we walk now.

If we only look at the physical circumstances we currently face, we will be at a loss what to do and have difficulties in finding a solution. However, if we are conscious of God who always walks with us, we can overcome all hardships. God, who is the way, the truth, and the life, is always with us in Zion, the city of truth, and provides a solution for everything.

Look upward

A man was confined in a glass box. He could see outside, but when he took a few steps forward, he was blocked by the transparent glass wall; he also bumped against the wall when he moved backward, left or right. The moment he felt he was completely confined in the glass box, he fell into despair. No matter how much he tried to find a way out of the box « survive, he had no idea what to do.

He spent several days in despair, and one day he suddenly found himself still alive in the glass box. If he had been locked in a sealed glass container, he would already have been dead. However, he was still breathing. As he came to realize this, he began to think of where he didn't try to move. Then he found there was one side he didn't try to move to. It was the top. He naturally thought that the upper side was also partitioned by a glass wall, but when he moved upward, there was no wall.

While walking the path of faith, sometimes we face a problem or situation that seems impossible to solve. If we look at all sides-left, right, front and back-but we can find no way or solution and feel frustrated, being blocked by something, there is still one place we have to look at. It is the upside. Even if all sides are blocked, the upper part is always open. If we look up to God, everything will be solved.

People try to find a way, only looking right and left, back and forth, but there is also the upside. We need to look at the upper side, instead of just looking at the walls around us and getting frustrated. If we look up to heaven, we will find the existence of God who helps us. However, if we look right, left, back and forth at the same level as the human eye, all sides seem to be blocked off by the walls. We must not forget that there is always an open space, even though all sides are blocked, on our journey of faith.

Conflicting reports by the twelve spies

Most of the Israelites tested God and complained against Him on their journey to Canaan, so they all perished in the desert. The people who were destroyed at that time were those who didn't look up to God but just looked at the circumstances around them.

In the second year after the Exodus, Israel picked a leader from each of the 12 ancestral tribes and sent them to explore the land of Canaan (Nu 13:1-20). When they returned from spying out the land at the end of forty days, they reported to Moses and the whole assembly. There were two conflicting reports.

Nu 13:25-14:10 At the end of forty days they returned from exploring the land. They came back to Moses and Aaron and the whole Israelite community at Kadesh in the Desert of Paran. There they reported to them and to the whole assembly . . . "We went into the land to which you sent us, and it does flow with milk and honey! Here is its fruit. But the people who live there are powerful, and the cities are fortified and very large. . . . We can't attack those people; they are stronger than we are." And they spread among the Israelites a bad report about the land they had explored. They said, "The land we explored devours those living in it. All the people we saw there are of great size. We saw the Nephilim there (the descendants of Anak come from the Nephilim). We seemed like grasshoppers in our own eyes, and we looked the same to them." That night all the people of the community raised their voices and wept aloud. All the Israelites grumbled against Moses and Aaron, . . . And they said to each other, "We should choose a leader and go back to Egypt." . . . Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had explored the land, tore their clothes and said to the entire Israelite assembly, "The land we passed through and explored is exceedingly good. If the LORD is pleased with us, he will lead us into that land, a land flowing with milk and honey, and will give it to us. Only do not rebel against the LORD. And do not be afraid of the people of the land, because we will swallow them up. Their protection is gone, but the LORD is with us. Do not be afraid of them." But the whole assembly talked about stoning them. Then the glory of the LORD appeared at the Tent of Meeting to all the Israelites.

Ten of the twelve spies, who had been selected from among 600,000 men, one from each tribe, gave a negative report when they returned from exploring the land of Canaan. Actually, they didn't give a false report. As they reported, there were descendants of Anak, a tribe of giants, in the land of Canaan, and the city of Jericho, inhabited by them, was a strongly fortified city. While the Israelites were exhausted from travelling through the desert, the inhabitants of the land were training a powerful army consisting of strong and tall soldiers, eating rich food. So, they couldn't help but think it was impossible to defeat them. Contrary to them, Joshua and Caleb cried out, "We will swallow them up," even though it seemed impossible. To the Israelites, the report of the ten spies seemed realistic and accurate, while the two men seemed like dreamers. However, God acknowledged the report of Joshua and Caleb.

Those who were conscious of God and those who were not Nu 14:11-30 The LORD said to Moses, "How long will these people treat me with contempt? How long will they refuse to believe in me, in spite of all the miraculous signs I have performed among them? I will strike them down with a plague and destroy them, but I will make you into a nation greater and stronger than they." Moses said to the LORD, "Then the Egyptians will hear about it! By your power you brought these people up from among them. . . . 'The LORD was not able to bring these people into the land he promised them on oath; so he slaughtered them in the desert.' . . . forgive the sin of these people, just as you have pardoned them from the time they left Egypt until now." The LORD replied, "I have forgiven them, as you asked. Nevertheless, . . .

but who disobeyed me and tested me ten times-not one of them will ever see the land I promised on oath to their forefathers. No one who has treated me with contempt will ever see it. . . . In this desert your bodies will fall-every one of you twenty years old or more who was counted in the census and who has grumbled against me. Not one of you will enter the land I swore with uplifted hand to make your home, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun."

God was enraged at those who treated Him with contempt, for the ten spies only spoke about the situation of the land and they didn't tell the people the fact that God was with them in that situation. They only looked at the barriers around them and failed to see the upside which was open. It was true that all sides were closed, but it was also true that the upside was open. However, they failed to report it. God pronounced a judgment that none of the Israelites, who grumbled against God, would enter Canaan, the land flowing with milk and honey.

Only Joshua and Caleb accurately reported the fact that God was with them. The reality of the land which the ten spies saw was totally different from what the two men, Joshua and Caleb, looked at. The ten only spoke about the barriers, but Joshua and Caleb also told about the ceiling that was open.

Through Moses God chose the most trustworthy people with the strongest faith from among 600,000 men, but only two of the twelve men were conscious of God. How deplorable and heartbreaking! All who read the Bible may think that they will follow in the footsteps of Joshua and Caleb. However, if they are actually confined in a glass box, it is not easy for them to look upward.

In this age, people like Joshua and Caleb are needed. Those who say about the present situation but do not speak of God who is with them in that situation cannot be like Joshua and Caleb. The more gloomy and difficult our current situation is and the more tightly the glass walls confine us, the more we should look at the upside, shouldn't we?

Those who failed to look upward

It was not long after the Israelites saw the great power God displayed against the Egyptians that they began to grumble against God. They were also continuously observing God's miracle of raining down bread from heaven for them every day.

When God rained down bread from heaven, there were only a few people who could look above. This occurred precisely a month after the Israelites left Rameses on the fifteenth day of the first month: As a month passed by, the food they had brought with them out of Egypt had almost run out. They looked all around, but there was nothing for them to eat.

Ex 16:1-5 The whole Israelite community set out from Elim and came to the Desert of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had come out of Egypt. In the desert the whole community grumbled against Moses and Aaron. The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the LORD's hand in Egypt! There we sat around pots of meat and ate all the food we wanted, but you have brought us out into this desert to starve this entire assembly to death." Then the LORD said to Moses, "I will rain down bread from heaven for you. The people are to go out each day and gather enough for that day. In this way I will test them and see whether they will follow my instructions. . . ."

Moreover, the land the Israelites were proceeding towards was not a fertile land which could produce various crops or fruits for them to eat, but it was a dry, barren wilderness. They could reach Canaan in about 10 days if they took a shortcut through Edom. However, God led them on a long journey through the desert, and their destination was still far away although they went on and on. They thought they would all die even before arriving at the destination. So, they grumbled against Moses and Aaron, saying it would have been better for them to stay in Egypt.

God also excluded these people. The ten spies reported to Moses what they really saw, and the people, who grumbled against Moses and Aaron because there was no food, just explained the circumstances they were in. However, what they saw with their eyes was different from the reality in the invisible world.

God had already prepared food for them. From the barn He had prepared in heaven, He rained down bread for them every day. Nevertheless, they just looked down, right and left, without seeing upward, so they couldn't find food anywhere. God classified such people into a group that would be destroyed in the desert. So the Apostle Paul repeatedly emphasized in 1 Corinthians that we should not follow their example.

1 Co 10:1-13 . . . our forefathers were all under the cloud and that they all passed through the sea. They were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. They all ate the same spiritual food and drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank from the spiritual rock that accompanied them, and that rock was Christ. Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them; their bodies were scattered over the desert. Now these things occurred as examples to keep us from setting our hearts on evil things as they did. . . .

God let those things happen to the Israelites as examples and warnings for us, so that we should not be like them. If we carefully observe what kind of people God was not pleased with and who were destroyed in the desert, we can find an answer to the question-'What kind of faith should we have in this age?'

When we walk the way to our heavenly home, we need the same kind of resolution as is required to walk the desert. On our journey, however, God is always with us. As we forget this, we feel helpless like a man who is confined in a glass box, but in actuality our own view of reality is not real. In fact, the upper side is open, and all the other sides are also open. Nevertheless, we confine ourselves in artificial boundaries made by our own thoughts.

Look at the reality of the spiritual world

Through the historical facts of Israelites' life in the desert, let's consider whether we look up and see all things that God operates or we just look back and forth, left and right, as we walk the desert of faith today. In order to accomplish God's work of saving the world, we are now making all efforts to find the "salt of the world" that will purify the whole world like the three percent of salt which purifies sea water. If we tell the good news to all nations, we will not always be in a favorable situation where they open their minds right away and listen to our preaching but we will face many difficult situations. We may feel confined in a glass box if we look back and forth, left and right. However, the upper side is always open.

The Bible tells us to cast all our anxiety on God (1 Pe 5:7). None of us by worrying can add a single hour to our life, and we cannot make even one hair white or black (Mt 6:27; 5:36). If God has said that He will bring us out of Egypt and lead us to Canaan through the desert of faith, God will surely accomplish the work by any means. So, all we have to do is go forward, depending only on God.

Just as God said that He carried His people on eagles' wings and brought them to Himself, He now leads us by His power. While being carried on the eagles' wings, we don't need to worry whether the eagles can fly while carrying us.

God is always with us in reality. Nevertheless, the ten spies forgot the fact that there is the invisible world as well as the visible world, and they only spoke about the reality of the visible world. God said they would never enter Canaan. While God gave the physical Israelites Canaan as the land of rest, He has given the spiritual Israelites Heaven as the place of eternal rest for them. So, if God has told anyone that he will not enter Canaan, it means that he cannot enter the kingdom of heaven.

I earnestly hope that none of our brothers and sisters in Zion will fall away from God on the journey to the heavenly Canaan. We should be always conscious of God and look up to Him so that we can all enter the kingdom of God. Even though it seems that we are now in unfavorable circumstances where there is no food and that we are weak and feeble compared to them, we have God always standing by our side.

If we are conscious of God, we can overcome any fearful situation, as did Daniel and his three friends-Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. As they were conscious of God even in the dreadful situation, God shut the mouths of the lions and prevented the fiery furnace from harming them (Daniel 3, 6). Like them, those who always think of God live a miraculous life every day, but those who do not have God on their side live a difficult and painful life.

In the desert of faith, there are two kinds of people: people like Joshua and Caleb, and people like the ten spies. We need to carefully consider whose footsteps we should follow in, so that we will not end up regretting at the end of our journey to heaven. Let's not only look at the external reality of the physical world, but see the reality of the spiritual world with our spiritual eyes like Joshua and Caleb, and follow our Father and Mother wherever They lead us, until the end.

Are we a waste of time for you? to much effort to save? why r u giving up?

As i can see, Bell is showing great patience in you guys, sharing stories and lessons from the bible and praising god here and there.

As for the anti-COG, you guys show nothing but anger.

And Laugh out loud at Pierce. the guy who reckons god has to be jewish and only jewish, Lollll. the truth and only one truth...lollll. seriously do all the anti-COG people here all agree with Pierce with this?

My dear LOL what makes you think I am angry all the time. I am feeling so sorry for this poor Bell whose mind Satan has attacked and why people like you too lose their mind to this Satan. Truly the Satan has not only kept Bell's hands busy in error (Copy/Paste) and his mind away from the truth but also has puffed up his carnal pride, to keep him and you all captive.

While reading Bell's little story about the glass box I felt it was indirectly reflecting on him or he was trying to express his feelings on how it is like being trapped in such WMSCOG containers. By the way the man in the story would have been able to scale the walls unless he was a korean spider man . And even he or you moved upward the upper side that is also partitioned by a glass wall will display a fake image of this Christ making you think he has ascended into heaven. So there is no way out for the cogs as long as they continue to believe in such fables told by their grandma.

Oh yes and is that all Bell knows about the Nationalist Gandhi who pledged himself never to be a Christian seeing a christian couple fight even if he might come to believe in Christ in the future. I am sure Gandhi's thoughts would have been the same even now and while using MJ as his walking stick would have definitely told her "Woman you are not omniscient. Stop pretending to be God. You are so unlike Jesus Christ"

Lol so what is your purpose here on this anti-cog site? Does it not make you angry and fear the members may leave seeing how your lies have been exposed and the constant failure on your part in answering the questions.

Lol there is also list of Jesus to have come from Russia, Texas, Japan and so on. And not forgetting a few from Korea. We see the true parents in the Moonies too. And now we have Heavenly father and Mother seriously LOL. You have a vast choice of fake Gods of all nationalities to believe in.

The Hebrew Bible tells us that a Messiah will come, but how will we know him? Here are a few of the Messianic prophecies from the Hebrew Scriptures:
He will be Born of a Woman — Genesis 3:15
He will be a Descendant of Abraham — Genesis 12:1-3
From the Tribe of Judah — Genesis 49:10
From the House of David — 2 Samuel 7:12-13
He will be Born in Bethlehem — Micah 5:2 (5:1 in Hebrew)
He will have divine titles — Isaiah 9:6-7 (9:5-6 in Hebrew)
He will be a Prophet Like Moses — Deuteronomy 18:15
He will Come Humbly — Zechariah 9:9
He will be a Suffering Servant — Isaiah 52:13 to 53:12
Israel Will Mourn for Him — Zechariah 12:10

The Korean Messiah does not fit anywhere above and the most surprising thing is he himself never claimed to be Jesus. All the scriptures you paste here are with reference to Jesus. If he did preach and brought back passover an escape from disasters use his quotes if you have any. I am sure all Cogs will agree with this if you still have some sense to see the truth.

You can check with your head Pastor probably he may have the real script as to how MJ was dying to play the role of his bride and that too after his death. I am laughing out loud..

You obviously only see what you want to see. I can tell that you've left out mention of how that's ALL the WMS CoG robots do, they never bother to answer any questions posed at them. Instead, they spam the same stories and ignore everything else.

I can also tell that you've left out mention of how the non-CoG people have been trying with patience to ask relevant questions and post rebuttals, even though the CoG robots just post irrelevant replies.

Lol, you troll.

God bless you all. First of all thanks to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem for all the blessings and all circumstances.

As we can see, Brothers and Sisters in Zion, the prophecies of the Bible is being fulfilled swiftly.

Isaiah 60:22 The least of you will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation.
I am the LORD;
in its time I will do this swiftly.

Revelation 1:3 Blessed is the one who reads the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear it and take to heart what is written in it, because the time is near.

So many people continue to slander the truth. They can't accept the truth about Heavenly Mother, about Zion, about the Feasts of God. But in the end, they're actions will not matter any longer. There's only two prophecy for ALL people in the world. They can be the ones who will become God's people and enter Kingdom of Heaven which are only few, and there's the people who will follow Satan and lead into eternal punishment of hell. Who do you want to belong to? We must be the ones to fulfill the prophecy of becoming God's people and enter Kingdom of Heaven.

1 Peter 2:9 BUT YOU ARE A CHOSEN PEOPLE, A ROYAL PRIESTHOOD, a holy nation, A PEOPLE BELONGING TO GOD, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. 10 Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

Isaiah 51:16 I have put my words in your mouth and covered you with the shadow of my hand—
I who set the heavens in place,
who laid the foundations of the earth,
and WHO SAY TO ZION, 'YOU ARE MY PEOPLE.

Revelation 22:5 There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And THEY WILL REIGN FOR EVER AND EVER.

These days, the members of Zion are diligently preaching the truth even in far-off countries overseas where the gospel has not yet reached. They are leaving truly meaningful footprints in time which never returns if it passes by. Even in various difficult circumstances, they are all leading many souls into the arms of Father and Mother. By doing that, they are writing the "New Acts" with their touching emotions and beautiful actions, which no other novelist can write.

Of course, the members of Zion in our own country are also participating in overseas missions by praying together with one mind for those who are preaching overseas, from early in the morning. I believe this is also a beautiful act of faith to participate in the gospel work Father and Mother are accomplishing.

When we look at the people described in the Bible, some received the blessing of eternal life as the result of living for the gospel, while others reached eternal destruction after living according to their own desires. There were the forefathers of faith like David and Apostles Peter and Paul, who had set the beautiful examples of the life of faith for us to follow, whereas there were also foolish people like Judas Iscariot, who ruined his life because of a moment's wrong decision, and like Demas who loved the world and deserted the truth.

Yesterday never returns, and today is the same. Let's take a look at the forefathers of faith who had lived a wonderful life for the gospel, and think about how to live our life more meaningfully.

Apostle Paul who had lived a life without regrets in the gospel

Apostle Paul knew intuitively that the time had come for him to leave this world after finishing his mission on this earth. So, when writing a letter to Timothy, Paul said he was proud that he had lived a valuable and meaningful life without any regret or shame.

2 Ti 4:6-8 For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time has come for my departure. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Whenever I read these verses, I truly envy the life of Paul who was able to confidently say that he had no regrets because if he lived, he lived for the Lord, and if he died, he would die for the Lord. I hope all of us also live a wonderful life which will be recorded so beautifully. We have only one life to live. Since we cannot live any moment of our life twice, we should spend the time given to us more meaningfully for God and for the eternal kingdom of heaven. Let's listen more to the Apostle Paul who ran the path of righteousness to the fullest without any regrets and kept the faith till the end.

2 Ti 4:1-5 "In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I give you this charge: Preach the Word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction . . . But you, keep your head in all situations, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, discharge all the duties of your ministry."

Paul recommended that we should always make efforts to do the meaningful work of preaching the Word. We cannot turn back time that has already passed, so we must not have the thought: 'I'd like to do worldly things to my heart's content and then do the gospel work when I gain some composure in life.' Our life is too short to waste time on worthless things. Let us do our best to live a life without any shame before God when we look back at every moment of our life.

In order for us to be able to say that we have walked the path of faith without regrets, as Paul did, when we stand before God after our life on this earth, we must not conform any longer to the pattern of this world but only think about what God's will is and willingly obey God's word all the time, as children of heaven.

Ro 12:1-3 Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual act of worship. Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will. . . .

While pursuing the same values as the people of the world, we cannot live a life without regrets before God. If we live our life pursuing worldly things, we are just like the person who feels thirsty and drinks seawater; the seawater causes him to feel more thirsty. Likewise, the more our earthly desires are satisfied, the more thirsty we feel.

However, the water of life, which God gives us, never makes us feel thirsty again once we drink it. Our members in Zion are experiencing joy and happiness through this water of life, and they realize the feeling of joy and happiness cannot be replaced by anything else in the world. I hope all people living in our time will feel this joy and happiness together.

Let us all plan to live our one and only life for the eternal gospel of the kingdom of God, so our life can be wonderful. We need to throw away the thought, 'I will do it when my circumstances permit,' or, 'I will start tomorrow.' Only those who have the will to start "right now" can do this work and make their life beautiful.

The mission of Joshua and a lesson from it

The Bible has many records about the life and work of the forefathers who walked the wonderful and beautiful path of faith by the grace of God. One of them is Joshua, who carried out his mission with all his heart and soul in obedience to the will of God.

Joshua became the leader of Israel after the death of Moses. When he arrived in the promised land of Canaan flowing with milk and honey, he waged war against the Canaanites to conquer their land and to divide it by lot to each tribe of Israel. Let's look at the history of the fall of Jericho, which served as a prelude to the conquest of Canaan in accordance with the guidance of God.

Jos 6:1-16 Now Jericho was tightly shut up because of the Israelites. No one went out and no one came in. Then the LORD said to Joshua, "See, I have delivered Jericho into your hands, along with its king and its fighting men. March around the city once with all the armed men. Do this for six days . . . On the seventh day, march around the city seven times, with the priests blowing the trumpets. When you hear them sound a long blast on the trumpets, have all the people give a loud shout; then the wall of the city will collapse . . ." . . . But Joshua had commanded the people, "Do not give a war cry, do not raise your voices, do not say a word until the day I tell you to shout. Then shout!" . . . On the seventh day, they got up at daybreak and marched around the city seven times in the same manner, except that on that day they circled the city seven times. The seventh time around, when the priests sounded the trumpet blast, Joshua commanded the people, "Shout! For the LORD has given you the city!"

The God-given strategy to conquer the fortified city of Jericho was to shout all at once the moment they were told to "shout." By obeying the word of God, the Israelites experienced the miracle of Jericho falling down before their very eyes, and they won a victory (Jos 6:20). Prophetically, we are now in the same situation. The shout which the Israelites gave just before the fall of Jericho is just like the shout that the people of Zion, who have been sent to every region of the world, are giving to lead many souls to repentance before the fall of the spiritual Babylon. The parade of the members who shout the truth of the new covenant will continue towards the whole world, so that there will not even be a single country which the message of the gospel has not been preached to.

Our path is not smooth all the time. Just as the people of Jericho shut the gates of the fortress tightly because they were afraid of the Israelites, the devil in the invisible spiritual world will try to hinder the truth by every means possible because he is afraid that the glory of God will shine bright throughout the world.

However, the water of life is now continuously flowing all over the world, just as it is impossible to stop water flowing once the embankment bursts. Since the members are participating in the gospel with a resolution to live their one and only life for the gospel, even those with weak faith are moved and awakened, so they are now shouting together with one voice. Through the history of the time of Joshua, let's look into the status of the gospel in this age, so that we can fully carry out our God-given mission.

Joshua who followed God's will till the end

Even after conquering Jericho, Joshua continued to follow God's will; he drove out many emigrant peoples from Canaan and distributed the conquered land among the tribes of Israel. As he had a premonition of his death after finishing his mission on this earth, he lastly taught the Israelites never to leave God.

Jos 23:1-11 After a long time had passed and the LORD had given Israel rest from all their enemies around them, Joshua, by then old and well advanced in years, summoned all Israel—their elders, leaders, judges and officials—and said to them: "I am old and well advanced in years . . . you will take possession of their land, as the LORD your God promised you. Be very strong; be careful to obey all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, without turning aside to the right or to the left . . . do not invoke the names of their gods or swear by them. You must not serve them or bow down to them . . . So be very careful to love the LORD your God."

Jos 24:14-18 "Now fear the LORD and serve him with all faithfulness. Throw away the gods your forefathers worshiped beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD . . . But as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD." Then the people answered, "Far be it from us to forsake the LORD to serve other gods! It was the LORD our God himself who brought us and our fathers up out of Egypt, from that land of slavery, and performed those great signs before our eyes. He protected us on our entire journey and among all the nations through which we traveled . . . We too will serve the LORD, because he is our God.”

Joshua declared that he would serve only Jehovah until the last moment. He was always with God throughout his lifetime. And in his last will to the Israelites, he asked them not to foolishly lose eternal things while worshiping idols or pursuing worldly wealth or fame, which is vain and meaningless, but to live their lives given by God meaningfully. He lived a true life of faith without any regrets, always walking with God.

It was not only Joshua who lived such a faithful life. Apostle Paul devoted his whole life to preaching the gospel with a determination to live only for God and to nestle in His everlasting arms. So did the warriors of Gideon, Daniel and his friends—Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. Moreover, the saints of the early Church kept the faith without even fearing death and without yielding to any threat. They all lived a truly meaningful and rewarding life.

Let us overcome hardship and live a life for the gospel without regrets

Life is given only once. Judas Iscariot, who took a wrong step in life and followed the devious way, finally ended up in irretrievable and eternal destruction. If he had been given one more chance in life, he would not have made the same mistake again. However, there was no more opportunity for him.

Even though the apostles, including Peter and Paul, walked the path of the gospel in the midst of hardship and affliction, they continued to follow Jesus’ words, “You have to take your cross and follow Me in order to be worthy of Me,” and as a result, they had no regrets in their life just before their death. They were confident that there was now in store for them the crown of righteousness in heaven because they had fought the good fight to the fullest and finished the race of faith by helping many souls repent and leading them into the arms of God. So they testified that they had lived their lives without any regrets even though they had gone through many dangers.

2 Co 11:24-30 Five times I received from the Jews the forty lashes minus one. Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, I spent a night and a day in the open sea, I have been constantly on the move. I have been in danger from rivers, in danger from bandits, in danger from my own countrymen, in danger from Gentiles; in danger in the city, in danger in the country, in danger at sea; and in danger from false brothers. I have labored and toiled and have often gone without sleep; I have known hunger and thirst and have often gone without food; I have been cold and naked . . . If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness.

The life of Apostle Paul was a series of many dangers and hardships just as he confessed. In spite of the repeated sufferings, he walked with God till the end, so he was able to smile in the last moments of his life.

During his one and only life, Paul made a gracious choice to proceed toward the eternal glory of heaven and ran diligently toward the goal. Like Paul and many forefathers of faith, we should also live a meaningful life, so that we will not have any regrets when we go to heaven. For this, let us pray fervently and try our hardest.

God has given us a precious and good way—a once-in-a-life-time opportunity. Even if we took our first step of faith without realizing it fully, the path we are on is the way to the kingdom of heaven, the way to eternal life and salvation, and the way to the glorious future.

There will be nothing more rewarding than being able to live our one and only life fully for the glory of Elohim and to end our life on this earth in God's grace while proclaiming the glory of Jerusalem to the whole world. Father and Mother have granted us the opportunity to awaken all people around the world with the truth and lead them to salvation, starting with our neighbors. I earnestly ask you, people of Zion, to renew your mind by looking ahead into the glorious future of the kingdom of heaven and to live your one and only life faithfully for the gospel.

Bell,

The problem I see is that you have become like the church in that you add little exaggerations to bible versus and believe you have stumbled upon some sort of prophecy. You said, "As we can see, Brothers and Sisters in Zion, the prophecies of the Bible is being fulfilled swiftly." Grammatical errors aside, there are problems with this statement. The "zion" near my house does not appear to have grown in size at all since last October when I finally came to my senses. (My wife likes to do a "drive by" of the parking lot on Sabbaths to see if there are any new victims.) Not to mention, the church is located 30miles from the city that it claims to represent. Mother has been promising them a real church (they are currently located in a office park) since at least May 09 when I was mentally abducted by the preachers. Nobody else that I know in this area has ever heard of mother god, and it is considered one of the most important cities in the world... What gives? I think your Mother Jerusalem has a lot of work to do before her 2012 deadline if Ahnsahnghong is going to end the world. Just remember.... nothing is too hard for god... well nothing except recruiting members (aka gathering lost children) I guess.

I realize that I might be coming across a little "snarky" but you need to understand that it is frustrating that you continue to type these lies that could lead some poor innocent person into your life ruining cult. You claim that you have true god, and that your god is not capable of

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your MIND, and with all your strength." Mark 12:31

Reply

Many Christians profess that they love Jesus. Whether Catholics, Born Again, or some other denominations, they claim to love God. But how can we truly love God? Is it by just saying with our own lips that we love God? Let's see through the Bible.

Jn. 14:15 – 15 "If you love me, keep my commands

Jn. 14:21 – 21 Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them."

Jesus Himself told us that if we truly love Him, we must obey His commandments. Then why does Jesus wants us to love Him? What will He give us?

Luke 10:25-28 – 25 On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" 26 "What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you read it?" 27 He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'; and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'" 28 "You have answered correctly," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live."

We can see here that an expert in the law was asking and testing Jesus on what is written in the Law in order to have eternal life? We can understand that this guy that's expert in the law are referring to the Old Testament Law since the New Testament was not written yet during the time of Jesus here on earth. According to Jesus answer, in order for us to have eternal life, we must "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. This is written in the Law or Old Testament. Then we can have a clue that the way to fulfill this is by finding out in the Law or Old Testament. Lets see.

Deut. 6:5-9 – 5 LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. 6 These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. 7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. 8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. 9 WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES and on your gates.

Wow this was the same words that Jesus told the expert in the law. Then we can see a clue here on verse 9 that says "WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES". Now let's check for another clue on the same chapter.

Deut. 6:20-25 – 20 In the future, when your son asks you, "What is the meaning of the stipulations, decrees and laws the LORD our God has commanded you?" 21 tell him: "We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 22 Before our eyes the LORD sent signs and wonders—great and terrible—on Egypt and Pharaoh and his whole household. 23 But he brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land he promised on oath to our ancestors. 24 The LORD commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear the LORD our God, so that we might always prosper and be kept alive, as is the case today. 25 And if we are careful to obey all this law before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, that will be our righteousness."

Ok so this are the commandment's clue are:

- WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES
- COMMANDMENT THAT BROUGHT THE ISRAELITES OUT OF EGYPT

Then let's see what is this.

Exo. 12:1-14 – 1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt, 2 "This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year. 3 Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb[a] for his family, one for each household. 4 If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbor, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat. 5 The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats. 6 Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the members of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight. 7 THEN THEY ARE TO TAKE SOME OF THE BLOOD AND PUT IT ON THE SIDES AND TOPS OF THE DOOR FRAMES OF THE HOUSES WHERE THEY EAT THE LAMBS. 8 That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast. 9 Do not eat the meat raw or boiled in water, but roast it over a fire—with the head, legs and internal organs. 10 Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it. 11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; IT IS THE LORD'S PASSOVER.

12 "On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn of both people and animals, and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. 13 The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are, and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

14 "This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD—a lasting ordinance.

Now its clear. The PASSOVER is the commandment that would fulfill the "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH". When the Israelites kept the Passover, they were freed from Egypt. So it is the PASSOVER.

Then 2000 years ago, Jesus Christ established the Passover of the New Covenant which is the reality.

Lk. 22:8 – 8 Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover."

Lk. 22:14-15 – 14 When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. 15 And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

Lk. 22:19-20 – 19 And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." 20 In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you

By keeping the Passover, we can truly love God and receive eternal life.

John 6:53-55 — JESUS SAID to them, "I TELL YOU THE TRUTH, UNLESS you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. WHOEVER EATS MY FLESH AND DRINKS MY BLOOD REMAINS IN ME, AND I IN HIM.

Thanks to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong, the 2nd Coming Christ according to the prophecies of the Bible, for reminding us the precious truth.

Jn. 14:25-26 – 25 "All this I have spoken while still with you. 26 But the COUNSELOR, THE HOLY SPIRIT, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and WILL REMIND YOU OF EVERYTHING I HAVE SAID TO YOU.

Let's have true faith in Jesus by following His Words of Life so that we can truly Love Him and receive eternal life.

Jn. 3:16 – 16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM SHALL NOT PERISH BUT HAVE ETERNAL LIFE

Jam. 2:17-19 – 17 In the same way, FAITH BY ITSELF, IF IT IS NOT ACCOMPANIED BY ACTION IS DEAD. 18 But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds." Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do. 19 You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

Children of Promise through Heavenly Father and Mother.

The character Abraham is used to represent God in the Bible. Through the history of Abraham's family, God has revealed to us how we can inherit the kingdom of heaven.

Reply

Isaac was the one who received Abraham's inheritance. Even though Abraham had another son named Ishmael, born through Hagar, God did not allow Ishmael to receive the inheritance of Abraham. Rather, God bestowed the inheritance upon Isaac, who was born through Sarah. The reason why Isaac was chosen as Abraham's heir was that Isaac was the son of Sarah, who was free. This history shows us that the heavenly inheritance will be given to those who are born of the heavenly Mother, who is free.

Christ Ahnsahnghong taught us that our heavenly Mother does in fact exist and that She is truly the biggest mystery hidden within the Bible.

Let us study "The History of Abraham's Family and Mother," taught to us by Christ Ahnsahnghong.

Abraham Represents God

First of all, we need to recognize who the character Abraham represents in the Bible.

Luke 16:19-31 " . . . The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. In hell, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. So he called to him, 'Father Abraham . . . ' "

As you know, this parable is about a beggar, named Lazarus, and a rich man. The parable tells of Lazarus, who died and was carried to heaven, and a rich man, who was sent to hell to be tormented. Lazarus was obviously carried to God's side after he had died; however, the Bible states that Lazarus traveled to Abraham's side. In the parable, the rich man, who went to hell, called up to God in the distance; however, the Bible states that the man saw Abraham, and called up to him, saying, "Father Abraham." Who is the only one who is worthy to be called "Father" in the spiritual world? God is the only one who can be called upon in this way. Then, whom does Abraham represent? Logically, the character Abraham was chosen to represent God. Therefore, the inheritance of Abraham can be likened to the inheritance of God, the kingdom of heaven.

Isaac, the Heir of Abraham

Then, let us find out who was appointed as Abraham's heir. There were three candidates who could have been chosen as the heir of Abraham: Eliezer, Ishmael, and Isaac. Among them, who became Abraham's heir? It was Isaac who was appointed. We need to understand the reason why Isaac was chosen to be Abraham's heir.

Gen. 15:1-4 . . . But Abram said, "O Sovereign LORD, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir." Then the word of the LORD came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir."

When Abraham was an old man and had not yet borne a son, he asked God to allow his servant Eliezer to be his heir. However, God did not allow Eliezer to become Abraham's heir, revealing that a son would be born from Abraham's own body and that he would become his heir. Some time later, Hagar, Sarah's maidservant, bore Abraham a son: Ishmael.

Gen. 16:1-15 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. But she had an Egyptian maidservant named Hagar; so she said to Abram, "The LORD has kept me from having children. Go, sleep with my maidservant; perhaps I can build a family through her." Abram agreed to what Sarai said . . . So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son she had borne.

Ishmael was born to Abraham through a maidservant named Hagar, and Abraham asked God to allow Ishmael to become his heir.

Gen. 17:18-19 And Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing!" Then God said, "Yes, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will call him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.

When Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing," God did not allow Ishmael to become his heir. Instead, God promised Abraham that he would have a son through his wife, Sarah. Isaac was born as God had promised, and of the three—Eliezer, Ishmael, and Isaac—Isaac was chosen to be Abraham's heir.

The Key Factor in Deciding an Heir Is "Mother"
Let's study the reason why God chose Isaac to be Abraham's heir. Both Eliezer's father and his mother were slaves, neither of them was free. This is the reason why God did not allow him to be Abraham's heir. Ishmael's father, Abraham, was free, but his mother, Hagar, was a slave and not a free woman. This is why God could not allow Ishmael to become Abraham's heir. Isaac's father, Abraham, was a free man, and his mother, Sarah, was a free woman. The fact that Isaac had been born of a free woman was the big difference between Ishmael and Isaac, and this discrepancy became the key factor in choosing Abraham's heir.

In those days, the eldest son inherited all of his family's property. Since Ishmael was older than Isaac, he should have become the heir— that is, if God had made His decision according to the paternal line. Ishmael was not chosen to become Abraham's heir, even though he was Abraham's eldest son, because his mother was not a free woman, but a slave. Thus, it is clear that the decisive factor in choosing Abraham's heir was his mother.

What we need to focus on while studying the history of Abraham's family is not merely the story of a man and his family. As you know, the Bible is not a storybook to tell us of men and their families. Nevertheless, God repeatedly mentioned the story of this particular family. Actually, the history of Abraham was a shadow of what was to happen in the future. In order for us to know who could become God's heir, the story of Abraham's family was written, as a prophecy.

Therefore, through the history of Abraham's family, we can clearly understand that the decisive factor in choosing an heir is the mother. As Isaac became Abraham's heir through Sarah, his free mother, we can become God's heirs through our heavenly Mother, who is a free woman. Only those who believe in the heavenly Mother—only the children who are born through the new covenant—can inherit the heavenly Father's kingdom. Let us read one more verse testifying about the heavenly Mother.

Gal. 4:22-31 . . . But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother . . . Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

The Bible declares that we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman. Ishmael could not inherit his father's estate because his mother, Hagar, was only a slave, not a free woman. On the other hand, Isaac was chosen to become Abraham's heir because his mother, Sarah, was a free woman. The Bible also testifies that we, like Isaac, are the children of promise, the children of the heavenly Mother, who is free.

In today's world, there are three types of people: those who are like Eliezer, those like Ishmael, and those who are like Isaac. The first type of people, who are like Eliezer, are atheists, who do not believe in Father God or in Mother God. The second type of people, who are like Ishmael, are those who believe in Father God, but do not believe in Mother God. The third type of people, who are like Isaac, are those who believe in Mother God as well as Father God. According to the history of Abraham's family, which one of these three types can become an heir of the kingdom of heaven? Only the third type of people, who are like Isaac, can be recognized as God's heirs. There is no doubt about it.

Which group of people do you want to be classified with? If you want to be like Isaac, you must first become a child of the free woman. Thus, you must accept the heavenly Mother, who is free. The Bible testifies to this fact.

God said, "My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge" (Hos. 4:6). What kind of knowledge is God referring to in this verse? We must recognize that we have a God the Mother, as well as a God the Father. We must accept God Elohim. Also, we must firmly believe that God is our Mother, who gives us salvation alongside our Father. Only after we come to realize this can we say that we have the knowledge of God, and that we will not be those who are destroyed from a "lack of knowledge."

The Bible testifies that the Holy Spirit is God Ahnsahnghong, and that the Bride is Jerusalem Mother. Let us accept God Ahnsahnghong, the Holy Spirit, and Jerusalem Mother, the Bride, who give us the water of life in these last days, so that we can enter the kingdom of heaven.

WMSCOG formula:

mother in the Bible (Galatians 4:26) = Jerusalem above (Galatians 4:26) = Jerusalem bride (Revelation 21:2) = bride wife of Jesus (Revelation 21:9) = bride gives water of life (Revelation 22:17, just like Jesus in John 4:14) = Therefore, bride is mother god

Clear as mud right? Anyone can clearly see that this does grave violence to the original meaning of the Scriptures. If you skip around in the Bible this way doing a keyword search, you can make it say anything you want to. Unfortunately for the WMSCOG, this interpretation easily fails when we read the verses in their proper context (and by the way, if you thought you could make sense of any book by jumping around all over it, grabbing a line from this chapter and another line from another chapter, you should try this with some other book in your library you've read before and see how it very poorly communicates the underlying story).

Problems With Their Personal Interpretation

1. While the WMSCOG does not believe that the "bride" in the Bible represents the church, they contradict their own founder, a Korean man named Ahnsahnghong, when he writes that the bride does represent the church.
2. While the WMSCOG believes that the "mother" in Galatians 4:26 represents a "mother god" (whom they also claim is a lady living in Korea named Zhang Gil-Jah), they again contradict their own founder Ahnsahnghong who never wrote anything about a "mother god".

Galatians 4:26 Grossly Misinterpreted

The WMSCOG continues their pattern of misinterpreting Scripture by completely ignoring the context surrounding their cherry-picked verses. A person can be seriously misled by this sort of thinking if the context surrounding Galatians 4:26 is not examined. Considering the context of Galatians 4 in its entirety, it becomes clear that the apostle Paul was not referring to a "female god". Let us read the text as it is written.

Paul begins the chapter by comparing Christians to heirs of their father's estate (v.1-2). In continuing with this analogy, Paul goes on to explain how we were slaves under the law until Jesus, also born under the law, came to redeem us and adopt us as God's children, making us heirs of our Father's Kingdom.

But when the set time had fully come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, 5 to redeem those under the law, that we might receive adoption to sonship.[b] 6 Because you are his sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, the Spirit who calls out, "Abba,[c] Father." 7 So you are no longer a slave, but God's child; and since you are his child, God has made you also an heir. Galatians 4:4-7

Paul goes on to express his concern for the Galatians because they had turned back to observing "special days and months and seasons and years" (v.9-10). It is clear that Paul is quite disturbed by the behavior of the Galatians when he says "I fear for you, that somehow I have wasted my efforts on you" (v.11) and "I am perplexed about you!" (v.20). The Galatians seemed to have turned back to observing the ceremonial law of Moses, ("Tell me, you who want to be under the law" v. 21) despite having learned about redemption through Jesus Christ.

Paul uses the story of Abraham and his two sons to illustrate his point. Abraham had two sons, one by a slave woman (Hagar) and one by a free woman (Sarah). As we read on in Galatians 4, Paul tells us that what he is about to say should be taken figuratively (aka metaphorically, allegorically, NOT literally).

These things are being taken figuratively: The women represent two covenants. One covenant is from Mount Sinai and bears children who are to be slaves: This is Hagar. 25 Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother. Galatians 4:24-26

When interpreting the above verses figuratively as Paul intended (and flat out says), the following becomes clear:

1. Hagar represents the present city Jerusalem, the old covenant, and therefore her children are slaves

2. Sarah represents the heavenly city Jerusalem, the new covenant, and therefore her children are free. Therefore, in Galatians 4:26, it is clear that when Paul says that the "new Jerusalem is our mother" he is referring to the heavenly country Jerusalem as our motherland. In order to illustrate this more clearly, here are some additional Biblical examples of the word "mother" being used to refer to a country.

We are the peaceful and faithful in Israel. You are trying to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel... 2 Samuel 20:19 (In this verse, mother represents a city in Israel.)

You stumble day and night, and the prophets stumble with you. So I will destroy your mother... Hosea 4:5 (It is clear, after reading the entire chapter, that mother in this verse refers to Israel as well.)

For more information on what the word "mother" is used to represent in the Bible, please view this excellent article.

Conclusion

As you can see, Galation 4:26 taken out of context can mean anything. However, when we read the verse in context, it is abundantly clear that this verse does not refer to a mother god. When I was in the WMSCOG, they discouraged us from reading outside the verses they wanted us to memorize because they said we would not be able to understand the Bible on our own. Actually, I can see another reason why—because doing so quickly leads one to leave the WMSCOG.

God bless you all. First of all thanks to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem for all the blessings and all circumstances.

As we can see, Brothers and Sisters in Zion, the prophecies of the Bible is being fulfilled swiftly.

Isaiah 60:22 The least of you will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation.
I am the LORD;
in its time I will do this swiftly.

Revelation 1:3 Blessed is the one who reads the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear it and take to heart what is written in it, because the time is near.

So many people continue to slander the truth. They can't accept the truth about Heavenly Mother, about Zion, about the Feasts of God. But in the end, they're actions will not matter any longer. There's only two prophecy for ALL people in the world. They can be the ones who will become God's people and enter Kingdom of Heaven which are only few, and there's the people who will follow Satan and lead into eternal punishment of hell. Who do you want to belong to? We must be the ones to fulfill the prophecy of becoming God's people and enter Kingdom of Heaven.

1 Peter 2:9 BUT YOU ARE A CHOSEN PEOPLE, A ROYAL PRIESTHOOD, a holy nation, A PEOPLE BELONGING TO GOD, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. 10 Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

Isaiah 51:16 I have put my words in your mouth and covered you with the shadow of my hand—
I who set the heavens in place,
who laid the foundations of the earth,
and WHO SAY TO ZION, 'YOU ARE MY PEOPLE.

Revelation 22:5 There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And THEY WILL REIGN FOR EVER AND EVER.

DON'T LISTEN IF THESE ANTI-CHURCH OF GOD PEOPLE CALL US ROBOTS BECAUSE WE CONTINUE TO FOLLOW GOD'S LAWS AND PROPHECIES TO HAVE ETERNAL LIFE. THEY DON'T UNDERSTAND THAT WE ARE SLAVE TO CHRIST SO WE FOLLOW GOD'S WORDS REGARDLESS OF WHETHER IT IS PLEASING TO MEN OR NOT.

1 Corinthians 7:19 Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing. KEEPING GOD'S COMMANDS IS WHAT COUNTS. 20 Each one should remain in the situation which he was in when God called him. 21 Were you a slave when you were called? Don't let it trouble you—although if you can gain your freedom, do so. 22 For he who was a slave when he was called by the Lord is the Lord's freedman; similarly, he who was a free man when he was called is CHRIST'S SLAVE. 23 You were bought at a price; DO NOT BECOME SLAVES OF MEN.

1 Corinthians 9:21 To those not having the law I became like one not having the law (THOUGH I AM NOT FREE FROM GOD'S LAW BUT AM UNDER CHRIST'S LAW), so as to win those not having the law.

Let's gain our freedom from being slave of sin and let's choose to become SLAVES OF CHRIST THAN SLAVES OF MEN so we can follow Christ examples and enter Kingdom of Heaven. In the end, these anti-Church of God will not matter anymore. So we must endure until the end by doing Heavenly Father and Mother's will.

Today there are numerous churches throughout the world, and the number of those who believe in God is countless like the sand by the sea. They have their own doctrines and feel proud that they are God's children and are saved.

Among those numerous people, how many people are the children of God? Not everyone can actually become a child of God even though they claim to be. The one whom God does not acknowledge as His child can never be a child of God.

Only the person approved by God can receive the right to enter heaven as a child of God.

"Children of promise" approved by the Holy Spirit

2,000 years ago, God took on flesh and blood just like His children and came to this earth in the position of the "Son." He was Jesus Christ.

In those days, people failed to recognize Jesus; some rejected Him, while others regarded Him merely as a prophet. However, Peter, one of Jesus' disciples, confidently confessed his faith before Jesus, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Then Jesus blessed Peter and gave him the keys of the kingdom of heaven (Mt 16:13-19).

Ro 8:16-17 The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. Now if we are children, then we are heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory.

The Bible tells us that God's children will surely become His heirs, and that God's heirs will share in the glory of heaven without fail. God's children are to receive the heavenly inheritance, so they are all God's heirs. Since the right to become one's heir is given to his eldest son, the fact that we are God's children and His heirs shows that we are the firstborn of heaven (cf. Heb 12:22-24).

Then, what kind of people does God approve as His children and heirs? The Bible calls God's children "children of promise," and explains that they are like Isaac, who was the heir of Abraham.

Gal 4:28 Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.

There were three candidates to inherit the estate of Abraham, the forefather of faith. Among them, God acknowledged Isaac, who was chosen as Abraham's only heir. By taking a look at the process, let's examine what kind of people are the true children and heirs of God.

A lesson from Abraham's family

Abraham had no children until he was 85 years old. Before he left the world, he had to decide who would be his heir to inherit his property, but since he had no children, he could not help but be worried and distressed. So, Abraham made up his mind to adopt Eliezer, a faithful servant in his household, as his heir to inherit his estate.

Ge 15:2-5 But Abram said, "O Sovereign LORD, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir." Then the word of the LORD came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir." . . .

God said to Abraham, "This man will not be your heir." Here, God our Father, the Holy Spirit, disapproves of Eliezer as Abraham's heir, and testifies, "A son coming from your own body will be your heir," just as the Spirit Himself testifies that we are God's children.

Afterwards, Abraham was advised by his wife Sarah to produce a seed through her maidservant Hagar, and he had a son named Ishmael through her.

Ge 16:15 So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son she had borne.

Since his son was born, he believed that his heir was now decided. At that time, Ishmael was the eldest and only son of Abraham. So, Abraham naturally thought about leaving his property to Ishmael, but that was not the will of God, either. When Abraham was 99 years old, God appeared to him and said again:

Ge 17:15-19 God also said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you are no longer to call her Sarai; her name will be Sarah. I will bless her and will surely give you a son by her. I will bless her so that she will be the mother of nations . . ." Abraham fell facedown; he laughed and said to himself, "Will a son be born to a man a hundred years old? Will Sarah bear a child at the age of ninety?" And Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing!" Then God said, "Yes, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will call him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him."

Abraham was afraid that he had been continuously causing God anxiety due to his own family matter. So he said to God, "If only Ishmael live under your blessing!" but God said no. Eventually, Ishmael was not accepted as Abraham's heir, either. God rejected Eliezer and Ishmael. However, as for Isaac, even before his birth, God Himself testified that he would become the heir of Abraham.

Abraham's family is a shadow which shows how we, children of heaven, will be saved. The process of how the heir of Abraham was determined includes the crucial truth for deciding God's heirs who will inherit the kingdom of God. That was why God personally intervened and distinguished who would be Abraham's heir and who wouldn't be.

The Bible says that we are children of promise like Isaac. What condition of faith is required for us to become like Isaac? The most important factor that decided the heir of Abraham was Sarah, the mother of Isaac. Ishmael was also a son of Abraham, but his mother was a slave. God suggested two conditions for being the heir of Abraham: The first condition was that he should come from Abraham's own body, and the second and final condition was that he should come from Sarah's body. God did not acknowledge anyone who did not come from the body of Abraham and of Sarah as Abraham's heir, that is, his firstborn son.

We have God our Mother, who is free (Gal 4:26). No one can be an heir of God except through God the Mother. If one is not an heir of God, it means that he is not a child of God; and if he is not a child of God, he cannot be saved after all. That is why the Bible repeatedly emphasizes that we are children of God our Mother, saying, "Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise" (Gal 4:28) and "We are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman" (Gal 4:31).

We are approved as God's children who will enjoy eternal glory in the everlasting kingdom of heaven. Even God Himself testifies, saying, "You are My children, My heirs."

The blessings promised to the firstborn of heaven who keep the new covenant

We are truly blessed and thankful that we have become the children and heirs of Heavenly Father and Mother. God our Father and Mother have prepared the blessings, which the human mind cannot conceive, for Their loving children, the firstborn of heaven.

Ge 1:26 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground."

When God the Creator made man in the beginning, His purpose of creating man was to "let them rule over all the creatures." This authority to rule, which is given to human beings created in the image of God, is not only over things on the earth, but it also refers to the authority to reign in heaven which God's people who are saved will enjoy for ever and ever.

Rev 22:3-5 No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him. They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign for ever and ever.

The authority to rule over all the creatures, which God promised in Genesis, is the privilege and honor given to God's children who are to be redeemed from the earth and receive the inheritance of God. Thus, those who will enter the kingdom of God and reign for ever and ever are the firstborn of heaven, "children of promise like Isaac."

Therefore, God's children like Isaac must have God the Mother, who is free.

God created man and woman, saying, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness." In this passage also, we can confirm that there must be God the Father and God the Mother as well (Ge 1:26-27).

Rev 22:17 The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.

God the Father and God the Mother have called us to be Their children. In this age of the Holy Spirit, those who receive God the Father and God the Mother, the Spirit and the Bride, are given the right to become children of God.

The kingdom of God is a place where there is eternal life. So, God called His children to receive eternal life first.

Jn 6:54-55 "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink."

God gave His children His flesh and blood through the Passover (cf. Mt 26:17-19, 26-28). In the truth of the new covenant promised through the Passover, we've been able to obtain eternal life and to receive Heavenly Mother, the new Jerusalem.

The New Covenant Passover is closely related to Heavenly Mother. Jesus referred to the Passover bread as His flesh, and when God created Eve, Adam testified about Eve, "This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh." Adam represents Jesus to come again, God our Father who is the Holy Spirit (Ro 5:14).

Just as Adam testified about Eve, God our Father has led us to God our Mother, who is life, through the truth of the new covenant. Eventually, every truth of the Bible focuses on Mother.

