

Jamie is blogging...?

Jamie is blogging.

About

 Church of God, World Mission Society

Posted by: Seeking Truth | April 6, 2007

Today, I was approached by a Korean as I was coming back from work. For some reason, I decided to do his survey. I was a little surprised to see that it (apparently) was about Christianity, because it asked questions that at a shallow glance would seem to be used by Christians to initiate outreach. They were questions such as “Did you know that Jesus commanded us to celebrate the Passover in order to receive eternal life?” and “Do you know what 666 means?”. Then the questions got a little strange to me. Next up was “Do you know what Jesus’ name will be when He comes again?”, “Do you know that Jesus second coming will be from the east?” and “Have you ever heard of the Heavenly Mother?”. Red flags went off.

“Must be one of those...” I thought to myself. Never mind, polite as I was I decided to let the man have his say. I must really thank God that I was wearing shades. That way, the guy couldn’t see my expression fully.

This organisation seems to be the usual cult stuff. Among the notable core doctrines (and my comments) are:

- 1) Jesus has already come back (and now He’s dead again. Like, how many times does He have to die? lol)
- 2) Jesus came back in the east, which was South Korea (Why Korea and not Japan? Japan is farther east after all)
- 3) The bible has been changed/locked and only the returned Jesus can open it (so what’s different from what the Latter-Day Saints and Islam teaches?)
- 4) There is a Heavenly Mother as well as a Heavenly Father (Seventh Day Adventists/LDS anyone?)
- 5) Earthly family is a shadow of the heavenly family. So the reason there are brothers and sisters in earth is because there’s a Heavenly Father and a Heavenly Mother in heaven (so does that mean that brothers and sisters are supposed to get married to each other?)

After reading up on it a little on Wikipedia, I find that it’s just the same as most of the other cults. Nothing much new except different country and different new Jesus.

I really wanted to tell the man that he was believing in a load of crock, but I decided

WHO AM I?

I don't really know. Blog is defunct but left up because people still come across it when searching for a way to help their friends, family and loved ones get out of the terrible Church of God World Mission Society cult.

RECENT COMMENTS

stella on Church of God, World Mission...

CRISTINA on Church of God, World Mission...

Sunshine on Church of God, World Mission...

Sunshine on Church of God, World Mission...

vincent on Church of God, World Mission...

BLOG STATS

- 35,052 people have drifted here that I didn't want to argue with him and hurt his feelings. Besides, I had just let him have 20 minutes of my time already.

 Follow

What I would now like to comment on is the Heavenly Mother. I am not sure how much of the bible they say is locked up/corrupted (perhaps it's like Islam where seemingly arbitrary bits and pieces of scripture retain their true meaning and only Islamic scholars can separate the dross from the gold), but the CoG WMS believes that the "bride" referred to in Revelation 22:17 refers to the Heavenly Mother.

"The Spirit and the bride say, 'Come!' And let him who hears say, 'Come!' Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life"

Okay fair enough. So...what about Revelation 21:9?

"One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb."

Wait. Isn't the Lamb talking about Jesus Christ? With all the numerous allusions to Christ as the sacrificial Lamb, I don't think Rev 21:9 is talking about the Heavenly Father here. So let's put two and two together:

"The bride is the wife of Jesus Christ" + "The bride is the Heavenly Mother" = Jesus Christ is in His Heavenly Mother's pants

Yuck. Yuck Yuck Yuck! I don't want no Jesus who marries His own Mother. Maybe that's why we have mé-nage à trois on earth: the Heavenly Father and the CoG WMS Jesus are banging the Heavenly Mother together.

About these ads

 Like 2 bloggers like this.

Posted in Comments

Reply to a comment on World Mission Society »

RESPONSES

Follow "Jamie is blogging...?"

Get every new post delivered to your Inbox.

Powered by WordPress.com

Same thing happened to me in Australia.

By: Katherine on April 22, 2007
at 3:58 am

Two girls asked if they could give me a survey.

I was a bit weary but said "ok" anyway, (I don't mind giving an opinion. I had some spare time – it was 12 noon and I was just going to go home).

Reply

They asked me all sorts of crazy questions, like have you heard of the Heavenly Mother, have you heard of the Passover, etc. They said crazy things like: the earth is actually a shadow of heaven (there's a Holy Jerusalem and a Jerusalem on earth), that we are actually fallen children/spirits from heaven and have sinned, and if we don't get baptized and eat Gods' flesh and blood every 2 months we will go to hell... etc.

It sounded interesting, and... different, so I kept on listening. I ended up staying for about 3 hours!

The next thing I knew it, I was in their car and going to get baptized. I was nervous because I had only just met them, and I didn't know what they could do to me.

It was an experience....a scary one.

But anyway, they took me to their church (which was actually a house – but renovated). I was thinking "what have I gotten my self into?!" I thought they were going to kill me or something.

I got baptized, watched a documentary about their "Passover" (which definitely looked like some kind of cult. There was a huge crowd of them all, they all looked Korean, all praying to God. They wore a lace kind-of material over their heads – it seemed symbolic for some reason).

They offered me lunch and I ate. By then it was getting quite later (about 4:30) and my boyfriend was worried about me and he kept ringing.

I let the girls know about this and told them that I had to get going. One of the girls (called Anne), really wanted me to come again tomorrow (their day of rest was apparently Saturday). She wanted me to join their study group. I said "no", and replied to her "because I have a lot of homework". I really didn't want to get myself as involved as I already was.

She went on reading out paragraphs from the bible, trying to make me feel guilty. She would not take 'no' for an answer. She said "ring you're boyfriend, let him know you'll be late".

I didn't have any credit on me, so I didn't want her to know that I couldn't ring my boyfriend. I just kept on eating, until I finished my food.

She offered to walk me to the station, and I said "alright".

I found her really annoying. She kept walking me off the foot-path! She wanted to be close to me to read me her Bible, and I kept wanting to move away. She even held my hand and stroked it!! I pulled away of course.

She waited with me at the station until the train came. That whole time she was reading parts out of the Bible and trying to convince me to see her the next day (Sat). I asked her "Why not the following Saturday? I'm too busy".

She asked me for my mobile number. I was reluctant, but gave it to her anyway (at the time I didn't know what to do).

She checked it and she noticed that I left one number out (by accident). She told me to correct it. Then she rang the number, to check if I was lying.

The train eventually pulled up.

I got on.

She yelled out "God Bless You, God Bless You, Sister! Ring me! You'll ring me won't you?!" Signally a phone with her hands.

I said "Yeah", a bit unenthusiastically.

I just fell in a heap on one of the chairs, sighed, and rolled my eyes.

I was just so humiliated! It was an interesting adventure I admit. But I would never do that again. I can't believe I put my trust in those people, they could have done anything.

I ended up changing my number straight away.

you should not blog like this it's rude and you are calling me a cult cause i am in the world mission society church of god.....so please dont say bad things.... oh! btw were the girls korean and if they were the holding hands thing or the stroking is what they do in their country so dont blame them and im not korean im singaporean.....

By: chelsea on September 22, 2009
at 12:57 pm

Reply

Hi Chelsea,

I'm sorry that this offends you. It is concerning, though, that so much of what the world mission society church of God teaches resembles things that other cults say.

By: Faye on February 18, 2010
at 5:30 pm

The typical signs of cults are:

1. Extrabiblical revelation – bringing something new from outside of the Bible: a 'new' teaching revealed in some supernatural way

2. A false basis of salvation – teaching that anything but Christ, and ONLY Christ, is what saves you: He is the one who died for your sins, no one else, and if you add good works, baptism, or anything else as a REQUIREMENT to be saved, you are saying that His death was not good enough on its own.

3. Presumptuous Messianic Leadership – someone claiming to be the one you should follow, other than Christ. When Christ returns, he will return in glory, not be born as a baby again, and He will not die a second time – he has already died for our sins, there is no further need for him to die, is there?!

4. Doctrinal Ambiguity – confusing teachings, taking obscure passages and not interpreting them through the light of clear passages in scripture, but interpreting them out of context.

5. Segmented Biblical Attention – looking at verses and passages out of context, ignoring other clear passages: a similar thing was done in South Africa to justify apartheid laws as being Biblical: a VERY dangerous thing to do!

6. Defective Christology – a misrepresentation of who Christ is: the ONLY way to the father, THE way, THE truth, THE life. Those who believe in the son will have life, those who reject him are condemned. Nothing about a 'God-mother' there, and it's crystal clear.

7. The claim of "Special Discoveries" – that no one else has, and without which you can't be saved.

8. Related to the above: Denunciation of others – if you're not part of this church/movement, then you can't be saved.

9. Enslaving Organisational Structure: only one person has the truth, and everyone else has to trust that what they teach is right, and cannot be questioned. No one can challenge their position.

I'm sorry to say it, but your 'church' shows rather too many signs of being a cult to be ignored. Read the Bible on your own, for yourself. Let it speak for itself. It really could not be more clear. Please, pray for God to help you see the truth – even if you can only pray that he will show you what is true in the Bible, in case you might be wrong. Pray to Jesus, who died to give you life and freedom. Please.

A cult is one that opposes the social norms or religious norms. So its nothing wrong with people calling WMS a cult, because objectively thats what they are.

By: Anonymous on September 25, 2010
at 2:10 pm

But the people from WMS that I met are proud to have it called a cult, because it shows that they are different from the rest of Christianity, the ones that are obedient to God's teachings and the ones who have the perfectly accurate interpretation of scripture.

In addition, I wouldn't really mind talking to people who believe in alternative forms of Christianity if we can sit down and have a logical/reasonable study of what scripture really means. However, it seems that people from WMS are so caught up in their way of thinking because they believe they have some form of divine revelation and the one true interpretation of the Bible. So, this makes it impossible to have a logical study with them on meanings of verses.

WHO EVER SAID ANYTHING ABOUT JESUS HAVING SEX WITH MARY, YOU SOUND SO LOST, MARY WAS A PHYSICAL TOOL, A VIRGIN, WHO GAVE BIRTH TO GOD IN THE FLESH, THERE IS NO SEX IN HEAVEN ONLY ON EARTH, WE DONT DESERVE POWERS OF CREATION, WE SINNED IN HEAVEN, BECAUSE THIS IS TEMPORARY PRISON SO THAT WE MAY REPENT, THIS IS EARTH, WE DONT HAVE THE LUXURY OF HEAVEN, THIS IS EARTH WHERE WE SUFFER MENTALLY AND PHYSICALLY, THE SPIRIT AND THE BRIDE ARE FROM HEAVEN, THE LAST ADAM AND THE LAST EVE, THEY HAVE ALWAYS BEEN, AND ALWAYS WILL, THE ALPHA AND THE OMEGA, YOU THINK MY FATHER WANTS TO BE ALL ALONE, THEY ARE THE CREATORS OF CREATION, THEY CREATED EVERYTHING, (US)THEIR CHILDREN WERE CREATED AFTER THEMSELVES, WE ARE NOT GOD LIKE THEM, WE ARE NOT PERFECT, THATS HOW WE ENDED UP DOWN HERE, WE SINNED IN HEAVEN BY DISOBEYING GODS ULTIMATE LAW "DO NOT EAT FROM THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE OF GOOD AND EVIL, SATAN TEMPTED US, HE WAS OVERWHELMED BY HIS SPLENDOR, BEAUTY AND POWER, HE WANTED TO OVERTAKE HEAVEN, THUS, DECIEVING BROTHERS AND SISTERS AND CONVINCING THEM TO EAT FROM THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE AND OF GOOD AND EVIL, WHICH WAS FORBIDDEN BY GOD, BECAUSE ANGELS WOULD BECOME LIKE GOD, KNOWING BOTH GOOD, AND EVIL, SOME ANGELS REBELLED REGARDLESS IF THEY WERE DECIEVED OR NOT, THEY BECAME INTENTIONALLY ENEMIES OF GOD, SOME BROTHERS AND SISTERS WERE CONFUSED, NOT KNOWING WHAT REALLY TO DO, THEY ARE THE UNINTENTIONAL SINNERS OF HEAVEN, FATHER AHN SAHNG HONG WRITES ABOUT EVERYTHING IN SOME OF HIS BOOKS, ALSO, THAT WE REPEAT OUR SIN FROM HEAVEN, ON EARTH, IF YOU DO NOT ACCEPT MOTHER AND FATHER, SO BE IT, MOVE ON, DONT CRITISIZE, (MORE JUDGMENT) THATS BECAUSE YOU ARE AN ENEMY OF GOD, AND YOU STILL WANT TO KILL THEM, JUST LIKE SATAN COMMANDED, THESE ARE SOME OF THE TRUE MYSTERIES REVEALED TO US BY OUR FATHER AHN SAHNG HONG, WHO CAN REVEAL THE TRUTH

By: A CHILD OF GOD on April 7, 2010 at 2:55 pm

Reply

BETTER THAN THE AUTHOR OF LIFE? GOD. IM SORRY THAT SOME OF YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND THE ELEMENTARY ESSENTIALS, OF THE BIBLE, BUT THIS IS TRUTH, LIKE APOSTLE PAUL SAID, "DO YOU MAKE ENEMIES WITH ME BECAUSE IM TELLING YOU THE TRUTH" AND NO! THAT IS 100% FALSE! ABOUT DRAGGING PEOPLE INTO MEETINGS, I DONT THINK ANYONE DOES THAT, YOUR JUST MAD BECAUSE YOU HAVE BEEN EXPELLED FROM HEAVEN ON EARTH, DO NOT, SPREAD FALSE INFORMATION, I HAVE BEEN IN THE CHURCH FOR 7 YEARS, AND I HAVE NEVER SEEN ANYONE PRESSURED TO DO ANYTHING, ALL WE DO IS ENCOURAGE PEOPLE, BECAUSE GOD TOLD US TO, IF YOU COULD ONLY REALIZE, HOW CLOSE YOU CAME TO GOD AND "REJECTED CHRIST", INSTEAD OF WALKING AWAY, YOU ARE ATTACKING A HUMBLE, BEAUTIFUL, LOVING, FULL OF GODS LOVE PLACE, WHERE THE BEST OF MEATS (JESUS' FLESH) ARE GIVEN ON THE PASSOVER, WOW..... god bless you again, i hope you see the light one day, i never hope for anyone to be condemned, i tried, im letting you know, your making a huge mistake, and im going to leave you alone soon, so you can pursue your persecution, your just adding heaps of coal on your head, and everyone that follows you, god bless everyone ! dont beleive the nonsense you hear, and if you do, then God have mercy on your souls.

your exegesis of Scripture is so far off base it does not deserve a reply. You have obviously been brainwashed – and like most brainwashed people you refuse to admit it – rather sad actually – hopefully one day you will wake up – however Satan has obviously blinded your eyes.

By: RGD on March 10, 2012 at 1:39 pm

I HOPE WE COULD FIND OUR LOST BROTHERS AND SISTERS, FOR THEM TO BE SAVED FROM THE LAST PLAGUE. OUR FATHER AHNSAHNGHONG AND OUR MOTHER NEW JERUSALEM, HOPE THOSE PEOPLE WHO SAY BAD THINGS ON YOU WOULD CHANGE THEIR MIND AND ACCEPT THE TRUTH ABOUT WHAT PROPHECIED IN THE BIBLE...IM VERY SAD ABOUT THE FACT THAT ITS HARD FOR THEM TO SEE THE TRUTH.

By: CRISTINA on February 1, 2013 at 8:30 am

Reply

How can you find your lost brothers and sisters when you yourself is lost. Pray to the Holy spirit to enlighten your mind so that you will be saved from the plague of the WMSCOG. It is just hard for you to see the deception of this church,

By: stella on February 5, 2013 at 2:32 pm

However hard the satan may try though this time cunningly using the selected verses from the Bible as a tool to deceive God still works wonders and sends his people out to show them the real truth. So they do not speak bad warn the others about the church and its fake gods.

Do some research by yourself if you think these people out here are bad. We pray you see the truth as soon as possible and be saved as it saddens us too to see how blinded you are to worship a dead god and female God who is not omniscient.

Wow. That's quite an ordeal.

By: Jamie on April 22, 2007
at 3:25 pm

Makes me wonder how many people they manage to drag into their meetings by sheer pressure.

Reply

Thank goodness you escaped from them and that you came out alright :)

they also tell there new gospel in Holland. But I think we have to listen to the bible. In galatians 1:8 Paul sais; 8But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let him be eternally condemned! Lets listen to the bible and spread the gospel that we only need Jesus.

By: joan on April 26, 2007
at 12:05 am

Reply

I had to say this again and again Because we all may speak to God (not Only jamie)Those korian also tell there new gospel in Holland. But I think we have to listen to the bible. In galatians 1:8 Paul sais; 8But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let him be eternally condemned! Lets listen to the bible and spread the gospel that we only need Jesus.

By: joan on April 26, 2007
at 12:07 am

Reply

CORRECT. AND APOSTLE PAUL IS ALSO THEE ONLY PROPHET IN THE BIBLE, WHO DIRECTLY WROTE THAT THE NEW JERUSALEM THAT IS (ABOVE) IS FREE, AND SHE IS OUR MOTHER:) GALATIANS 4:26

By: A CHILD OF GOD on April 7, 2010
at 3:11 pm

Reply

And now for the context:

By: Todd on June 3, 2010
at 11:22 am

Galatians 4:21-28 (New International Version)

21Tell me, you who want to be under the law, are you not aware of what the law says? 22For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman and the other by the free woman. 23His son by the slave woman was born in the ordinary way; but his son by the free woman was born as the result of a promise.

24These things may be taken figuratively, for the women represent two covenants. One covenant is from Mount Sinai and bears children who are to be slaves: This is Hagar. 25Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. 26But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

27For it is written:

"Be glad, O barren woman,
who bears no children;
break forth and cry aloud,
you who have no labor pains;
because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband." [a]

28Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.

As you can see, the apostle is using allegory to explain the two covenants. The Galatians were turning back to circumcision along with old covenant rites as practiced (at the time of writing, in Jerusalem) . But the new covenant (established by Jesus Christ) is the covenant of faith that was promised to Abraham (the father of the faithful, see Galatians 3:7-9). So, one covenant is earthly and leads to death. The other is spiritual, heavenly and truly fulfills the promises made to Abraham in the sacrificial death of Christ on behalf of the faithful. And this faith (belief that Christ has done all that we can never do) leads to life everlasting in the New Jerusalem from above.

So, as the apostle Paul says, "these things are to be taken allegorically" so the faithful in Christ know that they are "children of the promise." We are "born again" as these children to a living hope in the only only Savior, namely, Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

Still waiting for Scripture to teach about a spiritual mother.

Hi, it's me again.

You are right Joan. It says in the Bible – that if you "believe in God and Jesus you will be saved". I think it is also important to keep a broad mind and not change what is written in the Bible. Believing in God and Jesus, to me, is the most important thing. Jesus died so that he could save us.

Those two girls, who approached me, did not mention anything about Jesus dieing to save us. I asked them how I would go to heaven, they only said "if you attend the Passover and have been baptized".

They turned up at my door step today.

I forgot to mention, that after I was baptized I had to fill in a form to register. I included my name, date of birth, mobile number and address. They must have got my

By: Katherine on April 30, 2007
at 11:29 pm

Reply

address from the priest who baptized me.

My boyfriends' grandmother opened the door and let them in after saying that they were there to see me. They greeted me with a hand shake but I refused. I thought "What a cheek, I changed me number so they wouldn't hassle me and now they are turning up at my door step!!"

I said to them in front of my boyfriends' grandmother, that I didn't want to join their religion, that I changed me mind. They kept asking me "why?". That I have to go to the Passover, etc.

I asked if they wanted to sit outside, and they were happy to.

Basically, they kept pressuring me, and trying to make me do something that I didn't really want to do. I said to them "I really don't feel like going, and joining your religion", and "I believe in God, and when it suits me, I want to study the Bible in my own time".

They wouldn't accept it, asking me about mother God, etc. They just stood there bullying me, trying to make me see sense. It got to me after a while, after pleading for so long for them to leave. I just sat there. My head down, hands behind my neck, quivering. Feeling stressed out and hot and bothered. Just wishing they would just leave me alone!!

They said that they had traveled far to see me; went out of their way.

By boyfriends father came out of his shed to get something from the house, and noticed the two girls "hounding" me.

He asked me "what's wrong, are you ok". I couldn't answer him. I was terrified!

He said to them, "alright now, I think you had better leave". They wouldn't budge, and they tried to preach to him.

He said to them, "Katherine, is safe with us. She is safe here," and "you are making Katherine upset, leave".

One of the girls looked through her Bible and went to say something to him, and he said that he "didn't want to hear it". They were persistent. In the end they left.

I was so terrified. They whole time my head was spinning. They wouldn't be convinced that I wasn't interested and that I wanted them to leave.

Christianity is not about bullying others. It should be about caring for one another, and leading a happy life.

Believing in God should enrich your life, not control it.

Religion shouldn't consume you and narrow your mind.

Man has a choice; let him have the right to choose. God gave us a choice – not demands.

hey how can you blame a church who is doing n putting so much efforts pls u dont like it just leave it any ways u will have 2 face the judgement for your deeds ... this is really shameful that u caled a church cult but still i wish god forgives you this is really really shameful n more over you r shameful....

By: shamla on January 13, 2010 at 10:37 pm

Reply

Shamla, You speak foolishly. The Church of God World Mission Society is a cult and if you are involved with it,

By: Jim on April 2, 2010 at 6:05 am you ought to repent and forsake it immediately. Your shame based ploys are demonic and it is you who will stand in judgment to this unless you forsake this error. I pray you do.

GOD BLESS YOU

By: A CHILD OF GOD on April 7, 2010 at 3:46 pm

Jim,

By: Cindy on January 17, 2012 at 7:50 am

What authority do you have to say that Shamla speaks foolishly because she chooses to believe? If God gave us a choice, then we have that choice to believe or not to believe. This would also be true for those who truly seek the truth.

What you believe is what you have been taught by those who have interpreted the Bible in the way they were taught. Satan has been in existence since the beginning of time. Could it not be possible that like Adam and Eve, many generations after Christ could be deceived? If you are a seeker of the truth, then you must weed through all forms of the lie.

If we are to be children of God, then we must follow everything that he commanded on the days he said to do them. Therefore, if history is correct, and the Roman Catholic Church changed the day of the Sabbath to Sunday and changed Passover to communion in 325AD, setting these as standards for all Christian churches up until this very day, is it not man who follows such changes against God?

2000 years ago, God's children rejected Christ and hung him on a cross. If Christ were to speak to us today, you and others on the site would join in and call him and his followers a cult just as those who claimed to be children of God did 2000 years ago.

Christ said that HE would come again. He also said that there would be many who would claim to be him in the last days as there have been in every country. So how will we know who he is when he comes? We will know the same way they knew 2000 years ago, and we'll know that many who claim to be children of God will reject Him.

He has died to bear our sin, but when he comes again He will bring salvation to those who are waiting for Him (Hebrews 9:28). This means we must follow all of the commands of God to show that we are waiting for him and only those who do so will have salvation.

What church do you know of that has brought back what was change by men in 325AD, and who was it that revealed these things to us? The second coming of Christ is who. That is how Shamla Knows. He used the words of the Bible to show where we had gone wrong. Just as he did 2000 years ago, he used the words of the Old Testament to show that he had fulfilled the prophecy that was spoken there. What cult leader do you know of that had done that without some form of overwhelming evil. When the Christ came a second time, he taught salvation just as He said He would, never to bring harm to His children but salvation. If you look at his life and what he preached, you can see that he fulfilled the prophecies as they were written, not to add to the Bible or change it, but to show us the way home. What cult leader has done that with no harm to his followers?

I am not telling you to repent, nor am I judging you by what you believe, because I was where you are. I am only telling you that if you are a true child of God, He will reveal His truth to you if you truly seek it.

Katherine,

I am so sorry that you were meant to feel that way. Please try to remember that other cultures are not the same and we as humans can make mistakes and take the wrong approach. My prayers and hope it that you continue to seek the truth.

EZEKIEL 20:24 IF A MAN REJECTS GODS LAW, GOD WILL GIVE HIM STATUTES WHICH IS NOT GOOD, AND LAWS HE CANNOT LIVE BY.

By: A CHILD OF GOD on April 7, 2010 at 3:38 pm

Reply

ARE YOU SERIOUS?

WHAT JESUS MENT BY BELIEVE IN ME, IS TO KEEP HIS COMMANDS, DOES GOD LIE? THE BIBLE CLEARLY SAYS THAT, AGAIN, IN MATHEW 7:21, ON THE DAY OF "JUDGMENT" AWAY FROM ME YOU EVILDOERS, YOU WHO PRACTICE LAWLESSNESS, NOW, THESE PEOPLE WERE NOT ACCEPTABLE IN GODS PRESENCE, THEY ARE LAWLESS,

MATHEW 13:41 THOSE WHO PRACTICE LAWLESSNESS, WILL BE THROWN INTO THE FIERY FURNACE, LUKE 16:19 -29 CLEAR AS CAN BE: A RICH MAN WAS BURNING IN HELL, O.K,
HE STARTED CRYING, BECAUSE THE FIRE IS TRECHEROUS RIGHT, HE ASKED GOD, ,, IF GOD CAN WARN HIS BROTHERS ABOUT THIS FIERY TORMENT HE DOES NOT WANT THEM TO EXPERIENCE, THEN GOD REPLIES: THEY HAVE MOSES AND THE PROPHETS, LET THEM LISTEN TO THEM, THEN THE RICH MAN SAYS, "THEN WHAT SHALL WE LEARN FROM THEM?" AND GOD SAYS: "ITS GODS LAW, GODS COMMAND.

EZEKIAL 18:21 IF MAN KEEPS ALL THE DECREES OF GOD, HE WILL SURELY LIVE

JEREMIAH 6:19 GOD WILL BRING DISASTERS ON THOSE WHO REJECT GODS LAW.
YOU NEVER HEAR THE SCRIPTURE, HE WHO KEEPS MY COMMANDS LOVES ME!
YOU'LL SEE IT, THAT CLEARLY MEANS THAT IF YOUR NOT KEEPING GODS LAWS, YOU HATE HIM. UNLESS GODS A LIAR (NEVER EVER EVER THAT)

1 JOHN 2:3 WE KNOW THAT WE HAVE COME TO KNOW HIM, (GOD) IF WE OBEY HIS COMMANDS, SO IF WE DO NOT KEEP HIS COMMANDS, IT CLEARLY SAYS WE DONT KNOW HIM, MORE.

JEREMIAH 7:25 GOD HAS CONTINUALLY SENT HIS SERVANTS THE PROPHETS SO THAT WE MAY KNOW HIS COMMANDS.

THINK ABOUT IT, THERE IS SO MUCH TESTIMONY ABOUT GODS COMMANDS, ITS CLEAR AS WATER ABOUT WHAT GODS COMMANDS ARE:
THE PASSOVER, EVERLASTING COVENANT, (FOREVER) GENERATIONS TO COME WE MUST KEEP IT, CURSED IS THE MAN WHO GOES HIS OWN WAY ON THE LORDS DAY,
THE SABBATH IS ALSO THE FOURTH COMMANDMENT, WHEN THE ISRAELITES DIDNT KEEP NEITHER OF THESE TWO, THEY COLLAPSED IN THE DESERT, SHADOW OF THE PAST, WE WONT COLLAP[SE AND DIE, BUT RECIEVE GODS WRATH, WORSE THAN THE OLD TESTAMENT, AGAIN THE SABBATH IS JESUS' CUSTOM, A CUSTOM IS SOMETHING WE KEEP, WHY WOULD IT BE A COMMAND BUT HMMMM....JUST IGNORE IT, NO IT SAYS, KEEP THE SABBATH HOLY SO THAT I CAN MAKE YOU! HOLY.
SO IF WE DONT KEEP THE SABBATH DAY, HOW CAN WE SAY WE ARE HOLY,
YOU GUYS KNOW ABOUT THE SEVEN FEAST? JESUS KEPT EVERY SINGLE ONE OF THEM,
HIS COMMANDS ARE, THE SEVEN FEAST, SABBATH AND [PASSOVER ARE INCLUDED IN THE 7 FEAST, THE 7TH DAY, KEEP IT HOLY, THATS IT, ITS NOT IMPOSSIBLE, THE FEASTS, DONT COME AROUND VERY OFTEN, JUST SATURDAY, HAVE TO KEEP, SATURDAY, IF YOU SAY YOU BELEIVE IN JESUS, THEN HOW COME YOU DONT KEEP HIS CUSTOM? AND THIS IS THE NEW COVENANT, NOT THE OLD ONE, IT DID NOT CHANGE, MOSES KEPT THE SABBATH DAY, AND PASSOVER AND THE 7 FEASTS, AND THEY WERE GRANTED, FOOD FROM THE SKY, AND WATER FROM A ROCK, BUT THOSE WHO REJECTED GODS LAW, DIED ON THE SPOT

Child of God,

Well said!. Interesting that you said "it is clear as water" If you have ever went swimming and opened your eyes under water you can not see clearly unless you have glasses or goggles on, We can clearly see through water within glass. It takes those who know the truth to put things within the concept of those who are without tools of vision,

By: Cindy on January 17, 2012
at 7:59 am

I do not understand of all this talk about the Church of God being a cult. Why do you people say such things. You go on the internet and read peoples websites that persecute the Church of God and you believe easily enough. How foolish.

By: Ryan on May 5, 2007 at 3:31 am

Reply

If it says in the Bible that the Passover is the way Jesus gives us eternal life, then why don't you check it out in the Bible to see if it is true or not.

If the Bible testifies that we have a spiritual Mother, then check it out in the Bible, instead of making ignorant comments like, "this is another cult".

Acts 17:11 — Now the Bereans were of more noble character than the Thessalonians, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true.

Did Jesus not say that we must eat his flesh and drink his blood to have eternal life?

John 6:53 — Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.

Do yo believe Jesus or not? What did he say?

Those who believe, have faith in Jesus' words. He gave us his flesh and blood to eat on the night before he died. This was the night of the Passover. He had to die, because a will (covenant) is not put into effect until the one who made it dies. Jesus' promise to us was eternal life.

Jesus said,"unless you eat the flesh of the son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you".

How do you respond to this? Is the Church of God making up scriptures? I dont think so.

We are trying to show you the truth that second coming Christ has brought back to us.

There are many prophecies in the Bible, that second coming Christ will bring back the Passover. This will be like his identification card so we can recognize the true Christ from among all the false Christs in the world.

Hi, I am very happy to hear all things. Let me ask you some questions.

1. dont you know your god (ahnsahnghong) was dead and his tomb was in korea.

By: Ben on November 8, 2009 at 8:10 pm

Reply

2. bible clearly mention that God never see holy ones to decay. But your god bod was decomposed.

3. if you read Act 1.11 The Jesus the way he went into the heaven, he will come in the same way. how can you say he came secretly from korea.

4. God has no father (physically) even Jesus has no father. But you God has father. he was buddist.

5. Death will never rule again on Jesus because he wins the death by resurrection how can second coming Christ will be controlled by death.

6. Heavenly mother established by Heavenly God not by Man he has no control on his life.

finally I believe in Passover. but we have to eat the flesh and drink the blood of resurrected Christ not deadly Christ.

get away from the church and save your self. I am also the member of COG. I came to know the truth. I left the church (that is your Zion).

actually Ben, if you got your facts straight, before you left this post, Christ Ahn Sahng Hong, is, the only man in the history of the world, to predict his death, which was not a death at all, he just layed back, closed his eyes, and went back to heaven, in front of our brothers, Jesus, body was never found because he came from a virgin, and his body was pure, Father CHRIST Ahn Sahng Hong was born from a gentile family, he was born the natural way, not like Jesus, Ahn Sahng Hong's body was left on earth because it was just a physical tool, to accomplish the 37 years of David's reign, to complete the 40 years of ministry.

By: A CHILD OF GOD on April 8, 2010 at 3:58 am

SAVE YOURSELF? HOW CAN ANYONE SAVE THEMSELVES, THAT'S IMPOSSIBLE, NO ONE HAS THE POWER OF SALVATION EXCEPT GOD, AND IF YOU STUDIED WHEN YOU WERE IN THE CHURCH, YOU WOULD KNOW THAT THE PROPHECY OF 2ND COMING CHRIST, MUST COME IN THE GENEALOGY OF MECHIZEDECK THE HIGH PRIEST, WHO WAS BORN, INTO A GENTILE FAMILY, JUST LIKE CHRIST AHN SAHNG HONG, BAPTIZED AT AGE 30, JUST LIKE CHRIST AHN SAHNG HONG, AND THERE'S MORE.....NO WONDER YOU LEFT THE CHURCH.....YOU NEVER STUDIED, YOU PROBABLY SAT AROUND JUDGING EVERYONE, AND THAT'S WHY YOU LEFT THE TRUE CHURCH, IT'S BETTER TO HAVE NEVER KNOWN GOD AT ALL, THAN TO KNOW GOD, AND THEN TURN YOUR BACK ON GOD, STUDY,,,,, STUDY,,,,,,STUDY, IS WHAT I TELL EVERYONE, I CAN'T BELIEVE THIS.....

By: A CHILD OF GOD on April 8, 2010 at 4:05 am

It is the same ignorance which got Jesus crucified in the first place.

By: Cynthia on February 4, 2010 at 12:59 am

Reply

THANK YOU BROTHER, IT ONLY SAYS LIKE IN 1 OR 2 VERSES, THAT BELEIVE IN JESUS AND YOU WILL BE SAVED, IT SAYS THROUGHOUT THEE ENTIRE BIBLE, TO KEEP HIS COMMANDS, WHY WOULD WE REJECT GODS LAW, TO BELEIVE IN THE OLDEST OLDEST THEORY, JUST BELEIVE, AND YOU WILL LIVE, NO..... I KEEP ON LEAVING SCRIPTURES ABOUT KEEPING GODS LAWS, ITS NOT IMPOSSIBLE, THE REASON PEOPLE DONT KNOW ABOUT THE 7 FEASTS, IS BECAUSE 2ND COMING RESTORED THE SEVEN FEASTS, IF HE DIDNT, I WOULDVE NEVER KNOWN, I WOULDVE BEEN LOST,

By: A CHILD OF GOD on April 7, 2010 at 4:00 pm

Reply

AND OBVIOUSLY SOME PEOPLE DONT KNOW WHAT A CULT IS, A CULT IS LIKE, THAT ONE RELIGION WHERE THEY WERE HAVING ORGIES, AND DRINKING POISON IN THE DESERT, A CULT IS MAN MADE, AND BELEIVES IN IDOLATRY, THE CHURCH OF GOD DOES NOT SET UP CROSSES, DO THESE PEOPLE EVEN KNOW WHAT IDOLATRY IS, IN THE BIBLE, FIND THE TITLE, IN JEREMIAH, AND EZEKIEL, AND ALL KINDS OF OTHER BOOKS OF THE BIBLE, IDOLATRY IS SETTING UP AN IMAGE OF ANYTHING, A CROSS, A STONE, A ROCK, ANYTHING, WE DO NOT SET UP ANYTHING, WE GO BY THE BIBLE, THE TEACHINGS OF THE WORLD MISSION SOCIETY CHURCH OF GOD, STREIGHT FROM BIBLICAL TEXT, WHATS THE SECRET TO GOING TO HEAVE, AGAIN FOR THE MILLIONTH TIME,,,,,,UNLESS YOU EAT THE FLEASH AND BLOOD OF THE SON OF MAN, YOU HAVE NO LIFE IN YOU, JESUSS EXACT WORDS, AM I MISSING SOMETHING, MAYBE HE JUST SAID THAT' TO ENTERTAIN YOU GUYS, YA, THE PASSOVER, FLESH AND BLOOD, NO LIFE, PRETTY SERIOUS TO ME

please send more information God Bless...

By: Dominick McGrath on February 5, 2011 at 7:30 am

[...] Church of God, World Mission Society [...]

By: Jamie is blogging...? on May 7, 2007 at 4:59 am

Reply

I have read the Bible cover to cover (Old and

By: Scott Thong on

New Testament, no inclusion of Apocrypha, Pseudepigrapha, alternative gospels, Book of Mormon or etc.) and haven't found any trace of a Heavenly Mother. God is always referred to as 'He' or 'Him'. Even the angels always appear as men.

May 17, 2007
at 3:29 pm

Reply

I believe in the Bible. Such as when it says that when Jesus returns, it will be seen by everyone on Earth (Matthew 24:27, http://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=matt%2024;&version=31;). I must have missed it while busy blogging. Did anyone post it on YouTube?

So I have to ask Ryan and everyone reading: Could Jesus possibly have returned to Earth in 1964 in the form of Ahnsahnghong? And correctly predicted the Second Coming of Christ (himself? wasn't he already there?) for 1967 and 1988?

After all, consider that Joseph Smith of the Mormons prophesied that Jesus would return within his lifetime by 1890. Though Joseph Smith died before that date.

Herbert Armstrong of the Worldwide Church of God predicted that Jesus already returned in 1936 (later changed to 1945).

Jim Jones was the reincarnation of Jesus until 1978, when he led his Peoples Temple followers in drinking cyanide-laced drinks and shooting himself in the head.

David Koresh was also the reincarnation of Jesus, until he died in 1993 along with his Branch Davidians in the Waco Siege shoot-out and fire.

Marshall Applewhite was yet another 'the reincarnation of Jesus' until 1997, when he led his Heaven's Gate to commit suicide so that their souls could get onto Comet Hale-Bopp... Which was also somehow carrying Jesus on it at the same time.

And José Luis de Jesús Mirandas of Creciendo en Gracia (Florida, USA) is also currently Jesus Christ, along with Ayah Pin of Negara Langit (Malaysia) and Jung Myung Seok of Providence Church (Korea – looks like Ahnsahnghong has a rival here).

Btw, did any of the various Korean reincarnations bother to contact Sun Myung Moon of the Unification Church? The last time Jesus appeared to him to tell him about his mission was in 1935. You'd think that they could update him with the new, radically different plans and use the infrastructure the Unification Church already has in Korea.

And don't forget about the equally valid claims of all these other guys...
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_people_who_claim_to_be_Jesus_Christ

So, in conclusion, YES! Jesus reincarnated has been on Earth exclusively as Ahnsahnghong from 1964 till he died in 1985, while simultaneously exclusively being all the above mentioned reincarnations.

What? You don't agree? Are you saying that all of the above are mistaken cults and have false Christs or something, without even researching them first? That's like, bigotry and arrogance and stuff! Don't be so easily believing and foolish!

PS. Remember the above names and organizations. They are useful quotes when debating the next reincarnation of Christ you meet on the street.

Scotts an idiot, you read the bible front to back so now your the authority on the bible? Please you're the arrogant one! So what makes you and your group any different from the cults you just mentioned? Are you Catholic, I don't think I need to get into about the child molesting perverted pig priests do I, I think everyone know right? So it's okay to be in a group lead by perverted pigs but that's okay as long as your not preaching about Jesus coming in the flesh. I wondered how many of those priest are giving sermons, going commando probably with a hard one looking at all the altar boys.

Or are you protestant? The Christian church has overthrown leaders, assassinated, burnt books, witch burnings, Spanish Inquisition, started wars, tortured, 19th century missionaries and a hundred other crimes. But all is okay as long as you don't say Jesus is back. So next time a Christian comes and preaches about Jesus' love just remember what I told you.

By: Sunshine on January 14, 2013 at 2:50 pm

Reply

u all want an obvious thing to show that they are heretical? well.. the Mother is the so called founder and leader of the church and she is supposedly the Second Coming of Christ!!! simply astounding... wad else to say? not a cult?

By: gimyong on May 20, 2007 at 8:40 pm

Reply

My sis was in this group for a couple weeks. Luckily we talked her out of it. Check out these websites.

By: Joseph on June 13, 2007 at 11:19 pm

<http://ahnsahng hong.tripod.com/>
<http://www.ahnsahng hong.info>

Reply

Definately a cult.

APPARENTLY YOU DONT KNOW ANYTHING, HAVE YOU EVEN STUDIED ABOUT MOTHER? YOU ARE PERSECUTING THE CHURCH OF GOD, JUST LIKE 2000 YEARS AGO, YOU SPIRITUAL PHARISEES, ALWAYS BELIEVING WHAT THE CROWD GOES FOR, DONT YOU HAVE A MIND OF YOUR OWN? SHOULDNT YOU BE GOING TO YOUR OWN CHURCH, TRYING TO BECOME HUMBLE,

By: A CHILD OF GOD on April 8, 2010 at 4:16 am

Reply

BECAUSE I WOULD RATHER BE PERSECUTED,,,,,,MARK MY WORDS,,,,,,THAN BE THE PERSECUTOR, WHO IS GOD GOING TO HAVE MERCY ON? ME OR YOU? SOME ONE JUDGING, OR SOMEONE BEING JUDGED, HOW CAN YOU CLOSE YOUR EYES AT NIGHT, AND CALL YOURSELF GODLY WHEN YOU ARE ATTACKING INNOCENT PEOPLE, BUT YOU FULFILL THE SCRIPTURE, YOU WOLVES, DEVOURING SOULS, MASQUERADING AS ANGELS OF THE LIGHT, JUST LIKE SATAN, STOP JUDGING, YOUR JUST BRINGING JUDGMENT ON YOURSELF, WHILE WE WATCH YOU DIGG YOURSELF IN A HOLE, (BEWARE)

Warning: Your website links have been disabled or hijacked/hacked. Possibly by WMS COG. They now lead nowhere, or to propaganda websites. Just to let you know.

By: Anonymous on November 14, 2011
at 8:45 pm

Reply

By the way, that Mother lady is called Chung Gil Cha. Shes no god, she's a cult leader.

By: Joseph on June 13, 2007
at 11:20 pm

<http://ahnsahng hong.tripod.com/>
<http://www.ahnsahng hong.info>

Reply

stop saying that cult?? what you tink u r a holy person ???

By: shamla on January 13, 2010
at 10:42 pm

Reply

Revelation 22:17 — The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.

By: Ryan on June 28,
2007
at 7:22 am

Reply

According to the prophecies in the Bible, in the last days, we need to come to the Spirit and the bride for eternal life (water of life).

2000 years ago, it was Jesus (1st coming of Christ) that had the water of life. Now that we are living in this last age, we need the Spirit and the bride according to the Bible.

Only God can give eternal life. Then who is this bride spoken of in Revelation?

Revelation 21:9 – 9One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." 10And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

It is prophesied that the bride, the heavenly Jerusalem will come down out of heaven in the last days.

2000 years ago, Jesus said he came down from heaven (John 6), but he came in the flesh being born as you and I.

So who is this Heavenly Jerusalem that Apostle John saw coming down from heaven?

Should we trust man's opinion or see what the Bible says?

Galatians 4:26 — 26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.....31 Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

The Bible says that the Jerusalem that is above is our mother.

In Revelation it says that the heavenly Jerusalem was coming down out of heaven.

Are these words not clear to you?

Genesis 1:26 — 26 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness....."

Genesis 11:5 — 5 But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the men were building. 6 The LORD said, "If as one people speaking the same language they have begun to do this, then nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them. 7 Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other."

Isaiah 6:8 — 8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I. Send me!"

Who is "us"?

Genesis 1:27 — So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

So male and female were created in the image of God.

Then God has a male image we call God the Father, correct?

Then what would you call the female image of God?

Does not the Bible testify that we are children of God? Is this too difficult to understand?

There is much more prophecy about our spiritual mother in the Bible than you know about. If you would like to know them, I would be more than happy to show you.

1 Thess 5: 19Do not put out the Spirit's fire;
20do not treat prophecies with contempt.
21Test everything. Hold on to the good.
22Avoid every kind of evil.

By: Ryan on June 28,
2007
at 7:33 am

Reply

The Bible says to not treat prophecies with contempt, yet many of you could care less about the prophecies concerning the age we live in today.

It is very sad.

For those of you who do not understand, Jesus is Jehovah God in the flesh. They are not separate entities. Christ Ahnsahnghong is not a separate entity from Jesus Christ.

Don't you people know that it is prophesied that second coming Jesus is going to come with a new name? Read Rev. 2 and Rev. 3

Was the name Jesus found in the old testament?
Jesus was a new name. The Bible said that apart from Jehovah there is no savior.

Then how could the apostle Peter so boldly testify that through no other name than Jesus can you be saved?

He understood that Jehovah and Jesus are one and the same.

In the same way, now second coming Christ has come with a new name according to the prophecies in the Bible, but most of you do not seem to be interested in the prophecies.

That is your choice. There are true Christians seeking the truth and there are the fake Christians.

Yes there are true Christians seeking the truth and there are fake Christians. Yet you guys don't fall under the category Christians anymore. You follow a different Jesus.

By: Jamie on June 28,
2007
at 4:17 pm

Reply

Why does God permit Jesus Christ His son to marry His Wife and Jesus' Mother if he forbids such man to engage in such relationships? Are you sure that's the same god you talk about? God doesn't contradict Himself at all.

1 Thess 5:21 as you said: Test everything. Hold on to the good. Indeed, I have tested your theology and it is severely lacking. Therefore I reject it and hold on to what is good: that Ahnsahnghongians teach wrong doctrines.

Where is the proof that the church of Ahnsahnghong is a true church? The bible says that signs and wonders will follow Jesus' disciples, yet where are the miracle crusades and wondrous works of the Ahnsahnghongian church? I'd say that things haven't changed yet since God is still performing tons of miracles and wonders worldwide using people who know that Ahnsahnghong was not, is not and can never be Christ.

IF YOUR GOING TO PERSECUTE, AT LEAST SOUND CONVINCING, IM NOT EVEN GOING TO WAIST MY BREATH ON YOU, YOU ALREADY GOT PREACHED TO, DONE WITH, YOU ARE NOT ALL THERE,,,,,, YOU NEED HELP,,,,, YOU ARE OBSESSED WITH PERSECUTING THE CHURCH OF GOD, AND YOU DONT EVEN MAKE SENSE, YOUR MIND IS STUCK ON THE UNIVERSE, YOU HAVE NO SPIRITUAL GIFTS WHATSOEVER THAT ALLOW YOU TO LISTEN OR SEE SPIRITUALLY, YOU ARE NO THREAT!! AT ALL!! IF I WAS A NEW MEMBER YOU WOULD NOT CONVINCE ME AT ALL, THAT IM IN A CULT, PEOPLE LIKE YOU DISGUST ME, WHY DONT YOU SEEK YOUR LEVEL OF COMFORT, INSTEAD OF BADGERING GOOD INNOCENT PEOPLE TRYING TO KEEP GODS COMMANDS, IM SORRY YOU WERE NOT CHOSEN TO UNDERSTAND, I TRULY WISH GOD CAN GIVE YOU A SIGN OR SOMETHING, IM SURPRISED YOU HAVNT BEEN STRUCK BY LIGHTNING YET, I WOULD BE VERY VERY FEARFUL IF I WERE YOU, YOU MUST HAVE A LONELY, SAD, HARD LIFE, AND THE WAY YOUR GOING, I WOULDNT DOUBT IT, IF GOD IS ALREADY PUNISHING YOU AND YOUR LIFE IS PROBABLY CURSED, I CANT BELEIVE PEOPLE LIKE YOU EXIST, NO LIFE, AT ALL, GET ONE, GET A RELIGION, AND LEAVE THE CHURCH OF GOD ALONE!! DE-ACTIVATE THIS BLOGGING SIGHT AT ONCE, IN THE NAME OF FATHER CHRIST AHN SAHNG HONG, I PRAY THAT YOUR COMPUTER GETS A VIRUS OR SOMETHING, AND THAT YOU WILL NO LONGER POST, ANYMORE, CRITICISM ABOUT THE TRUE CHURCH, IM SORRY YOUR UNHAPPY AND CONFUSED BUT DONT TAKE IT OUT ON US

By: A WARNING FROM on April 8, 2010 at 4:29 am

Reply

you yourself are a contridiction to the entire Bible wasting your breath? your time? with the words you speak you are clearly very arrogant and self righteous!

By: In His Service on December 18, 2010 at 1:27 am

I would be careful with the words you speak you are a representation of your CHURCH and you are showing your TRUE colours you do not show fruits of the Spirit only one can Judge and that is not your God of Korea and is certainly not you. The only way to the Father is through the son John 14:6, John 3:16-17. God sent his beloved son that we may be saved in him by accepting he is the Son of the Father only through his blood we are made clean. You are not holy, you have no authority and no right to Judge. The Second coming of our Lord and saviour will be NO secret Matthew 16:27, Matthew 24:30, Mark 13:26-27, Acts 1:11, 2 Thessalonians 2:1, Hebrews 9:28, Revelation 1:7. Luke 6:28, KJV
"Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you." it is very dangerous of you to even pray that the Father would curse someone for YOUR misunderstandings you are very HARSH and CRUDE. Maybe you should ask God to work on the inside of your life before you tell others to work on theirs.

Wow Jamie, you do not even know the prophecies of second coming Christ and you speak like this?

By: Ryan on July 4, 2007 at 2:59 pm

First of all, you do not understand that Jesus IS God the Father in the flesh. Do you not know the prophecy in Isaiah 9:6? Reply

You do not even understand the most fundamental truths of the Bible and you persecute Ahnsahnghong and those who follow the savior of this age. You are just like the Pharisees 2000 years ago.

They called Jesus and his followers the Nazarene Sect. A cult in other words.

You speak out of ignorance rather than with a mind to find the truth.

If you really want to know the answers to the questions you pose, I can give them to you.

You ask where the proof is that the Church of God is the true Church. Well I can prove it to you using the Scriptures.

Just like those who asked for miracles from Jesus and when he performed them, they still stoned him.

In the same way, I can present you with the truth in the Bible and you will still say the same thing. Gods children are humble and seekers of the truth. Unfortunately you are neither.

Jamie, did you know that we actually follow the teachings of Jesus Christ? Hey, that would make us Christians.

By: Ryan on July 4, 2007 at 3:21 pm

Did Jesus keep sunday service or Sabbath?
Did Jesus keep Eucharist or Passover?
Did the apostles hide Easter eggs once a year?
Did the apostles celebrate Christman as the birth of Jesus?

Reply

True Christians follow the gospel of Christ found in the Bible, not man made traditions.

The gospel of Christ was gradually changed by the power of the Catholic Church. Throughtout the Dark Ages, God's people were executed for not following the heretical teachings of the Catholic Church. This is why Christ must come again, to bring back the truth that was destroyed hundreds of years ago.

John 14:25" All this I have spoken while still with you.

26But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.

John 15: 26“When the Counselor comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father, he will testify about me.

Is this not clear to you?

Why must second coming Christ come and remind us of everything he taught 2000 years ago?

Well, look at what Christianity is today.

Sunday service worship of cross and idols
Easter
Christmas

This is not the gospel of Christ.

Now, the Church of God – the early church - , has been restored by second coming Christ Ahnsahnghong and we keep all of Jesus' teachings.

Why do sisters in the Church of God wear veils? Because it is a teaching in the Bible.

Why do we keep the Passover of the New Covenant? Because that is when he established the new covenant and gave us his flesh and blood for the forgiveness of sins. (matt 26:17-28)

Why do we keep all of the feasts of God? Because Jesus gave us the example 2000 years ago.

Christians follow Christ.

Do you Jamie, or are you into celebrating Christmas and wearing a cross??

Ryan, what the Bible says about prophecies is that a true prophet will have his prophecies come to pass. What recorded prophecies have the founder of the Church of God made that have come to pass?

By: Scott Thong on
July 10, 2007
at 10:38 am

Reply

Ryan, you should know that Jamie is not of the Roman Catholic church. The worship of idols or crosses, the eating of the eucharist, the praying to saints – all of that is irrelevant when debating with a Protestant. Especially if the Protestant agrees with you that Catholicism is corrupted (such as the Chic Tracts).

And that remark about Easter eggs... I am surprised you didn't raise the issue of Santa Claus blasphemy too! Do Evangelicals practise those things, or do atheist Westerners?

Know also that as a Protestant, he does not consider any of the rites and rituals to be necessary for salvation – only belief in Jesus (as Jesus Himself said, and as Jamie has mentioned before in this blog). He will not go to hell either for celebrating on Sunday or Easter or Christmas in memory of Jesus, or for not celebrating it.

Ryan, if Jesus is the Father, why does He call Himself the Son and refer to YHWH as His Father? And what of the Holy Spirit, what familial role does He play?

Ryan, if Jerusalem is already our mother, how did I miss all the signs of the end of days that precede the last days we are supposedly in? Your remarks about Revelation – No, they are not clear at all, you need to explain your beliefs instead of leaving a hanging question. Readers are NOT educated in Church of God doctrines.

Ryan, if the Church of God is the only true church, why is it lacking in power and influence to change this corrupt world? The Mormons are doing much better, and I doubt you would consider Joseph Smith the true successor to Jesus.

Ryan, does your church forbid all alcohol? Practise circumcision or not (Jesus definitely was, Paul said we don't need to)? Wash the feet of other believers? Go to Jerusalem for the Temple Feasts? All of these things Jesus did.

Ryan, do you consider Jim Jones of the Peoples Temple, David Koresh of the Branch Davidians, Marshall Applewhite of Heaven's Gate, José Luis de Jesús Mirandas of Creciendo en Gracia, Ayah Pin of Negara Langit and Jung Myung Seok of Providence Church to be members of a cult?

They all claimed to be the second coming of Christ, yet that cannot be if the Church of God's doctrine is correct. But as you said, calling other groups 'cult' is what the Pharisees did.

Ryan, what does the Church of God possess that all those other groups not possess? They all also claim to follow the true teaching of Christ. Why should I choose your group over theirs?

Ryan, what I'm trying to say is: Why do you choose the Church of God over any other church? What convinces you that their interpretation is correct, compared to all the others? If the Latter Day Saints had preached to you first, would you now be a Mormon?

Ryan... I would like to give you the invitation to clearly state the main beliefs, teachings and doctrines of your church. Support them with Scripture if you wish. In this way, we can clearly weigh your words.

By: Scott Thong on
July 10, 2007
at 10:43 am

Reply

The truth is, going on about how mainstream Christianity is corrupted says NOTHING about why the Church of God is correct. If all you accomplish is to convince people that the mainstream church is misguided, they could simply become Muslims or Buddhists. Or they could join the Brethren church – their women wear veils just like your church.

You need to clearly state your church's beliefs and why they are correct. And in return, we will weigh your logic and proof. If you are confident you can adequately put forward and defend your convictions, then go ahead in faith.

I have assisted the Church of God, i believe it to be a load of crap

By: Stephy on July 13, 2007
at 10:16 am

1. Christ AhnSahngHong who they beleive to be my lord and savior isnt! Why? the COG teaches that AhnSahngHung came in secret, they contradict the word of god!: Revelations 1:7 says "Behold, he cometh with clouds and EVERY eye will see him and they also which pierced him, and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him." >>>> Nobody saw this happen, this is the word of the bible the word of god, if it was prophesized to happen this way it will! More proof? : Acts 1:11 says: "This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.">>>>> the bible also says that beleivers and non beleivers will witness the second coming, and that christ will come when all nations gather against Jerusalem (Zechariah 12:3 and 14:2-3)

Reply

2. The heavenly mother doesn't refer to an actual woman, remember the parables, the COG loves to say that no one understands them except for themselves, the bride of the lamb, jesus, is his children, us, we who have accepted him as our savior in baptism. The bible says that when we accept jesus, we are MARRIED to him and must refrain fom unholy things. Ephesians 5:25-28 – The discussion of husbands and wives. Jesus sets the example by how he loved the church and gave himself for it. Church must equal wife. His children make up the church, not an old Korean woman!

3. NO Ahng Sahng Hung, did not proclaim he was a god while he was alive! He wrote books on his beleive that Jesus would be the second coming christ, not himself, and the mother god he claims was one of his many lovers, *this man was baptized as an Adventist?! Whome the church beleives follows the devil!

What more can i say, This church of god is a cult who only choses to read in the bible what they feel can back up there own believes, they choose to ignore many passages in the bible that are contradicting what they choose to preach because they are liers!

So in an age like the one we live in, why would second coming christ come in secret when lord knows this world needs some faith and order! And when the bible, holy scripture states that when Christ arrives everyone will know!! EVERYONE!

HOW CAN YOU SAY THAT GODS CHILDREN ARE THE BRIDE, WE ARE THE GUESTS AT THE HEAVENLY BANQUET,

By: A CHILD OF GOD on April 7, 2010
at 2:19 pm

REVELATION 19: 9 = BLESSED ARE THOSE WHO ARE INVITED TO THE WEDDING SUPPER OF THE LAMB, THESE ARE THE TRUE WORDS OF GOD.

Reply

HOW CAN WE BE THE GUESTS, AND THE BRIDE,

REVELATION 22:19 THE SPIRIT AND THE BRIDE SAY COME AND RECIEVE THE WATER OF LIFE, HOW CAN US, THE GUESTS, BE THE BRIDE ALSO, AND GIVE THE WATER OF LIFE TO THE NATIONS, I CAN BARELY FEED MYSELF, WE ARE NOT THE BRIDE,

REVELATION 22: 1-2 THEN THE ANGEL SHOWED
JOHN THE RIVER OF LIFE POORING DOWN FLOWING FROM THE THRONE OF GOD, AND OF THE LAMB,, " HERE THE BRIDE IS BEING CALLED GOD" CAN U SEE IT, WE ALL!!!! KNOW THE LAMB IS JESUS, BUT IT SAYS CLEARLY (AND)

REVELATION 21:1-3 JOHN SAW THE HOLY CITY, NEW JERUSALEM, COMING DOWN, OUT OF HEAVEN, PREPARED AS A BRIDE, BEAUTIFULLY DRESSED FOR HER HUSBAND, "THE LAMB" IF WE ARE THE BRIDE
THEN HOW COME JOHN, OUR BROTHER DIDNT SAY, WE::: WERE COMING OUT OF HEAVEN, HE IS OUR BROTHER, HOW COULD HE SEE HIMSELF COMING OUT OF HEAVEN, GOD TOOK HIM IN A VISION, TO SEE WHATS COMING OUT OF HEAVEN,

THIS IS THE BOOK OF REVELATIONS, THE END OF THE BIBLE, WE ARE ON EARTH, HOW WOULD WE BE COMING OUT OF HEAVEN, WE ARE THE GUEST
AGAIN, REV 19:9,,,,,,WE ARE THE GUEST,

NOW, THE BRIDE IS CALLED NEW JERUSALEM
ACCORDING TO THE SCRIPTURE, THE HOLY CITY, SHE IS OUR HOLY CITY, BECAUSE SHE IS THE REALITY OF MOUNT ZION, WHERE WE ARE SAFE, LOOK AT THE ANIMALS, MOTHERS CREATE SAFE
HAVENS, AND UMBRELLAS OF LOVE TO SHELTER US, HAVNT ANY OF YOU EVER RAN TO YOUR MOTHER, LIVED WITH HER, AND FELT WARM IN YOUR HEART, this is apostle paul speaking to the nonbeleivers of this age.

NOW, GALATIANS, 4:16, HAVE I NOW BECOME YOUR ENEMY FOR TELLING YOU THE TRUTH.

GALATIANS 4: BUT THE JERUSALEM THAT IS ABOVE IS FREE, AND SHE IS OUR MOTHER, BE GLAD....O'
BARREN WOMAN, YOU WHO BEARS NO CHILDREN,
YOU HAVE NO LABOR PAINS, BREAK FORTH AND CRY OUT LOUD, BECAUSE MORE ARE THE CHILDREN OF THE DESOLATE WOMAN, THAN OF HER WHO HAS A HUSBAND,
NOW, HOW CAN SHE BE OUR MOTHER WITHOUT

LABOR PAINS, HOW CAN SHE HAVE MORE CHILDREN THAN HER WHO HAS A HUSBAND, ?
BECAUSE HAGAR REPRESENTS MOUNT SINAI AND BEARS CHILDREN WHO ARE TO BE SLAVES, (SLAVES OF THE FLESH ONLY) BUT THE JERUSALEM THAT IS ABOVE IS FREE, AND SHE HAS MORE CHILDREN WITHOUT!.....LABOR PAINS, YOU ANSWER ME NOW, WHY DO YOU THINK NEW JERUSALEM MOTHER HAS MORE CHILDREN THAN A WOMAN IN SLAVERY (HUMAN) YES!!!!
EXACTLY!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! SHE IS OUR SPIRITUAL MOTHER WHO HAS SO MANY CHILDREN,
IT MAKES SENSE, THE BRIDE, COMING OUT OF HEAVEN,(TO THE EARTH) "WHERE ELSE" THEN SHES CALLED THE NEW JERUSALEM, THEN APOSTLE PAUL USES A WOMAN IN SLAVERY, ABRAHAM'S SLAVE WOMAN, TO SHOW THAT THE NEW JERUSALEM IS NOT A SLAVE, SHE IS COMPARED TO SARA, WHO BORE A CHILD OF PROMISE (US) REMEMBER THE SLAVE WOMAN BORE A SLAVE CHILD, THE NEW JERUSALEM IS OUR SPIRITUAL MOTHER! AMEN!

Very well then Scott. I will address all of your points above.

By: Ryan on July 14, 2007
at 3:36 pm

You asked "what recorded prophecies has the founder of the Church of God made that have come to pass?"

Reply

Christ Ahnsahnghong is the one who has fulfilled the prophecies of second coming Jesus as recorded in the Bible.

If you are asking what prophecies he made while on this earth, then let me ask you something. Do you know what the role of second coming Christ, the Holy Spirit is?

You should know the answer to this question before you ask such a presumptuous question.

Why do you assume that Christ Ahnsahnghong has to have recorded prophecies that have come to pass to make him a true prophet? All the prophecies up until the last day are all recorded in the Bible for all of us to see. This attempt to discredit Ahnsahnghong is not in line with the teachings of the Bible.

You say that Jamie is not Catholic. Yes I understand this. Do you not know that the Protestant churches that broke away from the Catholic Church also keep the same traditions? Christmas, Easter, Communion, worship of idols.

I find it fascinating to hear Protestants debate with Catholics and they both keep the same man made traditions that are not from God.

You say it doesn't matter if people keep these man made traditions, as long as they believe in Christ, everything will be o.k.

Really Scott? Are you sure? Have you been reading your Bible?

Let's take a lookie look shall we.

Mark 7:6 — He replied, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites; as it is written:

" 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

7They worship me in vain;

their teachings are but rules taught by men.'[b]

8You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to the traditions of men."

And how about this one.

1 John 2:3 — We know that we have come to know him if we obey his commands. 4The man who says, "I know him," but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

How about this one straight from Jesus himself.

Matt 7:21 — "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

Is this not clear to you?

Let us see in the last days if God's people will just have faith, or will their faith be connected with obedience, which is the way we show our faith.

Revelation 12:17 — Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring—those who obey God's commandments AND hold to the testimony of Jesus.

Revelation 14:12 — This calls for patient endurance on the part of the saints who obey God's commandments AND remain faithful to Jesus.

You see, what all the false prophets out there teach, is that you only need to say you believe in Jesus and you are saved.

They take verses in the Bible out of context and say, "see, it says you only need to believe to be saved!"

What the apostles also taught is that faith comes through obedience to the word of God.

For example, if Jesus says that you must eat his flesh and drink his blood to have eternal life, then you can either believe his words or not.

In fact, he did say this in John 6:53. So if you believe in Jesus, but refuse to eat his flesh and blood to have eternal life, then do you really believe in Jesus?

Everybody wants to make their own Jesus and worship the way they want to, rather than following the word of God. To say that we just need to have faith, shows a serious shallow understanding of the teachings of the Bible.

I could use many more scriptures to illustrate this, but I think the point is clear. If not, let me know and I will show you more through the Scriptures that faith is obeying the word of God.

So if you want to think it is ok to worship God according to man made traditions and at the same time forsake God's commands such as Sabbath and Passover, then that is your choice my friend.

Now on to the relationship between Father, Son and Holy Spirit. This can get lengthy so I'll do my best to make it short and to the point.

First you must understand Jesus is God (Jehovah) in the flesh. They are not separate entities. What does the Bible say?

Isaiah 9:6 — For to us a child is born,
to us a son is given,
and the government will be on his shoulders.
And he will be called
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

So here is a prophecy that a son will be given and he will be called God or Everlasting Father. At this time, God was known as YHWH or Jehovah. But in the future, Jehovah will be born as a son.

This prophecy was fulfilled by Jesus. Then who is Jesus? Jehovah God in the flesh.

Examine this..... Isaiah 44:6 — "This is what the LORD says—
Israel's King and Redeemer, the LORD Almighty:
I am the first and I am the last;
apart from me there is no God.

Now let us see what Jesus said.....Revelation 22:12 —
"Behold, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to everyone according to what he has done. 13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

How can the son Jesus be first before his father? Is that possible? The only way Jesus can say he is the First and the Last, is if he is Jehovah God. This is quite clear, isn't it?

There are many other verses. God came in the flesh as a son, to teach us how to become the perfect sons of God. Who is our best example? Jesus who is God in the flesh.

John 6:45 — It is written in the Prophets: 'They will all be taught by God.' Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me.

As the age changed from the age of the Father, the saviors name changed from Jehovah to Jesus.

In the old testament times, Jehovah said in Isaiah 43:11 that apart from him there is NO savior.

But apostle Peter testified in Acts 4:11 that under no other name than Jesus can we be saved.

So is the Bible contradicting itself, or can we pick and choose which name we want to call on? Think about this carefully.

What is God showing us here? When Jehovah God came in the flesh, his name changed. Jesus was a new name to the people 2000 years ago.

The name Jesus was not in the old testament. Even though Jesus is the one who fulfilled the prophecies of the coming Messiah, they still rejected him. They knew the name Jehovah as there savior as stated in Isaiah 43:11. They could not accept this new name Jesus.

In the same way, in this age of the Holy Spirit, second coming Christ will come as the Holy Spirit. Then what is the name of the Holy Spirit, second coming Jesus?

Revelation 3:11 — I am coming soon. Hold on to what you have, so that no one will take your crown. 12Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of my God. Never again will he leave it. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on him my new name. 13He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

You will see that in Rev. 2 and 3, second coming Jesus is speaking but he is speaking as the Spirit, the Holy Spirit.

Why doesn't it say, "Hear what the Son of God says to the churches"

Because when second coming Jesus comes, he is coming as the Holy Spirit in the age of the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit's role is to bring back the truth that has been taken away through the authority of Satan. This is all prophesied in the Bible, so it shouldn't be too hard to understand.

I do not know how well you know the Bible, but I could show you everything if you have questions.

There is so much more to explain, and if you have a mind to check it out to see if it is true, I can show you more. It is up to you my friend.

You ask why you should choose our chru

Very well then Scott. I will address all of your points above.

By: Ryan on July 14, 2007

at 3:36 pm

You asked "what recorded prophecies has the founder of the Church of God made that have come to pass?"

Reply

Christ Ahnsahnghong is the one who has fulfilled the prophecies of second coming Jesus as recorded in the Bible.

If you are asking what prophecies he made while on this earth, then let me ask you something. Do you know what the role of second coming Christ, the Holy Spirit is?

You should know the answer to this question before you ask such a presumptuous question.

Why do you assume that Christ Ahnsahnghong has to have recorded prophecies that have come to pass to make him a true prophet? All the prophecies up until the last day are all recorded in the Bible for all of us to see. This attempt to discredit Ahnsahnghong is not in line with the teachings of the Bible.

You say that Jamie is not Catholic. Yes I understand this. Do you not know that the Protestant churches that broke away from the Catholic Church also keep the same traditions? Christmas, Easter, Communion, worship of idols.

I find it fascinating to hear Protestants debate with Catholics and they both keep the same man made traditions that are not from God.

You say it doesn't matter if people keep these man made traditions, as long as they believe in Christ, everything will be o.k.

Really Scott? Are you sure? Have you been reading your Bible?
Let's take a lookie look shall we.

Mark 7:6 — He replied, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites; as it is written:
" 'These people honor me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me.
7They worship me in vain;
their teachings are but rules taught by men.'[b]
8You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to the traditions of men."

And how about this one.

1 John 2:3 — We know that we have come to know him if we obey his commands. 4The man who says, "I know him," but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

How about this one straight from Jesus himself.

Matt 7:21 — "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

Is this not clear to you?

Let us see in the last days if God's people will just have faith, or will their faith be connected with obedience, which is the way we show our faith.

Revelation 12:17 — Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring—those who obey God's commandments AND hold to the testimony of Jesus.

Revelation 14:12 — This calls for patient endurance on the part of the saints who obey God's commandments AND remain faithful to Jesus.

You see, what all the false prophets out there teach, is that you only need to say you believe in Jesus and you are saved.

They take verses in the Bible out of context and say, "see, it says you only need to believe to be saved!"

What the apostles also taught is that faith comes through obedience to the word of God.

For example, if Jesus says that you must eat his flesh and drink his blood to have eternal life, then you can either believe his words or not.

In fact, he did say this in John 6:53. So if you believe in Jesus, but refuse to eat his flesh and blood to have eternal life, then do you really believe in Jesus?

Everybody wants to make their own Jesus and worship the way they want to, rather than following the word of God. To say that we just need to have faith, shows a serious shallow understanding of the teachings of the Bible.

I could use many more scriptures to illustrate this, but I think the point is clear. If not, let me know and I will show you more through the Scriptures that faith is obeying the word of God.

So if you want to think it is ok to worship God according to man made traditions and at the same time forsake God's commands such as Sabbath and Passover, then that is your choice my friend.

Now on to the relationship between Father, Son and Holy Spirit. This can get lengthy so I'll do my best to make it short and to the point.

First you must understand Jesus is God (Jehovah) in the flesh. They are not separate entities. What does the Bible say?

Isaiah 9:6 — For to us a child is born,
to us a son is given,
and the government will be on his shoulders.

And he will be called
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

So here is a prophecy that a son will be given and he will be called God or Everlasting Father. At this time, God was known as YHWH or Jehovah. But in the future, Jehovah will be born as a son.

This prophecy was fulfilled by Jesus. Then who is Jesus? Jehovah God in the flesh.

Examine this..... Isaiah 44:6 — “This is what the LORD says—
Israel’s King and Redeemer, the LORD Almighty:
I am the first and I am the last;
apart from me there is no God.

Now let us see what Jesus said.....Revelation 22:12 —
“Behold, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to everyone according to what he has done. 13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

How can the son Jesus be first before his father? Is that possible? The only way Jesus can say he is the First and the Last, is if he is Jehovah God. This is quite clear, isn't it?

There are many other verses. God came in the flesh as a son, to teach us how to become the perfect sons of God. Who is our best example? Jesus who is God in the flesh.

John 6:45 — It is written in the Prophets: ‘They will all be taught by God.’ Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me.

As the age changed from the age of the Father, the saviors name changed from Jehovah to Jesus.

In the old testament times, Jehovah said in Isaiah 43:11 that apart from him there is NO savior.

But apostle Peter testified in Acts 4:11 that under no other name than Jesus can we be saved.

So is the Bible contradicting itself, or can we pick and choose which name we want to call on? Think about this carefully.

What is God showing us here? When Jehovah God came in the flesh, his name changed. Jesus was a new name to the people 2000 years ago.

The name Jesus was not in the old testament. Even though Jesus is the one who fulfilled the prophecies of the coming Messiah, they still rejected him. They knew the name Jehovah as their savior as stated in Isaiah 43:11. They could not accept this new name Jesus.

In the same way, in this age of the Holy Spirit, second coming Christ will come as the Holy Spirit. Then what is the name of the Holy Spirit, second coming Jesus?

Revelation 3:11 — I am coming soon. Hold on to what you have, so that no one will take your crown. 12Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of my God. Never again will he leave it. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on him my new name. 13He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

You will see that in Rev. 2 and 3, second coming Jesus is speaking but he is speaking as the Spirit, the Holy Spirit.

Why doesn't it say, "Hear what the Son of God says to the churches"

Because when second coming Jesus comes, he is coming as the Holy Spirit in the age of the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit's role is to bring back the truth that has been taken away through the authority of Satan. This is all prophesied in the Bible, so it shouldn't be too hard to understand.

I do not know how well you know the Bible, but I could show you everything if you have questions.

There is so much more to explain, and if you have a mind to check it out to see if it is true, I can show you more. It is up to you my friend.

Yes Stephy, God's people can be said as the bride of Christ. The COG does not disagree with this. After all it is a teaching in the Bible.

By: ryan on July 16, 2007 at 9:43 am

But what you fail to understand Stephy, is that the bride in the context of the Book of Revelation cannot be represented as the church or God's people. Reply

First you must understand that there can be duplicate meanings for the same word.

The Lamb in the Bible refers to Christ. Also the Bible refers to God's people as the Lamb. It depends in which context it is used.

It is the same with the bride.

In Revelation 22:17 it says The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.

Who are the ones that hear the words "Come!" ? Who are the ones that should come to take the free gift of the water of life from the Spirit and the bride?

What do you think Stephy? Obviously it is God's people who need the water of life (eternal life).

Then how can the bride in revelation be God's people. It is impossible. The bride in this context can only be God.

Only God has the authority to give eternal life. God's people cannot give eternal life. If you think you can give eternal life, then you need to study the Bible Stephy.

Then in Rev. 21:9, apostle John saw the bride coming down out of heaven from God and he saw the heavenly Jerusalem.

Apostle Paul testified about this same Jerusalem from above in the book of Galatians.

Gal 4:26 — But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

Gal 4:31 — Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

Study what Paul is testifying to very carefully. There is a distinction between mother and children.

Paul testified that the heavenly Jerusalem (bride) is our mother.
At the same time he identified God's people as children.

Do you see the dilemma here if you insist that the bride in revelation is God's people?

It simply cannot be. There is no way you can justify that the bride in revelation is God's people.

You believe we have God the Father because the Bible says so, correct?

Then the Bible says that the Jerusalem that came down from heaven is our mother. So the Bible testifies that in heaven we have a spiritual father and mother and we are God's children.

But yet you refuse to accept or understand this simple Biblical teaching.

Yes, God's people or the church can represent the bride of Christ. We do not deny this biblical teaching.

If you break your fixed concepts and examine what the Bible says, you will see the truth.

Just as the physical home is composed of a father, mother, brothers and sisters; in the same way, our home in heaven has a father, mother and we are God's children.

Listen to what the Bible says Stephy.

Romans 1:20 — For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that men are without excuse.

God made all life, correct? Then what was God's will in having all life come through father and mother?

The Bible says that by God's will all things were created. By looking at God's creation, we can understand God's invisible qualities.

Just as father and mother give physical life, our spiritual father and mother give us spiritual life.

This is not a hard concept to understand. What is your objection to this?

The problem is that you have a problem that God the mother came down in the flesh as a Korean woman. You look at the physical things than rather looking at the prophecies in the Bible.

Why do you believe that some 30 year old carpenter from Israel is the first coming of Christ? Do you just have blind faith, or do you believe he is the one that has fulfilled all the prophecies of his first coming?

I can tell you that I believe in Jesus because he fulfilled all the prophecies. In the same way, second coming Christ has come fulfilling all the prophecies in the Bible. Yet you reject Christ Ahnsahnghong. It is because you do not really believe in the Bible.

God's coming in the flesh 2000 years ago, exposed the disbelief of those who claimed to believe in God (ex. pharisees).

When the very one the claimed to believe in came as prophesied, they crucified him. In the same way, everybody claims they believe in Jesus, but know that he has come in accordance with all the prophecies, they reject him. God has again exposed the disbelief of those who claim to believe.

You ignorant people wait for some miracle in the sky. Do you not know that the Jews 2000 years ago could not accept Jesus because they thought the appearance of their Messiah would be a glorious and majestic event.

The Bible testifies that Elijah ascended to heaven in a whirlwind in his chariot. The Jews surely that Elijah would come in such a glorious event before the coming of their Messiah.

But when Elijah came (John the Baptist), he came secretly in the flesh.

The Bible testifies that in the last days, it is the false christs and false prophets that will be performing miracles and great signs to deceive even the elect.

So if you are looking for miracles as your sign, then I feel sorry for you.

If you want to know how to recognize second coming Christ, then you better study what the Bible says.

If all we have to do is wait for some in the miracle in the sky to see second coming Christ, then why are there countless different prophecies of second coming Christ? Think about this seriously Stephy.

There are God's people and Satan's children on this earth. God's people hear God's voice.

In Revelation 2, it says that second coming Jesus will bring the hidden manna. Then do you know what the hidden manna is?

Do you care what it is? Do you think it matters what it is? Are Jesus' words in vain?

Ryan,

By: Scott Thong on
July 16, 2007
at 3:32 pm

—If you are asking what prophecies he made while on this earth, then let me ask you something. Do you know what the role of second coming Christ, the Holy Spirit is?— Reply

Let's say I DON'T KNOW what the second coming's role is. Do enlighten me. Don't leave so many hanging, begging questions.

—Mark 7:6 — He replied, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites; as it is written:
" 'These people honor me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me.
7They worship me in vain;
their teachings are but rules taught by men.'[b]
8You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to the traditions of men."—

Of course I am familiar with these verses. But on what objective basis do you argue that Protestant teachings are 'rules taught by men', whereas Ahnsahnghong's teachings are not? What criteria do you attach to Protestant teachings as 'rules taught by men' that do not equally apply to Ahnsahnghong's teachings?

—1 John 2:3 — We know that we have come to know him if we obey his commands. 4The man who says, "I know him," but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in him.—

Again, who is to say that I am disobedient and a liar, but you are not? On what criteria do you draw this conclusion? Because you say so?

—Matt 7:21 — "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

Is this not clear to you?—

It is very clear to me. But who, pray tell, is really doing God's will? Again, what criteria are you using to judge between you and me?

So far, all the above amount to nothing more than a smear campaign. You call me names, but give no evidence to show why I fit the definition of hypocrite, human-teachings follower, or liar. You might as well throw in alien invader, cyborg dictator, hermaphrodite and child molester – since you're not attempting to show that I am any of those things either. You have NO PROOF OR ARGUMENT TO BACK UP YOUR CLAIMS.

— Revelation 12:17 — Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring—those who obey God's commandments AND hold to the testimony of Jesus.—

Hey, your comment is full of making war against me! And I believe I am obeying God's commandments and holding to the testimony of Jesus. Are you, therefore, the dragon?

Do you see the problem with your tactic of insulting without providing any basis? It can easily be turned back on yourself because you offer NO CRITERIA TO SHOW YOUR BELIEFS ARE CORRECT AND MINE ARE NOT.

—You see, what all the false prophets out there teach, is that you only need to say you believe in Jesus and you are saved.

They take verses in the Bible out of context and say, "see, it says you only need to believe to be saved!" —

Who is taking verses out of context here? You have a demonstrated lack of understanding of modern mainstream Christianity. And unlike your church, mainstream Christianity's doctrines are all openly displayed and explained for easy referencing and understanding.

So anyway... The antinomianists believed that life following Jesus is 100% free from moral restrictions. Those who believe such are condemned as heretics by the mainstream church. Therefore, any earnest search would reveal that NO MAINSTREAM CHRISTIAN CHURCH advocates a life of sin, sex and ignoring God's commands to live a holy life. Do more research, don't just swallow what your leaders recite to you.

—For example, if Jesus says that you must eat his flesh and drink his blood to have eternal life, then you can either believe his words or not.

In fact, he did say this in John 6:53. So if you believe in Jesus, but refuse to eat his flesh and blood to have eternal life, then do you really believe in Jesus?—

Wait, wait... Didn't you, in an earlier comment, CONDEMN Catholics for practising the rite of the Eucharist? They believe this verse literally means flesh and blood. When did you change stance 180 degrees?

On all your explanations about the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit... The mainstream Christian doctrine of the Trinity states that the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are one... Yet are also three. Thus they are referred to almost interchangeably... But not quite.

For doesn't Jesus Himself say, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do"? (Luke 23:34) And again and again, Jesus talks to His Father... Yet is not mumbling to HIMSELF. It is clear in the Gospels that Jesus considered the Father to be separate from the Son. The Son has the essence of the Father so that 'Whoever has seen Me has seen the Father', but that does not mean that the Father IS the Son... Merely that they have the same essence, the same will, the same goals, the same thinking.

The Trinity explains much of the confusion surrounding Father = Son = Spirit, while allowing the Son to talk to the Father without being schizophrenic.

—The name Jesus was not in the old testament—

Actually, it is. The name Jesus means 'YHWH is salvation', which in Hebrew can be rendered Yeshu or Yeshua. Yeshu transliterates to Iesus in Greek and Jesus in English and Yesus in other languages. Yeshua translated to English is Joshua.

You could try reading more Bible commentaries. Oops, you can't – the collective knowledge of 2000 years of mainstream Christian researchers and theologians is corrupted and evil to you, right? And your church's few decades of teachings overrules the rest of the body of Christ the world over right?

—In Revelation 22:17 it says The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.

Who are the ones that hear the words "Come!" ? Who are the ones that should come to take the free gift of the water of life from the Spirit and the bride?

What do you think Stephy? Obviously it is God's people who need the water of life (eternal life).

Then how can the bride in revelation be God's people. It is impossible. The bride in this context can only be God.
—

Your exegesis is very flawed. In the verse you quote, not only do the Spirit and the Bride say 'Come!', but so do the listeners! So the life-thirsty listeners simply repeat the invitation to other thirsty people!

Yes it is God who gives the water of life, but the verse itself says that he who hears will repeat the invitation. So we believers who are the bride join with the Spirit in calling 'Come!' to the unbelievers, and those who choose to hear our message then join us and call out 'Come!' to their family and friends. Or is it just God hearing Himself now?

How does this one single, solitary verse make the bride = God when many other verses place the bride as human believers – like Revelation 19:7-9, "Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready. Fine linen, bright and clean, was given her to wear." (Fine linen stands for the righteous acts of the saints.)" The saints wear their righteous acts like fine linen.

Or John 3:26-29, regarding John the Baptist:
"They came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, that man who was with you on the other side of the Jordan—the one you testified about—well, he is baptizing, and everyone is going to him."

To this John replied, "A man can receive only what is given him from heaven. You yourselves can testify that I said, 'I am not the Christ[j] but am sent ahead of him.' The bride belongs to the bridegroom. The friend who attends the bridegroom waits and listens for him, and is full of joy when he hears the bridegroom's voice. That joy is mine, and it is now complete."

In context, he was saying that followers and believers (the bride) belong to Jesus (the bridegroom), which makes the friend (John the Baptist) happy.

—Paul testified that the heavenly Jerusalem (bride) is our mother.
At the same time he identified God's people as children.

Do you see the dilemma here if you insist that the bride in revelation is God's people?—

No, I don't see the dilemma. YOU NEED TO EXPLAIN THE DILEMMA.

Your tactic seems to be to ask a question – "Do you see why, do you know what?" and never explain what it is we are supposed to see or know. This lends a false air of authority to your words, without giving any substantial basis for the correctness of your interpretation. It makes it seem your doctrine has a logical, rational interpretation when it might not at all. EXPLAIN WHAT YOU MEAN.

—Yes, God's people or the church can represent the bride of Christ. We do not deny this biblical teaching.—

Well, I go further to say that the teaching that the bride is God is not applicable anytime at all – it ALWAYS stands for the believers.

—Then the Bible says that the Jerusalem that came down from heaven is our mother. So the Bible testifies that in heaven we have a spiritual father and mother and we are God's children.

But yet you refuse to accept or understand this simple Biblical teaching. —

That's because the teaching is not simple, but instead very confusing, relying on a convoluted interpretation of a single verse, and out of synch with the rest of the Bible.

The term "New Jerusalem" occurs twice in the New Testament. But the "new" in the "New Jerusalem" comes from the Greek word "kainos", which has a meaning different from "neos", the other Greek word usually translated into English as "new".

"Neos" refers to something newly created, whereas "kainos" means something old that has been refreshed and cleansed. So it doesn't imply that a new Jerusalem will be set up (in Korea or wherever) and manifested as a literal woman, but rather that the old Jerusalem will be cleansed and renewed. And old Jerusalem already exists as a physical city.

Or do you only read the Korean version of the Bible? Is it even the same Bible that the rest of the world uses, as backed up by 14000 historical manuscript copies in the original Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek?

—God made all life, correct? Then what was God's will in having all life come through father and mother?

The Bible says that by God's will all things were created. By looking at God's creation, we can understand God's invisible qualities.

Just as father and mother give physical life, our spiritual father and mother give us spiritual life.

This is not a hard concept to understand. What is your objection to this?—

Bacteria reproduce by asexual division. Most don't have even have a sex. Viruses reproduce by hijacking and killing other cells. So God in heaven does these things as well? Since they are a 'reflection' of heavenly things.

The angels in heaven don't have marriage. God created them. So does this example of Gods' creation show that God is not prone to marriage, which is the opposite of what you say about a Heavenly Father and Mother?

Besides, why do you base a whole doctrine of a Heavenly Mother on one very disputed verse, when elsewhere in the ENTIRE BIBLE God is never mentioned as a Mother, or daughter, or bride, or she, or her... Only as a Father, Son, He, Him, His? Never female, ALWAYS male. Does one single verse overturn two Testaments of deliberate masculine wording?

—If you break your fixed concepts and examine what the Bible says, you will see the truth.—

If you break the fixed concepts that your church has indoctrined into you, you will see the truth.

—When the very one the claimed to believe in came as prophesied, they crucified him. In the same way, everybody claims they believe in Jesus, but know that he has come in accordance with all the prophecies, they reject him. God has again exposed the disbelief of those who claim to believe.

You ignorant people wait for some miracle in the sky. Do you not know that the Jews 2000 years ago could not accept Jesus because they thought the appearance of their Messiah would be a glorious and majestic event.—

Once again, I ask you: What criteria is there to show that Ahnsahnghong was really the Christ, and not Jim Jones of the Peoples Temple, David Koresh of the Branch Davidians, Marshall Applewhite of Heaven's Gate, José Luis de Jesús Mirandas of Creciendo en Gracia, Ayah Pin of Negara Langit and Jung Myung Seok of Providence Church?

They all claimed to be Christ. They used the same arguments against asking for signs and unbeliving and being called a cult by 'Pharisees' as you. What makes them wrong and you right?

—Yet you reject Christ Ahnsahnghong. It is because you do not really believe in the Bible.—

One final note regarding the Christness of Ahnsahnghong... Jesus often referred to Himself as the Christ, the Messiah. He was very sure of His own divine identity.

But according to the introduction at <http://www.ahnsahnghong.info/> 'Who do the WMS Church of God worship?'>, Ahnsahnghong NEVER IN HIS WHOLE LIFE AND ALL HIS WRITINGS THOUGHT OF HIMSELF AS CHRIST.

It was all added in only AFTER his death by his ex-lover Chung Gil Cha – the woman who calls herself the 'Holy Mother Jerusalem' and God.

Do YOU care to verify or disprove that piece of information? Is it true or not true that Ahnsahnghong's own writings never mentioned that he believed himself to be the second coming of Christ?

—The Bible testifies that in the last days, it is the false christs and false prophets that will be performing miracles and great signs to deceive even the elect.

By: Scott Thong on
July 17, 2007
at 8:30 am

Reply

So if you are looking for miracles as your sign, then I feel sorry for you. —

Even though no one asked for signs and wonders, yet Jesus performed miracles to prove His ordination by God.

When the Pharisees asked Jesus for a sign, what did He reply?

"He answered, "A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a miraculous sign! But none will be given it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. 40For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of a huge fish, so the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth." – Matthew 12:39-40

So even when asked for a sign, Jesus gave the sign of Jonah.

When Paul and Barnabas preached the good news of Jesus Christ in the Greek cities, God caused miracles to happen 'to confirm the message of His grace.'

"So Paul and Barnabas spent considerable time there, speaking boldly for the Lord, who confirmed the message of his grace by enabling them to do miraculous signs and wonders." – Acts 14:3

It is true, however, that the false prophets of the evil one will also perform miraculous feats.

So this much is very clear: Prophets who are sent with a new message from a supernatural being can perform miraculous signs and wonders.

And if they can't, they're probably just ORDINARY PEOPLE.

So what amazing things set Ahnsahnghong and Chung Gil Cha apart from ordinary, everyday people? If there is nothing special about them, then anyone can be a prophet too!

Hey, I can just claim to be the second coming of Christ and say that all those who claimed to be before me are false Christs. After all, if I don't need anything special or out of the ordinary to set me apart from fakes, liars, tricksters, charlatans, crazy people or the deluded, who is to say that I am NOT the Christ?

By what criteria is Ahnsahnghong judged to be the true second coming of Christ, whereas Jim Jones of the Peoples Temple, David Koresh of the Branch Davidians, Marshall Applewhite of Heaven's Gate, José Luis de Jesús Mirandas of Creciendo en Gracia, Ayah Pin of Negara Langit and Jung Myung Seok of Providence Church, and MYSELF are not?

Thank you Scott for showing that Ryan is wrong and cannot back up his points, the reason being is that these are the only things he is probably taught.

By: Stephy on July 18, 2007
at 8:17 am

Reply

RYAN: Can you please prove my other points wrong?
The bible clearly explains in Revelations how Jesus Christ will return also in:

Acts 1:11 says: "This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.">>>>> the bible also says that beleivers and non beleivers will witness the second coming, and that christ will come when all nations gather against Jerusalem (Zechariah 12:3 and 14:2-3)

Yes, you chose to ignore these, because your second coming Christ did not fulfill these prophecies, he didn't even claim to be the second coming Christ, he himself called Jesus the second coming Christ, maybe you should read some of your Christ's books, he was a bible scholar.

So i am not looking to the sky asking for a miracle, i already believe in Christ as my lord and savior, but if the bible gives us specific prophecies to await, then those are the ones I believe.

Correct me if im wrong (don't quote me on this), the COG uses the Order of Melchizedek to prove the second coming Christ, but wasn't Melchizedek in the old testament a king to set up the church for Jesus Christ's coming?(first coming), not the second coming?

I WILL CORRECT YOUR POINTS. YOU ARE WITNESSING 2ND COMING CHRIST THRU OUR PREACHING, AND YOU ARE REJECTING THE LORD, THEY SAID JESUS WAS COMING ON THE CLOUDS, BUT DID HE? NO!! HE CAME IN THE FLESH, THEY SAID 2ND COMING IS COMING ON A CLOUD DID HE? NO!! HE CAME IN THE FLESH, CLOUDS MEAN FLRESH IN THE BIBLE, STUDY MY FRIEND, A FALSE PROPHET IS LIKE A CLOUD WITHOUT WATER, PEOPLE ARE REFERRED TO AS CLOUDS IN THE BIBLE, SINCE WHEN DO YOU SEE CHARRIOTS AND AN APPEARANCE COMING IN THE SKY, YOU NEED TO READ, SINCE THE BEGINNIG OF THE BIBLE, MEN COULD NEVER SEE GOD, OR THEY WOULD DIE, EVEN GOD CAME TO MOSES AS A BURNING BUSH, IF GOD COMES IN THE SKY, WE WILL ALL DIE, WE ARE NOT ACCEPTABLE IN THE PRESENCE OF THE LORD, WE ARE SINNERS!! GOD IS PURE, THE ONLY WAY WE CAN SEE GOD IS IN THE FLESH,,,,,, CLOUDS!! THINK ABOUT IT, GOD IS THE LIGHT, BRIGHTER THAN THE SUN, WE WILL ALSO BE BLINDED, THATS WHY GOD MADE THE CLOUDS THE WAY THAT THEY ARE, LISTEN..... THE CLOUDS BLOCK THE SUNLIGHT AND GIVE US SHADE, JUST LIKE THE CLOUDS, GODS FLESH, BLOCK HIS LIGHT, HIS GLORY IS UNSEEN, A CLOUD BLOCKS THE SUN, THE FLESH BLOCKS GODS LIGHT, YOU SEE GOD CREATED THIS SO THAT WE CAN UNDERSTAND WHY CLOUDS MEAN FLESH IN THE BIBLE,,,,,, STUDY STEPHY

By: A WARNING FROM on April 8, 2010 at 4:39 am

Reply

Thanks for your questions Scott. I will answer them.

By: Ryan on July 19, 2007 at 8:56 am

-What is the second coming's role?

Reply

John 14:23 — Jesus replied, "If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching.....24He who does not love me will not obey my teaching.....25"All this I have spoken while still with you. 26But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.

John 15:26 — "When the Counselor comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father, he will testify about me.

John16:5 — "Now I am going to him who sent me, yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' 6Because I have said these things, you are filled with grief. 7But I tell you the truth: It is for your good that I am going away. Unless I go away, the Counselor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. 8When he comes, he will convict the world of guilt in regard to sin and righteousness and judgment: 9in regard to sin, because men do not believe in me; 10in regard to righteousness, because I am going to the Father, where you can see me no longer; 11and in regard to judgment, because the prince of this world now stands condemned.

12"I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear. 13But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth.

Matthew 12:32 — Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.

Hebrews 9:28 — so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

The only way to receive salvation (eternal life) is through the flesh and blood of Christ which is given to us through the Passover Bread and Wine.

This is in the Bible is it not?

This Christian Passover was kept by the early Christians, but then was abolished by the Catholic Church in 325 A.D. Then Christ must come to bring back the way to eternal life.

It is even prophesied in the old testament.
Isaiah 25:6 – On this mountain the LORD Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for all peoples, a banquet of aged wine—
the best of meats and the finest of wines.
7 On this mountain he will destroy the shroud that enfolds all peoples, the sheet that covers all nations;

8 he will swallow up death forever.
The Sovereign LORD will wipe away the tears from all faces;
he will remove the disgrace of his people from all the earth.
The LORD has spoken.
9 In that day they will say,
“Surely this is our God;
we trusted in him, and he saved us.
This is the LORD, we trusted in him;
let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation.”

Hebrews 9:28 and Isaiah 25:9 are mated verses.

In Isaiah 25:6-9, what is this feast with “aged” wine that has the ability to destroy death forever?

It can only be the Passover. It is the only feast in the Bible celebrated with wine that has the power to destroy death (eternal life).

It is aged, because it has not been celebrated for hundreds of years. But when it is brought back by God in the last days, God’s people will say, “surely this is our God”.

What do you think of these words in the Bible I’m showing you? It is self explanatory.

-You ask on what objective basis do I argue that Protestant teachings are ‘rules taught by men’ whereas Ahnsahnghong’s teachings are not.

Are you kidding me Scott?

Must I illustrate once again? Very well then.
Is Christmas the birthday of Jesus? No it is not, it was celebrated as the birth of the sun god by pagans before Christianity was diluted by paganism. If you do not know this, then do the research.

Christmas = man made tradition
Passover = Biblical teaching (Ahnsahnghong)

Was easter celebrated by the early Christians? No it was not. Easter has pagan roots and is a celebration of the fertility goddess Estre. This is where we find the origin of easter eggs and such. This is a pagan, man-made tradition that is celebrated in the name of Christ.

What SHOULD be kept, is the Biblical resurrection day which falls on the first sunday after the first day of the feast of unleavened bread according to the sacred calendar. Biblically known as the Day of firstfruits.

Easter falls on the Sunday after the first full moon after the vernal equinox. This calculation is based not on the Bible, but by man.

Easter = man-made tradition

Resurrection Day = Biblical teaching (Ahnsahnghong)

Cross reverence is idolatry according to the Bible. Early Christians did not teach the erecting or carrying of crosses as signs of Christianity. Showing reverence to any idol made with the hands is detestable to God almighty. The idolatry of the cross also has pagan origins. Research this yourself.

Cross reverence = man-made tradition.
Cross reverence is forbidden = Biblical teaching (Ahnsahnghong)

Jesus and the early Christians kept the Sabbath day. Not according to the law of Moses, but the Law of Christ. Sabbath is mentioned over 6000 times in the Bible. It is a weekly memorial of God's creation. It is the day we are to worship God in spirit and in truth as taught by Jesus Christ. The enforcement of Sunday worship appeared in the 4th century by the Catholic Church. Pagan Rome worshipped the sun god before the integration with Christianity.

Weekly Sunday worship = man-made tradition
Keep the Sabbath holy = Biblical teaching (Ahnsahnghong)

Scott, when I used the verses 1 John 2:23 and Matt 7:21, I was not trying to use that as a personal attack on you.

I apologize that you took it that way.
I want people to see what the Bible says and they can make up their own mind. I want people to look at the church they go to and ask themselves if their church follows man made traditions or God's commands.

Once they honestly answer those questions, they can then see why those verses are powerful.

Only God will judge Scott, I am just exposing those who are hypocrites. This is the mission of the last saints that are to appear in these last days. False prophets are exposed by using the word of God.

If you are following God's commands then you do not need to be defensive.

You say that I offer no criteria to show my beliefs are correct and yours are not.

I cannot believe what I am reading Scott. It is so clear, yet you cannot see. HELLO SCOTT, we keep the teachings of the Bible! in other words the WORD OF GOD!

Keeping Passover of the New Covenant is the word of God. Do you keep Passover Scott? No you say?

Then you are not keeping the commands of God. What does that make you ACCORDING TO THE BIBLE?

I do not need to make accusations. Let actions, let the word of God speak for themselves.

Here, let me make it crystal clear to you Scott.
Those who follow teachings of Christ = followers of Christ
Those who do not follow the teachings of Christ = followers of man made traditions.

And yes Scott, I CONDEMN Catholics for keeping the Eucharist.
Did Jesus say in Luke 22 that he eagerly desired to eat this Eucharist or did he say I eagerly desire to eat this PASSOVER?

Eating Passover bread (flesh) and Passover wine (blood) falls on the 14th day of the 1st month according to the sacred calendar.

The Eucharist is not the Passover.

Therefore the Eucharist is not the equivalent to Passover.
So keeping Eucharist is not eating Jesus' flesh and blood.
It is just eating bread and wine.

Only on the night of the Passover did he appoint the bread and wine as his flesh and blood. Eucharist is not Passover my friend.

-You still insist that Jesus and Jehovah are separate entities.

Absolutely amazing. I showed you verses that prove that Jesus and Jehovah are one entity, not two.

But you use a typical Jehovah witness argument claiming that if Jesus and Jehovah were the same, then Jesus must be crazy.

Jehovah God came to this earth in the flesh as the son of God. He was the perfect example for us to become the sons of God.
Did Jesus need to pray? be baptized? eat the passover for eternal life? keep Sabbath?

Of course not, he is God. He did these things to set the examples for us.

Apostle Paul said to follow his example as he follows the example of Christ.

There many many prophecies in the old testament of God coming in the flesh, yet you throw these out the window. You see what you want to see, you hear what you want to hear.

2 Timothy 4:3 – "There will be a time when they will not endure sound doctrine; but according to their own lusts will heap to themselves teachers itching in hearing, tickling their ears; and shall turn away their hearing indeed from the truth, but they shall be converted unto fables."

When you understand first that it was prophesied that God almighty would come to the earth as a son, only then can you begin to understand why Jesus spoke the way he did.

In Mark, Jesus went up to a fig tree that he knew was not in season to look for figs on it. When he did not find any, he spoke to the tree and cursed it.

Is Jesus crazy for doing such a thing?

He did this for a reason and it was to show the meaning of the parable of the fig tree that he spoke of to his disciples.

Yes, Jesus spoke to God the Father as the Son of God even though Jesus IS the Father. This does not make him crazy.

And I'm sorry Scott, but YHWH and YESHUA are two different words.

Jesus' name (Yeshua) was not in the old testament, nice try though.

And about Rev. 22. You want to talk about eisegesis huh?

2000 years ago, it was Jesus who said during the last day of the Feast of Tabernacles, that he had the water of life (eternal life) and whoever came to him, streams of living water would flow within him.

It is because only Jesus (God in the flesh) has the authority to give the water of life.

Now it is prophesied that in the last days, it is the Spirit AND the bride who is giving the water of life.

Nowhere in Rev. 22:17 did it say that the bride was God's people. You want to talk about eisegesis.

Those who hear the Spirit and the bride are us who want to be saved. In this context, the bride is not us. Read the verse again Scott.

It is eisegesis to say that this bride in Revelation is God's people.

Mark 2:19 — And Jesus said to them, "How can the guests of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is still with them?.."

The guests here are referred to as the disciples (God's people).

Who are the ones that are invited to a wedding, Scott? It is the guests that are invited.

Rev. 19:9 — And he said to me, write: Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding of the Lamb....

Those who are invited to the wedding (the guests) are God's people. This is quite clear. Don't sit there and try to claim that this is eisegesis.

How can God's people be both the guests and the bride?
That makes no sense at all.

The Bible testifies that the bride (Jerusalem from above) is our mother.

This is straight from the Bible my friend. If you want to argue with the Bible, then go right on ahead.

So if the bride in revelation (heavenly Jerusalem) is God's people like YOU claim, then why did Paul say that she is our mother??

Then he went on to say that we (God's people) are children. So do you think that God's people can be referred to as children AND as mother?

How do you answer this Scott? I would like to hear it. You wanted an explanation of the "dilemma", so here you have it.

Like I said before, it is true that God's people can be referred to those that are married to Christ. This concept is even shown through Adam (Christ) and Eve (God's people).

But you fail to understand that the bride has two different meanings depending in the context in which it is used. Just as with the term "lamb".

In my next post, I will prove to you through the Bible, without a doubt, that Jerusalem mother is God.

In regards to your repetitious argument that Christ Ahnsahnghong never said he was the Christ, that argument is so weak.

Jesus Christ also used the scriptures to prove he was the Christ. (Luke 24:45)

In the same way, Christ Ahnsahnghong used the scriptures to prove he was second coming Christ.

Let me ask you then Scott. If he said, " I, Ahnsahnghong, am the second coming Christ", you would then believe?

How can you recognize second coming Christ Scott? By hearing someone say "I am second coming Christ", or by fulfillment of prophecy?

The answer is obvious. You do not even know everything when it comes to what Christ Ahnsahnghong taught, so you speak out of ignorance.

In his Books of Truth that he wrote, the preface said that what we were about to read was a last warning from God.

Meaning the message of salvation, the truth, that he has brought is brought from God, (Ahnsahnghong).

You like to look at everything but the prophecies in the Bible. It is because your attempt to discredit Ahnsahnghong cannot be done through the Bible.

And Stephey, I understand what you are saying about acts 1:11.

I am not ignoring this, but I thought I addressed this already.

Jesus Christ will return in the flesh just as he went up to heaven. You and general Christians interpret this as meaning, Jesus will come floating out of the sky on a cloud.

Remember when prophet Elijah was taken up to heaven in the flesh in a whirlwind? The jews know that Elijah will return before the coming of their Messiah. They are still waiting for Elijah to come with majestic glory from the sky, since that is the way he went up to heaven.

In reality, Elijah came in the flesh just as he went up. He came as John the Baptist. John was born as a baby, he did not come floating out of the sky.

The bible says that everything written in the past was to teach us. Why can't you accept the fact that Christ will appear again in the flesh?

You take verses in Matt 24 literally, knowing full well that Jesus spoke in parables. The cloud spiritually represents the flesh.

Anyways, which continent do you think second coming Christ will appear over? If it is over U.S.A. then will the Christians in China see him?

Don't make the same mistake as the Jews did 2000 years ago my friends.

I will write more about melchizedek and the reality of Jerusalem in the last days.

Please think about what is being said here instead of reacting so defensively. Im sorry that I get a little frustrated, It is just that I'm showing you that we keep the commands in the Bible, and I get persecuted for it. I know how the apostles felt 2000 years ago.

God Bless You

—The only way to receive salvation (eternal life) is through the flesh and blood of Christ which is given to us through the Passover Bread and Wine.—

By: Scott Thong on
July 20, 2007
at 3:17 pm

Reply

Then what about these verses, which say:

"But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions — it is by grace you have been saved." (Ephesians 2:4-5)

"For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith — and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God — not by works, so that no one can boast." (Ephesians 2:8-9)

"Now then, why do you try to test God by putting on the necks of the disciples a yoke that neither we nor our fathers have been able to bear? No! We believe it is through the grace of our Lord Jesus that we are saved, just as they are." (Acts 15:10-11)

"But join with me in suffering for the gospel, by the power of God, who has saved us and called us to a holy life — not because of anything we have done but because of his own purpose and grace. This grace was given us in Christ Jesus before the beginning of time, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who has destroyed death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. (2 Timothy 1:8-10)

How many verses do we see where it says that it is God's freely given grace – NOT anything we can do – that saves us?

Maybe you can say that we must be obedient to God to have salvation. But by no means does that mean the Passover itself GIVES salvation! Only God gives salvation. Lifting up a ritual to the status of God is idolatry.

—This Christian Passover was kept by the early Christians, but then was abolished by the Catholic Church in 325 A.D. Then Christ must come to bring back the way to eternal life. —

Actually, promoting an eating/drinking ritual as the means of salvation that is exactly what the Roman Catholics do – they have the Sacrament of the Eucharist, which is necessary for salvation.

But wait... Why do we mainstream churches call it Holy Communion, not Passover? Could it be because WE ARE NOT JEWS?

An alien living among you who wants to celebrate the LORD's Passover must have all the males in his household circumcised; then he may take part like one born in the land. No uncircumcised male may eat of it." (Exodus 12:48-49)

Are you a Jew? Are you even circumcised? Even if you are circumcised, does that make you an Israelite who follows all the Mosaic laws? If not, how can you presume to partake of the Passover?

What we should celebrate is not the Passover... But rather, practice the Last Supper the way Jesus told us to:

And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you."

(Luke 22:19-20)

Does Passover or eating bread or drinking wine save us?
Is it the method to obtain God's forgiveness?

NO! It is done in remembrance of Jesus' sacrifice – the act which REALLY brings salvation!

—Are you kidding me Scott?

Must I illustrate once again? Very well then.
Is Christmas the birthday of Jesus? No it is not, it was celebrated as the birth of the sun god by pagans before Christianity was diluted by paganism. If you do not know this, then do the research.—

Are YOU kidding me? Or just being intentionally stubborn and misleading on what Protestants really believe?

You do not answer my original questions at all, merely delve into yet another repetition of your straw-man accusations.

You please tell me which Christian denomination in the world teaches that Christmas and Easter ARE NECESSARY FOR SALVATION. Me and my family did not even celebrate these holidays for decades, and guess what? WE ARE STILL SAVED. Rituals and celebrations have NO EFFECT on that.

Your continued attempts to win an argument by pinning idolizing a pagan tradition mainstream Christians to is a dishonest tactic.

Here, read the following. It is a summary of what mainstream Protestant Christians REALLY believe. Please don't come and spout false accusations due to your poor understanding (or is it your church's teaching?).

http://www.ccci.org/statement_of_faith.html

8. The salvation of man is wholly a work of God's free grace and is not the work, in whole or in part, of human works or goodness or religious ceremony. God imputes His righteousness to those who put their faith in Christ alone for their salvation, and thereby justified them in His sight.

And who is the one who chose the cross as the symbol of the faith? Man, or God?

How many times does the Bible mention the cross? In 1st Corinthians 1:18 the Bible describes the cross as the GREAT POWER OF GOD. In Colossians 2:15, the Bible describes the cross as the GLORY OF GOD. In 1st Corinthians 1:18 the Bible describes the cross as the WISDOM OF GOD.

Was it man who ordered the Israelites to march into the Promised Land in the shape of a cross, or was it God?

Tell me how the Catholics or Protestants managed to go back in time and order the Israelite army to make a pagan symbol.

<http://scottthong.wordpress.com/2006/11/10/a-cross-to-the-promised-land/>

—I want people to see what the Bible says and they can make up their own mind. I want people to look at the church they go to and ask themselves if their church follows man made traditions or God's commands.—

So do I, Ryan, so do I. I wish the same of you. There are millions of books and websites explaining why mainstream churches believe this or that, or disbelieve that or this. Many are very well written and make perfect sense, while relying solely on the Bible for proof.

—Absolutely amazing. I showed you verses that prove that Jesus and Jehovah are one entity, not two.—

That is so true! They are one entity. But they are also three (including the Holy Spirit) entities! I will repeat my very straightforward argument: Jesus calls on the Father, yet refers to Himself as the Son.

Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. (Matthew 7:21)

Jesus plainly calls God His Father. So how can Jesus be God, yet call on His Father? The mainstream explanation for this is simple.

The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are three distinct entities with distinct personalities... Yet they are one. That is the doctrine of the Trinity... $1 \times 1 \times 1 = 1$. Yeah, it's pretty hard to grasp... But I make no apologies for it.

—2 Timothy 4:3 – “There will be a time when they will not endure sound doctrine; but according to their own lusts will heap to themselves teachers itching in hearing, tickling their ears; and shall turn away their hearing indeed from the truth, but they shall be converted unto fables.”—

Amazingly, we mainstreamers use the same verse applied to your church! So who is right and who is misguided? Who follows God's teaching and who follow's man's?

Only an objective study of Scripture will decide fairly, and I am confident that your exegesis of the Bible does not stand up to scrutiny. Sorry to say.

—And I'm sorry Scott, but YHWH and YESHUA are two different words. Jesus' name (Yeshua) was not in the old testament, nice try though.—

You misread. I stated (and you can check above) that Yeshua means 'YHWH is salvation'. Joshua's name is in the Old Testament, and has the same meaning of 'YHWH is salvation'. So although the exact spelling may not be there, the name's meaning is there.

—You like to look at everything but the prophecies in the Bible. It is because your attempt to discredit Ahnsahnghong cannot be done through the Bible.—

How so? I believe that many prophecies of the Bible DISCREDIT Ahnsahnghong, such as the following many about the Second Coming of Christ:

"After he (Jesus) said this, he was taken up before their very eyes, and a cloud hid him from their sight. They were looking intently up into the sky as he was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them. "Men of Galilee," they said, "why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven." (Acts 1:9-11)

JESUS WILL RETURN FROM ABOVE. He did not go into Heaven as a baby. Your citing of Elijah is meaningless – he were born as humans, but he left in amazing display! Same for Jesus, and the angels clearly said that He would return in an amazing display.

But even if not, the whole world will see Jesus' return with their own eyes:

"Immediately after the distress of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from the sky, and the heavenly bodies will be shaken. At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory. And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other." (Matthew 24:29-31)

JESUS WILL RETURN AFTER TRIBULATION AND SCARY SIGNS IN THE SKIES.

EVERYONE WILL SEE HIM CLEARLY.

WE WILL ALL BE GATHERED TO HIM.

I would like to ask: The Mormons and Reverend Moon and many others also claimed the Second Coming already happened.

Please try to answer my question the best you can:
What makes your claim that Ahnsahnghong is the second coming superior and more true than their claim? They also claim that it all happened in secret... How can we disprove them?

—Anyways, which continent do you think second coming Christ will appear over? If it is over U.S.A. then will the Christians in China see him?—

Oh, is that why? Do you forget that Jesus, being God, can appear to all men at once? We can all pray to him simultaneously what. And of course, there's that little thing called television... But I feel that cheapens His power and connection to men.

—Please think about what is being said here instead of reacting so defensively. Im sorry that I get a little frustrated, It is just that I'm showing you that we keep the commands in the Bible, and I get persecuted for it. I know how the apostles felt 2000 years ago.—

I apologize too if I sound very critical or defensive. It's just that, I firmly believe that yoru church's techings are not sound. The arguments you use have been used by many misguided cults before – yes, even the Jehovah's Witnesses!

And you have a poor understanding of what mainstream Protestants REALLY BELIEVE. Don't just adopt what your elders tell you – they are human too, might they not be mistaken? Search online for yourself what churches say their statement of faith really is.

I want to ask again: Is it true that Ahnsahng hong NEVER IN HIS WHOLE LIFE AND ALL HIS WRITINGS THOUGHT OF HIMSELF AS CHRIST? That it was all added in only AFTER his death by his ex-lover Chung Gil Cha – the woman who calls herself the 'Holy Mother Jerusalem' and God?

You have access to Ahnsahng hong's writings and books, right? Read through them and tell me what you find. Did Ahnsahng hong ever say he was the Christ or not? Simple question. I'll repeat it five times so I can hopefully get an answer:

Did Ahnsahng hong ever say he was the Christ or not? Or was Chung Gil Cha the first to claim so?
Did Ahnsahng hong ever say he was the Christ or not? Or was Chung Gil Cha the first to claim so?
Did Ahnsahng hong ever say he was the Christ or not? Or was Chung Gil Cha the first to claim so?
Did Ahnsahng hong ever say he was the Christ or not? Or was Chung Gil Cha the first to claim so?
Did Ahnsahng hong ever say he was the Christ or not? Or was Chung Gil Cha the first to claim so?

I await your reply.

In the end, what is the truly important thing? That we obey God to the best of our conscience correct? I am confident that if we do so, He will lead us to the truth (whether it is my belief or yours).

I shall end with this comment with a passage regarding both Passover and keeping the Sabbath:

When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your sinful nature, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins, having canceled the written code, with its regulations, that was against us and that stood opposed to us; he took it away, nailing it to the cross. 15And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross.

Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day. These are a shadow of the things that were to come; the reality, however, is found in Christ. (Colossians 2:13-17)

God bless you too. I really hope that you will think over why so many people are not convinced of your church's interpretation. God's will.

Hello everyone. I've been trying to read through the posts but the words are so small, hurts a bit.

By: King James on
July 20, 2007
at 5:20 pm

Anyway Ryan, I have a few questions for you. Hopefully you can shed some light. Reply

1. Was Ahnsahnghong perfect, like Jesus?
2. Who saw Ahnsahnghong ascend?
3. If Buddhism is a false religion, how is it that God allowed a Christ to be born from them?
4. Are Ahnsahnghong's parents burning in hell since they were Buddhist? When did God favor anyone in the bible who didn't worship him?

"ACCORDING TO THE BIBLE", what did God do to those who did not worship him and chose to worship another "god"?

I'm just trying to find the connection between the two because it seem as though God contradicted himself. It's just weird how God despised Idol worshippers so much in the bible that he slaughtered thousands of them, only to turn around and allow perfection to come from imperfection.

But, if Ahnsahnghong wasn't perfect, then that would explain it all.

Thanks,

- James

My kids have been in this cult for about 2 years in NJ. They have lied to me and deceived me, they've borrowed money and not bothered to repay it. They have become strangers to us as we will not allow them to preach to us. They refuse to talk to us because I speak out against their church. Stay

By: pat on July 20, 2007
at 11:35 pm

Reply

the hell away from them! You will lose your money, your freedom, your individuality and your family.

Also Scott,

By: King James on
July 21, 2007
at 1:21 am

Read Ryan's words very carefully. Members of the COG like to set traps. They use the words of Jesus and ask why you do not follow his words. They also try to use it for someone to argue against it, then call the person a blasphemer afterwards.

Reply

They also use those words to make a person feel guilty. That is turns into fear and that fear is then used to get the person to join their church.

Very tricky with words they are.

- James

1:7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

By: pat on July 21,
2007
at 2:43 am

1:8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

Reply

1:9 As we said before, so say I now again, if any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

Sorry.....that was from Galations....

By: pat on July 21,
2007
at 3:36 am

Reply

Yes Scott, the verses you point out regarding God's grace is correct. I totally agree with you.

By: Ryan on July 21,
2007
at 7:56 am

So do you understand what it means through "God's grace" we are saved?

Reply

Jesus gave us his blood through the Passover so our sins can be forgiven and we can have eternal life. There is no conflict with the verses you show and the fact that we must have Jesus' blood in us, which is done through the Passover.

Im just trying to show you what is said in the Bible, that is it. Im not trying to be "tricky" like Mr. King James know it all claims.

Let us see some mated verses.

Ephesians 1:7 — In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace 8that he lavished on us with all wisdom and understanding.

Let us see its mated verse.

Matthew 26:26 — While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body."

27Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. 28This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

I do not think any explanation is necessary here. It is quite clear.

You say we are not Jews. Really Scott, have you really been reading your Bible lately?

Galatians 3: 29 — If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Those who accept Christ (God in the flesh) are considered spiritual Jews.

Romans 2:28 — A man is not a Jew if he is only one outwardly, nor is circumcision merely outward and physical. 29No, a man is a Jew if he is one inwardly; and circumcision is circumcision of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the written code. Such a man's praise is not from men, but from God.

The physical Jews kept the Passover according to the Law of Moses. We, spiritual Israelites (those who accept Christ) keep the Passover according to the Law of Christ as Jesus set the example.

And the reality of circumcision is baptism.

As it is written: Colossians 2:11 — In him you were also circumcised, in the putting off of the sinful nature,[a] not with a circumcision done by the hands of men but with the circumcision done by Christ, 12having been buried with him in baptism and raised with him through your faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.

After being baptized, we can then partake in Jesus' body and be one with Christ through the Passover.

Do you know the profound meaning of the Passover?

The physical Israelites escaped physical slavery of over 400 years through God's great power of the Passover. The last plague "passed over" those who had the blood of the lamb on their doorframes.

The Passover of the old testament is a shadow of the Passover of the New Testament.

Through the Passover, Jesus (reality of the Passover Lamb) freed us from spirutual slavery to death. Only by eating Jesus' flesh and blood can we receive eternal life.

As it is written: John 6:53 — Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you.

54Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.

55For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

56Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.

These are Jesus' words, not mine. You have faith in Jesus correct? Then he said you must eat his flesh and blood, did he not?

He have us his precious blood on the night of the Passover.

By keeping the Passove of the New Covenant, we are free from death, receiving eternal life.

Also in the last days, the plagues will come upon the people of the world. Those with the seal of God will not be harmed as it is written in Rev. 7. The seal of God is the blood of Jesus (Passover).

The Jews who kept the Passover escaped the plagues brought upon Egypt (representing sinful world). The blood was a sign.

The reality however is found in Christ. Those who keep the Passover of the New Covenant, having the blood of Christ, will escape the last plagues to be brought upon the world.

Yes Scott, you are right, Jesus said to do this in remembrance of me. Then do God's will and do it.

You say I am not addressing your original questions. Wow Scott. I could see why you say that since I am exposing your folly. I cant blame you for making such a statement.

Straw man accusations? Sure Scott.

Anyways, let me continue addressing you points.

Thank you for showing me what Protestants REALLY believe. Wow! Really!, protestants believe that through faith in Jesus, they are saved! Thank you for letting me know, I had no idea.

What is your point here Scott. Yes I believe that it is important to have faith in Jesus too. That is why I obey his teachings.

Are you oblivious of the fact that general Protestantism keep pagan traditions? Do you think that this is ok in the eyes of God?

How do you justify cross reverence with 1 Corinthians 1:18 and Colossians 2:15.

Yes Jesus died on the cross and through his death, his promise of the new covenant was put into effect. His GREAT POWER of giving us eternal life could be put into effect through his death on the cross.

As it is written by apostle Paul: Hebrews 9:16 — In the case of a will,[d] it is necessary to prove the death of the one who made it, 17because a will is in force only when somebody has died; it never takes effect while the one who made it is living.

Will is the same meaning as covenant. Jesus promise of eternal life was put into effect after his death on the cross. Yes this is the GREAT POWER OF GOD.

So tell me again how that justifies erecting crosses and showing reverence to these idols. If Jesus died by the sword, then we should erect a sword on the church rooftop?

Where is your sound justification?

Jeremiah 2:

27 They say to wood, 'You are my father,' and to stone, 'You gave me birth.'
They have turned their backs to me
and not their faces;
yet when they are in trouble, they say,
'Come and save us!'

28 Where then are the gods you made for yourselves?
Let them come if they can save you when you are in trouble!

Idolatry is forbidden in the Bible. The early church never engaged in casting crosses. This point is so clear. I can't believe people actually try to justify this. Boggles the mind.

And yes I understand the doctrine of Trinitarianism that came out of the Council of Nicea in 325 A.D. They could not come to a universal agreement, and the teaching of "3 in 1" stands as the explanation of the relationship between Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

3 separate entities yet they are one. Let me show you a little problem with this theory.

Isaiah 44:24 — "This is what the LORD says—your Redeemer, who formed you in the womb:
I am the LORD,
who has made all things,
who alone stretched out the heavens, who spread out the earth by myself,

So Jehovah said he created everything by himself.

Then how do you explain this?

Colossians 1:6 — For by him all things were created:
things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him.

Then if Jesus and Jehovah are separate, then how many earths should we have? moons? sun? etc.

Jesus and Jehovah are one, period. You blindly accept this 3 in 1 nonsense because it originated hundreds of years ago??

God has played three roles over the 6000 year spiritual creation for our salvation. As the Father (old testament) as the son (1st coming of Christ) and as the Holy Spirit (2nd coming Christ).

Only one spirit, not three.

Are you proud of being considered a mainstreamer? Do you understand the meaning of the parable of the weeds?

Today there are many who proclaim to believe and follow Christ, but the majority follow according to man's tradition, not God's commands.

Will all who profess with their lips enter the kingdom of heaven Scott?

Matt 7: 21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

Jesus has warned us that not all believers will enter the kingdom of heaven. Only those who obey. Will they be the many (mainstream) or the few (true followers of Christ)?

Matt 13:3 – "Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. 14But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

The Church of God restored by second coming Christ as prophesied in the Bible keeps all of God's commands as the early Church of God did.

Tell me then how you can use those verses against our church. I would like to hear it.

Passover is in the Bible, Christmans is not.
Sabbath is in the Bible, Sunday worship is not.
Sisters wear veils because it is a teaching from the Bible.

You say pinning pagan traditions to mainstream Christianity is a dishonest tactic??

How is that dishonest? It is the truth. Pagan traditions should have no place in Christianity. Do you not agree with this?

You think that all you have to do to show you have faith is to say it with your mouth? You do not see the importance in obeying the word of God?

James 2:14 — What good is it, my brothers, if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save him?

James 2: 20 — You foolish man, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless? 21Was not our ancestor Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? 22You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did. 23And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,"[e] and he was called God's friend. 24You see that a person is justified by what he does and not by faith alone.

Now do you understand what faith is? Faith is obedience to God.

It is very simple.

You misread. I stated (and you can check above) that Yeshua means 'YHWH is salvation'. Joshua's name is in the Old Testament, and has the same meaning of 'YHWH is salvation'. So although the exact spelling may not be there, the name's meaning is there.

LIKE I SAID, the name Jesus (YESHUA) is not in the old testament.

That is all I said, and Im glad you agree with me.

My point in bringing this up is that the saviors name before Jesus came, was Jehovah. And when the disciples went around proclaiming only under the name of JESUS could they be saved, this was hard for people to accept. It was a new name.

I know what Yeshua means, but in the bigger picture, it is not important for our salvation. What is important, is God's administration, his will for our salvation. Obeying the word of God is the way to salvation as taught in the Bible.

In the same way, the name Ahnsahnghong has a significant meaning, but it is not important to our salvation. It is irrelevant.

And when it comes to Acts 1:9, you just simply do not get it.

I understand that Jesus did not go into heaven as a baby. Do you read carefully what I write Scott??

He went up in the flesh. He will return in the flesh. It does not mean he has to come floating out of the sky.

Jesus also said: John 6:42 — They said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I came down from heaven'?"

Jesus said he came down from heaven. Did Jesus come floating out of the sky?

How can you say my citing Elijah is meaningless??

Let me explain again. Yes, he left in amazing display, and that is how they expect him to return, since that is the way they saw him leave.

When Elijah came, did he come in amazing display? No he did not.

In the same way, people misinterpret scripture, take it literally, and think Jesus is going to come out of some magical light show in the sky.

How foolish. Like I said, Jesus spoke in parables. How foolish of you to think he is literally going to come surfing on a cloud.

The Bible also says he is going to come riding on a horse.

So he is going to be on a horse and he and the horse will be on some sort of cloud and somehow, everyone will be able to see him even though the world is round. Riiiiight Scott.

Oh yeah I forgot, God can perform miracles and let everyone see him at the same time.

Remember, it is the false Christs and false prophets who will be using great signs and wonders in the last days to decieve. This is straight from the Bible my friend. Think about it.

Why don't you try reading the Bible with your spiritual eyes rather than your physical eyes.

The Bible testifies that Christ is the light. When God spoke to the people on Mount Sinai, the light was too bright. They insisted that God appear to them through Moses.

So God came in a cloud, robed in the flesh, so the people can see and be taught by the light. But sadly, the people only saw the cloud (flesh) and not the light behind the cloud. They crucified the very one they claimed to believe in.

His coming in the flesh was a stumbling block as it is written:

1 peter 2:6 — For in Scripture it says:

"See, I lay a stone in Zion, a chosen and precious cornerstone, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame." 7Now to you who believe, this stone is precious. But to those who do not believe,

"The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone," 8and,

"A stone that causes men to stumble and a rock that makes them fall." They stumble because they disobey the message—which is also what they were destined for.

God's coming contrary to man's opinion will become a great stumbling block for those who believe. Only by recognizing and believing the prophecies in the bible, will we be able to receive second coming Christ.

Reverend Moon is a corrupt con man who is entrenched in the New World Order. What biblical truths has he revealed as the second coming Christ. Has he brought the hidden manna as prophesied in Revelation 2? It is only Christ Ahnsahnghong who has.

The same can be said with the Mormons. They actually add to the Bible even though in Rev 22:18 warns us not to add or take away.

Ahnsahnghong is second coming Christ because he has fulfilled all the prophecies in the Bible. Do you think that I just easily and blindly accepted Ahnsahnghong as Christ?

I studied over and over the prophecies, since I am a skeptical person anyways. Just as Jesus fulfilled prophecy, Ahnsahnghong fulfilled prophecy, I put my trust in the word of God.

And in regards to your question about Ahnsahnghong claiming he is second coming Christ.

Did you not read what I said in my post? I already answered this. You should read more carefully.

If Ahnsahnghong said, "I am second coming Christ, follow me if you want to be saved in these last days.", would that make you believe Scott?

If not, then why do you ask such a question.

Anyways, I'll give you an excerpt of the preface of one of his book of truths.

"As you see in the contents, these are the secrets of God, which you have never learned from general churches or theological schools. If only you study them, you will understand fully, And whoever wants to do the will of God, will acknowledge this book as the last notice from God.

Author, Ahnsahnghong.

Ahnsahnghong preached the Passover of the New Covenant. He preached that Passover would be restored by second coming Christ. He preached that the prophetic King David that would appear in the last days must preach the Passover for the remaining 37 years to fulfill the reign of David.

Christ Ahnsahnghong was the one who did all these things.

And you still ask if he ever proclaimed himself to be Christ??

What do you still not understand Scott, really?

Yes, many people persecute us, just as people persecuted the early church. So what is your point? The truth will always be persecuted.

And when it comes to your last quoting of Colossians 2:13-17, I will address in my next post. These verses are famous among Christians who want to justify them not having to keep God's commands.

If you understand what Paul is saying in its context then you will understand. I will illustrate later.

Yes, I know who you are "Ryan" or should I say "John". Are you the COG's online preacher? You sure get around don't ya, but I'm right behind ya buddy.

By: King James on
July 21, 2007
at 1:17 pm

Reply

By the way, thanks for the compliment. Being called a "know it all" means alot, now worship me.

Oh and you said Ahnsahnghong was the one who did all of that stuff, well John or Ryan, how do you know this? Who saw him do these things? Let me guess, "Mother Jerusalem" was his only witness.

And stop crying persecution, EVERY church is being persecuted by other churches for the simple fact that they are not like them. If your church branches off into a sub denomination, it too will be "persecuted" by your church and others. It goes on and on.

Man, you just LOVE to feel special, eh?

- James

If Ahnsahnghong said, "I am second coming Christ, follow me if you want to be saved in these last days."

By: King James on
July 21, 2007
at 1:50 pm

OR

Reply

I am Mother Jerusalem, follow me if you want to be saved in these last days."

No big difference here, both couldn't prove anything. One just happens to be alive, which makes it even worse. Yet people follow her just because she says so.

No one on earth has worked a miracle..NO ONE. No one has raised someone from death like Jesus. No one has healed like him. Every so-called "miracle" people claim that they have done are nothing but tricks. Nothing more, nothing less and if people can not tell the difference between then that's too bad.

Most of these miracles are done in a church but anything performed outside of church would be impossible for these so these so called preachers that claim to "heal" or work miracles.

Even in the days when Jesus walked the earth, people were not working REAL miracles, they were nothing but tricks. If they were real then Jesus' miracles would not be as unique as it is. No one has done what Jesus did..ever. Even when Moses' staff turned into a snake, the Pharoah said that he was aware of those kinds of tricks...again tricks.

They were nothing but David Blaines. So much for Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem working miracles, they couldn't pull a simple card trick if they're life depended on it, yet they are God.

Would it mean something if Jesus came back and worked miracles, well in my opinion..yes. Because no one on this earth can. You have never seen anyone work a miracle and you never will, "Ryan". Not even your Gods.

- James

Ahnsahnghong preached the Passover of the New Covenant. He preached that Passover would be restored by second coming Christ. He preached that the prophetic King David that would appear in the last days must preach the Passover for the remaining 37 years to fulfill the reign of David.

By: King James on
July 21, 2007
at 3:28 pm

Reply

Yet no one knew who he was when he preached this? For 37 years (which a very long time may I add) people were hearing the same BS by this guy about how Passover was abolished and how only one person can "restore it". I'm sure he made his congregation observe the Passover or else he wouldn't have done his job. Plus your Church's website said he did, so how exactly did he come in secret and how is it possible that no one knew who he was until AFTER his death? Give me a break. He must have been preaching to blind people or the deaf or maybe sock puppets, since no one was aware that their church were the "only church" to observe Passover since no other church on Earth were doing so.

Then all of a sudden after 37 years, people woke up. After an hour of riding my bike, I crashed into a wall then realized that I was actually riding my bike. Make sense huh, yeaaaaa.

Dude, c'mon.

Let me use a scripture that you used above;

James 2: 20 — You foolish man, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless? 21Was not our ancestor Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? 22You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did. 23And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,"[e] and he was called God's friend. 24You see that a person is justified by what he does and not by faith alone.

So if Ahnsahnghong did what he preached, if his ACTIONS were as clear as the WORDS he preached, it would be impossible for anyone not to catch on and to put two and two together and figure out that he was the "second coming". After 37 years of repetitive bible study and Sabbath worships and Tuesday services and Passovers, something should have clicked but apparently, those South Koreans in his congregation were clueless.

- James

Ryan, you said:

You say we are not Jews. Really Scott, have you really been reading your Bible lately?

By: King James on
July 22, 2007
at 2:45 pm

Reply

Galatians 3: 29 — If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Those who accept Christ (God in the flesh) are considered spiritual Jews.

What about those who accept Ahnsahnghong? Would they be considered spiritual Koreans?

- James

World Mission Society Church of God is a Cult, nothing but a Cult, always been a Cult, will always be a Cult. Fake Jesus, Fake Mother, the only thing real is the Money they take from you. Kurt Cobain said it best, Stay away.

By: Hawkeye ! on July 23, 2007
at 4:38 am

Reply

I gotta say one more thing, The Cast Iron Balls on these Motherfuckers is just beyond anything I've ever seen. They want us to believe that a man that banged half of the Ho's in Korea, (that's a lotta Ho's) has Kids all over the place, left his bottom bitch in Charge of the store, (those of you from the hood like me, know what that means) and wore Glasses was "Jesus the II". His Ho wears a Hearing-Aid and speaks only Korean, yet she invented Language. What a Crock of Freshly Shat SHITTTTTTTTT.

By: Hawkeye ! on July 23, 2007
at 5:06 am

Reply

YOU'RE A FUCKIN' IDIOT !

(Outstanding way to put this in perspective)

"ACCORDING TO THE BIBLE", what did God do to those who did not worship him and chose to worship another "god"? I'm just trying to find the connection between the two because it seem as though God contradicted himself. It's just weird how God despised Idol worshippers so much in the bible that he slaughterd thousands of them, only to turn around and allow perfection to come from imperfection. But, if Fake Korean Jesus wasn't perfect, then that would explain it all.

(and also)

Yet no one knew who he was when he preached this? For 37 years (which a very long time may I add) people were hearing the same BS by this guy about how Passover was abolished and how only one person can "restore it". I'm sure he made his congregation observe the Passover or else he wouldn't have done his job. Plus your Church's website said he did, so how exactly did he come in secret and how is it possible that no one knew who he was until AFTER his death? Give me a break. He must have been preaching to blind people or the deaf or maybe sock puppets, since no one was aware that their church were the "only church" to observe Passover since no other church on Earth were doing so. Then all of a sudden after 37 years, people woke up. After an hour of riding my bike, I crashed into a wall then realized that I was actually riding my bike. Make sense huh, yeaaaaa.

Could not have said these thing better myself !

Swooping in from the highin the Sky, forever and I mean forever a thorn in their side, Hawkeye !

Ryan,

By: Hawkeye ! on July 23, 2007 at 5:12 am

Who are you ?, who who, who who. Whooooooo are you ? who who, who who ! I really wanna know. What branch of this Cult are you from ? N.Y., N.J., Denver Chapter ? Your name really Zapien from California ? YOU ARE A FOOL. A FOOL OR LIER OR BOTH. Are Mothers teeth real ?

Reply

Firstly, lay off the profanity Hawkeye! It's already like gangbang here, half a dozen commenters jumping on Ryan. The least you could do is to be polite.

By: Scott Thong on July 23, 2007 at 1:05 pm

Reply

—How do you justify cross reverence with 1 Corinthians 1:18 and Colossians 2:15.—

Well, first off, it is in no way cross WORSHIP. Man, if I were to use a symbol with the letters MDCoC to stand for Modern Day Church of Christ, would that be idolatry? They are pagan inventions after all.

It is not wrong to have symbols. God Himself made one in the form of the bronze snake.

The LORD said to Moses, "Make a snake and put it up on a pole; anyone who is bitten can look at it and live." So Moses made a bronze snake and put it up on a pole. Then when anyone was bitten by a snake and looked at the bronze snake, he lived. (Numbers 21)

Well, I was confused about this for a while. Wouldn't it be idolatry to gaze upwards at a snake image? The second Commandments says: "You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below. You shall not bow down to them or worship them."

Ah, there it is! it is only idolatry if people actually WORSHIP the image, which happened in 2 Kings 18! Whereas if God commanded it to be done, then it is God ordained.

And I say that it is God who ordained Jesus to die on the CROSS, not a sword or noose or by stoning or anything else. If it were by those methods, then yes, Christianity's symbol might well be that item.

—Idolatry is forbidden in the Bible. The early church never engaged in casting crosses. This point is so clear. I can't believe people actually try to justify this. Boggles the mind.—

Point out to me where Christians worship the cross, and I will join you in chastising them for their blasphemy. But the straight fact is, Protestants do not worship symbols or idols. We don't pray to statues of saints either. No proper Christian actually thinks the cross is God!

—Colossians 1:6 — For by him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him.

Then if Jesus and Jehovah are separate, then how many earths should we have? moons? sun? etc.—

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made." (John 1:1-3)

Jesus (the Word) was with God, Jesus was God, and He made all things through Him. How do you interpret this verse's two 'with God' statements? Why bother saying that Jesus was with God if He is God in the first place? Better to leave it out altogether.

—Passover is in the Bible, Christmans is not.

Sabbath is in the Bible, Sunday worship is not.
Sisters wear veils because it is a teaching from the Bible.

You say pinning pagan traditions to mainstream Christianity is a dishonest tactic??

How is that dishonest? It is the truth. Pagan traditions should have no place in Christianity. Do you not agree with this?—

Let me state it this way. If I don't celebrate Christmas...
I am still a Christian. I don't go to hell.

If I don't worship on Sunday, but on another day or not at all... I am still a Christian. I don't go to hell.

If I don't ever see a cross in my entire life... I am still a Christian. I don't go to hell.

The fact is, none of the things you accuse Protestants of practising are doctrine. They are expressions of culture.
We sing and listen to sermons in foreign languages. We wear unJewish clothes. We worship in shophouses and straw huts instead of temples.

If anyone claimed that we HAVE to do those things to be saved, THAT would be a pagan (nonChristian) belief! In fact, that is what your church is accused of – putting rituals as criteria to be saved. Whether or not it has precedence in the Bible, no ritual will save you – only belief in Jesus and obedience to His words.

Compare with this scenario: A soldier accepts Jesus as his lord and saviour five seconds before he is shot and dies. He never has the chance to go to worship service (on whatever day), give tithes, celebrate whatever festival or eat even on Passover. Is he saved?

The mainstream would say, Yes he is saved. He put his faith in Jesus. But since he never partook of the Passover, what does your church say about his state of salvation? If he is not saved, then fine – that doesn't make your doctrine wrong.

But that is what I'm trying to point out – mainstream Christianity needs NO rituals. It is the heart that counts.
And if the heart tells someone that Passover is necessary, well then, go ahead and have it – just don't try and condemn everyone else when faith is the key to being saved.

—James 2:14 — What good is it, my brothers, if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save him? —

Yes, faith without obedience is dead. But is the actual, physical act of Passover required of Christians? Or was James talking of Jesus' only commandments to love God and love mankind – a way of life and a heart attitude, rather than rituals that the other Letters all say should not be used as a judging criteria?

—He went up in the flesh. He will return in the flesh. It does not mean he has to come floating out of the sky.—

Since He came in the flesh, He may very well come down in the flesh. But if he went flying up into the sky, then why shouldn't He come down from the sky?

Why only take one of the two and not both together? Does Acts 1:9 have any distinguishing words to show that the angels were referring to Jesus' flesh and not His ascension? I say yes, there is, — because they said, in the same WAY He was taken — not in the same BODY or FORM. It's a verb, an action, so the angels logically were talking about the ACTION of flying.

—In the same way, people misinterpret scripture, take it literally, and think Jesus is going to come out of some magical light show in the sky.—

If not, then how will ALL the world realize that Jesus has returned, and tremble and mourn at the realization of their sinful ways? And how will all the believers will be caught up in the air to join Jesus without anyone noticing? (1 Thes 4:17)

—Like I said, Jesus spoke in parables.—

And what is the criteria to be used? Why is Jesus speaking in parables when referring to coming down from the sky, but NOT speaking in parables or metaphor when speaking about 'eating flesh and blood'? Esp. if it is not within Judaism's kashrut/kosher laws to eat human flesh.

—Remember, it is the false Christs and false prophets who will be using great signs and wonders in the last days to deceive. This is straight from the Bible my friend. Think about it.—

And it is completely ordinary, non-second coming, non-prophetic people who will NOT DO ANY SIGNS AND WONDERS. By that criteria, there is nothing that makes Ahnsahnghong any more the Christ than I am. He didn't do miracles, I'm not doing any either. He didn't claim to be Christ in his lifetime, neither do I.

—Reverend Moon is a corrupt con man who is entrenched in the New World Order. What biblical truths has he revealed as the second coming Christ. Has he brought the hidden manna as prophesied in Revelation 2? It is only Christ Ahnsahnghong who has.—

By what criteria do you accuse Moon as a con man, not having brought the hidden manna, or not being the true Christ? Or more specifically, why should I believe that Ahnsahnghong is the Christ over Moon? If I am swayed by all your arguments and interpretation of Scripture, I could end up a Moonie instead, if you don't give me any reason Ahnsahnghong's church is better or more correct. They use the same arguments after all.

—And you still ask if he ever proclaimed himself to be Christ??—

I still ask it. Without outside interpretation of his writings, did Ahnsahnghong actually say that he thought he was the Messiah, the Christ? Did he clearly state it? Jesus may not have outright said "I am God", although He hinted strongly at it through words and claims. But He answered plainly that He was Messiah.

I REALLY NEED TO ASK – If Ahnsahnghong was the second coming of Christ, what praytell has he achieved? How many times does Jesus have to come before He comes to defeat evil, destroy the armies arrayed with Satan, judge the world and bring everlasting peaces?

I ask this because Jesus is supposed to do these things the next/second/FINAL time He comes to earth. These things have not been achieved by Ahnsahnghong's coming. Or perhaps there is a Third Coming? I am being serious here.

—Yes, many people persecute us, just as people persecuted the early church. So what is your point? The truth will always be persecuted.—

How about the persecuted Moonies, Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons, Satanists? They speak the truth too? The truth may be persecuted, but so is everything else! Not a good criteria to measure truthfulness by.

From your testimony about yourself, and your studious referral of Scripture, I can see that you are not just a blind follower or brainwashed sheep. You actually are convicted that Ahnsahnghong is the Christ after thinking it through. For this, I respect your stand.

I ask that you realize that I, too, am wholly convinced of the doctrines I believe after having thought through them. I am also a skeptic, and not prone to following the norms like a sheep.

So if we are both not imbeciles, then it boils down to our own interpretation and understanding of Scripture. I am not convinced that your doctrines are correct, and you think I am misguidedly adhering to standard exegesis.

Shall we continue to debate the Scriptures then? The issue may never be solved (which is why there are so many denominations), but it will be good for our understanding of each other's beliefs.

Ryan, I admit that your arguments regarding the necessity of Passover seem logical. Your interpretation of specific verses seems sound. It bears more looking into the matter.