It is because God our Mother is working behind the scenes that we are qualified to receive the heavenly inheritance as the firstborn of heaven. If we fail to realize Mother and do not receive Her, we will finally lose the right to inherit the kingdom of God like Eliezer and Ishmael. Only those who believe in God the Mother can become the firstborn of heaven. So, in this age, God the Father and God the Mother have come as the Spirit and the Bride and have given us the blood of the covenant—the Passover, the blood of God the Father and God the Mother.

The firstborn of heaven resemble God and do the work of God

Only the children of Zion in the whole universe have the blood of the new covenant. So, no matter how cleverly false prophets and false Christians may disguise themselves in sheep's clothing, God can easily distinguish who they are.

Many people beg God earnestly, saying, "Lord, Lord! We've fervently believed in You. So, please let us into heaven," but God does not acknowledge them as His heirs. God's children have in themselves the blood of God, the commandments of God, the faith in Jesus' new name—the name of the Savior whom the Bible testifies about, and the faith in Mother the new Jerusalem. However, they do not have all these things. That is why God tells them, "I never knew you. Away from Me" (Mt 7:21-23).

The devil tries to harm our spiritual DNA, so that our DNA will not match God's and we will eventually fail to enter the kingdom of heaven. We must not let him do that kind of thing at all. Older people in Korea have the traditional concept that their whole body from head to toe has been inherited from their parents, so they must not put even a single hair on their body in harm's way. It is the same spiritually. We must not damage anything that has been inherited from Father and Mother. I hope that our family members of Zion will all receive the eternal blessings of heaven as the firstborn of heaven by keeping and preserving the things of Father and Mother till the end.

Children are to resemble their parents. Father and Mother are pleased with the work of saving souls, but if we avoid doing the work or think that it is enough if I myself am saved, regardless of whether others are saved or not, we cannot be called God's children who resemble God. The Bible says that if we are Abraham's children, we should do the things Abraham did, and if we are God's children, we should do the things God did (Jn 8:39). If Father and Mother have worked hard to save souls, we should also live that same kind of life.

We must not neglect the privilege of the firstborn of heaven. Esau, who had despised his birthright, was deprived of all the blessings of the birthright and burst out with a loud and bitter cry. Being at a loss about what to do, he begged his father for even a single blessing, saying, "Do you have only one blessing?"

Bless me too!" However, all the blessings of the birthright had already been passed on to Jacob. The birthright, which Esau had once sold, never returned to him again (Ge 25:24-34; 27:1-40).

Heb 12:15-17 See to it that no one misses the grace of God and that no bitter root grows up to cause trouble and defile many. See that no one is sexually immoral, or is godless like Esau, who for a single meal sold his inheritance rights as the oldest son. Afterward, as you know, when he wanted to inherit this blessing, he was rejected. He could bring about no change of mind, though he sought the blessing with tears.

There must not be anyone who is godless like Esau in the truth. Our inheritance rights as the firstborn of heaven are so precious and valuable that even angels long to look into the truth we have (1 Pe 1:12). Nothing in the human world is worthy to be envied. The only thing that the angels envy is this truth that enables us to become the firstborn of heaven.

As a royal prince takes special classes to learn the qualifications to become a king, so we are now taking classes for the firstborn of heaven. Preaching the gospel is not something that anyone can do, but it is the privilege of the firstborn.

God has entrusted this task only to those whom He approves (1 Th 2:4). Keeping God's commandments, being considerate of our brothers and sisters and loving them, and following the teachings of God exactly—doing all these things is taking the classes for the firstborn. If we disobey even a single command of God, we will end up being like Esau who gave up his birthright. Let us glorify Heavenly Father and Mother by giving infinite thanks to Them for having called us to be the firstborn of heaven and diligently putting into practice the many teachings that God has given us to make us worthy of being the firstborn of heaven.

Mother is with us even at this moment. How blessed and happy we are!

Without Mother, we can never become children of promise like Isaac. Without Mother, we would not be able to receive the heavenly inheritance, even though we eagerly desire it, like Ishmael and Eliezer.

Our Mother is the most precious treasure to us. I earnestly hope that you will all enter the eternal kingdom of heaven by following Jerusalem Mother, who is our eternal spiritual home, and obeying Her wherever She leads us, as the firstborn of heaven.

I notice a couple things from your post. (Well, more than that, but I'm only going to focus on a couple...)

Reply

1. You said, "following the teachings of God exactly.... If we disobey even a single command of God, we will end up being like Esau who gave up his birthright."

So why did the wmscog pastor encourage my member friend to marry her non-member boyfriend, when the Bible clearly says not to be unequally yoked together with an unbeliever? (2 Cor. 6:14)

And why did has the member husband of my non-member friend been encouraged by the wmscog to divorce her when she is willing to stay in the marriage despite the difference of beliefs? (1 Cor. 7:11)

The wmscog says that you must follow ALL the teachings of God exactly, yet they encourage their members to DISOBEY the teachings of God.

2. In regards to "A lesson from Abraham's family," please read my series on Galatians 4:26, starting here:

<http://encountering-ahnsahnghong.blogspot.com/2010/11/galatians-426-part-1.html>

I'd like to know what you think.

3. And about Isaac, did you know that Ahnsahnghong thought Isaac was actually God in the flesh? For more information see <http://encountering-ahnsahnghong.blogspot.com/2011/04/who-was-isaac-really.html>

I also thought you might be interested in the series I've been working on about the wmscog teaching that the cross is a pagan idol. It starts here:

<http://encountering-ahnsahnghong.blogspot.com/2011/07/is-cross-idol-part-1.html>

And one more thing, did you know that Ahnsahnghong's gravestone declares that he was the Prophet Elijah, not the Christ? It also lists his natural children—yes, he was married and had children with his wife (who was not Zahng Gil-Jah!)

Do you have any response to that? And please don't say that these are "false rumors" because it is documented truth.

I do hope you will realize the truth about the wmscog and that we will be able to be friends one day.

Sorry, forgot to include the link about Ahnsahnghong's grave. Here it is:

Nowadays, the prophecy in the Bible is being fulfilled swiftly. We can see the recent US debt ceiling that cause global economic crisis. People are in fear about their physical lives, fortune and material success will just disappear. Its all been written in the Bible (Mt. 24)

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your MIND, and with all your strength."
Mark 12:31

Many Christians profess that they love Jesus. Whether Catholics, Born Again, or some other denominations, they claim to love God. But how can we truly love God? Is it by just saying with our own lips that we love God? Let's see through the Bible.

Jn. 14:15 – 15 "If you love me, keep my commands

Jn. 14:21 – 21 Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them."

Jesus Himself told us that if we truly love Him, we must obey His commandments. Then why does Jesus wants us to love Him? What will He give us?

Luke 10:25-28 – 25 On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" 26 "What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you read it?" 27 He answered, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind"; and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'" 28 "You have answered correctly," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live."

We can see here that an expert in the law was asking and testing Jesus on what is written in the Law in order to have eternal life? We can understand that this guy that's expert in the law are referring to the Old Testament Law since the New Testament was not written yet during the time of Jesus here on earth. According to Jesus answer, in order for us to have eternal life, we must "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. This is written in the Law or Old Testament. Then we can have a clue that the way to fulfill this is by finding out in the Law or Old Testament. Lets see.

Deut. 6:5-9 – 5 LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. 6 These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. 7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. 8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. 9 WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES and on your gates.

Wow this was the same words that Jesus told the expert in the law. Then we can see a clue here on verse 9 that says "WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES". Now let's check for another clue on the same chapter.

Deut. 6:20-25 – 20 In the future, when your son asks you, "What is the meaning of the stipulations, decrees and laws the LORD our God has commanded you?" 21 tell him: "We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 22 Before our eyes the LORD sent signs and wonders—great and terrible—on Egypt and Pharaoh and his whole household. 23 But he brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land he promised on oath to our ancestors. 24 The LORD commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear the LORD our God, so that we might always prosper and be kept alive, as is the case today. 25 And if we are careful to obey all this law before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, that will be our righteousness."

Ok so this are the commandment's clue are:

- WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES
- COMMANDMENT THAT BROUGHT THE ISRAELITES OUT OF EGYPT

Then let's see what is this.

Exo. 12:1-14 – 1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt, 2 "This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year. 3 Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb[a] for his family, one for each household. 4 If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbor, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat. 5 The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats. 6 Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the members of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight. 7 THEN THEY ARE TO TAKE SOME OF THE BLOOD AND PUT IT ON THE SIDES AND TOPS OF THE DOOR FRAMES OF THE HOUSES WHERE THEY EAT THE LAMBS. 8 That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast. 9 Do not eat the meat raw or boiled in water, but roast it over a fire—with the head, legs and internal organs. 10 Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it. 11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; IT IS THE LORD'S PASSOVER.

12 "On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn of both people and animals, and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. 13 The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are, and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

14 "This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD—a lasting ordinance.

Now its clear. The PASSOVER is the commandment that would fulfill the "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH". When the Israelites kept the Passover, they were freed from Egypt. So it is the PASSOVER.

Then 2000 years ago, Jesus Christ established the Passover of the New Covenant which is the reality.

Lk. 22:8 – 8 Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover."

Lk. 22:14-15 – 14 When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. 15 And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

Lk. 22:19-20 – 19 And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." 20 In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you

By keeping the Passover, we can truly love God and receive eternal life.

John 6:53-55 — JESUS SAID to them, "I TELL YOU THE TRUTH, UNLESS you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. WHOEVER EATS MY FLESH AND DRINKS MY BLOOD REMAINS IN ME, AND I IN HIM.

Thanks to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong, the 2nd Coming Christ according to the prophecies of the Bible, for reminding us the precious truth.

Jn. 14:25-26 – 25 "All this I have spoken while still with you. 26 But the COUNSELOR, THE HOLY SPIRIT, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and WILL REMIND YOU OF EVERYTHING I HAVE SAID TO YOU.

Let's have true faith in Jesus by following His Words of Life so that we can truly Love Him and receive eternal life.

Jn. 3:16 – 16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM SHALL NOT PERISH BUT HAVE ETERNAL LIFE

Jam. 2:17-19 – 17 In the same way, FAITH BY ITSELF, IF IT IS NOT ACCOMPANIED BY ACTION IS DEAD. 18 But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds." Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do. 19 You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

If you know truth, then you will recognize lie. But if you not know truth, you will not know if what someone says true, false – which?

Picture: If you don't know what mean "dog," then maybe I show you bird and tell you, "This is dog." Then you maybe believe me. But if you finish know what dog is, then you will never believe bird is dog.

Yes Bell Nowadays, the prophecy in the Bible is being fulfilled swiftly. This is the age of deception and age of delusion. We can see lots of false prophets who put fear into their members about their physical lives, fortune and material success will just disappear if they do not surrender it all to their cult leaders. Its all been written in the Bible

They talk about Jesus and And then they believe and give thanks to the false Gods who did nothing like Jesus did. Satan will use even the name of Jesus as a sheild just how he uses the Bible as a deceptive tool

Bible says

For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD."

Jeremiah 29:9, KJV

"Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them."

Matthew 7:15-20, KJV

"And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many . . . And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many . . . For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

Matthew 24:4-5, 11, 24, KJV

"For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect."

Mark 13:22, KJV

"For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works."

2 Corinthians 11:13-15, KJV

"But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived."

2 Timothy 3:13, KJV

"For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;"

2 Timothy 4:3, KJV

"But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction."

Isaiah 51:16 I have put my words in your mouth and covered you with the shadow of my hand— I who set the heavens in place, who laid the foundations of the earth, and WHO SAY TO ZION, 'YOU ARE MY PEOPLE.

All of the earthly systems are a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. The family system is the same. Christ Ahnsahnghong revealed to us the existence of the heavenly Mother by teaching us about the heavenly family system through the earthly family system.

Heb. 8:5 They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven.

Everything within the spiritual world is reflected on this earth. In other words, everything on the earth is a shadow, and the things in heaven are the realities of what is on earth.

God established the earthly family system to show us that there is also a family system in heaven. The reason why God made every family on the earth has a father, a mother, and children was to reveal that in heaven, as well, there are a Father, a Mother, and children. God's providence is to let us know that there exists a God the Mother in heaven, as well as a God the Father.

Do you want to be a part of the heavenly family? Let us find out how we can be members of the heavenly family.

House

What are you reminded of when you hear the word "family"? Don't you think of a "house"? Jesus also mentioned a "house" many times in the Bible.

John 14:1-3 "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place [house] for you. And if I go and prepare a place [house] for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.

Jesus said that the Father's house surely exists. As of now, the house has been prepared. Then, who will be the members of this house? The family system described in the Bible is paternalistic. As you can see through your physical family, the first, main member of the house is the father. Therefore, if there is a father in the families on the earth, there must also be a Father in heaven.

Heavenly Father Ahnsahnghong
Let us find out if we have a Father in heaven.

Heb. 12:9 Moreover, we have all had human fathers who disciplined us and we respected them for it. How much more should we submit to the Father of our spirits and live!

The God in heaven is our God the Father. Just as we have a physical father on this earth, we have a spiritual Father in heaven. He is God the Father, Ahnsahnghong.

Children of Heavenly Father Ahnsahnghong
Who comes to mind next when we think of a family? Most people will think of a "mother." But before we consider "mother," we have to think about what kind of person can be called a "father." No one can be called "father" unless he has a child. No matter how old a man is, if he has had no children, who would call him "father"? The title "father" is only used by children.

Therefore, a family must have children. Let us find out if our heavenly Father has children.

Matt. 12:46 While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him. Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

Here, we can find the words "brothers" and "sisters." Just as we have physical brothers and sisters, we have spiritual brothers and sisters. God's children, who call upon the God in heaven as "Father," must follow the will of the heavenly Father. In the Church of God, the children of the heavenly Father keep the Sabbath, the Passover, and all of the other truths, according to the will of the Father in heaven. The Church of God follows the teachings of Christ Ahnsahnghong, and we are brothers and sisters.

Heavenly Mother Jerusalem
We have studied that there exist a God the Father, and His children, in the heavenly family. Then, who is left?

It's Mother.

Gal. 4:25-26 Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

In this verse we can find the words "our mother." "Our" refers to the children who believe in God. This verse reveals that there exists a heavenly Mother to the children who will be saved.

So far, we've studied about which members compose a family, and we have confirmed that we have a spiritual family in heaven. Just as we have fathers, brothers, sisters, and mothers in our physical families, we have our spiritual Father, brothers, sisters, and spiritual Mother in our spiritual family.

The Family Must Be Connected by Blood

What connects a family together? It's blood. Just as physical children inherit their father and mother's flesh and blood, the spiritual children inherit the spiritual Father and Mother's flesh and blood. If the physical family is connected by physical blood, then the heavenly family is connected by heavenly blood, because what is on earth is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven.

John 6:53-55 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink."

Jesus fed his people with His flesh and blood, so the heavenly Father and Mother's blood and flesh are now in us. Only God has eternal life. The flesh and blood of God—who gives eternal life—has been given to us, God's children. Thus, we have become eternal beings and we are able to call upon God, "Abba, Father!"

Right to Become the Children of Father Ahnsahnghong
Then, through what truth can we receive the right to become God's children? How can we inherit the flesh and blood of our heavenly Father?

Matt. 26:17-19 On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?" He replied, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, 'The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.'" So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

Matt. 26:26-28 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

As shown above, the Passover bread is Jesus' body, His flesh, and the Passover wine is Jesus' blood. By eating and drinking the bread and wine of the Passover, we can receive God's flesh and blood and become God's children.

Christ Ahnsahnghong is the one who brought the Passover in this last age. Christ Ahnsahnghong is our spiritual Father who brought us the Passover, which spiritually connects us with God. Our spiritual Mother is the true God who gives us birth and brings us up. Don't you want to be a member of the spiritual family? Let us all become God's children, receiving the flesh and blood of our heavenly Father Ahnsahnghong and our heavenly Mother through the Passover of the new covenant, so that we can inherit the kingdom of God.

All the glory to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Heavenly Mother Jerusalem for everything. It is amazing to see how Christ Ahnsahnghong and Heavenly Mother fulfilled every single prophesy through the Bible. Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother are the only source of eternal life in these last days. How can you denied that according to the prophecies a man (God) has to come from the East (South Korea) in 1948 (according to the Fig Tree Lesson) to fulfill God's purpose? Christ Ahnsahnghong has come just according to what the Bible testifies, Christ Ahnsahnghong has come to grant salvation to Zion; Christ Ahnsahnghong has come to show us our Heavenly Mother.

But still we are all stubborn people, we have rebelled against God, that's why God said:

Isaiah 46: 8-13 "Remember this, fix it in mind, take it to heart, you rebels.....I make known the end from the beginning, from ancient times, what is still to come. I say: My purpose will stand, and I will do all that I please. From the east I summon a bird of prey; from a far off land, a man to fulfill my purpose. What I have said, that will I bring about; what I have planned, that will I do. Listen to me, you stubborn hearted, you who are far from righteousness. I am bringing my righteousness near, it is not far away; and my salvation will not be delayed. I will grant salvation to Zion..."

How can we tell God what to do?

God is Almighty and God will do as God pleased. I cannot denied anything about the fulfillment of God's prophecies, I can only give thanks and praises to Elohim God. But still as God said, we have to remember it and to fix it in our heart, God already knew that it is going to be very difficult for us to accept that God will come one more time in the flesh, that He will come in our generation, and He will come from such a small country in the East (South Korea); that Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled these prophecies.

That is why now a days many churches in the world and many different people look at Christ Ahnsahnghong as some kind of heresy. People call the Church of God heretic. But before making a huge mistake we need to comprehend what is heresy and to not judge Christ Ahnsahnghong's teachings as heretic until you testify and confirm them through the Bible.

Let's see what is "HERESY"

The word, "heresy," has historically never been used as frequently as it is today. Since the advent of Christianity, even non-Christians have thoughtlessly used the word, without ever considering its true meaning.

The Church of God believes in Christ Ahnsahnghong, who came, wearing the flesh, in accordance with the prophecies of Jesus' second coming. The Church of God keeps the Passover and the Sabbath day, as Christ taught; however, the world rejects the Church, arguing, "They believe in a man," and, "They keep the Sabbath." The Bible testifies that the churches keeping Sunday service, Christmas, and Thanksgiving Day, and who revere the cross and the Virgin Mary, without ever referring to the Bible, are the true heretics.

1) Here is the dictionary's definition of Heresy

- a) adherence to a religious opinion contrary to church dogma
- b) dissent or deviation from a dominant theory, opinion, or practice
- c) an opinion, doctrine, or practice contrary to the truth or to generally accepted beliefs or standards

2) The origin of the word

The word "heresy" comes from the Greek αἵρεσις, haireisis (from αἵρεομαι, haireomai, "choose"), meaning either a choice of beliefs, or a faction of dissident believers.

3) The Bible's interpretation

Christ Ahnsahnghong taught us what is "heresy" in the Bible.

Gal. 5:20, KJV "Idolatry, witchcraft...wrath, strife, seditions, heresies."

2 Pet. 2:1 "...They will secretly introduce destructive heresies..."

Tit. 3:10, KJV "A man that is an heretic after the first and second admonition reject..."

4) The Doctrine of Christianity

During the Early Church, heresy was considered to be any opinion or doctrine which deviated from the truth of the Early Church, from those who followed only the teachings of Jesus. In other words, the religious organizations that do not follow the words of God, which have been written in the Bible, are heretical.

2 Pet. 2:1 "But there were also false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the sovereign Lord who bought them, bringing swift destruction on themselves. Many will follow their shameful ways and will bring the way of truth into disrepute. In their greed these teachers will exploit you with stories they have made up. Their condemnation has long been hanging over them, and their destruction has not been sleeping."

Results of Heresy:

- a) Heresy results in destruction.
- b) Heresy brings the way of truth into disrepute.
- c) Heretics teach the rules of men, that is, they teach the stories that have been made up by men, not the words of the Bible.
- d) Heretics are false prophets who rebel against God.
- e) Heretics can never be saved.

It is so sad to see the foolishness of the people, because it is not wise for a man to pass judgment on a church, simply because it is a church that he has never attended. The Bible must be our standard of judgment. All of the churches that do not follow the Bible will be destroyed in the end.

PROPHECY WILL BE FULFILLED NO MATTER WHAT YOU THINK!!!!!!!!!!

Matt. 7:21-29 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven...Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock...But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash."

Christ Ahnsahnghong testified that those who follow the ways of heresy will be led to destruction. Christianity always saw as heretics those who do not follow the teachings of the Bible. Heresy is the weeds that have been sown by the devil in an effort to bring the way of truth into disrepute. Then, which church can be considered heretical: the Church of God, that follows the teachings of the Bible? or the religious bodies that do not follow the teachings of the Bible, obstinately blaming the Church of God because it follows doctrines which are different than their own?

JUDGE FOR YOURSELF AND DON'T LET OTHERS JUDGE FOR YOU!!!!

Christ Ahnsahnghong foretold the appearance of heretical teachings through the following parable.

Matt. 13:24-42 "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. But while everyone was sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and went away...Let both grow together until the harvest. At that time I will tell the harvesters: First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; then gather the wheat and bring it into my barn...As the weeds are pulled up and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the age...They will weed out everything that causes sin and all who do evil. They will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

As is stated above, heretics are those who do not follow the laws of God, those who practice lawlessness. Among the many heresies in the world, let's focus on the concept of Sunday service.

Following the teachings of Ahnsahnghong, the Sabbath day (the seventh day, Saturday) is one of God's commandments. All history books testify to this fact. For example:

1) Catholic books, The Faith of Millions by Reverend John A. O'Brien, records as follows:

"But since Saturday, not Sunday, is specified in the Bible, isn't it curious that non-Catholics who profess to take their religion directly from the Bible and not from the Church, observe Sunday instead of Saturday? Yes, of course, it is inconsistent; but this change was made about fifteen centuries before Protestantism was born, and by that time the custom was universally observed. They have continued the custom, even though it rests upon the authority of the Catholic Church and not upon an explicit text in the Bible" (pp. 400-401).

It is clear that Sunday service is a rule of men, not of God.

Among so many heresies, we have only explored the origin of Sunday service. The Sabbath day is God's commandment, but Sunday service is a man-made teaching (HERESY). Therefore, the Church of God, which follows the teachings of Second Coming Christ Ahnsahnghong, can be proven as the true Church because it keeps the Sabbath day.

Only senseless people blame the true Church, Church of God, calling it "heresy," when the number of the heresy-believers surpasses that of truth-believers.

1) Christ Ahnsahnghong revealed to us that even Jesus, was treated as a heretic.

The Jewish people who lived two thousand years ago referred to Christianity as the "Nazarene sect," persecuting Christians for following Jesus, who was from Nazareth (Acts 24:5). Regarding Him as a heretic, the Jews tried to kill Jesus many times.

John 8:59 "At this, they picked up stones to stone him, but Jesus hid himself, slipping away from the temple grounds."

John 10:30-31 "I and the Father are one." Again the Jews picked up stones to stone him...

John 11:53 "So from that day on they plotted to take his life."

The religious leaders of that time, who regarded Jesus as a heretic, had not recognized their sin until they handed Him over to be crucified. They believed that their actions were just, even faithful to God, and they boldly shouted, "Let his blood be on us and on our children!" (Matt. 27: 23-25).

When God appears in the flesh, He is still God, not a man; however, the people thought that Jesus' divinity was only self-proclaimed. When Jesus asked the Jews why they wanted to stone Him, they answered very confidently, "We are not stoning you for any of these, but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man, claim to be God" (John 10:33). By their actions, the Jews treated Jesus as if he had been a heretic.

2) Jesus' disciples were also called heretics

Do you think that the people who condemned Jesus, by claiming that He was a heretic, acknowledged His disciples? (NO)

When the Apostles preached the gospel, the Jews denounced them, too. They assumed that the disciples were only heretics who had worshiped Jesus, the son of a carpenter, and had fabricated His divinity. The disciples, who proclaimed that Jesus was the Christ, were flogged (Acts 5:40) chased (Acts 9:23-25) and even stoned to death (Acts 7:59).

Acts 24:1-9 "We have found this man to be a troublemaker, stirring up riots among the Jews all over the world. He is a ringleader of the Nazarene sect."

Acts 7:59-60 "While they were stoning him, Stephen prayed..." "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." "When he had said this, he fell asleep [died]."

3) A present-day view of heresy

Here is an example that happens very frequently:

When a deacon of the Protestant church first heard the truth, he asked the pastor of the Protestant church, "I happen to know of a church that proclaims that the Sabbath day is Saturday, not Sunday, and that the 25th of December is not the birthday of Jesus. Are this church's teachings correct?"

The pastor's answer was ridiculous, "Biblically, the Sabbath day is Saturday, and the 25th of December is not the birthday of Jesus, but any church that keeps the Sabbath and does not celebrate Christmas is heretical.”

What does his answer mean?

His standard of judgment is not the Bible, but the doctrine of his own denomination. Since Jesus and His disciples kept the Sabbath day and did not celebrate Christmas, were they heretics? Today, people accuse those who follow the teachings of Jesus, calling them heretics. They use the same arguments as those who denounced Jesus as a heretic.

Here is another example:

Copernicus and Galileo, advocates of the heliocentric theory, were also judged and regarded as heretics. In those days, the Roman Catholic Church supported the geocentric theory, the belief that the earth is the center of the universe and that the sun, the moon, and the stars move around the earth.

The theories of Copernicus and Galileo were treated as mere heresy for a long time. However, as the field of science developed, their heliocentric theory became common knowledge, and the astronomers are now respected as pioneers.

When we study the Bible, we can clearly understand what heresy is. If you believe in God, and if you believe that the Bible was written by people who were moved by the Holy Spirit, you will surely be able to discern the true church from the churches practicing heresy.

The Church of God, established by Christ Ahnsahnghong, follows only the teachings of the Bible, and that's why it can be easily recognized as the true Church.

Just as a good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and as a bad tree cannot bear good fruit, the people who refuse to follow the teachings of the Bible will never be able to enter the kingdom of heaven.

In the end there is only true God, Elohim God, (Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem) and the truth always prevails!

Tell me, Bell.. the purpose of Jesus Christ being incarnated as a man was for the very invisible God, a spirit by nature, to sacrifice Himself physically as a sacrifice of flesh. Jesus came in human form to understand our sufferings, to heal us, and to become a living sacrifice upon the cross.

What is the point of Zhang Gil-Jah, the Heavenly Mother, as a fleshly being? Where in scripture does it say the “Heavenly Mother” shall become flesh, living in Korea as some testimony of the Holy Spirit?

Not only this, but did you not know that when Jesus had ascended, the angels talked with the apostles who stood there looking up to the clouds, astonished that Christ had just floated up to the heavens. The angel(s) said to them in some form or another "why do you stand there like morons? Do you not know that the same Christ which just ascended will come back down someday as He said He would just the same?". In other words, Christ will not have changed, once again I claim Jesus will not come as a Korean man. He did not have a Korean body on this earth in the past, He will not when He returns.

2nd Coming and Last Coming

The Bible prophesies that Jesus will come on a cloud, for a second time, in order to restore the lost truth and to lead the children of God into the kingdom of heaven. When Jesus came two thousand years ago, He fulfilled the prophecy of the book of Daniel by "coming with the clouds of heaven" (Dan. 7:13-14). Actually, Jesus came as a man, in the flesh. Jesus is prophesied to come a second time on the clouds of heaven, meaning that He will come as a man, in the flesh, again.

Ahnsahnghong, the Second Coming Christ, has come in the flesh, fulfilling the prophecies of the Bible. When Jesus ascended into heaven, the angels asked the people, "Why do you stand here looking at the sky?" The members of the Church of God are not looking up into the sky, and are not waiting for the second coming of Jesus. We have already received the Second Coming Christ, Ahnsahnghong, who has come in the flesh according to the prophecies of the Bible. The Church eagerly preaches to the people who are still looking up at the clouds of the sky, informing them that their Savior, Christ, has already come.

We truly wish that all of the readers will open their hearts, will study the words of truth, and will receive the Second Coming Christ, Ahnsahnghong, who guides us to salvation.

Luke 21:27-28 "At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."

The Son of Man Will Come in a Cloud

At first, we need to carefully study Jesus' first coming, because He was also prophesied to come in a cloud. If this prophecy meant that He would come in a physical cloud of the sky, the people who do not believe will fall into destruction. But if this prophecy meant that He would come in the flesh-and not on an actual cloud-then those who insist on His coming on a physical cloud of the sky will be destroyed.

When Jesus came for the first time, 2,000 years ago, the Pharisees were aware that Elijah would come before the Messiah (Matt. 17:10-13; cf. Matt. 11:14). Elijah had gone up to heaven in a whirlwind, riding a chariot of fire (2 Kin. 2:11), so the priests, the teachers of the law and the Pharisees, all believed that the Elijah to come would also come down from heaven in a chariot of fire-the same way that he had gone up to heaven. Because of their incorrect beliefs, they failed to receive Elijah-John the Baptist and persecuted him; thus, they were all destroyed. While they eagerly looked forward to Elijah's coming in a chariot of fire, Elijah-John had already been born, as a child, through the body of Elizabeth (Luke 1:57-66).

All of the evildoers who had waited for Elijah's coming in a chariot of fire were destroyed. This is God's warning to us. In the last days, the people who believe that Jesus will come in a physical cloud of the sky will be destroyed.

We should be careful not to follow the Pharisees' example, and make every effort to study the prophecies of Jesus' coming in a cloud. The Bible says, "When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near," and, "He will send his angels...and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other."

Most Christians assume that when Jesus comes in a cloud, as the Judge, the earth will be destroyed and the "saved" will be caught in the air to meet Jesus. The Bible says, however, that "when these things begin to take place [when the Son of Man comes in a cloud], stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near." The Bible also says that when Jesus comes in a cloud He will gather His elect from the four winds.

In other words, the purpose of Jesus' coming in a cloud for a second time is not to destroy the earth, but to gather the elect. In order to be recognized as the elect, we must receive the Second Coming Christ who comes in a cloud.

"Cloud" Means "Flesh"

We need to know the correct interpretation of the "cloud." If the prophecy refers to a cloud of the sky, where would Jesus stay until He came in a cloud? A cloud is visible water vapor, floating above the earth. It accumulates in the air and comes down as rain or snow; this is the cycle of a cloud. Then, where would Jesus stay until He came in a cloud? Let's find out the symbolic meaning of the cloud, through the Bible.

Heb. 12:1 Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses...

Jude 1:12 These men are blemishes at your love feasts, eating with you without the slightest qualm - shepherds who feed only themselves. They are clouds without rain, blown along by the wind...

In the above expressions - "a great cloud of witnesses," and, "clouds without rain, blown along by the wind" - the clouds represent people, wearing the flesh. Since the Bible calls false prophets "clouds without rain," whom do "clouds with rain" represent? Those "with rain" are the true prophets, aren't they?

The water within the clouds represents the water of life.

Zech. 14:8 On that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half to the eastern sea and half to the western sea...

And Jesus said:

John 7:37-39 On the last and greatest day of the Feast, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, streams of living water will flow from within him." By this he meant the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were later to receive.

And the Apostle Peter said:

2 Pet. 2:17 These men are springs without water and mists driven by a storm.

"Springs without water" and "mists driven by a storm" indicate false Christians. As you know, "mists" are "clouds without rain" (Jude 1:12). The waters that have not been vaporized represent all human beings, everyone in the flesh.

Rev. 17:15 The waters you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations and languages.

Since the waters represent "peoples," whom do the clouds stand for? Clouds are suspended in the air, visible collections of water particles that have been vaporized by solar heat. Thus, clouds represent the people who have been born again through the Holy Spirit. Jesus' coming in a cloud means His coming in the flesh.

Jesus, Who Came With the Clouds

In a vision, the prophet Daniel saw the Son of Man coming with the clouds, and he prophesied:

Dan. 7:13-14 In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence. He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all peoples, nations and men of every language worshiped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.

Jesus did not come on the visible clouds of heaven. Instead, He was born as a baby through the body of Mary. Some argue that the above prophecy is concerning Jesus' second coming. Daniel's prophecy is speaking of Jesus' first coming, undoubtedly, because the prophecy states, "He was given authority, glory and sovereign power [a kingdom, KJV]; all peoples, nations and men of every language worshiped him." Matthew and Luke disclosed that, in His first coming, Jesus had been given all authority, in heaven and on earth, as well as a kingdom.

Matt. 28:18 Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me."

Luke 22:29 "And I confer on you a kingdom, just as my Father conferred one on me,"

The Bible prophesied that Jesus' first coming would be with the clouds, and yet He came in the flesh. Therefore, the prophecy of His second coming, in a cloud, also reveals that He will secretly come in the flesh, doesn't it? There is an undeniable prophecy: "I tell you the truth, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away" (Matt. 24:34-35).

Then, how long will "this generation" be? Almost two thousand years have passed since Jesus spoke these words. Has the generation not yet passed? In regard to one generation, the Bible says:

Ps. 90:10 The length of our days is seventy years-or eighty, if we have the strength...

Therefore "this generation" can only be interpreted as the time period within which the Son of Man comes in a cloud for the second time and gathers His elect from all sides.

The Last Judgment Will Be When Jesus Comes With Fire
When Jesus comes as the Last Judge, He is to come with fire, not on a cloud. The prophet Isaiah testified that on the last day Jesus would come with fire. As it is written:

Isa. 66:15-16 See, the LORD is coming with fire, and his chariots are like a whirlwind; he will bring down his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. For with fire and with his sword the LORD will execute judgment upon all men and many will be those slain by the LORD.

And the Apostle Paul wrote:

2 Thess. 1:7-8 This will happen when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven in blazing fire with his powerful angels. He will punish those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

Heb. 12:29 ...for our "God is a consuming fire."

Matt. 24:30 They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory.

Luke 17:22 ..."The time is coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it."

In other words, we will be able to see Jesus when He comes in a cloud, but we will not see Jesus when He comes with fire. Jesus also said that He wouldn't find faith on the earth when He came on a cloud for the second time.

Luke 18:8 "However, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"

If there is no one who has faith at the time Jesus comes, who can be saved? The Bible says:

Matt. 24:31 "And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other."

In accordance with the prophecies of Jesus' coming in a cloud, again, to gather His elect from the four winds, Jesus has come for a second time and is presently gathering His elect from the four winds. The one who has fulfilled all of these prophecies is Christ Ahnsahnghong.

We truly hope that you will be able to recognize the Second Coming Christ, Ahnsahnghong, through studying the prophecies of the Bible so that you may receive salvation.

SECOND COMING

By: stella on August 23, 2011 at 7:21 pm

The WMSCOG and Moonies use Biblical terms to refer to the Second Coming, but have changed their meanings. They deny that Jesus Christ, the Son of God, will return, but say that God will send another man as the "third Adam." They deny that the "Christ" will come in the clouds, but instead that he will be born just as Jesus was in the First Advent. The moonies teach that the Kingdom of God on earth and in heaven will be established by the "third Adam" through marriage. The bottom line is that they believe that Moon is this "third Adam" and that he has begun to establish God's kingdom — "He [God] is living in me. I am the incarnation of Himself." Moon says that Jesus failed at the First Coming, but he (Moon) will not! [Reply]

By the year 2000, Moon claimed, the Messiah would be revealed (cf. Duet. 18:22). Therefore, Moon does not want us to think of the Second Coming in terms of a literal interpretation of Scripture, which states that Jesus will come in the clouds with great glory. Moon insists that the second messiah will be a Korean man born of the flesh — and those who do not accept him will face God's wrath.

Do you see any difference between both the cult beliefs? They are the same.

As a matter of fact the great event of Jesus' return in glory did not occur with Ahnsahnghong's second coming and neither does any scripture prove that he would have to die once again some of brain hemorrhage.

Both Jesus, and his apostles who wrote the New Testament, have given us the promise of Jesus' second coming in glory and not in secret Matthew 24:3 Now while he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things happen? And what is the sign of your coming and the end of the world?"

Matthew 24:27 For just as the lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so will the coming of the Son of Man be.

Matthew 24:37 For just as the days of Noah were, so in this manner will the coming of the Son of Man be.

Matthew 25:31 When the Son of Man shall come in his glory and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his throne of glory.
For further study of this promise that Jesus gave us, see also Mark 13:26; Luke 9:26; 12:40; 18:8; 21:27,36.

Bell why do you ignore this following scripture from the Bible Acts 1:11 . . . they also said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This same Jesus, (NOT A KOREAN ONE) who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in just the same way you saw him go into heaven."

1 Corinthians 11:26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Thessalonians 2:19 For who is our hope or joy or crown of glorying? Is it not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus at his coming?

Hebrews 9:28 . . . so also Christ, who was offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear for a second time (NOT THIRD TIME) apart from sin to those who eagerly await him for salvation.

Based on the number of such passages, it is evident that the second coming of Jesus was a lively expectation (NOT A SECRET ONE) within the early apostolic church. That lively expectation gave the early Christians a blessed hope, a confidence, in Jesus' coming in glory to bring them their eternal salvation.

Titus 2:13 . . . while we wait for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, . . .

As you read Matthew 24:3, 14, 29, 30 below, note that the disciples asked what the sign of Jesus' coming would be and of the end of the world. Note, too, that Jesus answered by giving them the signs of his coming in verses 4 to 14 and then saying the end would come. His coming in glory would be in connection with the destruction of this world.

Matthew 24:3 Now while he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things happen? And what is the sign of your coming and the end of the world?"

Matthew 24:14 And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole inhabited earth for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

Matthew 24: 29 Now immediately after the tribulation of those days, THE SUN WILL BE DARKENED, AND THE MOON WILL NOT GIVE ITS LIGHT, AND THE STARS WILL FALL FROM HEAVEN, AND THE POWERS OF THE HEAVENS WILL BE SHAKEN.

Matthew 24:30 And at that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and then all the nations of the earth will mourn. And they will see the SON OF MAN COMING UPON THE CLOUDS OF THE SKY with power and great glory.

you read 1 Corinthians 15:22-24, note that Jesus will come in connection with his raising his believers from the dead, at which time the end will come.

1 Corinthians 15:22 For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.

1 Corinthians 15:23 But each in his own order; Christ the first-fruits, afterwards those who are Christ's at his coming,

1 Corinthians 15:24 then the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God and the Father, when he has abolished all rule and all authority and power.

There are different classifications of signs which point to Jesus' coming.

So why did Ahnsahnghong come in secret???? And then all of a sudden the WMSCOG begins to believe in mother Jerusalem This is how it goes....

The first classification of signs is the signs within the church on earth. Those signs are:

1. The coming of false Christs, false prophets and teachers, who are little antichrists, Matthew 24:4 And answering, Jesus said to them, "Watch out that no one deceives you.

Matthew 24:11 And many false prophets will arise and will deceive many.

2... The rise of false religions and churches and sects

Matthew 24:4 And answering, Jesus said to them, "Watch out that no one deceives you.

Matthew 24:11 And many false prophets will arise and will deceive many

The rise of false teachings and doctrines which come from demons

1 Timothy 4:1 Now the Spirit explicitly says that in later times some will fall away from the faith, following deceitful spirits and doctrines of demons,

1 Timothy 4:2 by means of the hypocrisy of men who speak lies, who have been seared in their own conscience with a red hot branding iron,

1 Timothy 4:3 who forbid people to marry and command them to abstain from food which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

The Great Antichrist: All false prophets and teachers whose teachings conflict with Christ and his pure gospel are little antichrists. They put themselves and their teachings in place of Christ. There is one Great Antichrist, however, whose coming 1 John 2:18 and 2 Thessalonians 2:1-12 spoke of. The presence of these antichrists tell us we are in the last hour leading up to Christ's second coming in glory.

1 John 4:1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see if they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

1 John 4:2 By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God;

But the Korean spirit you WMSCOG believe that came in secret in the flesh is not from God. For God would have not let him be born in a Buddhist family and join the SDA cult, break the commandments LOL

As for the third coming of this Korean Jesus it will be this...

2 Thessalonians 2:9 namely, the one who's coming is in accordance with the working of Satan in all power and signs and lying wonders

2 Thessalonians 2:10 and with all deception of wickedness to those who are perishing, because they did not receive the love of the truth, so that they would be saved.

2 Thessalonians 2:11 And for this reason God sends them a deluding influence, so they believe the lie,

2 Thessalonians 2:12 in order that all who did not believe the truth but delighted in the wickedness may be condemned

I truly hope that through the proper studying of the Bible you will be able to recognize this Second Coming Korean Christ, Ahnsahnghong or Mother Jerusalem will show you that these false God can offer you no salvation nor give you water of life.

"If a blind man leads a blind man, both will fall into a pit" (Mat. 15:14)

"Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour" (1 Pet. 5:8).

You must visit this site: <http://www.examinethewmscog.com/>. It has valuable information and the true spirit of Jesus Christ works in these people who out there are doing a good job to save your soul who are trapped in this WMSCOG cult Remember this is something Satan does not want you to know or understand. Satan wants Mankind to remain in Total ignorance of false christ coming and is very pleased with anyone's acceptance of them blindly.

Many people think that Second coming Christ is coming in the cloud on the judgement day. But we have to understand about it through the bible.

Let's see .

By: Bell on August 23, 2011 at 10:59 pm

Reply

(Mt24:3) As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately. .. " .. what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age? "

Jesus' disciples asked to Jesus about the sign of Christ's coming and the end of the age.

Then think about it . How many question did they ask to him ? Two !
Then how many answer should they receive ? Two !
Let's see.

(2The1:6) This will happen when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven in blazing fire with his powerful angels. He will punish those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. They will be punished with everlasting destruction and shut out from the presence of the Lord and from the majesty of his power.

As you see God is coming how ? (in fire)
What is purpose for him to come ? (To punish those who do not know God and do not ovey the gospel)
With what ? (everlasting destruction)

Then in that time how many people will be affected ?
(Isa66:15) See, the LORD is coming with fire, for with fire and with his sword the LORD will execute judgment upon all men and many will be those slain by the LORD.

All men will be punished when God is coming with fire.
But let's see another verse.

(Mt24:30) At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky ... They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory.
And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from on end of the heavens to the other.

So through this verse God is coming how ? (on the clouds) what is purpose ? (to gather his elect)
Then why god is gathering his elect ?

(Nk21:27) At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. ... because your redemption is drawing near.

So why he is gathering his elect ? for their redemption which is salvation.

Then do you think this event can be same ?
Think about it ! the cloud is mess of what ? the water.
Then you think fire and water can exist same time ? No way ! Too much fire dry out the water . Too much water put out a fire. They can not exist !
What about purpose ? Salvation and destruction are same ? No way !!
Then we can understand this two events is totally diffrent.
Then which event should take place first ?
Does it make sence God comes to destory everything with fire and comes again to give salvation.
It doesn't make sence !
That means God should come on the cloud for our salvation first and then come again in the fire to punish those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel.
Then If you do not know about Second coming Christ who comes on the cloud , you will be punished on judgemnet day .

So we have to understand about God who is coming in the cloud.

Then what does cloud mean ? You think this cloud is actual cloud ?

Think about it ! If God comes in actual cloud , who would not believe in him. Everybody would believe in him.

Then who will be punished in the last day ?

Meaning this cloud does not mean actual cloud.

When Jesus chirst spoke to disciples what did he use ?

Parable .

So the cloud is also parable.

If you see the bible (Heb12:1 , Pro25:14, Ju1:12) , we can understand it represent man.

That means Second coming Christ should come how ?

(As a man , In the flesh !)

Actually through First coming Christ we can understand cloud represent man.

(Dan7:13) In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. ... He was given authority, glory and sovereign power ...

The man who is in Daniel's vision was coming with the clouds of heaven.

So if we know who the man is , we can understand what the clouds represent.

Then who is the man who receive authority , glory and kingdom.

If you see the bible (Mt28:18, Jn17:10, Nk22:29) the man is Jesus christ who came 2000years ago.

But think about it ! Did he come on actual clouds? No.

How he came ? Which form ? (In the flesh)

But at that time 2000 years ago did they understand about it ? No.

They thought God is coming in actual clouds. So they were waiting God almighty looking at the sky.

And when God came to this earth according to the prophecy , they couldn't believe in him.

(Jn6:42) They said, " Is this not Jesus, the Son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know ? How can he now say, 'I came down from heaven' ?"

Only they saw Jesus Christ physically. Because of that they rejected him who is God almighty.

Do you think now they are in kingdom of heaven ? No !

But same bible prophesies about that Second coming christ is coming in clouds which is flesh.

(Ecc11:4) Whoever watches the wind will not plant; whoever looks at the clouds will not reap.

If you are waiting Second coming Chirst looking at the sky you will not accept him. That means you can not receive salvation.

Let's believe Second coming Christ who comes in the flesh as man just like one of us.

and Let's receive the salvation from Him

2ND COMING – CLOUDS(FLESH) TO GATHER THE ELECT BEFORE JUDGEMENT

Mt. 24:3 As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately. "Tell us," they said, "when will this happen, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"

30 "At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn. They will see the SON OF MAN COMING ON THE CLOUDS of the sky, with power and great glory. 31 And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will GATHER HIS ELECT from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

LAST COMING – FIRE TO EXECUTE JUDGEMENT

Isa 66:15 See, the LORD is COMING WITH FIRE, and his chariots are like a whirlwind; he will bring down his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. 16 FOR WITH FIRE and with his sword the LORD WILL EXECUTE JUDGMENT upon all men, and many will be those slain by the LORD.

2 Thess. 1:6 God is just: He will pay back trouble to those who trouble you 7 and give relief to you who are troubled, and to us as well. This will happen when the LORD JESUS IS REVEALED from heaven in BLAZING FIRE with his powerful angels. 8 HE WILL PUNISH THOSE WHO DO NOT KNOW GOD AND DO NOT OBEY THE GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS. 9 They will be punished with everlasting destruction and shut out from the presence of the Lord and from the majesty of his power 10 on the day he comes to be glorified in his holy people and to be marveled at among all those who have believed. This includes you, because you believed our testimony to you.

Bell – of course it's a real cloud. If you will notice, it says from the "clouds from the sky".. Unless you can come up with some sort of symbol for sky, I don't see any reason for sky to be in the wording of the text if cloud represents groups of people. Besides, where else in the Bible is the word "cloud" used to represent a cloud of people? Not to mention, people don't live in the "sky".. and "sky" never meant the world or anything else. I would reckon COG has deceived people into believing it's a symbol of such things, as well as the rest of the doctrine.

Bell, do you look into the Greek and Hebrew meanings of such English/Korean words? You know that there are different words with different synonyms, antonyms, and different words are used to emphasize or de-emphasize. I could describe some giant box as being big, large, gigantic, or any other word.. it all depends on my context. Look at the many options the original Greek/Hebrew language was written, search for scriptural reference guides then you'll know which words were used in which situation.

Also, you say that if Christ truly came from the clouds, then of course they would believe... well, Bell.. not necessarily. Read the Bible. Read the gospels.. one of them, I forget which, but one of them claims Christ did many more things than was written in the gospel, and that if those things were indeed recorded into books, the earth couldn't fit them all. Christ healed crippled people, lepers.. on the spot. He raised people from the dead. He turned the tables of Jewish society. He did many many many things, and yet even the disciples lost faith at first when He died on the cross, forgetting that He could indeed raise Himself back to life. It's not miracles that make us believe.. we forget those only a moment later. It's the dawning of the Spirit in our hearts that attracts us to God.

Every word in the Bible contains the precious will of God, which He wants us to know for our salvation. Now, the Bible has been translated into over 2,000 languages, and it is the best-selling and the most widely distributed book in the world today. However, most people, even though they read the Bible, do not realize the hidden meaning of the words of every prophecy in the Bible.

By: Bell on August 24, 2011 at 8:22 am

Reply

Every language has its own characteristics, so it is not easy to fully understand the nuances of a language except for its native people. Likewise, the language of the kingdom of God is hard to understand; it can only be understood by the people of God. We, God's people, know well what the Spirit and the Bride mean by saying, "Come!" We understand when, where and why to go to Them, but the people who do not belong to God will never be able to know.

Among many words in the Bible, let's find out the implied meaning of the words, "Seek David in the last days."

Prophecies about David

Hos 3:4-5 For the Israelites will live many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred stones, without ephod or idol. Afterward the Israelites will return and seek the Lord their God and David their king. They will come trembling to the Lord and to his blessings in the last days.

Prophet Hosea testifies that what God's people must do in the last days is to seek David. It's because there is something very important that cannot be solved without seeking David. Through the prophets of the Old Testament, God repeatedly testifies about David who will appear in the last days.

Eze 34:11-24 " 'For this is what the Sovereign Lord says: I myself will search for my sheep and look after them. As a shepherd looks after his scattered flock when he is with them, so will I look after my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness. . . . As for you, my flock, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: I will judge between one sheep and another, and between rams and goats. . . . I will save my flock, and they will no longer be plundered. I will judge between one sheep and another. I will place over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he will tend them; he will tend them and be their shepherd. I the Lord will be their God, and my servant David will be prince among them. I the Lord have spoken.' "

The book of Ezekiel was written about 450 years after the death of David, the king of Israel. In other words, the prophecy, "I [God] will become a Shepherd and search for my lambs," and the prophecy, "I will place over them one Shepherd, my servant David," are about the spiritual David, not the physical David. These prophecies imply that God will come in the name of David in the last days. Prophet Ezekiel repeatedly prophesied about David.

Eze 37:24-27 " 'My servant David will be king over them, and they will all have one shepherd. They will follow my laws and be careful to keep my decrees. They will live in the land I gave to my servant Jacob, the land where your fathers lived. They and their children and their children's children will live there forever, and David my servant will be their prince forever. I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant . . . I will be their God, and they will be my people.' "

God said that His people would keep His laws and decrees in the reign of David. Every prophecy of God is to be fulfilled without fail. We, who look for salvation, should realize when and why the spiritual David comes and what He brings, and we must receive David our Shepherd as His sheep.

Only those who receive David can become God's people, and only the people of God can be saved and go to heaven. Therefore we must seek David.

Jesus who came in the name of David

If we do not meet David coming in the last days, we are not able to know the secret of life that God has opened, and we will fail to find the way to salvation and eternal life that only God knows.

Rev 5:1-5 Then I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne a scroll with writing on both sides and sealed with seven seals. And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, "Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll" But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll or even look inside it. I wept and wept because no one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals."

The Bible testifies that no one can reveal the secrets of God to us except the Root of David Christ who comes in the name of David. If the secrets remain sealed forever, how can we know the way to eternal life and the kingdom of heaven Nowadays, most bookstores have many Bible commentaries, which the interpreters have written with their private opinions. However, no matter how many times they read the Bible, none of them can know the will of God with their own wisdom. It is only the Root of David who is able to reveal to us the secrets of the Bible. That's why the Bible testifies that whoever longs for eternal life and salvation must seek David in the last days.

In order to receive David, we should first know who the prophetic David is and how we can meet Him.

Isa 9:6-7 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the Lord Almighty will accomplish this.

The above prophecy about Christ was written by the prophet Isaiah 700 years before Jesus came to this earth. As Isaiah prophesied, "He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, with justice and righteousness," Jesus came as David.

Lk 1:30-33 "You will be with child and give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus . . . The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever; his kingdom will never end."

Since it is written that God will give Jesus the throne of His father David, we need to carefully study the relationship between David and Jesus. If the prophecy about David was completely fulfilled by Jesus 2,000 years ago, we would not have to study about this prophecy today. However, according to the prophecy of Ezekiel, David is to appear on a day of clouds and darkness in the last day to lead His people, represented by the sheep, as their Shepherd.

Prophetic relationship between David and Jesus

It is certain that there is a prophetic relationship between David and Jesus; through the work of David, we can easily understand that of Jesus. First, let's find out what prophetic relationship there is between the period of King David's reign and the period of Jesus' ministry on earth.

2 Sa 5:3-4 they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years.

It is written that David was anointed and became king when he was 30 years and he reigned for 40 years. Let's see how Jesus, who is the prophetic David, fulfilled this prophecy.

Lk 3: 21-23 When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as he was praying . . . a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased." Now Jesus himself was about thirty years old when he began his ministry. . . .

As David was anointed at the age of 30 and began to reign, so Jesus was spiritually anointed through baptism at the age of 30 and began to preach. Here, we need to pay attention to the fact that Jesus did His public ministry for only three years, while David reigned for 40 years. It was because Jesus was to come again to reveal the secrets of the truth which were sealed.

Heb 9:27-28 Just as man is destined to die once, and after that to face judgment, so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

Jesus was to come to this earth a second time and be baptized at the age of 30 and preach the gospel for 37 years so that He could fulfill the prophecy about the throne of David the 40 years of reign. Then, what is the sign of the Second Coming David, through which we can recognize Him correctly and receive Him

Isa 55:1-5 "Come, all you who are thirsty, come to the waters; and you who have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost. . . . Give ear and come to me; hear me, that your soul may live. I will make an everlasting covenant with you, my faithful love promised to David. See, I have made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander of the peoples. . . ."

Heb 13:20-21 May the God of peace, who through the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, equip you with everything good . . .

God said that an everlasting covenant was promised to David who would lead us to the kingdom of heaven as our leader and commander. The writer of the book of Hebrews testified of "the blood of the eternal covenant," which is the blood of the new covenant the Passover. In other words, the everlasting covenant, God's faithful love promised to David, means the new covenant. So, Christ is to bring the new covenant when He comes in the name of David in the last days.

Christ Ahnsahnghong is the spiritual David, who has come a second time and restored the new covenant

Today, there are many people who claim, "I am David prophesied in the Bible." Among them, is there anyone who has led us to eternal life through the new covenant, revealed the hidden secrets of the Bible, taught us the reality of God Elohim and the existence of God the Mother, and restored the seven feasts in three times so that we can observe all the laws and decrees of God Who, then, did so It is Christ Ahnsahnghong who has led the mortal human beings to the way of life through the eternal covenant. He is David who has appeared in the last days according to the prophecies of the Bible, and He is the Second Coming Jesus.

Eternal life is a free gift from God. We should share this grace and blessing, which we have freely received from God, with all people around the world, so that they can correctly recognize and receive God, who has come to this earth in the name of David in order to save us, as the leader and commander of peoples.

Hos 6:3-6 Let us acknowledge the Lord; let us press on to acknowledge him. . . . For I desire mercy, not sacrifice, and acknowledgment of God rather than burnt offerings.

Without knowing the Second Coming David in this age, we cannot receive salvation that God has promised us. Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled the prophecies of the throne of David; He was baptized in 1948 when he was 30 years old, preached the gospel for 37 years and ascended to heaven in 1985 after completing His ministry. Even though He was extremely distressed and troubled during His 37-year ministry on this earth, He always gave us good things, opened the way to eternal life by restoring all the truths of the new covenant, and let us know the new Jerusalem, our heavenly Mother, who is the source of life.

We give all thanks to our heavenly Father and Mother for leading the gospel work for us with patience and sacrifice, walking the paths of suffering. No matter what people say against our heavenly Father and Mother, They are our eternal God, worthy to receive glory and praise forever and ever!

We are very happy and proud to be children of God Elohim, our heavenly Father and Mother. Let us all devote ourselves to finding our brothers and sisters who are scattered all around the world, always giving thanks and praise to God Elohim for Their grace and love, as Their faithful children.

1 John 2:19 "They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us."

This, dearest Bell and all other COG followers, is the status you are in. The World Mission Society Church of God, the Mormons, Jehovah's Witness, and many other cults are in this kind of state.

I say this, because there was no Christ Ahn Sang-Hong nor Zhang Gil-Jah or any WMSCOG when John wrote the book of 1 John.. there was just the early church. The Holy Spirit was not in any physical form, only a Spirit.

All cults started out within the church. All cults originated from some form of biblical truth, following the Bible correctly. And then, some religious leader down the line decided to change things. He or she was a popular person, having much charm and intellect, and enough skill to craft new ideas out of what was already written.

This is how all cults start. The WMSCOG has twisted biblical truth and sound doctrine to such an extent that it seems true although it's not. Ahn Sang-Hong never claimed to be Christ – his followers said he was. He probably didn't mind it, because he did have some bizarre doctrinal ideas.

Having said that, I would suggest we stop peppering our discussions with deceit and search for truth.

Does Zhang Gil-Jah cure cancer?

What miracles does she do?

Has she raised the dead?

If she is truly God in the flesh on this earth, why do I not see her on TV preaching?

Why do I not have invitations to see her except by a kind looking man walking on the street proselytizing?

Why can I not chat with her on the internet person to person?

Why can't I call her up on the phone?

Why can't I set up an appointment to talk with her in private?

What does she fear?

Why does she remain in Korea and not visit me in America?

Why does she send out people into the world to proselytize instead of going out herself?

If you can answer at least one of these with a logical statement, I'd appreciate it. And I'm not saying this as a "Pharisee" seeking to destroy someone's rep out of pride – I'm saying it because I don't see truth in the COG. I see deceit. You could say she doesn't need to perform miracles because God doesn't have to prove to us Himself. That's true – but Jesus DID do miracles. I would assume if the heavenly mother is God also, then she can also do miracles and would out of mercy on her children... and if you say she has cured cancer or disease, or raised the dead, then please give me some sources of proof, or a biblical response of some sort.

We are trying to glorify God by preaching the gospel to save our lost Brothers and Sisters; and with good deeds we bring glory to Him. This is for our own good after all. Mother says that if we give glory to God, the glory returns to us.

To the people of God, one of the most important virtues is to display God's glory. Many of the prophecies in the Bible tell us that we are created for the glory of God. Through the Bible, let's find wisdom to know how we can bring the greatest glory to God.

Our life is a pilgrimage toward our home

A father and his son were making a journey on foot together. Picturesque and beautiful sights along the way pleased the eyes of the travelers tired from their long journey.

The son was captivated by the scenic beauty of the spot and begged his father to pitch their tent and live there. At his earnest request, the father decided to camp there for a few days. His son became so excited; he pitched the tent and also built a fence around it. His father said to him:

"Son, you don't need to put yourself here. After only a couple of days we must leave here and go back home. Do not be so captivated by this place."

However, the son paid no attention to what his father said. He fenced the place with solid woods and planted flowers. It seemed as if he would live there forever.

Like the father and son in the above story, we are travelers on life's journey. Our journey will end in heaven, our eternal home.

Our Father reminds us of our heavenly home through His words. But sometimes we forget our everlasting kingdom. Like the son who was captivated by the scenery and wanted to make a house and a beautiful garden and live there, we sometimes set our hearts on earthly things rather than on the kingdom of God that is coming, not listening attentively to our Father's voice, "Let's hurry home."

Of course, we cannot totally disregard our earthly life, though transient. However we must not forget the kingdom of heaven—our journey's destination.

Now, let's look into ourselves: Do we live a life of forcefully laying hold of the kingdom of heaven, our destination? Do we not put our hope in earthly things rather than in heaven?

Those created for the glory of God

As travelers on the journey toward heaven, we must display God's glory to reach our destination of heaven, because we are created for His glory.

Isa 43:1-7 " . . . 'Bring my sons from afar and my daughters from the ends of the earth—everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made.' . . . "

Isa 60:21-22 "Then will all your people be righteous and they will possess the land forever. They are the shoot I have planted, the work of my hands, for the display of my splendor. The least of you will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation. I am the LORD; in its time I will do this swiftly."

The prophet Isaiah states that God's people exist to display His glory. And he foretells that when God's children fully reveal His glory, the least of them will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation.

We are created for God's glory. Then, how can we display His glory? Let's take a look at biblical history.

God's glory is revealed through obedience

2 Ki 5:1-14 Now Naaman was commander of the army of the king of Aram . . . He was a valiant soldier, but he had leprosy. Now bands from Aram had gone out and had taken captive a young girl from Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, "If only my master would see the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy." . . . So Naaman went with his horses and chariots and stopped at the door of Elisha's house. Elisha sent a messenger to say to him, "Go, wash yourself seven times in the Jordan, and your flesh will be restored and you will be cleansed." But Naaman went away angry and said, "I thought that he would surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, wave his hand over the spot and cure me of my leprosy. Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than any of the waters of Israel? . . . " Naaman's servants went to him and said, "My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more, then, when he tells you, 'Wash and be cleansed'!" So he went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, as the man of God had told him, and his flesh was restored and became clean like that of a young boy.

In the past, leprosy was known as an incurable disease, and it was called "divine punishment." Naaman, the commander of Aram's army, suffered from this dreadful disease, and he visited a prophet of Israel named Elisha for some advice. However Elisha, inspired by God, didn't come out to meet Naaman who was the great commander of a nation's army, and he just sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and you will be cured."

Naaman, who had expected the prophet to conduct a special ceremony for healing, became furious. If he had let himself be carried away by his emotions and disobeyed God's word to the end, he would not have experienced God's glory and power.

He became angry when he put his feelings ahead of God's word. But when he obeyed His word, persuaded by his servants, he was completely cured of his leprosy. Then he realized the existence and power of God and gave glory to Him.

Thus, God's great glory reveals when we obey His word in faith. Like in the case of Naaman, our obedience to God results in bringing not only God's glory to the world but also blessing and happiness to us.

Obedience brings victory

The Bible repeatedly mentions examples of those who displayed God's glory through obedience. Joshua 6 describes the fall of Jericho. Joshua and the Israelites obeyed God's word and marched against Jericho after he circumcised them and celebrated the Passover.

Jos 6:1-5 Now Jericho was tightly shut up because of the Israelites. No one went out and no one came in. Then the LORD said to Joshua, "See, I have delivered Jericho into your hands, along with its king and its fighting men. March around the city once with all the armed men. Do this for six days. Have seven priests carry trumpets of rams' horns in front of the ark. On the seventh day, march around the city seven times, with the priests blowing the trumpets. When you hear them sound a long blast on the trumpets, have all the people give a loud shout; then the wall of the city will collapse and the people will go up, every man straight in."

Jos 6:15-20 On the seventh day, they got up at daybreak and marched around the city seven times in the same manner, except that on that day they circled the city seven times. The seventh time around, when the priests sounded the trumpet blast, Joshua commanded the people, "Shout! For the LORD has given you the city! . . . " When the trumpets sounded, the people shouted, and at the sound of the trumpets, when the people gave a loud shot, the wall collapsed . . .

Jericho was an impregnable fortress; its inhabitants were so great and tall that the Israelites felt like grasshoppers compared to them. By the power of God, however, the wall of Jericho instantly fell down.

What brought such a display of God's glory upon the whole world? It was the faith and obedience of Joshua and the Israelites.

So was Gideon. When God commanded him to fight against 135,000 men with only 300, he obeyed Him. If he had thought it was impossible and disobeyed God, he would have had an unfavorable result. However, he obeyed and God worked a great wonder to him and revealed His glory; He caused their Midianite enemies to turn against each other with their swords.

All this was a result of his faith and obedience. Thus, the Bible shows that when God's people obeyed His word and willingly put it into action, His miraculous power always worked and He was glorified in them.

Christ gave an example of obedience

Jesus Christ glorified God greatly by destroying the power of the devil and delivering mankind from slavery to sin and death. Let us see how He accomplished this great work and glorified God.

Php 2:5-11 Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross! Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

According to the Trinity, Jesus is in very nature God. However, He became obedient to death, so that we might follow His example of displaying God's glory. The Bible describes that Jesus was given the name above every name.

Even God, who came in the flesh, became "obedient to death" and fulfilled all things through His perfect obedience, that He glorified God and Himself as well. Obedience is the best way to glorify God.

The 144,000 live in obedience

Who are described as the most obedient people following Christ's example in the Bible? Apostle John described the 144,000, who are to appear in the last days, as the most obedient people. He wrote, "They follow the Lamb wherever he goes" (Rev 14:1-5).

They gladly follow God's will without complaining. In faith they are willing to follow God wherever He leads them—whether into the wilderness or through a thorny path. Since they have such complete obedience, Isaiah 60 describes them as the ones to display God's splendor.

Without obedience, we can never experience God's glory. Joshua and the Israelites obeyed God's word, so that they could witness the miraculous fall of the wall of Jericho. They were just obedient to God's word, and it brought glory to God.

The Bible says that the 144,000, who are to appear at the end of the 6,000 years, follow the Lamb wherever He goes. And it is prophesied that through them the light of God's glory will shine in the whole world.

Have faithful obedience to God's word

The Biblical history shows that faithful obedience always resulted in a display of God's glory, while disobedience brought an unfavorable outcome.

King Saul is an example of disobedience; he did not obey God's word but went his own way, that he was rejected by God. Here God gives us this instruction: "To obey is better than sacrifice."

1 Sa 15:22-23 But Samuel replied: "Does the LORD delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the voice of the LORD? To obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed is better than the fat of rams. For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and arrogance like the evil of idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has rejected you as king."

Seeing the above passages, we need to examine how fully we obey God's word. It is our task to display God's glory by obedience in our journey toward heaven. The Apostle Peter set a good example of obedience for us.

He was a fisherman. When he fished all night but caught nothing, Jesus told him to go into deep water and let down his nets. Depending on Jesus' word, Peter let down the nets and he was astonished at the catch of fish that filled the nets. Through his beautiful obedience from faith, he displayed God's splendor. Finally he received Christ and became one of the twelve apostles as a "fisher of men" (Lk 5:1-11).

Peter obeyed God, depending upon His word, which resulted in the display of God's miraculous power and glory and also brought a favorable outcome.

Like Peter, let us have faith and obey everything God taught us, saying, "I will do that, depending on Your word," so that we may display God's glory to the whole world as the children of heaven.

Wouldn't it be better to follow Peter's example rather than Naaman's? Peter immediately obeyed God at His word, but Naaman didn't; he felt insulted and became angry at first because he had his own ideas of how he could be cured. God is ready to punish every act of disobedience, when our obedience is complete (2 Co 10:6).

God is most glorified in us when we gladly follow Him wherever He leads us. Let's think of all the examples of obedience by Jesus, Apostle Peter, Naaman, Joshua, Gideon, etc. I hope all our family members of Zion will pay more attention to God's word and completely obey God, as the prophesied 144,000.

Unfortunately this WMS is a cult. My son was introduced to this crap three years ago, and till today all he talks about is mother and father.

He is totally off his rocker and I don't know how to help him. He has become a religious freak and a fanatics of whatever these damn people have taught him to say. I no longer have a decent conversation with my son, because all he wants to do is convert me. I'm sorry I had enough with the Catholic church and their crap. I now go to church that is less about religion and more about spirituality. Anyways back to my son. He moved to New York and I'm afraid that things and communication have gotten worse. I don't know who he has become. If this religions is true and honest, what has happen to my son. Do they not teach "Honor thy living mother and father" or have this been replaced by this new belief (God the mother, God the father). My son encouraged me to read the literature and I did to let him know I was aware of what he was trying to learn. After reading this literature anyone with sound judgement knows this is a cult. I'm afraid that if these people were ever confronted by our government they will take there lives just like these people in Africa did way back.

I went to this church for maybe 4 months or so.. i studied majority of the subjects. Some subjects were very believable like the sabbath and commandments but others just seemed like something someone has just made up to suit their own views.. i also think the korean/s who translated the bible have totally misunderstood many verses in the bible.. since when is jesus coming in a cloud = jesus coming in flesh?? and other daft things like claiming we are unclean animals and that we can only be saved and bare good fruit by preaching to non members which i think is complete BS (no where in the bible does it say baring good fruit is bring members into the church): they simply want us to get them more members simply for money and to challenge other churches.. heck i wouldnt surprised if its for immagrants to sneak into other countries preaching the false words.

I like the korean people but there is korean immagrants here in my country and i have no idea how they get to the country and over-stay? they DONT work as far as i know and spend 24/7 in church. Almost like a zombies; they believe life on earth is simply to live as slaves and to wait till death. These people really need to take a break and stop telling people we are going to hell etc.. if anyone tells me im going to hell for not going to COG i simply say its not their decision to make but Gods and i remind them that people who go to COG dont go to heaven for definate.. its whats inside that counts most. I say this because my COG had many shallow members who were really insecure and tried to bring others down like myself because im a very busy person who is studying at university etc.. people at COG didnt really seem to care about me as a person but pretended and i saw through this.. they would not let me study or revise for university coursework and kept asking me when i finished my work to come again, almost like saying my life was not important but i did not share this view.. and will keep calling/texting me non stop.. its really desperate and off putting aswell (sorry).

Some members of my COG had members seeming really dillusional; i told them about certain members being manipulative, bullys etc.. and YET they defended them as if trying to say COG members are angels? I told them not all people in COG prob go to heaven you know and im talking about the bad ones who attend.. and they disagree with me.. how can they know that? ITS almost like God is there best friend and they know God better than anyone else and they sorta flaunt it by acting like their gods right hand assistant. I told my main friends of COG i appreciated their time for studying with me but i did not believe 100% of what they taught me when they asked why i was leaving.. i simply felt they believed things that didnt even make sense lol. What i did like about COG was that they are generous with serving its members with food and taking them in but this hospitality is somewhat two faced since they either force you to study the bible or get angry at you for visiting but not studying i found. I had to watch the horror of one of COGs members chuck a bible infront of a toddler telling the toddler to read it and this toddler cant even read or just be a child and have fun growing up.

Of course they do USE manipulative techniques.. i studied 'psychology' and noticed people using such techniques on me.. whether consciously or not i believe some know what they are doing and i didnt like it, one reason i left this Church. THEY aim certain things at individual members during presentations.. they try to make you feel guilty aswell.. like your some pathetic excuse for life on this planet.. im study engineering (building tanks etc) and even this came up a few times, they tell me wow that is awesome and then say something different at other times like.. "we should not be making weapons or things to destroy planet instead we should serve god" OR if you hadnt been to church for a long time "yes you are lacking with bible or recent beaviour of you will disapoint God" etc.. most of which was said indirectly BUT i know first hand when someone uses manipulative techniques and once i felt them coming i got tired of the games. Some of these people put words in your head..

i found them to be very defensive too.. even if i made a good point they would be all defensive and re-read the verse something like "if you cant read/understand bible you are not gods people".. its almost like YOUR the bad one..

i told my friends (there not really but i respect each person on this planet) at COG when i left some things i didnt believe and they literally chased me home asking what exactly i did not believe.. i told them then they tried numerous times to change my mind and it annoyed me. I told them i do not believe heavenly mother AS god CAN be whatever he wants to be.. why does GOD need a woman god when GOD himself can be man or woman when he wants to be?? surely if GOD made the universe he can make himself woman at any time. GOD is both man and woman, he is both but he is refered to father simply because HE is FATHER, there is no mother in bible.

i think the koreans misread that part in genesis.. MOTHER is another god they made up.. and yet they teach that believing other gods is bad? and the worst is when they told me all other religions are bad and heresy.. A GOOD religion does not CALL out other religions directly and call them BS. This made me feel COG was really ran by SATAN. To some degree i believed the catholic thing but to me it is not provable.

Besides why would GOD make us doo all these things? God is a good person supposdely so why would he want us to grieve on the planet earth and worship him 24/7? think about that.. i will probably get lots of verses thrown at me for this but COG members stop for a moment and stop telling people this is true church because you are NOT god. GOD knows his people and GOD chooses his people.

I believe COG makes simple things into bigger things just to seem believable to their own perception of reality.. even though there is very little evidence if not at all they still believe it..

funny how most of COG members are women? easy.. its because making a woman god is a ploy to make women feel better and superior and feel they have a mother god like them to relate.. they really dont need a woman god.. THINK about it.. common psychology.. if you tell a woman in there is secretly a mother GOD she is gonna be curious isnt she? YOUR telling her something 'SHE wants' to hear.

ITs almost like me going to a kid and going "in heaven there is many sweets, do you want to read bible about this?".. like i said manipulative techniques.. and yes the person will read it to you till you believe it and if you dont believe it YOUR automatically a demon or outcast to them.

like i said its false advertising in that sense. ive seen countless members on Yahoo answers, the odd forums, youtube etc with people innocently asking "who is heavenly mother?" or "id like to know about church of god?" or "church of god seems interesting, where i learn more?".. AND these people pretend to be new members or people wanting to know answers WHEN all they are really doing is pasting and advertising their rubbish everywhere.. these people act like they have never studied the subjects before but are actually members pretending not to be members. And when someone gives a reply because they are also a member of COG the original poster is all like "wow i must become member of COG now".. very false people.

SO my conclusion is COG advertises itself as a church that really is company that just wants more members to become greater. They also tell of catholic churches using gold and marble etc in their churches and this is sign of the devil.. if this is the case WHY does COG try to spend so much money on their churches and decorate them?

As for the rest of my conclusion: COG uses techniques to get you hooked and once hooked they try to keep you by making you fear GOD and the rest.. they try to make you feel guilty.

ONE last thing to tell you.. i once missed a sabbath due to illness and when i returned few days later some guy told me in a patronizing way or talking down to me way "if members tell you to come on worship then it MEANS come on worship".. there is one example of a bad COG member.. very un-christian..

I believe many members are good people, kind hearted and i made many friends there but i didnt know the word 'cult' till i went here.. as for ahn sang hong, honorable man but i dont think he is god..

I let people lead their own life and do what they want as i respect everyone and their views/values etc but anyone who tells me im this or that.. im bad.. im evil.. i need to do this or that to go to heaven when i have been myself (and yes im a kind person).. NO ive heard enough.. i dont let people tell me who i am or how bad a person i am.. i dont like to be near negative influences..

i feel for people who have lost friends and family to this church and i hope someday soon they come back to you. Whenever i told members of my COG that i had to attend my family or friends they would try to make it seem insignificant like my physical family meant nothing. I even told them i had to go home at specific times but they kept me longer for their own selfish desires knowing too well they were keeping me longer. And yes my mum would get worried sometimes.. i am only 18.

PS: also heavenly mother cant speak every universal language.. so she cant be god. A real god is not afraid to show true colours if she can. Maybe before her passing back to heaven she can talk every language to prove she is who she is.. otherwise i dont buy it.

The recent earthquake in US east coast shook many people into terror.

Now, there are so many disasters everywhere in the world: wars between nations, ethnic conflicts, terrors, famines, earthquakes, and deadly cold or heat or flood caused by changes in weather patterns. Whenever such things occur, people tremble with fear, not knowing who or what they should set their hearts on. The Bible already prophesied about the coming disasters and what people would do in the day of such disasters.

Reply

Am 9:2-9 "Though they dig down to the depths of the grave, from there my hand will take them. Though they climb up to the heavens, ... Though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, ... Though they hide from me at the bottom of the sea, ... "

As described in the above prophecy, people desperately try to hide themselves anywhere, because they come to face terrible disasters which men cannot endure. The above prophecy is not about what happened in the days of Amos the prophet about 2,800 years ago, but what will occur in the great and dreadful day of the LORD, at the Last Judgment.

Men cannot escape the last plagues by their own methods

Modern people, who live in the age of the high-tech science, feel fear about the coming disasters and the end of mankind, and they try to find various ways to escape from the disasters. They make every effort to find refuge underground or at the bottom of the sea or on a planet outside the earth so that they may escape the threat of nuclear weapons capable of annihilating all life on earth many times over. An atomic submarine for hiding themselves at the bottom of the sea, a spaceship for climbing up to the heavens, ... , such various methods are being discussed. According to a press report, America has constructed a large bunker beneath the White House at Mount Weather; and there is said to be ninety-nine underground cities in various places, as a provision for emergency.

However, the Bible clearly says that even by using the modern scientific methods, no one can escape God's fierce anger. It also says that the last disaster will come upon all the earth, not just upon parts of it.

Lk 21:35 "For it will come upon all those who live on the face of the whole earth. "

Isa 24:3-13 "The earth will be completely laid waste and totally plundered. ... So will it be on the earth and among the nations, ... "

Now, let's see how the disaster comes upon every nation all over the world.

2 Pe 3:7-10 "By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. ... But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare."

The Bible says that God will use fire for His judgment. So the disaster, which will come upon the whole world, is fire. When the day comes, the heavens will be destroyed by fire and all things will be burnt up and melt in the heat. The day will be a day of distress; even the warriors will tremble with fear and cry out bitterly. However, God has prepared a way to escape the disaster when such dreadful day comes. He has made the way - the good news of salvation - known to us. We can get it only through the Bible, not through any high-tech equipment developed by scientists.

Passover is the way to escape the disaster
Let's take a careful look at God's word of promise to let us escape any disaster.

Ex 12:11-14 "... it is the LORD's Passover. On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn - both men and animals ... The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt. ... "

At the time of the Exodus, when the plague of destroying every firstborn was brought upon Egypt, no plague befell to the Israeli houses which kept the Passover. In other words, the plague passed over them. Thus, Passover (pascha in Greek, pesach in Hebrew) implies "Plagues pass over."

Such a history was written as a warning for us. Faithless Israel didn't believe in the power of the Passover. However, Judah regarded the Passover as important and celebrated it. Through the history of Israel and of Judah, we come to realize how truly important the Passover is. Hezekiah king of Judah read all the words of the covenant, which had been found in the temple of the LORD when it was being repaired and restored. He realized the covenant of God and sent couriers to all Judah and Israel so that they might celebrate the Passover which had not been kept for a long time. When the couriers delivered the king's command to "come up to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover," Israel scorned and ridiculed them, and several years later it fell to Assyria (2 Ki 18:9-12). However, Judah celebrated the Passover holy and could repulse the attack of powerful Assyria with God's mighty power (2 Ch 30:1-27; 2 Ki 18:13-19:37).

In these last days, there are two groups of people: one group who will receive terrible plagues, and the other who will escape them with God's help.

Rev 7:1-4 "After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth ... another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. ... "Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God."

The only way to escape the last plagues is to receive the seal of God. Then, what is the seal of God? The Bible prophesies that the blood of the Passover lamb will be a sign for God's people so that they may escape the last plagues. In other words, the blood of the Passover lamb is 'the seal of God' through which God's people can be saved.

At the time of the Exodus, the Israelites could be saved from the terrible plague of destroying every firstborn, by putting the blood of a year-old Passover lamb on their door posts and eating the meat. The Passover lamb of the Old Testament represents Jesus.

1 Co 5:7-8 "... For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Therefore let us keep the Festival,...

No one can escape the last plagues without 'the blood of Jesus Christ' who is the Passover Lamb.

When the angels, who are given power to harm, let go of their hold on the wind [war], the terrible disasters [the last plagues] will come upon this earth (Rev 7:1-3). To make the last plagues pass over His people, God places His 'seal' on His children's foreheads. The 'seal of God' is the seal of salvation through which God's people can escape the disasters.

Eze 9:4-6 "and said to him, "Go throughout the city of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of those who grieve and lament over all the detestable things that are done in it. ... Slaughter old men, young men and maidens, women and children, but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at my sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were in front of the temple."

Whom did God order the destroying angels to begin with? He told them to begin with the elders [leaders] of the false churches, who do not have the mark-the seal of God, the blood of the Passover Lamb-on their foreheads. Considering the prophecies of the Bible, we are now living in the days of the last plagues. God is awakening us, His children, to the fact that we can escape the plagues only through the 'seal of God.' He shows us that His sealing work will arise from the east and spread to the west.

Rev 7:2 "Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God."

When Apostle John received the revelation on the island of Patmos, he saw an angel ascending from the rising of the sun. This implies that God's sealing work is to begin in the east.

God seals us as His own children
When we celebrate the Passover, God abides in us, and we in Him (Jn 6:56; 15:4-8). As we dwell in God, we belong to Him.

2 Co 1:21-22 "Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ. He ... set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come."

God has set His seal on us to be marked as 'His own.'
Let's see what blessings God gives us, His own.

Isa 43:1-3 "O Jacob, ... : "Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned you by name; you are mine. ... When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze. ..."

God has made us His own by putting His seal on us through the Passover. He has firmly promised to protect us from any destructive disasters. God is now calling His children, living in the days of disasters, to celebrate the Passover and escape the last plagues.
Before the angels, who are holding back the four winds, let go of their hold, we should preach the Passover of the new covenant-the seal of God-to the whole world, as the couriers of the good news of salvation.

Brothers and sisters in Zion! Let's give thanks to God for making us His very own, His treasured possession. We must all take part in God's salvation work in this age.

The wmscog teaches that the Roman Catholic Church (the Pope) is the Antichrist. To do this they show how the fall of the Roman Empire and the rise of the Catholic church supposedly fulfill prophecies in Daniel.

BUT a study of history shows that this is FALSE. They distort the history in order to make the theory fit prophecy.

I bumped into members of WMSCOG sometime ago and went to their premises near Tai Seng MRT twice. One of the Korean ladies was quite persistent in trying to convince me of their beliefs such as passover, sabbath and etc.

I could not accept their beliefs, being a Christian of protestant faith myself. She wanted to convince me the existence of a woman who is supposedly the heavenly mother. One thing which intrigued me was the expression on her face when I quoted her John 14:6

Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

She shook her head in disapproval.

Maybe the members of WCMCOG who are replying to this thread could explain their interpretation of John 14:6

Today there is increasing tension in the whole world because of the news about disasters that are occurring in all parts of the earth.

Continuous disasters such as earthquakes, tsunamis, volcanic eruptions, abnormal weather phenomena, in addition to wars and conflicts—the Bible already warned of these disasters thousands of years ago. It is not too much to say that those disasters are pouring out all at once in this age—the age of the Holy Spirit which we are now living in.

The reason why God has restored the Passover in this age is to protect His people from disasters. At the time of the Exodus 3,500 years ago, God let the Israelites know about the Passover above all things. It was because a terrible disaster would come upon all the land of Egypt. Whenever a disaster was going to occur, God prepared in advance for His people to celebrate the Passover so that they would receive the sign of being God's people and escape the disaster.

The Passover contains the promise of salvation

This happened when Joshua sent two spies to Jericho before he conquered it. The two spies were pursued by the soldiers and they entered the house of a prostitute named Rahab who feared God. She hid them even at the risk of her life. When the spies were about to return safely to Joshua, they made a promise to Rahab; they promised that if Rahab brought her family and relatives into her house and tied a scarlet cord in the window, the Israelite army would not destroy anyone in her house when they attacked the city of Jericho. Afterwards, when the city of Jericho was conquered, all the people who had fled into the house of Rahab were able to preserve their lives (Jos 2:1-21; 6:20-25).

Just as the scarlet cord became a sign to save Rahab and her family, the Passover is a sign of God's promise to protect His people from disasters.

Heb 11:28 By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel.

Those who do not keep God's commands insist that the Passover is merely a ceremony and rite, and that it has nothing to do with faith, quoting a verse from the Bible: "The righteous will live by faith" (Ro 1:17). However, by faith God kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood. The Passover is not just a ritual ceremony, but it is a ceremony established by faith and a feast of God which only those who have faith can keep.

Let's take a look at the scene when God established the Passover in Exodus, and find out what promise the Passover contains.

Ex 12:5-14 "The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats. Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the people of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight. Then they are to take some of the blood and put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses where they eat the lambs. . . . This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; it is the LORD's Passover. On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn—both men and animals—and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt. This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD—a lasting ordinance."

It is God who established the Passover and told His people to celebrate it. So, the people of Israel who feared God and had faith in Him obeyed His word and kept the Passover. As a result, they were saved from the plagues and became emancipated from Egypt, the land of slavery. However, the Egyptians who had no faith and did not celebrate the Passover failed to escape the plague and lost all their firstborn; there was not a single house where someone had not died (Ex 12:29-51).

God's warning about disasters

Was the Passover effective for God's people to escape disasters only in the time of the Exodus, and did it lose its effect after the Exodus? Not at all. The Passover is the covenant of God, which must be celebrated as a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, even until the end of the age. The Bible clearly records the history of God's people being saved from disasters by celebrating the Passover (2 Ch 30:1-27; 2 Ki 19:32-35).

In Old Testament times, the Israelites put the blood of the Passover lambs on the sides and tops of the doorframes of their houses, as a sign of God's people. Now, we have the flesh and blood of the Passover in ourselves, so that disasters will pass over each and every one of us. The Passover contains the promise of God: "No destructive plague will touch you." This promise proves more effective and powerful in an age when disasters are prevalent.

Eze 7:2-19 ". . . This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Disaster! An unheard-of disaster is coming. The end has come! The end has come! It has roused itself against you. It has come! Doom has come upon you—you who dwell in the land. The time has come, the day is near; there is panic, not joy, upon the mountains. I am about to pour out my wrath on you and spend my anger against you; I will judge you according to your conduct and repay you for all your detestable practices. I will not look on you with pity or spare you; I will repay you in accordance with your conduct and the detestable practices among you. Then you will know that it is I the LORD who strikes the blow. . . . Their silver and gold will not be able to save them in the day of the LORD's wrath. They will not satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs with it, for it has made them stumble into sin."

God warned that an unheard-of disaster would come upon mankind. As the Bible prophesied, unheard-of disasters have been rampant recently. Experiencing unprecedented great earthquakes and abnormal climate changes, people say, "It's the worst disaster in a hundred years," or, "This is a once-in-a-thousand-years disaster." This shows that today's disasters are "unheard-of disasters."

Eze 7:25-27 ". . . Calamity upon calamity will come, and rumor upon rumor. They will try to get a vision from the prophet; the teaching of the law by the priest will be lost, as will the counsel of the elders. The king will mourn, the prince will be clothed with despair, and the hands of the people of the land will tremble. I will deal with them according to their conduct, and by their own standards I will judge them. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

Those with power mourn and the officials are clothed with despair in the face of disasters; their wealth is of no use, and everything they have prepared is in vain. In the face of those impending disasters, we need God's promise to protect us from all disasters.

The Passover, the sign of God's promise to let every and any disaster pass over us

The Passover is a sign of salvation established between God and us. Just as God let Rahab put a mark on her house so that she and her family would preserve their lives, God has put a mark of salvation on our foreheads.

Eze 9:4-6 ". . . and said to him, "Go throughout the city of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of those who grieve and lament over all the detestable things that are done in it." As I listened, he said to the others, "Follow him through the city and kill, without showing pity or compassion. Slaughter old men, young men and maidens, women and children, but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at my sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were in front of the temple.

Here God tells the destroying angels not to touch anyone who has the mark. Those who have the mark are the people who need to be protected. At the time of the Exodus, God urged the Israelites to celebrate the Passover and protected them by letting the destroying angels pass over the people who kept the Passover. Even today, God puts a sign of promise on all His people who must be protected, so that they can escape disasters.

On the island of Patmos, the Apostle John also saw the same vision as the prophet Ezekiel.

Rev 7:1-3 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth to prevent any wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree. Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: "Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God."

"After this" means after the occurrence of the event described in Revelation 6: "The stars in the sky fell to earth, as late figs drop from a fig tree when shaken by a strong wind." Here the stars in the sky and a fig tree represent the nation of Israel. And wind means war. Israel was involved in a great war during which the Jews suffered horribly as late figs drop from a fig tree when shaken by a strong wind; 6,000,000 Jews were killed by the German Nazis during that war, which was the Second World War. Therefore, "after this" means "after the Second World War" (Rev 6:12-17).

Then, what is the seal of God that is to be put on the foreheads of God's people after that? God puts His seal on the foreheads of His people to let them escape disasters.

That is the Passover, which God promised as a sign of redemption at the time of the Exodus. All who keep the Passover holy and dwell in the truth of the new covenant are those who have received the seal of God. As Joshua ordered the whole army of Israel to protect Rahab and her family, so God commands the destroying angels not to bring any disaster on His people who keep the Passover.

God's work of putting His seal spreads from the east to the whole world

God's work of putting His seal is to begin from the east. The fact that the sealing work starts from the east where the sun rises shows that something urgent is to take place there.

Isa 24:1-6 See, the LORD is going to lay waste the earth and devastate it; he will ruin its face and scatter its inhabitants . . . The earth will be completely laid waste and totally plundered. The LORD has spoken this word. The earth dries up and withers, the world languishes and withers, the exalted of the earth languish. The earth is defiled by its people; they have disobeyed the laws, violated the statutes and broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore a curse consumes the earth; its people must bear their guilt. Therefore earth's inhabitants are burned up, and very few are left.

Isa 24:13-16 So will it be on the earth and among the nations, as when an olive tree is beaten, or as when gleanings are left after the grape harvest. They raise their voices, they shout for joy; from the west they acclaim the LORD's majesty. Therefore in the east give glory to the LORD; exalt the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea. From the ends of the earth we hear singing: "Glory to the Righteous One."

When the earth will be completely laid waste and totally plundered, God's work of sealing His people starts from the ends of the earth in the east. The ends of the earth in the east is Korea, sharing the same latitude as the island of Patmos where John saw a vision. For this reason, the Passover—the truth of the new covenant—has been restored in Korea in these last days and the seal of God is now being put on all the people around the world.

Now, many of God's prophets including short-term and long-term missionaries are going out into the world and preaching Heavenly Mother, the New Jerusalem, and the New Covenant Passover. This is the process of putting the seal of God on God's people.

Whoever receives the promise of God with gratitude will be saved, and whoever does not receive it will be condemned (Mk 16:15-16).

Jacob's trouble and God's salvation

Considering all those facts, we can figure out that the Passover is the greatest truth of all, which God has prepared for our salvation. Jesus has said that the last disaster will come upon all those who live on the face of the whole earth.

Lk 21:34-36 "Be careful, or your hearts will be weighed down with dissipation, drunkenness and the anxieties of life, and that day will close on you unexpectedly like a trap. For it will come upon all those who live on the face of the whole earth. Be always on the watch, and pray that you may be able to escape all that is about to happen, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man."

We must always give ourselves fully to the work of God while keeping watch and praying continually. When Jacob returned to his hometown, he wrestled with the angel of God at the ford of the Jabbok all night long. Even when his hip was wrenched from its socket, he would not give up. Only after receiving God's blessing did Jacob return to his home. Likewise, we are to go through a time of hardship at least once on our journey to heaven, our eternal home. The book of Jeremiah calls it "a time of trouble for Jacob."

Jer 30:6-9 " 'Ask and see: Can a man bear children? Then why do I see every strong man with his hands on his stomach like a woman in labor, every face turned deathly pale? How awful that day will be! None will be like it. It will be a time of trouble for Jacob, but he will be saved out of it. In that day," declares the LORD Almighty, . . . "

We must realize the value of our salvation and have faith strong enough to overcome any hardship and suffering. Just as Jacob returned to his hometown amid God's blessing, we must also return to our heavenly home amidst the abundance of God's blessings by keeping our faith and enduring to the end, no matter what kind of hardship and suffering we encounter.

God has given the children of Zion a sign of promise through the Passover. As God let the Israelites prepare themselves for the coming plague through the Passover as a sign of His promise, so God allows us to escape disasters through the Passover in this age, too. Even though disasters occur all around the world and a thousand may fall at our side, ten thousand at our right hand, God stops all the disasters from coming near us (Ps 91:7-16). God has promised through His word that He will keep our future safe and protect us. Engraving the gracious word of God deep in our hearts and abiding in God's promise, let us all give glory and praise to God forever and ever.

Joyful news has been continually reaching Zion these days. The gospel is now spreading much faster; every month many souls are led into life both nationwide and worldwide. The glory of the New Jerusalem our Mother is shining brighter and brighter, and we the people of Zion are receiving praise and honor, just as God has promised.

All this is the grace of God who quickly fulfills the prophecies, and it is a result of the obedience of brothers and sisters to God's word. Our brothers and sisters obey Mother's teaching and meet each other always with a smile, and God gives us more joy.

Christ's gospel causes joy to spring forth from deep within us. Rejoicing always, we shall follow God's will and lead all people in this world to happiness.

"Be joyful always . . . this is God's will for you"

We know that it is the will of God to obey His commands. But we often forget that this is God's will: to rejoice always, pray continually and give thanks in everything.

1 Th 5:16-18 Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

Rejoicing is a part of God's will. We are to fully obey God's will, for Jesus says that not everyone who says to Him, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of God (Mt 7:21).

We smile when we are happy, and we become happy when we smile.

There may not be always things that make us smile, for we are sinners living in the spiritual city of refuge. But we should try to make it a habit to rejoice in any situation. And we need to train ourselves to be godly (1 Ti 4:7). If we constantly rejoice even in small things, it becomes a habit and the habit hardens into character. We are to have a pleasing personality, so that we may always rejoice and willingly obey God's will.

From the prophetic point of view, we are expected to be always smiling.

We, God's children, like Isaac, are the children of promise (Gal 4:28). Isaac means "laughter." The name Isaac, meaning laughter, was given to the only true heir of Abraham who represents our Heavenly Father, and Sarah, who represents our Heavenly Mother. This reminds us that God wants us, children of heaven, to rejoice always.

Laughter and health

Laughter is a remedy for all ailments. It is common knowledge in medical science that laughter slows down the rate of aging and cures many health problems. Modern people suffer from various diseases, for they are stressed and get angry easily, finding no pleasure in their lives. Laughter has the ability to prevent any disease.

There was a patient suffering from rheumatism in the United States. He had severe arthritic pain; his entire body was swollen. Though he had been in the hospital for years, he didn't get better; the pain gradually grew worse.

He refused to wither away in the gloomy hospital room but rather chose to spend his last days in happiness. Then he decided to leave the hospital and took up his lodgings at a hotel.

From that time he began to watch comic movies. He had been continuously suffering from pain, but mysteriously he felt no pain for almost two hours after he laughed out loud for about ten minutes while watching the videos. He laughed aloud, watching two or three videos a day, then he was relieved of the pain almost all day and he gradually felt better. Fortunately he recovered completely from his illness, and later he wrote a book about his experience.

There is also a case of a person being cured of his cancer through laughter.

In 1982, a seven-year-old boy named Shawn was dying of brain cancer in the United States. His parents could do nothing but watch their son relying entirely on a respirator to maintain his feeble breathing. They thought that putting him on the respirator would only prolong his suffering, and decided to take him off the respirator.

The night before they removed their child from the respirator, Shawn's father decided to give his dying son the best present which he would be most pleased with. Shawn was an ardent fan of Stapleton who was a home run hitter of the Boston Red Sox Baseball Team. That night, Shawn's father visited the athletes' village and entreated Stapleton to meet his son after explaining his desperate situation.

The next day, Stapleton visited Shawn, who was struggling to breathe after being removed from the respirator. Stapleton approached him and held his hand, saying, "Shawn, I am Stapleton."

Then the child opened his eyes. He became aware that the home run hitter, whom he had so eagerly wanted to meet, was holding his hand. His eyes began to overflow with emotion. Stapleton promised him that he would hit a home run in tomorrow's game and told him to watch the game on TV. And he gave the child an autographed baseball.

Amazingly, even after being taken off the respiratory support equipment, Shawn was still alive to watch the live baseball game on TV the next day.

Stapleton hit a home run as he had promised. Shawn believed that the home run was for him, and he looked so happy.

This gave new hope to the dying child. Five months later, Shawn was still alive; he was breathing without a respirator and showed remarkable recovery.

He received a thorough examination again at the hospital. Surprisingly, his brain was completely clean; there was no cancer at all.

Joy and laughter are a remedy for the health of our spirits, too. Caring about the safety of our souls, God told us to rejoice always.

Many of our brothers and sisters in Zion, including me, have experienced recovery from an illness after receiving the truth. Perhaps it has been possible because we've always rejoiced in God. When we live a joyful life, we become strong both physically and spiritually, and we are able to make not only ourselves but also others happy.

Laughter brings blessing

Our brothers and sisters in Zion always ask for God's blessing, praying for one another. The more we practice smiling and laughing, the more blessing we will receive. There is a proverb which says, "If you laugh, blessings will come your way." Laughter brings us not only physical blessings but also spiritual blessings as well.

Following the words of Mother, our brothers and sisters in Zion try to rejoice and give thanks to God always.

If we bring joy to our family and our Church members as well, it spreads throughout our neighborhood and entire community and the whole world will be filled with joy. This is the world which God wants people to live in, isn't it?

If we have a habit of smiling, we come to recognize that what we were so sorrowful about is really not worth being sorry about. 'We are sinners that deserve to be hurt,' 'We have the hope for heaven,' 'We've achieved greater things instead of losing small, insignificant things.' Thus we become considerate about everything and gentle with others, so that we may resemble God in full. Start smiling right now, and you will gradually feel a change in your heart.

We are God's children; we must resemble our Heavenly Father and Mother in Their love. Being gradually changed to resemble God is really a great blessing through laughter.

Since our brothers and sisters put into practice the words of God, "Be joyful always," lots of good news has been continually reaching us: Our brothers and sisters throughout the world earnestly ask Mother to quickly send them missionaries, and many people are willingly coming to Zion to hear the gospel.

Gospel is good news

The gospel gives us joy and hope. It must be preached to the whole world, even to the ends of the earth, because most people in the world live in pain rather than in joy. We are to preach the good news to them so that they may have hope. This is the will of God.

Mt 4:23 Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people.

Thus, the gospel is good news and glad tidings. The greatest and most joyful news to hopeless souls in this sinful world is that Christ has come in the flesh, isn't it? So, the gospel is a message of joy for people.

About 2,000 years ago, Jesus came to this earth and gave courage, hope and joy to people, and many dying souls miraculously came to life.

Stapleton, who was a home run hitter, gave joy and hope to the dying child. Likewise, Christ gave everlasting joy and eternal life to us the mortal beings.

Jn 15:11 "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete."

Christ wanted those who accepted the gospel to be always filled with joy. He only desired that His joy might be in us and that our joy might be complete. With this earnest hope, He came down from heaven to this sinful world; He neither took care of Himself nor sought after His own pleasure.

Even when we turned away from Him, He took pity on us and bore the burden of the cross to take away our sins.

If we follow such an example of Christ, we shall gladly preach the gospel, thinking how we can bring joy to others. We need to make not only ourselves but also others happy and laugh.

Zion full of joy and gladness

God wants the hearts of the people in Zion to be filled with joy and gladness.

Isa 51:11 "The ransomed of the LORD will return. They will enter Zion with singing; everlasting joy will crown their hearts. Gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and sighing will flee away."

Thus, Zion is a place of everlasting joy; we shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. What we should bring to Jerusalem is good news, glad tidings (Isa 40:9; 52:7). As watchmen, let's bring lots of good news to Jerusalem, and our home and Church will be continuously filled with laughter and there will be much more joyful news than before we believed in God.

At the end of every year, we examine the fruit of the gospel that each Church has produced during the year. Then we find out that the Churches following the teachings of Father and Mother continuously have produced more abundant fruit.

Some Churches produce more fruit than they have expected. Brothers and sisters in those Churches are always smiling at one another. Sometimes they may feel hurt or offended by someone or something, but when they come to Zion, they try to smile, thinking, 'This is a place of grace where our Father and Mother dwell.'

They felt awkward at first. But they repeatedly expressed their joy and thanks in everything. And now they have a habit of smiling and laughing.

I've also heard that some received the truth, being surprised when they first visited our Church, saying, "Life in this world is so hard and painful. How can the people here always smile so brightly? I want to catch their smile and laughter."

Bear the fruit of joy

Thus, if we live a joyful life according to God's will, we will all bear the beautiful fruit of the Spirit. Let's continually smile, keeping in mind the words of Christ: "I have told this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.”

Gal 6:7-8 Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. The one who sows to please his sinful nature, from that nature will reap destruction; the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life.

The Bible says that a man reaps what he sows. If we sow anger, we reap anger: If we plant joy, we reap joy. God has promised abundant fruit for those who always rejoice, so that their joy may be complete.

We all want to be greeted with a smile and hear heartfelt words. Then, we must plant what we want. God says that if we sow joy, we will reap the fruit of joy. Let’s continue to be joyful until we enter the everlasting kingdom of God.

Gal 5:22-23 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. If we smile at every person we meet, we will bear the fruit of the Spirit abundantly.

Did you smile and laugh today? If not, create an opportunity to laugh and smile. You may feel somewhat awkward about smiling right now. But that is the will of God. We must obey God’s will out of gratitude.

Brothers and sisters in Zion! Let’s always rejoice in the truth, sharing the joy with people all around the world. Remembering God’s will—“Be joyful always,” let’s continually be joyful, so we will all enter the kingdom of heaven.

im just so confused.....

There are times when we need to make decisions in our daily affairs and in our faith as well. What if we hesitate and delay making a decision? If we do not decide on something but just think about it, we will always remain the same, unable to go forward at all; rather, we will be controlled by our circumstances and go astray.

Turgenev, one of Russia’s great writers, divided mankind into two basic types—Hamlet and Don Quixote. Hamlet represents a meditative, irresolute person whose power of direct action is paralyzed by self-doubt and reflection, whereas Don Quixote represents a decisive and active person who puts his or her thoughts into action with-out hesitation.

What type of person are we now before God? When we are given a time to make a decision on something, if it is God's will to do it and it is a good and righteous thing that we ought to do, we don't need to hesitate. The Bible has many records of the forefathers of faith who received blessings from God by taking the right path when they were given a time for decision making.

Decision of the apostles who followed the call of Christ

2,000 years ago, Jesus called His disciples as He was walking beside the Sea of Galilee. At that time, Peter, Andrew, James and John were busy catching fish.

Mt 4:18-22 As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. "Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed him. Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, preparing their nets. Jesus called them, and immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

"I will make you fishers of men." When Jesus said this, the disciples including Peter made a decision without hesitation. It was in a town by the Lake of Galilee that they had lived until then. It was a comfortable place for living, where their parents lived and there were also their nets and boats which they were well skilled in using.

However, leaving these things behind, they responded to Jesus' call to follow Him.

If Peter hesitated with a lingering attachment for his fishing nets and boat and for the environment surrounding him when Jesus told him to follow Him, the time for decision given to him would have just passed by and he would have ended up living his life as a mere fisherman. At that moment, however, Peter left all his nets and followed Jesus; he was really a decisive person. Since he had a time of decision for God, he was able to become a great apostle who set an example of upright faith to all people in the world.

Apostle Paul took a leading part in persecuting God's people when he did not know the truth. From the viewpoint of Judaism, the believers in the early Church of God seemed abnormal and heretical. So, Paul even took the lead in stoning Stephen to death. However, while on his way to Damascus, he heard the voice of God and had time for decision.

"Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" "Who are you, Lord?" "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting."

Paul used to think that he had been working for God, but he found out that Jesus, whom he had been persecuting until then, was truly God Himself whom he had been serving. Shocked at this fact, Paul had time to make the decision to convert to the Church of God by correcting his wrong thoughts and behaviors. As soon as he made the decision, he became a worker of the new covenant to preach Jesus Christ and His teachings to many people, and up to the very last moment of his life on the earth he devoted himself exclusively to the gospel mission entrusted by God to him (Ac 7:58-8:3; 9:1-31).