By: Scott Thong on
July 23, 2007
at 1:52 pm

Reply

But if I were to conclude that your church's teaching is right regarding the Passover, how does that tie in with Ahnsahnghong really being the Christ?

The logical lines could be 'Ahnsahnghong's teaching about Passover is correct therefore Ahnsahnghong does not have wrong doctrine' says nothing about his Messiahship. Through careful study or pure chance, any normal person could also teach the same thing about Passover.

I believe the Seventh Day Adventists of which Ahnsahnghong was once a member teach Sabbath keeping and Passover. They make no claims to Messiahship however, although their founder was once thought to be infallible regarding doctrine.

So Passover included or aside, what is there to convince us that Ahnsahnghong is the second coming of Christ rather than an ordinary human theologian who had correct doctrine? There is an eternity of difference between the two.

(Note that the best evidence for his Messiahship should not be applicable to other people who claimed to be Christ, or normal people who never claimed to be Christ but just happened to be in the same set of evidences.)

Of course some of their teaching is legit Scott. That's CULT 101 Brother. They teach some obvious truth up front so you'll be like, yeah these people are onto something. Then they drop it on your head. Their INSANE beliefs, better said, what they want YOU to believe. They have to gain your trust first. That makes it oh so hard for most people to tell em to screw off. They won't ever sit someone down for the first time and say "I want you to worship a dead Korean man that wore Glasses and the Whore he left behind". Oh no, much, much more subtle than that. I'm thinking they are using hypnotism on many of the members. I'm not Bullshitting here.

By: Hawkeye on July 23, 2007 at 2:30 pm

Reply

Scott,

By: King James on July 24, 2007 at 12:08 am

I can agree with you. Ryan is no way an idiot, a moron, or even foolish. However, what doesn't make sense is the story of Ahnsahnghong. That is the dumbest thing I have ever heard. I actually have respect for Ryan and his knowledge of the Bible and his strong stance for his beliefs but still, it does not add up.

Reply

If this guy Ahnsahnghong did actually preach everything that Ryan is verbally regurgitating for 37 years to his congregation, and for them to observe this Passover for 37 years while acknowledging that there were no other churches doing so, then it would be impossible for them to NOT know that he was this "second coming" that he preached about and they (his congregation) studied the bible prophesies about, to determine how the second coming will appear and what the second coming's purpose will be.

To Ryan or "John",

Just as simple as it was for me to detect who you were, even though you are using a different user name, it should have been just as simple for Ahnsahnghong's congregation to detect who he was.

It's the clue that you left behind. It's the way that you refered to me that allowed me to determine who you were. If I am the founder of a church and I am preaching to you that Passover was abolished by Constantine, and how there are no chuches observing it, and the only person who can restore this Passover is the second coming, while at the same time I am declaring that only the TRUE church observes this event. I am also making everyone in my congregation observe this Passover because I am preaching that it is a command.

When you sit at home, you ought to think to yourself, "WOW, our church is the only church in the world observing Passover. But wait, if our church is the only church doing this and if the prophesies say the second coming is the only one to restore it, that must mean our King James our preacher is the second coming, I can't believe it!"

For 37 years, no one was aware of that? Makes one wonder how they were able to tie their shoe laces.

I can bet he baptized people in the name of Jesus Christ because if he had baptized people in his own name, that would be revealing himself in so many ways. Yet today, your church claims that it is wrong for people to get baptized in the name of Jesus Christ, well I feel sorry for those people he baptized in his church because I'm sure he did not baptized them in his name for obvious reasons.

The story does not add up.

- James

King,

He may in fact be "knowledgable", but he's using that knowledge for evil purposes whether he knows it or not. He's got us telling him he's wrong, but he refuses to give. Sometimes you have to illustrate absurdity by being absurd to make them see themselves for what they are or what they believe, sometimes it works, sometimes it doesn't, but they do find out where you're coming from for sure. He is a philosophical idiot. Like you say, it doesn't add up. Being a knowledgable person would tell him if he's a logical person @ all, that it doesn't add up. My conclusion is that he must know it's a crock of shit. He must. He's in Co-Hootz with Hillery to send us all to the bad place.

Swooping in from the high in the Sky, forever and I do mean forever, a thorn in their side, Hawkeye !

By: Hawkeye ! on July 24, 2007 at 2:26 pm

Reply

Hawkeye,

By: King James on
July 24, 2007
at 8:24 pm

You make a VERY good point and I also agree with you on that. Like, I'm very open to reading and trying to analyze their doctrine even more which I am doing because we all have access to these books for we have family/friends who are members of this church.

Reply

Most of the "new prophecies" they may tell us we need to know to understand why Ahnsahnghong is this second coming christ just isn't important as the man himself and the life he lived.

Putting the bible aside, what did he do, besides build a bunch of churches in a short amount of time and what did he say to his congregation? How can someone who came in secret get persecuted as they claim he did?

That's like persecuting George Bush for being a ninja, well who knows that he's a ninja? No one, because it is a secret. They want to claim that he came in secret yet they want to give the impression that people knew him well enough to persecute him..very confusing.

I feel Ryan or John does know the truth about this LIE and is probably getting paid good money. Like you said, that's the only way to see it. At some point rational thinking does kick in but if you are told that rational thinking should not be used then I guess that would lead anyone to believe it.

If I were some young "wet behind the ears" college student, I would be very convinced if he were to approach me with this in person. Seeing how they like to use scare tactics. The ol', "Do you want to disobey God?" type of questions that brings fear and guilt into someone's mind.

I dunno man, I guess that doesn't make me a "know it all" like Ryan or John likes to call me.

- James

Hawkeye,

By: King James on
July 25, 2007
at 10:54 am

This is what 'Ryan' or 'John' wrote:

Reply

Idolatry is forbidden in the Bible. The early church never engaged in casting crosses. This point is so clear. I can't believe people actually try to justify this. Boggles the mind.

He pretty much shot himself in the foot here by including bible scripture to back up his statement:

Jeremiah 2:

27 They say to wood, 'You are my father,'
and to stone, 'You gave me birth.'
They have turned their backs to me
and not their faces;
yet when they are in trouble, they say,
'Come and save us!'

28 Where then are the gods you made for yourselves?
Let them come if they can save you
when you are in trouble!

According to the COG, Buddhism is a false religion. This false religion worships Buddah which many partake in praying and bowing to a golden statue.

Ahnsahnghong and his parents were Buddhist.
Ahnsahnghong was pretty much a buddhist until getting batpized at age 30. So for half of his life, this man was raised in a buddhist home and worshipped an idol, which goes against the scripture above and is forbidden.

Why did God allow the second coming to be born from 2 people who did not obey, love nor worship him? What about poor ol' Buddah, how does he feel about the Hewbrew's God just using his children which have nothing to do with the bible or it's prophesies, to bring about the second coming of his son?

Sounds like a blatant act of disrespect to me.

- James

King James, haven't I already exposed you for not beleiving in the Bible or Jesus. You are not fully convinced that Jesus is the first coming of Christ, so how could you understand who second coming Christ is??

By: Ryan on July 25, 2007
at 3:20 pm

Reply

Any discussion with you is futile. I could go on and on exposing you for who you are.

And Hawkeye obviously has tourettes syndrome.

Scott, first of all, I apologize for being so sarcastic in my responses to you. I just get very passionate when it comes to who the Christ is in this Age of the Holy Spirit.

I just want people to recognize who our saviors are in this age, according to the Scriptures. I want to use the Scriptures to lead people to salvation, just as the apostles did 2000 years ago.

There is so much falsehood out there, hence all the different denominations, and I want people to see the truth.

Only by examining the Bible carefully can we be led to salvation.

Scott, I have been rereading your posts and thinking about where your mind is. You obviously have a mind to seek the truth, unlike some people.

You brought up the point about the bronze snake in regards to symbols and such.

Let me address this point first, then I want to ask you a bottom line question.

Let me present to you a study from Christ Ahnsahnghong about the idolatry of the Cross. It involves the verse you brought up in Numbers.

Please read this with an open mind and I'm sure you will clearly understand the point I am making with the cross.

Cross reverence is Idolatry.

Introduction

Ex 20: 4 — "You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below. 5 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, 6 but showing love to a thousand {generations} of those who love me and keep my commandments.

So first, let us examine what is considered an idol in the eyes of God.

Lev. 26: 1 " "Do not make idols or set up an image or a sacred stone for yourselves, and do not place a carved stone in your land to bow down before it. I am the LORD your God.

Any image or carved stone is an idol in the eyes of God according to the word of God.

Let us examine further.

Jeremiah 10:2 — This is what the LORD says:

"Do not learn the ways of the nations or be terrified by signs in the sky, though the nations are terrified by them.

3 For the customs of the peoples are worthless;
they cut a tree out of the forest, and a craftsman shapes it with his chisel.

4 They adorn it with silver and gold; they fasten it with hammer and nails so it will not totter.

5 Like a scarecrow in a melon patch, their idols cannot speak;

they must be carried because they cannot walk.

Do not fear them;
they can do no harm
nor can they do any good.".....
8 They are all senseless and foolish;
they are taught by worthless wooden idols.....
11 "Tell them this: 'These gods, who did not make the heavens and the earth, will perish from the earth and from under the heavens.' "..... 14 Everyone is senseless and without knowledge;
every goldsmith is shamed by his idols.
His images are a fraud;
they have no breath in them. 15 They are worthless, the objects of mockery;
when their judgment comes, they will perish.

The cross is also an image which is a wooden idol shaped like a scarecrow.

Crosses were worshipped by pagans before Christ.

How does God view such idols.

Deut. 27: 15 — "Cursed is the man who carves an image or casts an idol—a thing detestable to the LORD, the work of the craftsman's hands—and sets it up in secret."
Then all the people shall say, "Amen!"

Clearly, it is detestable in the eyes of the God almighty that we as Christians believe in.

Also, examine this prophecy carefully.

Jeremiah 2: 27 They say to wood, 'You are my father,'
and to stone, 'You gave me birth.'
They have turned their backs to me
and not their faces;
yet when they are in trouble, they say,
'Come and save us!'

This word means that they worship the image of Virgin Mary. (Catholic tradition which originated from paganism.)

I understand that the Protestant churches do not worship Virgin Mary, but also let us understand that the cross also is an idol.

Now I want to show you some prophecies in regards to the veneration of the cross using Israelite history.

Let us keep this question in the back of our mind. Can the church that reveres the cross be saved?

Numbers 21:4 — They traveled from Mount Hor along the route to the Red Sea, [c] to go around Edom. But the people grew impatient on the way; 5 they spoke against God and against Moses, and said, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the desert?
There is no bread! There is no water! And we detest this miserable food!"

6 Then the LORD sent venomous snakes among them; they bit the people and many Israelites died. 7 The people came to Moses and said, "We sinned when we spoke against the LORD and against you. Pray that the LORD will take the snakes away from us." So Moses prayed for the people.

8 The LORD said to Moses, "Make a snake and put it up on a pole; anyone who is bitten can look at it and live." 9 So Moses made a bronze snake and put it up on a pole. Then when anyone was bitten by a snake and looked at the bronze snake, he lived.

Let us learn the profound signifagance of this history.

Was it the actual bronze snake on the pole that saved them, or was it the word of God?

They could live because of the word of God, not the actual snake on the cross. The word of God is what gives us life. If God says that you must look at the bronze snake on the pole if you want to live, then it is so.

However, the foolish people began to worship the bronze snake, thinking that it had the power to give them protection, not acknowledging that it was God's word that allowed them to live.

2 Kings 18:3 — He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father David had done. 4 He removed the high places, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles. He broke into pieces the bronze snake Moses had made, for up to that time the Israelites had been burning incense to it. (It was called [b] Nehushtan.)

The Israelites were worshipping the bronze snake, foolishly thinking it had power. It is the word of God that gives us life.

Then the question is, how can we learn from this history, or prophecy if you will?

John 3:14 — Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the desert, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, 15that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.

Think about the meaning of this testimony very carefully. Use your spiritual senses to see the truth.

The bronze snake being lifted on the pole had prophetical meaning to Jesus being hung on the cross.

The Son of Man must be "lifted up" on the cross.

The ancient Israelites worshiped the visible bronze snake, despising the word of God that allowed them to live.

In the same way, today, people see great power in the symbol of the cross that Jesus was hung on.

They despise the precious blood that Jesus gave us the night before he was sacrificed, which was the Passover of the New Covenant.

On the Passover, he said that the Passover bread was his flesh and the Passover wine was his blood. It is this word that gives us life, since Jesus said whoever eats his flesh and blood has eternal life.

The point is, we must recognize that it is God's word that gives us life. Yes, Jesus died on the cross, but let us learn from Israelite history and recognize that it is through the flesh and blood that Jesus gave us on the night of the Passover that we receive life.

Remember God's word, whoever erects or worships a cross will be cursed.

Let us believe in the word of Jesus and eat his flesh and blood of the Passover to receive eternal life as taught by Jesus.

The Passover truth is the core of the entire Bible. And our Heavenly Mother is the reality of God's flesh and blood.

I can illustrate this using the Scriptures.

So now to my question.

Since you have such a good mind to seek the truth, I am more than willing to show you all the prophecies of second coming Christ so you can come to a conclusion if Ahnsahnghonn is truly the second coming Christ or not.

Think about it. We cannot come to recognize the true Christ from all the false Christs by depending on miraculous signs. Jesus clearly warned us about this.

We cannot rely on someone saying, "I am the Christ" for many people in the last days will say, "I am the Christ".

Then we need to honestly ask ourselves, what is the criteria by which we can recognize the true Christ from all the false Christs?

It is only through the Scriptures. Only through prophecy.

John 5:9 You diligently study the Scriptures because you think that by them you possess eternal life. These are the Scriptures that testify about me, 40 yet you refuse to come to me to have life.

The only thing we can look at to recognize Christ is the Scriptures as Jesus so clearly stated.

Many people know the Scriptures, but without recognizing or believing in the one who fulfills the Scriptures, we can never have life.

So I leave you with this verse.

Acts 17:11 — Now the Bereans were of more noble character than the Thessalonians, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true.

Paul was testifying to the first coming of Christ. Now we are testifying to the second coming of Christ who has come in accordance with all the prophecies of the Bible.

If you want to examine them to see if Ahnsahnghong is the one who has fulfilled them, then I am more than willing to go into detail with you.

Please check it out fully, then make a decision. Only by having faith in the word of God can we come to believe.

Matt 13: 58 — And he did not do many miracles there because of their lack of faith.

Then what comes first? Faith in the word of God (prophecy) or miracles?

It is up to you my friend.

God Bless You.

RYAN GOD BLESS YOU BROTHER!!!!

By: Jenna on September 17, 2009
at 5:47 am

you are pleasing Father and Mother, may you bare beautiful fruit and even if through this you dont, you are still receiving many blessings... Reply

John 15:18-21 "if the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first."

Matthew 11:6 "blessed is the man who does not fall away on account of me."

Matthew 10:22 "all men will hate you because of me, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved."

these are somthings that i like to keep in mind when i am constantly persecuted even from those very dear to me...but also remember this...

John 15:22 "if i had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin. Now however, they have no excuse for their sin."

luke 17:22-25 "the time is coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it. Men will tell you, 'there he is! or here he is!' do not go running off after them. For the Son of Man in his day will be like the lighting, which flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other. BUT FIRST HE MUST SUFFER MANY THINGS AND BE REJECTED BY THIS GENERATION."

so not everyone will accept this just yet, as long as you told them God's words you did your part, there are so many other lost brothers and sisters out there that have yet to hear the truth...so lets go and spread the good news to EVERYONE and lets be prepared when the great multitude over flows into Zion in the last days!! But at least now when that day comes, they will know to seek the ones that are walking with our only savior!

im sure this is nothing new to you and you already know all this, but Hebrews 10:25 let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another-and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

God bless you!!!!

Whatever, "Ryan".

By: King James on
July 25, 2007
at 4:47 pm

As I have said a thousand times, you are not exposing anything. What have I said in the past about myself that was a lie? Nothing. Oh well, that's what I get for having some kind of respect for someone who just wants to get to know what I "believe" only to try and use it against me later.

Reply

Try not to be so obvious in your attempt to label me as "evil", John. Apparently anyone with an opinion is just that in your eyes.

Again I say, no I do not "believe" the Bible is 100% God's word...so what. That is my way of thinking, take it or leave it. You know, that is a lame attempt to expose someone, John. Using the bible as a test to see where they stand as far as acknowledging a collection of books written by men and their own perception of man's true nature and their destiny.

When have I said that Jesus was not Christ? I'm tired of fully explaining myself, only for you to hear what you want to hear or read what you want to read and twist everything around. I've said and explained myself so many times to you yet still, it said wrong coming from you.

Everyone has questions, which is why they are told to have faith. His life is a mystery and that's all to it. No one knows his childhood. No one knows his teenaged life or anything in between beside what is said in the Bible.

What kind of activities did Jesus get into as child, John?

Was he perfect as a child too? Did he laugh? Did he cry? Did he get into trouble like normal kids?

I don't need your faithfilled answers but questions like that would help or shed light on to determine the type of life he had and would really strengthen peoples belief, so that "faith" is not needed. You should not need to have "faith" in truth. The two just do not mix. Truth is the accuracy of something that can be proven and that proof will determine it to be fact, but faith is the acceptance in something without proof.

So for me to say that I know, shows certainty and is absolute compared to I believe or have faith, which shows uncertainty. If "I know", then I can show you why I know and the proof presented can be tested and determined proof positive by others observing as well. However, if I have faith or "believe" that Jesus' existed, then I can not show you any physical proof besides what is written about him.

However, I have never ruled out Jesus' existence. Please get your facts straight before you try to "expose" someone. Atleast do me the honor and use my own words as proof to what you claim.

That still doesn't excuse your god for being an idol worshipper, which is a sin.

- James

Hawkeye, the problem with stubbornness and refusing to accept being proven wrong is that it works either way. It could very well be me (/you/us) who is wrong and stubbornly refusing to see the light. So the only way to settle such matters is to take the objective facts and judge between our views.

By: Scott Thong on
July 26, 2007
at 12:57 pm

Reply

Unfortunately, as global warming yes/no and evolution/creation debates have proved, that just leads to accusations of bias and slanted viewpoints. Sigh!

Well Ryan, I would maintain that anything can be an idol IF IT IS WORSHIPED (bowed down to). It doesn't ever have to ever have been used as a pagan symbol before – people can even worship and pray to Pachinko machines (Japanese pinball type game).

It doesn't even have to be an object – wealth, power, fame can all be idols. The definition of idolatry, IMHO, is where anything is elevated to equal or greater status than the one true God.

It is my opinion that the cross or any other symbol does not automatically become an idol, until people start to revere it rather than what it symbolizes (Jesus). That is the danger of making images intended to represent God (as the Israelites did – they called the Bronze Calf the 'God who led them out of Egypt', not any other god, yet YHWH was still greatly displeased).

The Bronze Snake is a perfect illustration of this – it is holy as long as people look up to it and remember the Holy God who ordered it made and who forgives and heals. But when people start treating the Snake as a god... That's where it all goes wrong.

I for one have never bowed down to a cross or any other symbol. But I respect it as the reminder of Christ's sacrifice. I can say the same for the majority of churches. So the issue of cross worship isn't really as bad as you might think.

I'll give that you do not agree that a 'pagan' symbol is used in churches. But don't misunderstand that Christians worship anything else but God Himself (not so sure if Catholic praying to statues of saints crosses the line though).

Idolatry can be in any form – even the form of the Passover, if people begin to place more importance in that ritual than in God's free grace. And it CAN happen – people are weak and easily swayed, and being physical beings find physical means of 'salvation' to be comforting.

That is perhaps one failing of the more legalistic Jews, who put more faith in circumcision and feasts (including Passover) and tithes, but neglected the heart and spirit of God.

I'm not making accusations here – but do watch out in your own church that people do not start treating ANY ritual as more important than God, ok?

(On a side note, I believe that is the stated reason why Muslims cannot make images of any of the prophets – the weaker spirited would soon start to venerate and worship the images! But this still does not stop idolatry. All that idolatry needs to thrive is for someone to believe that any created thing – even a prophet – is perfect and holy.)

One could also bring up Jesus' words in defense of wearing crosses as a symbol on oneself:

"And anyone who does not carry his cross and follow me cannot be my disciple." – Luke 14:27

But I feel that this passage makes more sense when taken figuratively – if we are not willing to bear suffering and sacrifice for Him, then we are not true followers of Jesus.

On faith and miracles, I believe I have faith. I've gone by faith before, and seen minor miracles. Nothing spectacular like the dead brought to life or anything, but more relevant and impactful on my life.

Miracles are not the be all and end all of things. False prophets will perform miracles by the power of the devil or spirits (some call it sorcery). But let's not forget that true prophets and the Apostles performed miracles too.

And of course, one way to tell apart a true prophet is by his namesake – prophecies.

"From early times the prophets who preceded you and me have prophesied war, disaster and plague against many countries and great kingdoms. But the prophet who prophesies peace will be recognized as one truly sent by the LORD only if his prediction comes true."
(Jeremiah 28:8-9)

Simple and clear enough – if someone claims to be a prophet of God, he should be making prophecies. And if they come true (even if it's long after his lifetime), we will know that he was a genuine man of God.

On Ahnsahnghong, the difficulty for me is that I don't (yet) see anything unique or different that sets him apart from the other men who (falsely) claimed to be Christ. What tells me that he is truly the Christ and the others are fakes?

I always wonder when I hear that yet another religious leader claims himself to be Christ: What do they think of all the previous people who claimed to be Christ? Why do their followers believe/choose them over any other Christ-claimers?

(José Luis de Jesús Mirandas of Creciendo en Gracia in Florida, USA was the latest to make me wonder before I heard of Ahnsahnghong).

I believe the Scriptures wholeheartedly as the only final say in these things, so yes, I would appreciate being briefed on the Scriptures that you claim back up Ahnsahnghong's Messiahship. (But I would still have to ask for more if the passages apply just as well to other people who claimed to have been Christ.)

James – Whether the Bible is God inspired or man-invented, and which parts are, is a whole 'nuther post! Incidentally, one of my recent posts is about the discovery of an artifact that seems to correlate with the book of Jeremiah. The comments at that post have my attempt at explaining why that adds to the trueness of the Bible (which I believe includes the part about all Scripture being God-breathed being true too, 2 Timothy 3:16).

<http://scottthong.wordpress.com/2007/07/24/the-jeremiah-tablet-evidence-of-the-bibles-accurate-history/>

There are a bunch of non-Canonical 'gospels' detailing the life of Jesus as a child... But I don't consider them to be true accounts, in part because they portray a very petty, vindictive and irresponsible child who uses his miraculous powers to blind and kill people he doesn't like.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Infancy_Gospels#Infancy_Gospels

And among even secular scholars, it is generally accepted that at least a Jewish teacher named Jesus lived around the turn of BCE to CE (BC to AD), even if they don't agree that He really did and said the things the Bible attests to.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Historicity_of_Jesus

I like in particular that contemporary non-Christian writers like Tacitus recorded the existence of a person named Jesus, and followers who believed that He rose from the dead.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tacitus_on_Jesus

Hi Scott,

By: King James on July 26, 2007
at 9:52 pm

Reply

I've read your post about the artifact found that can perhaps prove the events in Bible as valid. Well I'll just present my opinion on it. I'm not dismissing that many events in the Bible could have happened but it seems that certain times are recorded and some are not. For what purpose, I couldn't tell you, but if someone were to record their life or events of their life, they might write this in a journal and/or diary or perhaps make a video log.

However it is done, it's done on an everyday basis and everything from taking a shower in the morning to the food they have eaten for dinner may be recorded. My "give or take" on it. Now if someone were to do this from the age of 16 to the age of 25, there should be huge catalog of journal books, diaries, or video logs lying around. Since there is 365 days of the year, if we multiply that by 9(years) that would be 3,285 days of their life recorded or written down.

Now that's alot of books/videos. Even on the days where there is not much happening, the average person would log the date and perhaps say that it was a boring day and give their reason why it was such a boring day, they are not going to leave the person hanging, because even a boring day, has a story.

Similar to Security Guards, they must write a log every hour or so of their shift. Even when nothing has happened within the hour, they must write something down and also log in the time. That too, is alot of writing.

So if the OT is a collection of events recorded by a man or God, what would be the reason to omit certain events or certain times? The timeline of each story in each book jumps from "A" to "K", leaving out the "in between" or from "B" to "H". It appears that either the person made the decision to weigh certain events more important than others and I am saying that because the books are too edited and summarized and that it should also be much longer than it is, if we were to think that it was recorded during the actual time, compared to it being written years or centuries later.

Eveyday is important, not certain days. The way that it is wriiten, gives me the impression that it wasn't written during, yet it is told in a form of a bed time story.

However, if there were events recorded on an everyday basis, why not include them? If they were included, then who made the decision to not inlcude them and why? I guess those questions should be directed to either God, the man who wrote the books or the person who edited the OT and NT and combined them.

In other words, there is historical evidence and proof of a few stories but I feel alot of information have been left out. Even with the disciples, there should be more detail than it is. They couldn't have possibly been around Jesus 24/7, and within the time when even Jesus himself took a break and spent time alone after his baptism, why record what he was doing and not record what the person who is telling the story themself's were doing and what they were experiencing? Everything was fixed and focused on Jesus, yet they are a part of the story to a point where they would only write about events that only covered Jesus, even when no one was around Jesus to witness it.

And if Jesus told them about his day when they were not around, they would have written it in such a way where it would perhaps say, "And Jesus told to me, he went into the mountain and meditated." Or "Jesus said to me that he was tested by Satan and Satan said blah blah blah."

The disciples had to get some "alone time" at one point or else Judas wouldn't have been able to get Jesus captured/arrested. The event that took place where Judas made a deal with the chief priests to betray Jesus, (Matthew 26:14-16). Also this events appears to be the only event recorded where none of the disciples were around Judas when he made this deal to have Jesus captured.

I don't want to dig too deep about the Bible but I am not denying nor confirming the events in the Bible to be total truth or false, given that the "in between's" are left out.

But these are my opinons and I not trying to bring anyone into my loop.

Thanks, Scott.

- James

Hi~

I leave a comment to want to tell you about the church of God.

firstly, let me introduce about the church of God in brief.

church of God only follow the teaching of the Bible, God's holy word.

By the way, May I ask you a question?

what do you thing of the purpose to go to church?

the most important purpose is to receive salvation(eternal life) from God. isn't it?

then, how can we get the eternal life?

almost of the christian insist that we can be saved just when we believe in God. and so many people also believe that.

however, this is not true.

about this matter, Jesus clearly testify that only he who does the will of God, will enter the kingdom of heaven. If you look at the book of the matthew 7:21, you can see.

it means that only those who believe in

By:

heavenlyindependence on July 27, 2007

at 1:59 am

Reply

God's word and put it into practice, can go to the kingdom of heaven.

then, which is the God's will?

Man's teaching or God's teaching.

absolutely, the latter.

as you know, God's teaching is written in the Bible.

so, we can know the way to get the eternal life only through the Bible.

this is why church of God only follow the teaching of the Bible.

now, among many truth in the Bible, let's focus on the core truth in the church of God.

the most different thing between church of God and the other chruchs is the existence of the heavenly mother.

heavenly mother is the core truth. because we can get the eternal life through her.

The Bible clearly testify to this fact.

let's make a carefully study about heavenly mother.

since the Bible says that God has given us a precious promised.

therefore, the Bible calls us the children of promise let's take a look at the book of Galatians.

Gal 4:28 Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.

what is the promise God gave us?

1John 2:25 And this is what he promised us-even eternal life.

God promised us the eternal life to his children of promise.

do you know how we received God's precious promise of eternal life?

It's very important to us who want to go to the kingdom of heaven.

So, we must know this to get the eternal life.

God let us know that the way to get the eternal life through the living creatures in this world.

let's confirm this fact through the book of revelation.

Rev 4:11 for you created all things, and by your will they were created.

God created all thing by his will, and his invisible power and divine nature are clearly seen through what has been made.

there are so many living creatures in the world; birds flying in the sky, fishes swimming in the sea, and various animals running on the wide open field.

then, what was His will?

birds flying in the sky have their mothers and fathers, fishes swimming in the ocean also have their mothers and fathers, and so many animals running on the grass have their mothers and fathers, too.

all living creatures surely have their mothers and fathers.

especially they are given life through their mommies through this common providence of creation of all things,

God reveals a certain will of him. God want us to know His will.

as you know, life is given to us by our farther and mother. our mother is the major life giver who finally gives us life through birth.

what is God's will in creating mother as the main life giver, not the father?

just as our physical mother gives us physical life, so must our spiritual mother gives us eternal life.

As you know, many people said that God is the only one.

They Said, God is only father, not the mother.

However, through the history of creation in six days in Genesis, we can clearly find out the existence not only God the Father but also God the Mother.

Ge 1:26-27 God said , "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness."

... in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

nowadays, almost all churches insist that only one God the father created man and all things by himself. but, in genesis, the first book of the bible which is God's revelation.

God said " let us make man in our image, in our likeness..."

he didn't say, "I will make man in my image.."

through this, we can understand that God is plural-more than one.

and verse27

male and female were created in the image of God.

when we refer to verse26 ' in our image ' this word implies that there are multiple images of God- both male and female images of God.

as we call male God 'father' when people pray for God's blessing, they call, "our father in heaven."

why is God called 'father'?

because he gives us life and breath; through him we came into existence.

then, only father God alone gives us our spiritual life?

God the creator said "let us..."God refers to himself as 'we' not 'I'

we are not created in the image of a singular God, but in the images of plural God.

this can be understood through male and female created in God's image.

the male God we call 'father God' then, how about the female God?

what do you think? think about it!

If we are the God's children, children of promise, shouldn't we call her 'God the Mother?

the bible clearly reveals the existence of God the mother through this God's creation work.

let's sturdy more about mother's appearance on earth through the book of the Revelation.

Rev 19:7 The wedding of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready.

This is to take place after Jesus' Ascension. so, surely the Lamb stands for the second coming Jesus, our spiritual father. then, who is His bride then? let's find out.

Rev 21:9-10 'Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.'... and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

When the Apostle John received the Revelation about the wife of the lamb. the Angel told him that I will show you the bride, the wife of the lamb. and then, He show him the Holy city, Jerusalem.

Considering this verse, we can see that the wife of the lamb is heavenly Jerusalem.

The bride is heavenly Jerusalem. she will come down from heaven to the earth. so, if we are the children of the Lamb our Father, she naturally our heavenly mother. let's see what the relationship is between the heavenly Jerusalem and us.

Gal4:26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free(In heaven), and she is our Mother.

The Jerusalem that is above means the Jerusalem in heaven.

The children of promise must have not only God the father but also God the mother.

Just as we cannot received physical life without our physical mother, so too we can never received eternal life without our spiritual mother, heavenly Jerusalem.

In these last days, We can get the salvation, eternal life only through our heavenly mother.

therefore, please believe in heavenly mother who gives us eternal life so that we may go back to the heavenly kingdom, our eternal home.

if you want to more about the hidden truth in the Bible, Please contact this website.

<http://usa.watv.org/>

if you contact this website, you will understand more about the church of God and the truths in the Bible. thank you for your leading. and may God bless you~!

Everyday is important, not certain days.
The way that it is written, gives me the impression that it wasn't written during, yet it is told in a form of a bed time story.

By: Scott Thong on
July 27, 2007
at 3:42 pm

Reply

Well James, I guess you're pretty familiar with the Bible, so here goes.

Although much of the Bible is told a narrative, such as Genesis, Kings, the Gospels and Acts, others are in different genres.

Psalms and Proverbs and Ecclesiastes are known as poetry and advice, Leviticus is mostly laws, Isaiah and the minor prophets and Revelation are mostly prophecies with some background, the letters of Paul and others are instructions.

Each has a different purpose, even the narratives. For example, the Gospels primarily serve to tell the good news of Jesus' ministry, not His entire life story, and with His disciples only being a side story.

For a much more detailed account, you could take the journeys of Paul as recorded in Acts. The same writer probably compiled Luke too, which is the most detailed of the Gospels.

And you have to take into account the style of writing at the time. The writers would omit or include details according to their own sensibilities, and edit words according to their intended audience. Mark wrote a very Jewish-oriented Gospel (lots of unexplained rituals), Matthew a very Gentile-oriented one (explanations of Jewish customs included).

And of course, the writers may not have copied down events and speeches immediately. Luke compiled his book mostly from eyewitness interviews and likely the documents that would become Mark's and Matthew's Gospels.

Altogether, the Bible's main purpose is not as a diary, or even as a history book. It is a set of instructions and examples of God's plans for us, and includes just enough selected background for us to reflect on His guidance throughout the ages.

The disciples had to get some "alone time" at one point or else Judas wouldn't have been able to get Jesus captured/arrested. The event that took place where Judas made a deal with the chief priests to betray Jesus, (Matthew 26:14-16). Also this event appears to be the only event recorded where none of the disciples were around Judas when he made this deal to have Jesus captured.

By: Scott Thong on
July 27, 2007
at 3:53 pm

Reply

If the Gospels and start of Acts are true (and remember, the Apostles followed a man who preached truth, and they were willing to die for their claims), then Jesus rose from the dead and spent 40 days among them.

This would have been the time for Him to inform them on the missing parts, such as His time alone in the garden of Gethsemane or 40 days fasting in the desert before He met any of His followers.

And if Jesus told them about his day when they were not around, they would have written it in such a way where it would perhaps say, "And Jesus told to me, he went into the mountain and meditated." Or "Jesus said to me that he was tested by Satan and Satan said blah blah blah."

True, it was written as if the writer were telling a story. But it was intended to be a story – a message read out loud to the congregation.

Besides, most modern histories read the same way, even Wikipedia:

After the second refusal from the Academy of Arts, Hitler ran out of money. In 1909, he sought refuge in a homeless shelter and by 1910 had settled into a house for poor working men.

Hitler says he first became an anti-Semite in Vienna, which had a large Jewish community, including Orthodox Jews who had fled from pogroms in Russia. However, according to a childhood friend, August Kubizek, Hitler was a "confirmed anti-Semite" before he left Linz, Austria.

So both a direct account (Hitler did so and so) and an indirect retelling (Hitler says, according to Hitler's friend) can be used without breaking the flow of the narrative.

Thanks for the comment though. Srsly, a great refreshment from the continuous Church of God scripture quotes and concoluted, much-thought-required-to-get-it explanations that seem to be a hallmark of theirs.

Especialy heavenlyindependence. So convoluted, argh! Is there such thing as a quick, simple, to the point explanation of core doctrine?

By: Scott Thong on
July 27, 2007
at 4:03 pm

Reply

If you want to more about the hidden truth about heavenly mother Jerusalem misinterpretation, Please contact Point 17 of <http://ahnsahngghong.tripod.com/id21.html>

Scott,

By: King James on July 27, 2007
at 5:20 pm

Reply

Hmm, perhaps you're right, although Jesus explaining things further to his disciples could or should have been recorded as well. Perhaps it was and those who edited the Bible left it out. The Bible's history goes too far back to come to anything final conclusions, which is why there's always a debate.

I've built a time machine, if I can only generate the 1.21 gigawatts to power the flux capacitor, I can go back in time and shake Jesus' hand.

: -)

But, thanks for the quick break down on the Bible. You have explained it without judgement and subliminally forcing it on me.

Much appreciated.

- James

Scott, I have already told you that what sets Ahnsahnghong apart from all the other fakes, is that he has fulfilled the prophecy in the Bible.

By: ryan on July 30, 2007
at 12:29 pm

Does that mean anything to you? Jesus fulfilled prophecy, that is why we can believe in him. Christ is testified about only through the Bible. The other false christs do not fulfill any bible prophecy.

Reply

Anyways, I seem to have to make the same points over and over and over again. The truth is a foreign language to some I guess.

If you have any questions about the prophecies of second coming Christ and our heavenly mother that you do not seem to be able to understand, then email me at bakster28@aol.com.

And again James, what is your purpose? So you do not believe in the Bible. That's great James, so let me guess, you do not believe in Ahnsahnghong?

Yeah we got that James, so move on and do something constructive with your free time. I could go on and on about your foolishness.

Don't believe me? Email me and I will expose you for the fool that you are buddy.

Bakster28@aol.com

Scott, I have already told you that what sets Ahnsahnghong apart from all the other fakes, is that he has fulfilled the prophecy in the Bible.

By: Scott Thong on
July 30, 2007
at 3:41 pm

Indulge me, ryan. List down a few of the prophecies, I want to cross check whether the fakes also tried using those prophecies before.

Reply

Well James, IMHO it's quite unlikely that the current contents of the Bible were edited and censored in the style of James Brown's Da Vinci Code.

By: Scott Thong on
July 30, 2007
at 3:55 pm

Here's some arguments for the current Bible being faithful and accurate to the original writings:

Reply

<http://scottthong.wordpress.com/2006/11/25/was-the-bible-changed-reasons-why-it-could-not-have-been/>

<http://scottthong.wordpress.com/2006/11/24/when-were-the-gospels-written-internal-evidence-from-acts/>

<http://scottthong.wordpress.com/2006/08/16/isaiah-in->

the-dead-sea-scrolls/

And there's actually such thing as fiction on someone who went back in time to meet Jesus –

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Behold_the_Man

Ryan,

By: King James on
July 30, 2007
at 10:52 pm

When I said that I do not believe the Bible to be 100% God's, means that I would view the Bible to be more men than a supreme being. Perhaps it was "written by God" we'll never truly know. But if it was, it couldn't been 100%. Probably 50% or less. Which is why it requires faith to believe in certain parts. And since humans live by their desires and instincts to want to destroy and conquer, what is said in the bible about man's destiny isn't false but common sense.

Reply

Man have been doing the same things for thousands of years. Wars, killing or just plain ol' sin since the creation. As the COG's story goes, "we sinned against God in Heaven", which is supposed to be a sinless place, go figure. So if it is in man and angels to do these things, it would make sense to write something to try and stabilize this impulse and it would also be very easy to predict how man will end up if he doesn't learn how to control these animal-like instincts.

The temperament of a pitbull is a bit vicious and predictable and if you put it amongst 10 other pitbulls well, eventually a fight is bound to happen one day.

As far as emailing you, I'm always on friend's computer and I am very protective and cautious to whom I send emails to. I would hate to receive an email virus on a computer that is not mine to begin with.

If you want to expose me for a fool, well do what you have to do. It would be best for everyone to see how much of a fool I am.

You want me to question the bible to expose me as some non-believing, atheist, agnostic, satanist type person, when all along I've been questioning your god Ahnshanghong and you simply can not compare the two. Anyone that doesn't agree you and has his own opinion, you will view the same way, it's no surprise to me though. So expose me all you want, you know me no more than I know you, "Ryan". Unless you're God, right?

btw, I've already stated my reason for being skeptic about Ahnsahngong, the idol worshipper.

- James

The other false christs do not fulfill any bible prophecy.

By: King James on
July 30, 2007
at 11:31 pm

Well to the followers of those false Christs, they believe that they have fulfilled bible prophecies and they have shown their followers through the same bible that you are using.

Reply

Who are you to tell those people that they did not fulfill them compared to someone like me that is saying that Ahnshanghong didn't fulfill prophecy? Appears that we are no different from one another, Ryan.

Maybe you should find something better to do with your time instead of "persecuting" others, eh?

- James

Hey Scott. You say "indulge me". Look, if you have a mind to check out the prophecies of second coming Christ and believe in the only one who has fulfilled them, then I will go into detail with all the studies so you can study them carefully.

By: Ryan on August 2, 2007 at 3:00 am

Reply

But if you want to be indulged just so you can cross reference them with the false christs, then what is really your intention in knowing the prophecies?

You are either seeking the savior of this age, the Age of the Holy Spirit, or your not.

Let me ask you, have any of those people out there saying, "I am the Christ", convinced you using bible prophecy?

I assume the answer is no.

Then I can show you that Ahnsahngong is the second coming Christ, not because we want to make him Christ, but rather because he has fulfilled all the prophecies.

Did the disciples "make" the man Jesus, the Christ? Or did Jesus fulfill what was written in the Scriptures?

Even though they were persecuted and accused of being a "sect" or cult if you will, they had faith in the word of God and believed in the one who came according to the Scriptures.

It is no different with second coming Jesus.

So again I ask you, if you want to seek our savior in the age, the last age, then I can show you only using the Scriptures. I cannot show you any miracles, only the word of God.

Romans 10:14 — How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? 15And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

16But not all the Israelites accepted the good news. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our message?"
17Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word of Christ.

God Bless You

And James, I can see that you do not correctly know what the Church of God teaches.

By: Ryan on August 2, 2007 at 3:20 am

You say that we teach it is not right to be baptized in the name of Jesus. That is 100% FALSE. Why don't you get your facts right before you spew out such garbage. Reply

That is why I call you a fool. You persecute, and you don't even the truth. How foolish.

We follow Jesus' command before he went up to heaven. Baptize them in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

According to the Bible, there is a time for everything. Everything under heaven is done according to God's time, or God's administration if you will.

Now that the Age of the Holy Spirit has come and we now know the name of the Holy Spirit, we baptize in the name of the Father Jehovah, the Son Jesus and the Holy Spirit Ahnsahnghong.

And if you understand the Trinity; Jehovah, Jesus and Ahnsahnghong are not different entities, but one.

And yes you are correct, that Christ Ahnsahnghong did not baptize in the name of Ahnsahnghong.

The savior's name of each age only goes into effect after his death.

While Jesus was alive, the disciples prayed in the name of Jehovah.

When Ahnsahnghong was alive, we prayed in the name of Jesus.

Maybe you should reexamine what Ahnsahnghong has revealed to us before you continue making your false accusations. Maybe you will then understand and believe.

And yes you are correct. Obviously not everyword in the Bible is from God. Ahnsahnghong even taught this when he was alive. Some of the words in the Bible contain words of ignorance like from the book of Job.

So from what is from the word of God, do you have faith? If you do, then you can come to receive the savior's of this age.

Ryan,

I will first respect your space and sit back while you show and prove your case to Scott, before I respond to your post.

By: King James on August 2, 2007
at 3:42 am

Reply

- James

Very well then James. I will gladly prove that Ahnsahnghong is second coming Christ according to the Scriptures.

By: Ryan on August 2, 2007
at 5:18 pm

Please keep in mind that my goal is not to "convince" you that Ahnsahnghong is second coming Christ.

Reply

If Ahnsahnghong did not fulfill prophecy, then I wouldn't be here on these forums testifying that Ahnsahnghong is the Christ.

I was very skeptical before I came to accept Ahnsahnghong as second coming Christ. I cannot stress this enough. Obviously we do not really know each other and our backgrounds.

First of all, I believe in the prophecies spoken of in the Bible because of the prophecies about who the antichrist is.

The antichrist is prophesied in the book of Daniel and Revelation.

If you do not know about this matter, then I should show you this first. This is why I believe in the word of God, which is the Bible.

So now, I can say confidently that I believe in the prophecies of second coming Christ.

Whether you believe or not, please understand that I believe in Christ Ahnsahnghong because of prophecy.

Only the Bible testifies about the Christ, so consequently I only can put my faith in the Bible prophecy.

Whether you choose to believe or not is obviously up to you.

Think about this logically: If you do not know all the prophecies of the second coming of Christ, then how can you confidently say that Ahnsahnghong is not second coming Christ?

Has any of the followers of the other "false christs" taken the time to try to prove to you that their so called christ is the true Christ?

All I have is the word of God. If you do not believe after I show you the prophecies, then what more can I say?

It is up to you my friend. Please have an open mind. With a fixed mind, we can never know the truth, whether it be about God or anything for that matter. Isn't that true?

Ryan,

By: King James on August 3, 2007
at 2:15 am

Do not take this the wrong way but this proof that you will be presenting is not for me, it is for Scott. The reason why I say this, is because we have been down this road many times before on previous forums. I just didn't want to overload you with my response while you were tending to Scott, if and when he responds to you.

Reply

I have nothing to prove to you as far as who you should and should not worship, that is your path in life. However, when my way of life is being threatened by way of being told that if I do not accept their belief, or I will be punished, similar to what you are telling everyone and similar to what other people in the world who worship men that claimss to be christs, then I will speak my mind. It just so happens that it is your church that this person close to me, happens to attend.

If it was a different church whos members worshipped a diferent guy as christ, then I would not be here interacting with you on any level. I would be on a forum about another church that I feel happened to trick them into believing that the man they are worshipping is Jesus returned, by way of using the bible and fear.

In other words, this is not personal. I would not have heard or cared for your church and if this person happened to join different church who worshipped some hispanic guy for example, instead of the COG. If that were the case, they would be in the same mind set as you and would also believe their god is true and your god Ahnsahnghong to be false, because they have been convinced through bible scripture this hispanic guy is christ returned.

I can not convince or prove to this person that Ahnsahnghong is false neither can you convince or prove to the people who worship the hispanic Jesus, that he is false.

Their belief and ability to question whether Ahnsahnghong is true or false falls on them and no one else, but even so, they will have to question the bible and perhaps would have to weigh their evidence with an ex member of the COG. They can not weigh their evidence with any other church or person but an ex member of the COG because that ex member once believed it to be true once upon a time. So the question would be, what caused this ex member not to believe it anymore?

Words and advice by someone who actually walked in their shoes should be relevant and more than enough to take heed to, compared to someone who is only looking from the outside-in and have never been a member of the COG at all.

“Has any of the followers of the other “false christs” taken the time to try to prove to you that their so called christ is the true Christ?”

Yes, twice. The person whom I once believed to be God never ever proclaimed it at all. It was more forced on him by people who were looking for something and this person openly and publicly expressed that he did not want people to worship him and that he was not God or the returned Christ. Another person never proclaimed himself to be God but started to put subliminal messages in the books that he wrote. After a while he changed from being a prophet or messenger to a person to be worshipped. In both cases, the bible was used.

Who these people are is not important and I am not going to go any further into it. I've been down that road more than once. I debated with people about it, I tried “spreading the good news” to other people who I felt needed to believe in “my god” at that particular time, to be saved. I've been there already and I will not go down that road again. It's a waste of my time. How I was able to get out of both well, I started to question my own beliefs, it just felt a little forced. I also started to wonder why people were calling my way of “religion” a cult and did my own digging as to why they were saying, what they were saying.

Anyway, if it was not for my family member being a member of your church, I would not be here. I don't even waste my time debating with the former members of the “cults” which I was a part of.

But, that will not stop me from speaking my opinion if someone were to question my life. And since your church has the elements and characteristics of the cults that I was a member of, I will continue to question it.

I won't forget your question to me in regards to Ahnshanghong baptizing people in Jesus' name and why I have said those things. To me, it's very obvious that he baptized people in Jesus' name for if he didn't, he would be revealing himself if he were to baptize people in his own name, yes I know that.

I have more to say but I just wanted you to tend to Scott first, I didn't want to overload you with my posts, including Scott's postings asking his questions in response to you showing him your views.

I will wait a bit to see if Scott responds to you. If not, then I will fully give my opinion to your post in regards to Ahnshanghong. Again, I'm not looking to be saved by someone's god, and I am not looking to save anyone, I am just giving my opinion on the matter and that it's. Then you can Scott can then proceed to do what you were doing before I crashed the party.

- James

Ryan,

By: King James on August 5, 2007
at 4:16 am

Reply

I will now present my opinion as to why I feel Ahnsahnghong could not have been a second coming that came to earth in "secret". I will try my best to present this from as many ways as I can. Meaning, "If he did do such and such, this will be the effect or result" AND "If he didn't do such and such, this will be the effect or result".

This will be a two or perhaps three part series. I just want to limit typing what has been said before.

Ok to my knowledge and understanding of what your church teaches and from what I have heard from a family member whom I've had numerous conversations with on the subject, even meeting with a COG Deacon in person, to having the opportunity to read through a few books which Ahnsahnghong had written and from interacting online with a handful of COG members including yourself and reading through ex-members of the church testimonies, I have come to the conclusion that it would not be possible for any god to come in secret, unless he did not have a specific purpose and reason.

If God were to come here to take a few days off for vacation, no one would know. But, if he came here for a reason or to "fulfill prophecy", it would be impossible for him to maintain his hidden identity because of his words, but more so his actions.

According to the COG, Ahnsahnghong came in "secret" and fulfilled prophecies from the bible. The story goes, that no one knew who he was until after he died. The average person hearing that a guy was here for 37 years and preached the gospels and taught the words of Jesus Christ, would fall for the story of him coming in secret simply because:

1. He did not say that he was God.
2. He did not refer to himself as the second coming.
3. He did not baptize anyone in his name.
4. He just didn't give any direct verbal indications or hints to cause people to see him as the second coming. Therefore, we can say that it is obvious that he not the second coming.

However, if we were to review what he taught with what he did, we can then clearly see that Ahnsahnghong was giving obvious indications and hints that he saw himself as this second coming he preached and taught about. I would say that the clues were too obvious for anyone not to see what he was doing.

This is one of those cases where the messenger becomes the one to be worshipped and sometimes along the way, many people develop some sort of "spiritual ego" where they elect themselves as the "chosen one" and feel that they have to take matters into their own hands and make things happen.

In Ahnsahnghong's case, I feel it is more myth added to the man, to enhance his status as a god and to nurture and help someone who is being recruited, to believe that he is indeed the second coming returned.

1. Ahnsahnghong never said that he was God. – told to me face to face by a COG Deacon

2. Ahnsahnghong was baptized at age 30, only to fulfill biblical prophecy – told to me face to face by a COG Deacon

3. Ahnsahnghong fulfilled all of the bible prophecies this is said the second coming will do – told to me face to face by a COG Deacon

4. Ahnsahnghong preached and taught that the second coming will "restore" the Passover and you will know who the second coming is by the "hidden manna", which he apparently has brought – told to me face to face by a COG Deacon

The list goes on and on and it's just too many to type and I want to spare readers the agony of reading a bunch of tiny words that is more or less a waste of time. What I know about the church's doctrine is not out of ignorance. It has been told to me by a COG Deacon after spending 3 long hours getting spoon fed myths with truths and truths with BS. Then, then sharing information with a family member who is a part of the COG and I like to include my own research on the net which I can read both views from ex-members and compare them with actual members.

If it is not from a member of the COG or an ex-member, the information would not be as valid so I like to weed out the BS and what would be considered biased information from someone who is not a member, nor has ever communicated with anyone, whether family member or friend that is in the COG.

Nothing that I say about Ahnsahnghong is out of ignorance because it was told to me by members themselves and from what I've been told does match to what you and other members of the COG post in forums. If that is the case then what ex-members say about Ahnsahnghong is also out of ignorance and what they say matches what I and many others have been saying all along.

I will continue later with the rest.

- James

Part2: Comparing Ahnsahnghong the Myth, with Ahnsahnghong the Man.

By: King James on August 5, 2007
at 11:33 pm

Ok I would suggest that people who are not yet familiar with the story of Ahnsahnghong, to read what an actual member believes about him and why. Whether if it's going to the COG's website to get a breakdown or reading what an actual member or members have posted about him. Either way, you must get familiar with his story, so there are no misunderstandings.

Reply

I'm going to start with a brief examination of the Myth of Ahnsahnghong. In my opinion, a few things that I will mention may seem to not have an type of biblical significance or importance based on reality, the COG uses them to further strengthen and fuel the Myth of Ahnsahnghog.

1. "Ahnsahnghong fulfilled prophecy when he was born unto non believers."

If I am correct, the COG believes that the second coming of Christ must be brought forth to this earth by two nonbelievers in God. These two nonbelievers are Ahnsahnghong's parents. This event as they believe, would fulfill biblical prophecy.

Please refer to:

Luke 18:8 and Hebrews 9:28

Those are a few verses (perhaps theres more) the COG use to prove their case on the Myth of Ahnsahnghong. They say, he will not find faith on Earth, meaning that he will not come here to worship and die for man-kind as he did over 2000 years ago, but to restore something that was lost.

This "something" that was lost, is said to be the Passover, which was abolished by Constantine and was never to be heard from again. That is, until Ahnsahnghong built a church and started to observe it once again after centuries of it being abolished and no church on earth observed it before Ahnsahnghong did or else there would be no reason for Christ to return and restore it once again if it was not abolished, well as they believed and as Ahnsahnghong preached and taught to his congregation.

Now I will try my best to cross examine that portion without being biased or subliminally persuading anyone not to believe it.

Ok throughout the bible, God punished those who did not worship him. That is pure and undeniable facts and there should be no need to paste verses to prove it. However, as God is well known for his anger towards Idol worshippers, it appears that he was happy and pleased with two people who were not believers nor followers of him and his Bible. These two people who were Buddhist, worshipped a false god, which may have included bowing down to an idol of their god.

Yet, God was so pleased at what they were doing and allowed prophecy that has nothing to do with the religious beliefs of these two people, be fulfilled and allowed the woman to give birth to the second coming of Christ, which the COG would say is the Holy Spirit. While at the same time, the COG condemns any form of idol worship and even teaches that every religion including Buddhism is a false religion.

Although their god came from this falsehood and totally contradicts what God stood for in the Bible. Once again as I have done many times, I would like to emphasize the amount of people who were killed by God's wrath for worshipping idols, pagan gods and just plain ol' not believing in him. And till this day, a COG member will tell you with a straight face that any other church and/or religion is false and idol worship is a sin.

There are no exceptions to the rule, well except for Ahn Sahng Hong and his parents and perhaps Mother Jerusalem and her parents too, of course.

You know, the more that I sit here and type, the more I feel it is a waste of my time. There are just too many contradictions to accept or ignore to believe this. I'm sorry but I'm going to stop because it's just too much to go through.

I will leave it up to the readers to decide. You can visit the COG's website here to learn a little about them or perhaps visit them to get a better understanding without leaving the church baptized of course. If you're going to take a sip then do just that, don't drink the whole bottle. Meaning, if you're going to go there and check it out then do just that, don't allow yourself to get pressured into getting baptized.

Anyway, check out the websites to view both sides

COG's website

<http://english.watv.org/who/index.html>

and

ExCOG's website

<http://ahnsahng hong.tripod.com//index.html>

I'm done talking about this for now.

- James

I've enjoyed reading this blog over the past few days because it's given me a lot of tools to use to defend myself from the WMSCOD people who've recently started recruiting in my apartment complex.

By: Chad on August 6, 2007 at 10:10 am

Reply

Scott and James, I couldn't agree with you both more on your opinions about these zealots. They continually and repeatedly avoid answering the difficult questions because it would almost certainly expose them for what they really are, simply people like everyone else, confused and miserable seeking answers in the wrong places. I admire you both for standing up against these people because I've lost a good friend to a similar cult/sect.

I must state right off the bat that, I do not believe that any version of the bible or any religious/spiritual texts have any validity or basis from which logical argumentation can be constructed. I believe this for various historical, archaeological, philosophical, scientific, geological, mathematical, and psychological reasons (and I'm not even going to attempt to explain them because they are so numerous and not all commonly agreed upon. I don't want to debate, I'm here to share my experience).

MY EXPERIENCE:

I was approached by these missionaries like everyone else with the passover pamphlets and historical texts claiming to "verify/prove the bible" and I thought to myself, "well this should be interesting." So I let them inside giving them the benefit of the doubt, they didn't seem as if they were dangerous or anything. They were dressed very presentable and seemed like genuinely nice people. At first I thought they were Mormons being that I live in Arizona (which to my knowledge has a high population of them) so I was going to use this opportunity to find flaws in their logic and build my defense for future encounters. I soon realized they weren't Mormons at all and must be some sort of sect of Christianity. It was hard to understand what they were trying to show me because neither of these 2 people could speak English fluently. So they started jumping from scripture to scripture over-viewing Nebuchadnezzar's dream and how it relates to the book of revelations. By this time a few hours pass and another one of them shows up. This person whose name is Hector (forgot his last name) is helping start a church in Chandler, Arizona. ((IF YOU LIVE IN THE PHOENIX AREA, WATCH OUT FOR THIS GUY AND HIS CROONIES))

Anyways, it got pretty serious when this guy showed up, with his "historical textbooks" and "mathematical facts" which all seemed wishy washy and EXTREMELY SELECTIVE in the biblical scripture they choose to analyze. (Scott, you made a really good point early on in this blog, "everything you quote from scripture [Ryan/John] can be turned around and used against you".) It got even worse when he started bashing the Catholic Church. They attempted to convince me that the Roman Catholic church as it exists today fulfills the prophecy in revelations which states that "the Dragon" (Satan) will appoint "the Beast" (the Roman Catholic Church) to power. In effect, they claimed that the pope himself was a tool of the devil and backed it up with vague quotes from textbooks that they tossed around to one another, as if displaying "the Truth" in all its simplicity that everyone could easily "realize" if they just knew more about history. They even did some fancy mathematics with Roman Numerals on the Popes "official title" as leader of the church(i forget how it was pronounced) but the letter-numbers added up to "666". Now at this point I was like, "Whoa, I didn't sign up for this..." I mean, these are some serious accusations. I felt like I was deceived by these people and led on into taking the bait so they could unload this (on an impressionable/superstitious person) unexpectedly. At that time I can remember feeling really nervous and pressured into agreeing with them. I mean they wouldn't even let me build up a defense before they went off on some tangent about why what they say is true and you cant deny it because the bible is infallible. Plus, they were in a rush, being that they are trying to set up a church in the area. I had given these people the benefit of the doubt, let them in my home, given them ample amounts of patience and attention hoping that I'd get a good philosophical discussion out of it. Instead I got a brick wall of scripture quotations and illogical rebuttals. They kept telling me that if I only let them explain more thoroughly that I'd see the "whole iceberg", instead of "just the tip".

Firstly, I was offended, because by accusing the Catholic Church of being the tool of Satan they claim that a lot of my family members(who are some of the most truly benevolent people I have ever met aren't worthy of "god grace" if they continue their religious practices.) I mean, the audacity and arrogance that these people is astounding. Especially since much of what they believe is based on pure speculation and a very liberal interpretation of highly selective, biblical prophecies.

Secondly, before I told them that we needed to wrap up this session, they started pressuring me into getting baptized... AS IF! I still didn't realize how crazy these people where at the time however, so when they asked if they could see me again in 1 week. I just wanted them to leave me alone so I lied and said it would be fine. They gave me some more pamphlets and I asked them for their website, which I noticed they were sort of reluctant to offer me. They said that I'd see some stuff on their that wouldn't flatter their religion and may appear a little weird... O RLY?! I WONDER WHY? maybe because they're a cult and they don't want you to know...?!

I did some research and read what people were saying and from what I can tell, they deceive naive people into accepting their fundamentals as truth and slowly get them ready for the mother load. In the mean time they suck all the available money/resources out of them in order to finance a community center establishing a base of command in each new city increasing the telescoping effect of their religions growth.

THEY CLAIM TO CARE ABOUT OUR ETERNAL SOULS BUT THEY ARE TRULY DRIVEN BY OBTAINING POWER AND CONTROL OVER YOU THROUGH THEIR ORGANIZATION. YOU CAN ATTEMPT TO DISGUISE THIS FACT BUT THE TRUTH IS THAT ALL HUMANS ARE GUILTY OF SEEKING CONTROL OVER ONE ANOTHER.

Some simple fundamental questions have been proposed on this blog previously, and the WMSCOD representatives have avoided them entirely. Why is that? Why do you think that they avoid these simple questions? It's because they genuinely do not believe that they are wrong. (no shit right?) So you argue with them to try and convince them with MORE SCRIPTURE QUOTES? Guys, its not going to work. Religious fanatics don't live in the real world... they don't have to because in their minds magic and "the supernatural" explain everything they want to know about, "God fills in the empty holes in their logic" and when they die, their souls go to a magical place called heaven that's made out of light and clouds and hang out with god and jesus who both wear white robes and sandals.

People NEED to have a set of beliefs in order to make sense of their lives. It doesn't matter what it is that they believe AS SO LONG AS IT WORKS.

So honestly how do you convince a crazy person he's crazy when the crazy person doesn't even know he's crazy?!" sigh

If you really want enlightenment or seek the truth you won't find it in thousand-year-old texts or ancient manuscripts. You find truth through scientific experimentation and observation. To seek the truth is to question EVERYTHING. DO NOT BELIEVE ANYTHING THAT CAN NOT BE PROVEN!

(If you disagreed with anything I said feel free to respond.)

You are right James, no one can convince anybody of anything. It comes down to whether you believe in the word of God or not. This so called "hispanic" Jesus has not fulfilled prophecy nor does he claim to.

By: ryan on August 6, 2007 at 11:10 am

Reply

So you could automatically cancel him out. That is not my opinion, but rather based on the Bible.

Second coming Christ must fulfill prophecy, period.

As I keep repeating over and over, it is up to YOU whether you want to believe in the Bible or not. It is not anybody's job to convince.

And Chad, God's people hear what God (the Bible) says. We show you what is in the Bible, and you say it could be used against us.

Then let's see big guy. Show me.

You people talk a big game, but that is about it. The Bible is our sword and the truth will expose your faleshood everytime buddy.

I noticed something, people like James and Chad are really good at "attempting" to disprove certain beliefs. But it is funny, because when I sit here and listen to go against the truth, it just exposes your ignorance so clearly.

The truth is not meant for everybody. If you do not believe, then that is to bad. But do not make fools out of yourselves and try to argue the truth with foolish arguments.

If you want to make a fool out of yourself like Chad, then go ahead, I enjoy it.

Ryan,

It is not that I can not argue against the claims of Ahnsahnghong, it is just that it would be too much to go over and type. I'm better off dedicating a website on the subject but there's already one courtesy of Ex-members of the COG and very informative seeing how it is written from an ex-member's point of view and experience.

By: King James on August 7, 2007
at 6:39 am

Reply

As far as the hispanic Jesus and any other people claiming to be Jesus. Well, how can someone claim to be Jesus without showing and proving it through the bible? They must have shown their followers bible scripture that would back up their claim of being Jesus and that includes whatever prophecy that they want their followers to believe they fulfilled.

Nothing hard about doing that. It doesn't take a rocket scientist to do it. And i'm speaking from my own personal experience as well. So I am not "attempting" something impossible, because it has already been done and written very well I must say.

<http://ahnsahnghong.tripod.com//index.html>

I've noticed something as well, people like you are also good at trying to use the bible as a weapon. It can be used against anyone. Which is why alot of chirstians like to use it against other chirstians to prove there hypocrisy. The bible is alot of christians "swords" which can be used against people, believers and non believers.

I see it's usage similar to the way someone totes a gun, which is meant to intimidate and stir fear into someone. Here's the "truth", the truth is I am not argueing against the bible..period. I am argueing against Ahnsahnghong. Nothing more, nothing less. You want me to argue against the bible, it feeds your purpose and perhaps your ego.

Let's argue about Ahnshanhgong's kids and whether if they believe he is the second coming or not.

Let's argue about Ahnsahnghong's parents and Mother Jersusalem's parents and whether if they believed and worshipped the God of the bible. And why God (who despise idol worshippers) would interact or have prophecy fulfilled through people who didn't care not one bit about him or his bible.

That's either a contradiction on God's part or a misunderstanding of man's part, mainly South Koreans.

Let's argue about how Ahnsahnghong wrote and preached for 37 long years to his congregation, that must have consisted of people who were blind, deaf, and sock puppets to not notice or be ware that they were observing a holiday that Ahnsahnghong said to have been abolished, which only the second coming christ can restore.

That's the only way to make sense of it. He must have been preaching to the blind, the deaf, and a bunch of sock puppets.

And how Ahnshanghong preached that the second coming will be the one to "restore" the same holiday that they were observing. You can not preach about something being abolished and tell your congregation, that only the second coming of christ will restore this holiday WHILE making the people observe this holiday.

That's similar to me having followers and I preach and taught them for 37 years, that only the "True Divine Baker" can make a double chocolate cheese cake, which is something that has never been made for over 1000 years. Now, for 37 years of teaching that only the True Divine Baker can make this, I am also making this double chocolate cheese cake and presenting it to my followers to eat and enjoy once a year.

At some point one or all of my followers will question me asking, "how are you able to make this double chocolate cheese cake which only the True Divine Baker can make?"

Or in Ahnshangong's case, "How are we able to observe the Passover, if only the second coming can restore it?"

People are not that blind and stupid, atleast I would hope not.

That being said, Ahnsahnghong's congregation were observing this Passover while he was alive, yet they didn't know that they were observing it? Wasn't Ahnshanghong's church the only church to observe it? Were the people in his congregation that, sorry to say..STUPID???

Yes, they must have been. They were too stupid to not be aware that their own church were observing this holiday that was preached and taught to them for 37 long years to be abolished, by the same person who built the church and made it manditory for his congregaton to observe and keep it because "Jesus said so".

Stop, stop, stop using the bible as a distraction to cover up the stupidity of these Korean folks whom Ahnsahnghong preached and taught for 37 long years, that only the second coming can restore this holiday (passover) while forcing them to observe it or else face God's wrath.

I've read some of his books, I know what he wrote. I have even posted some of this stuff on a few other forums. It would be foolish for me to believe this joker is worthy of me worshipping.

I see the type of person you are, Ryan. You ignore everything else except for what you have been taught.

Perhaps you're a sock puppet as well.

- James

To the sock puppet, Ryan.

By: King James on August 7, 2007
at 7:39 am

Ahnsahnghong preach and taught about the Passover being abolished and said that only one individual (Jesus returned) can "restore" it, while at the same time, forcing his congregation to observe the Passover this is said only Jesus can "restore" and no one else. Sounds like someone was making a bold statement.

Reply

In 1964 Ahnsahnghong built his first church, making Passover mandatory to his congregation. How do I know, because it says on the COG'S website under the menu Welcome > History, that in 1984, Ahnsanghong observed Passover in Seoul, Korea.

If this was 1966, two years after Ahnshanghong built his church and I joined his church and was preached to taught by Ahnshanghong personally, that the purpose of the second coming of christ will be to come back and restore the Passover which he (Ahnsahnghong) as head pastor and owner of the church is making us (his congregation) observe, I would then start to wonder:

How are we able to observe the Passover that is said to have been outlawed and only the second coming of christ can restore and is also said to be the sign of who the second coming is and what his purpose would be when he returns???

They keyword is Passover. If Ahnshanghong taught that the one to restore it, is the second coming of christ, then how is it possible that no one knew that Ahnshanghong was this so called second coming, out of all that he taught and preached and especially what they were doing which was observing the Passover?

Ahnsahnghong preached that christ will come in secret but how is that even possible if the key component is the Passover, which is said no other church were observing?

Christ coming "in secret" to do something so noticable as restoring something so noticable and is said to have been outlawed, isn't exactly "coming in secret". A blind bat would be able to see the connection.

If Ahnsahnghong wrote in his books that Jesus will return in secret and if you believe that Ahnshanghong is him returned, then how exactly was he persecuted as your church claims that he was?

The story goes that no one knew who he was until after he died. You can not persecute someone that is said to come in secret and even his own congregation were not aware of, so how was he persecuted and by whom??

A guy who came in secret was persecuted...huh???

There, I've asked a few things without including one bit of bible scripture.

- James

Chad,

I agree. I hate to sound so redundant but that's what it takes for Jim Henson's Muppets to understand. One of being Beeker aka Ryan.

By: King James on August 7, 2007 at 8:38 am

Reply

I felt that I had to respond to him previously but he will ignore what I've asked and question my belief in the bible, instead of thinking about what I've written.

I was practically done here but apparently he likes the attention. This is persecution to him.

- James

Ya man, trying to argue is a waste of time.

All I can really offer is some information, a book:

By: Chad on August 8, 2007 at 5:13 am

Reply

"Choice Theory" – by William Glasser

Read it or don't read it, but In my opinion it makes a lot more sense than the Bible and (if you believe in Jesus) it may help you to understand how He wanted us to behave.

WE NEED A NEW COMMON SENSE, NOT A NEW RELIGION!

Wow, you people just do not get it. It is like talking to a wall.

By: Ryan on August 11, 2007 at 3:54 am

Reply

But what shall I expect talking to people who do not belong to God. Their are children of light and children of dark.

Children of God and children of Satan. Read the Bible.

Your babble speak and convoluted logic is more than I can bare.

But it's all good because YOU ARE GOD!
I feel sorry for you fools.

This is what you garbled.

By: Ryan on August 11, 2007
at 4:04 am

"That's similar to me having followers and I preach and taught them for 37 years, that only the "True Divine Baker" can make a double chocolate cheese cake, which is something that has never been made for over 1000 years. Now, for 37 years of teaching that only the True Divine Baker can make this, I am also making this double chocolate cheese cake and presenting it to my followers to eat and enjoy once a year.

Reply

At some point one or all of my followers will question me asking, "how are you able to make this double chocolate cheese cake which only the True Divine Baker can make?"

Or in Ahnshangong's case, "How are we able to observe the Passover, if only the second coming can restore it??"

People are not that blind and stupid, atleast I would hope not.

That being said, Ahnsahnghong's congregation were observing this Passover while he was alive, yet they didn't know that they were observing it? Wasn't Ahnshanghong's church the only church to observe it? Were the people in his congregation that, sorry to say..STUPID???

Yes, they must have been. They were too stupid to not be aware that their own church were observing this holiday that was preached and taught to them for 37 long years to be abolished, by the same person who built the church and made it mandatory for his congregaton to observe and keep it because "Jesus said so".

Stop, stop, stop using the bible as a distraction to cover up the stupidity of these Korean folks whom Ahnsahnghong preached and taught for 37 long years, that only the second coming can restore this holiday (passover) while forcing them to observe it or else face God's wrath."

You see, you just do not get it.

First of all you do not believe in the prophecies of the Bible. So why would you believe in the one who has fulfilled them?

Any attempt by you to discredit him as second coming Christ is ridiculous because you do not even believe the Bible.

Haven't I already explained this to you? Why do you continue to embarrass yourself and write such nonsense with your "True Divine Baker" example.

YOU DO NOT BELIEVE IN BIBLICAL PROPHECY!!

EARTH TO JAMES!

Yes James, I believe in the Bible, and history and science support the Bible. That is what I believe. You obviously do not. The destiny of your spirit after this physical life will not be such a nice place.

That is why I feel sorry for you.

Psalms 53:1 — The fool says in his heart,
"There is no God." They are corrupt, and their ways are vile; there is no one who does good.

By: Ryan on August 11, 2007
at 4:17 am

Proverbs 18:2 — A fool finds no pleasure in understanding but delights in airing his own opinions.

Reply

Psalms 74:22 — Rise up, O God, and defend your cause; remember how fools mock you all day long.

Psalms 92:6 — The senseless man does not know, fools do not understand,

Proverbs 1:7 — The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge,
but fools despise wisdom and discipline.

Proverbs 10:18 — He who conceals his hatred has lying lips,
and whoever spreads slander is a fool.

Proverbs 14:8 — The wisdom of the prudent is to give thought to their ways,
but the folly of fools is deception.

Proverbs 24:7 — Wisdom is too high for a fool; in the assembly at the gate he has nothing to say.

Proverbs 26:5 — Answer a fool according to his folly, or he will be wise in his own eyes.

1 Corinthians 2:14 — The man without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned.

Proverbs 12:1 — Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge, but he who hates correction is stupid.

Thanks for not answering my questions moron.
You can't even answer simple questions that you don't have to use the bible for.

By: King James on August 11, 2007
at 9:05 am

If you don't know the answer then say so, stop throwing Reply bible verses at me dude. The questions that I've asked has nothing to do with you using the bible to answer.

I'm done with you, man. Keep it moving.

- James

Awww, poor baby doesn't like Bible verses.
Your done huh??

By: Ryan on August 11, 2007
at 3:18 pm

You are pathetic bro.

Reply

Ok, then. Let's put AhnsahngHong, Jesus, Jehovah, the Bible aside.

Do you WANT to believe that there is a higher power?
Do you believe in creation or so called "evolution"

What is your faith?

What are your convictions?

Let me sit back and hear where you are coming from. Im all ears to hear what you believe. Like I said before, I always struggled with believing that there was an absolute truth such as the Bible.

Now I believe for reasons I can show you if you are willing.

It seems as though you have a problem with the notion that there is a higher power governing our destinies.

If that is so, then that is your belief. But do you have an open mind to believe that there may be a higher power at work? and if so, do you think that the Bible may actually be the word of God as it claims to be?

It is only natural that I use Bible verses since I believe in the word of God.

If you want to steer the conversation outside the "Bible", then that is fine. Go for it.

I can hang brother.

Thanks.

By: King James on August 11, 2007
at 4:16 pm

I'll be Mr. Pathetic and you can be Mr. Moron.

How's that?

Reply

I want you to explain a few things to me Ryan, so that I can see as clear as you do.

Explain the term "came in secret".

Does it mean no one in the world knew who Ahnsahnghong was when he was alive?

Does it mean no one in S.Korea only, knew who he was when he was alive?

Does it mean back in 1964-1985, no one in his congregation knew who he was when he was alive?

Please fully explain (with examples if possible) this "coming in secret" thing, because I'm so pathetic and not one of "God's chosen" and I so want to be one of "God's chosen".

THEN I want you to tell me if Ahnshanghong's congregation saw him as THE same christ he preached to them about in the bible when he was alive EVEN THOUGH he preached that THE second coming of christ would return IN THE LAST DAYS to "restore" the same Passover that he (Ahnsahnghong) had them observing.

If his congregation did see him as THE christ, how does it explain him coming in secret and no one knowing who he was until AFTER he died?

If they didn't see him as THE christ he spoke of to bring salvation, then who were his congregation waiting for to "restore" the Passover, if Ahnsahnghong had them observing it already?

Answer those questions in full detail please. These questions are based on his real life history which only those from his congregation in 1964-1985 should have the complete answers to, but since you know this guy so well to worship him, I am expecting you to answer them completely. Then I will compare your answers with a family member's.

When you are finished, you can then go into explaining how someone who "came in secret" was persecuted by people, because I'm totally baffled by that as well. We'll get into that after you answer the simple questions above.

I see your little game of hook-reel-and sinker. I'm only feeding into your sarcasm and responding to you in hope of getting some REAL answers.

It doesn't take the bible to answer those questions. This guy's life isn't so biblical and holy, so please refrain from spewing bible verses, they do not answer my questions on any level.

The End

- James

If someone from the ahnsahnghong, can get back to me. I am interested in learning about The Church of God believes. Please let me

By: Madeline on August 14, 2007
at 1:35 am

know where I can meet so that you can explain to me about your church.
I hope to hear from you at soon as you can.
Sincerely,
Madeline

Reply

HEY ALL OF YOU ON THIS LONELY WEB SITE
YOUR ALL GONNA DIE
AND GO TO HELL ANY WAY FOR BLASPHEMING
THE HOLY SPIRIT HOPE YOU FIND IT COMFY THERE..
ICHINOSEKI

By: XXX on August 15, 2007
at 4:56 am

Reply

Shut the fuck up. You'll be there first of all for worshipping a FAKE GOD. Nothing more than a typical CULT. Fake as Jim Jones and Moon, Sung Yung xerox copy. Fucking Koreans got some motherfuckin nerve comin here to the United States of America, who grants them their existence, talkin bout Jesus was a Budhist that had multiple bitches, multiple kids, that was Baptized in a Cult and predicted the Second coming of the real Jesus 3 times, IS JESUS. You got to be a stupid motherfucker believing that shit. Sorry motherfuckers brainwashing poor welfare mothers and college kids away from home for the first time. Taking their much needed money and shipping out of this country Tax Fuckin Free to the queen fucking Whore back in Korea. Ain't that some motherfuckin shit.

By: RockBooty on November 24, 2009
at 4:13 pm

Reply

ROCKBOOTY, YOU ARE IN THE WRONG PLACE, TAKE ALL THAT HATE, AND NEVER BRING THAT TO A SERIOUS ADULT BLOGGING, WE WILL PRAY FOR YOU, GOD BLESS YOUR TROUBLED MIND, BECAUSE YOU DO NOT MAKE ANY!!!! SENSE.....THIS IS A CHURCH CONVERSATION, TAKE THAT LITTLE KID THUG MENTALITY AND PLEASE GO ON MYSPACE OR SOMETHING, THIS IS NERVE WRECKING AS IT IS

By: A CHILD OF GOD on April 7, 2010
at 4:10 pm

WHEN PEOPLE WERE KICKING AND SPITTING AT JESUS AND PERSECUTING EXACTLY WHAT YOUR DOING, WHEN HE DIED ON THE CROSS AT THAT MOMENT, THEY REALIZED THAT THEY KILLED THE MESSIAH, BECAUSE OF THE PIERCED FOR OUR TRANSGRESSIONS, BUT TIT WAS TOO LATE, THEY KILLED GOD, YOU ARE SERIOUSLY IN ALOT OF TROUBLE, MOTHER AND FATHER ARE COMING WITH A HUGE WRATH, NORTH KOREA NUCLEAR WARFARE, DESTRUCTION FROM THE NORTH, A POWERFUL ARMY, A STRONG MILITARY WITH NO MERCY, JEREMIAH, ISAIAH, READ THOSE TWO BOOKS, NORTH KOREA ALREADY DID, 4 NUCLEAR TESTS ON UNITED STATES, THE CHURCH OF GOD HAS BEEN PROCLAMING THIS SINCE 1984, ITS ALL OVER THE NEWS NOW, DO

By: A CHILD OF GOD on April 7, 2010
at 4:16 pm

YOU WANT EXACT SCRIPTURES

Now that is funny Rockbooty. Although you should of left the bad words out. You should read my experience at the church of god when I was in there for 7 months. Did you know the Mother goddess sister was a church money embezzler?

By: xxxxxx on February 3, 2011
at 2:25 am

Ryan,

By: King James on August 16, 2007
at 3:47 am

I am still waiting for you to respond to my last post and give me those answers in full detail with examples.

Reply

and

XXX,

If you want to stab something, you can take a stab at answering those questions from my previous post above. Try doing that instead of sending me and others DEATH THREATS on the skepticism site in order to shut us up and stop us from exposing your false god.

It's a shame what you people have to resort to. Killing me won't stop others from postings and I'm still waiting for your god to destroy me as well. I've already told you to pray to him to do it.

- James

OKAY WHAT ARE THE QUESTIONS I CANT GO TO ANOTHER SITE TELL ME PLEASE KING JAMES

By: A CHILD OF GOD on April 7, 2010
at 4:19 pm

Reply

Ryan you said:

By: King James on August 18, 2007
at 4:34 pm

"There are many prophecies in the Bible, that second coming Christ will bring back the Passover. This will be like his identification card so we can recognize the true Christ from among all the false Christs in the world."

Reply

How can someone come in secret, yet give himself away by teaching of Passover and making his congregation observe the Passover as well, which would be his "identification card" to recognize the "true Christ" from the false.

So his congregation from 1964-1985 didn't recognize him yet he showed his "identification card" which would be preaching of the Passover and having his congregation observe it. They were observing the Passover, how many more clues would they have needed to see him as the Christ?

I honestly don't understand this "coming in secret" story and how no one knew who he was until after he died.

Ok so why didn't his congregation see him as the Christ back then?

I really don't get it.

Ryan, I will ask my family member who is in your church and I will post their answer, which might not be much seeing how it's a bunch of contradictions.

You need to get back to me with those answers, I really don't like unsolved mysteries.

- James

hey James, I think you made your point by now... you aren't going to win this argument acting like "INTERNET WARRIOR". If you read that Cult Watch website you posted a while back it'll say avoid swapping insults and try to get the victim to educate themselves through subtle questioning. You can't throw insults @ these guys and expect them to admit that they are wrong, it only re-enforces their ideology. take a breather and try forgetting about this blog and the fanatics that post on it. They want your attention, it makes them happy to know that people care about what they do. Don't feed em anymore.

By: Chad on August 19, 2007
at 7:21 am

Reply

Hi Chad,

I wasn't looking to "win" an argument, just looking for some real answers and if those answers were to make sense, perhaps I can understand where he's coming from. But since I don't think I will get them anytime soon, I will give this site a break.

By: King James on August 19, 2007
at 9:26 am

Reply

So, I see your point in that portion of your post.

Thanks and my apologies,

- James

<http://ahnsahng hong.tripod.com/index.html>
<http://ahnsahng hong.tripod.com/index.html>
<http://ahnsahng hong.tripod.com/index.html>

By: COGisCULT on September 1, 2007
at 6:17 am

Reply

What's up all you COG haters out there.

By: ryan on September

Haven't checked out the site in a while. I'm getting married, and been stressin with wedding plans etc.

2, 2007
at 8:31 am

Reply

Well, I see James that you still have questions. I dont know if that is a good thing or a bad thing. Do you ask because you really want to know?

Why do you ask such questions if you have already made up your mind about AhnsahngHong? I dont get it.

I will gladly explain what it means to come in "secret" using Christ AhnsahngHong's own teaching. You seem to take it literally, as if it means that absolutely no one will know who is second coming christ.

You clearly do not understand what it means to come in "secret" so your attempt to find fault with our doctrine is invalid. This seems to be a recurring theme with you James.

You make arguments based on false information over and over again. Why don't you just be quiet and just listen if you want to understand.

You don't understand because you do not want to believe in the one who has come.

I feel like I am really wasting my time with you, but if I can correct the wrong ideas and understandings that you have about the Church of God, then maybe you would become a part of the heavenly family and we can be brothers.

How does that sound James? I'm being serious. You want to compare my answer with what you get from your family. Why? You want to try find fault again, dont you?

You say you just want to express your opinion, but why don't you just be honest, and admit you are always trying to find fault with our doctrine, instead of trying to understand it.

You might "say" you are trying to understand it, but you are not my friend.

Whoever is posting those comments about going to hell and all that crap, we do not condone such actions. The reason I am here is for several reasons.

- 1.) It bothers me that some people may turn away from the truth because of the nonsense and lies that are spoken on these sites.
- 2.) Our message is salvation. I would love to see you accept this truth and be saved.
- 3.) But for those false prophets out there, I will expose and rebuke.

I don't know what to consider you James. You persecute, then you ask questions like you really want to understand more about AhnsahngHong's teachings.

I just pray that one day that Father and Mother will soften your heart and you will try to really understand what we teach.

Anyways James, I will respond in regards to coming in "secret" shortly. I have been really busy lately.

God bless you.

That's your problem, you want to figure me out and categorize me. Put in a box so to speak. I don't understand because you people are not clear about what you believe and what you say.

By: King James on September 2, 2007
at 1:51 pm

Reply

In one complete sentence, one word may be taken literal, while another word is not. I never knew "secret" had two meanings to it.

All of that typing and you could have been answering my questions, yet you would rather wasting more time writing about why I want to know rather than helping me understand where you're coming from. And to make it worse, you're going to repeat what AhnsahngHong wrote as if it weighs more than anyone else's word.

Please..do respond. I've been wanting this answered for over a year now..literally.

- James

Ryan,

One last thing. If you are planning on giving me answers, please, please refer to the questions that I have posted above dated 8/11/2007, to avoid any repeated questions by me. Would save us both alot of time and trouble. And again please, explain what you mean in full detail and with examples so there will be no misunderstanding on my part. I'm looking forward to reading the examples of the word secret using the dictionary's definition and another example with the term that you are using it as in regards to AhnsahngHong. One literal and another out of context.

By: King James on September 4, 2007
at 10:50 pm

Reply

Umm..that's it I guess.

Thanks.

- James

From you what last wrote, it is clear you have no intention in understanding.

By: Ryan on September
7, 2007
at 5:22 pm

You want to use the dictionary against the word of God. Go figure.

Reply

I have read all of your arguments about this whole "coming in secret" business. You just love to find fault without understanding. You said, "I'm looking forward to reading the examples of the word secret using the dictionary's definition and another example with the term that you are using it as in regards to Ahnсанhghong. "

You clearly do not have a mind to understand.

James, why should I waste my time with you?? You have a narrow and arrogant mind. You will never understand the way of righteousness. Your wisdom only comes from the way of the world. I even have that. Maybe one day you will wake up.

You are not seeking the truth. Therefore you will never find it. You are a lost cause my friend. Thank you for posting what you did. Now I don't have to waste my time with you.

If you ever want to know the truth of why we are even here on this earth in the first place, then let me know.

In the mean time, keep on hating. Sadly, that is all you know how to do.

Ryan,

By: King James on September 7, 2007
at 9:15 pm

I have said nothing wrong. I asked you to explain things so that I can understand what you mean since you are saying that I am using certain words or phrases in their literal or dictionary definition.

Reply

Dude, what do you mean I don't have the mind to understand? We are all capable of understanding anything as long as it is fully explained. You're basically telling me or someone else to believe without question. I'm sorry but that's not going to happen.

Anyway, I would assume that this "coming in secret" term that you are using to prove your case would mean Christ coming down in flesh and not coming down in some glorious, spectacular way for everyone to see, as some people would believe, with lights and harps playing in the background. If that's the way you are using the term "coming in secret" then that's all you should have said.

In a sense it would be coming in secret because he's not coming down with power and great glory but "in secret" by being born in flesh, or a human body, so yes no one around the world would know that he came.

However, using that as something to prove your case really doesn't make any sense seeing how everyone who claimed to be Christ was in flesh. Every false christ around the world known and unknown are in flesh, so that term of coming in secret doesn't hold any weight seeing how anyone can claim to be Christ for the simple fact that they are in physical bodys, hence "coming in flesh". So doesn't that mean that ALL of the false Christ also came in secret? I would say so.

So the literal term secret which means no one knowing is dismissed because the word secret according to your church really means "coming in flesh". Which still doesn't explain the term "no one knowing who he was until after he died".

Apparently the word secret is used literally and out of context, to explain his appearance. Do you still think that I do not have the capacity to understand? I think I've covered both ways in which the word secret can be used and since you have explained to me that the word is not taken literally, then I can only go with the other explanation of him, which is, "him not coming down from the sky" or whatever.

You can think what you want about me, it doesn't matter. A person with a narrow mind doesn't question everything, so I would say that I don't have a narrow mind. A person who is arrogant thinks he's right even when he could be wrong, that's how big that person's ego is. I'm not arrogant, seeing that I don't know everything, which is why I question everything and if it doesn't make sense to me then I will ask more questions until I understand.

If what you say is the truth then you should have a problem explaining it because nothing can weigh against it. However, your church is using the term coming in secret in it's literal meaning and out of context. That does not make sense. You can't use both meanings, it's either one meaning or the other, because if you are using both then it will clash. You can not use both terms without contradicting yourself and you know that if you were to explain it in full detail, that's exactly what you will be doing.

It's one meaning or the other, not both. You can't use the word secret to mean:

1. No one knowing

and

2. Coming down in flesh and not in some glorious fashion from the sky.

If the word secret refers to definition number 2, then how would you explain the fact that no one knew until AFTER he died, which then you would have to use definition number 1. Given the fact that the word secret is used once in a complete sentence, to mean two different things at the same time.

That is just crazy, confusing, and contradicting.

So that is why I am questioning you in regards to that small part of AhnsahngHong. Not the bible, not Jesus, but AhnshangHong..period.

That's all I have to say so, good luck on your marriage. You don't have to respond by the way, I feel that I have an understanding of the story about C.A.S.H, I understand that it's total BS.

- James

Chad,

By: Jessie on September 12, 2007
at 11:19 am

My younger brother has been with the COG for about a year now, and for the last several months he's been going to Arizona to preach. I recently spoke to him and found out his "Deacon's" name, Hector Flores and the other is Leo (?last?). I read your message where you said these people came to you house.

Reply

I'm just really concerned and have been researching this religion for months now and the more I learn the more scared I become. My research tonight has lead me to this website and I just thought I would try to get some advise on how I can help my brother basically be "deprogrammed" if that makes any sense.

My brother is going to Korea the first week of October to see the mother christ and I am totally beside myself, b/c we are worried that he won't be coming back. My entire family is scared to death. He's so far away (in Cali) from us (Louisiana) and we can't get him to.

If you know of anyone or an organization we can contact for help, we would greatly appreciate it. Thanks and sorry to bother you.

~Jessie

Oh dear. I'm sorry that I really don't know any organization that can help you. I hope your brother remains alright.

By: Jamie on September 12, 2007
at 12:52 pm

Perhaps you might try looking for an anti-cult organization, if they exist? I apologise again that I don't know enough to help you.

Reply

King James or anyone non-COG, would you be able to help?

Hi Jessie,

By: King James on September 12, 2007
at 5:47 pm

Sorry to hear about your brother. A family member of mine have visited South Korea in the spring. So, I can relate with you, however I can only offer you my opinion and a little bit of information.

Reply

Ok in my opinion, I feel the best thing to do is to continue to educate yourself and don't be afraid of getting yourself familiar with their doctrine, and their books. I'm not telling you to go and get baptized but read what they are saying and use your own rational judgement. It's not for everyone, which is why everyone won't accept it, no matter how "truthful" they claim it to be. The best thing to do is to try to understand him, which could be hard because they tend to dangle these "mysteries" and "secrets" over peoples head to keep them wanting to know more about a bunch of BS stories made up to enhance their gods (Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem) status. Then eventually, suggesting the person to go in and get baptized.

I'm having a bit of trouble getting Ryan to explain the term "coming in secret". I have an idea of what he means but I want him to explain it. Anyway, if your brother is a grown man, I don't see how you or anyone else would be able to stop him from going to South Korea. A family member of mine went to South Korea and came back convinced that Mother Jerusalem is a god, but when the time is right, I will sit down with her and try to share information, communicate and ask her, if the church is so truthful, why are there ex-members? Something must be wrong. They might blame the person and make it seem as though it's their fault for not understanding or losing their faith after two or five or even ten years of being a member.

However, if the simple equation of $1+1=2$ represents truth, how many people in the world are disagreeing with this truth...none. So if their church and doctrine also represents truth, there shouldn't be any disagreements and there definately shouldn't be ex-members. Actually, there should be no such thing as an ex-member from their church, especially after someone has been a member for two or five or even ten years.

So yea, something is not right.

The second thing that I suggest is to perhaps speak with an ex-member. Find out why this person left, actually find out everything you can from them. The best information that you can get is from someone who has already walked in that particular path already. Information from anyone else wouldn't be valid, in my opinion.

If you can, you can contact an exmember who created this site based on his experience as well as other ex members and their experience in the church.

<http://ahnsahnghong.tripod.com/index.html>

That's probably the best that I can do for you, hope I've helped just a little. Your brother now believes the world will end very soon, so don't be surprised at some thing that he will do that may seem odd or weird to you.

- James

Ryan/John/Hector ~

Can you tell me why all COG members sound the same? Like a broken record? While reading your blogs, I felt like I was talking on the phone with my brother. There is soooo much to learn about the bible and GOD yet when I read something from the COG it's the same stuff over and over.

I'm just curious and thought I'd ask.

Jessie ~

By: Jessie on September 13, 2007
at 8:56 am

Reply

Oh please! If members of the church of god are such strong beleivers what are you doing checking on peoples comments. then you really must be a cult because if you werent you wouldnt care what people say. Dont worry, someone will put an end to this crap, if not God (himself). you are a total disrespect for everything christ has established, and Gods anger will be shown for worshiping this idol that you call mother jerusalem. my advise is read 1 Corinthians 14 vs 33-35 and decide for yourself (not the Church because the church is not going to give you eternal life, and definetely not mother, it will be your faith) whether God would preach as a woman. I pray that you will come out of the darkness spread by this church. i went there, but God reveals the truth about false prophets, and this ahnsanghong is no exception. please get out of this cult before its too late.

By: Jason on September 14, 2007
at 7:35 pm

Reply

you're right because i was also a victim of this .. and i was baptized by them.. i told them that i was already baptized but they told me about the re baptizing. i couldn't sleep for a few nights thinking about this. and i always to pray to God that he will guide me.. one day when i was out of our school these two Korean girl called me and they told me to go to their church .. so i went home immediately and went to their church..they told me about the Sabbath .because that day was saturday.. i stayed there and joined them 7-8:30pm worshipping . . when i was to leave i saw a church . . and i don't know .. it seems that someone is forcing me to enter that church .i saw a kid and asked her if what is going on inside and she's answering me but i don't understand what she's saying. so i waites for a few minutes outside that church. few minutes past. there was a lady who came out and looking for her daughter (the kid) . so i asked that lady .what church is that and she answer me.. i felt happy that time because i think i found the answer to my questions . and i know that God was the one who guided me that time .and the lady told me to come back tomorrow..so that's what i did..i came back the next day (sunday) .i opened this to the pastor.(it was my first time to met the pastor) and he told me about the truth .. i almost cried when

By: keesha on February 20, 2012
at 12:02 am

Reply

we prayed together and thanking Jesus Christ our God for guiding me and letting me out of this darkness ..so i texted the two korean girl that i'm not attending their church anymore. my experienced when they recruited me was the same to the post above..

—God Bless. and I hope that everyone will know the truth..

I just recently became a COG member. Reading so much on the church being a cult is disturbing, but makes me think twice about what i just got myself into... Everybody on this site seems like they just want something to argue about and are extremely disrespectful calling people stupid and pathetic... Why argue about our beliefs??? In the end I guess we'll just see which one was the truth!

By: Faith on October 5, 2007
at 12:30 am

Reply

faith, i want to tell you that you're heart knows the truth. and keep praying to God (not ahnsahngong) that he will lead you to a right path and always guide you.. God Bless..and hope you will find the answers.. :))

By: keesha on February 20, 2012
at 12:10 am

Reply

Would you really want to wait until the end to find out whether what you believed in was truth or falsehood? Especially since it involves an eternity of happiness vs one of suffering?

By: Jamie on October 5, 2007
at 5:48 am

Reply

Well when you think about it everybody believes that their religion/beliefs are going to bring them to paradise, but which one is the real truth?? There are hundreds of religions out there, and everything the COG taught me was written in the bible in black and white, who am I to question the word of God??? So which religion is truth and which is false? Nobody knows for sure, but say this is the "truth," then we all know what happens to the people who doubted it right??? And if it is "false" then yes it's obviously going to be too late in the end, but I'm willing to take my chances... Like I said before, everybody thinks that their own beliefs/religion is going to bring them to paradise, and honestly no one will know the REAL truth until our ending days.

By: Faith on October 5, 2007
at 10:33 pm

Reply

Faith writes: "who am I to question the word of God???"

By: King James on October 7, 2007
at 8:23 am

Reply

Well obviously no one according to your own beliefs. But if you think about it, how can you offend someone who apparently "knows all"? The only way that you can offend someone with a question is by asking it to a person who claims to know everything, yet out of frustration, they get angry at you for asking the question because they do not have the answer. Which means you have exposed them for not "knowing all".

Hence, any preacher, teacher or parent that would tell someone in their congregation, student, or child to not ask such questions. Basically, DO NOT TO QUESTION AUTHORITY and since God is the "ultimate authority", you shouldn't question him.

But why not? Someone who "knows all" would just answer the question if they really knew, without any resistance. Doesn't make sense for someone to know all that exist only to get angry at questions.

Why are you to question? Well, i'll tell you. You ARE SOMEONE who wants to know, that's who you are.

We all need to stop creating our own low self esteem issues.

- James

<http://ahnsahng hong.tripod.com/>

By: Cult on October 22, 2007
at 9:43 am

Reply

A saying goes as follows."Look before you leap". This is what i have to say to most of the people proclaiming the church of god to be a cult.

By: Sanjay on October 22, 2007
at 8:49 pm

The following verse is what most of them take to criticize the church of god Galatians 1:8 Paul said; But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let him be eternally condemned!

Yes the one teaching other that Gospel shold eternally be condemned.

But wait a sec.

To whom is Paul referring to????

To church of god who does what exactly the bible testifies or the one who are just following the cult of celebrating the christmas, sundayworship,etc. I think the people should just first look at themselves before judging others.

And our father and mother truly are the Lord.

In Luke 18:8 he said that noone will believe in son of man(Jesus) when he will come again.

in rev 3:12 he said that he will come to earth again with a new name and surely guys whose home is the eternal hell surely wont beleive in him.

He said in matthew 24:30-31 that he will come in clouds.The real cloud or is it just a parable.

if u look in matthew13:34 u will see that he said all the things in parable.

So what is represented by cloud in the holy bible?

if u look in hebrew 12:1 then u will know that cloud represents the body. So he will come down to earth again in body to restore truth and to save the redempted ones.

And for the time.

if u look in matthew24:32 u will see that he will come when the fig tree shed its leaves.So what does fig tree represent?

if u look in jeremiah24:5 u will find that frits of the fig tree represents the people of Isreal. Therefore the fig tree represents Isreal. There are many other verses like luke 13 :6, mark 11 :6 which testifies Isreal is represented by fig tree in bible. So according to prophecy the fig tree shed its leaves and Lord ahanshang hong at the age of 30(just like jesus) got baptized and start preaching the gospel. So I suggest the people to come in church of god and learn more about the prophecy of the second christ our Lord ahanshang hong and heavenly mother jeruslaem as mentioned in Galatians 4 :26 but the woman who is above is free and she is our mother and if u look at other bible it is written that the heavenly jerusalem represents Sarah and she is our mother.

Today i wnat to make clear to all the people about the parable of the weeds and the good seeds of the heaven.

If u look at Matthew 13:24-30 Jesus spoke about the good seeds of wheat and the weeds in parable.

By: Sanjay from Nepal on October 25, 2007
at 12:54 pm

Reply

And the meaning of this parable is given in another verse.

Lets check it in Matthew 13:36-43.

So lets compare parable with meanings.

Farmer – Son of Man(Jesus)

Field – World

Good Seeds – People of heaven

Weeds – Evil ones

Enemy – Devil

Harvest – End of the world

When farmer slept – When Jesus' physical body died.

(Related verses are Luke 8:52-The house was filled with people weeping and wailing. But he said,"Stop weeping! She isnt dead; She's only asleep.) (JOhn 11:11-13- Then he said ,"our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep.But now I will go and wake him up." THEN disciples said,"LOrd if he is sleeping, he will soon get better! They thought Jesus meant Lazarus was simply sleeping, but Jesus meant Lazarus has died.

Now I think you are pretty clear about the meaning.
Now let's find out the good seeds that Jesus sowed.

1. Baptism

Mark 1:9 – He got baptized in the river.

Baptism should be taken only by the sinners, but being a Lord and also not committed any sins why did he take baptism??

If you look in John 13:15 – I have given you an example to follow. DO as I have done to you.

So we should follow Jesus' example.

2. Sabbath

Mark 1:11 – When Sabbath day came, he went into Synagogue and began to teach.

3. Passover

Luke 22:7-18 He celebrated the Passover according to the new covenant.

4. Feast of Tabernacles

John 7:2 – But soon it was time for the Jewish Festival of Tabernacles (Tabernacles)

John 7:14 – Then midway through the festival Jesus went up to the temple and preached.

5. Pentecost

Acts 2:1 – On the day of Pentecost all the believers were meeting together in one place. Suddenly there was a sound from heaven like a roaring of a mighty windstorm.....as the Holy Spirit gave them mighty ability.

5. Covering of head by female

1 Corinthians 11:5 – But a woman dishonors Christ if she prays or prophesies without a covering on her head, for this is same as shaving the head.

6. Trimming of hair by male

1 Corinthians 11:14 – "Isn't it obvious that it is disgraceful for a man to have a long hair?"

So these are some of the good seeds of wheat Jesus sowed before his physical death. Then, after his death what are the weeds that were planted by the devils and not written in the Bible.

1. Christmas – 25th December ; birthday of the Sun according to Roman and Pagan Custom. (Revelation 18:21 – Then he brought me into

....., there were about twenty-five men with their backs to the sanctuary of the Lord. They were facing east, bowing low to the ground, worshipping the Sun.

2. Sunday worship – Constantine in 321 A.D. changed Sabbath into Sunday worship.

3. Worship of Cross and Image of Virgin Mary – In 331 A.D. worship of Cross was adopted.

Jeremiah 10:3-5 – Their ways are futile and foolish. They cut down a tree and a craftsman carves an idol. They decorate it with gold and silver and then fasten it with gold and silver and then fasten it securely with hammer and nails. So it wont fall ver. Their idols are like helpless Scarecrows in cucumber field. And the worship of image of virgin Mary. Jeremiah 2:17 – To an imalge carved from piece of wood they say,"you are my father" and to and Idol chiseled form a block of stone they say,"you are my mother."

6.Baptism

And baptism process has also been changed.They sprinkle some water over people's face. And say that you have been baptized. SO these are the weeds that were grown by the devils after Jesus died.

Now will these weeds go to the heaven.

I dont think so niether does the Bible.

Matthew 13:30- Let both grow together until the harvest, THen I will tell the harvesters to sort out the wees tie them into bundles and burn them and put the wheat into the barn.

Matthew 7:21 Not everyone who calls out to me,"Lord!,LOrd! will enter the kingdom of heaven.ONLY thise who actually do the will of my father in heaven will enter.....I will reply,"I never knew you. Get away from me, you who break Gods Law.

1 John 2:3 – And we can be sure that we know him if we obey his commandments.If someone claims,"I know God". But doesnt obey GOds commandments that person is a liar and is not living the truth.....Those who say they live in GOd should live their lives as Jesus did.

So I suggest anyone who reads this article to judge him/her self whether is a weed or a seed of wheat for wheats will be resurrected from dead and will shine as brightly as stars forever and weeds to inherit eternal shame and everlating shame and pain in hell.

wOOt! I'm going to hell! Hell yeah! Woohoo! I can't wait!

By: Jamie on October 25, 2007 at 10:11 pm

Oh wait a second...everything you talked about is rubbish! That means I'm not going to hell? Awww...

Reply

If you bothered to do more research into why none of your points are valid except on the surface, why, you'd have regretted spending so much time and effort writing your comment. COG WMS follows the letter of the law but forgets the spirit of the law.

Sanjay must be a newbie to the church, they tend to be the ones who over post.

By: King James on October 26, 2007 at 8:04 pm

Give it 10 or so years, Sanjay, you'll find yourself getting into a new religion.

Reply

- James

Well if you think I am wrong why dont you prove I am wrong b using the bible but not just by using the useless words. One thing I find most common in all the christians is that they dont tend to look at the bible and always be stubborn. Take the lesson from the Jews 2000 years ago. They didnt want Jesus as God because they were stubborn and they didnt beleive the prophecies of the bible and eventually it led to the destruction of their own. Do what pleases God(Ephesian 5:9) not worship him in your own style.

By: Sanjay on November 5, 2007
at 8:49 pm

Reply

Prove you wrong? That statement shows your inexperience. You're so gung-ho about proving someone wrong and inviting anyone to try and prove you wrong. My words weigh more than you copying and pasting bible scripture and some dude's interpretation on them.

By: King James on November 6, 2007
at 9:52 pm

Reply

Pumping bible scripture will do what, it's been done before. Maybe you should read through this whole forum and catch up a bit, because I've been there and done that. As I said before, give it 10 or so years, you'll find yourself getting into a new religion.

For the record, I don't care about Jews of 2000 years ago. That's like comparing man's understanding of the universe now, compared to man's understanding in Galileo's time. Obviously there is a big difference.

As new information becomes available, our limited understanding of anything, becomes more and more clear, which allows mental growth or evolution in the mind.

You and anyone else LOWERING yourselves to compare people in 2007 to other people from 2000 years ago shows that you have not grasp onto your own evolved mind. Before you take anyone challege to prove you wrong, how about putting your own beliefs to the test and proving it wrong. To know if something is "truth" it has to not only withstand the test from other but your own test. You probably couldn't do that though, fear probbably grips your heart.

- James

I just wanted to post this for Ryan and all others from the Church of God... Please defend our name and integrity. Proclaim Father & Mother until the end ENDURE.. The devil is testing us with these websites that claim us to be a "cult" to break us from our strong faith. How can we be a cult when we follow each and every teaching to a t?? Sabbath/The Feasts/Veil... Its all black & white and its in the bible.But yet those out there breaking God's law want to stand taller and throw our name to the ground. How can any of you accuse us of being a cult? How can you judge us, when you dont even know us?! If there is

By: Lizzie on November
7, 2007
at 7:39 pm

Reply

a way to contact my brothers in the truth please tell me.

Matthew 1:3

3"Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye?

You obviously don't know Him who sent Jesus. Learn the prophesies before pointing fingers

-Liz

Lizzie,

By: King James on November 7, 2007
at 9:42 pm

Ok you follow the Sabbath/The Feasts/Veil and PASSOVER, which is the icing on the cake it seems, and is something that no other churches are doing...OK.

Reply

Now what does that have to do with no one not knowing that AhnsahngHong was this "god" you all claim him to be when he was alive preaching?

If this DUDE preached to his congregation that "only the TRUE church" observes Passover, and only the second coming can restore it, how can his congregation who he preached to when he was alive NOT know that he was this second coming you all are worshipping?

What, these people didn't know that they were observing Passover or something? C'mon, the guy should have been worshipped when he was ALIVE by his congregation for restoring something that he preached was "LOST" which HE (AhnsahngHong) also preached that NO OTHER CHURCH ON THE PLANET were observing...simple as that.

The guy gets recognized and worshipped AFTER his death? Check your facts to see how long this DUDE/MAN (not God), preached about the Passover being "abolished" and check your facts to see how long he had his congregation observing this Passover, then tell how it would be possible for his congregation not to know that they were observing a holiday this guy claimed only GOD can restore.

Read what I say carefully then check your facts, whether through your Pastor or perhaps your Mother God can telepathically communicate with you and give you the answer. I'm very tired of these silly games you people try to play. You talk all of this bible stuff but ignore the reality of some POWERLESS DUDE and his little POWERLESS girlfriend.

- James

Also, if the DUDE never claimed to be God. Then who the hell persecuted him and for what reason would they persecute someone that never claimed to be God?

By: King James on
November 7, 2007
at 10:26 pm

Reply

Oh wait, let me guess, he wasn't persecuted, it was the church that was being persecuted right? It was the church that was being persecuted by other churches for observing the Passover for one and the feasts and any other holiday no other church observed right?

That's where the persecuted stuff must come from since HE (Ahnsahnghong) wasn't persecuted for claiming to be God.

Ok now, throughout history what church HAS NOT been "persecuted" (if you want to call it that) by other churches from being different? I can give you a long list if you want. You want to talk about pointing fingers? Well what about the fingers that you all are pointing at other churches?

If you want to call that persecuted then cool but to my knowledge and throughout history, anyone or people who were persecuted experienced either death or received cruel and unjust punishments.

Look at Ahnsahnghong, not a scratch on his skin...wow, now that's what I call persecution. Probably never been in a fist fight. The only persecution this dude probably received was perhaps from his wife smacking him upside the head.

- James

COG Members obviously don't know Jesus or Him who sent Jesus. If they did, they would definitely know that Anhsanghong was never Jesus.

By: Jamie on November 7, 2007 at 11:53 pm

Reply

O modern day Pharisees, when will you stop allowing Satan to blind you and wake up to the truth? You teach as doctrines the teachings of men and accuse others of persecuting you when they merely speak the truth. If something is a sin, call it a sin! An onion is an onion no matter how what name you may try to call it. False teachings are false teachings no matter what you might try to say.

Honestly, if all those who profess to be followers of Jesus Christ actually KNEW Him personally, there wouldn't be these deceptive cults. They'd have no power over the truth.

Like God the Father said in the Bible; My sheep listen to my voice.

Just as I was told to "check the facts" you should too before speaking. This "girlfriend" of Ahnsahnghong who we refer to as "New Jerusalem" was a mere baby, she could not have been his "lover" I know my facts, do you? You don't know anything of this church. You only follow what you have heard. Every church claims to be the "ONE" but can they back that up? Can THEY personally say we resemble the early church? Can they prove to keep all of God's

By: Lizzie on November 8, 2007 at 6:16 am commandments? NO! So can they say they are the ONE? But yet when a church that does resemble it comes along, you tackle it and call it a cult! Did you know that 2000 years ago they called Jesus and his disciples a sect... or a cult? The same thing is happening again. Just like it was in the time of Jesus, after Jesus' death more people worshiped him than when he was alive.

Reply

Did you know that many people knew of the Second Coming Christ?? I bet you didn't! You sound just like the Pharisees from 2000 years ago. I read that some bloggers ask that we shouldn't compare the people of 2000 years ago to these of the new age... fine, but why do all of you imitate them from 200 years ago? You yourselves are acting just like them.

How much of the bible do you know? How much does your Spiritual Leaders actually reveal to you? Only what they want to.

Look at Ahn Sahng Hong you say, he had no scratches on his skin. Did you personally see him to even say that? How in the world can you say he had nothing on him? Because of a picture? Oh please!

In response to Jaime...

You're right... I say the same right back at you!

O modern day Pharisees, when will you stop allowing Satan to blind you and wake up to the truth? You teach as doctrines the teachings of men and accuse others of persecuting you when they merely speak the truth. If something is a sin, call it a sin! An onion is an onion no matter how what name you may try to call it. False teachings are false teachings no matter what you might try to say.

We follow the bible 100%. We recognize the Second Coming Christ I am so sorry you fail to see. As it is said:

Matthew 13:11

He replied, "The knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them.

12Whoever has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him. 13This is why I speak to them in parables:

"Though seeing, they do not see; though hearing, they do not hear or understand. 14In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah:

" 'You will be ever hearing but never understanding;

you will be ever seeing but never perceiving.

15For this people's heart has become calloused;

they hardly hear with their ears, and they have closed their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them.'[a] 16But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear. 17For I tell you the truth, many prophets and righteous men longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

May God have mercy on those of you who are blind and cannot see the light, who cannot recognize the Christ.

Not just I but other Church of God members have attempted to open your spiritual eyes so that you may see. Ryan or "John" as you called him gave you many of these treasures to you but I do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw my pearls to pigs.

John 8

42Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and now am here. I have not come on my own; but he sent me. 43Why is my language not clear to you? Because you are unable to hear what I say. 44You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies. 45Yet because I tell the truth, you do not believe me! 46Can any of you prove me guilty of sin? If I am telling the truth, why don't you believe me? 47He who belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

Ok Lizzie, let's consider this woman whom you worship as a god was a "mere baby" at the time.

By: King James on November 8, 2007 at 8:09 am

Now Ahnsanhghong born in 1918, his little girlfriend wasn't born obviously at the time.

Reply

Ahnsahngghong was 30 years old in 1948, his little girlfriend was perhaps in her late teens/early 20's if not a bit older.

Ahnsahngghong was 67 years old in 1985, his little girlfriend was perhaps in her 50's. Because if she is in her 60's early seventies in 2007, she must have been old enough to have relations with the DUDE in her younger age.

Sorry but 1985 wasn't that long ago. I was alive in 1985. This chick is probably the same age as my grandmother if not a bit older.

Let's go to the year 1960, BEFORE he (Ahnsahngghong) built his first church. Ahnsanhghong was 42, his little girlfriend was perhaps 38 (give or take). I'm just estimating because if she is in her 70's now, then she must have been around that age. So the chick was old enough to have relations with the DUDE.

If you say that she was a "mere baby", well at this time in 2007, you better have proof that she is younger than 60 and 50 is cutting too close because my own mother is in her 50's. I would say she better be younger than 60. If she is in her late 60's early 70's then this MERE baby was NOTHING but.

You want to assume that I don't know much, well whatever that is hidden is hidden because they do not want the public to know the truth. If this Mother chick is in her late 70's early 80's then I would advise you to retract your statements because you are defending BS.

Again, if you believe "Mother" was too young to have a friendship with this guy, well then she better be younger than my grandmother and my grandmother is about 70. Even my grandmother could have had relations with this dude back in 1960, 1970, and 1980. Heck, even in 1950, my own grandmother could have had relations with him since she would have been about 20 in 1950 and he would have been 32. Where is the "mere child" in a 20 year old?

One last thing, who do you think introduced Mother Jerusalem to the congregation? He did. Do you think that she just all of a sudden came into the congregation and said, "Oh I'm mother Jerusalem, I'm the person who will guide you in the lastdays".

Either this guy saw himself as God or he didn't. I have checked my facts because the source of my facts are from a family member who is a part of your church.

If we are the same as the people 2000 years ago, then you are no different for you do not agree with other people who worship other men as god. To them, you are the same as the people of 2000 years ago because you reject THEIR BELIEF and idea of some guy they are worshipping as a god. At some point, you too are a nonbeliever in someone's Christ or god. Perhaps the hispanic guy who says he's Jesus returned, well I'm sure to the people who worship him, you too are a nonbelieving heathen and will burn in hell. Makes no difference.

Why don't you try answering my simple question.

Who the hell persecuted him and for what reason would they persecute someone that never claimed to be God?

- James

What makes it even funnier is that you see this dude as "Father" and his little girlfriend as "Mother". Appears to me that they are a couple. Obviously, they had to have some kind of relations if you believe you will see them in Heaven together while referring to them as your Father and Mother.

By: King James on November 8, 2007 at 9:15 am

Reply

Hence them being your "Heavenly Father", Heaven Mother" and overall "Heavenly Parents". Making her a BRIDE at some point and since you see him as Christ, well I guess she would be the bride of Christ, according to your beliefs. Would be gross to know that a MERE BABY will hook up with some old dude in Heaven but yet, you reject and ignore that they were together on Earth, according to your belief of course.

No sense what so ever.

- James

James,

By: Lizzie on November

I see you don't understand the Spiritual you see only with your physical eyes. May God have pity on you.

8, 2007
at 9:43 am

Reply

Thanks for not answering my question. You all want people to believe the impossible (ie: Mother being Omniscient) but when people ask for the impossible to be done (ie: Mother proving that she knows all), you accuse the people of being ignorant or "spiritually blind".

By: King James on
November 8, 2007
at 10:11 am

Reply

You all say she is a god, yet, you nor she can't prove it because you all want to use the same old scripture that "god will not come to work miracles but to bring salvation". Then you want to give her credit for working miracles in people's lives. You are all confused.

Get real, Lizzie.

- James

LOL Lizzie you know what? You answer just like a Muslim when cornered by a question they can't answer! You don't answer, but instead engage in ad hominem attacks. You don't debate past the initial, shallow point, but only post verses from the holy book you subscribe to without explanation AS IF that were a good argument in itself. Haven't you been educated in how to write a proper argument?

By: Jamie on
November 8, 2007
at 2:57 pm

Reply

I dismiss everything that you've said because you're just like all those under Satan's control but who don't know it. Pretty soon you'll start engaging in more and more ad hominem attacks and insults.

LOL. COG WMS's tactics for answering tough questions is so similar to Muslims'.

Jamie,

By: King James on
November 8, 2007
at 10:47 pm

Apparently you are spiritually blind as well. You are more religious than I am and you too see that it's BS. Something must be wrong.

Reply

Lizzie said how would I know if he was persecuted or not because there are no marks on his skin. Well, I will be honest, I don't know whether this dude was beaten down, punched in the face, smacked upside the head, kicked, spat on, or have any other unjust actions against him.

But, if those things did happen, the only thing to give reason would be that he was calling himself God. Throughout history and even in this era, anyone calling themselves God will automatically receive harsh reactions and will be put to the test by tons of people.

I mean look at how people treated women who were accused of being witches or look at the treatment in this era at people who refer to themselves as witches.

Ahnsahnghong persecuted? By whom?

Why does so many people or men I should say, who call themselves "Jesus returned" have body guards and 24 hour security?

or

Why does so many men who call themselves god or Jesus never travel around the world announcing that they are God or Jesus?

or

Only reveal themselves AFTER people are recruited into their church/cult after they have accepted their doctrine.

Not one of these people who claim to be divine proved without a doubt that they are who they say they are to nonbelievers alike. A lot of people believe in miracles and believe that it is their god who is working those miracles, such as a child falling 5 stories from a window and surviving. When it comes to the COG, Mother Jerusalem or Ahnsahnghong should be thanked for that miracle but when someone (like me) debates with a COG member and ask for some kind of evidence that Mother J or Ahn are the ones working these miracles and making things happen, not only in MY life but other people's lives, then we are told that they were not sent here to work miracles OR how it is not prophesied for them to work miracles or some other BS excuse.

I would really want Mother Jerusalem to read my mind, if she is indeed Omniscient. I wish that I could meet her in person, would be very interesting.

- James

YOU PEOPLE ARE ALL UNDER A CURSE. MAY GOD OPEN YOUR EYES ONE DAY, SO THAT YOU CAN SEE THE TRUTH. IT'S SO SAD TO SEE HOW PEOPLE REJECT THE WORD OF GOD. YOU TALK ABOUT THINGS YOU DONOT KNOW OR EVEN UNDERSTAND. LOOK AT YOURSELVES. YOU ACCUSE US OF BEING A CULT, NOT HAVING TRUTH. BUT YOU, YOURSELVES DON'T HAVE THE TRUTH OR EVEN TEACH THE TRUTH.

YOU NEITHER GET SALVATION AND NOR LET OTHERS GET SALVATION. I TELL YOU SOMETHING IF YOU LOVE YOURSELVES AT LEAST A SMALL BIT. THEN DON'T DO THIS. JUST DON'T BELIEVE AND DON'T FOLLOW IF YOU DON'T WANT TO. BUT DON'T BLASPHEME GOD BECAUSE GOD KNOWS EVERYTHING AND WILL PAY TO EVERYONE ACCORDING TO WHAT THEY HAVE DONE.

VERY FEW PEOPLE ACCEPTED CHRIST 2000 YEARS AGO.

By: Child of God on November 9, 2007
at 2:35 am

Reply

IT'S NOT SURPRISING THEN THAT EVEN TODAY 2000 YEARS LATER THE SAME THING HAPPENS.

AT THAT TIME GOD WAS NOT CONCERN ABOUT THOSE WHO DIDN'T LISTEN. INSTEAD HE WAS CONCERN ABOUT THOSE WHO DID LISTEN AND HE TOOK THEM TO HEAVEN.

IT IS THE SAME NOW GOD IS NOT CONCERN ABOUT YOU. INSTEAD GOD IS CONCERN ABOUT THOSE PEOPLE WHO TRULLY WANT TO RECEIVE SALVATION.

WE DON'T NEED TO MAKE THE WHOLE WORLD BELIEVE IN US. WE'RE ONLY WAITING FOR THAT DAY WHEN EVERYTHING IS REVEALED TO THE WHOLE WORLD. THAT DAY WILL COME AND YOU ALL WILL REALIZE WHAT YOU'VE BEEN DOING, ONLY THAT ON THAT DAY IS ALREADY TOO LATE.

MAY GOD NOT BE SO HARD ON YOU ON THAT DAY OF FIRE.

I THINK YOU DON'T BELIEVE IN ANYTHING NOT EVEN IN YOURSELVES. THIS WAY I DON'T WASTE TIME SHOWING YOU VERSES BECAUSE I KNOW YOU DON'T BELIEVE IN GOD. I ONLY WRITE THIS SO THAT PEOPLE WHO TRULLY BELIEVE IN GOD MAY READ THIS AND WAKE UP FROM THEIR SLEEP. SO THEY MAY REALIZE THAT YOU ARE DOING THE THINGS YOUR MASTER AND FATHER SATAN LIKES.

THAT'S ALL
SEE YOU ON JUDGEMENT DAY.

Why, "Child of God", when you say:

By: Jamie on November 9, 2007
at 5:50 am

I ONLY WRITE THIS SO THAT PEOPLE WHO TRULLY BELIEVE IN GOD MAY READ THIS AND WAKE UP FROM THEIR SLEEP. SO THEY MAY REALIZE THAT YOU ARE DOING THE THINGS YOUR MASTER AND FATHER SATAN LIKES.

Reply

Are you referring to yourself? You should put your name as "Child of Satan" rather than "Child of God". Or not, because it reveals your character as a liar like Satan is.

Please lah. Get a clue. You don't even know the heart of God and you accuse me of not believing anything? Since when did God EVER say that He was not concerned about those who did not listen? Are you sure you follow the same God who is in the bible?

You liar! Don't you know that God has ALWAYS been concerned about EVERYONE He has created? Otherwise, why would be state so clearly in the bible that He desires all men to be saved? (1 Tim 2: 3-4 and 2 Peter 3: 9) Fool! Wasn't God the one who did things again and again to get the Israelites to listen to Him EVEN WHEN THEY DID NOT LISTEN TO HIM TIME AND TIME AGAIN?

You are a liar who doesn't even know the Word of God. Get lost, you pretender, go back to your master the prince of lies.

YES, GOD IS NOT CONCERNED ABOUT HIS

By: CHILD OF GOD

ENEMIES WHO PREACH ANOTHER GOSPEL OR MAN MADE DOCTRINES, YOUR BEHIND JAMIE, YOU DONT KNOW WHAT YOUR SAYING

on September 20, 2010
at 9:40 am

Reply

Luke 10

8"When you enter a town and are welcomed, eat what is set before you. 9Heal the sick who are there and tell them, 'The kingdom of God is near you.' 10But when you enter a town and are not welcomed, go into its streets and say, 11'Even the dust of your town that sticks to our feet we wipe off against you. Yet be sure of this: The kingdom of God is near.'
12I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

By: Lizzie Lamb in Zion on November 9, 2007
at 7:35 am

Reply

Hosea 4:6

my people are destroyed from lack of knowledge. "Because you have rejected knowledge, I also reject you as my priests; because you have ignored the law of your God, I also will ignore your children.

By: Lizzie Lamb in Zion on November 9, 2007
at 12:32 pm

Reply

King James 1:1

Who persecuted Ahnsahnghong and for what reason would they persecute someone that never claimed to be God?

By: King James on November 10, 2007
at 12:27 pm

Reply

Well James

Sorry but I wont be around to answer your PERSECUTION question because as you may know we at the Church of God keep the Sabbath Day holy and this weekend is a long weekend (Veterans Day)& I wont be back till maybe Tuesday Evening EST!

Hope you come to terms with God soon!

God Bless You

~~Lizz

By: Lizzie Lamb in Zion on November 10,
2007
at 2:19 pm

Reply

Persecution question? You guys have yet to experience persecution, Lizzie. Having people question your beliefs is far from persecution. I think it's called difference in opinion due to lack of evidence and information being withheld on purpose.

By: King James on November 11, 2007
at 8:12 am

Reply

Have a good weekend.

- James

Here's something for you to be aware of and to remember, Lizzie.

By: King James on November 11, 2007

at 3:59 pm

Persecution:

Reply

Persecution is the systematic mistreatment of an individual/group by another group. The most common forms are religious persecution, ethnic persecution, and political persecution, though there is naturally some overlap between these terms. The act of killing an offender of the law.

Have you been mistreated, Lizzie?

Has anyone tried to physically harm you or take your life because of who you are or your belief?

Have you been a slave?

How about suffered through the holocaust?

What you people consider persecution is not persecution on any level.

- James

James,
I will use your own words...

Persecution:

Persecution is the systematic mistreatment of an individual/group by another group.

By: Lizzie Lamb in Zion on November 12, 2007
at 11:26 am

Reply

Mistreatment: to treat badly or abuse

Abuse:
a corrupt practice or custom; language that condemns or vilifies usually unjustly, intemperately, and angrily.

CORRECT ME IF I AM WRONG JAMES BUT ISN'T THAT WHAT YOU ARE DOING TO US COG MEMBERS????

Actually no, you are wrong. So I will correct you. If that is the case and if I am "mistreating" you by stating my opinion, then Lizzie, you are no different from me. How you ask? Because you have a difference in opinion when it comes to someone else beliefs.

By: King James on November 12, 2007
at 3:09 pm

Reply

Just because you feel what you believe to be true doesn't make what I believe any less, or anyone else for that matter.

So if I am "persecuting" you, then you are persecuting ME and everyone else that do not share the same beliefs as you. I guess we are all in the same boat then, Lizzie.

Where exactly is the verbal abuse or even physical abuse? If anything, you or anyone else calling someone a "Child of Satan" or saying that I am "not of God" is no different. If that is what you call "abuse" and "persecution" then you are swimming in it, baby.

As I said before Lizzie, you are far from being persecuted on any level. Getting ignored in shopping malls is not persecution because if it is, then everyone on this planet is getting persecuted.

When a telemarketer calls someone and the person hangs up on them, that should be considered persecution.

When someone disagrees with another person and states their opinion on how they feel President Bush is a screw-up, well that too should be considered persecuting President Bush.

I can come up with more examples but I don't see any reason to. If that is your idea of persecution then everyone on this planet with a different spiritual belief or lifestyle is being persecuted one way or another because there will always be a handful of people who do not agree and will say they are wrong for believing what they do or living the way they are....simple as that.

However, when the person gets beat up, burned to death, killed unjustly for their personal belief and lifestyle that is not effecting anyone else PERSONALLY, and because other people do not agree, then you should consider that to be REAL persecution.

There's no such thing as "persecution questions". If you can not answer them, then say so. Apparently, you find the questions offensive because you can not answer them, which will seem as though I am attacking you.

- James

My younger brother has been with the COG for about a year now, and for the last several months he's been going to Arizona to preach. I recently spoke to him and found out his "Deacon's" name, Hector Flores and the other is Leo (? last?). I read your message where you said these people came to you house.

By: Spencer on January 5, 2008 at 2:54 am

Reply

<http://ahnsahnghong.tripod.com/>

Please save them from this ahnsahnghong cult.

To Jessie,

About a month ago, I received a phone call from one of the missionaries that spoke at me last year. They said that they had founded a church in Arizona and wanted me to come to their meetings. They asked me if I had done any research into their religion

By: Chad on January 26, 2008 at 2:32 pm

Reply

and I told them that I had. They asked me what I thought about it and I told them that in my opinion, it is a cult religion. They didn't seem surprised and abruptly ended our conversation.

Jessie, I'm sorry I didn't check this site sooner, I could have gotten some contact info from you and helped you find your brother. If it makes any difference I'll try to do some research and find out where this place is located. In the case that you have lost contact with your brother I'll ask them if they know where he is and what's his status.

My family is in Louisiana too and I know how hard it is being separated from them.

By the way, King James

Keep it up and enlighten these guys! Your doing a great job.

By: Chad on January 26, 2008 at 2:53 pm

Reply

Hello all... Does anyone know if this new church in AZ is located in Tempe? I believe they are in my office complex. They are very nice people and have never said anything to me other than good morning, good afternoon, etc. I am Christian and don't believe as they do, but I am not going to talk down on or to them because of that. I believe as Christians it is not our place to judge but to pray for and maybe witness to those that haven't accepted Jesus Christ as their savior.

By: Curious on January 29, 2008 at 5:29 am

Reply

-God Bless you all...

We have to pay attention on the Bible. Bible testifies about the savior, Christ. Church of God follows all law of God. Rev 22:17 The Spirit and The Bride give us the water of life together.

By: returnedangel on March 18, 2008 at 4:30 pm

Only Father God can't give you eternal life, never. Just like you need your physical mother to get physical life, So you need spiritual mother to get spiritual life.

Reply

And

Rev21:9

Who is the lamb?

Revelation was written after first coming Jesus' ascension, So this indicates Second Coming Christ.

Here, The Bride is Heavenly Jerusalem.

Gal 4:26

Heavenly Jerusalem is our Mother.

Look at the Bible, without your prejudice about God.

Do you know Trinity?

God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit is One God.

So If you study the Bible, you can realize Christ Ahnsahng Hong is not differ with Christ Jesus.

Study, Study, Bible.

<http://usa.watv.org>

Hi

See a few coments on catholics, especially our position on Mary. I thought I would clear it up. The Church does not worship Mary. At all.

Never. There is reverence, honour, repect, and communication. She is not God, does not save souls on her own account, nor does she claim to. The church doctrine is reasonably clear on this.

By: Bruce on March 25, 2008
at 5:52 pm

Reply

Yes, people pray to her. This is not worship in itself. Pray is comunication. What you say during prayer decides if you are worshipping, talking, or insulting God. If your were in pray saying, 'Yuk, I hate you – I want no part of your heaven' This would not constitute worship. So prayer is a means to worship – depending on what you have to say.

Jesus taught us the easiest prayer to say, the Our Father. Simple, complete, covers everything and is to the point. You cant go wrong using it.

As to asking Mary, and other saints to help us in our lives, and to pray for us – I have no problem with that. It feels to me, no different from asking a Pastor, or Preacher to pray for me, and give me advice.

I love the dialogue between you guys on this religion, Word of God etc. I have seen others like it. First they attack the established churches, take a point of difference from selected scriptures, and hammer on regardless of the truth thrown at them.

I cannot see that two thousand years of considered, educated study by the various christian churches, should be tossed aside because a newbe on the block thinks he has the lastest angle on Christ.

Jesus was the last sacrifice, the last offering for the forgiveness of sins. He will allow a way for God Almighty to be reconciled with his creation for all time. Considered, educated, inspired people, down through the centuries have looked at every scripture, considered every angle, and heard every interpretation. The collective wisdom of all the christian churches have settled on a couple of points that, for them, go without saying. Jesus, the son of God, will come again in all his glory. No one will doubt his arrival.

No sneaking around in South Korea, no going over the same old ground. In all his glory – for all to see.

And, as for Mrs God ?- don't make me laugh.

Hi everyne,

mmm... I'm a new member of Church of God Singapore... I have got baptized for a month..
DID I MAKE A BIG MISTAKE ?

By: nijuroku on March 25, 2008
at 11:34 pm

Reply

As a student, this is my first time to jump down in religion so deep... Ya, firstly I really sure about this religion.. but after I read all the post here from top till the end actually not all lol... I'm getting confused... really really confused... Is this church good? Is it the only church which can take us to Kingdom of Heaven?

Everyweek I go to church study about Bible. All their teachings are from Bible. I know Bible is all true.. But did they really teach the truth? If yes, why all the people arguing? They teach according to Bible and we trust Bible. So we should trust them..

Their teachings about mother, pope, 666, 4 beast, 3 period, newcovenant, the earth, melchizedek, etc... all really makesense... If I have a question, they will give the proof from the bible... about AhnShangHong... Honestly I don't really believe... Why should we call him the second coming Jesus? Should we forget about Jesus? Can't we pray in name of Jesus? all confusing me...

Ya, I know internet can't be trusted 100%, but after I read a lot of sharings up there... I think those are the facts... No one told that they are happy.. all like my children are taken by that church, my husband left the family and go to church, and all other bad things... why this church give the bad thing to its member? is the CoG really bad?

I think all members usually I called bro and sis... all of them are really kind.. How can we conclude that the CoG is a bad church? Never I want to leave this church because I think it is the true church of all churches... but, I think now I should make a research deeply for this church... I'm afraid I will not take care of my family again because of this church...

I don't know whether I should go to this church again or just leave it... any suggestion pals?

Thank you before... GBU ^ ^

Not a Special One,

nijuroku

one more thing, did Jesus really God or Son of God? Is there any heavenly Mother? need your suggestion immediately.. I don't want waste my life in the wrong way... anyone please!!!

By: nijuroku on March 26, 2008 at 2:25 am

Reply

Hi nijuroku,

By: Jamie on March 26, 2008 at 9:30 am

I am also in Singapore. Perhaps if you are really feeling distressed, we can arrange some time to meet and I can see what I can do to help you clear things up. It is entirely up to your discretion.

Reply

Personally, I do not believe that what they are teaching is real bible truth. For one thing, they do not go to the original Hebrew and Greek meanings of the words. Thus, what they claim to be references to the Heavenly Mother are misinterpretations.

Also, if the Heavenly Mother were a figure that is as important as God the Father, why is she only mentioned in obscure, potentially misleading verses? Why doesn't God the Father come outright to say 'There is a God the Mother'? And why doesn't the mother speak for herself?

All these are questions that have yet to be answered properly by members of the CoG.

CoG Singapore may not be responsible for breaking families up and brainwashing like other chapters might be doing, but I know for sure that Jesus Christ never said he had a heavenly Mother, and that is His witness to my spirit as well.

Let me know and we can arrange contact.

Hi Jamie,

By: nijuroku on March 26, 2008 at 1:25 pm

Actually I'm a student, so maybe this Saturday or Sunday i have time... but I'm not sure about the time and place... about this Saturday I dont know whether I should go to CoG or not.. all the members seems so kind to me... confused
Oh ya here is my email hardy_jefry@hotmail.com

Reply

yah really I need more information to decide this problem...

Thank you Jamie,

nijuroku

Bruce,

By: Dark Angel on March 26, 2008 at 2:22 pm well put.

Reply

I know I am very scared about this Church of God. My son joined a couple of years ago and we have been drifting apart ever since. When he got married in the church last year the state said they were not recognized as a church and they still had to go to the Justice of the peace to make it legal. He is planning a trip to Korea in the next few weeks with his wife but they are leaving their 11 month old son here . I really am worried that they won't come back. All I ever hear from him is destruction is near and I better watch out. By the way I am a Catholic so they put us down all the time. If anyone can help me with some way to reach him I am all ears. Thanks so much.

By: Diane on April 1, 2008 at 3:45 am

Reply

Hi Diane. I don't know how to help get your

By: Bruce on April 4,

son back. Best you can do is stand your ground, refuse to be belittled, and speak the truth. The truth will win out eventually. Speak it with conviction. Be the life line should he call. Sometimes people see through the lies and seek their way home. If he goes to Korea, he may see just how absurd the whole thing is. Don't forget to pray for him.

2008
at 5:50 pm

Reply

Bruce you are very encouraging and very patient man. Thanks a lot Unfortunately my bro has now become a deacon after his divorce and probably already married a korean. Though we have been praying too hard but nothing gonna change his mind as he even stated that even if you put a gun at my head I shall not deny this truth. nObody would even want to even do that to them coz sensible people know its the bullshit they beleive. Just by speaking about their false doctrine they call it being persecuted. I wish they actually knew what is persecution. They work in secret like their dead korean Jesus and target on the poor souls till he/she is totally sucked in.

By: Bertha on April 8, 2008
at 7:32 pm

Reply

My Ex got involved last June. We have a daughter that he got involved when he was with her, but I put a stop to that a few months ago. He has been continuing to preach to her to the point where I had to ask him to leave last Wednesday. He is supposed to see her again this Wednesday and I just found out that he is on Korea. He left last Sunday. What is going on? He doesn't even have a job to pay for such a trip.

By: scarletfire on April 9, 2008
at 5:25 am

Reply

Does anyone know where I can find ex-members who know what we are dealing with? It seems like information is pretty scarce online. There is also anti – COG info. that now seems to be missing. This whole seem seems like some alternate reality. This just can't be happening!

By: scarletfire on April 9, 2008
at 11:43 pm

Reply

Well Scarlet I know how it feels. The info on the net is scarce is because the church is now using hackers to destroy the websites created to cause awareness of this false church.

By: Bertha on April 10, 2008
at 1:31 pm

As for making a trip to korea is a must just to give Mother goddess a hug. Apparently she seems to be having a good time.

The point is how they can afford a trip out there as far as I know the cash is put in by all the members of that church and even to the extent of lending a suit and veils if required for a female etc The food and accomodation is ofcourse free. This sort of creates a great impression on their mind as to how loving and kind are their spiritual brothers.

Now if you son does pretty well he may even be tempted or asked for a second trip to get trained as a Deacon. Ultimately they think of marrying within the cult group and so we are no more considered to be their family.

Reply

They lie a lot and this church is indeed breaking homes.

We must study the Bible to judge one church and doctrine is true or not.
Some People only insist sometimes without any concrete reason.

They don't use the Bible.

But We have to pay attention on only the bible.
Because Bible testifies about Christ, Savior.

By: returnedangel on April 11, 2008
at 6:37 pm

Reply

Christ Ahnsahnghong and Heavenly Mother is really our God, Heavenly Parents.
How I can insist this surely?
I studied the Bible and can find out Savior.
God foretold us the prophecy of them and we have to find out and study.

The Bible clearly shows us there are two God.
God the Father and God the Mother now calling us to save us.

Liars and hypocrites! It is YOU who do not study the bible, but you create false teachings to glorify a fleshly, earthly woman. Liars! You would do well to ask for repentance for leading people into deception.

By: Jamie on April 12, 2008
at 1:07 am

Reply

You twist the scriptures to fit into your warped theology, and you tear apart families who love God with your demonic doctrines.

Idol worshippers! How dare you claim that we need to study the bible when you blind ones cannot see that your teachings go against the entirety of God's Word! Truly it is as the bible says: There shall be many false teachers.

The bible tells us that we are saved in the name of Jesus, but you blind ones insist on praying to Ang Sanh Hong. God never said that we would be saved in the new name of Jesus, but only in the name of Jesus. Fools and blind! How dare you corrupt believers with your wicked teachings!

Begone! I will not tolerate any more of your roundabout answering. You are like your father the devil, the accuser, for you accuse us of things that are not true and drag people into hell where you are headed. You neither answer questions nor refute claims, only insist that questioners "study the bible". Proudful hypocrites! What makes you assume that we have never studied the bible? I tell you, some have studied the bible more than you will ever study it!

Repent from your false doctrine, for the fires of hell await you.

whoa.
returnedangel, i am not going to debate the

By: scarletfire on April 12, 2008

bible with you, it is very clear to me, but want you to think about the affect this "church" is having on families. all of the repercussions it is having on people around the world. this and all of the secrecy of everything that has happened since my ex got involved in june shows me that something is seriously wrong with this.

at 1:53 am

Reply

thank you for your insight berthia.

By: scarletfire on April 12, 2008

at 1:56 am

Reply

To those who don't understand about the "white stone with a new name", here's the study from the Bible. God bless you all.

By: brofromzion on

April 12, 2008

at 4:10 am

The Savior of Each Age and the New Name
Father Ahnsahnghong
World Mission Society Church of God

Reply

For our salvation, God divided six thousand years into three ages: the age of the Father, the age of the Son, and the age of the Holy Spirit, and He allowed a different Savior's name for each of these ages—the name of Jehovah in the age of the Father, the name Jesus in the age of the Son, and the name Ahnsahnghong in the age of the Holy Spirit.

Now we are living during the last age of the Holy Spirit. Thus, God has been administrating His plan of salvation, using the new Savior's name, the name of the Holy Spirit —Ahnsahnghong. Salvation is only given to those who believe in the name of the Savior that God has allowed to the people living in that particular age. Because we are now living in the age of the Holy Spirit, we must receive the Holy Spirit, Ahnsahnghong, as the Savior of this age.

Eccl. 3:1, KJV To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven...

In this world, everyone has a certain goal and purpose for their lives. Likewise, we should set a certain goal for our faith: the salvation of our souls, eternal life.

1 Pet. 1:8-9 Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, for you are receiving the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

In order for His people to receive salvation, God divided six thousand years into three ages, and allowed a different Savior's name for each age.

Matt. 28:19 "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

As is commonly known, the name of the Father is “Jehovah,” and the name of the Son is “Jesus.” Baptism is the first step that we can take towards becoming a child of God, and to be baptized correctly, we must first know the name of the Father, the name of the Son, and the name of the Holy Spirit.

The most important aspect of our salvation is to know, and to receive, the name of the Savior. During the age of the Father, God granted salvation to those who believed in the name of Jehovah.

Isa. 43:11 I, even I, am the LORD, and apart from me there is no savior.

In the age of the Father, salvation was dependent upon knowing and accepting the name of Jehovah. Therefore, salvation was not given to those living in the age of the Father, who either didn't know, or who refused to accept, the name of Jehovah.

When the age of the Father ended and the age of the Son began, Jehovah came in the flesh, using the name “Jesus,” as had been prophesied (Isa. 9:6-7).

The Bible states that in the age of the Father there was no Savior apart from Jehovah, and that in the age of the Son there was no Savior apart from Jesus.

Acts 4:11-12 “He is ‘the stone you builders rejected, which has become the capstone.’ Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved.”

When God gave the names of Jehovah and Jesus to the people, He did not explain that each of these Savior's names would only be used for a specific time period or age. Thus, many people have become confused, believing that the Bible contradicts itself.

With a full understanding of the Trinity, however, you will realize that the above verses hold no contradictions. Jesus is in His very nature God (Phil. 2:5), the very God Jehovah who granted salvation during the age of the Father. Since Jesus is, in fact, Jehovah, there is no contradiction between “There is no savior apart from Jehovah,” and, “There is no other name given to men by which we must be saved (apart from the name of Jesus.)”

During each age God allowed a different name of the Savior, and thus, each age also had a specified time frame and limit. In other words, salvation was given to those who had accepted the name of Jehovah in the age of the Father, and once the age changed to the age of the Son, salvation was given to those who pressed on to know and to accept the name of Jesus.

When God gave the name Jesus to the people—the Savior's name in the age of the Son—only those who believed and called upon the name of Jesus Christ were able to receive salvation.

Now we are living in the age of the Holy Spirit. Thus, God has given us a new name of the Savior.

Rev. 3:12 "Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of my God. Never again will he leave it. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on him my new name."

Rev. 2:17 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden manna. I will also give him a white stone with a new name written on it, known only to him who receives it."