Decision of Ruth—"Where you go I will go"

The Bible also records the story of a Moabite woman named Ruth who followed her Israelite mother-in-law Naomi till the end of her life. When there was a famine in Israel, Naomi and her family moved to Moab to escape the famine. After losing her husband and her two sons, she decided to return to her hometown. Then Orpah, one of Naomi's two daughters-in-law, left her mother-in-law and went her own way, but Ruth made the firm decision to stay with Naomi for the rest of her life.

Ru 1:15-17 "Look," said Naomi, "your sister-in-law is going back to her people and her gods. Go back with her." But Ruth replied, "Don't urge me to leave you or to turn back from you. Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God. Where you die I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD deal with me, be it ever so severely, if anything but death separates you and me."

In that situation, any other woman would consider her-mother-in-law as a burden and desert her. However, Ruth decided to stay with her mother-in-law. When she was given time to make a decision, she chose the right path to accompany her mother-in-law and to follow God.

Ruth followed Naomi to her hometown, Bethlehem, and started to make a living there. In Old Testament times, there was a custom for farmers to leave some grain in their fields for the poor after the harvest. So Ruth would go to the fields to pick up the grain dropped by the reapers, as a means of providing for her mother-in-law. Then Boaz heard of her filial conduct toward her mother-in-law and showed kindness to her.

Ru 2:8-12 So Boaz said to Ruth, "My daughter, listen to me. Don't go and glean in another field and don't go away from here. Stay here with my servant girls. Watch the field where the men are harvesting, and follow along after the girls. I have told the men not to touch you. And whenever you are thirsty, go and get a drink from the water jars the men have filled." At this, she bowed down with her face to the ground. She exclaimed, "Why have I found such favor in your eyes that you notice me—a foreigner?" Boaz replied, "I've been told all about what you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband—how you left your father and mother and your homeland and came to live with a people you did not know before. May the LORD repay you for what you have done. May you be richly rewarded by the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge."

The favor that Boaz showed to Ruth was ultimately the blessing God gave her. God let David be born among the descendants of Ruth, so that she would become David's ancestress. It is unusual for a woman's name to be found in Jewish genealogy, which is usually patrilineal. However, Ruth is specifically mentioned by name in the genealogy. As a woman, she received that immense blessing. It is evidence that she made the decision which was truly beautiful, good and righteous in God's sight.

Decision of Daniel and his three friends who followed God's will at the crossroads of life and death In the time of the prophet Daniel, King Nebuchadnezzar gave a strict command to Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego: "You must worship the image of gold which I've set up. If you do not worship it, you will be thrown into a blazing furnace." It was time for them to make a decision: If they worshiped the idol according to the king's order, they would disobey God's command, and if they did not worship it, they would be thrown into the fiery furnace. The three of them decided to choose Heaven rather than to win transient favor with the king for a comfortable life on this earth (Da 3:1-13).

Da 3:14-18 Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the image of gold I have set up? . . . But if you do not worship it, you will be thrown immediately into a blazing furnace. Then what god will be able to rescue you from my hand?" Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego replied to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you in this matter. If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to save us from it, and he will rescue us from your hand, O king. But even if he does not, we want you to know, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up."

No matter how hard King Nebuchadnezzar tried to persuade Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego to worship the golden image, they boldly told the king that they had already decided to follow the will of God. Furious with rage, the king commanded his soldiers to throw them into the furnace heated seven times hotter than usual. However, they were not harmed at all even in the fiery furnace because God protected them from the fire. Then the king was amazed and called them out of the furnace, and he saw that the fire had not harmed their bodies, nor was a hair of their heads singed; their robes were not scorched, and there was no smell of fire on them. Through this incident, King Nebuchadnezzar deeply realized the power of the God whom Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego served, and promoted them to even higher positions (Da 3:19-30).

For Daniel there was a time for decision, too. During the time of King Darius, the king's officials tried to find grounds for charges against Daniel and instigated the king to issue a decree that anyone who prayed to any god or man for one month, except to the king, should be thrown into the lions' den. Even after learning that the decree had been published, Daniel prayed to God with his face towards Jerusalem as usual. He was firm in his decision not to lose his precious time to pray to God by yielding to the circumstances around him.

As a result, although he was cast down into the den of lions, they did not harm him at all. Even in the lions' den, Daniel was not afraid, but he kept his eyes fixed on God, staying peaceful and calm. Since he had lived while looking only to God every moment and in any dangerous situation, he stood by God's side without hesitation at his time of decision and consequently he was protected by God, while all those who had slandered him became food for lions (Da 6:1-28).

Decision of the ancestors who obeyed God's word right away

Like our aforementioned ancestors in faith, we need to make a decision. If we hesitate when we are given a time to decide on something, we come to waste more time and our heart is troubled even more. If we have much time, we may think it over, but if it is definitely God's word and will, we must put it into practice right away, without hesitation, so that we will obtain gracious results.

Heb 11:6-11, 17 And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him. By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in holy fear built an ark to save his family. By his faith he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that comes by faith. By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going. . . . By faith Abraham, when God tested him, offered Isaac as a sacrifice. He who had received the promises was about to sacrifice his one and only son,

When God commanded Noah to prepare an ark, he did not hesitate but made a firm decision. The Bible says that Noah did everything just as God had told him to. As a result of his immediate obedience to God's word, he and his whole family were saved. Abraham also obeyed God's call and went without hesitation, even though he did not know where he was going. Afterwards, whenever he needed to make a decision, he always kept his heart towards God.

God also asks us to make a decision. He commands us to save all souls and to bring them to heaven together, saying, "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you" (Mt 28:18-20).

We should make it a practice to immediately obey whatever God tells us. This is the duty of God's people who have faith. Those who hesitate and delay cannot go forward at all. Such people always remain the same, like balloon dolls swaying in the wind. While just hesitating, they cannot become disciples of Jesus like Peter, they cannot do the work of displaying God's glory to the world like Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, and they cannot save many souls as gospel preachers like Apostle Paul.

There are still many people around us who have not entered the path of salvation without knowing the truth. Let us have time to make a decision to preach the truth of the new covenant to them and to all nations, so that the glory of God will be preached in Samaria and to the ends of the earth.

Time of decision for the salvation of the world

There is a large, deep crater lake named Cheonji (meaning "sky lake" in Korean) at the top of Mt. Baekdu. A region around the lake gives rise to two rivers. It is said that when a concentrated rainfall occurs in that region, if the stream of water flows to the left even just a little bit, it goes into the Amnok River, and if it flows to the right just a little bit, it runs into the Duman River. In other words, according to which side the stream of water chooses to flow to, it separates into two and the separated waters run into different rivers and ultimately arrive at opposite destinations—the West Sea and the East Sea.

In the same way, according to what kind of choice we make, we may live different lives—the life for the eternal kingdom of God and the life for this sinful world, and as a result we will arrive at a completely different destination—heaven or hell. Everyone wants to go to heaven. However, since Satan the devil tries to hinder us by putting all kinds of temptations and obstacles in our path, it is not easy to go towards the right direction. So we need to take the time to make a decision.

In order to go to the kingdom of heaven, we should take our steps towards heaven. Let us only follow the will of God, putting all other things aside. If we continue to do so, we will find ourselves in heaven at one instant of time. Whenever you need to make a decision, please ask yourself which side you must stand on and make the right choice in accordance with God's will, so that you will run towards heaven.

1 Co 15:58 Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

The work of the Lord refers to the gospel work—the task of saving dying souls. Worldly things often go wrong and everything we have worked hard for may disappear overnight. However, no effort we make to do the work of God is in vain.

God says that He will spit us out of His mouth if we are lukewarm—neither cold nor hot (Rev 3:15-16). If we assume a lukewarm attitude of faith instead of taking a definite stand on God's side, our faith cannot help but be trapped in a dangerous situation. We reap what we sow. However, if we just think about whether to plant or not or where to sow, we can reap nothing. Those who sow the seed of the Spirit will reap the fruit of the Spirit, and those who sow the seeds of their sinful desires for the world will reap perishable fruit. So God tells us to sow the seed of the kingdom of heaven.

The time for a decision is not always given to us. If Peter had not responded to God's call right away, he would have been deprived of his blessing by another person. If Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego had not shown their firm determination not to worship the idol at that moment, their faith would have been in vain. Since they made a decision and took their stand on God's side right at that moment, they were able to display the holy glory of God to the world in obedience to God's will.

As God tells us to preach the gospel in Samaria and to the ends of the earth, now let us have time for a new decision. A time for a decision is a time for a blessing as well. The time when Peter made a firm and resolute decision to follow Jesus was the time for a once-in-a-lifetime blessing to him.

Now there are so many people who are waiting for us. We must not hesitate whether to preach to them or not, because we may never be able to meet them again. I earnestly hope that you will all reap good fruit by boldly preaching the words of life and sowing gracious things for the eternal kingdom of heaven, as the new covenant workers who are pleasing to God.

Once I read the words that define home as follows: "Home is the kingdom of a father, the world of a mother, and the paradise of children." The reason "home can be the kingdom of a father, the world of a mother, and the paradise of children" is that at home there are careful consideration and love among family members.

We are the members of the heavenly family, so we should unite in love.

God refines us in the crucible of our "family," where all our evil, worldly passions such as quarreling, hate and jealousy melt away, so that we may have good character like a crystal and change into love. In order to re-create each of us to be a new person full of love, God has built a fence called "family" for us, both physically and spiritually.

The opposite of "love" is "hate." Hate is the most unnecessary thing we must throw away in the process of changing into the people of the everlasting kingdom of God. When we get rid of all the hate from our minds and fill our hearts with love, we can be completely reborn as the people of heaven.

Thanksgiving is the way to defeat hate

A man had a serious argument with his wife in the morning and went out of his house. Trying to calm himself down, he walked down the road. Just at the right moment, the refreshing breeze blew gently, the rays of the sun pierced through the clouds to shine brightly, and the translucent bright green leaves danced in the breeze. Seeing and feeling the beauty of nature, he felt as if he was standing in paradise.

Then he realized that God opened the windows of heaven and was bestowing boundless blessings and joy upon him, even though He has the power to put him to death because he had committed sin against Him. It was for a very trivial reason that he was angry at his wife and hated her, but God had more than a thousand times bigger reason to be enraged at him. When he thought that way, he hurried back home and made up with his wife.

The confession of the man shows us well what kind of mindset we need to have in order to remove hate from our hearts. The moment he was thankful to God, all the hate he had disappeared. If we are conscious of God and thankful to Him like that, we will be able to overcome and reject all the feelings of hate that we may have in our lives.

Everything we feel angry about or hate is nothing compared with our sins deserving God's everlasting wrath and punishment. Now, let's take some time to think about how obediently we follow God's command, "Love one another," in our spiritual family.

History of hate between brothers

The book of Genesis describes the first hate crime in human history and the origin of sin caused by it.

Ge 4:1-8 . . . Cain brought some of the fruits of the soil as an offering to the LORD. But Abel brought fat portions from some of the firstborn of his flock. The LORD looked with favor on Abel and his offering, but on Cain and his offering he did not look with favor. So Cain was very angry, and his face was downcast. Then the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry? Why is your face downcast? If you do what is right, will you not be accepted? But if you do not do what is right, sin is crouching at your door; it desires to have you, but you must master it." Now Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go out to the field." And while they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

The feeling of hate that Cain had resulted in his killing his brother Abel, and he became the first murderer in human history. Hate brings about such cruel and hideous crimes. That's why God always teaches us to be compassionate to one another and forgive each other, and also has given us a command—"Love one another." We must not hate our brothers and sisters like Cain but share God's love with them from our hearts.

Ge 27:41-45 Esau held a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing his father had given him. He said to himself, "The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob." When Rebekah was told what her older son Esau had said, she sent for her younger son Jacob and said to him, "Your brother Esau is consoling himself with the thought of killing you. Now then, my son, do what I say: Flee at once to my brother Laban in Haran. Stay with him for a while until your brother's fury subsides. When your brother is no longer angry with you and forgets what you did to him, I'll send word for you to come back from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?"

The history of hate between brothers is also found in the story of Jacob and Esau. One of them obtained a blessing, but the other lost it. Then the one who lost the blessing became jealous and envious of the one who received it, and finally he intended to kill his brother.

Ge 37:4-5 When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of them, they hated him and could not speak a kind word to him. Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him all the more.

In the above verse, we can see that hatred arose among Joseph's brothers when they felt jealous or envious of each other, thinking their father loved one of them more than the rest. Likewise, if we don't love one another but hate each other, it will bring about irrevocable results.

God shows compassion equally to each and every one of us. He gives the blessings of the sunshine to everyone, not giving some people more and others less, whether they are righteous or wicked. This is the heart of Heavenly Father, and so is the heart of Heavenly Mother. Her mind is broad and deep like the sea enough to cover up all the people's faults, as stated in the ninth Teaching of Mother. Resembling the heart of God, we should also have a broad mind enough to cover up our brothers and sisters' faults, as the sea receives all the dirt and purifies it.

Do not be like Cain

Why did God let the stories of those who hated their brothers and tried to kill them be recorded in the Bible? It is because God wants us, His holy people who will become perfect as heavenly beings, to learn a lesson even from the history of hate and consider it a warning. God teaches us not to hate each other but to love one another.

Lev 19:17 " 'Do not hate your brother in your heart. Rebuke your neighbor frankly so you will not share in his guilt.' "

From now on, we must get rid of hate completely. If you happen to hate a brother in your heart, you must remove the hate with the eraser of forgiveness and help him produce fruit worthy of Father and Mother. This is what God wants us to do first and foremost in the new covenant.

1 Jn 3:11-16 This is the message you heard from the beginning: We should love one another. Do not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own actions were evil and his brother's were righteous. Do not be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you. We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love our brothers. Anyone who does not love remains in death. Anyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life in him. This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers.

"Do not be like Cain" means "do not hate your brothers." If we become angry, hate or have a grudge against brothers and sisters because their words and behaviors offend and displease us, we may spiritually commit the same kind of crime as that of Cain. The Bible warns us that if we do not love our brothers and sisters, we remain in death.

While we live in this world, there may be misunderstandings and quarrels, big or small. For the same thing, some do not think it is a factor that can cause offense or enmity, but it can cause others to feel angry or hate. If we are always thankful to God for everything He has given us and are content and joyful whatever circumstances we are in, there will be no hate in our hearts anymore.

Satan once prowled around the world to sow the seeds of hate, and there were numerous good places to plant the seeds of hate. Most people's hearts had moderate temperatures and conditions for the seeds of hatred to germinate and grow. However, the hearts of some people didn't have good conditions for hate to grow at all, and Satan failed to sow the seeds of hate in them. They were the people who always had a thankful heart.

A thankful heart is the soil which prevents hate from growing and helps love grow ripe. In the soil of gratitude, a seed of hate can never grow. The fruit of love is borne only in the soil of gratitude.

If we have regarded our brothers and sisters' faults as big and felt offended by them and also have had a distorted view of Zion because of a feeling of hate, we must destroy all the hate with love. When we always have a thankful heart to Father and Mother for Their grace, anything annoying or distressing will never happen to us. Let us only sow the seeds of love in the soil of our thankful hearts. Then joy and gladness will always be found in Zion, and thanksgiving and the sound of singing will not cease there (Isa 51:3).

Love blooms in a thankful heart

1 Jn 4:7-11 Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

We must love one another as God has told us to. Sometimes we may feel heartbroken or hurt because of brothers and sisters' ways of speaking and behaving, which are different from ours. However, we did more cruel and wicked acts against God and spoke more offensive words to Him. Despite all that, God embraces us in His loving arms, lets the warm sunlight shine on us, and allows us to feel the verdure of nature and to breathe the fresh air.

If we look around us with a thankful heart, we can experience a miracle every day and words of admiration will continuously come out of our mouths. On the contrary, if our gratitude ceases, our hearts will only be filled with hate. Engraving God's word—"Love one another"—in our hearts, let's take a look at another teaching that we should always be thankful and try to be good to each other.

1 Th 5:12-22 Now we ask you, brothers, . . . Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Live in peace with each other. And we urge you, brothers, warn those who are idle, encourage the timid, help the weak, be patient with everyone. Make sure that nobody pays back wrong for wrong, but always try to be kind to each other and to everyone else. Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus. Do not put out the Spirit's fire; do not treat prophecies with contempt. Test everything. Hold on to the good. Avoid every kind of evil.

God tells us to live in peace with each other and try to be kind to everyone in all circumstances. We must not have a feeling of enmity or hate towards anyone, although he or she doesn't have the same thoughts as us; rather, we should always be good to everyone. This is the teaching and commandment of Father and Mother. They also tell us to be joyful always and give thanks in all circumstances. If we are always thankful to Father and Mother, there will be no complaint, no grumbling and no hate in our hearts.

'Is there something about me that causes my brothers and sisters to have feelings of hate? Do I hate any brother or sister? Am I grumbling? Am I losing gratitude?' Reflecting upon ourselves again, let's think of Father and Mother. Everything will be solved if we are conscious of God. Satan attacks us when we do not think of God but stay away from Him. It was during Adam's absence that Eve was tempted by the serpent. Likewise, if we stay away from God, we give Satan an opportunity to tempt us.

Giving thanks in all circumstances, let us remove all the hate and make Zion—God's house, where the heavenly family members are gathered together, the true "kingdom of Father, the world of Mother, and the paradise of us, Their children." Let's make Zion a place full of Father and Mother's love, a place without hate, a place filled with gratitude, and a place where our prayers and consideration for one another do not cease, so that our brothers and sisters' pain, sorrow and hardship, which they have suffered in this world, will all melt away the moment they enter Zion. I earnestly hope that all our brothers and sisters in Zion will always remember the sacrifice of Father and Mother, have no hate, pray continually, and overflow with gratitude.

God bless you Brothers and Sisters :)!

Dreams come true! If one has a dream and tries to fulfill the dream, it will surely come true. If he can achieve nothing, it proves that he has no dream. Reply

As a proverb says, "Where there is a will, there is a way."

2,000 years ago, Jesus said, "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

Jesus did not restrict this command to certain people; He gave the command to all people having the will to go. Whoever puts absolute trust in God can participate in God's wonderful work.

Each of us is to have a great ambition for the gospel: 'I can become the hero of prophecy.' We shall remember the power of God who has accomplished His great works through the weak and the humble, rather than get caught up in our own inadequacies.

Fragrance of Zion being emitted from overseas

Recently, I received some good news from the overseer of the New Zealand Zion. It was about one of our Church family members there. Actually, I was somewhat concerned about him before he left Korea, thinking, 'Will he be able to fearlessly preach the gospel in New Zealand?' Contrary to my worry, he was bearing lots of good fruit there in New Zealand. When I heard this, I was incredibly happy.

Let me give you some more good news from Peru. The overseer told me about a brother; he didn't have a positive faith when he was in Korea, but since he came to Peru he's been loudly preaching the gospel passionately with a loud voice and also leading young adults actively. That's surprising news to me.

Though they seemed very weak and unable to do that, since God has used them as His instruments they've been faithfully carrying out such great and wonderful tasks. I feel even more keenly that men cannot fully fathom God's providence.

Hearing the good news that those who seemed weak and unable to boldly preach are now leading many souls into Zion, I realize again that everything is possible if there is faith and zeal. Brothers and sisters in Zion are humble, and they tend to focus too much on their own weakness and deficiencies. We first need to trust in God rather than our feeble ability.

We don't need to worry, 'I am weak. Will I be able to boldly preach the gospel?' On the contrary, even if we are competent in a foreign language or have the ability to speak fluently or possess outstanding intelligence, we must not be proud of ourselves for that. It is nothing. The gospel is never accomplished by human ability. God fulfills the work of the gospel through the weak who trust in His great power and seek first His help.

God chooses the humble

When we think of God's salvation work which has been fulfilled through the ages of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, we can fathom the providence of God who fulfills His great work through the humble.

When God chose His prophets in each era, some were chosen from among shepherds, some among fishermen, and others among tax collectors. A shepherd, a fisherman or a tax collector was not a respectable leading position in the eyes of people. All of them were the poorest and the lowly people in those days.

1 Co 1:20-29 . . . For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe . . . For the foolishness of God is wiser than man's wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than man's strength. Brothers, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth. But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. He chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things—and the things that are not—to nullify the things that are, so that no one may boast before him.

This is the way God chooses His people. He has chosen the weak, the foolish and the poor and fulfilled His great work of salvation through them.

A shepherd can become a great prophet and a fisherman or a tax collector can be an apostle whose name will shine forever, if God uses them.

So Apostle Paul testified that his message and his preaching were not with wise words, but with a demonstration of the Spirit's power. He just wanted to be used as God's instrument.

1 Co 2:4-5, 13-14 My message and my preaching were not with wise and persuasive words, but with a demonstration of the Spirit's power, so that your faith might not rest on men's wisdom, but on God's power . . . This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words. . . .

Saving souls by preaching the gospel—it does not depend on human wisdom, but on God's power. Even a man of many talents, without the power of God's enabling grace, cannot bear fruit. Though we are deficient in ability, God uses us and allows us to bear good fruit when we absolutely depend on Him. It is the greatest honor on earth and in heaven to be used as an instrument to reveal the glory of God, isn't it?

God demonstrated His miraculous power with a wooden staff

Even a common and worthless thing can create a miracle if God uses it. God has used us, worthless beings, to fulfill His work. All our family members in Zion are obligated to follow God to the end with a thankful and joyful heart. Now let's see what wondrous miracles occurred through a wooden staff when God used it.

Ex 4:2-4 Then the LORD said to him, "What is that in your hand?" "A staff," he replied. The LORD said, "Throw it on the ground." Moses threw it on the ground and it became a snake, and he ran from it. Then the LORD said to him, "Reach out your hand and take it by the tail." So Moses reached out and took hold of the snake and it turned back into a staff in his hand.

The staff Moses held in his hand at that time was his shepherd's staff that he used when he tended the flock of the priest of Median. It was an ordinary staff of wood, not a golden staff like a royal scepter or an extraordinary staff of great value. With this extremely ordinary thing, however, God fulfilled His great work.

Ex 14:13-16 . . . Then the LORD said to Moses, "Why are you crying out to me? Tell the Israelites to move on. Raise your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea to divide the water so that the Israelites can go through the sea on dry ground."

The staff in Moses' hand was the rod of God's mighty hand. It was used to divide the Red Sea and lead the Israelites out of Egypt to Canaan. It was not by the staff itself that such a wondrous work could be accomplished, but by the power of God which was upon the staff.

Even after the Exodus, Moses' staff was used to perform many miracles.

Ex 17:5-6 The LORD answered Moses, " . . . take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. I will stand there before you by the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it for the people to drink." So Moses did this in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Ex 17:8-13 . . . Moses said to Joshua, "Choose some of our men and go out to fight the Amalekites. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hands." So Joshua fought the Amalekites as Moses had ordered, and Moses, Aaron and Hur went to the top of the hill. As long as Moses held up his hands, the Israelites were winning, but whenever he lowered his hands, the Amalekites were winning . . . Aaron and Hur held his hands up—one on one side, one on the other—so that his hands remained steady till sunset. So Joshua overcame the Amalekite army with the sword.

When Moses struck the rock with his staff, a huge amount of water gushed out and all the people were able to drink. And when the staff was raised high, the enemies were totally destroyed.

Though the staff itself seemed so powerful, such miracles were the manifestations of God's power. Likewise, God wanted to use us as an instrument for the gospel, saying, "Go and make disciples of all nations." This implies God's strong intention to use us as His instrument.

No instrument, whether made of wood or gold, should become selfdepreciative or proud. All our family members of Zion are to be always joyful and thankful that God has called us to be His instrument for displaying His great power and accomplishing His wonderful work.

God worked a miracle by using five barley loaves

We are given the grace to be the last living witnesses of God. Now, greater miracles than the ones with Moses' staff will be created through us. Whatever we do, we shall reveal the power of God as His instrument, constantly praying to God to give us His strength.

Jn 6:9-13 "Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they go among so many?" . . . and the men sat down, about five thousand of them. Jesus then took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted. He did the same with the fish. When they had all had enough to eat, he said to his disciples, "Gather the pieces that are left over. Let nothing be wasted." So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces of the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten.

In Tiberias, by the sea of Galilee, over five thousand people followed Jesus all day long. Jesus took pity on them and wanted to give them something to eat, but there were only five barley loaves and two fish that the disciples had found at that time. With the five barley loaves, Jesus performed a miracle of feeding the five thousand people.

In performing such a wondrous miracle Jesus used those small barley loaves. However, when Jesus held the simple meal in His hands, a miracle occurred—the five thousand people all ate and were satisfied, and there were twelve basketfuls left over. Considering these Biblical records, we have to recognize and remember that we, though weak and small, can do everything when we are held in God's mighty hand.

David the little shepherd boy defeated the huge giant Goliath

David was a shepherd boy who watched over a flock of sheep in the field.

Nobody paid any attention to him. However, when he was held in God's hand as His instrument, he defeated the huge giant Goliath and displayed God's great glory.

1 Sa 17:42-51 He looked David over and saw that he was only a boy, ruddy and handsome, and he despised him . . . David said to the Philistine, "You come against me with sword and spear and javelin, but I come against you in the name of the LORD Almighty, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied . . . and the whole world will know that there is a God in Israel. All those gathered here will know that it is not by sword or spear that the LORD saves; for the battle is the LORD's, and he will give all of you into our hands." . . . David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet him. Reaching into his bag and taking out a stone, he slung it and struck the Philistine on the forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell facedown on the ground . . . He took hold of the Philistine's sword and drew it from the scabbard. After he killed him, he cut off his head with the sword. When the Philistines saw that their hero was dead, they turned and ran.

Even King Saul, a veteran fighter, and his generals and soldiers trembled in fear because of Goliath and just listened to him speak blasphemous words against God. Then the young boy David indignantly and courageously went out against Goliath. He was not trained for battle, nor was he used to wearing armor. When Goliath saw the young boy without armor—only with his sling in his hand, Goliath made fun of him. How much did he despise him?

David came against Goliath not with sword and spear; he did not rely upon his own wisdom and strength, but upon God as an instrument in His hand.

This is the way we are to go. The greatest person in the world is the one held in God's hand. Like David, we are to be an instrument in God's hand, being filled with the Holy Spirit, and go to the ends of the earth. Then we shall be able to defeat all the forces of evil and accomplish the gospel.

However, if we go out to preach the word, depending upon our knowledge of the Bible and our own ability to persuade, no one will hear us. Preaching the gospel does not depend on human wisdom and ability.

If God uses us, just as He used David and used the staff of Moses, no one can be against us and nothing is impossible for us. The Biblical history clearly shows that.

Go out, as God's instrument

God has chosen us, who are weak and feeble, and let us fulfill everything by His powerful word, not by our finite ability. He has accomplished His great works by using the lowly, foolish and despised. Though we have many inadequacies, if we are willing to obey the word of God, many doors will be opened to us.

Let us not become like lazy and foolish children whose feet do not move with the gospel. God told us, "Give the people warning from Me." Unless we go out and awaken the world, we can not obtain favorable results. What if Moses had not gone out with his staff? And what if David had not gone out to fight Goliath? Would they have been able to accomplish God's great work?

No one can stop us if we courageously go out into the world in the name of the Spirit and the Bride—God Almighty in the age of the Holy Spirit, like David went out in the name of the LORD Almighty. With absolute faith in God who holds us in His hand, let's overcome the world and accomplish God's will as His faithful instruments.

Now the gospel is spreading widely throughout the world, even to the ends of the earth. Let us not just watch David defeat Goliath but go out like David, who went up against Goliath and threw a stone from his sling at him with all his strength. Children of Zion! As an instrument in God's hand like David, let's go out together to accomplish God's will and win a glorious victory

Nowadays, the members of Zion are diligently preaching the truth even in far-off countries overseas where the gospel has not yet reached.

By: Bell on November 16, 2011 at 1:00 pm

They are leaving truly meaningful footprints in time which never returns if it passes by. Even in various difficult circumstances, they are all leading many souls into the arms of Father and Mother. By doing that, they are writing the "New Acts" with their touching emotions and beautiful actions, which no other novelist can write. How beautiful are the feet of those who bring the good news.

Reply

Of course, the members of Zion in our own country are also participating in overseas missions by praying together with one mind for those who are preaching overseas, from early in the morning. I believe this is also a beautiful act of faith to participate in the gospel work Father and Mother are accomplishing.

When we look at the people described in the Bible, some received the blessing of eternal life as the result of living for the gospel, while others reached eternal destruction after living according to their own desires. There were the forefathers of faith like David and Apostles Peter and Paul, who had set the beautiful examples of the life of faith for us to follow, whereas there were also foolish people like Judas Iscariot, who ruined his life because of a moment's wrong decision, and like Demas who loved the world and deserted the truth.

Yesterday never returns, and today is the same. Let's take a look at the forefathers of faith who had lived a wonderful life for the gospel, and think about how to live our life more meaningfully.

Apostle Paul who had lived a life without regrets in the gospel

Apostle Paul knew intuitively that the time had come for him to leave this world after finishing his mission on this earth. So, when writing a letter to Timothy, Paul said he was proud that he had lived a valuable and meaningful life without any regret or shame.

2 Ti 4:6-8 For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time has come for my departure. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Whenever I read these verses, I truly envy the life of Paul who was able to confidently say that he had no regrets because if he lived, he lived for the Lord, and if he died, he would die for the Lord. I hope all of us also live a wonderful life which will be recorded so beautifully. We have only one life to live. Since we cannot live any moment of our life twice, we should spend the time given to us more meaningfully for God and for the eternal kingdom of heaven. Let's listen more to the Apostle Paul who ran the path of righteousness to the fullest without any regrets and kept the faith till the end.

2 Ti 4:1-5 "In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I give you this charge: Preach the Word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction . . . But you, keep your head in all situations, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, discharge all the duties of your ministry."

Paul recommended that we should always make efforts to do the meaningful work of preaching the Word. We cannot turn back time that has already passed, so we must not have the thought: 'I'd like to do worldly things to my heart's content and then do the gospel work when I gain some composure in life.' Our life is too short to waste time on worthless things. Let us do our best to live a life without any shame before God when we look back at every moment of our life.

In order for us to be able to say that we have walked the path of faith without regrets, as Paul did, when we stand before God after our life on this earth, we must not conform any longer to the pattern of this world but only think about what God's will is and willingly obey God's word all the time, as children of heaven.

Ro 12:1-3 Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual act of worship. Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will. . . .

While pursuing the same values as the people of the world, we cannot live a life without regrets before God. If we live our life pursuing worldly things, we are just like the person who feels thirsty and drinks seawater; the seawater causes him to feel more thirsty. Likewise, the more our earthly desires are satisfied, the more thirsty we feel.

However, the water of life, which God gives us, never makes us feel thirsty again once we drink it. Our members in Zion are experiencing joy and happiness through this water of life, and they realize the feeling of joy and happiness cannot be replaced by anything else in the world. I hope all people living in our time will feel this joy and happiness together.

Let us all plan to live our one and only life for the eternal gospel of the kingdom of God, so our life can be wonderful. We need to throw away the thought, 'I will do it when my circumstances permit,' or, 'I will start tomorrow.' Only those who have the will to start "right now" can do this work and make their life beautiful.

The mission of Joshua and a lesson from it

The Bible has many records about the life and work of the forefathers who walked the wonderful and beautiful path of faith by the grace of God. One of them is Joshua, who carried out his mission with all his heart and soul in obedience to the will of God.

Joshua became the leader of Israel after the death of Moses. When he arrived in the promised land of Canaan flowing with milk and honey, he waged war against the Canaanites to conquer their land and to divide it by lot to each tribe of Israel. Let's look at the history of the fall of Jericho, which served as a prelude to the conquest of Canaan in accordance with the guidance of God.

Jos 6:1-16 Now Jericho was tightly shut up because of the Israelites. No one went out and no one came in. Then the LORD said to Joshua, "See, I have delivered Jericho into your hands, along with its king and its fighting men. March around the city once with all the armed men. Do this for six days . . . On the seventh day, march around the city seven times, with the priests blowing the trumpets. When you hear them sound a long blast on the trumpets, have all the people give a loud shout; then the wall of the city will collapse . . ." . . . But Joshua had commanded the people, "Do not give a war cry, do not raise your voices, do not say a word until the day I tell you to shout. Then shout!" . . . On the seventh day, they got up at daybreak and marched around the city seven times in the same manner, except that on that day they circled the city seven times. The seventh time around, when the priests sounded the trumpet blast, Joshua commanded the people, "Shout! For the LORD has given you the city!"

The God-given strategy to conquer the fortified city of Jericho was to shout all at once the moment they were told to "shout." By obeying the word of God, the Israelites experienced the miracle of Jericho falling down before their very eyes, and they won a victory (Jos 6:20).

Prophetically, we are now in the same situation. The shout which the Israelites gave just before the fall of Jericho is just like the shout that the people of Zion, who have been sent to every region of the world, are giving to lead many souls to repentance before the fall of the spiritual Babylon. The parade of the members who shout the truth of the new covenant will continue towards the whole world, so that there will not even be a single country which the message of the gospel has not been preached to.

Our path is not smooth all the time. Just as the people of Jericho shut the gates of the fortress tightly because they were afraid of the Israelites, the devil in the invisible spiritual world will try to hinder the truth by every means possible because he is afraid that the glory of God will shine bright throughout the world.

However, the water of life is now continuously flowing all over the world, just as it is impossible to stop water flowing once the embankment bursts. Since the members are participating in the gospel with a resolution to live their one and only life for the gospel, even those with weak faith are moved and awakened, so they are now shouting together with one voice. Through the history of the time of Joshua, let's look into the status of the gospel in this age, so that we can fully carry out our God-given mission.

Joshua who followed God's will till the end

Even after conquering Jericho, Joshua continued to follow God's will; he drove out many emigrant peoples from Canaan and distributed the conquered land among the tribes of Israel. As he had a premonition of his death after finishing his mission on this earth, he lastly taught the Israelites never to leave God.

Jos 23:1-11 After a long time had passed and the LORD had given Israel rest from all their enemies around them, Joshua, by then old and well advanced in years, summoned all Israel—their elders, leaders, judges and officials—and said to them: "I am old and well advanced in years . . . you will take possession of their land, as the LORD your God promised you. Be very strong; be careful to obey all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, without turning aside to the right or to the left . . . do not invoke the names of their gods or swear by them. You must not serve them or bow down to them . . . So be very careful to love the LORD your God."

Jos 24:14-18 "Now fear the LORD and serve him with all faithfulness. Throw away the gods your forefathers worshiped beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD . . . But as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD." Then the people answered, "Far be it from us to forsake the LORD to serve other gods! It was the LORD our God himself who brought us and our fathers up out of Egypt, from that land of slavery, and performed those great signs before our eyes. He protected us on our entire journey and among all the nations through which we traveled . . . We too will serve the LORD, because he is our God."

Joshua declared that he would serve only Jehovah until the last moment. He was always with God throughout his lifetime. And in his last will to the Israelites, he asked them not to foolishly lose eternal things while worshiping idols or pursuing worldly wealth or fame, which is vain and meaningless, but to live their lives given by God meaningfully. He lived a true life of faith without any regrets, always walking with God.

It was not only Joshua who lived such a faithful life. Apostle Paul devoted his whole life to preaching the gospel with a determination to live only for God and to nestle in His everlasting arms. So did the warriors of Gideon, Daniel and his friends—Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. Moreover, the saints of the early Church kept the faith without even fearing death and without yielding to any threat. They all lived a truly meaningful and rewarding life.

Let us overcome hardship and live a life for the gospel without regrets

Life is given only once. Judas Iscariot, who took a wrong step in life and followed the devious way, finally ended up in irretrievable and eternal destruction. If he had been given one more chance in life, he would not have made the same mistake again. However, there was no more opportunity for him.

Even though the apostles, including Peter and Paul, walked the path of the gospel in the midst of hardship and affliction, they continued to follow Jesus' words, "You have to take your cross and follow Me in order to be worthy of Me," and as a result, they had no regrets in their life just before their death. They were confident that there was now in store for them the crown of righteousness in heaven because they had fought the good fight to the fullest and finished the race of faith by helping many souls repent and leading them into the arms of God. So they testified that they had lived their lives without any regrets even though they had gone through many dangers.

2 Co 11:24-30 Five times I received from the Jews the forty lashes minus one. Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, I spent a night and a day in the open sea, I have been constantly on the move. I have been in danger from rivers, in danger from bandits, in danger from my own countrymen, in danger from Gentiles; in danger in the city, in danger in the country, in danger at sea; and in danger from false brothers. I have labored and toiled and have often gone without sleep; I have known hunger and thirst and have often gone without food; I have been cold and naked . . . If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness.

The life of Apostle Paul was a series of many dangers and hardships just as he confessed. In spite of the repeated sufferings, he walked with God till the end, so he was able to smile in the last moments of his life.

During his one and only life, Paul made a gracious choice to proceed toward the eternal glory of heaven and ran diligently toward the goal. Like Paul and many forefathers of faith, we should also live a meaningful life, so that we will not have any regrets when we go to heaven. For this, let us pray fervently and try our hardest.

God has given us a precious and good way—a once-in-a-life-time opportunity. Even if we took our first step of faith without realizing it fully, the path we are on is the way to the kingdom of heaven, the way to eternal life and salvation, and the way to the glorious future.

There will be nothing more rewarding than being able to live our one and only life fully for the glory of Elohim and to end our life on this earth in God's grace while proclaiming the glory of Jerusalem to the whole world. Father and Mother have granted us the opportunity to awaken all people around the world with the truth and lead them to salvation, starting with our neighbors. I earnestly ask you, people of Zion, to renew your mind by looking ahead into the glorious future of the kingdom of heaven and to live your one and only life faithfully for the gospel.

Honestly speaking, I have encountered the same unfortunate thing.

I was talking with my landlord when two koreans came.

By: ruth on December 3, 2011 at 2:21 pm

They asked if they could ask us survey questions for a homework. We obligingly agreed. Then, showed us videos. The girl asked my number. I gave my number immediately because she might need follow up on her project. I have also experience survey-type homeworks and it is hard.

Reply

The next day, she came along with her three friends. I happily entertained them. We looked for a bakeshop where we could sit. They said that they want to show a video to me. Since they promised that it would only be 30 minutes, I agreed. Got tons of things to do. But I ended up being with them for 4 hours. I just came from school and im very tired.

I easily got their idea and got interested with the "God the Mother." It is a new theory to me. I am a reader. I read ecumenical books and stuff, whether approve or against my current religion. She asked if she could see me again. I said yes. However, she didn't arrive on our agreed day.

The next week, she asked if I was free on Tuesday but I declined since I have new business and I have appointments on that day. She agreed on Wednesday.

On wednesday, i squeezed in my class schedules and business appointments just for her. She promised that her Filipina friend would come and explain everything clearly to me. I changed to my 'house clothes' and went to her. Her friend was not around. I thought that we are coming back to the bakeshop and talk about God the Mother again but, she got a taxi and motioned to go on.

I was not scared 'cause I know that she is not harmful. However, I was shocked, she didn't told me that we are going to her church. I was wearing my 'house clothes.'

When we arrived, there were other people. She motioned me upstairs and there, the wife of their pastor, lectured me regarding God the Mother. I understood and was very happy with their principles. Direct praying; passover; bible study.

it was 8pm already and I have stayed more than the one-hour promise, the girl said to me. But I stayed more since I don't want to offend them.

The wife of the pastor asked me if I believe in God, I said, "Yes." Then, she motioned me downstairs and brought me to a bathroom. The girl asked me to take my clothes off and wore a blue robe. I dont know what's going on. I asked the girl why. She said that I am going to be baptized. God! I was told that RELIGION DOES NOT MATTER that's why I liked them an hour ago. I hesitantly did as told and the pastor bathed me with water.

After I dressed up back.

It was already 9pm and my brother has already texted me that he wants to eat dinner but they wont let me go home. The place where their church is a dangerous place and I only brought 100.00. My brother cannot eat nor come inside our home since I have the key to our home. I was promised one hour only and I could leave the key to anyone. (my bro is still at school)

I ate something white and drank wine. after they let me write my name and watched some videos. They asked me for dinner. I refused since my brother is waiting but they wont let me. I ate their food. They gave me a whole big fish with very little rice!

They asked if I was free on Saturday but I refused since I have to meet my mother, prepare for a marathon and follow-up my business. They lectured me regarding the Sabbath Day. I grew uninterested. They would fetch me and said that if I go to the Sabbath Day, I will receive blessings. They have a service and they said THEY ARE NOT A RELIGION JUST PEOPLE PREACHING ABOUT THE MOTHER OF GOD.

After, the wife of the pastor left to get something. I asked the Filipina about a picture on the wall of their dining area, she said that the lady on a native korean outfit was GOD THE MOTHER.

so, the next savior is a KOREAN and aging?

I begin to doubt. It is like a racist type of prophecy. I like the thought that they are working hard for them to get many people but RELIGION IS NOT FORCED. BELIEVING IS NOT JUST MATTER OF 3 DAYS OF MEETING.

I changed my number. I don't like liars.

All the glory to Heavenly Father Christ everywhere in the world: wars between nations, ethnic conflicts, terrors, famines, earthquakes, and deadly cold or heat or flood caused by changes in weather patterns.

Whenever such things occur, people tremble with fear, not knowing who or what they should set their hearts on.
The Bible already prophesied about the coming disasters and what people would do in the day of such disasters.

Am 9:2-9 "Though they dig down to the depths of the grave, from there my hand will take them. Though they climb up to the heavens, ... Though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, ... Though they hide from me at the bottom of the sea, ... "

As described in the above prophecy, people desperately try to hide themselves anywhere, because they come to face terrible disasters which men cannot endure. The above prophecy is not about what happened in the days of Amos the prophet about 2,800 years ago, but what will occur in the great and dreadful day of the LORD, at the Last Judgment.

Men cannot escape the last plagues by their own methods

Modern people, who live in the age of the high-tech science, feel fear about the coming disasters and the end of mankind, and they try to find various ways to escape from the disasters. They make every effort to find refuge underground or at the bottom of the sea or on a planet outside the earth so that they may escape the threat of nuclear weapons capable of annihilating all life on earth many times over. An atomic submarine for hiding themselves at the bottom of the sea, a spaceship for climbing up to the heavens, ... , such various methods are being discussed. According to a press report, America has constructed a large bunker beneath the White House at Mount Weather; and there is said to be ninety-nine underground cities in various places, as a provision for emergency.

However, the Bible clearly says that even by using the modern scientific methods, no one can escape God's fierce anger. It also says that the last disaster will come upon all the earth, not just upon parts of it.

Lk 21:35 "For it will come upon all those who live on the face of the whole earth. "

Isa 24:3-13 "The earth will be completely laid waste and totally plundered. ... So will it be on the earth and among the nations, ... "

Now, let's see how the disaster comes upon every nation
all over the world.

2 Pe 3:7-10 "By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. ... But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare.”

The Bible says that God will use fire for His judgment. So the disaster, which will come upon the whole world, is fire. When the day comes, the heavens will be destroyed by fire and all things will be burnt up and melt in the heat. The day will be a day of distress; even the warriors will tremble with fear and cry out bitterly. However, God has prepared a way to escape the disaster when such dreadful day comes. He has made the way - the good news of salvation-known to us. We can get it only through the Bible, not through any high-tech equipment developed by scientists.

Passover is the way to escape the disaster
Let's take a careful look at God's word of promise to let us escape any disaster.

Ex 12:11-14 "... it is the LORD's Passover. On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn-both men and animals ... The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt. ... "

At the time of the Exodus, when the plague of destroying every firstborn was brought upon Egypt, no plague befell to the Israeli houses which kept the Passover. In other words, the plague passed over them. Thus, Passover (pascha in Greek, pesach in Hebrew) implies "Plagues pass over."

Such a history was written as a warning for us. Faithless Israel didn't believe in the power of the Passover. However, Judah regarded the Passover as important and celebrated it. Through the history of Israel and of Judah, we come to realize how truly important the Passover is. Hezekiah king of Judah read all the words of the covenant, which had been found in the temple of the LORD when it was being repaired and restored. He realized the covenant of God and sent couriers to all Judah and Israel so that they might celebrate the Passover which had not been kept for a long time. When the couriers delivered the king's command to "come up to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover," Israel scorned and ridiculed them, and several years later it fell to Assyria (2 Ki 18:9-12). However, Judah celebrated the Passover holy and could repulse the attack of powerful Assyria with God's mighty power (2 Ch 30:1-27; 2 Ki 18:13-19:37).

In these last days, there are two groups of people: one group who will receive terrible plagues, and the other who will escape them with God's help.

Rev 7:1-4 "After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth ... another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. ... "Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God."

The only way to escape the last plagues is to receive the seal of God. Then, what is the seal of God? The Bible prophecies that the blood of the Passover lamb will be a sign for God's people so that they may escape the last plagues. In other words, the blood of the Passover lamb is 'the seal of God' through which God's people can be saved.

At the time of the Exodus, the Israelites could be saved from the terrible plague of destroying every firstborn, by putting the blood of a year-old Passover lamb on their door posts and eating the meat. The Passover lamb of the Old Testament represents Jesus.

1 Co 5:7-8 "... For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Therefore let us keep the Festival,...

No one can escape the last plagues without 'the blood of Jesus Christ' who is the Passover Lamb.

When the angels, who are given power to harm, let go of their hold on the wind [war], the terrible disasters [the last plagues] will come upon this earth (Rev 7:1-3). To make the last plagues pass over His people, God places His 'seal' on His children's foreheads. The 'seal of God' is the seal of salvation through which God's people can escape the disasters.

Eze 9:4-6 "and said to him, "Go throughout the city of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of those who grieve and lament over all the detestable things that are done in it. ... Slaughter old men, young men and maidens, women and children, but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at my sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were in front of the temple."

Whom did God order the destroying angels to begin with? He told them to begin with the elders [leaders] of the false churches, who do not have the mark-the seal of God, the blood of the Passover Lamb-on their foreheads. Considering the prophecies of the Bible, we are now living in the days of the last plagues. God is awakening us, His children, to the fact that we can escape the plagues only through the 'seal of God.' He shows us that His sealing work will arise from the east and spread to the west.

Rev 7:2 "Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God."

When Apostle John received the revelation on the island of Patmos, he saw an angel ascending from the rising of the sun. This implies that God's sealing work is to begin in the east.

God seals us as His own children

When we celebrate the Passover, God abides in us, and we in Him (Jn 6:56; 15:4-8). As we dwell in God, we belong to Him.

2 Co 1:21-22 "Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ. He ... set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come."

God has set His seal on us to be marked as 'His own.'
Let's see what blessings God gives us, His own.

Isa 43:1-3 "O Jacob, ... : "Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned you by name; you are mine. ... When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze. ..."

God has made us His own by putting His seal on us through the Passover. He has firmly promised to protect us from any destructive disasters. God is now calling His children, living in the days of disasters, to celebrate the Passover and escape the last plagues.

Before the angels, who are holding back the four winds, let go of their hold, we should preach the Passover of the new covenant-the seal of God-to the whole world, as the couriers of the good news of salvation.

Brothers and sisters in Zion! Let's give thanks to God for making us His very own, His treasured possession. We must all take part in God's salvation work in this age.

this world mission church of god ruin my happy family.
how can you call this a 'church'. it is a cult focusing on recruiting member.

1) Cults Claim to Have all Knowing leadership:

John 21:17 {the third time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep.}

Reply

2) Cults only teach you up to what you are able to believe:

Hebrews 5:11 {We much to say about this, but it is hard to explain because you are slow to learn.}

3) Cults claim no room for differences (Everybody is the same):

Colossians 3:11 {Here there is no Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all, and is in all.}

4) Cults claim to introduce a new and better way:

Hebrews 7:18-19 {the former regulation is set aside because it was weak and useless (for the law made nothing perfect), and a better hope is introduced, by which we draw near to God.}

5) Cult members should imitate cult leader:

Philippians 2:5 {your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus}

Also Colossians 3:11 of example 3.

6) Cults isolate you from your family:

Matthew 10:37 {anyone who loves his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me}

7) Cults Brainwash ignorant and people who have no critical thinking.

Acts 4:13 {when they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus.}

8) Cults Recruit people:

Mk 16:15-16 {He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned}

9) Cults always claim Persecution of the Leader:

Acts 22:6-8 {"About noon as I came near Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me. I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, 'Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?' 'Who are you, Lord?' I asked " 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting,' he replied.}

10) Cults have ignorant leaders:

John 7:14-16 {Not until halfway through the Feast did Jesus go up to the temple courts and begin to teach. The Jews were amazed and asked, "How did this man get such learning without having studied?"}

11) Cults try to keep members busy:

Acts 2:46-47 {every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

12) Cult leaders always try to gain your trust:

John 14:1 {"Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me}

13) Cults believe that by your actions you prove your faith:

James 2:17 {in the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.}

14) Cults claim salvation is through obedience before the end comes:

Matthew 24:42 {"Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come."}

15) Cults make members dependant to the cult leader:

John 15:5 {"I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing."}

16) Cults claim that there is no exit apart from the cult:

John 6:67-68 {"You do not want to leave too, do you?" Jesus asked the Twelve. Simon Peter answered him "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life."}

17) Cult members claim to have "Spiritual Battles":

Ephesians 6:12 {for our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms."}

18) Cults try to keep things secret:

Matthew 17:9 {As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, "Don't tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."}

19) Cult leaders claim to be the only way, and supreme authority:

John 14:6 {Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."}

And for the sake of space and time, I omitted the teachings of: Judaism, Mohammed, Buddha, Martin Luther King, Nelson Mandela, Mahatma Gandhi, Copernicus, Galileo...etc.

If we are going to judge groups and organizations by these standards, then every single organization and religion is a cult. We should not judge the Church of God by these standards, rather we should see if the teachings that the Church practices come from God or not. To label the World Mission Society Church of God as a cult is no different from when the Jewish religious leaders called the Apostles a Nazarene sect. Please don't commit the same mistake as 2,000 years ago.

endure the oppression of Rome has been waiting for. However, the Messiah, Jesus Christ, when he came before them, the people of Israel, so eager were they to reject the Messiah was crucified motbakat: to the people of Israel, he meant that God was above all their lives. Life is gonna throw novelties bend. Faith than they cherish their lives to God is crucified. How did they do such a great authority in the cause of it unless you know exactly that today, in this era, even if God had come back again, those people will have no choice but to commit sin is.

Almighty God, who came to

To learn more about this problem, first you must have a study of Jesus. What do you do with the root of Jesus through the Bible let's take a look at: Goal 1, Section 13-18, "... all things he (Christ) in heaven and on earth, the changjodoedoe things visible and invisible, and the subjective or rulers or powers, or counselors or malmiamgo him or for him all things were created by it ... " He created all things yisyeotseupnida God. Almighty God incarnate presence'll speak in the name of Jesus on this earth who will. Inside my head, but at the time of Israel in God deeply embedded stereotypes were wrong. He said that they think if you get one thing straight handsome light the heavens and the earth cracked and Battered by a storm and the whirlwind of God's power was with Moses, the Israelites 3,500 years ago to open when you draw them into an unbelievable paranormal Egyptians seoneulke people chatting syeotgie exact replica of those worn by God as his Messiah come to the center of the earth if you like of course to the presence of such an honor had been expect. Today, all Christians, even 'God' as it is true that when you evoke such a look: the divinity of Jesus, the Apostle John wrote the following about: John Chapter 1, Section 1-14: "In the beginning was the word the Word was with God, and the Word was God he was in the beginning with God gyesyeotgo things made by him Now that was built is nothing without him become NIV ... he's the world were you and the world made by him doeeoteudoe the world knew him ohmae was not his own land, but not the people youngjeopji ... the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, that we honor the Father's only Son, I (Jesus), the glory, full of grace and truth of the planet, " religious people at the time of Jesus "Let there be light 'light jonjaeke hasimeuro exact replica of those worn by the Creator God coming Messiah would be able to learn quickly if you were confident. However, they welcome the God who created the world failed. Rather, he came on earth to kill God, I passed with hate of him, rejecting extreme has only ten thousand of the angels of God slowly penetration – I do not know If you've met her majesty's no way that does not appear while. Israel in the minds of people like those of God's will was being held on a regular teulroseo place. Contrary to stereotypes, but they, like Christ to the creature than the angels who have come to this earth. Hebrews Chapter 2, Section 6-8, "... what factors do you counsel me, hast thou this generous than the angels for a moment let me hasimyeo ssuiwoosimyeo tube with glory and honor of all things under his feet hath bokjongke ... " than the angels did not like the children of Israel how God could have imagined, would you? God Himself came to the baby, they spit smacked a fist. In the temple of God, looking for the hard work of people that do not fit into the framework of his thought, God has been thoroughly rejected. No way let God than the angels come not feel like I was at Riga. As Jesus looks on their feet than the angels who did not believe brothers and relatives catch a crazy thought that has to do so at the time did not believe in Christ, to believe the word has been highlighted many times. If anyone was easy to believe in Christ, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ," he would have a need to witness? "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ" in the word so difficult to believe in Christ means that are included. At the time depicted in the minds of people who come to God is actually God's image and appearance is so because there's a big difference. I understand the situation when I left to accept Christ, Viva, and ten thousand ohms gamchwieotdeon secret from Christ, you can agree with the phrase: Goal 1, Section 26-27, "a secret from the ten thousand and three and ten thousand ohms gamchwi geotinde had now appeared to the saints ... The secret of his Christ in you the hope of glory shall " Colossians Chapter 2 Section 2-3, "... He tried to realize the secret of Christ hamyira in them all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge gamchwieo one standing by, " the reporters all the prophets and the gospel of Christ was God who made everything in heaven and earth is the evidence (Isaiah Chapter 9, Section 6, Chapter 1, Section 16 goals, John Chapter 1 Verse 1). That God came to this earth by those who believe in God doesn't executions will reject Jesus in the Bible had been written at the time because of the history of what Considered? Everything that was there before we would have been recorded for the lesson (Romans Chapter 15, Section 4). World, people still come to God is not gonna look worse than one thousand and four of the stereotyping that has been with the Second Coming of Christ appearing to look wonderful and terrible is waiting for his thoughts on God, I will I have beat the framework. We believe God is still almighty Since God, the Almighty, as well as to come see the same people may come in the guise of. A promise is a commitment by someone to do or not to do something. It is made between two parties. So, every promise has two sides: that of the giver and that of the receiver. The Bible, consisting of 66 books, contains a multitude of God's promises to His people—the promises made between God and mankind.

The Old Testament is the old covenant given by God to the Hebrew people, and the New Testament is the new covenant given by God to us. No one can change this promise of God—not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen—or replace it with anything else. So, the Bible tells us never to add to or take away from the words of promise between God and us (Rev 22:18-19). It is God's promises that we aim to preach to all people in the world.

Letting them know the promises of God, including the promise of blessing and the promise of the eternal kingdom of heaven—this is preaching. Now many of our members of Zion are going out into the whole country and the entire world. When we go out to preach the gospel, we just need to think about what promises God has given us and believe those promises and put them into practice. Now let us carefully examine God's promises in the Bible, so we can walk the path of faith with a firm belief in the promises of God.

"I will help you" The ceremonial rituals for baptism and worship, preaching, prayer, singing new songs, and so on—all these things we perform now contain God's certain promises. We, the people of God, believe the promises of God and proceed on the path of faith. God's promises are being fulfilled exactly on this earth. However, as a promise is made between two parties, there are things that we must do in the process where the promises of God are being fulfilled.

There are the words of God that we have not fully preached yet, and there are still our brothers and sisters who have not come back into the truth because they have not been able to listen to God's words of promise. We should all keep the promises of God in mind and gain courage and strength, so that all of God's promises can be fulfilled and we will be able to enter the kingdom of heaven.

Isa 41:8-10 "But you, O Israel, my servant, Jacob, whom I have chosen, you descendants of Abraham my friend, I took you from the ends of the earth, from its farthest corners I called you. I said, 'You are my servant'; I have chosen you and have not rejected you. So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand."

Isa 43:1-7 . . . "Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned you by name; you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze. For I am the LORD, your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior . . . Do not be afraid, for I am with you; I will bring your children from the east and gather you from the west. I will say to the north, 'Give them up!' and to the south, 'Do not hold them back.' Bring my sons from afar and my daughters from the ends of the earth—everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made."

When we examine the prophecies carefully, it is an undeniable fact that we are to encounter fearful situations in preaching the gospel. God said, "I will help you." This implies that there are many things we cannot do by ourselves. However, God promised that He would be with us in any and all situations and gather together all the dispersed members of the heavenly family.

This is the promise made by Father and Mother. If we believe in God, we must believe God's promises, too. God never breaks a promise.

There is a big difference in results between the person who believes God's promises and carries out the gospel work and the person who doesn't. God, who can do everything, is always with us and gives us strength and courage. Even when we walk in the path of darkness, God protects and leads us. We must not forget this.

If you feel that an invisible wall is blocking the way, please look to the promises of God. When we believe God's promises and carry out the gospel work, asking God for help all the time, every footstep we take will bring forth a beautiful result.

Mt 28:18-20 Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Our Elohim, who has all authority in heaven and earth, has promised to be with us always, to the very end of the age. So, we should trust the promises of God who helps us and gives us strength to accomplish the gospel work.

God never changes His promises

God has promised to be with us and to strengthen and help us. Nevertheless, sometimes we are seized with a vague fear and impatience, which makes us think too much into things. We do not need to depend on our own ability or rely on others. All we have to do is preach the gospel fervently as God has told us to, no matter what situation or circumstance we are in. If we do so, God will surely open all doors for us. God's promises never change.

Heb 6:17-18 Because God wanted to make the unchanging nature of his purpose very clear to the heirs of what was promised, he confirmed it with an oath. God did this so that, by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to take hold of the hope offered to us may be greatly encouraged.

God is unchangeable in His purpose for the heirs of what was promised. No one can change any of God's promises arbitrarily. These unchangeable promises of God lead us to the eternal world, where we will shine like the stars forever and ever.

Da 12:1-3 At that time Michael, the great prince who protects your people, will arise. There will be a time of distress such as has not happened from the beginning of nations until then. But at that time your people—everyone whose name is found written in the book—will be delivered. Multitudes who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake: some to everlasting life, others to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.

"Those who lead many to righteousness will shine like the stars for ever and ever." This is the promise of God and it is what pleases our Heavenly Father and Mother the most. They want us, Their children, to receive the glory of shining like the stars rather than to find ourselves ashamed before the angels. That is why They have given us the mission of preaching the gospel and the opportunities for it as well.

This mission and the opportunities given to us will come to an end someday. In the parable of the ten virgins, they had a limited amount of time to prepare to meet the bridegroom. Once the door was shut, it never opened again, no matter how desperately they knocked on the door and cried out for the Lord to open it for them, because the prophesied time came to an end (Mt 25:1-13).

Perfect faith in God's promises

We believe all the promises of God, including the promise to be with us to the very end of the age and the promise to help us.

God has also given us the ability to lead many to righteousness and salvation. However, opportunities never come to those who just wait without any effort. God gives opportunities to those who work hard, seek earnestly and make every effort, and fulfills all the promises of blessings to them.

Ro 4:18-22 Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations, just as it had been said to him, "So shall your offspring be." Without weakening in his faith, he faced the fact that his body was as good as dead—since he was about a hundred years old—and that Sarah's womb was also dead. Yet he did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God, being fully persuaded that God had power to do what he had promised. This is why "it was credited to him as righteousness."

Abraham was blessed to be called the "father of faith," because he did not doubt the promise of God. Although he was 100 years old and Sarah was also very old, he absolutely believed the promise that God made to him: "I will multiply your offspring as the stars of heaven." This absolute faith of Abraham serves as a good example of faith for us today.

Everything God has promised is to be fulfilled without fail. The gospel will also be surely accomplished because God has promised that it will be preached to Samaria and to the ends of the earth. God is so faithful that He has personally prepared everything for us and opens people's eyes, ears and minds wherever the gospel is preached.

Now we are moving according to the trumpet sound of prophecy. Those who turn a deaf ear to the trumpet of prophecy, no matter how loud it sounds, are no different than Esau who did not realize the value of the blessing which God had promised. God's promised blessings are given only to those who move according to the voice of prophecy—those who believe the promises of God absolutely and put them into practice.

Jas 2:5 Listen, my dear brothers: Has not God chosen those who are poor in the eyes of the world to be rich in faith and to inherit the kingdom he promised those who love him?

God has promised to give the eternal kingdom of heaven as an inheritance to those who love Him. In order to go to the promised kingdom of God, we must be guided by God's promises.

Whenever we have a hard time, let us open the Bible and take a look at the promises of God, which are contained in the 66 books. Then we will realize that God has promised us a brilliant and glorious world, which no eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived. This promise is not made by an untrustworthy person or someone who cannot keep his promises. It is the promise made by God Almighty who is unchangeable in His promises and fulfills them without fail. God has promised to be with us and help us wherever we go. Let us not forget this gracious promise of God, and proceed towards the everlasting kingdom of heaven by depending on that promise.

Those who put God's promises into practice will win the promised future God has given us such amazing and brilliant promises. However, the promises are ineffective for those who do not put them into practice; they have an effect on those who follow them. The Bible says that our faith is dead unless we put God's promises into action.

Jas 2:17-26 In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead. . . . You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder. You foolish man, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless? Was not our ancestor Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did. . . . You see that a person is justified by what he does and not by faith alone. . . . As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.

As stated above, faith without action is dead. How can fruit be borne from the dead? How can a dead tree bloom flowers and emit a scent? God's holy promises can bloom gorgeously and bear fruit when they are put into practice.

Those who put God's promises into action and move according to them receive the promised results from God without fail. However, to those who do not walk in the promises of God and do not try to accomplish them, all the promises are nothing but letters. In other words, they receive the same result as when they are not given any promise. To make God's word come alive and work for us, we must follow all the teachings of God. When we put God's promises into practice, we can experience the results promised by God.

Abraham believed God's promise and did what God said. The faith that Abraham showed was the faith in God and His promise. The Bible shows that Abraham's faith was made complete when he put into practice his faith in God and His promise.

Now world evangelism is being accomplished by our Church of God. It is possible because God always helps us. This is also a result of believing in God's promises and putting them into practice. Still now, the gospel prophets including the long-term and short-term mission teams are going out into the whole world and working hard to preach the gospel, shedding beads of sweat. All the members are making every effort to preach the gospel in their own country or overseas.

Let us read the promises that God has made to us and review them again. Those who believe God's promises and preach the gospel are always joyful and happy. "I will help you." With this promise of God guaranteed to us, let us spend our daily life preaching the gospel joyfully, along with Heavenly Father and Mother.

Those who believe in the promises of God can be said to believe in God correctly. Think about how great and valuable God's promised blessings for us are. On the day of glory, God will fulfill all His promised blessings to us. Believing the promises of God firmly, let us, people of Zion, try our best to glorify God greatly during the time of opportunity given to us.

When we look back on our past lives, at night after finishing each day or at the end of the year, even though we were given the same period of time, some of us might live faithfully and some might not. The difference comes from whether we had a goal or not. When we set a goal and do our best to achieve the goal, a fruitful result is produced. That's why an individual or a group sets a goal when starting their work.

It is the same in our life of faith. While the same period of time flows, those who have a spiritual goal live a faithful life, looking forward to the blessings and glory that they will enjoy in heaven, and those who do not have a spiritual goal cannot help but live a meaningless life, just repeating their daily routines.

Man is destined to die once, and after that to face judgment (Heb 9:27).

In the spiritual world, everyone will face punishment or receive salvation according to their deeds. We should keep our minds fixed on the eternal spiritual world, set goals for our faith and press on toward the goals, not focusing on the worldly things that are meaningless and vain, so that we can leave valuable footprints in our life given just once.

Set a goal for faith, looking forward to the blessings of heaven

Through the teachings of the Bible, let's learn what kind of mindset of faith we should have. In the book of Colossians, Apostle Paul asked us to set our hearts on things above.

Col 3:1-3 Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God.

"Set your hearts on things above." By saying this, Apostle Paul meant that we should live a gracious life of faith by seeking the spiritual things in heaven and possessing a great will that God wants us to have. Even though we only desired the worldly things in the past, since we have been born again through Christ, we should set our minds on the life in the glorious kingdom of heaven.

Paul said that he himself pressed on toward the goal of faith.

Php 3:12-14 Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already been made perfect, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. Brothers, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.

Living a life with a goal means striving endlessly to reach what is ahead.

In order to gain fruitful results through the talents God has granted us, we should make a firm resolution to carry out the will of God and set concrete goals, not just thinking, 'In due time, it will be done.'

A goal that brings out thoughts and actions

Once upon a time, there was a rich man in a village. He had a son old enough to marry, so he was going to choose his future daughter-in-law. In order to choose a wise daughter-in-law who would manage his hard-earned property, he posted a notice that he would make a maiden, who could live a month with two pounds of rice, his daughter-in-law.

Since it was announced that a rich man would choose his future daughter-in-law, many maidens, even from his neighboring villages, streamed to the rich man's house.

However, they were all bewildered after they each received only two pounds of rice as their food for a month.

A month passed and the maidens who participated in the test began to gather again at the rich man's house. Some of them looked as lean as a rake because they ate very small amounts of rice a day, dividing the two pounds of rice into thirty days.

Some gave up the test because they ate to the full in the beginning and then starved later. While almost all of them were showing up with haggard faces, a maiden appeared with a lively face, carrying a cart full of rice.

The rich man asked her, "Every other maiden is carried on someone's back, being exhausted with hunger. How come you are all right?"

"You gave us a test to live a month only with two pounds of rice. However, it is impossible to live in such a condition. I thought that you intended something else.

So I grinded the rice at a mill, made rice cakes, and sold them at a market. With the profit, I bought rice and made rice cakes again and sold them. Repeating this, I could eat enough, and have brought rice much more than what you gave me."

As the maiden finished her answer, the rich man said gladly, "You are worthy to be my daughter-in-law."

After setting a goal of living a month with two pounds of rice, the wise maiden thought about how to achieve the goal over and over again, and finally she discovered the rich man's intention. As she had a clear goal and was firmly determined to achieve it, she was able to find the way to obtain the goal.

If we spend time meaninglessly without any goal, we cannot gain any good result. In preaching the gospel, when we set a goal, we come to think over it and have the will to put the word of God into practice.

If we set a goal of leading a person to the truth, we come to think about his soul and become considerate of him and love him. Even those who previously didn't tolerate any unpleasant remarks from others come to learn perseverance and know the joy of saving a soul and realize what love is, while leading a person to God. Without a goal, there is no thought; without thought, there is no action; without action, there is no fruit.

Therefore, we must set a goal in the truth.

Those who press on toward a goal

If we set a definite goal for a spiritual thing and try to achieve it, through the result we can check ourselves whether we did our best to bear fruit according to the goal or wasted our time away in vague thoughts.

Mt 25:1-7 "At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were wise. The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any oil with them. The wise, however, took oil in jars along with their lamps. The bridegroom was a long time in coming, and they all became drowsy and fell asleep. At midnight the cry rang out: 'Here's the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!' Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps."

In the above parable of Jesus, the goal of the ten virgins was to meet the bridegroom. The five virgins, who were keenly conscious of the goal, thought over how to complete the goal and even prepared extra oil for the case the bridegroom would be late. Eventually, those who had a clear sense of goal were able to receive the bridegroom.

In the succeeding parable of the talents, we can learn the same lesson.

Mt 25:13-23 . . . "Again, it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents of money, to another two talents, and to another one talent, each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey. The man who had received the five talents went at once and put his money to work [KJV: traded with the same] and gained five more. So also, the one with the two talents gained two more. But the man who had received the one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. The man who had received the five talents brought the other five. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with five talents. See, I have gained five more.' . . . "The man with the two talents also came. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with two talents; see, I have gained two more.' His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!'

The man who received two talents and the man who received five talents set a goal to gain more talents until their master came back, and they thought over how to reach the goal and made ceaseless efforts.

Jesus stated that those who gained more talents would share their master's happiness. By this Jesus meant that God would be pleased with them and give rewards to them and grant them the right to enter the heavenly banquet.

Since Apostle Paul realized this, he kept his faith, pressing on toward the goal, and was confident and proud of his life, saying that the crown of righteousness was waiting for him.

Likewise, when we have a goal, we can act with conviction. The reason that the young David was able to defeat Goliath, whom even the veterans feared, was because he had a definite goal of destroying Goliath who was defying God. It was also because he firmly believed that God would give him strength and wisdom to beat the enemy.

No goals get no results

A life with goals is beautiful. To achieve a goal people take action; and through the action, a certain outcome is produced. However, a life without goals gains nothing. A goal changes one's life like that.

There is a great difference in action and result between the person who has a goal in life and the person who lives aimlessly without any goal. In the parable of the talents, the man who received one talent hid his talent in the ground, thinking, 'It would be ok if I return the talent to the master when he comes back.' He never thought that he would gain more talents through the one given to him. Because he had no goal, he complacently idled away his time playing and sleeping. Like the lazy servant, if we spend time meaninglessly without thinking of God's will, what result will we meet on the day God comes with glory?

Mt 25:24-30 "Then the man who had received the one talent came. 'Master,' he said, 'I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. So I was afraid and went out and hid your talent in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.' His master replied, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed? Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest. Take the talent from him and give it to the one who has the ten talents. For everyone who has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him. And throw that worthless servant outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'"

The servant who hid one talent in the ground never considered earning more talents and ended up with the one talent. In other words, he did not carry out his master's command, "Trade with the talent given to you." The words "trade with the talent" implies "earn many more talents with it."

Finally, the master commanded that the worthless servant, who only kept the one talent till the end, be thrown into the darkness.

The man who had no goal gained nothing no matter whether he was capable or not, but the men who had a goal gained fruitful results according to their abilities.

Thinking of what the differences were in results between the man who received one talent and the men who received two and five talents each, let's reflect on ourselves—"When were we able to gain more talents in our life of faith?"

In preaching the gospel, he who tries hard to completely deliver the will of God can gain many more talents. In listening to a sermon, he who has a goal always thinks about what the preacher tries to deliver, what he himself should learn and realize spiritually, and how he will make use of the contents of the sermon for preaching. Such a man makes a remarkable growth in faith although it's not been so long since he received the truth. However, in case of a man who just sits and hears the sermon without a goal, he is not moved by the sermon and does not show any progress in faith even though he's been in the truth for ten years or more; he is like the servant who received one talent.

If a person's today is like yesterday and his tomorrow is like today, he will leave nothing while walking the path to heaven, like the man who received one talent and hid it in the ground. We should always think over what our goal is in our life of faith, how many talents we have gained till now, and how close we have come to our goal, rather than boast of how long we've been in the truth.

God helps those who make efforts

Jacob, who had worked for his uncle Laban without wages, married Rachel and had children. So he asked Laban to give him speckled or spotted sheep and goats as his wages. From this time, Jacob had a goal. In order to gain speckled or spotted sheep and goats, he made white stripes on the branches by peeling the bark and put the branches in all the watering troughs, so that they would be directly in front of the flocks when they came to drink. When the flocks were in heat and came to drink, they mated in front of the branches. And they bore young that were speckled or spotted. It is difficult to explain in terms of biology, but the Bible recorded that Jacob grew exceedingly prosperous after he set a goal.

A life without a goal is meaningless and burdensome, but when we run toward a goal, our life is always full of delight. Let's set goals aligned with God's will and pray to God to achieve the goals and preach the truth, not just waiting without any concrete effort and action. Then we will be able to experience the joy of achieving the goals one by one and our faith will also grow.

When we look back on our past, we can realize that we prayed more earnestly when we had a goal. When we set a goal for fruit, we come to pray for fruit; after we bear fruit, we come to pray for the fruit to grow in faith. Thus, when we have a goal, prayer springs up from us. "Pray continually." This command also implies that we should press on toward a goal continually.

A good result is given when we try hard for a goal: No pains, no gains. If we set a goal, God helps us according to that goal. He gives more blessings to those who strive with earnestness. We should seek help from heaven, not from the earth.

A wild boar likes acorns. After eating acorns fallen under a tree, it digs the ground continuously. Actually, acorns have fallen from a tree, but the wild boar thinks that acorns come from the ground because he ate them on the ground. That's why he digs up the ground. Likewise, if we try to find a solution only through our current situations and circumstances on this earth, we are not different from the foolish wild boar. If we believe that all help and power come from above and pray to God and run toward our goal diligently, God will surely grant us good results.

Now, our lost heavenly family members hear the voice of Father and Mother and are coming to Zion from all around the world. It's because we have firmly believed that God is with us and have set a firm goal to save the whole world by practicing God's word. Since everything is fulfilled as God has promised, we only need to believe and follow God. Let's answer God's calling and preach the Word with fervent faith until this gospel is preached to Samaria and to the ends of the earth, so that we can quickly find all of our lost brothers and sisters. Instead of merely hoping to receive many rewards in heaven, let's set a goal for the heavenly glory and take action to achieve the goal.

God bless you and Happy New Year.

Once I read the words that define home as follows: "Home is the kingdom of a father, the world of a mother, and the paradise of children." The reason "home can be the kingdom of a father, the world of a mother, and the paradise of children" is that at home there are careful consideration and love among family members.

We are the members of the heavenly family, so we should unite in love.

God refines us in the crucible of our "family," where all our evil, worldly passions such as quarreling, hate and jealousy melt away, so that we may have good character like a crystal and change into love. In order to re-create each of us to be a new person full of love, God has built a fence called "family" for us, both physically and spiritually.

The opposite of "love" is "hate." Hate is the most unnecessary thing we must throw away in the process of changing into the people of the everlasting kingdom of God. When we get rid of all the hate from our minds and fill our hearts with love, we can be completely reborn as the people of heaven.

Thanksgiving is the way to defeat hate

A man had a serious argument with his wife in the morning and went out of his house. Trying to calm himself down, he walked down the road. Just at the right moment, the refreshing breeze blew gently, the rays of the sun pierced through the clouds to shine brightly, and the translucent bright green leaves danced in the breeze. Seeing and feeling the beauty of nature, he felt as if he was standing in paradise.

Then he realized that God opened the windows of heaven and was bestowing boundless blessings and joy upon him, even though He has the power to put him to death because he had committed sin against Him. It was for a very trivial reason that he was angry at his wife and hated her, but God had more than a thousand times bigger reason to be enraged at him. When he thought that way, he hurried back home and made up with his wife.

The confession of the man shows us well what kind of mindset we need to have in order to remove hate from our hearts. The moment he was thankful to God, all the hate he had disappeared. If we are conscious of God and thankful to Him like that, we will be able to overcome and reject all the feelings of hate that we may have in our lives.

Everything we feel angry about or hate is nothing compared with our sins deserving God's everlasting wrath and punishment. Now, let's take some time to think about how obediently we follow God's command, "Love one another," in our spiritual family.

History of hate between brothers

The book of Genesis describes the first hate crime in human history and the origin of sin caused by it.

Ge 4:1-8 . . . Cain brought some of the fruits of the soil as an offering to the LORD. But Abel brought fat portions from some of the firstborn of his flock. The LORD looked with favor on Abel and his offering, but on Cain and his offering he did not look with favor. So Cain was very angry, and his face was downcast. Then the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry? Why is your face downcast? If you do what is right, will you not be accepted? But if you do not do what is right, sin is crouching at your door; it desires to have you, but you must master it." Now Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go out to the field." And while they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

The feeling of hate that Cain had resulted in his killing his brother Abel, and he became the first murderer in human history. Hate brings about such cruel and hideous crimes. That's why God always teaches us to be compassionate to one another and forgive each other, and also has given us a command—"Love one another." We must not hate our brothers and sisters like Cain but share God's love with them from our hearts.

Ge 27:41-45 Esau held a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing his father had given him. He said to himself, "The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob." When Rebekah was told what her older son Esau had said, she sent for her younger son Jacob and said to him, "Your brother Esau is consoling himself with the thought of killing you. Now then, my son, do what I say: Flee at once to my brother Laban in Haran. Stay with him for a while until your brother's fury subsides. When your brother is no longer angry with you and forgets what you did to him, I'll send word for you to come back from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?"

The history of hate between brothers is also found in the story of Jacob and Esau. One of them obtained a blessing, but the other lost it. Then the one who lost the blessing became jealous and envious of the one who received it, and finally he intended to kill his brother.

Ge 37:4-5 When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of them, they hated him and could not speak a kind word to him. Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him all the more.

In the above verse, we can see that hatred arose among Joseph's brothers when they felt jealous or envious of each other, thinking their father loved one of them more than the rest. Likewise, if we don't love one another but hate each other, it will bring about irrevocable results. God shows compassion equally to each and every one of us. He gives the blessings of the sunshine to everyone, not giving some people more and others less, whether they are righteous or wicked. This is the heart of Heavenly Father, and so is the heart of Heavenly Mother. Her mind is broad and deep like the sea enough to cover up all the people's faults, as stated in the ninth Teaching of Mother. Resembling the heart of God, we should also have a broad mind enough to cover up our brothers and sisters' faults, as the sea receives all the dirt and purifies it.

Do not be like Cain

Why did God let the stories of those who hated their brothers and tried to kill them be recorded in the Bible? It is because God wants us, His holy people who will become perfect as heavenly beings, to learn a lesson even from the history of hate and consider it a warning. God teaches us not to hate each other but to love one another.

Lev 19:17 " 'Do not hate your brother in your heart. Rebuke your neighbor frankly so you will not share in his guilt.' "

From now on, we must get rid of hate completely. If you happen to hate a brother in your heart, you must remove the hate with the eraser of forgiveness and help him produce fruit worthy of Father and Mother. This is what God wants us to do first and foremost in the new covenant.

1 Jn 3:11-16 This is the message you heard from the beginning: We should love one another. Do not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own actions were evil and his brother's were righteous. Do not be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you. We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love our brothers. Anyone who does not love remains in death. Anyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life in him. This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers.

"Do not be like Cain" means "do not hate your brothers."

If we become angry, hate or have a grudge against brothers and sisters because their words and behaviors offend and displease us, we may spiritually commit the same kind of crime as that of Cain. The Bible warns us that if we do not love our brothers and sisters, we remain in death.

While we live in this world, there may be misunderstandings and quarrels, big or small. For the same thing, some do not think it is a factor that can cause offense or enmity, but it can cause others to feel angry or hate. If we are always thankful to God for everything He has given us and are content and joyful whatever circumstances we are in, there will be no hate in our hearts anymore.

Satan once prowled around the world to sow the seeds of hate, and there were numerous good places to plant the seeds of hate. Most people's hearts had moderate temperatures and conditions for the seeds of hatred to germinate and grow. However, the hearts of some people didn't have good conditions for hate to grow at all, and Satan failed to sow the seeds of hate in them. They were the people who always had a thankful heart. A thankful heart is the soil which prevents hate from growing and helps love grow ripe. In the soil of gratitude, a seed of hate can never grow. The fruit of love is borne only in the soil of gratitude.

If we have regarded our brothers and sisters' faults as big and felt offended by them and also have had a distorted view of Zion because of a feeling of hate, we must destroy all the hate with love. When we always have a thankful heart to Father and Mother for Their grace, anything annoying or distressing will never happen to us. Let us only sow the seeds of love in the soil of our thankful hearts. Then joy and gladness will always be found in Zion, and thanksgiving and the sound of singing will not cease there (Isa 51:3).

Love blooms in a thankful heart

1 Jn 4:7-11 Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

We must love one another as God has told us to. Sometimes we may feel heartbroken or hurt because of brothers and sisters' ways of speaking and behaving, which are different from ours. However, we did more cruel and wicked acts against God and spoke more offensive words to Him. Despite all that, God embraces us in His loving arms, lets the warm sunlight shine on us, and allows us to feel the verdure of nature and to breathe the fresh air.

If we look around us with a thankful heart, we can experience a miracle every day and words of admiration will continuously come out of our mouths. On the contrary, if our gratitude ceases, our hearts will only be filled with hate. Engraving God's word—"Love one another"—in our hearts, let's take a look at another teaching that we should always be thankful and try to be good to each other.

1 Th 5:12-22 Now we ask you, brothers, . . . Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Live in peace with each other. And we urge you, brothers, warn those who are idle, encourage the timid, help the weak, be patient with everyone. Make sure that nobody pays back wrong for wrong, but always try to be kind to each other and to everyone else. Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus. Do not put out the Spirit's fire; do not treat prophecies with contempt. Test everything. Hold on to the good. Avoid every kind of evil.

God tells us to live in peace with each other and try to be kind to everyone in all circumstances. We must not have a feeling of enmity or hate towards anyone, although he or she doesn't have the same thoughts as us; rather, we should always be good to everyone. This is the teaching and commandment of Father and Mother. They also tell us to be joyful always and give thanks in all circumstances. If we are always thankful to Father and Mother, there will be no complaint, no grumbling and no hate in our hearts.

'Is there something about me that causes my brothers and sisters to have feelings of hate? Do I hate any brother or sister? Am I grumbling? Am I losing gratitude?' Reflecting upon ourselves again, let's think of Father and Mother. Everything will be solved if we are conscious of God. Satan attacks us when we do not think of God but stay away from Him. It was during Adam's absence that Eve was tempted by the serpent. Likewise, if we stay away from God, we give Satan an opportunity to tempt us.

Giving thanks in all circumstances, let us remove all the hate and make Zion—God's house, where the heavenly family members are gathered together, the true "kingdom of Father, the world of Mother, and the paradise of us, Their children." Let's make Zion a place full of Father and Mother's love, a place without hate, a place filled with gratitude, and a place where our prayers and consideration for one another do not cease, so that our brothers and sisters' pain, sorrow and hardship, which they have suffered in this world, will all melt away the moment they enter Zion. I earnestly hope that all our brothers and sisters in Zion will always remember the sacrifice of Father and Mother, have no hate, pray continually, and overflow with gratitude.

I believe God gave me this verse specifically for this site, that anyone under the influence of WMSCOG or any other "christian" group which claims differing doctrine to be "sound" or "correct", or whom claims to have seen Christ return and such.

2 Tim. 4:3-5 -

"3For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers; 4 and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to fables. 5 But you be watchful in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry."

WMSCOG, as I have respectively pointed out more than enough times and will continue to do thus until they realize the truth, claims that Jesus Christ the Jewish man has been reincarnated into the body of the Korean man Ahn Sang Hong, who was born into a Buddhist family before converting to Seventh Day Adventism. If this is the Christ, why was Jesus Christ the Jewish man born into a pagan family? Why did the angels tell the disciples to not worry because the "same" Jesus who ascended would descend again one day in the same manner? If Jesus Christ the Jewish man will remain the same, we can expect His scars that Thomas touched will still be on His Jewish body. Maybe I'm incorrect in my thinking, but I don't believe just because Christ has a glorified body that His body will be changed in the least, for the angels in scripture have said the SAME Christ will return again.

Acts 1:11

"Which also said, You men of Galilee, why stand you gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as you have seen him go into heaven."

The SAME Christ who had a glorified body after His death, yet had scars. This same body will return someday. The scriptures point nothing remotely "new" about Christ's body upon His return.

Having said this, the WMSCOG has good intentions. They wish to further the kingdom of God, and while many of the leaders are pigs in it for control and power, I believe many of the followers are very devoted to God and simply want to worship Him in the best way they possibly can. And this is why I urge them to leave the Church of God and find a church group of sound doctrine. I understand they have many good points, many that make sense. But there are too many holes they leave out. They tend to behave as robots, having the same answer for each and every question. In some ways, this unifies their church in doctrine. In others, it perverts the very point of being a Christian – owning your own faith. To be a true Christian, we must follow Christ. To follow Christ, we need to know Christ. To know Christ, we pray, meditate and study His word. To study the Word, we must think objectively. To think objectively, we must think outside of the box and lean on the Holy Spirit to open things up for us, and not be stuck on one particular doctrine just because our home church claims it's true.

My prayer deeply in the spirit is that members of COG would have their spirit's eyes opened, that the true Jesus Christ would be revealed to them one by one.

The COG started out with good intentions.. but when they claim a man is Christ who clearly has no background as the same Christ we read about who was on this earth 2000 years ago, they cross a fine line.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_people_claimed_to_be_Jesus

There is an enormous list of people claiming to be Jesus Christ, all of which have many "prophetical" and "biblical" so-called "proofs" to back up their claims.. but they all fail to be without some form of error no matter how close they get.

Matt. 24:5 "For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many."

Matt. 24:26 "If therefore they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the wilderness; go not forth: Behold, he is in the inner chambers; believe it not."

I don't know about you all, but my Bible tells me Jesus told His followers to not believe anyone when they say they have found Christ. Why do I need someone to tell me Christ has come again when I know my Father's voice? Will I not hear my own Father's voice when my risen Savior has come? Do I not have the Holy Spirit residing in my spirit, for when I gave up my life to Him He entered into my soul? Do you not think I know the very sound of my Creator's maddeningly loud voice? I know my God, and I don't need anyone to tell me He has come back. I don't need anyone to tell me the Holy Spirit has given us the Heavenly Mother.. because if He wanted me to know, He would've told me Himself... because when the curtain in the inner temple was literally torn in two, and when Jesus Christ was resurrected, and the Holy Spirit was given to the believers in the upper room on Pentecost, that's when the power of Christ came upon any who should be adopted by the Father. This is truth, this is scripture, inerrant and flawless, no holes, no strings attached.

Believe, please believe.. for the very sake of worship to the One True God.

God has given mankind the Bible in order to ultimately save their souls. Through the Bible, we must meet God our Savior.

The Bible contains many parables. Among them, the history of the Garden of Eden in the book of Genesis shows us how men committed sin in heaven and were cast down to the earth. If we realize the true meaning hidden in this parable, we will be able to break the chain of death that binds us.

Reply

The Bible says that there are two kinds of people: those who are given the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, and those who are not (Mt 13:10-16). Those who are given the knowledge of the secrets are indeed blessed; they are given the promise of entering the kingdom of heaven.

The sin of eating from the tree of knowledge of good and evil, and the tree of life

When we study the history of the Garden of Eden, we can see that God commanded Adam and Eve not to eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, but they ate the forbidden fruit, being tempted by the serpent, and came to die after all.

Ge 2:16-17 And the Lord God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat of it you will surely die."

Ge 3:1-6 "You will not surely die," the serpent said to the woman. "For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it.

The serpent represents the devil (Rev 12:9). The devil, who is crafty and knows the psychological weaknesses of human beings, approached them and tempted them to commit sin and die.

Actually, the story of Adam and Eve who sinned in the Garden of Eden is a recomposed story of us who sinned in heaven; it helps us understand how we sinned in heaven. All human beings, who are born on this earth, are destined to die because of their sins like Adam and Eve. However, there was the tree of life in the Garden of Eden; if anyone ate from the tree, he would live even though he was once doomed to die because of eating from the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

Ge 3:22-24 And the Lord God said, "The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live forever." So the Lord God banished him from the Garden of Eden to work the ground from which he had been taken. After he drove the man out, he placed on the east side of the Garden of Eden cherubim and a flaming sword flashing back and forth to guard the way to the tree of life.

God drove Adam and Eve, who had sinned, out of the Garden of Eden and let cherubim guard the way to the tree of life with a flaming sword.

Forgiveness of sins given through the shedding of blood
As Adam bitterly lamented after losing the tree of life, God showed him the way to eat from the tree of life again (Heb 11:4, 13). Adam testified this truth to his sons. Cain did not accept the truth and offered the products of the soil, but Abel obeyed the truth and sacrificed a lamb with its blood symbolizing the precious blood of Christ. God refused Cain's offering and only accepted Abel's sacrifice (Ge 4:1-5).

Heb 9:22 In fact, the law requires that nearly everything be cleansed with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

Abel offered a blood sacrifice to God, while Cain presented some of his crops as an offering to Him in his own way. That was why God did not accept Cain's offering. The Bible says that without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness. So, people had to offer a sacrifice with the shedding of blood when they asked God for forgiveness of sins, so that they could be freed from the sin of eating from the tree of knowledge of good and evil and could eat from the tree of life.

The practice of the blood-shedding sacrifice, which had been handed down from generation to generation since Abel, was codified in the time of Moses, and it was in the sanctuary that the blood sacrifice was made in accordance with the Law of Moses.

Ex 25:9-21 "Make this tabernacle and all its furnishings exactly like the pattern I will show you. Have them make a chest of acacia wood . . . Then put in the ark the Testimony, which I will give you. Make an atonement cover of pure gold . . . The cherubim are to have their wings spread upward, overshadowing the cover with them. The cherubim are to face each other, looking toward the cover. Place the cover on top of the ark and put in the ark the Testimony, which I will give you."

The sanctuary, where sacrifices were made every day, was partitioned into two parts: the outer room called the "Holy Place," and the inner room called the "Most Holy Place." In the Most Holy Place was placed the ark of the covenant, and there were two cherubim above the cover of the ark, called the "Mercy Seat."

The two cherubim, who had guarded the way to the tree of life in Eden, were stationed over the ark of the covenant. This suggests that the tree of life was in the ark of the covenant. The two cherubim who guarded the ark of covenant also had a flaming sword. So, when Uzzah put his hand on the ark by mistake, he was killed; and when the two sons of Aaron violated the command of God, a fire came out of the ark and devoured them to death (2 Sa 6:1-7; Lev 10:1-3).

Only the high priest could enter the Most Holy Place once a year; but without the shedding of blood, he couldn't enter. God accepted the sacrifice of Abel because he offered the blood-shedding sacrifice to Him. Likewise, the shedding of blood was required when the high priest entered the Most Holy Place where the guardian cherubim were stationed. All these laws of the Old Testament were a copy and shadow of the realities that would come in the future.

Heb 10:1-4 The law is only a shadow of the good things that are coming—not the realities themselves. For this reason it can never, by the same sacrifices repeated endlessly year after year, make perfect those who draw near to worship. . . . because it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

Heb 10:9 Then he said, "Here I am, I have come to do your will." He sets aside the first to establish the second.

Heb 10:16-20 "This is the covenant I will make with them after that time, says the Lord. I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds." Then he adds: "Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more." And where these have been forgiven, there is no longer any sacrifice for sin. . . . by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, The law of the Old Testament, which was a shadow, never made perfect the people of God. Only the blood of Christ, who was the reality of sacrifice, could bring them the perfect forgiveness of sins. So, God abolished the old covenant and established the new covenant through the blood of Christ.

Jesus is the reality of the sanctuary and the ark of the covenant

The provisions of the Law, given to Moses by God, seem to be complicated at first sight, but in them there is God's providence for the forgiveness of our sins.

Heb 9:1-5 Now the first covenant had regulations for worship and also an earthly sanctuary. A tabernacle was set up. In its first room were the lampstand, the table and the consecrated bread; this was called the Holy Place. Behind the second curtain was a room called the Most Holy Place, which had the golden altar of incense and the gold-covered ark of the covenant. This ark contained the gold jar of manna, Aaron's staff that had budded, and the stone tablets of the covenant . . . When the Israelites were in the desert, they could not build a fixed temple because they had to move very often, so they had a tabernacle [sanctuary] built according to the pattern of the temple. Jesus said that His body was the temple.

Jn 2:19-21 The Jews replied, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and you are going to raise it in three days?" But the temple he had spoken of was his body.

The reality of the temple was Jesus. In this temple [sanctuary] was the ark of the covenant which contained the gold jar of manna, Aaron's staff that had budded, and the stone tablets of the covenant which Moses had received from God. Considering the fact that the two cherubim were guarding the ark, we can clearly see that the ark of the covenant or the three sacred things inside it symbolize the tree of life, that is, Christ. First, let's confirm that the manna represents Christ.

Jn 6:31-35 "Our forefathers ate the manna in the desert; as it is written: 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'" . . . Then Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never go hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty."

The Israelites had eaten manna from heaven while sojourning in the desert for 40 years until they entered the land of Canaan. This manna was put in a gold jar, and it was placed in the ark of the covenant. As Jesus testified that "I am the bread of life," the manna represents Jesus who is life.

Second, let's think about the meaning of Aaron's staff that had budded. God distinguished Aaron as the high priest through this staff (Nu 17:1-11). Then, why did God place the staff, which was a symbol of the high priest, in the ark of the covenant?

Heb 5:8-10 Although he was a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered and, once made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him and was designated by God to be high priest in the order of Melchizedek.

The sprouted staff of Aaron was also a symbolic representation of Jesus, which showed that Jesus would come to the earth as the high priest. Lastly, let's find out the reason why God had the stone tablets put in the ark of the covenant.

Jn 1:1-14 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. . . . The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

Jesus is God, the Word that came in the flesh. So, the tablets of the covenant also represent Jesus, who is God—the Word.

God stationed two cherubim on the cover of the ark of the covenant to guard the manna, Aaron's staff and the tablets of the covenant. This showed that Jesus would appear as the reality of the tree of life that the cherubim were guarding.

The tree of life given through the Passover

Jesus Himself testified that He is the reality of the tree of life.

Jn 6:53-57 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me."

God said He would give us the tree of life to eat. This will be the only good news for human beings, who are destined to die because of eating from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life." By saying this Jesus meant that He would allow us to eat from the tree of life.

It was God who let the cherubim guard the way to the tree of life so that sinners could not approach it. So, no one except God can open the way to the tree of life again and save us, sinners. Jesus promised us eternal life through His precious flesh and blood. Therefore, without a doubt, Jesus is God Himself. He taught us how to eat His flesh and drink His blood while establishing the Passover of the new covenant, saying, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer" (Mt 26:17-28; Mk 14:12-24; Lk 22:7-20).

However, Satan, who hates the truth of the tree of life, instigated people to raise controversy over the Passover three times—in A.D. 155, A.D. 197 and A.D. 325—and finally abolished the Passover during the Council of Nicaea. The Passover, which the Eastern Churches regarded as very important and celebrated continuously, was abolished; instead, Easter, the first Sunday after the Passover, was celebrated, as determined by the Western Churches.

This was the fulfillment of Daniel's prophecy that the one who spoke against God would change the set times and the laws of God (Da 7:25). However, there was also a prophecy that God would come again and restore the truth of life—the Passover of the new covenant, which was trampled on by Satan.

Although there were numerous theologians who studied the Bible over centuries, none of them could realize the truth of the Passover. It's because the tree of life can only be given by God.

God who opened the way to the tree of life

Anyone could not enter the Most Holy Place where the tree of life was placed, but only the high priest could enter there once every year. Jesus came as the high priest in the order of Melchizedek and opened the way to the tree of life.

Heb 6:17-20 . . . We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, where Jesus, who went before us, has entered on our behalf. He has become a high priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek.

The blood of all the animals, which were offered in sacrifice to God in the sanctuary in the Old Testament times, represented the blood of Christ. He came as the high priest in the order of Melchizedek, and through His precious blood He tore the curtain that separated the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place in the sanctuary. By doing so, Jesus opened the way to the Most Holy Place so that anyone could enter it and come to the tree of life.

The Bible says that Christ, who came to this earth to give mankind life 2,000 years ago, is to come a second time for the same purpose—to give us life, to bring salvation to us.

Heb 9:28 so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

So, the Second Coming Christ is to bring us the truth of the tree of life—the Passover. By doing that, He is to open all the secrets, which have been sealed from the time of the Garden of Eden until this age of the Holy Spirit.

Those who are not allowed to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven will not understand them; though seeing, they will not see; though hearing, they will not hear. In the days of Jesus, the Pharisees and the teachers of the law did not recognize Jesus, but some fishermen and shepherds who took care of the sheep in the field recognized Him. Even though they were lower in social standing, they recognized God and worshiped Him correctly, so that they were all blessed. Like them, we are very blessed because we are given the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven in this age.

The Bible testifies that the One who gives us eternal life through the aged wine is our God (Isa 25:6-9). Christ Ahnsahnghong has restored the Passover of the new covenant, which has been hidden for a long time since A.D. 325. Surely, He is our Savior in this age, whom we have been waiting for.

God has come to this earth and made known to us all the secrets of the kingdom of heaven in order to save us, sinners, who were expelled from heaven after eating from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil and destined to die forever. I earnestly hope that we, children of God, will all receive the blessing of the forgiveness of sins, given by our God Ahnsahnghong who has brought the tree of life, and WILL RETURN TO THE ETERNAL KINGDOM OF HEAVEN. God bless you.

Heb. 11:13 All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance, admitting that they were foreigners and strangers on earth. 14 People who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own. 15 IF THEY HAD BEEN THINKING OF THE COUNTRY THEY HAD LEFT, THEY WOULD HAVE HAD OPPORTUNITY TO RETURN. 16 INSTEAD, THEY WERE LONGING FOR A BETTER COUNTRY—A HEAVENLY ONE. THEREFORE GOD IS NOT ASHAMED TO BE CALLED THEIR GOD, FOR HE HAS PREPARED A CITY FOR THEM.

Thanks to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem for bringing us the light in this dark world and reminding us that we came from our hometown Kingdom of Heaven and calling us to return to our heavenly country Kingdom of Heaven. God bless you.

By the grace of God, we have been called to become the people of Zion and received redemption; our countless sins and transgressions have been forgiven. Since we have received such overwhelming grace, we should live a life of repentance perfect enough for us to stand before God. As the day of our salvation comes closer, if we are still going against the will of God with our sinful nature, stubbornness and unrepentant hearts, the forgiveness of sins that we have received will lose its meaning.

Originally, we are sinners who committed grievous sins in heaven and were cast down to this earth. Keeping this fact in mind, we should always humble ourselves before God. We must not betray the love of God who has redeemed us from our sins through His holy sacrifice, but should give thanks in all circumstances and come to complete repentance.

God waits for a sinner to repent

2,000 years ago, when Jesus came to this earth and started His gospel ministry, His first message was "Repent!" In the Bible we can see many scenes where Jesus urged people to repent while preaching the gospel. Mt 4:12-17 When Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, he returned to Galilee. Leaving Nazareth, he went and lived in Capernaum, which was by the lake in the area of Zebulun and Naphtali . . . From that time on Jesus began to preach, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near."

Lk 15:7 "I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent."

Remembering the voice of Christ who urged mankind to repent, let us examine ourselves if there is still anything of which we have not fully repented, and live a life worthy of being called the "righteous people" who have been redeemed through God's sacrifice. We should not conform to the pattern of this generation that is wicked in the eyes of God, but only pay attention to the teachings of God, so that we can repay God for His grace; God has raised us who were dead in our transgressions and sins.

Ro 2:4-5 Or do you show contempt for the riches of his kindness, tolerance and patience, not realizing that God's kindness leads you toward repentance? But because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of God's wrath, when his righteous judgment will be revealed.

It is written that people will face God's wrath on the Day of Judgment because of their stubbornness and their unrepentant hearts. In short, it means that they will not be saved. Some people think that God does not know their faults and wrongdoings. This is a great misunderstanding. They think so because they do not completely believe in God. If they try to hide something before God, claiming to believe that God is omniscient, omnipotent and omnipresent, they contradict themselves. God knows everything and tolerates it. He patiently waits for a long time until we confess our sins and repent. We should realize God's mercy and confess every sin to God without even hiding a small one, so that we may have perfect faith.

Since we have not fully repented, God is still waiting patiently. However, the opportunity and the time granted to us will pass soon. Before it is too late, let us look back on our past lives and confess every sin and repent, not leaving out a single particle of sin, so we can all go back to the kingdom of heaven.

2 Pe 3:8-13 But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day. The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare. Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming. . . .

God is so merciful and compassionate that He truly wants everyone to be saved without being condemned. However, evildoers do not hesitate to behave as they please, thinking that God does not know their evil deeds, even though God has been so patient with them. They stubbornly refuse to repent no matter how long God waits for them to come to repentance. That's why God cannot help but bring judgment on them.

We, God's heirs, should look forward to the day of God while living holy and godly lives; we should fear God who will bring every deed into judgment including everything hidden, whether it is good or evil, and obey His words.

Ecc 12:13-14 Now all has been heard; here is the conclusion of the matter: Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. For God will bring every deed into judgment, including every hidden thing, whether it is good or evil.

Let us confess all our sins before God

In ancient Rome, there was a tribune, who was ordered to take criminals by ship to another region. As the criminals boarded the ship, the tribune, who was merciful and wise, called the criminals one after another and asked them how they came to commit crimes, and let them tell their stories. Then all of the 100 criminals began to appeal their punishment, saying they were falsely charged. They all claimed that they were innocent and arrested unreasonably. However, only one criminal confessed his sin.

"I deserve to be imprisoned. When my family ran out of food, I saw my wife and children starving and I lost all senses and stole things from others. It was all my fault and I deserve it."

On hearing his confession, the tribune gave an order to the official beside him.

"All these people have been falsely accused and framed for the sins that others committed. Only one person, however, said he committed sin. How can we put a sinner among the righteous? Get him out of here right away, and take the rest on board!"

Thus, all the criminals who had claimed to be innocent were carried to prison, while the criminal who had confessed and acknowledged his sin was set free. As the criminal who was being released walked away, all the other criminals who denied their sins looked at him with envy.

Likewise, when we confess our sins before God, the merciful God takes pity on us and forgives our sins.

However, if we do not confess our sin but hide it, even though we obviously sinned, we cannot avoid the punishment when the God of justice judges everyone according to the gravity of their sins.

Our every action is revealed before God. We cannot hide even a small misdeed. God the Almighty knows everything and even searches the heart and thoughts of a man, but He wants us to come and confess our sins before Him.

1 Jn 1:6-10 If we claim to have fellowship with him yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not live by the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin. If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar and his word has no place in our lives.

Father's forgiveness

There is an anecdote about Gandhi, the leader of the Indian nationalist movement. In his childhood, he once strayed away from the right path and stole something from his house. But soon it became a big burden on his conscience.

The time of suffering from a guilty conscience was too long, while the moment of sin was very short. More than anything else, he was afraid and tormented as he thought of his father who would get hurt and distressed because of his misconduct.

Gandhi was in constant fear, being seized with a guilty conscience, and finally decided to confess his wrongdoing to his father and never to commit a crime again. He wrote a letter of repentance in which he confessed his every past fault, and gave it to his father.

"Father, forgive me! I made a huge mistake. I swear never to steal again."

He handed the letter to his father in fear. However, his father did not scold him or give him a strict command even after reading it; he just shed tears, which soaked the letter. Gandhi also cried, seeing how heartbroken his father was because of his misconduct. Then he felt like his sin was washed away and his conscience was purified by his father's tears of love.

After that, Gandhi never turned from the right path, but lived a good life since his father's tears were engraved in his memory. As a result, he gained confidence and popularity from the people of India, and he has been remembered as a great politician and philosopher even to this very day.