A "white stone with a new name written on it" is mentioned in the above verse. In this instance, the stone represents Jesus (1 Pet. 2:4), meaning that a new name other than the name of Jesus would be given to the people of that age.

Just as salvation was withheld from those who were stuck on the name of Jehovah and failed to receive Jesus as their Savior in the age of the Son (Rom. 15:4), salvation will never be given to those who are stuck on the name of Jesus in this age.

Those who had accepted the name of Jehovah for 3,500 years were not able to accept the name of Jesus in the age of the Son. Only the disciples accepted Jesus, the Savior in the age of the Son, who had come as prophesied. The Bible prophesied that there would be a Savior in the age of the Son. Even though Jesus came in fulfillment of all these prophecies, the people insisted on believing in only Jehovah, following their own ideas instead of Bible's prophecy. Where are all of the people who lived in the age of the Son and who refused to accept Jesus as their Savior?

We must consider this matter carefully and break our own fixed ideas, allowing our minds to accept God's thoughts. The Bible testifies that there will undoubtedly be a name for the Savior of the Holy Spirit's age. We need to understand God's providence of salvation—His allowing a different Savior's name for each age—and we need to accept Christ Ahnsahnghong, the Savior's name in this age of the Holy Spirit, Jesus' new name.

Once we come to understand the time limitations of each age, it is very easy for us to understand how each age affected the salvation of God's people. In the age of the Father, people were the witnesses of Jehovah (Isa. 43:10), they prayed in the name of Jehovah, and salvation was promised only through the name of Jehovah (Joel 2:32).

Once the age of the Son had begun, how did the people, who were to receive salvation, act? Did they insist on praying in the name of Jehovah as the witnesses of Jehovah, believing that they could only be saved through the name of Jehovah? Jesus' disciples became the witnesses of Jesus (Acts 1:6), they prayed in the name of Jesus (John 16:24), and they received salvation only by believing the name of Jesus (Rom. 10:9).

Then, in the age of the Holy Spirit, of what name should we become the witnesses, what name should we use when we pray, and what name has the authority to give us salvation?

The name is Ahnsahnghong, Jesus' new name (John 5:39).

Everyone living in this last age of the Holy Spirit! Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Savior of this age! Today, salvation is only given through the name of Christ Ahnsahnghong, and only those who are the witnesses of Christ Ahnsahnghong and pray in His name will be able to enter the kingdom of heaven.

Please believe in Christ Ahnsahnghong, our Savior in the age of the Holy Spirit, so that you may receive eternal life!

"The name is Ahnsahnghong, Jesus' new name (John 5:39). "

By: scarletfire on April 12, 2008 at 9:26 am

What Bible is this in brofromzion?

Are you in contact with all of your family members? Are you still married if you were before you found COG? Have you been to Korea?

Reply

Liar and hypocrite!

By: Jamie on April 12, 2008 at 3:10 pm

There are no miracles in the name of Ang Sanh Hong. No one is healed or delivered in that name, only in the name of JESUS.

Reply

Before that man arrived on earth, God was doing miracles in the name of JESUS. Today, God is STILL doing wonders in the name of JESUS. Ang Sahn Hong's church is a powerless, miracle-lacking church.

That speaks volumes about which is the true name of Jesus.

Ultimately only two questions matter:

By: ramblinrose on April 12, 2008 at 4:11 pm

1. Are AhnSahnghong and Mother Jerusalem God?

Reply

and

2. What led you to believe that AhnSahngHong and Mother Jerusalem were God?

Can someone please answer these questions?

Is this true or not? Could someone help me because I am confused!!

By: ramblinrose on April 12, 2008
at 4:17 pm

Ahn sang-hong (died 1985) founded the World Mission Society Church of God (in Korean,). He was born in South Korea to Buddhist parents.

Reply

According to the Church of God, he joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church in 1947. He renounced Buddhism and was baptized in 1948. He created the World Mission Society Church of God in 1964.

Regarded by his followers as the second coming Christ, Ahn sang-hong is also the author of several books[citation needed], including Visitors from the Angelic World, The Seal of God and the last plagues, etc. Throughout the 35 chapters of one book, The Mystery of God and The Spring of The Water of Life, Ahn sang-hong testifies about the coming of what the church refers to as the "Mother God".[citation needed]

Ahn sang-hong made a number of predictions in his early books, the most prominent two being his 1967 and 1988 predictions for the Second Coming of Christ. The World Mission Society Church of God claims that Ahn sang-hong was the second coming of Jesus, despite his death three years before his prediction of Jesus' return. Those outside the church, familiar with the sect, consider Ahn sang-hong a Heresiarch.[1]

Didn't Ahnsanghong claim that the second coming of christ would be in 1988?

By: ramblinrose on April 12, 2008
at 4:21 pm

Reply

Ahnsanghong in the first place could not make accurate predictions so how can he perform miracles. His name itself does not have power like the name of JESUS CHRIST.

By: Bertha on April 12, 2008
at 6:32 pm

Reply

Now if Jesus was already baptized by John the baptist whay should he be born in a budhist family worship idolds and than renounce that religion by joining SDA which is a cult too. So what was his purpose of coming back again just to bring passover when being with the SDA he knew the cult already had something to promote their religion example using sabbath so he got inspired to bring in passover to start a new business.

Who has been a witness to his death or his ascending into heaven?

Yet people believe in this bullshit and come on this board to fill the crap that has absolutely no meaning.

Only those in the cults and brainwashed will understand about the "white stone with a new name"

Keep waiting fellas for the time when it comes to floating in the clouds to your mother & Father in heaven. for it will never shall be. Have you heard about the doomsday cult in Russia waiting the end times who seem to have been giving up.

May god save your souls. Amen

THIS is a lot of Heady...and not-so heady dialogue here, but I'm not sure certain questions were answered:

By: Jason on April 14, 2008 at 4:31 am

1. What is the proof of Ahnshanhong being the 2nd coming of Christ?

Reply

2. What do the church leaders say about his first two prophecies in 1967 and 1985.

3. What proof exists that Mother Jerusalem is in fact this Mother Jerusalem?

Thanks,
Jason

Wow lot's of assumptious spiritual opinions and earthly facts here not only about my personal life but also Christ Ahnsahng Hong, the One who fulfill all the prophecies of the Second Coming of Jesus Christ according to the Bible. Well, just to tell you all, I'm a very open-minded person so feel free to give your point of views. I hope to learn from all of you. So, here's another proof of the Second Coming Jesus Christ, Ahnsahng Hong:

By: brofromzion on April 14, 2008 at 3:40 pm

Reply

The Parable of the Fig Tree
Father Ahnsahng Hong
World Mission Society Church of God

The Bible prophesied that Jesus would appear a second time (Heb. 9:28). Ahnsahng Hong—whom the Church of God believes in as their Savior—is Jesus who has come a second time, according to the prophecy.

Then, when is Jesus prophesied to come a second time? Why does the Church of God believe that the Second Coming Christ is Ahnsahng Hong?

Through the parable of the fig tree, Jesus revealed that He would come for the second time in 1948, when Israel—represented as the fig tree—would gain its independence. Ahnsahng Hong came in 1948 according to the prophecy of the fig tree, so the Church of God believes in Him as the Second Coming Christ.

Then, does the Bible disclose when Jesus will come?

When the disciples asked about the signs of Jesus' second coming and of the end of the age, Jesus said:

Matt. 24:3-33 "...At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, And all the nations of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory. And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other. Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door."

Since it is written, "As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that it is near," we must come to know the timing of the fig tree and we must receive Jesus when He comes a second time.

First, we must understand what the fig tree represents. As it is written,

Luke 13:6-7 Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree, planted in his vineyard, and he went to look for fruit on it, but did not find any. So he said to the man who took care of the vineyard, 'For three years now I've been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree and haven't found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?'"

What does Jesus' looking for fruit on a fig tree planted in a vineyard, for three years, mean? It means that Jesus preached the gospel to the Israelites for three years, searching for the fruit of the gospel. Therefore, the fig tree stands for Israel.

Through many other Bible verses, let's confirm that the fig tree in the vineyard represents Israel.

Isa. 5:7, KJV For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant.

In the above verse also, the vineyard represents the country Israel, and the plant [the tree] stands for the people of Israel. Let's look at another verse concerning this.

Jer. 24:5 "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Like these good figs, I regard as good the exiles from Judah, whom I sent away from this place to the land of the Babylonians.'"

Since it is written that God regards the exiles from Judah as the good figs, it is clear that the fig tree stands for Israel.

In Luke 13:7, Jesus told His disciples to cut down a fig tree that had not borne any fruit. Just as He had told them, Israel—which rejected the gospel that Jesus had preached for three years—was completely destroyed by Roman soldiers in A.D. 70. Following its collapse, the people of Israel were scattered all over the world, as a stateless people, for about 1,900 years.

After much time had passed, the fig tree—that had been cut and dried up—began to revive. Its twigs got tender and its leaves came out. When did all of this happen? The revival of the fig tree occurred in 1948. On May 14, 1948, Israel proclaimed her independence and recovered her sovereignty. The fig tree, which seemed to have completely died, revived. At that time, Jesus came for a second time, as was prophesied. He was Christ Ahnsahnghong, whom every Christian had been waiting for. The Church of God received Ahnsahnghong, the Second Coming Jesus, as Savior.

Rom. 11:26 And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: "The deliverer will come from Zion; he will turn godlessness away from Jacob."

Ahnsahnghong, the Second Coming Jesus, came from Zion in 1948, as had been prophesied in the parable of the fig tree. Now He is calling you. Will you let Him stand at your door, or will you open the door and receive Him?

We earnestly hope that you will open your door and receive Ahnsahnghong—the Second Coming Jesus—and be given the promise of salvation.

Clearly, this is One of the Many prophecies Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfill for the Second Coming of Jesus Christ. Israel really gain it's independence the same time Christ Ahnsahnghong got baptize and started preaching the true teachings of Jesus Christ: Passover of the New Covenant, Sabbath Day, Veil cover for women, Baptism in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, The Feast of Unleavened Bread, The Feast of Firstfruits, The Feast of Weeks, The Feast of Trumpets, The Day of Atonement, The Feast of Tabernacles, Cross is a heresy, Christmas is not the birthday of Jesus Christ, Thanksgiving Day is a man-made tradition, False Prophets through Jesus Christ Parable of the Weeds and Wheat. There's only one church that keeps all Father's will and commandments. WORLD MISSION SOCIETY CHURCH OF GOD. I've check other churches and they keep more rules taught by men, not from God. There's one thing on saying " I believe in you Jesus Christ as my personal savior than actually following ALL His commandments and His will according to the Bible":

John 14:15 [If you love me, you will obey what I command.]

World Mission Society Church of God follows ALL God's commandments and will so that makes them the true church according to the Bible. Other churches only keeps man-made traditions: Sunday as their day of rest, Communion as Jesus body and blood which is from the Catholic celebrated by most Christians whenever they want, Christmas as Jesus Christ birthday. God bless you all.

Those approved by God
Father Ahnsahngong
World Mission Society Church of God

By: brofromzion on April 14, 2008
at 3:47 pm

People in the world live in their own way of life, with their own opinions. Some say this is right, and others that is true. In political circles, the government party and opposition parties are pitted against each other in divided opinions. And sometimes people take a stand against their neighbors, raising their voices. And even husband and wife quarrel with each other because of their different way of life.

Reply

If each of them claims to be right, who will tell right from wrong? Judging from the Bible, it is only God who can finally distinguish between right and wrong. So, there is the Last Judgment in the Bible.

Now, children of Zion are streaming to Jerusalem. At Jesus' first coming, the apostles, who proclaimed the truth, were persecuted; and the Early Church—the Church of God—was slandered. It is the same now. This time, let's think who is approved by God through the Bible.

A man approved by a fortune-teller

There was a man named Beommungong during the Song Dynasty in China. When young, he visited a fortune-teller and asked him about his future. "Will I make the prime minister?" The fortune-teller gazed intently at his face and told him that he wouldn't be able to be the prime minister. Then he asked the fortune-teller whether he would be a doctor.

Since a doctor was regarded as mean in those days, the fortune-teller looked at him dubiously and asked back why he would change his job from the prime minister to a doctor that was not recognized.

"I thought I would be able to relieve the people from misery if I became the prime minister. But you said I was not qualified for it. So I came to think I would be of some help to the people as a doctor by looking after the patient suffering pain. That's why I asked you if I would be able to be a doctor."

Then the fortune-teller slapped his knee and took back his words, saying that he would be able to be the prime minister. This time, Beommungong looked dubious and demanded an explanation of it, "Why do you reverse your former prediction? Once you said I would not be able to be the prime minister and now you say I will be. Your prediction is unconvincing."

Then the fortune-teller said, "There are several factors deciding one's fate. The most important one is mind. According to your star, you are not fated to be the prime minister. But judging from your mentality, you are eligible for it. At first I was not far-sighted enough to search your mind. You will surely be the prime minister."

'People who know righteousness' approved by God

Beommungong was approved by the fortune-teller, who read his mind, to be suitable for the prime minister. How about us? By whom should we be approved?

Isa. 51:4-8 "Listen to me, my people; hear me, my nation: The law will go out from me; my justice will become a light to the nations. My righteousness draws near speedily, my salvation is on the way, and my arm will bring justice to the nations ... Hear me, you who know what is right (righteousness, KJV), you people who have my law in your hearts: Do not fear the reproach of men or be terrified by their insults. For the moth will eat them up like a garment; the worm will devour them like wool. But my righteousness will last forever, my salvation through all generations."

'You who know righteousness,' 'you people who have my [God's] law in your hearts'—who are they? They are the people in Zion where God established the law of the new covenant. They are we ourselves. God, the Judge of all, has approved us. How trustworthy and authentic!

We are approved not by a mere fortune-teller to be the prime minister in a country, but by God to be a royal priesthood who will live forever in the kingdom of heaven. But those approved by God are to be slandered by those who are not approved by Him.

The righteousness are slandered by the wicked

As for the righteous of the world, they are not approved by all. Confucius of ancient China gave a definition of a great man. One day, Zigong a pupil of Confucius asked him, "Teacher, who is a great man? If the whole village speaks well of a man, is he great?" Then Confucius shook his head and said: "No. If a man is approved by the respectable, he must be a great man.

But if he is approved by the wicked, he cannot be regarded as great. So, if the whole village speaks well of a person, he may not be worthy." Zigong asked him again, "Then, who is a great man? Confucius answered: "He who is approved by the respectable but disapproved by the wicked is really a great man." It would seem that the great were reproached by the wicked in the time of Confucius, too.

So God said to us, "Do not fear the reproach of men or be terrified by their insults." If the wicked speak ill of us, undoubtedly we are the righteous. None of the righteous speak ill of us. The great God, beautiful angels and our forefathers of great faith—all the righteous commend us for keeping the new covenant and preaching with zeal. But the wicked always slander us by telling all kinds of lies. Viewed in this light, what Confucius said is somewhat worthy of note. He said: A great person is approved by the respectable but disapproved by the wicked. Undoubtedly this word applies to the brothers and sisters in Zion.

Truth is approved by God, but rejected by men

Let's constantly consider who is approved by God.

2 Cor. 10:14-18 ... For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends.

Ps. 1:1-6 Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers. But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers. Not so the wicked! They are like chaff that the wind blows away. Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous. For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

We ought to be approved by God. It is only the people in Zion who are commended by God. The wicked commend those taking part in wicked deeds with them, not those doing what is right. They approve and commend false doctrines and the churches following them. So those who do what is right and walk in the paths of righteousness are always checked by the wicked.

Throughout the 66 books of the Bible, no record says that the truth is approved by all men. It has been maligned by the wicked. When Nehemiah built the temple by the will of God, the wicked men like Tobiah and Sanballat troubled him. Some joined in building the temple and rejoiced over it. But the wicked continuously kept them from building the wall of the temple so that it might not reach its height.

It was the same with Jesus who came into this earth 2,000 years ago. The righteous people including His disciples and Nicodemus and Joseph of Arimathea were all astonished at Jesus' teaching and really wanted to follow Him. But the chief priests and the teachers of the law and the Pharisees, whom Jesus scolded for their wickedness, saying, "Woe to you"—they all rejected and reproached Jesus. They slandered Him, saying, "He is inciting the people to rebellion." And they attempted even to kill Jesus by stoning Him, saying, "... because you, a mere man, claim to be God" (John 10:33).

The saints of the Early Church suffered the same thing. They were persecuted and troubled; they were maligned by the wicked. But in the sight of God and of the spirits of the righteous, they were great and worthy. Neither in the Early Church nor in the days of Noah and Abraham did it occur that the righteous were commended by the wicked. Thus, Biblical history shows us that the truth is to be approved by God but slandered by the wicked.

God told us not to fear the reproach of men or be terrified by their insults. For the reproach is from the wicked, not from God. We are approved by God and the spirits of the righteous but reproached by the wicked. This is an evidence that we have all the qualifications for the great and the righteous and that we follow the way of truth. God watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish—this is God's will.

'Ministers of the new covenant' approved by God

Who approves us? That is important. Those approved by God are in Zion the city of God's appointed feasts; they follow the Lamb wherever He goes and become united with each other and take delight in doing the will of God.

2 Tim. 2:15 Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a workman who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth.

We are approved and called by God to be His workers.

2 Cor. 3:5-6 Not that we are competent in ourselves to claim anything for ourselves, but our competence comes from God. He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant—not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

Now, we are keeping and proclaiming the decrees and laws of the new covenant. Those approved by God are the ministers of the new covenant. Most of today's churches do not keep the new covenant. They are far from God's decrees and laws; they call, 'Lord, Lord,' but they deny Him by their actions.

They are against the truth, just as the Pharisees and the teachers of the law were against Jesus 2,000 years ago, saying, "You, a mere man, claim to be God," "He is a ringleader of the Nazarene sect." We don't need to fear the reproach of those without God's approval or be terrified by their insults. Though they regard us as heretics, God approves us. Jesus and the apostles who followed Him—they all entered the kingdom of heaven. What is important is God's approval, not men's.

When we understand that, we can walk in the way of faith with joy. We are greatly blessed, for God has approved us but the wicked speak ill of us.

The new covenant is the testimony of God

God shows us what His testimony is as follows:

1 John 5:9-13 We accept man's testimony, but God's testimony is greater because it is the testimony of God, which he has given about his Son. Anyone who believes in the Son of God has this testimony in his heart. ... And this is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life. ...

God has said that when we have Jesus in us, we have eternal life. And He has showed us the way to remain in Jesus.

John 6:53-57 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me."

Jesus has promised that His flesh is the Passover bread and His blood the Passover wine. So, if anyone does not eat the Passover bread and drink its wine, though he claims to be a Christian, he cannot be approved by God (Matt. 7:21-23). Christian faith is the belief in God's promise. Jesus has promised that He will give eternal life to those who celebrate the Passover of the new covenant, and that He will remain in them. So, no one can have Jesus in him unless he celebrates the Passover. From this, we can see that God approves those who keep the new covenant—the saints of the Church of God.

Those who are redeemed from the earth in the last days are the people who are with the Lamb in Zion, the city of God's appointed feasts. They are the saints who obey God's commandments and remain faithful to Jesus (Rev. 14:1-3, 12). God approves and saves them.

God's word is the criterion of everything

We should judge everything on the basis of God's word, not the wicked's.

When there are divided opinions at home, or when we confer with our brothers and sisters on a matter to make a decision in Zion, we must make God's word become the criterion for such a matter and settle it according to God's will.

Then it will surely bring us a good result. For God leads us in His truth and teaches us, so that we may have all the good—eternal life, everlasting joy, peace, Putting aside our thoughts, let's follow God's teachings and make only God's word become the criterion for distinguishing between truth and falsehood.

A man who is approved by the righteous but slandered by the wicked—he is really a righteous person. Taking this fact to heart, let's always pay attention to God's word and judgment; let's follow the truth only, not minding what the wicked say about us. There are still many souls not knowing the truth. Let's all pull together to lead them to Zion by making them distinguish truth from falsehood.

I think that this post is never true.
Because my mother had gone to Church of God before 2 years. And she became always HAPPY and had a good mind.

By: cham on April 14, 2008
at 11:11 pm

So I also went to Church of God with my mother before 1 year.

So I feel that members of Church of God are very nice and good example for many people.

And they also follow teaching of True God.

Reply

In August, 2004, The Mother of the Church of God was awarded a medal by president Roh Moo-hyun and dozens of pastors were also granted medals from various groups, which show that the Korean government gave the church of God credit for its achievement.

By: EMPIEZA on April 14, 2008 at 11:17 pm

Reply

This is the second official acknowledgement given to the Church of God, following a 2003 presidential award granted to Kim Joo-cheol, the chief pastor of the Church of God by then president Kim Dae-jung.

If the Church of God is the heresy, how can these things possible?

Is it possible that Government give Citation from President to the heresy?

Certainly Not.

In fact, the Church of God is famous for its active volunteer activities.

-Supplying of free meals at the Deagu subway tragedy for 55days

-Volunteer service for typhoon-damaged area

-Volunteer service for the heavy snow-damaged area(and so on.)

There are so many volunteer activities.

The church of God actively engaged in volunteer activities and served its role as supporters, spreading the love of Christ and Korea's affectionate image all across the world.

Do you know that Church of God received many awards in Korea?

By: Ann on April 14, 2008 at 11:39 pm

The good deeds of the Church of God have set examples for society. In recognition of their devotional volunteer activities, the Church of God has received many letters of appreciation from home and abroad including various medals and the Korean Presidential Citation Award.

Reply

If the Church of God is cult,
Church of God can not receive the Korean Presidential Citation Award.
Isn't it right?

Church of God follow only the teachings of Christ.
And Church of God spread the love of God to the whole world.

"Putting aside our thoughts, let's follow God's teachings and make only God's word become the criterion for distinguishing between truth and falsehood."

By: scarletfire on April 15, 2008 at 3:35 am

Reply

I will not put aside my thoughts as you are doing. I am honestly curious how many families this has disrupted. Are you in contact with all of your family members? Will the COG pay for my daughter to see a counselor because her Dad has chosen the "Church" over seeing her, getting a job, and paying child support?

Are you still married if you were before you found COG? Have you been to Korea?

"The name is Ahnsahnghong, Jesus' new name (John 5:39). "

Really, what Bible is this in brofromzion?

"Ahn sang-hong made a number of predictions in his early books, the most prominent two being his 1967 and 1988 predictions for the Second Coming of Christ. The World Mission Society Church of God claims that Ahn sang-hong was the second coming of Jesus, despite his death three years before his prediction of Jesus' return."

How can someone predict that someone is coming and be that person. This is common sense. How come these books are not available anywhere?

"He would come for the second time in 1948"
Using the year he was baptized for this one?

I can't see how any of this makes sense, and am not "wicked" because I chose to think for myself and not accept things that do not make any sense.

The Church receiving awards does not make them right. It means that they have done nice things. That is a good thing, but sad that it is used to distract people from the truth.

Please use your minds to sort through this.

Jesus warned us to be careful of false prophets who would appear to deceive many people in the last days.

Matt. 7:15 "Watch out for false prophets. They come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves."

<http://text.watv.org/english/truth/view.html?idx=337>

Hi!!

Do you know that? We have to follow the commands of God. Because if we said I know God but does not do what he commands is a liar!!!

By: Olivia on April 15, 2008
at 9:50 am

Reply

1 John 2:3-5

[We know that we have come to know him if we obey his commands.

The man who says, "I know him," but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

But if anyone obeys his word, God's love is truly made complete in him. This is how we know we are in him] so we have to follow does who keep the commands of God.

The Bible testified that Sabbath and Pssover and Vail is commends of God. We can't find SUNDAY SERVIE and CHRISTMAS and CROSS in the BIBLE.

It is man made rule. So If we follow nan made rule, traditions of man, we can't distinguish truth and false!!! and our worship God is in vain, useless!!!

Mark 7:7-9

['These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men.'

You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to the traditions of men."

And he said to them: "You have a fine way of setting aside the commands of God in order to observe your own traditions!]

Isa 29:9-14

[Be stunned and amazed, blind yourselves and be sightless; be drunk, but not from wine, stagger, but not from beer.

The LORD has brought over you a deep sleep: He has sealed your eyes (the prophets); he has covered your heads (the seers).

For you this whole vision is nothing but words sealed in a scroll. And if you give the scroll to someone who can read, and say to him, "Read this, please," he will answer, "I can't; it is sealed."

Or if you give the scroll to someone who cannot read, and say, "Read this, please," he will answer, "I don't know how to read."

The Lord says: "These people come near to me with their mouth and honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. Their worship of me is made up only of rules taught by men.

Therefore once more I will astound these people with wonder upon wonder; the wisdom of the wise will perish, the intelligence of the intelligent will vanish."]

Please keep the commands of God and have a wisdom to distinguish the Truth!!

to all COG members

I want to ask a few question about COG..

what is the meaning of judgement day for you?

144,000 COG members gather in South Korea with Heavenly Mother there? Is that true? why is it so simple?

By: nijuroku on April 15, 2008 at 10:09 am

Reply

144,000 elected members + Heavenly Mother (New Jerusalem) = Judgement day

????

When Ahn Sang Hong still live, in what name he baptized people? Jesus or in his own name?

and

When Ahn Sang Hong wanted to go preaching to China..(1984 or 1985 if I'm not wrong) Did he die? And where was his physical body?

quick question.. are we an angel according to you?

Thanks God Bless

nijuroku

Hi!!

By: Olivia on April 15, 2008
at 10:45 am

When Jesus still live, in what name he baptized people? Jesus or Jehovah?

Reply

If you have any question please Visit <http://text.watv.org/english/>

Thanks

Hallo~~

Are you still confusing???

By: Happy Girl on April 15, 2008
at 11:52 am

Please Do not be confused by false prophets.
Plz Check here!!!

Reply

The Supreme Court has ruled that it is illegal to falsely state that the Church of God preaches a time-limited eschatology and wrecks families.

<http://news.watv.org/press/content.asp?gub=n&sec=&page=7&articleid=n20070129144>

Jason, Nijuroko Good question though but unfortunately these members do not have an answer. They are blinded one dude follows the other

By: warren on April 15, 2008
at 1:11 pm

Reply

Their god collects medals and awards and their good deeds are proclaimed. There are people around the world doing much more than their God.

Feeding the 55 at the subway is no big thing. Their God has to get out of Korea to see the sufferings in the rest of the world. I wonder if she even ever visited those 400 churches outside of Korea to see how tirelessly the members have worked.

By the way awards, medals, certificates and court cases can all be bought. Where there is no corruption especially when it becomes a big organization.

Its not a matter of getting confused false prophets will be like wolf in sheep clothing and COG is one of them

We have to test spirits not by achievements of medals, awards. and through a few scriptures in the bible that have been twisted to suit their needs.

When Ahn Sang Hong still live, in what name he baptized people? Jesus or in his own name?

When Jesus still live, in what name he baptized people? Jesus or Jehovah?

Ahn Sang Hong's baptism in the first place is invalid as he got baptized in SDA which is cult and as a buddhist he worshipped idols, and offered candles and flowers in the temple . Brainwashed with SDA like these members who fill the boards with the same old crap he too realised religion was a good way of making business. But sad to say he did not live to enjoy the fruits of his labor. The cream is relished by the MJ & Joo cheol or probably they came with this idea of claiming him as Jesus after his death

To clear our confusion and make us believe you must answer all the questions and give us his family history both of your mother and Father Ahn

I tell you no longer have to stand at the malls, campus or subway to convince people. you shall have many followers.

I can safely conclude that absolutely NONE of the CoG members even know Jesus personally. They know nothing of the Holy Spirit and the Father. If they did, they would never start worshipping a woman like the Israelites started worshipping the gold calf.

By: Jamie on April 15, 2008
at 2:59 pm

Reply

You Pharisees, you preach your legalism and lead people astray. You don't even know that before the cross was even used as an instrument of torture, God used it as a symbol of victory and triumph over enemies. Go and read the Pentateuch and count the numbers of the tribes of Israel as they marched before, after and by the sides of the tabernacle.

You are spiritually blind! You deny the power of the cross and deny the words of Jesus, of Paul, of the apostles who rejoiced because of what the cross has done for us. Jesus Himself told us to bear our cross daily in Luke 9:23. Are you telling me that Jesus was teaching things that are not in obedience to God? By this everyone can see that you are followers of Satan in that you deny the cross of Jesus!

Blind and legalistic, the lot of you! You claim that the bible was corrupted, and that only the CoG members have the "true" revelation. Well I say that I want NO PART of your pitiful, weak, powerless, stupid god. My God, Jesus Christ, protected His Word from everything that tried to go against it and it remains true. Not like your stupid Ang Sahn Hong god, or fake mother god. Both of them were too powerless to even protect their word from corruption by men or by the devil. Why, that simply means that the devil and even men are more powerful than your useless gods!

Oh, how angry it makes me to see how they pervert the truth to fit their cult teachings and destroy people's families. Repent from your falsehoods! If not, then at least stop dragging people down to hell with you!

Hi scarletfire. God bless you. Well, I notice you keep asking me if I'm married and I was never married to any woman. So now you know. I'm very close to my family too. So you said that Christ Ahnsahnghong made predictions of the Second Coming of Christ and He never claimed He is the One who fulfill the prophecies of the Second Coming of Christ. Here's why:

By: brofromzion on April 15, 2008
at 3:23 pm

Reply

Did Ahnsahnghong claimed to be the Christ?

Of course not.

Now we will analyze this question and answer. This is even more proof that Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Second Coming Christ, for the reason that he never claimed to be the Christ. According to the concept of the Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one and the same God. Jehovah came in the flesh as Son Jesus, but he will return a Second time as the Holy Spirit, or the Second Coming Christ.

Rev 1:8 {"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty."}

I am the Alpha and the Omega, says God. Who is, Jesus the Son. Who was, Jehovah the Father.....Then who is to come...Who is the one to come?

Jn 16:5-12{ "Now I am going to him who sent me, yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' Because I have said these things, you are filled with grief. But I tell you the truth: It is for your good that I am going away. Unless I go away, the Counselor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. When he comes, he will convict the world of guilt in regard to sin and righteousness and judgment: in regard to sin, because men do not believe in me; in regard to righteousness, because I am going to the Father, where you can see me no longer; and in regard to judgment, because the prince of this world now stands condemned. "I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear. But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. He will bring glory to me by taking from what is mine and making it known to you. All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will take from what is mine and make it known to you.}

Jn 14:26 {But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.}

The one to come is the Holy Spirit. But the Holy Spirit is not just some kind of energy, like some people think otherwise why did Jesus referred to the Holy Spirit as "HIM" or "HE", spirits do not have a gender, gender is only given to those who take the flesh. because not only does he have a gender but according to the Bible he also has a name:

Mt 28:19 { Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,}

The Bible says baptize them in THE NAME, not the title of the Father, Jehovah. in THE NAME of the Son, Jesus and in THE NAME of the Holy Spirit. then if the Father and the Son have a name, that means that the Holy Spirit should also have a name. The name of the Father is not Father, that is his title. in the same way the name of the Holy Spirit is not Holy Spirit or Holy Ghost, then if the Holy Spirit has a name, that must mean that he Holy Spirit is coming in the flesh. the coming of the Holy Spirit in the flesh is actually the Coming of the Second Coming Christ.

Then when you see the Jesus' explanation of the coming of the Holy Spirit, you see that he says that the Holy Spirit will not speak on his own, he will take from what is Jesus and make it known to us, he will remind us of everything Jesus Christ said to us. but why does he need to remind us????..... The reason is because people forgot, about the Sabbath day:

Luke 4:16 { He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. And he stood up to read} about the Passover:

Mt 26:17-28{On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?" He replied, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, 'The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.' "So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover...While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.}

about the Feasts of God that Jesus kept and taught. As Christians we should follow the example of Christ"

Jn 13:15 {I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.}

But the only one to remind us of all these truths has been Christ Ahnsahnghong. according to prophecy Christ Ahnsahnghong as the Holy Spirit, cannot speak on his own, he can only remind us of what Jesus Christ said. God knew many false Christs were going to appear proclaiming themselves to be Christ. for this reason he prophesied about the true Second Coming Christ, Jesus Christ testified about the Second Coming Christ Ahnsahnghong. In the Same way that Jehovah the Father testified about the coming of Jesus.

John 5:31 {"If I testify about myself, my testimony is not valid. There is one who testifies in my favor, and I know that his testimony about me is valid."}

Lastly, to get a good understanding of what happens when Christ reveals his identity to others.

Mark 14:61-65 "...Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One? "I am," said Jesus..."You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?" They all condemned him as worthy of death."

-The moment he said he was Christ, he was charged w/ blasphemy and condemned to death. Same thing happens in Luke.

Luke 22:67 {"If you are the Christ," they said, "tell us." Jesus answered, "If I tell you, you will not believe me..."}

Then by Christ Ahnsahnghong not proclaiming himself to be Christ he fulfilled another prophecy. According to his teachings he is God, the Second Coming Christ.

Jn 7:24 {Stop judging by mere appearances, and make a right judgment."}

Jn 7:16-18 { Jesus answered, "My teaching is not my own. It comes from him who sent me. If anyone chooses to do God's will, he will find out whether my teaching comes from God or whether I speak on my own. He who speaks on his own does so to gain honor for himself, but he who works for the honor of the one who sent him is a man of truth; there is nothing false about him.}

Let us stop Judging God by mere appearances, let us see his teachings; in this way by studying the truth that Christ Ahnsahnghong taught you will see that it is impossible for these teachings to come from a man. Actions are stronger than words.

Hi Jamie. God bless you. I see this is your blog. I really thank you for creating this. I learn a lot. So you said we all should keep Jesus cross. Do you know that the cross has no power at all?

By: brofromzion on April 15, 2008
at 4:04 pm

Reply

The Church of God does not erect crosses inside the church or on top of it, in accordance with the teachings of the Second Coming Christ, Ahnsahnghong. The cross is an idol, and God's people must never adore the cross, or bow down to it.

Nowadays, nearly every church uses the cross to symbolize Christ; however, the cross had been utilized as a pagan religious symbol long before Christ's crucifixion.

The Bible never condones the use of the cross, and not a single verse reads, "The cross is to be the symbol of the church," or, "The cross should be erected on top of the church," or even, "The cross should be treated as a sacred symbol because it represents the precious blood of Christ."

Historically, the cross was only used as an executioner's tool. The apostles never believed or testified that the cross should be erected within the church and revered by God's people. The truth of the Early Church did not include any teachings about the cross. The Early Church did not use the cross to symbolize Christianity and they did not believe that the cross held any power to drive out evil spirits. The saints of the Early Church did, however, repeatedly stress that idol worshipers would never be able to enter the kingdom of heaven.

We need to judge for ourselves whether it is right to set up the cross—following the customs of men—or whether we should refrain from using the cross, in accordance with God's teachings. God commanded His people not to use or make idols, of any form.

History discloses that the ancient Babylonians were the first people to use the cross for the purpose of worship; the symbol was used to worship Tammuz, the Babylonian god. The first letter of his name ("T") was inscribed on the official garments of the priests, and their amulets were molded into the same shape. Thus, the cross was a pagan religious symbol.

As the Babylonian culture spread to Egypt, the cross—the symbol of the Babylonian god—was also introduced into Egyptian religion. The wall paintings within the ancient Egyptian temples, as well as their monuments, depict Egyptian kings and gods holding crosses in their hands. The relics of Amenophis IV are covered with crosses, hanging around the sun. Assyrian sculpted monuments show soldiers with crosses around their necks as they battle against Egypt, and the symbol adorned the necks of the Assyrian kings. Thus, the cross had been used as an ornament to decorate garments, beginning around 1400 B.C.

The Romans also worshiped the cross before their culture had fully developed, placing it over their tombs as a charm. Cross-idolatry continued even after the Roman Empire was established. Roman coins, crafted in 46 B.C., hold Jupiter's portrait, along with a scepter where a cross hangs. The cross, popularly known as the "Calvary Cross," is also found on the ancient gravestones in Thessaly, Greece.

Considering such historical evidence, it is clear that the cross had been worshiped by pagans long before the Christian era. It had been widely used to inflict capital punishment after being chosen, in the age of the Roman Empire, as a tool of execution. In those days, the cross was an instrument used to crucify vicious criminals. Since Jesus was hung on the cross, we can guess how much the people had hated Him.

Nowadays, most churches use the cross. We can clearly see how corrupted Christianity became after adopting pagan customs. To use the cross as a symbol of the church is an abominable thing, and the churches who erect the cross inadvertently participate in the scheme of the devil—who put Jesus to death.

Many Catholics—who consider the cross to be an object of worship, and Protestants—who use the cross as a symbol of Christ, believe that the cross has been used since the days of the Early Church. However, there is no record of the cross being erected on the Early Church, or of such a pattern being made into an ornament. Historically, the cross first appeared in a church or chamber in 431 A.D., and it was first erected on the top of a steeple in 586 A.D. Thus, veneration of the cross was only a religious custom that appeared after Christianity had begun to absorb paganism.

We have to understand the true meaning of the cross, as it was written in the New Testament. The Bible does not boast of the cross itself on which Christ was crucified, but instead, the Bible boasts of Christ, who was sacrificed on the cross, shedding His blood for our sins.

Gal. 6:14 May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

1 Cor. 1:17-23 ...lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power. For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God....but we preach Christ crucified: a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles...

The cross itself has no power and it cannot grant us salvation. The instrument itself, on which Jesus was sacrificed, is not important. It is only through the precious blood of Jesus that we can receive the forgiveness of our sins.

Eph. 1:7 In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace...

Some who boast of the cross say, "If there had not been a cross, there would have been no blood-shedding, no atonement for our salvation, and the prophecy that Jesus would be sacrificed as the Passover lamb, shedding His blood, would not have been fulfilled. Therefore, the cross—on which Jesus shed His precious blood—is the boast of Christians, and a symbol of faith." If this argument were true, they would accept the following false logic as well: "If there had not been no Jews and no Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Jesus and instigated His crucifixion, the prophecy about Jesus shedding His precious blood would not have been fulfilled. Therefore, even Pilate—who executed Jesus—should be respected because he was the person who fulfilled God's prophecy. He should be venerated as a symbol of salvation in addition to the cross." However, Jesus spoke of Judas Iscariot as follows:

Mark 14:21 "The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born."

The cross is merely a cursed tree (Gal. 3:13), used by the Romans as a tool of execution. Those who hung Jesus on that tree will be tortured in everlasting hell.

It was already prophesied in the Book of Law that, after the crucifixion, the cross would be publicly used within churches. Long ago, the Israelites went through the desert and bypassed the land of Edom. The people grew impatient along the way and spoke against God and against Moses. Then God's wrath came upon them; He sent venomous snakes to bite the people of Israel, and many died. After hearing Moses' prayer, however, God ordered him to make a bronze snake to deliver the Israelites.

Num. 21:8-9 The LORD said to Moses, "Make a snake and put it up on a pole; anyone who is bitten can look at it and live." So Moses made bronze snake and put it up on a pole. Then when anyone was bitten by a snake and looked at the bronze snake, he lived.

The bronze snake itself had no power; it could not make the Israelites live. It was only God's word that allowed the Israelites to live: "Anyone who is bitten can look at it [the bronze snake] and live." The Israelites burned incense to the bronze snake up to the time of King Hezekiah, falsely believing that the bronze snake had saved them.

2 Kings 18:4 He removed the high places, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles. He broke into pieces the bronze snake Moses had made, for up to that time the Israelites had been burning incense to it. (It was called Nehushtan.)

"Nehushtan" means "a piece of bronze."

The Israelites, who had been bitten by a snake, could live by looking at the bronze snake. This history is a shadow and reveals that mortal spirits, who were deceived by Satan, can live by looking at Jesus Christ—by His precious blood of sacrifice.

John 3:14 "Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the desert, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life."

Just as the bronze snake had no power to give life, the cross itself, on which Jesus died, has no power to give us life. We can be saved only by the words of God—"The precious blood of Christ is the only thing that can give you life." The Israelites burned incense to the bronze snake for almost a thousand years after Moses. This abominable act is a shadow, the reality of which is seen in all of the people who worship the cross—a mere instrument of capital punishment—forgetting the power of Jesus' precious blood, the power of the Passover. We must not set up any image to worship God, because God is spirit. The sacred law of the new covenant is the only way to worship God, and it is the true symbol of salvation.

Deut. 27:15 Cursed is the man who carves an image or casts an idol—a thing detestable to the LORD, the work of the craftsman's hands—and sets it up in secret.

Jer. 10:3-5 For the customs of the peoples are worthless; they cut a tree out of the forest, and a craftsman shapes it with his chisel. They adorn it with silver and gold; they fasten it with hammer and nails so it will not totter. Like a scarecrow in a melon patch, their idols cannot speak; they must be carried because they cannot walk.

The cross is mere an idol and cannot give us salvation. It is a tree that is cut out of the forest and shaped by a craftsman's chisel.

The Catholic Church honors Mary as the Mother of Jesus, as "the Mother of God," praying in front of statues of Mary. On the surface, such a practice appears to be a good way to teach filial piety, but within such worship is hidden the scheme of the devil, who takes advantage of the human mentality.

Matt. 12:46-50 While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him. Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

Out of all of the creatures that He had created, Jesus chose a woman, Mary, to make Himself flesh, so that He might come to this earth.

It is not Biblical to revere a mere woman, one of God's creatures, claiming that she is the Mother of God—the Creator—simply because she bore Him. Actually, the practice of worshipping the image of Mary—followed by the Catholic Church—originated in the ancient Babylonian religion, not in the Early Church. In Babylon, there was a powerful king named Nimrod (Gen. 10:8) whose wife was named Semiramis. Because of her husband's high position, Semiramis wielded great power. She claimed that when Nimrod died, he became the sun god. She named her son Tammuz and proclaimed him to be the reincarnation of Nimrod. Semiramis, the mother, was worshipped along with her child. Babylonian monuments depict the goddess Semiramis, holding her son, Tammuz, in her arms.

This worship of "mother and child" spread to many other ancient countries who were under the influence of Babylon. In Germany, the goddess Hertha was depicted with her child in her arms, and Indian relics show the goddess Indrani carrying her child in her arms. In Egypt, the mother figure was referred to as Isis and her child as Horus. There are many statues and images of Isis, holding the infant Horus on her knee. This ancient, pagan religion spread to Rome, where it widely prevailed.

These pagan customs infiltrated early Christianity, and the worship of the pagan goddess was reinterpreted as Mary holding the Baby Jesus. Thus, the Catholic Church's worship of Mary originated in pagan idolatry, not from the Bible.

Lev. 26:1 Do not make idols or set up an image or a sacred stone for yourselves, and do not place a carved stone in your land to bow down before it.

Deut. 27:15 Cursed is the man who carves an image or casts an idol—a thing detestable to the Lord, the work of the craftsman's hands—and sets it up in secret.

From the Biblical point of view, sculpted images of Mary are idols. Whoever erects them, so that they may be worshipped, will be eternally cursed by God and will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Is it clear to you? God bless you.

JEREMIAH CHAPTER 10: 1-6 THE CROSS, DETESTABLE TO GOD

By: A CHILD OF GOD on April 7, 2010
at 3:43 pm

Reply

The way of humility
Father Ahnsahngong
World Mission Society Church of God

By: brofromzion on April 15, 2008
at 4:08 pm

"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near."

Christ began to preach the kingdom of heaven by urging people to repent (Mt 4:17). The first step of repentance is to realize that we are sinners and to humble ourselves. In order to achieve a complete repentance and the hope for heaven, we are to follow the way of humility.

Reply

Humility is the opposite of arrogance. Studying the previous lives of the kings of Tyre and Babylon in Ezekiel 28 and Isaiah 14, we can see that pride is the basic cause of sin. Because of our arrogance, we were implicated in Lucifer's sin and were cast down to earth. We were angels in heaven, being placed in high positions, but by being proud we defiled ourselves and committed sin to be hurled down to the earth. Through this fact, we understand why we must humble ourselves before God.

Learn the humility of Christ

Martin Luther the Reformer ever said, "I've never tried to learn the miracles of Jesus. I just want to learn His humility." Jesus Christ came to seek and save the lost; He gave His disciples many teachings on humility and showed them His personal example of humility. Apostle Paul strongly urged the saints to have the same attitude or mind as Christ—which is the attitude of humility.

Php 2:3-11 ... but in humility consider others better than yourselves.... Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross! Therefore God exalted him to the highest place ... and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Whoever wants to repent and returns to heaven must have the same attitude of humility as Christ. Just as Paul and Luther said, humility is one of the most important virtues we should learn from Christ. God asks us to humble ourselves to remove our pride that caused us to sin in heaven.

Lk 18:9-14 To some who were confident of their own righteousness and looked down on everybody else, Jesus told this parable: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood up and prayed about himself: 'God, I thank you that I am not like other men—robbers, evildoers, adulterers—or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week and give a tenth of all I get.' But the tax collector stood at a distance. He would not even look up to heaven, but beat his breast and said, 'God, have mercy on me, a sinner.' I tell you that this man, rather than the other, went home justified before God. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

God justified the tax collector rather than the Pharisee, and showed him favor; for the tax collector would not even look up to heaven and acknowledged himself to be a sinner, asking God for His mercy, while the Pharisee proclaimed his own righteousness.

Whoever exalts himself, whoever is arrogant, will be humbled. But he who humbles himself and recognizes his sinfulness like the tax collector, will be exalted and receive glory in heaven; for he always thanks God for saving him a sinner and lives in accordance with His will. Think of Christ, the example of exaltation after humility; since He humbled himself, He became highly exalted and glorified.

God gives grace to the humble

Apostle Peter, who was taught by Jesus about humility, gave us a teaching as follows:

1 Pe 5:5-6 ... All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because, "God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble." Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time.

God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble and lift them up in due time. If we realize our sins in heaven and always have the attitude of the tax collector who deeply repented his sins, saying, "Lord, I am a sinner," how dare we proclaim our own righteousness before God and insist upon our own opinion and reign over others?

1 Pe 5:1-4 ... Be shepherds of God's flock that is under your care, serving as overseers—not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be; not greedy for money, but eager to serve; not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock. And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that will never fade away.

When we set a good example of humility, when we seek to gain the understanding of others rather than insist upon our own opinion and consider them better than ourselves just as Christ taught us, the hearers of the gospel will attain to its full understanding under the guidance of God. God is with him who is lowly in spirit (Isa 57:15), and He saves the humble (Job 22:29; Ps 149:4). Power comes from humility; for it is stronger than pride. Taking it to heart, we shall follow Christ's example of humility.

King Nebuchadnezzar and King Saul were brought down by their arrogance

There are many biblical cases of those who were brought low due to their arrogance. In Daniel 4, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon became proud and completely forgot about God, thinking that he did it all by himself, he lost his mind and lived like an animal, and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven. He lost all his power and was brought low, lower than any men. After that, he learned humility. When he became humble, his wisdom and understanding returned to him and his kingdom was restored to him (Da 4:24-37).

Man has a sinful nature of pride which caused him to fall into sin. So just being praised makes him easily haughty and arrogant. One such example pertains to King Saul.

1 Sa 15:10-23 Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel: "I am grieved that I have made Saul king, because he has turned away from me and has not carried out my instructions." ... Samuel said to Saul. "... Although you were once small in your own eyes, did you not become the head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel. And he sent you on a mission, saying, 'Go and completely destroy those wicked people, the Amalekites; make war on them until you have wiped them out.' Why did you not obey the LORD? Why did you pounce on the plunder and do evil in the eyes of the LORD? ... To obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed is better than the fat of rams. For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and arrogance like the evil of idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has rejected you as king."

Considering the case of King Saul, we can fully understand what kind of people God uses. When Saul was small in his own eyes, God made him king. But when he became arrogant, God regretted that He made him king.

From the moment Saul thought to himself, 'Now I can do everything all by myself,' he began to disobey God's command. Such a thought made him proud, and he dared even to exalt his own opinion over God's command; God had commanded him to completely destroy the Amalekites, but he didn't obey God and spared the fat calves and lambs. For this, God rebuked him through the prophet Samuel.

If Saul had remained humble after he was exalted to the throne, he would have obeyed God's word. However, he became full of pride and disobeyed God. Finally he was rejected by God and died a miserable death.

All this was written to teach us. God humbles the proud and exalts the humble. We must understand why God emphasizes humility. Pride is a root cause of every sin which makes us separate from God. That's why God repeatedly tells us to be humble.

God trained His people to be humble through hardships in the desert

Ezekiel 28 shows that the king of Tyre was anointed as a guardian cherub in heaven, who was blameless in his ways from the day he was created, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. But his heart became proud on account of his beauty and foolishly thought that he would exalt his throne above the throne of God. This shows how proud the first criminal was in his heart.

Pride arises in our hearts when we forget that we sinned against God and were cast down from heaven to the earth. It becomes greater when we depend only on our own wisdom, knowledge and strength, not asking for God's help. We are earnestly longing to go back to our heavenly home. To urge people throughout the world to repent, first we must remove all pride from our hearts and humble ourselves.

Dt 8:1-6 ... Remember how the LORD your God led you all the way in the desert these forty years, to humble you and to test you in order to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep his command. He humbled you, causing you to hunger ... Know then in your heart that as a man disciplines his son, so the LORD your God disciplines you. Observe the commands of the LORD your God, walking in his ways and revering him.

God trained the Israelites in the desert for forty years, in order to make them humble. He thus trained His children on earth lest they should repeat Lucifer's rebellion in heaven. Now God trains us in this spiritual desert. If we still want to be exalted, it is against God's will, isn't it?

God wants us to be changed into the humble ones. His teachings about humility is not hard to find in the Bible.

If we refuse to humble ourselves and remain proud, exalting ourselves above others, until the end of our life of faith in this spiritual desert, we will lose the heavenly Canaan.

Let's consider the attitude of faith God wants us to have, through the following story.

Attitude of humility with a serving heart

A man dreamed he went to heaven. There were numerous thrones for the saints, the royal priests, and he found the highest throne unoccupied. He wondered who would sit on the throne. Then an angel beside him told that the throne would be occupied by his teacher.

When he woke up from his dream, he wondered if his teacher was really worthy to occupy the throne. He asked his teacher how he estimated himself. Then he replied, "I consider myself the most evil person in the world." "What do you mean by that?" he asked in surprise. His teacher said to him:

"If God had given His grace to any other person, he would have been much better than me. In spite of having received such a great blessing from God, I've not completely humbled myself and repented enough, so I have failed to lead more people into the right path. That's why I consider myself as the most wicked person in the world."

The teacher's attitude we should imitate. He humbled himself before God, feeling sorry for not leading more people to God in spite of having received His great blessing. Humility is a virtue Christians must have.

Everything we have comes from God. So we have nothing to boast of in the presence of God (cf. 1 Co 4:6-7). If the grace of God given to me was given to any other person, he would bring more glory to God than me and perform His gospel work more faithfully. Thinking that way, we must humble ourselves.

Apostle Paul called himself 'the worst of sinner' (1 Ti 1:15). He had received so much grace from God, but he thought that if it had been given to any other person, he would have made even greater achievements than him. He thus humbled himself and considered himself the least of all. He devoted himself wholly to the gospel of Christ, feeling obligated to preach the gospel to everyone, as a minister of the new covenant.

Let's all have an attitude of humility toward one another along with a serving heart, following our Father and Mother's examples. Like the tax collector in the parable, let's humble ourselves and give thanks to God for His abundant grace given to us sinners. Brothers and sisters in Zion! Following the example of Christ, let us practice humility in our daily life, humbling ourselves before God and serving one another, so we will all enter the everlasting kingdom.

One thing I am still not sure of brofromzion did Ahnsahnghong say that he believed that the second coming of Christ would be in 1988??

By: ramblinrose on April 15, 2008
at 4:18 pm

Reply

This post is never true.

By: Sarang on April 15, 2008
at 4:34 pm

Passover and Sabbathday is God's Feasts.
but you keep the sunday service, birthday of
Sun god. don't you?

I don't want to tell about God's Truth to those who don't keep God's Feasts.

Reply

This post is never true. Tell me true.

By: Sarang on April 15, 2008
at 4:41 pm

Passover and Sabbathday is God's Feasts.
but you keep the sunday service, birthday of
Sun god. don't you?

I don't want to tell about God's Truth to those who don't keep God's Feasts.

Reply

Do you COG members ever think that you might be wrong about Ahnsahnghong? If you are you are doing exactly what Jesus warned you not to do! Talk about idols and pagan religion you guys might be in real trouble!

By: ramblinrose on April 15, 2008
at 4:43 pm

Reply

Hi ramblinrose. God bless you. I see you said that Ahnsahnghong predicted the Second Coming of Christ in 1988? True. But the funny thing though is that even though He is the Second Coming Christ, He never claimed it. You know why? Let's find out through the Bible.

By: brofromzion on April 15, 2008
at 6:32 pm

Reply

Actually, this is even more proof that Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Second Coming Christ, for the reason that he never claimed to be the Christ. According to the concept of the Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one and the same God. Jehovah came in the flesh as Son Jesus, but he will return a Second time as the Holy Spirit, or the Second Coming Christ.

Rev 1:8 {"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty."}

I am the Alpha and the Omega, says God. Who is, Jesus the Son. Who was, Jehovah the Father.....Then who is to come...Who is the one to come?

Jn 16:5-12{ "Now I am going to him who sent me, yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' Because I have said these things, you are filled with grief. But I tell you the truth: It is for your good that I am going away.
Unless I go away, the Counselor will not come to you;
but if I go, I will send him to you. When he comes, he will convict the world of guilt in regard to sin and righteousness and judgment: in regard to sin, because men do not believe in me; in regard to righteousness, because I am going to the Father, where you can see me no longer; and in regard to judgment, because the prince of this world now stands condemned. "I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear. But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. He will bring glory to me by taking from what is mine and making it known to you. All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will take from what is mine and make it known to you.}

Jn 14:26 {But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.}

The one to come is the Holy Spirit. But the Holy Spirit is not just some kind of energy, like some people think otherwise why did Jesus referred to the Holy Spirit as "HIM" or "HE", spirits do not have a gender, gender is only given to those who take the flesh. because not only does he have a gender but according to the Bible he also has a name:

Mt 28:19 { Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,}

The Bible says baptize them in THE NAME, not the title of the Father, Jehovah. in THE NAME of the Son, Jesus and in THE NAME of the Holy Spirit. then if the Father and the Son have a name, that means that the Holy Spirit should also have a name. The name of the Father is not Father, that is his title. in the same way the name of the Holy Spirit is not Holy Spirit or Holy Ghost, then if the Holy Spirit has a name, that must mean that he Holy Spirit is coming in the flesh. the coming of the Holy Spirit in the flesh is actually the Coming of the Second Coming Christ.

Then when you see the Jesus' explanation of the coming of the Holy Spirit, you see that he says that the Holy Spirit will not speak on his own, he will take from what is Jesus and make it known to us, he will remind us of everything Jesus Christ said to us. but why does he need to remind us????..... The reason is because people forgot, about the Sabbath day:

Luke 4:16 { He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. And he stood up to read} about the Passover:

Mt 26:17-28{On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?" He replied, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, 'The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.'" So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover...While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.}

about the Feasts of God that Jesus kept and taught. As Christians we should follow the example of Christ"

Jn 13:15 {I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.}

But the only one to remind us of all these truths has been Christ Ahnsahnghong. according to prophecy Christ Ahnsahnghong as the Holy Spirit, cannot speak on his own, he can only remind us of what Jesus Christ said. God knew many false Christs were going to appear proclaiming themselves to be Christ. for this reason he prophesied about the true Second Coming Christ, Jesus Christ testified about the Second Coming Christ Ahnsahnghong. In the Same way that Jehovah the Father testified about the coming of Jesus.

John 5:31 {"If I testify about myself, my testimony is not valid. There is one who testifies in my favor, and I know that his testimony about me is valid."}

Lastly, to get a good understanding of what happens when Christ reveals his identity to others.

Mark 14:61-65 "...Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One? "I am," said Jesus..."You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?" They all condemned him as worthy of death."

-The moment he said he was Christ, he was charged w/ blasphemy and condemned to death. Same thing happens in Luke.

Luke 22:67 {"If you are the Christ," they said, "tell us." Jesus answered, "If I tell you, you will not believe me..."}

Then by Christ Ahnsahnghong not proclaiming himself to be Christ he fulfilled another prophecy. According to his teachings he is God, the Second Coming Christ.

Jn 7:24 {Stop judging by mere appearances, and make a right judgment."}

Jn 7:16-18 { Jesus answered, "My teaching is not my own. It comes from him who sent me. If anyone chooses to do God's will, he will find out whether my teaching comes from God or whether I speak on my own. He who speaks on his own does so to gain honor for himself, but he who works for the honor of the one who sent him is a man of truth; there is nothing false about him.}

Let us stop Judging God by mere appearances, let us see his teachings; in this way by studying the truth that Christ Ahnsahnghong taught you will see that it is impossible for these teachings to come from a man.

Actions are stronger than words.

Hi ramblinrose. You also said that we might be wrong with Ahnsahnghong. I'll tell you what, He is the only One who fulfill all the prophecies of the Second Coming of Christ: The Savior of Each Age and the New Name, Clouds & Flesh, The Parable of the Fig Tree, About the East, Trinity, The Order of Melchizedek, The Tree of Life and many more. Also, Ahnsahnghong's World Mission Society Church of God is the only church that keeps ALL God's commandments, feasts, and customs on it's appointed times: Passover of the New Covenant, The Feast of Unleavened Bread, The Feast of Firstfruits, The Feast of Weeks, The Feast of Trumpets, The Day of Atonement, The Feast of Tabernacles, Sabbath Day, Baptism, Veil for women when she worship and prays to God. I've seen other churches only keeps a partial of God's commandments, wills, feasts, and customs.

By: brofromzion on April 15, 2008
at 6:48 pm

Reply

So ramblinrose, if you can find me another man who claims he is the Second Coming Christ and his church keeps all of God's commandments, feasts, wills, and customs, please let me know. God bless you.

Revelation 2:17 ["He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden manna. I will also give him a white stone with a new name written on it, known only to him who receives it."]

I laugh at your mindless legalism. I agree that your post is never true Sarang. You know nothing of the doctrine of redemption.

By: Jamie on April 15, 2008
at 7:37 pm

Reply

So what if Sunday was named after the Sun God? You worship on Saturday, named after Saturn, the roman god! Hypocrite! Fix your ways before you tell me to fix mine. And, you assume that everyone speaks English. How naive and ignorant you are. In my country, many speak Malay as their first language. Sunday is NOT called Sunday, it's Ahad. Heck, I'm pretty sure it's not Sunday in Korean either.

See how ignorant the teachings of Ang Sanh Hong's church is everyone? They teach brainless, shallow legalism as the way to salvation.

Ok Brofromzion, I will give it one last go regarding Mary. She is the Mother of God, as she bore Jesus. Simple really. God chose her and Joesph to raise his son. He had a lot of faith in them. The Catholic Church does not worship her. Sorry, they don't. You are wrong. All your talk about statues of mothers holding babies, and trying to suggest this spilt over to Catholic practice is nothing more than conjecture. You have only

By: Bruce on April 15, 2008
at 8:03 pm

Reply

supposition to work with. May is honoured, as she should be, as are other saints who have gone before us. They are examples of how we should live. Now, about idols. God doesn't like man made idols because people worship them expecting the idol to perform miracles, which they can't. God gets angry about that! Symbols of faith are not idols. Sorry, they aren't. People like to revere things that remind themselves of important events. That's why, important documents are sealed and put on display. Making and admiring Statues, paintings, and the like are normal human traits, and you do us a disservice suggesting they are idols being worshiped. No Catholic is on their knees begging Mary, or a cross to save their soul. They know where the power is – because priests have had two thousand years of considered study to teach their parisheners. You insult us with your petty criticism.

Your following of feasts and such are interesting. Some are out of left field, and not supported by other students of the bible. Some pretty clever people have looked into these things more than a few times. You the only ones who got it right? Now about your mate, Ahnsahnhong. OK, so your mate is the second coming of Christ. ??Or is the Holy Spirit? Or both? God help you you idiot! Jesus doesn't need another body to come back to earth in, he has his original one. And the Holy Spirit has been around a long time. Being Spirit form hardly suggests it would need a body, Ahnsahghongs, or anyone else's. The Holy Spirit is the part of God which carries out his instructions. You want us to believe your warped view and interpretation of the bible, and you throw around the scary going to hell parts. The more you quote those parts of the bible about false teachers and false Christs, the more I think of you and your religion. I noticed in life, the thief accuses others of being dishonest. This diverts attention away from his own behaviour! You throw around the threat of hell like it is yours to do so with. You reduce God to a simple book keeper, only concerned with feasts, wills and customs. You speak as if God will not be interested in those who pray to him, invite him into their lives, Trust in him. Remember and love his son for what he has done for them. Your arrogance is astounding. Good luck with judgment day. You are going to need it.

Well brofromzion, you seem different from the usual CoG people who never answer anything. Yet you still have missed the point of the cross.

By: Jamie on April 15, 2008 at 8:06 pm

You accuse Christians of worshipping and bowing down to the cross. I say we do neither. Have you even considered what Christians say about the cross? Just because the CoG told you Christians worship the cross doesn't mean that it is the truth. The cross reminds us of Jesus' sacrifice and the shedding of His blood, and it is a reminder that we have forgiveness of our sins. It is also a reminder that through Jesus' death, we have healing and eternal life. It is also a reminder to live our lives as sacrifices to God, holy and set apart in that we crucify the desires of our flesh.

We neither worship the cross itself, nor the punishment of the cross. You claim that it is a pagan symbol and that having it in church means we are worshipping an idol. Haven't you even stepped into a church? Do people pray in the name of the cross? No, they pray in the name of Jesus. Do people sing worship songs to the cross? no, they sing to Jesus. Do people get baptized in the name of the Father, Cross and Holy Spirit? Obviously not. The shallow understanding that CoG teaches about the cross is really not something that holds up under close scrutiny.

Reply

You claim that the cross was used historically by pagans at the earliest. You do not seem to be aware that perhaps 3000 years ago as the Israelites marched with the tent of the tabernacle across the desert in their journey to Canaan they marched in the form of a cross. Even before it was used as a punishment, it was already a symbol of victory and glory to God.

Furthermore, you seem to think that once a pagan symbol, always a pagan symbol. Let me ask you, is a sinner always a sinner even if he accepts Ang Sanh Hong as his lord and savior? I'm sure you'd say something like he's been redeemed and is no longer classified under "sinner". Yet then, why can't a symbol be redeemed as well? I tell you, the cross once was a symbol of torture and humiliating death, but through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ God redeemed the image of the cross into a symbol of Christ's victory and triumph over death and the devil.

In no way then are Christians worshipping the cross as an idol. We remember Jesus when we see the cross, and it is He whom we worship, so do not slander us with your accusations when you are worshipping a human in South Korea.

Oh and by the way, if CoG is the only true way, then why is it so weak compared to Yoido Full Gospel Church? Is God not ready to save the world from Christianity? Is he only going to pick and choose who he wants in heaven?

There is no POWER in CoG. Look at the lives and ministries of people like Kathryn Kuhlman, Benny Hinn, Reinhard Bonke, Smith Wigglesworth. All these are not CoG members. They are Christians! The Holy Spirit moves/d in them mightily to raise the dead, heal the sick, cast out demons and restore the broken hearted. What do CoG members do that show the power of God?

Anyway, I'm done talking with you because I'm pretty sure you are not going to be convinced or listen. All I want to do is to stop people from being drawn into the teachings of CoG.

God bless you Jamie. So you worship God on Sunday? Didn't God commanded us to keep the Sabbath day? Let's look at the Bible if God really told us to keep the Sabbath day:

By: brofromzion on April 15, 2008
at 8:08 pm

Reply

Jer. 17:24-27 ["But if you are careful to obey me, declares the LORD...keep the Sabbath day holy by not doing any work on it,...this city will be inhabited forever.... But if you do not obey me to keep the Sabbath day holy by not carrying any load as you come through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle an unquenchable fire in the gates of Jerusalem that will consume her fortresses."]

Exodus 20:11 [For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.]

So God commanded us, through the Bible, to keep the Sabbath day holy by giving this day to Him to worship Him. Now let's find out when is the Sabbath day through the Bible:

Mark 16:9 [When Jesus rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had driven seven demons.]

So we celebrate Jesus resurrection on Sunday. The Bible says that Jesus rose on the "first day of the week". So that makes Saturday the seventh day of the week. Let's even look at our own Dictionary online to see the meaning of Sunday and Saturday:

Saturday – seventh day of the week, following Friday.

Reference:

<http://dictionary.reference.com/browse/Saturday>

Sunday – first day of the week, observed as the Sabbath by most Christian sects.

Reference:

<http://dictionary.reference.com/browse/Sunday>

So why most Christians are keeping Sunday, the first day of the week, as the Sabbath day when God Himself made Saturday, the seventh day of the week, the rest day and made it holy for Him. Now did Jesus and His Apostles kept the Sabbath day?

Matthew 12:8 [For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.]

Luke 6:5 [Then Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."]

Luke 4:16 [He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom....]

Acts 17:2 [As his custom was, Paul went into the synagogue, and on three Sabbath days he reasoned with them from the Scriptures...]

Clearly, Jesus and His Apostles kept the Sabbath day as God's custom. So how did it change from the seventh to the first day?

After the apostles died, Christianity spread to western regions, including Rome. The gospel was preached to sun-god worshipers, and in the early 4th century, even the Roman emperor had heard the message of Christ. The emperor happened to be a leader of the sun-god worshipers, and when he converted to Christianity, many sun-god worshipers began to attend Church. As time passed, the faith of the Christians weakened, and they began to accept the customs of the sun-god worshipers. During this turn-over, they even began to rest and to worship on the first day of the week [Sunday]. In A.D. 321, Constantine, a Roman emperor, decreed an edict:

"All judges, city-people and craftsmen shall rest on the venerable day of the Sun."

Some argue that the abolishment of the Sabbath compelled many people to convert to Christianity, but we must not forget that altering God's commandments was Satan's scheme. Satan, the devil, opposes God and has historically harassed God's people, using various methods.

So if most Christians are worshipping God on Sunday, are they following God's tradition or rules taught by men:

Mark 7:6-9 [He [Jesus] replied, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites; as it is written: "These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men.' You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to the traditions of men." And he said to them: "You have a fine way of setting aside the commands of God in order to observe your own traditions!"]

I hope it's clear to you. Should we follow God or the tradition of men? I wanna follow God, of course. God bless you.

to all CoG members

mm.. thanks to Olivia telling me to visit CoG website...

By: nijuroku on April 15, 2008 at 8:57 pm

Reply

but why dont you answer my question here, I only need your brief explanation...

thanks GodBless~

nijuroku

Hi Bruce. God bless you. You said that you don't worship Mary. Then why do Catholics do the rosary? Did God told us to pray the rosary? Also, Catholics pray the "Hail Mary" So do you pray on someone you don't worship? What about statues of Jesus on the cross and Mary and the saints. Is that following God's commandment? Reply

By: brofromzion on April 15, 2008 at 9:11 pm

The Catholic Church honors Mary as the Mother of Jesus, as "the Mother of God," praying in front of statues of Mary. On the surface, such a practice appears to be a good way to teach filial piety, but within such worship is hidden the scheme of the devil, who takes advantage of the human mentality.

Matt. 12:46-50 While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him. Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

Why World Mission Society Church of God keeps ALL God's commandments, customs, feasts, and wills?

Mark 7:6-9 [He [Jesus] replied, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites; as it is written: "'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men.' You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to the traditions of men." And he said to them: "You have a fine way of setting aside the commands of God in order to observe your own traditions!"]

Matthew 7:21-29 ["Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven...Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock...But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash."]

Is it clear to you? We should put ALL God's commandments and wills into practice instead of saying "Lord, I love you and I am already saved because I believe in you and accept you and I don't have to do anything else". This is really wrong. That's why we have the Bible. God gave it to us not to just put it in our shelves to get it dust up but to seek God through the Bible. God bless you.

As the Church of God makes contributions to society in setting good examples so has received many award including orders of merit, presidential citations.

How can the heresy get the award, orders of merit. The members of the Church of God always doing good according to the God's will.

By: happyli on April 15, 2008 at 10:30 pm

Reply

Parable of Weeds and Wheats
Father Ahnsahng Hong
World Mission Society Church of God

By: brofromzion on April 15, 2008
at 10:46 pm

There are so many churches existing in the world now, so many doctrines to "choose" from. However, we must be careful to come to find the correct church. God has been showing us in the Bible that just as there is truth and there is falsehood, the gospel in the Bible and a different gospel, God's word and man-made stories, the true church and the false churches. Then we need to distinguish between which church is true and which is false. In the Bible, God helps us to distinguish the true church and the false church through the parable of the weeds and wheat.

Reply

Matt. 13:34-30 "24 Jesus told them another parable: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. 25 But while everyone was sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and went away. 26 When the wheat sprouted and formed heads, then the weeds also appeared. 27 'The owner's servants came to him and said, 'Sir, didn't you sow good seed in your field? Where then did the weeds come from?' 28" 'An enemy did this,' he replied. "The servants asked him, 'Do you want us to go and pull them up?' 29" 'No,' he answered, 'because while you are pulling the weeds, you may root up the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest. At that time I will tell the harvesters: First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; then gather the wheat and bring it into my barn.' "

This parable is so important because if we understand it, we can also understand the kingdom of heaven. However, just reading this parable plainly, it's difficult to understand. Even the disciples came to Jesus and asked him to explain the meaning because only Christ can explain its meaning.

Matt. 13:37 "He answered, "The one who sowed the good seed is the Son of Man. 38 The field is the world, and the good seed stands for the sons of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, 39 and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels.

40 As the weeds are pulled up and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the age. 41 The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will weed out of his kingdom everything that causes sin and all who do evil. 42 They will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 43 Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear.

Jesus explained the meaning as follows:

Sower of good seed = Son of Man (Jesus Christ)

Field = the world

Good seed (wheat) Sons of the Kingdom

Bad seed (weeds) = Sons of the evil one (evildoers)

Enemy = Satan

Harvest = end of the age

Reapers = angels

The bad seed (weeds) were sown while everyone was sleeping. Then, in reality, what is sleep in the Bible?

John 11:11 "After he had said this, he went on to tell them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I am going there to wake him up." 12 His disciples replied, "Lord, if he sleeps, he will get better." 13 Jesus had been speaking of his death, but his disciples thought he meant natural sleep. 14 So then he told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead, 15 and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him."

Then, sleep in the Bible refers to death. Then what is it mean while everyone was dead? While Christ was here on earth, He sowed all of the good seeds of the gospel which lead us to the Kingdom of Heaven. However, Jesus physically died in AD 33. Thereafter, the disciples died one by one. After the last disciple died, the truth – all the good seeds that Jesus worked so hard to sow – began to disappear one by one.

In the parable, the weeds will be weeded out of the kingdom of heaven and thrown to hell. They are the evildoers and the ones who cause sin. But let's confirm once again who are the evildoers.

Matt. 7:21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22 Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' 23 Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'"

Then, to the very "believers" in Christ, He will plainly say, "I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!"

Why? What is an evildoer in God's point of view? Comparing verse 23 to NKJV, it says:

Matt. 7: 23 "And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'"

Clearly, evildoers are those who practice lawlessness, not holding to the commands of God. Then God will weed out of the kingdom those who practice lawlessness. To such people, only the fires of hell are reserved. All of the churches that came up after Jesus' death, if you notice, keep all the traditions and rules of men. It wasn't until after Jesus' physical death that such traditions like Christmas, Easter, Sunday worship and so on were celebrated by churches who have a foundation built on the seeds of weeds. Why now? Just as the parable stated, while everyone was sleeping, the evil one (satan) sowed the bad seeds of weeds (falsehood) in order to lead God's people astray. However, the true church should be built on what foundation? The status of the church before Christ was sleeping.

Eph. 2: 20 "...built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone."

Then we must look at the teachings of Christ and the foundation built on the Apostles to know what church Jesus sowed the good seeds of wheat in.

Luke 4:16-17 "He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. And he stood up to read. 17 The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. Unrolling it, he found the place where it is written."

It was Jesus' custom while on the earth to worship in the Church on the Sabbath Day (Saturday). Why? So that He may receive a sign with God? Of course not! He set us an example of how to worship God, not changing the day but the way that it was kept. However, nowadays, churches of all kinds of denominations keep Sunday worship. Then, Sabbath is the seeds of wheat sowed by the Son of man while Sunday is the seed of weeds sowed by the evil one.

Even the Apostles continued the Sabbath worship after Jesus physically died.

Acts 17:2 "As his custom was, Paul went into the synagogue, and on three Sabbath days he reasoned with them from the Scriptures, 3 explaining and proving that the Christ had to suffer and rise from the dead. "This Jesus I am proclaiming to you is the Christ," he said."

Then for sure, Sabbath is the foundation of truth built by the Apostles and Christ Himself.

This is why the Church of God World Mission Society keeps the Sabbath Day. We're not just keeping the law. We're following the example of Christ, being built on the Biblical foundation.

With regards to the way eternal life is received, what did Jesus promise?

Matt. 26:26 "While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, 'Take and eat; this is my body.' 27 Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, 'Drink from it, all of you. 28 This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.'"

We understand this verse to be talking about the Passover. However, churches nowadays keep the bread and wine of the communion. But how can this be communion if communion didn't exist yet? Clearly, Passover is the wheat sowed by Christ while still on this earth. Communion, established in AD 325, is the weed sowed by the devil while everyone was sleeping. So Church of God World Mission Society continues to keep the Passover year after year as God commanded. It is the way Jesus said to receive His body and blood to receive eternal life.

Another seed of wheat sown during the laying of the foundation of the true church is the wearing of veils for women during worship.

1 Cor. 11:1 "Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ. 2 I praise you for remembering me in everything and for holding to the teachings, just as I passed them on to you. 3 Now I want you to realize that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is man, and the head of Christ is God. 4 Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head. 5 And every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head—it is just as though her head were shaved. 6 If a woman does not cover her head, she should have her hair cut off; and if it is a disgrace for a woman to have her hair cut or shaved off, she should cover her head."

It was already Christ's example for men to not have their head covered, while women on the other hand must have her head covered during worship. However, churches nowadays do the complete opposite. Some men in other churches, even among the leaders in the church, cover their heads during worship. However, even this teaching proves to be the seed of weeds sown as Jesus set the example of women covering their head. So really, the fact that Church of God World Mission Society wears the veil for sisters, but not for brothers, is not strange. It is Christ's example of the order of worship. Actually, it's strange if churches don't follow this way if they are called Christians.

Through the yearly feasts of God we can also distinguish which church is following the example of Christ, having the seeds of wheat sown by the Son of Man.

Acts 2:1 "When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. 2 Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. 3 They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. 4 All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them."

Again, following the example of Christ, the Disciples gathered together to keep the Feast of the Day of Pentecost. While most churches do not regard this day as so important, it the day specified in the Bible to receive God's Holy Spirit. Therefore, the church keeping the Day of Pentecost, correctly, is the church built on the foundation of Christ and the Apostles; as well as the church in which the Son of Man sowed the seeds of wheat. Church of God World Mission Society, by no coincidence, keeps the Day of Pentecost at its appointed time in the Bible.

Have you ever heard of the Feast of Tabernacles? Actually, Jesus Christ kept this feast, too!

John 7:2 "But when the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles was near, 3 Jesus' brothers said to him, 'You ought to leave here and go to Judea, so that your disciples may see the miracles you do'... 14 Not until halfway through the Feast did Jesus go up to the temple courts and begin to teach... 37 On the last and greatest day of the Feast, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, 'If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink. 38 Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, streams of living water will flow from within him.'"

Jesus Himself kept the Feast of tabernacles. If it were because He was Jewish, then He would have slaughtered a lamb, as Moses' law prescribes. However, during the Feasts, Jesus only taught the Word of God, further setting the example of how to worship God during the feast. Following the example of Christ, Church of God World Mission Society also keeps the Feast of Tabernacles. How about the other churches?

It is important for our salvation that we find the correct church built on the foundation of Christ and the Apostles, keeping the teachings of Christ before He was sleeping. Before Christ left the earth, while He was still physically alive, He sowed the seed of wheat of the Gospel through the teachings of Sabbath, Passover, women wearing the veil, men not, and keeping the Feasts of God. However, in accordance to the parable, while everyone was sleeping the evil one came and sowed the bad seed which sprang into weeds, not wheat. Likewise, about 300 years after Christ sowed the good seed of truth, and some years after the Apostle died, satan sneakily planted the bad seed of falsehood and lawlessness. However, in this state of lawlessness, where can we go to find truth? Yes, Church of God World Mission Society, but how is it that this church can know the difference between true and false? How does the Church of God produce the good harvest of wheat?

John 14:26 "But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you."

Jesus already knew that satan would come and distort the truth He established at His 1st coming. That's why the Holy Spirit will "remind" us of what Jesus said. (Really Jesus will come back as the holy Spirit and remind His people about what He said the 1st time.)

However, it is the Church of God World Mission Society that is the only church that keeps all of the teachings and words of Christ before his sleep. This is why we believe in Christ Ahnsahnghong. Jesus has returned as Christ Ahnsahnghong and reminded us of what He has said in His 1st coming in AD 33. Christ Ahnsahnghong re-established all the truth of the Bible and reseeded all of the wheat that was damaged from the devil. However, Christ Ahnsahnghong has not brought judgment on the false churches, the lawless, just yet. Why not? In accordance with His word of 2000 years ago:

Matt 13: 27 "The owner's servants came to him and said, 'Sir, didn't you sow good seed in your field? Where then did the weeds come from?' 28" 'An enemy did this,' he replied. "The servants asked him, 'Do you want us to go and pull them up?' 29" 'No,' he answered, 'because while you are pulling the weeds, you may root up the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest. At that time I will tell the harvesters: First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; then gather the wheat and bring it into my barn."

The life force of the weeds is stronger than that of the wheat. They must prevail until the harvest. Though they appear to be sturdy, inside there is no crop. Likewise, all lawless churches flourish now, looking so luxurious outwardly. However, inside, there is no truth and nothing to lead us to salvation. God is waiting until the last Judgment Day to gather the weed-like churches to be burned in the fiery furnace of Hell. On the other hand, the wheat though looks so humble, inside there is a crop that God is looking for. This is proved to be the Church of God World Mission Society. Church of God World Mission Society may not be the most popular church, nor is it so fancy looking, but inside here is the true teachings of Christ. Church of God World Mission Society has been built on the foundation of the Apostles and the Christ who is prophesied to remind the Children of God of all the truth of God through which we can be saved. And on the last Judgment Day, Christ Ahnsahnghong will bring us to the Heavenly Barn, and take us to the Kingdom of Heaven. God bless you all.

Do you think we can go to heaven by just believe in God not following commands of God?? If you follow commands of God please tell me your Thuth!!

By: Happy girl on April 15, 2008 at 10:47 pm

If sunday service is written in the Bible please show me!! If we have to worship to Cross where is the evidence??

Reply

It's not true. Church of God follow the teaching of Bible.

By: cham on April 15, 2008 at 11:15 pm

And it receive many rewards because of so many public services.

But other churchs don't keep the Truth of Bible. They can't know the will of God.

Reply

Jamie and others.

By: returnedangel on April 15, 2008 at 11:16 pm

You have to distinguish what age we are living now?

The age of Holy Father?

The age of Holy Spirit?

We are living in the age of Holy Spirit.

Reply

You don't know about Trinity.

Church of God has received the prize from Korea Republic Government.
Government of One Country never give prize to Pagan or cult.
You know.

Many People want to seek for truth and visit now.
You convince to be saved at the last day by God?
Do you keep God's commandments?

Sunday service is not based on the Bible.
Christmas is also not based on the Bible.
Woman have to wear a veil during the service time.
Cross is idol.
You are doing idolatry evidently.

Look and Open your eyes.
Open the Bible.

And If you don't and can't believe Church of God and hate us.
It's up to you.
Why you abuse us?
You are jealous of our Church of God?

Don't abuse and judge everything with your own thought and prejudice.

<http://usa.watv.org>

<http://english.watv.org>

By: returnedangel on April 15, 2008
at 11:19 pm

Please drop by.

Reply

Nowadays, many people say with their lips, "we believe in god and follow the teachings of the bible."

By: EMPIEZA on April 15, 2008
at 11:23 pm

Apparently they seem to be established to serve God; they put up crossed and keep the Sunday service and Christmas, thanks giving day, instead of the command of God that was written in the Bible.
actually they follow falsehood, turning their faces from the righteous teaching of the bible.

Reply

We require to see whether or not they follow God's will - whether they base their teachings and deeds on the Bible or not. Do you think you can be saved if you do not keep God's command?

The Bible warns us not to add or subtract even the smallest letter from the Bible. (Rev22:18) only he who does the will of God can be saved.(Mt 7:21)
According to all these teaching of the Bible, Church of God World Mission Society follow the will of God, so that we may received salvation from God.

Then let me ask you a question: Did the thief who hung on the cross go to heaven? He did

By: Jamie on April 15,
2008

not keep the passover, go to church on sabbath day or command his women to wear veils.

at 11:31 pm

Reply

So was Jesus lying then when He was on the cross?

Fools and blind, all of you.

returnedangel knows nothing of the Trinity save what the CoG teaches him/her. That's why I call him/her blind.

By: Jamie on April 15, 2008
at 11:36 pm

Honestly, you are like a broken answering machine. You always spout the same arguments. "Open your bible", "you never study the bible", "why you persecute the church".

Reply

My answer to you is "shut up". Why don't YOU open the bible for yourself, study it for yourself and understand the word of God WITHOUT the lens of CoG's teachings and allow the REAL Holy Spirit to guide you into all truth?

Do you have a degree in theology? How many hours a day do yuo spend readingthe bible? How many books have you written on the teachings in the bible?

You have no right and authority to act as if we did not already read the bible and claim we do not study it. Put a sock in it.

I will now delete comments that contain the same content. I have had enough of your tired nonsense. You teach legalistic, dead teachings that draw men into hellfire and I WILL NOT STAND FOR IT.

^ ^ *

Why Church of God WMC is spreading to the wholeworld now?

By: Wow! on April 16, 2008
at 12:09 am

Reply

Because This Church was built by God not man. Many People want to meet true truth not man's thinking and made truth by man.

<http://english.watv.org/>

Hi Jamie. God bless you. You know there's still time and all you have to do is hear what the Spirit says to the churches. That's is Christ Ahnsahnghong, the One who fulfill all prophecies of the Second Coming of Christ. You know I really believe in Jesus as my personal savior but you have to understand that putting Jesus examples in practice is like a wise man who built his house on the

By: brofromzion on April 16, 2008
at 3:32 am

Reply

rock just as Jesus said and now we are living in the age of the Holy Spirit, so we must seek the Holy Spirit. Ahnsahnghong reminded us of all the hidden truths and teachings of Jesus Christ that was abolished as prophecied. Sunday worship, Communion, Christmas, Thanks Giving are all man-made traditions. God bless you Jamie.

Like mentioned earlier no questions will be be answered. Fools are unable to provide the history of these fake Gods. They talk of idols and they worship false Gods. They do not follow the 10 Commandments. They eat the bullshit that is spread out to them and keep posting in the same old mama's recipe's of KIMCHI which gets boring The prophecies what this man fulfilled is to have 2 & 3 wives, tamper with the Bible and what was his end result? God dies of Haemorrhage. I wonder if all that happened when Jesus died & how he ascended. I was there in the 80's Instead of making a visit to Lourdes or Holy land I would be too happy to meet Jesus in Korea LOL.
Wake up dudes. These long posts will have no effect out here

By: Bertha on April 16, 2008
at 3:49 am

Reply

My sister believed God for a long time. Then she changed her church. Now, my sister go to the Church of God. She said to me the Church of God is the only church which keeping the teaching of the bible, the Sunday service and the Christmas are not the teaching of the Bible. When I heard that in the first, I really surprised and excited. But I worried my sister, because it different from other churches.

By: jasica on April 16, 2008
at 10:09 am

Reply

Then, my sister was changed after she go to the Church of God. Now, she really looks like happy, she always smile. And she is very attentive to family. In weekend she cooks for family. wow!!! She really lovely.

Now, I come to know the reason.
Other church don't keeping the teaching of God. The Sunday service and the Christmas is not the teaching of God. It's only the teaching of Man. Then, how could they be saved and how could they have real happy?

I love my sister. I will go to the Church of God together. Because I also want to be happy.

Jamie

By: returnedangel on April 16, 2008
at 2:57 pm

Thief was saved by God because of Jesus' promise.
You don't know anything about salvation.
Never.

Reply

Just Passover or Sabbath can save us?
No.
We keep this because God commanded and promised us.

Through God's word and promise, We can be saved.
Thief received promise from Jesus, God.
So he is now in heaven.

Calm down.
You insist you spend much time to study and teach the Bible.
Even You did and do that.
Your effort will be resulted in waste of your time.
Because You don't know the truth and have promise of eternal life.

Matt 7:21
Though you call God everyday, God will look on you indifference.
Because You never keep God's commandment and words.

Even Thief didn't keep Sabbath or Passover ,He was saved because of God's promise.

By: returnedangel on April 16, 2008
at 2:58 pm

Did you receive the promise like him?
Never.

Reply

Yod didn't.

I'm touched with pity for you.

By: returnedangel on April 16, 2008
at 3:02 pm

Even you blame our Church of God, We will be prousperous more and more.
Because We follow God and keep God's all example.

Reply

Do you believe in Jesus?
And then you also have to keep his words.

Don't use insulting language and curses.

By: returnedangel on April 16, 2008
at 3:05 pm

You seems to be in excited and enraged too much.
Calm down.

Reply

To Returnedangl and Brofromzion.
Well you lot are fun to talk to. You harp on about the sabbath – yet Jesus refused to let it interfare with his work. "My Father works on the Sabbath, and so do I" you can look up the reference. About the rosary. Do you know what it is? Why it is signifcant? No I didn't think so. As I have mentioned before, what you say during prayer is the crutch of what is going on. Prayer does not equal worship. What you say, ask or plea is important. I guess this is a bit tricky for you but stay with me and you can see the difference. Take your time – The Words You Say Count! Oh and the bit about "Who is my mother, who is my brother" Lets look at the cross when Jesus is dying. He looks down at Mary and John and says "Behold, your Son, Behold your

By: Bruce on April 16, 2008
at 4:55 pm

Reply

Mother". Was she important to Jesus? Guess.
OK lets look at christmas. This is a non event as far as I can see. God speaks neither for, nor against it in the Old Testament. Jesus speaks neither for nor against it either. You know why? It hadn't been invented. if people want to celebrate their Saviour's birth then so what. Going to hell for that are we? Why?
OK communion. Jesus sits with his deciples and breaks the bread. "This is my body". Pass around the wine. "This is the blood of my covenant." He washes their feet. He gives them a new comandment. This does not sound like he is just reaffirming an old jewish tradition of the passover/unleaven bread. I know what the passover festival was about – and if Jesus was just celebrating that, then why the things I have mentioned. You guys need to look deeper.

The bottom line is, If Ahnsahnhong is Christ re-incarnated – then you guys are right and you are home and hosed. You win. We lose. You guys get to go to heaven and we don't. All the stuff about what to say, think and follow will be your victory.
Now, if Christ hasn't come back with a new human body and person – then sorry, Matthew 7,21 is referring to you and the Church of God.

I am not risking my shot at paradise on the belief that Jesus found it nescessary to come back as Ahnsaghong.

I have left out bible references that I have quoted from. It might do you good to read the parts of the bible that your teachers havn't underlined.

Hi everyone. God bless you all. In these last days, we must seek the spiritual Zion, where all God's feasts and laws are being kept for our salvation. Christ Ahnsahnghong, came from Jerusalem Mother, is the One who established it, according to the Bible.

By: brofromzion on April 16, 2008
at 4:58 pm

Reply

Ezekiel 37:24" "My servant David will be king over them, and they will all have one shepherd. They will follow my laws and be careful to keep my decrees.

According to this prophecy, David will be king in the future. But at the time that Ezekiel wrote this, King David had already been dead for 400 years. Then which King David is he talking about? It must be Prophetical King David.

Luke 1:31You will be with child and give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus.

Luke 1:32He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David,

Then who was given David's throne? According to this verse, it was Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ had to fulfill the throne of King David which is why he was baptized at age 30, the same age that David was when he became king. But once He became prophetic King David, what must He do?

2 Samuel 5:7 Nevertheless, David captured the fortress of Zion, the City of David.

2 Samuel 5:9 David then took up residence in the fortress and called it the City of David. He built up the area around it, from the supporting terraces inward.

Then prophetic King David must build up spiritual Zion. Which Zion must He build up, Physical Zion in the Palestine area or Spiritual Zion? It should be spiritual Zion, then what makes up spiritual Zion?

Isaiah 33:20 Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals; your eyes will see Jerusalem, a peaceful abode, a tent that will not be moved; its stakes will never be pulled up, nor any of its ropes broken.

Isaiah 33:24 No one living in Zion will say, "I am ill"; and the sins of those who dwell there will be forgiven.

Zion is where the Feasts of God are celebrated and we can receive the forgiveness of sins. What are the Feasts of God?

Leviticus 23:2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'These are my appointed feasts, the appointed feasts of the LORD, which you are to proclaim as sacred assemblies.

The Sabbath, The Passover and Unleavened Bread , Firstfruits, Feast of Weeks , Feast of Trumpets , Day of Atonement , Feast of Tabernacles

2000 years ago all these feasts were established by Jesus Christ. However, in 321 AD Roman emperor Constantine abolished the Sabbath and in 325 a.d. the Passover was abolished also. (Dan 7:25)

Then once these Feasts were abolished what happened to Zion? Zion was destroyed but what will God do?

Micah 4:1 In the last days....The law will go out from Zion, the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

Who will rebuild Zion in the last days then?

Psalms 102:16 For the LORD will rebuild Zion and appear in his glory.

King David ruled for 40 years. However, Jesus only preached for 3 years. So that means that must come back again to fulfill these prophecies. Christ Ahnsahnghong was baptized and preached and established the truths of Zion at the age of 30 in 1948 that was abolished by the Constantine, Roman Emperor in 325 AD and died when He was 37 years old in 1985.

King David = 40 years

Jesus = 3

AhnsahngHong = 37

According to the Scriptures only God can rebuild Zion. But nowadays, Church of God World Mission Society is the only Church who celebrated the Feasts of God. Christ AhnsahngHong brought these Feasts back and reestablished Zion which was in ruins. He is the Lord Almighty. God bless you all.

Church of God is true one keeping Command of God and it was built up by God.
The bad word about Church of God is a lie.

By: happylife on April 16, 2008 at 5:02 pm

Have you read the verses in the Bible??

Reply

1 John 2 : 3~

We know that we have come to know him if we obey his commands. The man who says "I know him," but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But if anyone obeys his word, God's love is truly made complete in him. This is how we know we are in him : Whoever claims to live in him must walk as Jesus did.

God said those who do not keep the commands of God are liars.
Nowadays many Christians are keeping Sunday service, Christmas and worshipping cross.
They are keeping not the command of God but men's teaching.
How do they recognize God and truth and salvation.
Their word is just liar.
That is not true.
we have to listen to God carefully.

Do you know that our church?
Your content of a story is not true.

By: Sarang on April 16, 2008 at 5:20 pm

I think that maybe you keep the Feasts of man.(Mt.15:8)
->(Sunday service, christmas..)
your actions is not God's will (Mt.7:21)

Reply

This post is beneath criticism.

Hi Bruce. God bless you. Well, looks like you don't understand the Bible clearly. You know why? Because your interpretation is only your own opinion. Only God knows His own thoughts and unfortunately you don't even believe and seek Him carefully.

By: brofromzion on April 16, 2008 at 6:10 pm

Reply

Matthew 15:1-9 [Then some Pharisees and teachers of the law came to Jesus from Jerusalem and asked, "Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? They don't wash their hands before they eat!" Jesus replied, "And why do you break the command of God for the sake of your tradition? For God said, 'Honor your father and mother' and 'Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.' But you say that if a man says to his father or mother, 'Whatever help you might otherwise have received from me is a gift devoted to God,' he is not to 'honor his father with it. Thus you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition. You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you: These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men."]

Jesus do and say things that Pharisees don't understand. I'm sorry to say but your starting to sound just like them. God bless you.

In the love of God, there is no racial discrimination or distinction between the rich and the poor. At the 2002 World cup, the members of the Church of God displayed voluntary activities, and at the 2002 Busan Asian Games and the FESPIC Games and at the 2003 Daegu Summer Universiade, they formed supporters groups and shared friendship with the athletes from over 170 countries. They spread the love of God and the warmheartedness of the Koreans to the whole world.

By: richman.love on April 16, 2008 at 7:03 pm

Reply

Honestly, arguments for CoG just stink of FAIL.

By: Jamie on April 16, 2008 at 9:46 pm

You raise examples where CoG has done voluntary work to help others. Okay, well and good. However, the amount they do is still lacking when compared to the amount that is done by the entirety of Christendom. I laugh at you, CoG.

Reply

You call people Pharisee. I almost fell down with laughter! A legalistic hypocrite calling someone else a legalistic hypocrite! Again, I laugh at you CoG.

You raise up silly points about CoG expanding worldwide, as if it is proof that God's favor is upon in. Well, what's the fastest growing religion in the world? Not CoG. It's still Christianity if you count pure conversions and not growth by birth. I laugh at your ignorance, CoG.

How many members does CoG have in South Korea where they started? I don't know, but I don't think it crosses 500 million. How many Christians are there in the world? Over 1 billion. I laugh at your silliness, CoG.

How large is CoG altogether? Does it even reach 1 million? Compare the works of the largest church in South Korea: Yoido Full Gospel Church. 750, 000 members and tons and tons of charity and humanitarian work. Comparing the two, which seems to be more favored by God? I'm still laughing at you, CoG.

How many years has CoG had to grow their numbers? Close to 40 now? How many years did it take for the church that was blessed by God to grow in the early days? Very few years. They grew at an explosive rate all around the world. So, what happened to God's power to spread His teachings? Did He get tired and old and can't work as fast anymore? What a weak god CoG has! I am still laughing at CoG.

You claim that we never study the bible and that it is our opinion. How many CoG members have doctorates in theology? In contrast, how many Christians study the bible everyday in depth for a living? I still laugh at you, CoG.

How much power does CoG have to heal the sick, raise the dead, heal the lame and heal the blind? Can CoG move in the power of the Holy Spirit to make demons manifest and flee? Compare that to what men and women of God have done, both in and outside of the charismatic circles. Where's the power of God moving most actively? In Christianity. Cog? Powerless. I'm laughing still, CoG.

You people are ridiculous. Simply full of nonsense, you can't help but expose your own ignorance and blindness. When people counter your shallow arguments with solid ones, you accuse them of not studying the bible and not believing in God.

Enough is enough. As far as everything is concerned, Christianity does not need a fake Christ named Ang Sahn Hong. Nothing said here will ever convince you CoG members because you are lost in your blindness and deception and you simply do not want to critically examine your beliefs. Away with you, liars and deceivers! I shall no longer entertain your comments on this page.

Christianity = 10,000,000,000,000,000 +++
CoG = 0

Christianity pwns CoG anytime!

phew... I dont seem like to read the post... all of you're insulting each other... the aura of this forum is so uncomfortable... seems like MASSAAL ATTACK.... Why should all of you jeer each others and make proud of your church? and btw my questions have never been answered until now... thank you for that...

By: nijuroku on April 16, 2008 at 9:57 pm

Reply

Now I'm believing in God, and I think I do the right things, which are written in 10 commandment... is that enough? Honestly I dont like the way that CoG members treat others.. why should insult?

I believe in Jesus and I dont know about Ahn Sang Hong... and I want to ask one thing... why Ahn Sang Hong predicted that second coming Jesus will come in 1988?

Thank you before...

nijuroku

almost 2 months I studied bible in CoG Singapore... and I KNOW ALL about your argument above... about PassOver, Mother, ... , worldcup 2002, etc... then there are alot of questions that are hanging.. I want to ask you all CoG members here... but no repond from you all? why? my question is so difficult meh?

By: nijuroku on April 16, 2008 at 10:14 pm

Reply

this post is only to remind you to answer my question...

Thank you again

nijuroku

All I see are "Interpretations" Bible passages here...

By: Jason on April 17, 2008 at 12:41 am

Brofromizion and anyone else. You gave me your answer on how WMS figured Ahnsahnhong was the 2nd coming...however...

Reply

Can you explain to me how the World Mission Society explains Ahnsahnhong's prophecies of 1967 and 1988?

My other Question is Did Ahnshanhong actually tell his followers that his spiritual wife was Mother Jerusalem or did she and other's proclaim that after his death in 1985?

T o Brofromzion. Well arn't you the bees knees. Yo didn't address my points did you. You just suggested I can't understand the bible, only you can. Personal opinion? I sound like the Pharisees? Give me a break.

By: Bruce on April 17, 2008 at 2:27 am

Reply

And the bible passage you quote. What does that mean? You haven't addressed the points. You just turn to your small narrow list of beliefs and call everyone else mistaken. You have to understand I don't comment for your sake. You are lost to logic and understanding. You hang your hat on a small narrow list of beliefs that someone told you would save your soul And of course, you want your soul saved. Who doesn't. But Jesus decides who gets to heaven, not a list of instructions you have drawn up from reading the bible. There are meanings lost on you. The new testament means a new arrangement. A new agreement. a new deal. You continue to quote the old testament bringing up old arrangements that Jesus superseded. He can because it is his right to do so. He reaffirmed what he wanted followed and dismissed those he didn't. He died on the cross to bring God of the jews to God of the world. I never hear COG people speak of these other matters. Only their little list that they follow. For those reading this who are wondering who is right.

Read the bible yourself, without using it like a law book, quoting this part and this part to show this or that. It can speak to your heart and guide you. That is it's role.

hello all??

By: nijuroku on April 17, 2008 at 10:39 am

Can you SEE and READ my posting?? I'm always not getting responses... Are my question meaningless?

Reply

I want to let you know my posting are on April 15, 2008 at 10:09 am and on April 16, 2008 at 9:57 pm... please scroll your mouse up to find it and answer it... -_-"

Thank you... GodBless~

nijuroku

I have a hard time seeing the Bible, or any holy book, as "Reliable", in general. To illustrate the point, I would like to point out some similarities between the Bible and the ancient Egyptian beliefs (being the oldest civilization we have found so far...Sumerian's, Indians and Chinese civ's debatable – all roughly 3,000 BC – maybe more?)

By: Jason on April 17, 2008 at 11:15 am

Reply

1. Horus, the Son of God, Immaculately conceived by the Virgin Mother Isis on Dec. 25th. Heralded by the eastern star and adored by 3 kings. As a child he was a prodigal teacher and at the age of 30 was baptized by Anup and thus began his ministry. Later Horus was crucified, killed and buried and after 3 days was resurrected and ascended into the heavens. (sound familiar?) There are a lot more similarities between Horus and Jesus and Isis and Mary that I will not bore you with here. In fact there are dozens, if not 100's of ancient religions that share these same fundamental traits!

2. Mises – as a child was placed in a reed basket and set down a river to avoid infanticide, rescued and raised as royalty. Later was a prophet and spoken-to on top of a mountain, by god and came down to deliver the 10 laws of man, written on stone tablets, which today is known as spell 125 in the Egyptian book of the dead (sounds familiar also)

3. Egyptian(name forgotten by me right now), God spoke to this man and warned him of a global flood, caused by mans sins, ordered him to build an arc/boat with one door, one window, load it with animals, etc. He Released a dove later on which was the holy spirit..(sound familiar?)

The list of similarities goes on and on for anyone who wishes to study ancient history, religion, and mythology – we don't learn these things in Sunday/Saturday school though...

My Question: How do Christians, in general, let alone WMS members explain these things?

It is hard for me to know these things and not feel that the Bible is direct plagiarism of religions and myths that existed before. However, it doesn't answer my questions of the messages and lessons to be found in all these religions.

It seems to me that if one studies the history of religion, and not just the passages of the Bible – you will find that most religions are so more Fundamentally Similar than different.

Isn't it possible that over time, Extra has been added on? Politically minded men and Religion are a dangerous combination.

Most of us in this world are Christian, Jewish, Hindu, Buddhist, or any other Religion, not by choice – but because we were Taught to Be. Here in America, our whole social framework is Religious, whether we have ever stepped inside a church or not. We see religious leaders as authority figures above all else – We're conditioned to.

I tend to feel that if we could spend more time Studying the Similarities of World Religions – Rather than the Differences... We might start to make Real Spiritual Progress.

Furthermore, nothing short of a "Supernatural" event can Truly Prove anything.

That's why the word "Faith" was invented – right?

God bless you Jason. I, myself, I member of World Mission Society Church of God believes and follows only God through the Bible as absolute for salvation. To your above comment,

I just wanna ask, if you have enough information. Is the Egyptian book of the dead have real similar to Old and New Testament of the Bible? I'd like to know. But as of now, I will only following Christ Ahnsahnghong, the Second Coming of Jesus Christ as prophecied in the Bible.

By: brofromzion on April 17, 2008
at 4:04 pm

Reply

Isaiah 34:16 [Look in the scroll of the LORD and read: None of these will be missing, not one will lack her mate. For it is his mouth that has given the order, and his Spirit will gather them together.]

Clearly, Christ Ahnsahnghong, the Holy Spirit, will gather God's people for salvation.

Revelation 3:12 ["Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of my God. Never again will he leave it. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on him my new name."]

Revelation 2:17 ["He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden manna. I will also give him a white stone with a new name written on it, known only to him who receives it."]

Revelation 22:13 [I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.]

God the Father Jehovah, God the Son Jesus, God the Holy Spirit AhnsahngHong, Trinity in One as God. God bless you Jason.

Jason, are you sure? Ra was the Sun god. Horus the Sky god, born of Osiris and Isis, both gods. December 25th is a christian date given to celebrate Jesus's birth. It wasn't even a guess at when he was really born. No one knows when he was born. The bible just doesn't say. You say dozens if not 100s of similar facts. You sure? sounds like something easy to say.

I think you have been sold something like snake oil. As for the flood. If you follow the bible, everyone died in the flood except for Noah and his family. Since they were the only ones to have survived, the world must have been repopulated by them, and so their story would have been passed down for generations. When the tower of babel was being built, some time after the flood, and no time line is given, by the ancestors of Noah, God confused the population by giving them different languages. Everyone went off with their language. Perhaps one of those languages was egyptian, and your story you mention refers to the actual same flood of Noah. See, there are other explanations.

People make their own way in this world. You get to 12-13 yrs old and you start sorting out what you believe, or accept. That is the right of adulthood to accept or reject religious teaching. I don't accept people are just born to a label and stay there. You make a conscious choice at some level, to stay or go.

I agree with your comment about politically motivated people and religion can be a dangerous combination. As for the other stuff, I wouldn't be so quick to swallow it. People, scientists, historians, will fill in the gaps to make their research look good.

If we study the religions you mentioned, we find Jews are basically Old Testament Followers, Christians New Testament Followers. Buddhists and Hindus do not believe in God. Islam follow a prophet that denies Christ as the Son of God. So, none of the various religions are not similar at all. The major ones are fundamentally incompatible. This doesn't mean we have to spend our days fighting and killing each other. We can follow our own callings to whatever ends they bring us. But I wouldn't agree with dressing up some old egyptian and greek gods stories to look like the Christians just borrowed old legends to claim as their own.

By: Bruce on April 17, 2008 at 5:40 pm

Reply

God bless you Bruce. So do you really wanna hear the word of God or you already made up your mind because I am a member of World Mission Society Church of God and I am just making up what the Bible says?

By: brofromzion on April 17, 2008 at 6:13 pm

Reply

Matthew 5:17-20 [Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished. Anyone who breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practices and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.]

Is it clear to you? Jesus didn't abolish the Law, but He fulfill them. Did Jesus abolish the Passover?

Matthew 26:18-19 [He replied, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, 'The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.' "So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.]

Matthew 26:26-28 [While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.]

What about Sabbath Day?

Luke 4:16 [He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was HIS CUSTOM. And he stood up to read.]

Clearly. Jesus kept God's law to set us the example. So tell me Bruce, should we keep God's law or don't follow it? Do you even know where God's law will go out on the last days? It is prophesied in the Bible.

Micah 4:1-2 [In the last days the mountain of the LORD's temple will be established as chief among the mountains; it will be raised above the hills, and peoples will stream to it. Many nations will come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us his ways, so that we may walk in his paths." The law will go out from Zion, the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.]

Christ Ahnsahnghong, who came from Zion where all God's feast, laws, customs, and wills are kept reminded us of all Jesus taught us just a prophesied in the Bible. I hope that your spiritual ears hears what the Spirit(Ahnsahnghong) says to the churches and we can become brothers of Jesus. God bless you.

Brofromzion you missed my point. No, I didn't say he abolished the sabbath. He told us to use our common sense about it. No he didn't abolish the passover (Catholics celebrate it as well, but you might not know that) but clearly he was bringing something new to the table. Do you not see that? Try re reading it.

As for you Ahnsaghong – where are the bible teachings of him? His name mentioned? Prophet?

As long as you preach a new Christ – Ahnsahng hong, then we can't be brothers. And you still haven't explained where God outlawed Christmas -birthdays in general – or Easter.

And to the person out there reading this – a message for you. Just leave. You owe them nothing. Your family will support you. Change your name and hide from them. you will get your chance soon, in a crowd. Just walk away.

And to you Brofromzion – goodbye. Chatting was fun, but you are deluded. next time I am in church I will light a candle for you.

By: Bruce on April 17, 2008
at 6:47 pm

Reply

When the second coming happens I hope that he or she atleast knows that they are the second coming of Christ and people don't just say that after they die. If not I have a feeling we are in for a whole lot more Ahnsahng hong's

By: ramblinrose on April 18, 2008
at 3:25 pm

Reply

Hi everyone. God bless you all. I see lots of people are asking about Ahnsahng hong's prediction that He's coming back in 1988 and He did not. Through the Bible, we can find out why.

By: brofromzion on April 18, 2008
at 4:43 pm

Reply

John 5:17-18 [Jesus said to them, "My Father is always at his work to this very day, and I, too, am working." For this reason the Jews tried all the harder to kill him; not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was even calling God his own Father, making himself equal with God.]

In this verse, Jesus healed the invalid man that was lying for 38 years and Jews tried to kill Him because they said He was breaking the Sabbath and making Himself equal to God. So many of you wondering, did Jesus abolish it now because of this? I don't think so.

Matthew 12:8 [For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.]

Luke 6:5 [Then Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."]

Luke 4:16 [He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was HIS CUSTOM. And he stood up to read.]

Matthew 5:17-20 [Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished. Anyone who breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practices and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.]

Is Jesus contradicting Himself? Who are we to question what Christ does and say? Who can Judge God? Second Coming Christ Ahnsahnghong is Testified in the Bible.

2,000 years ago, Jesus Christ came for the forgiveness of sins but many people rejected him, failing to know God through the Bible instead of their using their own fixed concepts. We cannot expect anything from God but instead we should try to understand God's will through the Bible. Through the Bible we can see more confirmation concerning our Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong.

Luke 12:49 ["I have come to bring fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! But I have a baptism to undergo, and how distressed I am until it is completed!"]

At this time Jesus Christ was already baptized by John the Baptist, how can he be baptized twice? This is testimony that Jesus gave about his second coming, let's confirm.

Luke 18:8 ["I tell you, he will see that they get justice, and quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"]

Jesus Christ says "when the Son of Man comes" but how can he say this while he was already on the earth talking to the disciples? Jesus was clearly talking about the future when he comes a second time.

Romans 10:14 ["How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? and how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them?"]

Romans 10:17 ["Consequently faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word of Christ."]

Even though we have never heard the name Christ Ahnsahnghong, the only way to believe in him is through the Bible. The Bible offers ample testimony on how to recognize Christ. Now we have no problems accepting the name Jesus but let's see about the people who lived during the time of Jesus.

John 5:39 ["You diligently study the Scriptures because you think that by them you possess eternal life. These are the Scriptures that testify about me, yet you refuse to come to me to have life.”]

Many people rejected Jesus, even those who studied the Bible refused to accept Jesus Christ. Jesus even testified that he will be rejected when he returns

John 14:16 [“And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counselor to be with you forever– the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him.]

Hebrews 9:28 [“so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.”]

Second Coming Christ will come to bring salvation but he will be rejected in the same way Jesus was rejected. Christ Ahnsahnghong brought us salvation through the Passover and all of the Feasts of God. However, many people will reject Christ Ahnsahnghong even though they study the Bible because they fail to understand God’s will instead of their own fixed concepts. I hope that through this post, our brother’s and sister’s will think twice before judging anything before taking the time to learn God’s will through the Bible. The mistake that the Pharisees is they did not look in the Scripture about the prophecy of the First Coming of Christ. So please let’s keep the Bible as absolute and searching it careful so we don’t make the same mistake like the Pharisees 2000 years ago. May all thanks be to Christ Ahnsahnghong and Heavenly Mother. God bless you all.

Another FAIL post. Again, he gives no answer. He only says things like “Who are we to question God?”

By: Jamie on April 18, 2008
at 6:49 pm

Obviously your god FAILED big time. You even admitted that Ang Sahn Hong was wrong about the prophecy. SO totally unlike the real Jesus.

Reply

CoG = FAIL

Prophecy is the reason why we believe in the Bible, Jamie. Today people only believe something when they see it. but how about telling something before it happens, that is what the Bible does.

By: brofromzion on April 18, 2008
at 8:49 pm

Reply

Jn 14:29[I have told you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe.]

Second coming Christ is prophesied to come to this earth, and many prophecies about this event have been left in the scriptures. Now before we could discuss about how Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled these prophecies some bases have to be laid out.

2 Pt 1:20 [Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation]

No prophecy of the Bible needs to be interpreted by anyone, As Christians we are told not to give our opinion on any prophetic symbol in the word of God, we should let the word of God define itself; our private interpretations are useless.

Is 34:16 {Look in the scroll of the Lord and read: None of these will be missing, not one will lack her mate...]

Example, there are 278 verses in the book of Revelation that contain prophetic symbols, and all 278 verses can be found word for word in all the other books of the Bible.

Rev 22:1-2 [The the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb down the middle of the great street of the city. On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations]

Now compare this verse to:

Eze 47:12 [Fruit trees of all kinds will grow on both banks of the river. Their leaves will not wither, nor will their fruit fail. Every month they will bear , because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will serve for food and their leaves for healing"]

Same meaning, and just like this each verse of the Bible has a matching verse that will allow you to understand the prophetic meaning of itself. The Bible defines itself perfectly. In this way we could identify who is really saying the truth. See what a person proclaims, then match it up with the Bible to see if what they claim goes with what the Bible says, if it doesn't, you could reveal the lie.

In his book "Science Speaks", scientist Peter Stoner says: "If there was only 8 prophecies in the whole Christian Bible, the chances of one man fulfilling all those prophecies is 1 in 10(17th). "That would be one in 100,000,000,000,000,000."

Later on Mr. Stoner gives an illustration of how big this chance is:

Picture the whole state of Texas(263,000 square miles), covered two feet deep with dimes, now paint one of the coins red and throw it in the pile. now blindfold a man, and set him in any place of Texas, tell him that he could travel wherever he wants for however time he needs, and that his only task is to pick up only one coin, and it must be the red one that he picks up, and that he needs to be 100% accurate only on the first try. It would be easier for that man to do that, than for 8 prophecies of the Bible to be fulfilled in one man. that is how true and awesome Bible prophecy is.

Well just to name a few prophecies that Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled we could find: King David, Melchizedek, Last Adam, Who established Zion, Fig tree Lesson, About the East, Tree of Life, Root of David. and many more.

John 5:39 ["You diligently study the Scriptures because you think that by them you possess eternal life. These are the Scriptures that testify about me, yet you refuse to come to me to have life."]

God bless you Jamie.

Prophecy is also why Ang Sahn Hong is a fake. He FAILED. Jesus NEVER FAILED.

By: Jamie on April 18, 2008 at 9:38 pm

CoG = FAIL

Reply

Besides, my grandparents also fulfilled the prophecy of Melchizedek by your twisted interpretation. Does that make my father the second coming Christ as well?

LOL@CoG. So much FAIL in this cult, it's hilarious!

God bless you Jamie. Seems to me that your not reading your Bible carefully. All these prophecies that Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled in the Bible for the Second Coming of Christ and yet you still chastize Him because of that. Well I hope that someday, you'll be able to receive the Seal of God just before the four winds on the four corners of the earth be release according to the prophecy in the Bible so that you may escape the disaster. All I could say is I respect your faith. Remember, I am just preaching the word of God according to the Bible and THE BIBLE ONLY and we must all love one another according to Jesus Christ.

By: brofromzion on April 18, 2008 at 10:08 pm

Reply

Matthew 28:19 [Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.]

1 Corinthians 9:16-18 [Yet when I preach the gospel, I cannot boast, for I am compelled to preach. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! If I preach voluntarily, I have a reward; if not voluntarily, I am simply discharging the trust committed to me. What then is my reward? Just this: that in preaching the gospel I may offer it free of charge, and so not make use of my rights in preaching it.]

John 13:34-35 ["A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."]

God bless you Jamie.

Your response is another big fat FAIL.

ROFL.

By: Jamie on April 19, 2008
at 1:37 am

You just don't get it do you? Jesus Christ fulfilled ALL the prophecies, AND whatever He said would come to pass, came to pass. The Bible says the Word of God shall never fall away before it is fulfilled.

Reply

So what did Ang Sahn Hong do? Being the so-called 2nd Jesus, he gave a prophecy, which, IF he were really Jesus, would have come to pass with 100% certainty. BUT! HE FAILED! WAHAHAHAHAHA.

Therefore, Ang Sahn Hong may apparently fulfill your twisted interpretation of the scriptures, but he can't be Jesus if he spoke a false prophecy. Jesus would NEVER speak anything unless He heard it from the Father, and NOTHING the Father said would EVER FAIL to come to pass.

So you see, everyone, how the CoG members admit to following a false Jesus? How can Jesus be Jesus if whatever He says doesn't come to pass?

Also, your eschatology is another FAIL. I am already sealed with the blood of Jesus Christ and my name is already in the book of life. I will be raptured before the great tribulation, so who needs Ang Sahn Hong's teachings to seal me again? LOL.

CoG = FAIL
brofromzion = Admitted Ang Sahn Hong committed a FAIL
CoG admits Ang Sahn Hong was a FAILURE!

Wahahaha so funny! ROFLMAO!

hi brofromzion

By: nijuroku on April 19, 2008
at 9:46 am

you said "I see lots of people are asking about Ahnsahnghong's prediction that He's coming back in 1988 and He did not. Through the Bible, we can find out why".

Reply

when Ahn Sang Hong said that he will come back in 1988? Certainly before he's dead, right? In 1985, he died, and 1988 he will come again. 4 years and comin' again???

???

Are those prophecied in the Bible?
me getting confused...

then you said he didn't come??? He fulfilled all the things in the Bible you said but why didnt he fulfill his word itself??? Why should wrong? Honestly, I dont get your answer...

Thank You.. GodBless~

nijuroku

Many false prophets on this forum. They say they believe in the Bible and Jesus, yet they do not follow his commands.

By: marcus on April 19, 2008 at 10:15 am

Reply

THE Jesus in the Bible, kept the Sabbath of the New covenant, the Passover of the New Covenant as well as all of GOD's feasts.

Most Christians, worship A Jesus. They worship a Jesus that kept Sunday, Christmas, Easter, bowed down to statues of saints, etc..

These people know who they are, they are wolves dressed in sheeps clothing. They blaspheme the Holy Spirit and the bride who have come in accordance with the prophecies in the Bible.

You expose your true identity, the more you speak. You accuse the Church of God of heresy while you yourself do not keep the commands of God. Hypocrites!

If you truly believed in Jesus, you would keep his commands rather than man made teachings. Your refuse to keep God's commands and call it "legalism". Very sad indeed.

HI

By: nijuroku on April 19, 2008 at 11:11 am

Reply

DONT ALWAYS REPEAT ANOTHER POST... JUST ANSWER MY QUESTION FIRST...

THANKS BEFORE...

NIJUROKU(BAD MOOD)

Some people accuse that the World Mission Society Church of God causes a personal abuse on individuals. if these claims are correct, then Christianity itself causes personal abuse on society. according to the Bible all these claims fit perfectly on the Church of God that Christ established. Let us see.

By: brofromzion on April 20, 2008 at 5:28 am

Reply

1. Personality Changes Relatives will say they no longer recognize the person. The cult member sees himself as righteous in comparison and this comes across in their attitude toward all outsiders.

John 15:18-20 ["If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first. If you belonged to the world, it would love you as its own. As it is, you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world. That is why the world hates you. Remember the words I spoke to you: 'No servant is greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will persecute you also. If they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours also.]

2. Loss Of Identity They cannot see themselves as individuals apart from the group. Some even change their name as a rejection of their former life.

(Simon to Peter) Matthew 16:17-18 [Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by man, but by my Father in heaven. And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overcome it]

(Saul to Paul) Acts 22:2-6 [When they heard him speak to them in Aramaic, they became very quiet. Then Paul said: "I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city. Under Gamaliel I was thoroughly trained in the law of our fathers and was just as zealous for God as any of you are today. I persecuted the followers of this Way to their death, arresting both men and women and throwing them into prison, as also the high priest and all the Council can testify. I even obtained letters from them to their brothers in Damascus, and went there to bring these people as prisoners to Jerusalem to be punished. "About noon as I came near Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me. I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, 'Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?]

3. Paranoid – We Are Being Persecuted Any time you say anything negative about the group, whether justified or not, it is regarded as persecution. Any criticism of the individual is also seen as persecution only because they are the true believers or enlightened – not because they, as an individual, have done the wrong thing.

Jn 15:25 [But this is to fulfill what is written in their Law: 'They hated me without reason.]

2 Tim 3:12 [In fact, everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted]

1 Jn 3:13 [Do not be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you]

4. Social Disorientation They gradually lose their ability to socialize outside the group. This can go so far as to not being able to structure their time or make simple decisions for themselves when they leave. Their world-view alters and they perceive the world through their leaders eyes. They become very naive about life in general.

2 Timothy 2:3-4 [Endure hardship with us like a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No one serving as a soldier gets involved in civilian affairs-he wants to please his commanding officer.]

1 John 2:15 [Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.]

5. Severe Guilt Complexes They are made to feel guilty of everything they did before entering the group and are to strive to be good and worthy for eternal life.

Misdemeanors are made into mountains so that members are in a constant state of guilt for infringing even the most minor rules. Guilt comes because they aren't doing enough; entertaining doubts or questions; even thinking rationally for oneself. This guilt is piled upon pile with new rules constantly being laid down about what is sinful and what is not. Illness may be seen as lack of faith – more guilt. Emotional illness may be seen as proof of sin in your life – more guilt.

Galatians 1:13-14 [For you have heard of my previous way of life in Judaism, how intensely I persecuted the church of God and tried to destroy it. I was advancing in Judaism beyond many Jews of my own age and was extremely zealous for the traditions of my fathers.]

Philippians 3:4-7 [though I myself have reasons for such confidence. If anyone else thinks he has reasons to put confidence in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the law, a Pharisee; as for zeal, persecuting the church; as for legalistic righteousness, faultless. But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ.]

Romans 7:23-24 [but I see another law at work in the members of my body, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within my members. What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death?]

Clearly it is seen that these claims were made about the Church of God in the Bible. yet these people went to heaven.. these people were called TRUE CHRISTIANS, and are now praised by the whole Christian world. We cannot judge matters of God and the Bible in a worldly standard. Let us follow God according to the Bible. God bless you all.

mmm... I think those are your own thinking... your own perception... your own conclusion...
Bible cant be read in that way... right???

By: nijuroku on April 20, 2008 at 7:15 am if you do so then you refer to Mark 7:9 [And he said to them: "You have a fine way of setting aside the commands of God in order to observe your own traditions!"]

Reply

btw please cover my question up there thanks...

LOL another FAIL post from a member of FAIL church!

By: Jamie on April 20, 2008 at 3:32 pm

Honestly, I give you one more chance to actually answer nijuroku's question. Any more non-answers and I will just delete your comments. They're a waste of time.

Reply

CoG STILL = FAIL

WAHAHHAHA

The Church of God cannot be the true church as it observes the sabbath on the day before Sunday, which as we all know is CATURDAY. The holy day of LONGCAT.

By: spotron on April 21, 2008 at 1:05 am

Reply

You heretic! Every true believer knows that there is only one (Cat)God, and that is Ceiling Cat, and Happycat is His one and only Son!

By: Jamie on April 21, 2008 at 2:24 pm

Repent or you shall burn in hellfire with Basement Cat!

Reply

Church of God is a church full of FAIL, and Ang Sahng Hong was a FAILED prophet!

By: brofromzion on April 21, 2008 at 3:18 pm

Post edited because it did not answer nijuroku's question.

Reply

Dear Brofromzion,
Can you tell us a bit about Mother Jerusalem. What is her name? Does she have families? husband, children etc.? How did she get involved in World mission church of god in the first place?

By: Donnie on April 21, 2008 at 3:50 pm

Reply

You were talking also about 'before the end comes'. When is this going to happen exactly?

Thank you in advance for your repsonse i really appreciate it.

God bless you Donnie. Here's the study about Mother Jerusalem:

By: brofromzion on April 21, 2008 at 5:50 pm

The Church of God only follows the teachings of the Bible and believes in the Second Coming Christ AhnsahngHong and Jerusalem Mother.

Reply

In the Bible, God is referred to through plural terms instead of singular terms, and it is written that God has a male image and a female image. Therefore, God exists in the male image and in the female image.

Have you ever thought about why we call God our Father?

It is written that God's invisible qualities have been clearly seen and can be understood through what has been made (Rom. 1:20). Is there any creature that is given life through only their father, alone, without a mother being present?

We need to study this matter carefully.

The Bible calls us "the children of promise."

Gal. 4:28 Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.

Then, what promise did God make to those who are called the children of promise? God promised them eternal life.

1 John 2:25 And this is what he promised us—even eternal life.

How is eternal life given to us? The Bible says that all things were created by God's will (Rev. 4:11). Among all of the many creatures that God has created, let us focus on the mothers. Since it is written that God created all things by His will, a certain will of God was expressed when He created mothers on this earth. As you know, all creatures have a mother figure. There is not a single creature that can come into existence without a mother.

Our physical life is given to us through our physical mother. For 280 days, a baby's hands, feet, eyes and ears form within his mother's womb. When the time comes, the mother will give birth to her child, shedding blood. We are given life through our mother's great pain. How about our spiritual life? Just as our physical life was given to us through our physical mother, our spiritual life is given to us through our spiritual Mother.

The Bible clearly testifies that our heavenly Mother exists, and that only our heavenly Mother can give us eternal life.

Let us study through the Bible to discover the existence of our spiritual Mother.

Gen. 1:26-27 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness..." So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

The above verse states that God has two images—a male image and a female image. Until now, we have only known and called upon the male image of God: "Father." Then how should we call upon the female image of God? Logically, we should refer to God's female image as "Mother." This is why God had said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness."

The word "us" is a plural term. "Elohim," the Hebrew word used in place of "God" in Genesis 1:26, directly translates to "Gods," the plural form of the word "God." Therefore, the references to "us" in the book of Genesis refer to God the Father and God the Mother. Some say that the word "us" in this verse indicates God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. If this argument is correct, there should be three types of people in the world—those who were made in the image of God the Father, those who resemble the image of God the Son, and those created in the image of the Holy Spirit. However, on this earth there are only two types of people: men and women. However, the “Gods” mentioned in Genesis 1:26 are the male image of God and the female image of God—God the Father and God the Mother.

Let us study more truth regarding the heavenly Mother through the character Adam, written in the book of Romans.

Rom. 5:14 ...Adam, who was a pattern of the one to come.

Since the book of Romans was written after Jesus had already ascended, the “one to come” mentioned in the above verse indicates the Second Coming Jesus. Adam was created to lead us to the Second Coming Jesus. Then, what was God’s will in creating Eve, Adam’s wife?

Gen. 2:21 So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man’s ribs and closed up the place with flesh.

Gen. 3:20 Adam named his wife Eve, because she would become the mother of all the living.

The name “Eve” means “life.” Eve was called “the mother of all the living.” God’s intent in creating Adam was to reveal the Second Coming Jesus, our heavenly Father, and Eve was created to reveal the Second Coming Jesus’ wife, our heavenly Mother. In other words, just as Eve was called “the mother of all the living,” we can only be given eternal life through our heavenly Mother. Eve represents our heavenly Mother.

Two thousand years ago, Jesus said, repeatedly, that He would wait until the last day to raise up all of the people who came to Him (John 6:39, 40, 44, 54). Why did Jesus need to wait until the last day to save His people? What was He waiting for? The account of the six-day Creation—in the book of Genesis, chapter one—represents the spiritual Creation which would take place over six thousand years. Just as the six-day Creation ended after Eve had appeared, so would the six-thousand year spiritual Creation end with the appearance of our spiritual Mother. Jesus could have given His people life during His first coming; however, Jesus waited for the appearance of the heavenly Mother because life would be given through Her.

Let’s study some of the testimonies about Mother written in the book of Revelation.

Rev. 19:7 Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready.

The book of Revelation was written after Jesus had ascended, and it prophesied about the things that were to happen in the last days. Thus, “the Lamb” mentioned in the above verse indicates the Second Coming Jesus:

Ahnsahnghong. When Jesus came to the earth for the first time, two thousand years ago, His wife was not yet ready. The Bride, the wife of the Lamb, would appear in the last days.

In the book of Revelation, chapter 21, the Bride—the wife of the Lamb—is described as “Jerusalem.”

Rev. 21:9-10 ...One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.” And he...showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

Apostle Paul testified that this Holy City, Jerusalem, which would come down out of heaven, is our Mother.

Gal. 4:26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

Apostle Paul testified that we are the children of promise, the children of the free woman, because we have been given the promise of eternal life from our heavenly Mother.

Gal. 4:28 Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.

Gal. 4:31 Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

If we are the children of the free woman, what should we call Her? We should call Her our “Mother.” We cannot have eternal life unless we receive the heavenly Mother. Eternal life, which God has promised us, is given through the heavenly Mother.

In this last age, we need our Jerusalem Mother who has been established by Christ Ahnsahnghong—the Second Coming Jesus. Let us believe in Christ Ahnsahnghong, the Holy Spirit, and in Jerusalem Mother, the Bride, so that we can receive eternal life.

God bless you Donnie. You ask about when the end will come. Through the Bible, the end will come when the Seal of God, the Passover is receive by God’s chosen people, those He predestined before the creation of the world.

By: brofromzion on April 21, 2008
at 6:03 pm

Reply

Ephesians 1:3-14 [Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. For he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight. In love he predestined us to be adopted as his sons through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure and will— to the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace that he lavished on us with all wisdom and understanding. And he made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he purposed in Christ, to be put into effect when the times will have reached their fulfillment—to bring all things in heaven and on earth together under one head, even Christ. In him we were also chosen, having been predestined according to the plan of him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will, in order that we, who were the first to hope in Christ, might be for the praise of his glory. And you also were included in Christ when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation. Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit, who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession—to the praise of his glory.]

Salvation is given in the name of the Father, Jehovah in the age of the Father, Jesus Christ in the age of the Son and now we are living in the age of the Holy Spirit. We must believe in Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother.

Revelation 22:17 [The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.]

Now, there are so many disasters everywhere in the world: wars between nations, ethnic conflicts, terrors, famines, earthquakes, and deadly cold or heat or flood caused by changes in weather patterns. Whenever such things occur, people tremble with fear, not knowing who or what they should set their hearts on. The Bible already prophesied about the coming disasters and what people would do in the day of such disasters.

Am 9:2-9 Though they dig down to the depths of the grave, from there my hand will take them. Though they climb up to the heavens, ... Though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, ... Though they hide from me at the bottom of the sea, ...

As described in the above prophecy, people desperately try to hide themselves anywhere, because they come to face terrible disasters which men cannot endure. The above prophecy is not about what happened in the days of Amos the prophet about 2,800 years ago, but what will occur in the great and dreadful day of the LORD, at the Last Judgment.

Men cannot escape the last plagues by their own methods

Modern people, who live in the age of the high-tech science, feel fear about the coming disasters and the end of mankind, and they try to find various ways to escape from the disasters. They make every effort to find refuge underground or at the bottom of the sea or on a planet outside the earth so that they may escape the threat of nuclear weapons capable of annihilating all life on earth many times over. An atomic submarine for hiding themselves at the bottom of the sea, a spaceship for climbing up to the heavens, ..., such various methods are being discussed. According to a press report, America has constructed a large bunker beneath the White House at Mount Weather; and there is said to be ninety-nine underground cities in various places, as a provision for emergency.

However, the Bible clearly says that even by using the modern scientific methods, no one can escape God's fierce anger. It also says that the last disaster will come upon all the earth, not just upon parts of it.

Lk 21:35 For it will come upon all those who live on the face of the whole earth.

Isa 24:3-13 The earth will be completely laid waste and totally plundered. ... So will it be on the earth and among the nations, ...

Now, let's see how the disaster comes upon every nation all over the world.

2 Pe 3:7-10 By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. ... But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare.

The Bible says that God will use fire for His judgment. So the disaster, which will come upon the whole world, is fire. When the day comes, the heavens will be destroyed by fire and all things will be burnt up and melt in the heat. The day will be a day of distress; even the warriors will tremble with fear and cry out bitterly. However, God has prepared a way to escape the disaster when such dreadful day comes. He has made the way—the good news of salvation—known to us. We can get it only through the Bible, not through any high-tech equipment developed by scientists.

Passover is the way to escape the disaster
Let's take a careful look at God's word of promise to let us escape any disaster.

Ex 12:11-14 "... it is the LORD's Passover. On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn—both men and animals ... The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt. ..."

At the time of the Exodus, when the plague of destroying every firstborn was brought upon Egypt, no plague befell to the Israeli houses which kept the Passover. In other words, the plague passed over them. Thus, Passover (pascha in Greek, pesach in Hebrew) implies "Plagues pass over."

Such a history was written as a warning for us. Faithless Israel didn't believe in the power of the Passover. However, Judah regarded the Passover as important and celebrated it. Through the history of Israel and of Judah, we come to realize how truly important the Passover is. Hezekiah king of Judah read all the words of the covenant, which had been found in the temple of the LORD when it was being repaired and restored. He realized the covenant of God and sent couriers to all Judah and Israel so that they might celebrate the Passover which had not been kept for a long time. When the couriers delivered the king's command to "come up to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover," Israel scorned and ridiculed them, and several years later it fell to Assyria (2 Ki 18:9-12). However, Judah celebrated the Passover holy and could repulse the attack of powerful Assyria with God's mighty power (2 Ch 30:1-27; 2 Ki 18:13-19:37).

In these last days, there are two groups of people: one group who will receive terrible plagues, and the other who will escape them with God's help.

Rev 7:1-4 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth ... another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. ... "Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God."

The only way to escape the last plagues is to receive the seal of God. Then, what is the seal of God? The Bible prophesies that the blood of the Passover lamb will be a sign for God's people so that they may escape the last plagues. In other words, the blood of the Passover lamb is 'the seal of God' through which God's people can be saved.

At the time of the Exodus, the Israelites could be saved from the terrible plague of destroying every firstborn, by putting the blood of a year-old Passover lamb on their door posts and eating the meat. The Passover lamb of the Old Testament represents Jesus.

1 Co 5:7-8 ... For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Therefore let us keep the Festival, ...

No one can escape the last plagues without 'the blood of Jesus Christ' who is the Passover Lamb.

When the angels, who are given power to harm, let go of their hold on the wind [war], the terrible disasters [the last plagues] will come upon this earth (Rev 7:1-3). To make the last plagues pass over His people, God places His 'seal' on His children's foreheads. The 'seal of God' is the seal of salvation through which God's people can escape the disasters.

Eze 9:4-6 and said to him, "Go throughout the city of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of those who grieve and lament over all the detestable things that are done in it. ... Slaughter old men, young men and maidens, women and children, but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at my sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were in front of the temple.

Whom did God order the destroying angels to begin with? He told them to begin with the elders [leaders] of the false churches, who do not have the mark—the seal of God, the blood of the Passover Lamb—on their foreheads.

Considering the prophecies of the Bible, we are now living in the days of the last plagues. God is awakening us, His children, to the fact that we can escape the plagues only through the 'seal of God.' He shows us that His sealing work will arise from the east and spread to the west.

Rev 7:2 Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God.

When Apostle John received the revelation on the island of Patmos, he saw an angel ascending from the rising of the sun. This implies that God's sealing work is to begin in the east.

God seals us as His own children
When we celebrate the Passover, God abides in us, and we in Him (Jn 6:56; 15:4-8). As we dwell in God, we belong to Him.

2 Co 1:21-22 Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ. He ... set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.

God has set His seal on us to be marked as 'His own.'
Let's see what blessings God gives us, His own.

Isa 43:1-3 O Jacob, ...: "Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned you by name; you are mine. ... When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze. ..."

God has made us His own by putting His seal on us through the Passover. He has firmly promised to protect us from any destructive disasters. God is now calling His children, living in the days of disasters, to celebrate the Passover and escape the last plagues.
Before the angels, who are holding back the four winds, let go of their hold, we should preach the Passover of the new covenant—the seal of God—to the whole world, as the couriers of the good news of salvation.

Brothers and sisters in Zion! Let's give thanks to God for making us His very own, His treasured possession. We must all take part in God's salvation work in this age.
God bless you all.

"In the Bible, God is referred to through plural terms instead of singular terms, and it is written that God has a male image and a female image. Therefore, God exists in the male image and in the female image."

By: Ben on April 21, 2008
at 6:42 pm

Reply

How stupid can you be brofromzion? Do you think GODS reproduce sexually, male with female, like ANIMALS? Do you think every human being on this earth was popped out of Mother's womb?

Every single damn academic on this planet can tell you that Elohim is never a collective noun. That the noun

'Elohim' is singular, is clear in Genesis 1:29, where this noun governs the singular pronoun 'I'. What kind of fruitcake Korean bibles do you use? Take your theory to any professor or theologian and learn some damn Hebrew.

God bless you Ben. So you think that I'm stupid because I believe in Jerusalem Mother. Here on earth, a family has father, mother and children. Why don't we study the Bible to see how Heavenly Family and Earthly Family exist?

By: brofromzion on April 21, 2008
at 7:16 pm

Reply

Heb. 8:5 They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven.

All of the earthly systems are a copy and a shadow of what is in heaven. The family system is the same. Christ Ahnsahnghong revealed to us the existence of the heavenly Mother by teaching us about the heavenly family system through the earthly family system.

Everything within the spiritual world is reflected on this earth. In other words, everything on the earth is a shadow, and the things in heaven are the realities of what is on earth.

God established the earthly family system to show us that there is also a family system in heaven. The reason why God made every family on the earth has a father, a mother, and children was to reveal that in heaven, as well, there is a Father, a Mother, and children. God's providence is to let us know that there exists a God the Mother in heaven, as well as a God the Father.

Do you want to be a part of the heavenly family? Let us find out how we can be members of the heavenly family.

What are you reminded of when you hear the word "family"? Don't you think of a "house"? Jesus also mentioned a "house" many times in the Bible.

John 14:1-3 "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place [house] for you. And if I go and prepare a place [house] for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.

Jesus said that the Father's house surely exists. As of now, the house has been prepared. Then, who will be the members of this house? The family system described in the Bible is paternalistic. As you can see through your physical family, the first, main member of the house is the father. Therefore, if there is a father in the families on the earth, there must also be a Father in heaven.

Let us find out if we have a Father in heaven.

Heb. 12:9 Moreover, we have all had human fathers who disciplined us and we respected them for it. How much more should we submit to the Father of our spirits and live!

Matt. 6:9 "This, then, is how you should pray: 'Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name...' "

The God in heaven is our God the Father. Just as we have a physical father on this earth, we have a spiritual Father in heaven. He is God the Father, Ahnsahnghong.

Who comes to mind next when we think of a family? Most people will think of a "mother." But before we consider "mother," we have to think about what kind of person can be called a "father." No one can be called "father" unless he has a child. No matter how old a man is, if he has had no children, who would call him "father"? The title "father" is only used by children.

Therefore, a family must have children. Let us find out if our heavenly Father has children.

Matt. 12:46 While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him. Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

Here, we can find the words "brothers" and "sisters." Just as we have physical brothers and sisters, we have spiritual brothers and sisters. God's children, who call upon the God in heaven as "Father," must follow the will of the heavenly Father. In the Church of God, the children of the heavenly Father keep the Sabbath, the Passover, and all of the other truths, according to the will of the Father in heaven. The Church of God follows the teachings of Christ Ahnsahnghong, and we are brothers and sisters.

We have studied that there exist a God the Father, and His children, in the heavenly family. Then, who is left? It's Mother.

Gal. 4:25-26 Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

In this verse we can find the words "our mother." "Our" refers to the children who believe in God. This verse reveals that there exists a heavenly Mother to the children who will be saved.

So far, we've studied about which members compose a family, and we have confirmed that we have a spiritual family in heaven. Just as we have fathers, brothers, sisters, and mothers in our physical families, we have our spiritual Father, brothers, sisters, and spiritual Mother in our spiritual family.

What connects a family together? It's blood. Just as physical children inherit their father and mother's flesh and blood, the spiritual children inherit the spiritual Father and Mother's flesh and blood. If the physical family is connected by physical blood, then the heavenly family is connected by heavenly blood, because what is on earth is a copy and a shadow of what is in heaven.

John 6:53-55 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink."

Jesus fed his people with His flesh and blood, so the heavenly Father and Mother's blood and flesh are now in us. Only God has eternal life. The flesh and blood of God—who gives eternal life—has been given to us, God's children. Thus, we have become eternal beings and we are able to call upon God, "Abba, Father!"

Then, through what truth can we receive the right to become God's children? How can we inherit the flesh and blood of our heavenly Father?

Matt. 26:17-19 On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?" He replied, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, 'The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.'" So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

Matt. 26:26-28 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

As shown above, the Passover bread is Jesus' body, His flesh, and the Passover wine is Jesus' blood. By eating and drinking the bread and wine of the Passover, we can receive God's flesh and blood and become God's children.

Christ Ahnsahnghong is the one who brought the Passover in this last age. Christ Ahnsahnghong is our spiritual Father who brought us the Passover, which spiritually connects us with God. Our spiritual Mother is the true God who gives us birth and brings us up. Don't you want to be a member of the spiritual family? Let us all become God's children, receiving the flesh and blood of our heavenly Father Ahnsahnghong and our heavenly Mother through the Passover of the new covenant, so that we can inherit the kingdom of God. God bless you.

God bless you all. To those who don't believe in the existence of Jerusalem Mother, our Heavenly Mother, here's more proof.

By: brofromzion on April 21, 2008
at 7:31 pm

The word "Elohim" directly translates to "Gods." The Bible testifies that God exists in the female image, God the Mother, as well as the male image, God the Father.

Reply

World Mission Society Church of God has received Second Coming Christ Ahnsahnghong, God the Father, and the heavenly Jerusalem, God the Mother.

When people hear the word "God," most immediately think of "God the Father," holding to the fixed idea that only God the Father exists; however, the Bible clearly testifies that there is a God the Mother in addition to a God the Father. We sincerely hope that you can break your fixed, man-made ideas so that you can receive the true Saviors: Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother.

Then, let us discover why the members of the Church of God accept Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother as their Elohim God.

Let us confirm that there is both a male and a female image of God, through the book of Genesis.

Gen. 1:26-27 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness,"...So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

Both males and females were created in the image of God, and thus it is clear that God has two images: a male image and a female image. When God said, "Let us make man in our image," God used the word "us"—a plural term—instead of using "me." We come to understand that not one God, but two Gods—a Father and a Mother—worked together during the Creation. Such plural terms are used to describe God in Genesis chapter 11, also.

Gen. 11:1-7 ...The LORD said..."Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other."

This verse, too, makes reference to Elohim God, the same God who created male and female (in Genesis chapter 1), saying, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness." In Genesis chapter 11, God was responding to the arrogance of the people, who had collectively built the tower of Babel. Through this situation, God testifies that there exists a God the Mother as well as a God the Father by saying, "Let us go down..."

We can confirm the existence of Elohim God through the book of Isaiah as well.

Isa. 6:8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I. Send me!"

When God was searching for a man to preach His words, God said, "Who will go for us?" instead of saying, "Who will go for me?" This reveals that not only the Father was working, but that there was a Mother who was working as well.

In the book of Jeremiah we can also find references to Elohim God.

Jer. 31:22 ...The LORD will create a new thing on earth—a woman will surround a man.

God said that He would create a new thing: a woman would surround a man. Spiritually, this verse has a very profound meaning. The woman, Eve, had once been inside the man. If God had not made the woman with the ribs He had taken out of the man, how could the woman have been able to surround the man? The new thing, that God said He would bring to the earth, would be the revealing of Mother, who has been within God the Father since the beginning. The new thing would be created at the time God established the new covenant.

Jer. 31:31-34 "The time is coming," declares the LORD, "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah..." I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest."

In the Hebrew Bible, the word "God" is actually written as "Elohim"—"I will be their God [Elohim]." "Elohim" is the plural form of the word "Eloah," meaning a singular God. Therefore, "Elohim" means "Gods," plural. Once we can understand the concept of Elohim God through the new covenant, we no longer need men to teach us to know God, because we will all know God, from the least of us to the greatest. In the truth of the new covenant, we can only become the children of God when we have God the Father and God the Mother, our Elohim God.

When Elohim God created male and female, They said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness." When Elohim God punished the evil acts of God's people, They said, "Let us go down." When the Gods called to Isaiah, They said, "Who will go for us?" Throughout the Bible, God has existed as the male God and the female God: Elohim. God bless you all.

God bless you Ben. Here's what you wrote to me:

- Every single damn academic on this planet can tell you that Elohim is never a collective noun. That the noun 'Elohim' is singular, is clear in Genesis 1:29, where this noun governs the singular pronoun 'I'. What kind of fruitcake Korean bibles do you use? Take your

By: brofromzion on April 21, 2008
at 7:51 pm

Reply

theory to any professor or theologian and LEARN SOME DAMN HEBREW.

Jer. 31:31-34 "The time is coming," declares the LORD, "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah..." I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest."

Ben, in the Hebrew Bible, the word "God" is actually written as "Elohim"—"I will be their God [Elohim]." "Elohim" is the plural form of the word "Eloah," meaning a singular God. Therefore, "Elohim" means "Gods," plural. Once we can understand the concept of Elohim God through the new covenant, we no longer need men to teach us to know God, because we will all know God, from the least of us to the greatest. In the truth of the new covenant, we can only become the children of God when we have God the Father and God the Mother, our Elohim God. God bless you Ben.

Fool. You create meanings in ancient Hebrew to suit your own purposes.

By: Jamie on April 21, 2008
at 9:52 pm

Ben, don't bother trying to use logic and facts to convince them. They only believe whatever their cult leaders tell them and totally disbelieve external sources.

Reply

God bless you Jamie. Why don't we look at our own dictionary of what's the meaning of Elohim:

By: brofromzion on April 21, 2008
at 10:25 pm

Elohim – A name for God in Hebrew Scriptures

Reply

[Hebrew 'ēlōhîm, plural of 'ēlōah, god; see I in Semitic roots.]

Ref: American Heritage Dictionary

<http://dictionary.reference.com/browse/Elohim>

So tell me Jamie. Did World Mission Society Church of God created this meaning from our own dictionary to fit our doctrines? Also, our founder, Christ Ahnsahnghong is testified as the Second Coming of Jesus Christ because He is prophecied in the Bible.

1 Peter 1:20-21 [Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation. For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.]

Is it clear to you? World Mission Society Church of God follows ALL God's laws, wills, customs, feast and prophecies according to the Scripture or Bible, the Word of God. The reason why you don't understand the truth of God is because you want to chastize World Mission Society Church of God based on a worldly standard, not through the Bible. Clearly, no one can understand the Bible by using reasons from the wills and traditions of man. We have to based it on the Word of God. God bless you Jamie.

Oh, CoG didn't create the meaning, but they did create a story for the word that twisted the original meaning.

By: Jamie on April 21, 2008
at 10:36 pm

You FAIL again. If you want to know the way the word was used in the ancient context, you need to examine how it was used IN THE ANCIENT CONTEXT. Did the Jews EVER refer to more than one YHWH? They never did.

Reply

CoG = FAIL

God bless you
Dear, nijuroku

By: returnedangel on April 21, 2008
at 11:33 pm

hi.

I want for you to study and get answer of your questions in the Zion. Reply

I know and understand your concerned and curious about many matters.

If you really want to study and get something, Why don't you drop by Zion which you were studied?
Please think and have objective mind.

Contact with sister or brother of Zion who preached to u at first time.

Nijuroku, Please think about again.
Whoever don't keeps feasts of God and commandment never return heaven.
Even you can't believe in Christ Ahnsahnghong right now, You must think about this.
Jamie and other people persecute us without keeping any commandments of God.

God bless you.
I hope for you to study and get answer it from Zion.

Jamie and others

By: returnedangel on April 21, 2008
at 11:37 pm

Elohim is indicates Plural God.
Gods exist and appeared in the Bible often.
Evidently.
There are two image of God, male and female.

Reply

Everything in this world, can get a life from physical mother.
Think about Who gave you life?
Mother.
God created everything like this to show us his divine nature.

You Fail.
You don't have truth.

By: returnedangel on April 21, 2008
at 11:38 pm

Reply

well nijuroko,

Beware!. The Holy spirit shall guide you. Do not go to Zion they call. It is the city of cults where they worship false Gods

By: John on April 22, 2008
at 3:39 am

Reply

The false prophets in the end times" Wolf in sheep clothing"

You will never get an answer to your simple questions so they call you to Zion to give a good brainwash.

To believe in your Gods we need their history. Post the document just as your COG put the court case write up from the Korean Times to prove their innocence

Is it so hard to show who their parents or kids were?

God bless you all. Here's more proof of Jerusalem Mother's existence. The character Abraham is used to represent God in the Bible. Through the history of Abraham's family, God has revealed to us how we can inherit the kingdom of heaven.

By: brofromzion on April 22, 2008
at 4:47 am

Reply

Isaac was the one who received Abraham's inheritance. Even though Abraham had another son named Ishmael, born through Hagar, God did not allow Ishmael to receive the inheritance of Abraham. Rather, God bestowed the inheritance upon Isaac, who was born through Sarah. The reason why Isaac was chosen as Abraham's heir was that Isaac was the son of Sarah, who was free. This history shows us that the heavenly inheritance will be given to those who are born of the heavenly Mother, who is free.

Christ Ahnsahnghong taught us that our heavenly Mother does in fact exist and that She is truly the biggest mystery hidden within the Bible.

Let us study "The History of Abraham's Family and Mother," taught to us by Christ Ahnsahnghong.

First of all, we need to recognize who the character Abraham represents in the Bible.

Luke 16:19-31 "...The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. In hell, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. So he called to him, 'Father Abraham...' "

As you know, this parable is about a beggar, named Lazarus, and a rich man. The parable tells of Lazarus, who died and was carried to heaven, and a rich man, who was sent to hell to be tormented. Lazarus was obviously carried to God's side after he had died; however, the Bible states that Lazarus traveled to Abraham's side. In the parable, the rich man, who went to hell, called up to God in the distance; however, the Bible states that the man saw Abraham, and called up to him, saying, "Father Abraham." Who is the only one who is worthy to be called "Father" in the spiritual world? God is the only one who can be called upon in this way. Then, whom does Abraham represent? Logically, the character Abraham was chosen to represent God. Therefore, the inheritance of Abraham can be likened to the inheritance of God, the kingdom of heaven.

Then, let us find out who was appointed as Abraham's heir.

There were three candidates who could have been chosen as the heir of Abraham: Eliezer, Ishmael, and Isaac. Among them, who became Abraham's heir? It was Isaac who was appointed. We need to understand the reason why Isaac was chosen to be Abraham's heir.

Gen. 15:1-4 ...But Abram said, "O Sovereign LORD, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir." Then the word of the LORD came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir."

When Abraham was an old man and had not yet borne a son, he asked God to allow his servant Eliezer to be his heir. However, God did not allow Eliezer to become Abraham's heir, revealing that a son would be born from Abraham's own body and that he would become his heir. Some time later, Hagar, Sarah's maidservant, bore Abraham a son: Ishmael.

Gen. 16:1-15 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children. But she had an Egyptian maidservant named Hagar; so she said to Abram, "The LORD has kept me from having children. Go, sleep with my maidservant; perhaps I can build a family through her." Abram agreed to what Sarai said...So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son she had borne.

Ishmael was born to Abraham through a maidservant named Hagar, and Abraham asked God to allow Ishmael to become his heir.

Gen. 17:18-19 And Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing!" Then God said, "Yes, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will call him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.

When Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live under your blessing," God did not allow Ishmael to become his heir. Instead, God promised Abraham that he would have a son through his wife, Sarah. Isaac was born as God had promised, and of the three—Eliezer, Ishmael, and Isaac—Isaac was chosen to be Abraham's heir.

Let's study the reason why God chose Isaac to be Abraham's heir.

Both Eliezer's father and his mother were slaves, neither of them was free. This is the reason why God did not allow him to be Abraham's heir. Ishmael's father, Abraham, was free, but his mother, Hagar, was a slave and not a free woman. This is why God could not allow Ishmael to become Abraham's heir. Isaac's father, Abraham, was a free man, and his mother, Sarah, was a free woman. The fact that Isaac had been born of a free woman was the big difference between Ishmael and Isaac, and this discrepancy became the key factor in choosing Abraham's heir.

In those days, the eldest son inherited all of his family's property. Since Ishmael was older than Isaac, he should have become the heir—that is, if God had made His decision according to the paternal line. Ishmael was not chosen to become Abraham's heir, even though he was Abraham's eldest son, because his mother was not a free woman, but a slave. Thus, it is clear that the decisive factor in choosing Abraham's heir was his mother.

What we need to focus on while studying the history of Abraham's family is not merely the story of a man and his family. As you know, the Bible is not a storybook to tell us of men and their families. Nevertheless, God repeatedly mentioned the story of this particular family. Actually, the history of Abraham was a shadow of what was to happen in the future. In order for us to know who could become God's heir, the story of Abraham's family was written, as a prophecy.

Therefore, through the history of Abraham's family, we can clearly understand that the decisive factor in choosing an heir is the mother. As Isaac became Abraham's heir through Sarah, his free mother, we can become God's heirs through our heavenly Mother, who is a free woman. Only those who believe in the heavenly Mother—only the children who are born through the new covenant—can inherit the heavenly Father's kingdom. Let us read one more verse testifying about the heavenly Mother.

Gal. 4:22-31 ...But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother...Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

The Bible declares that we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman. Ishmael could not inherit his father's estate because his mother, Hagar, was only a slave, not a free woman. On the other hand, Isaac was chosen to become Abraham's heir because his mother, Sarah, was a free woman. The Bible also testifies that we, like Isaac, are the children of promise, the children of the heavenly Mother, who is free.

In today's world, there are three types of people: those who are like Eliezer, those like Ishmael, and those who are like Isaac. The first type of people, who are like Eliezer, are atheists, who do not believe in Father God or in Mother God. The second type of people, who are like Ishmael, are those who believe in Father God, but do not believe in Mother God. The third type of people, who are like Isaac, are those who believe in Mother God as well as Father God. According to the history of Abraham's family, which one of these three types can become an heir of the kingdom of heaven? Only the third type of people, who are like Isaac, can be recognized as God's heirs. There is no doubt about it.

Which group of people do you want to be classified with? If you want to be like Isaac, you must first become a child of the free woman. Thus, you must accept the heavenly Mother, who is free. The Bible testifies to this fact.

God said, "My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge" (Hos. 4:6). What kind of knowledge is God referring to in this verse? We must recognize that we have a God the Mother, as well as a God the Father. We must accept Elohim God. Also, we must firmly believe that God is our Mother, who gives us salvation alongside our Father. Only after we come to realize this can we say that we have the knowledge of God, and that we will not be those who are destroyed from a "lack of knowledge."

The Bible testifies that the Holy Spirit is God Ahnsahnghong, and that the Bride is Jerusalem Mother. Let us accept God Ahnsahnghong, the Holy Spirit, and Jerusalem Mother, the Bride, who give us the water of life in these last days, so that we can enter the kingdom of heaven. God bless you all.

Dear Brofromzion, Thank you for your reply, but you really did not answer my questions. I really ask very simple things below:

By: Donnie on April 22, 2008 at 7:17 am

Can you tell us a bit about Mother Jerusalem. What is her name? Does she have families? husband, children etc.? How did she get involved in World mission church of god in the first place?

Reply

You were talking also about 'before the end comes'.

When is this going to happen exactly?

Yes returnedangel, I agree. CoG doesn't have truth, and it FAILS.

By: Jamie on April 22, 2008 at 2:59 pm

In fact, you FAIL too! There are more holes in your theology than a tea strainer. Anyway, you say that me and others persecute you. Hahaha. Liar. If you want me to persecute you, then come drop me a line in Singapore and I will bring a whip, torture instruments and salt to really persecute you.

Reply

What wimps! Consider the apostles who were TRULY persecuted, or the thousands of non-CoG Christians who are tortured or perish for their faith in Jesus Christ. I disagree with your arguments and you cannot answer me, and you claim you are being persecuted? Pansies, the whole lot of you. Again, consider the apostles who built the first church! The book of Acts says that those who argued with them could not withstand their wisdom! If CoG really had true statements and arguments, then God should be on your side and none of us would be able to withstand your wisdom.

Yet this is not the case. Therefore, God is not with CoG members who are deceived by the god of this world into Anti-Christ beliefs.

brofromzion, unless you tell me how you can follow a man who FAILED to give a TRUE PROPHECY and yet is supposed to perfection incarnate, I will delete all your future comments. You yourself admitted that Ang Sahn Hong FAILED when he predicted the date of the second coming of Christ? Didn't you know that the bible orders those whose prophecies fail to come to pass to be put to death? Shouldn't you have put Ang Sahn Hong to the death instead of following him? You claim to be the only ones who follow God's Word, but this is PROOF that you neither know the Word of God nor follow it.

Ludicrous! Perfection can never fail, yet their idea of a perfect man FAILED BIG TIME. HHAHAHAH.

CoG = FAIL

Hi returnedangel,

By: nijuroku on April 22, 2008 at 3:41 pm

thanks for your suggestion... and yes, you right , now I really dont believe with Ahn Sang Hong'something...

Reply

Donnie, according to them Mother Jerusalem's name is Zahng Gil Jah, and she is Ahn Sang Hong's wife.. I dont know how she ge involved in CoG WMS...

try to look:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/World_Mission_Society_Church_of_God and one thing... why doesn't Zahng Gil Jah go preaching around the world?? spreading God's word??

GodBless~

nijuroku

Another FAIL post.

CoG = FAIL

By: brofromzion on April 22, 2008
at 5:58 pm

Reply

LOL returned angel, how come none of the CoG members can do anything to answer nijuroku's question? Is there only wisdom in that so called Zion? If that is so, that speaks volumes! If God is stuck in only one place and can't even give wisdom to His supposed followers, why, what a weakling you serve!

By: Jamie on April 22,
2008
at 6:06 pm

Reply

What a stupid, useless and fake god that god is!

CoG = FAIL

CoG's god = FAIL

Okay Brofromzion

By: Jonah on April 22, 2008
at 8:04 pm

When Jesus appeared Thomas was not with them and he said to the disciples "Unless I see the scars of the nails in his hands and put my finger in his side, I will not believe"

Reply

To which you may comment the words Jesus spoke "How happy are those who believe without seeing me!"

Now your God was here the second time and yet no one seen him as a second coming Jesus. The revelation says every eye will see the glorious return of Jesus. But no such great event happened.

Infact AhnsahngHong settles down in a cave with this little pastor boy Cheol and plays mischief with the bible. How nice!. Commits adultery and after his death we have a mother God who is enjoying the fruit of his labor. No wonder anyone who is divorced and ends up in this church seem to remarry the brother or sister of Zion. Mother Jerusalem runs a marriage bureau too.

We have true parents a similar thing in the moonie cult.

According to you God will appear the (third time)?
With glasses or contact lens??? HMM!

Jamie

By: returnedangel on April 22, 2008
at 11:33 pm

Calm Down!!

You looks like an rough and rage woman.

Reply

You even don't know about the meaning of Elohim.
Elohim God evidently exist .
Who give you life, physically?
Only Father??
No.
Never.
Your mother gave you directly.
Why God created Mother as a main life giver, not the father?
To show and prove the existence of Heavenly Mother.

You may call sister or brother in your church.
You are liar.
Because There is no Heavenly Mother in your church.
So You can't be the children of God.
And You must not use the word, sister or brother anymore.

Look everything in this world.
Don't Pay attention to physical things of God.
You just like with Jews in 2000 years ago.
You commented,
Christian exist so many in this world.
But Christian believe in God who appear as human 2000 years ago.
Think.
Jesus was Man, human with flesh and blood.
His disciples believed in him as God through Bible.
But others not.
You looks like them,
You have prejudice.
How man can be a man?
But Almighty God can be a man.
Even God's creature, You became a man.

Do throw your illusion now.

nijuroku,

By: returnedangel on April 22, 2008
at 11:37 pm

I'm sorry to see your condition now.
I really and Heavenly Mother and Father want for you study and think again now.

Reply

Don't argue here , and ask.
This site is made for the purpose of abusing Church of God.

You have to possess the objective mind.
This homepage belongs to the unbeliever of God.
They don't know even basic truth and don't keep anything.
They plused man's teaching and thinking.

<http://usa.watv.org>

Hi returnedangel. Your absolutely right. Jamie created this site to chastize our Heavenly Father and Mother. The thing that I don't really like what Jamie's doing is deleting and editing

By: brofromzion on April 22, 2008
at 11:55 pm

comments. Isn't this suppose to be fair for everyone to say and make comments on what they believe and prove it through the Scripture? Unfortunately, she doesn't like to hear the truth I put on this site. She makes her own opinion and not looking at God's word.

Reply

LOL another FAIL comment followed by his previous spam message.

Oh, you guys are not happy about what I'm doing? Firstly, you are all mistaken. Where is it stated that this site is supposed to be fair? It's my site, so I'll do what I like to it. Any way, I gave you ample warning to answer my questions and answer nijuroku, but again and again you discourteously ignore them. Thus, punishment is in order.

By: Jamie on April 23, 2008 at 12:44 am

Reply

I'm having a ball of a time 'persecuting' you. Hahaha. So funny lah all of you. You neither understand any true theology nor want to critically examine your faith, so why should I be fair to you who never answer questions and continuously post long and irrelevant comments? You think too highly of yourselves.

I don't need any Ang Sahn Hong, I don't need any heavenly mother to come about. I was conceived in the mind of God even before I was placed into my mother's womb, and God placed His spirit into me.

You know, I really pity you people. You have no idea how absolutely repulsive you are making yourselves to people do you? Non-answers, flooding, repeated spams, constant accusations, unvalidated claims, etc. All these really make you unpleasant people. Now, if you were more willing to engage in proper dialogue, I would be fair, but the time for that has passed.

Not happy? Go away then.

Hello Brofromzion,

By: Dark Angel on April 23, 2008 at 3:54 am

When is the end? Please give me an exact time and date.

Reply

If you are sure of when it is, then post please. If you are not sure, then please say that you do not know instead of giving me an answer such as "soon".

I would greatly appreciate.

Yes, I will remember your saying.
You don't have to be saved at the end of your day.
Blame and Abuse more.
Even you abuse us with insulting words , The truth will win.
You'll fail.
You don't have any truth from Jesus,

By: returnedangel on April 23, 2008 at 8:31 am

Reply

So Don't say you love Jesus, believe in him.
Don't you know the word of Jesus

"If you love me you keep my words."

Go away.

I am a pot calling a kettle black.

CoG = FAIL

By: returnedangel on April 23, 2008
at 8:33 am

Reply

Dark Angel,
Do you want to know the time of the end?
Why?
Why you want to know?
To be saved?

By: returnedangel on April 23, 2008
at 8:36 am

Reply

God only know that time.
Don't you know this until now?
And then Do you know?
Never.
God only know.

ReturnedAngel,

By: Dark Angel on April 23, 2008
at 9:24 am

You asked why I want to know. Well, I want to know because I don't... and since you all want to preach about the end coming soon, then I would assume that you all would know.

Reply

If you do not, then what is the purpose of preaching the end if you don't know when it is.

If "God only knows" then your claims of the end coming soon are meaningless.

You all claim to be familiar with a Being that is said to be beyond our comprehension, yet you say that you do not know certain things.

Obviously Mother Jerusalem doesn't know because she's not the father.

Obviously Ahnsahnghong didn't know, no question about that.

And now, you who claim to know and love an OmniScient Being doesn't know.

Very Interesting.

What exactly is "man's teachings" by the way, I'm curious. I hear that a lot and I want to know exactly what you all mean by that.

I have yet to see teachings from a Supreme Being because any "teachings" from a Supreme Being does not and would not need different versions created for it or need the help of imperfect man to create or interpret anything. It would be written perfectly and would relate to everyone, where everyone can understand.

It would be the perfect words.

Yea, thanks for posting under my name pretending to be me. Very "Jesus-like" of you, in your case, "Ahnsahnghong-like".

By: Dark Angel on April 23, 2008
at 3:12 pm

Next time, try addressing my post please.

Reply

Thanks

Hi Jamie. God bless you. I have posted this on MySpace, Friendster, Facebook and many more. Can you delete them all? LOL. I'll keep posting it on ALL website so the whole world will know, believe or unbeliever, that you don't want the truth of God, you weed.

By: brofromzion on April 23, 2008
at 4:09 pm

Reply

Haha what a FAILED attempt at impersonation and slander. You know that you can be prosecuted for such behavior? You're lucky I helped you delete them, returnedangel. I can see your IP, you can't fake me.

By: Jamie on April 23,
2008
at 4:45 pm

Reply

brofromzion, as you like. Post wherever you like, but you'll just be considered as a spammer. Just about everyone else outside of CoG believes it's not real Christianity, so I don't care where you post it.

Honestly, I can see how Ang Sahn Hong must have been like when he was living. His follower is a good example!

Your attempt to make me intimidated = FAIL
CoG = FAIL

God bless you Jamie.

By: brofromzion on April 23, 2008
at 5:36 pm

God the Father Jehovah
God the Son Jesus

God the Holy Spirit Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother Reply

Revelations 22:13 [I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.]

brother brofromzion,

By: Donnie on April 23, 2008
at 5:48 pm

When exactly is 'The End' ? Can you tell me please, if you dont know exact date, probably just the year would be sufficient.

Reply

And you still have not answered my question about 'Mother', for example: how did she get involved, does she have families, how old is she.

Thank you so much for your patience and reply.

God bless you Donnie.

By: brofromzion on April 23, 2008
at 5:58 pm

Revelations 7:1-3 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth to prevent any wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree. Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: "Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God."

Reply

Once all God's chosen people has the Seal of God, then it will come.

Hello BrofromZion,

By: Dark Angel on April 23, 2008
at 6:38 pm

I would like to say that your church may have already surpassed the 144,000 quota. A few years ago, roughly 2005, the number of members were said to be in your church was posted on their website.

Reply

The problem was, according to your church, it appeared that people were lacking faith and were dropping out. So, for every one person that may have dropped out, there were perhaps two more to replace that one person.

So apparently, it takes a lot of faith and belief to trigger this "end".

I see that you've posted some form of Trinity concept:

"God the Father Jehovah
God the Son Jesus
God the Holy Spirit Ahnsahng Hong and Jerusalem
Mother"

This concept, is exactly what it appears to be...a concept. It's not a fact, because if it were a fact, then Mother Jerusalem, who is said to be OmniScient, would know when "the end" would be.

Ahnsahng Hong, whom you believe to be a God, would too have known when the end would have been but apparently, he didn't, giving false predictions and all. So he of course, is not OmniScient.

Neither person are OmniScient and according to you, is said to be a part of this Trinity concept.

It does not make any sense for a Being to keep information from itself or other "personalities" of itself if it is OmniScient.

Either "the Father" is the only OmniScient Being and the other two are not, which would make them not Gods or all three are OmniScient, which should mean that all personalities KNOW what the other knows and knowledge is not separate from itself.

Can you keep a secret from yourself, Brofromzion?

Try it sometime.

Now imagine an OmniScient Being keeping information from itself. It would totally contradict the nature of being OmniScient.

Mother Jerusalem are Ahnsahnghong were not and are not OmniScient. Which means, they are not Gods.

God bless you Dark Angel. The concept of "Trinity" means that God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit are not different entities, but are one God. To better understand the Trinity, let's first consider the transformation of water. Water is a liquid, but when its temperature falls below 0° C, the water will turn into ice, a solid. When the water is boiled, it turns into vapor, a gas. Water, ice, and vapor have different names and different forms, but their substance is the same: H₂O.

By: brofromzion on April 23, 2008
at 7:59 pm

Reply

It is similar to when an actor in a monodrama plays three different characters. A father, a son, and a grandson, all having different voices. Although there are three different voices and three different roles, there is only one actor.

Like this, even though God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit may look different, have different names, and have appeared during different ages, the three are one God. The Trinity reveals that God administers His salvation work while playing three roles.

For six thousand years God has carried out His salvation work in the role of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, each according to its age.

God the Father = God the Son

Let us confirm that God the Father, Jehovah, and God the Son, Jesus, are one God.

Isaiah prophesied about Jesus as follows:

Isa. 9:6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Isaiah the prophet testified to the birth of a "child" and a "son", in the future. But the titles he gave this child and this son were: "Mighty God" and "Everlasting Father", Isaiah the prophet only called to Jehovah God as Mighty God and Everlasting Father, letting us understand that in the future Jehovah God will come to the earth playing the role of a child and of a son. This child and this son was Jesus, and Apostle Paul clearly understood this:

Phil. 2:5-7 Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man...

Rom. 9:5 ...Christ, who is God over all, forever praised! Amen.

We can also confirm that God the Father, Jehovah, and God the Son, Jesus, are one God by studying the history of the Creation.

Isa. 44:24 I am the LORD, who has made all things, who alone stretched out the heavens, who spread out the earth by myself...

God the Father Jehovah said that He had created everything by Himself, but Jesus said that it was He who had created the world.

Col. 1:16 For by him [Jesus] all things were created...

The Bible states that God the Father, Jehovah, created the world, but it also says that God the Son, Jesus, created the world. Therefore, God the Father [Jehovah] and God the Son [Jesus] are clearly one God.

Isa. 44:6 "This is what the LORD says, Israel's King and Redeemer, the LORD Almighty: I am the first and I am the last...

God the Father said, "I am the first and I am the last."

Rev. 22:13 "I [Jesus] am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End."

God the Son also said, "I am the First and the Last." Therefore, God the Father, Jehovah, and God the Son, Jesus, are one God.

God the Father = God the Holy Spirit

Let us confirm that God the Father, Jehovah, and God the Holy Spirit are one God. In the Bible, there are frequent references to "the (Holy) Spirit." The Bible teaches us that God is spirit, and that God is holy. Thus, the spirit of God is holy, too. We call the spirit of God "the Holy Spirit."

John 4:24 God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in spirit and in truth.

Apostle Paul wrote in the book of Corinthians that God is the Holy Spirit.

1 Cor. 2:10-11 ...but God has revealed it to us by his Spirit. The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God. For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the man's spirit within him? In the same way no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.

The (Holy) Spirit could search even the deep things of God (the Father), the things which no one could know. If "the Holy Spirit" and "the spirit of God" were different, how could the Holy Spirit possibly know the thoughts of God? Only the spirit of God the Holy Spirit knows the thoughts of God. Therefore, God the Father and the Holy Spirit are one.

2 Tim. 3:16 All Scripture is God-breathed...

2 Pet. 1:20-21 Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation. For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

The Bible is "God-breathed" and it was written by the prophets, "as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit." This clearly testifies that God the Father, Jehovah, is the Holy Spirit.

The Bible = God-breathed book

The Bible = A book written by prophets being carried along by the Holy Spirit

Therefore the Holy Spirit is God.

Therefore, the Holy Spirit, and God the Father, Jehovah, are one God.

God the Son = God the Holy Spirit

Let us confirm that God the Son, Jesus, and God the Holy Spirit, are one God.

Isa. 9:6 ...a son ...will be called Wonderful Counselor...

The verse above states that the Son, Jesus, will be called Wonderful Counselor.

John 14:26 "But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things..."

The Son is the Counselor, and the Counselor is the Holy Spirit, so we can easily conclude that the Son, Jesus, is the Holy Spirit.

Therefore, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are not separate, but are one.

The Holy Spirit is a Personal Being

The Holy Spirit is not a kind of energy or an electric wave. The Holy Spirit is a personal being who has feelings (Rom. 15:30), who grieves (Eph. 4:30), who speaks (Rev. 2:7), who groans (Rom. 8:26), who intercedes (Rom. 8:26), who testifies about God (John 15:26), who teaches (John 14:26), who gives commands (Rom. 8:29), who keeps us from preaching in certain places (Acts 16:6-7), who thinks (Rom. 8:27), and who has been blasphemed (Matt. 12: 31-32).

John 14:26, NASB "But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said to you.

The Holy Spirit is referred to as "He," meaning that the Holy Spirit is a personal being.

Matt. 28:19 "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,"

If the Holy Spirit was not a man with character, but merely an invisible, active power like an electric wave, or energy how would it be possible for the Holy Spirit to have a name? The fact that the Holy Spirit has a name proves that the Holy Spirit is a man, with character.

God commanded us to be baptized in the name of the Father, the name of the Son, and the name of the Holy Spirit, because He would administrate His salvation work with three names (of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit) according to each age. By calling out the three names through which God showed His authority, God's prophets are to baptize people and commemorate God.

God's name was "Jehovah" when He played the role of the Father, and it was "Jesus" when He worked as the Son. Then, how should we call upon God when He is working as the Holy Spirit?

The Name of the Holy Spirit is Ahnsahnghong.

Since God told us to "baptize (people) in the name of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit," we need to understand that the "Trinity" God the Father [Jehovah], God the Son [Jesus], and God the Holy Spirit [Ahnsahnghong] are one God. By this understanding we can receive abundant blessing and we can participate in God's administration of salvation, which has been carried out through the Trinity.

Here's more proof the Ahnsahnghong is the Second Coming of Christ. In the bible, God lets us know about a very important place for our salvation. That place is the Garden of Eden. In the Garden of Eden, we can find out not only about the

By: brofromzion on April 23, 2008
at 8:03 pm

Reply

biblical origin of human beings, but the origin of death as well.

However, the Garden of Eden does not only hold the key to how we came to die, but also how we can come to have the secret of eternal life. Because we sinned in the Garden of Eden, all men have been destined to die. Then, is that it? Are only born to die in this dreadful world? Is there anyway to be saved from our sin, and finally death?

According to the bible, Second Coming Christ Ahnsahnghong taught us that there is a way to escape death, and that is only by eating from the "tree of life". According to the bible, because all men sinned by eating from the tree of knowledge of good and evil in the Garden of Eden, the only way to regain our eternal life is by eating from the tree of life. However, Satan blocked the way to the tree of life in A.D. 325.

The Bible prophesied that Jesus would come a second time to restore the way to the tree of life and give eternal life to human beings who were destined to die. It is Ahnsahnghong that brought us the way to once again take and eat from the tree of life, and receive eternal salvation. Therefore, the Church of God believes in him, Christ Ahnshanghong, as the Second Coming Jesus.

Then, what is the tree of life? Is it truly Christ Ahnsahnghong that brought us the tree of life?

The tree of life hidden since the creation

Matt. 13:34-35 Jesus spoke all these things to the crowd in parables; he did not say anything to them without using a parable. So was fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet: "I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden since the creation of the world."

According to the bible, Jesus always spoke in parables. In these parables, Jesus has revealed things hidden since the creation of the world. Among the 66 books, which book has the history of the creation of the world? It is the book of Genesis.

In the book of Genesis there are many parables showing God's Providence. Among the parables, let's study the tree of life.

Gen. 2:16-17 And the LORD God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat of it you will surely die."

In the Garden of Eden, God the LORD put the tree of life and the tree of knowledge of good and evil. And He commanded Adam and Eve not to eat from the tree of knowledge of good and evil. However, they were tempted by Satan and violated the commandment of God. By this, human beings are destined to die and death entered this world through sin.

However, Jesus said that he spoke in parables, which speaks of hidden things, but is the story the tree of the knowledge of good and evil a hidden thing? Everyone has heard this story before. The n what was hidden?

Even though we all know about how we came to die in the Garden of Eden, how many people know about how we had to have eternal life?

This is the hidden thing that Jesus was speaking of. There is a proverb, "where there is a problem, there is a solution." Then, if death is the problem, what can be the only possible solution? Eternal life. Let's see how we were able to have eternal life in the Garden of Eden. Gen. 3:22 And the LORD God said, "The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live forever."

According to the above verse, the way that we are able to have eternal life is by eating from the tree of life. According to the bible, because we sinned by eating from the tree of knowledge of good and evil, God blocked the way for us to eat from the tree of life and receive eternal life. But if God blocked the way to eat from the tree of life, then who is the only one that can open the way? Only God. However, two thousand years ago, Jesus Christ came to give us the way to eternal life. John 10:10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

Life to the full means "eternal life". But according to bible, the only way to receive eternal life is by eating from the tree of life. This means that Christ came to open the way to the tree of life. However, if only God can open the way to the tree of life and give us eternal life, and Christ came to give us eternal life, then what does this mean? Jesus Christ is God almighty who came to give us eternal life through the tree of life.

Then, what is the reality of the tree of life? How did Jesus open the way for us to eat from the tree of life?

John 6:53-54 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.

In Genesis, what should we eat to have eternal life? It's the tree of life. However, what did Jesus say we should eat to have eternal life? He said we should eat His flesh and drink His blood. Then, what is Jesus' flesh and blood? It's the reality of the tree of life. That's right. The fruit of the tree of life in the Garden of Eden represents Jesus' flesh and blood. By eating Jesus' flesh and blood we can eat the fruit of the tree of life and have eternal life, which was lost in the Garden of Eden.

How do we eat Jesus Flesh and blood?
Are we to really eat Jesus Christ himself?

No way. The bible shows us exactly how to eat Jesus flesh and blood to receive eternal life.

Matt. 26:17-26 On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?" He replied, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, 'The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.'" So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover. ... While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

In the Garden of Eden; we needed to eat from the tree of life in order to receive eternal life. In the New Testament, the reality of the tree of life is Jesus Christ flesh and blood. The way to eat from Jesus Christ flesh and blood is be celebrating the Passover. Then, we can say the reality of the tree of life is the Passover.

Again, if only God can open the way to the tree of life and give us eternal life, and Christ came to give us eternal life, then what does this mean? Jesus Christ is God almighty who came to give us eternal life through the tree of life

Christ Ahnsahnghong who restored us the tree of life

We, human beings, who lost the tree of life and were destined to die, have the chase once again to have eternal life by God who came in the flesh and allowed the fruit of the tree of life, that is, the bread and wine of the Passover. However, the devil abolished the truth of the Passover at the Council of Nicaea in 325 A.D. It means the tree of life was hidden and no one could have eternal life. We could not expect salvation without the Passover the truth about the tree of life.

What does this mean?

Will no one restore the Passover truth to us?

Heb. 9:28 so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

The purpose of Christ coming a second time is for our salvation. To bring us salvation the Passover is absolutely needed. Whoever establishes the Passover truth must be second coming Christ. The One who restored the Passover truth is Christ Ahnsahnghong.

Therefore, Ahnsahnghong is Christ who came in this age according to all the prophecies of the Bible. He restored the truth of the Passover, the tree of life, and saved us from our sin and death.

Again, if only God can open the way to the tree of life and give us eternal life, and Christ

Ahnsahnghong came to give us eternal life, then what does this mean? Christ Ahnsahnghong is God Almighty who came to give us eternal life through the tree of life.

How can you recognize who Second Coming Christ is? In Church of God we believe that Christ Ahnsahnghong is Second Coming Christ.

By: brofromzion on April 23, 2008 at 8:06 pm

But how can we be sure that Christ

Ahnsahnghong is the name of the Holy Spirit. According to the Bible, Second Coming Christ has to come and fulfill the prophecy of King David.

Reply

Hosea 3:5 "Afterward the Israelites will return and seek the Lord and David their king. They will come trembling to the Lord and to his blessings in the last days."

Christ Ahnsahnghong testified, that according to the Bible in order for us to receive blessings we have to seek the Lord and King David in the last days. But Hosea existed in 721BC when he gave this prophecy, however, King David existed around 1000 BC, basically 300 years apart. So, at the time that Hosea spoke, King David was already death, so he was not talking about getting blessings from a death body, but from the prophetic King David that is to come in the LAST DAYS.

Luke 1:31 "You will be with a child and give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus. He will be great.....The Lord will give him the throne of his father David...."

Why among so many kings, God has to choose King David? This is because there must be some prophetic points that Christ and King David have in relationship. According to the book of Isaiah he testified that Jehovah God is going to born in the future as a child and that He is going to receive the throne of King David. Who fulfilled this prophecy? Jesus, did 2000 yrs ago.

But in order to understand the whole prophecy you need to understand about the life of King David first and his throne.

2 Samuel 5:4 "David was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years."

If Jesus is the true prophetic King David, He has to fulfill this prophecy, too.

Luke 3:21-23 "When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too.....Now Jesus was thirty years old when he began his ministry."

Luke 4:18 "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach the good news...."

Through this Christ Ahnsahnghong allowed us to understand that Jesus began His kingship at 30. But now He also should reign for 40 years.

Wait a minute!! Jesus only preached for 3 years and He died at the age of 33. So, Jesus only fulfilled 3 years and not 40, that means that there are 37 years remaining to be true prophetic King David. This is not a mistake, God will never leave any prophecy incomplete. There must be another outstanding prophecy that we need to understand. Christ Ahnsahnghong showed God's plan through the following verse:

Hebrews 9:28 "So, Christ was sacrifice once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him."

This is an amazing prophecy, this is our salvation. So, when Second Coming Christ comes, in order for Him to be the true prophetic King David, He needs to be baptized at the age 30 and preach for the remaining 37 years.

WHO FULFILLED THIS PROPHECY?

Christ Ahnsahnghong did it! Christ Ahnsahnghong started preaching in 1948 at the age of 30. However, in order to be 100% sure that Christ Ahnsahnghong is prophetic King David, He must have a sign. What is the sign?

Isaiah 55:3 " ...I will make an everlasting covenant with you my faithful love promised to David."

What is the everlasting covenant promised to David?

Hebrews 13:20 "May the God of peace, who brought the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus."

The everlasting covenant is the same as the eternal covenant. If you look at the meaning of (everlasting and eternal) you can easily find that they have the same meaning. So, we need to know now what is the blood of the eternal covenant.

Matthew 26:28 "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins"

Luke 22:20 "This cup(the wine of the Passover) is the new covenant in my blood."

So, in the last days prophetic King David, Second Coming Christ will preach Passover, starting at the age of 30, for the remaining 37 years.

Who fulfilled this prophecy?

According to the Fig Tree Lesson, Christ Ahnsahnghong came in 1948 at the age of 30 years and starting preaching about the Passover looking for His lost children. Christ Ahnsahnghong was born in South Korea in 1918. In 1981 in a religious magazine Christ Ahnsahnghong prophesied about King David's prophecy and predicted His own death.

But who can only predict about his own death? Only God, so, if Christ Ahnsahnghong predicted about His own death, who is Christ Ahnsahnghong? Christ Ahnsahnghong is God. Why does Christ Ahnsahnghong has to predict His own death? Because, of the following prophecy.

1 King 2:10 "Then David rested with his Fathers and was buried of the City of David. He reigned forty years....."

Throughout his we can understand that Christ Ahnsahnghong truly fulfilled prophetic King David. Who can say that He can coincide His birth with the rise of the nation by starting to preach at the age of 30. Then 4 years before, in 1981, He prophesied about His own death after 37 years. Only Christ Ahnsahnghong can, because Christ Ahnsahnghong is Almighty God.

Question about 'MOTHER'

Please tell me more about this 'Mother', for example: her name, how did she get involved, does she have families, how old is she. What is her relationship with ahnsahnghong?

By: Donnie on April 23, 2008 at 9:09 pm

Reply

Thank you brother brofromzion.

"Wait a minute!! Jesus only preached for 3 years and He died at the age of 33."

By: Timothy3:16 on April 23, 2008 at 9:42 pm

The bible doesnt say how old Jesus was. And just because Ahnsahnghong preached for a certain number of years, doesnt make him God. Thats stupid. And besides, your cult can fake how long he preached for. I'm sure he preached long before he turned 30.

Reply

All religion is a myth anyway. In a million years, ahnsahnghong, zeus, allah, Jesus, vishnu, Thor, Zeus, Krishna will all be forgotten.

To.Timothy 3:16

You don't know the prophecy of the King David. Yes, Jesus worked for three years. And he was on the throne of King David as the prophecy. And then What about 37 years of his ministry? He has to fulfill this so must appear a second time like first time. How an ignorant man or woman.

By: returnedangel on April 23, 2008 at 9:57 pm

Reply

Jamie, Donnie, Dark Angel,Jonnah

Please read the passage of brofromzion

By: returnedangel on April 23, 2008 at 10:02 pm

Read this with open mind without your prejudice.

Reply

Even you don't want to realize this, but this is truth.
Look at the worldwide.
More and more people visit us and become our brother and sister.
Are you envy?

Even you blame and abuse, It is useless behavior.
Don't waste your time anymore.

Hi everyone. I started reading the comments on this forum and seems like World Mission Society Church of God is the true church. I only attended couple of times so I don't really know everything they teach. I'm currently away from it and just out here away from the church, probably for at least a year. Secret of forgiveness of sins is pretty clear that we all came from Heaven before. They also teach me about Sabbath, Baptism, Veil for women, Trinity and some other studies. First, I wasn't sure because I have never heard of Ahnsahng Hong and Jerusalem Mother. I tried comparing it to the other churches and it's really clear that Church of God is the true church that keeps all God's commandments. But returned angel, the things not clear to me right now is that the Tribulation already happened? I'm talking about the 666, the anti-christ. Also, they said that I have to get the Daniel's prophecy to understand it. Can you post it here? Thanks.

By: Poland on April 23, 2008
at 11:06 pm

Reply

All religion is fake buddy. Learn your history, read some facts, soak up some knowledge.

By: Timothy3:16 on April 23, 2008
at 11:31 pm

It's just jazzy superstition believed by ignorant people.

Reply

<http://www.huppi.com/kangaroo/L-thinkingchristians.htm>

The higher the IQ, the less religious someone is. The more ignorant you are, the more likely you believe in superstition.

Name me any serious scientist or thinker who believes in Ahnsahng Hong or Jesus? That's old news buddy. Wake up and smell the 21st century. We now know enough about the Bible, history and religion to debunk this crap.

All your prophecies are wrong, childish and superficial. You won't wake up, because like 99 percent of the world, you're a moron who believes in childish things.

hi brofromzion...

By: nijuroku on April 23, 2008
at 11:39 pm

nice preaching...
ya.. I have heard all the things that you posted above.. really make sense... but still... "Hanging"...

Reply

according to you brofromzion what and whose sin that Lord Jesus forgiven when He was crucified?? sin committed in heaven or committed in earth or what??

mmm... if you have time... please cover all my old questions above...

thanks

nijuroku

whoa Timothy3:16

just few word for u..

U are Very Interesting

GodBless~
nijuroku

By: nijuroku on April 24, 2008 at 12:00 am

Reply

The Church of God's teachings really aren't very theologically sound. The great tribulation will only happen AFTER the 2nd coming of Christ, and when that happens all believers will be seized up into the sky to ascend to heaven. Only after that will those who are left on the earth experience the great tribulation. It's in Revelations, you can read it yourself.

By: Jamie on April 24, 2008 at 1:23 am

Reply

Honestly, that's why Ang Sahn Hong cannot be the real Jesus. What are his followers still doing on earth if he is really Jesus 2nd coming? They should have already been caught up to heaven and we should be suffering BIG TIME. Are we suffering now? Definitely not as much as it's supposed to be as written in revelation.

Poland, you really should reconsider your beliefs. This church teaches rules of man as the commandments of God (yes I throw the same argument back at you, CoG members). Did not the early church command the believers that they only needed to observe a few things in the book of Acts 15:20 rather than the things of Moses Law? Why then do you hold on to the things that were a shadow of the things that have come into fullness with Christ's coming?

Ang Sahn Hong really did not understand theology, nor the true significance and meaning of the festivals, rituals and rites that he spoke of as mandatory. Once you gain a perspective of what the Mosaic Law foreshadows, you'll definitely know that CoG's teachings are legalism and not life-bringing.

Peace to you Poland. Do reconsider and be willing to critically examine whatever faith you are embracing.

Jamie,

By: COGinator on April 24, 2008

Based on bozofromzion's desire to preach their skewed brainwashy doctrine while ignoring to directly answer the questions that we (non-cog buying people) would like. (I.e. concise, honest, and direct answers) I totally support your decision to filter the misleading garbage that's trying to be pushed down our throats.

at 3:56 am

Reply

Additionally, Coggers, we don't want to hear from you that we aren't seeking the truth (because your truth is what we understand as brainwashed misleading interpretation), that your being persecuted simply because your interpretation doesn't support a logical analysis and we are pointing out the discrepancies, and we don't want to hear manipulative language such as, "If you understand the bible", "If you follow Gods commandments", "clearly it means"...

If there are any cog members that can give a quick one/two sentence answer to questions that are being asked, I bet Jaime would be willing to leave your posts. Can you talk to us with your own brain and not resort to using the prefabricated studies that you've been conditioned to throwup?

Brofromzion,

I've read what Ahnsahnghong wrote about the Trinity and H20. I've read most of his books. Your God believes in concepts.

By: Dark Angel on April 24, 2008
at 7:22 am

Reply

That's all that I have to say, I'm done posting here.

Later.

Bozofromzion, lets us know when the ahnsahnghang circus comes to town so we can ridicule all the clowns that are making no sense. Jaime, your posts are not complete unless you state:

By: COGinator on April 24, 2008
at 8:43 am

Reply

CoG = FAIL

love it!

God bless you all. COGinator, seems to me that you like watching circus. Well just to let you know that I'm not interested. I'd rather seek the truth of God instead. So, according to you, COGinator, you want me to answer on my own opinion about the Bible, meaning you want me to interpret it? I can't. It's not mine. It's the Word of God.

By: brofromzion on April 24, 2008
at 3:28 pm

Reply

John 7:16-18 [Jesus answered, "My teaching is not my own. It comes from him who sent me. If anyone chooses to do God's will, he will find out whether my teaching comes from God or whether I speak on my own. He who speaks on his own does so to gain honor for himself, but he who works for the honor of the one who sent him is a man of truth; there is nothing false about him.]

1 Corinthians 2:11-16 [For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the man's spirit within him? In the same way no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit who is from God, that we may understand what God has freely given us. This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words. The man without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned. The spiritual man makes judgments about all things, but he himself is not subject to any man's judgment: "For who has known the mind of the Lord that he may instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.]

2 Peter 1:20-21 [Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation. For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.]

Is it clear to you COGinator? Go ahead, make your own interpretation of the Bible. Oh, since you don't wanna hear the truth it's okay. I won't preach to you anymore. God bless you.

The words of God are absolute, and there can not be any exceptions to the absoluteness. If you take exceptions to God's word, it is because you do not regard His words as absolute. When you carry them out absolutely, the absolute results will follow. God said, "Do not add and subtract" (Deut. 4:2), "Do not add and take away" (Rev. 22:18). And God gave a warning: If anyone adds anything to His words, He will add to him the plagues described in the Bible, and if anyone takes away from them, He will take away from him his share in the tree of life (eternal life). These words show well how absolute the word of God is and how authentic result it accompanies.

We can see how absolute God's word is and what blessing it brings from Abraham's case. God granted Isaac as an heir to Abraham who was 100 years old. To him, Isaac was absolute being and the most precious treasure among all his possessions. God, however, commanded Abraham to sacrifice Isaac as an offering whom he cherished and loved as much as his life, in order to test whether or not he loved God absolutely. Then Abraham made up his mind to obey God's command as more absolute than his possession. Those who stuck only to common sense might grumble against God and His disposal, saying "God! Why did You give me Isaac? Have I ever asked for a son? You gave me a son unilaterally, but now You intend to take him away from

By: brofromzion on April 24, 2008
at 5:16 pm

Reply

me. Why do You give me an agony shattering a ray of hope of old man? Abraham could have grumbled against God like that. But he obeyed God's will, with the faith that life, death, fortune, and misfortune of men depend upon God. So he determined to sacrifice Isaac as an offering. When he was about to kill Isaac, he heard the merciful voice of God, "Do not lay a hand on the boy." Such faithful obedience won him the praise of the people, that he was called "the father of faith".

Through the works of Noah, we can also find out what the result of the absolute faith is. In the days that not a drop of rain fell, God commanded Noah to make an ark (wooden ship) on the top of the mountain. In fact, it was beyond common sense; as for scale, the ark was to be 137 meters long, 23 meters wide, 14 meters high, and it was almost impossible to build such a tremendous ship with the techniques of those days. Of course, it can be construct easily with modern techniques including timbers and various kinds of building materials. However, it must have been difficult to build the ark with those day's technique, because it required high techniques and expenses with which today's shuttle can be made. Even under those circumstances, Noah never complained of God and began to construct the ark, believing that God would help him. It is estimated that it took as long as 40 years at least or even 100 years to make the ark. From this, we can guess it took a lot of perseverance for Noah to do the work. As the result of obeying the absolute words of God without adding or subtracting, only Noah and his family were saved when all the people were destroyed by the flood. Thus, the result of regarding the words of God as absolute was great blessing and joy.

Here is another case; Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was cured of his serious disease by obeying the word of God absolutely. When Naaman was suffering from mortal disease, leprosy, he visited Elisha who lived in the land of Israel, through the recommendation of Hebraic maidservant whom he kept in his house. Then Elisha didn't allow Naaman to see himself, but only sent a messenger to command him to wash himself seven times seven times in the Jordan. Naaman would go away in angry, counting impolitely Elisha's treatment for the commander of the army of a nation. For he expected that Elisha would come out to him and lay his hands on himself and cure of his disease. But the prescription for his disease was far from his thought, and he could not believe that he would be healed by such a recipe. But Naaman changed his mind and washed himself in the Jordan with the mind of obedience, and he was cured of his skin like that of little child (2 Kings 5:1-27). If general Naaman had not obeyed absolutely the word of God spoken through Elisha, he would have finished his miserable life as a leper.

Even when the Israelites were about to cross the Jordan in order to possess the land of Canaan after forty years in the desert, the absolute obedience was required. In the rainy season that the river overflowed all its banks, God commanded the Israelites to go ahead of them. In common knowledge, ferries or rafts at least would be required to cross a river. But Joshua believed absolutely that the words of God would bring forth a gracious result. Indeed, as soon as the Israelites dipped their feet into the Jordan, believing the words of God absolutely, so much water was pushed out, that they could cross over the Jordan as on dry land.

When the Israelites arrived in the land of Canaan, the fortress of Jericho stood dreadfully before them. Without conquering Jericho the firm fortress, they couldn't enter Canaan. Under such circumstance, they were ordered to march around the Jericho. It would be an ordinary way of conquering the fortress to build siege ramps and make ladders, arrows, spears, shields and battering rams for breaching the gate and to plan a strategy. However, God told them an unreasonable and strange operation beyond common sense, and those who believed God with common sense couldn't carry it out.

On the first day, they marched around the city once, but nothing happened. And on the second day, they marched around the city in the same manner, but it didn't still move at all. On the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth day, they did so. Those who didn't have absolute faith must have been anxious; they might have fallen into men's common sense, "We would rather sharpen our swords or make one more spear or make battering rams to break the gate". On the seventh day that they marched around the city seven times, they might have despaired deeply, doubting, "Will it collapse or not"? or "We may collapse from exhaustion". But what result did God give the Israelites who obeyed absolutely His words? When they shouted with a great shout, the wall collapse. By conquering the city of Jericho, they prepared the foundation for entering the promised land of Canaan..

But after Israelites came out of Egypt, they didn't keep such absolute faith until the end. As a result, six hundred thousand men were killed miserably in the desert. As it is written:

Hebrews 3:17-19 [And with whom was he angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the desert? And to whom did God swear that they would never enter his rest if not to those who disobeyed? So we see that they were not able to enter, because of their unbelief.]

We come to a conclusion that no one can follow the commands of God without absolute obedience. Even what is beyond common sense will be settled naturally if we only carry it out with absolute obedience toward God. Such an absolute obedience is also required to keep the commands of God. Some persist in their arrogant opinions: "It doesn't matter whether we worship on Sunday or Saturday" or "If we appoint 25th of December as the holy birthday of Jesus Christ and celebrate it, though we don't celebrate Passover, God will be pleased with it", or "We will be saved, though we don't keep the Passover, for we have Communion every month or every week". The reason they say such nonsense is that they don't regard the words of God as absolute, but degrade them lower than the insistence of men. Those who believe God with their own thoughts will never be saved.

Sometimes, those who obey the words of God absolutely seem to be abnormal to the eyes of those who do not regard them as absolute: Naaman who washed himself even seven times in the dirty water of the Jordan, not in the clear water, the Israelites who marched around the city Jericho instead of attacking it, Abraham who was willing to sacrifice his precious son as an offering, Noah who made the ark on top of the mountains, sweating profusely, on the clear days. All of them might seem to be abnormal and crazy to the eyes of the people. But if we realize that God asks us to do something only for our own sake, we will obey God's words absolutely without persisting our own thought, by which we can become perfect. When God demands us absolute obedience, it is not to oppress us dictatorially, but to give benefits to us who cannot foresee the future.

These days, it is regarded as very reasonable and natural that men or animals or images of nature move as reality on television. But only 100 years ago, people couldn't even imagine such a thing at all; if anyone said that there would be television, he must have been treated as a mad man.

Men can not know the things to come 100 years or later or 10 years or one year later. Really they are ignorant, and they can't foresee what will happen even after a second. To them, what will God teach and what will He explain?

John 3:12 Jesus said to them ["I have spoken to you of earthly things and you do not believe; how then will you believe if I speak of heavenly things?"] Like Jesus' word, men cannot fathom God's great will.

But God always prepares righteous and beneficial results, and allows them only to those who believe and follow Him. Nevertheless, most people do not believe the fact completely, that they sometimes undergo sufferings and sometimes wander about and fall into death after all. Now, we should keep in mind that the way to proceed to the kingdom of heaven is only to obey the commands of God absolutely and to believe that we are to receive His absolute blessing after absolute obedience. God gave us absolute commands to give us His absolute love. God bless you all.

"God bless you all. COGinator, seems to me that you like watching circus. Well just to let you know that I'm not interested. I'd rather seek the truth of God instead. So, according to you, COGinator, you want me to answer on my own opinion about the Bible, meaning you want me to interpret it? I can't. It's not mine. It's the Word of God."

By: COGinator on April 24, 2008 at 9:15 pm

Reply

BOZOfromZion....You can't? Sure you can, is your self esteem so low that you feel you have to listen how others mis-interpret the bible and that has to be your interpretation?? Honestly, I bet you that the whole Ahnshanghong/MJ thing was way in left field when you first heard it, but you wanted to be accpeted by the nice people of the CoG so you swalled the crud whole.

Don't think that we who are so against the BS that the CoG teaches hasn't gone through it with a fine tooth comb. However, we relied on our own mind and didn't fall for the manipulation of accepting false assumptions. Once you bought into the C.A.S.H falseness you were toast. Really think about...He's dead. You could go to Korea and dig up his body (that would be sick, but you could do it). You can't do that with Jesus. So...case and point!

CoG = FAIL.

Jamie should trim your posts for brevity!!

Oh and God bless you too, but if your God is the Hearing-aided Witch then I don't accpet your blessing.

Brilliant suggestion COGinator. I shall summarize his nonsense.

By: brofromzion on April 24, 2008
at 10:13 pm

This is another FAIL post. He tries to make a case that if we were people living 2000 years ago, we would have likely denied Jesus was the Christ. He says things like Jesus was only a carpenter, etc, and quotes verses to show how normal Jesus seemed to be.

Reply

Yet this is a big FAIL because he never once highlights why we would very likely believe in Jesus. Jesus performed so many wondrous miracles and spoke such gracious words that many people believed in Him. It says in the bible that the multitudes followed him. Does multitude mean one or two? Obviously not. The ones who rejected Him were mainly the priests; Pharisees, Sadducees.

This person obviously never read the bible for himself but simply regurgitates whatever CoG indoctrinates him with.

CoG = FAIL

This is a FAIL post. He's basically trying to say that the Passover feast is the new covenant. How silly of him to try and reduce the wonderful new covenant to just a feast.

By: brofromzion on April 24, 2008
at 10:31 pm

Apparently, he never read the whole bible himself or he'd know that the new covenant refers to Jesus Christ's blood being the way to right standing with God, Jesus Christ dwelling in us, the Holy Spirit being given to us, and the laws of God written in our hearts.

Reply

How cheap he made the new covenant! To reduce it to merely a feast!

That is why I say that the spirit of Anti-Christ is alive in the CoG. Time and time again they deny the works of Jesus and the sacrifice on the cross while claiming to be the true way.

CoG = FAIL

God bless you all. Jamie, Jamie, Jamie. You really hate the truth of the Bible. You know what why should I even bother to preach the truth of Word of God here on your blog. You like to pick on comments that only chastize World Mission Society Church of God but when someone who makes an atheist comment like Timothy3:16 who said:

By: brofromzion on April 25, 2008 at 4:27 pm

Reply

"All religion is fake buddy. Learn your history, read some facts, soak up some knowledge.

It's just jazzy superstition believed by ignorant people.

<http://www.huppi.com/kangaroo/L-thinkingchristians.htm>

The higher the IQ, the less religious someone is. The more ignorant you are, the more likely you believe in superstition.

Name me any serious scientist or thinker who believes in Ahnsahng hong or Jesus? Thats old news buddy. Wake up and smell the 21st century. We now know enough about the Bible, history and religion to debunk this crap.

All your prophecies are wrong, childish and superficial. You wont wake up, because like 99 percent of the world, you're a moron who believes in childish things."

So what's up aren't you gonna stand up for Jesus and prove through the Scripture that He is the God the Son or are you just gonna let Timothy3:16 mock Jesus Christ on your blog? You are unbelievable Jamie. You hate Ahnsahng hong and Jerusalem Mother and Their followers like me, Ryan and others so much yet you don't say anything to atheist people that mocks Jesus. Jamie, how can you say your a Christian when you don't even preach the Word of God? Oh yeah I forgot. You believe your gonna be saved anyway because you believe in Jesus and there's no need for you to preach to unbelievers. Well don't worry I will stop preaching the Word of God on your blog if that's what you want since you don't keep the original comments I put here. Anyway, I respect your faith and the faith of others who have different interpretation of the Bible like Jehovah Witness, Seventh Day Adventist and others. God bless you Jamie.

Jamie...

That is much better!! Mucho Gracias!!

By: COGInator on April 25, 2008 at 8:48 pm

Reply

For Timothy3:16 —

By: COGInator on April

Here are some scientists who were also Christian

Galileo Galilei; Louis Pasteur; Antoine Laurent Lavoisier; Johannes Kepler; Nicolaus Copernicus; James Clerk Maxwell; Werner Heisenberg, and even Charles Darwin... just to name a few.

Albert Einstein believed in the old testament and rumor has it before he died he accepted Christ, but I haven't found any references to that.

25, 2008
at 9:18 pm

Reply

Haha brofromzion are you finally getting discouraged and tired? How can you let that happen to you?! I thought you liked to quote Revelation when talking about the new names? Aren't you afraid you won't get a new name on the white stone if you don't endure the persecution I am putting on you?

By: Jamie on April 25, 2008
at 10:16 pm

Reply

ROFL.

In fact, why not you continue posting your doctrines and arguments? They will be ammunition and part of what I will cover in the new site I am planning to create. You CoG members have really provoked my spirit, and I am going to make a site that systematically destroys every teaching that the CoG has and expose them as untruths, misinterpretations and manipulations through use of the bible, historical writings about the church and contemporary history.

Stay tuned for it, and keep on posting your comments about CoG's FAIL teachings! I need as much initial ammunition as I can get so that I can really smash them down later on :)

Hohohoh. Keep up your good work brofromzion!

CoG members = Can't even take some persecution, how are they going to get a new name? LOL
CoG = FAIL

God bless you Jamie. So your telling me that I'm getting discouraged because I won't post the truth about the Bible? Very funny! Your the one who's scared of the true teachings of God's word that I post here because you like deleting the truth. By the way, I have been persecuted before many times to some of my friends and strangers because I preach the teachings of Church of God because they say that Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother are cults. But I think your the one, Jamie, who's scared to preach the Bible to unbelievers because you can't walk in the path that Jesus and the Apostles walked. Good thing I am not in Singapore because I would love to preach to you the Word of God in person and you preach me what your church preach. Another thing, for you Jamie and all others who chastize the Holy Spirit, Christ Ahnsahnghong

By: brofromzion on April 25, 2008
at 10:56 pm

Reply

and Jerusalem Mother, hear what the Bible testifies about you guys:

Matthew 12:30-32 ["He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters. And so I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.]

There are about 850 denominations on this earth. Nowadays, so many churches proclaim to have the true gospel. Many say the gospel is music, or just the word of God, but they don't understand what is the true gospel Jesus Christ came to preach 2000 years ago. We have to understand through the Bible because there can't be 850 different gospels.

By: brofromzion on
April 25, 2008
at 11:01 pm

Reply

Ephesians 3:6 This mystery is that through the gospel the Gentiles are heirs together with Israel, members together of one body, and sharers together in the promise in Christ Jesus. I became a servant of this gospel by the gift of God's grace given me through the working of his power.

Then only through the gospel we can be heirs of God, members of one body and sharers in the promise. Also, Paul mentioned that he was a servant of this gospel. Then what is this gospel?

Romans 15:16 to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles with the priestly duty of proclaiming the gospel of God, so that the Gentiles might become an offering acceptable to God, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

As stated above, his ministry was to proclaim the gospel. However the following verse says he was a minister of a new covenant!..

2 Corinthians 3:6 He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant—not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

Then what does this mean? Paul had two ministries? Absolutely not. The gospel is the new covenant. then what is the new covenant?

Luke 22:15 And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

Luke 22:19-And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

Then, clearly we can see that the new covenant is the Passover feast. Then, what is the gospel? it is the Passover! If we do not keep the Passover, we can not say we have the true gospel in our church. This is why the World Mission Society Church of God keeps the Passover faithfully. If we keep another gospel (passover), we will sin against God.

Galatians 1:6-I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you by the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel (passover)— which is really no gospel(passover) at all. Evidently some people are throwing you into confusion and are trying to pervert the gospel (passover) of Christ. But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel(passover) other than the one we preached to you, let him be eternally condemned! As we have already said, so now I say again: If anybody is preaching to you a gospel (passover) other than what you accepted, let him be eternally condemned!

We must keep the Passover and preach the Passover. Communion and Eucharist is a different gospel from the one the Apostles preached. They never kept communion or sacrament or Eucharist. They kept the true gospel-Passover.

1 Corinthians 5:7-Get rid of the old yeast that you may be a new batch without yeast—as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Therefore let us keep the Festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with bread without yeast, the bread of sincerity and truth.

Which festival did Apostle Paul keep and teach to keep? The Passover Festival!

If we want to be heirs of God, sharers in the promise and one body in Christ, we must keep the Passover. Ahnsahnghong Christ came as prophesied and taught us the true Gospel of Christ. Second Coming Christ came and taught us all the mysteries hidden for ages and generations.

Mathew 27:21-26- Crucify him!....They shouted all the louder. Crucify him! Let his blood be on us and on our children!

By: brofromzion on
April 25, 2008
at 11:04 pm

Imagine yourselves 2000 years ago! Would you have believed a man in about his thirty's to be God Almighty in the flesh!? A man who claimed to be your God, Jehovah, in the flesh but with a different name, Jesus? A man who was a mere carpenter or even the one that fixed your door?

Reply

Mark 6:3 (please click link) A man whose appearance was like that of a root out of a dry ground in whose men hid his face from? Isaiah 53:1

John 10:30-33- We are not stoning you for any of these, replied the Jews, but for blasphemy because you a mere man claim to be God.

John 6:42- they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I came down from heaven'?"Put yourself in that position! All you had was the Old Testament where the name Jesus was nowhere to be found and where you can only trust in prophecies in order to seek your messiah. Would you have believed? Would you have devoted to him? Would you have confessed the name of the savior in that age, Jesus? Would you have walked with him without fear of being persecuted and even put to death? Would you have preached in his name? Acts 5:40, Mathew 10:21

Think about it seriously.. Not even Peter, the most faithful out of the twelve was 100% faithful for he even denied him three times for fear of being punished. Mathew 26:69

For what I can see, many people in this age would have stoned him, lashed him, beat him, punch him, spit on him, and even crucified him. Why? For only judging by mere appearances and not looking into the prophecies that testified to him in the Old Testament. Why? For being stuck to the name of Jehovah without realizing God came with a new name, Jesus. Why? For wanting your God to come the way it fit your concept instead of submitting to God's way. Isaiah 55:8

Romans 15:4- " For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us..."Now it is so easy to proclaim the name of Jesus Christ. But how about when you hear the new name of Jesus, Christ Ahnsahnghong? Nowadays, so many people ridicule and blaspheme the name of Christ Ahnsahnghong. But, then, would you want to be in the same position as the people who stoned Jesus Christ two thousand years ago? Are you not the one screaming- "Crucify him, Crucify him!?" Are you not the one screaming... "you a mere man claim to be God!" or the one questioning how can you, Ahn Sahng Hong- a Korean man, say you are the Messiah? John 5:45-50

John 15:18 ... "They will treat you this way because of my name for they do not know the One who sent me"

I know there are so many false Christ nowadays proclaiming they are the Christ! But where is their proof? They have not fulfilled any Bible prophecy! They only say they are the christ and people just follow? Be wise for your salvation and follow the prophecies in the bible!Christ Ahnsahnghong is the true Second Coming Christ and we can prove it through all prophecies Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled! Please consider what happened before and just try to understand the Savior in this Holy Spirit Age through Bible. John 5:39 Hosea 6:3

In Conclusion, judge for yourselves through the bible and not with your fixed concept that Christ Ahn Sahng Hong is the true God in this age! through the Bible you will see one by one the prophecies Jesus Christ had to fulfill when he came a second time with the New Name of Christ Ahnsahnghong.

26, 2008
at 3:02 am

Are you a 13 year old little school girl? (Sorry for all you 13yr school girls out there reading this.) you stated:

Reply

I have been persecuted before many times to some of my friends and strangers because I preach the teachings of Church of God because they say that Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother are cults.

Did they throw stones at you? Did you get any scars or stitches? Do you have brain damage (beyond the good scrubbing the CoG gave ya)? Because unless you're really a wimpy sissy, I don't think you've been persecuted!!

Just because we find soooo many inconsistencies in your twisted truth...and just because we point out that it doesn't match with the teachings of the bible as been researched and discussed for thousands of years...and just because we point it out to you...you feel persecuted. Ok, I'll validate your feelings if you'll concede, your persecution has in no way compared with the persecution that Jesus Christ underwent.

Infact, I move that Jamie block all your future posts until you either concede or reject my request.

Your reality is your truth...shame it doesn't match the rest of the Kingdoms reality.

BozoFromZion's truth = FAIL

Jaimie...can't wait to see your new site!!!! Let me know if I can help in anyway!!

Hi brother brofromzion,

By: donnie on April 26, 2008
at 10:53 am

I have read all your posts. I understand your perspective about elohim, god the mother god the father heavenly family, she is going to be with us till the end of time (is that right?) etc.. I still want to know more about this person Mother. You've never even mentioned her name. Please, tell me everything about Mother's life. How did she get involved in this. Does she have family/children,husband etc. How old is she now?

Reply

Thank you so much brother brofromzion for being so patient with me. I really appreciate it.

COGInator, I'll probably work on it after next week when finals have passed.

By: Jamie on April 26, 2008
at 12:32 pm

Hey, I don't mind any help :) If you come across places which list out the various teachings of the CoG and their explanations, let me know so that I can have stuff to destroy.

Reply

Brofromzion, I think everyone knows by now that you've never thought about your own faith critically, and that you simply copy and paste pre-arranged 'arguments' (more like spam mails) onto blogs that don't agree with CoG's teachings in the hopes of spamming them into submission.

BTW, I'm really enjoying persecuting you and your cult. Wait until I get that site up! You'll be persecuted many times more than this!

CoG = FAIL

Donnie he has no answers about Mother Jerusalem or Ahnsahnghong's history All you will get is their stereotyped, lengthy post sent from their higher ups and just how Jamie mentioned easy to do thing "cut and paste" Which makes no sense. After Mother's death they will worship Joo Cheol. Must have been already working secretly on that part of doctrine.

COGinator, I liked the Circus in town, very colorful. Imagining Mother doing the balancing act and dudes swinging on high ropes LOL

By: Jonah on April 26, 2008
at 4:30 pm

Reply

returnedangel, you haven't answered my question. I'm going to repeat it so you don't have to scroll up looking for it. My question is, the great tribulation that was talked about in the Bible, did it already happen yet? I try reading the book of Daniel and it talks about Daniel's vision of the Nebuchazzar's dream about the 4 kingdoms that will rise on Earth. Is it connected to the beast that is written in Revelation, about the anti-christ name can be calculated and it suppose to be 666? Anyone, whether from Church of God or not, please answer. Well I know that Church of God can explain the Bible clearly but I'd also like the point of view of others. Thanks everyone.

By: Poland on April 27, 2008
at 5:02 am

Reply

God bless you Jamie. Well then Jamie, just before you create a site to destroy the teachings of Church of God, I advise you to reconsider.

By: brofromzion on April 28, 2008
at 8:42 pm

Reply

Acts 5:38-39 [Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail. But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God."]

So you think you can prove through the Bible that Church of God is a false prophet? Because Church of God follows the Holy Spirit, Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother? Because we keep the Passover of the new covenant? Sabbath? ALL Feast of God on its appointed times? Because our women wears veil? It is clearly testified in the Bible that the only true church are those who love God because they follow ALL God's commandments, not just a partial of it.

John 14:15-21 ["If you love me, you will obey what I command. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counselor to be with you forever— the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Before long, the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. WHOEVER HAS MY COMMANDS AND OBEYS THEM, HE IS THE ONE WHO LOVE ME. He who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love him and show myself to him."]

John 14:23-26 [Jesus replied, "If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching. My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. He who does not love me will not obey my teaching. These words you hear are not my own; they belong to the Father who sent me. "All this I have spoken while still with you. BUT THE COUNSELOR, THE HOLY SPIRIT, WHOM THE FATHER WILL SEND IN MY(JESUS) NAME, WILL TEACH YOU ALL THINGS AND WILL REMIND YOU OF EVERYTHING I HAVE SAID TO YOU.]

Jamie, do you just simply praise God or FOLLOW ALL HIS COMMANDMENTS?

John 5:41-42 [I do not accept praise from men, but I know you. I know that you do not have the love(commandments) of God in your hearts.]

Now let's make it clear about the Spirit. I spoke with couple of Jehovah Witness and they keep insisting the the Spirit is just some kind of energy but they couldn't prove it through the Bible. The Bible CLEARLY testifies that the Holy Spirit is a personal being and referred to as "HE".

Holy Spirit has feelings

Romans 15:30 [I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and BY THE LOVE OF THE SPIRIT, to join me in my struggle by praying to God for me.]

Holy Spirit grieves

Ephesians 4:29-30 [Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. AND DO NOT GRIEVE THE HOLY SPIRIT, WITH WHOM YOU WERE SEALED FOR THE DAY OF REDEMPTION.]

Holy Spirit speaks

Revelations 2:7 [HE WHO HAS AN EAR, LET HIM HEAR WHAT THE SPIRIT SAYS TO THE CHURCHES. To him who overcomes, I will give the right to eat from the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God.]

Holy Spirit groans and intercedes

Romans 8:26-27 [In the same way, the Spirit helps us our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but THE SPIRIT HIMSELF INTERCEDES FOR US WITH GROANS THAT WORDS CANNOT EXPRESS. And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because THE SPIRIT INTERCEDES FOR THE SAINTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOD'S WILL.]

Holy Spirit testifies about God

John 15:26 [When the Counselor comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father, HE WILL TESTIFY ABOUT ME.]

Holy Spirit teaches

John 14:26 NIV [BUT THE COUNSELOR, THE HOLY SPIRIT, WHOM THE FATHER WILL SEND IN MY(JESUS) NAME, WILL TEACH YOU ALL THINGS AND WILL REMIND YOU OF EVERYTHING I HAVE SAID TO YOU.]

John 14:26 NASB [But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, HE WILL TEACH YOU ALL THINGS, and bring to your remembrance all that I said to you.]

John 14:26 THE MESSAGE [The Friend, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send at my request, will make everything plain to you. HE will remind you of all the things I have told you.]

John 14:26 KJV [But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, HE SHALL TEACH YOU things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.]

Should I put all the versions of the Bible to prove it? It is already clear enough. As a matter of fact, the HOLY SPIRIT HAS A NAME.

Matthew 28:19 [Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the NAME of the FATHER and of the SON and of the HOLY SPIRIT.]

If the Holy Spirit was not a man with character, but merely an invisible, active power like an electric wave, or energy how would it be possible for the Holy Spirit to have a NAME and referred to as "HE"? The fact that the Holy Spirit has a name and referred to as "HE" proves that the Holy Spirit is a MAN, WITH CHARACTERS.

Also the worst thing you can do in your life, Jamie, is to blasphemy the Holy Spirit and that's even more proof that the HOLY SPIRIT is a PERSONAL BEING, BEING BLASPHEMED.

Matthew 12:30-32 ["He who is not with me is against me, and he who does not gather with me scatters. And so I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men , BUT THE BLASPHEMY AGAINST THE SPIRIT WILL NOT BE FORGIVEN. Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.]

CLEAR ENOUGH? God bless you Jamie.

Ahahahaha you are quite deluded aren't you? Yes the Holy Spirit is a person, but He is still a Spirit.

By: Jamie on April 28, 2008 at 9:03 pm

If the Holy Spirit is called a Spirit, how then can He be a human man? How can a human man be like oil, fire, wind, rain, and a dove? He must be a slippery person, have a bad temper, be tempestuous, a wet blanket and also like to run away easily. Hahahaha! What an imperfect man! You've obviously never met the Holy Spirit before nor felt His touch.

Reply

You really can never make me guilty or convince me because I have a real relationship with the Holy Spirit. Yours is a fake. I've felt His touch, heard Him speak, known His guidance and have His witness in my heart. What has yours done for you? Lol.

Honestly, the only one blaspheming, grieving and insulting the Holy Spirit is CoG. How dare you reduce Him to the form of a mortal man?!? Yet if you were to turn away from those false teachings, the Spirit of Grace would welcome you and lead you to the true face of Jesus Christ, the Lord and Savior, who is coming soon. If you persist in being deceived by the devil, then I have nothing to say to you.

Truly, I pity you. You have nothing, while I have everything, and yet I would give you what I have, but you reject it.

CoG = FAIL

God bless you COGinator. So what about you, COGinator, have you been persecuted by unbelievers before in God's name? Did they throw stones at you? Did you get any scars or stitches? Do you have brain damage (beyond the good scrubbing that Satan gave ya)? Because unless you're really a wimpy sissy, I don't think you've been persecuted!! So what's that makes you? Because according to you, COGinator, unbelievers must hurt you first before you could say that you really follow Jesus Christ and the Apostles. Do you have to be also crucified like Jesus to be His followers? Your opinion is very funny because you don't even understand what you are talking about and it's because you, COGinator, being ignorant of the truth of the Bible. What do you think your doing to Church of God. Aren't you persecuting them VERBALLY by HARASSING Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother and their followers VERBALLY? Do I have to put the meaning of the word PERSECUTE from your own dictionary?

By: brofromzion on April 28, 2008 at 9:54 pm

Reply

Also, you said that my truth fail? Then you just admitted that the Bible fail because I follow God's teaching in the Bible. It's not my truth, it's God's truth that I follow according to His words, the Bible. COGinator, next time, can you make a righteous judgement according to the Bible instead of making your own opinion, your fixed idea of persecuting Church of God.

COGinator admitted the Bible fail = COGinator enjoyed Satan's good scrubbing so he would harass God's people.

Church of God follows ALL God's commandments, wills, feast, customs and laws according to the Bible = Church of God LOVES GOD.

God bless you Jamie. If you want me to believe you, then prove it through the Bible. It is the basis for ALL God's truth. God bless you Jamie.

By: brofromzion on April 28, 2008 at 10:07 pm

Reply

Everything you want to know is written in the Bible!!

Why do you want to know through the Men's opinion??

please find out the truth through the Bible.

Even though Sunday service and Cross and Christ mas and so on...is not written in the Bible but traditions of Church!! But many people still follow as God's commandments. But when we talk about the Truth which is written in the Bible(God's Word) they denied it! Why?? Church's Traditions are more important than God's Commandments???

By: The Truth on April 29, 2008 at 6:32 am

Reply

Is sunday service cross cristmas so on... written in the Bible?? Whrer???

By: The Truth on April 29, 2008 at 6:35 am

Reply

YOU THINK WHAT YOU WANT TO THINK LIKE IT SAYS IN THE BIBLE THERE ARE TO KINDS OF PEOPLE THOSE WHO BELONG TO GOD AN THOSE WHO DONT SO ALL YOU PEOPLE WHO ARE JUDGEING MOTHER AN SAYING WERE IN A CULT ILL BE LAUGHING WEN YALL R BURNING IN HELL GOD BLESS YOU

By: SARAH on April 29, 2008 at 7:47 am

Reply

Hi Sarah,

So you will be laughing in heaven at people burned in hell? What kind of heaven is that?

What is the difference between you and them? both sides

By: justin on April 29, 2008 at 12:07 pm

Reply

say they are right, the other is wrong, my god is greater than your god.

If the main goal of religion is just to go to 'heaven', be 'saved', 'salvation ' by keeping passover, believe in the second coming jesus ahnsahngong.. then you are really wasting you and your loved ones life.

Life is really not a problem to be solved, it is not a 'shadow', earth is not 'jail', life is a reality to be experienced and it is beautiful and perfect as it is.

Hi The Truth,

By: justin on April 29, 2008
at 12:18 pm

Do you follow god's commandments as per christian bible ? Do you perform human sacrifice? circumcision? do you stone people to death if they dont keep sabath? do you eat flesh and drink blood? do you have slave at home? do you burn the non-believers? is genocide ok? the list go on..

Reply

What we need is to focus on morality and humanity not on rituals and festivals.

After reading all the posts and sources from the oficial website, in my opinion, world mission church of god main goal is only 'recruitment' and 'fund raising'. It is like a sophisticated MLM (multi level marketing).

By: justin on April 29, 2008
at 12:23 pm

Reply

God bless you justin. We live as pilgrims on earth, longing for the heavenly home. Being clothed in flesh in this visible and finite world, our hearts become easily absorbed in outward things, so that we cannot think of the spiritual world.

By: brofromzion on April 29, 2008
at 4:43 pm

Reply

When we indulge in physical things, we can not understand God's providence; we can't grow in faith, and even the faith we have will gradually cool down. Our forefathers in faith tell us that the invisible world exists and it is the eternal world.

2 Corinthians 4:18 [So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.]

John 3:12 Jesus said to them ["I have spoken to you of earthly things and you do not believe; how then will you believe if I speak of heavenly things?"]

Like Jesus' word, men cannot fathom God's great will. Most people believe the things that occur in the visible world, but they can hardly believe the invisible world. There are not many who live in the hope for heaven, because it is the spiritual and invisible world. Then if we are here on Earth and this is only temporary, why are we here anyway? Let's look at the Bible and see what God did to King of Tyre.

Ezekiel 28:12-17 ["Son of man, take up a lament concerning the king of Tyre and say to him: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: " 'You were the model of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone adorned you: ruby, topaz and emerald, chrysolite, onyx and jasper, sapphire, turquoise and beryl. Your settings and mountings were made of gold; on the day you were created they were prepared. You were anointed as a guardian cherub, for so I ordained you. You were on the holy mount of God; you walked among the fiery stones. You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created till wickedness was found in you. Through your widespread trade you were filled with violence, and YOU SINNED. So I drove you in disgrace from the mount of God, and I expelled you, O guardian cherub, from among the fiery stones. Your heart became proud on account of your beauty, and you corrupted your wisdom because of your splendor. SO I THREW YOU TO THE EARTH; I made a spectacle of you before kings.]

King of Tyre, a guardian cherub, was thrown to the Earth by God because he sinned? Now it's clear that all of us are here on Earth because of sin. Now what is the punishment of sin:

Romans 6:23 [For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.]

Romans 5:12 [Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all men, because all sinned.]

Death is the punishment of sin and we all sinned since we are all on Earth, it also says that God's gift is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord, because He came to save what was lost:

Luke 19:10 [For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost.]

Ephesians 1:7 [In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace.]

Now through Jesus blood, our sins can be forgiven. Did Jesus gave us a way to receive it?

Luke 22:7-8 [THEN CAME THE DAY OF UNLEAVENED BREAD ON WHICH THE PASSOVER LAMB HAD TO BE SACRIFICE. Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the PASSOVER."]

Luke 22:19-20 [And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; DO THIS IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.]

John 6:53 [Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, UNLESS YOU EAT THE FLESH OF THE SON OF MAN AND DRINK HIS BLOOD, YOU HAVE NO LIFE IN YOU. WHOEVER EATS MY FLESH AND DRINKS MY BLOOD HAS ETERNAL LIFE, AND I WILL RAISE HIM UP AT THE LAST DAY. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.]

However, the Passover was abolished at the Council of Nicaea in A.D. 325. At that time, the Passover completely disappeared from the world. Who on earth can have eternal life as the truth of life was abolished? Therefore, Jesus said that He would come a second time to restore the Passover.

Hebrews 9:28 [so CHRIST was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and HE WILL APPEAR A SECOND TIME, NOT TO BEAR SIN, BUT TO BRING SALVATION to those who are waiting for him.]

Ahnsahnghong restored the Passover of the new covenant that had been abolished by Satan. Then, who do you think Ahnsahnghong is?

Isaiah 25:6-9 [On this mountain the LORD Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for all peoples, A BANQUET OF AGED WINE-THE BEST OF MEATS AND THE FINEST OF WINES. On this mountain he will destroy the shroud that enfolds all peoples, the sheet that covers all nations; HE WILL SWALLOW UP DEATH FOREVER. The Sovereign LORD will wipe away the tears from all faces; he will remove the disgrace of his people from all the earth. The LORD has spoken. In that day they will say, "SURELY THIS IS OUR GOD; we trusted in him, and HE SAVED US. This is the LORD, we trusted in him; let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation."]

Clearly, Ahnsahnghong is the Second Coming Christ, who brought back Passover of the new covenant just as Jesus promised eternal life through His body and blood. So if the visible world is temporary, when it will end? Shall we look at the Bible.

Revelations 7:1-3 [After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth to prevent any wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree. THEN I SAW ANOTHER ANGEL COMING UP FROM THE EAST, HAVING THE SEAL OF THE LIVING GOD. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: "DO NOT HARM THE LAND OR THE SEA OR THE TREES UNTIL WE PUT A SEAL ON THE FOREHEADS OF THE SERVANTS OF OUR GOD."]

God bless you justin.

Hi Brofromzion!. Welcome back!.
Please answer my questions about Mother Jerusalem.

What is her name, how old is she, does she have families and how did she get involved in this religion. Thank you so much.. still.. awaiting for your response.

By: donnie on April 29, 2008
at 5:11 pm

Reply

God bless you Sarah. Please humble yourself.
Let's keep preaching the truth to those who are lost and seeking God's truth and God will be

By: brofromzion on April 29, 2008
at 5:18 pm

happy just as He testified in the Bible through some of His Parables in the Bible.

Reply

Parable of the Lost Sheep

Luke 15:1-7 [Now the tax collectors and "sinners" were all gathering around to hear him. But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law muttered, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." Then Jesus told them this parable: "Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Does he not leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it? And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.' I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.]

Parable of the Lost Coin

Luke 15:8-10 ["Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins and loses one. Does she not light a lamp, sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? And when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbors together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost coin.' In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."]

Parable of the Lost Son

Luke 15:11-32 [Jesus continued: "There was a man who had two sons. The younger one said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of the estate.' So he divided his property between them. "Not long after that, the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth in wild living. After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs. He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything. "When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired men have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired men.' So he got up and went to his father. "But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him. "The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' "But the father said to his servants, 'Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let's have a feast and celebrate.

For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' So they began to celebrate.

"Meanwhile, the older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. So he called one of the servants and asked him what was going on. 'Your brother has come,' he replied, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.' "The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him. But he answered his father, 'Look! All these years I've been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!' " 'My son,' the father said, 'you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' "]

God bless you Sarah.

Bozofromzoion said "...because I follow God's teaching in the Bible."

By: COGINator on April 29, 2008 at 9:01 pm

Let me correct you, if you wouldn't mind...and I really want you to think about this.

Reply

You don't follow all God's teaching in the Bible. You follow all the "Cult's" Teaching in the bible. You follow all thier teaching USING the bible. Not what the bible is teaching. There is a difference...And if you weren't brainwashed you would see it.

Try this exercise. Make up some leagalistic teaching that you know God really doesn't want you to have do. Such as raise your arms in the air when you pray. Now search through the bible and find scripture that could possible relate to that that teaching. If you can't find the exact words then create a new meaning. You know what I mean, like when the CoG made up the word Clouds to mean Flesh.

See if you can do it. Then who knows, maybe they will raise you to a god Status.

By the way, it was very un Christ like to call me a sissy...knowing I've never been persecuted. Did you know I have family members that were in the Nazi concentration camps. Let me tell you...that's real persecution.

Disagreeing with your doctrine is disagreeing...not persecution.

God bless you COGINator. So what's up. You still wanna harass Church of God and their followers like what your doing to me right now. So what's the truth of God? Can you show me through the Bible? Let's see who follows God's

By: brofromzion on April 29, 2008 at 10:41 pm

Reply

commandments.

Church of God follows ALL God's commandments according to the Bible. We keep the Passover of the new covenant on it's appointed time just as Jesus Christ did and He said do this in remembrance of Him and He promised eternal life in His body and blood. We keep the Sabbath day as Jesus custom. We keep ALL God's feast just as prophesied in the Bible about God's mountain, Zion, where ALL God's feast are celebrated. Our women wear veils when we worship God. We get baptized in the actual name of the God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. We believe in the existence of Jerusalem Mother. We follow ALL the prophecies of the Bible.

So what are you so insecure about COGinator? Why don't you prove that Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother are cults through the Bible. Do you even know the role of the Second Coming of Christ? See your all you do is give your OWN OPINION and your not looking at the Bible. Your judging Church of God yet you couldn't prove through the Bible that were wrong? Who are you to judge someone? Shouldn't we all based everything in the Bible before we say something against someone's belief? Now if your reading the Bible and you see that were making a wrong interpretation, then correct me if I'm wrong. But don't just judge someone by the apperance. Make a righteous judgement according to the Bible. That also goes to all other denominations. Bible is the basis for everything as far as following God. God bless you COGinator.

I'm Church of God Member. Church of God is very good Church. Because the Church only follows the teaching of true God. And because of Member's good behavior, the government give it many rewards.

By: cham on April 29, 2008
at 11:33 pm

Reply

I'm wondering Jamie's word is true or false.

But...

By: happyli on April 29, 2008
at 11:35 pm

One thing is sure we don't have to hear those who keep the teaching of man like Sunday service, Christmas worship
Because they can't recognize God and truth through the man's teaching.

Reply

Really~~ what is the truth of God?
If you follow the truth of God please show me your truth through the Bible !!

By: The Truth on April 30, 2008
at 12:13 am

Reply

Funny, when you write God Bless you,
Bozofromzion, it reads more like F U. Maybe

By: COGinator on April 30, 2008

it's just me. (or we could take a vote on it).

at 12:03 pm

Either way...

Reply

...All my opinions are from the bible as it's been taught to me from multiple denominations and multiple sources. With out even siteing a single biblical reference I can absolutely affirm that the intent on Jesus' teachings is to not be leagalistic and to show to grace to each other as God does to us. From your postings I can see that your doctirne has neither. Furthermore, Jesus warned us about false religions, false prophets, and false idols. It's because of that, I can clearly see that CoG is not doing Gods work.

You want proof...it's in the bible. I suggest you read from front to end without skipping around at all. I'll let you find the references as they are not hidden and don't need cult leader to unlock them to understand.

By the way you want proof MJ is not a God...cut her and see if he/she bleeds. (I just have to look at that man made electronic device called a hearing aid to know she aint no god. It doesn't say in the bible to use a man made healing device. God should do all the healings....my God does!!)

God bless you COGinator. Okay so how can you say that your opinion is right? You said that your opinion is from the Bible but you don't even reference it and there are so many denominations out there. So what about Seventh Day Adventist, their opinion is from the Bible. Jehovah Witness, Born Again Christians, Billy Graham church, Baptist, Pietism, Evangelicalism, Pentecostalism, Catholics and I know that they use the Apocrypha version of the Bible and they claim that any other Christian denominations are Protestants because they think that Protestants take away books from the Bible (the Canon version is the one we all use except Catholics), Mormons. Who are you to judge Church of God and other churches? Shouldn't we all based it in the Bible instead of what your doing right now, making your OWN JUDGEMENT against Church of God. Because everytime I preach to someone, even in this blog, I reference it in the Bible. So how can we find out what is true church that Jesus Christ established. What are the things that God wants us to keep? Everybody believe in God, so is everybody gonna be save?. He wants us to keep his commandments right? Because according to Jesus in the Bible, those who keep God's commandments are the ones who love Him.

By: brofromzion on April 30, 2008
at 3:55 pm

Reply

John 14:15-21 ["If you love me, you will obey what I command. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counselor to be with you forever— the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Before long, the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. WHOEVER HAS MY COMMANDS AND OBEYS THEM, HE IS THE ONE WHO LOVE ME. He who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love him and show myself to him."]

John 5:41-42 [I do not accept praise from men, but I know you. I know that you do not have the love(commandments) of God in your hearts.]

Is this clear to you COGinator? Jesus Christ clearly said that He do not accept praise from men. He wants us to follow His commandments. Anyone can say "Lord, I love you with all my heart and I accept you as my personal savior" but if they don't follow God's commandments, then He/She don't really love God. It's clear straight from the Bible. Should I put more proof from the BIBLE?

James 2:14-26 [What good is it, my brothers, if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save him? Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food. If one of you says to him, "Go, I wish you well; keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about his physical needs, what good is it? In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds." Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do. YOU BELIEVE THAT THERE IS ONE GOD. GOOD! EVEN THE DEMONS BELIEVE THAT- AND SHUDDER. YOU FOOLISH MAN, DO YOU WAN EVIDENCE THAT FAITH WITHOUT DEEDS IS USELESS? WAS NOT OUR ANCESTOR ABRAHAM CONSIDERED RIGHTEOUS FOR WHAT HE DID WHEN HE OFFERED HIS SON ISAAC ON THE ALTER? You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did. And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness," and he was called God's friend. You see that a person is justified by what he does and not by faith alone. In the same way, was not even Rahab the prostitute considered righteous for what she did when she gave lodging to the spies and sent them off in a different direction? As the body without the spirit is dead, so FAITH WITHOUT DEEDS IS DEAD.

Matthew 7:21-27 ["Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but ONLY HE WHO DOES THE WILL OF MY FATHER WHO IS IN HEAVEN. Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!' "THEREFORE EVERYONE WHO HEARS THESE WORDS OF MINE AND PUTS THEM INTO PRACTICE IS LIKE A WISE MAN who built his house on the rock. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock. BUT EVERYONE WHO HEARS THESE WORDS OF MINE AND DOES NOT PUT THEM INTO PRACTICE IS LIKE A FOOLISH MAN who built his house on sand. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash."]

Do you understand these COGinator? You said that you read the Bible but you don't practice the commandments of God. So do you really love God even if you believe in Him and have just faith? God bless you COGinator.

God bless you COGinator. You said:

"Furthermore, Jesus warned us about false religions, false prophets, and false idols. It's because of that, I can clearly see that CoG is not doing Gods work."

By: brofromzion on April 30, 2008
at 5:47 pm

Reply

There are prophecies that Jesus Christ is to come again to bring the salvation to those who are waiting for Him and I'll explain to you one of the prophecies that must be fulfill in order to be the Second Coming Christ. Do you know when is Jesus Christ Second Coming? It's probably in the Bible doesn't it.

Matthew 24:3-4 [As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately. "Tell us," they said, "when will this happen, and WHAT WILL BE THE SIGN OF YOUR COMING and of the end of the age?" Jesus answered: "Watch out that no one deceives you. For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I AM THE CHRIST,' and will deceive many.]

Matthew 24:24-25 [For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and miracles to deceive even the elect—if that were possible. See, I have told you ahead of time.]

Here, we can clearly see that Jesus Christ will come again as Christ meaning God in flesh. So when it will happen? Only through the Word of God we can find out because He is the only One who knows. Let's look at the BIBLE, THE WORD OF GOD.

Matthew 24:32-33 ["NOW LEARN THIS LESSON FROM THE FIG TREE: AS SOON AS ITS TWIGS GET TENDER AND ITS LEAVES COME OUT, YOU KNOW THAT SUMMER IS NEAR. Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door.]

Jesus said, "as soon as it's twigs get tender and it's leaves come out, you know that it is near", then, we have to find out when will the fig tree bloom and therefore understand the timing of Jesus' second appearing.

In order to realize the meaning of the parable we must understand what the fig tree represents. As it is written,

Luke 13:6-7 [Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree, planted in his vineyard, and he went to look for fruit on it, but did not find any. So he said to the man who took care of the vineyard, 'For three years now I've been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree and haven't found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?']

Why did Jesus compare Himself to a man who when to look for fruit on a fig tree planted in a vineyard? What is the meaning of this? Its meaning is that Jesus preached the gospel to the Israelites for three years searching for the fruit of the gospel. Therefore, the fig tree represents for the country of Israel.

Isa 5:7, KJV [For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry.]

In the above verse we can understand that in the Bible the vineyard represents the country of Israel and the plant (the tree) represents the people of Israel. Let's look at another biblical testimony concerning this.

Jer. 24:5 {Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.}

Through this verse God makes it apparent that figs represent Israel, since He compared the figs to the people of Israel once more.

In Luke 13:7 Jesus told His disciples to cut down a fig that had not borne any fruit. Actually Jesus' words at that time was a prophesy of what was going to happen to Israel. As a fulfillment to what Jesus had said, Israel which had rejected the gospel that Jesus preached was completely devastated by Roman soldiers in A.D. 70. After its collapse, the people were scattered all over the world as a stateless people for more than 1900 years.

After much time had passed, the fig tree that had been cut down and withered from the roots began to bloom once more. Its twigs got tender and its leaves began to sprout. When did all this happen? The revival of the fig tree occurred in 1948. On May 14, 1948, Israel proclaimed her independence and recovered her sovereignty. The fig tree which seemed to have with no sign of revival actually resuscitated. Israel's independence after such a long time of captivity marked the second coming of Jesus as prophesied. He has come again but with the name Christ Ahnsahnghong. Christ Ahnsahnghong is the one we all have been waiting for. That is why the Church of God received Christ Ahnsahnghong, the second coming Jesus, as the Savior.

Rom 11:26 [26And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: "The deliverer will come from Zion; he will turn godlessness away from Jacob.]

According to the prophesy revealed through the fig tree, Ahnsahnghong, the Second Coming Jesus, came from Zion in 1948.

God bless you COGinator.

clap clap clap The end. What a well fabricated story with reference to the Bible. How many books does your bible contain?

By: Jonah on April 30, 2008 at 8:40 pm

Looks like the story is only based on Ahsahnghong's figs, Reply twigsand then begins Mother.J episode.

The Bible makes it clear that Jesus was God in human flesh, second person of the Holy Trinity, who lived a sinless life on earth and died as a sacrifice for the sins of the world

This Jesus of the COG cult is not the Jesus of the Bible or else it would not have to play such a simple role of bringing the passover.

"The plain truth is that this is another of Satan's attempts to keep the God-fearing people from learning the truth of Jehovah and His Son Christ Jesus"

Did the COG jesus live a sinless life and die for our sins or his own? Hmm . If not why is it so difficult to reveal his History.

I can understand you have been assigned a job of posting just the material handed down to you by the super Apostle and seal your lips with respect to his personal life a simple question that has been placed before so many by others here on this board and is ignored. You think these lengthy post will wash our grey matter.

Sorry, We aren't the victims of this mind control technique that is used on people like you by COG on whom churches are built and false gods are worshipped.

Matthew 1:1-2A, 6, 16 [1] A record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ the son of David, the son of Abraham: [2] Abraham was the father of Isaac, ... [6] and Jesse the father of King David. [16] and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ who was baptized by John the Baptist

Now why don't you prove Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother's genealogy through the Bible just like the one above?

We are not interested in figs, veils, passover

C'mon prove it from the Bible. I presume it should be some Korean names as he had come from the East and born in the Buddhist family, the pastor who baptized him in the SDA, wife, kids names etc. etc JustGo very carefully through the entire Bible okay. You seem to be a person having tremendous patience. Work a little harder in digging the history. Your rewards will be in heaven.

In a book it says the mom stated "You can't see what a mess your room is." In another instance, she cannot find her toothbrush and her daddy said "it's because your blind as a bat."

By: COGInator on April 30, 2008 at 9:41 pm

Reply

The CoG would claim this is proof that she has to wear glasses. Where as everone else would clearly see it's not about the glasses as it is about paying attention.

CoG, you can read word for word and not understand the bible. 1/3 of the world can't be wrong and only you be right.

So let's not talk about me and my understanding of what the bible teaches. Let's focus on what we all have a problem with. It's not that you choose to follow all the OT rituals because you love God. It's that you preach you have to follow them or you're a bad Christian.

Jesus said in James 2:14-26 [What good is it, my brothers, if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds?] He didn't say all deeds. He didn't define the deeds. I agree if you claim to be a Christian, but you don't act like one than it's not authentic. Following the legalities of the Jews just because Jesus was Jewish isn't what the bible is teaching.

Let's leave it here because I know we won't agree. You feel that all the ritual has to be proven and I believe it's what's truly in my heart. I haven't found proof in the bible, despite all the long postings you and all your CoG Sisters have posted, that God indeed wanted us to be ritualistic robots. For me (and the vast majority of Christians) it's in black and white what we can do to show our love to God, and not what we must do.

Let's turn the talks back, not to the rituals, as that's not the crux of what is wrong about the CoG, but about the Cult Leader Mother J. (have you cut her yet?)

Ok, here's a question for you cog people: Why do you not observe the sabbath as required in the 1st test. (sundown Friday to Sundown Sat)? Why do you not follow the 400+ laws of the Torah? HMMMMMMMMMMMMMM

By: question everything on May 1, 2008 at 1:39 am

Reply

Good question...

Do Church of God Members eat pork? I bet they do because Pork is a very popular food item in Korea.

By: COGInator on May 1, 2008 at 6:53 am

Reply

After reading through some posts, I just couldn't help but to add on, although I did say that I was not going to intervene.

By: Dark Angel on May 1, 2008 at 11:02 am

Wouldn't it be correct to say that in order to observe the Passover "the way Jesus did", one would have to convert to Judaism, unless, this person is of Jewish descent?

Reply

There are laws set for non jews and if COG claims to participate in such a thing, then, they are breaking that law.

However, if they claim that it is not quite the same as the Passover that Jesus observed, then it is not the Passover but a made up ritual that falls between the Jewish Passover and Easter. This ritual is not quite the Jewish holiday nor the Christian holiday. If it were the real Passover in which Jesus observed, Koreans and any other non-Jew would not be able to participate.

This is something created to separate themselves from Easter and the real Passover, in which Jesus had no one eating with him but Jews...no gentiles present.

Lastly, if a COG member can post where it says that gentiles CAN participate in the Passover, that would be great. If you claim that "Jesus fulfilled" some kind of prophecy that allows gentiles to observe the Passover, then, it would go against the law that is said to be forever/eternal.

By: Dark Angel on May 1, 2008 at 12:46 pm

Reply

Also, it wouldn't make any sense because Jesus did not have any Gentiles at the table eating with him, and if he did, the Gentile would have to get circumcized and convert to Judaism. So it would appear that Jesus did not break that law in regards to Gentiles.

We all can find scripture where it says that the law is forever, now where is the scripture that says that it is ok for Gentiles to participate in the Passover "the way Jesus observed it".

Coginator, that's one of the 400+ laws I was talking about.....why can't they see that they are being taken advantage of in the name of giving cashola to mj, nothing more, nothing less

By: question everything on May 1, 2008 at 8:14 pm

Reply

Jesus didn't come to abolish the law but fulfill it. see Matthew 5:17-18

By: COGInator on May 1, 2008 at 9:46 pm

"It is frequently argued that if Jesus did not "abolish" the law, then it must still be binding. Accordingly, such components as the "Sabbath day" requirement must be operative still, along with perhaps numerous other elements of the Mosaic Law. This assumption is grounded upon a misunderstanding of the words and intent of this passage. Christ did not here suggest that the binding nature of the law of Moses would remain forever in effect. Such a view would contradict everything we learn from the balance of the New Testament record (Romans 10:4; Galatians 3:23-25; Ephesians 2:15). Consider the following points.

Reply

Of special significance in this study is the word rendered "abolish." It translates the Greek term "kataluo," literally meaning to "loose down." The word is found seventeen times in the New Testament. It is used, for example, of the destruction of the Jewish temple by the Romans (Matthew 26:61; 27:40; Acts 6:14), and of the dissolving of the human body at death (2 Corinthians 5:1). The term can carry the extended meaning of "to overthrow," i.e., to "render vain, deprive of success." In classical Greek, it was used in connection with institutions, laws, etc., to convey the idea of "to invalidate."

It is especially important to note how the word is used in Matthew 5:17. In this context, "abolish" is set in opposition to "fulfill." Christ came "...not to abolish, but to fulfill." The meaning is this. Jesus did not come to this earth for the purpose of acting as an opponent of the law. His goal was not to prevent its fulfillment. Rather, he revered it, loved it, obeyed it, and brought it to fruition. He fulfilled the law's prophetic utterances regarding himself (Luke 24:44). Christ fulfilled the demands of the Mosaic law, which called for perfect obedience, or else imposed a "curse" (see Galatians 3:10,13). In this sense, the law's divine design will ever have an abiding effect. It will always accomplish the purpose for which it was given.

If, however, the law of Moses bears the same relationship to men today, in terms of its binding status, as it did before Christ came, then it was not fulfilled, and Jesus failed at what he came "to do." On the other hand, if the Lord did accomplish what he came to accomplish, then the law was fulfilled, and it is not a binding legal institution today. Further, if the law of Moses was not fulfilled by Christ, and thus remains as a binding legal system for today, then it is not just partially binding. Rather, it is totally compelling system. Jesus plainly said that not one "jot or tittle" (representative of the smallest markings of the Hebrew script) would pass away until all was fulfilled. Consequently, nothing of the law was to fail until it had completely accomplished its purpose. Jesus fulfilled the law. Jesus fulfilled all of the law. We cannot say that Jesus fulfilled the sacrificial system, but did not fulfill the other aspects of the law. Jesus either fulfilled all of the law, or none of it. What Jesus' death means for the sacrificial system, it also means for the other aspects of the law."

found on: <http://www.gotquestions.org/abolish-fulfill-law.html>

Cham said: "I'm Church of God Member. Church of God is very good Church. Because the Church only follows the teaching of true God. And because of Member's good behavior,

By: Imao@Cham on
May 1, 2008
at 11:13 pm

the government give it many rewards.”

Reply

LMAO. CHAM buddy, you are exactly why COG members are total retards.

Hi COGinator,

By: Dark Angel on
May 2, 2008
at 1:46 am

Hey man, I some what see your point on “abolish” and “fulfilled”. Yet, there are still aspects that are confusing me.

Reply

Example:

“12:14 This day must be one that you will remember. You must keep it as a festival to God for all generations. It is a law for all time that you must celebrate it.”

So would Jesus “fulfilment” of this mean that the Passover wouldn't have to be observed?

“12:24 ‘You must keep this ritual as a law, for you and your children forever.”

Why say forever? Why not say, “until it is fulfilled”? It sort of take the meaning out of forever if Jesus fulfilled it and is said to be no longer binding.

12:45 [But if a gentile is] a temporary resident or a hired hand, he may not eat [the Passover sacrifice].

How would this have been fulfilled by Jesus? This doesn't sound like anything to be fulfilled, it sounds more like a simple law.

I'm just trying to get a better understanding of it. In many of my probboard posts, you can see where I ask what the heck does “fulfill” means, well according to laws that is, so I'm seriously not trying to challenge you, bro.

: -)

I understand fulfillment of prophecy, but when it come to rules and laws, i'm not too sure on the idea of that.

Basically, the Bible speak of some laws that Jesus fulfilled. The Torah contains 613 laws, how many laws were fulfilled by Jesus if the Bible does not indicate that he fulfilled all 613 laws?

If he did fulfill all 613, there would be no reason for Jews to not see him as the Messiah.

By the way, members of the COG are observing "Prayer Week". They go to church early morning and back in the afternoon for 10 days, so don't expect to hear from them for a little while.

This CoG member posted more repeat nonsense.

By: GOD=not cult on May 2, 2008 at 11:22 am

Is all that they can think of objections to Sunday worship, the cross and Easter? How shallow their thinking is. Reply

A good tree bears good fruit. Looks like the kind of tree that produces these CoG members is a broken record.

CoG = FAIL

Well Dark Angel, let me try and explain this using what I have gained so far from bible school: Regarding the Passover Jesus fulfilled it forever as He sacrificed Himself as the passover lamb.

By: Jamie on May 2, 2008 at 2:45 pm

Reply

- 1) We do not need to observe the passover in that form any longer.
- 2) It says forever because we are to observe it in the new form forever
- 3) Yes Gentiles still cannot observe the passover to this day

Let me address everything with this explanation: When Jesus Christ went to the cross, He went as the Passover offering. His offering was accepted before God forever, thus He fulfilled the part about us having to kill a lamb during the feast. Instead of observing it in the old form, we now observe the Passover when we remember Christ our Lord in a number of ways: One is through thanksgiving and remembrance of His sacrifice (for example by celebrating Easter and using it as a time to preach the Gospel). This fulfills the requirements of the feast (standing up with sandals as if they were ready to leave speaks of our readiness to share the Gospel at any moments). When we eat Holy Communion, we are partaking of Jesus' flesh and blood; we are in essence eating the Passover Lamb. Thus, we are celebrating the feast in the new manner rather than the old. This is why Jesus' instituted the Communion as part of the new covenant: to fulfill the requirement of the Passover.

Why it is written "forever" instead of "until it is fulfilled"? Because until the end of time we will always be commanded to observe Jesus' sacrifice on the cross and preach His death and resurrection to the unsaved. Perhaps we will continually offer praises for Jesus' sacrifice when we are in heaven, but who knows? :)

Why is it that it says the gentiles or foreigners cannot partake of the Passover and why can we now partake of it when we are not Israelites? Going back to ancient times, in God's eyes there were two types of people: God's children Israel and those who were not God's children, the Gentiles. That means you and I. To allow unbelievers uncommitted to observe God's holy laws to partake in something as sacred as the Passover would be a terrible sin as it would render the act of the celebration and remembrance common and profane. Paul says in the bible that we should not partake of the communion in an unworthy manner (forgot which verse sorry), and in the same way God could not allow the unbelievers to partake of it in an unworthy manner; in an attitude bereft of reverence, respect and thanksgiving.

So why can we now partake of the Passover, though we are Gentiles? The bible says that those who have believed in Jesus Christ and proclaimed Him as their Lord have received an adoption (I think it's in Romans or Hebrews, sorry I can't remember exactly) into God's family. We are now Abraham's spiritual children, and in the sight of God, His children now. We can therefore be part of the Passover celebration.

Hope that clears your doubts :)

I'm pretty certain the CoG understands absolutely NOTHING of this. That's why they constantly harp on observing the proper passover, rail against communion as a man-made ritual, etc.

CoG = FAIL

Jamie,

By: Dark Angel on
May 2, 2008
at 4:13 pm

Thank you. I appreciate you taking the time to explain it. Your examples helped as well. I've read and heard all sorts of reasons why Jesus did or did not fulfill prophecy or the laws.

Reply

To be honest, I can understand why the Jews believe what they do about Jesus, but that's another story for another forum.

Cancel that breakdown, COGinator. I'm all set. :-)

GOD=not cult,

By: Dark Angel on
May 2, 2008
at 4:51 pm

What would you call person who detests other people that lies, cheats, and steals, only for this person to lie to his wife perhaps? Cheats on his wife perhaps?, and steal money from his wife?

Reply

(the example above is not directed at AhnsahngHong, but the one below is)

What kind of person is this to condemn others, only for him to do the things that he detest?

This is a person who acts in contradiction to his or her stated beliefs or feelings.

According to <http://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/hypocrite> this person is a Hypocrite.

It's weird how God detest idols and people who worshipped idols in the bible, so much.

He even killed alot of them for doing so too.

Only to come and worship golden statues, something that he killed other people for doing. We have a guy that is said to be God, bowing down and praising another God (Buddah).

He worshipped Buddah for perhaps half of his life. Thousands of people have died for worshipping golden statues and here comes God, doing the same thing.

Sounds like a hypocrite to me. Wouldn't you agree?

What kind of example is he setting here? It would also appear those people who worshipped idols, died for no reason because he broke his own rule.

Unless you want to say that he "fulfilled" it.

But hey, I guess it's ok for God to worship another God. Afterall, he's God, he can do what he wants.

Dark Angel: You're welcome :) Here's more about the Passover that we observe in spirit according to Paul.

By: Jamie on May 2, 2008
at 5:26 pm

1 Corinthians 5: 7-8 New King James Version

Reply

Therefore purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, since you truly are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover, was sacrificed for us. Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Here Paul instructs the Corinthians on certain attitudes needed to observe the Passover. However, he is not talking about literally observing the Passover with real lambs and all, but is talking about how believers as people of the new covenant should observe the spirit of the Passover where Christ died that we might be sanctified and made holy before God, that His judgment would turn away. So this is a way we always celebrate the Passover.

Furthermore, we must always ask for forgiveness and repent of our wrongdoings whenever we commit them, and it's best if it's done daily or whenever they occur. In doing so we again observe the Passover, in that there is acknowledgment that Christ Jesus died so that we would not be condemned and touched by the angel of death (for the wages of sin is death, says the book of Romans).

And I agree totally with your statements! What kind of God would condemn bowing down to idols and yet live 30 odd years of his life or more doing the same thing he condemns? What a loser god that is!!

Hi brofromzion and other world mission church of god members!

Why no-one can answer these very simple and basic questions about 'Mother Jerusalem'?

What is her name, how old is she, does she have families (children?, husband?) and how did she get involved in this religion.

By: donnie on May 2, 2008
at 5:56 pm

Reply

Thank you so much, and happy ascension day!.

Dark Angel said "Cancel that breakdown, COGinator. I'm all set. :-)

By: COGinator on May 2, 2008
at 9:12 pm

Good, I don't think I could have explained it as well as Jamie...saved by the bell!

Reply

Hallo

Who is liar???

Do you know??

By: The Truth on May 2, 2008
at 9:13 pm

Reply

1 John 2:1-5 [My dear children, I write this to you so that you will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have one who speaks to the Father in our defense--Jesus Christ, the Righteous One.

He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world.

We know that we have come to know him if we obey his commands.

The man who says, "I know him," but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

But if anyone obeys his word, God's love is truly made complete in him. This is how we know we are in him]

According to the Bible there are two kind of Laws~~
Which law do you follow??

Dark Angel said, "He worshipped Buddah for perhaps half of his life."

By: COGinator on May 2, 2008
at 9:19 pm

My discussions with my CoG friend point out that no where is it written or assumed that Ahnsahnghong actually was a Buddhist, only that he came from Buddhist parents. He said just because your parents practice a particular religion doesn't mean you have to.

Reply

While I conceded the point I also pointed out that while it's possible he didn't partake in any buddist rituals, it's not very probable. It sure would be fun to find a picture of a young Ahnsahnghong bowing down the to the big belly.

COGinator,

By: Dark Angel on
May 3, 2008
at 6:40 am

That's just BS and I wouldn't see that happening. A child is born into the religion the parents are into. Even as children, we have no choice in the matter, until perhaps, when we become young adults. So, for them to say that he was born unto Buddhist parents but was never a Buddhist, well of course they wouldn't write about it, because it wouldn't support their theology of him "not having faith".

Reply

I don't see how he did not worship Buddah unless he was some type of spoiled disobedient kid who controlled his parents and did whatever the heck he wanted.

So he just stood around tapping his feet while his parents prayed and worshipped Buddah? Yeaa....

I have never met or heard of anyone having the choice to NOT be a part of whatever religion their parents are a part of as a kid...and this is America where things are not that strict.

That's not proper parenting for one, especially for Koreans where family is number one value.

Asians are very strict when it comes to preserving their ancient customs and traditions and Buddhism is a part .

Take a look at the garments Mother Jerusalem wears, that is traditon being preserved. Their theology has a hint of korean traditons blended in.

Here's some basic information on the South Korean culture and traditons:

<http://www.kwintessential.co.uk/resources/global-etiquette/south-korea-country-profile.html>

It just wouldn't be possible for Ahnsahnghong to be such a "rebel" that he did not subscribe to the same religious beliefs that his parents were.

No child has that much authority over their parents at such an early age in ANY culture or household.

It's best to get information from someone who is Korean. I happened to have a friend that is and they are very honorable and respectful towards their parents.

By: Dark Angel on
May 3, 2008
at 7:57 am

Reply

They wouldn't have dared not oppose on what ever choice they parent made for them, in their childhood, like most children in most cultures.

For most, once they reach about the age of 20-21, most tend to grow into their own person. Meaning, like most young adults in most cultures, their parents have little say on things like religious beliefs.

So what did this guy do, move out at the age of 5 and decided that he wasn't going to listen to his parents anymore?

Whatever.....

Would a COG member please answer Donnie's questions before it gets lost in the upcoming posts?

By: Dark Angel on
May 3, 2008
at 8:33 am

Please...

Reply

Dark Angel,
either world mission church of god members does not want to answer Donnie's questions or they do not know the answer. So frustrating when it is in fact such a simple valid questions.

By: justin on May 3, 2008
at 9:38 am

Reply

This so called 'church' is nothing but an elaborated business masked as a 'religion', pretending they are true church, the one and only way to salvation, members being prosecuted. In reality they are the one prosecuting all other religions. Their doctrines are arrogant and does not relate to humanity at all. By teaching absolutism and creating fear using limited eschatology, members are tied up spending most (if not all) of their time, energy, effort only for the group. This is the problem that most loved ones outside this group are facing and can break relationships. Trust me on this, this is from my personal experience.

All the characteristics of a cult is self evident in world mission church of god ahnsahnghong.

I've just realised that i've just burried Donnie's question deeper.. sorry Donnie. Here's Donnie's question again – copied & pasted:

Donnie:

Why no-one can answer these very simple and basic questions about 'Mother Jerusalem'?

What is her name, how old is she, does she have families (children?, husband?) and how did she get involved in this religion.

We should believe Christ through the Bible. But 2000 years ago Jews did not focus on Christ's prophecy .

By: happylife on May 3, 2008
at 9:54 pm

They were just persecuting Jesus is just man
They said "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, I came down from heaven?

Reply

Nowadays who are the people like Jews 2000 years ago?

happy life said "Nowadays who are the people like Jews 2000 years ago?"

By: COGInator on May 3, 2008 at 10:09 pm

Okay, I'll play your silly little game. Who are they?

Reply

Happy Life,

Please answer Donnie's question. Would someone from the COG answer Donnie's question and stop ignoring it?

By: Dark Angel on May 3, 2008 at 11:26 pm

Reply

This is what he asked:

—

Hi brofromzion and other world mission church of god members!

Why no-one can answer these very simple and basic questions about 'Mother Jerusalem'?

What is her name, how old is she, does she have families (children?, husband?) and how did she get involved in this religion.

Thank you so much, and happy ascension day!.

—

answer it!

Failure to answer Donnie's question in full within the next 24hrs or an attempt to post another subject by any CoG member will be a complete and total admission that the WSMCOG is a cult and a fraud of a Christian Church!!!!

By: COGInator on May 5, 2008 at 1:10 pm

Reply

Tic Toc, Tic Toc, Tic Toc!

You heard it folks! If no one answers "Donnie's" questions (Jamie in disguise), then the COG is a cult.

By: marcus on May 5, 2008 at 1:27 pm

Do you think no one is answering because they do not know the answer?

Reply

Matthew 7:6 — "Do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and then turn and tear you to pieces."

Man, you are one to jump into conspiracy theories. I am me, donnie is donnie.

By: Jamie on May 5, 2008
at 4:51 pm

So by your logic and reasoning from that verse you should never preach the gospel of Ang Sahn Hong to anyone who resists the teachings initially even if, a while down the road, that person is finally convinced of the message?

Reply

Anyway, your understanding of that verse is flawed. It does not refer to sharing the gospel, because that is for all men no matter how doggish or swinish they are. It refers to the more hidden spiritual things that non-believers and shallow believers would not understand, tend to criticize and end up discouraging you like your dreams, visions and what God has spoken to you about your situation.

Marcus said "Do you think no one is answering because they do not know the answer?"

By: COGInator on May 5, 2008
at 9:20 pm

That very well could be. Of course if that's why, the next obvious question is why would anyone choose to follow someone they have absolutely no flipping idea about? She claims to be a god. Wouldn't it make sense to check out the claim even a little bit...or is it easier to blindly follow because you fell for the $1+1=2$ and $2+2=4$ so clearly $1+1=4$ gospel? Don't answer it...it's rhetorical and someone needs to answer Donnie's question. Tic Toc... Tic Toc...

Reply

Thank you so much for all the response. Just so that all of you aware, i am still monitoring this. Thanks again for your support.

I really want to know who is this heavenly mother and ahsahngong.

By: donnie on May 6, 2008
at 12:50 pm

Reply

Justifying someone is GOD using the christian bible, torah, quran, faith, mind control, brainwashing or even logic etc.. that is totally a different question/ discussion and easily debatable.

All i need is really simple, no need to quote the bible. I just want to know who they are as a person.. that's all.

Hi everyone. To all Church of God members, you haven't answered my question. Please can someone post the study of Daniel's Prophecy here on this blog. Actually, I kept reading about it and I found something about the 4 kingdoms that was talked about in Daniel. Here's so far what I have seen:

By: Poland on May 6, 2008
at 6:21 pm

Reply

First kingdom = Babylon
Second kingdom = Media and Persia
Third kingdom = Greece
Fourth kingdom = Rome

I try reseaching about these four kingdoms and it looks like Daniel's Prophecy describes how these kingdoms will rise. Like Babylon, it was conquered by Media and Persia then Greece came out to take over Media and Persia then Rome take over Greece and it is pretty much just the way it is prophecied in the Bible. So if the fourth kingdom is Rome, then Rome has something to do with the Beast that has a name that is calculated to 666. Can it be one of the Pope? Actually, Rome was divided to 10 different kingdoms just as talked about in Daniel and Revelation:

Daniel 7:7 – After that, in my vision at night I looked, and there before me was a fourth beast—terrifying and frightening and very powerful. It had large iron teeth; it crushed and devoured its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left. It was different from all the former beasts, and it had ten horns.

Revelation 13:1 – And the dragon stood on the shore of the sea. And I saw a beast coming out of the sea. He had ten horns and seven heads, with ten crowns on his horns, and on each head a blasphemous name.

Revelation 13:18 – This calls for wisdom. If anyone has insight, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is man's number. His number is 666.

Ten horns = Ten divided kingdoms.

So it already happened, the great tribulation, about the beast with 666. But I'd like the explanation of Church of God for these study. Please answer. Thanks.

This is na active site! I look forward to your other one Jamie. It could be the answer to this one that I have found in my research:

<http://whoisahnsahng hong.com/blog/did-ahnsahng hong-ever-claim-to-be-christ/> they also have many of their beliefs here:
http://english.watv.org/truth/fundam_sabbath.html

By: scarletfire on May 7, 2008 at 1:14 pm

Reply

Does anyone know why the COG website seems to have stopped updating events in 2006?

And why you can't access the books written by "Christ" Ahnsahng hong if you r not in the "Church"? You must believe before you can read what he has to say? That seems backwards.

Also, does anyone know what type of bread they make you eat when you get baptized? If someone brings it to you to eat does this make you part of the "Church"?

And, has anyone gotten "un-baptized"?

Here's a question for you cogers:

Why do you get people to come to your church under false pretenses? IE: COG member to old

By: question everything on May 7, 2008

friend: "Hey, I haven't seen you in so long, let's meet for lunch/dinner, we'll meet half way, here's the directions....." None of these meetings went well as per the invitees, they were cornered into this unwillingly, needless to say, these 3 people didn't join, they now refuse to have contact with said cog member. I'd call that an underhanded attempt at brainwashing.

at 10:21 pm

Reply

I know this to be fact as it has happened to 3 people I personally know. So you can't tell me this does not happen.

Well obviously 'Lamb' is spiritual and not a physical meaning. How can God, Jesus, be an actual Lamb. He isn't. It's a spiritual meaning. Same with Mother/Bride. It's in the same verse, both must be spiritual, right.

By: believer on May 8, 2008
at 8:16 am

Reply

Did you forget, Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one? The Son is the Father, just different ages. The time of the Father was when Jesus Christ didn't exist yet, the time of Jehovah God. Then Jesus Christ was born, and it was the time of the Son.

Jesus Christ died over 2000 years ago, we're in a different age. The age of the Holy Spirit? what's the name of the Holy Spirit?... We need to know, right.

....proveahnsahngghong.com

Check these verses out... They explain itself:

Gen 1:26

Gen 1:27

Rev 22:17

Rev 21:9-10

Rev 21:3

Gal 4:26

Bride isn't in Jesus' pants, come on..

GOD BLESS YOU

To answer Donnie

By: believer on May 8, 2008
at 8:28 am

We must use the bible to see who God, Mother Jerusalem and Ahnsahngghong is.

Without the Bible no one can tell you who God the mother, and 2nd Coming Christ is.

Reply

It's not man's word, but Gods= The Bible

Oh my...do I vomit now or later from believer's post...

By: COGInator on May 8, 2008
at 11:15 am

...how about only posting if you have something valid to post about. We've all heard the cult speak too much...

Reply

We want Donnie's question answered directly and not with the voodoo that you do so well.

Sorry, try again CoG

One more thing to all you CoG members who post here.

By: COGInator on May 8, 2008 at 11:26 am

Your brainwash tactic of redundantly posting the same spoon fed information over and over again, doesn't work like it does in your marathon studies that you do 7 days a week.

Reply

Your niceness, friendliness, and kindness doesn't come across in a blog comment, so we're not vulnerable to swallowing your trash out our guilt not to be nice back.

You can post a million times that you believe Ahnsahnhong is the same as Jesus Christ in a new age and it doesn't do anything to us who know your doctrine is false other than prove what we know as a manipulated bilbe interpretation.

So let's save everyone time and energy and and agree that the CoG has an alternate and different view of the bible and it's way in the minority compared to the mainstream Christian theology.

Believer,

By: Dark Angel on May 8, 2008 at 12:01 pm

You're basically saying that you know nothing about the woman and that she could not prove anything without the Bible, which many have proven themselves to be worshipped as a god, by using the same book.

Reply

Is she omniscient..no.

Is she omnipresent..no.

Is she omnipotent..no.

Exactly what about her is divine..nothing.

All she has to do is demonstrate her "godly powers" and we can skip the bible stuff and go straight to KNOWING that she is a god, screw believing.

Believer, if you are a guy, I have an example for you.

If a woman claimed that you are the father of her child, would you believe her or would you rather get the facts stating that you are?

Believing is taking someone's word for it. I'm sure you would rather get the facts and physical proof.

Taking Mother Jerusalem's "word" to her claim of being a god is not proof and just because she wants to use the bible doesn't make it a fact because the ending results would only cause one to "believe"...not know.

How would you know? Did she demonstrate her omniscient nature?

You "believe" she is a god but you don't "know". You "have faith" in her. All of those are based on uncertainty.

Do you "believe" that snakes bite or do you "know"?

So all you're saying is that an all-powerful god liker her, want peole to believe in things and not know. That's backwards.

The bible is not a DNA result. You can not use the bible to pin point someone as being something that they are not demonstrating and claiming to be.

By: Dark Angel on
May 8, 2008
at 12:28 pm

Reply

A hundred people can do that with the bible without having to prove a damn thing, a DNA result will only point to one person, which would be impossible for one hundred people to use the same result.

Anyone can use the bible to claim to be a god but no human has ever done anything to prove that they are and they can't...ever.

They just offer a whole bunch of beliefs that gets Mother Jerusalem off the hook from proving anything. Once they "believe" they won't test her..simple as that.

And there you see the heresy of the CoG people. Jesus Christ didn't exist until He was born? You seem to be preaching a form of Arianism.

By: Jamie on May 9,
2008
at 1:02 am

Reply

Please read your bible. The Word of God has always existed even before time began, and will always exist. It is through Him that the worlds were framed, so how can you claim that Jesus only existed after a certain time?

You silly CoG members don't even understand the Trinity concept. You create some Unitarian concept and call it the trinity concept. Fools and blind, aren't you? The Father, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit are all DIFFERENT PERSONS of the Triune Godhead, BUT they are TOTALLY IN UNITY OF BEING AND AGREEMENT. They each have different roles, but are all sovereign as God. CoG claims that the Father and Jesus Christ are 100% the same. What a FAIL in exegesis!

CoG = FAIL

There's my favorite line: "CoG = Fail"!

By: COGInator on May 9, 2008

at 10:01 am

Reply

To all Church of God members, you haven't answered my question. It's located above. It's about Daniel's Prophecy, about the fourth kingdom and the name of the beast is calculated to 666. It's really amazing how the Bible gives us the prophecy for 4 kingdoms that will rise on Earth. Please post the study. Thanks.

By: Poland on May 12, 2008
at 11:14 pm

Reply

Hey guys,
My name is Rick. My sister has been going to this cult since last year. I have visited their church and argued with some of their deacons who cannot show me true information of this guy ahnsahnghong. I am looking for information about this guy. Right now Im building a website and I am trying to gather information. Any information about this cult or their leaders, please email them to me. If you live in korea, I am willing to pay good money for any information. Right now, I have a photocopy of their sermon book and some of the books written by ahnsahnghong. My email is rjrick10@gmail.com Anybody that is willing to unite for the cause can email me.

By: Rick on May 13, 2008
at 10:50 am

Reply

God bless you all. So how's the World Mission Society Church of God haters doing? Well, I hope that just before the Lord comes with fire, to execute judgement upon all men, you will see and follow the truth. I am not gonna repeat the same studies again because you guys have close your ears and not keeping the Word of God as absolute. This is probably the last time I am gonna comment here. I know I've tried to preach the truth here but just like in the days of Noah, those unbelievers laugh and think that Noah is crazy for building an big ark while the weather is so hot and no signs of the coming rain. Noah just followed God's words. Nowadays still a lot of people haven't learned from the past, Christ Ahnsahnghong brought back the Passover of the new covenant just as prophecied in the Bible, the Word of God. Clearly, Jesus said that UNLESS YOU EAT THE FLESH OF THE SON OF MAN AND DRINK HIS BLOOD YOU HAVE NO LIFE IN YOU. Unbelievers think that it's just a mere meal. They think they know better than Jesus. Unbelievable. Well, have fun chastizing Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother and World Mission Society Church of God, the Zion of God where all His feasts are celebrated, while you can. God bless you all.

By: brofromzion on May 13, 2008
at 1:50 pm

Reply

Wow this comment blog is full of hypocrites. They like to honor God with their lips but they keep traditions and rules taught by men. God's traditions are Passover, Sabbath, Veil for

By: Elijah on May 13, 2008
at 6:20 pm

women. But they keep Communion, Sunday worship, Christmas. Catholics popes and priest even have cover on their head and they pray to Mary. To all Jesus brothers and sisters, keep doing God's will. I'll see you in Father's house where there's plenty of rooms for us.

Reply

Thank you Elijah. I can clearly see what your talking about. Jaime, COGinator, and others who speaks blasphemy against Church of God, wait till to Lord comes the third time. All of you will be slain if you don't repent and follow the commandments of God. Read your Bible and have an open mind instead of vomitting the truth like COGinator.

By: Anti-enemies of Church of God on May 13, 2008 at 6:27 pm

Reply

hahahaha! Keep on talking your nonsense!

THIRD COMING OF JESUS? ROFL!!!

By: Jamie on May 13, 2008 at 7:21 pm

You really crack me up!

Reply

Elijah, you admit that COGinator is speaking truth! Good on you! Now why not you stop speaking lies? :D

CoG = FAIL

Will this third coming be in Korea (MOUNT Olives) and as the same person Ahnashnghong?

By: Jonah on May 13, 2008 at 8:36 pm

"wait till the Lord comes the third time"
Truly, It sounds very scary! OOOOOH

Reply

The defenders of COG are back but without any details of the history of their Gods they worship but instead use the fear tactics. That's how it goes on with every cult. Probably might have got a signal from M.J or Joo Cheol to sign off from this board as usual . Donnie bad luck. You will never get an answer. This is a secretive religion and once they disclose that's the end of their business.

Anti-enemies-What if it is the other way round. Imagine the eternal torment in "The Lake of fire" Therefore repent, read the entire Bible very well and stop worshipping the false Gods. Take up your cross and follow JESUS in sincerity and with contrite hearts. Got it!

When Jesus returns he will not judge you by the amount of rice you ate on passover or sabbath and veil for women and the suit men wore.

We are to be judged according to our works, our deeds by Jesus Christ – Rom.2:6
Christ warns: "I will give to every one of you according to your works" (Revelation 2:23).

Elijah— I'll see you in Father's house where there's plenty of rooms for us. HMM!

Does M.J communicate with ahnsahnghong in the burning bush? Sounds like reservation is made when are you leaving? If possible try to re-check every detail and test all spirits before its too late.

Well, well, well. We have plenty of dumbass people here. Could you read your Bible please?

By: Anti-enemies of Church of God on May 13, 2008 at 9:41 pm

Matthew 24:30-31 "At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory. 31And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

Reply

Isaiah 66:15-16 See, the LORD is coming with fire, and his chariots are like a whirlwind; he will bring down his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For with fire and with his sword the LORD will execute judgment upon all men, and many will be those slain by the LORD.

Hey all of you dumbass, do you understand these? I bet not. Let me make this clear for dummies like Jamie and Jonah. It said in Matthew that the Son of Man will gather His elect from one ends of heaven to the other. Isn't it that time Jesus is already on Earth? Also, it was prophecied in Isaiah that the Lord will execute judgement when He comes with fire. So tell, Jamie and Jonah, how can the Lord execute judgement while He gathers His elect? It's pretty clear that the Lord will gather His elect first before He execute judgement upon all men. Really how dumb you Jamie and Jonah can be?

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Anti-enemies of Church of God,

By: COGINator on May 13, 2008 at 9:49 pm

Who loves ya baby!!

From your friend "Who vomits the truth"

Reply

COGINator!!!

SWEET!!!

Very cleaver COGINator. COGINator, has anyone told you that your name sounds like a robot Terminator or Monstor, and your a robot of Satan, harassing Church of God. So COGINator, can you post something valid instead of vomitting the truth. Your still a baby. Don't worry homie, I'll feed you with more truths from the Bible. Oh poor baby, can't eat the truths of Bible.

By: Anti-enemies of Church of God on May 13, 2008 at 10:44 pm

Reply

WHAT SAY SOME STUPID COGinator? YEAH, SHUT YOUR ASS UP. THAT'S WHAT I THOUGHT KNOW WHAT IM SAYING "COGinator WHO IS A BROTHA OF SATAN."

Matthew 12:46-50 46While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him. 47Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." [g]

48He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" 49Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. 50For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

SWEET TRUTHS OF THE BIBLE THAT CHURCH OF GOD FOLLOWS!!! HOLLA BROTHAS AND SISTAS OF JESUS!!! BOUNCE AND HOLLA AT YOU LATER!!!

I knew it. These people who hate Church of God are really dumb as they can be. Are you blind COGinator? Read your Bible. Follow the examples of Jesus. Did Jesus promise eternal life through Passover of the new covenant? True. Did Jesus kept the Sabbath day? True. Help! COGinator is vomitting. He can't stand the truths of the Bible. Help!

By: Elijah on May 13, 2008 at 10:51 pm

Reply

Ohh Jonah said "Anti-enemies-What if it is the other way round. Imagine the eternal torment in "The Lake of fire" Therefore repent, read the entire Bible very well and stop worshipping the false Gods. Take up your cross and follow JESUS in sincerity and with contrite hearts. Got it!"

By: Anti-enemies of Church of God on May 13, 2008 at 11:14 pm

Reply

OHHHH I'M SCARED. Let me tell you something Jonah. 2000 years ago, the Pharisees and teachers of the law made a mistake by not believing in Jesus because He didn't come from the sky in heaven. Jesus is born out of Virgin Mary. So Jonah, are you looking in the sky for the Son of Man to come? Hahaha. You fool!

Daniel 7:13-14 13 "In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence. 14 He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all peoples, nations and men of every language worshiped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed."

Jonah, did Jesus literally come down from clouds of heaven? WRONG YOU DUMBIE! Again, Jesus was born out of the Virgin Mary. And check this out Jonah.

Matthew 24:30-31 30 "At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory. 31 And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other."

Jonah, Jesus is already here on Earth and He is actually the One who said these words. So do you know now the mistake that the Pharisees made 2000 years ago? They did not look at the prophecies in the Bible. So Jonah, are you the Pharisees of our age, the age of the Holy Spirit? See how stupid Church of God enemies are. STUPID, VERY STUPID AND IGNORANT OF THE TRUTHS OF THE BIBLE.

Hey Anti-enemies of Church of God. I started to scan this entire blog and it actually started since last year. I guess this blog is committed in destroying Church of God's teachings and some of our fellow brothers and sister have preached here to show them the truth. I notice they still keep insisting their own flaws instead on what's written and prophecied in the Bible. I just can't stopped laughing on their ignorance like Jaime, joan, Scott Thong, Joseph, Stephy, King James, pat, Hawkeye, Chad, Jessie, Jason, Cult, Spencer, Bruce, Diane, Bertha, scarletfire, ramblinrose, Spotron, Donnie, Ben, Jonah, Dark Angel, Timothy 3:16, justin, question everything, Imao, God=notcult, Rick, and their leader COGINator. HA-HA-HA!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Dumb haters of Church of God. Fools and hypocrites! All of you haters of Church of God, I can honestly say that you know nothing of the truth of the Bible. Our brothers and sisters have shown you the truth and you guys have close your eyes and ears. You guys will never see the light if you don't seek it. You guys must ask, knock and seek the truth of the Bible. You guys might as well cut your own throats and rip your chest since you guys still wanna insist your own will instead of the Bible.

By: Elijah on May 14, 2008
at 3:50 am

Reply

With people like you representing COGWMS – It isn't difficult to point out to the hypocrisy of your church.

By: Jason on September 29, 2009
at 9:49 am

It amazes me the profound ignorance the "believers" like you display.

Reply

People like you are evidence that it truly takes an imbalanced person to be blind the blatant contradictions of COGWMS's doctrines and the Bible. People in this church do not become believers through logical means, they become believers through social and emotional means (love-bombing, acceptance, affection) ... things they are missing in their "normal" lives.

COGWMS provides an escape from reality, a social club... and a huge source of revenue for a frail Korean Shyster who speaks one language and has performed no miracles and was never mentioned in the Bible.

Jason you should read my story below. Its about my experience at the church of god. I was in that church for 7 months. I made my family worry about me so much. Please read my story.

By: xxxxxx on February 3, 2011
at 1:43 am

You know what I'm saying Elijah. Now, the gospel is being preached to the whole world from the east to the west. God's work will be swiftly accomplished in His due time. As the time is near, Satan is slandering us more fiercely. We, God's people, may suffer more trials, hardships, persecution and temptation than we have ever suffered before. Through the Bible, let's see how Satan slanders the truth of God and how God overcomes him after all (Rev 18), so that we may also overcome, standing firm in faith with joy. The Bible prophesies that God will overcome the hindrance of Satan and defeat him in the end. However, in the process of overcoming there are continually lots of critical moments. You and I, who live in this end time, should do our best to run the race of faith, having strong confidence, until the moment when the door of the kingdom of heaven is opened. God said, "Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life." Holding on to this hopeful promise, let's overcome the devil's hindrances in reliance on God. Today, there are innumerable churches in the world. Apparently they seem to be established to serve God; they put up crosses and cry to the people, 'Come to our church to hear the gospel of Christ.' Through God's teachings in the Bible, however, we require to see whether or not they follow God's will—whether they base their teachings and deeds on the Bible or not. Since the creation of the world, the devil our enemy has been trying to deceive all people, even God's people, if possible, by any means. Now, let's see how the devil hinders God's children to make them give up their faith.

2 Co 11:13-15 For such men are false apostles, deceitful workmen, masquerading as apostles of Christ. And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. It is not surprising, then, if his servants masquerades as servants of righteousness. Their end will be what their actions deserve.

The Bible says that it is no great thing if Satan's servants disguise themselves to look like servants of righteousness. When Satan and his servants approach us, disguising themselves as angels of light and servants of righteousness, we should discern whether their teachings and deeds are true or false. It is very important. Then, why do Satan's servants masquerade as servants of righteousness? They do that for the only one purpose of leading people, even God's chosen ones, to hell by deceiving them. If they disclosed their identity as Satan's, no one would believe them. To make themselves look like servants of righteousness, they frequently use these words—"We love God," "We should love our neighbors," "We follow the teachings of Christ." Let's see what Jesus said concerning their leading the souls to death by disguising themselves as servants of

By: Anti-enemies of Church of God on May 14, 2008
at 4:50 am

Reply

righteousness.

Mt 23:13 "Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the kingdom of heaven in men's faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to."

Satan's servants, masquerading as servants of righteousness, shut the kingdom of heaven in people's faces; they themselves do not enter, nor do they let those enter who are trying to. It is God's servants who lead people to heaven, not Satan's servants. They themselves do not enter; moreover they do not allow those who are trying to enter. They disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. When we are aware of this fact, we can rescue our brothers and sisters from the Satan's snare, and lead them to the truth. Now, we require discretion and strong faith. When our faith becomes firm and steadfast, God will open our spiritual eyes to see, ears to hear and minds to understand, so that we may not be deceived by Satan though his servants masquerade as servants of righteousness. Let's see how Satan's servants hide the kingdom of heaven from people.

Mk 7:6-7 He replied, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites; as it is written: 'people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men.'"

Satan's servants use human rules as a method to make people far from God—to shut off the kingdom of heaven from them. Through men's rules, they make people, so-called Christians, ignore God's laws and worship the sun god detestable to God; the door to the kingdom of heaven is shut from them, and their hearts get farther from God. If they were taught by God's servants, they would keep God's commandments and come near to God—they would run toward the kingdom of heaven. There are still many souls who are deceived by Satan's servants and follow the way of death. We must not leave those souls alone but let them know who Satan's servants are and what their schemes are. Those who have already been deceived think that Satan's servants also believe in God because they speak about God and the Bible, disguising themselves as servants of righteousness. However, if we pay a little more attention to what they say, we can easily see that they speak falsehood completely against what the Bible says. Satan's servants seem to honor God with their lips. Actually, they deceive people with men's rules and make them worship God in vain. Let's open our eyes and look around us. How many people are deceived! We should not merely watch them but boldly tell them what is false and what is true. Now, we ought to make the people, who do not distinguish truth from falsehood, know the real identity of Satan disguising himself as an angel of light. There are many who are taught by men's rules and follow them, being confused into thinking that they worship God and will go to the kingdom of heaven by keeping men's rules. We should lead them to God.

Ps 14:1-3 The fool says in his heart, "There is no God."

They are corrupt, their deeds are vile; there is no one who does good. The LORD looks down from heaven on the sons of men to see if there are any who understand, any who seek God. All have turned aside, they have together become corrupt; there is no one who does good, not even one.