God, who knows every sin we've committed, waits for us to confess all our sins. Confessing a sin means pledging not to commit the sin again. We are living in a world full of wicked thoughts and deeds. We should confess and repent of every sin we have committed and receive the forgiveness of sins, so that we can be without blemish or defect before God. For this, we should reflect on ourselves and repent through prayer every day, and walk in the way of faith pleasing to Heavenly Father and Mother.

Repentance leads to salvation

Repentance means to turn from sin and not to commit sin again. Now is the time we each should repent of our own sins and then lead the whole world, full of sin, to repentance.

Eze 33:13-16 "If I tell the righteous man that he will surely live, but then he trusts in his righteousness and does evil, none of the righteous things he has done will be remembered; he will die for the evil he has done. And if I say to the wicked man, 'You will surely die,' but he then turns away from his sin and does what is just and right—if he gives back what he took in pledge for a loan, returns what he has stolen, follows the decrees that give life, and does no evil, he will surely live; he will not die. None of the sins he has committed will be remembered against him. He has done what is just and right; he will surely live."

What if a man boasts that he has lived a righteous life and commits a sin, thinking, 'A small sin like this shouldn't matter'? Although he has done what is good and righteous, all his righteousness becomes nothing the moment he sins. On the contrary, although a man committed sin while wandering aimlessly without knowing God, if he turns away from his sin and pays attention to the truth of life, he will surely live and receive salvation. We feel ashamed when we think of our sin, so it is not easy to confess it. Confession needs courage.

Remembering the story of Gandhi who never committed sin again after recognizing his father's heartbreak because of his misconduct, we should confess all our sins, big or small, before God, so we can receive the complete forgiveness of our sins.

God has repeatedly emphasized that unless we confess our sins, we are storing up God's wrath for the day of the Last Judgment. Not only for the sins we committed before we knew God, but even a small single sin we've committed while walking the path of faith, we have to confess and repent. By doing that, we should live godly and gracious lives, apart from sin, according to the will of God.

2 Co 7:9-11 yet now I am happy, not because you were made sorry, but because your sorrow led you to repentance. For you became sorrowful as God intended and so were not harmed in any way by us. Godly sorrow brings repentance that leads to salvation and leaves no regret, but worldly sorrow brings death. . . .

Those who do not repent cannot enter the kingdom of heaven. Just as we cannot clearly see an object with smudged glasses, we cannot correctly realize the divine nature of God, nor can we clearly see the glory of the kingdom of God, with our souls stained with sins. Therefore, through our complete repentance, let us remove our dirty sins that cover up our spiritual eyes, so that we may become righteous and obtain salvation. Actually, most of the contents written in the Bible are about the works of repentance and the words urging repentance. Baptism, the first step towards salvation, can be accomplished when it is accompanied by repentance. If there is any sin that we have not yet confessed before God, whether it is big or small, let us take up courage and confess it and come to the grace of the forgiveness of sins. God is waiting for us, His children, to repent. In the parable of the prodigal son, when the son returned home in repentance after squandering all his wealth, his father didn't reproach him but welcomed him with joy (Lk 15:11-24).

If we fall into the swamp of sins because of our stubbornness and unrepentant hearts, God's wrath will fall upon us. God has forgiven our sins through His great sacrifice of atonement. We should engrave God's forgiving grace deep within our hearts and confess all our sins, even the smallest faults, and be born again, so that we can stand before God without any blemish or defect. Heavenly Father and Mother have waited patiently for us to repent for a long time, and suffered all sorts of insults and hardships for our salvation. Let us give thanks to Father and Mother for Their sacrifice and display the glory of God all over the world through our good and righteous acts, as children of Elohim. God bless you.

Now, the gospel is spreading rapidly and widely throughout the world. I believe that it is a result of the Holy Spirit; God has given more power to our brothers and sisters because they are content wherever they go and always give thanks to Him for everything.

They joyfully work to spread the gospel even in the places where evangelism is tough because of their economic and socio-cultural conditions. All of them say that they walk with the Father and Mother more closely in difficult situations. Since they are always joyful and thankful even in difficulties and hardships, the gospel can rapidly spread throughout the whole world. I am so proud of my brothers and sisters for having such a content heart.

Attitude of evangelists being content whatever the circumstances

We have many missionaries overseas. Let me introduce a young missionary couple who have gone to a country less developed than Korea. Even though circumstances are unfavorable, they always greet brothers and sisters and their neighbors with a smile, setting an example of willingly taking initiative in doing hard work. They are now bearing the fruit of the gospel abundantly. They are admired widely among all native brothers and sisters.

I have been exchanging e-mails with them. I once asked them if they had any difficulties, and they replied to my e-mail, saying that they were more thankful to God for sending them there; as they were preaching the gospel in a poor country rather than in a rich one, they came to realize how much our Father suffered when He began His ministry on this earth and how earnestly our Mother took care of each child at the beginning. I was deeply touched that they were content even under such difficult circumstances and always thankful to Father and Mother. This is the attitude of faith that God wants us to have. It is not enough just to keep the commandments of God.

We are also required to be born again in God. It will be only an outward ceremony just to keep what God has commanded, without being renewed inwardly.

Php 4:10-12 . . . for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want.

If one goes abroad for mission work, having learned to be content like Paul, he can adapt himself to any situation. However, if he becomes discontent with the immediate situation, he can not bear fruit or do the will of God. It is the same with domestic mission work. There is God's plan for the situation we are facing; and God leads us into the places where He has intended for us, in order that He may refine us like gold and silver and give us blessings. We must believe this.

Give thanks in all circumstances

A grateful heart is the result of being content in every situation. Grumbling is the outpouring of a discontent heart. Man's greed knows no bounds; the more he gets, the more he wants. However, we seek the things above and run after them. We must be content and thankful in all circumstances, with an attitude that pleases God.

1 Th 5:13-18 . . . Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Live in peace with each other. And we urge you, brothers, warn those who are idle, encourage the timid, help the weak, be patient with everyone. Make sure that nobody pays back wrong for wrong, but always try to be kind to each other and to everyone else. Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

"Give thanks in all circumstances" means "being thankful in every situation, whether favorable or unfavorable."

This is God's will for us.

Now, let's look around at our brothers and sisters and carefully evaluate our current circumstance. Some of them set good examples to learn from, but some still have personality flaws and show unfavorable examples to avoid. Sometimes we are placed in favorable circumstances, and sometimes in unfavorable ones. However, all our circumstances are the most favorable ones caused by God for our spiritual profit. If we understand the will of God, we cannot thank God enough even though we thank Him ten million times a day.

1 Th 5:9 For God did not appoint us to suffer wrath but to receive salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.

God has called us into Zion and granted us salvation. What more do we want? God has given us all the good things. So, we are to be joyful always, pray continually, and give thanks in all circumstances.

An unthankful person may lose something precious

Though we are in a favorable situation, if we focus on what we are lacking right now, we forget to give thanks and begin to grumble and complain. Here is an example.

There was an engaged couple in America. The man wanted to give his fiancée a wonderful memorable present on New Year's Day. He wholeheartedly prepared five gift boxes and brought them to his future bride. With a fluttering heart, she opened the first box and there was a blue sweater in it. When she looked at it, she made a wry face. The man said, "Didn't you want this blue sweater? You said it was very pretty." Then she said discontentedly, "That's last year's trend. This year's fashion color is orange. Now I want an orange sweater."

The man gave another gift box to her, saying, "This is what you wanted to have. I'm sure you'll like it." The second present was a handbag. It was a high quality handbag made of genuine alligator leather. Its center was protuberant, designed in the shape of a crocodile mouth. She said that she didn't like it because of its childish design, and pushed the bag aside. The third box contained shoes, the fourth a ring, and the fifth a necklace. However, she was continually dissatisfied with every present and grumbled.

The man said in a disappointed voice, "Now I have to exchange it." She became very happy and said, "Let's go and exchange the gifts right now." Then the man said coldly, "No, I don't need to exchange them. I need to exchange my fiancée."

The person who always grumbles and complains is ungrateful for any wonderful gift received. On the contrary, a content person is thankful for every gift, small or large, understanding the heart of its giver who wants to please him/her. If the fiancée had always been thankful, she would have received more gifts. What if she had been thankful to him for his heartfelt gift before she said that she wanted an orange sweater? Her fiancé would also have bought it for her. She was discontent with all the precious gifts, and eventually her fiancé left her. Likewise, most people today fail to give thanks for things to be thankful for, because they do not understand their value, and foolishly they come to lose what is truly precious.

Do not conform to this world

Let's get rid of the habit of being discontent and grumbling. Jesus says that men will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken (Mt 12:36-37). If one speaks thankful words, he will be one step closer to heaven; if he utters grumbling words, he will be one step closer to hell.

2 Ti 3:1-5 But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days. People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God—having a form of godliness but denying its power. Have nothing to do with them.

The Bible teaches us not to conform to this unthankful world. People easily forget favors received. They tend to attribute success to themselves, and failure to others. They are ungrateful, and they can hardly be moved and grateful. They do not give thanks to God for His grace. They easily complain when a small inconvenience happens to them. Jesus tells us to turn away from such people. We are to learn the attitude of being thankful through the teachings of God.

In the days of Jesus, ten lepers were all healed by the word of Jesus, but only one of them came back to thank Jesus after they were healed; and Jesus felt grieved by their ungrateful attitude (Lk 17:11-19).

Because of the current economic recession, many families are suffering from financial hardships. Under this difficult situation, however, if we understand God's will and give thanks to Him, we will be blessed with better circumstances. There is a country where the average family income is only 10% of ours. Nevertheless, the people in that country do not complain about their circumstances. Considering this, it is the discontented people who are really poor and unhappy.

We have the hope for heaven. Though we are in a somewhat difficult situation, we should not be disheartened or resentful, for we have the most precious treasure in the world.

Thanksgiving brings the things to be thankful for. When we are content and satisfied, we can understand God's will—why God put me in these kinds of situations. Now, let's think what we can do for God who has been sacrificed to save us and leads us into the kingdom of heaven.

Isa 14:24 The LORD Almighty has sworn, "Surely, as I have planned, so it will be, and as I have purposed, so it will stand."

God's plan and purpose are to be surely fulfilled. "Give thanks in all circumstances." This is God's will. To thankful people God gives things to be thankful for; to grumbling people He gives things to be ungrateful for. We are to give thanks in any and all circumstances.

Joy comes from contentment; it disappears when discontent arises. If one of us is discontent, Zion cannot overflow with joy. When we are all content with what we have, whether it is little or much, Zion will be perfectly beautiful in God's sight.

We are so thankful to God for saving us. How much more should we thank Him for entrusting us with the precious duty of the ministers of the new covenant? In preaching the gospel, it doesn't matter wherever we are or what position or title we have in the Church.

Discontentment comes from covetousness; as the proverb goes, "Greed has no limits." He who is content with what he has can live a happy and satisfied life. However, a discontent person always wants more than what he has; sometimes he even invents something evil, staying up all night.

Let us learn to be content and joyful in all things. When we are in a difficult situation, we ought to think what God's will is and endure, being more thankful. Jonah the prophet was even placed in the awful situation of being in the belly of a fish. If he had complained in that situation, he would not have been able to fulfill God's purpose to save about 120,000 people in Nineveh. He realized his mistake and repented. And once out of the belly of the fish, he boldly preached God's message, giving thanks to God for saving his life.

Grumbling people are discontent with anything and everything. God placed Jonah in a desperate situation, and enabled him to have the right attitude of faith and to make a glorious achievement deserving of eternal rewards in heaven.

Destruction of grumbling people

We shouldn't be discouraged by our surroundings; like Jonah, we are to remember God's grace and give thanks even in difficult situations.

1 Co 10:4-12 and drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank from the spiritual rock that accompanied them, and that rock was Christ. Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them; their bodies were scattered over the desert. . . . And do not grumble, as some of them did—and were killed by the destroying angel. These things happened to them as examples and were written down as warnings for us, on whom the fulfillment of the ages has come. So, if you think you are standing firm, be careful that you don't fall!

Complaint is an expression of discontentment and dissatisfaction. The Israelites poured out their complaints to God whenever they were a little inconvenienced in the desert. "There is no water. There is no food. Why doesn't God lead us the shortest way? . . . " Thus they continually grumbled, and in the end they failed to enter the land of Canaan; all their bodies fell in the desert. It may be a virtue to feel lacking in many ways. However, if we feel discontent or dissatisfied with what we have, we become grumblers. What happened to the Israelites in the desert serves as a warning for us. When we face difficult situations, if there is God's purpose for us, we should be content; and if we are given favorable circumstances for the propagation of the gospel in accordance with God's will, we should be more content and grateful. By putting us in various situations God purifies and refines us until we reach heaven. Understanding the redemptive purpose of God for us, we are to give thanks in every circumstance or situation, praying that we may find all our lost brothers and sisters. Then God will be pleased and give us more blessings.

God has a purpose for everything. We must find it. Though we are physically poor and lacking, we are spiritually rich. Let us overcome circumstances rather than surrender to them and be more involved in the gospel work.

Let us habitually express our thanks to people around us. As God has taught us, we need to be thankful to each other all the time: at home, husbands to wives, wives to husbands, parents to children and children to parents. Thus, we should spread the practice of gratefulness to our neighbors, society and the whole world. Since people are discontent and envious, wars and disputes arise among them. Let's try harder to make the world a happier place where all are content and thankful. Such is the kingdom of heaven.

When we feel something lacking, let's fill our hearts with contentment and thanksgiving. Then God will give us abundant fruit. I hope all of us in Zion live a content life and receive all blessings by obeying the words of our Heavenly Father and Mother. God bless you Brothers and Sisters.

Mother would say that Father greatly blesses those who give lots of thanks to Him, emphasizing the words of the Bible, "Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus" (1 Th 5:16-18).

I believe that our brothers and sisters in Zion give thanks and glory to God always, just as Mother said. God fulfills everything: It is God Himself who accomplishes the gospel.

When we believe that and give thanks, glory and praise to God for everything, He will quickly lead all our heavenly brothers and sisters, scattered around the world, to Zion. The gospel does not depend on our abilities.

Realizing that, we should devote ourselves to prayer, with thanksgiving and joy, so that we may fully accomplish the gospel entrusted to us by God.

A conductor and his baton

A musician was conducting a large choir before a hymn contest. He put all his energy into conducting, because the contest was a big event to be held in front of many people. When a rehearsal was held the day before the contest, he directed the choir and the members' voices were all well-harmonized. The conductor was very satisfied, and he put down his baton to have a break. Then the baton rolled over to one side and spoke to the stage.

"Stage, stage! Did you see how powerful I was today?"

The stage asked in wonder.

"I've never seen you conduct. How can you now say that you've directed the choir?"

"Didn't you hear the choir singing a few minutes ago? How perfectly did their voices harmonize? Wasn't the sound absolutely massive? How about the dynamic control? I myself conducted the choir."

As the baton spoke boastfully, the stage laughed and replied,

"It is not you who directed the choir. You are merely an instrument used by the conductor. Do you really not know that?"

The baton suddenly burst into anger and said,

"What are you talking about? Didn't you hear the music moving to the beat of the baton? The choir was directed by myself."

While they quarreled with each other, the conductor rose from his seat after taking a break. He looked around but couldn't find the baton. Then he rolled up a sheet of music, which was held in his hand, and started to conduct with it. Though he directed without the baton, the choir sounded even more beautiful than before.

After the song finished, the stage whispered.

"Did you hear the choir singing? You were just held by the conductor, who waved you."

God conducts everything

This is the important point which we must understand:

As ministers of the new covenant, we are like the baton, and God is the Conductor who holds us and accomplishes everything for our salvation.

Isa 46:10-11 "I make known the end from the beginning, from ancient times, what is still to come. I say: My purpose will stand, and I will do all that I please. From the east I summon a bird of prey; from a far-off land, a man to fulfill my purpose. What I have said, that will I bring about; what I have planned, that will I do."

God directs and manages all things. He has been holding us safe and using us until now; He has granted us the capacity to carry out His work. That is why we have become who we are today. It is not because we have a fluent tongue or special ability that God has called us.

Isa 43:1-3 But now, this is what the LORD says—he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: "Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned you by name; you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze. For I am the LORD, your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior . . . "

Ro 11:25-27 . . . "The deliverer will come from Zion; he will turn godlessness away from Jacob. And this is my covenant with them when I take away their sins."

God is our Deliverer in Zion, and we are God's blessed ones in His hands.

Therefore, we should continuously give glory and praise to God for blessing us with salvation. We were sinners who couldn't save ourselves, to say nothing of others. However, God saved us and invited us to participate in the work of preaching the good news for the salvation of souls. We should constantly give thanks and praise to God for using us as His instruments for the gospel.

We are God's instruments for the gospel

As God's instruments, we are to move according to His will so that we may display His glory. This is very significant. If God uses us, we will be given honor and praise in the world (Zep 3:14-20). When we are used by God as His noble instruments in His hands, we can accomplish great things like Paul and Peter did.

We must not think that we can do everything by ourselves like the baton. It is not by our works that we are saved and bear fruit.

We are just like the baton; God holds us in His hands and uses us as His instruments. Only God, our Conductor, can create a graceful and harmonized sound.

It is not the baton itself that deserves praise, but the conductor. God may use a rolled up sheet of music instead of the baton: He can raise up children for Abraham out of stones (Lk 3:8) and use the stones to reveal His will (Lk 19:40). Remembering this, we shall give more thanks and praise to God.

Mt 25:14-17 "Again, it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents of money, to another two talents, and to another one talent, each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey.

The man who had received the five talents went at once and put his money to work and gained five more. . . ."

The Bible teaches that everything we have comes from God. If we each have any talent or strength, it is not our own, but it's a God-given talent that we should properly use for the sake of the gospel.

Everyone has different talents: If a pastor has no ability to do anything, it can be done by a brother or sister; and new brothers and sisters, full of zeal and thanksgiving, bear more fruit than existing members. Considering this, we can see that God's work depends on the attitude of the person whom God has used; it doesn't matter what position or title he/she has and how long he/she has been in the church. God has promised to reward us according to our works. Whatever situations we face, we are to be faithful to God, without neglecting the little things in the gospel.

The attitude of those who are worthy of the kingdom of heaven

As a conductor displays his ability through his baton, so God accomplishes His work through us. God alone is worthy to receive all glory. However, He shares the glory with us. We must not think that we are worthy of such glory.

If we foolishly bring the glory to ourselves, we will not enter the eternal kingdom. In the book of Revelation, we find the elders and the living creatures in heaven constantly giving glory to God who lives for ever and ever.

Rev 4:8-11 Each of the four living creatures . . . Day and night they never stop saying: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come." Whenever the living creatures give glory, honor and thanks to him who sits on the throne and who lives for ever and ever, the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives for ever and ever. They lay their crowns before the throne and say: "You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, . . . "

'O God, we've been saved by Your grace. That is sufficient for us. Moreover, You are now giving us these brilliant crowns. We are not worthy of such glory." With this thought, the elders took off their crowns and laid them before God. This is the attitude of those who are worthy to enter heaven.

God is our Savior, worthy to be praised forever (Ro 9:5).

He alone is worthy to receive glory and honor.

Sing praise to God every day

We, who are in Zion, are blessed ones in God's hands.

We should continuously give thanks to God for using us as a mighty baton in His hand to conduct the whole universe. And we should praise God the mighty Creator who made the universe and everything in it and saved us by His grace. God is worthy to receive our praise and glory for ever and ever; for He created and prepared everything for us.

Eph 1:3-6 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. For he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight. In love he predestined us to be adopted as his sons through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure and will—to the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves.

Thus, the apostles understood the grace of God, and they constantly gave thanks and praise to Him and preached the gospel, full of joy. This is the faith of the Early Church that we are to learn today.

I believe all our brothers and sisters in Zion practice the words, "Be joyful always." It is God Himself who gives us the gift of joy. Remembering that, we shall keep on smiling and praise God every day. If we thus always smile and praise God, we will deeply understand the providence of God who gives us joy and happiness, and He will not regret having saved us but be completely satisfied in us. Let us commit everything to God and submit ourselves under His hand, preaching the gospel to the whole world as ministers of the new covenant. We can bear the fruit of the gospel when giving glory to God

In 2003, when the Daegu subway fire tragedy occurred, our brothers and sisters provided free meals for the bereaved families and consoled them for a couple of months. I received many favorable comments on the volunteer work, and I was especially pleased to hear that not only the bereaved families but also other religious volunteer groups were all deeply impressed by our church members and constantly commended them for giving glory to God alone. They said that while other people sought glory for themselves, the members of the Church of God gave all glory to God, saying that God had taught them to do good work and given them the opportunity to do such volunteer work.

Without God's teachings, we would not become what we are today and the Church of God would not become what it is today, either. We give thanks to God for having called us to be His children. We shall continually give glory and praise to our Heavenly Father and Mother for leading us all.

It is not by the baton itself that a beautiful and harmonized sound is created, but by the conductor's ability. God is our Conductor directing the spiritual world: He has used us, people of Zion, as His instruments. When we harmonize with each other and give glory, praise, thanks and honor to God for everything, God's work of salvation will be accomplished quickly.

In order to preach the gospel to the whole world—even to the ends of the earth, we should all be held in God's hand and guided by Him. Although there is a gold baton, it is useless unless it is held in a conductor's hand.

Guided by God's hand, let us create a beautiful harmony and bear good fruit as God's children.

The more we give glory to God, the more He will use us. Brothers and sisters in Zion, let us all participate in the work of preaching the gospel to the whole world, praying that God will use us for many blessed things and always giving praise and glory to Him. Elohim bless you.

In March 28, 2010 someone wrote a post on a blog, where they explain that the Seal of God is the Holy Spirit, and I quote:

By: Bell on January 18, 2012
at 10:29 am

"From these verses, it looks like the Holy Spirit seals us to show that we belong to Him when we believe..." Reply

then they go on to quote the following verses to discredit the teaching of the World Mission Society Church of God that the Passover is the way to receive the Seal of God:

2 Corinthians 1:21-22 — ...set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit...

Ephesians 1:13-14 — ...Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit...

Ephesians 4:30-32 — And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed...

But these verses do not contradict the teaching that the Passover is the way to receive the Seal of God. To understand this verses correctly, first you need to have a correct interpretation of the Trinity, that Father, Son and Holy Spirit are the same God. As the Bible explains Jesus Christ is the Holy Spirit.

Romans 8:9 — You, however, are controlled not by the sinful nature but by the Spirit, if the Spirit of God lives in you, And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Christ.

here the Spirit of God is referred to as the Spirit of Christ. Thus Jesus and Holy Spirit are the same one.

Acts 16:6-7 — ...having been kept by the Holy Spirit from preaching the word in the province of Asia. ...but the Spirit of Jesus would not allow them to.

Here the Holy Spirit and the Spirit of Jesus are the same. Thus Jesus is the Holy Spirit. one more:

2 Corinthians 1:21-22 — ...set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit...

Galatians 4:6 — Because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts...

There are more testimonies in the Bible about this, but I will omit them for the sake of space. The above verses should be sufficient to let you understand that to receive the Holy Spirit in us, would be the same as to receiving Christ in us. Then how can we receive Christ in us?

John 6:53-55 — Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.

Jesus himself declared that when we receive His body and blood He remains in us and we in him, thus we receive Christ in us. Then how can we receive the body and the blood Christ? as per Jesus Himself:

Luke 22:13, 19-20 — They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared for the Passover... And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

Then through the Passover we can receive Jesus Christ in us, thus we receive the Holy Spirit in us as well.

The Holy Spirit is the seal of God, but by celebrating the Passover we can have confirmation from God that we have received the seal of God. Thanks to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Heavenly Mother Jerusalem for teaching us this precious Passover of the New Covenant.

If the Church of God is a Cult! Then Christianity itself is a cult

Reply

Many people who slander the World Mission Society Church of God makes accusations saying the this church is a cult. However, they didn't understand that 2000 years ago when Jesus established all the truth, the Jews and Pharisees also accused Jesus' church is a cult. Reading the Bible itself, let us see through verses from the Bible that the standard of a cult that those people who slander Church of God makes Christianity and all other religions a cult:

1) Cults Claim to Have all Knowing leadership:

John 21:17 {the third time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep.}

2) Cults only teach you up to what you are able to believe:

Hebrews 5:11 {We much to say about this, but it is hard to explain because you are slow to learn.}

3) Cults claim no room for differences (Everybody is the same):

Colossians 3:11 {Here there is no Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all, and is in all.}

4) Cults claim to introduce a new and better way:

Hebrews 7:18-19 {the former regulation is set aside because it was weak and useless (for the law made nothing perfect), and a better hope is introduced, by which we draw near to God.}

5) Cult members should imitate cult leader:

Philippians 2:5 {your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus}

Also Colossians 3:11 of example 3.

6) Cults isolate you from your family:

Matthew 10:37 {anyone who loves his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me}

7) Cults Brainwash ignorant and people who have no critical thinking.

Acts 4:13 {when they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus.}

8) Cults Recruit people:

Mk 16:15-16 {He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned}

9) Cults always claim Persecution of the Leader:

Acts 22:6-8 {"About noon as I came near Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me. I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, 'Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?' 'Who are you, Lord?' I asked " 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting,' he replied.}

10) Cults have ignorant leaders:

John 7:14-16 {Not until halfway through the Feast did Jesus go up to the temple courts and begin to teach. The Jews were amazed and asked, "How did this man get such learning without having studied?"}

11) Cults try to keep members busy:

Acts 2:46-47 {every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

12) Cult leaders always try to gain your trust:

John 14:1 {"Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me}

13) Cults believe that by your actions you prove your faith:

James 2:17 {in the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, Is dead.}

14) Cults claim salvation is through obedience before the end comes:

Matthew 24:42 { "Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come. }

15) Cults make members dependant to the cult leader:

John 15:5 { "I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. }

16) Cults claim that there is no exit apart from the cult:

John 6:67-68 { "You do not want to leave too, do you?" Jesus asked the Twelve. Simon Peter answered him "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. }

17) Cult members claim to have "Spiritual Battles":

Ephesians 6:12 { for our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. }

18) Cults try to keep things secret:

Matthew 17:9 { As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, "Don't tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead." }

19) Cult leaders claim to be the only way, and supreme authority:

John 14:6 { Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. }

And for the sake of space and time, I omitted the teachings of: Judaism, Mohammed, Buddha, Martin Luther King, Nelson Mandela, Mahatma Gandhi, Copernicus, Galileo...etc.

If we are going to judge groups and organizations by these standards, then every single organization and religion is a cult. We should not judge the Church of God by these standards, rather we should see if the teachings that the Church practices come from God or not. To label the World Mission Society Church of God as a cult is no different from when the Jewish religious leaders called the Apostles a Nazarene sect. Please don't commit the same mistake as 2,000 years ago.

It is believed among Christians that when Second Coming Christ comes, He will bring judgement at the same time. We must be clear in regards to this matter because a lack of understanding can keep us from entering the Kingdom of Heaven. What did our Heavenly say 2,000 years ago in respect to His Second Coming and Judgement Day? Reply

Mat 24:4 "...and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"

The disciples are asking for TWO signs. The sign of the end of the age AND the sign of His Second Coming. Through the Bible let's understand these are TWO SEPARATE events and not the same one.

CONCERNING JESUS COMING WITH FIRE:

2 Thessalonians 1:6 God is just: He will pay back trouble to those who trouble you 7 and give relief to you who are troubled, and to us as well. This will happen when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven in blazing fire with his powerful angels. 8 He will punish those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. 9 They will be punished with everlasting destruction and shut out from the presence of the Lord and from the majesty of his power 10 When Jesus appears "in blazing fire" he will come to "punish those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus... with everlasting destruction" ; This is speaking of the Day of Judgement since the punishment is everlasting destruction, there is no salvation when God Almighty comes in blazing fire. At this point God had already given everyone the opportunity to receive the Savior. Those who refused the truth and didn't come to the savior will be judged with everlasting punishment. Conclusion, when God comes with fire, He comes to judge and NOT to bring salvation. Let's see one more verse concerning His coming in blazing fire.

Isaiah 66:15-17 15 See, the LORD is coming with fire, and his chariots are like a whirlwind; he will bring down his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. 16 For with fire and with his sword the LORD will execute judgment upon all men, and many will be those slain by the LORD.

According to the prophet Isaiah, He will bring JUDGEMENT when he APPEARS WITH FIRE. It is undeniable, when Christ comes with Fire, this will be Judgement day, NOT HIS SECOND COMING!

CONCERNING JESUS SECOND COMING:

Luke 21:27~28 At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. 28 When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."Matthew 24:30~31 At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory. 31 And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

Based on what the Bible says, the sign of Jesus' Second Coming will be "CLOUDS" ... The sign of THE END OF THE AGE will be Jesus appearing with "BLAZING FIRE".

First of all, Christ will appear a Second time to bring Salvation, when He comes among the clouds of Heaven. He will deliver the Word of God and those who do not receive it will be plagued with everlasting destruction on the day He appears with blazing fire...

Will Jesus come riding on a cloud? Is this to be interpreted literally? Let's just say this: "If Jesus comes on a real cloud and we fail to believe this, we will be destroyed. If the clouds represent something else, and we fail to understand what clouds actually mean, we will be destroy" — The goal of every Christian is salvation. As Christians, let's understand what the clouds mean according to the BIBLE, NOT A MAN'S INTERPRETATION!

Matthew 13:34-36

34 Jesus spoke all these things to the crowd in parables; he did not say anything to them without using a parable.
35 So was fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet:

"I will open my mouth in parables,
I will utter things hidden since the creation of the world."

Parable is a story with a hidden meaning, therefore, Jesus coming on a cloud doesn't literally mean that he will come on an actual cloud. What is the prophetic meaning of "Clouds" in the Bible?

Jude 1:12

"These men are... shepherds who feed only themselves.
They (these men) are clouds without rain..."

Proverbs 25:14

Like clouds and wind without rain is a man who boasts of gifts he does not give.

Hebrews 12:1

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses...

According to the words spoken by the prophet the clouds represent MEN, in other words, flesh.

Through the word of God it is clear that clouds represents flesh. Thus confirming, when Christ comes, he will not come on a literal cloud, let's read the passage once again:

Matthew 24:30

"At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory.

Christian Cult Claims Barney is Jesus

By: stella on

LOS ANGELES (EAP) – “Barney is Christ returned,” says a growing group of Los Angeles Christians who worship the purple dinosaur. Current figures show the cult has a following of nearly 5,000 and is expanding rather quickly in the Los Angeles area.

Reply

“We feel the love and caring that Barney is encouraging is so similar to what Jesus taught, that it's not merely a coincidence, but a divine gift from God,” says Ruth Thomas, founder of the Barney Coalition For God. “There's no doubt in my mind that Barney is the reincarnation of Jesus,” she said.

George Thomas, Ruth's husband of 25 years, says he doesn't agree with his wife, but has given up trying to convince her that she's merely making a big fuss out of the purple dinosaur's popularity just as MJ in south Korea

“I've tried to explain to her that Barney is just a character meant for children, so is Mother Jerusalem one of the billion people living in this world without any powers. But brainwashed cult members will refuse to listen.

Mrs. Thomas has been in contact with several television stations in the Los Angeles area in an attempt to create an adult television program which features Barney as an evangelist, but has yet to receive any interest. The videos above put up by Bell is just the same “We'll just have to continue passing out our pamphlets to people at the airport and on street corners for now,” she said. Yes even WMSCOG does that.

It won't be surprising to see Barney's members hopping too singing (WMSCOG and the Barneys lyrics have a lot in common)

Barney is a dinosaur
From our imagination,
And when he's tall, he's what we call
A dinosaur sensation.
Barney's friends are big and small;
They come from lots of places. (ZION)
After school they meet to play
And sing with happy faces (brothers and sisters)
Barney shows us lots of things
Like how to play pretend, (Mother and Father GOD)
ABC's, and 123's,
And how to be a friend.

Barney comes to play with us
Whenever we may need him. (hugs and tears)
Barney can be your friend too,
If you just make-believe him

I love you, (We Luv You foundation)
You love me,
We're a happy family,
with a great big hug,
and a kiss from me to you,
Won't you say you love me TOO!

If one notices these videos of "I have already come" with WMSCOG members parading are only in the streets of America . They fail to show demonstration of their freedom of speech and thought in places like Afghanistan, Saudi Arabia and North Korea. Bell these countries need you. Why do you waste so much of time here? Your MJ powers will be seen when you post some videos taken there of "I have already come" "I have already come"
Mother and Father will truly bless you.

Bell, you've brought up the argument that if WMSCOG is a cult then all of Christianity is a cult. The thing is, your argument has a hole in it: WMSCOG denies that any other doctrine or denomination outside of COG is heresy. Christianity, however, is made up of many differing denominations due to certain small details in doctrine being emphasized more or less. For example, it will be more common to witness healing crusades and utterances of tongues, prophecy and etc in a pentecostal or assembly of God church, rather than in a southern baptist or methodist church. While some Catholic churches are cultic because they do not believe Protestants are saved, there are some Catholics who do agree that Protestants are saved and simply have differing viewpoints on the order of church liturgy and how christians should live lives.

The main thing is all of these churches agree on the big points: God created the universe, including humanity. All of humanity is made up of sinners, not one is without sin. Christ, fully God & man, came down to earth to do His Father's will and die on the cross in persecution for the punishment of the sins of the world. Christ rose again, and anyone that believes in Him and repents shall now be baptized into His identity, be filled with the Holy Spirit at the very moment of salvation, and then has eternal life. It is by Jesus Christ's atonement alone that we find salvation, and no other God or amount of works could fulfill it otherwise.

Any Christian church that accepts these main points is not a cult. They can argue amongst themselves whether or not one can lose salvation, spiritual gifts, whether to eat clean or unclean things, etc. and still be the true church and not on a cult borderline.

A cult is a cult when it starts to twist or deny the main doctrinal points that make the true Christ into something else. That is why I believe the WMSCOG to be a cult: it lacks solid doctrine, lacks room for individual opinions on certain matters and expects everyone to believe that Jesus Christ is not who He used to be and is now under a "new name", albeit Korean instead of Jewish!

Again, nothing against Koreans, but I truly believe our Lord and Savior will still have the scars from the nails driven into His hands just as our doubting Thomas was able to touch Jesus' hands and feet.

That's the TRUE Christ to me. All other "christs" are false deceivers who are plotted of the devil and will be punished for their deception unless they repent of their actions out of conviction and a sudden love for God and His truth.

The character Abraham is used to represent God in the Bible. Through the history of Abraham's family, God has revealed to us how we can inherit the kingdom of heaven.

Isaac was the one who received Abraham's inheritance. Even though Abraham had another son named Ishmael, born through Hagar, God did not allow Ishmael to receive the inheritance of Abraham. Rather, God bestowed the inheritance upon Isaac, who was born through Sarah. The reason why Isaac was chosen as Abraham's heir was that Isaac was the son of Sarah, who was free. This history shows us that the heavenly inheritance will be given to those who are born of the heavenly Mother, who is free.

Christ Ahnsahnghong taught us that our heavenly Mother does in fact exist and that She is truly the biggest mystery hidden within the Bible.

Let us study "The History of Abraham's Family and Mother," taught to us by Christ Ahnsahnghong.

Abraham Represents God

First of all, we need to recognize who the character Abraham represents in the Bible.

Luke 16:19-31 "...The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. In hell, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. So he called to him, 'Father Abraham...'

As you know, this parable is about a beggar, named Lazarus, and a rich man. The parable tells of Lazarus, who died and was carried to heaven, and a rich man, who was sent to hell to be tormented. Lazarus was obviously carried to God's side after he had died; however, the Bible states that Lazarus traveled to Abraham's side. In the parable, the rich man, who went to hell, called up to God in the distance; however, the Bible states that the man saw Abraham, and called up to him, saying, "Father Abraham." Who is the only one who is worthy to be called "Father" in the spiritual world? God is the only one who can be called upon in this way. Then, whom does Abraham represent? Logically, the character Abraham was chosen to represent God. Therefore, the inheritance of Abraham can be likened to the inheritance of God, the kingdom of heaven.

Isaac, the Heir of Abraham

Then, let us find out who was appointed as Abraham's heir. There were three candidates who could have been chosen as the heir of Abraham: Eliezer, Ishmael, and Isaac. Among them, who became Abraham's heir? It was Isaac who was appointed. We need to understand the reason why Isaac was chosen to be Abraham's heir.

Gen. 15:1-4 ...But Abram said, "O Sovereign LORD, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir." Then the word of the LORD came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir."

When Abraham was an old man and had not yet borne a son, he asked God to allow his servant Eliezer to be his heir. However, God did not allow Eliezer to become Abraham's heir, revealing that a son would be born from Abraham's own body and that he would become his heir. Some time later, Hagar, Sarah's maidservant, bore Abraham a son: Ishmael.

Gen. 16:1-15 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. But she had an Egyptian maidservant named Hagar; so she said to Abram, "The LORD has kept me from having children. Go, sleep with my maidservant; perhaps I can build a family through her." Abram agreed to what Sarai said...So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son she had borne.

Ishmael was born to Abraham through a maidservant named Hagar, and Abraham asked God to allow Ishmael to become his heir.

Gen. 17:18-19 And Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing!" Then God said, "Yes, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will call him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.

When Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing," God did not allow Ishmael to become his heir. Instead, God promised Abraham that he would have a son through his wife, Sarah. Isaac was born as God had promised, and of the three?Eliezer, Ishmael, and Isaac?Isaac was chosen to be Abraham's heir.

The Key Factor in Deciding an Heir Is "Mother"
Let's study the reason why God chose Isaac to be Abraham's heir. Both Eliezer's father and his mother were slaves, neither of them was free. This is the reason why God did not allow him to be Abraham's heir. Ishmael's father, Abraham, was free, but his mother, Hagar, was a slave and not a free woman. This is why God could not allow Ishmael to become Abraham's heir. Isaac's father, Abraham, was a free man, and his mother, Sarah, was a free woman. The fact that Isaac had been born of a free woman was the big difference between Ishmael and Isaac, and this discrepancy became the key factor in choosing Abraham's heir.

In those days, the eldest son inherited all of his family's property. Since Ishmael was older than Isaac, he should have become the heir?that is, if God had made His decision according to the paternal line. Ishmael was not chosen to become Abraham's heir, even though he was Abraham's eldest son, because his mother was not a free woman, but a slave. Thus, it is clear that the decisive factor in choosing Abraham's heir was his mother.

What we need to focus on while studying the history of Abraham's family is not merely the story of a man and his family. As you know, the Bible is not a storybook to tell us of men and their families. Nevertheless, God repeatedly mentioned the story of this particular family. Actually, the history of Abraham was a shadow of what was to happen in the future. In order for us to know who could become God's heir, the story of Abraham's family was written, as a prophecy.

Therefore, through the history of Abraham's family, we can clearly understand that the decisive factor in choosing an heir is the mother. As Isaac became Abraham's heir through Sarah, his free mother, we can become God's heirs through our heavenly Mother, who is a free woman. Only those who believe in the heavenly Mother?only the children who are born through the new covenant?can inherit the heavenly Father's kingdom. Let us read one more verse testifying about the heavenly Mother.

Gal. 4:22-31 ...But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother...Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

The Bible declares that we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman. Ishmael could not inherit his father's estate because his mother, Hagar, was only a slave, not a free woman. On the other hand, Isaac was chosen to become Abraham's heir because his mother, Sarah, was a free woman. The Bible also testifies that we, like Isaac, are the children of promise, the children of the heavenly Mother, who is free.

In today's world, there are three types of people: those who are like Eliezer, those like Ishmael, and those who are like Isaac. The first type of people, who are like Eliezer, are atheists, who do not believe in Father God or in Mother God. The second type of people, who are like Ishmael, are those who believe in Father God, but do not believe in Mother God. The third type of people, who are like Isaac, are those who believe in Mother God as well as Father God. According to the history of Abraham's family, which one of these three types can become an heir of the kingdom of heaven? Only the third type of people, who are like Isaac, can be recognized as God's heirs. There is no doubt about it.

Which group of people do you want to be classified with? If you want to be like Isaac, you must first become a child of the free woman. Thus, you must accept the heavenly Mother, who is free. The Bible testifies to this fact.

God said, "My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge" (Hos. 4:6). What kind of knowledge is God referring to in this verse? We must recognize that we have a God the Mother, as well as a God the Father. We must accept Elohim God. Also, we must firmly believe that God is our Mother, who gives us salvation alongside our Father. Only after we come to realize this can we say that we have the knowledge of God, and that we will not be those who are destroyed from a "lack of knowledge."

The Bible testifies that the Holy Spirit is God Ahnsahnghong, and that the Bride is Jerusalem Mother. Let us accept God Ahnsahnghong, the Holy Spirit, and Jerusalem Mother, the Bride, who give us the water of life in these last days, so that we can enter the kingdom of heaven.

If God comes down to this earth and has his own physical family, is it evil?

If so, why do we have families?

Everything that God created in this earth has a purpose, and eventually is for us to understand about the divine nature of God hidden through the creation. In order to understand about God coming in the flesh let's find out who made the family system of the earth:

Genesis 1: 26-31 "Then God said, "Let us make mankind in our image, in our likeness, so that they may rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky, over the livestock and all the wild animals, and over all the creatures that move along the ground." So God created mankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them and said to them, "Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky and over every living creature that moves on the ground." Then God said, "I give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food. And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds in the sky and all the creatures that move along the ground—everything that has the breath of life in it—I give every green plant for food." And it was so. God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning—the sixth day."

On the six day God created male and female, that is Adam and Eve, after God let them have a family God said: "and it was very good" when He saw it. God made the family system on this earth and saw that it was very good. Can we say that to have a family system is good in regards to man but evil when it is in regards to God?

Human beings on this earth are all sinners who sin in heaven, whatever we may do; the fact that we are sinners does not change. However, God is good; He reveals His glory in the family system. Just as in God's first coming, in His second coming too, God has to come to this earth through the family system.

Today the devil tries to hinder Christ Ahnsahnghong in the same way he tried to hinder Jesus Christ 2000 years ago; he blames God for coming in the flesh. The devil makes people to become more curious about physical things so that they would lose their faith.

So, the Jews spoke blasphemous words towards Him:

Matthew 13:55 "'Isn't this the carpenter's son? Isn't his mother's name Mary, and aren't his brothers James, Joseph, Simon and Judas? Aren't all his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all these things?" And they took offense at him."

John 6:42 "They said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I came down from heaven'?"

John 10:33 "'We are not stoning you for any good work," they replied, "but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man, claim to be God."

They rejected the Lord their savior shouting, "let His blood be on us and our children" Matthew 27:25

As a result they were all destroyed and punished to eternal hell.

The bible also testifies the punishment of those who despised Jerusalem through history:

Zechariah 14:12 "This is the plague with which the LORD will strike all the nations that fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot while they are still standing on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths. On that day people will be stricken by the LORD with great panic. They will seize each other by the hand and attack one another."

For a nation or a kingdom that does not serve you, will perish and utterly ruin.

Today too, the evil one is defaming and blaspheming Christ Ahnsahnghong and Heavenly Mother God in every unmentionable way just because God has come in the flesh. Therefore we must not be the children who are deceived by the evil rumor of the wicked and betray God once again.

How do you think the Christians who proclaim to believe in Jesus answer you when you ask them: "Why was Jesus treated no better than a beast? Why was He despised and was killed in the cross? They would probably answer like this? – "Is for our salvation that Jesus lived that kind of life and suffer."

If you come to stop and examine Jesus physical genealogy and think: "Why did Jesus has to go through all this if He is God?" So Christians commemorate the stable in Bethlehem, a shabby looking place where animals are given birth not men, and even draw pictures and make images of it. However, those same Christians despise the Second Coming of Christ, Ahnsahnghong, for coming in the flesh and having His own physical family and they ridicule Him for His indigent life. But even those same people regard Jesus' first ministry done in poverty working as a carpenter as a Holy sacrifice and take pride in believing in God who came as a men, that is truly a contradiction. Moreover, the Catholic Church worships Jesus' physical mother, the Virgin Mary, and emphasize in Jesus' physical family who is incarnated meanwhile they denied the Second Coming Jesus who has come as a man with His physical family.

Then, why do you think Heavenly Mother has come in human form? Why do you think Heavenly Mother has been living a life of suffering alone? It is for our salvation! It is because of our sins. The bible gives a clear answer that God the Mother has come to this earth, and lived such a life as a desolate woman because of us. The bible says that Heavenly Mother came from Heaven because of our sins and transgressions.

Isaiah 50:1 "This is what the LORD says: "Where is your mother's certificate of divorce with which I sent her away? Or to which of my creditors did I sell you? Because of your sins you were sold; because of your transgressions your mother was sent away"

The Bible also says that the reason why God came to this earth as a man is to destroy the devil and helps free His children who are slave to sin and death. According to the words He has to be made like His brothers in every way:

Hebrews 2:14-17 "Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might break the power of him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil— and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death. For surely it is not angels he helps, but Abraham's descendants. For this reason he had to be made like them, fully human in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people.

Christ came to this earth in a family system like us, his children. Because of our sins God is forced to live in these surroundings. We are saved only because God lived such a life of suffering. So we feel very sorry to our Heavenly Mother and hang our heads down low before Her.

The bible clearly testifies that Mother walks such a path of pain to accomplish the gospel work. Although Mother suffers as the desolate woman for our salvation, numerous children are coming back into Her arms, and the children who have flown from all nations are asking Mother to expand their Zion as it is prophesied in the bible.

Now we consider that our Church of God World Mission Society stands as a strong nation, we see the victory in the field of the gospel all around the world. However, satan knows his time is almost done and tries to hinder us through every kind of evil schemes, so that people cannot believe in our Heavenly Mother who is our savior. Despite all the hindrance from satan our church is growing to shine to glory of God Elohim. Why do you think that it?

In the early church 3000 people were baptized in a day, today such evangelism is occurring in the Church of God World Mission Society. Many people has been baptized in the place where Heavenly Mother is and come to Her to receive the water of life. Can you feel how great Mother's sacrifice has been, and how much She has suffered to see the glory of Zion shine as it is today.

Father Ahnsahnghong has suffered also extreme pain to reveal to us our Heavenly Mother of life. They have both kept on working and preaching the whole day to find Their lost heavenly children. Mother's Holy love for us is prophesied in the bible and now is being fulfilled.

In the bible there are many children mentioned. How can children exist without a Mother? Since it is written that the children of the desolate woman are many (Galatians 4:27) the fact that there is spiritual children, that there are spiritual sons and daughters, testify that there is a spiritual Mother.

Also is written that the dragon (satan) is enraged against the women(our Mother) and went out to make war against the rest of Her offspring. Here what would the rest of her offspring call the women? No doubt, Mother! So, the one the dragon is enraged at, is God.

However here he is enraged at the women, so God is Heavenly Mother. The Bible clearly testifies that he who stands against Heavenly Mother is the devil. That is why satan is spreading evil rumors through the internet and blaspheming our Heavenly Mother, we can confirm even more that our Mother is God.

We have met Heavenly Mother who has come in the flesh. Then, what kind of faith should we children of God have? As the bible says, from now on we should not regard no one in the worldly point of view, thou we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. We should not see Mother with physical eyes, but feel Her divine nature hidden within Her.

Mother is Holy and Almighty God Elohim, since we met our Mother in this earth who came in the flesh. From now on we will not regard Her from a worldly point of view, we will believe that She is Holy God with all the fullness of the Deity and receive Her. We will fathom Mother's suffering and sacrifice hidden in Her smile. In Heaven we rebelled against Mother and even tried to kill Her, however, Mother has come to this earth to save us and has gone through so much suffering that whenever we think about this Mother's grace pierces our heart.

Through the great sacrifice of Heavenly Mother we are allowed to go back to the Kingdom of Heaven and receive many blessings from our Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong who is waiting for us. God bless you Brothers and Sisters.

Bell, I must thank you. As much as I dislike so much space taken up by your copy-and-paste sermons, it is very useful to see the train of thought of the WMSCOG.

I had wondered how the wmscog was handling the "Ahnsahnghong has his own children" revelation. I notice it's just like other problems they encounter—distract from the real problem and shift the subject to something else.

According to long-time members I've talked with, the wmscog taught for YEARS that Ahnsahnghong had no natural children. Now they admit that yes, he did.

1. Why would the wmscog teach such a thing if it was not true? How many other things did they teach that were untrue? Why should anyone trust a church that does this?

2. If a human is actually God in the flesh, and he (or she) has natural-born children, are the children gods too? Do you see the problem with that? The idea is not whether it's 'evil' for God to have His own physical family when it's good that humans have theirs. It's a matter of practicality. Was Ahnsahnghong God in the flesh or not. If you say he was, then what are his children? Doesn't the wmscog preach about children taking the image of their parents?

3. Why do you change the focus to Jesus being part of a natural family with parents and siblings? That has nothing to do with a God-in-the-flesh having his own natural-born children.

4. You said, "The devil makes people to become more curious about physical things so that they would lose their faith." Think of all those other false religions and people who claim to be Christ. How does a person discern falsehood? By comparing it to what they know is objectively true. The Bible is often interpreted in various ways, but physical things and historical things can be the solid truth, a starting point for distinguishing what is false.

Bell, I can imagine that you and your friends are having a hard time reconciling all of these things. Maybe you are reluctant to admit that a church you have invested so much time and love and money into has proven false after all. You've probably been a part of it for so long that to leave it and all your friends and the life that you've built there, would seem like cutting off your arm. But please think of your soul. If you truly want to follow God, the wmscog is not the place. For your own good, please set yourself on the right path.

Gal. 5:1 "It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery."

Same thing JUST happened to me, but the initial question: "Do you study the Bible?" Well, I just spent the last 2 and a half hours studying the Bible with them, and here we are, both trying to convert each other, and I'm worn out, haha. Remember, Jesus commands us to love, so let us love these people fully.

how people of the "same faith" speak against each other. but in the end of the day they can only be ONE! god ONE! bible! ONE! set of commands from god. so stop judging each other cause only god as that right to at the last day. so have a opened mind listen to what others have to say then you can make out where the lies are. but remember

10 The disciples came to him and asked, "Why do you speak to the people in parables?"

11 He replied, "Because the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been GIVEN TO YOU , BUT NOT TO THEM. 12 Whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them. 13 This is why I speak to them in parables:

"Though seeing, they do not see;
though hearing, they do not hear or understand.

In the Bible, God is referred to through plural terms instead of singular terms, and it is written that God has a male image and a female image. Therefore, God exists in the male image and in the female image.

Reply

Have you ever thought about why we call God our Father?

It is written that God's invisible qualities have been clearly seen and can be understood through what has been made (Rom. 1:20). Is there any creature that is given life through only their father, alone, without a mother being present?

We need to study this matter carefully.

The Children of Promise

The Bible calls us "the children of promise."

Gal. 4:28 Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.

Then, what promise did God make to those who are called the children of promise? God promised them eternal life.

1 John 2:25 And this is what he promised us?even eternal life.

How is eternal life given to us? The Bible says that all things were created by God's will (Rev. 4:11). Among all of the many creatures that God has created, let us focus on the mothers. Since it is written that God created all things by His will, a certain will of God was expressed when He created mothers on this earth. As you know, all creatures have a mother figure. There is not a single creature that can come into existence without a mother.

Our physical life is given to us through our physical mother. For 280 days, a baby's hands, feet, eyes and ears form within his mother's womb. When the time comes, the mother will give birth to her child, shedding blood. We are given life through our mother's great pain. How about our spiritual life? Just as our physical life was given to us through our physical mother, our spiritual life is given to us through our spiritual Mother.

The Bible clearly testifies that our heavenly Mother exists, and that only our heavenly Mother can give us eternal life.

God's Two Images

Let us study through the Bible to discover the existence of our spiritual Mother.

Gen. 1:26-27 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness..." So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

The above verse states that God has two images?a male image and a female image. Until now, we have only known and called upon the male image of God: "Father." Then how should we call upon the female image of God? Logically, we should refer to God's female image as "Mother." This is why God had said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness."

The word "us" is a plural term. "Elohim," the Hebrew word used in place of "God" in Genesis 1:26, directly translates to "Gods," the plural form of the word "God." Therefore, the references to "us" in the book of Genesis refer to God the Father and God the Mother. Some say that the word "us" in this verse indicates God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. If this argument is correct, there should be three types of people in the world?those who were made in the image of God the Father, those who resemble the image of God the Son, and those created in the image of the Holy Spirit. However, on this earth there are only two types of people: men and women. However, the "Gods" mentioned in Genesis 1:26 are the male image of God and the female image of God? God the Father and God the Mother.

The Will of God in Creating Eve, Adam's Wife
Let us study more truth regarding the heavenly Mother through the character Adam, written in the book of Romans.

Rom. 5:14 ...Adam, who was a pattern of the one to come. Since the book of Romans was written after Jesus had already ascended, the "one to come" mentioned in the above verse indicates the Second Coming Jesus. Adam was created to lead us to the Second Coming Jesus. Then, what was God's will in creating Eve, Adam's wife?

Gen. 2:21 So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man's ribs and closed up the place with flesh.

Gen. 3:20 Adam named his wife Eve, because she would become the mother of all the living.

The name "Eve" means "life." Eve was called "the mother of all the living." God's intent in creating Adam was to reveal the Second Coming Jesus, our heavenly Father, and Eve was created to reveal the Second Coming Jesus' wife, our heavenly Mother. In other words, just as Eve was called "the mother of all the living," we can only be given eternal life through our heavenly Mother. Eve represents our heavenly Mother.

"I Will Raise Him Up at the Last Day"

Two thousand years ago, Jesus said, repeatedly, that He would wait until the last day to raise up all of the people who came to Him (John 6:39, 40, 44, 54). Why did Jesus need to wait until the last day to save His people? What was He waiting for? The account of the six-day Creation? in the book of Genesis, chapter one? represents the spiritual Creation which would take place over six thousand years. Just as the six-day Creation ended after Eve had appeared, so would the six-thousand year spiritual Creation end with the appearance of our spiritual Mother. Jesus could have given His people life during His first coming; however, Jesus waited for the appearance of the heavenly Mother because life would be given through Her.

The Wedding of the Lamb
Let's study some of the testimonies about Mother written in the book of Revelation.

Rev. 19:7 Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready. The book of Revelation was written after Jesus had ascended, and it prophesied about the things that were to happen in the last days. Thus, "the Lamb" mentioned in the above verse indicates the Second Coming Jesus: Ahnsahnghong. When Jesus came to the earth for the first time, two thousand years ago, His wife was not yet ready. The Bride, the wife of the Lamb, would appear in the last days.

In the book of Revelation, chapter 21, the Bride?the wife of the Lamb?is described as "Jerusalem."

Rev. 21:9-10 ...One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." And he...showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

Apostle Paul testified that this Holy City, Jerusalem, which would come down out of heaven, is our Mother.
Gal. 4:26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

Children of the Free Woman

Apostle Paul testified that we are the children of promise, the children of the free woman, because we have been given the promise of eternal life from our heavenly Mother.

Gal. 4:28 Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.

Gal. 4:31 Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

If we are the children of the free woman, what should we call Her? We should call Her our "Mother." We cannot have eternal life unless we receive the heavenly Mother. Eternal life, which God has promised us, is given through the heavenly Mother.

In this last age, we need our Jerusalem Mother who has been established by Christ Ahnsahnghong?the Second Coming Jesus. Let us believe in Christ Ahnsahnghong, the Holy Spirit, and in Jerusalem Mother, the Bride, so that we can receive eternal life. God bless you all ^_^!

Earthly and Heavenly Family

Heb. 8:5 They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven.

Reply

All of the earthly systems are a copy and a shadow of what is in heaven. The family system is the same. Christ Ahnsahnghong revealed to us the existence of the heavenly Mother by teaching us about the heavenly family system through the earthly family system.

Everything within the spiritual world is reflected on this earth. In other words, everything on the earth is a shadow, and the things in heaven are the realities of what is on earth.

God established the earthly family system to show us that there is also a family system in heaven. The reason why God made every family on the earth has a father, a mother, and children was to reveal that in heaven, as well, there is a Father, a Mother, and children. God's providence is to let us know that there exists a God the Mother in heaven, as well as a God the Father.

Do you want to be a part of the heavenly family? Let us find out how we can be members of the heavenly family.

House

What are you reminded of when you hear the word "family"? Don't you think of a "house"? Jesus also mentioned a "house" many times in the Bible.

John 14:1-3 "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place [house] for you. And if I go and prepare a place [house] for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.

Jesus said that the Father's house surely exists. As of now, the house has been prepared. Then, who will be the members of this house? The family system described in the Bible is paternalistic. As you can see through your physical family, the first, main member of the house is the father. Therefore, if there is a father in the families on the earth, there must also be a Father in heaven.

Heavenly Father Ahnsahnghong

Let us find out if we have a Father in heaven.

Heb. 12:9 Moreover, we have all had human fathers who disciplined us and we respected them for it. How much more should we submit to the Father of our spirits and live!

Matt. 6:9 "This, then, is how you should pray: 'Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name...' "

The God in heaven is our God the Father. Just as we have a physical father on this earth, we have a spiritual Father in heaven. He is God the Father, Ahnsahnghong.

Children of Heavenly Father Ahnsahnghong

Who comes to mind next when we think of a family? Most people will think of a "mother." But before we consider "mother," we have to think about what kind of person can be called a "father." No one can be called "father" unless he has a child. No matter how old a man is, if he has had no children, who would call him "father"? The title "father" is only used by children.

Therefore, a family must have children. Let us find out if our heavenly Father has children.

Matt. 12:46 While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him. Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

Here, we can find the words "brothers" and "sisters." Just as we have physical brothers and sisters, we have spiritual brothers and sisters. God's children, who call upon the God in heaven as "Father," must follow the will of the heavenly Father. In the Church of God, the children of the heavenly Father keep the Sabbath, the Passover, and all of the other truths, according to the will of the Father in heaven. The Church of God follows the teachings of Christ Ahnsahnghong, and we are brothers and sisters.

Heavenly Mother Jerusalem

We have studied that there exist a God the Father, and His children, in the heavenly family. Then, who is left? It's Mother.

Gal. 4:25-26 Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

In this verse we can find the words "our mother." "Our" refers to the children who believe in God. This verse reveals that there exists a heavenly Mother to the children who will be saved.

So far, we've studied about which members compose a family, and we have confirmed that we have a spiritual family in heaven. Just as we have fathers, brothers, sisters, and mothers in our physical families, we have our spiritual Father, brothers, sisters, and spiritual Mother in our spiritual family.

The Family Must Be Connected by Blood

What connects a family together? It's blood. Just as physical children inherit their father and mother's flesh and blood, the spiritual children inherit the spiritual Father and Mother's flesh and blood. If the physical family is connected by physical blood, then the heavenly family is connected by heavenly blood, because what is on earth is a copy and a shadow of what is in heaven.

John 6:53-55 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink."

Jesus fed his people with His flesh and blood, so the heavenly Father and Mother's blood and flesh are now in us. Only God has eternal life. The flesh and blood of God?who gives eternal life?has been given to us, God's children. Thus, we have become eternal beings and we are able to call upon God, "Abba, Father!"

Right to Become the Children of Father Ahnsahnghong
Then, through what truth can we receive the right to become God's children? How can we inherit the flesh and blood of our heavenly Father?

Matt. 26:17-19 On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?" He replied, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, 'The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.'" So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

Matt. 26:26-28 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

As shown above, the Passover bread is Jesus' body, His flesh, and the Passover wine is Jesus' blood. By eating and drinking the bread and wine of the Passover, we can receive God's flesh and blood and become God's children.

Christ Ahnsahnghong is the one who brought the Passover in this last age. Christ Ahnsahnghong is our spiritual Father who brought us the Passover, which spiritually connects us with God. Our spiritual Mother is the true God who gives us birth and brings us up. Don't you want to be a member of the spiritual family? Let us all become God's children, receiving the flesh and blood of our heavenly Father Ahnsahnghong and our heavenly Mother through the Passover of the new covenant, so that we can inherit the kingdom of God.

The word "Elohim" directly translates to "Gods." The Bible testifies that God exists in the female image, God the Mother, as well as the male image, God the Father.

By: Bell on February 29, 2012 at 7:49 am

Reply

World Mission Society Church of God has received Second Coming Christ Ahnsahnghong, God the Father, and the heavenly Jerusalem, God the Mother.

When people hear the word "God," most immediately think of "God the Father," holding to the fixed idea that only God the Father exists; however, the Bible clearly testifies that there is a God the Mother in addition to a God the Father. We sincerely hope that you can break your fixed, man-made ideas so that you can receive the true Saviors: Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother.

Then, let us discover why the members of the Church of God accept Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother as their Elohim God.

Elohim God revealed in the book of Genesis Let us confirm that there is both a male and a female image of God, through the book of Genesis.

Gen. 1:26-27 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness,"...So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

Both males and females were created in the image of God, and thus it is clear that God has two images: a male image and a female image. When God said, "Let us make man in our image," God used the word "us"?a plural term?instead of using "me." We come to understand that not one God, but two Gods?a Father and a Mother?worked together during the Creation. Such plural terms are used to describe God in Genesis chapter 11, also.

Gen. 11:1-7 ...The LORD said..."Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other."

This verse, too, makes reference to Elohim God, the same God who created male and female (in Genesis chapter 1), saying, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness." In Genesis chapter 11, God was responding to the arrogance of the people, who had collectively built the tower of Babel. Through this situation, God testifies that there exists a God the Mother as well as a God the Father by saying, "Let us go down..."

Elohim God revealed in the book of Isaiah
We can confirm the existence of Elohim God through the book of Isaiah as well.

Isa. 6:8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I. Send me!"

When God was searching for a man to preach His words, God said, "Who will go for us?" instead of saying, "Who will go for me?" This reveals that not only the Father was working, but that there was a Mother who was working as well.

Elohim God revealed in the book of Jeremiah
In the book of Jeremiah we can also find references to Elohim God.

Jer. 31:22 ...The LORD will create a new thing on earth?a woman will surround a man.

God said that He would create a new thing: a woman would surround a man. Spiritually, this verse has a very profound meaning. The woman, Eve, had once been inside the man. If God had not made the woman with the ribs He had taken out of the man, how could the woman have been able to surround the man? The new thing, that God said He would bring to the earth, would be the revealing of Mother, who has been within God the Father since the beginning. The new thing would be created at the time God established the new covenant.

Jer. 31:31-34 "The time is coming," declares the LORD, "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah..." I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest."

In the Hebrew Bible, the word "God" is actually written as "Elohim"? "I will be their God [Elohim]." "Elohim" is the plural form of the word "Eloha," meaning a singular God. Therefore, "Elohim" means "Gods," plural. Once we can understand the concept of Elohim God through the new covenant, we no longer need men to teach us to know God, because we will all know God, from the least of us to the greatest. In the truth of the new covenant, we can only become the children of God when we have God the Father and God the Mother, our Elohim God.

When Elohim God created male and female, They said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness." When Elohim God punished the evil acts of God's people, They said, "Let us go down." When the Gods called to Isaiah, They said, "Who will go for us?" Throughout the Bible, God has existed as the male God and the female God: Elohim.

Elohim will appear in Their own time
God promised that He would appear according to His own timing (1 Tim. 6:15). Let us confirm what form He will appear in.

Rev. 22:17 The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.

For our salvation, God always referred to Himself as "us," and then Elohim God appeared?as the Holy Spirit and the Bride?to give us the water of life. In the first book of Timothy, it is written that God alone is immortal and lives in unapproachable light (1 Tim. 6:16). Thus, only the Spirit and the Bride?the Second Coming Christ, Ahnsahnghong, and the New Jerusalem Mother?are immortal and only They have life. Nevertheless, some people boast that they, also, have the power to give life. The people who make such assumptions are greatly mistaken. The Bible says that no one can have life until he or she eats the flesh of the Son of Man and drinks His blood (John 6:53), and Jesus said, "Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead" (Matt. 8:22). Mere human beings, such as ourselves, cannot say that we are alive.

There is no life in us, so we must go to God?Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother?if we want to receive eternal life and salvation, because They are the only ones who have life. In order to give the everlasting water of life to mortal beings, God came down to this earth in this last age as the Holy Spirit, Ahnsahnghong, and the Bride, the New Jerusalem Mother. People who pervert or deny this Biblical teaching will never be able to enter the kingdom of heaven. All the glory to Heavenly Father Christ AhnsahngHong and Heavenly Mother Jerusalem forever and ever. Amen.

The character Abraham is used to represent God in the Bible. Through the history of Abraham's family, God has revealed to us how we can inherit the kingdom of heaven.

Reply

Isaac was the one who received Abraham's inheritance. Even though Abraham had another son named Ishmael, born through Hagar, God did not allow Ishmael to receive the inheritance of Abraham. Rather, God bestowed the inheritance upon Isaac, who was born through Sarah. The reason why Isaac was chosen as Abraham's heir was that Isaac was the son of Sarah, who was free. This history shows us that the heavenly inheritance will be given to those who are born of the heavenly Mother, who is free.

Christ AhnsahngHong taught us that our heavenly Mother does in fact exist and that She is truly the biggest mystery hidden within the Bible.

Let us study "The History of Abraham's Family and Mother," taught to us by Christ AhnsahngHong.

Abraham Represents God

First of all, we need to recognize who the character Abraham represents in the Bible.

Luke 16:19-31 "...The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. In hell, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. So he called to him, 'Father Abraham...!'"

As you know, this parable is about a beggar, named Lazarus, and a rich man. The parable tells of Lazarus, who died and was carried to heaven, and a rich man, who was sent to hell to be tormented. Lazarus was obviously carried to God's side after he had died; however, the Bible states that Lazarus traveled to Abraham's side. In the parable, the rich man, who went to hell, called up to God in the distance; however, the Bible states that the man saw Abraham, and called up to him, saying, "Father Abraham." Who is the only one who is worthy to be called "Father" in the spiritual world? God is the only one who can be called upon in this way. Then, whom does Abraham represent? Logically, the character Abraham was chosen to represent God. Therefore, the inheritance of Abraham can be likened to the inheritance of God, the kingdom of heaven.

Isaac, the Heir of Abraham

Then, let us find out who was appointed as Abraham's heir. There were three candidates who could have been chosen as the heir of Abraham: Eliezer, Ishmael, and Isaac. Among them, who became Abraham's heir? It was Isaac who was appointed. We need to understand the reason why Isaac was chosen to be Abraham's heir.

Gen. 15:1-4 ...But Abram said, "O Sovereign LORD, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir." Then the word of the LORD came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir."

When Abraham was an old man and had not yet borne a son, he asked God to allow his servant Eliezer to be his heir. However, God did not allow Eliezer to become Abraham's heir, revealing that a son would be born from Abraham's own body and that he would become his heir. Some time later, Hagar, Sarah's maidservant, bore Abraham a son: Ishmael.

Gen. 16:1-15 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. But she had an Egyptian maidservant named Hagar; so she said to Abram, "The LORD has kept me from having children. Go, sleep with my maidservant; perhaps I can build a family through her." Abram agreed to what Sarai said...So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son she had borne.

Ishmael was born to Abraham through a maidservant named Hagar, and Abraham asked God to allow Ishmael to become his heir.

Gen. 17:18-19 And Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing!" Then God said, "Yes, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will call him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.

When Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing," God did not allow Ishmael to become his heir. Instead, God promised Abraham that he would have a son through his wife, Sarah. Isaac was born as God had promised, and of the three?Eliezer, Ishmael, and Isaac?Isaac was chosen to be Abraham's heir.

The Key Factor in Deciding an Heir Is "Mother"

Let's study the reason why God chose Isaac to be Abraham's heir. Both Eliezer's father and his mother were slaves, neither of them was free. This is the reason why God did not allow him to be Abraham's heir. Ishmael's father, Abraham, was free, but his mother, Hagar, was a slave and not a free woman. This is why God could not allow Ishmael to become Abraham's heir. Isaac's father, Abraham, was a free man, and his mother, Sarah, was a free woman. The fact that Isaac had been born of a free woman was the big difference between Ishmael and Isaac, and this discrepancy became the key factor in choosing Abraham's heir.

In those days, the eldest son inherited all of his family's property. Since Ishmael was older than Isaac, he should have become the heir?that is, if God had made His decision according to the paternal line. Ishmael was not chosen to become Abraham's heir, even though he was Abraham's eldest son, because his mother was not a free woman, but a slave. Thus, it is clear that the decisive factor in choosing Abraham's heir was his mother.

What we need to focus on while studying the history of Abraham's family is not merely the story of a man and his family. As you know, the Bible is not a storybook to tell us of men and their families. Nevertheless, God repeatedly mentioned the story of this particular family. Actually, the history of Abraham was a shadow of what was to happen in the future. In order for us to know who could become God's heir, the story of Abraham's family was written, as a prophecy.

Therefore, through the history of Abraham's family, we can clearly understand that the decisive factor in choosing an heir is the mother. As Isaac became Abraham's heir through Sarah, his free mother, we can become God's heirs through our heavenly Mother, who is a free woman. Only those who believe in the heavenly Mother?only the children who are born through the new covenant?can inherit the heavenly Father's kingdom. Let us read one more verse testifying about the heavenly Mother.

Gal. 4:22-31 ...But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother...Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

The Bible declares that we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman. Ishmael could not inherit his father's estate because his mother, Hagar, was only a slave, not a free woman. On the other hand, Isaac was chosen to become Abraham's heir because his mother, Sarah, was a free woman. The Bible also testifies that we, like Isaac, are the children of promise, the children of the heavenly Mother, who is free.

In today's world, there are three types of people: those who are like Eliezer, those like Ishmael, and those who are like Isaac. The first type of people, who are like Eliezer, are atheists, who do not believe in Father God or in Mother God. The second type of people, who are like Ishmael, are those who believe in Father God, but do not believe in Mother God. The third type of people, who are like Isaac, are those who believe in Mother God as well as Father God. According to the history of Abraham's family, which one of these three types can become an heir of the kingdom of heaven? Only the third type of people, who are like Isaac, can be recognized as God's heirs. There is no doubt about it.

Which group of people do you want to be classified with? If you want to be like Isaac, you must first become a child of the free woman. Thus, you must accept the heavenly Mother, who is free. The Bible testifies to this fact.

God said, "My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge" (Hos. 4:6). What kind of knowledge is God referring to in this verse? We must recognize that we have a God the Mother, as well as a God the Father. We must accept Elohim God. Also, we must firmly believe that God is our Mother, who gives us salvation alongside our Father. Only after we come to realize this can we say that we have the knowledge of God, and that we will not be those who are destroyed from a "lack of knowledge."

The Bible testifies that the Holy Spirit is God Ahnsahnghong, and that the Bride is Jerusalem Mother. Let us accept God Ahnsahnghong, the Holy Spirit, and Jerusalem Mother, the Bride, who give us the water of life in these last days, so that we can enter the kingdom of heaven.

Revelation 22:17 The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let the one who hears say, "Come!" Let the one who is thirsty come; and let the one who wishes take the free gift of the water of life.

This cult is very dangerous. It takes hold of its members and ruins marriages, friendships, careers, and basically entire lives. WMSCOG consumes its members.

By: Ellen on March 3, 2012

My daughter recently married a member of this cult. In a very short period of time the cult became all her new husband had time for. He spent every weekend praying (from Friday evening to late Sunday night), preaching, and studying. Every weeknight, immediately after work, he'd go with cult members preaching and praying more. Each weeknight he'd come home between 1 and 2 in the morning. When his wife was in the hospital with liver failure, he left her alone and drove 3.5 hours away to church for the entire weekend! When questioned about this, he claimed that the Bible says you should not put your wife before God. IMAGINE! These elitist cult members will not hesitate to lie, manipulate, and deceive, in recruiting new members. They do not reveal the truths of their cult until new members have been brainwashed! They even insist that new recruits watch hours of horrific video depicting the end of the world (including an atomic bomb explosion and people burning!) Hmmm...saving through dishonesty. I never considered that! BEWARE!!!!

Christ Ahnsahnghong truly is our God the Holy Spirit. He reminded us how to love God with all our heart, with all our soul, and with all our strength.

John 14:25 "All this I have spoken while still with you.
26 But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.

Reply

Many Christians profess that they love Jesus. Whether Catholics, Born Again, or some other denominations, they claim to love God. But how can we truly love God? Is it by just saying with our own lips that we love God? Let's see through the Bible.

Jn. 14:15 – 15 "If you love me, keep my commands

Jn. 14:21 – 21 Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them."

Jesus Himself told us that if we truly love Him, we must obey His commandments. Then why does Jesus wants us to love Him? What will He give us?

Luke 10:25-28 – 25 On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. “Teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?” 26 “What is written in the Law?” he replied. “How do you read it?” 27 He answered, “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind’; and, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’” 28 “You have answered correctly,” Jesus replied. “Do this and you will live.”

We can see here that an expert in the law was asking and testing Jesus on what is written in the Law in order to have eternal life? We can understand that this guy that’s expert in the law are referring to the Old Testament Law since the New Testament was not written yet during the time of Jesus here on earth. According to Jesus answer, in order for us to have eternal life, we must “LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. This is written in the Law or Old Testament. Then we can have a clue that the way to fulfill this is by finding out in the Law or Old Testament. Lets see.

Deut. 6:5-9 – 5 LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. 6 These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. 7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. 8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. 9 WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES and on your gates.

Wow this was the same words that Jesus told the expert in the law. Then we can see a clue here on verse 9 that says “WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES”. Now let’s check for another clue on the same chapter.

Deut. 6:20-25 – 20 In the future, when your son asks you, “What is the meaning of the stipulations, decrees and laws the LORD our God has commanded you?” 21 tell him: “We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 22 Before our eyes the LORD sent signs and wonders—great and terrible—on Egypt and Pharaoh and his whole household. 23 But he brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land he promised on oath to our ancestors. 24 The LORD commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear the LORD our God, so that we might always prosper and be kept alive, as is the case today. 25 And if we are careful to obey all this law before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, that will be our righteousness.”

Ok so this are the commandment’s clue are:

- WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES
- COMMANDMENT THAT BROUGHT THE ISRAELITES OUT OF EGYPT

Then let's see what is this.

Exo. 12:1-14 – 1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt, 2 "This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year. 3 Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb[a] for his family, one for each household. 4 If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbor, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat. 5 The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats. 6 Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the members of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight. 7 THEN THEY ARE TO TAKE SOME OF THE BLOOD AND PUT IT ON THE SIDES AND TOPS OF THE DOOR FRAMES OF THE HOUSES WHERE THEY EAT THE LAMBS. 8 That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast. 9 Do not eat the meat raw or boiled in water, but roast it over a fire—with the head, legs and internal organs. 10 Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it. 11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; IT IS THE LORD'S PASSOVER.

12 "On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn of both people and animals, and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. 13 The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are, and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

14 "This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD—a lasting ordinance.

Now its clear. The PASSOVER is the commandment that would fulfill the "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH". When the Israelites kept the Passover, they were freed from Egypt. So it is the PASSOVER.

Then 2000 years ago, Jesus Christ established the Passover of the New Covenant which is the reality.

Lk. 22:8 – 8 Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover."

Lk. 22:14-15 – 14 When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. 15 And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

Lk. 22:19-20 – 19 And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." 20 In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying,

"This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you

By keeping the Passover, we can truly love God and receive eternal life.

John 6:53-55 — JESUS SAID to them, "I TELL YOU THE TRUTH, UNLESS you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. WHOEVER EATS MY FLESH AND DRINKS MY BLOOD REMAINS IN ME, AND I IN HIM.

Thanks to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong, the 2nd Coming Christ according to the prophecies of the Bible, for reminding us the precious truth.

Jn. 14:25-26 – 25 "All this I have spoken while still with you. 26 But the COUNSELOR, THE HOLY SPIRIT, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and WILL REMIND YOU OF EVERYTHING I HAVE SAID TO YOU.

Let's have true faith in Jesus by following His Words of Life so that we can truly Love Him and receive eternal life.

Jn. 3:16 – 16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM SHALL NOT PERISH BUT HAVE ETERNAL LIFE

Jam. 2:17-19 – 17 In the same way, FAITH BY ITSELF, IF IT IS NOT ACCOMPANIED BY ACTION IS DEAD. 18 But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds." Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do. 19 You believe that there is one God.
Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

Christ Ahnsahnghong truly is our God the Holy Spirit. He reminded us how to love God with all our heart, with all our soul, and with all our strength.

"Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error." 1 John 4:1-6

Bell there is no need for you to repeat your cut and paste stuff in trying to prove this man to us as holy spirit. The bible scriptures are very craftly selected to only misled people like you to believe in such false Gods. Legalism causes a man to adopt false priorities and values while at the same time he considers that he is growing in grace and holiness and belief that these false Gods are their true gods.

WMSCOG often trumpet We keep all God's command! we keep passover! The Pharisees too thought they could reach God's standards by keeping all the outward rules.

Jesus denounced the Pharisees as hypocrites who "did not practice what they preach" (Matthew 23:3), who did not live up to their own high standards of righteousness, and who put burdensome rules upon others which they themselves did not keep (Matthew 23:4).

"Be careful," Jesus said to them. "Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees." Even a small amount of yeast, or corruption, can influence a large number of people to believe false doctrine.

They made the observance of the Sabbath more demanding than God had commanded. Their narrow interpretation of the fourth commandment (Exodus 20:8) was typical of their nit-picking beliefs, and their small mindedness put them on a collision course with Jesus. They saw him and his followers as law-breakers.

Jesus Rejected Man-Made Religious Rules that many such religious organizations misrepresented God with their petty, negative and tyrannical rules not only distorting but using them (passover) to cause fear into their members

Bell as you keep harping about keeping God's commands . Firstly ask your one living mother God that you so worship and the other one is dead of course, if they had kept the God's command.

Maybe MJ should not only write on her door frame but also carve it in her heart for breaking God's command "I should have not committed ADULTERY"

And when WMSCOG say we only use the teachings from the Bible. In reality it is not or else how could you have skipped so many other verses which are equally important in the Bible as well such as this...

Matthew 6:2 "So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by men. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full .

Yet their website displays photo of their donation to Haiti. Authentic charity doesn't need clamor. Looks like God herself has not understood the Bible so well. Jesus on most other occasions he told people not to tell even with the miracles that he performed.

It also proves further how dumb she could be to have received a medal from a president whom she did not even have an inkling, forget she having any powers that he would commit suicide. She is like a celebrity in her rich silk hanboks, a con artist playing the role of false God and her fans are the pitiful, blinded worshippers, who hug her. She cries you cry. She pats your back and you burp.(Brainwashed). There you see it is all like one big hit korean movie. And those plaques, medals, awards, donations that she keeps adding to her collection and donations that go for the publicity of her good works to get in more members is nothing but your very own your money, time and life you have sacrificed for someone you fail to see on this earth is a SATAN in disguise playing with your soul. WAKE UP!

2nd Corinthians 11:13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. 14 And no wonder! For Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light. 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves into ministers of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works

I am sure you can very well undertand all this is so clear but you are too weak, helpless and trapped Bell. Test every spirit child, Test evey spirit!

Keith Green wrote a song called, "No One Believes in Me Anymore." He subtitled it, "The Devil's Boast." He wrote it from Satan's point of view, to open the eyes of Christians like us to the very real problems that follow when people don't believe that there is a devil...

Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. 8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. 9 WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES and on your gates.

Wow this was the same words that Jesus told the expert in the law. Then we can see a clue here on verse 9 that says "WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES". Now let's check for another clue on the same chapter.

Deut. 6:20-25 – 20 In the future, when your son asks you, “What is the meaning of the stipulations, decrees and laws the LORD our God has commanded you?” 21 tell him: “We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 22 Before our eyes the LORD sent signs and wonders—great and terrible—on Egypt and Pharaoh and his whole household. 23 But he brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land he promised on oath to our ancestors. 24 The LORD commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear the LORD our God, so that we might always prosper and be kept alive, as is the case today. 25 And if we are careful to obey all this law before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, that will be our righteousness.”

Ok so this are the commandment's clue are:

- WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES
- COMMANDMENT THAT BROUGHT THE ISRAELITES OUT OF EGYPT

Then let's see what is this.

Exo. 12:1-14 – 1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt, 2 “This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year. 3 Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb[a] for his family, one for each household. 4 If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbor, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat. 5 The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats. 6 Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the members of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight. 7 THEN THEY ARE TO TAKE SOME OF THE BLOOD AND PUT IT ON THE SIDES AND TOPS OF THE DOOR FRAMES OF THE HOUSES WHERE THEY EAT THE LAMBS. 8 That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast. 9 Do not eat the meat raw or boiled in water, but roast it over a fire—with the head, legs and internal organs. 10 Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it. 11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; IT IS THE LORD'S PASSOVER.

12 “On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn of both people and animals, and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. 13 The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are, and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

14 “This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD—a lasting ordinance.

Now its clear. The PASSOVER is the commandment that would fulfill the "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH". When the Israelites kept the Passover, they were freed from Egypt. So it is the PASSOVER.

Then 2000 years ago, Jesus Christ established the Passover of the New Covenant which is the reality.

Lk. 22:8 – 8 Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover."

Lk. 22:14-15 – 14 When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. 15 And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

Lk. 22:19-20 – 19 And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." 20 In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you

By keeping the Passover, we can truly love God and receive eternal life.

John 6:53-55 — JESUS SAID to them, "I TELL YOU THE TRUTH, UNLESS you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. WHOEVER EATS MY FLESH AND DRINKS MY BLOOD REMAINS IN ME, AND I IN HIM.

Thanks to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong, the 2nd Coming Christ according to the prophecies of the Bible, for reminding us the precious truth.

Jn. 14:25-26 – 25 "All this I have spoken while still with you. 26 But the COUNSELOR, THE HOLY SPIRIT, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and WILL REMIND YOU OF EVERYTHING I HAVE SAID TO YOU.

Let's have true faith in Jesus by following His Words of Life so that we can truly Love Him and receive eternal life.

Jn. 3:16 – 16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM SHALL NOT PERISH BUT HAVE ETERNAL LIFE

Jam. 2:17-19 – 17 In the same way, FAITH BY ITSELF, IF IT IS NOT ACCOMPANIED BY ACTION IS DEAD. 18 But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds." Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do. 19 You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

John 8:47 Whoever belongs to God hears what God says.

The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

John 6:53-55 — JESUS SAID to them, "I TELL YOU THE TRUTH, UNLESS you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. WHOEVER EATS MY FLESH AND DRINKS MY BLOOD REMAINS IN ME, AND I IN HIM.

How to love God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind? How important it is to know about it?

Many Christians profess that they love Jesus. Whether Catholics, Born Again, or some other denominations, they claim to love God. But how can we truly love God? Is it by just saying with our own lips that we love God? Let's see through the Bible.

Jn. 14:15 – 15 "If you love me, keep my commands

Jn. 14:21 – 21 Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them."

Jesus Himself told us that if we truly love Him, we must obey His commandments. Then why does Jesus wants us to love Him? What will He give us?

Luke 10:25-28 – 25 On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" 26 "What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you read it?" 27 He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'; and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'" 28 "You have answered correctly," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live."

We can see here that an expert in the law was asking and testing Jesus on what is written in the Law in order to have eternal life? We can understand that this guy that's expert in the law are referring to the Old Testament Law since the New Testament was not written yet during the time of Jesus here on earth. According to Jesus answer, in order for us to have eternal life, we must "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. This is written in the Law or Old Testament. Then we can have a clue that the way to fulfill this is by finding out in the Law or Old Testament. Lets see.

Deut. 6:5-9 – 5 LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. 6 These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. 7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. 8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. 9 WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES and on your gates.

Wow this was the same words that Jesus told the expert in the law. Then we can see a clue here on verse 9 that says "WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES". Now let's check for another clue on the same chapter.

Deut. 6:20-25 – 20 In the future, when your son asks you, "What is the meaning of the stipulations, decrees and laws the LORD our God has commanded you?" 21 tell him: "We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 22 Before our eyes the LORD sent signs and wonders—great and terrible—on Egypt and Pharaoh and his whole household. 23 But he brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land he promised on oath to our ancestors. 24 The LORD commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear the LORD our God, so that we might always prosper and be kept alive, as is the case today. 25 And if we are careful to obey all this law before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, that will be our righteousness."

This cult is currently infiltrating the US Marine Corps! More and more soldiers at Camp Lejeune in Jacksonville, NC are falling victim daily. These marines' lives are negatively impacted by their activity in the World Mission Society Church of God. They no longer want to be deployed, participate in maneuvers, work in the infantry, or uphold the duties and commitments involved in their profession. Many have strained friendships and ruined marriages. Others have trashed their future careers in the corps. Just this month (March 2012), the "church" has expanded to a home in Jacksonvill, NC. It is insane that our brave soldiers have faced grave dangers at war, yet have met perhaps their most destructive force here at home!

People who absolutely follow God's teachings and commandments seems abnormal to this world.

By: Bell on March 13, 2012 at 6:02 pm

The words of God are absolute, and there can not be any exceptions to the absoluteness. If you take exceptions to God's word, it is because you do not regard His words as absolute. When you carry them out absolutely, the absolute results will follow. God said, "Do not add and subtract" (Deut. 4:2), "Do not add and take away" (Rev. 22:18). And God gave a warning: If anyone adds anything to His words, He will add to him the plagues described in the Bible, and if anyone takes away from them, He will take away from him his share in the tree of life (eternal life). These words show well how absolute the word of God is and how authentic result it accompanies.

We can see how absolute God's word is and what blessing it brings from Abraham's case. God granted Isaac as an heir to Abraham who was 100 years old. To him, Isaac was absolute being and the most precious treasure among all his possessions. God, however, commanded Abraham to sacrifice Isaac as an offering whom he cherished and loved as much as his life, in order to test whether or not he loved God absolutely. Then Abraham made up his mind to obey God's command as more absolute than his possession. Those who stuck only to common sense might grumble against God and His disposal, saying "God! Why did You give me Isaac? Have I ever asked for a son? You gave me a son unilaterally, but now You intend to take him away from me. Why do You give me an agony shattering a ray of hope of old man? Abraham could have grumbled against God like that. But he obeyed God's will, with the faith that life, death, fortune, and misfortune of men depend upon God. So he determined to sacrifice Isaac as an offering. When he was about to kill Isaac, he heard the merciful voice of God, "Do not lay a hand on the boy." Such faithful obedience won him the praise of the people, that he was called "the father of faith".

Through the works of Noah, we can also find out what the result of the absolute faith is. In the days that not a drop of rain fell, God commanded Noah to make an ark (wooden ship) on the top of the mountain. In fact, it was beyond common sense; as for scale, the ark was to be 137 meters long, 23 meters wide, 14 meters high, and it was almost impossible to build such a tremendous ship with the techniques of those days. Of course, it can be construct easily with modern techniques including timbers and various kinds of building materials. However, it must have been difficult to build the ark with those day's technique, because it required high techniques and expenses with which today's shuttle can be made. Even under those circumstances, Noah never complained of God and began to construct the ark, believing that God would help him. It is estimated that it took as long as 40 years at least or even 100 years to make the ark. From this, we can guess it took a lot of perseverance for Noah to do the work. As the result of obeying the absolute words of God without adding or subtracting, only Noah and his family were saved when all the people were destroyed by the flood. Thus, the result of regarding the words of God as absolute was great blessing and joy.

Here is another case; Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was cured of his serious disease by obeying the word of God absolutely. When Naaman was suffering from mortal disease, leprosy, he visited Elisha who lived in the land of Israel, through the recommendation of Hebraic maidservant whom he kept in his house. Then Elisha didn't allow Naaman to see himself, but only sent a messenger to command him to wash himself seven times seven times in the Jordan. Naaman would go away in angry, counting impolitely Elisha's treatment for the commander of the army of a nation. For he expected that Elisha would come out to him and lay his hands on himself and cure of his disease. But the prescription for his disease was far from his thought, and he could not believe that he would be healed by such a recipe. But Naaman changed his mind and washed himself in the Jordan with the mind of obedience, and he was cured of his skin like that of little child (2 Kings 5:1-27). If general Naaman had not obeyed absolutely the word of God spoken through Elisha, he would have finished his miserable life as a leper.

Even when the Israelites were about to cross the Jordan in order to possess the land of Canaan after forty years in the desert, the absolute obedience was required. In the rainy season that the river overflowed all its banks, God commanded the Israelites to go ahead of them. In common knowledge, ferries or rafts at least would be required to cross a river. But Joshua believed absolutely that the words of God would bring forth a gracious result. Indeed, as soon as the Israelites dipped their feet into the Jordan, believing the words of God absolutely, so much water was pushed out, that they could cross over the Jordan as on dry land.

When the Israelites arrived in the land of Canaan, the fortress of Jericho stood dreadfully before them. Without conquering Jericho the firm fortress, they couldn't enter Canaan. Under such circumstance, they were ordered to march around the Jericho. It would be an ordinary way of conquering the fortress to build siege ramps and make ladders, arrows, spears, shields and battering rams for breaching the gate and to plan a strategy. However, God told them an unreasonable and strange operation beyond common sense, and those who believed God with common sense couldn't carry it out.

On the first day, they marched around the city once, but nothing happened. And on the second day, they marched around the city in the same manner, but it didn't still move at all. On the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth day, they did so. Those who didn't have absolute faith must have been anxious; they might have fallen into men's common sense, "We would rather sharpen our swords or make one more spear or make battering rams to break the gate". On the seventh day that they marched around the city seven times, they might have despaired deeply, doubting, "Will it collapse or not"? or "We may collapse from exhaustion". But what result did God give the Israelites who obeyed absolutely His words? When they shouted with a great shout, the wall collapsed. By conquering the city of Jericho, they prepared the foundation for entering the promised land of Canaan..

But after Israelites came out of Egypt, they didn't keep such absolute faith until the end. As a result, six hundred thousand men were killed miserably in the desert. As it is written:

Hebrews 3:17-19 [And with whom was he angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the desert? And to whom did God swear that they would never enter his rest if not to those who disobeyed? So we see that they were not able to enter, because of their unbelief.]

We come to a conclusion that no one can follow the commands of God without absolute obedience. Even what is beyond common sense will be settled naturally if we only carry it out with absolute obedience toward God. Such an absolute obedience is also required to keep the commands of God. Some persist in their arrogant opinions: "It doesn't matter whether we worship on Sunday or Saturday" or "If we appoint 25th of December as the holy birthday of Jesus Christ and celebrate it, though we don't celebrate Passover, God will be pleased with it", or "We will be saved, though we don't keep the Passover, for we have Communion every month or every week". The reason they say such nonsense is that they don't regard the words of God as absolute, but degrade them lower than the insistence of men. Those who believe God with their own thoughts will never be saved.

Sometimes, those who obey the words of God absolutely seem to be abnormal to the eyes of those who do not regard them as absolute: Naaman who washed himself even seven times in the dirty water of the Jordan, not in the clear water, the Israelites who marched around the city Jericho instead of attacking it, Abraham who was willing to sacrifice his precious son as an offering, Noah who made the ark on top of the mountains, sweating profusely, on the clear days. All of them might seem to be abnormal and crazy to the eyes of the people. But if we realize that God asks us to do something only for our own sake, we will obey God's words absolutely without persisting our own thought, by which we can become perfect. When God demands us absolute obedience, it is not to oppress us dictatorially, but to give benefits to us who cannot foresee the future.

These days, it is regarded as very reasonable and natural that men or animals or images of nature move as reality on television. But only 100 years ago, people couldn't even imagine such a thing at all; if anyone said that there would be television, he must have been treated as a mad man.

Men can not know the things to come 100 years or later or 10 years or one year later. Really they are ignorant, and they can't foresee what will happen even after a second. To them, what will God teach and what will He explain?

John 3:12 Jesus said to them ["I have spoken to you of earthly things and you do not believe; how then will you believe if I speak of heavenly things?"] Like Jesus' word, men cannot fathom God's great will.

But God always prepares righteous and beneficial results, and allows them only to those who believe and follow Him. Nevertheless, most people do not believe the fact completely, that they sometimes undergo sufferings and sometimes wander about and fall into death after all. Now, we should keep in mind that the way to proceed to the kingdom of heaven is only to obey the commands of God absolutely and to believe that we are to receive His absolute blessing after absolute obedience. God gave us absolute commands to give us His absolute love. God bless you all.

Today there is increasing tension in the whole world because of the news about disasters that are occurring in all parts of the earth. Continuous disasters such as earthquakes, tsunamis, volcanic eruptions, abnormal weather phenomena, in addition to wars and conflicts- The Bible already warned of these disasters thousands of years ago. It is not too much say that those disasters are pouring out all at once in this age – the age of the Holy Spirit which we are now living in.

The reason why God has restored the Passover in this age is to protect His people from disasters. Whenever a disaster was going to occur, God prepared in advance for His people to celebrate the Passover so that they would receive the sign of being God's people and escape the disaster.

Rev. 7:3-4 Then I saw another angel coming up from the East , having the "Seal of the living God". He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: "Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a Seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God."

Jn 6:27 Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. On him(Jesus) God the Father has placed his "Seal of Approval."

Since Jesus has been placed the seal of God, so we can be placed the seal of God through becoming "ONE with Jesus" that's the Passover!

Jn 6:54-56 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day...Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.

The Passover is the only way how to inherit the "Jesus' flesh and his Blood"

As proven in the Bible, before getting in Canaan (Heavenly Kingdom), We should keep the Passover.

This is the prophecy that the "Lost Passover of New Covenant" would be restored by true God at the last days so that God's people would have eternal life through partaking in the Passover to enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

"Aged Wine" means that the Passover wine hadn't been used for long time since abolishment of the Passover in A.D 325

Isaiah 25:6-9 "On this mountain"(zion-Isa.24:23) the LORD Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for all peoples, a banquet of "Aged Wine"- the best of meats and the finest of wines. On this mountain he will destroy the shroud that enfolds all peoples, the sheet that covers all nations; He swallow up death forever. The Sovereign LORD will wipe away the tears from all faces; he will remove the disgrace of his people from all the earth. The LORD has spoken. In that day they will say, "Surely this is our God trust in him, and save us. This is the LORD , we trusted in him; let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation"

I used to attend WMSCOG in Bogota NJ couple of years ago and I am still affected by their behavior. At that time the church was trying to transfer to Ridgewood NJ in which now they reside. I can honestly say that the people involve that church destroyed my spirit. This is my story — I was preached as an undergraduate in the university by a women. Back in that time I used to be very thirsty for the word of God and passionate about the bible. The women preached to me about the Sabbath day and how the Catholics are not following the word of God. I was convinced and decided to attend one of their lessons. I went to the lessons and was convinced again and got baptized. I kept attending the church, learning the lessons, learning how to recruit others to attend the church(a fruit for mother they will call it), clean zion, everything that I need to do to have a nice house in heaven they will say. I follow their teachings , prayed , and bought their books.. I also became very afraid about the end of the world and the outcome of my life and families. One day I started having a panic attack because the church will constantly say the end was so near that it felt it could happen any moment and I just didn't feel ready. As soon as the panic attack started the church leaders, member, and the women that brought me to that church turn their back on me. Now you will wonder why? I started to mentally breakdown and started having a psychosis (in other words not being all there mentally) I really wanted be part of the church and did not want to miss Sabbath day .. cause you know for salvation but I was denied to go to church on Saturday by the WMSCOG because according to them I need some Professional help. I took their advice and got helped and got tested nothing was wrong me , my result was being deeply depressed , why because I was not in the church. Then I started to go back to show proof that I am alright because according to their words which was "if you get better you can come back" but deep inside my gut I knew they were lying. When I went back I got sent home and a phone call by one of the leaders saying "Don't come near any of our members, and to our church again or will get a restrainer order against you!" After I was told that I went to some deep depression that lasted for six months. I really thought God has rejected me, I felt awful my spirit died .. I walked the earth like a zombie I didn't feel anything. No emotions, nothing I wanted to laugh I couldn't, I want to get mad I couldn't, I wanted to cry I couldn't... Also you must understand since I was going through this psychosis I called the members because I was scared and needed some support. Obviously that did not happen. I was treated like I was a freak, a dangerous person, and just unfit for their church. How can this church want to save everyone but when they have a challenge and someone gets sick they just throw them to the pit? A person they used to call brother or sister? A person they use to say I love you? I was also told once you leave the church you will have a terrible life? Like you will have the worst luck ever? That's why I thought too, but unfortunately, my life did not get worse it got better I got up one day and said to myself " These people are not going to point the finger in my situation as to see what happens when you don't follow" I ended transferring to a better university got B.A. in Psychology did very well in that field. It's ironic how life is, I ended up going through a mental breakdown and got educated in the mental health field. I must say at the time I was preached I was weak minded and very gullible and susceptible to these things. As an educated professional many young people especially those in college are very gullible and weak minded. However, my mistake was not being very educated in the teachings of the bible. If I was preached being very educated in the teachings of the bible I believe that could change things. To WMSCOG members that may call me a liar, satan, etc... You believe in God right? well let God be the judge of my situation with your church because as now my belief in God is not there no more because of your members behavior.

Hi Damaged spirit,

I'm so sorry to hear about your experience with WMSCOG, but I am so glad that you are free from them and in the process of recovering from all the false things they taught you.

As I was reading your blog, I couldn't help but think that perhaps God allowed you to go through that in order to protect you from worse things. In fact, you being kicked out seems to me a blessing in disguise – even though they abandoned you in confusion, you are free from the aggressive way that they go about stealing your time, money, heart and soul. They no longer will twist scripture and confuse you about who God is.

I also feel that it is of no small significance that you are now studying psychology and learning about the way the mind works. Perhaps after you make a full recovery from the damaging effects of this cult, you will be able to help other people who have gone through similar situations. I believe that God has a unique call for you.

Also, I hope that you will be able to find a local church and meet Christians who truly care for you. Jesus said, "You will recognize them by their fruit" (Matthew 7:16). They will show love and concern for you and help you carry your burdens (Galatians 6:2). I pray you can get plugged into a good and TRUE community of Christians who will walk with you as you develop your relationship with God and know the love of Jesus Christ which surpasses all understanding :)

Blessings to you.

Also, I just wanted to make clear what I quoted in Matthew 7:16 – Jesus was warning about false prophets and saying you will know them by their fruit – they may appear friendly, but inwardly are "ferocious wolves". True followers of Christ on the other hand will demonstrate fruit of the Spirit – Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness and self control (Galatians 5:22-23). Sorry, just wanted to clarify...blessings!

1 Corinthians 15:12 But if it is preached that Christ has been raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13 If there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. 14 And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless and so is your faith. 15 More than that, we are then found to be false witnesses about God, for we have testified about God that he raised Christ from the dead. But he did not raise him if in fact the dead are not raised. 16 For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised either. 17 And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins. 18 Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost. 19 If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied. 20 But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

Christ resurrected as the Firstfruits. Just as Christ resurrected, so our body will also resurrect and transform into an angelic form.

Christ Ahnsahnghong taught us that we are like maggot or worms. At first, they look like hopeless because they can only crawl. They cannot even jump or can see what's in front of them as they can only touch. By the time will come when the maggot or worm will become butterflies. They will spread their wings and fly around with freedom. Through God's creation we can understand God's love for Their children.

Job 25:6 how much less a mortal, who is but a maggot—a human being, who is only a worm!

1 Corinthians 15:50 I declare to you, brothers and sisters, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. 51 Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed— 52 in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. 53 For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality. 54 When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory."

55 "Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?"

56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. 57 But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

Luke 24:1 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. 2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, 3 but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. 5 In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? 6 He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 7 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.' " 8 Then they remembered his words. 9 When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. 10 It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. 11 But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense. 12 Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. Bending over, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he went away, wondering to himself what had happened.

13 Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. 14 They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. 15 As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; 16 but they were kept from recognizing him. 17 He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?"

They stood still, their faces downcast. 18 One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, "Are you the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?"

19 "What things?" he asked.

"About Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. 20 The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; 21 but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. 22 In addition, some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning 23 but didn't find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. 24 Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see Jesus."

25 He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" 27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

28 As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus continued on as if he were going farther. 29 But they urged him strongly, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them.

30 When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. 31 Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. 32 They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?"

33 They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together 34 and saying, "It is true! The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon." 35 Then the two told what had happened on the way, and how Jesus was recognized by them when he broke the bread.

Brothers and Sisters, let's take the bread of the Day of Resurrection so that our spiritual eyes will be opened and surely we can recognize our true savior in these last days. PLEASE DO NOT TAKE THE EGG OF EASTER BECAUSE IT IS FROM PAGAN, NOT FROM THE BIBLE. Thanks to Christ Ahnsahnghong for restoring the true teachings of Jesus 2000 years ago. Let's us become the spiritual butterfly, the Heavenly Children of God who will inherit our Heavenly Father and Mother's Kingdom of Heaven and reign forever and ever with everlasting joy and everlasting life. God bless you all.

Romans 16:17 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.
18 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

Ahn being a Buddhist probably doubted his own pagan religion and poor chap joined the SDA trying to seek truth just like you Bell who is stuck with the WMSCOG

Jesus said: "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." (John 14:6) John: "It is finished" (19: 30).fulfilling the last prophecy on the cross

These words were meant for the dead Ahnsahnghong too
We may still find some maggots and worms crawling around his bones in the grave

WAKE UP PREACHER OF A FALSE DOCTRINE!

Bell,
please tell me, of what use is it for COG members to observe Easter Sunday? After all, the "age" of Jesus Christ the Jewish Messiah has passed, and now you have your "heavenly mother" here on earth. You don't believe Jesus Christ is a valid name anymore, as his name is "Ahn Sang Hong". You don't believe Ahn Sang Hong has died for the sins and resurrected on the third day. You believe he is the reincarnation of Jesus Christ, from Jewish genetics reincarnated into Korean genetics. Ahn Sang Hong ascended supposedly, without having died on this earth. If that is so, why would any COG member choose to celebrate Easter Sunday?

Oh, and by the way.. if we observe passover as many times as we need to remind ourselves of His death & resurrection, why is it so bad? After all, Jesus Himself said as long as we do it, we await His return. The common way of observing communion in the church is through grape juice and crackers. How is it sinful to "over do" the passover? Dates don't matter. It's whether we worship Him in our heart or not. Forget rituals, I want to worship the Lord with my full self. If I must remind myself of what Christ did in communion daily, so be it!