There is no one who does good or seeks God, for all have been taught by men's rules. Then, who can enter the kingdom of heaven? None of those who are deceived by Satan's servants can imagine their shutting the kingdom of heaven, for they honor God with their lips. For several thousand years, numerous people have been taught by men's rules, deceived by Satan's servants, and have firmly believed that they will go to the kingdom of heaven through men's rules such as Christmas, Sunday service and the veneration of the cross. Since they've been bound by Satan for such a long time, it may not be easy to awaken their minds. However, God is with us. He said that the truth would surely come out victorious. Relying on this word, we should awaken them diligently. The Bible says that all men have together become corrupt, deceived by Satan, and that there is no one who does good, not even one. However it also says that God has left a small number of people.

Ro 11:2-5 God did not reject his people, whom he foreknew. ... So too, at the present time there is a remnant chosen by grace.

Among innumerable people like the sand of the sea, God has re-served some righteous people who have not bowed their knees to Baal. Though very few, they are to resist Satan's servants who disguise themselves as servants of righteousness and shut off the kingdom of heaven through men's rules. This little flock must completely depend on God with a sure faith in Him, so that they can fight against the powers of Satan. "If I must lay down my life for following God's will, I will die." Without such early martyrs' spirit, how can the little flock resist countless people on the side of Satan like the sand of the sea?

Consider how Gideon won the battle in ancient times. He depended absolutely on God, so that he and his three hundred warriors could defeat one hundred and thirty-five thousand men. They had faith strong enough to rush into the enemy base, armed only with torches and trumpets. Because of their great faith, they could win the battle.

Like Gideon's warriors, we should have strong faith all the more as we see the day approaching. When we have such a faith and spirit, we, God's little flock, can resist Satan's servants masquerading as God's servants. In the days of Elijah, God reserved seven thousand who had not bowed their knees to Baal. So too, at the present time there is a remnant chosen by grace.

Rev 12:17 Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring—those who obey God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus. And the dragon stood on the shore of the sea.

Seeing the dragon, the devil, fight against the woman's offspring, they must be the righteous; they keep God's commandments. This revelation shows what will surely take place in the last days. We can see Satan reign over innumerable people like the sand of the seashore. Men's rules are a weapon which Satan's servants use to block the door to the kingdom of heaven. However, those standing on God's side constantly keep God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus, resisting the devil. On Satan's side stand a great multitude of people like the sand of the sea. However, God has promised to give victory to us, His little flock. The victory which God has promised us is given through our unyielding faith. As we all have unwavering faith, Satan cannot make us fall, however hard he tries. At the end, he is to be defeated.

Rev 14:8-12 A second angel followed and said, "Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great, ... " "If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives his mark on the forehead or on the hand, he, too will drink of the wine of God's fury, ... He will be tormented with burning sulfur ... And the smoke of their torment rises for ever and ever. There is no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and his image, or for anyone who receives the mark of his name." This calls for patient endurance on the part of the saints who obey God's commandments and remain faithful to Jesus.

The Bible says that those who get drunk with the doctrines of the beast will drink of the wine of God's fury. It also says that here is the patience of the saints who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus. Patience brings them to victory. Now, we often see Satan's servants working around us. They are numerous, and it is not easy to distinguish them from God's servants.

Over a thousand years, Satan's servants have deceived the world, disguising themselves as servants of righteousness and as angels of light; they've ridiculed and persecuted God's servants, God's children, who keep the commandments of God. Since they've deceived the world for such a long time, it is almost impossible to awaken people from spiritual deception in a short time. That is possible only through the unyielding faith of God's children who keep God's commandments. Only through their strong faith and patient endurance, Satan is defeated and the world is changed. Though the devil, our enemy, is hindering the truth with all kinds of schemes, God does not shake at all; He regards him as nothing.

Isa 40:14-17 Whom did the LORD consult to enlighten him, ... Surely the nations are like a drop in a bucket; they are regarded as dust on the scales; he weighs the islands as though they were fine dust. ... Before him all the nations are as nothing; they are regarded by him as worthless and less than nothing.

Satan and his servants are fighting against God and persecuting His children, together with numerous people like the sand of the sea. However, God counts them as nothing and worthless. When our faith is weak, Satan's servants seem to be stronger than us and we may fear them. However, through the history of the Early Church,

God has already showed that they are less than nothing. Many emperors, politicians and religious leaders ridiculed and troubled and threatened the saints of the Early Church. However, the more they persecuted the saints, the stronger their faith became and the church grew and prospered; because God, regarding all the world's influential authorities as nothing, was with them. So, we, who live in this last age, need to fear nothing at all. Rather, we should diligently preach the gospel of truth to the people, enlightening them to know the real identity of Satan and his servants who hinder the gospel of God and devour men's souls. They deceive people into believing that what God's people keep or celebrate is not truth. Though they hinder us from preaching the gospel, we must keep our faith in Christ, obeying God's commandments and depending on Him with patience. False prophets are stirring up the whole world to fight against God. However, the more Satan's power increases, the stronger we should become in faith; for God has said that they are nothing at all. Our mission is to quickly find our lost brothers and sisters and lead them to Zion. We must not forget that even for a moment.

Ps 2:1-9 Why do the nations conspire and the peoples plot in vain? The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the LORD and against his Anointed One. ... The One enthroned in heaven laughs; the Lord scoffs at them. Then he rebukes them in his anger and terrifies them in his wrath, saying, "I have installed my King on Zion, my holy hill." ... "You will rule them with an iron scepter ("Though shalt break them with a rod of iron," KJV); you will dash them to pieces like pottery."

We, God's people, have the strongest power, because God is with us. What does the Bible say about Satan's servants who blaspheme against God and His people? It says that God scoffs at them and He will break them with an iron rod and dash them to pieces like pottery. We are to endure until God's appointed time comes: With strong faith and hope of heaven, we should be patient to the end, practicing God's love by saving the dying souls. Though Satan hinders us greatly, victory will surely be ours, not his. We walk the way of desert and follow the path of thorns, taking our own crosses. However it is the way to victory. When we obtain the victory through hardships, it will be more precious and brilliant. God is preparing a place for us in heaven, and we are going to meet Him soon. For the rest of our life, we should make the most of every opportunity to seek the lost brothers and sisters, unveiling the real identity of Satan's servants and false prophets. Keeping on the alert all the times, let's try hard to bear much fruit, so that our Father and Mother may be pleased. As God's children, let's overcome Satan's hindrances, standing firm in faith with a wise and discerning eye, always following God. Yeah, that's what I'm talking about, preaching the truth. I'm pretty sure that we might have a lost brotha or sistah here in this blog you know what I'm saying homie. Holla at you later and keep seeking the truth in the Word of God.

You're especially skilled at dishing out contradictions, you would make a great pastor.

By: Jason on September 29, 2009
at 9:52 am

Reply

All CoG Members,

By: COGInator on May 14, 2008
at 12:14 pm

You miss the point...we do not hate members of the Church of God. On the contrary you are loved very much. However, our understanding of the bible differs, not from you, but from the doctrine that you've been lead to believe is the truth. Basically it's flawed. The biggest being that your worshipping a human lady who is controlling the CoG organization and claiming to be equal to our true God. She's twisted scripture to attempt to prove her position.

Reply

Now, if you decide to be proactive and do your own research outside of what the CoG teaches. I bet you will find the flaws with out us here commenting on this blog to point it out. Or, you can continue the reactive approach and defend the queen ant.

And for our dear friend "Anti-enemies of Church of God" Satan (MJ) called...she want's her potty mouth and nasty attitude back.

Hi everyone,

This is nothing about bible, ahnsahnghong or mother, but about my experience living with a person in world mission church of god.

By: sadhusb on May 14, 2008
at 12:20 pm

My partner is in world mission church of god, she has now quit her job spending all day everyday morning – late night to do 'study'. She does not care about anything else anymore. Her behaviour changes dramatically.

Reply

I have really tried to understand her, i even go to her study, attend passover, worship, read all ahnsahnghong's book, Joo-Cheol s book, zion newsletter, watch mother's dvd etc..

My experience when i attended the 'worship' is that the preaching only focused on fear, prophecy, propechy, propechy, join us otherwise you are doomed!.

This is 'religion ' is really taking all her time, effort, energy, resources. Nothing else matters.

I am a very tolerant person, but this world mission church of god instead of creating peace and harmony, it is designed only to get as many members as possible (bear fruit?). In the process, many people can (will) get hurt. (oh and this is justified in the bible as well as prosecution.. how frustrating..)

Although i've been married for awhile, ever since she is in world mission church of god, i feel like she's no longer there for me. I keep holding on for now, i believe love is the key.

Once people is in world mission church of god, religion is no longer the word. It is an obsession (more like addiction) which leads to a person to become a fanatics.

sadhusb,

By: COGInator on May 14, 2008 at 12:31 pm

We'll pray for you and for your wife. Have you thought about telling her you and her need to go to marriage counseling? If she's willing to go then you could bait and switch to a cult exiting counselor.

Reply

Are you attending a real church? If not you need to so you can start asking her questions about their doctrine and why they believe what they believe. If you pretend to be interested you can get her to dialog with you and with a non-argumentative attitude you may be able to get her to see that it all doesn't make sense.

God Bless you!!

Hey! sadhusb, im going almost through the same thing, but i know that we will win this battle. Is there any forum or place where many anti COG people gather?

By: Rick on May 14, 2008 at 12:50 pm

Reply

Hey man, why you all trying to go against the prophecy written in the Bible? What's wrong with you all men. Let me show you what the Bible says

By: Anti-enemies of Church of God on May 14, 2008 at 2:13 pm

Matthew 10:34-37 34"Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. 35 For I have come to turn " 'a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law – 36a man's enemies will be the members of his own household.'[e]

Reply

37"Anyone who loves his father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me

Aight men you all clear on this one? Look men I didn't mean to disrespect you all but we have to look at what the Bible says before we say something out of our own thinking know what I'm saying. Clearly, Jesus didn't bring peace here on Earth but a sword. Do you all know what's the sword?

Hebrews 4:12 12For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart.

Look men, you all can't understand the Bible if you all use the common sense of men. God already has a plan and will on how things are going to happen. We all just have to understand the will of God and through the Bible, we can find out know what I'm saying. Aight here's some more 2 Peter 3:7 7By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

Are you all clear on this one? Everything what we see right now on this Earth are reserved for fire. That's why when the Lord comes the third time, He is coming with fire you know what I'm saying. So that's why we have to follow what God's plan is. Keeping and following God's word would keep us safe and we all should have learned from the past and there's many examples in the Old Testament that keeping God's commandments is a must you know what I'm saying. When we follow God, we would all look crazy in the eyes of men but we are far worthy in the eyes of the Lord. Again, there's a lot of examples in the Old Testament and we all have to learn from it. Damn you all need to start keeping God's word instead of making your own opinion on how to follow God's will. Aight holla at if you all have questions as long as it's about the Bible, I'll holla back at you.

COGinator, how dare you mock Jerusalem Mother. She is our mother according to the Bible. Clearly, God has two image, male and female according to the Bible. COGinator, you are lacking of understand of the Bible. I have seek all other churches and only Church of God teaches the true teachings of the Bible because it is built by Christ Himself, Christ Ahnsahnghong. The Holy Spirit, Christ Ahnsahnghong, has lead us into a very important Truth in this age and that is the existence of Heavenly Mother (Gal 4:26). The more that I learn about Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother God, the New Jerusalem (Rev. 3:11-13), I am still shocked and amazed! Let's even look in the book of Zechariah and see what it reveals to us

By: Elijah on May 14, 2008 at 6:05 pm

Reply

Zechariah 14:1-21

1 A day of the LORD is coming when your plunder will be divided among you.

2 I will gather all the nations to Jerusalem to fight against it; the city will be captured, the houses ransacked, and the women raped. Half of the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people will not be taken from the city.

3 Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations, as he fights in the day of battle. 4 On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split in two from east to west, forming a great valley, with half of the mountain moving north and half moving south. 5 You will flee by my mountain valley, for it will extend to Azel. You will flee as you fled from the earthquake [a] in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones with him.

6 On that day there will be no light, no cold or frost. 7 It will be a unique day, without daytime or nighttime—a day known to the LORD. When evening comes, there will be light.

8 On that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half to the eastern sea [b] and half to the western sea, [c] in summer and in winter.

9 The LORD will be king over the whole earth. On that day there will be one LORD, and his name the only name.

10 The whole land, from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem, will become like the Arabah. But Jerusalem will be raised up and remain in its place, from the Benjamin Gate to the site of the First Gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the royal winepresses. 11 It will be inhabited; never again will it be destroyed. Jerusalem will be secure.

12 This is the plague with which the LORD will strike all the nations that fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot while they are still standing on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths. 13 On that day men will be stricken by the LORD with great panic. Each man will seize the hand of another, and they will attack each other. 14 Judah too will fight at Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding nations will be collected—great quantities of gold and silver and clothing. 15 A similar plague will strike the horses and mules, the camels and donkeys, and all the animals in those camps.

16 Then the survivors from all the nations that have attacked Jerusalem will go up year after year to worship the King, the LORD Almighty, and to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. 17 If any of the peoples of the earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD Almighty, they will have no rain. 18 If the Egyptian people do not go up and take part, they will have no rain. The LORD [d] will bring on them the plague he inflicts on the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. 19 This will be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

20 On that day HOLY TO THE LORD will be inscribed on the bells of the horses, and the cooking pots in the LORD's house will be like the sacred bowls in front of the altar. 21 Every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be holy to the LORD Almighty, and all who come to sacrifice will take some of the pots and cook in them. And on that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the LORD Almighty.

Here we can see clearly that it was talking about the last days. So, in the last days the living water, forgiveness of sins (Zechariah 13:1), and eternal life will flow from JERUSALEM. I was able to see EVEN MORE confirmation that Jerusalem, the Bride (Revelation 21:9-11) is the decisive factor for forgiveness of sins in the last days. But doesn't only GOD have authority to cleanse us from our sins. Heavenly Jerusalem, the female image of God is the one that will cleanse us. She is the source of the Spring of the Water of Life. She is God Almighty!

Through the prophecies of the Bible, Christ

Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem are allowing us to exercise more faith in them

2 Peter 1:19

19And we have the word of the prophets made more certain, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

The word of the prophets, the prophecies in the Bible, were "made more certain" during the time of Peter, because he saw the prophecies of Christ Jesus being fulfilled right in front of his eyes. Now, the children of Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem have the word of the prophets made EVEN MORE certain. The culmination of all Bible prophecy is happening NOW. The wedding of the Lamb has started! (Rev. 19:7)

If you haven't so already, you may want to get yourself on the guest list! COGinator and others, it's not too late. Be on the guest list on the wedding of the Lamb.

Elijah said, "If you haven't so already, you may want to get yourself on the guest list! COGinator and others, it's not too late. Be on the guest list on the wedding of the Lamb."

By: Dark Angel on May 14, 2008 at 6:50 pm

Reply

Rather be a wedding crasher.

It really hurts right! The cults members do not like the idea about their super Apostles being questioned.

By: Jonah on May 14, 2008 at 8:35 pm

Thank God at least you know that Jesus was born out of virgin Mary but its a pity you don't know about Ahnsahnghong being born out from ????

Reply

I can understand the rest of your grey matter is white washed. Therefore you guys can only remember a few of the scriptures that is very carefully selected to show the Gods that are fake. Not your fault its your fate that you got trapped.

Oh yes! as for the wedding, the lamb was getting too old then to fulfil M.J's desire. It must be terrible living a lonely life all these years. But she still looks very content, wearing heavy silk robes with Luscious red lips, hair dye and the lovely kids visiting her in korea and play with them in the snow as shown in one of pics of the calendar.

Vicarius Filii Dei and the 666 isn't this also one of the hot topic the cog's like to use for preaching. I was told by your deacon that M.J is a modern God. Probably she's got a 666 tatoo. Need to scan the Hanbok

The wedding preparation sounds great and very exciting too as put up by Elijah and Anti-enemies. You must be getting the privilege to be the page boy/pagegirl.

I wish I could post here the image of the Cogs dressed as clowns. When you see for yourself you'd know who are the real DUMBASS robots

We all are certainly looking forward to this wedding day. Its gonna be all the more colorful I guess with face-painting, cultural dress from around the world etc. Obviously every eye will see this grand finale.LOL

I have nobitter feelings just want you to use a little common sense. So cool it and do not be filled with anger. I truly love you all and very much concerned about you guys. I hope you will return back to give us the testimony of your unfulfilled wish. We will help you cope up.

How We Know That Christ Ahnsahnghong Is Second Coming Christ:

By: Elijah on May 14,
2008
at 8:56 pm

Reply

Christ Ahnsahnghong reestablished Zion.

Christ Ahnsahnghong revealed the mystery of the 7 Thunders.

Christ Ahnsahnghong brought back the Sabbath Day.

Christ Ahnsahnghong brought back the Passover.

Christ Ahnsahnghong brought back the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

Christ Ahnsahnghong brought back the Feast of Firstfruits.

Christ Ahnsahnghong brought back the Feast of Weeks.

Christ Ahnsahnghong brought back the Feast of Trumpets.

Christ Ahnsahnghong brought back the Day of Atonement.

Christ Ahnsahnghong brought back the Feast of Tabernacles.

Christ Ahnsahnghong brought the way to Salvation–The Passover.

Christ Ahnsahnghong brought the Seal of God–The Passover.

Christ Ahnsahnghong opened the way to the Tree of Life.

Christ Ahnsahnghong started the Heavenly Wedding Banquet.

Christ Ahnsahnghong revealed the Bride–Our Mother.

Christ Ahnsahnghong let us know that the cross is an idol.

Christ Ahnsahnghong let us know that our souls were in Heaven.

Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled the prophesy of King
David.

Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled the prophesy of Melchizedek.

Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled the prophesy of King Cyrus.

Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled the prophesy of Last Adam.

Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled the prophesy of the Root of David.

Christ Ahnsahnghong brought the New Name of Jesus Christ.

Christ Ahnsahnghong revealed the identity of Satan.

Christ Ahnsahnghong revealed the mystery of Babylon.
Christ Ahnsahnghong told us to COME OUT OF BABYLON!

Too bad for dumbass robot Jonah, He doesn't understand the prophecy of the Bible because He is a DUMBASS!!!!!!!!!!!!!! FHO RHIZZLE Anti-enemies of Church of God. Yo mah men holla back at u!

To Dark Angel, at least I have a reservation on the Wedding of the Lamb. But sorry to you, you can't crash on the Lamb's wedding because you don't follow His words. Read your Bible and follow God or else, you are really not welcome because God never knew you if you don't follow Him.

By: Elijah on May 14, 2008
at 9:01 pm

Reply

Elijah said "I have seek all other churches and only Church of God teaches the true teachings of the Bible because it is built by Christ Himself, Christ Ahnsahnghong."

By: COGINator on May 14, 2008
at 9:27 pm

Reply

Dude, you so brainwashed into believing thier false doctrine that you're even quoting thier broken english! You have saught other churches...and no you really haven't. You were fooled into believing that you had.

COGINator please. Just to let you know, I am not brainwashed by Church of God. I follow God's wills and you don't because you don't believe and follow Christ Ahnsahnghong, the Second Coming Christ because He is the only One who fulfill all the prophecies of Jesus Second Coming. You don't even believe in Jerusalem Mother even though She is testified in the Bible. The Bible, the Word of God is the reason why we believe in God. COGINator, why do you believe in Jesus? Because He is God? Okay but how do you know? Because Jesus is testified in the Bible right. Jesus fulfilled the prophecies of the First Coming of Christ even though He is man in flesh like us, a carpenter, we believe in Jesus because of the Bible. In the Old Testament, Jesus fulfilled all the prophecies of the First Coming of the Son of Man. Some of those prophecies are He will be born out of a virgin. COGINator, did Jesus fulfilled that? Of course He did. Another one is He will be born out of Bethlehem. COGINator, did Jesus fulfilled that? Of course he did. One more, He will be resurrected from the dead. COGINator, did He fulfill that? Of course He did. That's why you and I believe in Jesus, because of the Bible. The bible prophecied that He will appear a Second time, not to bear our sins but to bring back the salvation to those who are waiting for Him. Everything is prophecied in the Bible so there's shouldn't be any confusion. COGINator, don't make the same mistake that the Pharisees made 2000 years ago. Let's understand the will of God through the Bible, not insisting on our own fixed concepts. Okay, let me hear what your church teaches. Prove me through the Scripture that Church of God teaches false doctrine. I don't want to hear your opinion but show it through the Bible. If you can't back it up through the Scripture then that's only your opinion.

By: Elijah on May 14, 2008
at 11:23 pm

Reply

The Church of God is prophecied in the Bible, the Zion that the Second Coming of Christ will established.
COGinator, BRING IT ON!!!

To all you cog people. You are being seriously misled. All I see you doing is telling everyone they're going to hell b/c they're not in the cog. I have seen you put down other faiths, which is exactly the opposite of Jesus' teachings. I do not hate anyone in the cog, rather I love my family member's with all my heart, it was they, who turned their backs on the family, even with a sibling in dire need of their support. It's ok, I am trying to follow JESUS' TEACHINGS on forgiveness. Should they ever want to come home, they will be welcomed home, no questions asked. My love is unconditional, unlike yours, which is based on membership og your "chuch" only.

By: question everything on May 14, 2008
at 11:54 pm

Reply

i can't find the amount of people COG thinks they need to recruit for the end to come. does anyone know where i can find it?

By: scarletfire on May 15, 2008
at 3:38 am

Reply

Looks like "Christ Ahnshanhong did more stuff than Jesus.

By: Dark Angel on May 15, 2008
at 8:44 am

Elijah said,

"To Dark Angel, at least I have a reservation on the Wedding of the Lamb. But sorry to you, you can't crash on the Lamb's wedding because you don't follow His words. Read your Bible and follow God or else, you are really not welcome because God never knew you if you don't follow Him."

Dude, you sound like a child.

Dark Angel, you don't understand the Bible at all by you saying "Looks like Christ Ahnsahnghong did more stuff than Jesus." First of all, both of them have prophecies they have to fulfill and if your reading your Bible, you would know it. Second, they are One including Jehovah in different ages, the Father which is Jehovah, Son which is Jesus and Holy Spirit which is Ahnsahnghong.

By: Elijah on May 15, 2008
at 1:36 pm

Reply

Okay then you told me that I sound like a child? Dark Angel, what I told you is in the Bible. Should I put the verses for you to understand?

Matthew 7:21-23

21"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' 23Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'

Do you understand these Dark Angel? If you don't follow God's will, then verse 23 "I never knew you" is for you Dark Angel. So do I still sound like a child? This is God's words I am showing to you. Dark Angel, everything regarding to God's will, it's in the Bible. The Bible show us what are God's plans according to His will and pleasure.

Elijah said, "Dark Angel, you don't understand the Bible..."

By: COGInator on May 15, 2008 at 2:01 pm

Work with me here. Is it at all possible that maybe it's you who don't understand the bible? (because it was taught to you incorrectly?) Reply

If a very small percentage of people believe the sky is green and not blue, and accuse all the blue seers of being blind. Could it possibly be that they are the ones that aren't seeing it correctly.

Could be because the glasses they are wearing are giving it a different tint that makes it look green...but it's blue.

Hey, that's a pretty good analogy if I do say so myself.

All I'm saying is try taking off your glasses for a year and see if you see things differantly.

Elijah, very impressive and what amazing things your fake God has done except for keeping the 10 commandments.

By: Jonah on May 15, 2008 at 2:01 pm

By the way you have forgotten to mention about bringing the VEIL. That is the most thing that helps cover all the B.S fed into the brain & prevents it from enlightening your minds.

Reply

The one who boasts of his faith as a transcendent possession yet is without the fruits of faith, love, forgiveness, fruitless, without effect. That's what so-called believers are when they don't have a changed life. And it can seen by your action and the usage of words.

Looks like COG only focuses mainly on god's festivals and ignores the basic things from the bible of how to live a sinless life?

I am sure it was just few days back that you celebrated the feast of Pentecost. But you did not Invoke the Holy Spirit in your examination of conscience so that you may get to know God better, and yourself too

Dear Elijah,

Who is this 'Mother Jerusalem'? What is her name? How old is she.. Is/Was she married to AhnsahngHong? Do they have family, kids etc..?

Please, please answer these questions, i really want to know all this with open mind.

Thank you so much for your help.

By: donnie on May 15, 2008
at 5:16 pm

Reply

Wow COGinator and Jonah, it's so clear to me that you guys have no idea about God's will in the Bible. Let me enlighten you guys.

By: Elijah on May 15, 2008
at 6:27 pm

COGinator, like I said before, I have compared Church of God to all the teachings and doctrines of the other churches and Church of God is the true one, the wheat in Jesus' Parable of Weeds and Wheat. My spiritual eyes and ears are clear as crystal when it comes to reading the Bible.

Reply

Jonah, we keep the 10 commandments because Jesus sums it up to "Love God and love your neighbor". Jonah, there's no B.S. in Church of God's teachings because it is all based in the Bible and keeping God's word absolutely are the ones who love Him. Jonah, it's not called 'festivals' but 'feasts of God'. Do you keep it? Maybe not because your not in God's mountain, God's Zion.

Dear donnie,

I am going to answer your questions.

Who is this 'Mother Jerusalem'?

donnie, her name is Jerusalem Mother, God the Mother.

Galatians 4:25-26

Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

In this verse we can find the words "our mother." "Our" refers to the children who believe in God. This verse reveals that there exists a heavenly Mother to the children who will be saved.

So far, we've studied about which members compose a family, and we have confirmed that we have a spiritual family in heaven. Just as we have fathers, brothers, sisters, and mothers in our physical families, we have our spiritual Father, brothers, sisters, and spiritual Mother in our spiritual family.

Gal. 4:28

Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.

Then, what promise did God make to those who are called the children of promise? God promised them eternal life.

1 John 2:25

And this is what he promised us?even eternal life.

How is eternal life given to us? The Bible says that all things were created by God's will (Rev. 4:11). Among all of the many creatures that God has created, let us focus on the mothers. Since it is written that God created all things by His will, a certain will of God was expressed when He created mothers on this earth. As you know, all creatures have a mother figure. There is not a single creature that can come into existence without a mother.

Our physical life is given to us through our physical mother. For 280 days, a baby's hands, feet, eyes and ears form within his mother's womb. When the time comes, the mother will give birth to her child, shedding blood. We are given life through our mother's great pain. How about our spiritual life? Just as our physical life was given to us through our physical mother, our spiritual life is given to us through our spiritual Mother.

The Bible clearly testifies that our heavenly Mother exists, and that only our heavenly Mother can give us eternal life.

Is/Was she married to Ahnsahnghong?

Rev. 19:7

Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready.

The book of Revelation was written after Jesus had ascended, and it prophesied about the things that were to happen in the last days. Thus, "the Lamb" mentioned in the above verse indicates the Second Coming Jesus: Ahnsahnghong. When Jesus came to the earth for the first time, two thousand years ago, His wife was not yet ready. The Bride, the wife of the Lamb, would appear in the last days.

In the book of Revelation, chapter 21, the Bride?the wife of the Lamb-is described as "Jerusalem."

Rev. 21:9-10

One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." And he... showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

Apostle Paul testified that this Holy City, Jerusalem, which would come down out of heaven, is our Mother.

Do they have family, kids etc..?

Apostle Paul testified that we are the children of promise, the children of the free woman, because we have been given the promise of eternal life from our heavenly Mother.

Gal. 4:28

Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.

Gal. 4:31

Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

If we are the children of the free woman, what should we call Her? We should call Her our "Mother."

We cannot have eternal life unless we receive the heavenly Mother. Eternal life, which God has promised us, is given through the heavenly Mother.

In this last age, we need our Jerusalem Mother who has been established by Christ Ahnsahnghong-the Second Coming Jesus. Let us believe in Christ Ahnsahnghong, the Holy Spirit, and in Jerusalem Mother, the Bride, so that we can receive eternal life.

donnie, now that I have answer your questions, I hope you have an open mind now. Your always welcome.

Good job Elijah. donnie, you need to stop asking about Jerusalem Mother. She is our Mother, the Bride of the Spirit. Just like Jesus, you don't ask how old is He or what's His job.

By: Poland on May 15, 2008
at 8:09 pm

Jesus fulfill the prophecy of Son of Man as prophecied in the Old Testament. That's all that is necessary, fulfilling the prophecy in the Bible.

Reply

Elijah said "Jonah, we keep the 10 commandments because Jesus sums it up to "Love God and love your neighbor". "

By: COGInator on May 15, 2008
at 9:04 pm

Based on you comments to me and the others who clearly see the doctrine is false, it's clear you are not giving us any love. So it's safe to say you are breaking that commandmant.

Reply

So what... you can break that commandmant but as long a you fund the cult and eat bread and wine on passover your going to be the only ones who are accepted into Heaven.

Um...I'm going to have to throw up the BS flag on that one.

Once again...

CoG = Fail x 10 (commandments)

Poland said, "Good job Elijah. donnie, you need to stop asking about Jerusalem Mother. She is our Mother, the Bride of the Spirit. Just like Jesus, you don't ask how old is He or what's His job. Jesus fulfill the prophecy of Son of Man as prophecied in the Old Testament. That's all that is

By: COGInator on May 15, 2008
at 9:13 pm

Reply

necessary, fulfilling the prophecy in the Bible.”

Let me translate this for everyone:

well done reciting all of our pre formatted cult responses. Donnie, you need to drink the cool aid. She is our brain and the false God we must bow down to. We don't ask questions of Jesus because we know he died for our sins and ascended to heaven, but MJ is a human woman currently residing on earth in Korea (the largest cult producing farm). She has never performed a single miracle, or God-like action. We just worship her blindly, because otherwise this whole cult would fall apart if we questioned the real MJ. We blindly accept the false interpretation that the CoG teaches us about her existence and never think for a minute that maybe they are telling us this not for our benefit, but for the good of the cult.

Actually Elijah,

By: Dark Angel on
May 15, 2008
at 10:45 pm

I was being very sarcastic in my last post. Go over that list of yours on what Ahnsahnghong “fulfilled” and you will see how many times you wrote how he “brought back the Passover”. You’re being redundant and you’re also creating an illusion as if he did so much wonders.

Reply

You know, I'll just post it here:

1. Christ Ahnsahnghong brought back the Passover.
2. Christ Ahnsahnghong brought the way to Salvation—The Passover.
3. Christ Ahnsahnghong brought the Seal of God—The Passover.

All you have done was repeat the same thing over again with differently wording, which is why I sarcastically said that he's done more than Jesus.

You say both of them had prophecies they had to fulfill. No just one. You have some clown running around claiming to fulfill prophecies while denying to people that he was a god.

First genealogy was important to figure out who Christ is, now all of a sudden, it's not important anymore. We have some guy from South Korea that “fulfilled prophecies” the Jew's Messiah are supposed to fulfill.

Most of the prophecies are dealing with Israel and the Jews returning to their homeland and upholding the laws of the Torah.

You know, you COG'ers are too funny. You guys want to use a piece of scripture and give two interpretations to it to fit your beliefs.

Luke 18:8

I tell you that he will avenge them speedily.
NEVERTHELESS WHEN THE SON OF MAN COMETH, SHALL HE FIND FAITH ON EARTH?

You all want to say this is the reason why the second coming returned to "bring back" the Passover because if God came to judge, no one would be saved, therefore, he would not find too many with faith in the word of god on Earth.

Then, you all want to use the same scripture to say this is the reason why Ahnsahnghong was a Buddhist, in which you all consider a "false religion". Which in turn, means that he did not come here to "find faith" or find a religion, as Jesus did with Judaism.

Which also means, Ahnsahnghong "did not find faith" because Buddhism is a "false religion". So according to your doctrine, "he did not find faith".

You all provide silly answers to why he worshipped an idol and why he was born unto Buddhist parents.

Make up your minds. It's either one or the other.

So to answer your question on whether if I understand your doctrine, well the answer is no because you guys contradict yourselves.

That one verse has two interpretations. You all are basically covering your asses to questions that show how much of a fake god Ahnsahnghong is.

Obviously he had a faith...it was Buddhism. But I guess you choose to ignore that your god actually worshipped another god.

When you said, "Dark Angel, atleast I have a reservation on the wedding of the Lamb...".

Yes, the "sound like a child" comment still stands.

Honestly, if you claim to keep the 10 commandments, why then do we hear of so many testimonies where the loved ones of CoG members end up feeling hurt, neglected, and unloved?

By: Jamie on May 15, 2008
at 11:41 pm

Reply

Hypocrisy.

Why can't he ask about Mother Jerusalem? Shouldn't a person be allowed to know about the one he or she worships? I can ask about Jesus, and the answers are in the bible AND in history. Why would I ask about Jesus? So I can know more about Him, and in doing so, I can know Him more.

Honestly, you CoG members are so deceived. You think you have the light, yet all you do is prevent others from shining.

CoG = FAIL

Well thanks guys but what do you guys think your doing. See, all members of Church of God do is preach the truth of God in the Bible but as for you guys your insecurities take over you because you guys feel that your in the wrong faith. Then if your churches preach the truths in the Bible, then by all means preach it to us and I would love to hear it. But you guys are not worthy to judge anyone by appearance. The Bible is the judge for everyone's faith, not men's opinion. So if we all have questions about what God wants us to do, let's look at His words, the Bible. As for Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother, they are prophecied and testified in the Bible. Prophecies in the Bible like the Fig Tree Parable is not made by Church of God. It's clearly testified by Jesus in the Bible when He comes the Second time, it will be when the Fig Tree's twigs get tender. You guys have probably heard it before since our brothers and sisters have posted it here for you guys. Then if you guys don't believe it even if it is testified by Jesus in the Bible, well I'm sorry for you guys.

By: Elijah on May 16, 2008
at 5:01 am

Reply

COGinator said "Based on you comments to me and the others who clearly see the doctrine is false, it's clear you are not giving us any love. So it's safe to say you are breaking that commandment."

COGinator, are you giving Church of God and it's members any love? If no then I would also say that it's safe to say you are breaking the commandment. See what I am talking about, my point here. Now, if your trying to make us see that we are wrong, then were also doing the same thing and that is showing you that your faith is wrong based on the Bible. So who's right between us? Only the Bible can distinguish right? So COGinator, do you know the Parable of the Weeds and Wheat? Of course you heard it before because it was posted in this blog before. Is there's something wrong in the way Church of God preach it? Then can you preach it your church way?

To all of you Church of God haters, your guys need to stop making judgement on us. I can clearly see that the more you guys criticize Church of God, the more I can see that it is really the true church according to the Bible. You know why? You guys spend more time criticizing Church of God instead of other faith because you guys can easily put them down. But Church of God is built in the foundation of Jesus Christ so like it is said in the Bible:

Acts 5:38-39 [Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail. But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God."]

You guys can try as long as you can but Church of God World Mission Society is from God. I'll just sit tight and wait till the Lord's Judgement Day. Good luck Church of God haters, HEHEHE!

I am so glad that I'm in Church of God. Unstoppable by it's haters Elijah, lol. Brothers and Sisters of Zion, let's continue the task that God has given us till He comes for Judgement Day. I hope Brother Ryan and Brother brofromzion comes back and preach here in this blog. God bless everyone.

By: Poland on May 16, 2008
at 5:06 am

Reply

i am looking into this because my daughter no longer has a father because of COG. i haven't heard of many religions that tear families apart like this cult.

By: scarletfire on May 16, 2008
at 6:05 am

Reply

not questioning what you believe (or even knowing who Ahnsahnghong and MJ are) is a sign of brainwashing in my opinion. i read somewhere that the COG members are told that they will be religiously persecuted so peoples' questioning strengthens their faith.

i am SO amazed that the COGs interpretations are believed by anyone! my x nows says, "you people" referring to me and my daughter and anyone else outside the COG.

i am going to repeat my questions in hopes of getting some answers:

1 – i can't find the amount "brothers and sisters" the COG thinks they need to find/ recruit for the end to come. does anyone know where i can find it?

2 – does anyone know why the COG website seems to have stopped updating events in 2006?

3 – why you can't access the books written by "Christ" Ahnsahnghong if you are not in the "Church"? You must believe before you can read what he has to say? That seems backwards. i have never known the Bible to be hidden from anyone.

4 – has anyone gotten "un-baptized" from the COG?

and a new one:

5 – what does it mean to the COG if the bread they have you eat makes you sick?

Elijah said, "To all of you Church of God haters, your guys need to stop making judgement on us. I can clearly see that the more you guys criticize Church of God, the more I can see that it is really the true church according to the Bible."

By: Dark Angel on
May 16, 2008
at 8:24 am

Reply

—
Elijah, so I guess the church with the Hispanic Jesus is a true church as well.

I guess the Catholic church is the true church since you COG members "persecute" it so much.

I take it the SDA is a true church, since it too has received scrutiny by other churches and is also called a cult.

Just about every church receive scrutiny and criticism by other churches, that's just the way it is and just because a church receives criticism, doesn't make it "true".

If you're basing that idea to determine why the COG is true then thousands of other people can use the same to prove their own church to be true.

That doesn't make sense.

The point is, no matter how much scrutiny a church receives, it will not be shut down just because it's receiving scrutiny. If that were the case, then the SDA should be gone. The Mormons should be gone, the Jehovah Witnesses should be gone and so on and so forth.

Just because a president of a country is receiving scrutiny, isn't going to make him cry quit his job. He ignores it just like plenty of people have been doing and those churches ignore the scrutiny, you guys seem to thrive on it to determine how true your church is.

If no one gave a hoot, you all would purposely go out looking for "persecution".

Hi Elijah,
Thank you so much for your answer, to be honest, I am disapointed with your 'answer'. I was hoping you can answer the question straight such as this: South Korean president? Answer: Lee Myung-bak, he has 3 brothers and 3 sisters, born 19 December 1941.

By: donnie on May 16,
2008
at 8:35 am

Reply

Poland's comment: you need to stop asking about Jerusalem Mother..
This really scares me and gives an indication of a cult group where members submit with no questions asked.

I have tried to stand with open mind and neutral position. I trully believe that everyone has good intentions here. I do too.

I'm really interested to hear everyone's opinion about this.
I'm out..!

I cant believe that you guys are still at it!!! Get a life!!! I mean if you dont want to believe in Christ AhnsahngHong, then dont. We have tried to help all of you open up your eyes in so many ways!!!! You guys are still in the dark!!!

By: Lizzie on May 16, 2008
at 10:40 am

Reply

May Father & Mother (Elohim) have much mercy on you.

You keep Sunday instead of Saturday and you tell us Sabbath is for the Jews the new & real Christians keep Sunday... BLAH BLAH BLAH!!!

I will never give up being a Church of God member for any other religion. I saw true brotherly love this Passover and its proven to me everyday this is the ONLY TRUTH!

Unless you keep ALL the Commandments of God written in the bible YOU ARE NOT A TRUE CHRISTIAN!

The day was changed to fool you. Read the bible... Open up your eyes, you are being wicked:

Daniel 7:25

He will speak against the Most High and oppress his saints and try to CHANGE THE SET TIMES AND THE LAWS. The saints will be handed over to him for a time, times and half a time.

Exodus 31:14

" 'Observe the Sabbath, because it is holy to you. Anyone who desecrates it must be put to death; whoever does any work on that day must be cut off from his people.

Ezekiel 20:13

" 'Yet the people of Israel rebelled against me in the desert. They did not follow my decrees but rejected my laws—although the man who obeys them will live by them—and they utterly desecrated my Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and destroy them in the desert.

Ezekiel 20:16

because they rejected my laws and did not follow my decrees and desecrated my Sabbaths. For their hearts were devoted to their idols.

Ezekiel 20:21

" 'But the children rebelled against me: They did not follow my decrees, they were not careful to keep my laws—although the man who obeys them will live by them—and they desecrated my Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and spend my anger against them in the desert.

Ezekiel 20:24

because they had not obeyed my laws but had rejected my decrees and desecrated my Sabbaths, and their eyes lusted after their fathers' idols.

Ezekiel 23:38

They have also done this to me: At that same time they defiled my sanctuary and desecrated my Sabbaths.

Nehemiah 13:17

I rebuked the nobles of Judah and said to them, "What is this wicked thing you are doing—desecrating the Sabbath day?"

Lizzie, why are you here on this forum? What brought you here, your God' Will?

By: Dark Angel on May 16, 2008 at 10:56 am

Reply

Dark Angel,
I've been coming here since last year. I am sorry you didn't catch me =(
Sorry you are a late bloomer

By: Lizzie on May 16, 2008 at 11:22 am

Reply

Not a late bloomer, Lizzie. I only changed my name for the "age".

By: Dark Angel on May 16, 2008 at 12:28 pm

Reply

Dark Angel, just admit it. I also just got in this blog recently. You have too much pride. You even think that you don't need to follow God's will like the Passover of the new covenant, Sabbath Day and but instead you follow Christmas, Sunday Worship, Easter Sunday. Poor unbeliever who don't believe the Bible.

By: Elijah on May 16, 2008 at 1:37 pm

Reply

No, I am a Buddhist just like your God and his parents.

By: Dark Angel on May 16, 2008 at 2:05 pm

Reply

Dark Angel, let me show you why God the Holy Spirit Ahnsahnghong was born from unbelievers. It is testified in the Bible about the Order of Melchizedek and its connection with the Messiah Jesus and Ahnsahnghong. The Bible is a book of prophecy, testifying about Christ. Among the many prophecies about Christ, let's recognize the Second

By: Elijah on May 16, 2008 at 6:25 pm

Reply

Coming Christ, through the character Melchizedek. The order of Melchizedek reveals who God is in the last days. We sincerely hope that you will understand the Christ, who has been hidden for ages, so that you may receive salvation.

In B.C. 1920, Melchizedek, king of Salem, was the only priest who blessed Abraham through bread and wine; he had no father, or mother, or genealogy. The Bible prophesies that the Second Coming Christ will follow in the order of Melchizedek. We must recognize the true Christ, who follows in the order of Melchizedek, from the many men who claim that they are the Second Coming Christ.

Then, what is the order of Melchizedek?

The origin of Melchizedek

Heb. 5:11 We have much to say about this [the order of Melchizedek], but it is hard to explain because you are slow to learn.

Why was it hard for Apostle Paul to explain about Melchizedek, even though he had much to say about him? First of all, let's study the origin of Melchizedek.

Gen. 14: 18-20 Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine. He was priest of God Most High, and he blessed Abram...Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

Melchizedek, king of Salem, received Abraham who was returning from defeating the enemies. Melchizedek blessed Abraham through bread and wine, and then, Abraham gave him a tenth of everything.

When we study the Bible, we must keep in mind that the Old Testament is a copy and a shadow of the New Testament (Heb 10:1). Melchizedek, mentioned in the book of Genesis, also served as the shadow of a reality which was to come.

Jesus came in the order of Melchizedek

Let us find out, through the Bible, who the reality of Melchizedek is.

Matt. 26:28 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins."

In the Old Testament, the physical Melchizedek blessed Abraham through bread and wine, and in the New Testament, Jesus the spiritual Melchizedek blessed His people with eternal life through the Passover bread and wine. Therefore, we can understand that the character Melchizedek represents Jesus.

Heb. 5:8-10 Although he was a son, he...was designated by God to be high priest in the order of Melchizedek.

This verse makes it clear that Jesus is the spiritual Melchizedek.

The explanations about Melchizedek
Apostle Paul said that it was hard for him to explain about Melchizedek. We can find the reason why in the verse below.

Heb 7:1-4 This Melchizedek...Without father or mother, without genealogy, without beginning of days or end of life, like the Son of God he remains a priest forever.

1) "Without father or mother"

It is impossible for anyone on this earth to be born without Father or Mother, for this reason we could understand that this characteristic must have a biblical meaning. The Bible acknowledges only those who believe in God as the father or the mother of a man (Matt. 12: 50). Thus, the words, "(Melchizedek is) without father or mother," mean that the spiritual Melchizedek was to be born among unbelievers. As you know, however, Jesus was born of believers: Joseph and Mary.

2) "Without genealogy"

Everyone on this earth has to have genealogy, for this reason we need to understand according to the Bible what is considered genealogy. In the Bible, "genealogy" refers to the twelve tribes of Israel, in other words with Jewish blood. The words, "(Melchizedek is) without genealogy," mean that the spiritual Melchizedek would be born among the Gentiles, without Jewish blood; however, Jesus was born of the tribe of Judah (Matt. 1:1).

These were the characteristics of Melchizedek that Apostle Paul felt were too hard to explain.

The Second Coming Jesus, Ahnsahnghong, in the order of Melchizedek

In order to fulfill the prophecies of Melchizedek, Jesus is to come a second time. The Bible says that Jesus will come a second time.

Heb. 9:28 ...he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

The Second Coming Jesus will fulfill the prophecies of Melchizedek.

- 1) He will bless us with eternal life through the Passover bread and wine.
- 2) He will be born among unbelievers ("without father or mother").
- 3) He will be born of Gentiles ("without genealogy").
- 4) He is God ("without beginning of days or end of life").

Christ Ahnsahnghong is the one who fulfilled all of these prophecies in 1918 when Christ Ahnsahnghong was born the majority of Korea was either Buddhist or Confucian; there was no trace of Christianity in Korea during that time, so it was impossible for Christ Ahnsahnghong to be born in a household of believers. Christ Ahnsahnghong was born in a Buddhist home; through this he fulfilled the characteristic of Melchizedek "without father or mother".

After the destruction of Israel in 70 A.D. the Jews spread trough out the whole world, without a country of their own. They entered every nation, and mixed with the people of that nation, for this reason is very hard to tell who does not descends from a Jewish genealogy. But there was one country were the Jewish people never entered, but not only the Jews, but all other nations who didn't belong to this one. And that was Korea, most popularly known as the "Hermit Kingdom". The Korean people only until recent years began to accept other nations to come into their land, but before this they were very xenophobic. The Korean xenophobia even came to the extreme case where Korean women would commit suicide if they lost their chastity to another man other than their husband, and they would never mix with men from other nations. To the Korean people it was a dishonor to their culture and heritage to intermix with other nations. For this reason it is impossible for Christ Ahnsahnghong, who was born in Korea to have come from the twelve tribes of Israel, to have Jewish blood. In this way he fulfilled the characteristic of Melchizedek "No genealogy".

How can we not believe in Him when all of the prophecies about the Second Coming Jesus testify that Ahnsahnghong is the Christ? The members of the Church of God believe that Ahnsahnghong is the Second Coming Christ our Savior, who came in the order of Melchizedek? The words of God testify about Him.

Isa. 25:6 On this mountain the LORD Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for all peoples, a banquet of aged wine the best of meats and the finest of wines ...he will swallow up death forever...In that day they will say, "Surely this is our God; we trusted in him, and he saved us."

Before the day of judgment comes, please accept Ahnsahnghong, the Second Coming Christ, who fulfilled the prophecies of Melchizedek. Christ Ahnsahnghong blessed us with eternal life through the bread and wine of the Passover. Therefore, He is our Savior.

Even if a man performs a great miracle or wonder, if he has not come in the order of Melchizedek, he cannot be the Second Coming Christ. Thus, although a man may be humble in appearance, if he follows in the order of Melchizedek, he is the Second Coming Christ.

Please recognize the Second Coming Christ through the words of the Bible so that you may receive salvation. The one who follows in the order of Melchizedek is the true God, our Savior.

Dark Angel, if your still a Buddhist then too bad for you because your not gonna follow God's will like the Passover of the new covenant and Sabbath day and all God's feast. Your not part of God's Zion because your not in Church of God. Poor Dark Angel who cannot see the light.

Hi Elijah... What Church are you from? I am in the Florida chapter.

By: Lizzie on May 17, 2008
at 9:26 am

Reply

Lizzie, if you're not happy about us then just shut up :)

By: Jamie on May 17, 2008
at 3:37 pm

Reply

You complain so much about us not being convinced and not wanting to believe about your CoG cult even after your members have been trying to 'prove' it. Well, I can assure you that NONE of your arguments are solid and would stand up under reasoned, critical analysis.

I'm trained as a critical thinker, and the teachings of your church are flaky, shallow, incoherent and obvious twistings. In contrast, pure Christianity that is uninfluenced by denominational traditions is deep, well constructed and remarkably coherent.

Why, therefore, should any intelligent person accept your brand of religion over something that is so obviously superior? Do you not know that Jesus Himself told us to love God with all our MINDS? That includes the ability to think critically about every teaching to see if it's really what God wants.

Oh oh, looks like you CoG members are not keeping the WHOLE law of God! How hypocritical!

CoG = FAIL

Elijah,

By: Dark Angel on May 17, 2008
at 6:17 pm

Reply

First, I would like to respond to your Melchizedek comment.

Second, I'll address your remark about the origins of Christianity in South Korea and how long the SDA church have been in South Korea.

Finally, I'll respond to your comment about me not "seeing the light".

Ok, you said that Jesus came in the order of melchizedek and that he is the "spiritual melchizedek" because of the bread and wine he offered to his disciples.

Here are your words so that I do not misunderstand, you said:

"Jesus came in the order of Melchizedek
Let us find out, through the Bible, who the reality of Melchizedek is."

You then posted Matt 26:28 to prove why he came as the "spiritual Melchizedek.

Here are more of your words to support what you said about Jesus being the spiritual Melchizedek:

"In the Old Testament, the physical Melchizedek blessed Abraham through bread and wine, and in the New Testament, Jesus the spiritual Melchizedek blessed His people with eternal life through the Passover bread and wine. Therefore, we can understand that the character Melchizedek represents Jesus."

So now, we have an idea that Jesus is this "spiritual melchizedek" and being so, means that he is a Priest and King. Therefore, this "prophecy" of the savior coming in the order of melchizedek has been fulfilled through Jesus.

Why would there be a need to "fulfill" the same prophecy again?

Here are you words again:

"Heb. 5:8-10 Although he was a son, he...was designated by God to be high priest in the order of Melchizedek.

This verse makes it clear that Jesus is the spiritual Melchizedek.

You say Jesus IS the spiritual Melchizedek because of what he did with the bread and wine. The prophecy looks fulfilled to me. Then you state that the "spiritual Melchizedek" must be born "without parents" or unto nonbelievers.

So why are you saying that Jesus is the "spiritual Melchizedek" if he were born "with parents"? If he came in the "order of melchizedek", why then would he need to come that way again if he is a king and priest forever?

You state in your post how Jesus is this "spiritual Melchizedek" then go about showing me how:

1. He is was born to parents who were believers

2. His geneology and that he was with the tribe of Judah

Then you say:

"These were the characteristics of Melchizedek that Apostle Paul felt were too hard to explain.

The Second Coming Jesus, Ahnsahnghong, in the order of Melchizedek

In order to fulfill the prophecies of Melchizedek, Jesus is to come a second time. The Bible says that Jesus will come a second time."

In order to fulfill the prophecies of Melchizedek???

Ok, so if he did not "fulfill" this prophecy the first time then you should not refer to him as the "spiritual Melchizedek". You're basically saying that Jesus did not fulfill this prophecy in his first coming.

It does not make any sense for the guy to partially fulfill a prophecy. Leaving work half done is not accomplishing anything.

So what would being born unto parents who were believers fulfill? How is that a part of this prophecy?

In order to "fulfill" a prophecy, Jesus had to be born unto parents who were believers, THEN get himself killed, only to come back to parents who were NOT believers in the Bible or the God.

You said:

"The Second Coming Jesus will fulfill the prophecies of Melchizedek."

So the first coming didn't? Why did you say that Jesus was the "spiritual Melchizedek" if he did not meet these requirements:

1. "born unto nonbelievers"
2. "born without geneology"
3. "and born unto Gentiles"

If those are the requirements to fulfill that prophecy, then it would appear that Jesus did not fulfill it. I think that you should go over the whole book of Hebrews because it clearly states that Jesus became high priest through his first coming.

If Hebrew 7:28, states that Jesus was offered to bear the sins of many, then why would he come back to do the same thing? According to COG logic, "salvation" means the Passover.

Salvation from what...sin? That's been done before and Hebrew 7:28 states that it doesn't need to be done again.

Being a little redundant here...

Your argument is a bit off because the book of Hebrews points that Jesus became the High Priest in the order of Melchizedek through his first coming, which is everlasting. No need for him to do it again by being born from people who doesn't believe in him.

Hebrews 5: 5-10

Hebrews 7:17-28

Elijah said:

By: Dark Angel on
May 17, 2008
at 6:45 pm

—
"Christ Ahnsahnghong is the one who fulfilled all of these prophecies in 1918 when Christ Ahnsahnghong was born the majority of Korea was either Buddhist or Confucian; there was no trace of Christianity in Korea during that time, so it was impossible for Christ Ahnsahnghong to be born in a household of believers."

Reply

—
Here's a little bit of information on the origins of Christianity in South Korea.

This is a bit of information taken from a site about Christianity in South Korea

—
"Since the introduction of Catholicism in 1784, followed by the arrival of Protestant missionaries in 1884, Christianity has proceeded to become—after Buddhism—the largest religion in the country. Today about one third of South Korea's 45 million people are Christian—11 million Protestants and 3 million Roman Catholics."

—
Just run a search on "Christianity in South Korea" on GOOGLE and you will find information on it, or if you feel that the internet is an "unreliable source" and "can't be trusted", then hit your local library or bookstore.

Even Wikipedia has information on Christianity in South Korea.

Christianity was there before your god was born, sir.
Even the Seventh Day Adventist church was there before he was born.

The Seventh Day Adventist began in 1904. They actually celebrated the 100th anniversary of being in South Korea in 2004.

So, the SDA was up and running, going door to door with their "Catholic church is the anti-christ" dogma, and your God happened to fall for their okie-doke.

How NON-Omniscient of him to do that.

Don't take my word for it, try looking for information about Christianity NOT being in South Korea in 1918. I want to see what you can come up with. Would be interesting.

There was no trace of Christianity in South Korea during that time?? Please, South Korea would have been a missionarie's playground back then.

Elijah said,

By: Dark Angel on
May 17, 2008
at 6:51 pm

"Poor Dark Angel who cannot see the light."

Reply

Why worry about me? Your God came as a Buddhist, totally contradicting how the God of the bible feels about nonbelievers.

I would assume his parents are burning in "hell", correct?

I also spotted another contradiction in your post but I will let it go. I'm a bit tired of typing.

Dark Angel, I'm sorry to say but you have no clear understanding about the Order of Melchizedek. Let me make it clear as crystal for you. Okay here's the quick rundown of the characteristic of Melchizedek:

By: Elijah on May 17,
2008
at 8:18 pm

Reply

- 1) He will bless us with eternal life through the Passover bread and wine.
- 2) He will be born among unbelievers ("without father or mother").
- 3) He will be born of Gentiles ("without genealogy").
- 4) He is God ("without beginning of days or end of life").

Clearly, Jesus was testified as the spiritual Melchizedek because He bless us with Passover bread and wine. He is also God, without beginning of days or end of life. He fulfill number one and number four. Dark Angel, is Jesus born among unbelievers? Joseph and Mary are believers. Dark Angel, does Jesus have genealogy? Jesus was born of the tribe of Judah.

Dark Angel, is Ahnsahnghong born among unbelievers? Yes He was born from a Buddhist parents. Dark Angel, does Ahnsahnghong have a genealogy? Ahnsahnghong was born as Korean, not from any tribe of Judah. So is it clear to you now? This is God's will according to the Bible so such things happened. But you keep insisting that the Second Coming Christ is going to bear our sins again. Clearly, the Bible testifies that Christ will appear a Second time, not to bear our sins but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for Him as prophecied in the Bible. That's why the Bible testified that Jesus is the spiritual Melchizedek so we can recognize when Christ appear a Second time. Even Apostle Paul felt were too hard to explain about this prophecy. So I can clearly see that Dark Angel doesn't understand the Order of Melchizedek because He doesn't even believe this prophecy. Poor unbeliever who cannot see the light.

From our Brother Anti-enemies of Church of God,

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Elijah, stop preaching to these unbelievers. Our brothers and sisters tried to show them the truth of the Bible but they don't want it. Let them keep insisting that we are still in the age of the Son when we are clearly in the age of the Holy Spirit. They are like the Jews 2000 years ago when they keep insisting that they are still in the age of the Father. I really feel bad for these unbelievers who cannot see the truth of God's will in the Bible. On the other hand, let's continue to follow God according to the Bible to show that we love Him.

By: Poland on May 17, 2008
at 9:30 pm

Reply

John 14:15-21 – "If you love me, you will obey what I command. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counselor to be with you forever the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Before long, the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. Whoever has my commands and obeys them, he is the one who loves me. He who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love him and show myself to him."

GOOD WORK! Dark Angel

I think you represent Apostle Paul who in this age so clearly explained the order of Melchizedec but the COG members will find it difficult to understand.

By: warren on May 17, 2008
at 9:59 pm

Reply

Hard nuts to crack after all what once is fed into the brain is difficult to erase.

They are the children of false Gods following wrong interpretation of the Bible.

Elijah stop repeating the same stuff over and over again.
You must come back with right answers and to the pont.

I can see your mental state its going off track. You are overworked. You need to meditate and seek counselling.

Wake up! Take a walk Breathe in some fresh air and ponder deeply onto the name of Jesus and you will see the light.

God Bless.

Elijah,

You can say what ever you want about my understanding, thanks.

By: Dark Angel on
May 18, 2008
at 1:51 am

Reply

Anyway, you say that it is through Jesus geneology that he did not "complete" this prophecy because of Joesph and Mary.

So are you saying that you do not believe in the virgin birth? Do you not believe the bible when it says that God impregnated Mary?

I'll just use the same guilt tactic many of you use, "the Bible is God's word, how would you not believe in the virgin birth"?

At what point in time did Joseph impregnate Mary? If they became intimate, then, she was not a virgin/pure. If you say that the tribe of Judah would be passed through Mary and not Joseph, then that too will not be incorrect, because Tribal Indentity does not pass on from the Mother, it is passed through the Father of the child and according to Christian belief, Mary was a virgin, therefore, Jesus had no biological father.

The mother passes the Jewish Indentity to the child. So the child is born as Jewish through his Mother THEN identified by Tribe through his Father.

So again, how would Joseph fit into the equation of geneology? He wouldn't if you believe in the virgin birth and if he was from Joseph, then Jesus would be nothing but a NORMAL Human Being, not a "perfect God", which would then go against Christian belief to not indentify
Jesus as the "son of God" or God's begotten son.

So which one is it, Elijah. Virgin birth or did Joseph actually become intimate with her to produce a normal human being baby? She wouldn't be called a virgin if that happened.

Genesis 49:10

Isaiah 11:1

Even the Jews are waiting for their Messiah to be born through HUMAN parents to produce a HUMAN baby qualified to fulfill prophecies.

If Jesus fulfilled 1 and 4 of your outline, then there is no need for 2 and 3. It doesn't make any sense for him to hold the title of "Priest and King" if they were not completely fulfilled.

You say that he fulfilled 1 and 4, only for him to die, wait over 2000 yrs to come back again to fulfill 1, 4, all over again while adding 2 and 3.

You gotta be kidding. He couldn't get it right the first time I guess. You're saying that the guy left his work half done while claiming that he fulfilled them in his first coming.

Hmm, ok.

You also believe that eating the body and drinking the blood of Christ was "abolished" by Constantine. If that were the case, then Catholics would not have the Eucharist, which is the eating of Jesus' Body and and drinking of his Blood.

They believe as you do, that it cleanses them from sin. The same sin that Jesus died for. They observe it perhaps once a week, you perhaps observe it once a year while observing a holiday known as the Passover, in which Jesus did not have one Gentile present with him.

Jesus was aware that Gentiles were not able to partake in the Passover because it was law. Question is, why are you? He did say to eat of his body and drink of his blood but no where in the bible does it state for Gentiles to observe the Passover "the way Jesus did".

The "Early Christians" who were Jews observed the Passover "the way Jesus did" because they were descendants or converts. Gentiles however, would first have to convert to Judaism in order to partake in this Passover observance.

For no uncircumcised man should partake in that holiday. All who observed the Passover with Jesus were circumcised. In a way, the "early Christians" who were Jews, were still followers of Judaism and it's laws.

It was the Gentiles who were not circumcised that were not able to follow in the footsteps of the Jews that followed Jesus because of the law in which Jesus himself still adhered to, which would be not allowing non-jews to observe the Passover without converting.

That is one of many things that caused division in the "early church" because the Gentiles could NOT observe the Jewish Passover. Yes, the same Jewish Passover in which Jesus himself observed.

So the "Christian Passover" was to come about to separate itself from the Jewish Passover and the laws that was applied to Gentiles.

Which then gave birth to Easter and also gave more than enough reason for Constantine to approve of it in 325AD.

If you want, I can show you the reason behind his approval and why Saturday worship was changed to Sunday. It is basically about separating the Gentile from the Jews, who in turn believed in the same person as God.

I've already gone over this on the Cult Watch Message board along side COGinator. I don't feel there would be a need to explain so much when you can go there and read it.

Lastly, I never said that Jesus would come a second time to "bear sin". You may have misunderstood something I have said, but nowhere in my post have I said that.

So, after all the destroying of nonbelievers in the OT, God decides to..SMILE "allow" himself to be born unto nonbelievers.

By: Dark Angel on
May 18, 2008
at 2:44 am

I guess we should just erase these passages from the bible?

Reply

2 Chronicles 15:12-13

Deuteronomy 13:13-19

Deuteronomy 13:7-12

Exodus 31:12-15

And anything else dealing with nonbelievers getting destroyed. God then turned around and allowed himself to be a product of something that he despises.

Thousands of people who have gotten killed have died in vain.

To make it worse, he became a product of people who worshipped idols, breaking the 3rd and 4th Commandment.

Wow, what a guy.

Would it have made a difference if he allowed himself to be a product of Satanist?

Oh I'm sorry, they too believe in God, they just don't worship him.

The bible says that God does not change (Mal 3:6), and that he does not change his mind(Num 23:19,and 1 Sam 15:29).

Jesus also doesn't change(Heb 13:8) and is the same at all times.

So, the idea of God "changing his view" on nonbelievers only to become a PRODUCT of nonbelievers rather than believers, well, no need to say more.

God forcing himself to go against his own Will. That's similar to a racist person forcing him/herself to marry a person which is of another race they despise and have no respect for...for the sake of "fulfilling prophecy".

Makes no sense.

Oh and keep thinking that Christianity didn't exist in South Korea in 1918. Whoever told that to you is playing you for a fool.

Poland said "Elijah, stop preaching to these unbelievers. "

By: COGinator on May 18, 2008 at 6:52 am

Is that the CoG code for "stop or you'll start to undo all the brainwashing that we've done. These guys are on to the inconsistencies that we teach so we better stop before we do collateral damage to MJ's cult machine."

Reply

Ironically, it takes a Buddhist like Dark Angel to clearly point out the false teaching of the the CoG. We all see it...he just talented to communicate very well in this blog!!

Thanks for you help Dark Angel!!

Let me make a correction, I stated in my post:

By: Dark Angel on May 18, 2008 at 7:03 am

"If you say that the tribe of Judah would be passed through Mary and not Joseph, then that too will not be incorrect..etc."

Reply

I meant to say that it would NOT be correct, not the other way around.

Heritage is passed on from Mother to child.

Tribe is passed on from BIOLOGICAL Father to child.

That's the way it is. So Joseph may have "adopted" Jesus but he sure was not his biological father.

Hey COGinator,

By: Dark Angel on May 18, 2008 at 7:07 am

Hey man, I'm just trying to sharing information. I think you, Ted and others alike are really doing the hard work, so I should be thanking you.

Reply

Thank you! ..lol.

: -)

Hang on! Poland. It is just the beginning. We still got to prove from the Bible besides you'll like to harp we keep GOD's word, feasts, veil etc

By: Jonah on May 18, 2008
at 12:45 pm

Reply

This is what the Bible is supposed to do! It cuts to the heart; the soul of man and reveals what's really in there! It is hard for you accept the fact when told you are in the cult. You want fairy tales.

Right now, your Prophet Elijah is in meeting with the higher ups, probably he/she is warned its time to stay off this board concluding the Internet is evil or in contact with a hacker

In the meantime just to brief you all Cog's

Religions often use biblical scripture in order to back up these doctrines and laws or as a weapon in order to intimidate and control the congregation.

Most of the time it is through the interpretation and misinterpretation of the Bible that these laws become reality to the members. Some individuals have been damaged both spiritually and emotionally Secrecy within the church becomes another tool to maintain control. And, prospective members are not told the realities of the religion until they have been programmed sufficiently and are submissive enough to be nothing more than non-thinking sheep.

Some churches use fear as a method to obtain members. A typical tactic would be to word sermons like this:

"What if you walk out this door and die. You may never get salvation and thus,

Guilt "You need to get right with God. You are a sinner and fall short. Get your life right now."

Jesus told us who He was – He didn't mince words. "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6).

WAKE UP COG people!!! This is false teaching! This is NOT of God and doesn't align with his Word

CoG = Cult of Greed.

By: Jason on May 19, 2008
at 12:35 am

If I didn't have a conscience, I'd open my own chapter and start recruiting the lonely and naive as well.

Reply

I personally am not convinced of any organized religion – I believe in the possibility that one has it right – but is it too much to see “Real Proof”?

By: Jason on May 19, 2008

at 12:54 am

Reply

As a family member of a WMS-CoG fanatic who's alienated their whole family, I'd like to share a few quotes that I personally identify with:

The minority, the ruling class at present, has the schools and press, usually the Church as well, under its thumb. This enables it to organize and sway the emotions of the masses, and make its tool of them.

– Albert Einstein

Let me never fall into the vulgar mistake of dreaming that I am persecuted whenever I am contradicted.

– Ralph Waldo Emerson

Say nothing of my religion. It is known to my god and myself alone.

– Thomas Jefferson

It is an established maxim and moral that he who makes an assertion without knowing whether it is true or false is guilty of falsehood, and the accidental truth of the assertion does not justify or excuse him.

– Abraham Lincoln

One defeats a fanatic precisely by not being a fanatic oneself, but on the contrary by using one's intelligence.

– George Orwell

Think of how many religions attempt to validate themselves with prophecy. Think of how many people rely on these prophecies, however vague, however unfulfilled, to support or prop up their beliefs. Yet has there ever been a religion with the prophetic accuracy and reliability of science? ... No other human institution comes close.

– Carl Sagan

If devotion to truth is the hallmark of morality, then there is no greater, nobler, more heroic form of devotion than the act of a man who assumes the responsibility of thinking.... The alleged short-cut to knowledge, which is faith, is only a short-circuit destroying the mind.

– Ayn Rand

If Christ were here there is one thing he would not be — a Christian.

– Mark Twain

Of all religions the Christian is without doubt the one which should inspire tolerance most, although up to now the Christians have been the most intolerant of all men.

– Voltaire

Dark Angel, you are not really understanding your Bible at all. I'm very sorry for you but please don't try to interpret the Bible because it

By: Elijah on May 19, 2008
at 2:28 pm

interpret on it's own. Again, I'll enlighten you.

Reply

Dark Angel said "At what point in time did Joseph impregnate Mary? If they became intimate, then, she was not a virgin/pure. If you say that the tribe of Judah would be passed through Mary and not Joseph, then that too will not be incorrect, because Tribal Identity does not pass on from the Mother, it is passed through the Father of the child and according to Christian belief, Mary was a virgin, therefore, Jesus had no biological father."

Dark Angel, read your Bible correctly.

Matthew 1:1-17

1A record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ the son of David, the son of Abraham:

2Abraham was the father of Isaac,

Isaac the father of Jacob,

Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers,

3Judah the father of Perez and Zerah, whose mother was Tamar,

Perez the father of Hezron,

Hezron the father of Ram,

4Ram the father of Amminadab,

Amminadab the father of Nahshon,

Nahshon the father of Salmon,

5Salmon the father of Boaz, whose mother was Rahab,

Boaz the father of Obed, whose mother was Ruth,

Obed the father of Jesse,

6and Jesse the father of King David.

David was the father of Solomon, whose mother had been Uriah's wife,

7Solomon the father of Rehoboam,

Rehoboam the father of Abijah,

Abijah the father of Asa,

8Asa the father of Jehoshaphat,

Jehoshaphat the father of Jehoram,

Jehoram the father of Uzziah,

9Uzziah the father of Jotham,

Jotham the father of Ahaz,

Ahaz the father of Hezekiah,

10Hezekiah the father of Manasseh,

Manasseh the father of Amon,

Amon the father of Josiah,

11and Josiah the father of Jeconiah[a] and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.

12After the exile to Babylon:

Jeconiah was the father of Shealtiel,

Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel,

13Zerubbabel the father of Abiud,

Abiud the father of Eliakim,

Eliakim the father of Azor,

14Azor the father of Zadok,

Zadok the father of Akim,

Akim the father of Eliud,

15Eliud the father of Eleazar,

Eleazar the father of Matthan,

Matthan the father of Jacob,

16and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17Thus there were fourteen generations in all from Abraham to David, fourteen from David to the exile to Babylon, and fourteen from the exile to the Christ.[b]

Dark Angel, do you know better than God's word? This is what the Bible says. If you think your better than God's words then you might as well delete these entire section from Matthew. Clearly, Jesus came from a family with genealogy from twelve tribes of Israel, in other words with Jewish blood. So Dark Angel, does Jesus have a father and mother here on Earth? Yes, Joseph and Virgin Mary are Jesus father and mother here on Earth.

Dark Angel said" I guess we should just erase these passages from the bible?

2 Chronicles 15:12-13

Deuteronomy 13:13-19

Deuteronomy 13:7-12

Exodus 31:12-15

Dark Angel, do you know the will of God? Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Second Coming Christ according to the prophecies in the Bible, not some God that we proclaim without looking at the prophecies in the Bible.

John 14:23:27

23Jesus replied, "If anyone loves me, he will obey my teaching. My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. 24He who does not love me will not obey my teaching. These words you hear are not my own; they belong to the Father who sent me.

25"All this I have spoken while still with you. 26But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in (Jesus)my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you. 27Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

Revelations 3:12-13

12Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of my God. Never again will he leave it. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on him (Jesus)my new name. 13He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

Are this clear to you Dark Angel?

Dark Angel said "You also believe that eating the body and drinking the blood of Christ was "abolished" by Constantine. If that were the case, then Catholics would not have the Eucharist, which is the eating of Jesus' Body and and drinking of his Blood.

They believe as you do, that it cleanses them from sin. The same sin that Jesus died for. They observe it perhaps once a week, you perhaps observe it once a year while observing a holiday known as the Passover, in which Jesus did not have one Gentile present with him.

Jesus was aware that Gentiles were not able to partake in the Passover because it was law. Question is, why are you? He did say to eat of his body and drink of his blood but no where in the bible does it state for Gentiles to observe the Passover "the way Jesus did".

The "Early Christians" who were Jews observed the Passover "the way Jesus did" because they were descendants or converts. Gentiles however, would first have to convert to Judaism in order to partake in this Passover observance."

Dark Angel, is it okay to alternate God's set times and laws?

Daniel 7:25

25 He will speak against the Most High and oppress his saints and try to change the set times and the laws. The saints will be handed over to him for a time, times and half a time. [a]

Dark Angel, are you with Satan who change the appointed times and laws of God? I guess your with Satan who likes to change Jesus' Passover to Roman Catholics Eucharist and Communion. Or maybe Saturday Sabbath, the 7th day and day of worship for God to Sunday from Roman Emperor Constantine who thinks he knows better than the Bible?

Matthew 5:17-10

17"Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. 18I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished. 19Anyone who breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practices and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.

Dark Angel, I guess you didn't understand this. Let me show you what's actually written in the Bible, not an opinion like yours.

Luke 4:14-16

14Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about him spread through the whole countryside. 15He taught in their synagogues, and everyone praised him.

16He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was (Jesus)his custom. And he stood up to read.

Matthew 26:17-28

17On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?"

18He replied, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, 'The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.' " 19So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

20When evening came, Jesus was reclining at the table with the Twelve. 21And while they were eating, he said, "I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me."

22They were very sad and began to say to him one after the other, "Surely not I, Lord?"

23Jesus replied, "The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with me will betray me. 24The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born."

25Then Judas, the one who would betray him, said, "Surely not I, Rabbi?"
Jesus answered, "Yes, it is you." [a]

26While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body."

27Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. 28This is my blood of the [b] covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Dark Angel, should I take Constantine's words or what the Bible says? Let's play a game, you follow Constantine's opinion while I keep the customs on Jesus. So who's actually following Jesus examples? Of course me and the rest of Church of God. So far, your opinion or your own understanding seems to prevent you from what is actually written in the Bible. To you Dark Angel and the rest of Church of God haters especially Ted, the Erratic Cheese who keeps making up lies about Church of God, your guys need to look at the Bible carefully because right now you guys are going against God's words.

Acts 5:38-39

38Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail. 39But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God."

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Jonah said "Jesus told us who He was – He didn't mince words. "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father,

By: Elijah on May 19, 2008
at 2:35 pm

but by me." (John 14:6).

Reply

WAKE UP COG people!!! This is false teaching! This is NOT of God and doesn't align with his Word"

Of course. Jesus told us who He was, the Son of Man. Since Church of God keep Jesus words absolutely, then Church of God follows the way of Jesus to eternal life. But since anti-Church of God follows their own flaws and try to give praise to God on their own by them keeping Sunday, Christmas and Communion, they are not following Jesus examples. Poor Jonah who draws a circle on his back that looks like a sign for an unbeliever.

Today was Heavenly Mothers Day and I am sorry I wasn't here to "argue" w you, but Mothers Day was way more important than a day arguing w an unbeliever. I have noticed that quite a few CoG members have tried to open the eyes of the people that leave messages here but to no avail. Jesus said "My sheep listen to my voice" and for those that do not listen... it's because their father is the father of lies! You either are sons of God and follow his commands or...

By: Lizzie on May 19, 2008 at 3:09 pm

Reply

John 10:3

The watchman opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

John 10:16

I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock and one shepherd.

John 10:27

My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me

John 8:42

42Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and now am here. I have not come on my own; but he sent me. 43Why is my language not clear to you? Because you are unable to hear what I say. 44You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies. 45Yet because I tell the truth, you do not believe me! 46Can any of you prove me guilty of sin? If I am telling the truth, why don't you believe me? 47He who belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

Or maybe you've noticed that no one has fallen trap to the CoG's false teaching. That could be a sign that's it's not true.

By: COGInator on May 19, 2008

at 5:08 pm

By the way Elijah, Dark Angel stands corrected. It didn't say in the genealogy that Joseph was the father of Jesus. Everywhere else it said who was the father, but verse 16 said "and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ."

Reply

Maybe not so clear, but it obviously breaks the pattern that preceded the introduction of Jesus.

Wow I found another website that is committed to attack Church of God World Mission Society.

By: Robert on May 19, 2008

Ted, is this one is yours also? Or maybe Jamie and you Ted are brothers and sisters of Satan

at 5:38 pm

since you guys are the Jews and Pharisees of our age Holy Spirit, trying to fight the prophecy of God. Also, guys like Jamie and Ted are looking up in the sky for the Son of Man to come literally from clouds of heaven. Stupid and ignorant of the Bible, hehehe!!! It is said that truth is found in commonness. Some try to find it in something special, but the Bible says that we have treasure in jars of clay. Thus, truth is in commonness. God leads all things very quietly in a common way. Actually the works of Jesus Christ were not filled only with miraculous signs and wonders: We can find many things which look common in His works. His disciples and the gospel-writers, however, found something spiritual in those common things, and they wrote what they realized, being filled with the Holy Spirit. So now we, who are in the faith, get moved by what they wrote (2 Pe 1:20-21). However, from a worldly viewpoint, those things may be regarded as common and trivial.

Reply

Tell him that the Lord needs the donkey

Lately I found great joy in a Biblical passage, spoken by Jesus Christ. The passage says, "Tell him that the Lord needs them." This seems so ordinary.

Mt 21:1-11 As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, "Go to the village ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied there, with her colt by her. Untie them and bring them to me. If anyone says anything to you, tell him that the Lord needs them, and he will send them right away." This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet: "Say to the Daughter of Zion, 'See, your king comes to you, gentle and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'" The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them. They brought the donkey and the colt, placed their cloaks on them, and Jesus sat on them. ...

When Jesus entered Jerusalem, He told His disciples to bring a donkey to Him, in order to fulfill the prophecy of the Bible. The disciples were very perplexed. In those days, it was hard for the poor to have a donkey. Jesus and His disciples, who only spent their time preaching the gospel of the kingdom, didn't have a donkey. So the disciples were embarrassed, wondering whose donkey they should bring. Then Jesus said, "Tell him that the Lord needs it."

If a total stranger comes and says, "Give a donkey, for the Lord needs it," who will give it to him willingly? The owner of the donkey, however, gave his donkey willingly to the disciples when they asked him to give it to them as Jesus had instructed them. This happened to fulfill the prophecy of the Christ's coming as the king on a donkey. Outwardly it might be regarded as a trivial thing that Jesus entered Jerusalem, riding on a donkey. However, spiritually it occurred to fulfill God's prophecy. Everything was prepared and done as Jesus said, "Tell him that the Lord needs them."

Tell him that the Lord needs his upper room

Jesus said the same word at the Passover. In the evening of the day before Jesus was crucified on the cross after accomplishing His mission in this earth, He told His disciples to prepare the Passover so that He might establish it as the new covenant. Then the disciples were perplexed. Jesus didn't tell them where and what to prepare; He just said to them, "Tell him that the Lord needs it." However, this word made everything possible.

Mk 14:12-16 On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when it was customary to sacrifice the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go and make preparations for you to eat the Passover?" So he sent two of his disciples, telling them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him. Say to the owner of the house he enters, 'The Teacher asks: Where is my guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' He will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there." The disciples left, went into the city and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover.

The disciples went into the city to a certain man. They didn't know who would meet them in the city, but they went and met a man carrying a jar of water as Jesus had told them; and they said to him, "Our Lord told us to tell you that He needs your guest room."

The disciples only told him that the Lord needed his room, and then he willingly showed them a large upper room, where Jesus and the disciples celebrated the Passover. By this word—"The Lord needs it," a guest room was prepared right away, where Jesus would eat the Passover. Everything was prepared by this one word—"The Lord needs it."

I will make you fishers of men

While Jesus accomplished the gospel work in the Early Church, leading His disciples into the truth, He only spoke the word—"The Lord needs them."

Mt 4:18-22 As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. "Come, follow me," Jesus said, "And I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed him. Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, preparing their nets. Jesus called them, and immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

"Follow me. I need you." When Jesus said that, all followed Him. Peter, John, James, ... none of them refused Him. It's because the Lord Himself said, "I need you," and called them.

Jesus never seemed like God. Jesus appeared to them only as a son of Joseph the carpenter: No one could recognize Him as God Al-mighty—the Creator—who commands the heavens and rules over thousands upon thousands of angels, sitting on the throne of majesty. Actually, however, all the creatures of the earth are always ready to fulfill God's will, when they hear that the Lord needs them. In the Bible we can find no person who said, "No," when the Lord said, "I need you." All just said, "Yes." No creature on earth has the power to refuse the Lord, replying "No," when the Lord says, "I need you."

When Paul was devoted to Judaism, he intently persecuted the saints of the Early Church. He was later converted to Christ, but many saints were still afraid of him. Christ, however, spoke to them in a vision, "Do not be afraid of him."

Ac 9:15 "... This man is my chosen instrument to carry my name before the Gentiles and their kings and before the people of Israel"

When the Lord calls a man, though he is stubborn and rough, though he is now deeply devoted to a different religion, he is supposed to bow his head before the truth. This is the providence of God.

Blessing of those whom God needs

Now is a spiritual autumn—the harvest time. In this age, the Lord needs us. There are about six billion people in the world. They are as the sand of the sea. Among them God has called you and I, saying, "I need you."

The Lord Himself needs me. What a great blessing! Among those whom God needed and called, who did wrong and went astray? None of them. As for Peter, he was only a fisherman and little known. However, the Lord needed him and led him to the truth, and he became an apostle of apostles. He is held in great esteem by all Christians today. How about Apostle Paul? He was once against the truth and persecuted the saints. When the Lord needed him and called him to be converted, he testified that Jesus is the Christ before the Gentiles and the kings and preached the new covenant, suffering many things. As a result, he has also been highly respected by all Christians until today. Like this, everyone whom the Lord needed acquired fame.

Now, the Lord needs us; even angels in heaven envy us for our duty. Is this world better than heaven? Certainly not. Nevertheless angels envy us for our mission we do here on earth—the work of preaching the gospel of the new covenant (1 Pe 1:10-12).

Now, the time has come when God accomplishes His glorious work. We must not hesitate when we are called. What did Peter, John and James do when the Lord called them? They didn't hesitate to follow Christ and do His works. Like them, we too should respond to God's call without hesitation.

Their life was so eventful; they had much trouble and got persecuted. However, when the Lord said that He needed them, they followed Him willingly in obedience. They did not care about their outward surroundings. They just made every effort to be a vessel worthy of God's work.

Isa 60:1-22 "Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD rises upon you. See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the LORD rises upon you and his glory appears over you. Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. Lift up your eyes and look about you: All assemble and come to you; your sons come from afar, and your daughters are carried on the arm. Then you will look and be radiant, your heart will throb and swell with joy; the wealth on the seas will be brought to you, to you the riches of the nations will come. Herds of camels will cover your land, ... Who are these that fly along like clouds, like doves to their nests? ...Then will all your people be righteous and they will possess the land forever. They are the shoot I have planted, the work of my hands, for the display of my splendor. The least of you will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation. I am the LORD; in its time I will do this swiftly."

If the Lord says, "I will do this," it is done just as He says. Every-thing is possible and supposed to be accomplished if the Lord says that He will do it. When the Lord said that He needed a donkey, the disciples went to bring it. No one rejected the Lord when He said that He needed him. All creatures were waiting for the Lord to use them.

Even as for a donkey, when the Lord needed it, its owner allowed the disciples to bring it, though he had no part with them. Then, why is such a thing that appears common written in the Gospel? We need to consider. Think about the donkey the disciples brought to the Lord when He said He needed it. There might be many other donkeys in Israel at that time. Among them the Lord needed only one donkey and it was brought to Him and used for King of kings and Lord of lords to enter Jerusalem. How blessed it was, though it was an animal! The donkey God chose to fulfill the prophecy is well-known; about two thousand years have passed, but we still talk about it.

It is the same with Mark's upper room. When the Lord said that He needed it, Mark the owner prepared it. It has been the only upper room remembered by the world until today. All become famous if the Lord needs and chooses them. Their glory is great and endures forever. Most people in this earth do not know why they are born. To us, however, God showed the glory of heaven. Among six billion people, it is the 144,000 who God has needed and chosen. He ever chose only one donkey among many other ones, so that He might fulfill the prophecy. He chose Mark's upper room among many guest rooms in Israel at that time. Likewise, He has chosen and called us the 144,000, as firstfruits to God and the Lamb, in these last days.

There are many great speakers who have much scholarship in the world. However, God didn't choose them. He has called us and said, "I need you." If we say Amen when God needs and calls us, we shall all be prophetic heroes for God's glory.

Go and make disciples of all nations

Now, we should only be used by God, as He has called us.

Mt 28:18-20 Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

God is with those whom He needs, even to the end of the age. Among six billion people, who are those whom God is always with and loves? Aren't they all of us? The Lord has called us, saying, "I need you."

Socrates, a famous Greek philosopher, said: "Know yourself." Ironically, Socrates and even Buddha didn't know themselves. We, however, know ourselves—why we are born on earth and live a miserable life, where we are from, and where we are going. God let us know that. Since the eternal kingdom awaits us, we must not waste our time on vain things in this earth; we should be more faithful to the task that the Lord has called us to do.

However, this does not mean that we should neglect our earthly responsibilities. For the eternal life in heaven, we must live more faithful and favorable lives on this earth. Two thousand years ago, the donkey was chosen for the mission to carry the Christ—King of kings and Lord of lords—to Jerusalem. Mark's upper room was prepared for the Passover which Jesus would establish as the new covenant. Now, we have a greater mission than that of the donkey or the upper room.

The Lord has called us and said, "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you." This is the mission to which God has called us.

We should make them disciples just as the Lord has already told us. When you preach the gospel to someone, if he is doubtful of it and hesitates, tell him that the Lord needs him. Then he will not hesitate to come.

If we work with faith, God helps us. God estimates our faith. He does not help us right away; He waits for us to have 100% faith in Him and then gives us His power. God waits until we have a perfect faith.

The Lord says to us, "I need you." He has called us, who are weak in the world, and has given us a great mission—the last Reformation.

God has come as the Spirit and the Bride and entrusted us with the gospel work, saying, "I need you." How gracious! As the Lord intends to use us to carry out the last Reformation, it will be accomplished swiftly. Now, the only thing left for us to do is following God's will naturally.

Though we are weak, God needs us. So, we can confidently say to whomever we meet, "The Lord needs you. Come!" "The Lord told me to take you to Him," "The Lord has said that He needs you." Brothers and sisters in Zion! We are the ones whom the Lord needs. Let us faithfully perform the mission of preaching the gospel in these last days, receiving the Holy Spirit even more.

COGinator said "Or maybe you've noticed that no one has fallen trap to the CoG's false teaching. That could be a sign that's it's not true.

By: Elijah on May 19, 2008
at 5:47 pm

Reply

By the way Elijah, Dark Angel stands corrected. It didn't say in the geneology that Joseph was the father of Jesus. Everywhere else it said who was the father, but verse 16 said "and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ."

Maybe not so clear, but it obvioulsy breaks the pattern that preceded the introduction of Jesus."

COGinator, are you blind and you can't read the what the Bible is testifying? It's not a matter on me or Dark Angel is right. It's what's actually written in the Bible.

LMAO, nice to see 12 year olds trying to interpret the Bible.

By: LOLAGE on May 19, 2008
at 7:50 pm

Oh no, the world is going to end! Save me magical Korean man!

Reply

Elijah,

I've read the "genealogy" written about Jesus. No it is not my interpretation, it is what it is. No interpretation needed.

By: Dark Angel on May 19, 2008
at 8:25 pm

Reply

It goes from giving a list of names decended through BLOOD and ends with Joseph the Male and son of Jacob. Joseph who married a woman who was already pregnant with Jesus, God's seed:

"16and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ."

Joesph ADOPTED Jesus, Joseph was not biologically his blood father as indicated throughout the list.

When in any history of Royalty have there been a time when a person is adopted and is able to sit on the throne as King? There has never been an occasion as such and if you want to consider the story about Moses being adopted by the Egyptian Royalty, then, again he may have been adopted, but he would have not been able to sit on the throne to rule over Egypt.

So you're basically saying that Jesus has two Fathers. God and Joseph who adopted him. Jesus was not the SEED of Joseph but if you want to believe that, then I guess you will have to show me somehow.

Just as the bible indicated that God took a rib from man to make woman, the bible could have indicated the God took the seed of Joseph and performed artificial insemination, but no, that is not the case or else it would have mentioned it I'm sure.

However, if it WERE the case, then Jesus would NOT be a "perfect God", he would be but a Human Being without perfection.

Again, your arguments are off. Since people want to say, "if it's not in the bible, then it doesn't exist" then yes, the possible idea and theory of God artificially inseminating Mary did not happen and is definitely not the case.

Please provide proof that Jesus is the BIOLOGICAL son of Joseph. I assure you, that you wouldn't be able to, even with the "genealogy record" from the bible, we all know that Joseph did not have sexual relations with Mary and that he magically appeared pregnant. That is the story that you must believe in.

Jesus is either the biological son of Joseph OR the son of God who existed before creation, and is considered a part of "the Trinity".

The bible says what it says about the genealogy of Jesus but, that does not change the definition of genealogy. You can not just adopt someone and consider them blood relatives. No matter how much you love them.

If your father adopted another child, your father may be his guardian and parent but the child is NOT his biological son, through your Mother and your Father.

If there was a family tree, that child's name would not be on that tree UNLESS the parent decides to make an exception and still, it wouldn't magically make him your blood relative and a part of your family tree.

Perhaps you need to go over the definition of Genealogy.

Genealogy: (from Greek: γενεα, genea, "family"; and λόγος, logos, "knowledge") is the study and tracing of family lineages and history.

Genealogical research is a complex process that uses historical records to establish biological, genetic, or familial kinship. Reliable conclusions are based on the quality of sources, ideally original records, the information within those sources, ideally primary or firsthand information, and the evidence that can be drawn, directly or indirectly, from that information.

In many instances, genealogists must skillfully assemble indirect or circumstantial evidence to build a case for identity and kinship. All evidence and conclusions, together with the documentation that supports them, is then assembled to create a cohesive "genealogy" or "family history."

[1] Traditionalists may differentiate between these last two terms, using the former to describe skeletal accounts of kinship (aka family trees) and the latter as a "fleshing out" of lives and personal histories. However, historical, social, and family context is in any case essential to achieving correct identification of individuals and relationships.

LOLAGE, stop playing games with your sarcastic comment and post something from the Bible. Christ Ahnsahnghong can save you if you follow Him and receive the Seal of God.

By: Poland on May 19, 2008 at 8:35 pm

Reply

Our Father, Christ Ahnsahnghong, came according to the scriptures. From the old to new testament, there are so many scriptures that confirm that Second Coming Christ will come from the EAST.

Isaiah 24:14-15 – In the EAST they give glory to God.

Now we acclaim Christ Ahnsahnghong in the West!

Isaiah 41:2 – The righteous one that will serve God is "stirred up" from the EAST.

Isaiah 46:7 – The bird of prey, a man from the EAST, will fulfill God's purpose.

Malachi 1:11 – God's name will be great from the rising of the sun, (the EAST) to the setting of the sun (the West).

Matthew 24:27 – As lightning from the EAST is visible in the West, so is the 2nd coming of Jesus Christ.

And this ones for LOLAGE:

Revelations 7:1-3 – After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth to prevent any wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree. THEN I SAW ANOTHER ANGEL COMING UP FROM THE EAST, HAVING THE SEAL OF THE LIVING GOD. HE CALLED OUT IN A LOUD VOICE TO THE FOUR ANGELS WHO HAD BEEN GIVEN POWER TO HARM THE LAND AND THE SEA: "DO NOT HARM THE LAND OR THE SEA OR THE TREES UNTIL WE PUT A SEAL ON THE FOREHEADS OF THE SERVANTS OF OUR GOD."

So, from what geographic direction should God come in the last days? Should he come from the Arctic, or Israel, or Russia, or the USA. No, he should come from the EAST. So, is it really that 'far-fetched' that the Gospel of Christ Ahnsahnghong began in South Korea—from the farthest EASTERN corner? Then, does it make sense that he would have an EASTERN name, and not a name like John Smith or Keshawn Brown?

Christ Ahnsahnghong continues to receive acclaim and praise in the West!

Christ Ahnsahnghong is the righteous one who fulfilled the prophecies of King David, Kind Cyrus, Mechizedek, the Root of David...

Christ Ahnsahnghong carried us on eagle's wings to our Heavenly Mother God—New Jerusalem.

Christ Ahnsahnghong brought the Gospel that has spread like lightning from the EAST that is now preached even in the West.

Christ Ahnsahnghong's ministry, like the sun rising in the EAST, is reaching its fulfillment where the sun sets—the West LOLAGE, your the one who sounds like a 12 year old trying to interpret the Bible. Read the Bible with an open mind.

In regards to Constantine...

By: Dark Angel on
May 19, 2008
at 8:37 pm

The man was Anti-Semetic, similar to Hitler. His actions derived from his disgust and hatred of the Jews...period.

Reply

You don't need to read the bible to come to that conclusion. I don't just post bible scripture unless I feel the need to, so what I write is indeed my opinion, but it does not make it any less valid in regards to the subject.

We can post bible scripture all day long, what would that prove? Nothing, besides that we can both post bible scripture and anyone can do that.

Elijah, you said, "Clearly, Jesus came from a family with genealogy from twelve tribes of Israel, in other words with Jewish blood. So Dark Angel, does Jesus have a father and mother here on Earth? Yes, Joseph and Virgin Mary are Jesus father and mother here on Earth."

Elijah, again, Mary gave Jesus the Jewish Identity, if Joseph was his actual BIOLOGICAL Father, then yes, he would be apart of the Tribe of Judah.

But NO, the man was adopted. You sir, need to understand that.

Let's talk about Emperor Constantine. I've mentioned before that this man did like like the Jews, which is true and he also wanted to separate the Jews from the Christians.

By: Dark Angel on
May 19, 2008
at 9:16 pm

Reply

Here's some information on him. But please, do not take my word for it, read on the history of this man and his hatred against the Jews and their laws.

The Emperor Constantine the Great

"Constantine the Great, who is considered a saint by the Greek Orthodox Church, instituted several legislative measures concerning the Jews and all other religions excepting Christianity: Non-Christians were forbidden to own Christian slaves or to circumcise their slaves. Conversion of Christians to Judaism or other religions was outlawed. Congregations for Jewish religious services were restricted but had elevated status over pagan religions. Constantine also supported the separation of the date of Easter from the Jewish Passover (see also Quartodecimanism), stating in his letter after the First Council of Nicaea:

"... it appeared an unworthy thing that in the celebration of this most holy feast we should follow the practice of the Jews, who have impiously defiled their hands with enormous sin, and are, therefore, deservedly afflicted with blindness of soul. ... Let us then have nothing in common with the detestable Jewish crowd; for we have received from our Saviour a different way." [16]

Theodoret's Ecclesiastical History records The Epistle of the Emperor Constantine, concerning the matters transacted at the Council, addressed to those Bishops who were not present:

"It was, in the first place, declared improper to follow the custom of the Jews in the celebration of this holy festival, because, their hands having been stained with crime, the minds of these wretched men are necessarily blinded. ... Let us, then, have nothing in common with the Jews, who are our adversaries. ... Let us ... studiously avoiding all contact with that evil way. ... For how can they entertain right views on any point who, after having compassed the death of the Lord, being out of their minds, are guided not by sound reason, but by an unrestrained passion, wherever their innate madness carries them. ... lest your pure minds should appear to share in the customs of a people so utterly depraved. ... Therefore, this irregularity must be corrected, in order that we may no more have any thing in common with those parricides and the murderers of our Lord. ... no single point in common with the perjury of the Jews."

If anyone wants the link to this information, please let me know. I was not able to post the link on this forum.

I will continue....

Under the Christian Roman Empire

When Christianity became the state religion of Rome in the 4th century, Jews became objects of religious intolerance and political oppression. Christian literature began to display extreme hostility to Jews, and

By: Dark Angel on
May 19, 2008
at 9:19 pm

Reply

this occasionally resulted in attacks on Jews and the burning of synagogues.

Emperor Constantine I instituted several laws concerning Jews: they were forbidden to own Christian slaves or to circumcise their slaves. Conversion of Christians to Judaism was outlawed. Congregations for religious services were restricted, but Jews were allowed to enter Jerusalem on Tisha B'Av, the anniversary of the destruction of the Temple.

Discrimination became worse in the 5th century. Jews were barred from the civil service and the army. The Jewish Patriarchate was abolished and the scope of Jewish courts restricted. New synagogues were confiscated and old synagogues could be repaired only if they were in danger of collapse. Synagogues fell into ruin or were converted to churches.

Synagogues in the following places were destroyed: Tortona in 350, Rome in 388 and 500, Raqqa in 388, Minorca in 418, Daphne (near Antioch) in 489 and 507, Genoa in 500, Ravenna in 495, Tours in 585 and Orleans in 590.

Other synagogues were confiscated: Urfa in 411, several in Palestine between 419 and 422, Constantinople in 442 and 569, Antioch in 423, Vannes in 465, Diyarbakir in 500 Terracina in 590, Cagliari in 590 and Palermo in 590."

I also have the link to this information. It's best to read everything that it says, so please anyone, let me know if you want the link.

I will continue somemore....

Well we have total 671 comments on this blog and prophet Elijah is back with the 666 comment at 2:28 p.m. You know what 666 means....

By: Jonah on May 19, 2008 at 9:29 pm

Reply

Let me explain:

When asked for signs of His second "coming, and of the end of the age" (Matthew 24:3), Jesus said there would be many false religious teachers (verses 4-5, 11). These teachers are going to be especially persuasive. They will be deceived themselves and teach deceptions

Satan disguises himself as "an angel of light" and his ministers disguise themselves as "ministers of righteousness" (2 Corinthians 11:14-15).

As this present age comes to an end, the Bible says Satan will have a hand in helping the false teachers deceive human beings. By his work, many will be deluded into believing a religious lie. Satan will attack the mind before he attacks the soul

Satan also deceives the world with a counterfeit Jesus and a counterfeit gospel. The deception is so clever that the church puts up with it. "For if someone comes to you and preaches a Jesus other than the Jesus we preached, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or a different gospel from the one you accepted, you put up with it easily enough" (2 Cor. 11:4).

False prophets are not limited to religious leaders. They may be a political figure with a plan to save the world, an electrifying superstar entertainer, or the author of a book promoting a new movement like Ahn Sahng Hong

WHY PEOPLE LOSE THEIR MIND?

1. Disobedience to God.
2. Arrogance and pride

3. People who follow money-grubbing hypocrites.

By: Jason Pittman
on September 29,
2009
at 9:37 am

Reply

Has anyone heard of the Jewish Talmud, if so, you would know the foul things that are said in that book. Non-Jews are viewed as dogs, more or less. There are some racist remarks as well.

By: Dark Angel on
May 19, 2008
at 9:31 pm

Reply

So understand this, there were plenty of people who did not agree with the Jews and their laws for that reason.

Also, the Early Christians were going through problems even before Constantine arrived on the scene. There were Jews who followed Christ and there were Gentiles who followed Christ.

The Jews who followed Christ still adhered to the laws of Judaism. And why wouldn't they, I mean just because their Messiah was said to have come, doesn't mean the religion of Judaism wasn't TRANSFORMED into Christianity.

No..it's still Judaism. If a savior of a certain religion appears, the religion stays the same. So to that effect, Jewish Christians were not in agreement with Gentile Christians.

The problems started before Constantine.

Early Divisions

"There have been philosophical differences between Christianity and Rabbinical Judaism since the founding of Christianity. Christians claim the entirety of Jewish / Hebrew religious heritage, yet interpret it very differently. Jews feel that their own beliefs and religious heritage have been taken over by Christians.

Debates between the Early Christians – who at first understood themselves as a movement within Judaism, not as a separate religion – and other Jews initially revolved around the question whether Jesus was the Messiah or not, which also encompassed the issue of his divinity.

Once gentiles were converted to Christianity, the question arose whether and how far these Gentile Christians were obliged to follow Jewish law in order to follow Jesus (see Paul's Letter to the Galatians).

At the Council of Jerusalem, (Acts 15), it was decided that new gentile converts did not have to follow all the prescriptions of the Jewish law, in particular circumcision, however observance of a subset, (the Apostolic Decree of Acts 15: 19-21), was requested which some consider to be related to Judaism's Noahide Law, (see also Old Testament#Christian view of the Law for the modern debate), but Paul also questioned the validity of Jewish Christian's adherence to the Jewish law in relation to faith in Christ (see also Antinomianism, Law and Gospel, Pauline Christianity).

The increase of the numbers of gentile Christians in comparison to Jewish Christians eventually resulted in a rift between Christianity and Judaism, which was further increased by the Jewish-Roman wars (66–73 and 132–135) that drove many more Jews into the diaspora and reduced the influence of the Bishop of Jerusalem, leader of the first Christian church.

Early Christians also found in the Old Testament prophecies which seemed to indicate that God's original covenant with the Jews would be expanded to include also the Gentiles. Thus the Church Fathers tend to emphasise that the Church is the new "spiritual" Israel, completing or replacing the earthly Israel which was but its prototype.

Also, the two religions differed in their legal status in the Roman Empire: Judaism, restricted to the Jewish people and Jewish Proselytes, was generally exempt from obligation to the Roman imperial cult and since the reign of Julius Caesar enjoyed the status of a "licit religion", though there were also occasional persecutions, for example in 19 Tiberius expelled the Jews from Rome,[3] as Claudius did again in 49.

[4] Christianity however was not restricted to one people, and as Jewish Christians were excluded from the synagogue (see Council of Jamnia), they also lost the protection of the status of Judaism, though said protection did have its limits (see for example Titus Flavius Clemens (consul), Akiba ben Joseph, and Ten Martyrs). From the reign of Nero onwards Christianity was considered to be illegal and Christians were frequently subjected to persecution, differing regionally.

Comparably, Judaism suffered the setbacks of the Jewish-Roman wars. In the third century systematic persecution of Christians began and lasted until Constantine's conversion to Christianity. In 390 Theodosius I made Christianity the state religion. While pagan cults and Manichaeism were suppressed, Judaism retained its legal status as a licit religion, though anti-Jewish violence still occurred. In the fifth century, some legal measures worsened the status of the Jews in the Roman Empire."

If anyone needs the link to this as well...I can surely provide.

Today was Heavenly Mothers Day. Mothers Day was way more important. Was it her birthday or her wedding Anniversary. Must I say...

By: Jonah on May 19, 2008
at 9:42 pm

Happy Wesak day! Lizzie

Reply

May is anyway a very special month in Korea for the Buddhist as May 12, 2008 also marked the holiday of Buddha's Day that celebrates his birthday, enlightenment and death.

They remember the night of his enlightenment and his insights into his previous lives, as well as his revelations about the nature of death, karma and rebirth, suffering and desire.

Another popular custom is the release of caged birds, which been told that mother follows this tradition too.

So when will you get your freedom of mind, Lizzie.

Get information of Emperor Constantine this history of this man.

By: Dark Angel on May 19, 2008
at 9:47 pm

Get information of the Jewish Talmud.

Reply

Get information the persecution of Jews by Christians and the persecution of nonbelievers by the Jews. It goes back and forth.

Hitler tried to wipe the Jews off of the face of the Earth BECAUSE of what he believed. He did not like te Jews and their Laws as well.

That is Geneocide my friend. The annihilation of a race is Geneocide. But the OT permits this doesn't it?

God commands people to kill the men, women, and children and even their animals. No one can not say it's not in the bible, because it is.

I have much more information to share based on history which can be found anywhere on the internet, the library, and the bookstore.

It is not MY opinions that geneocide happened, it is a fact. It is not MY opinions that Jews and Christians do not agree, it is a fact.

All major religion eventually wants people to convert and recognize them as the truth. These major religions are Judaism, Christianity, and Islam.

All three required nonbelievers to recognize them and be ONE. In order for that to happen, there must be the annihilation of two of the three (including the smaller offsets and pagan religions) AND if no one comply, then it's their death.

A "cleansing" must happen for there to be the existence of ONE religion over one nation or the world.

So Elijah, let's get down to the nitty gritty of it all.

By: Dark Angel on
May 19, 2008
at 10:11 pm

Let's start to include reference links or books or what have you, with our posts.

Reply

What Constantine did is not based on a "religious conspiracy" to keep people "away from salvation". It is totally based on the feelings and emotions of a man who believed in Jesus.

Did you know that Constantine was the one who approved of the Trinity concept in church?

Yea well..he did.

Etymology

The concept came to be called the "Trinity" in later years. The word comes from "Trinitas," a Latin abstract noun that means "three-ness," "the property of occurring three at once" or "three are one." The Greek term used for the Christian Trinity, "Τριάς" ("Trias," gen. "Triados") means "a set of three" or "the number three,"[5] and has given the English word triad.

The doctrine of the Trinity is the result of continuous exploration of the Bible by the church, argued in debate and treatises.[6] The concept was expressed in early writings from the beginning of the second century forward.

The first recorded use of the word "Trinity" in Christian theology was in about AD 180 by Theophilus of Antioch who used it, however, to refer to a "triad" of three days: the first three days of Creation, which he then compared to "God, his Word, and his Wisdom." [7][8] He compared the fourth day to humanity, as a needy recipient of the first three, forming a tetrad. The creations in the fourth, fifth, and sixth days are said to intimate both righteous and unrighteous members of humanity. God rested in the seventh day, the Sabbath.

Tertullian, a Latin theologian who wrote in the early third century, is credited with using the words "Trinity" and "person" to explain that the Father, Son and Holy Spirit were "one in essence— not one in Person." [9]

About a century later, in AD 325, the Council of Nicea established the doctrine of the Trinity as orthodoxy and adopted the Nicene Creed that described Christ as "God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance (homoousios) with the Father."

Dark Angel, the reason you don't want to accept that the Bible CLEARLY testifies that Jesus has a father and mother is because you wanna insist the will of men instead of the will of God.

By: Elijah on May 19, 2008 at 10:55 pm

Reply

2 Peter 1:20-21

20Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation. 21For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

Dark Angel, you keep insisting about Jesus not having a biological father when the Bible CLEARLY testifies that Jesus has a father and mother, Joseph and Mary and has genealogy according to the Bible, not the will of man. Can God do whatever He wants or should we all listen to the opinion of men? Of course God can do whatever He wants. Physically, Jesus has Mary's blood and Mary came from the tribes of Israel. Mary is a believer too. Here's more proof of what the Bible testifies, not the opinion of Dark Angel:

Luke 3:21-38

21When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as he was praying, heaven was opened 22and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased." 23Now Jesus himself was about thirty years old when he began his ministry. He was the son, so it was thought, of Joseph, the son of Heli, 24the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melki, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, 25the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, 26the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda, 27the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, 28the son of Melki, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er, 29the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, 30the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim, 31the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David, 32the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz,

the son of Salmon,[d] the son of Nahshon,
33the son of Amminadab, the son of Ram,[e]
the son of Hezron, the son of Perez,
the son of Judah, 34the son of Jacob,
the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham,
the son of Terah, the son of Nahor,
35the son of Serug, the son of Reu,
the son of Peleg, the son of Eber,
the son of Shelah, 36the son of Cainan,
the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem,
the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, 37the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch,
the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel,
the son of Kenan, 38the son of Enosh,
the son of Seth, the son of Adam,
the son of God.

Dark Angel said "However, if it WERE the case, then Jesus would NOT be a "perfect God", he would be but a Human Being without perfection."

Dark Angel, who are you to insist your own opinion about the will of God for Jesus? Okay let me make it clear for you. As you can see, Adam is the son of God in the genealogy. Is Adam's Father, God, is really his biological Father? Wow, Adam must be as perfect as Jesus and equal to Him huh Dark Angel? See my point, you have to understand the will of God according to the Bible, not from the will of men. God has a purpose for Jesus and Adam and we have to look in the Bible carefully what's actually written on it instead of insisting men's opinion. I hope it's clear to you and to everyone reading this.

Elijah said: "Dark Angel, the reason you don't want to accept that the Bible CLEARLY testifies that Jesus has a father and mother is because you wanna insist the will of men instead of the will of God."

By: Dark Angel on
May 19, 2008
at 11:22 pm

Reply

Ok, so according the list of names in the genealogy from the bible, how does it appear to you? From what I read, everyone connected by blood ancestry...all except for Jesus.

But hey, I guess if the bible says if an Orange fruit is Red, then it must be Red.

Elijah said, "Physically, Jesus has Mary's blood and Mary came from the tribes of Israel. Mary is a believer too."

For the 100th time, Mary is NOT from the tribe of Judah. Doesn't matter if she's from the tribe of Israel or not, Joseph is from the tribe of Judah.

Elijah said, "Is Adam's Father, God, is really his biological Father? Wow, Adam must be as perfect as Jesus and equal to Him huh Dark Angel? See my point, you have to understand the will of God according to the Bible, not from the will of men."

Elijah, isn't Jesus the Alpha and Omega? Adam was created..Jesus wasn't, since he existed a part of the Trinity. "Father, Son, Holy Spirit". And no, I do not see your point according to the Bible which states that Jesus is the before and after.

Adam was created, of course he doesn't have a biological HUMAN father, he's the first Human.

Why even compare a Human with a God? If Adam was perfect, he wouldn't have sinned.

Elijah said, "Dark Angel, who are you to insist your own opinion about the will of God for Jesus?"

I'm a person with the right to think and question, that's who I am.

Any more questions, feel free to ask. I like the way you insist on belittle my intelligence, it makes me smile.

Go do some more research on Constantine.

Elijah, here's some information for you.

By: Dark Angel on
May 19, 2008
at 11:43 pm

A careful analysis of these criteria shows us that, although Jesus was Jewish, he did not fulfill any of the other criteria. An examination of the contradictory accounts of Jesus' genealogy demonstrates a number of difficulties with the fulfillment of the second criterion.

Reply

Specifically, the New Testament claims that Jesus did not have a physical father. The Jewish Scriptures, however, clearly state that a person's genealogy and tribal membership is transmitted exclusively through one's physical father (Numbers 1:18, Jeremiah 33:17).

Therefore, Jesus cannot possibly be a descendent of the tribe of Judah nor of King David and King Solomon.

There are even further problems with any attempts to use the Jewish Scriptures to prove Jesus' genealogy through Joseph, the husband of Mary (Jesus' mother).

For the New Testament claims that Joseph was a descendent of King Jeconiah, who in the Hebrew Bible was cursed to never have a descendent "sitting on the throne of David and ruling any more in Judah" (Jeremiah 22:30). Joseph's genealogy, even if it were transmittable to Jesus, would only serve to further disqualify Jesus as the Messiah.

Finally, there is the problem of the contradictory accounts of Jesus' genealogy in Matthew, Chapter 1 and Luke, Chapter 3. The common Christian explanation of this contradiction claims that Luke's genealogy is that of Jesus' mother, Mary.

However, this is unfounded, even according to the Greek original. In addition, it has already been established that genealogy is transferred solely through the father, making this attempted explanation completely irrelevant.

Even if one could trace one's genealogy through one's mother, there would be the additional problem that Luke 3:31 lists Mary as a descendent of David through Nathan, Solomon's brother, and not through Solomon himself as required according to the prophesy in I Chronicles 22:10 of the Jewish Bible.

Dark Angel, formerly known as King James, does not believe in the creator God testified in the Bible. He believes in man, he believes in oh Lord Buddha. It is quite amusing to hear him argue about the will of God, when he has no idea of what the will of God is.

By: Marcus on May 20, 2008
at 7:12 am

Reply

Tell us Dark Angel how your Lord Buddha will save me from the disasters coming upon this world. You do not have the eyes to see the truth, so all you know how to do is use logical fallacies to attack the word of God. It is quite sad.

You call yourself and independent thinker, you think you have such well thought out arguments using your own wisdom. Your own wisdom will not set you free my friend. This is what you do not see. You do not understand the word of the true Elohim God and you fight with your own wisdom, which is foolishness to God. You are just beating the air tirelessly, to no avail. I truly have pity on you and pray that you will accept the Spirit and the bride testified in the Bible and receive salvation.

The information before Marcus' post is from a Jew's point of view but it still makes a lot of sense no matter if it's from my own mind or not.

By: Dark Angel on May 20, 2008
at 9:12 am

Reply

Marcus, the information about Jesus' genealogy is not fallacy.

The informaton about Constantine making a declaration about separating from the Jews and their laws is not fallacy.

I'm just sharing information. You say that I think this and think that...

Look, I don't claim to be anything but a normal human Being who makes mistakes like everyone else and typos when typing. I'm not "wise" but I'm not a fool either.

I don't need anyone to follow or worship me or put me on a pedestal. The people you are worshipping are just as ignorant as you and I and that's the truth you need to accept.

It's very nice that you know who I am but that doesn't change anything about the information that I posted which were only bits and pieces.

Again, if anyone would like to read the complete information, I will try to find a way to work around the block that is set on this site because this forum does not support links anymore it seems.

You know, I'll just post the links the best that I can. I'm not one to withhold information, the more information available, the better.

By the way, why would you want to get saved by Buddah, Marcus?

What does that have to do with anything besides your God worshipping him throughout most of his life?

Hello all,

By: Dark Angel on
May 20, 2008
at 9:19 am

The information that I posted on Constantine can be found here on Wikipedia:

Reply

Note* please add "http://" in front of the "en".

en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Christianity_and_antisemitism

Here's information on Anti-Semitism, this also includes Constantine and the laws that he created to keep Gentiles separated from the Jews.

By: Dark Angel on
May 20, 2008
at 9:28 am

Reply

Please read all of the information on Wikipedia:

Note* please add "http://" in front of the "en".

en.wikipedia.org/wiki/History_of_antisemitism

Also here's information on the division of the Early Church, before Constantine arrived on the scene as I mentioned earlier.

Note* please add "http://" in front of the "en".

en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Christianity_and_antisemitism

There were problems way before Constantine between the Jews and Gentiles but no one wants to acknowledge that. Oh the early christians were these people that followed this law and that law...whatever.

The early christians were Jews who still observed the law of Judaism. How a religion transformed into something is well that would have been the Gentiles doing since they were not allowed to observe the laws in Judaism, which most importantly includes:

The Passover "the way Jesus did it".

If anyone COG or nonCOG would like to add and share information feel free.

Here's information on Anti-Semitism, this also includes Constantine and the laws that he created to keep Gentiles separated from the Jews.

By: Dark Angel on
May 20, 2008
at 9:41 am

Reply

Please read all of the information on Wikipedia:

Note* please add "http://" in front of the "en".

en.wikipedia.org/wiki/History_of_antisemitism

To be continued...

Also here's information on the DIVISION of the Early Church, before Constantine arrived on the scene as I mentioned earlier.

By: Dark Angel on
May 20, 2008
at 9:45 am

Reply

Note* please add "http://" in front of the "en".

en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Christianity_and_antisemitism

There were problems way before Constantine between the Jews and Gentiles but no one wants to acknowledge that. "Oh the early christians were these people that followed this law and that law"...whatever.

The early christians were Jews who still observed the law of Judaism. How a religion transformed into something is well that would have been the Gentiles doing since they were not allowed to observe the laws in Judaism, which most importantly includes:

The Passover "the way Jesus did it".

The fact is, if you want to get technical, it was the Gentiles who "changed" the laws and they didn't really change the laws, they were just abiding by their own law according to them, since they were not able to follow the laws set for Jews.

The Jewish Christians maintain their regular observance of the Passover "the way Jesus did it" because they were Jews..

So in time, they too were persecuted by the Gentile Christians. Why isn't that mentioned?

I feel pity for these misled COG sheep and pray that God shines his light down upon their confused heads.

By: Sister Sarah on
May 20, 2008
at 9:54 am

Reply

Satan has cast his net and swept these poor souls toward the darkness. These are the end times and Ahnsahnghong is a false prophet who has been sent to draw men and women away from Jesus. The Bible warns us that many false prophets will come in the end times. But we must hold strong and keep the faith.

I pray for these lost sheep who continue to worship this false idol, also known as Ahnsahnghong. May their eyes open to the transgressions being worked upon them. I pray that Jesus wakes them up and shows them the light.

Shine your light upon their heads, Lord. Bless these lost sheep and pull them back into your light. They come from abused relationships and broken homes, Lord. They have troubles deep within their hearts. Heal them Lord and embrace them. Show them the error of their ways.

I pray this to you, Oh Lord.

Amen. Amen and Praise Jesus, Almighty Father above.

Yes Sister Sarah, I too believe in Jesus Christ. This is why the Church of God follows all the teachings of Jesus. Jesus said that when he comes again, he must remind us of everything he said 2000 years ago.

By: marcus on May 20, 2008
at 12:46 pm

Reply

Why must Jesus come a second time to remind us? When we look at history, we can now see the answer. The new covenant that Jesus established 2000 years ago was trampled on by Satan as prophesied, so it should not be any surprise.

Second coming Jesus came with a new name as he prophesied in Revelation. Christ Ahnsahnghong came in accordance with all of the prophecies preaching the new covenant as he did 2000 years ago.

There are those who believe in the prophecies and those who do not. Some do the will of God, some choose not to.

This is why Jesus warned us that not everyone who says, 'Lord' 'Lord' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only those who do the will of God.

Sister Sarah here says with her lips, "praise Jesus!" but chooses not to obey his commands.

I pray that those who do not understand who Ahnsahnghong truly is, will wake up and follow the will of God as stated in the Bible.

False Christs and false prophets, teach man made traditions that lead people away from God. Christ Ahnsahnghong has restored the new covenant of God and has brought back the true gospel of Christ as stated in the Bible.

Christian churches around the world today, lead people away from God by teaching man made customs that will never lead you to salvation. It is only by following the teachings of Christ can we receive salvation.

All praise be to Christ Ahnsahnghong, the second coming Jesus, for bringing back the precious gospel of Christ.

You know, there are many of these "mega churches" springing up all around the world. Their place of worship holds tens of thousands of people and they claim to lead people to Jesus. They are always glamorous in appearance and have many services throughout the weekend.

By: marcus on May 20, 2008

at 1:27 pm

Reply

The shepherds that run these churches unfortunately lead many souls away from God. They only feed themselves.

Ezekiel 34: 7 " 'Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD : 8 As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, because my flock lacks a shepherd and so has been plundered and has become food for all the wild animals, and because my shepherds did not search for my flock but cared for themselves rather than for my flock, 9 therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD : 10 This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against the shepherds and will hold them accountable for my flock. I will remove them from tending the flock so that the shepherds can no longer feed themselves. I will rescue my flock from their mouths, and it will no longer be food for them.

11 " 'For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will search for my sheep and look after them. 12 As a shepherd looks after his scattered flock when he is with them, so will I look after my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness.

God almighty did indeed come 2000 years ago and brought the truth of God to the people. After the shepherd, Jesus Christ, ascended back to heaven, the truth was thrown to the ground as prophesied.

Daniel 8:9 Out of one of them came another horn, which started small but grew in power to the south and to the east and toward the Beautiful Land. 10 It grew until it reached the host of the heavens, and it threw some of the starry host down to the earth and trampled on them. 11 It set itself up to be as great as the Prince of the host; it took away the daily sacrifice from him, and the place of his sanctuary was brought low. 12 Because of rebellion, the host of the saints and the daily sacrifice were given over to it. It prospered in everything it did, and truth was thrown to the ground.

In these last days, many false shepherds have risen all over the world that only feed themselves. They teach a false gospel and lead souls away from salvation.

They shout, "Praise Jesus!" and sing and dance, but they have no truth in them.

Matthew 23:27 — "Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of dead men's bones and everything unclean. 28In the same way, on the outside you appear to people as righteous but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and wickedness.

Hypocrisy in the eyes of Jesus are those who proclaim they believe with their lips, but follow man made teachings.

Matthew 15: You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you:

8" 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

9They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men.'

This is the way false prophets lead people away from God. They teach man made traditions while with their mouth they call on the name of the Lord.

I pray that people will wake up and flee from the false shepherds in this world who are leading people straight to hell.

Marcus, have you gone through any of the links that I have posted? I'm just curious because you mentioned that Satan changed the laws of God.

By: Dark Angel on
May 20, 2008
at 1:44 pm

Reply

Are you referring to Constantine? If so, then how would that explain the division of the early church between the "Christian Jews" and the Christian Gentiles?

What caused the division?

and Why?

Who wanted to separate themselves from who?

Your church blames one guy when clearly it is numerous amounts of people that turned things around...namely the Gentiles.

The Christian Gentiles could not observe the Passover without being circumcised and converting to Judaism.

Which explains the reason for the Christian Passover 'vs' the Jewish Passover. Later on in history, they created their own Passover because of that reason.

The hijacking of someone else's religion.

It's similar to someone entering your home, creating his own rules, then tells you that you must abide by his rules and also pay him rent.

Christian Gentiles apparently had a problem "Jewish Christians", since they were not able to observe the Passover.

Marcus, you yourself should be observing the Passover the way Jesus and his Jewish friends did, if you are not Jewish or a convert to Judaism.

Correction*

By: Dark Angel on
May 20, 2008
at 2:16 pm

Marcus, you yourself should NOT be observing the Passover..etc.

Reply

Hi Elijah,

as you know, I am saying that Jesus did not have a biological father because of the virgin birth.

However you are making it seem as though it is farfetched for you to believe that he was fatherless.

Why believe in Melchizedek to be without physical father and mother, then say that it is impossible for an all-powerful God to appear the same way.

The proof is in the virgin birth story itself. Jesus could not be connected through blood to Joseph. That's all I am saying, no matter what it says in the bible, we both know that Joseph did not have sexual relations with Mary to produce Jesus.

According to the Jews who do not believe Jesus was the Messiah, that would be proof enough for them because you can not have it both ways.

1. Jesus being born of a virgin
2. Jesus being the biological son of Joseph

Which is why they say it is a contradiction.

The Virgin Birth:

The Christian idea of a virgin birth is derived from the verse in Isaiah 7:14 describing an "alma" as giving birth. The word "alma" has always meant a young woman, but Christian theologians came centuries later and translated it as "virgin." This accords Jesus' birth with the first century pagan idea of mortals being impregnated by gods.

Alma – In Hebrew, it is a name for a young woman, a maiden.

cited from Wikipedia

Amen!!!

By: COGInator on May 20, 2008

at 3:19 pm

Reply

Dark Angel, you didn't get my point from my last post. I'm not talking about Adam being the first human created by God. I'm talking about Adam not having a biological parents. You wanna insist that Jesus doesn't have a biological parents so as Adam. Should I put the verse from the Bible again?

By: Elijah on May 20, 2008
at 4:14 pm

Reply

Luke 3:21-38

21When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as he was praying, heaven was opened 22and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased." 23Now Jesus himself was about thirty years old when he began his ministry. He was the son, so it was thought, of Joseph, the son of Heli, 24the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melki, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, 25the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, 26the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda, 27the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, 28the son of Melki, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er, 29the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, 30the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim, 31the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David, 32the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon,[d] the son of Nahshon, 33the son of Amminadab, the son of Ram,[e] the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, 34the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, 35the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah, 36the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, 37the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel, the son of Kenan, 38the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

Clearly it states that "Adam, the son of God." So Adam clearly doesn't have a BIOLOGICAL father. No matter how you flip the Bible upside down, Adam won't have a BIOLOGICAL father. But since Adam is listed on the genealogy tree in the tribes of Judah, Adam still part of the genealogy of tribes of Judah. We have to study this matter carefully. The Bible clearly testifies that Adam, who don't have a BIOLOGICAL father and Jesus, who also don't have a BIOLOGICAL father are listed on the genealogy of the tribes of Judah. This is what the Bible testifies, the Word of God and not the opinion of men.

2 Peter 1:20-21

20Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation. 21For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

So Dark Angel, should we keep the Word of God or the opinion of men? You said that Jesus is the "Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the Last" and Church of God believes in that because it is testified in the Bible. Even if Jesus has a genealogy from the tribes of Judah, that doesn't change the fact He is Son of Man because He fulfill the prophecies of the Son of Man coming in flesh as prophesied in the Old Testament and testified as God in the Bible. It's all about what's testified in the Bible, not the opinion of smart and intelligent men.

Elijah, these anti-Church of God people will not listen to what the Bible says. All they gonna do is insist their own thinking of what is right in the eyes of men and not in the eyes of God. To Ted the Erratic Cheese and his followers, your guys are full of s!

By: Robert on May 20, 2008
at 5:07 pm

Reply

Dark Angel said "Why believe in Melchizedek to be without physical father and mother, then say that it is impossible for an all-powerful God to appear the same way."

By: Elijah on May 20, 2008
at 5:40 pm

Reply

Dark Angel, Melchizedek is a human like us that have a physical father and mother. The Bible clearly testifies that Melchizedek, without a father and mother, without genealogy remain a High Priest forever.

Without a father or mother:

Jesus father Joseph and mother Mary are believers.

Matthew 12:46-50

46While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him.

47Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." [g]

48He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" 49Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. 50For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

Ahnsahnghong came from a Buddhist parents. FULFILLED.

Without genealogy
Jesus came from the tribes of Judah

Luke 3:21-38
21When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as he was praying, heaven was opened 22and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased."
23Now Jesus himself was about thirty years old when he began his ministry. He was the son, so it was thought, of Joseph, the son of Heli, 24the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melki,
the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, 25the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, 26the son of Maath,
the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein,
the son of Josech, the son of Joda, 27the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, 28the son of Melki, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam,
the son of Elmadam, the son of Er, 29the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, 30the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph,
the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim, 31the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan,
the son of David, 32the son of Jesse,
the son of Obed, the son of Boaz,
the son of Salmon,[d] the son of Nahshon,
33the son of Amminadab, the son of Ram,[e]
the son of Hezron, the son of Perez,
the son of Judah, 34the son of Jacob,
the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham,
the son of Terah, the son of Nahor,
35the son of Serug, the son of Reu,
the son of Peleg, the son of Eber,
the son of Shelah, 36the son of Cainan,
the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem,
the son of Noah, the son of Lamech,
37the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch,
the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel,
the son of Kenan, 38the son of Enosh,
the son of Seth, the son of Adam,
the son of God.

Ahnsahnghong is Korean. FULFILLED.

Melchizedek bless us with bread and wine. Jesus brought us the Passover bread and wine. Ahnsahnghong brought us back the Passover bread and wine that was lost according to the prophecies in the Bible. Jesus is Ahnsahnghong in the new name as prophecied in the Bible, without beginning and end of days. FULFILLED.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Dark Angel, if you really believe that Roman Emperor Constantine separated the Christians from Jews, then you should be a Roman Catholic. Being that said, you just admitted that the Roman Catholic is the true church. Well, I can see that their customs is from Roman Emperor Constantine which is the traditions of men. Constantine has no authorization from the Bible to change God's customs like the Passover, Saturday as Sabbath Day. Their customs are Eucharist, Holy Communion, Sunday as their Sabbath and even making December 25th as Jesus birthday. They are all traditions of men.

By: Poland on May 20, 2008
at 7:32 pm

Reply

Matthew 15:5-9 – But you say that if a man says to his father or mother, 'Whatever help you might otherwise have received from me is a gift devoted to God,' he is not to 'honor his father' with it. THUS YOU NULLIFY THE WORD OF GOD FOR THE SAKE OF YOUR TRADITION. You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you: " 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. THEY WORSHIP ME IN VAIN; THEIR TEACHINGS ARE BUT RULES TAUGHT BY MEN.'

I love these phrase from my spiritual brother.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Hey! Elijah after no right answers or documented proof of his history you conclude on the last comment No 696 (just rotate No 9. Now can you see what I see? You bear the sign of beast 666 once again) and claiming that Cog truth won always

By: Jonah on May 20, 2008
at 8:34 pm

Reply

How conveniently you use Melchizedek to cover up the genealogy.

We aren't using pacifiers, sucking over and over on the same old stuff that you keep posting that makes absolutely no sense but we still have the light of Jesus shining brightly on our minds.

As you know-

Satan is not a man or an angel in Heaven. He is actually a fallen angel (AhnsahngHong) who is at war with YHWH God. We must remember that Satan Was Cast-Out of Heaven A Long Time Before Jesus Spoke These Prophetic Words In Matt:24.

"So the great Dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called The Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was cast to The Earth, and his angels were Cast out with him." Rev:12:7-9

"But they did not prevail, neither was a place found for them in Heaven any longer. (So AhnsahngHong used the cave and worked in secret)

Satan attempted to seize the Throne of Heaven and lost.

The Devil and his fallen angels were cast down to earth, never to see Heaven again Satan continues his Unholy Rebellion against GOD by using people as his Human Puppets: Greed, Hatred and Lust Being His Demonic Strings Satan must have a good idea of how much time he has left upon Earth to present Mother the Major Player in End Times Prophecy. Oh Yes you did mention the bride Mrs. Satan wasn't ready then.

Hello Elijah,

By: Dark Angel on
May 20, 2008
at 9:45 pm

In regards to Jesus' genealogy,

Elijah said, "Dark Angel, you didn't get my point from my last post. I'm not talking about Adam being the first human created by God. I'm talking about Adam not having a biological parents. You wanna insist that Jesus doesn't have a biological parents so as Adam. Should I put the verse from the Bible again?" Reply

Elijah, why are you now using Luke 3:21-28 as evidence for Jesus NOT having biological parents, when a few posts ago, you used it to describe him to have a biological parent, which would be Mary his mother?

These are your words from that post:

Elijah said, "Dark Angel, you keep insisting about Jesus not having a biological father when the Bible CLEARLY testifies that Jesus has a father and mother, Joseph and Mary and has genealogy according to the Bible, not the will of man. Can God do whatever He wants or should we all listen to the opinion of men? Of course God can do whatever He wants. Physically, Jesus has Mary's blood and Mary came from the tribes of Israel. Mary is a believer too. Here's more proof of what the Bible testifies, not the opinion of Dark Angel:

Luke 3:21-38"

So according to you, Adam who doesn't have biological parents, is said to be in the tribe of Judah, while Jesus who does have a biological parent, which would be his Mother Mary. How are they similar, Elijah?

This would appear to be a contradiction if you are now using Luke to compare Adam and Jesus as not having biological parents. After I proved to you that Matthew 1:1-17, doesn't apply to Jesus since Mary was a virgin and gave birth to a baby, NOW you want to switch and go with Luke.

These were your words in regards to Matthew,

Elijah said, "Dark Angel, read your Bible correctly.

Matthew 1:1-17

1A record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ the son of David, the son of Abraham:

2Abraham was the father of Isaac,
Isaac the father of Jacob,
Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers,
3Judah the father of Perez and Zerah, whose mother was Tamar,
Perez the father of Hezron,
Hezron the father of Ram,
4Ram the father of Amminadab,
Amminadab the father of Nahshon,
Nahshon the father of Salmon,
5Salmon the father of Boaz, whose mother was Rahab,
Boaz the father of Obed, whose mother was Ruth,
Obed the father of Jesse,
6and Jesse the father of King David.
David was the father of Solomon, whose mother had been Uriah's wife,
7Solomon the father of Rehoboam,
Rehoboam the father of Abijah,
Abijah the father of Asa,
8Asa the father of Jehoshaphat,
Jehoshaphat the father of Jehoram,
Jehoram the father of Uzziah,
9Uzziah the father of Jotham,
Jotham the father of Ahaz,
Ahaz the father of Hezekiah,
10Hezekiah the father of Manasseh,
Manasseh the father of Amon,
Amon the father of Josiah,
11and Josiah the father of Jeconiah[a] and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.
12After the exile to Babylon:
Jeconiah was the father of Shealtiel,
Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel,
13Zerubbabel the father of Abiud,
Abiud the father of Eliakim,
Eliakim the father of Azor,
14Azor the father of Zadok,
Zadok the father of Akim,
Akim the father of Eliud,
15Eliud the father of Eleazar,
Eleazar the father of Matthan,
Matthan the father of Jacob,
16and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.
17Thus there were fourteen generations in all from Abraham to David, fourteen from David to the exile to Babylon, and fourteen from the exile to the Christ.[b]

Dark Angel, do you know better than God's word? This is what the Bible says. If you think your better than God's words then you might as well delete these entire section from Matthew. Clearly, Jesus came from a family with genealogy from twelve tribes of Israel, in other words with Jewish blood. So Dark Angel, does Jesus have a father and mother here on Earth? Yes, Joseph and Virgin Mary are Jesus father and mother here on Earth."

Elijah, in the beginning of our discussion, you used Matthew to try to prove that Jesus is from the Tribe of Judah and had a biological Father through Joseph, which of course is not true, due to the virgin birth. Then you switched your answer to say that it is Mary, who is a part of the Tribe of Judah.

As I said before, in Jewish tradition, the MALE or Father determines the TRIBE and the FEMALE or Mother determines the Jewish heritage.

1 Chronicles 22:10 and 2 Chronicles 7:18, implies that the Messiah would be in the lineage of King Solomon, son of King David.

Joseph, would fall under that genealogy, however, Mary would not. So again, one can trace the lineage in Luke but it states that Mary is a descendant of Nathan, brother of Solomon and son of King David. That is NOT the requirement of the Messiah according to 1 Chronicles 22:10 of the Jewish Bible.

You have used Luke to prove that he was born WITH biological parent, which would be Mary and WITHOUT Father, like Adam.

So basically, both Luke and Matthew shows that Jesus is without biological Father, since you are using Luke which points to Mary's genealogy. You just said it in your own post in regards to Luke.

However, the bible says the Messiah must come through the lineage of King David and King Solomon. Therefore, proving that Joseph is not Jesus' biological father, still rendering him Fatherless and you've just proved that he's Fatherless by using Luke.

Elijah, you tell me to study my bible, perhaps you should take your own advice?

Elijah said, "Dark Angel, Melchizedek is a human like us that have a physical father and mother. The Bible clearly testifies that Melchizedek, without a father and mother, without genealogy remain a High Priest forever.

By: Dark Angel on
May 20, 2008
at 10:32 pm

Reply

Without a father or mother:
Jesus father Joseph and mother Mary are believers."

Elijah, I think you are screwing up your own doctrine. According to the COG, Melchizedek does not have physical Father nor Physical Mother. Now you guys have changed up your answer to say that he does.

Use your bible to show me that Melchizedek had parents because according to you, if it's not written in the bible, then it is not valid. So, point out the names of his parents.

You guys base the Old Testament on the "physical" and the New Testament on the "spiritual". So according to your church, "spiritually" Ahnsahnghong is without genealogy because his parents were "nonbelievers".

Which then, SHOULD coincides with the "shadow" of the Old Testament in regards to Melchizedek being without genealogy, which should mean no physical or Parents.

You contradict yourself and here's why.

1. Your church refers to Jerusalem in the Old Testament as the physical, then, you all refer to Jerusalem in the New Testament as the spiritual.

2. Your church refers to the Old Testament's Passover as the physical, then, you all refer to the New Testament's Passover (the way Jesus did it) as the spiritual.

Everything seems to be based on the physical in the Old Testament while things are based on the Spiritual in the New Testament.

So now, you're saying that Melchizedek had physical parents while admitting that Ahnsahnghong had physical parents as well.

There is no "physical/spiritual" pattern if both of them had physical parents.

If "without genealogy" means that Melchizedek had parents who were nonbelievers, then, as my memory serves me right, a COG member mentioned that Melchizedek was literally without parents, a mystery.

I'll try to find that information because what you have stated totally contradicts what I've been told by a COG member.

Elijah said, "Dark Angel, if you really believe that Roman Emperor Constantine separated the Christians from Jews, then you should be a Roman Catholic. Being that said, you just admitted that the Roman Catholic is the true church. Well, I can see that their customs is from Roman Emperor Constantine which is the traditions of men. Constantine has no authorization from the Bible to change God's customs like the Passover, Saturday as Sabbath Day. Their customs are Eucharist, Holy Communion, Sunday as their Sabbath and even making December 25th as Jesus birthday. They are all traditions of men."

By: Dark Angel on
May 20, 2008
at 10:47 pm

Reply

Elijah, the Jews who followed Christ were still following the laws mainly during Passover, while the Gentiles who followed Christ could not observe it unless they convert to Judaism.

The law in which Gentiles should not partake in the Passover still remained even when Jesus was observing with his blood and flesh command.

There were Gentiles were present. I'm saying, the problems existed way before Constantine and the problem was whether if Gentiles could partake in the Jewish Passover or not, that in turn caused division.

I don't care what church is true. I am saying your church states that the problems started with Constantine.

Tell me, how would Christian Gentiles be able to observe the Passover the way Jesus? I'm sure you are aware of the law that states no uncircumcised person can partake in it.

Are you a Jew? If not, then why are you observing the Passover the way Jesus did?

Why are you observing feasts that has nothing to do with your culture heritage and history?

What tribe are you from Elijah, since you want to partake in Jewish traditions?

Sorry, the last post was directed to Poland, not you Elijah. My mistake. I'm just so used to seeing your name.

By: Dark Angel on
May 20, 2008
at 10:51 pm

So replace "elijah" with "poland" and we're good.

Reply

Elijah said,

"Without a father or mother:
Jesus father Joseph and mother Mary are believers.

By: Dark Angel on
May 20, 2008
at 11:15 pm

Reply

Matthew 12:46-50

46While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him.
47Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." [g]
48He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" 49Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. 50For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

Elijah, what doesn't make any sense is that you say,
"Without a father or mother:
Jesus father Joseph and mother Mary are believers."

If Jesus' Mother and Father are believers, how is Jesus without Mother and Father?

Ahnsahngong's parents were not believers in God, yet you say that means without Mother and Father.

While Joseph and Mary were believers in God. Then you post scripture about him denying his parents. Hmm, that doesn't quite fit, Elijah.

If Jesus is denying his parents because they are doing the "Will of his Father" then yes, according to your logic, he is without Mother and Father, therefore, that fulfilling the Melchizedek prophecy that you claim Ahnsahngong did.

You're really not making any sense because you said that Jesus did NOT come in the order of Melchizedek, then you post scripture that he did.

Elijah's words,

- "1) He will bless us with eternal life through the Passover bread and wine.
- 2) He will be born among unbelievers ("without father or mother").
- 3) He will be born of Gentiles ("without genealogy").
- 4) He is God ("without beginning of days or end of life").

Clearly, Jesus was testified as the spiritual Melchizedek because He bless us with Passover bread and wine. He is also God, without beginning of days or end of life. He fulfill number one and number four. Dark Angel, is Jesus born among unbelievers? Joseph and Mary are believers. Dark Angel, does Jesus have genealogy? Jesus was born of the tribe of Judah."

1. Ok he brought he Bread and Wine.
2. According to Matthew 12:46-50, and also according to you, his parents did not follow the Will of his Father, so technically, they were not believers.
3. We've already gone over the genealogy situation. He clearly was not of the Tribe of Judah if he was born of the virgin Mary and Mary's genealogy is through Nathan, not Solomon.
4. Yes it is said that he was a God.

Dark Angel, you didn't get my point. Again, Adam and Jesus both don't have a biological parents but the are still part of the tribes of Judah. The Bible doesn't contradict itself Dark Angel but you are making your own opinion about it. The Bible is written as it is Word of God, not with the thoughts of men. If the Bible testifies that Jesus has a genealogy in the tribes of Judah even though He doesn't have a biological parents, He still have a genealogy in the tribes of Judah just like Adam. I agree with you about Mary as testified in the Bible but you can't change how the Bible is written that Jesus has a genealogy in the tribes of Judah. It is clear as the most precious crystal. Perhaps you might as well delete that section in Matthew and Luke Dark Angel.

On the other hand, Christ Ahnsahnghong, a Korean, still fulfilled the Order of Melchizedek since He is not a descendant in the tribes of Judah. He is the Second Christ, the Wonderful Counselor, the Holy Spirit.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Dark Angel said "Are you a Jew? If not, then why are you observing the Passover the way Jesus did?"

By: Elijah on May 20, 2008
at 11:17 pm

Reply

By: Elijah on May 20,
2008
at 11:53 pm

Why are you observing feasts that has nothing to do with your culture heritage and history?

Reply

What tribe are you from Elijah, since you want to partake in Jewish traditions?"

And also Dark Angel said "3. We've already gone over the genealogy situation. He clearly was not of the Tribe of Judah if he was born of the virgin Mary and Mary's genealogy is through Nathan, not Solomon."

Dark Angel, can you listen to yourself first before you contradict yourself. Your saying that Gentiles cannot partake with the Passover while your saying that Jesus is not a Jew and He partakes on it. So how can you say that it is only for Jews when you say that He Himself in not from the tribes of Judah? Wow, your contradicting yourself Dark Angel. So, can Church of God partake on it? Of course.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Hi Elijah, I understand what you are saying. I also see what it says in the bible. However, this argument of whether Jesus coming through the lineage of David and Solomon has already been answer by the Jews themselves.

By: Dark Angel on
May 21, 2008
at 3:07 am

Reply

If the Messiah is said to come through the seed of David, which is Solomon, then it must be through Joseph's loins, not through a virgin birth.

Christians once referred to the genealogy record as Joseph's. When people started to question it, then they changed it to Mary's genealogy.

The record in Luke may show that Mary is from the tribe of Judah but not through Solomon. It would be through Nathan his brother, which according to the bible, it must be through Solomon.

Elijah, I am not contradicting myself.

I've said that Jesus is a Jew through Mary his mother. Yes his mother is a Jew, which naturally makes Jesus a Jew.

However TRIBE is identified through the Father, NOT the Mother.

Not a contradiction, please look up the information or buy a book on Jewish tradition or you can either ask someone that is a Jew how tribe is indentified.

Again,

The Mother Identifies the child to be Jewish

The Father Identifies the tribe of the child.

Mother's can not indentify both Jewish indentity and Tribe.

So yes, Jesus is a Jew through Mary. Seed of Solomon? No.

Seed of Nathan..perhaps.

Lastly Gentiles can not partake in the Passover.

After all of the information that I typed, I don't know what to say if you are still disagreeing.

Anyway, thanks for the discussion, Elijah.

What I've stated about geneaology is according to Jewish tradition and according to I Chronicles 22:10 of the Jewish Bible.

By: Dark Angel on May 21, 2008 at 3:14 am

I am not making anything up, Elijah.

Reply

Thanks.

Dark Angel said "Elijah, I am not contradicting myself.

By: Elijah on May 21, 2008 at 3:40 am

I've said that Jesus is a Jew through Mary his mother. Yes his mother is a Jew, which naturally makes Jesus a Jew.

Reply

However TRIBE is identified through the Father, NOT the Mother."

Dark Angel, you are still contradicting yourself. Jesus Passover of the new covenant is still for all people who want to have eternal life, just as Jesus promised in the Bible and no one can alter that in their own way because it makes it become "tradition of men." An example in the Old Testament, when Moses went up in Mt. Sinai, the people decided to worship God in their own way, making a golden calf and clearly God punish them so you can't worship God on your own way. Follow what God testifies in the Bible and that would keep you safe. Also, you can't change the fact that Jesus has a genealogy in the tribe of Judah as testified clearly in the Bible. So far you have only given your own opinion in the will of men, not from the Bible. When you say that TRIBE is only given through the father is the fact of men, not what the Bible testifies that Jesus has a genealogy in the tribe of Judah just like Adam who don't have a biological father. Good information you have though but again, what your doing is looking at it in the opinion of men, not what the Bible testifies. I'll give it to you, your a smart guy, perhaps smarter than me in the will of men.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Elijah, I've said what I had to say. If you were to study the history and traditions of the Jews, you will what I am talking about.

By: Dark Angel on
May 21, 2008
at 4:04 am

Reply

If the Passover was for everyone to observe the way Jesus did it, then, there wouldn't have been division amongst the "Christian Jews" and the Gentile Christians.

Jesus may have said that his blood and body is for everyone, however, what stopped the Christian Gentiles from observing after Paul spread the word to the Gentiles?

Gentiles were not able to partake in the custom. Also, the Messiah coming from the Tribe of Judah through David and Solomon is not man's will, it's in the bible I Chronicles 22:1-19.

I was going to post the scripture about Gentiles not partaking in the Passover "the way Jesus did it" but I'm sure you know where it can be found.

You are referring to the Jewish custom and traditions as the "will of men". They were doing this in the times of Jesus and before him.

Gentiles not being able to partake in the Passover is not the "will of men", Elijah. It is law.

Dark Angel said "Jesus may have said that his blood and body is for everyone, however, what stopped the Christian Gentiles from observing after Paul spread the word to the Gentiles?"

By: Elijah on May 21,
2008
at 4:55 am

Reply

Passover of the new covenant is for everyone Dark Angel. It is Jesus promised for everyone that through His body and blood we can have eternal life. Jesus didn't just came for the Jews but all the people in this world to save all of us because we are lost.

Luke 19:10

10For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost."

Just as the King of Tyre was thrown to the Earth because of sin, so as everyone in human flesh.

Ezekiel 28:11-17

11 The word of the LORD came to me: 12 "Son of man, take up a lament concerning the king of Tyre and say to him: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

" 'You were the model of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

13 You were in Eden, the garden of God;

every precious stone adorned you:
ruby, topaz and emerald, chrysolite, onyx and jasper,
sapphire, [b] turquoise and beryl. [c]
Your settings and mountings [d] were made of gold;

on the day you were created they were prepared.

14 You were anointed as a guardian cherub, for so I ordained you.
You were on the holy mount of God;
you walked among the fiery stones.

15 You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created till wickedness was found in you.

16 Through your widespread trade you were filled with violence, and you sinned.
So I drove you in disgrace from the mount of God, and I expelled you, O guardian cherub, from among the fiery stones.

17 Your heart became proud on account of your beauty, and you corrupted your wisdom because of your splendor.
So I threw you to the earth;
I made a spectacle of you before kings.

Romans 6:23

23For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Dark Angel, we are here on Earth because of sin. We are all in Heaven before just like the King of Tyre. Clearly the wages of sin is death. God is merciful that He gave us a way to have life and return to Heaven. It is through Christ Jesus our Lord, His body and blood which is the Passover of the new covenant.

John 6:53-56

53Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. 56Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.

Luke 22:7-23

7Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. 8Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover."
9"Where do you want us to prepare for it?" they asked.

10He replied, "As you enter the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him to the house that he enters, 11and say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' 12He will show you a large upper room, all furnished. Make preparations there."

13They left and found things just as Jesus had told them.
So they prepared the Passover.

14When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. 15And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. 16For I tell you, I will not eat it again until it finds fulfillment in the kingdom of God."

17After taking the cup, he gave thanks and said, "Take this and divide it among you. 18For I tell you I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

19And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; DO THIS IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME."

20In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

Clearly Jesus told us to do the Passover in remembrance of Him. So if men insist that we change the name of the Passover to Eucharist or Communion and do it in our own way, are we really following Jesus words? Of course not. If we do it whenever we want then it becomes "tradition of men". Dark Angel, that is Jesus law which is God's law, not Jewish law.

Dark Angel, you need to start following God according to the Bible not what is right in the eyes of men. Keeping God's words keep us all safe just as God showed all the examples in the Old Testament.

By: Elijah on May 21, 2008
at 4:59 am

Reply

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

There are about 850 denominations on this earth. Nowadays, so many churches proclaim to have the true gospel. Many say the gospel is music, or just the word of God, but they don't understand what is the true gospel Jesus Christ came to preach 2000 years ago. We have to understand through the Bible because there cant be 850 different gospels.

By: Elijah on May 21, 2008
at 5:04 am

Reply

Ephesians 3:6This mystery is that through the gospel the Gentiles are heirs together with Israel, members together of one body, and sharers together in the promise in Christ Jesus. I became a servant of this gospel by the gift of God's grace given me through the working of his power.

Then only through the gospel we can be heirs of God, members of one body and sharers in the promise. Also, Paul mentioned that he was a servant of this gospel. Then what is this gospel?

Romans 15:16 to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles with the priestly duty of proclaiming the gospel of God, so that the Gentiles might become an offering acceptable to God, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

As stated above, his ministry was to proclaim the gospel. However the following verse says he was a minister of a new covenant!..

2 Corinthians 3:6 He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant—not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

Then what does this mean? Paul had two ministries? Absolutely not. The gospel is the new covenant. then what is the new covenant?

Luke 22:15 And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

Luke 22:19-And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

Then, clearly we can see that the new covenant is the Passover feast. Then, what is the gospel? it is the Passover! If we do not keep the Passover, we can not say we have the true gospel in our church. This is why the World Mission Society Church of God keeps the Passover faithfully. If we keep another gospel (passover), we will sin against God.

Galatians 1:6-I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you by the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel (passover)— which is really no gospel(passover) at all. Evidently some people are throwing you into confusion and are trying to pervert the gospel (passover) of Christ. But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel(passover) other than the one we preached to you, let him be eternally condemned! As we have already said, so now I say again: If anybody is preaching to you a gospel (passover) other than what you accepted, let him be eternally condemned!

We must keep the Passover and preach the Passover. Communion and Eucharist is a different gospel from the one the Apostles preached. They never kept communion or sacrament or Eucharist. They kept the true gospel-Passover.

1 Corinthians 5:7-Get rid of the old yeast that you may be a new batch without yeast—as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. Therefore let us keep the Festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with bread without yeast, the bread of sincerity and truth.

Which festival did Apostle Paul keep and teach to keep? The Passover Festival!

If we want to be heirs of God, sharers in the promise and one body in Christ, we must keep the Passover. Ahnsahnghong Christ came as prophesied and taught us the true Gospel of Christ. Second Coming Christ came and taught us all the mysteries hidden for ages and generations.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Ok Elijah, I now have some time to fully respond to you.

By: Dark Angel on
May 21, 2008
at 6:48 am

You said, "Clearly Jesus told us to do the Passover in remembrance of Him. So if men insist that we change the name of the Passover to Eucharist or Communion and do it in our own way, are we really following Jesus words? Of course not. If we do it whenever we want then it becomes "tradition of men". Dark Angel, that is Jesus law which is God's law, not Jewish law."

Reply

Elijah, it is not "Jewish law" it is God's law in which the Jews abide by.

The early adherents of Jesus were Jews and they remained a sect within Judaism, observing most of the Jewish religious practices, laws, and customs.

They even participated in the rituals at the Temple.

Only when Paul, a Jew from Tarsus, joined the movement and convinced the followers of Jesus to accept Non-Jews (Gentiles) in their ranks, did the birth and rapid growth of Christianity take place.

According to the bible in regards to the Passover in which the Jews that followed Jesus observed Gentiles are NOT to participate.

It state here:

Exodus 12:43 – "God said to Moses and Aaron, 'This is the law of the Passover sacrifice:

No outsider may eat it. "

However, only when a person has converted to Judaism were they able to partake in the Passover as stated here:

Exodus 12:48 – "When a proselyte (A person who has converted to Judaism) joins you and wants to offer the Passover sacrifice to God, every male [in his household] must be circumcised. He may then join in the observance, and be like a native-born [Israelite]. But no uncircumcised (NON-JEW) man may eat [the sacrifice]."

If you were to read through Exodus 12: 1-51, it states who may observe the Passover and who can not. Gentiles could NOT observe the Passover unless they converted to Judaism, I can not stress that enough.

You want to ignore that part.

That being said,

Christians say that Jesus fulfilled these laws, therefore freeing the Jews from the laws that kept them in bondage. Freeing them from animals sacrifice, freeing them from festivals and feasts etc. and here is the scripture that is used:

In Colossians chapter 2:13 -17, the Bible says that people are not required to keep the old testament laws.

“Colossians 2:13 – Being dead through your sins and the evil condition of your flesh, God gave life together through our Lord Jesus Christ , and forgiveness of all our sins

Colossians 2:14 – Having put an end to the law which was against us, taking it out of the way by nailing it to his cross

Colossians 2:15 – Having made himself free from the rule of authorities and powers, he put them openly to shame, glorying over them in it.

Colossians 2:16 – For this reason let no man be your judge in any question of food or drink or feast days or new moons or Sabbaths

Colossians 2:17 – For these are the shadow of the things which are to come; but the reality is Christ.”

After the division between the Jews of followed Christ and the Gentiles who followed Christ, this was used against the “Christian Jews” who still adhered to the laws of Judaism.

The Gentiles dropped many Jewish practices from that point on, the majority of the new converts to Christianity would be former pagans, not Jews.

The gospels may have been written in Aramaic, the language of the Jews, they were soon translated into Greek for the benefit of the Gentiles. Which doesn't exclude that fact that certain words were mistranslated and certain key factors misunderstood.

Christianity became powerful with Gentile converts who did not like wel to Judaism and especially the Jews who denied Jesus as their Messiah.

Elijah, even if you wanted to observe Passover the way Jesus did, you wouldn't be able to according to the law in Exodus, unless however, you were a convert or descendant.

Elijah,

I think we've already gone through all of this before in regards to the Passover .

By: Dark Angel on
May 21, 2008
at 7:02 am

Reply

Most churches do observe it ,but according to 1 Corinthians 11:20, Gentile Christians called it "the Lord's Supper " .

The church of God just use a different name for it which would be "the Passover".

The "the Lord's Supper " and your "Passover" is the same thing.

The "Passover" is a shadow, and the reality is Jesus' "Blood and Body" which they observe as the Lords Supper.

Why didn't Constantine just abolish the act of eating the Body and drinking the Blood of Christ?

Why allow that to remain?

Why allow the bible to exist if his true agenda was to keep the people from eating the Body and drinking the Blood of Christ?

That doesn't make any sense.

Paul shouldn't have allowed Gentiles to participate in something that didn't belong to them.

Which is why I gave the example of someone breaking into your home and declaring new house rules for you to follow.

I think this discussion has gone on long enough in regards to the Passover and Jesus' genealogy. People can either take it or leave it.

The fact is, no one has answered Donnie's questions in regards to Mother Jerusalem. I apologize to Donnie for getting caught up in this discussion and drowning out his very good questions.

Thanks for the chat, Elijah.

Hello,

In Acts 15, according to the scriptures, the confusion was made clear by Paul.

By: Dark Angel on
May 21, 2008
at 8:52 am

Reply

The Church leaders from Antioch ,Syria and Judea told people they need to keep the Laws of Moses.

But Paul didn't keep Moses Law.

ACTS 15:24 – " Since we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, saying You must be circumcised and keep Moses Law, to whom we gave no such teaching."

The feast of Unleavened bread was part of Moses

Teaching, and Paul never said preached to the Gentiles that it is necessary to keep the law of Moses.

In Galatians Chapter 4 , Paul says after accepting Christ , Jesus has redeemed sins of all. So, Jews who accpeted Christ were no longer slave to the laws. They are the children of God. They are not under the bondage of the laws. Paul said if they go back to live under the laws, legal bondage has no purpose in Salvation.

Galatians 4:9 – “But now that you have come to have knowledge of God, or more truly, God has knowledge of you, how is it that you go back again to the poor and feeble first things, desiring to be servants to them again?”

Galatians 4:10 – “You keep days, and months, and fixed times, and years.”

Galatians 4:11 – “I am afraid of you, that I may have been working for you in vain.”

In Galatians 4: 9-11 . Some people after they accept Christ ,they go back to the Moses laws .

They return to their old way of keeping the days (Sabbath) ,the festivals (the feast of Unleavened bread etc.), the monthly new moon and the years.

There you have the division.

So Elijah, if you want to blame someone for changing times and festivals, blame Paul and the Gentiles.

By: Dark Angel on May 21, 2008 at 9:05 am

Reply

His words allowed people to react upon them. You, yourself are a Gentile, Elijah. You should be happy to not be in bondage, but then again, your church goes back to bondage and the laws.

By: Dark Angel on May 21, 2008 at 9:08 am

Reply

Elijah said “Church of God’s truth=Won Always!”

By: COGInator on May 21, 2008 at 12:27 pm

Translation: CoG’s truth = one always! Which is directed at being the one true cult!

Reply

HA !!!!! I kill me!!!! LOL ROFLMAO!!!

Apparently King James, you do not understand the difference between the Law of Moses and the Law of Christ.

By: marcus on May 21, 2008 at 2:20 pm

The feasts of God never disappeared. The Law of Moses Reply was fulfilled by the Law of Christ.

Matthew 5:17"Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. 18I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished. 19Anyone who breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practices and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Apostle Paul understood that the Law of God changed.

Hebrews 7:12 — For when there is a change of the priesthood, there must also be a change of the law.

What law did the Law of Moses change to? The Law of Christ.

1 Corinthians 9: 19Though I am free and belong to no man, I make myself a slave to everyone, to win as many as possible. 20To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law), so as to win those under the law. 21To those not having the law I became like one not having the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law), so as to win those not having the law.

The feasts of GOD still exist and were never abolished. The Law of Moses was changed to the Law of Christ.

Under the Law of Moses, all the feasts were done with animal sacrifices. These were a shadow of the things to come. Jesus came as the fulfillment of all the sacrifices. Now when we keep the feasts, we do not need to sacrifice animals.

There is so much more to this, but God's administration is not revealed to those who insist on keeping man made traditions.

The Church of God does not keep the Law of Moses, we keep the Law of Christ.

The Passover of the New Covenant is celebrated with bread and wine as Jesus set the example. Did Jesus eat the meat of a Passover Lamb and eat bitter herbs? Did he eat unleavened bread for seven days when he established this new covenant Passover?

You clearly do not understand God's administration for salvation. You try to argue God's will from your own viewpoint. Then its no wonder you do not understand.

Can I throw up now, or should I wait til later?

By: COGInator on May 21, 2008
at 2:58 pm

After reading what marcus wrote above, I just want to scream with laughter. It's so obvious how the CoG is twisting the scripture to paint a picture of legalism through guilt. And yet it's painfully obvious that that is not what the bible is teaching.

Reply

When Jesus said, Matthew 5:17 "Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them."

It's clear that he's fulfilling them...meaning that the requirement to obey them is complete. That didn't mean that suddenly it's ok to do wrong, but the legalistic requirement to go to heaven has been removed.

Paul understood this, I understand this, and 99.99% of practicing Christians understand this. The .01% (which are the cult following legal mongering bible twisters) do not.

Paul who was a Jew stated in 1 Corinthians 9:20 that he was not under the law, but acted so as an evangelical tool to teach practicing Jews.

Christ Law is you do what's right, not because it's law, but because it's the right thing to do!!

COGinator said "Paul understood this, I understand this, and 99.99% of practicing Christians understand this. The .01% (which are the cult following legal mongering bible twisters) do not.

By: Elijah on May 21, 2008 at 5:17 pm

Reply

Paul who was a Jew stated in 1 Corinthians 9:20 that he was not under the law, but acted so as an evangelical tool to teach practicing Jews.

Christ Law is you do what's right, not because it's law, but because it's the right thing to do!!"

COGinator, do you understand the will of God? Do you even read your Bible?

Acts 17:2

2As his custom was, Paul went into the synagogue, and on three Sabbath days he reasoned with them from the Scriptures, COGinator, did Paul keep the Sabbath Day? Of course he did. What about Jesus Himself?

Luke 4:16

16He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. And he stood up to read.

COGinator, if Jesus Christ Himself and Apostle Paul kept the Sabbath Day, shouldn't we follow their example? You and Dark Angel keep insisting that we can't follow the customs of Moses's laws in the Old Testament. But what you guys don't understand is that, like marcus said above, Church of God follow the laws of Christ. If Sabbath Day is Jesus and Apostle Paul's customs, it is what we should be following.

1 Corinthians 11:1-2

1 Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ.
2 I praise you for remembering me in everything and for holding to the teachings, just as I passed them on to you.

Clearly, Constantine has no authority to change the laws of Christ. We have to follow what the Bible teaches, not what's the opinion of a Roman Emperor or any men.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Hello Marcus,

You said, "The feasts of God never disappeared. The Law of Moses was fulfilled by the Law of Christ."

By: Dark Angel on
May 21, 2008
at 5:20 pm

Reply

Marcus, the Feasts of God had nothing to do with the Gentiles.

Marcus, what is this referring to? Galatians 4:10 – "You keep days, and months, and fixed times, and years."

It would appear to be referring to:

Days – Jewish Sabbath

Months – New Moons or may refer to the First and Seventh Month, which were held sacred due to the number of Feasts in them

Times – Jewish Festivals

Your church is said to observe all of God's Feasts in the Old Testament.

1. The Passover
2. The Feast of Unleavened Bread
3. The Feast of First Fruits
4. The Feast of Weeks
5. The Feast of Trumpets
6. The Day of Atonement
7. The Feast of Tabernacles

Gentiles are not obligated to those feasts. Also, this would appear to be what Paul was referring to in Galatians 4:10.

Marcus you said, "Under the Law of Moses, all the feasts were done with animal sacrifices. These were a shadow of the things to come. Jesus came as the fulfillment of all the sacrifices. Now when we keep the feasts, we do not need to sacrifice animals."

Well, from what I've read, it would appear that the "Jewish Christians" were doing so. The Original Jewish Chrstians, not the bunch of Gentile Christians in which Paul were teaching.

If the Jews who followed Christ were not observing the Old Law of Moses, then why did Paul get mad at Peter for not sharing a meal with a Gentile who were supposed to be at equal arms with him?

Peter was apparently still observing the Old law, as many were doing.

Also, if the Jewish Christians were not observing the Old Mosaic law, why did Paul have to prove that he was not telling the Jews, to not follow the law?

According to Acts 21:17–26, upon his arrival in Jerusalem, Paul provided information to James regarding his ministry among the Gentiles, it states further that all the Elders were present.

James and the Elders praised God for the report which they received. Afterward the elders informed him of rumors that had been circulating, which stated that he was teaching Jews to forsake observance of the Mosaic law, and the customs of the Jews; including circumcision.

To rebut these rumors, the elders asked Paul to join with four other men in performing the vow of purification according to the Old Mosaic law, in order to disprove the accusations of the Jews. Paul then agreed, and proceeded to perform the vow.

What is the vow of purification? The vow of purification is called Mikveh.

Mikveh – is a specific type of bath designed for the purpose of ritual immersion in Judaism. The word "mikvah", as used in the Hebrew Bible, literally means a "collection" – generally, a collection of water

*cited from Wikipedia

Marcus, does your church perform Mikvah? I bet not. However, the Jews of today who uphold the old Mosaic Law does.

You say the Laws of Moses were changed to the Laws of Christ. Yet, Paul had to prove that he was still abiding by the Old Laws of Moses to the elders.

Also, in Acts 16:1–18:22, Paul and Silas go to Derbe and then Lystra. They are joined by Timothy, the son of a Jewish woman and a Greek man. According to Acts 16:3, Paul circumcises Timothy before leaving.

Circumcision was considered a ritual and a COMMAND by God for Jewish people in Judaism. If Paul were to circumcise a Gentile, that gentile would then be a convert to Judaism, not Christianity.

So if he were observing the law as he claimed to be, why weren't the Gentiles circumcised?

Something doesn't seem to be right, either there is a contradiction or Paul is a liar and agreed to go through Mikveh to save his skin.

So again, Who was Paul referring to when he said this, Galatians 4:10 – "You keep days, and months, and fixed times, and years."

COGinator, if you think that it is gonna be the majority of Christians is right then you are absolutely wrong.

By: Elijah on May 21, 2008
at 5:36 pm

Matthew 7:13-14

13"Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. 14But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

Reply

99% vs .01%? Wait till the Lord comes with fire and execute judgement.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Elijah,

By: Dark Angel on
May 21, 2008
at 5:41 pm

Apostle Paul had to prove to the elders that he was still under the Old Law of Moses. If the elders were under the Law of Christ, then he wouldn't have had to prove anything to them and the "rumors" of him teaching Jews to forsake the Mosaic Law and Jewish customs, including circumcision, wouldn't have come about.

Reply

You say," If Sabbath Day is Jesus and Apostle Paul's customs, it is what we should be following."

In Gal. 6:12-13: "As many as desire to make a good showing in the flesh, these try to compel you to be circumcised, only that they may not suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. For not even those who are circumcised keep the law, but they desire to have you circumcised that they may glory in your flesh."

I guess Paul wasn't abiding by certain customs since his fellow Jews had a problem with him. But when questioned by the elders, he lied and denied the rumors.

Instead of standing up for his rights and telling them..

Col 3:9-11: "Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old man with his deeds, and have put on the new man who is renewed in knowledge according to the image of Him who created him, where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcised nor uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave nor free, but Christ is all and in all."

I still don't see any relevance to Donnie's questions.

*CORRECTION, I said, "Apostle Paul had to prove to the elders that he was still under the Old Law of Moses. If the elders were..etc."

By: Dark Angel on
May 21, 2008
at 5:55 pm

I meant if the elders WERE NOT..etc.

Reply

You know, I'll just post Donnie's question on the Cult Watch forum, hopefully someone will be able to answer.

This has gone from asking basic questions about Ahnsahnghong's and Mother Jerusalem's real life history, to arguing over bible scripture.

Which is distrcting and avoids the real questions...

Think I'll sit this one out seeing that it's not going anywhere.

The World Mission Society Church of God keeps the Feast of God at their appointed times as God commanded us.

By: Elijah on May 21,
2008
at 7:15 pm

Deuteronomy 16:16- Three times a year all your men must appear before the LORD your God at the place he will choose: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Tabernacles. No man should appear before the LORD empty-handed. (Leviticus 23). There are Seven Feast of God of three times. If you read the book of Leviticus chapter 23 you will find them all. The seven feast are the following:

Reply

The Sabbath (weekly feast)

Yearly Feast:

- 1: The Passover Feast
- 2: The Feast of Unleavened Bread
- 3: The Feast of Firsfruits
- 4: The Feast of Weeks
- 5: The Feast of Trumpets
- 6: The Day of Atonement
- 7: The Feast of Tabernacles

The World Mission Society Church of God keeps all these feast as God commanded so that we can be blessed by God. Nowadays, people think that these feast are only supposed to be kept by the Jewish people. However, they do not realize that Jesus Christ also established these Feast in the New Testament. Second Coming Christ

Ahnsahnghong had to come again to this earth and remind us of the commandments of God.

John 14:25- 25"All this I have spoken while still with you. But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.

The World Mission Society Church of God keeps the Feast of God. According to the bible, we must keep the Feast of God at their appointed times.

Deuteronomy 16:16- 16 Three times a year all your men must appear before the LORD your God at the place he will choose: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Tabernacles. No man should appear before the LORD empty-handed: (please click the highlighted verse to view the seven feast of three times –Leviticus 23)

The Seven Feast are to be kept by the children of God. However, we do not keep the Feast of God the way the Jewish kept it. There is the Feast of God under the new covenant established by Christ.

Hebrews 10:1- The law is only a shadow of the good things that are coming—not the realities themselves. For this reason it can never, by the same sacrifices repeated endlessly year after year, make perfect those who draw near to worship.

Mathew 5:17- "Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. 18I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished.

We can see very clearly that Jesus did not come to abolish the law of Moses but to fulfill it. The Law was a shadow, but the reality was found in Christ. Then how did Jesus come to fulfill the law?

Hebrew 7:11- 11If perfection could have been attained through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the law was given to the people), why was there still need for another priest to come—one in the order of Melchizedek, not in the order of Aaron? 12For when there is a change of the priesthood, there must also be a change of the law.

There was not an abolishment but a change of the law. Then how was it changed?

Hebrews 10:8- 8First he said, "Sacrifices and offerings, burnt offerings and sin offerings you did not desire, nor were you pleased with them" (although the law required them to be made). 9Then he said, "Here I am, I have come to do your will." He sets aside the first to establish the second.

Hebrews 10: 18 The former regulation is set aside because it was weak and useless (for the law made nothing perfect), and a better hope is introduced, by which we draw near to God.

The first regulation (law of Moses) was set aside, but there is a second Law!! what is this law?

Hebrews 8:7- For if there had been nothing wrong with that first covenant, no place would have been sought for another. But God found fault with the people and said: "The time is coming, declares the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

verse 13 -By calling this covenant "new," he has made the first one obsolete; and what is obsolete and aging will soon disappear.

The second law is the new covenant! The old covenant is the Law of Moses, but what about the new covenant?

1 Corinthians 9:21 -To those not having the law I became like one not having the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law), so as to win those not having the law.

2 Corinthians 3:6 He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant—not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

Even Apostle Paul said he was under a Law- not the law of Moses, but the Law of Christ! That is why Apostle Paul also said he was a minister of a new covenant- not of the letter (law of Moses) but of the Spirit.

Romans 8:2 because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life set me free from the law of sin and death.

James 1: 25- But the man who looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues to do this, not forgetting what he has heard, but doing it—he will be blessed in what he does.

In Conclusion the law of Christ is the perfect law that we should follow. The World Mission Society Church of God keeps the Feast of the New covenant and not the Old covenant. The Feast of God were never abolished!! They still have to be kept at their appointed times the way Jesus taught us to keep them. (Luke 4:16, Mathew 26:17, Mathew 26:26, 1 Corinthians 15:20, Acts 2:1, John 7:2, verse 10, verse 14, verse 37). The World Mission Society Church of God keeps the Sabbath day, The Passover and Unleavened Bread, The Resurrection Day (Firstfruits), The Day of Pentecost (feast of weeks), Feast of Trumpets, Day of Atonement, and Feast of Tabernacles. If we want to be blessed by God, we must keep the Feast of the New Covenant established by Christ.

How amazing it is that Second Coming Christ Ahnsahnghong came to this earth and let us know how to worship God correctly. Christ Ahnsahnghong taught us the Seven feast of three times! Through the seven feast of God we can receive Eternal Life! The World Mission Society keeps the seven feast of three times because it is the true church established by God Almighty!! God AhnsahngHong is surely our God! Amen.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Good job Bro. Elijah. You what bro, people like Ted the Erratic Cheese and his followers are a bunch losers. All they ALL DAY EVERYDAY is find ways to destroy the true teachings of the Bible which Christ AhnsahngHong brought back when Constantine destroyed it as prophecied in the Bible. GET A LIFE LOSERS!

By: Robert on May 21, 2008 at 8:03 pm

Reply

On the other side which is Church of God's side, when Christ came to this earth, He did everything as an example for us

John 13:15- I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.

The World Mission Society Church of God is and will follow the example of Christ until the end. One of the examples Christ set while being on earth was to keep the Sabbath. He himself kept the Sabbath day as an example for his children.

Luke 4:16-16He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. And he stood up to read.

Jesus did not go every Sunday as was his custom. He went every Sabbath day (Saturday as was His custom). Many say "Jesus kept the Sabbath because He was Jewish". The people that say this fulfill the following verse:

Matthew 22:29 Jesus replied, "You are in error because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God.

These people show they do not know the Scriptures at all!! Jesus was baptized at the age of 30. After that, He began to preach His own gospel. By the way, Jews don't get baptized!! Christ established His own law when He came to earth. That is why it is written:

John 1:1 (NKJV)- The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

It is the Gospel of Jesus, not of the Jews. Then, after his baptism, He began to teach us the correct way to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. One example He set was the Sabbath day. That is why His disciples also followed in His footsteps.

1 Corinthians 11:1 -Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ.

Acts 17:2 As his custom was, Paul went into the synagogue, and on three Sabbath days he reasoned with them from the Scriptures,

Acts 16:13 On the Sabbath we went outside the city gate to the river, where we expected to find a place of prayer. We sat down and began to speak to the women who had gathered there.

Revelation 1:10 On the Lord's Day I was in the Spirit, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet,

What is the Lord's Day?

Mathew 12: 8 For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."
(The Son of Man is Jesus – John 9:35)

Then just as the Disciples followed the example of Christ, so the World Mission Society Church of God also follows. The true Disciples must follow the example of Christ. Not only did Jesus teach us to follow the Sabbath Day, but He also taught us to keep the Passover and the Feast of God.. If we want to enter the Kingdom of Heaven, we must follow in Jesus footsteps.

1 John 2:3- We know that we have come to know him if we obey his commands. The man who says, "I know him," but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But if anyone obeys his word, God's love is truly made complete in him. This is how we know we are in him: 6Whoever claims to live in him must walk as Jesus did.

This is why the World Mission Society Church of God will follow the will of God until the end. God Bless you.

Let me put our logo in this blog.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

What's going brothers and sisters of God's Zion, World Mission Society Church of God. It's very funny that these unbelievers like Donnie want to keep asking about our Jerusalem Mother's biography. Again, they are proving things in men's knowledge. Many Christians who profess to know the bible, do not recognize the existence of Mother God. Even though they study the bible wholeheartedly, they don't come to realize that the bible does not only testify about a Father God, but also about a Mother God. The God who created the heavens and the earth is not only male but also female. They are Elohim God, which in Hebrew means plural of the Supreme God.

By: Poland on May 21, 2008
at 8:28 pm

Reply

Genesis 1:26-27 (New King James Version)

26 Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." 27 So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.

very clearly we can see that the Creator God spoke in plural form. God didn't say "let me make man in my image". God said Let Us make man in Our image". Therefore, out of God's image came out male and female. There is a male image of God and a female image of God. The male image of God all Christians call our Father . Then, how about the female image of God? She is our Mother.

Revelation 22:17-17- The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.

Revelation 21:9One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." 10And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

Then who is the Heavenly Jerusalem?

Galatians 4:26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

The Church 2000 years ago believed in Heavenly Mother!! Nowadays, nobody teaches who is the Heavenly Mother. It is very important for our salvation to know who the Bride is because She will give us Eternal Life!! She says come to all peoples of the world to receive the water of life! The reason World Mission Society Church of God believes in Heavenly Mother is because she is God!! Second Coming Christ Ahnsahnghong came according to prophecy and revealed the bride in these last days. As only the groom can reveal to you his bride, so our Father Ahnsahnghong, the bridegroom, let us know His bride- The New Jerusalem who came down out of heaven as prophesied prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband!!

Revelation 19:7-7Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready. 8Fine linen, bright and clean, was given her to wear." (Fine linen stands for the righteous acts of the saints.) Then the angel said to me, "Write: 'Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb!' " And he added, "These are the true words of God."

Receive the Spirit and the Bride!!

Elijah and Robert, you two are too funny.

You avoid simple questions and lure people into debating about bible scripture. This is an endless cycle.

By: Dark Angel on
May 21, 2008
at 8:45 pm

Reply

Bible scripture has been debated on since the division of christianity.

If you both want me to feed into your bible debates, then, fine I'll be happy to. No one has "won" anything. There is no "victory" in division and confusion.

You all want to separate yourselves from Jewish customs and Christian customs, putting yourselves in your own category.

Please..

Anyway, before I feed into your endless debate on bible scripture I challenge you Elijah, Robert, and or Marcus to answer these simple questions in regards to Mother Jerusalem.

What is her name, how old is she, does she have families (children?, husband?) and how did she get involved in this religion.

Then I'll waste some of my time debating bible scripture with you all, just like other Christian sects do everyday throughout their lives.

Those were questions posted by Donnie which none of you have given a complete question.

By: Dark Angel on
May 21, 2008
at 9:04 pm

If someone ask you for your name and age, are you going quote bible scripture? No, you are going to tell them your name and age. Reply

Similar to how you all fill out information about yourselves to hand over to the church.

So, answer Donnie's simple questions, then you all can claim victory and tell me how "spiritually blinded" I am and how much I need to study the bible and accept Ahnsahnghong all you want.

In exchange that you provide answers to those simple questions.

Dark Angel said "If you both want me to feed into your bible debates, then, fine I'll be happy to. No one has "won" anything. There is no "victory" in division and confusion."

By: Robert on May 21,
2008
at 10:03 pm

Reply

This is how someone who's ignorant in the truth of the Bible speaks. Dark Angel, nobody wins between us if your thinking that this is a contest. The Word of God is God's own words, not ours. Our part is to follow what God says according to His words, the Bible. Even Jesus Christ who is the Son of Man said the Scripture is not His own, it's from His Father.

John 7:14-18 – Not until halfway through the Feast did Jesus go up to the temple courts and begin to teach. The Jews were amazed and asked, "How did this man get such learning without having studied?" Jesus answered, "My teaching is not my own. It comes from him who sent me. If anyone chooses to do God's will, he will find out whether my teaching comes from God or whether I speak on my own. He who speaks on his own does so to gain honor for himself, but he who works for the honor of the one who sent him is a man of truth; there is nothing false about him.

Well, I guess Dark Angel is trying to gain honor for himself. Clearly, Ahnsahng Hong is the Second Coming Christ because He reminded us of what really Jesus taught us 2000 years ago. Don't try to fight it Dark Angel and you will only find yourself fighting against God.

John 13:15-17 – I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. I tell you the truth, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

John 5:31-32 – "If I testify about myself, my testimony is not valid. There is another who testifies in my favor, and I know that his testimony about me is valid.

Did Ahnsahng Hong ever claimed that "Oh, I am God the Holy Spirit, bow down to me my servants"? No, He was humble. He is truly the Second Christ, Jesus new name.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Jesus' mother Mary was visited by a divine being while Buddha's mother Maya had a dream vision in which a white elephant approached her and entered into her to emerge nine months later as the future enlightened one the BUDDHA. The white elephant was a symbol of holiness. This is what Ahsahng Hong followed for 30 years.

By: Jonah on May 22, 2008 at 3:57 am

Reply

If we could bring Jesus and Buddha together for a discussion, neither Jesus nor Buddha would find each other's worldview acceptable. According to Christ, Buddha would certainly not have been spiritual enlightened—far from it. His rejection of a creator God would classify him as a pagan believer, however adept he was at philosophical speculation". In contrast to the claims of Buddhism, Jesus taught that He is the only way (John 17:3); the Scriptures, including His words, would not be corrupted (Matthew 5:17-18; Matthew 24:35); moral absolutes exist (John 12:48); the suffering in this world is real (Luke 13:3); He is the true light (John 1:9; 8:12; 12:46); He utterly rejected polytheism and paganism (Matthew 6:7; 22:37; Luke 4:8); there is no reincarnation or second chances (Luke 16:26); the goal in life is not apathy but involvement (Matthew 25:41ff); He did not claim to be a mere good person or teacher but God in the flesh (John 1:1). In addition, He taught the existence of a personal Creator who makes moral demands and judges (Luke 12:5), and completely Jesus rejected the idea that man by his own efforts can save himself without any outside help (John 8:24; Matthew 20:28; 26:28; John 6:29,47)

So Jesus was Jesus and will always be; he was not a Buddhist or a Hindu or anything else.

Once again

Ahnsahnghong is not humble actually a fallen angel "Wolf in sheep's clothing" and his bride the Major Player in End Times Prophecy who holds the little puppets on her fingertips

How can you win COG's when your God's practiced idolatry and you in turn worship these pagan Gods. How was wesak or mothers day?. Did you offer fruits and a red and blue candle to the goddess.

WAKE UP COG people!!! This is false teaching! There is no salvation as long as you are in a cult.

Jonah you are so full of it.. Ahnsahnghong did not follow BUDDAH for 30 years. He was a 7 day Adventist and thats part of the prophecy of the 7 churches... Not only that HE KEPT THE SABBATH DAY!! His parents were Buddhist. Get your story straight! Everything Ahnsahnghong did was to fulfill prophecies. If it looks like God Acts like God and fullfills pophecies that only God can fulfill... THEN IT IS GOD!

By: Lizzie on May 22, 2008
at 5:03 am

Reply

Thank you Sis. Lizzie. They don't understand the Order of Melchizedek. I don't wanna preached it to them because they wanna look at it in men's opinion instead of what the Bible testifies about the Second Coming Christ.

By: Robert on May 22, 2008
at 5:13 am

Reply

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Lizzie said, "Jonah you are so full of it.. Ahnsahnghong did not follow BUDDAH for 30 years. He was a 7 day Adventist and thats part of the prophecy of the 7 churches... Not only that HE KEPT THE SABBATH DAY!! His parents were Buddhist. Get your story straight! "

By: Dark Angel on May 22, 2008
at 6:01 am

Reply

Lizzie, at what age did Ahnsahnghong JOIN the Seventh Day Adventist church?

The guy was baptized in 1948 at the age of 30. How long does it really take someone to get baptized?

Give me a break with that. How about you get your story straight because it would appear that you do not know as well.

First ELIJAH claims there was NO TRACE of Christianity in 1918, the year Ahndahngong was born, then you say that he wasn't a Buddhist but a Seventh Day Adventist.

Are you serious??

He was baptized in 1948, that is when he ACCEPTED CHRIST and became a Seventh Day Adventist.

You all don't have a clue about your own doctrine. If I didn't point out the Christianity existed in South Korea before Ahnsahnghong was born, you all would still believe that it didn't exist at that time.

Even the SDA church was there before your god was born.

So again Lizzie, how old was Ahndahngdong when he joined the church WITHOUT getting baptized. Did he join at age 21 then decided to get baptized at age 30?

If that were the case, then you all are shooting yourselves in the foot. Please tell em that was the case... oh man.

You all have already gotten the history of the existence of Christianity incorrect, so I want you to add on to your errors.

Robert said, "This is how someone who's ignorant in the truth of the Bible speaks. Dark Angel, nobody wins between us if your thinking that this is a contest."

By: Dark Angel on
May 22, 2008
at 6:12 am

Reply

Robert, I am not the one who puts "Church of God's truth=Won Always!" at the end of my posts. You do as well as Elijah. So apparently, the both of you think it's a contest.

So I am ignorant in "the Truth", yet you all believed that Christianity didn't exist in South Korea in 1918. Wow, I guess you too have fallen victim to ignorance.

Also Lizzie, if your parents are of a certain religious belief, so are you until you are old enough to make your own choices.

NO ONE on this forum was born with authority over their parents.

Was Ahnsahnghong a Seventh Day Adventist at age 5?

Was Ahnsahnghong a Seventh Day Adventist at age 6?

Was Ahnsahnghong a Seventh Day Adventist at age 7?

How about 8, 9, 10, 11?

The KID followed his parents because in Korean culture, the Father does what's write for the child. Just like in every respectful family household.

Stop being unrealistic, no CHILD has any authority over their parents to choose what religion they want or don't want to follow.

Here's a common question that the CoG members are taught to ask " Do you understand the will of God?"

By: COGInator on May 22, 2008 at 7:46 am

I don't think anyone of us will ever know the will of God. Reply
We can read our bibles, we can analyze word origins, and guess to the best of our human abilities, but we will never understand the will of God. So any organization that claims to have absolute authority and knowlege on that is proof in of itself that they are a manipulative organization and more than likely a cult.

In the case of the CoG, there are so many holes, contradictions in thier interpretation of individual scriptures versus reading the bible in it's entirety that thier claim to know what God's intentions are is more than funny...it's embarrassing.

I saw a special on Buddhism in Eastern countries on PBS, and the children have no choice but to follow the religion of thier parents. This would coincide with what the CoG teaches about ASH not finding Christ until his 30's. So the question is, if he's God, why wait the extra years between the time he's no longer under the rule of his parents and the time he was baptized.

By: COGInator on May 22, 2008 at 7:50 am

Reply

This fact would correspond with the Theory that he never claimed to be the second comming of Christ...a fictional statement that made surface after he died...no doubt from the queen B herself. MJ

You see, King James here knows everything about everything.

By: marcus on May 22, 2008 at 8:12 am

I guess Christ Ahnsahnghong is not the Christ because Dark Angel here knows the Bible prophecies and has clearly showed that Christ Ahnsahnghong has not fulfilled them, right?? Reply

WRONG!!

Dark Angel does not believe in the Bible and yet he tries to disprove the Christ with the Bible. And it is only the Bible that testifies who is the Christ. No wonder Dark Angel sounds like a chicken with his head cut off.

He goes to Jewish websites to try and find proofs that Jesus was not the Christ. He uses is own interpretations of the Bible to try and prove that Ahnsahnghong is not the Christ.

Do you see how foolish you sound? I sit here and laugh and you and your buddies here trying to "debunk" the Church of God.

You know nothing of God's will and you sit here and try to tell us what the God's will is. You are an ignorant fool as I have told you many times before.

Since you know you are a fool when it comes to the Word of God, you want to ask questions like, "How old is Mother?" Ha, Ha, Ha!!

Hey guys, maybe if we tell Dark Angel how old Mother is, maybe he will believe!!

Do you guys know how stupid you sound?

Hey, maybe we should do some research into Jesus' history also and see if he committed any crimes in his time. He did seem to hang around low class citizens of his time and grew up in a town that did not have a great reputation.

We have a non-Bible believer arguing the about the Bible.

It's like a used car salesman trying to sell me a washing machine. You sound great, but you do not know what you are talking about. Why don't you sell oh Lord Buddha, King James?? Maybe he can save all of us who are decieved in the Church of God.

I have exposed you last year and here you are still at it, with the same convoluted logic. We will continue to expose you till the last day my friend.

Revelation 12:7 — Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring—those who obey God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus.

BRING IT ON!!

The CogInator said....."I don't think anyone of us will ever know the will of God. We can read our bibles, we can analyze word origins, and guess to the best of our human abilities, but we will never understand the will of God."

By: marcus on May 22, 2008
at 8:18 am

Reply

Ha, Ha, Ha! Wow, I guess no one gets to go to heaven. As Jesus said.....

Matthew 7: 21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

You are an idiot Coginator. Maybe you should read your Bible.

Keep talking.....

Mucas said "I sit here and laugh and you and your buddies here trying to "debunk" the Church of God."

By: COGI nator on May 22, 2008
at 12:34 pm

Reply

We don't have to debunk the CoG for they have "debunked" themselves. If I had a dollar for everytime a CoGbot spewed that question I'd be almost as wealthy as Mother J.

Did you ever think for a minute that the people who disagree with the teaching of the CoG have read it, and do understand...hence why we disagree. It's not our own opinion, it has been discussed, debated, researched, and carefully analyzed for centuries. Are you that naive to think in the last couple of decades a Buddhist born and raised Korean man who finds Christianity (as taught by the SDA) is suddenly on the same level as Jesus Christ? He never claimed it his entire life...so why should you?

I'll tell you why you do...because the sophisticated brainwashing Mother J's team has set in place has found the weak, honed in on the vulnerabilities, and has turned good people into one minded cult recruiters.

How often have you doubted the doctrine that the CoG teaches. Once, twice, three....dozens. You know why you doubted it? Because it didn't make sense to you. They you blindly brought up your doubt to you deacon and they did a jump around bible job on you...got you more confused, but solidified on what you think you should be understanding and then made you guilty if you admitted that it didn't make sense. You felt that because they are so nice, and so well intentioned, that the right thing to do would be play nice and just follow the group. In cult teachings this is called "Group Think". Where your individual opinion doesn't count against the groups and you are accepted when you think as the group does.

Let me ask you, how much money have you spent going to Korea to the annual pilgrimage. Where is that in the Bible? Is that the census that Joseph and Mary went to. Do you guys meet in a barn stable? Or is a huge and expensively built auditorium that focuses on the CoG and not on God himself?

Dark Angel as a better understanding of the Bible than any Deacon the CoG has. He doesn't have to believe what the bible is teaching to point out the doctrine errors the CoG promulgates. I bet he's more of a believer than he lets on to believing...and if he's not the Lord is softening his heart. So I for one am thankful to have him seriously reviewing the teaching of the CoG and finding faults in what is being taught.

The one thing you all (CoG people) should be thankful for is the parable of the Prodigal Son.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Prodigal_Son

At least when you do come back, from your joy ride of pointing out the splinters in everyone's eyes. Our Father who art in Heaven, will be welcoming you back with open arms. He will heal you and help you get out the two by four sticking out of your eyes.

To summarize...research the "Law of Love".

God Bless all, and may your eyes to the truth of the bilbe be reopened.

Marcus said "You are an idiot Coginator. Maybe you should read your Bible."

By: COGInator on May 22, 2008 at 12:37 pm

Is that what your church teaches about loving your neighbor.

Reply

Wow...your setting a great example, but more importantly proving to all who are reading this and wondering if for just a moment, the CoG could be infact the one true church...

I guess they know now.

Keep up the stellar attitude that you are learing from your church leaders...it helps with our arguement that you church is nothing more than a cult.

Matthew 7: 21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

By: COGInator on May 22, 2008 at 12:42 pm

Reply

BTW, Marcus, it says he who does the will, not he who misinterprets it and acts on that misinterpretation goes to heaven. Also where does it say to worship a false idol as God's will? I read my bible and didn't find that passage...could you as so kind as to point it out to me. Thanks.

God Bless!

The C O G I n a t o r said, "I'll tell you why you do...because the sophisticated brainwashing Mother J's team has set in placed has found the weak, honed in on the vulnerabilities, and has turned good people into one minded cult recruiters."

By: marcus on May 22, 2008 at 1:45 pm

Reply

Yes, I figured that this line was coming. You guys seem to make the same arguments.

Now I'm just a weak, vulnerable little robot who has been taken captive by the evil church of God.

I forgot that you know me better than I do. I am fascinated when people like yourself insult the intelligence of others.

C O G i n a t o r said, "BTW, Marcus, it says he who does the will, not he who misinterprets it and acts on that misinterpretation goes to heaven. "

Let's see the church of God keeps the teachings of Jesus Christ. Let us see what Jesus said shall we...

Luke 22:14When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. 15And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.19And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me."

20In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

Jesus gave his flesh and blood through the Passover bread and wine. He said this is poured out for "YOU". Who needs the forgiveness of sins? YOU!, all of us.

The early church kept Jesus command and kept the Passover of the NEW COVENANT, by eating the bread and wine on the 14th day of the 1st month as GOD commanded.

What do you not understand about this? Is Jesus' language not clear to you? The will of God is found in the Bible, you should check it out and follow it some time.

Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled the prophecies of the second coming Jesus in these last days. This is the reason and the only reason he is the second coming Christ. Only through Bible prophecy can we recognize the Christ.

The difference is that you do not believe the prophecies. You follow man made traditions, and despise the commands of God.

Why are you so blind? I pray that God will open your eyes so you can see the truth in the Bible.

Here is what Jamie wrote in another forum.....

By: marcus on May 22, 2008 at 1:57 pm

"Howdy all. I've decided to create a blog that examines in depth the doctrines and teachings of the CoG WMS, and that critically questions them. I've been very provoked by their nonsense over at my normal blog, so I decided to have at them in a more organized and thorough way.

Reply

It's at questionsaboutcogwms.wordpress.com

I plan to take one issue at a time and systematically expose and destroy their teachings using the bible, sound reasoning, and recent and as well as ancient church history to show. It's going to be done in a non-confrontational, non-polemical manner (I'm faking as a person who's seemingly interested in converting if I can get my questions answered because I don't have adequate protection against defamation lawsuits here in Singapore), and will end up with questions to be answered by them (which I don't expect them to do anyway). I actually hope that by making people think I can turn some of them away from CoG. I managed to get someone to start questioning CoG's teachings, and as far as I know now he's stopped going to their services. Thus, I feel there's hope for some of them.

I will start with some of these doctrines (some are pretty big, so I might have to break them into pieces):

- 1) The veil
- 2) Mother Jerusalem in the Bible
- 3) The Cross being idol worship
- 4) Proofs that Ang Sahn Hong is the second coming Christ
- 5) The Passover and other feasts are requirements to enter heaven

Also I'd like to address other things that were raised by their members like "CoG must be from God because it has been given awards and it is successful" etc as well as their behavior as so-called followers of God. Many more I can't remember offhand.

I'd love suggestions on anything else I can write about, and the references needed to read up on what they are teaching so that I can do a critical study on them.

Oh, here's the place where they've been spamming me.

<http://jamietalkstogod.wordpress.com/200.....ission-society/>

Jamie

Wow, Jamie wants to use the Bible to argue against the truth of God found in the Bible, like the veil, Passover, prophecies of second coming Christ. Go figure.

Marcus said "Let's see the church of God keeps the teachings of Jesus Christ."

By: COGInator on May 22, 2008 at 3:18 pm

Except love they Neighbor...so are they following all Gods commands?

Reply

Whats hard about this? I won't ask if you read your bible, I'll ask instead; Did you understand it? I think that is where the CoG get's it's influence from. The fact that people read the bible but they don't understand its intentions. So the CoG spins it for thier benefit, and suddenly you feel enlightened...because you now know the real meaning...because the one true church told you. Who told you they were the one true church...they did. Him we're is your third part verification...and don't say the bible because the interpretation is comming from them.

No one is disputing that Jesus followed the passover, sabbath, and all the jewish feasts...he was raised jewish. He made reference that the Passover celebration in the future would be what reminds us of what he was going to do on the cross. So here is where we split at the fork in the road. CoG teaches it's the Passover super that is what Jesus was offering...And the rest of Christianity believes it's what Jesus did for us on the cross that is what was our gift. It's that difference that make the two religions so different. Yours require absolute obedience and no grace. Where Christianity has grace and forgiveness that powers it. That's why you must follow a strict Sabbath, and that's why such rules as these became obsolete in modern Christianity.

Let's just agree to disagree. You follow your religion and I'll follow mine. I'll be happy and you'll be miserable. I'm ok with it if you are!

Easy guys..

Okay I Get your story straight!

Lizzie said: His parents were Buddhist

Robert said: They don't understand the Order of Melchizedek.

Elijah said: No father or mother

It sounds more of a vicious cycle to me. "The wheel of Dharma"

By: Jonah on May 22, 2008
at 5:24 pm

Reply

Now he was in the SDA and is linked with 7 churches. So I assume as soon as he was born the baby was placed on the white elephant and sent to SDA for enlightenment

Refer to this link on how the prophecy idea came to be used by COG

<http://www.giveshare.org/churchhistory/sda/064.sda.html>

Probably at the age of 30 he felt it was too difficult for him to keep up with the precepts of Buddhism and right enough one of the members of SDA knocked on his door and used the same techniques that you go about with. At a point he must have realized Christianity is a good business if the SDA's are the Sabbath-keepers why not I get started something on my own. The word "Bodhi" means to awaken.

He needed a quiet place to work on this thesis you see and the cave was the right one. He has very carefully blended both religions to the extent that almost damaged his brains. I guess at least you know how he died after visiting the COG museum in Korea. Then with Joo Cheol's stolen idea from rest of the cult they presented to you "Passover" the theme of your new doctrine. After all Buddhism believes in reincarnation and with Ahn Sahng Hong as the second coming Jesus who is surely not from the root of David or as high priest Melchizedek but a Buddhist descent and you use the Bible to cause confusion. You know every cult leave a loophole even however hard they try to mislead people

We now have different Churches teaching seven differing categories of 'truth', plus numerous of small, scattered groups and I must conclude COG teaches various shades of 'truth' from the bizarre to utter madness.

Here's a short story for the little children of COG
Buddhism found its way in Korea in the 4th

By: Jonah on May 22, 2008
at 5:26 pm

century. It began around 2,500 years ago in India when Siddhartha Gautama discovered how to bring happiness into the world. He was born around 566 BC, in the Lumbini garden at Rummindei in Nepal. in the small kingdom of Kapilavastu. His father was King Suddhodana and his mother was Queen Maya. At the age of sixteen, Prince Siddhartha married a beautiful princess, Yasodhara

Reply

The date of his birth is unknown as it is based on calendar that varies as per the moon. Yet we know quite a few details about his existence on the earth around 566 B.C than Ahnsahnghong who was born in 1918. It's a pity that we do not know the name of his parents and honor them who gave birth to this spiritual child.

Buddha's teaching is told goes round and round like a great wheel that never stops called "The wheel of Dharma" So for you'll to understand Ahnsahnghong and his bride I think Marcus and the rest must know Buddhism, which is a shadow of Ahnsahnghong's teachings.

Moral of the story is "Look before you leap" and "Receive the light of Jesus Christ"

Marcus this is for you and all who proclaim they read the Bible. Many cults use the Bible and Bible terminology. On the surface they may sound very biblical to

By: Jonah on May 22, 2008 at 5:28 pm

Reply

those not well-grounded in the Scriptures or not well-informed of the cult's doctrine. They skillfully combine biblical truth mixed with error and falsehood, leading many astray. People often get involved in these not realizing their true doctrine To understand the Bible and will of God you need to read the whole of 66 books in there all by yourself.

Please it is my humble request stop tampering with the Bible and using it as a tool for deception and showing your false god who actually stays put like Buddha in Korea Thanks!

As stated "Jonah you are so full of it."

Obviously after the B.S and your repeated post here on this blog makes me sick in the stomach. Just waiting to flush it all down. I need a break.

Bro. marcus, seems like Ted and Jaime are teaming up to destroy the truths in the Bible. Just a reminder for Ted and Jaime.

By: Robert on May 22, 2008 at 6:21 pm

Reply

Acts 5:38-39 – Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail. But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God."

Keep trying till the Lord comes with fire and you guys will be slain.

Jamie said "I have created this place because I have many questions about the various beliefs of the CoG, but so far, none of the CoG members whom I have had contact with have

By: Robert on May 22, 2008
at 8:36 pm

answered my questions. How is one to ever enter into their religion if that is the case? I intend to examine the various teachings and generate questions on what they teach as truth. This is to facilitate a deeper understanding on my part. I simply cannot turn away from mainstream Christianity until these issues are resolved satisfactorily.

Reply

Jesus commands us in the Bible to "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind" (Luke 10:27 and also Mark 12:30). God gave us the ability to think and reason, and to critically examine every teaching and doctrine to see if it lines up with the whole Word of God. The Bereans are a good example of this (Acts 17:11). Therefore, I simply cannot and will not just accept the teachings and doctrines of CoG WMS to be true without these questions going unanswered.

Therefore, CoG members, please help me in this. If you claim that one must obey ALL of God's commandments in order to truly follow God, then please help love God with my mind as I seek to have my questions about your teachings answered. If you do not do that, I can never follow all of His commandments and I will then never be able to become a CoG member. Please don't let my soul be lost! I want to be part of the truth."

Ref: <http://questionsaboutcogwms.wordpress.com/about/>

John 14:21 – Whoever has my commands and obeys them, he is the one who loves me. He who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love him and show myself to him."

Jamie, these are clearly Jesus words that "whoever has His commands and obeys them, he or she is the one who loves Him and he or she will be loved by His father and Jesus too will love him or her and Jesus will show Himself to him or her." What else are you looking for? This is the truth. In the Old Testament, so many examples God showed us that "obeying His words absolutely is the one who loves Him." When God said to Noah to build an ark, Noah didn't hesitate and just follow God. Those who didn't believe were perished. Same with Naaman who washed himself in the dirty river of Jordan 7 times and were healed. To people's common sense, Naaman is crazy for doing such things but we have to remember that keeping God's words absolutely is the only way to show that we love God. These are only a few examples in the Old Testament. Well, I guess Church of God haters think we're crazy for keeping the Passover of the new covenant just as Jesus promised eternal life with it, not what Constantine thinks.

Hello Marcus,

By: Dark Angel on
May 22, 2008
at 8:37 pm

Ok as always, you like to turn the focus to me. It is not about me, it's about Ahnsahnghong. I knew that you were Ryan or John, or Baxter28, way before the Icons to the right appeared and I didn't have to be Omniscient to see that.

Reply

Also seeing that you mentioned our discussions from last year made it clear.

Ok Marcus, Ahnsahnghong was "Omniscient" yet with all of this foreknowledge, yet, he still couldn't get a predictions right.

Marcus said, "Dark Angel does not believe in the Bible and yet he tries to disprove the Christ with the Bible. And it is only the Bible that testifies who is the Christ. No wonder Dark Angel sounds like a chicken with his head cut off."

Well, what else would I use, Marcus? Again, this is not about me, it's about the "Omniscient Being" known as Ahnsahnghong. I was not raised a Buddhist, Marcus.

Marcus said, "He goes to Jewish websites to try and find proofs that Jesus was not the Christ. He uses is own interpretations of the Bible to try and prove that Ahnsahnghong is not the Christ."

Marcus, I also have a book that I have read on Judaism, a book on the Torah, the Talmud and I tend to purchase as more. Why not start at the root? The Hebrew language is the original so why not start use the original?

I only reference websites because it is easier to post links, however, it is all the same information contained in my books. If I refernced the books, would it matter? No, because you all would still say that it is the "will of men", basically saying the Jews are wrong in their belief and understanding of their own language and history.

Marcus said, "Since you know you are a fool when it comes to the Word of God, you want to ask questions like, "How old is Mother?" Ha, Ha, Ha!!"

So it takes a fool to ask a logical question? Then I would rather be a fool. The question still has not been answered by anyone in the COG. Why is it such a secret to state someone's age or better yet, real life history.

If you are going to state MJ's age, then why stop there? You should start with Donnie's questions.

Marcus said, "We have a non-Bible believer arguing the about the Bible."

It sounds just as ridiculous as non-believers birthing a god of a religion they were not even a part of. To make it worse, he worshipped the same idols that he despised in the Old Testament.

Yea, that sounds logical. It doesn't take a Christian to see the flaw in that. A Jewish person or a Muslim would see there's something wrong with that.

Marcus said, "I have exposed you last year and here you are still at it, with the same convoluted logic. We will continue to expose you till the last day my friend."

Whatever you say, Marcus. Apparently, you never left either. You go from forum to forum posting your doctrines. Why are you trying to make it seem as though you haven't. Your user name was Ryan and your post are in the middle of the page.

Wow, you are still here too.

If it weren't for your buddies hacking into the Cult Watch forum and deleting my account, perhaps I would have continued to use the old user name.

Overall, I feel information should not be withheld from anyone and if I have information to share, I am going to do so, whether it been from a reliable source on the internet or references to books. That is very important to me.

This is about Ahnsahnghong not the bible. If you want to argue about bible scripture, then there are other forums setup for that purpose.

Marcus said in response to COGinators post, "I forgot that you know me better than I do. I am fascinated when people like yourself insult the intelligence of others."

By: Dark Angel on
May 22, 2008
at 9:20 pm

Reply

It's funny that you say that, Marcus since you've been calling me an ignorant fool throughout our discussions.

Marcus said, "Jesus gave his flesh and blood through the Passover bread and wine. He said this is poured out for "YOU". Who needs the forgiveness of sins? YOU!, all of us.

By: Dark Angel on
May 22, 2008
at 9:26 pm

Reply

The early church kept Jesus command and kept the Passover of the NEW COVENANT, by eating the bread and wine on the 14th day of the 1st month as GOD commanded.

What do you not understand about this? Is Jesus' language not clear to you? The will of God is found in the Bible, you should check it out and follow it some time."

There's a difference between the "Jewish Christians" and the Gentile Christians in the early church. It's called circumcision, which many "Jewish Christians" still adhered to because they were keeping the old law. That is where Paul tried to break down the separation.

Dark Angel said "Marcus, I also have a book that I have read on Judaism, a book on the Torah, the Talmud and I tend to purchase as more. Why not start at the root? The Hebrew language is the original so why not start use the original?"

By: Elijah on May 22, 2008
at 9:28 pm

Reply

Dark Angel, why do you need the original Hebrew Bible when you don't even follow it? I guess you wanna keep arguing from the opinion of men. Just to let you know Dark Angel, the Bible is written as it is. No one can add or subtract just as Jesus said in Revelation.

Isaiah 34:16 Look in the scroll of the LORD and read:
None of these will be missing,
not one will lack her mate.
For it is his mouth that has given the order, and his Spirit will gather them together.

LMAO, you crazy Jew haters.

By: LOLAGE on May 22, 2008
at 11:12 pm

Half the crap the COG teaches aint even in the original Hebrew Bbile.

Reply

Came in the east?
Plural Mother god?

Aint in the Bible you whackos.

LOLAGE- LAUGHING AT THE AGE OF LOL

LOLISM

COG=FUNNY

Church of God haters, are you the one that truly loves God? The World Mission Society Church of God really loves God because we follow His commandments... At this time and moment, can you say that you Love Him with all your heart, mind and soul?..

By: Robert on May 23, 2008
at 5:11 am

Reply

So many people I have met tell me the only thing they have to do to receive salvation is to Love God and Confess his name. But.... do you know what kind of Love God expects from you? Have you checked through the Bible what is the definition of Love in the eyes of God. It is written:

1 John 3:18-Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth.

Then what kind of action does God want from us?

1 John 2:3-We know that we have come to know him if we obey his commands. The man who says, "I know him," but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But if anyone obeys his word, God's love is truly made complete in him. This is how we know we are in him: Whoever claims to live in him must walk as Jesus did.

1 John 5: 2- This is how we know that we love the children of God: by loving God and carrying out his commands. This is love for God: to obey his commands. And his commands are not burdensome

2 John 1:6- And this is love: that we walk in obedience to his commands.

John 14:15- If you love me, you will obey what I command.

Deutoronomy 5:10-... but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Deutoronomy 11:1- Love the LORD your God and keep his requirements, his decrees, his laws and his commands always.

John 14:21-21- Whoever has my commands and obeys them, he is the one who loves me. He who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love him and show myself to him."

John 15:10- If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father's commands and remain in his love.

Why does God continue to say to obey his commands?!! He says Love= Obey commands. If we say we Love God, yet we dont obey his commands God says we are liars in His eyes!!!

Very simple....

If we Love God= Obey His commands.

If we dont Love God= Dont obey commands.

Then check yourselves... are you keeping the Biblical Sabbath Holy as God commanded? are you keeping the Passover as God commanded? are you keeping the feast of God as He commanded? are you truly walking in obedience to His commands?! Please give careful thought to your actions. Dont just say I love you God, but show Him you love Him through your actions. Your God says to please obey his commands so that you can receive salvation. If we obey, we will be greatly blessed!

Because God loves us so much, he came a second time to bring salvation!! He is Christ Ahnsahnghong. Christ Ahn Sahng Hong has taught us all the truth that has been kept hidden for generations. Christ Ahnsahnghong restored all the truth of God that was abolished during the dark ages, therefore Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Second Coming Christ prophesied in the Bible (Hebrews 9:28). If you study, you will see that Christ Ahnsahnghong truly fulfilled everything that was prophesied about Second Coming Christ. Christ Ahnsahnghong taught us the Sabbath, Passover and many other truths that were abolished after Jesus ascended to heaven. Christ Ahn Sahng Hong has taught us the true meaning of Love and let us realize how to truly Love God. God Ahnsahng Hong, I love you so much! You are the true God and Savior! Amen!

LOLAGE=SAD BEING HYPOCRITE

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Elijah said, "Dark Angel, why do you need the original Hebrew Bible when you don't even follow it? I guess you wanna keep arguing from the opinion of men. Just to let you know Dark Angel, the Bible is written as it is. No one can add or subtract just as Jesus said in Revelation."

By: Dark Angel on
May 23, 2008
at 8:30 am

Reply

Elijah, that is not true. There are Hebrew words and phrases mistranslated from the Torah to Greek.

For example: The word "Alma" does not mean "virgin".

One doesn't have to "believe" to study the history of religions. All you are saying is that the Jews are incorrect in their own language.

That is similar to you telling an hispanic person that the word "Nena" translates to "virgin".

The word "Nena" is spanish for "Girl"

The word "Virgen" is spanish for "Virgin"

Virgen (with an E) and Virgin are similar (Virgin with an I).

So yes, I would rather study the original language and it's terminologies than take the translated versions of the Torah.

Robert said "The World Mission Society Church of God really loves God because we follow His commandments..."

By: CoGinator on May 23, 2008
at 11:44 am

His meaning, Jesus? Ahnsanghong? Mother J, or Joo Cheol Kim?

Reply

When Chung Gil Cha kicks the bucket, how will they incorporate Joo as a God to further the lie?

Will they find a scripture in the bible that talks about God living in us and show that Mother J is in Joo? What prophecy shows us? Maybe its the. "Before the end comes, the Gospel will be preached to the entire world". Matthew 24: 14

That's why MJ and ASH has to enter into the body of Joo and do their work down here on earth. To prepare for the last days (that they've been preparing for years.

I guess we can make this crazier than it already is if we really stretch things.

correction,

it is spelled Nina, not Nena, which means "girl" in spanish.

By: Dark Angel on
May 23, 2008
at 1:01 pm

Reply

When Chung Gil Cha kicks the bucket, how will they incorporate Joo as a God to further the lie?

By: Jonah on May 23,
2008
at 1:44 pm

Well we all been told that he spent time with Ash in the cave a s a boy

Reply

Will they find a scripture in the bible that talks about God living in us and show that Mother J is in Joo? What prophecy shows us? Maybe its the. "Before the end comes, the Gospel will be preached to the entire world". Matthew 24:14

In Buddhism, the Dalai Lama is believed to be an incarnation of Avalokitesvara, the Buddha of Compassion; when the Dalai Lama dies, his soul is believed to pass into the body of an infant.

Remember the "Wheel of Dharma" as stated above. COG has its roots of paganism, the Bible is just a tool used for promoting this false doctrine.

I mean Joo spent time with Ash in the cave as a boy

By: Jonah on May 23, 2008
at 3:58 pm

When Chung Gil Cha kicks the bucket, her soul will be believed to pass into the body of an infant. (Joo cheol)

Reply

The WAtv dept is already working on that theory and looking for scriptures in the Bible

Dark Angel said "Elijah, that is not true. There are Hebrew words and phrases mistranslated from the Torah to Greek."

By: Elijah on May 23,
2008
at 4:51 pm

Dark Angel, do you know better than God? The Bible is written as it is. Oh I guess you wanna find something wrong on what's written in the Bible and rewrite it then call it "The Holy Bible: Dark Angel Version"? Your making me laugh Dark Angel. Clearly, it is written in Revelation that do not add or subtract.

Reply

Revelation 22:18-19

18I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds anything to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book. 19And if anyone takes words away from this book of prophecy, God will take away from him his share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

Clear enough Dark Angel? Maybe not since you don't like what's actually written in the Bible. I mean even the Order of Melchizedek, you don't agree what's written in the Bible about Jesus coming from Judah.

Hebrews 7:14

14For it is clear that our Lord descended from Judah, and in regard to that tribe Moses said nothing about priests.

Dark Angel, should we listen to you or what the Bible testifies? You tell me.

There are groups like the famous Freemasons that shows love for their brethren brothers. The members of World Mission Society Church of God follows the "Brotherly Love" according to the Bible. They preach the truth even if they are being persecuted verbally by the unbelievers on a daily basis. There are parables that Jesus spoke that find those lost sheeps makes the shepard happy and it is the same when an unbeliever repent and follow God's commandments. As God said, "I am the LORD; in its time I will do this swiftly," God is working without rest for our salvation. In these days, we ought to preach the gospel of the heavenly kingdom more diligently in accordance with God's will, being united with one another in the holy city of Zion.

By: Robert on May 23, 2008
at 6:15 pm

Reply

God is pleased with the unity of brothers

Php 2:1-2 If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose.

The Bible repeatedly says, "Be like-minded," "Have the same love," and "Be one in spirit and purpose." This shows that it is very important for us to be united, without any divisions among ourselves. It is God's will and teaching that we fulfill beautiful unity. We can clearly understand the will of God through things He has made. Think of salt. It is indispensable for our daily life. Salt "NaCl" is a combination of two elements—sodium "Na" and chlorine "Cl." Salt itself is eatable. However, if it is dissolved into sodium and chlorine, each element becomes harmful to our health when we eat it.

So is water. When two atoms of hydrogen "H2" combine with one oxygen "O," then water "H2O" is formed. But suppose that the water molecules are separated and only hydrogen comes into our body. It was this hydrogen that Thomas Edison, the inventive genius of America, made his friend inhale and caused him stomachache, saying that he would make him fly like a balloon. If Edison had made him drink water—a combination of hydrogen and oxygen, he would have been all right. It was because his friend inhaled only hydrogen that he was troubled with stomachache.

Nylon, the first synthetic fiber, is a combination of water, air and coal. Suppose that each element remains as itself. Is it possible for water itself to turn into clothes? Or can we make clothes from air or coal itself? The combination of those three produces a new material—nylon.

In this earth there are many elements which God created; they produce precious things when they combine with each other. Though a substance itself is poisonous, if it combines with others, it turns into a new material which is beneficial to us. We are God's children who abide in the truth. God wants us to be united in love rather than be in disaccord and get jealous of each other.

Ps 133:1-3 How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity! It is like precious oil poured on the head, running down on the beard, running down on Aaron's beard, down upon the collar of his robes. It is as if the dew of Hermon were falling on Mount Zion. For there the LORD bestows his blessing, even life forevermore.

In God's sight, it is good and beautiful for brothers to be united in Zion. As we know, each of us is merely a sinner expelled from heaven for committing sin. We all know that when the 144,000 become united in love, the New Jerusalem Temple will be completed.

If a brother still has a sinful nature and does wrong, we have to encourage him to try to correct his mistakes, so that he may become worthy of entering heaven. Then we will be in perfect union which is most pleasing to God. The Bible makes us realize that.

Eternal life is given by uniting with Christ through the new covenant

Then, let's consider why we should be united among ourselves in Zion and how to become one.

Jn 6:53-58 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, ... Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me. ..."

Eternal life is given to us when God remains in us and we are all united with one another in God. Without becoming one, eternal life can never be given to us. So Jesus says in John 15, "I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers." Through this word God also warns us what the result of our disaccord will be. God doesn't want us to suffer such a terrible end. That's why He tells us to be united.

God has given us the Passover so that we may remain in Him and He in us. We can become one with God only through the bread and wine of the Passover, symbolizing the flesh and blood of God.

1 Co 10:16-17 Is it not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is it not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

What is the cup of thanksgiving which is a participation in the blood of Christ? What is the bread which is a participation in the body of Christ? That is the bread and wine of the Passover. Here, Apostle Paul explains to the saints in the Church of God in Corinth the profound meaning of the Passover through which they can become one.

We are to follow the way of God for our salvation. God allows us eternal life by letting us partake of the bread and wine of the Passover, through which we become one with Christ and our brothers. The only way to get eternal life is to become one with God. If we try to find any other way to have eternal life, we commit an act of ignoring God's providence and plan.

If it is a chemical law to form water when two hydrogen atoms combine with one oxygen, it is a spiritual law to get eternal life when we are united with Christ and our brothers through the bread and wine of the Passover of the new covenant.

The devil, the evil spirit, is trying to destroy this spiritual law of God. He infiltrates into people's soul and whispers, 'You don't have to keep the Passover,' or 'Is it not the law of Moses in the Old Testament times?' We should stand firmly against the evil force who is trying to destroy God's principle of salvation, so that we can preach the way of salvation even more.

Ro 11:16-24 ... If some of the branches have been broken off, and you, though a wild olive shoot, have been grafted in among the others and now share in the nourishing sap from the olive root, do not boast olive those branches. If you do, consider this: You do not support the root, but the root supports you. ... Do not be arrogant, but be afraid. For if God did not spare the natural branches, he will not spare you either. ... After all, if you were cut out of an olive tree that is wild by nature, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more readily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree!

We were mortal sinners. However, God grafted us into Him by cutting off His flesh and made us united with Him, so that our past sinful nature would be extinguished. We the branches, which were once broken off, have come to life by receiving the sap from the root. We are to die if we are left alone. Through the truth of the Passover, however, God has grafted us into Him, so that He may remain in us and we in Him. For this reason, the Early Church considered the Passover so important; especially Paul, known as the 'Apostle to the Gentile,' preached the Passover wherever he went. Even in this age, the importance of the Passover has not been reduced at all.

1 Co 11:23-26 For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me." For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Through all the above words, we can understand a little bit more why God told us to become one, to love one another, and to preach the Passover of the new covenant to all the peoples of the world.

When all our family members in Zion become united in love rather than to be jealous and exclusive, we shall enter the eternal kingdom, where we will experience eternal life.

Unity for God's glory and unity for man's honor

There is one thing we must remember when we unite ourselves; it is that our unity must be established for God's glory, not our own.

Ge 11:1-9 Now the whole world had one language and a common speech. As men moved eastward, they found a plain in Shinar and settled there. They said to each other, ... "Come, let us build ourselves a city, with a tower that reaches to the heavens, so that we may make a name for ourselves and not be scattered over the face of the whole earth." ... The LORD said, "If as one people speaking the same language they have begun to do this, then nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them. Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other." So the LORD scattered them from there over all the earth, and they stopped building the city. ...

When people built the Tower of Babel, they tried to distinguish themselves and display their own glory rather than God's. Then God confused their language so they would not continue to do the work. Though they became one in mind, they intended to display their own glory and make a name for themselves, and God stopped them from doing the work. Through this history, we need to consider again what we should become united for. If we are united to display our own righteousness, God will deter us from what we intend to do. However, if we become of one mind and one accord for the glory of God, we will receive God's gracious help which we've not ever expected.

Ac 1:12-14 ... When they arrived, they went upstairs to the room where they were staying. Those present were Peter, John, James and Andrew; Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew; James son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. They all joined together constantly in prayer, along with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

Ac 2:1-12 When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. ... All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them. ... Utterly amazed, they asked: "Are not all these men who are speaking Galileans? Then how is it that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphlia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring that wonders of God in our own tongues!" ...

Preparing for the day of Pentecost, the disciples were continually devoting themselves to prayer with one mind for the glory of God. When the day of Pentecost came, the strong power and help of the Holy Spirit came upon them from heaven.

As they joined together for the glory of God with one mind, God unified all their confused languages. Even though the disciples spoke in Hebrew, all the people—Parthians, Medes and Mesopotamians—heard them speaking in their own languages, as God enabled them.

Both in Acts and in Genesis, we can find the common point—it was that they were all with one accord. However, they got totally different results. As for the former, God unified their scattered languages so they could do His work, but as for the latter He confused their language so they might not do their own work. They were totally opposite to each other.

Now, we live in the last days. In doing the gospel work, we should not win a name for ourselves. It is good for all the brothers and sisters in Zion to become united in heart and in mind. In doing that, there must be a certain purpose deserving of God's help.

Let's unite into one for the glory of God

The one whom God helps is invincible. Any worldly weapons are useless to him when God helps him. Remember that about a hundred and thirty-five thousand men, the forces of Midian, were completely destroyed by three hundred men, the warriors of Gideon. How could they win victory? It was because they united with one another for the glory of God, not for their own.

'We fight this fight for the sake of our God.' With this thought, they were all with one mind. As a result, all the Israelites, who had been oppressed by Midianites for a long time, could be freed from them with joy. Only a small number of people, the three hundred men, defeated a hundred and thirty-five thousand men. It was because they fought for the glory of God. However, when people built the Tower of Babel, though a great number of people were called together for the labor, it fell down. For they said, "Let's make a name for ourselves."

We must not let such words come into our minds nor let it come out of our mouths. Rather, we shall only give thanks to God, who has redeemed us from our sins and given us the way to eternal heaven, in obedience to God's will and all His commands. Then we will be able to follow the Lamb wherever He goes, won't we?

We are to unite ourselves with everything, though it is a small matter. When we perform our own duties with one mind only for the glory of God, the last Reformation is to be accomplished. The task entrusted to us is just shouting: Our mission is to preach the gospel to the ends of the earth, proclaiming the new name of the age of the Holy Spirit who restored the new covenant, shouting, "He is our God." For this, we must be united in mind. When we are all with one mind for the glory of God, He will surely help us.

Jer 13:15-17 Hear and pay attention, do not be arrogant, for the LORD has spoken. ... You hope for light, but he will turn it to thick darkness and change it to deep gloom. But if you do not listen, I will weep in secret because of your pride; ...

All truth that we preach now comes from God. Nothing in this world belongs to us. We are all just messengers of God who preach the good news of salvation to dying souls all over the world. We have to thank God for giving us such a great mission, and devote ourselves to His glory even more.

For the glory of God, every member of the 144,000 is really precious. Suppose that a bolt comes out of a car. Though all the other parts are of the highest quality, if a bolt is inferior and it is pulled out of a moving car, what will happen to the car?

We've received the truth and each of us has become a member of God's workers participating in the mission of salvation in these last days. None of us can be ignored; we are all precious and valuable. My dear brothers and sisters! Now our Father and Mother say to us, "You've finished marching around the city seven times. Now, just shout aloud!" In obedience to the will of our Father and Mother, let's cry aloud with one mind.

Let's go to heaven together in one mind

Now, we hear lots of glad news that our lost brothers and sisters stream to Zion to receive the truth. Besides, God speeds this gospel through the mass media. At this time, we should become in one mind and heart, always giving glory to God. Then God will help us to accomplish His will—the last Reformation, just as He helped 300 warriors defeat 135,000 Medianite soldiers, and just as He helped the Israelites cross the Red Sea even without a boat, feeding the six hundred thousand men for forty years.

Our Church of God has maintained its history until today with God's help. Though people have persecuted and slandered us in various ways, God has always helped us. They have intended to hinder the growth of our church by magnifying a trifle matter and spreading groundless rumors. However, God has made our Church known more widely and let more people know our Church as true. Now, many brothers and sisters have come to Zion where our Father dwells, into the arms of Jerusalem our Mother.

All the people in Zion are to give all glory to God, following the tradition of the Church of God. Those who always think of the glory of God cannot become evil. However, those who think of the glory of their own, are supposed to be wicked. They are self-centered and try to obtain fame and promotion even by overriding and injuring others. Their self-seeking attitude makes our society more harsh and evil. Zion is not so. It is a beautiful unified organism for the glory of God. God has given us good conditions. Now, let's proclaim more diligently. Everything is possible if we do it for the glory of God. Believ-ing this firmly, let's perform our mission faithfully, following our Father and Mother to the end wherever They go.

Our mission is to save all souls from sin and lead them to heaven, by proclaiming the last Reformation to the ends of the earth. My loving brothers and sisters! Let's unite ourselves together for the glory of God. Instead of being envious and quarrelsome, let's be united in love, manifesting God's love not only in words, but in deed, so that we can safely arrive in heaven after we finish our journey of faith in this spiritual desert.

Elijah,

How many languages do you know?

By: Dark Angel on
May 23, 2008
at 7:56 pm

Do you know Hebrew?

Reply

Do you know Aramaic?

Have you even tried to study either?

Without googling this information, tell me what this means, it is written in Hebrew:

"Melech ha-M'lachim"

Elijah, you can post all of the bible scripture you want, it won't change the fact that you don't know Hebrew.

Why don't you try learning about the language Jesus spoke? You do follow him don't you?

I'm only sharing information, it doesn't matter if you "listen" to me or not, the information will always exist, whether if you choose to ignore it or not.

As a matter of fact, I don't want you to listen to me, or take my word for it. It would be best if you check it out for yourself.

Does Mother Jerusalem know Hebrew?

Did AhnsahngHong know Hebrew?

Robert, what's with the long post? Is it really that necessary?

By: Dark Angel on
May 23, 2008

at 7:59 pm

Reply

Dark Angel said "Elijah,

How many languages do you know?

Do you know Hebrew?

Do you know Aramaic?

Have you even tried to study either?

I don't know Hebrew or Aramaic languages and since I don't know neither language I haven't studied each language version of the Bible. But you have to understand Dark Angel that language is not an issue. The reason there's different versions of the Word of God in different languages because it is His will.

Matthew 28:18-20

18Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. 19Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Clearly, it is God's will that there would be Bibles in different languages. Jesus didn't say to just make disciples of Hebrew or Aramaic. Jesus said make disciples of ALL NATIONS. I guess Dark Angel just wanna stay in his own belief, his own little bowl of Hebrew and Aramaic languages in the will of men. Poor Dark Angel who cannot see the light.

What are you talking about Dark Angel. You post what you want and I post what the Bible teaches. Fair? By the way, I am a former Master Mason and I regret it. Also, if you don't wanna follow what the Bible teaches, then I pity you. We could have been spiritual brothers but you don't want to. You cannot say your a brother of Jesus because you dont' do His will. I am a brother of Jesus because I follow His will. Clear?

By: Robert on May 24, 2008
at 2:24 am

Reply

Ok, Elijah and Robert, whatever you say.

By: Dark Angel on May 24, 2008
at 5:09 am

Reply

This list is from wikipedia and are all false christs termed as cults.

By: Jonah on May 24, 2008
at 2:48 pm

Reply

John Nichols Thom—born 1799—Cornishman who claimed to be the reincarnation of Jesus Christ and his body temple of the Holy Ghost. He was killed by British soldiers at the Battle of Bossenden Wood, on May 31, 1838 in Kent, England.

Jim Jones—May 13, 1931 – November 18, 1978—Claimed to be the reincarnation of Jesus, Akhenaten, Buddha, Lenin, and Father Divine. [1] (see Jonestown).

Marshall Applewhite—1931–1997—Applewhite posted a famous Usenet message declaiming, “I, Jesus—Son of God—acknowledge on this date of September 25/26, 1995: ...”. [2] This was two years before he and his Heaven’s Gate cult committed suicide to rendezvous with a spaceship hiding behind the comet Hale-Bopp.

Suma Ching Hai—Birth date unknown, possible late 1950s—A meditation teacher who claims to be an incarnation of Avalokitesvara and a living reincarnation of the Buddha and Jesus Christ.

Sergei Torop—born 1961—Russian who claims to be “reborn” as Vissarion, the returned Jesus Christ. He founded the Church of the Last Testament and the spiritual community Ecopolis Tiberkul in Southern Siberia. Jose Luis de Jesus Miranda — Organizer of the Growing in Grace who claims that the resurrected Christ “integrated himself within me.”.

Luc Jouret — Leader of the Order of the Solar Temple and was believed to be the third reincarnation of Jesus Christ.

Maitreya — The expected world teacher who is promoted by the British author Benjamin Creme.

Charles Manson — Founder of “The Family”.

Jung Myung Seok — Founder of Providence Church, international fugitive wanted for rape among other crimes.

Ariffin Mohamed — Also known as Ayah Pin, is the founder of banned Sky Kingdom in Malaysia. He claims to be the incarnation of Jesus Christ, as well as Muhammad, Shiva, and Buddha.[1]

Ayya Vaikundar; According to Akilattirattu Ammanai, the scripture of Ayyavazhi Narayana, who was one among the trinity in Vaikundar was the one who incarnated as Jesus.

Inri Cristo, Brazilian religious leader.

Matayoshi Jesus; In 1997 he established the World Economic Community Party based on his conviction that he is the God and Christ. [4]

Hogen Fukunaga; He claimed to realize he was the reincarnation of Jesus Christ and the Buddha [5].

Apollo C. Quiboloy; A Cebuano pastor who claims to be the Christ. He has also marked Pastor Eli Soriano as being condemned to hell.

Rev. Sun Myung Moon founder of the Unification Church
Bahá'u'lláh founder of the Baha'i Faith.

Mirza Ghulam Ahmad founder of the Ahmadiyya faith.

Anatoly Timofeevich Fomenko — A supporter of the New Chronology, claims that Jesus Christ is the same person as the prophet Elisha, Saint Basil of Caesarea, and Pope Gregory VII.

Vince Taylor — Musician.
G.G. Allin — Claimed to be “Jesus Christ, God and Satan all in one.”
Mehmet Ali Ağca a Turkish assassin who shot and wounded Pope John Paul II[2]
Tom Graeff — filmmaker who claimed to be Jesus Christ II in the early 1960s
David Icke — Claimed he was the Son of God on UK chatshow ‘Wogan’ in 1991. He later denied his claim, saying that the media had misinterpreted his remarks.
Cho Seung Hui – Virginia Tech shooter who declared in his video “now I die like Jesus Christ”
Hong Xiuquan — self-proclaimed brother of Jesus Christ.
Laszlo Toth – Hungarian-born Australian who vandalised Michelangelo’s Pietà in 1972

Ahnsahnghong – South Korean man – worshipped by World Mission Society Church of God as the second coming Jesus

Your second coming Jesus is the last on the list with ideas stolen from the rest above.

Elijah: Jesus said make only disciples of ALL NATIONS. Which means not many Jesus from nations coming whenever feel like and speaking in their respective language. LOL
Robert said : I am a brother of Jesus because I follow His will. Clear?

No Robert diciples of the Buddhist Ahnsahnghong and you cannot be the brothers or sisters but they are called monks and nuns.

You are still breast fed by your mother and growing up to be so stubborn spoilt brats! As long as the pacifier makes you feel happy you can carry on. But thanks anyway for the entertainment. I had great fun. I have never come across such clowny cults!

That’s quite a list Jonah. I would believe you on those list as it is really prophecies in the Bible that many false prophets and false christ will appear. That’s why we have the Bible so we could recognize who are the “wolves in sheeps clothing”.

By: Robert on May 24, 2008
at 7:42 pm

Reply

Matthew 24:4-6 – Jesus answered: “Watch out that no one deceives you. For many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Christ, and will deceive many. You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come.

Jonah, the list that you just put from your last comment is fulfilling these verses from Matthew, false christ claiming they are the christ just as Jesus prophecied. But there are prophecies that is written in the Bible so we could recognize the Second Coming Christ as it was prophecied that Christ will appear a Second time this time not to bear our sins but to bring the salvation to those who are waiting for Him (Hebrews 9:28): When?

So Jonah, let's find out when through the Bible.

Matthew 24:30-33 – "At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory. And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other. "Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door.

Here we can see that the Son of Man is coming in clouds meaning "coming in flesh" just as prophecied when He came the first time. It also said that learn from the lesson of the fig tree, "as soon as it's twigs get tender and it's leaves come out".

Okay but we have to understand what the Fig tree represents through the Bible. Let's take a look.

Luke 13:6-7 – Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree, planted in his vineyard, and he went to look for fruit on it, but did not find any. So he said to the man who took care of the vineyard, 'For three years now I've been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree and haven't found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?'

Why did Jesus compare Himself to a man who when to look for fruit on a fig tree planted in a vineyard? What is the meaning of this? It's meaning is that Jesus preached the gospel to the Israelites for three years searching for the fruit of the gospel. Therefore, the fig tree represents for the country of Israel.

Isa 5:7 – The vineyard of the LORD Almighty is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah are the garden of his delight. And he looked for justice, but saw bloodshed; for righteousness, but heard cries of distress.

In the above verse we can understand that in the Bible the vineyard represents the country of Israel and the garden (the tree) represents the people of Israel. Let's look at another biblical testimony concerning this.

Jer. 24:5 – They said, "Turn now, each of you, from your evil ways and your evil practices, and you can stay in the land the LORD gave to you and your fathers for ever and ever.

Through this verse God makes it apparent that figs represent Israel, since He compared the figs to the people of Israel once more.

Okay since now we know that the the fig tree represents Israel, we need to look at it's history.

Luke 13:7 – So he said to the man who took care of the vineyard, 'For three years now I've been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree and haven't found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?'

Okay so far here's what each things in the parable represents:

Fig Tree – Israel

Jesus preached for 3 years

Then, Jesus told His disciples to cut down a fig that had not borne any fruit. Actually Jesus' words at that time was a prophecy of what was going to happen to Israel. As a fulfillment to what Jesus had said, Israel which had rejected the gospel that Jesus preached was completely devastated by Roman soldiers in A.D. 70. After it's collapse, the people were scattered all over the world as a stateless people for more than 1900 years.

After much time had passed, the fig tree that had been cut down and withered from the roots began to bloom once more. It's twigs got tender and its leaves began to sprout. When did all this happen? The revival of the fig tree occurred in 1948. On May 14, 1948, Israel proclaimed her independence and recovered her sovereignty. The fig tree which seemed to have with no sign of revival actually resuscitated. Israel's independence after such a long time of captivity marked the Second Coming of Jesus as prophesied. He has come again but with a new name as prophesied in Revelation.

Revelation 3:11-13 – I am coming soon. Hold on to what you have, so that no one will take your crown. Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of my God. Never again will he leave it. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on him my new name. He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

Clearly, Jesus new name is Ahnsahnghong, the Holy Spirit who reminded us the true teachings of Jesus and the entire Bible.

Christ Ahnsahnghong is the one we all have been waiting for. That is why the Church of God received Christ Ahnsahnghong, the Second Coming Jesus, as the Savior.

Rom 11:26 – And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: "The deliverer will come from Zion; he will turn godlessness away from Jacob.

According to the prophesy revealed through the fig tree, Ahnsahnghong, the Second Coming Jesus, came from Zion in 1948.

This is only one of the many prophecies for the Second Coming of Christ that Ahnsahnghong fulfilled. I want to see if anyone else who claim that they are the Second Coming Christ can show me through the Bible that they are who they say they are. Actually I'll challenge them myself. If they can prove that they have fulfilled even at least all the prophecies that Ahnsahnghong fulfilled according to the Bible, then there's gonna be a major analyzing of the Bible. If there's at least one prophecy that some guy fulfilled and Ahnsahnghong didn't according to the Bible, I'll follow that guy but he has to still fulfill all the prophecies Ahnsahnghong fulfilled. Not even the Masonic Proctor and the Ruler can do it. All I can say is good luck, lol. Christ Ahnsahnghong, the name of the Holy Spirit.

Well what do we have here, it's Donnie's questions again.

By: Dark Angel on
May 24, 2008
at 11:11 pm

Reply

Hi world mission church of god members!
Why no-one can answer these very simple and basic questions about 'Mother Jerusalem'?
What is her name, how old is she, does she have families (children?, husband?) and how did she get involved in this religion.

Thank you so much, and happy ascension day!

Robert, why don't you be a good lad and answer his questions.

I too have serious questions but seeing that Marcus and I have history, I'll direct my questions towards him.

By: Dark Angel on
May 24, 2008
at 11:44 pm

Plus, he seems a bit more knowledgable on their history compared to Robert and Elijah. Reply

One person even said that the bible must be used to answer his questions:

posted by "believer",

"To answer Donnie

We must use the bible to see who God, Mother Jerusalem and Ahnsahnghong is.
Without the Bible no one can tell you who God the mother, and 2nd Coming Christ is.

It's not man's word, but Gods= The Bible"

Using the bible to state someone's birth date, are you serious?

Then Elijah continued to avoid answering Donnie's questions by stating that her name is Mother Jerusalem,

"Dear donnie,

I am going to answer your questions.

Who is this 'Mother Jerusalem'?

donnie, her name is Jerusalem Mother, God the Mother."

Her BIRTH NAME, Elijah. Not her alias. Then he posted bible scripture after that so no, he did not answer the questions.

This was posted By: Elijah on May 15, 2008 at 6:27 pm, for anyone who wants to back track.

Then Poland told Donnie that he needs to stop asking questions about Mother Jerusalem.

So Donnie then replied to both Elijah and Poland. He explained how he should have answered his question.

"

Hi Elijah,
Thank you so much for your answer, to be honest, I am disappointed with your 'answer'.
I was hoping you can answer the question straight such as this: South Korean president? Answer: Lee Myung-bak, he has 3 brothers and 3 sisters, born 19 December 1941.

Poland's comment: you need to stop asking about Jerusalem Mother..
This really scares me and gives an indication of a cult group where members submit with no questions asked.

I have tried to stand with open mind and neutral position. I trully believe that everyone has good intentions here. I do too.
I'm really interested to hear everyone's opinion about this.
I'm out..!"

This was posted By: donnie on May 16, 2008
at 8:35 am

Still, no one has done the impossible and answered his questions.

What is her REAL name, the name that she was born with?

I'm sure her parenst didn't name the chick "Mother jerusalem".

What year was she born? You all know the year Ahnsahnghong was born but that wasn't too hard to figure out since the story goes that he was baptized in 1948 at age 30.

Was she married and did she have kids like AHnsahnghong?

Apparently Ahnsahnghong was married and had kids. He wasn't married to MJ though.

I have my own list of questions but I will ask after someone is brave enough to answer Donnie's. Using the bible did not answer them at all.

Why don't you people be realistic. If the lady goes to the doctors, she's not going to put "Mother Jerusalem" on the sign in sheet. Nor would her passport states "Mother Jerusalem".

But wait, she doesn't travel out of S.Korea. My mistake. She doesn't go to the people, the people go to her.

Dark Angel said, "But wait, she doesn't travel out of S.Korea. My mistake. She doesn't go to the people, the people go to her."

By: CoGinator on May 26, 2008 at 8:22 am

Do we need more proof that this is a cult. Jesus taught about serving and having serving heart. Clearly, MJ's selfishness of having everyone travel to her is proof enough to me that she is not living the scriptures that would have come from her had she been God.

Reply

COGinator said "Do we need more proof that this is a cult. Jesus taught about serving and having serving heart. Clearly, MJ's selfishness of having everyone travel to her is proof enough to me that she is not living the scriptures that would have come from her had she been God."

By: Poland on May 26, 2008 at 6:29 pm

Reply

COGinator, why are you judging Jerusalem Mother by her mere appearance? She is testified in the Bible and that's what's important. Then if she is not testified in the Bible then she is a cult. Your like the Jews and Pharisees 2000 years ago, judging Jesus as a mere carpenter and not looking what the Bible says about Jesus. I can't believe you COGinator.

Then after this comment, COGinator is going to say "Am I suppose to vomit now or what". Yeah, you always vomit because you can't stand what the Bible really testifies. Your denying it COGinator.

Galatians 4:26 – But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

Isaiah 62:6-7 – I have posted watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem; they will never be silent day or night. You who call on the LORD, give yourselves no rest, and give him no rest till HE ESTABLISHES JERUSALEM and MAKES HER THE PRAISE OF THE EARTH.

COGinator, Jerusalem Mother will be "praise of the Earth" according to the Bible. Don't you see the word HER COGinator? So sad for you and keep vomiting till you get it out of your system.

Poland,

"Isaiah 62:6-7 – I have posted watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem..."

By: Dark Angel on
May 26, 2008
at 9:21 pm

Reply

So, Mother Jerusalem have walls with watchmen posted on it? Interesting.

Poland, why is it so hard to post Mother Jerusalem's birth date? I mean, not knowing Jesus' birth date is one thing but, when you are living in a time where information is available, then, there is no excuse.

I know the birth date of my grandmother, and she is in her mid 70's. There is no "mystery" to that.

Genesis 1:26: "And God said, Let US make man in OUR image after our likeness."

By:
no_US_in_Genesis on
May 27, 2008
at 9:01 am

—
The Church of God uses this verse in Genesis to rationalise the divinity of Mother Jerusalem.

Reply

According to the cult, in Genesis, God is speaking to a female incarnation of God (aka Mother Jerusalem). They therefore believe that God makes man in his image, and woman in the image of Mother.

Trinitarians and others claim that the Hebrew noun 'Elohim' (rendered 'God' in the first clause of Genesis 1:26) denotes more than one God Person (ie "3 in 1" or "2 in 1" or 2 separate entities). In support they point to the second clause of verse 26, "Let us make man in our image", being plural.

It is true that in both English and Hebrew this second clause contains the plural subject 'us' and that this governs the plural verb 'make' - But these are not governed by 'Elohim' (God) of the first clause. What is not realized, or otherwise mentioned in this issue is that in the first clause, "And God said", the word 'Elohim' governs the singular Hebrew verb "amer", which is rendered 'said' in English. So linguistically there is no basis for claiming that 'Elohim' denotes, represents, or contains more than one God Person (entity).

It is also claimed that the Hebrew 'Elohim' is a uniplural or collective noun and that such nouns (e.g. the English noun 'crowd') often govern singular verbs. This claim contradicts leading Hebrew grammars, which claim that throughout the Old Testament and when referring to God, the Hebrew noun 'Elohim' behaves as a singular noun, and governs only singular verbs, singular adjectives and singular pronouns. And only when 'elohim' refers to a number of pagan gods or humans (e.g. judges), that it behaves as a plural noun; and then governs plural verbs, plural adjectives and plural pronouns. So grammatically 'Elohim' is never a collective (uniplural) noun. That in reference to the true God, the noun 'Elohim' is singular, is well illustrated in Genesis 1:29, where this noun governs the singular pronoun 'I'.

Here are a selection of Hebrew grammars from which these claims may be further verified:

Gesenius' Hebrew Grammar edited and enlarged by E. Kautzsch, 2nd English edition by A.E. Cowley, paragraph 124 (g); Weingreen's Hebrew Grammar under 'God' in its English-Hebrew vocabulary; C.L Seow's A Grammar for Biblical Hebrew, 1992 printing, the vocabulary on page 19; James D Martin's Davidson's Introductory Grammar, 27th edition, 1995 reprint, page 52.

So grammatically, too, all theologians and scholars agree that there is no justification for claiming that in Genesis 1:26 'God' (Elohim) denotes more than one God Person. Indeed throughout the Old Testament, 'Elohim' always denotes just one God Person.

Let's now examine the claim that in Genesis 1:26 'Elohim' denotes more than one God Person from a biblical basis.

From the Hebrew for verse 27 it may be seen that the Hebrew noun 'Elohim' (God) again governs a singular Hebrew verb ('created'). But even more importantly, 'Elohim' also governs the Hebrew singular pronouns 'His' and 'He'. Note that verse 27 does not say that 'they' created Adam in 'their' image, but that 'He' created Adam in His image! So verse 27 declares that one God created Adam and that He did so in His image. Not two or more Gods but only one God created Adam.

Verse 27, through the two singular clauses, "So God created man in His own image" and "in the image of God created He him", twice states that one God created Adam. From Genesis 41:32 it may be inferred that this repetition emphasizes certainty.

That only one God Person spoke in verse 26 and created Adam in verse 27, is further confirmed by verse 29. In verse 29 'God' (Elohim) uses the first person singular personal pronoun "I", in the phrase, "And God said, 'Behold, I have given you every herb...'".

Had two or more God Persons created Adam, they might have said: "We have given you every herb". Ignoring the necessities of language rules of grammar some still say that this "God" is a family of two and that as such only "one" of the two Gods actually did the hands on creating, but at the bequest of the other. Therefore, it is reasoned, the use of a singular pronoun simply reflects the overall view that there is still only "one" God, but with two distinct entities within the one (aka Mother Jerusalem and AhnsahngHong).

The tragedy of this is the denial of the proper use of the language- and specifically here in Genesis, along with the assumption that everything else in scripture that does not lend itself to this premise must somehow bend and be forced into compliance with this premise. There is no grammatical basis that can be produced to support this premise, which nevertheless seems to flourish in the minds of the adherents to this tenet of which I was once one, too. Without scriptural basis, other than- that is the way it must be for this premise to exist, the very premise is left to be nothing more than conjecture.

If the premise is true, then the “proof” must come from elsewhere, as nothing in Genesis can provide this “proof.” Equivocation may be the most culpable in the creation of this tenet, and yet be the least recognized as such.

It has now been established through the rules of language that just one God Person spoke in Gen 1:26, and that this one God Person created Adam in His own image in verse 27 and that this one God Person then spoke to Adam using the singular pronoun “I” in verse 29.

So why does it say, “us” and “our”?

The Cohortative Mood of Genesis 1:26.

From Gesenius’ ‘Hebrew Grammar’ and from Owens’ ‘Analytical Key to the Old Testament’ with James D. Martin’s ‘Davidson’s Introductory Hebrew Grammar’ page 76, it may be seen that the Genesis 1:26 verbal phrase, “Let us make” is, in both Hebrew and English, the Cohortative or Voluntative mood.

This mood appears not understood by commentators to Genesis 1:26; and readers unfamiliar with the grammatical concept of the Cohortative Mood, are referred to the explanation given at the end of this paper. (Could this be due to preconceived notions in the minds of the translators, commentators, and the affected readers?)

Suffice to say that the Cohortative mood is a verbal mood for expressing a command from the 1st person (the speaker) to the 1st person singular or plural. It is a mood related to the Imperative mood, which is the more common command mood for expressing commands from the 1st person to the 2nd person singular or plural – as in Sit down!, or Present arms!.

In the Cohortative mood found in Genesis 1:26, the singular speaker, God, addresses Himself jointly with those present at the time. Therefore in Genesis 1:26 God, and those present with Him, jointly make up the plurality expressed by the pronoun ‘us’ in, “Let us make”.

In particular the plurality of ‘us’ may not be taken to infer plurality to the speaker God, or even to those God spoke to.

It has now been shown in several different ways that linguistically there is no justification for inferring from “And God said, Let us make...”, that the plurality of ‘us’ extends back to God. Rather the Cohortative mood demands that God, as the speaker issuing a command, is singular. This is also attested to by the singular Hebrew verb for 'said' (And God said) and the singular pronouns and singular verbs in subsequent verses, which refer back to God of Genesis 1:26.

This should help clarify past confusion resulting from ungrammatical and unbiblical claims that the Hebrew 'Elohim' of Genesis 1:26 is a uniplural or is a collective noun or in some other way points to there existing or not existing more than one God Person. In truth nothing may be concluded from Genesis 1:26 regarding the existence of multiple God Persons.

CONCLUSION:

The book of Genesis does not support the existence of Mother Jerusalem. Using verse 1:26 to suggest that "us" and "our" refers to Mother is a distortion of the truth and displays a complete lack of Biblical knowledge.

Cults favour simplistic explanations and simple minded doctrines because they are easier to teach. Accessible beliefs can be quickly and efficiently explained to the uneducated recruit, but upon close inspection these beliefs all disintegrate.

End note – Explanation of Cohortative Verb Mood

The reader needs to be first familiar with the grammatical terms: 1st person, 2nd person and 3rd person. The 1st person refers to the speaker(s) (I, we). The 2nd person refers to the person(s) spoken to (you singular, you plural) by the 1st person. And the 3rd person refers to the person(s) spoken about (he, she, it, and they) by the 1st person to the 2nd person. As an example: I (1st person) tell you (2nd person.) that he (3rd person) is tall.

The 1st, 2nd and 3rd person may be singular (I, you, he) or plural (we, you, they). The 1st person can only speak to the 2nd person. In particular the 1st person can not speak to the 3rd person: but can only speak about the 3rd person to the 2nd person. This last point is important for understanding the Jussive command mood. The 1st person can speak to the 1st person singular, namely, when he speaks to himself. But when the 1st person speaks to the 1st person plural, he addresses himself and the one(s) with him. This last point is important for understanding the Cohortative mood.

There are three verbal moods for expressing commands or strongly held wishes or intentions. The Imperative mood is the most commonly-used of the three command moods. All three command moods are used by the 1st person (speaker); but he may address them: (a) to the 1st person by using the Cohortative mood; or (b) to the 2nd person by using the Imperative mood; and (c) to the 3rd person(s) by using the Jussive mood.

The Imperative mood is usually used by a superior to an subordinate; as in: Stand!, and Present arms! In the Jussive mood the 1st person gives a command for the 3rd person to the 2nd person; as in: Don't let him go!, and Make him stay! Note that grammatically it is impossible for the 1st person to address directly the 3rd person; because the 3rd person is the one spoken about to the 2nd person.

In the Cohortative mood the 1st person commands the 1st person singular or plural. When the 1st person commands the 1st person singular, the command is to self, as in I shall guard. But when the 1st person commands the 1st person plural, the commands (1) himself and (2) the one(s) with him, as in Let us make....
. For this last case note in particular that the subject is singular. That is the plurality of the ones commanded (us) does not transfer backwards to the subject. This point is generally overlooked by commentators to Genesis 1:26, "And God (singular) said, Let us (plural) make man in our image..."

Note that the English Jussive and Cohortative moods require auxiliary verbs (e.g. shall, make and let). Also that in neither the Imperative, nor the Jussive mood, nor the Cohortative mood a subject (speaker) is expressed. So these commands are usually brief, as in: Sit!, Don't let him go!, and Let us make. The Subject is simply understood.

Poland said, "She is testified in the Bible and that's what's important."

By: CoGinator on May 27, 2008 at 12:32 pm

I would strongly disagree that she is testified in the Bible. No need to site examples as I am familiar with what the CoG teaches and I believe it to be wrong.

Reply

Of course now I read no_US_in_Genesis posting, and you'll see why I don't believe it.

By: CoGinator on May 27, 2008 at 1:16 pm

Reply

Allow me to ask the cog members:

If "MJ" were truly a god, then, why does she need an interpreter? God Himself gave the gift of language to the Apostles, did He not?

Also: of you are truly following both 1st and 2nd testaments, then why are you not following the original SABBATH in it's true form: Sundown Friday to Sundown Saturday – along with the 400 or so Jewish Laws?????? Why is it none of the cog members will answer this????? ???

By: question everything on May 28, 2008 at 3:43 am bet I will not be answered!

Reply

By: question everything on May 28, 2008 at 3:44 am

Reply

Which is a shame because they are two really good questions!!

By: CoGinator on May 28, 2008 at 6:51 am

Reply

<http://ahnsahng hong.tinypurplegrapes.com/CSC>
<http://ahnsahng hong.tinypurplegrapes.com/CSC>

By: Ted on May 28, 2008 at 6:57 am

The new site is online. Hopefully the COG doesn't hack this one as well. We should have a private server with a bigger site up in a couple months.

Reply

Spread the news as much as possible. Feel free to visit the forums and discuss the COG's doctrines at:

<http://ahnsahng hong.proboards102.com/>

All questions and interpretations welcomed.

Here's a thought. What if Joo and mother are one and the same...kinda like Norman Bates and his mother in Psycho??

By: CoGinator on May 28, 2008 at 2:20 pm

Reply

Again, the Church of God haters are using the opinion of men to criticise the truths of the Bible. These guys are blind saying that there's only one image of God as He created them. Clearly, there's a male and female in the image of God.

By: Poland on May 28, 2008 at 5:33 pm

Reply

Genesis 1:26-27 – 26 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, [b] and over all the creatures that move along the ground."

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

Genesis 1:26-27 (The Message) – 26-28 God spoke: "Let us make human beings in our image, make them reflecting our nature

So they can be responsible for the fish in the sea, the birds in the air, the cattle, And, yes, Earth itself, and every animal that moves on the face of Earth."

God created human beings; he created them godlike, Reflecting God's nature. He created them male and female. God blessed them:

"Prosper! Reproduce! Fill Earth! Take charge!
Be responsible for fish in the sea and birds in the air, for every living thing that moves on the face of Earth."

Genesis 1:26-27 (KJV) – 26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

Genesis 1:26-27 (NKJV) – 26 Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all[b] the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth."
27 So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.

Even in different versions of the Bible, it really testifies that God has a male and female image. I guess they fail again to prove that God has only one image.

Romans 5:14 – 14 Nevertheless, death reigned from the time of Adam to the time of Moses, even over those who did not sin by breaking a command, as did Adam, who was a pattern of the one to come.

Genesis 3:20 – 20 Adam named his wife Eve, because she would become the mother of all the living.

Wow Eve would become the mother of all living and Adam is the pattern of the One to come which is Christ. So if God has a male and female image then He created Adam and Eve in God's image, clearly this comes to the conclusion that God's has a male and female image. Christ Ahnsahnghong is the male God and Jerusalem Mother is the female God.

Poland,

Where does it reference a "female image" creating anything?

By: Dark Angel on
May 28, 2008
at 7:02 pm

Reply

You refer to ahnsahnghong as "He".

Then you refer to "mother jerusalem as "She".

If both of them created separate images, wouldn't it have said something similar to this, "HE created adam and SHE created eve".

or

"THEY created adam and eve".

In the bible, women are referenced as "she" and "her".

example: Mary

Matt 1:21

And "SHE" (Mary) shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus: for "HE" (Jesus) shall save his people from their sins.

So if god "the father" created adam.

Where is this female god who created eve? The bible doesn't reference "she" or "her"

Nothing saying, "then god created eve in "HER" image.

Also Poland,

If what you say is true, then, both ahnsahngdong and mother jerusalem are omniscient.

By: Dark Angel on May 28, 2008 at 8:28 pm

Reply

Which would also mean, that she knows when "the end" will be, even though the bible states that "only the father knows".

Now, if she doesn't know, then she is not omniscient and she is not a god. But, if she is indeed omniscient, then the bible is wrong when it states that "only the father knows" when "the end" will be.

Then it should state, "only the father AND the mother knows" when the end will be.

But no, it only says that he knows. HE..god "the father".

How can two omniscient Beings withhold information from one another, that doesn't make any sense.

Poland said, "These guys are blind saying that there's only one image of God as He created them. Clearly, there's a male and female in the image of God."

By: CoGinator on May 28, 2008 at 8:40 pm

Reply

Think for a minute, 99% of all Christians understand that there is just God, not a female image of God. "no_US_in_Genesis" clearly showed how the US was translated from the original bible text.

Just possibly, it is the CoG who is blindly misleading members to falsely believe in a male and female image. I know you want to feel like CoG is the one true church, but it's looking like it's not as accurate as you once thought it was.

Clearly the Bible does not talk about a FEMALE god. Poland can you read? No Biblical scholar

By: no_Us_in_Genesis on agrees with your simplistic and totally debunked explanation.

May 28, 2008
at 8:41 pm

Reply

Genesis 1:26: "And God said, Let US make man in OUR image after our likeness."

The Church of God uses this verse in Genesis to rationalise the divinity of Mother Jerusalem.

According to the cult, in Genesis, God is speaking to a female incarnation of God (aka Mother Jerusalem). They therefore believe that God makes man in his image, and woman in the image of Mother.

Trinitarians and others claim that the Hebrew noun 'Elohim' (rendered 'God' in the first clause of Genesis 1:26) denotes more than one God Person (ie "3 in 1" or "2 in 1" or 2 separate entities). In support they point to the second clause of verse 26, "Let us make man in our image", being plural.

It is true that in both English and Hebrew this second clause contains the plural subject 'us' and that this governs the plural verb 'make' - But these are not governed by 'Elohim' (God) of the first clause. What is not realized, or otherwise mentioned in this issue is that in the first clause, "And God said", the word 'Elohim' governs the singular Hebrew verb "amer", which is rendered 'said' in English. So linguistically there is no basis for claiming that 'Elohim' denotes, represents, or contains more than one God Person (entity).

It is also claimed that the Hebrew 'Elohim' is a uniplural or collective noun and that such nouns (e.g. the English noun 'crowd') often govern singular verbs. This claim contradicts leading Hebrew grammars, which claim that throughout the Old Testament and when referring to God, the Hebrew noun 'Elohim' behaves as a singular noun, and governs only singular verbs, singular adjectives and singular pronouns. And only when 'elohim' refers to a number of pagan gods or humans (e.g. judges), that it behaves as a plural noun; and then governs plural verbs, plural adjectives and plural pronouns. So grammatically 'Elohim' is never a collective (uniplural) noun. That in reference to the true God, the noun 'Elohim' is singular, is well illustrated in Genesis 1:29, where this noun governs the singular pronoun 'I'.

Here are a selection of Hebrew grammars from which these claims may be further verified:

Gesenius' Hebrew Grammar edited and enlarged by E. Kautzsch, 2nd English edition by A.E. Cowley, paragraph 124 (g); Weingreen's Hebrew Grammar under 'God' in its English-Hebrew vocabulary; C.L. Seow's A Grammar for Biblical Hebrew, 1992 printing, the vocabulary on page 19; James D Martin's Davidson's Introductory Grammar, 27th edition, 1995 reprint, page 52.

So grammatically, too, all theologians and scholars agree that there is no justification for claiming that in Genesis 1:26 'God' (Elohim) denotes more than one God Person. Indeed throughout the Old Testament, 'Elohim' always denotes just one God Person.

Let's now examine the claim that in Genesis 1:26 'Elohim' denotes more than one God Person from a biblical basis.

From the Hebrew for verse 27 it may be seen that the Hebrew noun 'Elohim' (God) again governs a singular Hebrew verb ('created'). But even more importantly, 'Elohim' also governs the Hebrew singular pronouns 'His' and 'He'. Note that verse 27 does not say that 'they' created Adam in 'their' image, but that 'He' created Adam in His image! So verse 27 declares that one God created Adam and that He did so in His image. Not two or more Gods but only one God created Adam.

Verse 27, through the two singular clauses, "So God created man in His own image" and "in the image of God created He him", twice states that one God created Adam. From Genesis 41:32 it may be inferred that this repetition emphasizes certainty.

That only one God Person spoke in verse 26 and created Adam in verse 27, is further confirmed by verse 29. In verse 29 'God' (Elohim) uses the first person singular personal pronoun "I", in the phrase, "And God said, 'Behold, I have given you every herb...'".

Had two or more God Persons created Adam, they might have said: "We have given you every herb". Ignoring the necessities of language rules of grammar some still say that this "God" is a family of two and that as such only "one" of the two Gods actually did the hands on creating, but at the bequest of the other. Therefore, it is reasoned, the use of a singular pronoun simply reflects the overall view that there is still only "one" God, but with two distinct entities within the one (aka Mother Jerusalem and AhnsahngHong).

The tragedy of this is the denial of the proper use of the language- and specifically here in Genesis, along with the assumption that everything else in scripture that does not lend itself to this premise must somehow bend and be forced into compliance with this premise. There is no grammatical basis that can be produced to support this premise, which nevertheless seems to flourish in the minds of the adherents to this tenet of which I was once one, too. Without scriptural basis, other than- that is the way it must be for this premise to exist, the very premise is left to be nothing more than conjecture.

If the premise is true, then the "proof" must come from elsewhere, as nothing in Genesis can provide this "proof." Equivocation may be the most culpable in the creation of this tenet, and yet be the least recognized as such.

It has now been established through the rules of language that just one God Person spoke in Gen 1:26, and that this one God Person created Adam in His own image in verse 27 and that this one God Person then spoke to Adam using the singular pronoun "I" in verse 29.

So why does it say, "us" and "our"?

The Cohortative Mood of Genesis 1:26.

From Gesenius' 'Hebrew Grammar' and from Owens' 'Analytical Key to the Old Testament' with James D. Martin's 'Davidson's Introductory Hebrew Grammar' page 76, it may be seen that the Genesis 1:26 verbal phrase, "Let us make" is, in both Hebrew and English, the Cohortative or Voluntative mood.

This mood appears not understood by commentators to Genesis 1:26; and readers unfamiliar with the grammatical concept of the Cohortative Mood, are referred to the explanation given at the end of this paper. (Could this be due to preconceived notions in the minds of the translators, commentators, and the affected readers?)

Suffice to say that the Cohortative mood is a verbal mood for expressing a command from the 1st person (the speaker) to the 1st person singular or plural. It is a mood related to the Imperative mood, which is the more common command mood for expressing commands from the 1st person to the 2nd person singular or plural – as in Sit down!, or Present arms!.

In the Cohortative mood found in Genesis 1:26, the singular speaker, God, addresses Himself jointly with those present at the time. Therefore in Genesis 1:26 God, and those present with Him, jointly make up the plurality expressed by the pronoun 'us' in, "Let us make".

In particular the plurality of 'us' may not be taken to infer plurality to the speaker God, or even to those God spoke to.

It has now been shown in several different ways that linguistically there is no justification for inferring from "And God said, Let us make...", that the plurality of 'us' extends back to God. Rather the Cohortative mood demands that God, as the speaker issuing a command, is singular. This is also attested to by the singular Hebrew verb for 'said' (And God said) and the singular pronouns and singular verbs in subsequent verses, which refer back to God of Genesis 1:26.

This should help clarify past confusion resulting from ungrammatical and unbiblical claims that the Hebrew 'Elohim' of Genesis 1:26 is a uniplural or is a collective noun or in some other way points to there existing or not existing more than one God Person. In truth nothing may be concluded from Genesis 1:26 regarding the existence of multiple God Persons.

CONCLUSION:

The book of Genesis does not support the existence of Mother Jerusalem. Using verse 1:26 to suggest that “us” and “our” refers to Mother is a distortion of the truth and displays a complete lack of Biblical knowledge.

Cults favour simplistic explanations and simple minded doctrines because they are easier to teach. Accessible beliefs can be quickly and efficiently explained to the uneducated recruit, but upon close inspection these beliefs all disintegrate.

End note – Explanation of Cohortative Verb Mood

The reader needs to be first familiar with the grammatical terms: 1st person, 2nd person and 3rd person. The 1st person refers to the speaker(s) (I, we). The 2nd person refers to the person(s) spoken to (you singular, you plural) by the 1st person. And the 3rd person refers to the person(s) spoken about (he, she, it, and they) by the 1st person to the 2nd person. As an example: I (1st person) tell you (2nd person.) that he (3rd person) is tall.

The 1st, 2nd and 3rd person may be singular (I, you, he) or plural (we, you, they). The 1st person can only speak to the 2nd person. In particular the 1st person can not speak to the 3rd person: but can only speak about the 3rd person to the 2nd person. This last point is important for understanding the Jussive command mood. The 1st person can speak to the 1st person singular, namely, when he speaks to himself. But when the 1st person speaks to the 1st person plural, he addresses himself and the one(s) with him. This last point is important for understanding the Cohortative mood.

There are three verbal moods for expressing commands or strongly held wishes or intentions. The Imperative mood is the most commonly-used of the three command moods. All three command moods are used by the 1st person (speaker); but he may address them: (a) to the 1st person by using the Cohortative mood; or (b) to the 2nd person by using the Imperative mood; and (c) to the 3rd person(s) by using the Jussive mood.

The Imperative mood is usually used by a superior to an subordinate; as in: Stand!, and Present arms! In the Jussive mood the 1st person gives a command for the 3rd person to the 2nd person; as in: Don't let him go!, and Make him stay! Note that grammatically it is impossible for the 1st person to address directly the 3rd person; because the 3rd person is the one spoken about to the 2nd person.

In the Cohortative mood the 1st person commands the 1st person singular or plural. When the 1st person commands the 1st person singular, the command is to self, as in I shall guard. But when the 1st person commands the 1st person plural, the commands (1) himself and (2) the one(s) with him, as in Let us make....
. For this last case note in particular that the subject is singular. That is the plurality of the ones commanded (us) does not transfer backwards to the subject. This point is generally overlooked by commentators to Genesis 1:26, "And God (singular) said, Let us (plural) make man in our image..."

Note that the English Jussive and Cohortative moods require auxiliary verbs (e.g. shall, make and let). Also that in neither the Imperative, nor the Jussive mood, nor the Cohortative mood a subject (speaker) is expressed. So these commands are usually brief, as in: Sit!, Don't let him go!, and Let us make. The Subject is simply understood.

<http://ahnsahngong.tinypurplegrapes.com/>

Visit this site for more details on this cult.

By: Ted on May 28, 2008

at 8:43 pm

Reply

Poland said: "Again, the Church of God haters are using the opinion of men to criticise the truths of the Bible."

By: Jamie on May 28, 2008

at 8:57 pm

LOL. To this I say:

Reply

"Again, the Church of God cultists are using against loving God with their minds when they deliberately ignore what scholarly research, study and reasoning have revealed about language"

I pity the CoG members. The early church fathers were so committed to loving God with their minds as well. Look at Paul, who explained the writings of the Scripture in such a clear manner. he was a very smart man! Look at people like Augustine! Why aren't the CoG members doing the same? Hypocrites! They tell us to follow all of God's Word and yet they fall short in this simple thing!!

CoG = FAIL

BTW no_us_in_Genesis, very good post you did :))

By: Jamie on May 28, 2008

at 8:58 pm

Reply

Church of God haters, how many image of man in this world? If God created man in His image, why there's also a female image of man in this world? Clearly, there's a male and female image of God. I guess for Church of God haters there's only one image of God which is male. Your opinion guys are great but no match against the Bible.

By: Poland on May 28, 2008

at 9:26 pm

Reply

Let us confirm that there is both a male and a female image of God, through the book of Genesis.

Gen. 1:26-27 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness,"...So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

Both males and females were created in the image of God, and thus it is clear that God has two images: a male image and a female image. When God said, "Let us make man in our image," God used the word "us"-a plural term-instead of using "me." We come to understand that not one God, but two Gods-a Father and a Mother-worked together during the Creation. Such plural terms are used to describe God in Genesis chapter 11, also.

Gen. 11:1-7 ...The LORD said..."Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other."

This verse, too, makes reference to Elohim God, the same God who created male and female (in Genesis chapter 1), saying, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness." In Genesis chapter 11, God was responding to the arrogance of the people, who had collectively built the tower of Babel. Through this situation, God testifies that there exists a God the Mother as well as a God the Father by saying, "Let us go down..."

Keep trying. Opinion of men are not valid.

"US" is not defined as male and female.

By: Dark Angel on
May 28, 2008
at 9:34 pm

Reply

Actually, there is no indication of a female god, or should we say goddess.

By: Dark Angel on
May 28, 2008
at 9:36 pm

Reply

Poland said "Keep trying. Opinion of men are not valid."

By: Jamie on May 28,
2008
at 10:10 pm

Our sentiments exactly. Anh Sang Hong and Joo's opinions are definitely not valid, and neither is anything CoG teaches.

Reply

Keep trying, but your ultimate end is FAIL.

CoG = FAIL

First of all, Man and woman are not tiny

By: Ted on May 28,

"carbon copies" of God, and the fact that there are men and women does not require that God have male and female features. Remember, being made in the image of God has nothing to do with physical characteristics.

2008
at 11:54 pm

Reply

If I were a painter, I could paint a picture of a woman in the image of myself. This does not require me to be female.

Jesus referred to God as the Father numerous times, and in other cases used masculine pronouns in reference to God. In the Gospels alone, Christ uses the term "Father" in direct reference to God nearly 160 times. Of particular interest is Christ's statement in John 10:30. He says here, "I and my Father are one." Obviously, Jesus Christ came in the form of a human man to die on the cross as payment for the sins of the world, and, like God the Father, was revealed to mankind in a male form. Scripture records numerous other instances where Christ utilized masculine nouns and pronouns in reference to God.

The New Testament Epistles (from Acts to Revelation) also contain nearly 900 verses where the word "theos" (a masculine Greek noun) is used in direct reference to God. In most cases, this is rendered "God" in English versions.

In countless references to God in Scripture, there is clearly a consistent pattern of His being referred to with masculine titles, nouns, and pronouns. While God is not a man, but is a Spirit, He chose a masculine form in order to reveal Himself to mankind. Likewise, Jesus Christ, who is constantly referred to with masculine titles, nouns, and pronouns, took a male form while He walked on the earth. The prophets of the Old Testament and the Apostles of the New Testament refer to both God and Jesus Christ with masculine names and titles.

In Genesis, the COG interpret "us" as meaning a male and female God. But this is wrong as grammatically the word Elohim is never a collective (uniplural) noun. That in reference to the true God, the noun 'Elohim' is singular, is well illustrated in verse 29, where this noun governs the singular pronoun "I".

The book of Genesis was written by the Jews. It's the first book of the Bible of Judaism. The Jews believed in a SINGLE, God. They were monotheistic. When Christianity was formed, however, the words were "reinterpreted" to justify the idea of the Trinitarian (father, son, holy spirit). Essentially Christians turned "GOD" into "JESUS and GOD".

Consider this verse...

"I am YHWH and there is no other; besides Me there are no gods; I have girded you (protected you) even though you did not know Me. So that they will know from the rising of the sun to the setting that there is none besides Me; I am YHWH and there is no other. The one who forms light and creates darkness, who makes peace and creates evil, I YHWH do all these things." (Isa 45:5-7).

There is nothing "plural" or "male and female" about this. Rather "elohim" as all Jew and Hebrew scholars know masculine singular word, or what they call a "magestic plural" word. What this means is that it is plural in the sense of "i am god before all others".

So there is singularity (i am one) amongst pluralism (over ALL OTHERS). That's what scholars call "magestic pluralism".

There are many pages on the net that discuss this.

<http://www.wcg.org/lit/god/elohimp.htm>
<http://www.israelofgod.org/elohim1.htm>

Also, you should note that Moses is also called elohim (Exodus 4:16; 7:1) and Jesus too, though I can't remember the verse. But the scriptures concerning Moses show that elohim is applied to a singular person, Moses. It denotes the supremacy of the power given to Moses by God over the power of the Pharaoh and the gods of Pharaoh.

Now the COG wrongly believe the elohim denotes a plural female God, but even if that were true, you'd have to deal with the fact that whenever the female noun of "el" is used in reference to God, ANYWHERE in the BIBLE, it ALWAYS denotes the Pagan God or Idol, often to show that Israel is following a false God.

<http://www.google.com/search?hl=en&q=is+elohim+plural>

By: LOLAGE on May 29, 2008 at 7:25 am

Funny, when you type "elohim" and "plural" into google, you get a buncha pages explaining why the "GOD" in Genesis is singular and does NOT refer to a female God.

Reply

COG=FAIL

American Heritage Dictionary – Cite This Source – Share This El·o·him Audio Help (ě'l'ō-hēm', -hīm', ə-lō'hīm) Pronunciation Key
n. A name for God in the Hebrew Scriptures.

By: Clark on May 29, 2008 at 3:05 pm

[Hebrew 'ělōhīm, pl. of 'ělōah, god; see I in Semitic roots.]

Reply

I guess the Americans are smarter than everyone else. Interesting.

This forum is pretty good. I can't believe what I am seeing and reading here. I am actually a neutral guy and my point of view is that everything is based on their own belief. I'm

By: Clark on May 29, 2008 at 3:56 pm

Reply

actually amazed to the teaching of Church of God but somehow I see a lot of misinterpretation their doing. I love Science due to the fact that all it's theories are proven and back up with evidence. I also love getting into the arguments of everyone and see what each side has.

Anyway, as you see above as I stated, I can see that a lot of you guys are actually believing only on what you guys want to believe. I should you guys that "Elohim" is the plural of "eloah" according to American Heritage Dictionary.

In the Bible the word for God in the Hebrew that is most often used is Elohim. It is a plural noun. Today it is popular to say it means plural of majesty. However the form of the word, Eloh-im, is plural. The word for God in the singular sense is El which is used most often in describing Gods characteristics or attributes. El Eyon, El Shaddai, In the Hebrew when Elohim is when used of the true God it is used singular, as a composite unity, when it is used of false gods it is used in the plural. (ex. you shall have no other Gods Elohim before me.") Is God calling the false Gods majesties. God is not this nice to impostors who cause people to rebel and forsake him.

When looking at its usage it always refers to persons in the plural, there is no passage I've come across that it is used in the sense they claim.

For example in Gen 1:24-31 "Let us make man in OUR image is an appeal to self; Not to God and the angels. God is speaking of Himself and with Himself in the plural number. Some say this is a reference to the fullness of the divine power and attributes He possesses. This only part of it as God's Divine Being is more than His powers and attributes for within contains persons. He would not be speaking to his attributes but to that which can respond. I sa 40:13-14 "Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD, or as His counselor has taught Him? With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him..."

The preface im (masculine in gender) at the end of a word makes the word into a plural form. For example the angels called seraph or cherub are in the singular but when they are Seraphim or Cherubim they mean more than one.

The word for heavens is shamayim Gen.1:2 Again in the plural. Could we ever interpret this as a plural of majesty.

We find from the scriptures all the attributes of God belong to Elohim, they also belong to the three persons or the male and female image of God according to Church of God. Elohim can also be used for one person of the godhead or all three since they all share in the commonality of that eternal essence of deity. Each person the Father, Son and Spirit are 100% deity so when they appear singularly there is no division of that deity since God is indivisible. The same rule would be for the word God theos, in the N.T. . Such as in Jn.1:1 the word was with God and was God as sharing in the same essence.

Even the ancient Rabbis recognized this word as related to more than one. In the Midrash Rabbah on Genesis Rabbi Samuel bar Nahman in the name of Rabbi Jonathan said, that at the time when Moses wrote the Torah, writing a portion of it daily, when he came to this verse which says "And Elohim said, let us make man in our image after our likeness," Moses said, Master of the Universe why do you herewith an excuse to the sectarians (Who believe in the Triunity of God), God answered Moses, You write and whoever wants to err let him err." In other words God had Moses write down what is correct, and we are to study to understand it. Selah Elohim can be used as a general term for God in the O.T.. For example Samuel was called a Elohim when he came up from the dead (1 Sam.28:13-14) In Ex. 7:1 Moses was made an Elohim to Pharaoh. Jesus call the rulers in Israel Elohim, "Gods" ? (Jn. 10:34) After the Jews accuse Jesus of blasphemy because he being a man claimed to be God he answers "Is it not written in your law I said 'You are Gods' citing Ps.82:6: " This was addressed to the judges of Israel they were called Gods not because they were divine but because they represented God when they judged the people and were misrepresenting God. Jesus' point," is intended to show that the idea of a communication of the divine majesty to human nature was by no means foreign to the revelations of the O.T." (New Commentary on the whole Bible, Jamieson, Fausset, and Brown) So this title can be bestowed on those who are not by nature God. However they were never called Yahweh or I Am.

1 Cor. 8:5-6 states "For even if there are so-called Gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as there are many gods and many lords) yet for us there is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we for Him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and through whom we live." The Mormons use this scripture to promote their view of polytheism. Paul is speaking to the Corinthians who had a background of worshipping the Greek pagan gods and idols. He was writing in context before this about the idols they once worshipped. These were not God by nature even though they called them God. Look at how Paul clarifies this" but to us there is one God and includes both the Father and the Son."

But the point is, people will believe only on their side to make them win an argument. I'm pretty sure that Church of God will take Elohim as plural while like some of you will use the results of those Biblical scholars as proof that Elohim is singular. It's all about "I, ME, and MYSELF" who is right..

Clark, don't be like these Church of God haters who are blind and cannot see what the Bible really testifies. No matter how hard they try, they only find themselves fighting against God.

They're trying to change the fact the God has a male and female image. If that's not true then why there's a male and female image of man? Their using the opinion

By: Poland on May 29, 2008
at 4:22 pm

Reply

of men but it's funny that they can't change the fact the there's a male and female image of God just as there's a male and female image of man as Elohim created them.

Many Christians who profess to know the bible, do not recognize the existence of Mother God. Even though they study the bible wholeheartedly, they don't come to realize that the bible does not only testify about a Father God, but also about a Mother God. The God who created the heavens and the earth is not only male but also female. They are Elohim God, which in Hebrew means plural of the Supreme God.

By: Poland on May 29, 2008 at 5:09 pm

Reply

Genesis 1:26-27 (New King James Version)

26 Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." 27 So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.

very clearly we can see that the Creator God spoke in plural form. God didn't say "let me make man in my image". God said Let Us make man in Our image". Therefore, out of God's image came out male and female. There is a male image of God and a female image of God. The male image of God all Christians call our Father . Then, how about the female image of God? She is our Mother.

Revelation 22:17-17- The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.

Revelation 21:9One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." 10And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

Then who is the Heavenly Jerusalem?

Galatians 4:26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

The Church 2000 years ago believed in Heavenly Mother!! Nowadays, nobody teaches who is the Heavenly Mother. It is very important for our salvation to know who the Bride is because She will give us Eternal Life!! She says come to all peoples of the world to receive the water of life! The reason World Mission Society Church of God believes in Heavenly Mother is because she is God!! Second Coming Christ Ahnsahnghong came according to prophecy and revealed the bride in these last days. As only the groom can reveal to you his bride, so our Father Ahnsahnghong, the bridegroom, let us know His bride- The New Jerusalem who came down out of heaven as prophesied prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband!!

Revelation 19:7-7Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready. 8Fine linen, bright and clean, was given her to wear." (Fine linen stands for the righteous acts of the saints.) Then the angel said to me, "Write: 'Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb!' " And he added, "These are the true words of God."

Receive the Spirit and the Bride!!

Poland please. I am not blind and what your doing is proving to everyone based on your belief. Okay I'll give it to you that there's a male and female image of man so there's also a male and female image of God. So are you happy now? I am going to create a website with my own THESIS "People only believe on things which makes them right". If Science can give proofs and evidences then why everyone else not? Poland, have you actually witness with your own eyes that Elohim God exist? Or to the rest of you saying the God is only one image, have you guys actually saw God on how they look like? Is the Bible written literally by God or men? All of you are unbelievable. Can anyone here have an open mind and show me if the Bible is actually written by God or those Biblical scholars who thinks they know everything about it. Please, don't make up some stories that your mommy and daddy tells you before you guys go to bed. Prove something with REAL FACTS, NOT ASSUMPTIONS.

By: Clark on May 29, 2008
at 5:49 pm

Reply

Did everyone know that the King James version of the bible has been editing hundreds of years ago. During the witch hunts in europe, king james had the bible edited from "thou salt not suffer a thief to live" to "thou salt not suffer a witch to live". The bible still contains that edited phrase. Fun fact.

By: Clark on May 29, 2008
at 5:55 pm

Reply

The bible has been corrupted. read the RSV. they said the trinity is not supposed to be there, also the accenssion another corruption. Look how many books catholics have? 73 Protestant 66 eastern ortodox 83....which one is real one? Fun fact for all of you.

Poland,

By: Dark Angel on May 29, 2008
at 7:08 pm

this is taken from the bible in which you use and believe to be the perfect and absolute.

Reply

In the back of the KJV, the bible dictionary states that:

The New Jerusalem – The Principal city of God's new world that is to come, it's spiritual capital, beautiful and adorned; an expression of the church of those who are of the people of God.

That is the definition of New Jerusalem taken from the bible. So, are you saying that the definition is wrong?

Are you saying that those who defined this were not told the definition by God himself or inspired by God?

I'm just curious. Because, if it's wrong, then, there's a big problem with it being called "absolute" and "perfect".

How can one part be of men and the other be of God. If the definition is wrong, that doesn't sound like a perfect book to me.

I guess Dark Angel believe that the Bible is written by men, not by God. Thank you Dark Angel. You and Poland are both blind.

By: Clark on May 29, 2008
at 7:21 pm

Reply

Clark,

That was a question for Poland, not you. What I was trying to convey, is that anything beyond the definition the bible gives, would be considered interpretations or as he might refer to as "the will of men".

By: Dark Angel on May 29, 2008
at 7:45 pm

Reply

It's weird that you felt as though you had to defend yourself when Poland assumed that you were "spiritually blind", then you turn around and label both Poland and I, "blind".

Actually it's not weird, it's funny.

Aha Dark Angel. Let's say both of you are making your own opinion about what the Bible testifies, making it fit both of your doctrines. Dark Angel, your just as blind as Poland. Can you show me that God literally wrote the Bible Himself and not what you believe that the Bible scholars told you. Thank you for not believing their fairy tale stories.

By: Clark on May 29, 2008
at 7:51 pm

Reply

I don't have a "doctrine", Clark.

By: Dark Angel on May 29, 2008
at 8:11 pm

Reply

You don't have a so called "doctrine" but you believe what the Biblical scholars tell you. So what that makes you Dark Angel, a kid

By: Clark on May 29, 2008
at 8:28 pm

believing in some of their fairy tales stories?

Ohh men this is funny. Why you guys argue when both of you are following the same cults that the Bible tells you in different branch? One of you is in the Army while the other is in the Air Force but all the same cult.

Reply

By the way, the Bible creates war. This is an example why the world can't have peace. Because there's people like Dark Angel and Poland arguing as blindmen in the same darkness. I guess nobody can answer my question. Is the Bible written by God literally or by men with their own opinions? Please somebody answer it by intelligent men like you guys. Thank you.

Clark, you said,

"I am actually a neutral guy and my point of view is that everything is based on their own belief. I'm actually amazed to the teaching of Church of God but somehow I see a lot of misinterpretation their doing."

By: Dark Angel on
May 29, 2008
at 9:15 pm

Reply

Exactly what "misinterpretations" do you see?

Then, you also said,

"But the point is, people will believe only on their side to make them win an argument."

So Clark, what makes you any different from me or anyone else if you are here trying to prove your side or point of view is correct?

Your intensions are to get everyone to agree with your point of view, which is no different than what Poland and I are doing. Because, when all is said and done, you're going to believe what you want, just like everyone else in the world.

As you have stated here,

"It's all about "I, ME, and MYSELF" who is right.."

Alot of things create wars and division, Clark.

You said, "Is the Bible written by God literally or by men with their own opinions?"

I will give you my answer and my answer is, I don't know. Perhaps you can tell me if it is or is not with evidence on your claim?

Also Clark,

If you haven't done so already, I think that it will do you some good for you to read through

By: Dark Angel on
May 29, 2008
at 9:30 pm

the blog from the very beginning because it seems as though you have entered into a discussion without understanding how it started, which leads to assumptions and you speaking out of ignorance.

Reply

Because if you had read from the beginning, you wouldn't have been asking me those questions.

Thanks for the chat.

Dark Angel said he doesn't know who wrote the Bible when he believe what the Bible scholars told him. This is a twisted answer.

By: Clark on May 29, 2008 at 9:45 pm

Unfortunately Dark Angel, you believe on something that you don't actually know. How sad. Church of God members, can anyone of you answer my question? You guys have the truth so maybe you guys can tell me if God literally wrote the Bible or just a bunch of mere men. Let me guess, you guys are going to quote something from the Bible which is "written by men". So is that really from God that all of you profess?

Reply

Let me show Dark Angel a Bible scholar example whom he believe that "knows the Bible".

Frederick Fyvie Bruce (12 October 1910 – 11 September 1990) was a Bible scholar, and one of the founders of the modern evangelical understanding of the Bible. His work New Testament Documents: Are They Reliable? is considered a classic in the discipline of Christian apologetics.

He was born in Elgin, Moray in Scotland and was educated at the University of Aberdeen, Cambridge University and the University of Vienna. After teaching Greek for several years first at the University of Edinburgh and then at the University of Leeds he became head of the Department of Biblical History and Literature at the University of Sheffield in 1947. In 1959 he moved to the University of Manchester where he became professor of Biblical Criticism and Exegesis. In his career he wrote some thirty-three books and served as editor of The Evangelical Quarterly and the Palestine Exploration Quarterly. He retired from teaching in 1978.

Bruce was a distinguished scholar on the life and ministry of Paul the Apostle, and wrote several studies the best known of which is Paul: Apostle of the Free Spirit. He also wrote commentaries on several biblical books including Romans, Acts of the Apostles, 1 & 2 Corinthians, and the Epistle to the Hebrews.

Bruce was a dedicated member of the Open Plymouth Brethren[1]. However he did not affirm the dispensationalism[2] and pretribulationism[3] usually associated with that movement.

Most of his works were scholarly, but he also penned several mainstream works on the Bible that were quite popular. He viewed the New Testament as historically reliable and that the truth claims of Christianity hinged on its being so. To Bruce this did not mean that the Bible was always precise, and this lack of precision could lead to considerable confusion. However, he believed that the passages that were still open to debate were ones that had no substantial bearing on Christian theology and thinking.

He was honoured with two scholarly works by his colleagues and former students, one to mark his sixtieth and the other to mark his seventieth birthday. He was elected a Fellow of the British Academy, and served as President of the Society for Old Testament Study, and also as President of the Society for New Testament Study. He is one of a handful of scholars thus recognised by his peers in both fields.

Do you believe this man Dark Angel? Maybe? Please let me know.

Clark,

By: Dark Angel on
May 29, 2008
at 9:59 pm

What I believe is besides the point of this blog. You are really taking the focus away from what is really being discussed.

Reply

You are really contradicting yourself by stating, "Prove something with REAL FACTS, NOT ASSUMPTIONS."

Well Clark, you are making assumptions about me without facts or proof by making comments like this:

"Dark Angel said he doesn't know who wrote the Bible when he believe what the Bible scholars told him. This is a twisted answer."

I will not entertain your questions any longer because, it has nothing to do with the topic.

Take care, Clark.

Clark, I tend to agree with Dark Angel in the fact that it does appear that you have your own understanding and belief that you would like us to understand and agree with. Which is fine! I guess I'd like to know in full disclosure where you are coming from and what your beliefs are because I'm having difficulty in understanding all you have written in it's full context.