I think you've got a little problem here. Maggots and worms do not become butterflies. Maggots become flies (such as houseflies), and worms are always worms. If Ahnsahng Hong were God he would have used more correct wording, or (if it's a translation problem) he would have had his translators do a better job.

You also said,
"PLEASE NEVER TAKE THE EGG OF EASTER BECAUSE IT IS FROM PAGAN, NOT FROM THE BIBLE."

You should learn a little more about Christian history. The Easter egg is from Lent, not from paganism. Just because pagans liked eggs too doesn't mean the Christians copied them. Please read more about the WMS's misunderstandings about Easter:

Many Christians profess that they love Jesus. Whether Catholics, Born Again, or some other denominations, they claim to love God. But how can we truly love God? Is it by just saying with our own lips that we love God? Let's see through the Bible.

Reply

Jn. 14:15 – 15 "If you love me, keep my commands

Jn. 14:21 – 21 Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them."

Jesus Himself told us that if we truly love Him, we must obey His commandments. Then why does Jesus wants us to love Him? What will He give us?

Luke 10:25-28 – 25 On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" 26 "What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you read it?" 27 He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'; and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'" 28 "You have answered correctly," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live."

We can see here that an expert in the law was asking and testing Jesus on what is written in the Law in order to have eternal life? We can understand that this guy that's expert in the law are referring to the Old Testament Law since the New Testament was not written yet during the time of Jesus here on earth. According to Jesus answer, in order for us to have eternal life, we must "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. This is written in the Law or Old Testament. Then we can have a clue that the way to fulfill this is by finding out in the Law or Old Testament. Lets see.

Deut. 6:5-9 – 5 LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. 6 These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. 7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. 8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. 9 WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES and on your gates.

Wow this was the same words that Jesus told the expert in the law. Then we can see a clue here on verse 9 that says "WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES". Now let's check for another clue on the same chapter.

Deut. 6:20-25 – 20 In the future, when your son asks you, "What is the meaning of the stipulations, decrees and laws the LORD our God has commanded you?" 21 tell him: "We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 22 Before our eyes the LORD sent signs and wonders—great and terrible—on Egypt and Pharaoh and his whole household. 23 But he brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land he promised on oath to our ancestors. 24 The LORD commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear the LORD our God, so that we might always prosper and be kept alive, as is the case today. 25 And if we are careful to obey all this law before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, that will be our righteousness."

Ok so this are the commandment's clue are:

- WRITE THEM ON THE DOOR FRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES
- COMMANDMENT THAT BROUGHT THE ISRAELITES OUT OF EGYPT

Then let's see what is this.

Exo. 12:1-14 – 1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt, 2 “This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year. 3 Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb[a] for his family, one for each household. 4 If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbor, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat. 5 The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats. 6 Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the members of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight. 7 THEN THEY ARE TO TAKE SOME OF THE BLOOD AND PUT IT ON THE SIDES AND TOPS OF THE DOOR FRAMES OF THE HOUSES WHERE THEY EAT THE LAMBS. 8 That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast. 9 Do not eat the meat raw or boiled in water, but roast it over a fire—with the head, legs and internal organs. 10 Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it. 11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; IT IS THE LORD’S PASSOVER.

12 “On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn of both people and animals, and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. 13 The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are, and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

14 “This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD—a lasting ordinance.

Now its clear. The PASSOVER is the commandment that would fulfill the “LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH”. When the Israelites kept the Passover, they were freed from Egypt. So it is the PASSOVER.

Then 2000 years ago, Jesus Christ established the Passover of the New Covenant which is the reality.

Lk. 22:8 – 8 Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover.”

Lk. 22:14-15 – 14 When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. 15 And he said to them, “I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

Lk. 22:19-20 – 19 And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me.” 20 In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you

By keeping the Passover, we can truly love God and receive eternal life.

John 6:53-55 — JESUS SAID to them, "I TELL YOU THE TRUTH, UNLESS you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. WHOEVER EATS MY FLESH AND DRINKS MY BLOOD REMAINS IN ME, AND I IN HIM.

Thanks to Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong, the 2nd Coming Christ according to the prophecies of the Bible, for reminding us the precious truth.

Jn. 14:25-26 – 25 "All this I have spoken while still with you. 26 But the COUNSELOR, THE HOLY SPIRIT, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and WILL REMIND YOU OF EVERYTHING I HAVE SAID TO YOU.

Let's have true faith in Jesus by following His Words of Life so that we can truly Love Him and receive eternal life.

Jn. 3:16 – 16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM SHALL NOT PERISH BUT HAVE ETERNAL LIFE

Jam. 2:17-19 – 17 In the same way, FAITH BY ITSELF, IF IT IS NOT ACCOMPANIED BY ACTION IS DEAD. 18 But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds." Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do. 19 You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

John 8:47 Whoever belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

John 6:53-55 — JESUS SAID to them, "I TELL YOU THE TRUTH, UNLESS you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. WHOEVER EATS MY FLESH AND DRINKS MY BLOOD REMAINS IN ME, AND I IN HIM.

Luke 10:25-28 – 25 On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" 26 "What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you read it?" 27 He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'; and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'" 28 "You have answered correctly," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live."

Thanks to Father Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem for teaching us this precious truth.

Many Christians profess that they love Jesus. Whether Catholics, Born Again, or some other denominations, they claim to love God. But how can we truly love God? Is it by just saying with our own lips that we love God? Let's see through the Bible.

Jn. 14:15 – 15 "If you love me, keep my commands

Jn. 14:21 – 21 Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them."

Jesus Himself told us that if we truly love Him, we must obey His commandments. Then why does Jesus want us to love Him? What will He give us?

Luke 10:25-28 – 25 On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" 26 "What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you read it?" 27 He answered, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'; and, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'" 28 "You have answered correctly," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live."

We can see here that an expert in the law was asking and testing Jesus on what is written in the Law in order to have eternal life? We can understand that this guy that's expert in the law are referring to the Old Testament Law since the New Testament was not written yet during the time of Jesus here on earth. According to Jesus answer, in order for us to have eternal life, we must "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH. This is written in the Law or Old Testament. Then we can have a clue that the way to fulfill this is by finding out in the Law or Old Testament. Lets see.

Ok so this are the commandment's clue are:

1 Corinthians 13:1 If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. 2 If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. 3 If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

1 Corinthians 13:13 And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

LOVING GOD IS GREATER THAN FAITH IN GOD. GOD BLESS YOU ALL.

The Roman Catholic Church claims to have started in Matthew 16:18 when Christ supposedly appointed Peter as the first Pope. However, the honest and objective student of the Scriptures and history soon discovers that the foundation of the Roman church is none other than the pagan mystery religion of ancient Babylon.

By: t on April 28, 2012 at 8:54 am

Reply

While enduring the early persecutions of the Roman government (65-300 A.D.), most of professing Christianity went through a gradual departure from New Testament doctrine concerning church government, worship and practice. Local churches ceased to be autonomous by giving way to the control of "bishops" ruling over hierarchies. The simple form of worship from the heart was replaced with the rituals and splendor of paganism. Ministers became "priests," and pagans became "Christians" by simply being sprinkled with water. This tolerance of an unregenerate membership only made things worse. SPRINKLED PAGANISM is about the best definition for Roman Catholicism.

The Roman Emperor Constantine established himself as the head of the church around 313 A.D., which made this new "Christianity" the official religion of the Roman Empire. The first actual Pope in Rome was probably Leo I (440-461 A.D.), although some claim that Gregory I was the first (590-604 A.D.). This ungodly system eventually ushered in the darkest period of history known to man, properly known as the "Dark Ages" (500-1500 A.D.). Through popes, bishops, and priests, Satan ruled Europe, and Biblical Christianity became illegal.

Throughout all of this, however, there remained individual groups of true Christians, such as the Waldensens and the Anabaptists who would not conform to the Roman system.

The Papacy and Priesthood

In the Bible there are no popes or priests to rule over the church. Jesus Christ is our High Priest (Heb. 3:1; 4:14-15; 5:5; 8:1; 9:11), and all true Christians make up a spiritual priesthood (1 Pet. 2:5). Jesus Christ has sanctified all Christians who believe on Him (Heb. 10:10-11), so all priests today are unnecessary and unscriptural. Furthermore, the practice of calling a priest "father" is forbidden by Jesus Christ in Matthew 23:9. There is only ONE mediator between God and men (1 Tim. 2:5).

The Catholic church teaches that Peter was the first Pope and the earthly head of the church, but the Bible never says this once. In fact, it was Peter himself who spoke against "being lords over God's heritage" in 1 Peter 5:3.

Popes do not marry, although Peter did (Mat. 8:14; I Cor. 9:5). The Bible never speaks of Peter being in Rome, and it was Paul, not Peter, who wrote the epistle to the Romans. In the New Testament, Paul wrote 100 chapters with 2,325 verses, while Peter wrote only 8 chapters with 166 verses. In Peter's first epistle he stated that he was simply "an apostle of Jesus Christ," not a Pope (I Pet. 1:1). The Roman papacy and priesthood is just a huge fraud to keep members in bondage to a corrupt pagan church.

The Worship of Mary

Roman Catholics believe that Mary, the mother of Jesus, remained a virgin after the birth of Jesus and was sinless all of her life. She is worshiped in the Catholic church as the "Mother of God" and the "Queen of Heaven." St. Bernard stated that she was crowned "Queen of Heaven" by God the Father, and that she currently sits upon a throne in Heaven making intercession for Christians.

The Bible teaches otherwise. In the Bible, Mary was a sinner just like the rest of us. She said herself that she needed a "Saviour" (Lk. 1:47), and she even had to offer a sacrifice for her sins in Luke 2:24. Jesus was only her "firstborn" son, according to Matthew 1:25, because she later had other children as well (Mt. 13:55; Gal. 1:19; Psa. 69:8). There's only ONE mediator between God and men, and it isn't Mary (I Tim. 2:5). The last time we hear from Mary in the Bible she is praying WITH the disciples, not being prayed to BY the disciples (Acts 1:14). The Bible never exalts Mary above anyone else. Neither should we.

Purgatory

The Catholic Church teaches that a Christian's soul must burn in purgatory after death until all of their sins have been purged. To speed up the purging process, money may be paid to a priest so he can pray and have special masses for an earlier release.

This heresy began creeping into the Roman Church during the reign of Pope Gregory around the end of the sixth century, and it has no scriptural support. In fact, Jesus warned us about this pagan practice in Matthew 23:14 when He spoke of those who devoured widows houses and made long prayers for a pretence. Psalm 49:6-7 tells us that a person couldn't redeem a loved one, even if such a place did exist: "They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches; None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him:"

Peter addresses this issue in Acts 8:20 when he says, "Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money." God's word is clearly against the doctrine of purgatory.

The Mass

By perverting the Christian practice of the Lord's Supper (Mat. 26:26-28; I Cor. 11:23-27), the Catholic Church has created the Mass, which they believe to be a continual sacrifice of Jesus Christ:

"Christ...commanded that his bloody sacrifice on the Cross should be daily renewed by an unbloody sacrifice of his body and blood in the Mass under the simple elements of bread and wine." (The Catholic Encyclopedia, Vol. 10, Pg. 13, Article: "Mass, Sacrifice of")

Jesus never made such a command. If you'll check the above references in Matthew 26 and I Corinthians 11, you'll see for yourself that the Lord's Supper is a MEMORIAL and a SHOWING of Christ's death until He comes again. It is not a sacrifice. The Catholic Encyclopedia states the following:

"In the celebration of the Holy Mass, the bread and wine are changed into the body and blood of Christ. It is called transubstantiation, for in the Sacrament of the Eucharist the substance of bread and wine do not remain, but the entire substance of bread is changed into the body of Christ, and the entire substance of wine is changed into his blood, the species or outward semblance of bread and wine alone remaining." (Vol. 4, pg. 277, Article: "Consecration")

The Catholic Church teaches that the "Holy Mass" is a LITERAL EATING AND DRINKING OF THE LITERAL FLESH AND BLOOD OF JESUS CHRIST. The priest supposedly has the power to change the bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ.

Now, what does God's word say about such practices? If you'll read Genesis 9:4, Leviticus 17:11-12, and Acts 15:29, you will find that God absolutely FORBIDS the drinking of blood all through the Bible.

Rome teaches that the Mass is a continual "sacrifice" of Jesus Christ, but God's word states that Jesus made the FINAL sacrifice on Calvary! This is made perfectly clear in Hebrews 10:10-12:

"By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins: But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God."

The mass is unnecessary and unscriptural.

Image Worship

The Catholic religion is filled with all sorts of symbols, images, and relics. The Catechism of the Council of Trent states these words:

"It is lawful to have images in the Church, and to give honor and worship unto them..."

It's lawful to honor and worship images? Not according to God's word. Exodus 20:4-5 says, "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me." Image worship is unscriptural and will end with the eternal damnation of those who practice it (Rev. 14:11).

"I" Who Belong to God and "I" Who Belong to Myself

By: Bell on April 30, 2012
at 11:58 am

On our journey of faith towards the everlasting kingdom of heaven, what kind of person am I—"I who belong to God" or "I who belong to myself"? As we reflect upon ourselves, we come to realize that we have often belonged to "myself" rather than "God." Of course, we used to think to ourselves that we should become "I who belong to God." However, there were many times when we didn't have our life completely belonging to God.

Reply

Now, let's take some time to examine ourselves if we live as "I who belong to God" or as "I who belong to myself," through the words of God.

Stubbornness and arrogance of "I who belong to myself" The Bible teaches that those who belong to God listen to His word, but that those who do not listen to God's word do not belong to God.

Jn 8:47 "He who belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

The person who hears what God says and obeys Him is the one who belongs to God. On the contrary, the person who does not obey God's word is the one who lives as "I who belong to myself," not as "I who belong to God." If one lives as "I who belong to myself," it is because he still has arrogance and stubbornness. One's stubbornness and unrepentant heart causes him to bring God's punishment upon himself.

Ro 2:1-5 . . . Or do you show contempt for the riches of his kindness, tolerance and patience, not realizing that God's kindness leads you toward repentance? But because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of God's wrath, when his righteous judgment will be revealed. If anyone still has arrogance and an unrepentant heart, it is proof that he lives as "I who belong to myself." Even though God tries to lead human beings to the kingdom of heaven, if they stick to their own thoughts and follow their own way rather than God's, they will become alienated from the eternal heavenly kingdom and finally bring destruction upon themselves in the end. We must give up our stubbornness and arrogance and live according to God's word, as "I who belong to God," not as "I who belong to myself."

"I who belong to God" and obedience

An old woman was throwing her stick up in the air. She repeated the same thing over and over again. When a stranger passing by saw this, he was curious and asked, "Excuse me, ma'am. May I ask what you are doing here? Why are you throwing that stick up in the air repeatedly?"

Then the old lady said, "I am throwing my stick in order to decide where to go, but its tip always points toward the left even though I have thrown it so many times. I want to go to the right, but only if the stick points toward the right. So, I keep throwing my stick until its tip points toward the right."

She should have just gone to the right if she had wanted to go to the right, but she stubbornly continued to insist on satisfying her own intention. This is the way we human beings do things.

It is possible to live a life as "I who belong to God" only when each of us fully obeys the word of God. Among the teachings of God, if we follow what we like and neglect what we don't like and keep insisting on our own way, it is no different than the foolish act of throwing a stick until its tip points toward the right, isn't it? We will incur the wrath of God if we do not follow the truth of life, which God has given us in order to lead us to the everlasting kingdom of heaven, but instead twist God's words to fit our own thoughts.

1 Sa 15:22-23 But Samuel replied: "Does the LORD delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the voice of the LORD? To obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed is better than the fat of rams. For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and arrogance like the evil of idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has rejected you as king."

The Bible says that to obey is better than sacrifice and that arrogance is like the sin of idolatry. God has prepared gracious results for those who obey Him. However, an unfortunate destiny awaits the people who do not obey but insist on their own way and live as "I who belong to myself," not as "I who belong to God," like Saul.

The fate of those who do not belong to God
Such an example is also found in the journey of the Israelites from Egypt to Canaan. Most of them didn't live as "I who belong to God" but as "I who belong to myself." For this reason, they continued to grumble all the way God led them through. They complained about having no food or water.

Nevertheless, God brought forth water for them out of the rock, and rained down bread from heaven for them to eat for 40 years.

Although God had prepared everything for them and guided them, they didn't realize the will of God. They didn't look at things with the eye of faith but judged by their own thoughts and standards. As a result, God's wrath came upon them and they were all destroyed in the desert before entering the land of Canaan.

1 Co 10:1-5 For I do not want you to be ignorant of the fact, brothers, that our forefathers were all under the cloud and that they all passed through the sea. They were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. They all ate the same spiritual food and drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank from the spiritual rock that accompanied them, and that rock was Christ. Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them; their bodies were scattered over the desert.

God was not pleased with most of the Israelites because they didn't belong to Him. Taking warning from the past history of the Israelites who lived as "I who belong to myself" and ended up being destroyed, we must throw "myself" away from within us.

In choosing priests and position or title holders, God has set the condition that they must not be overbearing (Tit 1:7). He has called those who are willing to do the will of God, instead of insisting on their own way, to be His ministers and workers.

2 Pe 2:9-12 if this is so, then the Lord knows how to rescue godly men from trials and to hold the unrighteous for the day of judgment, while continuing their punishment. This is especially true of those who follow the corrupt desire of the sinful nature and despise authority. Bold and arrogant, these men are not afraid to slander celestial beings; yet even angels, although they are stronger and more powerful, do not bring slanderous accusations against such beings in the presence of the Lord. But these men blaspheme in matters they do not understand. They are like brute beasts, creatures of instinct, born only to be caught and destroyed, and like beasts they too will perish.

God gives warning to the people who live as "I who belong to myself" by saying that He will punish "those who insist on themselves and do not fear God" on the Day of Judgment. We should try to be born again as "I who belong to God" by obeying God's will. In addition, we should always discern what pleases God and what we ought to do as God's people.

We can see Elohim when we throw away our stubbornness

We believe in God the Father and God the Mother, following God's will and teachings described in the Bible. However, most people in the world reject the teachings of God and insist on their own way. Their knowledge, fixed idea and prejudice become a hindrance on the way to God.

We are in the process of being changed into "I who belong to God" by making efforts to obediently follow the word of God although it is contrary to our thoughts.

Throwing away everything that is against the word of God, we must honor and worship God correctly only in accordance with the teachings of God.

Through the book of Genesis, let's meet God who is inconsistent with the common notion of Him, widely held by most people

Ge 1:26-27 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground." So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

God said, "Let 'us' make man . . . " And when man was made in God's own image, male and female were created. Through this fact, we can easily understand that God has not only a male image but also a female image. If God were only one, it would be a great contradiction for God to say, "Let us make man in our image." In spite of clear evidence, many people in the world, reading the same Bible, stubbornly insist that there is only God the Father. We cannot help but doubt how they read the Bible.

God has taught us that there is God the Mother as well as God the Father, on the first page of the Bible which He has given human beings for their salvation. People have called the male image of God—the male God—"Father" for a long time.

Mt 6:9 "This, then, is how you should pray: 'Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, . . . ' "

Jesus told His disciples to call God in heaven "our Father." Reading this verse, many people jump to the conclusion that God is only one—the Father, and have a fixed idea that there can never be God the Mother. In actuality, however, the reason why Jesus mentioned only God the Father when He taught His disciples how to pray was because God the Mother was prophesied to appear in the last days—the age of the Holy Spirit.

Gal 4:26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

This word is also definitely recorded in the Bible. Nevertheless, they do not believe in God the Mother because of their stubbornness and their unrepentant heart, so they are storing up God's wrath against themselves. They acknowledge God the Father, but insist that God the Mother doesn't exist, even after they confirm Her existence through the Bible. They are just like the old lady who insists on throwing her stick until the tip of the stick points to the right. In order to be saved, we must throw away this kind of stubbornness. Among all living things on the earth, there is nothing that can exist without a father or mother. Not only the Bible but also all creatures in the universe show that there is God the Mother as well as God the Father. Despite this clear evidence, people fail to find God the Mother because of their own stubbornness.

Rev 22:17 The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.

Elohim, who created male and female in Their own image as recorded in the first chapter of the Bible, were God the Father who was the model for man and God the Mother who was the model for woman. In the last chapter of the Bible, Elohim appear as the Spirit and the Bride and call us to come and receive the water of life. The Spirit is God the Father who is to come in the last days. So, the Bride, the Wife of the Spirit, refers to God the Mother.

Today, the world is suffering from spiritual thirst. It is because the people do not know the Spirit and the Bride who give them the water of life. If they were able to receive the water of life without coming to the Spirit and the Bride, it would not be necessary for the Spirit and the Bride to come to this earth and They would not call us to come and receive the water of life.\nLet's become God's children who belong to God

The Bible states that we have not only God the Father but also God the Mother, and that we can receive salvation only when we come to God the Father and God the Mother. Each of us should become the "person who belongs to God" by obeying the will of God completely, keeping in mind God's providence that is shown through all things and God's will which is contained in the Bible. 2 Co 10:3-6 . . . The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

God's word is true and perfect, which contains no lie. Any theory in this world is not needed before the word of God. God's word demolishes all speculations and takes captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. So, since God's word testifies about God the Mother, we must forsake our own thoughts and obey the Word completely.

The reason we can call God "Father" is that we are members of the heavenly family. In a family, the mother is the comforter and the supplier of warmth and love; if children return home, they call out for their mother first. This is the instinct given by God to all human beings. Many people in the world mention the love of Christ, without even knowing the love of God the Mother who has come to this earth to find Her lost children. However, without knowing Mother who is love and life, no one can live in Her perfect love. There are still many souls who do not know God the Mother but deny Her and insist on their foolishness. Even to those stubborn souls, God has testified about God the Mother from the beginning of the world until now. Let's help them throw away their stubbornness and become "those who belong to God" so that they can be saved. Following God's command to "go and make disciples of all nations," let us lead all people around the world into the arms of Mother, as "those who belong to God," so not only we but also all other people in the world will know Mother and long for Her love and salvation.

I truly desire that you will all receive the blessings of heaven by faithfully carrying out the valuable mission of preaching God the Father and God the Mother.

Today, the world is suffering from spiritual thirst without hearing the words of God and from rampant disasters (Am 8:11; Jer 44:23).

Nevertheless, some people deny God's word and insist, "The Passover of the new covenant is not the truth of salvation. So we don't need to celebrate it." Jesus rebuked the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, who were religious leaders in those days, for their hypocrisy and said that the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven was not given to them. Even now, there are people like them who claim to believe in God but do not understand the will of God correctly. As the Bible says that God's people are destroyed from lack of knowledge, unless they know God's word and obey it, they cannot help but end up going the way of destruction (Hos 4:6; Isa 9:16; Matthew 23).

The Passover, the truth of salvation, shines more brightly in the age of disasters. God has taught us that the Passover is a lasting ordinance and that we must preach this Passover for the generations to come. First, let us understand that God's word is the absolute, unbreakable promise of salvation, and realize fully how precious and good the truth given by God is, through the words of the Bible.

The Bible viewed from the standpoint of eternal life
The universe created by God is an infinite world. If you count one star each second, it would take you more than 6,000 years just to count the stars in the galaxy we belong to. There are about 200 billion galaxies in the universe. This is just the number of the stars that have been discovered by scientists. Considering the number of the stars which the scientists have not been able to discover, there will be an immeasurable, infinite number of stars in the universe.

One second in our world is equal to 300 trillion years in the particle world. According to scientists, the earth is approximately 4.5 billion years old, and the universe is about 15 billion years old. Considering this fact, 300 trillion years are an almost infinite time.

One second, which is a mere blink of an eye in the human world, is 300 trillion years in the particle world. So, viewed from the standpoint of particles, the human world can never be understood. Likewise, from the perspective of the human world, the world of God—the spiritual world—cannot be understood. That is why God has given the Bible to us, human beings. As the faraway stars in the universe cannot be clearly observed without a telescope, so the kingdom of God cannot be seen except through the Bible.

The kingdom of heaven—the world of angels, which we are going to soon, is an eternal world, where there is no limit to space (Da 7:18). We, human beings, are destined to die, being confined by the barriers of time and space. In order to lead us to the eternal kingdom of heaven, God has wanted to give us eternal life.

Only God can give us eternal life. To give us eternal life—the greatest gift of all, God wrote the Bible, and personally came to this earth with the gift.

Jn 5:39-40 "You diligently study the Scriptures because you think that by them you possess eternal life. These are the Scriptures that testify about me, yet you refuse to come to me to have life."

Jn 10:10 "The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full."

Jesus pointed out exactly how we should view the Bible. Some people think that the Bible is just a book which teaches morals and ethics. However, the most important thing that we have to find in the Bible is eternal life. So, we must view the Bible from the standpoint of eternal life.

If we do not regard God's word written in the Bible as absolute, we can never receive eternal life. To get eternal life, we must properly know God who gives us eternal life and come to Him. However, the Jews did not believe the Bible, so they could not recognize God when He came to them; they rejected God because He came in the flesh and looked at Him with doubtful eyes, so they eventually committed the sin of crucifying Him on the cross.

God established the new covenant to give us eternal life. The last part of the Bible concludes that we must not add to or take away from the words of God, who is the source of eternal life.

Rev 22:18-19 I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds anything to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book. And if anyone takes words away from this book of prophecy, God will take away from him his share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

The above words show that if we teach people the things that have been added to or subtracted from the teachings of the Bible, we will not only receive the plagues but also lose the privilege to enter the kingdom of God. This means that we must follow every teaching of the Bible exactly as it is.

Jn 13:15 "I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you."

Jesus personally set an example of what we should do so that we would not add to or take away from the Bible but try to get eternal life. Among the examples of Christ, let's take a look at His example of celebrating the Passover.

Lk 22:7-15 Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover." . . . They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover. When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer."

The four Gospels of the Bible, which describe the works of the Twelve Apostles with Jesus, devote a great deal of space to the gracious scene of Jesus and the apostles celebrating the Passover. We need to take a careful look at this scene, as an example of Christ.

All the disciples of Jesus, including Peter and John, celebrated the Passover. Among them, there was no one who rejected the Passover, saying, "It doesn't need to be celebrated. So I'll not keep it." Most of all, Jesus Himself desired to keep the Passover and directed His disciples to prepare the Passover. The purpose of Jesus' coming to this earth was to redeem human beings from sins and to lead them to the way of eternal salvation. And Jesus eagerly desired to celebrate the Passover. So, it must be something that is very closely related to our salvation.

At the Passover Supper, Jesus Christ established the new covenant, through His word of promise with the bread and wine of the Passover as His body and blood.

Lk 22:19-20 And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you."

There was a certain reason why Jesus said, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover." Whoever eats Jesus' flesh and drinks His blood has eternal life (Jn 6:54). So, through the Passover Covenant, Jesus wanted to give human beings eternal life.

The New Covenant Passover is the truth which Christ established through His precious flesh and blood to save us, sinners, who were destined for eternal death. God prophesied through His prophets how important the new covenant is to human beings.

God's will in establishing the new covenant

Jer 31:31-34 "The time is coming," declares the LORD, "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. . . . This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time," declares the LORD. "I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest," declares the LORD. "For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more."

God's people must have the law of the new covenant in their hearts. "I will be the God of the people who keep the new covenant; I will forgive all the sins of those who have the new covenant in their hearts." This is the promise of God. Human beings may break their promises, but God never breaks His promise but fulfills it without fail.

People who do not walk in the new covenant can never receive the forgiveness of their sins. It is because God has not promised the forgiveness of sins to those people. Unless we have the forgiveness of sins, we cannot gain eternal life, and if we fail to receive eternal life, we cannot go to heaven. That was why Jesus proclaimed the Passover as the new covenant and eagerly desired to celebrate it.

Nevertheless, some people regard the Passover merely as a simple law of the Old Testament, and they insist that it does not need to be observed. Jesus eagerly desired to keep it, but they insist that there is no need to celebrate it. Can they be considered as true believers in Jesus? The Bible says about them, "They claim to know God, but by their actions they deny him" (Tit 1:16). They claim to believe in Jesus, but they reject the truth of salvation which Jesus desired to keep and wanted to give to human beings. How can they call themselves true shepherds or true Christians?

Mt 7:21-23 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'"

As we can see through what Jesus said, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Pass-over," it is God's will that we should keep the Passover. Satan never wants the holy will of God to be proclaimed to the whole world. So, we can clearly discern whose side the people are on, who oppose God totally by continuously slandering the new covenant and insisting on absurd theories. So at the day of the Last Judgment, to those people who call out to Jesus, "Lord, Lord," He will say, "I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!" This means that they have nothing to do with Jesus.

The Passover of the new covenant is the truth of salvation that God has authenticated. It is the truth of truths, which God has restored since so many ancestors of faith shed their blood of sacrifice during the Dark Ages. So, even though there are people who stand against the truth, we must not stop preaching it.

Do the new covenant, and proclaim it
There are still numerous people who do not even know yet what the new covenant is. Let us preach the Passover to as many as possible—to our family, neighbors, and many other acquaintances around us. Since the Passover contains God's promise of salvation for human beings, we must proclaim this promise to all people on the earth.

1 Co 11:23-26 For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me." For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

In the above verses, what is the Apostle Paul preaching to the saints of the early Church? He is preaching to them the truth of the Passover which Jesus established, saying, "This [bread] is my body. . . . This cup [wine] is the new covenant in my blood." Paul said that what he passed on to them was a command from God—not his own opinion, and he called himself a minister of the new covenant (2 Co 3:6).

We keep the Passover of the new covenant, serving our Holy Heavenly Father and Mother and walking in the true teachings of Father and Mother. God has acknowledged us, who have the law of the new covenant in our hearts, as His own people, saying, "You are My people," and has become our God. Only the people of the kingdom of God can enter God's kingdom. God has also given us, His children, a gracious promise to let all disasters pass over us, who abide in the new covenant, at the Last Judgment.

Through the Passover of the new covenant, God has given us citizenship in heaven and has led us to eternal life and salvation. This year, let us all preach the boundless grace of God to the ends of the earth. No matter what kind of sophistry the false prophets use to deceive us, we must be able to discern from Christ's point of view. Through the words of the Bible, we can figure out how unbiblical and false all their logic and teachings are. I earnestly ask all you brothers and sisters in Zion to diligently preach the Passover of the new covenant—the truth of salvation—and to always give thanks and glory to Heavenly Father and Mother for allowing us to be Their people and opening the way to heaven for us, through the new cov—enant.

I am a member of the Catholic Church & my Priest said God the Mother is not Mary & Her name Ruth. Actually, I am not a member of the Catholic Church. I am a member of the Church of God in Christ: Redemption Church and someone from the Catholic church told me that Ruth is God the Mother. Actually, I am not a member of the COGIC: Redemption Church. I am a member of the World Mission Society Church of God and was told that God the Mother is the Heavenly Jerusalem living on earth right now. So, which is it? Who am i really?

The point I am trying to make is that many people study religions & know a lot about the teachings. But just because they know about it, it doesn't mean that they were ever a member or that they studied with someone who is a member. Serious question: How can I believe that any of you are who you say you are & have experienced what you said you've experienced?

Your study is flawed from the beginning. Abraham is called 'father' because he was the literal father of the Jewish nation, not because he represents God.

Abraham clearly represents God the Father in the Bible. Even other Born Again Christians agree to that. Only you Genny try to go against Church of God teachings. Anyway I only believe Christ Ahnsahnghong the Root of David who can give us the correct interpretation of the Bible and Mother Jerusalem.

Galatians 3:26 So in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith, 27 for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. 28 There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. 29 IF YOU BELONG TO CHRIST, THEN YOU ARE ABRAHAM'S SEED, AND HEIRS ACCORDING TO THE PROMISE.

Galatians 4:26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

Galatians 4:28 Now you, brothers and sisters, like Isaac, are children of promise. 29 At that time the son born according to the flesh persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. 30 But what does Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." 31 Therefore, brothers and sisters, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

We are children of God the Mother Jerusalem. Only through Heavenly Mother Jerusalem, the Bride of of the Lamb, we can have eternal life in these last days as prophesied in the Bible.

Genesis 21:8 The child grew and was weaned, and on the day Isaac was weaned Abraham held a great feast. 9 But Sarah saw that the son whom Hagar the Egyptian had borne to Abraham was mocking, 10 and she said to Abraham, "Get rid of that slave woman and her son, for that woman's son will never share in the inheritance with my son Isaac."

YOUR EYES WILL SEE JERUSALEM,
a peaceful abode, a tent that will not be moved;
its stakes will never be pulled up,
nor any of its ropes broken.

It will be like a place of broad rivers and streams.
No galley with oars will ride them,
no mighty ship will sail them.

the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together. 35
One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question: 36 "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?"

37 Jesus replied: "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' 38 This is the first and greatest commandment.

Deuteronomy 6:5 Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. 6 These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. 7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. 8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. 9 WRITE THEM ON THE DOORFRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES AND ON YOUR GATES.

Exodus 12:7 THEN THEY ARE TO TAKE SOME OF THE BLOOD AND PUT IT ON THE SIDES AND TOPS OF THE DOORFRAMES OF THE HOUSES where they eat the lambs. 8 That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast. 9 Do not eat the meat raw or boiled in water, but roast it over a fire—with the head, legs and internal organs. 10 Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it. 11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; IT IS THE LORD'S PASSOVER.

Luke 22:7 Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. 8 Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover."

Galatians 4:24 These things are being taken figuratively: The women represent two covenants. One covenant is from Mount Sinai and bears children who are to be slaves: This is Hagar. 25 Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

Hebrews 12:22 But you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem. You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly, 23 to the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven. You have come to God, the Judge of all, to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, 24 to Jesus the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

Matthew 13:10 The disciples came to him and asked, "Why do you speak to the people in parables?"

11 He replied, "Because the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them.

13 This is why I speak to them in parables:

"Though seeing, they do not see;
though hearing, they do not hear or understand.

16 But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear. 17 For truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

Bell, I hope you realize that at 7:19 of the video, that phrase "Without believing in the Heavenly Mother, no one can inherit the Kingdom of Heaven" is clearly heresy, because Jesus Himself said only He is the way, the truth and the life.. that NO ONE comes unto the Father but through Him. This not only explains that there is no "age" of the Father, Son and Spirit; rather, the Father, Son and Spirit are 1. There is no need for a Mother, because God is God – He can beget a son without the use of sex. As for the Holy Spirit, He always existed even before Christ, and is mentioned even in the Old Testament.

It is the Father who gave Christ, and Christ who gave the Spirit. They always existed, yet were revealed to man as time went by, and all 3 are now one and the same, yet revealed to mankind as 3 personas. Each is equal to the other, yet like the man to the woman, there is a distinction in hierarchy. All are equal, but play differing roles. Jesus is submissive to the Father because the Father is Father. Jesus is equal to the Father, yet submissive to His will, like the man and woman are equal, yet woman is called to be submissive to man (so long as the man is leading by Godly example). That said, there is no need for God to have an opposite sex, ages of existing names, etc.

Yes, the "heavenly mother Jerusalem" is free and from above; however, it is not a person, but a heavenly nation..

This "New Jerusalem" will be free of law, as sin will no longer live amongst God's creation, and therefore will be a free nation. This nation is a work of God alone, whose throne is above in the heavenly realm. This nation will be for all who are joined together in Jesus Christ..

Do Ahn Sang Hong or Zhang Gil Jah fit this description?
Not quite. Heresy.

Genesis 21:8 The child grew and was weaned, and on the day Isaac was weaned Abraham held a great feast. 9 But Sarah saw that the son whom Hagar the Egyptian had borne to Abraham was mocking, 10 and she said to Abraham, "Get rid of that slave woman and her son, for that woman's son will never share in the inheritance with my son Isaac."

Galatians 4:26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

Galatians 4:28 Now you, brothers and sisters, like Isaac, are children of promise. 29 At that time the son born according to the flesh persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. 30 But what does Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." 31 Therefore, brothers and sisters, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

Isaiah 33:20 Look on Zion, the city of our festivals;
YOUR EYES WILL SEE JERUSALEM,
a peaceful abode, a tent that will not be moved;
its stakes will never be pulled up,
nor any of its ropes broken.
21 There the Lord will be our Mighty One.
It will be like a place of broad rivers and streams.
No galley with oars will ride them,
no mighty ship will sail them.
22 For the Lord is our judge,
the Lord is our lawgiver,
the Lord is our king;
it is he who will save us.
23 Your rigging hangs loose:
The mast is not held secure,
the sail is not spread.
Then an abundance of spoils will be divided
and even the lame will carry off plunder.
24 No one living in Zion will say, "I am ill";
and the sins of those who dwell there will be forgiven.

Isaiah 66:7 "Before she goes into labor, she gives birth;
before the pains come upon her,
she delivers a son.
8 Who has ever heard of such things?
Who has ever seen things like this?
Can a country be born in a day or a nation be brought forth in a moment?
Yet no sooner is Zion in labor than she gives birth to her children.
9 Do I bring to the moment of birth and not give delivery?" says the Lord.
"Do I close up the womb
when I bring to delivery?" says your God.
10 "Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her,
all you who love her;

rejoice greatly with her,
all you who mourn over her.
11 For you will nurse and be satisfied at her comforting breasts;
you will drink deeply and delight in her overflowing abundance.”
12 For this is what the Lord says:

“I will extend peace to her like a river, and the wealth of nations like a flooding stream;
you will nurse and be carried on her arm and dandled on her knees.
13 As a mother comforts her child,
so will I comfort you;
and you will be comforted over Jerusalem.”

Zechariah 14:12 This is the plague with which the Lord will strike all the nations that fought against Jerusalem:
Their flesh will rot while they are still standing on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths.

Ephesians 6:2 “Honor your father and mother”—which is the first commandment with a promise

Matthew 22:34 Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together. 35 One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question: 36 “Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?”

37 Jesus replied: “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ 38
This is the first and greatest commandment.

Deuteronomy 6:5 Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. 6
These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. 7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. 8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. 9 WRITE THEM ON THE DOORFRAMES OF YOUR HOUSES AND ON YOUR GATES.

Exodus 12:7 THEN THEY ARE TO TAKE SOME OF THE BLOOD AND PUT IT ON THE SIDES AND TOPS OF THE DOORFRAMES OF THE HOUSES where they eat the lambs. 8 That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast. 9 Do not eat the meat raw or boiled in water, but roast it over a fire—with the head, legs and internal organs. 10 Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it. 11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand.
Eat it in haste; IT IS THE LORD’S PASSOVER.

Luke 22:7 Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. 8 Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover.”

14 When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. 15 And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

19 And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me."

20 In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the NEW COVENANT IN MY BLOOD, which is poured out for you.

Galatians 4:24 These things are being taken figuratively: The women represent two covenants. One covenant is from Mount Sinai and bears children who are to be slaves: This is Hagar. 25 Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

Hebrews 12:22 But you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem. You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly, 23 to the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven. You have come to God, the Judge of all, to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, 24 to Jesus the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

Matthew 7:21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22 Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name and in your name drive out demons and in your name perform many miracles?' 23 Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you.

Matthew 13:10 The disciples came to him and asked, "Why do you speak to the people in parables?"

11 He replied, "Because the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them.

13 This is why I speak to them in parables:

"Though seeing, they do not see;
though hearing, they do not hear or understand.

16 But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear. 17 For truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

voice, "Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?" 3 But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll or even look inside it. 4 I wept and wept because no one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. 5 Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals."

Everything written in the Bible is a copy and shadow of the things to come. By looking into the shadowy work in the Old Testament, we come to know and understand the things of the present or of the future.

1. Everything written in the past has become a lesson. (Rom 15:4) For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us.

- Then, what was written in the past that God wanted us to understand?
- The prophet Malachi prophesied that there will be the appearance of the Elijah before the last destruction.

(Mal 4:1) "Surely that day is coming; it will burn like a furnace..."

(Mal 4:4-6) "Remember the law of my servant Moses, the decrees and laws I gave him at Horeb for all Israel. "See, I will send you the prophet Elijah..."

- God stated that we should remember the Law just before the end, but this law mentioned here by the prophet Malachi became Christ's law which was fulfilled on the cross two thousand years ago by Jesus Christ. (Heb 7:11-12)
- This Elijah must also turn our hearts back to our Father (Mal 1:6) as stated in Malachi 4:5.

2. Then who is this Elijah that will appear in the last days just before the last destruction.

- When we study the history of Israel, we can clearly see the blueprint that God laid out for us in these last days. By studying the history of Israel we can the role of Elijah, where he will come from and why he will appear in the last days before the destruction.
- In Israel's history there were many kings that played major roles for and against God's people until the appearance of Elijah. King David was known for establishing Zion for God's people. After David's reign, King Solomon was known for being the one who built God's temple (1 Kings 6:1). Toward the end of Solomon's reign, he broke God's covenant and sinned. As a result, God tore his kingdom into two areas (1 Kings 11:11). The Northern half was given to King Jeroboam and the Southern half was given to King Rehoboam.
- From northern Israel we can see the sin of King Jeroboam and how his actions became a shadow of things to come.

(1 Kings 12:25-33) "Here are your God's, O Israel...And this thing became a sin"

- The first thing he did was make two golden calves, one in Bethel and the other in Dan, and in the eyes of God this thing became a SIN!
- Second, he instituted a festival that looked just like God's festivals in Judah.

- Can we say that his festival is a sin? (Yes) because his festival is offered to an Idol.
- He also instituted a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, a month of his own choosing

(Isa 1:10-16) "Your New Moon festivals and your appointed feasts my soul hates"

- "When you spread out your hands in prayer, I will hide my eyes from you!"
- "Take your evil deeds out of my sight!"
- "Stop doing Wrong"

3. Ahab son of Omri did more evil in the eyes of the Lord.

(1 Kings 16:30-33) "He not only...commit the sins of Jeroboam..., but he married Jezebel..."

- He set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal.
- Ahab was known as the worst king and..."did more to provoke the Lord, the God of Israel, to anger than did all the kings of Israel before him.

(1 Kings 17:1) "As the Lord, the God of Israel, lives, whom I serve, there will be neither dew nor rain in the next few years except at my word."

4. The mission and the appearance of Elijah.

(1 Kings 18:1-4, 16-21) In the third year Elijah went to present himself to Ahab.

- When Ahab saw Elijah he stated "Is that you, you troubler of Israel?"
- Elijah explained "You have abandoned the Lord's commands and have followed the Baal's".
- Elijah summoned all 850 false prophets to meet him on Mount Carmel.
- "How long will you waver between two opinions?"
- When Elijah returned he found that no one had faith in the true God! (Shadow)

(1 Kings 18:22-29) "The god who answers by fire...he is God"

- The acts of the Baal worshipers. (Idol worship, dancing around, frantic prophesying...)
- Even though they shouted, "there was no response, no one answered, no one paid attention."
- Why? The bible teaches that when we worship idols or do not obey the commands of God, he hides his face from us and does not listen to our prayers. (Isaiah 1:15; Jeremiah 11:3, Jeremiah 11:11-17; Ezekiel 8:18; John 9:31; Proverbs 28:9)

(1 Kings 18:30-40) "He repaired the altar of the Lord, which was in ruins."

- Elijah rebuilt the altar of God using 12 stones.
- At time of evening sacrifice he prayed "I...have done all these things at your command...so these people will know that you O Lord, are God, and that you are turning their heart back again" (Proverbs 15:29)
- His prayer became a prophecy in Malachi 4:5 that would be fulfilled in the last days.
- Then, the fire of the Lord was revealed.

(Eccl 1:9) "What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again"

(Eccl 3:15) "Whatever is has already been...God will call the past to account"

- The scriptures testify that Jesus is the fulfillment of King David. When David reigned as King he established Zion; this was to show how Jesus would establish Zion through the festivals of the New Covenant.
(2 Sam 17:21-23) Ahithophel's betrayal and suicide by hanging...
- Ahithophel was David's counselor. (2 Sam 15:2, 16:23)

(Matt 27:3-5) Judas' betrayal of Jesus and suicide by hanging...

- Later after King David's reign, Solomon took the throne. This history became a shadow of the apostles preaching after Jesus death on the cross.
- After King Solomon the nation was split into two, this was a shadow to show what would happen to the church after the Apostolic Age. The Church was divided into two, Eastern Church and the Western Church.
- Through Northern Israel we can see the sin of Jeroboam by his making feasts that look like God's feast. The Church in Rome in the year A.D. 150 began to accept a different gospel that looked like the gospel of Christ.
- Then, who is the reality of Ahab and Jezebel?

(Rev 2:20) "Nevertheless, I have this against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess"

- The book of Revelations was written around A.D. 97-106 and John sees the appearance of Jezebel after the apostolic age.
- Because of Ahab and Jezebel, the people began to serve Baal and worship many Idols which caused God to shut up the sky. Their disobedience caused them to lose their Rain and Dew for the next few years.

(Luke 4:25) "When the sky was shut for three and a half years and there was a severe famine" (1,260 days)

(James 5:17) "It did not rain on the land for three and a half years" (1,260 days)

- The, what is the meaning of shutting up the sky so that people will experience a great famine of no rain and no dew?

(Duet 32:2) "Let my teaching fall like rain and my words descend like dew"

(Amos 8:11) "But a famine of hearing the words of the Lord"

- Then, who became the reality of Ahab and Jezebel?
- Because of the Pope and Constantine, the church began to worship the Sun God and many idols.
- There was a great famine of hearing the words of God for 1,260 years!

(Hosea 2:8) "She has not acknowledged that I was the one...which they used for Baal"

- "I will stop all her celebrations...her Sabbaths...all her appointed Feasts"
- "I will punish her for the days she burned incense to the Baals."

- "But me she forgot, declares the Lord"

5. As prophesied in Malachi, there must be the Elijah who will appear to rebuild the Lord's altar in the last days.

- Then, who is the Elijah that is to come in the last days?
- Elijah appeared from the East. (1 Kings 17:1) (Josh 17:5)
- He didn't find faith with the people when he returned. (1 Kings 18:21)
- He rebuilt the altar with 12 stones.
- He revealed the truth of God by Fire!

This is a prophecy about Jesus who is to come again in the flesh to restore the truth and to seek his people in the last days.

(Rev 7:1-4) "Then I saw another angel (Christ) coming up from the East"

(Luke 18:8) "However, when the Son of Man (Christ) comes, will he find faith on the Earth?"

- This is the reality of Elijah finding no faith with the people when he returned. (2nd coming)

If Jesus came into this faithless world as the Last Judge, who would be saved? As Elijah had to rebuild the altar of the Lord, Christ himself must come a second time to restore all truth so that we can be saved.

(Luke 12:49) "I have come to bring fire on the Earth, and how I wish it were already kindle!"

(Jer 5:14) "I will make my words in your mouth like fire"

(Jer 23:29) "Is not my word like fire"

The meaning of Elijah is God – Jehovah (Eli = God, Jah or Yaw = Jehovah). This was to show that God must come again in the last days as the prophetic Elijah to restore and rebuild the altar which was in ruins. Christ AhnSahngHong came in the last day as our Elijah. Father came from the east, rebuilt the altar of truth and exposed the characteristics of the Baal worshipers.

What are good ways to rescue young adults? As young adolescent is not likely to listen to parents, now leaders in WMSCOH instruct members to lie to their parents in order to continue to join the group to get blessed. How to tell them it is enemy of God, how to tell them there will be no punishment to leave as they seem to believe the leaders more than parents.

Your loved ones caught in this cult is in my prayers

Deprogramming should be fairly easy any body can be dehypnotized by exposing the techniques used by the church should be enough to place doubt that the teachings are not true, the report with the hypnotists would be broken by a feeling of mistrust and are merely a system of manipulation abuse and control. teach them about hypnosis or tell them to look it up look up "DEFCON 15: The Science of Social Engineering: NLP, Hypnosis and the science of persuasion" a good start look up his discoveries. Marriage is often a binding tool used to perpetuate the cult.

You guys are so uneducated, the catholic church is the biggest cult of them all, as mention in the bible as the mother of prostitutes. Accept this fact and pray to the holy spirit for forgiveness. The stupid Pope(aka demon, devil) roll around in a bullet proof mercedes while people die around the world of hunger. A church known for pedos.

God has made children who and what they are. He loves them, and He has not left parents without resources to meet the challenge, Proverbs 22:6 tells us to "train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not turn from it." For all children, the way they should go is toward God the one and only true God.

If God gives them a strong-willed child, parents can be sure He has not made a mistake and will provide the guidance and resources they need. Parents of these children have to spend lots of their time on their knees before the Lord asking for wisdom, which He has promised to provide (James 1:5). So God himself has sent them to make other aware.

LOL I am sure your parents feel the same about you being in this cult. Now because you see the pope move around in a bullet proof Mercedes makes you come to such cheap conclusions. What would you have to say to this.....We would love to see the Mother God step out of Korea who should have at least visited her own WMSCOG churches and seen how her children have given up their jobs and working day and night? I don't think she has to fear any bullets as all disaster pass when the WMSCOG keeps the Passover. Don't they? May be if you are a sinner?

What a Farken language you use? Is this also a part of your churches teaching?

Yes LOL when people die around the world all your cash in Korea is well utilized in fighting court cases and mother wearing the most expensive Hanbok, makeup and just smiling to glory. Now who is the prostitute here let us s leave it to God to judge.

Are you impressed with huge donations and the good that this fake God does only in Korea for which she collects awards and media? Let's see what the Bible says---

Matthew 6:2 "So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by men. I tell you the truth; they have received their reward in full".

What seem as a matter of concern is all the members who practically give their earning for this false doctrine pin their hopes of going to heaven may end in nothing but poverty. So be warned 'Wolf in sheep's clothing"

A Cult?

This is your definition of a cult:

The typical signs of cults are:

1. Extrabiblical revelation – bringing something new from outside of the Bible: a ‘new’ teaching revealed in some supernatural way
2. A false basis of salvation – teaching that anything but Christ, and ONLY Christ, is what saves you: He is the one who died for your sins, no one else, and if you add good works, baptism, or anything else as a REQUIREMENT to be saved, you are saying that His death was not good enough on its own.
3. Presumptuous Messianic Leadership – someone claiming to be the one you should follow, other than Christ. When Christ returns, he will return in glory, not be born as a baby again, and He will not die a second time – he has already died for our sins, there is no further need for him to die, is there?!
4. Doctrinal Ambiguity – confusing teachings, taking obscure passages and not interpreting them through the light of clear passages in scripture, but interpreting them out of context.
5. Segmented Biblical Attention – looking at verses and passages out of context, ignoring other clear passages: a similar thing was done in South Africa to justify apartheid laws as being Biblical: a VERY dangerous thing to do!
6. Defective Christology – a misrepresentation of who Christ is: the ONLY way to the father, THE way, THE truth, THE life. Those who believe in the son will have life, those who reject him are condemned. Nothing about a ‘God-mother’ there, and it’s crystal clear.
7. The claim of “Special Discoveries” – that no one else has, and without which you can’t be saved.
8. Related to the above: Denunciation of others – if you’re not part of this church/movement, then you can’t be saved.
9. Enslaving Organisational Structure: only one person has the truth, and everyone else has to trust that what they teach is right, and cannot be questioned. No one can challenge their position.

These are the same points to why the Jews called Jesus a cult, you dog.

“Cult” basically means “different” But thankfully the bible says that we must be different from the world!