By: CoGinator on May 29, 2008
at 10:01 pm

Reply

For some of us here, like myself, I don't have my own agenda that I'm trying to push to everyone else to believe, although, in trying to understand the bible and what the true intentions and purpose of it, is my ultimate goal. Along the way of that I will learn aspects and tend to ride those beliefs until proven, or shown another way that makes more sense.

In the case of the CoG, while I understand how they derive at thier conclusions, further understanding and investigating of the bible will strongly disproves thier beliefs that differ from mainstream Christianity. Since they operate as a cult in the purest form, and seeing that I have a close friend that has really changed for the worse since aligning with this organization. I do have the intention and desire to prove thier doctrine is false, although if proven otherwise, I would be humble enough to admit to my friend and follow too. Thus far, the CoG has come far from finding any truths that hold validity... and the mainstream understanding of Christianity is so far the most logical in it's understanding of the bible.

To answer your question: "Is the Bible written by God literally or by men with their own opinions?"

My personal belief (aka what I think and not fact) is that Man has written the bible inspired by God, and while it's the best thing out there, it's not a perfect document... especially when you factor in the different translations and versions. However, I do believe it's what God has intended to help guide us...we just need to use a little common sense and have some humility in knowing we could be missing the mark.

In believing God is our father, fair and loving, I tend to sway towards following the intention of the bible. Whenever I wonder what God ultimately wants for us, I put it in the perspective of a Father... strict yet flexible, loving and fair, lets us experience life on our own. However following His way will always prove to be the right way, but is there to help us when we need and ask for it...

Clark probably hasn't and family in the cog and therefore doesn't have a "stake" in this discussion.

By: question everything on May 29, 2008 at 10:28 pm

BTW: I KNEW MY QUESTIONS WOULD BE AVOIDED!!!!

Reply

I knew my questions would not be answered.....

By: question everything on May 29, 2008 at 10:36 pm

Reply

Poland you're just repeating yourself.

By: Ted on May 29, 2008 at 10:47 pm

You said: "Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them."

Reply

First of all, Man and Woman are not tiny "carbon copies" of God, and the fact that there are men and women does not require that God have male or female features. Being made in the image of God has nothing to do with physical characteristics.

For example, if I were a painter, I could paint a picture of a woman in the image of myself. This does not require me to be female.

Jesus referred to God as the Father numerous times, and in other cases used masculine pronouns in reference to God. In the Gospels alone, Christ uses the term "Father" in direct reference to God nearly 160 times. Of particular interest is Christ's statement in John 10:30. He says here, "I and my Father are one."

Scripture records numerous other instances where Christ utilized masculine nouns and pronouns in reference to God.

The New Testament Epistles (from Acts to Revelation) also contain nearly 900 verses where the word "theos" (a masculine Greek noun) is used in direct reference to God. In most cases, this is rendered "God" in English versions.

In countless references to God in Scripture, there is clearly a consistent pattern of His being referred to with masculine titles, nouns, and pronouns. While God is not a man, but is a Spirit, He chose a masculine form in order to reveal Himself to mankind. Likewise, Jesus Christ, who is constantly referred to with masculine titles, nouns, and pronouns, took a male form while He walked on the earth. The prophets of the Old Testament and the Apostles of the New Testament refer to both God and Jesus Christ with masculine names and titles.

In Genesis, the COG interpret "us" as meaning a male and female God. But this is wrong as grammatically the word Elohim is never a collective (uniplural) noun. That in reference to the true God, the noun 'Elohim' is singular, is well illustrated in verse 29, where this noun governs the singular pronoun "I".

More importantly, the book of Genesis was written by the Jews. It's the first book of the Bible of Judaism. The Jews believed in a SINGLE, God. They were monotheistic. When Christianity was formed, however, the words were "reinterpreted" to justify the idea of the Trinitarian (father, son, holy spirit). Essentially Christians turned "GOD" into "JESUS and GOD". Now the COG have hijacked this misunderstanding and further twisted it. No longer does "us" mean "father son and holy spirit". Now means "mother and father".

But consider this verse...

"I am YHWH and there is no other; besides Me there are no gods; I have girded you (protected you) even though you did not know Me. So that they will know from the rising of the sun to the setting that there is none besides Me; I am YHWH and there is no other. The one who forms light and creates darkness, who makes peace and creates evil, I YHWH do all these things." (Isa 45:5-7).

There is nothing "plural" or "male and female" about this. Rather "elohim" as all Jew and Hebrew scholars know, is a masculine singular word, or what they call a "magestic plural" word. What this means is that it is plural in the sense of "i am god before all others".

So this shows singularity (i am one) amongst pluralism (over ALL OTHERS). That's what scholars call "magestic pluralism".

There are many pages on the net that discuss this. Here are few:

<http://www.wcg.org/lit/god/elohimp.htm>

<http://www.israelofgod.org/elohim1.htm>

But you should do your own research and study this further. Study the issue from all angles. Also, you should note that Moses is also called elohim throughout the Bible (Exodus 4:16; 7:1). Jesus likewise, though I can't remember the verses. But the scriptures concerning Moses show that elohim is applied to a singular person. It denotes the supremacy of the power given to Moses by God over the power of the Pharaoh and the gods of Pharaoh.

Now the COG wrongly believe the elohim denotes a plural female God, but even if that were true, you'd have to deal with the fact that whenever the female noun is used ANYWHERE in the BIBLE, it ALWAYS denotes a Pagan God or Idol, often to show that Israel is following a false God. So no matter how the COG approach the argument, they lose. If the Bible did intend to speak of a female God (which it doesn't!), then she's clearly a pagan idol.

There are four ways to look at "us":

1. The original Jewish scripture is corrupted. IE- the Jews believe in 1 God. Christians corrupt the meaning to justify the existence of Jesus (Trinitarian beliefs)
2. "Us" refers to the father, son and holy spirit.
3. "Us", as some modern Jews believe, refers to Jesus addressing the Holy Council of Angels. IE-"We in heaven shall make man in our holy image".
4. It refers to two Korean lovers.
5. Elohim is gramatically correct and refers to the Hebrew god in the singular. It is as if I wrote: "I said, "We should go to the shops today."

The fact that "we" is the subject of my quoted speech does not make me plural.

Poland you're just repeating yourself.

By: Ted on May 29,
2008

at 10:49 pm

You said: "Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them."

Reply

First of all, Man and Woman are not tiny "carbon copies" of God, and the fact that there are men and women does not require that God have male or female features. Being made in the image of God has nothing to do with physical characteristics.

For example, if I were a painter, I could paint a picture of a woman in the image of myself. This does not require me to be female.

Jesus referred to God as the Father numerous times, and in other cases used masculine pronouns in reference to God. In the Gospels alone, Christ uses the term "Father" in direct reference to God nearly 160 times. Of particular interest is Christ's statement in John 10:30. He says here, "I and my Father are one."

Scripture records numerous other instances where Christ utilized masculine nouns and pronouns in reference to God.

The New Testament Epistles (from Acts to Revelation) also contain nearly 900 verses where the word "theos" (a masculine Greek noun) is used in direct reference to God. In most cases, this is rendered "God" in English versions.

In countless references to God in Scripture, there is clearly a consistent pattern of His being referred to with masculine titles, nouns, and pronouns. While God is not a man, but is a Spirit, He chose a masculine form in order to reveal Himself to mankind. Likewise, Jesus Christ, who is constantly referred to with masculine titles, nouns, and pronouns, took a male form while He walked on the earth. The prophets of the Old Testament and the Apostles of the New Testament refer to both God and Jesus Christ with masculine names and titles.

In Genesis, the COG interpret "us" as meaning a male and female God. But this is wrong as grammatically the word Elohim is never a collective (uniplural) noun. That in reference to the true God, the noun 'Elohim' is singular, is well illustrated in verse 29, where this noun governs the singular pronoun "I".

More importantly, the book of Genesis was written by the Jews. It's the first book of the Bible of Judaism. The Jews believed in a SINGLE, God. They were monotheistic. When Christianity was formed, however, the words were "reinterpreted" to justify the idea of the Trinitarian (father, son, holy spirit). Essentially Christians turned "GOD" into "JESUS and GOD". Now the COG have hijacked this misunderstanding and further twisted it. No longer does "us" mean "father son and holy spirit". Now means "mother and father".

But consider this verse...

"I am YHWH and there is no other; besides Me there are no gods; I have girded you (protected you) even though you did not know Me. So that they will know from the rising of the sun to the setting that there is none besides Me; I am YHWH and there is no other. The one who forms light and creates darkness, who makes peace and creates evil, I YHWH do all these things." (Isa 45:5-7).

There is nothing "plural" or "male and female" about this. Rather "elohim" as all Jew and Hebrew scholars know, is a masculine singular word, or what they call a "magestic plural" word. What this means is that it is plural in the sense of "i am god before all others".

So this shows singularity (i am one) amongst pluralism (over ALL OTHERS). That's what scholars call "magestic pluralism".

Also, you should note that Moses is also called elohim throughout the Bible (Exodus 4:16; 7:1). Jesus likewise, though I can't remember the verses. But the scriptures concerning Moses show that elohim is applied to a singular person. It denotes the supremacy of the power given to Moses by God over the power of the Pharaoh and the gods of Pharaoh.

Now the COG wrongly believe the elohim denotes a plural female God, but even if that were true, you'd have to deal with the fact that whenever the female noun is used ANYWHERE in the BIBLE, it ALWAYS denotes a Pagan God or Idol, often to show that Israel is following a false God. So no matter how the COG approach the argument, they lose. If the Bible did intend to speak of a female God (which it doesn't!), then she's clearly a pagan idol.

There are four ways to look at "us":

1. The original Jewish scripture is corrupted. IE- the Jews believe in 1 God. Christians corrupt the meaning to justify the existence of Jesus (Trinitarian beliefs)
2. "Us" refers to the father, son and holy spirit.
3. "Us", as some modern Jews believe, refers to Jesus addressing the Holy Council of Angels. IE-"We in heaven shall make man in our holy image".
4. It refers to two Korean lovers.
5. Elohim is gramatically correct and refers to the Hebrew god in the singular. It is as if I wrote: "I said, "We should go to the shops today."

The fact that "we" is the subject of my quoted speech does not make me plural.

COGinator, I understand your point of view but as far as defining that men who are inspired by God wrote the Bible is not enough proof. Now I've talked to other ignorants that Jesus who is the Son of God wrote the Bible, then how can you prove the Old Testament is written by God. Even in the Bible, God never came in flesh in the Old Testament. I could write a book and be inspired by someone but I am a man. So if these Bible scholars think they can decide how the Bible is gonna be written, then it's pretty much their own opinion based on what they see and not from God. But we have to look at what really need in our daily lives and see how we can make our world better instead of fighting on who is right when it comes to the Bible that is clearly written by men.

By: Clark on May 29, 2008
at 11:09 pm

Reply

Ted said "First of all, Man and Woman are not tiny "carbon copies" of God, and the fact that there are men and women does not require that God have male or female features. Being made in the image of God has nothing to do with physical characteristics.

By: Poland on May 29, 2008
at 11:24 pm

Reply

For example, if I were a painter, I could paint a picture of a woman in the image of myself. This does not require me to be female."

Ted that's only your own opinion. Your assuming that God is only in male image when there's clearly a male and female man in this world. If God clearly said to create man in their image, then why there's a male and female man? Ted, I didn't assume this because we are living here on Earth with male and female image of man. I guess you might want to delete this verse.

Hebrews 8:5 – They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: "See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain."

Ted in a family there's a Father, Mother, Brothers and Sisters.

John 14:1-4 – "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going."

Galatians 4:26-31 – But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother. For it is written:
"Be glad, O barren woman,
who bears no children;
break forth and cry aloud,
you who have no labor pains;
because more are the children of the desolate woman
than of her who has a husband."

Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise. At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

Ted do you understand these? I hope so. We can only be "children of Jerusalem Mother" if we follow and believe her.

Below are some quotes I've collected from various scholars concerning the usage of Elohim as a plural intensive, or as some prefer, "plural of majesty" (a pluralis excellentiae) or "plentitude of might". As you see it does not refer to a plural god, either in the Trinitarian sense, or a sexual sense (male/female).

By: Ted on May 29, 2008
at 11:25 pm

Reply

Also note that when the female noun is used elsewhere in the Bible, it always refers to a Pagan God or false idol.

—
'elohiym el-o-heem' – plural of 433; gods in the ordinary sense; but specifically used (in the plural thus, especially with the article) of the supreme God; occasionally applied by way of deference to magistrates; and sometimes as a superlative:—angels, X exceeding, God (gods)(-dess, -ly), X (very) great, judges, X mighty. — A Concise Dictionary of the Words in the Hebrew Bible, With Their Renderings in the Authorized English Version, by James Strong, S.T.D., LL. D.

"Elohim is a plural form which is often used in Hebrew to denote magesty of might" (Hertz, The Pentateuch and Haftorahs).

"The form of the word, Elohim, is plural. The Hebrews pluralized nouns to express greatness or majesty" (Flanders, Cresson; Introduction to the Bible).

"Elohim is the plural of Eloah (in Arabic Allah); it is often used in the short form EL (a word signifying strength , as in EL-SHADDAI, God Almighty, the name by which God was specially known to the patriarchs. (Genesis 17:1; 28:3; Exodus 6:3) The etymology is uncertain, but it is generally agreed that the primary idea is that of strength, power of effect, and that it properly describes God in that character in which he is exhibited to all men in his works, as the creator, sustainer and supreme governor of the world. The plural form of Elohim has given rise to much discussion. The fanciful idea that it referred to the trinity of persons in the Godhead hardly finds now a supporter among scholars. It is either what grammarians call the plural of majesty, or it denotes the fullness of divine strength, the sum of the powers displayed by God. Jehovah denotes specifically the one true God, whose people the Jews were, and who made them the guardians of his truth." —

Smith's Bible Dictionary

"Elohim: this mac. Hebr. noun is pl. in form but it has both sing. and pl. uses. In a pl. sense it refers to rulers or judges with divine connections (Ex. 21:60; pagan gods (Ex.18:11; Ps. 86:8); and probably angels (Ps. 8:5; 97:7). In both of the passages where 'angels' is the apparent meaning it is so translated in the Sept. On the former see Hebrews 2:7. In the sing. sense it is used of a god or a goddess (1 Sam. 5:7; 2 Kgs. 18:34); a man in a position like a god (Ex. 7:1); God (Deut. 7:9; Ezra 1:3; Is. 45:18 and many other OT passages). With the latter meaning it occurs with several modifiers such as righteous (Ps. 7:90), living (1 Sam. 17:26), holy (Josh. 24:19), and true (2 Chr. 15:3). It usually takes a sing. verb so no implication of any plurality in the divine nature can be inferred from the fact the word is plural."

— Lexical Aids to the Old Testament, as appears in the Appendix of Hebrew-Greek Key Word Study Bible, Executive Editor, Spiros Zodhiates, Th.D., page 1598

God created. The Hebrew noun Elohim is plural but the verb is singular, a normal usage in the OT when reference is to the one true God. This use of the plural expresses intensification rather than number and has been called the plural of majesty, or of potentiality. — New International Version Study Bible, Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 1985, p. 6.

This word [elohim], which is generally viewed as the plural of eloah [Strong's #433], is found far more frequently in Scripture than either el or eloah for the true God. The plural ending is usually described as a plural of majesty and not intended as a true plural when used of God. This is seen in the fact that the noun elohim is consistently used with singular verb forms and with adjectives and pronouns in the singular. It is used to differentiate God from Pagan Idols. — Theological Wordbook of the Old Testament, Volume 1 (edited by R. Laird Harris, Gleason L. Archer Jr., and Bruce K. Waltke, Chicago: Moody Press, 1980, page 44):

Elohim is the common name for God. It is a plural form, but "The usage of the language gives no support to the supposition that we have in the plural form Elohim, applied to the God of Israel, the remains of an early polytheism, or at least a combination with the higher spiritual beings" (Kautzsch). Grammarians call it a plural of majesty or rank, or of abstraction, or of magnitude (Gesenius, Grammatik, 27th ed., nn. 124 g, 132 h). The Ethiopic plural amlak has become a proper name of God. Hoffmann has pointed out an analogous plural elim in the Phoenician inscriptions (Ueber einige phon. Inschr., 1889, p. 17 sqq.), and Barton has shown that in the tablets from El-Amarna the plural form ilani replaces the singular more than forty times (Proceedings of the American Oriental Society, 21-23 April, 1892, pp. cxcvi-cxcix).... If we have recourse to the use of the word Elohim in the study of its meaning, we find that in its proper sense it denotes either the true God or false gods, and metaphorically it is applied to judges, angels, and kings; and even accompanies other nouns, giving them a superlative meaning. — New Advent Catholic Encyclopedia.

It (Elohim,) is derived from an Arabic word, which signifies to reverence, to honor, to worship. Hence, it comes to pass that it is frequently applied to kings, magistrates, judges, and others to whom reverence is shown, and who are regarded as the representatives of the Deity upon earth. Psalm 82:6. Exo.. 7:1...The plural of this word, Elohim, though it denotes but one subject, is appropriately used to designate Jehovah by way of eminence. In fact, many theologians have thought they perceived an allusion to the doctrine of the Trinity, though they have no sufficient ground for supposing that this doctrine was known at so early a period. And without resorting to this supposition, the application of this plural name to a singular subject may be explained from an idiom of the ancient oriental and some other languages, by which anything great or eminent was expressed in the plural number, (pluralis dignitatis, or majestaticus.) Accordingly, Eloha, (the singular,) augustus, [majestic,] may be considered as the positive degree, of which Elohim, (the plural,) augustissimus, [most majestic,] is the superlative. — Knapp's Theology, page 93

There are two theories as to why the word [elohim] is plural: In one view, predominant among anthropomorphic monotheists, the word is plural because of the common Hebrew practice of expressing extension, magnitude and dignity by pluralizing the form of words. In another view, more common among secular historians and polytheists, is that the word's plurality is reflective of early Hebrew polytheism. — "Elohim", Wikipedia

Clarke, regarding your points, there are only 3 ways of looking at this:

1. The Bible is flawless and is exactly as God wants it.
2. The Bible is inspired by God and written by man. But man is imperfect, thus the Bible is imperfect.
3. The Bible is simply a corrupt text written by man, and has no holy basis.

In each case, the knowledge of Biblical scholars is vital. It is not simply "their own opinion". The Bible is a historical document which needs to be analysed and understood in the context of the language, customs and time it was written.

Or are you saying that experts, people who study history, language, semiotics and religion have no right to study the Bible? Are you saying that their opinion is flawed and not of God?

I would say their opinions are objective and logical. They have no religious bias and are simply out to uncover truth. The meaning of the word "elohim" is a simple truth. A truth based on customs, language and historical fact.

Which is more likely: that "elohim" suddenly now means

"male and female" or that the Hebrew writers used it exactly as they've used it since 1450 BC?

"Ted that's only your own opinion. Your assuming that God is only in male image when there's clearly a male and female man in this world. If God clearly said to create man in their image, then why there's a male and female man? Ted, I didn't assume this because we are living here on Earth with male and female image of man. I guess you might want to delete this verse."

By: Ted on May 29, 2008 at 11:46 pm

Reply

But you're ignoring the actual Hebrew text in which the verse was written. Gramatically, it's a masculine word which doesn't denote pluralism. I've already shown you the only 4 ways in which the verse can be interpreted.

Secondly, saying that something is the "image" of something else doesn't mean that there's a male and female god. That's just wishful thinking.

You're saying that because God made man in his image, that there must be a female God because there are females on earth? That's all very silly.

Ignoring that there is no "us" in genesis, it just lacks common sense. There are male and female animals, did god create them out of holy images too?

Poland said: "Hebrews 8:5 – They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: "See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain."

This verse you've quoted has nothing to do with this discussion. You don't even want to get me started on "shadow concepts". Do you know how many New Age cults use these silly justifications?

Poland said: "Ted in a family there's a Father, Mother, Brothers and Sisters."

And Uncles and Aunts and grandparents and grandfathers and nieces and nephews and cousins and second counins and mother in laws and father in laws....does God have an "image" of all these folk?

The COG's doctrines are all highly simplistic.

Poland said: "John 14:1-4 – "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going."

This verse has nothing to do with this discussion.

Poland said: "Galatians 4:26-31 – But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother. For it is written: "Be glad, O barren woman, who bears no children; break forth and cry aloud, you who have no labor pains; because more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband."

Oh boy. How long have you been with the COG? They have you fully indoctrinated. I used to teach young recruits these very same beliefs.

Jeremiah 7:18 warns us about female Gods and Queens in heaven.

"The children gather wood and the father kindles the fire, and the women knead their dough to make cakes to the Queen Of Heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods that they may provoke me to anger." - Jeremiah 7:18

Mother Jerusalem is a pagan goddess and devil. No I'm just joking, she's simply a greedy con artist.

The COG like to use Galatians to "prove mother", but that's completely wrong. Paul's argument in Galatians resonates, not with the Genesis narrative, but with Isaiah's transformation of its themes of seed and inheritance.

By using Isa 54:1 to sound the note of barrenness in Gal 4:27, Paul is figuratively evoking echoes of Isaiah's proclamation concerning the seed and the inheritance.

Isaiah's interpretation of the identify of Abraham's seed and the inheritance as related to the Jews of his time must be understood in the NEGATIVE light in which Isaiah introduces his prophecy.

Isaiah prophesies AGAINST Jerusalem. The people of Jerusalem are called "an evil seed" in Isa 1:4 because they have "forsaken the Lord and provoked the Holy One of Israel."

As Isaiah understands it, the unfaithfulness of the people has invoked the curses of the covenant. For them the covenant has become a covenant of death and the people who expect blessing hope in a lie (Isa 28:14-15). Isaiah declares that "the faithful city of Jerusalem has become a harlot" (Isa 1:21).

But in the midst of such scorching condemnation, Isaiah announces to Jerusalem that though judged for her sin, in the future she shall be called city of righteousness. In the Greek text of Isa 1:26, but not in the Hebrew, a future Jerusalem is identified who is a mother. This Greek text echoes in Gal 4:26, when Paul refers to "Jerusalem, our mother."

Now within Isaiah's proclamation there are two images of a personified female Jerusalem—one a barren and rejected woman, the other a faithful mother. But this personification is in reference to the woman Sarah.

Isaiah reminds Israel that just as Yahweh intervened to transform Sarah from a barren woman as good as dead to a fruitful mother of many children, so he will transform a Jerusalem destroyed by sin into a city with a thriving population of righteous seed.

Isaiah's proclamation draws a continuity between Jerusalem in exile and Jerusalem in glory. But by describing two Jerusalems, one barren, the other a mother, Isaiah provides a canonical basis for Paul to later further distinguish and separate the two.

When Paul refers to Mother Jerusalem he is echoing Isaiah's portrayal of two Jerusalems. In Galatians the two Jerusalems metonymically represent the two sides of Paul's antithesis between the spiritual states of being (cf. Gal 3:2, 5, 12, 23-25).

The analogy that Isaiah establishes between Sarah and Mother extends to, and transforms the sense of, the covenant, the seed, and the inheritance. These three elements are integral both to the Genesis patriarch narratives and to Paul's argument in Galatians.

God established his covenant with Abraham after he promised that Sarah would bear a son and before that son was actually born. Analogously, through Isaiah, Yahweh establishes a covenant with the seed of the barren Jerusalem who, at the time the promise was made, did not yet exist: "And this shall be my covenant with them, said the Lord; My Spirit which is upon you (the deliverer of Zion), and the words which I have put in your mouth, shall never fail from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your seed, for the Lord has spoken it, from now and forever" (Isa 59:21)

In transforming narrative history to prophetic proclamation, Isaiah introduces the Holy Spirit as defining the future seed of the faithful mother-city Jerusalem: "But now hear, Jacob, my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen. Thus saith the Lord God that made thee, and he that formed thee from the womb; Thou shalt yet be helped; fear not, my servant Jacob; and beloved Israel, whom I have chosen. For I will give water to the thirsty that walk in a dry land: I will put my Spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thy children" (Isa 44:1-3).

In distinction, the seed of barren, rejected Jerusalem, are banished to exile as those who have "framed counsel, not by me, and covenants not by my Spirit, to add sins to sins"

Isaiah speaks of a seed of Abraham who are apart from God's Spirit and who suffer judgment. Just as Isaiah speaks of two Jerusalems, he speaks of two seeds, one who inherit covenant blessings, the other covenant curses.

Isaiah merges the concepts of seed, inheritance, and covenant with the operation of the Holy Spirit as he prophetically transforms the theme of barrenness. The seed of the patriarchs whose mother-city is the redeemed Jerusalem is transformed in Isaiah to be, without mention of circumcision, those who pursue righteousness and seek the Lord, those to whom the Holy Spirit is given. Isaiah provides a canonical development of this theme that is obviously well-suited to Paul's argument in Galatians. Echoes of maternity, mothers, seed, sons, children, inheritance ("heir"), and the Spirit resound throughout Galatians.

Poland said: "Ted do you understand these? I hope so. We can only be "children of Jerusalem Mother" if we follow and believe her."

The question is, do you understand this? I understand your simplistic "studies" thoroughly. I believed them myself and was made to teach them to countless recruits. I was made to underline and memorise it all. Once you actually read and study the Bible, though, you see that the COG are only out to con you.

And by the way, "Mother Jerusalem" is not a woman. She's a spiritual/literal city. But that's a different discussion altogether. And judging from all your messages, it's a pointless discussion too.

Have you guys ever REALLY read the bible??? I mean REALLY read it & UNDERSTOOD IT?? The reason none of you get the bible is probably because GOD didnt want anyone BUT his elect to understand. When GOD came 2000 years ago the world wasnt ready for him... only the few elect! What did the elect do?? They preached the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) to the whole world, just as JESUS asked them to do. The CoG is just trying to PREACH why trample them? Why be like the Pharisees of 2000 years ago that rejected our SAVIOR & crucified him? Why trample people that just want the whole world to see the light that has been given to them, to share what they have received???

What do you do??
Do you preach?
Can any other religion say they keep the 7 Sacred Feasts of GOD (Leviticus 23)??? NO!!!!
Do you preach the GOOD NEWS that the early church apostles preached??? NO!!!!

Just the CHURCH OF GOD can say they do!

Romans 10:15
And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

Matthew 24:14
And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

Are you prepared to face the end?
When Christ asks you what have you done? Why do you

By: Lizzie on May 30, 2008
at 2:08 am

Reply

deserve to go to Heaven? What then will be your answer??

Most of you will say, "Well we never heard of your TEACHINGS FATHER. We never knew of your 2nd Coming"

Thats alot of bull!! You all are LIARS & HYPOCRITES
All these people have been preaching to all of you endlessly with alot of patience and you guys are rejecting GODS WORD like it happend 2000 yrs ago.
Continue to crucify your SAVIOR

But on that day...

Matthew 7:22-24

22Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' 23Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'

in NKJV its says:

22 Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' 23 And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'

LAWLESSNESS!! i.e. the wickedness!

Another Question:

Why dont others understand or receive the "LIGHT" and just the CoG members?

Matthew 13:10-12

10The disciples came to him and asked, "Why do you speak to the people in parables?" 11He replied, "The knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them. 12Whoever has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.

CoG members lets do as Christ directed us to do...
Preach the WORD and if they dont listen walk away!

Luke 9:5

If people do not welcome you, shake the dust off your feet when you leave their town, as a testimony against them."

Matthew 7:6

"Do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and then turn and tear you to pieces.

Stop giving these dogs and pigs the treasure that has been given to us!! Lets find those that are WORTHY of the TRUTH that is so plain to see! We are SOOO blessed to receive the 2nd Coming Christ and The Mother of all the living as put in Gen. They are the dead.... The reason we have 3rd Day Worship... to purify us so we may enter the Sabbath!! They refuse to see the bible with spiritual eyes. The bible is a "SPIRITUAL" book of guidance, instructions and lessons.

Numbers 19:12

He must purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third and seventh days, he will not be clean

Luke 9:60

Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead, but you (the living) go and proclaim the kingdom of God."

Why us and not you....

Luke 8:9-10

9His disciples asked him what this parable meant. 10He said, "The knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of God has been given to you, but to others I speak in parables, so that,
" 'though seeing, they may not see;
though hearing, they may not understand.

Isn't it obvious all of you don't know what you're saying??
? CHRIST said it best

John 10:26-28

26but you do not believe because you are not my sheep.
27My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. 28I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one can snatch them out of my hand.

So who do they belong to?

John 8:41-47

42Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and now am here. I have not come on my own; but he sent me. 43Why is my language not clear to you? Because you are unable to hear what I say. 44You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies. 45Yet because I tell the truth, you do not believe me! 46Can any of you prove me guilty of sin? If I am telling the truth, why don't you believe me? 47He who belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

Hence verse 47

47He who belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

Isaiah 29:10-12

10 The LORD has brought over you a deep sleep:
He has sealed your eyes (the prophets);
he has covered your heads (the seers).

11 For you this whole vision is nothing but words sealed in a scroll. And if you give the scroll to someone who can read, and say to him, "Read this, please," he will answer, "I can't; it is sealed." 12 Or if you give the scroll to someone who cannot read, and say, "Read this, please," he will answer, "I don't know how to read."

You cant understand because the words have been sealed, only those that have been given the honor to see are his sheep!

What did John say?

Revelations 5:3-5

3But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll or even look inside it. 4I wept and wept because no one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. 5Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals."

Who is the Root of David????

Revelations 22: 16

16"I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give you this testimony for the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, and the bright Morning Star."

How come if the scroll (bible) is sealed and ppl cannot read or understand it, the CoG members can?

Because the Root of David came to unseal it. Only the Root of David can open up the scrolls. Our Father whom you call a CULT LEADER has opened up the scrolls so that WE can understand it. He came as the Root of David! The BUDDHIST KOREAN MAN FROM THE EAST You are so dumb! Get your facts straight please!!! AHNSAHNGHONG was never Buddhist. He belonged to the 7th Day Adventist Church. The reason he was there was to fulfill the 7 churches prophesy...

Revelations 3:20-22

20Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me. 21To him who overcomes, I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I overcame and sat down with my Father on his throne. 22He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

Why from Korea???

Isaiah 24:15

Therefore in the east give glory to the LORD; exalt the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea.

Isaiah 41:2

"Who has stirred up one from the east, calling him in righteousness to his service? He hands nations over to him and subdues kings before him. He turns them to dust with his sword, to windblown chaff with his bow.

Isaiah 46:11

From the east I summon a bird of prey; from a far-off land, a man to fulfill my purpose. What I have said, that will I bring about; what I have planned, that will I do.

Ezekiel 43:2

and I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice was like the roar of rushing waters, and the land was radiant with his glory.

Matthew 24:27

For as lightning that comes from the east is visible even in the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.

Revelations 7:2

Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea:

What is the seal of the Living GOD?

John 6:27

Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. On him God the Father has placed his seal of approval."

Son of Man = Christ

Christ has a "seal" on him that gives "ETERNAL LIFE"

What gives ETERNAL LIFE in the bible that JESUS gives??

John 6:53-57

53Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. 55For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. 56Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. 57Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me.

How do we eat his flesh and blood??

Matthew 26:26-28

26While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body."

27Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. 28This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

THE PASSOVER, NEW COVENANT

The holy feast of God that gives us Eternal Life!!

Thats what CoG preaches! Why is this wrong???

A cult is a heretic group or sect that do not follow the words of GOD...

The CoG are the only ones that keep GODS WORD 100% to a T~~~~ THE ONLY ONES!!!!

How many churches mandate the wearing of veils? as described in Corinthians....

1 Corinthians 11

1Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ.

Propriety in Worship

2I praise you for remembering me in everything and for holding to the teachings,[a] just as I passed them on to you.

3Now I want you to realize that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is man, and the head of Christ is God. 4Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head. 5And every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head—it is just as though her head were shaved. 6If a woman does not cover her head, she should have her hair cut off; and if it is a disgrace for a woman to have her hair cut or shaved off, she should cover her head. 7A man ought not to cover his head,[b] since he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man. 8For man did not come from woman, but woman from man; 9neither was man created for woman, but woman for man. 10For this reason, and because of the angels, the woman ought to have a sign of authority on her head.

On another note..

New Jerusalem our Mothers "ACTUAL" name is Zian-Gil-Za~~~To answer someones question!

If you dont want to accept the TRUTH that the CoG preaches to the whole world thats fine.

We arent "brainwashed" or "programmed", we are here on our own will because we have opened up our eyes and seen the truth. We are tired of having our eyes covered w the veil of sin. CHRIST gave us a chance and we are holding on w our dear lives. I feel pitty for those that trample GODS WORD..

In the end we will see who prevails

Acts 5:38-39

38Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail. 39But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God."

The definitions that are written in the back of any Bible are written by men who do not see the truth. If the Bible testifies that there is a MOTHER as in GAL 4:26 Who are men to go against GODS WORD???

MOTHER is testified throughout the WHOLE BIBLE!! She is in Genesis-Revelations!

I am so sorry GOD didnt share HIS TREASURES w all of you who opose the CoG teachings =(But God knows why...

Isaiah 55:9

"As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

So what any man says is worthless...

Luke 13:28

"There will be weeping there, and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you yourselves thrown out

Pray that you arent left outside of the gated of Heaven

Ted says....

And by the way, "Mother Jerusalem" is not a woman. She's a spiritual/literal city. But that's a different discussion altogether. And judging from all your messages, it's a pointless discussion too.

By: Lizzie on May 30, 2008
at 3:30 am

Reply

Ok.. lets analyze this real quick

Revelations 21

The New Jerusalem

1Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. 2I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. 3And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God.

After Jerusalem comes down out of Heaven from God its states "the dwelling of God is with men"

Hmmmm...

It states in the above verse that she will be a bride

Revelations 22

17The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.

Thats funny that you say its a SPIRITUAL/LITERAL CITY when in reality the only one that can actually give "LIFE" is GOD!! GOD took it away from us in Genesis and only GOD can bring it back. So why is this CITY giving us LIFE???

So according to you Ted.... The LITERAL CITY is GOD????
I THINK NOT!!!!!!

In Gal 4:26 it states that the Jerusalem that is above (like the one coming out of heaven in Rev) is free and she is our MOTHER!!

Why is she free??

Because she isnt like Haagar the slave woman, but free like Sarah

Thats why we are like ISAAC the CHILDREN OF PROMISE!

What are we PROMISED??
ETERNAL LIFE

Why do we get eternal life?

Because we children of THE MOTHER OF THE LIVING..

As in the story of Abraham...
Ishmael was the first born and he had to be the heir according to HEBREW LAW... but his mother was a SLAVE WOMAN
Only ISAAC the one born of the FREE WOMAN will be heir.
So what does GOD who of course we want to be heirs of (like the children of Promise) have to do w ABRAHAM???

Luke 16
The Rich Man and Lazarus
19" There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day. 20 At his gate was laid a beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores 21 and longing to eat what fell from the rich man's table.
Even the dogs came and licked his sores.
22 "The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. 23 In hell, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. 24 So he called to him, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in agony in this fire.' 25 "But Abraham replied, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in agony. 26 And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who want to go from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross over from there to us.' 27 "He answered, 'Then I beg you, father, send Lazarus to my father's house, 28 for I have five brothers. Let him warn them, so that they will not also come to this place of torment.' 29 "Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the Prophets; let them listen to them.' (the Bible) 30 " 'No, father Abraham,' he said, 'but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.' 31 "He said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.' "

FATHER ABRAHAM..
Hmmmmm
Why does GOD refer to HIMSELF as FATHER ABRAHAM??
Maybe it was so we can understand the FREE
WOMAN/SLAVE WOMAN/CHILDEN OF PROMISE
Prophecy???
Why does it say SHE IS FREE??

Galatians 4
Hagar and Sarah
21 Tell me, you who want to be under the law, are you not aware of what the law says? 22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman and the other by the free woman. 23His son by the slave woman was born in the ordinary way; but his son by the free woman was born as the result of a promise.

24These things may be taken figuratively, for the women represent two covenants. One covenant is from Mount Sinai and bears children who are to be slaves: This is Hagar. 25Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. 26But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother. 27For it is written:

"Be glad, O barren woman,
who bears no children;
break forth and cry aloud,
you who have no labor pains;
because more are the children of the desolate woman
than of her who has a husband."

28Now you, brothers, like Isaac, are children of promise.

29At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. 30But what does the Scripture say? "Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman's son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman's son." 31Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

So if God is called our FATHER then his Bride should be our MOTHER....

OH WAIT!!!! THATS EXACTLY WHAT GAL SAYS!! OOPS!!!

out Father Established Mother Jerusalem or "MJ" as many refer to her! And now She is a praise of all nations. Maybe not to you who reject the truth

Isaiah 62

7 and give him no rest till he establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the earth.

God established HER and told us that we should follow
HER until he comes again!!

<http://usa.watv.org/press/content.html>

She has been awarded numerous merits and medals...

Could this be PROPHECY FULFILLED RIGHT BEFORE OUR VERY EYES!

Isaiah 2

3 Many peoples will come and say,
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us his ways,
so that we may walk in his paths."
The law will go out from Zion, the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

The mountain of the Lord is ZION what is ZION?

Isaiah 33

20 Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals; your eyes will see Jerusalem,
a peaceful abode, a tent that will not be moved;
its stakes will never be pulled up,
nor any of its ropes broken.

21 There the LORD will be our Mighty One.

It will be like a place of broad rivers and streams.
No galley with oars will ride them,
no mighty ship will sail them.

What are the appt feasts that are celebrated in ZION where we will see JERUSALEM?

Lev 23

1 The LORD said to Moses, 2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them: 'These are my appointed feasts, the appointed feasts of the LORD, which you are to proclaim as sacred assemblies.

Why cant you see?? It is so plain to see!!
Why cant you accept the truth?

Psalm 50:2

From Zion, perfect in beauty, God shines forth.

Psalm 76:2

His tent is in Salem, his dwelling place in Zion.
(did you know Salem is Jerusalem?)

Psalm 102:16

For the LORD will rebuild Zion and appear in his glory.

Psalm 102:21

So the name of the LORD will be declared in Zion and his praise in JERUSALEM

Psalm 128:5

May the LORD bless you from Zion all the days of your life; may you see the prosperity of JERUSALEM

Psalm 132:13

For the LORD has chosen Zion, he has desired it for his dwelling;

Lizzie, I'll respond to your questions about Mother Jerusalem, once the the question of Genesis has been resolved. You're just changing the topic and making ad hominem remarks.

By: Ted on May 30, 2008
at 4:58 am

Reply

Do you disagree with what we've said about Genesis? If so, why?

I move we just ignore Lizzie's comments as to not get derailed....it's garbage anyhow.

By: CoGinator on May 30, 2008
at 7:32 am

Ted, you said, "You don't even want to get me started on "shadow concepts". "

Reply

Actually I would like to get you started on those. I've never been a huge fan of the shadow interpretations.

Lizzie's comments are flawed anyway.

By: Dark Angel on
May 30, 2008
at 8:12 am

She said, "The reason none of you get the bible is probably because GOD didn't want anyone BUT his elect to understand."

Reply

Her comment above sounds as though she's speaking for a Being that is said no human can fathom. So basically, it is something that she made up. Her own vision of God.

We are talking about a Being that is Omniscient. If Lizzie's concept of God is true, then he would have purposely set his creations up for failure.

He would have created just a few out of a billion to be his "chosen" and allowed them the ability to understand his word. Then, decide that he wants to find his "lost sheep", as if he doesn't already know.

Sister Lizzie, I guess there aren't any lost sheeps in these blog because they really can't see the truth of God's will. I thank God for letting me see the light of His truth.

By: Poland on May 30, 2008
at 7:55 pm

Reply

Ephesians 1:3-10 – Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. FOR HE CHOSE US IN HIM BEFORE THE CREATION OF THE WORLD TO BE HOLY AND BLAMELESS IN HIS SIGHT. IN LOVE HE PREDESTINED US TO BE ADOPTED AS HIS SONS THROUGH JESUS CHRIST, IN ACCORDANCE WITH HIS PLEASURE AND WILL to the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace that he lavished on us with all wisdom and understanding. AND HE MADE KNOWN TO US THE MYSTERY OF HIS WILL ACCORDING TO HIS GOOD PLEASURE, WHICH HE PURPOSED IN CHRIST, TO BE PUT INTO EFFECT WHEN THE TIMES WILL HAVE REACHED THEIR FULFILLMENT TO BRING ALL THINGS IN HEAVEN AND ON EARTH TOGETHER under one head, even Christ.

I really feel sorry for those who don't see the truth of Church of God which Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother gave us.

Once again POLAND runs away from the DISCUSSION and CHANGES the TOPIC because his TRUTH has been proven WRONG.

By: LOLISM on May 30, 2008
at 8:06 pm

COG=FAIL

Reply

Poland,

TOTAL Omniscience and "free will" creates a paradox but hey, whatever.

By: Dark Angel on
May 30, 2008
at 8:14 pm

Reply

I really feel sorry for you guys. The spiritually fact that you guys don't see the truth in the Bible is because you guys are in darkness.

By: Poland on May 30,
2008
at 9:23 pm

Genesis 1:3-5 – 3 And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. 4 God saw that the light was good, and HE SEPARATED THE LIGHT FROM THE DARKNESS. 5 God called the light "day," and the darkness he called "night." And there was evening, and there was morning —the first day.

Reply

Do you guys understand the mystery of these?

1 Corinthians 4:5 – 5Therefore judge nothing before the appointed time; WAIT TILL THE LORD(Ahnsahnghong) COMES. HE WILL BRING TO LIGHT WHAT IS HIDDEN(By Constantine) IN DARKNESS (321 AD) and will expose the motives of men's hearts. At that time each will receive his praise from God.

I pity you Church of God haters.

LOL...POLAND...MORON....DO YOU KNOW HOW TO STAY ON TOPIC?

By: LOLISM on May 30, 2008
at 9:28 pm

Everytime someone DESTROYS your STUPID VERSES and SHOWS YOU HOW YOU ARE WRONG, you CHANGE the TOPIC and CHANT some IRRELEVANT VERSE.

Reply

Are you 5 years old? WHY is your BRAIN SO WEAK?

COG=LMAO

COG=UNABLE TO HOLD AN INTELLIGENT DISCUSSION

Poland said, "Sister Lizzie, I guess there aren't any lost sheeps in these blog because they really can't see the truth of God's will."

By: CoGinator on May 30, 2008
at 9:31 pm

I disagree on two-folds...

Reply

1. There are plenty of Lost (way lost) sheep in these blogs. They are all the people who have lost sight of the one true God and who insist on worshiping not one, but two Pagan gods...Ahnsahnghong and Xhang Gil Cha (aka Mutha J).

2. You need to have a shift in thinking...for it's us who see and understand the truth. We are trying to share the truth with you to save you from the hold satan has on you.

I can honestly say the mainstream christian church I attend has never broken up a family. The CoG in our city has broken up many. Let the results testify for which is the more correct interpretation of the Bible!!!

You know what Sister Lizzie, these Church of God haters spend their time 24/7 to find opinions of men to criticise the truth of the Bible that Church of God preach. I mean there's other denominations like Jehovah Witnesses, Seventh Day Adventist, Born Again, Baptist, Pentecost, Mormons, Catholics, Muslims and many more and yet, they focus on Church of God. They must have seen or heard something special about us. Could it be because we are preaching the truth of the Bible?

By: Poland on May 30, 2008 at 9:53 pm

Reply

2 Timothy 4:3-4 – 3For the time will come when men will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear. 4They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths.

There you go. That's why we need to keep a watchful eye these Church of God haters.

2 Timothy 4:15 – 15You too should be on your guard against him, because he strongly opposed our message.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

"I mean there's other denominations like Jehovah Witnesses, Seventh Day Adventist, Born Again, Baptist, Pentecost, Mormons, Catholics, Muslims and many more and yet, they focus on Church of God. They must have seen or heard something special about us. Could it be because we are preaching the truth of the Bible?"

By: LOLISM on May 30, 2008 at 10:25 pm

Reply

LOL. Or maybe because we have sisters and family in your stupid cult, retard. You really are dumb.

COG=FAIL

POLAND clearly cant refute any of the points made. He is IGNORANT about the BIBLE and has to SWITCH TOPICS and POST POINTLESS VERSES whenever someone BLOWS HOLES in his SILLY RELIGION.

POLAND=CANT READ BIG SENTENCES.

LOLISM said "Everytime someone DESTROYS your STUPID VERSES and SHOWS YOU HOW YOU ARE WRONG, you CHANGE the TOPIC and CHANT some IRRELEVANT VERSE.

By: Poland on May 30, 2008 at 10:58 pm

Reply

Are you 5 years old? WHY is your BRAIN SO WEAK?"

Please, I never change a damn thing. I believe that God has a male and female image because there's a male and female man in GOD'S LIKENESS according to the Bible, not the opinion of you guys who think that the Bible scholars can interpret the Bible on their own thinking. Did I made this up? Clearly there's a male and female image of God because there's a male and female image of man in GOD'S LIKENESS according to the Word of God. You guys are the ones who don't see the truth. Then, you guys say that you guys are trying to make Church of God members see the truth when you guys are the ones who don't see the truth in the Bible.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

By the way LOLISM, the verses in the Bible that you call "STUPID VERSES" are God's words from those men that came from God and also carried along by the Holy Spirit.

By: Poland on May 30, 2008
at 11:01 pm

Reply

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

Wow this is unbelievable. COGinator, is this what you do all day everyday, chastizing the Church of God's truths and it's members? Now you even brought your fellow losers that don't have a life but to surf the internet and find ways to destroy the truths in the Bible with the opinion of men.

By: brofromzion on May 30, 2008
at 11:15 pm

Reply

One thing for sure is that we World Mission Society Church of God Brothers and Sisters really follow God's commandments, feasts, wills, laws according to the Bible. While these unbelievers like COGinator maybe "COGignorant of the Bible's truth" still keep Sunday worship, Christmas, Communion which are traditions of men.

COGinator and your fellow losers, GET A LIFE!

Matthew 15:6-9 [he is not to 'honor his father' with it. THUS YOU NULLIFY THE WORD OF GOD FOR THE SAKE OF YOUR TRADITION. YOU HYPOCRITES! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you: " 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men.'"

My dear monks and nuns of the Buddhist and idol worshipper Ahnsahghong and his con artist Chung gil cha. It's a pity I know her name and you don't. I could not find this name in the Bible using spiritual eyes or Ahnsahnghong's glasses.

By: Jonah on May 31, 2008
at 4:21 am

Reply

Anyway you can never get their details even though you spew scriptures to prove them and this is what makes you an outstandng cult

Poland said: they must have seen or heard something special about us.

Yes indeed that COG is a 100% cult and listed below are a few points I want you all monks and nuns to ponder on how to recognize yourselves as cults

Your fake God has made you robots who sit in group with black suit and white veils using NIV bible as a deceptive tool. And the programmed robots work round the clock

Putting down others to make themselves look better, calling themselves righteous and others unrighteous

Told not to question on what is taught just swallow our B.S and M.J will give you water of life even if the lump gets stuck in the throat it will slide down easily.

They defend all that they do even though it can be harmful or wrong. When you ask questions about their history or the group they are vague in their answers or avoid answering them. (not answering or postponing it makes it go away)

The following are basic patterns, or characteristics, found in almost all cults that one can easily identify.

Additions – Cults add to the Word of God by having additional writings they call scripture, or by saying that only the Bible is God's Word but you cannot understand it without their interpretation from their own teachers or books. The Bible is discouraged to be read alone.

Subtraction – Cults subtract from the Person of Jesus by saying he is something less than Eternal Deity. Or they will add their own teacher as deity.

Multiplication – Every false religion has works as part of their system of salvation. They also usually specify what works must be performed at a certain level for acceptance to their group and God.

Mediators- They will always have others involved for ones salvation by others. For the J.W.'s it is the 144,000. COG 800,000 for the International Churches of Christ its discipleship partners. For Mormons it is to join their church for salvation and use their materials- Doctrine and Covenants, Journal of Discourses and the Melchizedek priesthood.

Divisive – Cults have people choose by dividing a person's loyalty. It's God through their leadership by claiming to be the only Spokesman or group for God. They also require obedience to their leadership to be in right standing with God. They do not tolerate another's differing opinions and it is looked upon as being divisive or of the enemy.

I am so glad that Lord Jesus Christ is my light, my truth and my way.

OMG!! This keeps getting worst & worst.

By: Lizzie on May 31, 2008
at 6:03 am

One claims to know Mothers name, which btw isnt that, and other say she is a Pagan god. You call her what you want.. thats why only a few in Gods eyes were chosen! You believe men instead of God!

Reply

And YES... believe it or not, not all of you are going to heaven!!!! Only those that accept the truth! Didnt Jesus leave after preaching only for 3 years. He thought noone were worth it for him to stay the remaining 37 years!!

Learn your prophecies!!! Get your facts straight! He came on Davids thone... when you figure what that is, you will understand!!

King James:

Is that why you changed your name to Dark Angel??
Because all you spread is DARKNESS?!!!!
Oh wait, THATS RIGHT!! ITS BECAUSE THE CHANGE OF AGE!!!

You all are hypocrites who claim to follow the words of Christ, but you have no clue!
One time you told me that what you guys do isnt persecution... Times have changed! Here is the MODERN definition:

Persecution

Religious persecution is systematic mistreatment of an individual or group due to their religious affiliation.

1 : the act or practice of persecuting especially those who differ in origin, religion, or social outlook

2 : the condition of being persecuted, harassed, or annoyed

You are all wolves in sheeps clothing leading others astray with your words that are only made up by man. Why if we follow the words of God you opress us? You say your worthless words & talk about others... others that only follow the truth of the bible. The truth of the early churches, the truth that PAUL who was a great apostle followed. He did see the light & understood the truth and what was to come! Which is alot to say compared to all of you who only know how to go against us. We prevail all the time, you just cant admit it. You just cant accept the truth. I dont know how many REAL believers are trying to open up your eyes here on this blog thanfully now I see more brothers in the truth!!! I like most of them pitty you and pray that you see the truth before its too late!!

Look around you... just as God the Father/God the Son/and the Holy Spirit promised us, the times are coming. Only those who hold on to the testimonies of Christ will make it. All of you have the testimonies that are made up by men. You have all gine astray.

13 The Lord says:

"These people come near to me with their mouth and honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

Their worship of me is made up only of rules taught by men

Revelation 18:4

Then I heard another voice from heaven say: "Come out of her (false religions & churches), my people, so that you will not share in her sins, so that you will not receive any of her plagues;

You will receive the plagues unless your name is written in the BOOK OF LIFE!!!

Revelation 20:15

If anyone's name was not found written in the BOOK OF LIFE, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

Revelation 21:27

Nothing impure will ever enter it, nor will anyone who does what is shameful or deceitful, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's BOOK OF LIFE.

I just pray that you know what it is and that your names are written in it! We @ the CoG are in it!!!

MAY GOD ELOHIM HAVE PITY & LOTS OF MERCY ON YOU ALL

Hello Poland, this post is with regards to your comments on Genesis 1:26.

By: Ted on May 31,
2008
at 7:15 am

Genesis 1:26: "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and they shall rule over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the sky, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth."

Reply

COG Interpretation: "There are men and women on the Earth, therefore Man was made in the image of Ahnsahnghong and woman was made in the image of Chung Gil Cha."

Poland, believing that would require us to ignore everything else in Genesis, and countless other verses throughout the Bible.

First of all, the idea that "Let us make man in our image" refers to the plurality of God is refuted by the very next verse, which relates the creation of man to a singular God.

This verse reads: "And God created man in His image" (Genesis 1:27).

In this verse the Hebrew verb "created" appears in the singular form. If "let us make man" indicated a plurality, it would be followed in the next verse by, "And they created man in their image."

You see, throughout the Bible the plural form of "Elohim" is used to indicate the all-inclusiveness of God's attributes of authority and power. The plurality of majesty. In the Bible, it is customary for one in authority to speak of himself as if he were a plurality. Kings, Pharaohs, Moses, Jesus...do they all have "female images"? No, of course not. You can't just look at one verse out of context.

This rule is obeyed everywhere else in the Bible and to ignore it solely when reading Genesis is irresponsible.

Secondly, the words "likeness" and "image" do not refer to physical or sexual appearance, but rather they refer to having the knowledge of Good and evil.

This is clearly stated in the Bible:

"For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be LIKE God, knowing good and evil." (Genesis 3:5)

"and to put on the new self, created to be LIKE God in true righteousness and holiness. (Ephesians 4:24)"

"Then the LORD said to Moses, "See, I have made you LIKE God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron will be your prophet. (Exodus 7:1)"

"On that day the LORD will shield those who live in Jerusalem, so that the feeblest among them will be LIKE David, and the house of David will be LIKE God, LIKE the Angel of the LORD going before them. (Zechariah 12:8)"

These are just some of the hundreds of verses that use "like" and "image". They all show that to be made in God's "likeness" and "image" means to be righteous and have the knowledge of Good and evil. "Like" and "image" don't mean "male image" and "female image".

Thirdly, the words "image" and "likeness" are literally translated as "example" or "similitude". God is making man as an "example" of himself. In the ancient languages, the two words, "timthal" (image) and "mathalona" (our image) are derived from the root word "mathal" (example). Thus when the Bible uses the root words "mathal" and "shabah" it refers, not to a male and female "image of God", but rather man being made as an "example" or "similitude" of God. So, as we've seen above, "our likeness" only means knowing Good and evil.

Now for hundreds of years, Christian missionaries with little knowledge of Hebrew, used this very same verse in the Bible to prove the Trinity.

While the COG uses this one verse in Genesis to prove Mother and Father, Christians used it to prove "The Father, Son and Holy Spirit".

But nowadays, no Christian scholar would use Genesis 1:26 as proof of a plural God. Why would Christians abandon this? Surely if the verse indicated a plural God, they would champion it as proof of the Trinity?

Well, they've simply read the Bible. Christian scholars overwhelmingly agree that the plural pronoun in this verse is a reference to God's ministering angels who were created previously, and that God spoke majestically in the plural, consulting His heavenly court.

I know you think all Bible experts are "unholy" and "evil", but just read what they say.

For example, the evangelical Christian author Gordon J. Wenham, who is no foe of the Trinity and authored a widely respected two-volume commentary on the Book of Genesis, writes on this verse:

"Christians have traditionally seen Genesis 1:26 as foreshadowing the Trinity. It is now universally admitted that this was not what the plural meant to Bible's original author."

Also note what the NIV Study Bible has to say about Genesis 1:26:

"Us . . . Our . . . Our. God speaks as the Creator-king, announcing His crowning work to the members of His heavenly court. (see 3:22; 11:7; Isaiah 6:8; I Kings 22:19-23; Job 15:8; Jeremiah 23:18)"

So even the Bible itself says that "us" is not plural.

Charles Caldwell Ryrie, a highly regarded professor of Biblical Studies at the Philadelphia College of Bible and author of the widely read Bible commentary, "The Ryrie Study Bible", writes this short and sweet point about Genesis 1:26:

"Us . . . Our. Refers to Plurals of majesty."

The Liberty Annotated Study Bible, a Bible commentary published by the Reverend Jerry Falwell's Liberty University, similarly remarks on this verse:

"The plural pronoun "Us" is a majestic plural from the standpoint of Hebrew grammar and syntax."

The 10-volume commentary by Keil and Delitzsch is considered by many to be the most influential exposition on the "Old Testament" in evangelical circles. Yet in its commentary on Genesis 1:26, we find:

"The plural "We" was regarded by the fathers and earlier theologians unanimously as being indicative of the Trinity; modern commentators, on the contrary, regard it either as pluralis majestatis...No other explanation is left, therefore, than to regard it as pluralis majestatis..."

The question that immediately comes to mind is: What would compel these evangelical scholars- all of whom, like the COG, believe in a plural God- to determinedly conclude that Genesis 1:26 does not suggest the Trinity, but rather a majestic address to the angelic hosts of heaven?

The answer to this question is simple. They've thoroughly read and studied the Bible. If you search the Bible you will find that whenever the Almighty speaks of "us" or "our," He is addressing His ministering angels. In fact, only two chapters later, God continues to use the pronoun "us" as He speaks with His angels.

At the end of the third chapter of Genesis the Almighty relates to His angels that Adam and his wife have eaten from the Tree of Knowledge and must therefore be prevented from eating from the Tree of Life as well; for if man would gain access to the Tree of Life he will "become like one of us." The Creator then instructs his angels known as Cherubim to stand at the gate of the Garden of Eden waving a flaming sword so that mankind is prevented from entering the Garden and eating from the Tree of Life.

Let's examine Genesis 3:22-24:

"Then the Lord God said, "Behold, the man has become LIKE one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put out his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever" — therefore the Lord God sent him out of the Garden of Eden to till the ground from which he was taken. So He drove out the man; and He placed cherubim at the east of the Garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life. "

This use of the majestic plural in Genesis 3:22-24 is what is intended by the NIV Study Bible's annotation on Genesis 1:26. At the end of its comment on this verse, the NIV Study Bible provides a number of Bible sources from the Jewish scriptures to support its position that "God speaks as the Creator-king, announcing His crowning work to the members of His heavenly court." The verses cited are: Genesis 3:22, 11:7, Isaiah 6:8, I Kings 22:19-23, Job 15:8, and Jeremiah 23:18.

These verses convey to the attentive Bible reader that the heavenly abode of the Creator is filled with the ministering angels who attend the Almighty and to whom He repeatedly refers when using the plural pronoun "Us."

Is any of this reaching you? Does it make sense or do you simply not want to hear? When I was in the COG i shut my ears off to everyone too. I memorised all their verses and believed it wholeheartedly. Noone could get through to me. It's very difficult to snap out of something like that.

Lizzie,

You are like the comic relief of this blog. I'm not even sure if replying to you is worth my time.

Where's Marcus..

By: Dark Angel on
May 31, 2008
at 7:25 am

Reply

Lizzie said:

"Persecution: Religious persecution is systematic mistreatment of an individual or group due to their religious affiliation."

By: Ted on May 31, 2008
at 7:31 am

Reply

Ted says:

"whistle-blowing: exposure of fraud and abuse. A whistleblower is an employee, former employee, or member of an organization, who reports imorality, or misconduct to people or entities outside or within the organisation. Generally the misconduct is a violation of law, morals, rule and/or regulation."

Lizzie there are only 8-12 people on the internet who speak out against the COG. Most people simply have not heard of the group and could care less. 12 people is not persecution, especially when you consider the amount of abuse and hate mail we get, not to mention the illegal work of COG hackers.

As the COG grows, more and more people will learn of you. Many more will step forward to point out the flaws in your doctrines. Already quite a few ex members and cult exit consellers are blowing the whistle and drawing attention to the various immoral practises you carry out.

For example, did you know that the IRS is investigating Joo Cheol Kim? He's filed tax exemption and deductible tithing. He's also registered his cult as the same denomination as the SDA's and Moonies. Does this look like the behaviour of a man who honestly believes the world will end in 2012? Why would a man who believes the world will end in 4 years, be so concerned about profits and tax loopholes?

I'm reposting this as I believe Lizzie is trying to distract people away from discussions...

By: Ted on May 31, 2008
at 7:35 am

Reply

Hello Poland, this post is with regards to your comments on Genesis 1:26.

Genesis 1:26: "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and they shall rule over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the sky, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth."

COG Interpretation: "There are men and women on the Earth, therefore Man was made in the image of Ahnsahnghong and woman was made in the image of Chung Gil Cha."

Poland, believing that would require us to ignore everything else in Genesis, and countless other verses throughout the Bible.

First of all, the idea that "Let us make man in our image" refers to the plurality of God is refuted by the very next verse, which relates the creation of man to a singular God.

This verse reads: "And God created man in His image" (Genesis 1:27).

In this verse the Hebrew verb "created" appears in the singular form. If "let us make man" indicated a plurality, it would be followed in the next verse by, "And they created man in their image."

You see, throughout the Bible the plural form of "Elohim" is used to indicate the all-inclusiveness of God's attributes of authority and power. The plurality of majesty. In the Bible, it is customary for one in authority to speak of himself as if he were a plurality. Kings, Pharaohs, Moses, Jesus...do they all have "female images"? No, of course not. You can't just look at one verse out of context.

This rule is obeyed everywhere else in the Bible and to ignore it solely when reading Genesis is irresponsible.

Secondly, the words "likeness" and "image" do not refer to physical or sexual appearance, but rather they refer to having the knowledge of Good and evil.

This is clearly stated in the Bible:

"For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be LIKE God, knowing good and evil." (Genesis 3:5)

"and to put on the new self, created to be LIKE God in true righteousness and holiness. (Ephesians 4:24)"

"Then the LORD said to Moses, "See, I have made you LIKE God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron will be your prophet. (Exodus 7:1)"

"On that day the LORD will shield those who live in Jerusalem, so that the feeblest among them will be LIKE David, and the house of David will be LIKE God, LIKE the Angel of the LORD going before them. (Zechariah 12:8)"

These are just some of the hundreds of verses that use "like" and "image". They all show that to be made in God's "likeness" and "image" means to be righteous and have the knowledge of Good and evil. "Like" and "image" don't mean "male image" and "female image".

Thirdly, the words "image" and "likeness" are literally translated as "example" or "similitude". God is making man as an "example" of himself. In the ancient languages, the two words, "timthal" (image) and

"mathalona" (our image) are derived from the root word "metal" (example). Thus when the Bible uses the root words "mathal" and "shabah" it refers, not to a male and female "image of God", but rather man being made as an "example" or "similitude" of God. So, as we've seen above, "our likeness" only means knowing Good and evil.

Now for hundreds of years, Christian missionaries with little knowledge of Hebrew, used this very same verse in the Bible to prove the Trinity.

While the COG uses this one verse in Genesis to prove Mother and Father, Christians used it to prove "The Father, Son and Holy Spirit".

But nowadays, no Christian scholar would use Genesis 1:26 as proof of a plural God. Why would Christians abandon this? Surely if the verse indicated a plural God, they would champion it as proof of the Trinity?

Well, they've simply read the Bible. Christian scholars overwhelmingly agree that the plural pronoun in this verse is a reference to God's ministering angels who were created previously, and that God spoke majestically in the plural, consulting His heavenly court.

I know you think all Bible experts are "unholy" and "evil", but just read what they say.

For example, the evangelical Christian author Gordon J. Wenham, who is no foe of the Trinity and authored a widely respected two-volume commentary on the Book of Genesis, writes on this verse:

"Christians have traditionally seen Genesis 1:26 as foreshadowing the Trinity. It is now universally admitted that this was not what the plural meant to Bible's original author."

Also note what the NIV Study Bible has to say about Genesis 1:26:

"Us . . . Our . . . Our. God speaks as the Creator-king, announcing His crowning work to the members of His heavenly court. (see 3:22; 11:7; Isaiah 6:8; I Kings 22:19-23; Job 15:8; Jeremiah 23:18)"

So even the Bible itself says that "us" is not plural.

Charles Caldwell Ryrie, a highly regarded professor of Biblical Studies at the Philadelphia College of Bible and author of the widely read Bible commentary, "The Ryrie Study Bible", writes this short and sweet point about Genesis 1:26:

"Us . . . Our. Refers to Plurals of majesty."

The Liberty Annotated Study Bible, a Bible commentary published by the Reverend Jerry Falwell's Liberty University, similarly remarks on this verse:

"The plural pronoun "Us" isa majestic plural from the standpoint of Hebrew grammar and syntax."

The 10-volume commentary by Keil and Delitzsch is considered by many to be the most influential exposition on the "Old Testament" in evangelical circles. Yet in its commentary on Genesis 1:26, we find:

"The plural "We" was regarded by the fathers and earlier theologians unanimously as being indicative of the Trinity; modern commentators, on the contrary, regard it either as pluralis majestatis...No other explanation is left, therefore, than to regard it as pluralis majestatis..."

The question that immediately comes to mind is: What would compel these evangelical scholars- all of whom, like the COG, believe in a plural God- to determinedly conclude that Genesis 1:26 does not suggest the Trinity, but rather a majestic address to the angelic hosts of heaven?

The answer to this question is simple. They've thoroughly read and studied the Bible. If you search the Bible you will find that whenever the Almighty speaks of "us" or "our," He is addressing His ministering angels. In fact, only two chapters later, God continues to use the pronoun "us" as He speaks with His angels.

At the end of the third chapter of Genesis the Almighty relates to His angels that Adam and his wife have eaten from the Tree of Knowledge and must therefore be prevented from eating from the Tree of Life as well; for if man would gain access to the Tree of Life he will "become like one of us." The Creator then instructs his angels known as Cherubim to stand at the gate of the Garden of Eden waving a flaming sword so that mankind is prevented from entering the Garden and eating from the Tree of Life.

Let's examine Genesis 3:22-24:

"Then the Lord God said, "Behold, the man has become LIKE one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put out his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever" — therefore the Lord God sent him out of the Garden of Eden to till the ground from which he was taken. So He drove out the man; and He placed cherubim at the east of the Garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life. "

This use of the majestic plural in Genesis 3:22-24 is what is intended by the NIV Study Bible's annotation on Genesis 1:26. At the end of its comment on this verse, the NIV Study Bible provides a number of Bible sources from the Jewish scriptures to support its position that "God speaks as the Creator-king, announcing His crowning work to the members of His heavenly court." The verses cited are: Genesis 3:22, 11:7, Isaiah 6:8, I Kings 22:19-23, Job 15:8, and Jeremiah 23:18.

These verses convey to the attentive Bible reader that the heavenly abode of the Creator is filled with the ministering angels who attend the Almighty and to whom He repeatedly refers when using the plural pronoun "Us."

Is any of this reaching you? Does it make sense or do you simply not want to hear? When I was in the COG i shut my ears off to everyone too. I memorised all their verses and believed it wholeheartedly. Noone could get through to me. It's very difficult to snap out of something like that.

Lizzie said, "And YES... believe it or not, not all of you are going to heaven!!!! Only those that accept the truth! Didnt Jesus leave after preaching only for 3 years. He thought noone were worth it for him to stay the remaining 37 years!!"

By: Dark Angel on May 31, 2008 at 12:17 pm

Reply

Jesus thought no one was worth him staying the remaining 37 years? I just have to smile at that statement.

: -)

Poland said, "You know what Sister Lizzie, these Church of God haters spend their time 24/7 to find opinions of men to criticise the truth of the Bible that Church of God preach. I mean there's other denominations like Jehovah Witnesses, Seventh Day Adventist, Born Again, Baptist, Pentecost, Mormons, Catholics, Muslims and many more and yet, they focus on Church of God. They must have seen or heard something special about us. Could it be because we are preaching the truth of the Bible?"

By: CoGinator on May 31, 2008 at 2:19 pm

Reply

1. You've obviously spent a lot of time on this blog so what's your point?
2. Ahnsahnghong is a man who studied the bible, so you too fall under the heading of a person following the opinion of men.
3. The general population already know that Mormonism, JW's, and SDA's are cults with flawed doctrines (and I don't know anyone who has fallen victim to those).
4. The COG is special alright...they are the first cult that has borrowed so many of the other flawed cults doctrines and incorporated them into one really flawed interpretation of the bible.

Bozofromzion wrote: "Wow this is unbelievable. COGinator, is this what you do all day everyday, chastizing the Church of God's truths and it's members? Now you even brought your fellow losers that don't have a life but to surf the internet and find ways to destroy the truths in the Bible with the opinion of men.

By: CoGinator on May 31, 2008 at 3:28 pm

Reply

One thing for sure is that we World Mission Society

Church of God Brothers and Sisters really follow God's commandments, feasts, wills, laws according to the Bible. While these unbelievers like COGinator maybe "COGignorant of the Bible's truth" still keep Sunday worship, Christmas, Communion which are traditions of men.

COGinator and your fellow losers, GET A LIFE!"

To answer your first question: no I don't do this all day everyday, although I have to admit the same thought crossed my about you and some of the other CoGers who monitor this blog.

Secondly, using the term "truth" with the teaching of the CoG is subjective and not factual. Just because you say it doesn't mean it's correct.

Third, I didn't bring anyone to this blog or even invite them. Word travels fast when there's a handful of crazy cultist trying to perpetuate thier misteachings.

Fourth, You follow the teachings of men. Ahnsahnghong, Joo, and I guess even Xhang tries to teach. So don't get all high and might on us. Is Ahnsahnghongs birthday celebration and feast talked about in the bible? No, so that would be a man made celebration you follow.

And lastly, your comment about getting a life...Is that how the CoG teaches you to "Love your neighbor as yourself"?

Thank you for showing the true color of the CoG for all who are seeking the truth about you chruch

Oh yeah...check out my blog for a cool little write-up on the Dead Ahansahnghong.

By: CoGinator on June 1, 2008 at 1:54 am

Reply

Lizzie nun and my monks this is getting better and better. Would you like to have a look at what you are into? A CULT. Here are some of the true characteristics clearly present in the COG

By: Jonah on June 1, 2008 at 1:03 pm

Reply

A cult leader may be living goddess, dead Buddhist, representatives of the true leader, or completely fictional.

A cult teaches that they are right and everyone else is wrong (the false prophets defense),

A cult often teaches to not ask too many questions; just accept their teachings as 100% truth, "Have faith," even if there is no evidence to support their teachings.

A cult teaches that something bad will happen to you if you do not have faith in their teachings. (E.g. punishments by their God(s) or lack of protection from harm or evil, etc.) Members may continue to follow the cult teachings, even if they don't agree with some of them, just to avoid such painful consequences.

A cult may avoid any person (e.g. ex-member, non-member, loved one, family member, member of another groups, etc.), who disagrees with them and/or doesn't properly follow their teachings. In this way, members are less influenced by outsiders who may have different beliefs or may point out flaws in the teachings of the group.

A cult may try to reduce outside influences, declaring such influences as misleading, evil temptations not allow members to associate with non-members or anyone who disagrees with them; or have special internet members to defend the church even if that means hacking and deleting any post that exposes them.

Cult members may be required to spend lots of time tending to the needs of the group or group teachings (e.g. rituals, praying, preaching, witnessing, etc.)

A cult often tries to control members using fear, guilt and shame. (e.g. suggesting that a parent is hurting his/her children by leaving the cult, suggesting that a loved-one's dying wish was for a straying member to become more dedicated to the cult's teachings, suggesting that outsiders will reject them for being a part of the group, etc.)

A cult may teach that others are trying to stop them from spreading the truth, creating us-vs. -them mentality.

Hay guyz,

By: Jamie on June 2, 2008
at 12:51 am

Nice to see that there are people who can stand in the gap while I'm busy with life.

Thanks CoGinator, Dark Angel and LOLISM, and the rest of those who are determined to show the truth about the cult that CoG is. Bible school is keeping me busy and on my toes, but when things are less hectic I'll throw in my fifty-cents worth :)

Reply

BTW Clark, you're just drawing attention away from the topic to further your own antagonistic-atheistic-antiChristian agenda. We'll just ignore what you say if you can't stick to the topic.

To all the CoG cult members: CoG = FAIL!!

Dark Angel said....

By: marcus on June 2, 2008
at 2:18 am

"This is about Ahnsahnghong not the bible. If you want to argue about bible scripture, then there are other forums setup for that purpose."

Reply

Wow, you just do not get it do you. After all these months, you still do not get it.

The only reason Ahnsahnghong is the Christ is because he is the one the Scriptures testify about. Ahnsahnghong and Scripture are inseparable.

Jesus was also the one the Scriptures testified about. What do you not understand? You see, you do in fact understand that the Scriptures testify about Ahnsahnghong, this is why you do not what to talk about Scripture and Ahnsahnghong.

You guys are so transparent.

It is amusing to see you guys spend so much time with man's opinion about Scripture.

Yes Jonah, by man's definition of a "cult", the church that Jesus established would fall into the category of a cult.

By: marcus on June 2, 2008
at 2:29 am

So Jonah does not want to follow the teachings of Jesus (a man who claimed he came from heaven). Therefore the church that Jesus established and that has been restored by second coming Jesus is nothing but a cult.

Reply

So what is your point?

You fools are blind.

Marcus, did you know that the IRS is investigating Joo Cheol Kim? He's filed tax exemption and deductible tithing. He's also registered his cult as the same denomination as the SDA's and Moonies. Does this look like the behaviour of a man who honestly believes the world will end in 2012? Why would a man who believes the world will end in 4 years, be so concerned about profits and tax loopholes?

By: Ted on June 2, 2008
at 5:07 am

Reply

Also, it's interesting to note that the COG's 2012 end date is identical to the Mayan date of apocalypse, which itself has been debunked by academics.

Poland, the rest of this post is with regards to your comments on Genesis 1:26.

Genesis 1:26: "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and they shall rule over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the sky, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth."

COG Interpretation: "There are men and women on the Earth, therefore Man was made in the image of Ahnsahnghong and woman was made in the image of Chung Gil Cha."

Poland, believing that would require us to ignore everything else in Genesis, and countless other verses throughout the Bible.

First of all, the idea that "Let us make man in our image" refers to the plurality of God is refuted by the very next verse, which relates the creation of man to a singular God.

This verse reads: "And God created man in His image" (Genesis 1:27).

In this verse the Hebrew verb "created" appears in the singular form. If "let us make man" indicated a plurality, it would be followed in the next verse by, "And they created man in their image."

You see, throughout the Bible the plural form of "Elohim" is used to indicate the all-inclusiveness of God's attributes of authority and power. The plurality of majesty. In the Bible, it is customary for one in authority to speak of himself as if he were a plurality. Kings, Pharaohs, Moses, Jesus...do they all have "female images"? No, of course not. You can't just look at one verse out of context.

This rule is obeyed everywhere else in the Bible and to ignore it solely when reading Genesis is irresponsible.

Secondly, the words "likeness" and "image" do not refer to physical or sexual appearance, but rather they refer to having the knowledge of Good and evil.

This is clearly stated in the Bible:

"For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be LIKE God, knowing good and evil." (Genesis 3:5)

"and to put on the new self, created to be LIKE God in true righteousness and holiness. (Ephesians 4:24)"

"Then the LORD said to Moses, "See, I have made you LIKE God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron will be your prophet. (Exodus 7:1)"

"On that day the LORD will shield those who live in Jerusalem, so that the feeblest among them will be LIKE David, and the house of David will be LIKE God, LIKE the Angel of the LORD going before them. (Zechariah 12:8)"

These are just some of the hundreds of verses that use "like" and "image". They all show that to be made in God's "likeness" and "image" means to be righteous and have the knowledge of Good and evil. "Like" and "image" don't mean "male image" and "female image".

Thirdly, the words "image" and "likeness" are literally translated as "example" or "similitude". God is making man as an "example" of himself. In the ancient languages, the two words, "timthal" (image) and

"mathalona" (our image) are derived from the root word "metal" (example). Thus when the Bible uses the root words "mathal" and "shabah" it refers, not to a male and female "image of God", but rather man being made as an "example" or "similitude" of God. So, as we've seen above, "our likeness" only means knowing Good and evil.

Now for hundreds of years, Christian missionaries with little knowledge of Hebrew, used this very same verse in the Bible to prove the Trinity.

While the COG uses this one verse in Genesis to prove Mother and Father, Christians used it to prove "The Father, Son and Holy Spirit".

But nowadays, no Christian scholar would use Genesis 1:26 as proof of a plural God. Why would Christians abandon this? Surely if the verse indicated a plural God, they would champion it as proof of the Trinity?

Well, they've simply read the Bible. Christian scholars overwhelmingly agree that the plural pronoun in this verse is a reference to God's ministering angels who were created previously, and that God spoke majestically in the plural, consulting His heavenly court.

I know you think all Bible experts are "unholy" and "evil", but just read what they say.

For example, the evangelical Christian author Gordon J. Wenham, who is no foe of the Trinity and authored a widely respected two-volume commentary on the Book of Genesis, writes on this verse:

"Christians have traditionally seen Genesis 1:26 as foreshadowing the Trinity. It is now universally admitted that this was not what the plural meant to Bible's original author."

Also note what the NIV Study Bible has to say about Genesis 1:26:

"Us . . . Our . . . Our. God speaks as the Creator-king, announcing His crowning work to the members of His heavenly court. (see 3:22; 11:7; Isaiah 6:8; I Kings 22:19-23; Job 15:8; Jeremiah 23:18)"

So even the Bible itself says that "us" is not plural.

Charles Caldwell Ryrie, a highly regarded professor of Biblical Studies at the Philadelphia College of Bible and author of the widely read Bible commentary, "The Ryrie Study Bible", writes this short and sweet point about Genesis 1:26:

"Us . . . Our. Refers to Plurals of majesty."

The Liberty Annotated Study Bible, a Bible commentary published by the Reverend Jerry Falwell's Liberty University, similarly remarks on this verse:

"The plural pronoun "Us" isa majestic plural from the standpoint of Hebrew grammar and syntax."

The 10-volume commentary by Keil and Delitzsch is considered by many to be the most influential exposition on the "Old Testament" in evangelical circles. Yet in its commentary on Genesis 1:26, we find:

"The plural "We" was regarded by the fathers and earlier theologians unanimously as being indicative of the Trinity; modern commentators, on the contrary, regard it either as pluralis majestatis...No other explanation is left, therefore, than to regard it as pluralis majestatis..."

The question that immediately comes to mind is: What would compel these evangelical scholars- all of whom, like the COG, believe in a plural God- to determinedly conclude that Genesis 1:26 does not suggest the Trinity, but rather a majestic address to the angelic hosts of heaven?

The answer to this question is simple. They've thoroughly read and studied the Bible. If you search the Bible you will find that whenever the Almighty speaks of "us" or "our," He is addressing His ministering angels. In fact, only two chapters later, God continues to use the pronoun "us" as He speaks with His angels.

At the end of the third chapter of Genesis the Almighty relates to His angels that Adam and his wife have eaten from the Tree of Knowledge and must therefore be prevented from eating from the Tree of Life as well; for if man would gain access to the Tree of Life he will "become like one of us." The Creator then instructs his angels known as Cherubim to stand at the gate of the Garden of Eden waving a flaming sword so that mankind is prevented from entering the Garden and eating from the Tree of Life.

Let's examine Genesis 3:22-24:

"Then the Lord God said, "Behold, the man has become LIKE one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put out his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever" — therefore the Lord God sent him out of the Garden of Eden to till the ground from which he was taken. So He drove out the man; and He placed cherubim at the east of the Garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life. "

This use of the majestic plural in Genesis 3:22-24 is what is intended by the NIV Study Bible's annotation on Genesis 1:26. At the end of its comment on this verse, the NIV Study Bible provides a number of Bible sources from the Jewish scriptures to support its position that "God speaks as the Creator-king, announcing His crowning work to the members of His heavenly court." The verses cited are: Genesis 3:22, 11:7, Isaiah 6:8, I Kings 22:19-23, Job 15:8, and Jeremiah 23:18.

These verses convey to the attentive Bible reader that the heavenly abode of the Creator is filled with the ministering angels who attend the Almighty and to whom He repeatedly refers when using the plural pronoun "Us."

Is this clearer now?

Let's talk about Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem.

Ahnsahnghong

Was he legally married to mother jerusalem?

How many times did he get married? Is mother jerusalem his first wife? When is his birthday?

By: Tony on June 2, 2008
at 9:32 am

Reply

Mother Jerusalem

Who is she? What is Mother Jerusalem's name? when was she born? how old is she? Does she have any kids or families?

I've been in world mission church of god for awhile, baptized, have a life number (my name is in the book of life), keeping passover, sabbath, all the feasts, study bible, read all the books etc. They are the nicest people, but none of them can answer these questions truthfully. i've been neglecting my families, quit my job so i can do more preaching and studying, i've sacrificed all my time and energy for preaching, preaching and preaching and more preaching. I've been like a dog chasing it's own tail.

I'm beginning to realise there's more to live than this. happiness or salvation is not something that you search or seek. it is within you.
Sorry for using this comment box for my rants.

Ted said,,,

"Marcus, did you know that the IRS is investigating Joo Cheol Kim? He's filed tax exemption and deductible tithing. He's also registered his cult as the same denomination as the SDA's and Moonies. Does this look like the behaviour of a man who honestly believes the world will end in 2012? Why would a man who believes the world will end in 4 years, be so concerned about profits and tax loopholes?"

By: marcus on June 2, 2008
at 9:37 am

Reply

LOL! Ted the detective thinks he's got dirt on the COG!

Another fail argument. You deny Bible prophecy Ted, just admit it.

Love how you quote man's opinions about Biblical matters. The Bible speaks for itself my friend.

Ted said,,,

"First of all, the idea that "Let us make man in our image" refers to the plurality of God is refuted by the very next verse, which relates the creation of man to a singular God.

This verse reads: "And God created man in His image" (Genesis 1:27).

In this verse the Hebrew verb "created" appears in the singular form. If "let us make man" indicated a plurality, it would be followed in the next verse by, "And they created man in their image."

You see how Ted tries to negate what God said in Genesis 1:26 by using Genesis 1:27. Interesting that he tries to use God's words against God.

He comes to this false argument because of his lack of knowledge of the word of God.. let us look at Genesis 5

Genesis 5:1.....:When God created man, he made him in the likeness of God. 2 He created them male and female and blessed them. And when they were created, he called them "man. [a] "

When God created male and female in the IMAGE OF GOD, he called them "MAN".

Now let us look at Genesis 1:27 again....."27 So God created MAN (male and female) in his own image, in the image of God he created him; MALE and FEMALE he created them.

This is the problem that Ted runs into when he uses cut and paste arguments of men and his own opinion. Your understanding of the Bible is not your own. It is a mixture of men's opinions about God's will.

The Bible interprets itself Ted. This is something you quite haven't understood yet.

You cannot distort God's will of creation. This is why it is stated in Romans 1....

Romans 1:20For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that men are without excuse.

Men can distort the word of God, but you cannot alter God's providence of creation. It is there for everyone to see. God created all life to be given through male and female. God's will to give us spiritual life is hidden in the creation.

Why does Ted not understand such a simple concept? Because he is not a child of Father and Mother and he despises their children.

It is ok Ted. Your efforts will be proven futile because you are fighting the true God Elohim.

Truth is always exposed in the end.

just preach and study all day? How would you pay the bills? Is someone taking care of you?

2008
at 9:57 am

If you really are a child of Father and Mother, you would know that Mother never said to quit your job or school. She in fact encourages us to be the best employee at the workplace or the best student at school and glorify God with our good deeds.

Reply

If you preach as much as you say you do, you must have great faith in our Father and Mother. Then why don't you know that Mother never says to quit your job or school to only preach the gospel?

If you think salvation is within you, then do what you have to do Tony. Salvation does not need to be forced upon anyone. If you do not think Father and Mother are testified in the Bible, then why are you preaching, preaching, preaching as you claim?

Your comments sound like one who is posing as a member of the church of God. Very obvious.

I guess there is nothing else to do here! All of you want to stay blind! I must say that I have tried! I do believe with all my heart that this "cult" or sect as they called Jesus & the Apostles 2000 years ago is the truth. Its happening again...

By: Lizzie on June 2, 2008
at 10:12 am

Reply

Acts 24:5

"We have found this man to be a troublemaker, stirring up riots among the Jews all over the world. He is a ringleader of the Nazarene SECT 13And they cannot prove to you the charges they are now making against me. 14However, I admit that I worship the God of our fathers as a follower of the Way, which they call a SECT. I believe everything that agrees with the Law and that is written in the Prophets, 15and I have the same hope in God as these men, that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked.

It is the will of God that it happens all over again.. It is how he separates the light from the dark. The children of God and those of Satan!!!

Ecclesiastes 1:9

What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again; there is nothing new under the sun.

I believe in what follows the bible scriptures. Today's religions don't follow any of the commandments! Jesus said UNLESS THEY DO THE WILL OF MY FATHER...

Matthew 7

21"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' 23Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!

No church out there besides the CoG can say they do the will of the Father!! If they say they do they are nothing but hypocrites!

Matthew 15

7You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you:

8" 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

9They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men.'

Sunday Worship/Christmas/Easter/Communion all man made-Catholic Approved

Catholics... oh how they break the laws of Christ!!
Starting by the POPE with his tiara

1 Corinthians 11

1Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ. Propriety in Worship

2I praise you for remembering me in everything and for holding to the teachings, just as I passed them on to you. 3Now I want you to realize that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is man, and the head of Christ is God. 4Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head.

Then calling himself "FATHER-HOLINESS"

Matthew 23:9

And do not call anyone on earth 'father,' for you have one Father, and he is in heaven.

This is the church that approves all those doctrines..
They killed Christians because they didnt want to follow Catholic doctrines.

How sick is that!!

CoG doesnt obligate anyone, or kill anyone because they dont want to follow the truth!!

Father & Mother were never married! They were never LOVERS! He just ESTABLISHED her as MOTHER to fulfill a prophesy! They took a PICTURE in TRADITIONAL WEDDING CLOTHES! Before FATHER passed away he told everyone... FOLLOW HER TILL THE END!

Isaiah 62

6 I have posted watchmen (those who look out) on your walls, O Jerusalem; they will never be silent day or night. (preaching)
You who call on the LORD, give yourselves no rest,

7 and give him no rest till he establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the earth.

Fathers last words after he spent 37 years without rest
PREACHING was FOLLOW HER TILL THE END!!!

Tell me which church can say they have fulfilled prophesies?? NONE

We are all adults, we can compare to see which church holds the truth!

Although you claim Jesus is the way you dont follow his commands... HYPOCRITES

But yet this SECT does...

We will never fail because we are of GOD!
more than 800,000 and going STRONG!

Acts 5

38Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail. 39But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God."

Keep em coming Ted.

By: marcus on June 2, 2008
at 10:22 am

Hebrews 4:12 — For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart.

Reply

You neither know the truth nor believe the truth. You suppress the truth of God. Your type are written in the Bible.

Romans 1:18 — The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of men who suppress the truth by their wickedness, 19since what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them. 20For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that men are without excuse.

I pity your soul that you were used to hinder the gospel of Christ. Your destiny is found in the Bible.

Lizzie, there is no need to answer their questions.

By: marcus on June 2, 2008
at 10:36 am

If they do not believe that Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled Bible prophecy and that he revealed to us who our Mother (God in the flesh) is, then why should they know anything about them? Doesn't make any sense right?

Reply

Ted is trying to gather information for his quest to make war against the Church of God. Obviously it will fail, but still, why give them what they want?

Let them squirm a little bit.

Marcus,

By: Dark Angel on
June 2, 2008
at 11:27 am

It is not whether you use the bible or not, it's about answering simple questions. If someone ask you for your Name, Age, and Birth Date.

Reply

Are you going to tell then your name is "Baxter" while avoiding to answer the rest of the question by referring to bible scripture to prove your age and birthdate?

No, you're not.

"Mother Jerusalem" was not born with that name. She has a birth date just like everyone else and she also has parents.

Out of all of the cults that I was apart of, I knew the basic information about the leader. Why is knowing someone's real name such a hard thing?

Wouldn't you want to know who you are worshipping? Perhaps not but if anyone is running around claiming to be an Omniscient Being, then, I'm going to do my best to find out who this person really is.

You can not claim to be an Omniscient Being without being recognized as one as a child. Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem's "Divine Natures" should not have gone on blind eyes by anyone.

Parents, Friends, Relatives, Neighbors...etc.

Most people are recognized as "gifted" in their childhood. Why wasn't Mother Jerusalem recognized as God? You would think with her divine nature, it wouldn't be as hard.

You guys want to say that Ahnsahnghong was not a Buddhist but, two years ago on another blog, members of the COG made it clear that he was.

And Yes, I can post exactly what is said too. Perhaps you were there under another user name Marcus. You seem to be everywhere...Omnipresent-like.

Anyway, for anyone to withhold information about themselves such as Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem does, well, does not deserve to be trusted or better yet worshipped.

What is she hiding from?

Who is she hiding from?

Your god Mother Jerusalem has a family member of mine believing that she is OMNISCIENT.

Is she or is she not Omniscient, Marcus?

Lizzie said, "We will never fail because we are of GOD! more than 800,000 and going STRONG!"

By: Dark Angel on
June 2, 2008
at 12:28 pm

Lizzie, why go past 144,000? why go past 200,000 or 300,000?

Reply

What is the purpose if 144,000 is the quota. Why allow all the remaining 656,000 to believe that they are chosen and going to heaven?

Not to mention the extra amount of people that may join from now until whenever you guys believe is the "end".

dear marcus,

I use to attend sabbath worship , tuesday, keep all feast and i preach and study everyday.

By: Tony on June 2, 2008
at 1:03 pm

I had to quit my job to be able to attend full sabbath worship, get more time to preach and study. i had a part time labour job so i can just pay rent. At that time, my top main priority is only to serve mother. I genuinely believed every doctrins, every dogma. I can still recite all the verses needed to support and confirm. I know most of it on top off my head.

Reply

I know exactly mother said not quit in one occassion, this was said especially to the one in the korean army/military. she also said you can still bear fruit.. preach to your fellow army as well. (this is exactly what she said). The points that she always make when she speaks: bear fruit, find lost brothers and sisters.

I guess what i'm saying is now i can see a whole new different perspective of life. To be honest i feel peacefull and free.

I am only trying to express my experience. I'm not trying to prosecute anyone especially world mission church of god. I am still friends with some of them, although most of them think i'm no longer their 'brother'.

Here's a few comments taken from another message board date in 2006 from the Brendoman site.

By: Dark Angel on
June 2, 2008
at 6:51 pm

A COG member says in regards to Ahnsahnghong being a Buddhist..

Reply

COG member 1:

"How can a Kid who was taught from a young age to be budist be able to restore the passover and be able to establish our Zion which keeps all the Feast and Father made so manny books in deatail explaing so much through the bible.

also when Father came he lived in ashack with barely enough money to live and you know what is Job was to break down rocks yet he spent all the money he earned to buy paper to make all of those books he wrote explaining everything we had forgotten. No regular Man can make such a miracle as he did."

Dated: 10/11/06

Another COG member says:

COG member 2:

"He was raised a Buddhist and His parents were both devout. Thus he was not a Christian until the age of 30 (I don't think his parents let Him read the Bible!) Is it humanly possible for Him to have learned so much truth of the bible in that environment in what, a day? A month?)"

Dated: 10/19/06

Again that is taken from:

<http://brendoman.com/wardwords/2005/11/21/cult#c42560>

in support of Ahnsahnghong being raised a Buddhist, as some may try to dispute. Who ever said that he wasn't, how long were you members for, a few months?

From Jaime: 'BTW Clark, you're just drawing attention away from the topic to further your own antagonistic-atheistic-antiChristian agenda. We'll just ignore what you say if you can't stick to the topic.'

By: Clark on June 2, 2008 at 8:42 pm

Reply

Well Jaime. Why don't you go take your Bible and shove it in your ass. I don't have to believe in this "cult book" that you Jaime worship.

BTW Jaime, perhaps you can answer my question. Is the Bible literally written by God or by men? Why no one can answer it.

Actually I see a lot of smart people here. Dark Angel, Jonah, LOLISM, COGinator, Ted, marcus, Lizzie, brofromzion, since you guys knows the Bible well, please answer my question. I'm pretty sure when they answer it they gonna use some twisted answer according to their own flaws. This Bible cult has really gone mad, creating wars on everyone.

Clark,

By: Dark Angel on June 2, 2008 at 9:28 pm

Perhaps you should come up with your own answer for that question because obviously, you're not going to accept an answer from anyone else.

Reply

Take care and good luck on your search.

If no one minds, I'll just repost this information.

By: Dark Angel on
June 2, 2008
at 9:29 pm

Here's a few comments taken from another message board date in 2006 from the Brendoman site.

Reply

A COG member says in regards to Ahnsahnghong being a Buddhist..

COG member 1:

"How can a Kid who was taught from a young age to be budist be able to restore the passover and be able to establish our Zion which keeps all the Feast and Father made so many books in deatail explaing so much through the bible.

also when Father came he lived in ashack with barely enough money to live and you know what is Job was to break down rocks yet he spent all the money he earned to buy paper to make all of those books he wrote explaining everything we had forgotten. No regular Man can make such a miracle as he did."

Dated: 10/11/06

Another COG member says:

COG member 2:

"He was raised a Buddhist and His parents were both devout. Thus he was not a Christian until the age of 30 (I don't think his parents let Him read the Bible!) Is it humanly possible for Him to have learned so much truth of the bible in that environment in what, a day? A month?)."

Dated: 10/19/06

Again that is taken from:

<http://brendoman.com/wardwords/2005/11/21/cult#c42560>

in support of Ahnsahnghong being raised a Buddhist, as some may try to dispute. Who ever said that he wasn't, how long were you members for, a few months?

See what I mean guys about Clark? I'll be exercising my authority to censor his posts that are unrelated to the topic at hand. Yes Clark, censor, nothing you can do about that hahaha.

By: Jamie on June 2,
2008
at 10:40 pm

You can raise up a big ruckus about me not allowing free speech and all that, anything you like. it'll all get deleted all the same. You can take all your complaints and unrelated questions and show them up your ass :)

Reply

CoG = FAIL
Clark = FAIL

[Edit by Jamie: I'm only leaving this comment here because it's a reply to Dark Angel's question. It's up here out of respect for Dark Angel, not Clark.

By: Clark on June 2, 2008
at 10:41 pm

Reply

Clark = FAIL]

From Dark Angel 'Perhaps you should come up with your own answer for that question because obviously, you're not going to accept an answer from anyone else.'

Am I suppose to vomit now or what? The answer is simple. The Bible is written by men using papers, pen or perhaps with the modern technology which is the computer and printer. Got it Dark Angel? Don't worry, I'll give you further information. You suck Dark Angel.

Do you know how to LOVE GOD w ALL YOUR MIGHT AND w ALL YOUR MIND??? Do you know how to LOVE ONE ANOTHER??? The way GOD wants you to????

By: Lizzie on June 3, 2008
at 7:34 am

Reply

Answer that first!!!

We are still here PATIENTLY trying to OPEN UP YOUR EYES and everyone else in this "BLOG"

Learn the prophesies b4 throwing all of that in our face!

Thats what all of you should so... LEARN THE PROPHECIES AND THE MYSTERIES OF GOD

If you dont, then it will just be a sealed scroll that you cant read or understand.

Romans 3:12
All have turned away, they have together become worthless; there is no one who does good, not even one."

By: Lizzie on June 3, 2008
at 7:46 am

Reply

Lizzie,

Do you still believe that Ahnsahnghong was not a Buddhist?

By: Dark Angel on June 3, 2008
at 8:21 am

Reply

Do you also still believe that Christianity didn't exist in South Korea 1918?

I think most of you should get your information in order before you decide to worship some guy and a woman.

There was Christianity; I never said there wasnt. What didnt exist was the TRUTH! Not some ROMAN CATHOLIC APPROVED Religion that keeps SUNDAY WORSHIP... They desecrated the SABBATH!

By: Lizzie on June 3, 2008 at 8:32 am

Reply

Exodus 31:14

" 'Observe the Sabbath, because it is holy to you. Anyone who desecrates it must be put to death; whoever does any work on that day must be cut off from his people.

Ezekiel 20:13

" 'Yet the people of Israel rebelled against me in the desert. They did not follow my decrees but rejected my laws—although the man who obeys them will live by them—and they utterly desecrated my Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and destroy them in the desert

Ezekiel 20:16

because they rejected my laws and did not follow my decrees and desecrated my Sabbaths. For their hearts were devoted to their idols.

Ezekiel 23:38

They have also done this to me: At that same time they defiled my sanctuary and desecrated my Sabbaths.

How can they be called GODS people! The Christianity that was there was defiled...Thats why Christ had to come again to remind them of what they OBVIOUSLY FORGOT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

By: Lizzie on June 3, 2008 at 8:38 am

Reply

John 14:26

But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.

What did they forget:

THE SABBATH
THE FEASTS
THE PASSOVER WHICH GIVES SALVATION

How come in 2000 years NO ONE reminded US about those IMPORTANT & SACRED COMMANDMENTS OF GOD??

By: Lizzie on June 3, 2008 at 8:44 am

Only 1 MAN

Reply

What GOD takes away ONLY GOD could give back!!!

Gen 3

21 The LORD God made garments of skin for Adam and his wife and clothed them. 22 And the LORD God said, "The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live forever." 23 So the LORD God banished him from the Garden of Eden to work the ground from which he had been taken.

The Tree of Life gave ETERNAL LIFE
PASSEOVER GIVES ETERNAL LIFE

Who brought the truth back??

AHNSAHNHONG

Good job Sister Lizzie. In the bible, God lets us know about a very important place for our salvation. That place is the Garden of Eden. In the Garden of Eden, we can find out not only about the biblical origin of human beings, but the origin of death as well.

By: Poland on June 3, 2008
at 3:24 pm

Reply

However, the Garden of Eden does not only hold the key to how we came to die, but also how we can come to have the secret of eternal life. Because we sinned in the Garden of Eden, all men have been destined to die. Then, is that it? Are only born to die in this dreadful world? Is there anyway to be saved from our sin, and finally death?

Let us find out through the word of God in the Bible.

The tree of life hidden since the creation

Matt. 13:34-35 Jesus spoke all these things to the crowd in parables; he did not say anything to them without using a parable. So was fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet: "I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden since the creation of the world."

According to the bible, Jesus always spoke in parables. In these parables, Jesus has revealed things hidden since the creation of the world. Among the 66 books, which book has the history of the creation of the world? It is the book of Genesis.

In the book of Genesis there are many parables showing God's Providence. Among the parables, let's study the tree of life

.

Gen. 2:16-17 And the LORD God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat of it you will surely die."

In the Garden of Eden, God the LORD put the tree of life and the tree of knowledge of good and evil. And He commanded Adam and Eve not to eat from the tree of knowledge of good and evil. However, they were tempted by Satan and violated the commandment of God. By this, human beings are destined to die and death entered this world through sin.

However, Jesus said that he spoke in parables, which speaks of hidden things, but is the story the tree of the knowledge of good and evil a hidden thing? Everyone has heard this story before. Then what was hidden?

Even though we all know about how we came to die in the Garden of Eden, how many people know about how we had to have eternal life?

This is the hidden thing that Jesus was speaking of. There is a proverb, "where there is a problem, there is a solution." Then, if death is the problem, what can be the only possible solution? Eternal life. Let's see how we were able to have eternal life in the Garden of Eden.

Gen. 3:22 And the LORD God said, "The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live forever."

According to the above verse, the way that we are able to have eternal life is by eating from the tree of life. According to the bible, because we sinned by eating from the tree of knowledge of good and evil, God blocked the way for us to eat from the tree of life and receive eternal life. But if God blocked the way to eat from the tree of life, then who is the only one that can open the way? Only God. However, two thousand years ago, Jesus Christ came to give us the way to eternal life.

John 10:10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

Life to the full means "eternal life". But according to bible, the only way to receive eternal life is by eating from the tree of life. This means that Christ came to open the way to the tree of life. However, if only God can open the way to the tree of life and give us eternal life, and Christ came to give us eternal life, then what does this mean? Jesus Christ is God almighty who came to give us eternal life through the tree of life.

Then, what is the reality of the tree of life? How did Jesus open the way for us to eat from the tree of life?

John 6:53-54 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.

In Genesis, what should we eat to have eternal life? It's the tree of life. However, what did Jesus say we should eat to have eternal life? He said we should eat His flesh and drink His blood. Then, what is Jesus' flesh and blood? It's the reality of the tree of life. That's right. The fruit of the tree of life in the Garden of Eden represents Jesus' flesh and blood. By eating Jesus' flesh and blood we can eat the fruit of the tree of life and have eternal life, which was lost in the Garden of Eden.

How do we eat Jesus Flesh and blood?
Are we to really eat Jesus Christ himself?

No way. The bible shows us exactly how to eat Jesus flesh and blood to receive eternal life.

Matt. 26:17-26 On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?" He replied, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, 'The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.'" So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover. ... While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

In the Garden of Eden; we needed to eat from the tree of life in order to receive eternal life. In the New Testament, the reality of the tree of life is Jesus Christ flesh and blood. The way to eat from Jesus Christ flesh and blood is be celebrating the Passover. Then, we can say the reality of the tree of life is the Passover.

Again, if only God can open the way to the tree of life and give us eternal life, and Christ came to give us eternal life, then what does this mean? Jesus Christ is God almighty who came to give us eternal life through the tree of life

We, human beings, who lost the tree of life and were destined to die, have the chase once again to have eternal life by God who came in the flesh and allowed the fruit of the tree of life, that is, the bread and wine of the Passover. However, the devil abolished the truth of the Passover at the Council of Nicaea in 325 A.D. It means the tree of life was hidden and no one could have eternal life. We could not expect salvation without the Passover the truth about the tree of life.

Then how can we eat from the tree of life again? Who can restore the Passover Truth to us?

Heb. 9:28 so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

The purpose of Christ coming a second time is for our salvation. To bring us salvation the Passover is absolutely needed. Whoever establishes the Passover truth must be second coming Christ. The One who restored the Passover truth is Christ Ahnsahnghong.

Therefore, Ahnsahnghong is Christ who came in this age according to all the prophecies of the Bible. He restored the truth of the Passover, the tree of life, and saved us from our sin and death.

Again, if only God can open the way to the tree of life and give us eternal life, and Christ

Ahnsahnghong came to give us eternal life, then what does this mean? Christ Ahnsahnghong is God Almighty who came to give us eternal life through the tree of life.

Hi everyone. Been busy lately with some work and finally I'm getting some break now. To all my Masonic Brothers, I still here if you guys need help as long as I don't break the commandments of God. I was wondering if the unbelievers here know God's Zion is. According to the Bible, Zion is the place where the Feast of God are kept.

By: Robert on June 3, 2008 at 7:21 pm

Reply

Isaiah 33:20- Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals; your eyes will see Jerusalem, a peaceful abode, a tent that will not be moved; its stakes will never be pulled up, nor any of its ropes broken.

Zion is the city of God's Feast. That is why the Church of God 2000 years ago was also regarded as Zion.

Hebrews 12:22- But you have come to Mount Zion, to the heavenly Jerusalem, the city of the living God. You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly, to the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven.

what was the name of the church 2000 years ago?

1 Corinthians 1:1- 2 To the CHURCH OF GOD in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus and called to be holy, together with all those everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ—their Lord and ours:

Acts 20:28-Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood.

The name of the Church Jesus Christ established was the Church of God. But how did the apostle Paul describe the church of God in the book of Hebrews? He said "you have come to Mount Zion" The Church of God is Mount Zion.. Why? Because the Church of God 2000 years ago kept the feast of God (Sabbath, Passover, Unleavened Bread, Firstfruits, Feast of Week, Feast of Trumpets, Day of Atonement, Feast of Tabernacles). Not only that, but in Zion who should you see? lets read again

Isaiah 33:20-Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals; your eyes will see Jerusalem

Hebrews 12:22-22-But you have come to Mount Zion, to the heavenly Jerusalem

Then who is the Heavenly Jerusalem?

Galatians 4:26-But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.

Then, in Zion who must exist? Mother God!! The Church of God 2000 years ago believed in Mother God. Then the true Church of God in these days must also believe in Mother God. The World Mission Society Church of God is Mount Zion because it believes in Mother God as the bible testifies. We must believe in the Heavenly Mother testified in the bible to receive Eternal Life.

Then where will the people of God be standing in the last days?

Revelation 14:1-Then I looked, and there before me was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion, and with him 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads.

Where will they be standing? they will be on Mt. Zion!!! In Mt. Zion, Father God and Mother God will give us Eternal Life. The World Mission Society Church of God firmly believes in Father God- Christ Ahnsahnghong and Mother God-the New Jerusalem because they are testified throughout the whole bible. The World Mission Society Church of God is surely Zion! God Bless you!

Lizzie,

Yes I know that it wasn't you who said that Christianity didn't exist in South Korea in 1918, it was Elijah.

By: Dark Angel on
June 3, 2008
at 8:05 pm

Reply

As he stated on May 16th, "Christ Ahnsahnghong is the one who fulfilled all of these prophecies in 1918 when Christ Ahnsahnghong was born the majority of Korea was either Buddhist or Confucian; there was no trace of Christianity in Korea during that time, so it was impossible for Christ Ahnsahnghong to be born in a household of believers."

However, none of you corrected him.

Also, you did mention that Ahnsahnghong did NOT "follow Buddah" for 30 years in your post dated May 22, 2008. Even Robert agreed with you with his post right underneath.

You said,

"Jonah you are so full of it.. Ahnsahnghong did not follow BUDDAH for 30 years. He was a 7 day Adventist and thats part of the prophecy of the 7 churches... Not only that HE KEPT THE SABBATH DAY!! His parents were Buddhist. Get your story straight! Everything Ahnsahnghong did was to fulfill prophecies. If it looks like God Acts like God and fulfills pophecies that only God can fulfill... THEN IT IS GOD!"

So Lizzie, why is it that in the post that I pasted from another blog from two years ago, two members of the COG claimed that he WAS a Buddhist.

It would appear that you have your information out of order, Lizzie. Marcus, you should feel ashamed that members are misinformed, seeing how you have more knowledge of the doctrine and all.

I'll just post what they said again so that you can compare what they said, to your words.

"COG member 1:

"How can a Kid who was taught from a young age to be budist be able to restore the passover and be able to establish our Zion which keeps all the Feast and Father made so manny books in deatail explaing so much through the bible.

also when Father came he lived in ashack with barely enough money to live and you know what is Job was to break down rocks yet he spent all the money he earned to buy paper to make all of those books he wrote explaining everything we had forgotten. No regular Man can make such a miracle as he did."

Dated: 10/11/06

Another COG member says:

COG member 2:

"He was raised a Buddhist and His parents were both devout. Thus he was not a Christian until the age of 30 (I don't think his parents let Him read the Bible!) Is it humanly possible for Him to have learned so much truth of the bible in that environment in what, a day? A month?)"

Dated: 10/19/06

Again that is taken from:

<http://brendoman.com/wardwords/2005/11/21/cult#c42560>

in support of Ahnsahnghong being raised a Buddhist, as some may try to dispute. Who ever said that he wasn't, how long were you members for, a few months?"

To make it worse, Lizzie. I posted a message for you right under Roberts on May 22, 2008 and you never responded, I'll just paste here for you to answer.

By: Dark Angel on
June 3, 2008
at 8:07 pm

Reply

I said,

Lizzie said, "Jonah you are so full of it.. Ahnsahnghong did not follow BUDDAH for 30 years. He was a 7 day Adventist and thats part of the prophecy of the 7 churches... Not only that HE KEPT THE SABBATH DAY!! His parents were Buddhist. Get your story straight! "

Lizzie, at what age did Ahnsahnghong JOIN the Seventh Day Adventist church?

The guy was baptized in 1948 at the age of 30. How long does it really take someone to get baptized?

Give me a break with that. How about you get your story straight because it would appear that you do not know as well.

First ELIJAH claims there was NO TRACE of Christianity in 1918, the year Ahndahnghong was born, then you say that he wasn't a Buddhist but a Seventh Day Adventist.

Are you serious??

He was baptized in 1948, that is when he ACCEPTED CHRIST and became a Seventh Day Adventist.

You all don't have a clue about your own doctrine. If I didn't point out the Christianity existed in South Korea before Ahnsahnghong was born, you all would still believe that it didn't exist at that time.

Even the SDA church was there before your god was born.

So again Lizzie, how old was Ahndahnghong when he joined the church WITHOUT getting baptized. Did he join at age 21 then decided to get baptized at age 30?

If that were the case, then you all are shooting yourselves in the foot. Please tell em that was the case... oh man.

You all have already gotten the history of the existence of Christianity incorrect, so I want you to add on to your errors.

Now do you remember, Lizzie?

By: Dark Angel on
June 3, 2008
at 8:28 pm

Reply

Marcus said: "The only reason Ahnsahnghong is the Christ is because he is the one the Scriptures testify about. Ahnsahnghong and Scripture are inseparable."

By: Ted on June 3, 2008
at 9:02 pm

Reply

And yet the Scriptures don't even remotely attest to Ahnsahnghong or Chung Gil Cha.

The COG uses a web of verses to back up Ahnsahnghong and Mother. Look at Robert's post (which I'll respond to after). Each verse is taken out of context and then used to validate another verse. That's why cults often bounce about from verse to verse when trying to "debate" or "prove" their doctrines.

Whenever someone points out a flaw, they quickly jump elsewhere.

Cult members are trained to think in a very scattershot way, always jumping from one "proof" to the next. This is because their belief is essentially a self supporting web. A supports B which supports C which supports D. Nothing can stand on it's own. Once you scrutinise one segment, all the others crumble.

But anyone actually properly studying the Bible will see that the Bible has nothing to do with Ahnshanghong or Mother. Basically, a cults indoctrination process is a step by step process in which these segments are all welded together. You get the cult membre to believe A and then he has to believe B.

Marcus said: "Ted the detective thinks he's got dirt on the COG!"

I fail to see how you can laugh off the fact that Joo Cheol Kim is more concerned about tax loopholes, tithing and tax deductability, when the world is supposed to end in 2012. Obviously the man is milking you for every dime you have. Jesus was a humble man and had no concern for earthly money or possessions. The COG thrive on money stolen from their young members.

Marcus said: "Love how you quote man's opinions about Biblical matters. The Bible speaks for itself my friend."

Exactly. And the Bible absolutely has nothing to do with Ahnsahngong. Instead of debating issues look how you run in circles. You're now hiding behind the shallowest defence. All cults use the "man is evil, do not listen to them" line as a last line of defence. The COG's doctrines absolutely crumble under scrutiny and everytime this is pointed out, you resort to ad hominem attacks or change the topic.

Marcus said: "When God created male and female in the IMAGE OF GOD, he called them "MAN"."

Marcus this has nothing to do with the point I made earlier. It niether proves your point or debunks mine. Of course mankind is comprised of males and females. I think you need to re-read my post.

Marcus said: "Your understanding of the Bible is not your own. It is a mixture of men's opinions about God's will."

Again, you're hiding behind the "everyone not in the COG is evil and wrong" argument. That's shallow and simplistic. Facts don't lie. The Bible doesn't lie. Logic doesn't lie. Your only defence is "it has to be right because it is from God".

You're overlooking the truth, because you believe a lie.

Marcus said: "The Bible interprets itself Ted. This is something you quite haven't understood yet."

Exactly, which is why when we study the Bible we find the truth. If we look at the use of "elohim" and "us" throughout the Bible we can see what is meant in Genesis. The Bible alone proves that your interpretation is wrong. I've found 190 examples of the use of the word, which is what I was trying to show you in the other post, but you brush it off saying that these "scholars are evil men". No Marcus, they're using the Bible. They're studying Bible verses and then coming to their conclusion. Are you saying that "elohim" is used differently in Genesis? Are you saying that this one verse is more special and so is different from all other uses of the noun?

You cannot distort God's will of creation, Marcus. This is why it is stated in Romans 1:

Romans 1:20 "For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that men are without excuse."

This is what the Bible says about the COG. It warns us about men who distort the word of God. It warns us about false prophets like the COG who try to scam money from people. Cults who are more concerned about IRS loopholes and annual profits than the word of God.

Actually no it doesn't. Roman's simply an angry letter by Paul against the politicians of the time. I'm not going to lower myself to your standards, using verses out of context.

Marcus said: "Truth is always exposed in the end."

Of course it is. Just promise not to do anything stupid on 2012. I know you truly believe in Ahnsahnghong, and that's fine. Their indoctrination is very powerful. I was in your shoes too. But when 2012 comes and nothing happens at least reevaluate all your crazy doctrines and think about what's really going on. Don't just say "oh wait, Ahnsahnghong is merely testing us" and go on giving your money to them.

The Bible says to test all idols with a hammer. If you are unwilling to test Ahnsahnghong now, do it in 4 or 5 years time, when the "end" doesn't come.

Marcus said: "If you really are a child of Father and Mother, you would know that Mother never said to quit your job or school. She in fact encourages us to be the best employee at the workplace or the best student at school and glorify God with our good deeds."

The COG needs their members working so that they can contribute money to the cult. No income= no money for Mother.

What they try to avoid is higher education (which of course leads to independent thinking). Thinking is something the COG don't like.

This is why you generally don't find people with higher education in cults.

As for Lizzie...Lizzie your post is completely off topic. You realise that just because Jews protested against Jesus that this does not make Ahnsahnghong God? The Moonies are accused of being a cult. Does this make Rev Moon like Jesus? No of course not. Both Ahnsahnghong and Moon are cult leaders who hide behind persecution.

"Look how they persecute me like Jesus" they say. But it's not the same at all. Jesus was stoned and crucified by the government, politicians and religious leaders of his time. In contrast, Ahnsahnghong is persecuted by 8 ex members on the internet. Hardly the same.

Clearly, Lizzie, Ahnsahnghong's persecution resonates not with Jesus, but with all the thousands of minor false prophets and false idols present throughout mankind's history.

Lizzie said: "How come in 2000 years NO ONE reminded US about those IMPORTANT & SACRED COMMANDMENTS OF GOD??"

Probably because Jesus abolished them. Jesus was a very rebellious individual who revoked most of the legalistic rituals and physical practises of the Jewish God. Remember the Old Testament God (the one you are quoting) and Jesus (New Testament) are separated by thousands and thousands of years.

The COG is essentially a pick-and-mix religion. You're taking the Old Testament doctrines of the Jews, the very same doctrines Jesus rebelled against, and claiming they are someone more valid. But then when it suits you, you jump back to the New Testament and use Jesus to persecute the Jews. So it's all very childish and back-and-forth.

The question, really, is does the Bible prophesise about Ahnsahnghong coming from the East and does Genesis prophesise about a male and female God. That's the only important thing to debate. Once you debunk either, you essentially prove that the COG is false. All your posts are just attempts to bury true discussion in ancillary rhetoric.

To Robert...well, your post is a perfect example of COG intercontextual nonsense. You've taken every single verse and totally ignored the meaning and historical context behind them. For example...

By: Ted on June 3, 2008
at 9:05 pm

Reply

Robert says: Isaiah 33:20- "Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals; your eyes will see Jerusalem, a peaceful abode, a tent that will not be moved; its stakes will never be pulled up, nor any of its ropes broken."

This verse is spoken to the Solomites (King Solomon's temple). Zion is located on Mount Zion in Jerusalem, not Korea. It's the oldest part of the South Western city. On one peak you had a city called Moriah where the famous temple of God was built, and on the other peak you had the palace of King David. Thus Zion is strategically in the middle of these two holy places.

Also the verse is not "2000" years old as you claim. It's far-far older.

Robert says...

Hebrews 12:22- "But you have come to Mount Zion, to the heavenly Jerusalem, the city of the living God. You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly, to the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven."

I notice Robert, that you don't post the very next verse. Hebrews actually reads this:

"But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly; the Church of the firstborn, which are written in Heaven; and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel" (Heb. 12:22-24)

It's not the Church of God, it's the Church of the Firstborn (aka Jesus Christ). The Israelites of old trembled at the foot of Mount Sinai. They were afraid, but then came to a new mountain. In these verses the apostle completes the last great contrast which he draws between Judaism and Christianity, in which he displays the superiority of the latter over the former. The point of the apostle in these Hebrew verses was to convince the believing Hebrews (at the foot of the mountain) of the pre-eminence of the new covenant above the old. This has nothing to do with Ahnsahnghong.

Robert says...

"1 Corinthians 1:1- 2 To the CHURCH OF GOD in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus and called to be holy, together with all those everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ—their Lord and ours:"

There are thousands of Churches called the Church of God. Anyone can call their church the "Church of God" and then point to the Bible and say "we are the chosen ones". Also note that Paul mentions different names in his Hellenistic letters to the Churches. He calls it the Church of Christ, the Church of the one, the church of the saviour etc. It's just poetic language and not a legalistic god-appointed name.

Robert says...

"Galatians 4:26-But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother."

Not this again. Paul rejects and CONDEMNS Israel saying that she is a barren woman with no fruits or seed. This is figurative language, not literal. Thus, the "city of Isreal" (aka the Jews), have renounced Christ and can only be "one with God" once they turn their city into a nurturing mother with ripe milk. And anyway, why would you want Chung Gil Cha to be associated with "Mother Jerusalem" when Paul says "The faithful city has become a harlot?"

Also there's the gramatical argument in which we see that the word for "New" in New Jerusalem is not "neos" but "kainos" which means something that is cleansed. Thus Paul is saying that Israel must be cleansed and accept Christ. Of course the Jews reject Christ, and so Paul condemns them. You're completely missing the point of these verses Robert. You're stringing things together to "back up" a superficial myth.

Lizzie said, "Who brought the truth back??

AHNSAHNHONG"

By: CoGinator on June 3, 2008 at 9:07 pm

The only part of truth ASH brought was that man eventually dies. I pray he went to heaven. As for MJ and Joo, I have my doubts as they appear to be developing the CoG religion for profit sake.

Reply

Clark,

I have a prediction to make...

By: CoGinator on June 3, 2008 at 9:27 pm

Since you don't believe in the bible, and yet you are hanging around a forum that is clearly all about the bible and the different interpretaions, that you are seeking. Now, I doubt you'd admit it and frankly I'm not going to hold you proclaim it...but there's something in you that is driving you to begin to look at the bible. But, since your in complete control of you life, you are going to ignore that feeling and instead convince yourself that there is no truth, and everyone who believes in the bible is weak. Hey, I know the thoughts as I was once there. However, God but some great people in my life that eventually lead me to be a follower of Jesus Christ.

Reply

Now don't get confused, I make mistakes, I have bad habbits and I'm not a perfect follower...as no christian is...but we can all be reminded of what his intentions were and how we can always strive to be more christ like.

You'd be smart to read a book called "The Case for Christ" by Lee Stroble. He was a reporter for the Chicago Tribune and he set out to prove, with his best investigative reporting hat on, that Christianity was bogus . Instead he proved the opposite. The book is well laid out and very logical.

You my friend are being courted by the Holy Spirit. I wouldn't be surprised if some great christian works come from you in the future.

God Bless you, and I'll pray for your peace of mind.

Clark, I encourage you to read the epistles of Peter and Jude, since you accuse me and others of "not loving each other" when we post against the CoG's cult teachings. Apparently, to you the concept of "loving one another" means letting a person end up in hell forever instead of doing all you can to prevent that from happening.

By: Jamie on June 3, 2008 at 11:04 pm

Reply

Lizzie, how ironic of you to instruct all of us to love God with all our minds. Frankly, that's what CoG members are not doing at all. Oh the irony!

CoG = FAIL

Oh the irony..... BLAH BLAH BLAH BLAH

By: Lizzie on June 4, 2008 at 10:36 am

Is it even worth trying to help all of you open your eyes? It's just a she said you said BS all the time in here.

Reply

I ended up here by mistake a couple months ago. And now I am fighting to help save the souls of those that are destined to DIE!

The truth is I am not into debate or boasting who is right or wrong. I was here to only & exclusively help a brother "Ryan" and for some reason I AM STILL HERE! Having COMPASSION for those that dont deserve it!

I still have compassion and pity for all of you. I have tried and tried and tried and yet you guys just dont get it. You guys dont see what we are trying to show you. How we want you to see what we see! The mysteries of GOD hidden in the bible!

I am not going to quote no verses... I am not throwing my pearls & my treasures that were freely given to me to PIGS!

Frankly, I dont think you guys deserve it or want it. It is futile to attempt to put Gods Holy Words/Mysteries on this website.

You cant help those that dont want to be helped! I can see the heart of my fellow brothers...

The only reason the bible gets quoted so much w us is because we speak thru the bible... Thats our sword! We dont use men opinions but Gods! His thoughts are higher than our thoughts, therefore his words have more validity

You all have turned away from God... Why is it so hard for you to come back to the truth & repent! Come out of her my people..... He says! Its sad how not even his own would recognized him. Only the few elect will.

The "truth" is only what follows and agrees w the words of God! Thats why we claim to be the truth! We follow all of the commandments of God and keep hold to the testimonies of Christ! All Ahnsahnghing did was REMIND us. He did not come up w his own doctrine, but taught us what Christ did 2000 years ago and what was said for 6000 years

If you think the CoG is only for PROFIT... then you tell our CHRIST that to HER face! Tell HER how you think SHE is a FRAUD & a CULT LEADER!
Tell HER that everything the CoG members do is because we are PROGRAMMED or BRAINWASHED!

I am sure that General Assembly is aware of websites like these.. God knows what is to be done to FALSE PROPHETS.. and those that lead HIS PEOPLE ASTRAY! HE will bring wrath upon them... Fatal & Deadly WRATH!

So if we are of God as we believe to be.. then we will prevail, if not.. we will face our consequence!

As for now, I will judge for myself who is right and who is wrong. I will see who follows GODS TRUE WILL AND COMMANDMENT! and I will follow only those that obey and agree w Christ.
Either it be Jehovah, Jesus, or the Holy Spirit!
Our Father left us a book that will help us determine who is leading us to eternal life and who is leading us to hell!
So far, this is the ONLY CHURCH that follows his commands and THE ONLY CHURCH I WILL REMAIN IN.
Because those that remain in HIM will remain w the FATHER

Lizzie,

"Ryan" is Marcus..if you did not know. "Ryan" or Marcus has many user names such as "John" and "Baxter28"...perhaps more that I am not aware of.

By: Dark Angel on
June 4, 2008
at 11:34 am

Reply

Also, thanks for avoiding my question in regards to the comment you said about ahnsahnghong not being a Buddhist and thanks for also avoiding Ted's question.

Lizzie said, "If you think the CoG is only for PROFIT... then you tell our CHRIST that to HER face! Tell HER how you think SHE is a FRAUD & a CULT LEADER!
Tell HER that everything the CoG members do is because we are PROGRAMMED or BRAINWASHED!"

Lizzie, she's an Omniscient God remember? So, there's no need to tell her something that she "already knows".

Lizzie said, "The only reason the bible gets quoted so much w us is because we speak thru the bible... Thats our sword! We dont use men opinions but Gods! His thoughts are higher

By: Dark Angel on
June 4, 2008
at 11:47 am

than our thoughts, therefore his words have more validity"

Reply

Lizzie, then do not refernece "man's history books" on Constantine, Israel gaining it's indepenence, Jews, or anything else men wrote. If it wasn't written down, how would ahnsahngong have known?

Everything ahnsahnghong was aware of was written down or was the concept of another man.

Apparently, he believed that Jesus was born in 1BC-33AD..that is not a fact. "MEN" came up with that and it would appear that men came up with it because Jesus' time of existence is not written in the bible, and according to you, if it's not written in the bible, then it is of man.

Your "gods" believes in men's concepts, conspiracies, and contradictions.

Anyway, you have chosen to avoid my simple questions, (in which you do not need the bible to answer by the way) so I will no longer pay any attention to you, so rant all you want.

Thats exactly why we DONT celebrate GODS birthday since:

By: Lizzie on June 4, 2008 at 12:07 pm

" "MEN" came up with that and it would appear that men came up with it because Jesus' time of existence is not written in the bible, and according to you, if it's not written in the bible, then it is of man."

Reply

Youre such a LOSER!!

You hide behind "NAMES". What is it you are afraid of? I have always used MY name from DAY ONE. So dont speak of others changing their names when you are doing the same thing "KING JAMES"

Matthew 7:3

"Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye?

I can answer any question you have thru the bible... And by the way to the MORON that said I've only been in the CoG for months... YOU ARE WRONG TRY YEARS!!!!

The reason this WEBSITE is up and running is because "JAMIE" (if thats the REAL name!) wanted people to RANT ON!!!

By: Lizzie on June 4, 2008 at 12:16 pm

If that wasnt the case then we wouldnt be RANTING now would be????
Jamie is enjoying this... RANTING!!

Reply

You are so slow to learn.....

Thats why you havent been fed solid foods. You are too immature in spirit.. you can only have liquids like a BABY! Open up so YOU can get your BOTTLE

Why dont you REPENT and use all of your so called KNOWLEDGE for the TRUTH instead of doing your fathers (satan) dirty laundry!

Lizzie,

I simply pointed out the Ryan is Marcus.

By: Dark Angel on
June 4, 2008
at 12:49 pm

Calm down.

Reply

I changed my user name because your COG buddies hacked into the cult watch forum. So, in order for me to post, I had to create a new user name.

What is knowing my real be worth to you, Lizzie?

As I said, you can rant all you want, but you still avoid to answer those questions and acknowledge the information about ahnsahnghong being a buddhist.

Lastly, I was the one who ASKED how long the person who posted the information of him not being buddhist. I never declared the person was a member for a few months.

Anyway, you're getting too emotional over this... so.

Take care

Lizzie said,"Thats exactly why we DONT celebrate GODS birthday since:"

By: Dark Angel on
June 4, 2008
at 12:57 pm

I never said anything about Jesus' birthdate, I said time of existence. 1BC-33AD is a man-made concept that your god believes in.

Reply

Thanks.

Lizzie,

Here are three observations for you.

By: CoGinator on June 4, 2008
at 1:01 pm

1. You as well ask Marcus, Robert, and Poland all have very bad attitudes. I think it stems from your frustration in trying to defend your churches doctrine, but never fully able to do so. In any account, you don't do your chuch justice because it makes it appear that all members of the CoG are angry and bitter. (Maybe they are?)

Reply

2. You seem to not want to take responsibility for your own choice to be here and read this board. If it bothers you so much...Quit...nobody is forcing you to be here. That's your own decision...so don't point blame and take ownership of your actions.

3. You stated that you don't celebrate Gods birthday, which is ironic. Either you don't truly believe Ahnsahnghong is God so when the CoG has celebrated his birthday (and they have) you didn't think it counted. Or your lying. I bet you do, but you don't count Christmas, because your church has convinced you it's wrong to dedicate a day to remember Jesus' birth. Nobody is claiming that Dec 25th is the actual day of his birth...it's just the day that has been chosen to honor him... could have been any day.

I'm tired of pulling your cards, Lizzie. You said you've been a member for years, yet you believe the guy wasn't a buddhist. Don't worry, not you can change your way of thinking, you can now believe that he was.

By: Dark Angel on
June 4, 2008
at 1:06 pm

Reply

Perhaps you should tell your COG friends not to hack into message boards and delete user accounts.

Would you like to know what other concepts your gods believe in? It's weird that two omniscient Being would "believe" in stuff like that.

You know, I change my mind, I'm going to acknowledge your posts..just for fun.

You amuse me.

comic relief.

Elijah,

by the way, I know that you copied and pasted your information about ahnsahnghong on May 16, 2008 at 6:25 pm from the "path to heaven-ahnsahnghong" blog.

By: Dark Angel on
June 4, 2008
at 2:18 pm

Reply

Elijah, you should try to contact the person you copied your information from and let them know that Christianity existed in South Korea in 1918.

Next time, don't be so lazy to type information, you never know who you're getting it from.

I just came across two other sites with the same wrong information that Elijah posted in regards to Christianity not existing in South Korea in 1918.

By: Dark Angel on
June 4, 2008
at 2:30 pm

Reply

Wow, talk about spreading ignorance.

I heard SK didn't have running water until 1947 thanks to Ahnsahnghong.

By: CoGinator on June 4, 2008

at 2:57 pm

Hee Hee

Reply

[Edited by Jamie]: Clark, I notice your grammar is getting worse and you're starting to type and talk like a CoG member. Are you by any chance one who is masquerading as someone trying to get us to stop speaking out about the cult?

By: Clark on June 4, 2008
at 4:01 pm

Reply

Do note that my decision about not allowing your unrelated posts still stands.

YOU GUYS ARE HORRIBLE!!!!

By: Lizzie on June 4, 2008
at 5:49 pm

Reply

Why do you care what I post, Clark?

By: Dark Angel on June 4, 2008
at 6:56 pm

If the information is wrong, then it's wrong. Don't blame me, blame the person posting wrong information and passing it off as if it's correct.

Reply

Lizzie,

Provide information that proves Christianity did not exist in South Korea in 1918, then I'll retract my statements.

It can be from books, the internet, or valid information from the library. If the information are in books, it's guaranteed to be on the internet as well.

But, it doesn't matter, as long as it is not biased information from someone that is putting a religious twist to the information.

Sis. Lizzie, there's no point in showing these guys the truth of the Bible. Unfortunately for them they have closed their ears and not listening to what Christ Ahnsahnghong the Spirit saying to the churches. I'll keep praying for them and hopefully their eyes will open and their ears will listen to the truth of the Bible.

By: Elijah on June 4, 2008
at 7:09 pm

Reply

COGinator said "You as well ask Marcus, Robert, and Poland all have very bad attitudes."

By: Robert on June 4, 2008
at 8:19 pm

Can I ask you something COGinator. Have we met in person before? How long have you known me? Do you even know who I am? COGinator, your making an assumptious judgement on me that I have attitude problem but you don't even know me personally. You have only seen my comments here in this blog but actually you don't know me.

Reply

Also, COGinator and the rest of you who don't like Church of God and it's members, why don't you guys leave us alone. All we are doing is showing you and to everyone the truths of the Bible but if you guys don't want it then leave us alone. That is simple. So far the Church of God haters here are constantly using the opinion of men regarding the truths of the Bible. It's not gonna work.

2 Peter 1:20-21 20Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation. 21For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

Lizzie you said, "How can they be called GODS people! The Christianity that was there was defiled...Thats why Christ had to come again to remind them of what they OBVIOUSLY FORGOT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!"

By: Dark Angel on
June 4, 2008
at 8:35 pm

Reply

John 14:26

But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.

What did they forget:

THE SABBATH
THE FEASTS
THE PASSOVER WHICH GIVES SALVATION"

Then you said,

"Ahnsahnghong did not follow BUDDAH for 30 years. He was a 7 day Adventist and thats part of the prophecy of the 7 churches... Not only that HE KEPT THE SABBATH DAY!! "

Lizzie, if you are referring to the phrase "No trace of Christianity" to mean that there WAS christianity, but it was defiled.

Then, your earlier statement which points to ahnsahnghong observing the Sabbath day with the seventh day adventist means nothing.

They are apart of the "defiled" category. Even a member of your church pointed out that they were not observing the sabbath at the "correct" time, so basically, ahnsahnghong was not observing the sabbath either.

His baptism apparently meant nothing and his sabbath worship means nothing. Why even mention any of the two, when neither are important.

Seventh Day Adventist start their observance Friday night by the way

For example:

Friday 9:40pm – Saturday 9:40pm

If you want, I can post the statement one of your COG members said in regards to the SDA sabbath worship.

So “no TRACE of Christianity” means that there was christianity but it was defiled.....that’s interesting. Just say, christianity was defiled, why be vague about the meaning.

Either way you look at it, it doesn’t support your belief.

Elijah said: “Sis. Lizzie, there’s no point in showing these guys the truth of the Bible.

Unfortunately for them they have close their ears and not listening to what Christ

Ahnsahnghong the Spirit saying to the churches. I’ll keep praying for them and hopefully their eyes will open and their ears will listen to the truth of the Bible.”

By: Ted on June 4, 2008 at 9:23 pm

Reply

That’s really ironic. I’ve tried several times to actually discuss your doctrines and show your mistakes and every time you three (Poland, Robert, Marcus) run from discussion. No COG member can hold an actual intelligent conversation. Once the cracks in their doctrines are pointed out they revert to their default “must shut ears, they are evil” routine.

This is called thought stopping. All cults instill this in their members. They then change the topic and post a series of verses that do not pertain to the discussion.

It is not a question of us closing our eyes to the truth. It’s a question of you all desperately trying to cling to your delusion in the face of irrefutable evidence pointing toward your cult being a profit making scam.

The anger Lizzie feels is simply cognitive dissonance. It happens to all cult members when they’re truth is challenged. Cognitive dissonance is a psychological state that describes the uncomfortable feeling when a person begins to understand that something they believe to be true is, in fact, not true. The term describes conflicting thoughts or beliefs and is noticable in all indoctrinated cult members.

To Robert...well, your post is a perfect example of COG intercontextual nonsense. You’ve taken every single verse and totally ignored the meaning and historical context behind them. For example...

Robert says: Isaiah 33:20- “Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals; your eyes will see Jerusalem, a peaceful abode, a tent that will not be moved; its stakes will never be pulled up, nor any of its ropes broken."

This verse is spoken to the Solomites (King Solomon's temple). Zion is located on Mount Zion in Jerusalem, not Korea. It's the oldest part of the South Western city. On one peak you had a city called Moriah where the famous temple of God was built, and on the other peak you had the palace of King David. Thus Zion is strategically in the middle of these two holy places.

Also the verse is not "2000" years old as you claim. It's far-far older.

Robert says...

Hebrews 12:22- "But you have come to Mount Zion, to the heavenly Jerusalem, the city of the living God. You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly, to the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven."

I notice Robert, that you don't post the very next verse. Hebrews actually reads this:

"But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly; the Church of the firstborn, which are written in Heaven; and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel" (Heb. 12:22-24)

It's not the Church of God, it's the Church of the Firstborn (aka Jesus Christ). The Israelites of old trembled at the foot of Mount Sinai. They were afraid, but then came to a new mountain. In these verses the apostle completes the last great contrast which he draws between Judaism and Christianity, in which he displays the superiority of the latter over the former. The point of the apostle in these Hebrew verses was to convince the believing Hebrews (at the foot of the mountain) of the pre-eminence of the new covenant above the old. This has nothing to do with Ahnsahnghong.

Robert says...

"1 Corinthians 1:1- 2 To the CHURCH OF GOD in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus and called to be holy, together with all those everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ—their Lord and ours: "

There are thousands of Churches called the Church of God. Anyone can call their church the "Church of God" and then point to the Bible and say "we are the chosen ones". Also note that Paul mentions different names in his Hellenistic letters to the Churches. He calls it the Church of Christ, the Church of the one, the church of the saviour etc. It's just poetic language and not a legalistic god-appointed name.

Robert says...

"Galatians 4:26-But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother."

Not this again. Paul rejects and CONDEMNS Israel saying that she is a barren woman with no fruits or seed. This is figurative language, not literal. Thus, the "city of Isreal" (aka the Jews), have renounced Christ and can only be "one with God" once they turn their city into a nurturing mother with ripe milk. And anyway, why would you want Chung Gil Cha to be associated with "Mother Jerusalem" when Paul says "The faithful city has become a harlot?"

Also there's the gramatical argument in which we see that the word for "New" in New Jerusalem is not "neos" but "kainos" which means something that is cleansed. Thus Paul is saying that Israel must be cleansed and accept Christ. Of course the Jews reject Christ, and so Paul condemns them. You're completely missing the point of these verses Robert. You're stringing things together to "back up" a superficial myth.

Marcus said: "The only reason Ahnsahnghong is the Christ is because he is the one the Scriptures testify about. Ahnsahnghong and Scripture are inseparable."

And yet the Scriptures don't even remotely attest to Ahnsahnghong or Chung Gil Cha.

The COG uses a web of verses to back up Ahnsahnghong and Mother. Look at Robert's post (which I'll respond to after). Each verse is taken out of context and then used to validate another verse. That's why cults often bounce about from verse to verse when trying to "debate" or "proove" their doctrines.

Whenever someone points out a flaw, they quickly jump elsewhere.

Cult members are trained to think in a very scattershot way, always jumping from one "proof" to the next. This is because their belief is essentially a self supporting web. A supports B which supports C which supports D. Nothing can stand on it's own. Once you scrutinise one segment, all the others crumble.

But anyone actually properly studying the Bible will see that the Bible has nothing to do with Ahnshanghong or Mother. Basically, a cults indoctrination process is a step by step process in which these segments are all welded together. You get the cult membre to believe A and then he has to believe B.

Marcus said: "Ted the detective thinks he's got dirt on the COG!"

I fail to see how you can laugh off the fact that Joo Cheol Kim is more concerned about tax loopholes, tithing and tax deductability, when the world is supposed to end in 2012. Obviously the man is milking you for every dime you have. Jesus was a humble man and had no concern for earthly money or possessions. The COG thrive on money stolen from their young members.

Marcus said: "Love how you quote man's opinions about Biblical matters. The Bible speaks for itself my friend."

Exactly. And the Bible absolutely has nothing to do with Ahnsahnghong. Instead of debating issues look how you run in circles. You're now hiding behind the shallowest defence. All cults use the "man is evil, do not listen to them" line as a last line of defence. The COG's doctrines absolutely crumble under scrutiny and everytime this is pointed out, you resort to ad hominem attacks or change the topic.

Marcus said: "When God created male and female in the IMAGE OF GOD, he called them "MAN"."

Marcus this has nothing to do with the point I made earlier. It neither proves your point or debunks mine. Of course mankind is comprised of males and females. I think you need to re-read my post.

Marcus said: "Your understanding of the Bible is not your own. It is a mixture of men's opinions about God's will."

Again, you're hiding behind the "everyone not in the COG is evil and wrong" argument. That's shallow and simplistic. Facts don't lie. The Bible doesn't lie. Logic doesn't lie. Your only defence is "it has to be right because it is from God".

You're overlooking the truth, because you believe a lie.

Marcus said: "The Bible interprets itself Ted. This is something you quite haven't understood yet."

Exactly, which is why when we study the Bible we find the truth. If we look at the use of "elohim" and "us" throughout the Bible we can see what is meant in Genesis. The Bible alone proves that your interpretation is wrong. I've found 190 examples of the use of the word, which is what I was trying to show you in the other post, but you brush it off saying that these "scholars are evil men". No Marcus, they're using the Bible. They're studying Bible verses and then coming to their conclusion. Are you saying that "elohim" is used differently in Genesis? Are you saying that this one verse is more special and so is different from all other uses of the noun?

You cannot distort God's will of creation, Marcus. This is why it is stated in Romans 1:

Romans 1:20 "For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that men are without excuse."

This is what the Bible says about the COG. It warns us about men who distort the word of God. It warns us about false prophets like the COG who try to scam money from people. Cults who are more concerned about IRS loopholes and annual profits than the word of God.

Actually no it doesn't. Roman's simply an angry letter by Paul against the politicians of the time. I'm not going to lower myself to your standards, using verses out of context.

Marcus said: "Truth is always exposed in the end."

Of course it is. Just promise not to do anything stupid on 2012. I know you truly believe in Ahnsahnghong, and that's fine. Their indoctrination is very powerful. I was in your shoes too. But when 2012 comes and nothing happens at least reevaluate all your crazy doctrines and think about what's really going on. Don't just say "oh wait, Ahnsahnghong is merely testing us" and go on giving your money to them.

The Bible says to test all idols with a hammer. If you are unwilling to test Ahnsahnghong now, do it in 4 or 5 years time, when the "end" doesn't come.

Marcus said: "If you really are a child of Father and Mother, you would know that Mother never said to quit your job or school. She in fact encourages us to be the best employee at the workplace or the best student at school and glorify God with our good deeds."

The COG needs their members working so that they can contribute money to the cult. No income= no money for Mother.

What they try to avoid is higher education (which of course leads to independent thinking). Thinking is something the COG don't like.

This is why you generally don't find people with higher education in cults.

As for Lizzie...Lizzie your post is completely off topic. You realise that just because Jews protested against Jesus that this does not make Ahnsahnghong God? The Moonies are accused of being a cult. Does this make Rev Moon like Jesus? No of course not. Both Ahnsahnghong and Moon are cult leaders who hide behind persecution.

"Look how they persecute me like Jesus" they say. But it's not the same at all. Jesus was stoned and crucified by the government, politicians and religious leaders of his time. In contrast, Ahnsahnghong is persecuted by 8 ex members on the internet. Hardly the same.

Clearly, Lizzie, Ahnsahnghong's persecution resonates not with Jesus, but with all the thousands of minor false prophets and false idols present throughout mankind's history.

Lizzie said: "How come in 2000 years NO ONE reminded US about those IMPORTANT & SACRED COMMANDMENTS OF GOD??"

Probably because Jesus abolished them. Jesus was a very rebellious individual who revoked most of the legalistic rituals and physical practises of the Jewish God. Remember the Old Testament God (the one you are quoting) and Jesus (New Testament) are seperated by thousands and thousands of years.

The COG is essentially a pick-and-mix religion. You're taking the Old Testament doctrines of the Jews, the very same doctrines Jesus rebelled against, and claiming they are someone more valid. But then when it suits you, you jump back to the New Testament and use Jesus to persecute the Jews. So it's all very childish and back-and-forth.

The question, really, is does the Bible prophecise about Ahnsahnghong coming from the East and does Genesis prophecise about a male and female God. That's the only important thing to debate. Once you debunk either, you essentially prove that the COG is false. All your posts are just attempts to bury true discussion in ancillary rhetoric Robert said, "Also, COGinator and the rest of you who don't like Church of God and it's members, why don't you guys leave us alone.

All we are doing is showing you and to everyone the truths of the Bible but if you guys don't want it then leave us alone. That is simple. So far the Church of God haters here are constantly using the opinion of men regarding the truths of the Bible. It's not gonna work."

By: Dark Angel on
June 4, 2008
at 9:26 pm

Reply

Robert, first you guys want to use history to back up your claims about the Passover being abolished by Satan in 325AD.

Then, when the same kind of history is used to against you, you say it's the "will or opinions of men".

Do not use "men's history" as proof for your belief sometimes, only to call it the opinion of men when it doesn't support your belief other times. You choose when you want to use it, then, ignore the rest because it doesn't support your belief.

Lastly, if Lizzie's comment in regards to the post about there being "no trace of Christianity" is meant to be taken out of context or not to be taken literally, then, it wouldn't support the fact that the person who made the statement also included two other religions (Buddhism and Confucism) to be the most dominant of religions in South Korea.

Obviously, the statement is to be taken as is, which would be, that Christianity did not exist in South Korea because, if you were to take it to mean what Lizzie is saying, then, the two religions included should not have been a part of the statement in regards to what religions were in South Korea. It is not referring to what religion was true or false or defiled.

Here's the statement again and tell me if it is referring to what religion or church is "true" or undefiled.

"Christ Ahnsahnghong is the one who fulfilled all of these prophecies in 1918 when Christ Ahnsahnghong was born the majority of Korea was either Buddhist or Confucian; there was no trace of Christianity in Korea during that time, so it was impossible for Christ Ahnsahnghong to be born in a household of believers."

Now how in the world would this statement mean that Christianity existed but it was "defiled"?

Nice try, Lizzie.

Robert,

By: CoGinator on June 4, 2008 at 9:29 pm

You are absolutely correct, I don't know you outside of this forum, however, your actions within this forum is what has lead me to my conclusion that you have a slight chip on your shoulder. Again, I believe it is due to your frustration that you've choosen to be disillusioned into buying the lie, and that we have not. Misery loves company.

Reply

Second, let me clarify something for you. I don't, and I supsepect Jaimie, Dark Angel and the rest of the folk here who don't agree with the twisting of the bible that the CoG does, do not hate the people of the CoG. Let me repeat. We do not hate the people of the CoG. I know you'd rather think that, as it makes it psychologically easier to separate our disagreement in your churches doctrine, but the fact is we are not haters, just really caring people who don't want you to go to hell for worshiping false idols. You are lucky that we have forgiving Father in Heaven that will accept your appology and repentance when you finally realize (like Tony) that you've been worshiping the wrong God.

And Thridly, you are being hypicritical in that you are choosing to listen to the opinion of men too. You are choosing to listen to the opinon of Ahnsahnghong (who'd burried in the ground), you are chooing to listen to the opinon of Joo, who is rolling in the dough, and you are choosing to listen to the ex-lover of Ahnsahnghong, Mutha J. Who is laughing all the way to the bank.

Keep in mind it is not out of hate that we point out all the inconsistancies, and information changes, and family problems that we see stemming from the CoG. You are not being persecuted dispite what your being told during your marathon studies. It is out of love of our neighbors who have had the misfortune of believing a wicked and false way of understanding the bible, that we will continue to attempt to show you the real truth and power of the living word.

To clarify the Buddhism thing...

Ahnsahnghong was born of Buddhist parents.

By: Ted on June 4, 2008 at 9:34 pm

Buddhism and different forms of Chinese Confucianism are the main religions in Korea.

Reply

In his early 20s, Ahnsahnghong then gradually became a Seventh Day Adventist. During the early 1900's a lot of Protestant Missionaries migrated to Korea with the hopes of converting the Koreans. Ahnsahnghong was "preached the word of Christ" and was moved by it enough to become a Christian.

Ahnsahnghong went into ministry, trained as a SDA and went through the usual channels. He became a SDA pastor, which is where all the church's "Saturday worship" and "feasts" come from. The COG's beliefs are very similar to the SDA's legalistic law keeping and strict Sabbath observance.

These beliefs aren't something Ahnsahnghong "invented" or "restored", rather they're simply the beliefs of his religion: The Seventh Day Adventists. As he grew older and wrote on the subject, he developed his own interpretations and views of the Bible. Both he and SDA's believed in a premillennial second coming, but Ahnsahnghong took it one step further and tried to predict exactly when it would occur (hence his 2 failed predictions).

One thing I forgot to mention...the COG's "Catholic Church hate" is also straight out of SDA lore.

By: Ted on June 4, 2008 at 9:39 pm

Reply

Ahnsahnghong developed his skepticism toward mainstream Christianity during his indoctrination within the SDA church. The SDA's see The Pope, Catholics and the Christian churches as being "evil" and "the anti christ". They believe that during the end times, all these Christian/Catholic churches will oppress truth and steal Christians away from The Seventh Day Adventists.

So Ahnsahnghong's beliefs are really identical to the church he grew up in- the SDAs. It's only when Mother took over that it began to incorporate Judaism into the mix, in an attempt to rationalise a female God.

"Is there a blessing for Buddhist infants?"
Yes, one can always at any time bring the child to a temple for the monks to chant the Buddha's teachings as "blessings". In Asian countries, many temples conduct "Sunday School Classes" where children are guided to follow the Buddha's teachings.

By: Jonah on June 5, 2008 at 3:44 am

Reply

Since the Buddhist teachings are like air. They are free, and non discriminating. So if one thinks it benefits oneself, then one will breathe the air. If one chooses otherwise, then it's up to oneself.

Ahnsahghong was free at the age of 30 to choose and get baptized in the SDA that believed:

Jesus is the one who never changes in a universe that always does. Jesus is Creator, Sustainer, Savior, Friend, God's Son, and God Himself!

Observe the Sabbath from Friday sunset to Saturday sunset, in similar manner to Judaism

The doctrine of the Church is the body of Christ, a community of faith of which Christ Himself is the Head. The church is the bride for whom Christ died that He might sanctify and cleanse her. One of the gifts of the Holy Spirit is prophecy.

The second coming of Christ is the blessed hope of the church, the grand climax of the gospel. The Saviour's coming will be literal, personal, visible, and worldwide. The time of that event has not been revealed.

They also make clear that the Bible is the standard by which all teaching and experience must be tested.

But these teachings made his mind tickle, quit the SDA and with his page boy Joo and a lot of brainwork the whole concept of "church is the bride" turned to "mother as the bride". The word prophecy added more spice to the doctrine. Wow! we have 100% truth from the bible.

Lizzie is in bewilderment as to how come in 2000 years NO ONE reminded US about those IMPORTANT & SACRED COMMANDMENTS OF GOD??

What is most astonishing Lizzie how come the SDA's or the pastor who baptized him was unable to recognize that he is here, the one who is going to bring the passover, feasts and open all seals!!

SDA's Influence on other groups:

The Worldwide Church of God, descended from a 1934 schism in the Seventh-day Church of God, which was a Sabbatarian Adventist group.

Church of God, an International Community

Church of God International (USA) – based in Tyler, Texas

General Conference of the Church of God (Seventh-Day)

Global Church of God – based in the UK, affiliated with the Church of the Eternal God (U.S.) and the Church of God, a Christian Fellowship, (Canada)

Living Church of God – based in Charlotte, North Carolina

New Covenant Church of God

Pentecostal Church of God – headquarters in Joplin, Missouri

Philadelphia Church of God – based in Edmond, Oklahoma

United Church of God – based in Milford, Ohio

Worldwide Church of God (pre-1995; now evangelical, non-Sabbatarian)

World Mission Society Church of God

The Church of God holds worship on Sunday.
See for yourself: <http://www.churchofgod.org>

By: CoGinator on June 5, 2008
at 6:02 am

In fact this brings up a good point. The WMSCOG claims to never add anything to the bible. Yet when I read the bible no where in it lists "World Mission Society Church of God" as the one true church. So, it's easily deduced that they've added to the bible to fit their own agenda. The church website above may then be the true church of God...unless you believe the true church of God is a collective effort of all the churches that follow the core essence of God word.

Reply

Dark Angel,

By: Lizzie on June 5, 2008
at 9:03 am

"Christ Ahnsahnghong is the one who fulfilled all of these prophecies in 1918 when Christ Ahnsahnghong was born the majority of Korea was either Buddhist or Confucian; there was no trace of Christianity in Korea during that time, so it was impossible for Christ Ahnsahnghong to be born in a household of believers."

Reply

That was not my post.. find out who the ORIGINAL AUTHOR of it is and stop pointing fingers at me!! Once again none of you can get your FACTS STRAIGHT, not the bible facts or the facts of men! This is the way you expect to overcome and prevail? You have to be kidding right???

If you still believe I did post this tell me the date & I myself will admit I was wrong!!! But I know for a fact I did not post this. YOU EVEN ADMITTED THIS on June 3rd @ 8:05 PM

Lizzie,

Yes I know that it wasn't you who said that Christianity didn't exist in South Korea in 1918, it was Elijah.

Dark Angel and all of you unbelievers...
Give it up!! Seriously... YOU WILL ALWAYS FAIL WHEN IT COMES TO GODS WILL YOU DONT HAVE IT AND NEVER WILL!
YOU ARE ONLY FIGHTING AGAINST GOD!
Just admit it!

If you dont believe then dont. Members of the CoG...
Dont bother with them! Youre throwing your pearls to the pigs..
Jesus said...

Luke 9:5
If people do not welcome you, shake the dust off your feet when you leave their town, as a testimony against them."

Another thing I would like to point out, but I cant remember who said it, was that the CoG Keeps Sunday worship! Then they pasted a link...

<http://www.churchofgod.org/>

THAT ISNT THE TRUE CHURCH OF GOD!

From the minute I layed my eyes upon it I realized that they were just Wolves in Sheeps Clothing...
What it was... That was a SLAUGHTER HOUSE!!

Cross Reverance
Sunday Worship

They worship IDOLS and DEFILE THE SABBATH
They can only await thw WRATH of our Father, when the end is near!

The CATHOLIC HATE that is there.. is not because of SDA church or the CoG, but because of the way they MURDERED TRUE CHRISTIANS in order to keep their DOCTRINE active.

Our Father warned us about them..

They are nothing but MURDERERS AND ASSASSINS. That want to control all denominations. They want all of them to defile Gods truth one way or another! That is the true home for Satan and his followers!

We have the truth, we follow Christs Testimony.
THE SPIRITUAL ZION (not the physical) WILL HAVE JERUSALEM

OUR MOTHER

Dont accept her, but dont forget they didnt accept Jesus as God in the flesh either. Now he is the SAVIOR SUSTAINER...

You are acting just like the Jehovah Witnesses who still dont believe Jesus as Savior...

If we are not the truth how come we have prevailed the persecution?

Do you know of the story of MIRAMAR?? Thats an interesting story. You should ask a Cog Memner to tell you!
Did you know that Ansahnghongs name IS in the bible??
?
Bet you didnt know that!
You who claim to know so much about the Bible...

CoGinator said:

"In fact this brings up a good point. The WMSCOG claims to never add anything to the bible. Yet when I read the bible no where in it lists "World Mission Society Church of God" as the one true church. So, it's easily deduced that they've added to the bilbe to fit thier own agenda. The church website above may then be the true church of God...unless you believe the true church of god is a collective effort of all the churches that follow the core essence of God word."

By: Lizzie on June 5, 2008
at 9:27 am

Reply

Did you say it can be the TRUE church?? What is wrong w you??
They dont even keep the FUNDAMENTAL truths!

God clearly said that only he who does the will of God can enter the kingdom of heaven

Matthew 7

21"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' 23Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'

Which day should we worship God to please Him, Sunday which most people keep, or the Sabbath, Saturday, which God commanded His people to keep? It is unnecessary to reveal the answer, because the Sabbath day is clearly Saturday.

So why exactly is this church keping SUNDAY?

After the apostles died, Christianity spread to western regions, including Rome. The gospel was preached to sun-god worshipers, and in the early 4th century, even the Roman emperor had heard the message of Christ. The emperor happened to be a leader of the sun-god worshipers, and when he converted to Christianity, many sun-god worshipers began to attend Church. As time passed, the faith of the Christians weakened, and they began to accept the customs of the sun-god worshipers. During this turn-over, they even began to rest and to worship on the first day of the week [Sunday]. In A.D. 321, Constantine, a Roman emperor, decreed an edict:

"All judges, city-people and craftsmen shall rest on the venerable day of the Sun."

Some argue that the abolishment of the Sabbath compelled many people to convert to Christianity, but we must not forget that altering God's commandments was Satan's scheme. Satan, the devil, opposes God and has historically harassed God's people, using various methods.

Daniel 7

25 He will speak against the Most High and oppress his saints and try to change the set times and the laws. The saints will be handed over to him for a time, times and half a time

He tried to destroy the Church of God through severe persecution. But, taking a close look at history, the more that God's people were persecuted, the more that they depended on God. When Satan changed his methods of persecution, however, and praised the Church, he tempted the Christians to combine their faiths together. They were given back the properties that had been taken from them, ministers were exempted from military service, and the Church was even given the right to emancipate slaves. Through all of these outwardly positive changes to the Church, the Christians unwittingly fell into Satan's schemes and knelt down before him. They turned their backs away from God, like an ignorant bear who doesn't realize that his gallbladder is going to be stolen, only focusing on the sweet candy he is being tempted with.

Jeremiah 5

23 But these people have stubborn and rebellious hearts; they have turned aside and gone away.

Ah-ha Lizzie, you are catching on when you said, "Did you say it can be the TRUE church??"

By: CoGinator on June 5, 2008 at 10:26 am

It's possible they are the ones keeping the fundamental truths...after all they have the true name of "Church of God" with no man made words preceding or following the name like the world mission society does. They were also founded long before the WMSCoG was. Could it be they have a better understand the bible? If Ahnsahnghong or Kim Joo changed the name to something not in the bible it's not unreasonable to believe they changed the meaning to other ideas and meanings of the bible. It's not unreasonable to consider that.

Reply

Holy moly...I think we are stumbling on to something. Why would they make up a new church name? Makes you think....What else have they made up? Could it be possibly true that the Sabbath was only really intended for the Jews? Could it be that cross really represents what Jesus did for us and is not something to be worshipped but something to comemmerate the gift He gave us.

If the name of the church is fake, could ahnsahnghong be fake too?

Wow, I can't believe they would stoop so low as to make all this up...

...Frankly I a bit embarrassed with you for even remotely thinking the WMSCOG was even possibly for real.

I guess we can all go home and have a good laugh.

I am waiting to go HOME. As for you... you found this "prison to be your home" And the king of this earth is Satan, so I guess you must hail your true king.

By: Lizzie on June 5, 2008 at 10:47 am

Thanks for assuring us of something we already knew... Our KING is in Heaven... thats why we are wating to go back to our heavenly home!!

Reply

I am sorry that you call this prison home!

As for my brothers and sisters... WE KNOW WHERE HOME IS!

Hebrews 11

13All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance. And they admitted that they were aliens and strangers on earth. 14People who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own. 15If they had been thinking of the country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return.

Lizzie said,"That was not my post.. find out who the ORIGINAL AUTHOR of it is and stop pointing fingers at me!! Once again none of you can get your FACTS STRAIGHT, not the bible facts or the facts of men! This is the way you expect to overcome and prevail? You have to be kidding right???"

By: Dark Angel on
June 5, 2008
at 10:58 am

Reply

Lizzie, I never said that you posted it. However, you did have a response to it. You gave the reason why christianity didn't exist in South Korea, in which you stated that it was actually chirstianity there but it was "defiled".

You should be aware of what you are posting, Lizzie. Would you like me to show you where you said that it meant that Christianity was "defiled".

"Defiled" is the word you used, Lizzie. I won't waste my time copying and pasting your own words, find it yourself.

Thanks.

Ok Lizzie, here are your words in response to what I posted:

By: Dark Angel on
June 5, 2008
at 11:14 am

On June 3rd 8:21 am, I said,

"Lizzie,

Reply

Do you still believe that Ahnsahnghong was not a Buddhist?

Do you also still believe that Christianity didn't exist in South Korea 1918?

I think most of you should get your information in order before you decide to worship some guy and a woman."

Then you replied, the same day at 8:32am,

By: Lizzie on June 3, 2008
at 8:32 am

"How can they be called GODS people! The Christianity that was there was defiled...Thats why Christ had to come again to remind them of what they OBVIOUSLY FORGOT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

John 14:26

But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.

What did they forget:

THE SABBATH

THE FEASTS

THE PASSOVER WHICH GIVES SALVATION"

Lizzie, again, these are your words, "How can they be called GODS people! The Christianity that was there was defiled...Thats why Christ had to come again to remind them of what they OBVIOUSLY FORGOT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!"

You refered to the Christianity that existed as being DEFILED.

There you go, Lizzie. That was your response to my question about Christianity not existing.

Now, I think i've wasted enough time showing you what you wrote. Do you still want to deny your response to the question?

Again, I never said that you posted it, it was Elijah who posted it and I referenced it in a different post then you gave your reason as to how "no trace of christianity" really meant that it existed but it was defiled.

Thanks.

Lizzie,

I'm pretty much finished with you in general. You should just sit back and let Marcus do all of the posting. You're nothing but a side-kick, a minion, a comic relief.

By: Dark Angel on June 5, 2008 at 11:35 am

Reply

It was fun but now I'm bored of you. Know and beaware of what you are posting, before you start yelling and screaming and calling people morons and such.

And if you do not know something, just say that you do not know. There's nothing wrong with that.

I agree with Dark Angels post above. Lizzie is so far off the mark in her (or his) posts that I wouldn't be surprised if she's on some sort of mind altering drug. I guess the only good news in that is she has a reason for failing to see the WMSCoG lies.

By: CoGinator on June 5, 2008 at 1:29 pm

Reply

To all the CoG members,

It truly is difficult to take anything you say as authoritative and convincing because there are so many questions that have been thrown up that you do not answer, nor even acknowledge. Perhaps, if you are

By: Jamie on June 5, 2008 at 4:42 pm

Reply

truly that concerned and frustrated about us not being convinced by your teachings, you should take the time to address each of those questions thoroughly.

It would do wonders for the amount of respect you get accorded here.

However, if you are not inclined to do that, I suspect that you will continue to be unable to bear any fruit in this place.

Truly, loving God with all your mind doesn't mean running away from and refusing to answer tough questions. It means going to do some studying to find out how to answer those questions, even if you currently do not know how to answer them. Want a good example? Learn from Josh McDowell. If a person whom you claim is from a corrupted Christianity can defend it so well against arguments raised from non-believers, shouldn't those who have the true faith, i.e. the CoG WMS members (as you claim), be even more diligent and better than the corrupted ones?

Think about it, and consider carefully the impression you are giving to everyone who reading.

Church of God haters, are you guys still using the opinion of men to criticise the truths of the Bible that the Church of God preaches?

By: Robert on June 5, 2008
at 6:05 pm

1 Corinthians 1:19-26 19For it is written:

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise;

the intelligence of the intelligent I will frustrate."

20Where is the wise man? Where is the scholar? Where is the philosopher of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? 21For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe. 22Jews demand miraculous signs and Greeks look for wisdom, 23but we preach Christ crucified: a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, 24but to those whom God has called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. 25For the foolishness of God is wiser than man's wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than man's strength.

26Brothers, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth.

What do you guys don't understand that you cannot use the standard of men to seek the truth in the Bible?

1 Corinthians 2:6-16 6We do, however, speak a message of wisdom among the mature, but not the wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. 7No, we speak of God's secret wisdom, a wisdom that has been hidden and that God destined for our glory before time began. 8None of the rulers of this age understood it (like Dark Angel, COGinator, Jaime and the rest of Church of God haters), for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord(Ahnsahnghong's reminder of Jesus teachings) of glory. 9However, as it is written:

Reply

"No eye has seen,
no ear has heard,
no mind has conceived
what God has prepared for those who love him"— 10but God has revealed it to us by his Spirit(which is Christ Ahnsahnghong).

The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God. 11For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the man's spirit within him? In the same way no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. 12We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit who is from God, that we may understand what God has freely given us. 13This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom(like Dark Angel, COGinator, Jaime and the rest of Church of God haters) but in words taught by the Spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words. 14The man without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned. 15The spiritual man makes judgments about all things, but he himself is not subject to any man's judgment:

16"For who has known the mind of the Lord that he may instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

All of you who hate the Church of God clearly don't understand the Bible at all. Christ Ahnsahnghong showed us but haters can't see it. If you guys cannot see it now, you guys won't see it later unless you guys open you eyes.

I guarantee that all of you will never see the light as long as I am breathing. None of you can become a Mason.

Bro's and Sis', let's not waste our time showing them the truth of the Bible. I pity them.

By: Poland on June 5, 2008
at 8:00 pm

Reply

I feel pity for these misled COG sheep and pray that God shines his light down upon their confused heads.

By: Sister Sarah on June 5, 2008
at 8:26 pm

Reply

God warns us of deceivers who will come down during the End Times and place false prophecies in the Bible. They will speak with false tongues and tight lips. They will worship idols and lure men with their lies. The Bible says let no man entice you with tales of feasts and empty practise, for only Jesus can save our souls.

Satan has cast his net and swept these poor souls toward the darkness. These are the end times and Ahnsahnghong is a false prophet who has been sent to draw men and women away from Jesus. The Bible warns us of them. They are the Harlots and great deceivers who speak with forked tongues. But we must hold strong and keep the faith.

There is a great evil within thier church. Behind the smiles I have felt the coldness and anger. Satan is behind their doors and only Christ can fend off this evil.

I pray for these lost sheep who continue to worship this false idol, also known as Ahnsahnghong. May their eyes open to the transgressions being worked upon them by this wicked demon. I pray that Jesus wakes them up and shows them the light. Only Christ can save his lost sheep.

Shine your light upon their heads, Lord. Bless these lost sheep and pull them back into your light. They come from abused relationships and broken homes, Lord. They have troubles deep within their hearts. Heal them Lord and embrace them. Show them the error of their ways.

I pray this in Jesus' name. Amen.

AMEN!

By: CoGinator on June 5, 2008 at 9:27 pm

Reply

Robert and Clark have taken their fight to the Brendoman site

By: Dark Angel on June 5, 2008 at 9:58 pm

<http://brendoman.com/wardwords?blog=40&title=cult&disp=single&more=1&c=1&tb=1&pb=1> ~~Repost~~

Clark is a member of the COG as if we all didn't know by now.

: -)

Well I guessed as much clark being one of them cause none of them ie liizzie, robert elijah etc responded to his post and his usage of bad language. for Jamie They think the road to heaven is very easy with a mother god that sits tight in korea who will be the first one in the lake of fire. Clark was here as a distractor. Oh cults are very good in this kind of tactics. Since their hacking was exposed they now they try some other abusive method.

By: Jonah on June 6, 2008 at 12:03 am

Reply

Jamie I admire the way you displayed your humbleness. That's what we call the true work of spirit.

To all who get on this website hope you can see the rise of the false prophet in WMSCOG. Beware of COG and have faith in Jesus Christ only

From Dark Angel "Clark is a member of the COG as if we all didn't know by now."

By: Clark on June 6, 2008
at 2:47 am

Dark Angel, didn't your momma tell you not to accuse someone if your not sure. Also, could you please do not include me to the same cult you and the COG are brainwashed.

Reply

I would like to announce here that I Clark have no part on any Bible cult whatsoever. All I am doing is showing everyone that the reason they argue is because this Bible cult is keeping them busy of looking for verses to keep them fighting each other. So Dark Angel's group and the Church of God group, ALL OF YOU ARE BRAINWASHED BY THE BIBLE CULT.

I'm actually building a website that destroys everyone that depends on the Bible, how it will show the reality of life. Once it's up, I'll make sure it gets everywhere, destroying all denominations out there that depend on the Bible, including the Church of God and especially my favorite the Born Again Christians. Meanwhile, I'll just make little proofs every now and then and hopefully everyone will wake up from the Bible cult. Science will destroy the Bible, HEHEHE!

Well Clark, I am glad to see that you are undertaking such a project. Very intelligent men such as C.S. Lewis did the same, and in the end they were convicted of the truth of the Bible. Perhaps this is one way in which the Holy Spirit is drawing you into Christ.

By: Jamie on June 6, 2008
at 3:19 am

Reply

I await the day when you will share how, being unable to prove the error of the Bible, you became convicted and turned to Christ :)

Thanks for clearing that up, Clark. My mistake for assuming. Good luck, looking forward to reading your site.

By: Dark Angel on June 6, 2008
at 3:43 am

Reply

Hello...

I came across your site by mistake. I read all the postings so far. I am of no denomination at all. I won't side with either. I just don't understand; why if there are people that just want to follow the bible teachings, other persecute with words only made by human opinion. There is no word higher than Gods.

Then I would like to add, why does the Church of God who claim to be GODS HOLY PEOPLE and CLAIM to be patient act in such manner?

If they don't want to open their eyes, as you state.. then walk away.

By: Looking4Truth on June 6, 2008
at 10:45 am

Reply

There's alot of hostile words being spoken here.
If either of you claim to be of God, then you should be humble and loving. I dont remember Jesus acting this way "2000" years ago!
I cannot see or find the truth in this website from either party! All I can see is everyone boasting and competeing to see who's belief overpowers the other. Too many assumptions.
In order to find the truth, just follow what the bible teaches. Jesus did not die on the cross for this! He died to cleanse us from our sins... You guys are just crucifying him over and over again!
If Jesus was to come back he would die of a double coronary! This isn't what he wanted his people to act like!
When you PREACH you must have a humble heart not a PROUD heart
There is neither here!

Looking4Truth, I agree with half of this statement you made: "When you PREACH you must have a humble heart not a PROUD heart There is neither here!"

By: CoGinator on June 6, 2008 at 2:18 pm

Reply

Yes a humble heart, and I believe we who see the CoG for what it really is, have been as humble as one can be while disputing the lies and misconceptions that can only come from the devil. Yes, follow the bible...but don't twist it into something it's not.

And it's not about a false idol named ahsahnghong. They have shifted the importance of Jesus away from him and towards the worshiping of ASH and Mother J. I don't know about you, but my relationship with Jesus is important enough to stand up for, like Peter did when they arrested Jesus.

These lost sheep are worth fighting for...even if they themselves can't fight for thier spiritual life. If that's not being humble....then humble I am not.

CoGinator

I see where you are coming from and understand you completely!
Everyone's spiritual life is worth fighting for.

By: Looking4Truth on June 6, 2008 at 6:50 pm

Reply

Keeping the words of Christ alive is my priority. I can see where you believe that they have taken and shifted the importance away from Jesus, but they believe Christ Ahsahnghong to be the 2nd coming Christ!

They say that the bible testifies about him and that he is God in the flesh. I say prove it to me.. RIGHT?

The CoG have to learn to be more humble. Doesnt it say somewhere in the bible that they have to crucify their old selves (mens way) and be born again w the clothings of Christ?

Jesus didnt boast pr he wasnt proud!

God himself came in the flesh and walked this earth to die for pur sins.. to teach us how to pray to THE FATHER IN HEAVEN! He wasnt proud he never boasted. All he had was compassion pity and humility.

I think until you dont kill the flesh and walk in Jesus footsteps, regardless the religious belief, you are not walking in Christ.

If Ahn Sahng Hong is Christ (let's just assume) I don't think he will be too happy with the way the CoG members are acting. I have heard that he never boasted, he was never proud! I heard he was a compassionate man that humbled himself, hardly ate to offer food to the ones he would preach to. Worked carrying rocks on his back for a small wage.

to the CoG members...

If you truly believe in Ahn Sahng Hong is the 2nd Coming Christ and you want to walk in his ways, you're not doing it correctly!

Most of you have boasted and actually been rude!

I have no denomination or religious preference... I just believe the bible to be a book of guidance left to us from a divine entity and in order to be worthy to be called God's people one must act in a manner worthy!

If you want people to even consider listening to your words of TRUTH do as Apostle Paul did. He walked the world humbling himself, punishing himself for his prior sins.

Did you know Apostle Paul persecuted and killed Christians?

He later realized his errors and became one of Jesus' most loyal and humble followers. He had the markings of Jesus our Lord!

He only worked for the truth!

Of all the studying all of the CoG members do, I bet they never heard of Paul saying his church was better because he had the truth! Instead he came to them with the words of Christ with compassion and humility. It was he who wrote the meaning of love in 1st Corinthians 13

1 Corinthians 13

Love

1If I speak in the tongues[a] of men and of angels, but have not love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. 2If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3If I give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames,[b] but have not love, I gain nothing.

4Love is PATIENT, love is KIND. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is NOT PROUD. 5It is NOT RUDE, it is not self-seeking, it is NOT EASILY ANGERED, it keeps NO RECORD OF WRONGS. 6Love does not delight in evil but REJOICES WITH THE TRUTH. 7It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. 8Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. 9For we know in part and we prophesy in part, 10but when perfection comes, the imperfect disappears. 11When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me. 12Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. 13And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

Put your childish ways behind you!
Show LOVE. I know for a fact that regardless who it is; whether a cult or not, they dont tell you to boast. your MOTHER and FATHER are not very proud of you right now.

Is this what Mother Jerusalem teaches you? I really dont think so... If she really is the BRIDE she too should be as humble as the Lamb.

Follow their examples!

Like I said I am not here to trash you but to help you.

Like Coginator posted...

"These lost sheep are worth fighting for...even if they themselves can't fight for thier spiritual life."

Spiritual life is worth fighting for.. but only if you do it in a humble way. Put yor pride to the side! Thats why we were casted out of heaven. You want to go back in? Then do as Apostle Paul did!

Dont let your God down!

Hi everyone. Sorry but I come across this website and I am a Christian myself and only believe in the Bible. I started reading the post here and it seems like there's too many harsh words being spoken. I agree with Looking4Truth. But also, from what I have seen throughout my Christian life,
I don't think it matters on what denomination you belong too. All Christians in different denomination are trying hard to follow God and please Him. Unfortunately here, no one is a disciple of Jesus.

By: Frank on June 6,
2008
at 6:50 pm

Reply

John 13:34-35 34"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. 35By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

This is the new commandment from Jesus "Love one another" and that would make us disciples of Jesus of we love one another. Does it really matter what practice we do to please Jesus?

Colossians 2:13-17 13When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your sinful nature,[b] God made you[c] alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins, 14having canceled the written code, with its regulations, that was against us and that stood opposed to us; he took it away, nailing it to the cross. 15And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross.[d]

16Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day. 17These are a shadow of the things that were to come; the reality, however, is found in Christ.

It doesn't matter what practice a denomination do to please God. This is what the Bible speaks. Believe and follow Jesus Christ and you will be saved. Let me show everyone more from the Bible.

Matthew 5:19 19Anyone who breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practices and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

How clear this is for all the denominations out there. It's either you love God or you don't believe in Him at all. There is going to be the least and great of all of us who love God in His kingdom of heaven. I respect all who believe and tried to please God but to those who don't believe at all like Clark here are the ones who will not enter God's kingdom. Here's more proof:

Matthew 7:21-23 21"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' 23Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'

Atheists like Clark call on the Lord when he needs Him and same thing to all atheists out there. Everybody is doing the will of the Father except the atheists. I feel sorry for them. God bless you all.

Looking4Truth said: "I cannot see or find the truth in this website from either party! All I can see is everyone boasting and competeing to see who's belief overpowers the other."

By: Ted on June 6, 2008
at 7:42 pm

Reply

Your not reading properly then, as all the COG's doctrines have been refuted countless times.

You and Frank seem to be saying that "everyone should be left alone to believe in their own God". This seems like COG propoganda to me. I've seen this happen in several real world debates. Their last line of defence is always "we are just a religion, leave us alone."

But all cults thrive in darkness and mystery. They don't like you shining a spotlight on them. Once everyone ignores them, they're then free to manipulate and exploit others.

A lack of awareness and information helps the cult exploit young people. It let's them manipulate minds purely for profit.

Frank,
I agree with you! Thats what I have been trying to say. The denomintaion doesnt matter! You have to love and be humble. You cant say

By: Looking4Truth on
June 6, 2008
at 8:15 pm

Reply

you love Christ and then want to be served! God Our Father came in the flesh 2000 years ago to serve us!!! He left his heavenly throne to come to earth to get beaten and have hunger pain... God did this to show us love. To show us true devotional love.
I personally dont have a denomination but I believe in Christ our Savior and he will come to end all this corruption. To bring end to this!
Follow whomever you believe is Christ but make sure in your hearts that it is the truth. Dont let anyone lure you to falsehood
Keep his commands always in your hearts. If our Father tells us to preach the Good News (Gospel) to the whole world, he didnt want us to boast about it.
To love Jesus is to love one another..
He told us to follow his examples... LOVE ONE ANOTHER!
Christ was here for 33 years. From the time he was baptized in the Jordan, all he did was teach us LOVE.
Whether it be LOVE ONE ANOTHER or LOVE HIS COMMANDMENTS... He did not boast or he wasnt proud.
The reason the morning star was hurled from the heavens was because he was proud.
The bible is written to teach us and guide us.
God had divine intentions to take us home. I have read & studied the bible for a VERY long time. I have read the books of Ahnsahnghong and just about every other book. Ahnsahnghongs heart was about walking with the marks of Christ. He was a bible scholar. Some called him the Root of David.
He taught the General Pastor Choel the many Mysteries of God! I have been to the CoG website (the Korean one) and I have read a lot of the "sermons" and I can see the teachings of Christ there.
What I dont understand is in that web-page I can see alot of light... but here in this blog I cant see that light. All I see is harsh words being spoken.
Why attack one another?? This isnt what God has come to teach us, in fact there is a teaching about brothers unity in that website that I think I will post here for all to read!
Put aside your beliefs and see the core!

Beautiful Unity of Brothers

As God said, "I am the LORD; in its time I will do this swiftly," God is working without rest for our salvation. In these days, we ought to preach the gospel of the heavenly kingdom more diligently in accordance with God's will, being united with one another in the holy city of Zion.

God is pleased with the unity of brothers

Php 2:1-2 If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose.

The Bible repeatedly says, "Be like-minded," "Have the same love," and "Be one in spirit and purpose." This shows that it is very important for us to be united, without any divisions among ourselves.

It is God's will and teaching that we fulfill beautiful unity. We can clearly understand the will of God through things He has made. Think of salt. It is indispensable for our daily life. Salt "NaCl" is a combination of two elements—sodium "Na" and chlorine "Cl." Salt itself is eatable. However, if it is dissolved into sodium and chlorine, each element becomes harmful to our health when we eat it.

So is water. When two atoms of hydrogen "H2" combine with one oxygen "O," then water "H2O" is formed. But suppose that the water molecules are separated and only hydrogen comes into our body. It was this hydrogen that Thomas Edison, the inventive genius of America, made his friend inhale and caused him stomachache, saying that he would make him fly like a balloon. If Edison had made him drink water—a combination of hydrogen and oxygen, he would have been all right. It was because his friend inhaled only hydrogen that he was troubled with stomachache.

Nylon, the first synthetic fiber, is a combination of water, air and coal. Suppose that each element remains as itself. Is it possible for water itself to turn into clothes? Or can we make clothes from air or coal itself? The combination of those three produces a new material—nylon.

In this earth there are many elements which God created; they produce precious things when they combine with each other. Though a substance itself is poisonous, if it combines with others, it turns into a new material which is beneficial to us. We are God's children who abide in the truth. God wants us to be united in love rather than be in disaccord and get jealous of each other. <~~~READ THAT AGAIN!

Ps 133:1-3 How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity! It is like precious oil poured on the head, running down on the beard, running down on Aaron's beard, down upon the collar of his robes. It is as if the dew of Hermon were falling on Mount Zion. For there the LORD bestows his blessing, even life forevermore.

In God's sight, it is good and beautiful for brothers to be united in Zion. As we know, each of us is merely a sinner expelled from heaven for committing sin. We all know that when the 144,000 become united in love, the New Jerusalem Temple will be completed.

If a brother still has a sinful nature and does wrong, we have to encourage him to try to correct his mistakes, so that he may become worthy of entering heaven. Then we will be in perfect union which is most pleasing to God. The Bible makes us realize that.

Eternal life is given by uniting with Christ through the new covenant

Then, let's consider why we should be united among ourselves in Zion and how to become one.

Jn 6:53-58 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, ... Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me. ..."

Eternal life is given to us when God remains in us and we are all united with one another in God. Without becoming one, eternal life can never be given to us. So Jesus says in John 15, "I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not remain in me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers." Through this word God also warns us what the result of our disaccord will be. God doesn't want us to suffer such a terrible end. That's why He tells us to be united.

God has given us the Passover so that we may remain in Him and He in us. We can become one with God only through the bread and wine of the Passover, symbolizing the flesh and blood of God.

1 Co 10:16-17 Is it not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is it not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

What is the cup of thanksgiving which is a participation in the blood of Christ? What is the bread which is a participation in the body of Christ? That is the bread and wine of the Passover. Here, Apostle Paul explains to the saints in the Church of God in Corinth the profound meaning of the Passover through which they can become one.

We are to follow the way of God for our salvation. God allows us eternal life by letting us partake of the bread and wine of the Passover, through which we become one with Christ and our brothers. The only way to get eternal life is to become one with God. If we try to find any other way to have eternal life, we commit an act of ignoring God's providence and plan. <~~~ ONCE AGAIN WE CANT FIGHT OUR FATHER

If it is a chemical law to form water when two hydrogen atoms combine with one oxygen, it is a spiritual law to get eternal life when we are united with Christ and our brothers through the bread and wine of the Passover of the new covenant.

The devil, the evil spirit, is trying to destroy this spiritual law of God. He infiltrates into people's soul and whispers, 'You don't have to keep the Passover,' or 'Is it not the law of Moses in the Old Testament times?' We should stand firmly against the evil force who is trying to destroy God's principle of salvation, so that we can preach the way of salvation even more.

Ro 11:16-24 ... If some of the branches have been broken off, and you, though a wild olive shoot, have been grafted in among the others and now share in the nourishing sap from the olive root, do not boast olive those branches. If you do, consider this: You do not support the root, but the root supports you. ... Do not be arrogant, but be afraid. For if God did not spare the natural branches, he will not spare you either. (THE NATURAL ISREALITES) ... After all, if you were cut out of an olive tree that is wild by nature, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more readily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree!

We were mortal sinners. However, God grafted us into Him by cutting off His flesh and made us united with Him, so that our past sinful nature would be extinguished. We the branches, which were once broken off, have come to life by receiving the sap from the root. We are to die if we are left alone. Through the truth of the Passover, however, God has grafted us into Him, so that He may remain in us and we in Him. For this reason, the Early Church considered the Passover so important; especially Paul, known as the 'Apostle to the Gentile,' preached the Passover wherever he went. Even in this age, the importance of the Passover has not been reduced at all.

1 Co 11:23-26 For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me." For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Through all the above words, we can understand a little bit more why God told us to become one, to love one another, and to preach the Passover of the new covenant to all the peoples of the world.

When all our family members in Zion become united in love rather than to be jealous and exclusive, we shall enter the eternal kingdom, where we will experience eternal life.

Unity for God's glory and unity for man's honor

There is one thing we must remember when we unite ourselves; it is that our unity must be established for God's glory, not our own. <~ ~ ~PAY CLOSE ATTENTION, GODS GLORY NOT OUR OWN

Ge 11:1-9 Now the whole world had one language and a common speech. As men moved eastward, they found a plain in Shinar and settled there. They said to each other, ... "Come, let us build ourselves a city, with a tower that reaches to the heavens, so that we may make a name for ourselves and not be scattered over the face of the whole earth." ... The LORD said, "If as one people speaking the same language they have begun to do this, then nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them. Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other." So the LORD scattered them from there over all the earth, and they stopped building the city. ...

When people built the Tower of Babel, they tried to distinguish themselves and display their own glory rather than God's. Then God confused their language so they would not continue to do the work. Though they became one in mind, they intended to display their own glory and make a name for themselves, and God stopped them from doing the work. Through this history, we need to consider again what we should become united for. If we are united to display our own righteousness, God will deter us from what we intend to do. However, if we become of one mind and one accord for the glory of God, we will receive God's gracious help which we've not ever expected.

Ac 1:12-14 ... When they arrived, they went upstairs to the room where they were staying. Those present were Peter, John, James and Andrew; Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew; James son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. They all joined together constantly in prayer, along with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

Ac 2:1-12 When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. ... All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them. ... Utterly amazed, they asked: "Are not all these men who are speaking Galileans? Then how is it that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphlia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring that wonders of God in our own tongues!" ...

Preparing for the day of Pentecost, the disciples were continually devoting themselves to prayer with one mind for the glory of God. When the day of Pentecost came, the strong power and help of the Holy Spirit came upon them from heaven.

As they joined together for the glory of God with one mind, God unified all their confused languages. Even though the disciples spoke in Hebrew, all the people—Parthians, Medes and Mesopotamians—heard them speaking in their own languages, as God enabled them.

Both in Acts and in Genesis, we can find the common point—it was that they were all with one accord. However, they got totally different results. As for the former, God unified their scattered languages so they could do His work, but as for the latter He confused their language so they might not do their own work. They were totally opposite to each other.

Now, we live in the last days. In doing the gospel work, we should not win a name for ourselves. It is good for all the brothers and sisters in Zion to become united in heart and in mind. In doing that, there must be a certain purpose deserving of God's help.

Let's unite into one for the glory of God

The one whom God helps is invincible. Any worldly weapons are useless to him when God helps him. Remember that about a hundred and thirty-five thousand men, the forces of Midian, were completely destroyed by three hundred men, the warriors of Gideon. How could they win victory? It was because they united with one another for the glory of God, not for their own. 'We fight this fight for the sake of our God.' With this thought, they were all with one mind. As a result, all the Israelites, who had been oppressed by Midianites for a long time, could be freed from them with joy. Only a small number of people, the three hundred men, defeated a hundred and thirty-five thousand men. It was because they fought for the glory of God. However, when people built the Tower of Babel, though a great number of people were called together for the labor, it fell down. For they said, "Let's make a name for ourselves." We must not let such words come into our minds nor let it come out of our mouths. Rather, we shall only give thanks to God, who has redeemed us from our sins and given us the way to eternal heaven, in obedience to God's will and all His commands. Then we will be able to follow the Lamb wherever He goes, won't we? We are to unite ourselves with everything, though it is a small matter. When we perform our own duties with one mind only for the glory of God, the last Reformation is to be accomplished.

Jer 13:15-17 Hear and pay attention, do not be arrogant, for the LORD has spoken. ... You hope for light, but he will turn it to thick darkness and change it to deep gloom. But if you do not listen, I will weep in secret because of your pride; ...

All truth that we preach now comes from God. Nothing in this world belongs to us. We are all just messengers of God who preach the good news of salvation to dying souls all over the world. We have to thank God for giving us such a great mission, and devote ourselves to His glory even more.

For the glory of God, every member of the 144,000 is really precious. Suppose that a bolt comes out of a car. Though all the other parts are of the highest quality, if a bolt is inferior and it is pulled out of a moving car, what will happen to the car?

We've received the truth and each of us has become a member of God's workers participating in the mission of salvation in these last days. None of us can be ignored; WE ARE ALL PRECIOUS AND VALUABLE. My dear brothers and sisters! "You've finished marching around the city seven times. Now, just shout aloud!"let's cry aloud with one mind.

Let's go to heaven together in one mind

Our mission is to save all souls from sin and lead them to heaven, by proclaiming the last Reformation to the ends of the earth. My loving brothers and sisters! Let's unite ourselves together for the glory of God. Instead of being envious and quarrelsome, let's be united in love, manifesting God's love not only in words, but in deed, so that we can safely arrive in heaven after we finish our journey of faith in this spiritual desert.

I think thats beautiful! INSTEAD OF BEING ENVOIOUS AND QUARRELSOME LETS BE UNITED IN LOVE!!!

We should have the broad & beautiful mind enough to even cover up a brothers fault!

Those are all teachings from the CoG website.

Hello Looking4truth and Frank,

By: Dark Angel on
June 6, 2008
at 8:28 pm

Although I respect your opinions, I do not agree with either one of your posts. There may have been two occasions where raw profanity was used from someone in the earlier posts but that was perhaps the only time and it perhaps was used by that certain person.

Reply

Otherwise, everything posted is a form of expression by both parties non-COG members and COG members.

Calling someone "spiritually blind", "foolish" is an example. Debates become heated at times and as humans, we tend to get emotional, that's just natural. In life, at what point in a debate or arguement has either one of you not say something out of anger or in the heat of the moment?

No one on this forum is "evil" in my eyes. Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem are not evil to me as well, they may be deceitful but I do not consider them to be evil.

That's too strong of a word to use to describe someone who is delusional and believes that they are an Omniscient Being. People have been taking the bible out of context for hundreds of years, why would it stop now?

Frank as far as Atheism, when you put some thought into it, wouldn't God be considered an Atheist?

An Omniscient Being does not have ANY beliefs. It does not believe in concepts, conspiracies, and contradictions. It knows all, so beliefs are not required.

Overall, we all have opinions but we all know how much opinions are worth, since many consider opinions worthless.

Thanks for sharing your thoughts, hopefully, you can understand why they feel your religion is false to them.

Ted, I agree.

By: Dark Angel on
June 6, 2008
at 8:30 pm

Reply

Wow... Whats going on?
I leave for 1 day and we have LOVE

By: Lizzie on June 6,
2008

EACHOTHER and the CoG are manipulators...

at 8:32 pm

I understand what Looking4Truth and Frank are getting at. They aren't saying the CoG members are doing wrong or that you haters are doing wrong. I like their message about LOVE! But the truth reigns regardless. And we are the truth! I admit that the CoG members have been a little "rude", but we have been trying to help all of you see the truth. We don't want to see you perish in the end. We are doing what Christ asked us to do...

Reply

PREACH THE GOSPEL TO ALL NATIONS... including the haters here

The truth is, we don't want to see no one get locked out of the opportunity of entering the eternal rest.

We believe that our doctrines are true because we follow the commandments of God. Not because we have been brainwashed. We are not being manipulated or manipulative!

We have seen for ourselves and have realized that it is true... Christ did come a second time to bring us salvation.

We aren't diverting the attention from Jesus... We are reminding everyone of Jesus' teachings. He prophesied that he would come again. Christ Ahn Sahng Hong isn't making his own doctrine... he just is reminding us of Truth from 2000 years ago. The truth that we have forgotten.

We use the Bible because God's words are above ours. We believe that it's better to listen to the word straight from God.

All of you speak from your own mouths. We use the words of God to back our beliefs.

Dark Angel

I am with you in thoughts this time. You are right! I admit when I am wrong or when someone else's opinion is more sound than my own!

When you said

"No one on this forum is "evil" in my eyes.

Ahn Sahng Hong and Mother Jerusalem are not evil to me as well, they may be deceitful but I do not consider them to be evil."

By: Looking4Truth on

June 6, 2008

at 8:42 pm

Reply

I felt you were a very smart man/woman.

That has to be the smartest post to date. I personally do not consider opinions to be worthless. I value each and everyone of them. That is how we express ourselves. The name calling in previous posting I still believe is uncalled for.

Those who believe in Christ Our Savior should not stoop that low, for they do not show God's love.

Religion is the most heated debate ever..

Everyone has their own opinion of what is the Truth. So I can see how it's gotten out of hand in here.

As for taking the bible out of context! I agree!!!

I have to admit, Franks and Looking4Truth posts both have remarkable similarities to how the CoG posts are. I can't put my finger on it, but there are phrases and terminology that seem to try and give the CoG validation. I am VERY skeptical of them being non-biased. Although I could be wrong.

By: CoGinator on June 6, 2008 at 9:20 pm

Reply

I can love all the individuals that are members of the CoG...but that doesn't mean I have to accept their doctrine. I have tried my hardest not to be mean spirited (although it comes so natural to me), and I don't ever admit to as good a Jesus...it's a walk that I attempt everyday.

But, to even give them the benefit of being call a denomination of Christianity is something I WILL NOT DO. See ,to be a denomination means you believe in Jesus Christ. The CoG don't believe in Jesus. They believe in a man call Ansahnghong. They use the bible to, to try and reason why he is God, but that's when it stops being Christianity and starts being a cult.

In, I don't know how many posts, they have yet to come even close to proving any of the deviations of the bible. Furthermore, the sheer amount of families that get broken, turned upside down, and strained by this Cult, is proof enough for me to feel very strongly that the CoG is not of God...which leads it to coming from one other place.

But lets get back to facts...

Lets know more about Mother J. How old is she, what's her favorite food. Why can she only speak Korean? Why does she need a hearing aid?

By: CoGinator on June 6, 2008 at 9:22 pm

Reply

I think these are important questions, since she is trying to be projected as God.

Just an update. The COG are once again trying to hack the new cult watch website. Just got word from my host that they've been using some sort of brute force password device to guess the passwords.

By: Ted on June 6, 2008 at 9:26 pm

Reply

Luckily I've just rechanged all the passwords to long strings of gibberish, which hopefully are impossible to guess.

Frank and Looking4Truth, I think you're simply COG members who are further trying to back out of things and ignore debate. It's not a matter of "loving everyone" or "Christians and COGers holding hands and going to heaven together!" it's a matter of exploitation.

You're basically saying "it doesn't matter if you believe in Ahnsahnghong or Jesus, we are all going to heaven".

This is just an attempt to further evade argument. You're trying to make it seem as though the COG and Christians are all working toward the same spiritual goal, when in fact the COG is simply a high-pressure, damaging organisation, which manipulates and enslaves young minds purely for financial profit.

Exactly COGinator,

By: Dark Angel on
June 6, 2008
at 9:37 pm

Remember Donnie? Well, here are his questions that you COG members ignored:

Reply

Donnie said,

Hi world mission church of god members!
Why no-one can answer these very simple and basic questions about 'Mother Jerusalem'?

What is her name, how old is she, does she have families (children?, husband?) and how did she get involved in this religion.

Lizzie, would you like to answer them for Donnie?

Coginator said: "I have to admit, Franks and Looking4Truth posts both have remarkable similarities to how the CoG posts are."

By: Ted on June 6,
2008
at 9:40 pm

COG members learn by mimicry. Their goal is simply to be as "spiritual" as the deacon above them. It's like a spiritual pyramid scheme in which they want to rise to the next level by assuming the persona of the deacon above.

Reply

As such, they're required to learn the same notes, the same speech mannerisms and act the same way.

Gradually you subconsciously become the deacon above you. It becomes your goal to assume his responsibilities and roles and you are punished or embarrassed whenever you fail to adhere to this prefabricated "role".

The result is kind of like a factory conveyor belt, where each drone has an identical cult persona.

Each member has an entirely individual, unique and distinct personality, but they also have a cult persona that is formed by the cult group.

To use Tom Cruise as an example. Tom is a talented actor, which a unique personality. But when he assumes his cult persona, he is a virtual clone of every brainwashed scientologist.

When a COG member attempts to preach to a new recruit, they all use the same pauses, mannerisms, phrases and intonations. For example they will pause at certain moments or use the line "let us now prove". They ask hypothetical questions and then say "let us show how", guiding you or manipulating you toward some false explanation.

So yes, these two "new Christian posters" are, at least in my eyes, most definitely COG members. I recognise their speech and sentence construction. I know the way they think. I think they are simply trying to validate the COG by saying that they're working toward the same goals as Christianity.

Ted, I suspect them too.

By: Dark Angel on
June 6, 2008
at 9:43 pm

Both happened to "stumble upon the site". I'm not into you trying to feed my ego, Truth but thanks.

Reply

I agree with Looking4Truth, everybody has their own opinion. But for Dark Angel, we have the Bible that God gave us in order that we would love Him. I can't believe you called God an Atheist. Clark is an example of Atheist. Seems like your not a Christian Dark Angel.

By: Frank on June 6,
2008
at 9:59 pm

Reply

Also, for Clark who is building that website, please quit now or else you'll regret it on Judgement Day. Jaime warned you about it and I agree with her.

Wow I'm starting to be the bad guy in this film making Bible cult. Let's cut to the chase. Although Dark Angel and Ted are into this Bible cult like the Church of God members, let's keep the discussion as posted before. Church of God members, you guys need to start answering the questions thrown at you. Do I have to post it again from above? If you guys are the true church as you say, why can't you guys answer the questions that is thrown at you?

By: Clark on June 6,
2008
at 11:17 pm

Reply

What is the real name of your M.J.? How old is she? Does she have other kids other than AHN? How did she get involve in your church?

Also my favorite that I have read. If Ahnsahnghong is the Christ, then how come he didn't came back in 1988 as he promised? Here's a good one from COGinator "

But lets get back to facts...

Lets know more about Mother J. How old is she, what's her favorite food. Why can she only speak Korean? Why does she need a hearing aid?"

Let's keep focus away from me and answer these questions that Dark Angel and Ted are throwing at you. You think you guys are gonna get away with it.

As for Dark Angel side, again "Is the Bible literally written by men or by God?" If you guys use it as a tool to prove that Church of God is false church, then prove it that it is really written literally by God.

Ted said "You're basically saying "it doesn't matter if you believe in Ahnsahnghong or Jesus, we are all going to heaven".

By: Poland on June 6, 2008
at 11:52 pm

This is just an attempt to further evade argument. You're Reply trying to make it seem as though the COG and Christians are all working toward the same spiritual goal, when in fact the COG is simply a high-pressure, damaging organisation, which manipulates and enslaves young minds purely for financial profit."

Ted, the member of Church of God doesn't need to answer your questions which is not Biblical at all. I would rather learn the Bible than to answer such questions in men's will. You guys won't be able to understand the Bible at all and I pity you and your followers. This blog has turned into debate that has no Biblical wisdom at all. Keep them coming Ted.

To Clark, don't you just love to run since you have no allies at all. Stop bringing your ignorant opinions about the Bible.

To my Brothers and Sisters in God's Zion, let's keep preaching the truth of the Bible to those who are seeking the truth. This is our sword, the Word of God.

Hebrews 4:12 – For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart.

1 Corinthians 2:6-16 – We do, however, speak a message of wisdom among the mature, but not the wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. No, we speak of God's secret wisdom, a wisdom that has been hidden and that God destined for our glory before time began. None of the rulers of this age understood it, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. However, as it is written:

"No eye has seen,
no ear has heard,
no mind has conceived
what God has prepared for those who love him"—but God has revealed it to us by his Spirit. The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God. For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the man's spirit within him? In the same way no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit who is from God, that we may understand what God has freely given us. This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words. The man without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned. The spiritual man makes judgments about all things, but he himself is not subject to any man's judgment:

"For who has known the mind of the Lord that he may instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Holy Spirit who reminded us of the true teachings of Jesus. Guys like Ted Erratic Cheese and his followers depend on men's will. I pity you and your followers.

Now many of our spiritual brothers and sisters are coming from so many different places in the world, according to God's prophecy—"Your children will come from afar, flying like doves to their nests." This shows us that not one of God's prophecies can pass away without being fulfilled. Though they are of different races, all of them have the same faith in the Spirit and the Bride and do the gospel work faithfully. Seeing that they are so quick to understand the word of truth, we can feel that the due time has come and God is giving the power of the Holy Spirit abundantly to all the brothers and sisters in Zion. Whether we are in the east or in the west, we are the people of God and have the same duty. No matter what country we belong to physically, we are God's people having the citizenship of heaven.

By: Poland on June 6, 2008
at 11:57 pm

Reply

Those who know the value of the citizenship of heaven

One of our church members visited Korea from the United States to study the Bible. One day he asked me, "Is it safe to go out at night here?" I said to him, "You can go out anytime if you want." Then he opened his eyes in surprise, saying it is unbelievable. He admired Korea over and over, saying, "Korea is really good to live in." However, there is a better country prepared for us. It is the kingdom of heaven, our eternal home. Having the citizenship of heaven is the greatest hope we can have.

People seem to consider America as the best country on earth. Many people throughout the world long to live in America where they can find various jobs, living out the 'American dream.' They make every effort to immigrate to the United States and obtain denizenship and citizenship in that country, so that they can settle down there and exercise their civic rights.

Actually there are not many native Americans except a small number of American Indians. Most American people are from Europe, Asia, Africa: An American of Italian origin, an American of Philippine ancestry, and an American of Germanic extraction, Thus, America is a multiracial nation. So it is called a nation of immigrants. Every immigrant thinks that once he obtains American citizenship, he will be acknowledged as American citizen envied by most people around the world. So many people are trying to leave for America, where illegal immigrants are flooding into. There they endure all prejudice and racism, looking forward to acquiring citizenship someday. They say that their greatest desire is to acquire American citizenship and they will be extremely happy if they get it.

What if they see the spiritual world with a spiritual eye? They will no longer say that, won't they? Our citizenship is much more valuable, which is the citizenship of heaven.

Php 3:17-21 ... But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body.

We've obtained heaven's citizenship. God let us know that only those who have their citizenship in heaven can be transformed into the likeness of Christ's glorious body. If a person has acquired the citizenship of a particular country which provides the right to live there, he is envied by the people around him. How much more will we be envied if we have a permanent citizenship in heaven!

When Jesus came to this earth and was mocked and persecuted by creatures, He didn't care about it at all, because He was looking forward to a spiritual country.

Jn 18:33-37 "Pilate then went back inside the palace, summoned Jesus and asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" "Is that your own idea," Jesus asked, "or did others talk to you about me?" "Am I a Jew?" Pilate replied. "It was your people and your chief priests who handed you over to me. What is it you have done?" Jesus said, "My kingdom is not of this world. If it were, my servants would fight to prevent my arrest by the Jews. But now my kingdom is from another place." "You are a king, then!" said Pilate. Jesus answered, "You are right in saying I am a king. ... Everyone on the side of truth listens to me."

Through the above passages, we are to understand what Christ's will is. Jesus shows us His will as follows: 'My kingdom is not of this world which is like a drop in a bucket and regarded dust on the scales. My kingdom is not an earthly country fading away, but the eternal kingdom of heaven.'

Earthly citizenship is not valuable to us. We should be proud of our citizenship in heaven. They make every effort to gain American citizenship in this earth like fine dust. How much more should we labor for the kingdom of heaven! We must not disregard or overlook the things of the invisible world.

Heavenly citizenship for those doing the Father's will

When the eternal kingdom comes, the most valuable thing is the citizenship of heaven. Even though tens of thousands of people give us their American citizenship cards, we will never exchange our heavenly citizenship for theirs. We are envied by all the spiritual beings in the universe. God tells us how to acquire the citizenship of heaven.

Mt 7:21-23 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'"

Nobody can enter the kingdom of heaven without the citizenship of heaven. Then, who can acquire the heavenly citizenship? Only those who do the will of the heavenly Father can acquire it. The Bible clearly shows us the way to obtain the citizenship of heaven and also the reason to be rejected.

Those who have American citizenship can travel freely in and out of the country; none of them are refused entrance to it. How about those who try to enter the country without its citizenship? Immigration officers inspect them, asking why they visit the country and how long they will stay there. After passing through the inspection, they are admitted into America.

We can find the same situation in Matthew 7:21-23. Only those who do the Father's will are admitted into heaven. For God grants the citizenship of heaven only to them. Without the heavenly citizenship, no one can enter the kingdom of heaven.

Even a nation's citizenship in this earth is given through the admission of the country. In order to acquire American citizenship, immigrants must pass through an examination. 'Who is the first president of the United States?' or 'When did the Civil War break out?' Examiners ask such questions about the outline history of America, and the people should answer in English. Only after passing through the examination, they can obtain American citizenship.

In the same way, to acquire the citizenship of heaven we must gain God's approval. Only those who do the will of the Father can enter the kingdom of heaven, because He has granted them the heavenly citizenship.

Jn 8:45-47 "... He who belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

He who belongs to God is to hear what God says. God clearly commands us to keep the Sabbath, but some insist on keeping Sunday. God commands us to celebrate the Passover, nevertheless some insist on celebrating Christmas. This is an expression of their strong will not to hear what God says. God sternly says that such people do not belong to Him: "The reason you do not hear what I say is that you do not belong to Me." What a dreadful word! Through this word, God shows us the way to distinguish between those who can acquire the heavenly citizenship and those who can't.

Heavenly citizenship is given to the people of Zion, the city of God's appointed feasts

Now, we need to find out where God our King reigns in order to know where we are now, examining the requirements we must meet in order to qualify for heavenly citizenship.

Isa 33:20-22 Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals; your eyes will see Jerusalem, a peaceful abode, a tent that will not be moved ... There the LORD will be our Mighty One. ... the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; it is he who will save us.

Here, 'us' mean those celebrating God's feasts in Zion. God is called their King; He is the King of Zion, the city of His appointed feasts. We, the people of Zion, celebrate the feasts. So it is clear that we have a heavenly citizenship.

Isa 51:15-16 "For I am the LORD your God, who churns up the sea so that its waves roar—the LORD Almighty is his name. I have put my words in your mouth and covered you with the shadow of my hand—I who set the heavens in place, who laid the foundations of the earth, and who say to Zion, 'You are my people.'"

The people who dwell in Zion are the ones who have obtained the heavenly citizenship, though they live in this sinful world now. We must feel proud that we have acquired the heavenly citizenship even though we are cast down to a small planet called earth. If we have the citizenship of heaven, we ought to hear what God says. Now, let's see if we obey God's word as heavenly citizens, considering what are the requirements for the heavenly citizenship.

Ex 20:8 "Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy."

First, citizens of heaven ought to keep the Sabbath day. Those who do not keep the Sabbath cannot acquire the citizenship of heaven. When they stand before Jesus at the last day, they will beg Him to let them into heaven, saying, "Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name pray and drive out demons, and help the poor?" However, Jesus will turn His face away from them, saying, "I never knew you."

"Show Me your citizenship of heaven. Do you know the reason why I have not granted you heavenly citizenship? Have you ever kept the Sabbath holy?" If God asks them such stern questions, what will they answer? God said, "My sheep listen to my voice" (Jn 10:27). How can they acquire the heavenly citizenship without obeying even a single command of God—"Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy"? So Jesus told them plainly, "I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!"

Second, heavenly citizens ought to celebrate the Passover.

Lk 22:14-20 And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you."

The Bible teaches us that we can receive the forgiveness of our sins only by celebrating the Passover. So God has established the Passover, saying, "This [Passover] is for you." It is a qualification for the citizenship of heaven to celebrate the Passover.

If a man commits a crime, he will forfeit his rights of citizenship at once and be punished according to his country's Criminal Procedure Code. So did we. We committed an unpardonable sin in heaven, and were cast down to the earth. We lost our heavenly citizenship and forfeited all of our rights as citizens in heaven.

Christ, however, came into this earth to forgive all our sins by shedding His blood and tearing His flesh. For the mortal sinners, He opened the way to the forgiveness of sins through the Passover of the new covenant. That's why we have come to reinstate our heavenly citizenship. So the Bible says, "Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances" (1 Th 5:16-18). When our faith becomes weak, we can neither rejoice, nor give thanks, nor understand why God has given those words to us. Think of our heavenly citizenship! Christ died for us, so that we might have the forgiveness of sins and the citizenship of heaven. How joyful and how grateful! No matter how difficult our lives may be, we must endure in order to avoid going to hell, a place of eternal punishment. God has granted us, sinners, the citizenship of heaven. Whatever difficulties we face, we are supposed to be joyful and thankful.

Here is one more necessary condition for the heavenly citizenship—knowing God's name and celebrating God's feasts such as the Sabbath and the Passover. To obtain American citizenship, people have to know its president's name. How much more should we know the name of God to acquire the heavenly citizenship! Can we obtain it without knowing God's name? God said, "My people will know my name" (Isa 52:6).

The citizenship of heaven can be acquired when we always live in Zion, know God and obey everything He has commanded us. We have the heavenly citizenship granted by God. Let us take pride in our citizenship in heaven. God has given us the Passover and let us know what the Savior's name is; and He clearly said to us, "You are My people."

What we are to do now is to help all the peoples of the world acquire the citizenship of heaven. They do not know the way to obtain it.

When I first went to America for the gospel work, I was at a loss as to how to act. Some put themselves out trying to help me, and I felt so thankful to them for their help. People naturally express their thanks to him who teaches them what they do not know, even though it is a little thing. How much more will they give thanks to him who helps them know the way to acquire the eternal citizenship of heaven! In heaven they will ever be deeply grateful to him for his help.

When we go back to the glorious kingdom of heaven, we will enjoy the powerful privileges of heavenly citizenship. Many people, who have not obeyed God's commands, will entreat God to let them in before the heaven's gate. However, Christ will sternly say to them, "I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!" What about us all in Zion? We shall all enter heaven's gate safely. For heaven is our home and our country.

Giving thanks to God who has given us such a great blessing, let us help numerous people who are longing for the heavenly citizenship. From the east to the west, let's preach the gospel diligently. I hope all our brothers and sisters in Zion will bear much fruit through God's grace and love.

Ted and your followers, keep them coming.

Jesus is God the Father though.. dont you read the prophecies? Before Jesus was born on earth, God the Father (Jehovah) said he himself was gonna come down to the earth to find his people (read ezekiel chapters 34 and 37) and then when isaiah prophecied that a child was gonna be born into the world in chapter 9 verse 6-7, it says he will be called mighty God and everlasting Father (who is the father, mighty God in the old testament?, JEHOVAH).. You need to understand that the Trinity is 1 God not 3. Trinity represents the 3 ages God is going to administer for our salvation.. each age God the father will have a new name – Fathers age is Jehovah, then in the sons age Gods name changed to Jesus (when you look in John 17 – Jesus, when he was praying said to the Father “Save them by YOUR name – the name you gave me.” meaning the Fathers name became the Name given to Jesus.. then in the last days Jesus is prophecied to come again as the holy spirit bearing a new name (rev 3:12, rev 2:17) Jesus’ new name is gonna be the name for the holy spirit. Jesus does say there is a name in the last paragraph of mathew 28.. Just think about it.. if i were you i’d look into it more. thank you..

By: G on June 7, 2008 at 1:18 am

Reply

Frank said, “I can’t believe you called God an Atheist. Clark is an example of Atheist. Seems like your not a Christian Dark Angel.”

By: Dark Angel on June 7, 2008 at 3:21 am

Frank again, an omniscient god doesn’t have beliefs, it knows all. An atheist does not rely on religious beliefs. I don’t know what Clark is, so I couldn’t say. Also, no I am not a Christian, but I guess that makes me “evil” now.

Reply

Frank, define “atheism”, then define “omniscience” and ask yourself what kind of beliefs would an omniscient Being need to have? Humans need beliefs, not omniscient Beings.

That is why I said what I said. If you feel otherwise, then perhaps you can tell me what beliefs an omniscient Being would have, if it knows all.

Clark said, “As for Dark Angel side, again “Is the Bible litterally written by men or by God?” If you guys use it as a tool to prove that Church of God is false church, then prove it that it is really written litterally by God.”

Clark, i’m sorry but you are in the wrong place at the wrong time. This a discussion about the gods ahnsahngong and mother jerusalem. As I said before, you're going to have to come up with your own answer for that.

Poland said, "You guys won't be able to understand the Bible at all and I pity you and your followers. This blog has turned into debate that has no Biblical wisdom at all."

Poland first off, Ted is not a god so he doesn't have "followers". Second, the bible does not contain information about ahnsahngong's life.

Does it contain the made up story of him climbing up mountains? No.

Does it contain the made up story of him denying himself food for no apparent reason? No.

Does it contain the made up story of him getting beaten and mocked? No.

Not only does it contain his made up stories but it says nothing about his real life history. It says nothing about his parents and who they were.

So Poland, no, the bible does not contain anything about ahnsahnghong. It's ok, I understand that you refuse to acknowledge his real life history, you would rather listen to made up stories about him climbing up mountains wailing and crying because he's trying to find his lost sheep.

All of those stories about howmuch he "sacrificed" yet he paid no attention to his own wife and kids, who does not believe him to be a god either, but I guess that too is "a part of prophecy".

Talk about dead beat dad.

Anyway, I tired of coming here. If you need to ask me something, go to the cult-watch message and address me there. If I have the time, I will respond.

Thanks.

I guess its hard for any of you to acknowledge the fact that I believe all Chistians looking for the truth and going hand in hand together to heaven is excatly what God wanted! He didnt want bickering and arguing I know that for a fact. By the way.. I did happend to come across this website by google searching for Church of God. I found it interesting what Jamie posted on the top of the web-site so I read on. I dont know if they CoG is the real church or just some sick twisted mind washing manipulative organization that is all about financial profit. I have no clue and I am not here to judge.. Thats Fathers job when he comes on Judgement Day. What I do know is that this "cult" shows a great deal of love in their website.

By: Looking4Truth on
June 7, 2008
at 11:38 am

Reply

When I read the verses and the "SERMONS" I omit some things that I find distorting.

I had a similar conversation with a friend of mine that said to me..

I cant believe that Jesus came a second time.. Why didnt we ALL know? Why just them?

I found that to be fascination... Arent we all supposed to know? How and why can only a selected few know?

Its questions I ask myself. What Lizzie posted about it has been given to them but not to us sound rather selfish of God and I doubt he is selfish...

He is known to be a GENEROUS God!

The reason I say I am not of any denomination is because I dont see why attending a church could make me his "CHOSEN". Thats kind of hypocritical to say. I go to church one day of the week, when I act as a CHILD of God, but the other 6 days I roam the earth, not once thinking of my churchly duties! I prefer to say I believe in Christ our Lord and I believe I will go to heaven as long as I aim for that.

I too would like to see proof of this Ahnsahnghong in the bible and why cant anyone answer the Mother questions...

I never knew she had a hearing aid (now thats fascinating) Why would God need a hearing aid???

They have avoided many of those questions.

I am particularly interested in seeing the response to those.

I did know that Mother is a married woman. Not to ASH though. I believe that they both have children of their own, he with his marriage.

Why is it that no one has answered or replied to the IRS fraud?

Why are they keeping all that undercovers. Maybe its because they arent informed of it and they just dont plainly know. They do resond with the bible and say its not of God so its not important. I think they should know everything about their leaders. I am not going to completely devote my life and follow someone I dont know.

The apostles followed Jesus because they knew EVERYTHING about him. I can stop 300 people and ask them of Ahnsahnghong and only about 50 will know who he is.

Its kind of hard to swallow that a Korean man who theyve never heard of is the Second Coming Christ. I cant recall right now where it is but doesnt state that he will come in a cloud and EVERYONE will know that he has come? Thats why these believers are called Cults.

I believe in Jesus Christ. I believe he will come a second time (whether he uses the name Jesus or not) and I believe the world will know of his coming. I also believe that those who havent committed grievous sins will be able to go to heaven.

We are all working for our salvation. Thats the hope of mankind. I am here to help those be saved thru our Lord & Savior

1 Corinthians 9

19Though I am free and belong to no man, I make myself a slave to everyone, to win as many as possible.

20To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law), so as to win those under the law. 21To those not having the law I became like one not having the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law), so as to win those not having the law.

I am free just as Paul proclaimed. I am under Christ's law only!

I want to help everyone, regardless of their religious belief. We all can be under Christ's Law if we believe!

L4T

I wanted to get this straight out to those that are enquiring to know:

First off, I don't understand why you want to know about her when you think she is a CULT LEADER and she is heretic because she claims to be God. When we ask our church about our Mother Jerusalem, because we all want to know more about her when we find out she is Christ dwelling on earth. They tell us her birthday, but I personally forgot. I asked my pastor if she was married or not. The truth is she was married and not with Father Ahnsahnghong. They both have families of their own. The reason she came about was because he ESTABLISHED her to fulfill prophecy. He took a picture of her in a traditional wedding dress and in a traditional wedding stance with him to fulfill prophecy. Then he told General Pastor to save that picture that one day he will need. General Pastor has never questioned Father and did as he was told. When it came to that day the people knew he was the 2nd coming Christ his wife claimed she was THE BRIDE. That's when General Pastor pulled out the picture.

That's how our Mother came to be! I just wanted to get that out of the way.

We know his birthday year to be 1918 and that too was to fulfill prophecy about baptized at 30 years old, it had to be when Israel achieved independence after many years of not even existing. He fulfilled the fig tree prophecy.

I know what cults are and we don't fall under any cult category. But it doesn't matter because Jesus himself was considered a cult 2000 years ago. The reason they categorized him a cult is because people feel threatened when there is a change of ways. Now he is OUR SAVIOR. Hmm could it be that we are repeating it again?

At least we aren't the Jim Jones Jonestown cult. We aren't beat in public. We aren't told to commit suicide. We aren't help prisoners. That's why there are many ex COG members.. They are free to come and go.

The COG doesn't promote violence just love AND LOTS OF IT, and that's why we have advanced to the whole world. There's even a COG in communist countries. All we do is God's will! We spread the love of God to the whole world. That's the true way to love one another. Life is the most important thing and we all strive to prolong our life span. So when we preach the word of God to bring salvation and ETERNAL LIFE with the Passover we are LOVING ONE ANOTHER. How did Jesus love us? He came to preach.

Mark 1:38

Jesus replied, "Let us go somewhere else—to the nearby

By: Lizzie on June 7, 2008 at 2:27 pm

Reply

villages—so I can preach there also. That is why I have come."

Apostle Paul lived for preaching. That was his life, right now he is in heaven with our Father. Why if we do as Paul who only followed Christ you persecute us verbally?

1 Corinthians 11:1

Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ.

I guess once again we are being part of a prophecy

Mark 13:13

All men will hate you because of me, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved.

John 15:18

"If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first.

John 15:23

He who hates me hates my Father as well.

John 15:25

But this is to fulfill what is written in their Law: 'They hated me without reason.'

By: Lizzie on June 7, 2008 at 2:30 pm

Reply

Sister Lizzie, they really can't see that Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother are testified in the Bible as the Spirit and the Bride.

By: Poland on June 7, 2008 at 8:27 pm

John 5:39-42 – 39You diligently study[c] the Scriptures because you think that by them you possess eternal life. These are the Scriptures that testify about me, 40yet you refuse to come to me to have life.

Reply

41"I do not accept praise from men, 42but I know you. I know that you do not have the love of God in your hearts.

God does not accept praises from men. What then is the true love in God?

Matthew 12:46-50 [While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him. Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."]

Clearly, those who do the will of God are Jesus brothers and sisters. So if we follow God's commandments, we are doing the will of God and we are showing that we love Him according to the Bible. So many people I have met tell me the only thing they have to do to receive salvation is to Love God and Confess his name. But.... do you know what kind of Love God expects from you? Have you checked through the Bible what is the definition of Love in the eyes of God. It is written:

1 John 3:18-Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth.

Then what kind of action does God want from us?

1 John 2:3-We know that we have come to know him if we obey his commands. The man who says, "I know him," but does not do what he commands is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But if anyone obeys his word, God's love is truly made complete in him. This is how we know we are in him: Whoever claims to live in him must walk as Jesus did.

1 John 5: 2- This is how we know that we love the children of God: by loving God and carrying out his commands. This is love for God: to obey his commands. And his commands are not burdensome

2 John 1:6- And this is love: that we walk in obedience to his commands.

John 14:15- If you love me, you will obey what I command.

Deuteronomy 5:10-... but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Deuteronomy 11:1- Love the LORD your God and keep his requirements, his decrees, his laws and his commands always.

John 14:21-21- Whoever has my commands and obeys them, he is the one who loves me. He who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love him and show myself to him."

John 15:10- If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father's commands and remain in his love.

Why does God continue to say to obey his commands?!! He says Love= Obey commands. If we say we Love God, yet we dont obey his commands God says we are liars in His eyes!!!

Very simple....

If we Love God= Obey His commands.

If we dont Love God= Dont obey commands.

Then check yourselves... are you keeping the Biblical Sabbath Holy as God commanded? are you keeping the Passover as God commanded? are you keeping the feast of God as He commanded? are you truly walking in obedience to His commands?! Please give careful thought to your actions. Dont just say I love you God, but show Him you love Him through your actions. Your God says to please obey his commands so that you can receive salvation. If we obey, we will be greatly blessed!

Unfortunately for Ted, Dark Angel, COGinator and their followers, they do not love God since for them it's okay to keep Sunday Worship, Christmas as Jesus Birthday, Holy Communion and the rest of the tradition of men that they think it's the commandments of God.

Dark Angel said "Anyway, I tired of coming here. If you need to ask me something, go to the cult-watch message and address me there. If I have the time, I will respond."

By: Poland on June 7, 2008
at 9:28 pm

Reply

Finally you realize that all of your testimony against the Church of God, Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother are all based on human standards and you haven't prove it through the Bible. I can keep referring to the Bible that Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Second Coming Christ because He fulfill the prophecies in the Bible. Your like the Jews 2000 years ago who couldn't see what the Bible is testifying that Jesus is the Son of Man. For the Jews Jesus is just a mere carpenter, a son of Joseph. I pity you Dark Angel.

Anyway, in preaching Christ, we often experience the same things as the Early Church did. Let's find out how the apostles of the Early Church preached Christ who came in the flesh and how the religious leaders in those days opposed them. Also, let's see who can enter the kingdom of heaven and who are to go down into hell.

The man Christ Jesus

1 Ti 2:4-5 who wants all men to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth. For there is one God and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,

Paul emphasized that Jesus was the man in his letters to Timothy; he used the word "man" before Christ, saying, "For there is one God and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus."

In those days, almost all the religious leaders expected God to work in the spirit, not in the flesh, when He did His ministry as the Son in this earth. By having such a wrong expectation, they fell into the error of regarding Almighty God as the one incapable of having flesh and blood like men; and as the result of their thought, they rejected and persecuted Jesus and they also persecuted many Christians who believed Him in the Early Church. However, the apostles who were sincere in their faith confidently testified that every spirit denying that Christ came as a human being is the spirit of the antichrist from the devil.

1 Jn 4:2-3 This is how you can recognize the Spirit of God: Every spirit that acknowledges that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, but every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, ...

The saints and apostles in the Early Church believed that it was natural for Christ to appear as a human being when He came into this earth. On the contrary, the religious leaders reproached and opposed them, saying it was impossible for Him to come in the flesh.

Seeing how the situations were in the Early Church, let's consider why the apostles said the following words:

Jn 1:1-14 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ... The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word [God] came into this earth in the flesh and used the name Jesus; He preached the things of heaven to all men and testified to the truth by which they could be forgiven and saved, so that people with a sincere faith believed that Jesus was the very God and followed Him.

Php 2:5-6 Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, ...

Paul, who is acknowledged as the apostle of apostles, believed firmly that Jesus is God. Likewise, the Apostle John testified that Jesus is God the Word of the beginning.

Paul and John the Apostles viewed Jesus in a spiritual eye, and they realized and believed that Jesus was in the very nature of God. They are representatives of the Early Church as examples of faith for us; they are now respected by all Christians. How were they in their times? They followed Jesus who was not esteemed at all in those days. Now almost all the people consider Jesus as God; but at that time, people regarded Him merely as a carpenter's son. However, those two apostles were different from the people in their faith.

The Apostle Paul testified that Jesus is God who created all things, in his letters to the saints at Colosse.

Col 1:15-16 He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For by him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him.

While people were mocking and saying, "How could God come as a man?" the Apostle Paul believed Jesus to be God the Creator and followed Him.

Through all ages, there are always followers of the truth and its opposers as well. When people blasphemed Jesus Christ and the truth, afflicting and persecuting its followers, the apostles like Paul and John constantly testified that He is the very God.

People didn't realize Jesus' divine nature in the Apostolic Age

All the religious leaders such as the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, who had ecclesiastical authority in those days, turned their faces from Jesus and rejected Him. However, the apostles believed and received Him, saying, "By him all things were created," "He is the image of the invisible God," "He is in very nature God," or "He is God over all, forever praised!" Those days' situation was totally different from today's; it was much harder to have faith in Jesus at that time. About 2,000 years ago, Jesus, like a tender shoot, had no beauty to attract people to Him, nothing in His appearance that they should desire Him; when He preached the gospel, it appeared to be a pseudo-religion in the eyes of religious leaders. Until that time, animals had been used in all ceremonies for sacrificing to God; people offered sacrifices to God with the blood of animals in worship. So when Jesus said, 'There is no need of the blood of animals any more since I've come,' there was a great difference between Jesus' teaching and their ceremonies of sacrifice. That was why they regarded Jesus as a heretic. Since they didn't recognize that Jesus is the Christ, they blasphemed God and obstructed His work of salvation in this earth; they even cursed God, falsely saying all kinds of evil against Him.

Jn 10:30-33 "I and the Father are one." Again the Jews picked up stones to stone him, but Jesus said to them, "I have shown you many great miracles from the Father. For which of these do you stone me?" "We are not stoning you for any of these," replied the Jews, "but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man, claim to be God."

Those days' religious leaders opposed Christ, saying that He was a mere man but made Himself God. The apostles, however, recognized Christ: The Apostle Paul testified that He is in very nature God, and the Apostle John testified that He is God the Word who already existed in the beginning.

Their thoughts were quite different from those of the religious leaders who already acquired ecclesiastical authority; they thought that God was to come in the radiance of His glory, not in the same manner as men's. Contrary to their expectation, however, God came as a human being; and He preached, saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near," and warned against their wicked deeds. At this they became indignant, and rejected Him. They regarded Jesus only as a man, while the apostles recognized Him as the very God.

It is the same now. Through the history of the Early Church, we can see it is prophetically described that Christ coming in the flesh is to arouse people's resistances in this age, too. Let's see how Jesus was unjustly accused, when He came into this earth in the flesh and preached the gospel and told people to believe in His name 2,000 years ago.

Jesus Christ was called a "Nazarene"

Ac 24:1-16 Five days later the high priest Ananias went down to Cae-sarea with some of the elders and a lawyer named Tertullus, and they brought their charges against Paul before the governor. ... "We have found this man to be a troublemaker, stirring up riots among the Jews all over the world. He is a ringleader of the Nazarene sect and even tried to desecrate the temple; so we seized him. By examining him yourself you will be able to learn the truth about all these charges we are bringing against him." ... When the governor motioned for him to speak, Paul replied: ... "My accusers did not find me arguing with anyone at the temple, or stirring up a crowd in the synagogues or anywhere else in the city. And they cannot prove to you the charges they are now making against me. However, I admit that I worship the God of our fathers as a follower of the Way, which they call a sect. I believe everything that agrees with the Law and that is written in the Prophets, and I have the same hope in God as these men, that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked. So I strive always to keep my conscience clear before God and man."

There was no charge against Paul, but they accused him just because he taught different doctrines from theirs; Paul was accused of believing in God, not of committing a crime.

In those days, the gospel of Jesus Christ already spread all over Jeru-salem and other regions. However, at that time people didn't recognize Jesus to be in very nature God, and they charged Him unjustly with her-esy—'the Nazarene sect.' The religious leaders also brought the Apostle Paul into governor's court by reason that he believed Jesus as God. It was natural for the two groups to be opposed to each other; for one group taught that Jesus is the very God, and the other objected to it, saying, "How can you say that Jesus, a mere man, is God?"

Spiritually, the antagonism between the two can be explained as the enmity between God and Satan. When Paul was taken to court, he asked them what crime they found in him. Actually, they found no basis for a charge against him. For he just preached that Jesus Christ is God and He rose from the dead and so whoever believes in Him would not taste death but be resurrected.

Disputing with them, he said that he followed the way which they called a sect (heresy, KJV). The way was not really heresy, was it? Let's see what Jesus said about those who called Him the Nazarene.

Mt 23:13-15 "Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the kingdom of heaven in men's faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to. Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You travel over land and sea to win a single convert, and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of hell as you are."

Jesus said to the religious leaders esteemed in those days, "Woe [Curse] to you." He said that they shut the kingdom of heaven in men's faces, for they hindered people from entering the kingdom by any means, saying, 'How can Jesus, a mere man, be God? He was unlearned.' With such evil speakings, they constantly tried to hinder people from having faith in Christ. They kept the people from recognizing God who came into this earth and made them take the lead in opposing God and do more evil than before. So the Bible says that they make each of them twice as much a son of hell as they are. They can never enter the kingdom of heaven. Ananias, Tertullus, false elders and all the Jews who stood by them ... Where are they now? They are tormented in hell; the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever.

A new religion preaching Jesus

The Bible says that Christ will appear a second time to those who are waiting for Him (Heb 9:28). All the 66 books of the Bible testify to Christ's second coming. However the religious leaders, who have already obtained ecclesiastical authority, would not receive Christ.

So concerning those people, Jesus said, 'You shut the kingdom of heaven in men's faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to. You make them twice as much a son of hell as you are.' There arose lots of arguments between gospel preachers and existing religious leaders.

Ac 5:26-28 At that, the captain went with his officers and brought the apostles. They did not use force, because they feared that the people would stone them. Having brought the apostles, they made them appear before the Sanhedrin to be questioned by the high priest. "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name," he said. "Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and are determined to make us guilty of this man's blood."

The apostles proclaimed, "Jesus is God," and the gospel was regarded as a new religion which the Jews had never heard before. This caused a great argument among them.

To the people who detested the corruption of the religious leaders in those days, the gospel of Christ was a refreshing rain and the water of life appeasing their thirst. The number of believers grew to about three thousand or five thousand a day.

Ac 4:2-21 They were greatly disturbed because the apostles were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection of the dead. They seized Peter and John, and because it was evening, they put them in jail until the next day. But many who heard the message believed, and the number of men grew to about five thousand. ... "What are we going to do with these men?" they asked. "Everybody living in Jerusalem knows they have done an outstanding miracle, and we cannot deny it. But to stop this thing from spreading any further among the people, we must warn these men to speak no longer to anyone in this name." Then they called them in again and commanded them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus. But Peter and John replied, "Judge for yourselves whether it is right in God's sight to obey you rather than God. For we cannot help speaking about what we have seen and heard." After further threats they let them go. They could not decide how to punish them, ...

In a day, about five thousand men repented and received Jesus as the Savior. When the religious leaders saw such a great thing happen, they were greatly astonished. They were afraid of losing their authority over religion; it was of secondary importance to them whether they had a sincere faith in God or not. They made all efforts to stop the apostles; they arrested and threatened and warned them, having them flogged and putting them in the public jail. Despite all that, the number of believers increased all the more. The apostles had longed for the truth and waited for the kingdom of God; they were not dispirited at all, even though many falsely incriminated them, spreading vicious rumors. The gospel spread to Samaria and to the ends of the earth. The world couldn't stop the work of God.

The gospel prospered even in tribulation and persecution

In the days of Nehemiah, Sanballat and Tobiah took the lead in hindering the Israelites from building the temple. They scorned and ridiculed them, saying, "If even a fox climbed up on it, he would break down their wall of stones!" Thus, they brought so many troubles on Israel. Despite such hindrances, all the officials and leaders of the Jews continued building the temple, being one in mind; half of them did the work and half stood guard, holding spears and shields (Ne 4:1-23).

At last they finished building the temple. When all their enemies heard this, they were afraid and lost heart, because they realized that the work had been done with God's help (Ne 6:15-16).

Even in persecution and affliction, the apostles were burning all the more with a sure faith in Christ. Where are they now? They are comforted by God in the eternal kingdom of heaven. Where is the Apostle Paul who proclaimed that Jesus is God? He is at rest forever in the glorious kingdom which no one has ever seen or heard or thought.

How about the high priests and religious leaders who brought a false charge of 'a ringleader of the Nazarene sect' against Paul and afflicted him? Where are they now?

Promise of victory through great fight

If many religions had hope for heaven, they would not be conformed to this world but pursue the truth of the Bible. But they do not follow it, just like the religious leaders in the time of the Early Church.

The 144,000, spiritually represented as materials for the temple, repent and receive the Christ, seeing the light of the Spirit and the Bride and hearing Their voices. All unreasonable things that happened in the Early Church are occurring in this age, too, according to the prophecies. However, even under such circumstances, we are not disheartened; for God gives courage and comfort to us, who will enter the kingdom of heaven. The Bible says:

Rev 12:17 Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring—those who obey God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus. And the dragon stood on the shore of the sea [the sand of the sea, KJV].

The sand of the sea represents human society, which the dragon dominates; he is standing on it to fight against the rest of her offspring. The spiritual fight is to be made. However, the Bible says that mighty is God who wins a victory over the dragon. The Apostle John saw how the spiritual war would start and how it would come to an end. Eventually, the devil will be thrown into the lake of burning sulfur.

Worthy life and the way of faith

Life is too short. We can't even live to be a hundred.

Ps 90:10 The length of our days is seventy years—or eighty, if we have the strength; yet their span is but trouble and sorrow, for they quickly pass, and we fly away.

Then, how should we live such a short life? We should live right before God. Though we are hindered and troubled by our enemy the devil, though the truth is maligned, we should follow the truth.

We must keep the faith to the end, as did our forefathers of faith and the apostles such as Paul, Peter and John. Like them, we too shall live happily forever, together with God and thousands upon thousands of angels in the glorious kingdom.

In the days of the Early Church, when the apostles were filled with the Holy Spirit and wrote the Bible, they put the word 'the man' before 'Jesus' and said, "Every spirit that does not acknowledge that Christ has come in the flesh is the spirit of the antichrist." This shows how much people mocked and hindered them, saying that Jesus is merely a man. Considering how the apostles were in those days, let's trust in the name of God the Holy Spirit—the Savior of this age—and proclaim the name to the whole world, as the heavenly children who will enter the everlasting kingdom.

Ted and your followers, keep them coming. I hope that you guys will see Bible's truth that Christ Ahnsahnghong showed us.

Poland said, "Finally you realize that all of your testimony against the Church of God, Christ Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother are all based on human standards and you haven't prove it through the Bible. I can keep referring to the Bible that Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Second Coming Christ because He fulfill the prophecies in the Bible. Your like the Jews 2000 years ago who couldn't see what the Bible is testifying that Jesus is the Son of Man. For the Jews Jesus is just a mere carpenter, a son of Joseph. I pity you Dark Angel."

By: Dark Angel on
June 7, 2008
at 10:40 pm

Reply

Poland, if you want me to respond to your comments, please address me on the cult-watch message board. The text on this blog is just too small for my eyes.

Lastly, you personally, have not proven anything nor has any other COG member.

Again, if you want to address me, go to the cult-watch message board. Stop leaving antagonizing comments here to lure me back into posting on this blog.

Thanks.

Dark Angel said "Poland, if you want me to respond to your comments, please address me on the cult-watch message board. The text on this blog is just too small for my eyes.

By: Poland on June 7, 2008
at 10:55 pm

Reply

Lastly, you personally, have not proven anything nor has any other COG member.

Again, if you want to address me, go to the cult-watch message board. Stop leaving antagonizing comments here to lure me back into posting on this blog."

The reason you don't see the truth in the Bible is because you keep closing your ears on what is really testified in the Bible.

Revelations 2:16-17 – Repent therefore! Otherwise, I will soon come to you and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth. He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden manna. I will also give him a white stone with a new name written on it, known only to him who receives it.

Dark Angel, you clearly don't know what the Bible testifies. The white stone represents Jesus with the new name which is Ahnsahnghong. The reason you don't understand is because you haven't receive Christ Ahnsahnghong as Jesus in a new name. Poor Dark Angel. Keep them coming.

Also, do not think that I am avoiding your comments.

By: Dark Angel on June 7, 2008
at 10:58 pm

Here's the link to the message board so that you won't try to repsond to my post "behind my back" when I'm giving you the opportunity to address me on a different platform where the words are not congested.

Reply

This is an invite and I hope to see you there, Poland.

Link to cult-watch message board

<http://ahnsahnghong.proboards102.com/index.cgi#general>

I hope that i've made myself clear enough for you. I don't leave vague comments and mysteries for people to solve. I get to the point.

Thanks.

It is the duty of children to obey their parents.
Likewise, the fundamental duty of man is to know God and obey His commands. All people ought to recognize God who's come into the world as the true light. However, it is not easy for them to recognize Him because the devil, called the "god of this world," has blinded their minds, so that they cannot see the light of the glory of Christ (2 Co 4:4).

By: Poland on June 7, 2008

at 11:00 pm

Reply

Hos 6:1-3, NASB ...So let us know, let us press on to know the LORD. His going forth is as certain as the dawn; And He will come to us like the rain, Like the spring rain watering the earth.

Here God tells us that the knowledge of God is the condition of receiving the Holy Spirit of the latter rain. We should have correct knowledge of God, so that we may be fully armed with the Holy Spirit to fulfill the prophecy that the least of us will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation. So the Bible advises us to press on to know God and build our faith firmly on the rock.

God of male image and God of female image

In the process of knowing God, let us find out that God has both genders.

Ge 1:26-27 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground." So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

We call our Creator "God Most High," and we think He is one. However, in Genesis we can see that the plural Gods made all creatures, including man, saying, "Let us make man"

If an artist draws a male model, a portrait of a man will be painted; and if he draws a female model, a portrait of a woman will be painted. God our Creator made man in His own image, and male and female were created. This indicates that there are both male and female images in God.

Until now most Bible scholars have characterized God only as male, calling Him 'Father.' They've not spoken of God as female. The Bible characterized God as both male and female, but it was contrary to their custom and doctrine. So they have regarded it as a heresy to believe that there is Mother God as well as Father God and intentionally ignored it.

However, surely there is a time for the truth to be revealed. Remember that God mentioned it as a condition for receiving the Holy Spirit to press on to know Him. Everyone in the world does know the God who divided the Red Sea. Even non-Christians know the God who created Adam and Eve, the God who made all things in six days.

What should we press on to know about God then? It is that there exists a female God as the Mother as well as a male God as the Father. When we understand this correctly, we can have full understanding of all the principles of life and wisdom described in the 66 books of the Bible.

Adam and Eve were created in God's image. At first God made Adam and then He decided to create a helper for him. He caused Adam to fall into a deep sleep and made Eve from one of his ribs (Genesis 2).

Why did Adam need his helper, Eve? Man cannot give birth to children and breastfeed them. God entrusted such things to woman when He created human beings. When God created Adam and Eve, each of them had a duty. Adam was a pattern of the one to come (Ro 5:14). Thus his wife, Eve, represents the wife of the Lamb, the Christ to come a second time. Such a great truth is hidden in Genesis.

We need to understand what the ministry of the male God is and what the ministry of the female God is. This is the start point for our knowledge of God.

Giving life is the role of Mother

Let's add to the knowledge of God through His providence of creating man in His own image.

Ge 2:4-24 ... the LORD God formed the man from the dust of the ground and breathed his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being. ... But for Adam no suitable helper was found. So the LORD caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man's ribs and closed up the place with flesh. The LORD God made a woman from the rib he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man. The man said, "This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called 'woman,' for she was taken out of man." For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh.

Ge 3:20 Adam named his wife Eve (which means life), because she would become the mother of all the living.

Through this providence described in Genesis, we can understand that Adam is a type of Christ, Eve represents His wife and all mankind living on earth represent Their children: Abel symbolizes those who will be saved and Cain those who will not be saved.

The history of mankind controlled by Gods [Elohim]

Let's see the Gods work together, saying, "Let us"

Ge 11:1-9 Now the whole world had one language and a common speech. As men moved eastward, they found a plain in Shinar and settled there. ... Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, with a tower that reaches to the heavens, so that we may make a name for ourselves and not be scattered over the face of the whole earth." But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the men were building. The LORD said, "... Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other." So the LORD scattered them from there over all the earth, and they stopped building the city. That is why it was called Babel—because there the LORD confused the language of the whole world. From there the LORD scattered them over the face of the whole earth.

In Genesis 1 God made male and female, saying, "Let us make man" In Genesis 11, we see the Gods working together, saying, "Let us ..."; we find the male and female Gods breaking the pride of men and stopping them from doing their evil work.

Isa 6:7-10 ... Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I. Send me!" ...

In the book of Isaiah God said, "Who will go for us?" not saying, "Who will go for me?" Here we can also understand that both God the Father and God the Mother work together and lead the gospel work for our salvation. In many Biblical verses we see God working together, saying, "Let us" In the Hebrew text, the word for God in the singular sense is El or Eloha and its plural form Elohim means Gods.

Elohim [Gods] created all things, including mankind, saying, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness." From the beginning God the Father and Mother have been working together; They worked together to break the pride of men by stopping them from building the Tower of Babel, saying, "Let us go down ...," and They also worked together on calling the prophet Isaiah, saying, "Who will go for us?" Thus, Elohim, God the Father and God the Mother, worked together.

God is to appear as the Spirit and the Bride in due time

Now, let's find out when Elohim, existing in spirit, appears in the flesh. The Elohim Gods worked together in the beginning of Creation, and will be together to complete the Creation.

1 Ti 6:15-16 which God will bring about in his own time—God, the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and Lord of lords, who alone is immortal and who lives in unapproachable light, whom no one has seen or can see. To him be honor and might forever. Amen.

The Bible says that God will show us His appearing in due time. If He reveals Himself visible to our eyes, it means He will come in the flesh. In the likeness of men, in the likeness of male and female, God is prophesied to come to this earth, being made a little lower than the angels. However He is the very God who has been working out a 6,000 year plan of salvation since Adam. There is the Savior's name for each age, but the name of God as female does not appear. For God the Father stands as a representative, just as only a father's name appears on a doorplate in the home though there is a mother.

In the book of Romans it is described that through one man, Adam, sin entered the world. Actually, it was Eve who sinned first, but only Adam's name was representatively mentioned. It is the same with the Savior's name for each age; only the name of God the Father has been representatively used.

Only God can give us life, for He alone has immortality. Let's see how God the only eternal Being will appear in due time.

Rev 22:17 The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" Whoever is thirsty, let him come; and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life.

Here we can see that God has appeared as the Spirit and the Bride in due time to give us the water of life.

Rev 19:6-8 Then I heard what sounded like a great multitude, like the roar of rushing waters and like loud peals of thunder, shouting: "Hallelujah! For our Lord God Almighty reigns. Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready. Fine linen, bright and clean, was given her to wear." (Fine linen stands for the righteous acts of the saints.)

Rev 21:9-10 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jeru-salem, coming down out of heaven from God.

The Lamb and His Wife are God the Father and God the Mother, who have appeared in due time. Our Father and Mother have appeared to give Their children life in the last days.

The book titled "The Mystery of God and the Spring of the Water of Life" (Chapter 24) describes that the Spirit and the Bride will appear and lead the Gentiles to be saved. God prophesied that He would show His appearing, and the prophecy has been fulfilled. God alone is the one who gives us life, and the Spirit and the Bride now give us the water of life. They are the very God who has appeared to us.

The serpent [the devil] is the enemy of the woman [Mother]

The Bible tells us that there is an enemy who tries to hinder us from acknowledging this truth of Elohim—God the Father and God the Mother, so that we cannot receive the blessing of eternal life. The enemy is the devil who tries to lead us into the way of death by preventing us from knowing God who gives us the water of life.

Ge 3:14-15 So the LORD God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, Cursed are you above all the livestock and all the wild animals! You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life. And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel."

This prophecy was partially fulfilled through Jesus at His first coming. The devil is our enemy because he has become the enemy of Elohim—especially God our Mother.

The serpent [the devil] is a perpetual enemy of the woman. The woman, our Mother, leads us into life, but the serpent [the devil] tries to lead us into death. From the beginning there was enmity between them, and to the very end of the age the enmity will continue. He constantly hinders the truth about Mother through various tricks. To prevent us from knowing Mother who gives us life, he denies the Biblical records of Elohim working together by every tricky word and scheme. Thus, he tries his utmost to swallow our souls and lead us into death.

The more the devil hinders us, the more we should be alert and self-controlled, so that we may resist the devil with the correct knowledge of God.

The new covenant reveals God the Mother

Through the new covenant we can reach full knowledge of God. The Bible says that the law has become our tutor to lead us to Christ (Gal 3:24). So, let us come near to Elohim [Gods] through the new covenant.

Jer 31:21-22 ...The LORD will create a new thing on earth—a woman will surround a man.

Jer 31:31-34 "The time is coming," declares the LORD, "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. ..." "This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time," declares the LORD. I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest," declares the LORD. "For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more."

Jeremiah 31:22 states that a new thing is a woman's surrounding a man. And in the verse 31, the new thing is described as the making of a new covenant.

When physically interpreted, a woman's surrounding man is not a new thing at all. But considering spiritually, we can see that it has a very profound meaning. The woman [Eve] was a part of the man [Adam], for she was formed from his rib. If God had not taken a rib from the man and made the woman of it, how would the woman, residing within the man, surround him? So the new thing God prophesied means an unprecedented thing—the appearing of Mother who has resided within God the Father.

The new thing is to be created in the world by God's making the new covenant. God said that through the new covenant He would write His law on our hearts. He added, "I will be their God, and they will be my people. No longer will a man teach ..., saying, 'Know the LORD,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest."

"I will be their God" Here God is called "Elohim" in the original Hebrew text. When we realize Elohim [Gods] through the new covenant, we will all know God, from the least of us to the greatest, just as God said.

In the book of Galatians we see that Sarah represents the new covenant and our Mother.

Gal 4:21-26 These things may be taken figuratively, for the women represent two covenant. ... Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our Mother.

Thus, Sarah represents the new covenant and our Mother, the Jerusalem above. Through the new covenant we've found the existence of our Mother. Hosea says, "Let us know, let us press on to know the LORD." We have fulfilled this word by knowing Elohim—God the Father and God the Mother—through the new covenant, so that we can all know God, from the least of us to the greatest.

The offspring of the woman wins in the end

Even God's chosen people, if they have no knowledge of God, are destroyed (Hos 4:6). Knowing this, the devil tries to hinder the truth about Mother and swallow up even the elect as the enemy of the Mother until the end of the age. John saw the revelation that the dragon, the enemy of the woman, stood on the shore of the sea to make war against the rest of her offspring. And this prophecy is now being fulfilled before our very eyes: The dragon, the ancient serpent called the devil, is mobilizing numerous people like the sand on the seashore, so-called Christians, to oppose Mother and us who follow Her (Rev 12:17).

We are inferior in numbers. However, we don't need to be afraid of them at all, for God has assured our Mother's victory from the beginning. The Bible describes the final destiny of the devil and the offspring of the woman as follows: The devil will be tormented in the lake of unquenchable fire, and the offspring of the woman will receive the crown of life as an 'overcomer' and enjoy the heavenly inheritance for ever and ever.

It was Elohim who created man, saying, "Let us make man in our image," punished men for their evil work of building the Tower of Babel, saying, "Let us go down ...," and called Isaiah to be a prophet, saying, "Who will go for us?" Thus, the Elohim Gods, both male and female, worked together. They have appeared as the Spirit and the Bride in due time—in the last days—according to the promise, in order to give us life. We now live under the rule of the Elohim Gods and give Them glory, rejoicing and being glad.

Now, let's open our spiritual eyes wide. Our Mother, the heavenly Jerusalem, has come to this earth to give us eternal life. As Her children, we should rejoice with Her and mourn over Her (Isa 66:10-14). As the children of the heavenly Parents, who rule and lead us, we shall follow the Spirit and the Bride wherever They go.

Ted and your followers, keep them coming.

Dark Angel, why are you scared to talk here?
This is a neutral arena for us. I'd like you to keep posting your dirt on Church of God based

By: Poland on June 7, 2008
at 11:07 pm

on "HUMAN STANDARDS" which has nothing to do with the Bible. KEEP THEM COMING.

Reply

To Poland and any other COG member,

If you want to address me personally, go to the cult-watch message board or you can go to the Brendoman message board. It doesn't matter.

By: Dark Angel on
June 7, 2008
at 11:11 pm

Reply

<http://ahnsahnghong.proboards102.com/index.cgi#general>

OR you can invite me to the proclaim ahnsahnghong message board, I would rather go there and post but COG members are only allowed.

That's just too bad.

<http://ahnsahnghong.proboards102.com/index.cgi#general>

I'll be waiting. Until then, stop addressing because you will NOT get a response again after this.

Comprende?!

Not sure if this went through or not but i'll try again...

By: Dark Angel on
June 7, 2008
at 11:20 pm

To Poland and any other COG member,

Reply

If you want to address me personally, go to the cult-watch message board or you can go to the Brendoman message board. It doesn't matter.

OR you can invite me to the proclaim ahnsahnghong message board, I would rather go there and post but COG members are only allowed.

That's just too bad.

I'll be waiting. Until then, stop addressing because you will NOT get a response again after this.

Comprende?!

Also, Poland. any "dirt" I post are from the words of other COG members. You all should share the same way of thinking and not contradict one another.

How is this a "neutral area"? The same people who are posting here, are the same people who are posting on the cult-watch site, which includes:

Me, COGinator, Ted and sometimes Jaime. Everyone else gives their room for the COG to post whatever they want.

Just cut it out, Poland. I see what you are doing here.

I've already told you how you can reach me.

Again, I hope to see you there...

Dark Angel said "Also, Poland. any "dirt" I post are from the words of other COG members. You all should share the same way of thinking and not contradict one another."

By: Poland on June 7, 2008
at 11:29 pm

Reply

Clearly, your just blind to find the truth in the Bible. Now, the gospel is being preached to the whole world—from the east to the west. God's work will be swiftly accomplished in His due time. As the time is near, Satan is slandering us more fiercely. We, God's people, may suffer more trials, hardships, persecution and temptation than we have ever suffered before. Through the Bible, let's see how Satan slanders the truth of God and how God overcomes him after all (Rev 18), so that we may also overcome, standing firm in faith with joy.

The Bible prophesies that God will overcome the hindrance of Satan and defeat him in the end. However, in the process of overcoming there are continually lots of critical moments. You and I, who live in this end time, should do our best to run the race of faith, having strong confidence, until the moment when the door of the kingdom of heaven is opened.

God said, "Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life." Holding on to this hopeful promise, let's overcome the devil's hindrances in reliance on God.

Christ's apostles and deceitful workmen

Today, there are innumerable churches in the world. Apparently they seem to be established to serve God; they put up crosses and cry to the people, 'Come to our church to hear the gospel of Christ.' Through God's teachings in the Bible, however, we require to see whether or not they follow God's will—whether they base their teachings and deeds on the Bible or not. Since the creation of the world, the devil our enemy has been trying to deceive all people, even God's people, if possible, by any means. Now, let's see how the devil hinders God's children to make them give up their faith.

2 Co 11:13-15 For such men are false apostles, deceitful workmen, masquerading as apostles of Christ. And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. It is not surprising, then, if his servants masquerades as servants of righteousness. Their end will be what their actions deserve.

The Bible says that it is no great thing if Satan's servants disguise themselves to look like servants of righteousness. When Satan and his servants approach us, disguising themselves as angels of light and servants of righteousness, we should discern whether their teachings and deeds are true or false. It is very important.

Then, why do Satan's servants masquerade as servants of righteousness? They do that for the only one purpose of leading people, even God's chosen ones, to hell by deceiving them. If they disclosed their identity as Satan's, no one would believe them. To make themselves look like servants of righteousness, they frequently use these words—"We love God," "We should love our neighbors," "We follow the teachings of Christ." Let's see what Jesus said concerning their leading the souls to death by disguising themselves as servants of righteousness.

Mt 23:13 "Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the kingdom of heaven in men's faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to."

Satan's servants, masquerading as servants of righteousness, shut the kingdom of heaven in people's faces; they themselves do not enter, nor do they let those enter who are trying to. It is God's servants who lead people to heaven, not Satan's servants. They themselves do not enter; moreover they do not allow those who are trying to enter. They disguise themselves as servants of righteousness.

When we are aware of this fact, we can rescue our brothers and sisters from the Satan's snare, and lead them to the truth. Now, we require discretion and strong faith. When our faith becomes firm and steadfast, God will open our spiritual eyes to see, ears to hear and minds to understand, so that we may not be deceived by Satan though his servants masquerade as servants of righteousness.

Let's see how Satan's servants hide the kingdom of heaven from people.

Mk 7:6-7 He replied, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites; as it is written: 'people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men.'"

Satan's servants use human rules as a method to make people far from God—to shut off the kingdom of heaven from them. Through men's rules, they make people, so-called Christians, ignore God's laws and worship the sun god detestable to God; the door to the kingdom of heaven is shut from them, and their hearts get farther from God. If they were taught by God's servants, they would keep God's commandments and come near to God—they would run toward the kingdom of heaven. There are still many souls who are deceived by Satan's servants and follow the way of death. We must not leave those souls alone but let them know who Satan's servants are and what their schemes are. Those who have already been deceived think that Satan's servants also believe in God because they speak about God and the Bible, disguising themselves as servants of righteousness. However, if we pay a little more attention to what they say, we can easily see that they speak falsehood completely against what the Bible says. Satan's servants seem to honor God with their lips.

Actually, they deceive people with men's rules and make them worship God in vain. Let's open our eyes and look around us. How many people are de-ceived! We should not merely watch them but boldly tell them what is false and what is true.

Let them distinguish truth from falsehood

Now, we ought to make the people, who do not distinguish truth from falsehood, know the real identity of Satan disguising himself as an angel of light. There are many who are taught by men's rules and follow them, being confused into thinking that they worship God and will go to the kingdom of heaven by keeping men's rules. We should lead them to God.

Ps 14:1-3 The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, their deeds are vile; there is no one who does good. The LORD looks down from heaven on the sons of men to see if there are any who understand, any who seek God. All have turned aside, they have together become corrupt; there is no one who does good, not even one.

There is no one who does good or seeks God, for all have been taught by men's rules. Then, who can enter the kingdom of heaven? None of those who are deceived by Satan's servants can imagine their shutting the kingdom of heaven, for they honor God with their lips. For several thousand years, numerous people have been taught by men's rules, deceived by Satan's servants, and have firmly believed that they will go to the kingdom of heaven through men's rules such as Christmas, Sunday service and the veneration of the cross. Since they've been bound by Satan for such a long time, it may not be easy to awaken their minds. However, God is with us. He said that the truth would surely come out victorious. Relying on this word, we should awaken them diligently.

The Bible says that all men have together become corrupt, deceived by Satan, and that there is no one who does good, not even one. However it also says that God has left a small number of people.

Ro 11:2-5 God did not reject his people, whom he foreknew. ... So too, at the present time there is a remnant chosen by grace.

Among innumerable people like the sand of the sea, God has re-served some righteous people who have not bowed their knees to Baal. Though very few, they are to resist Satan's servants who disguise themselves as servants of righteousness and shut off the kingdom of heaven through men's rules.

This little flock must completely depend on God with a sure faith in Him, so that they can fight against the powers of Satan. "If I must lay down my life for following God's will, I will die." Without such early martyrs' spirit, how can the little flock resist countless people on the side of Satan like the sand of the sea? Consider how Gideon won the battle in ancient times. He depended absolutely on God, so that he and his three hundred warriors could defeat one hundred and thirty-five thousand men. They had faith strong enough to rush into the enemy base, armed only with torches and trumpets. Because of their great faith, they could win the battle.

Like Gideon's warriors, we should have strong faith all the more as we see the day approaching. When we have such a faith and spirit, we, God's little flock, can resist Satan's servants masquerading as God's servants.

In the days of Elijah, God reserved seven thousand who had not bowed their knees to Baal. So too, at the present time there is a remnant chosen by grace.

Rev 12:17 Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring—those who obey God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus. And the dragon stood on the shore of the sea.

Seeing the dragon, the devil, fight against the woman's offspring, they must be the righteous; they keep God's commandments.

This revelation shows what will surely take place in the last days. We can see Satan reign over innumerable people like the sand of the seashore. Men's rules are a weapon which Satan's servants use to block the door to the kingdom of heaven. However, those standing on God's side constantly keep God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus, resisting the devil.

On Satan's side stand a great multitude of people like the sand of the sea. However, God has promised to give victory to us, His little flock. The victory which God has promised us is given through our unyielding faith. As we all have unwavering faith, Satan cannot make us fall, however hard he tries. At the end, he is to be defeated.

Rev 14:8-12 A second angel followed and said, "Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great, ... " "If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives his mark on the forehead or on the hand, he, too will drink of the wine of God's fury, ... He will be tormented with burning sulfur ... And the smoke of their torment rises for ever and ever. There is no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and his image, or for anyone who receives the mark of his name." This calls for patient endurance on the part of the saints who obey God's commandments and remain faithful to Jesus.

The Bible says that those who get drunk with the doctrines of the beast will drink of the wine of God's fury. It also says that here is the patience of the saints who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus. Patience brings them to victory.

Victory promised to those keeping God's commandments

Now, we often see Satan's servants working around us. They are numerous, and it is not easy to distinguish them from God's servants.

Over a thousand years, Satan's servants have deceived the world, disguising themselves as servants of righteousness and as angels of light; they've ridiculed and persecuted God's servants, God's children, who keep the commandments of God. Since they've deceived the world for such a long time, it is almost impossible to awaken people from spiritual deception in a short time. That is possible only through the unyielding faith of God's children who keep God's commandments. Only through their strong faith and patient endurance, Satan is defeated and the world is changed. Though the devil, our enemy, is hindering the truth with all kinds of schemes, God does not shake at all; He regards him as nothing.

Isa 40:14-17 Whom did the LORD consult to enlighten him, ... Surely the nations are like a drop in a bucket; they are regarded as dust on the scales; he weighs the islands as though they were fine dust. ... Before him all the nations are as nothing; they are regarded by him as worthless and less than nothing.

Satan and his servants are fighting against God and persecuting His children, together with numerous people like the sand of the sea. However, God counts them as nothing and worthless.

When our faith is weak, Satan's servants seem to be stronger than us and we may fear them. However, through the history of the Early Church, God has already showed that they are less than nothing. Many emperors, politicians and religious leaders ridiculed and troubled and threatened the saints of the Early Church. However, the more they persecuted the saints, the stronger their faith became and the church grew and prospered; because God, regarding all the world's influential authorities as nothing, was with them.

So, we, who live in this last age, need to fear nothing at all. Rather, we should diligently preach the gospel of truth to the people, enlightening them to know the real identity of Satan and his servants who hinder the gospel of God and devour men's souls.

They deceive people into believing that what God's people keep or celebrate is not truth. Though they hinder us from preaching the gospel, we must keep our faith in Christ, obeying God's commandments and depending on Him with patience.

False prophets are stirring up the whole world to fight against God. However, the more Satan's power increases, the stronger we should become in faith; for God has said that they are nothing at all. Our mission is to quickly find our lost brothers and sisters and lead them to Zion. We must not forget that even for a moment.

Psa 2:1-9 Why do the nations conspire and the peoples plot in vain? The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the LORD and against his Anointed One. ... The One enthroned in heaven laughs; the Lord scoffs at them. Then he rebukes them in his anger and terrifies them in his wrath, saying, "I have installed my King on Zion, my holy hill." ... "You will rule them with an iron scepter ("Though shalt break them with a rod of iron," KJV); you will dash them to pieces like pottery."

We, God's people, have the strongest power, because God is with us. What does the Bible say about Satan's servants who blaspheme against God and His people? It says that God scoffs at them and He will break them with an iron rod and dash them to pieces like pottery. We are to endure until God's appointed time comes: With strong faith and hope of heaven, we should be patient to the end, practicing God's love by saving the dying souls. Though Satan hinders us greatly, victory will surely be ours, not his. We walk the way of desert and follow the path of thorns, taking our own crosses. However it is the way to victory. When we obtain the victory through hardships, it will be more precious and brilliant.

God is preparing a place for us in heaven, and we are going to meet Him soon. For the rest of our life, we should make the most of every opportunity to seek the lost brothers and sisters, unveiling the real identity of Satan's servants and false prophets. Keeping on the alert all the times, let's try hard to bear much fruit, so that our Father and Mother may be pleased. As God's children, let's overcome Satan's hindrances, standing firm in faith with a wise and discerning eye, always following God.

Dark Angel, KEEP THEM COMING!

LMAO. Look at these brainwashed culties spamming. You cant hide the TRUTH with your SPAM sillies!

By: LOLISTIC on June 8, 2008 at 7:19 am

Reply

Poland,

Don't be so hypocritical...you too follow men and thier opinions...you follow the opinon of your Decon (man), who follows the opinon of Kim Joo (man), who takes his marching orders from Mutha J (man) who hijacked the studies of AhnsahngHong (man). So while you claim to be proving your doctrine, you haven't proven anything. You've merely stated the opinion of how the WSMCOG interpretes the bible. You proven no facts...only opinons.

By: CoGinator on June 8, 2008 at 1:23 pm

Reply

The funny thing is the opinion of the WMSCOG is in the minority of the rest of Christianity...which includes some of the most dedicated and scholarly people God has placed on this earth.

So, do give us your B.S. that we follow human standards when you are doing the very same. The difference is the person you claim is Christ is laying six feet under in a grave in Korea.

Should we purse escavating it to prove it you?

COGinator said"Don't be so hypocritical...you too follow men and thier opinions...you follow the opinon of your Decon (man), who follows the opinion of Kim Joo (man), who takes his marching orders from Mutha J (man) who hijacked the studies of Ahnsahnghong (man). So while you claim to be proving your doctrine, you haven't proven anything. You've merely stated the opinion of how the WSMCOG interpretes the bible. You proven no facts...only opinions."

By: Poland on June 8, 2008 at 8:19 pm

Reply

Really? Are you sure Christ Ahnsahnghong is just a man? You really sound like the Jews 2000 years ago. How many times do I have to tell anyone that the Bible has no origin in the will of men. If your talking about "facts interpreted by men", then in God's eyes it's not valid.

2 Peter 1:20-21 – Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation. For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

By the way, talking about Elohim which you guys are taking from the Bible scholars that came into the conclusion that God has no female image. Let me ask you something, are those Bible scholars literally seen God? All they did is analyze the Bible and based it on their own opinion. But clearly, man has a "male and female image" which is not "a myth" but a real facts.

2 Timothy 4:3-4 – For the time will come when men will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear. They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths.

Let's analyze this. No one has seen God in heaven literally, not even the Bible scholars. So if there's a male and female image of man and God created man according to their image, who is the myth now? Also, throughout the Bible, Mother has been testified.

Now let's get back to Ahnsahnghong being the Second Coming Christ. Let's look at the Bible again.

Mark 13:26-31 – "At that time men will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. And he will send his angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the heavens.

"Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. Even so, when you see these things happening, you know that it is near, right at the door. I tell you the truth, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

Christ Ahnsahnghong started to preach the truth "Witness of Ahnsahnghong" when He was 30, the same time Israel (which is the Fig Tree) gained it's independence in 1948. Is there anyone fulfill these if they claim they are the Christ? No one. So COGinator, are you still looking up in the sky waiting for the Son of Man to come down?

John 6:42 – They said, “Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, ‘I came down from heaven’?”

Ecclesiastes 11:4 – Whoever watches the wind will not plant; whoever looks at the clouds will not reap.

COGinator, Israel gained it's independence already and your savior Ahnsahnghong came already who brought back the Passover. Are you still waiting for the Son of Man to litterally come down from heaven? I pity you.

COGinator said “The funny thing is the opinion of the WMSCOG is in the minority of the rest of Christianity... which includes some of the most dedicated and scholarly people God has placed on this earth.”

Matthew 7:13-14 – “Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

COGinator, do you understand these? the Church of God is the minority among Christians since we believe in the female image of God and the only ones that really keeps all the commandments of God. Everybody else is just a descendant of Roman Emperor Constantine's opinion on how to follow God. COGinator, is that for Jews only? If it is how come Jesus got baptized and Jews don't?

COGinator said “So, do give us your B.S. that we follow human standards when you are doing the very same. The difference is the person you claim is Christ is laying six feet under in a grave in Korea.

Should we purse escavating it to prove it you?”

COGinator, can you find me in the Bible that prophecies that the Second Coming Christ will resurrect from the dead. That is the prophecy for His First Coming. The role of the Second Coming Christ is to remind the true teachings of Jesus and the Apostles which was prophecied that it would be abolished (Daniel 7:25) and bring back the salvation (which is the Passover as JESUS PROMISED ETERNAL LIFE) (Hebrews 9:28).

COGinator and company, KEEP THEM COMING!

hypocrites! criticizing COG. Yet your own so called righteous church are the one to be criticize! CHRISTMAS?did the apostle put christmas lights or exchange gifts or singing carol songs in commemorating Jesus' birth??? CROSS? SO IF GOD WAS KILLED BY STABBING YOU WORSHIP

By: Jaque on June 8, 2008 at 9:18 pm

Reply

THE KNIFE?? Its like that isn't it? SUNDAY WORSHIP? I don't see any of the bible's page about worshipping on Sunday. THOUSANDS OF IDOLS!? EASTER EGG? did Jesus' apostle seek for Eggs when jesus resureccted? Funny! Even bow down to so called POPE! Ex:20-8 says do not bow down to idols nor worship them! Why don't you research about 666? Who's mans number is that?

I love my lost brothers and sisters so I want them to wake up from deep sleep!

OPEN YOUR SPIRITUAL EYES!

Seek for the truth for it will set you free.

can you tell me the verse when did they celebrate Christmas? Sunday Wroship?Cross Reverence? and I will believe all of them!

But I guess you can't.

1. Poland said "Really? Are you sure Christ Ahnsahnghong is just a man?"

By: CoGinator on June 9, 2008 at 7:27 am

Well, considering he's got a grave site, and is still there...I would contend to say yes. Jesus rose from the dead. So to compare what Jesus did to what great thing you claim ASH to have done is a non comparison. (Also, I have yet to hear any great things ASH have done...no miracles...nothing! Infact the only accomplishments I can prove of ASH is that here twice inacurately predicted the end of the world. Doesn't sound very ominicent does he?

Reply

2. Poland Said "You really sound like the Jews 2000 years ago. "

If I had $10 for evertime a CoG member said that I'd be half as rich as Mother J. Nice anaology, however flawed in the fact that ASH doesn't compare with Jesus in any way shape or form.

3. Poland said" Let me ask you something, are those Bible scholars litterrally seen God?

Don't know. They may have passed away and returned from the dead to see Him? You'd have to ask them. Have they seen the fraud called Mother J...maybe on the internet posting as Poland?

4. Poland said, "Let's analyze this. No one has seen God in heaven litterally, not even the Bible scholars. So if there's a male and female image of man and God created man according to their image, who is the myth now? Also, throughout the Bible, Mother has been testified."

Actually no where in the bible is a person/God Testified. A City referred to as the mother land called Jeruselam has been talked about. I assume you've already read the scholarly understanding of it's percieved as one God and not two as you've been taught to believe. But let's look at all Gods Creations....all animals have both a Male and Female gender in all species. That's by Gods design. So when he created Man (as in the species, not the Gender) he created both male and female to be able to reproduce and multiply. Makes sense doesn't it. When it says God made us in his image you are taking that literally...which is ironic, because there are hundreds of other instances that the CoG chooses not the literal meaning to apply their theory...such as clouds not meaning white fluffy clouds. This, to me proves that the doctrine is flawed, as the instances that literal is chosen over the analagous (sp?) is only to prove things that are way out in left field.

Christ Ahnsahnghong started to preach the truth "Witness of Ahnsahnghong" when He was 30, the same time Israel (which is the Fig Tree) gained its independence in 1948. Is there anyone fulfill these if they claim they are the Christ? No one. So COGinator, are you still looking up in the sky waiting for the Son of Man to come down?

5. Poland said, "COGinator, Israel gained its independence already and your savior Ahnsahnghong came already who brought back the Passover. Are you still waiting for the Son of Man to literally come down from heaven? I pity you."

Pitty me for what...having a better understanding of the bible that prevents me from falling prey to the CoG Cult? Your point #5 directly above proves nothing...it is just more garbage to try and direct people away from Jesus and towards ASH who didn't do anything for the passover. The WMSCOG has hijacked ASH teachings to give the perception that the passover is the secret ingredient to going to heaven. But if you read the bible in its entirety, and not play selective round-robin with the scriptures you would understand that the passover is was a Jewish celebration...and not the way to receive salvation.

6. Poland said, "COGinator, do you understand these? the Church of God is the minority among Christians since we believe in the female image of God and the only ones that really keeps all the commandments of God.

So you keep all 600+ commandments that God passed down to Moses (i.e. the mosaic law). Could you do me a favor and list all of them and then let me know which ones you've failed to keep. Then I'll ask you if you're going to go to heaven because you didn't keep all of them. Ready... go!

7. Poland said, "Everybody else is just a descendant of Roman Emperor Constantine's opinion on how to follow God." Is that why Peter is considered the first Pope? (and no, I'm not Catholic"

8. Poland said, "COGinator, is that for Jews only? If it is how come Jesus got baptized and Jews don't?"

Obviously I'm missing something as I have no idea how this fit into your paragraph.

10. Poland said, "COGinator, can you find me in the Bible that prophecies that the Second Coming Christ will resurrect from the dead."

No, but it shows the second coming was the second coming of Jesus. Otherwise it would have been the first coming of the second Christ.

11. Poland said, "COGinator and company, KEEP THEM COMING!"

By "them" I assume you mean the 'TRUTHS'.

Jaque, we are so over these old and non useful points. Please try to only post if there is something new we haven't shot down already. Thanks and have a Blessed day.

By: CoGinator on June 9, 2008 at 7:30 am

Reply

Just so you don't feel totally voidated that your being persacuted here you go...

Can you show me the Scripture to celebrate the assention of ASH?

Nope...guess your just as Hypocritical as the rest of us.

COGinator said "Well, considering he's got a grave site, and is still there...I would contend to say yes. Jesus rose from the dead. So to compare what Jesus did to what great thing you claim ASH to have done is a non comparison. (Also, I have yet to hear any great things ASH have done...no miracles...nothing! Infact the only accomplishments I can prove of ASH is that here twice inacurately predicted the end of the world. Doesn't sound very ominicent does he?"

By: Poland on June 9, 2008 at 5:34 pm

Reply

Again another one who doesn't see the truth in the Bible. Full of human standard opinion he's using. Doesn't really know the role of the Second Coming Christ. He's also denying the Fig Tree Lesson that Jesus gave us so we know when His Second Coming. How clear that Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled these. I guess COGinator just wanna delete the Fig Tree Lesson that Jesus gave us for the Second Coming of the Son of Man. I pity you.

Ephesians 1:9-14 – And he made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he purposed in Christ, to be put into effect when the times will have reached their fulfillment—to bring all things in heaven and on earth together under one head, even Christ. In him we were also chosen, having been predestined according to the plan of him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will, in order that we, who were the first to hope in Christ, might be for the praise of his glory. And you also were included in Christ when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation. Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit, who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession—to the praise of his glory.

Unfortunately for COGinator he hasn't received the promised Holy Spirit that has the Seal of God, Jesus Passover of the new covenant and he doesn't know the mystery of God's will.

COGinator said "If I had $10 for everytime a CoG member said that I'd be half as rich as Mother J. Nice anaology, however flawed in the fact that ASH doesn't compare with Jesus in any way shape or form."

Wow maybe every $10 you give to you church COGinator would make your pastor rich huh. Is there any church out there that doesn't accept donations from it's members. It's not mandatory or perhaps it's mandatory in COGinator's church. COGinator, thanks for calling us a cult since your church and any other church accepts donations from it's members. As far as Jesus being in shape with AhnsahngHong, again COGinator doesn't know each role of the First and Second Coming of Christ. Ok I'll make you happy COGinator, let's use the human standard comparison. Jesus is a Jew while AhnsahngHong is a Korean. Are you happy now COGinator? You really sound like the Jews and Pharisees 2000 years ago who studied the Bible and know all the verses yet they couldn't recognize when Christ came the First time. They expect it to litterally come down from heaven. They didn't know the prophecies of the First Coming. Like now, COGinator doesn't know the prophecies for the Second Coming of Christ. COGinator, the Fig Tree's twigs got tender already, what are you waiting for looking up in the sky for the Son of Man to come, HELLO!

Isaiah 66:15-16 – See, the LORD is coming with fire, and his chariots are like a whirlwind; he will bring down his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. For with fire and with his sword the LORD will execute judgment upon all men, and many will be those slain by the LORD.

COGinator, this is what's about to come. The Lord will bring fire to execute Judgement upon all men. Do you know when COGinator?

Mark 13:26-31 – "At that time men will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. And he will send his angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the heavens.

"Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. Even so, when you see these things happening, you know that it is near, right at the door. I tell you the truth, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

COGinator when the Son of Man comes the Second Time,

He will gather His elect. Do you know who are His elect COGinator?

Revelations 7:2-3 – Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: “Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.”

COGinator, until God’s elect receive His Seal, the Judgement Day won’t come yet according to the Bible. COGinator, do you know the Seal of God? I know what your going to say. COGinator will say “With all your heart, say that you wanna receive Jesus Christ as your personal savior and you will be saved”. COGinator, that’s not what Jesus Christ Himself said on how to receive forgiveness of sins and eternal life. Let’s see the Bible to find out.

John 6:50-56 – But here is the bread that comes down from heaven, which a man may eat and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. This bread is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.” Then the Jews began to argue sharply among themselves, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?” Jesus said to them, “I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.

Luke 22:7-20 – Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover.” “Where do you want us to prepare for it?” they asked. He replied, “As you enter the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him to the house that he enters, and say to the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?’ He will show you a large upper room, all furnished. Make preparations there.” They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover. When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. And he said to them, “I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. For I tell you, I will not eat it again until it finds fulfillment in the kingdom of God.” After taking the cup, he gave thanks and said, “Take this and divide it among you. For I tell you I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.” And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

How clear this is from the Bible. Jesus Himself promised eternal life by keeping the Passover, His body and blood. There’s no instruction from Jesus that all you have to do is say that you wanna accept Him as your personal savior and you will be saved. Jesus gave this instruction for all of us and if we keep His words we will be save. Again COGinator will use the opinion of men instead of what Jesus really promised eternal life through His Passover which His body and blood. Again COGinator, is this just really for Jews or for everyone who wants to be save?

Luke 19-10 – For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost.

COGinator, why are you keeping the opinion of men when Jesus Himself promised eternal life through the Passover? I guess for you it's ok to just praise God on your own and not follow His commandments. Again, this can't be a Jewish custom. If it is, then how come Baptism is not a Jewish custom when Jesus got baptized to set the example for us? I guess no matter how much I show you the truth COGinator you won't understand it because it's not meant for you. I pity you.

KEEP YOUR MEN'S OPINION COMING COGinator!

Poland, saying that "only Ahnsahnghong" can interpret the Bible is a logical fallacy.

By: Ted on June 9, 2008 at 8:13 pm

Look at this example:

Reply

Once upon a time there was a man who claimed to be God. He took the Bible and showed others where it proved that he was God.

Everyone disagreed with him, but the man said they were wrong.

"Why are we wrong," they asked?

"Because you do not understand the true meaning of the Bible," he said.

"But how do you know the true meaning," they responded?

"Because I am God and only I understand the Bible," he replied.

You can not use the Bible to prove you are God and then prove the Bible by saying that you are God. You have two simultaneous untruths. This is what all cults do. It's simply ridiculous.

Secondly, one only has to look throughout the Bible to see how the word elohim is used. The scholars aren't "interpreting" anything. They're just pointing out fact. The word is used consistently throughout the Bible and there's no need to change the meaning as the COG have done.

Ted said "You can not use the Bible to prove you are God and then prove the Bible by saying that you are God. You have two simultaneous untruths. This is what all cults do. It's simply ridiculous."

By: Poland on June 9, 2008
at 9:53 pm

Reply

Ted, why are you using the opinion of men to interpret the Bible? What prophecy in the Bible do you not understand that Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Second Coming Christ? Was not the Fig Tree Lesson enough that Jesus told us so we know when He will appear a Second Time? Or even the Root of David? This is exactly what is happening 2000 years ago when Jesus came to bring the Passover of the new covenant and His law. People are studying the Bible, knows all the verses yet they could not recognize that Christ came already because they didn't know the prophecies for the First Coming of Christ. If we go back 2000 years ago, we only have the Old Testament and Jesus was prophecied in the Old Testament, when, where, how He is to come.

Revelations 5:3-5 – But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll or even look inside it. I wept and wept because no one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals."

Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Root of David because He fulfill these prophecy, preaching for 37 years to fulfill God's promise to David's Throne who ruled for 40 years according to the Bible. He is the only One who could open the scroll.

The Bible is a series of deep and mysterious secrets. Among let us understand about our Savior through the secrets hidden in the life of King David.

Hosea 3:5 {Afterward the Israelites will return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. They will come trembling to the LORD and to his blessings in the last days.}

According to Hose a the prophet we must seek Kind David in the last days to recieve Gods blessing, but the unique thing about this prophecy is that when Hosea wrote this, King David had already died a long time ago. Then it is obviously not the physical King David we must seek, but a Spiritual, in other words prophetic King David. Then who is this prophetic King David? we need to understand in order for us to receive blessings in the Last days.

Isaiah 9:6- {For to us a child is born, for to us a son is given... and He will be called Mighty God , Everlasting Father... He will reign on Davids Throne...}

According to the Bible Almighty Father God Jehovah will come in the flesh, and reign on Davids throne. Then who fulfilled this prophecy?

Luke 1:31- {You will be with child and give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus... The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David.}

Literaly we understand that Jesus did not come and physically sat on a throne, yet the Bible says that he received Davis Throne. Through this we understand that Jesus is spiritual King David. Jesus sat on Davids throne meaning he is Mighty God in the flesh, also Prophetical/spiritual "King David". In order for us to understand that Jesus is the prophetical King David, first we need to understand the physical King Davids life, there is some prophetical points that need to be fulfilled:

Then what is "Davids Throne" that Christ should fulfill?

A Kings throne is considered from the time he begins to be king, to the time he dies

2 Samuel 5:3- ...They anointed David King over Israel. David was thirty years old when he became King and reigned forty years.

Davids Throne began at Age of: 30 and lasted: 40 years
Meaning, if Christ sat on Davids Throne he should begin his spiritual reign at age: 30 and reign: 40 years

Through the Bible lets find out if Christ Jesus has come as David or not.

Luke 3:21- When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too... Now Jesus himself was about 30 years old when he began his ministry.

Christ was baptized/anointed as spiritual King at the age of 30 in accordance to Davids prophecy. Lets see if he also reigned 40 years.

Luke 13:6-Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree, planted in his vineyard, and he went to look for fruit on it, but did not find any. So he said to the man who took care of the vineyard, 'For three years now I've been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree and haven't found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?'

According to the parable of the Fig tree we can understand Christ only preached 3 yrs from A.D. 30-33 until his crucifixion.

THEN, where are the remaining 37 YEARS left to fulfill Davids reign of 40 years?!!!!

Annointment Reign

King David 30 years 40 years

Jesus 30 years 3 years37 years???

If Jesus didn't fulfill this prophecy then who is DAVID whom we should seek in the last days?

Through the Bible let us see God administartion at work for the salvation of our souls.

Hebrews 9:28- So Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people, and he will appear a SECOND TIME, not to bear sin, but to BRING SALVATION, to those who are waiting for him.

Christ must come back a 2nd time!!!! WHY??? to fulfill the prophecy of King Davids 37 year reign left outstanding!!!

Then what is the sign to recognize David when he comes??

Isaiah 55:3- Give ear and come to me, hear me that your soul may live. I will make an EVERLASTING COVENANT with you. My faithful love promised to DAVID.

The sign of David: Everlasting covenant

Hebrews 13:20- May the God of peace, who through the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep,

The eternal covenant is established with blood
Then, what is this blood covenant whom the Last David will bring for the salvation of his people??

Luke 22:13,19-They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover.... And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.

CHRIST BLOOD PROMISED ON PASSOVER IS THE BLOOD OF THE COVENANT.

Meaning the King David to come must bring PASSOVER and reign for 37 YEARS to fulfill the Throne of David!!!

History of Our Father Christ Ahnsahnghong:
Born: 1918
Baptized: 1948- according to fig tree lesson(restoration of Israel) age of 30
Ascended to Heaven: 1985- reigned 37 years just as King David did.

1 Kings 2:10- Then David rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. He had reigned forty years over Israel...Our Father Christ Ahnsahnghong restored the truth of Passover, he is David, He is our King!!!

King David's Throne 40 years, annointed at 30.

Jesus preached for 3 years, baptized at 30.

Ahnsahnghong preached for 37 years, baptized at 30.
FULFILLED.

Ted and company, KEEP THEM COMING!

Dear CoG members,

By: Jamie on June 10, 2008
at 3:51 am

In all honesty, I can never begin to take any of you seriously if you keep on evading the questions of people who are asking. I see the same phrases being used again and again to put down the statements made by others, such as "arguments from man and not from God", etc.

Reply

I have a suggestion for you: why not you just show us how your arguments are superior to arguments from men? Arguments/teachings from God should be much much more superior to arguments from men right?

Defend those arguments, prove them, and prove that they are superior to arguments from men.

CoG members, you need to address all the inconsistencies with your teachings and the whole counsel of God instead of simply spamming bible studies. It won't help at all.

You must understand that the church fathers were very diligent in arguing and defending their beliefs with solid, well thought out arguments. You must do the same if you want to convince people. Please stop repeating yourselves again and again, and stop the ad hominem attacks.

Looking4Truth, I do not know if you are a CoG member or not, but I do not agree that CoG can be listed as a denomination. They are like the Arians and Nicolaitians of the past who have taken the truth and twisted it. If Jesus condemned the Nicolaitians, do you think He will accept the CoG members? A discerning mind can separate true Christianity from heresy. There are certain unchanging truths that make up the core beliefs of Christianity, and once you change them it's no longer Christianity.

Jamie said

"There are certain unchanging truths that make up the core beliefs of Christianity, and once you change them it's no longer Christianity"

By: Lizzie on June 10, 2008
at 5:59 am

Reply

Thank you...

You just told all the CoG members on this website and all the other unbelievers that the CoG is considered and we are CHRISTIANITY!

Thank you once again for finally acknowledging it! We haven't changed any of the core beliefs.. infact we are the ONLY ones right now that have kept the CORE BELIEFS and have followed Jesus Christ commandments.

Just because you cannot understand the bible and who it prophesies about doesn't mean ASH isn't Christ. You can't believe Ahnsahnghong is Christ because you dont know he who sent him.

John 15:21

They will treat you this way because of my NAME, for they do not know the One who sent me.

The reason we believe in him is because we know who the bible testifies about!

John 5:39

You diligently study the Scriptures because you think that by them you possess eternal life. These are the Scriptures that testify about me,

The reason ASH didnt testify he was GOD was to fulfill this prophesy

John 5:31

[Testimonies About Jesus] "If I testify about myself, my testimony is not valid.

Thats why he used the BIBLE to TESTIFY.

Luke 24:27

And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

So even Jesus used the bible to testify about himself

John 5:46

If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote about me.

And another reason we believe in him...

John 10:37

Do not believe me unless I do what my Father does.

He fulfilled every prophesy, and since he DID what JESUS and THE FATHER did.. WE KNOW HE IS OUR 2nd COMING CHRIST!

Now the reason you dont believe is simple..

Matthew 13:11

He replied, "The knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them.

I am sorry you werent part the CHOSEN FEW.. It isnt my choice but the choice of the Father.

He doesnt have to prove he is Christ by rising from the dead as Jesus did 2000 yrs ago

Luke 16:31

"He said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.' "

Sister Lizzie, why are they keep referring to men's opinion when we have the Bible so we could find out the will of God? I guess for them it's better to listen to the voice of men instead of God.

By: Poland on June 10, 2008
at 3:19 pm

Reply

John 10-27-30 – My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one can snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all; no one can snatch them out of my Father's hand. I and the Father are one."

There you go. The reason they don't listen to the Bible is because they are not the chosen sheep that God has chosen.

In studying the 66 books of the Bible, the most important thing is to understand Christ and establish our faith in Him. For the Bible says that Christ is the great mystery. About 2,000 years ago, the Israelites suffered greatly under the oppression of the Roman government. Their only hope to sustain them was that the Messiah, prophesied in the Bible, would come and deliver them from their oppression. They had been looking and waiting for the Messiah, which enabled them to endure the Roman oppression. However, when the Messiah—Jesus Christ—came to them, they rejected and crucified the Messiah whom they had eagerly waited for. To the Israelites, God was much more precious than their lives. They would rather die than abandon their faith. However, they crucified the God whom they loved and valued so much. What caused them to commit such a terrible sin? Unless we know the reason, we will commit the same sin as they did when God comes again in these last days.

God Almighty came as a man

First, we need to study Jesus. Let's see who Jesus is in nature.

Col 1:13-18 ... For by him [Christ] all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him.
...

Jesus is the God who created all things. The Almighty God came to this earth as a man bearing the name Jesus.

In those days, the Israelites had a fixed idea about God. They thought only about the Almighty God who by His word made light and divided the heavens and the earth and appeared out of a whirlwind and storm.

About 3,500 years ago, when Moses led the Israelites out of Egypt, God terrified the Egyptians with ten supernatural miracles. They expected the Messiah to come upon this earth with such great power and glory. So do most Christians today; they look for God to come with such visible glory.

The Apostle John described the divine nature of Jesus as follows:

Jn 1:1-14 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. ... He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him. He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him. ... The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

In the days of Jesus, religious leaders were confident that they would be able to easily recognize God the Creator who had said, "Let there be light," when He came as the Messiah. However, they failed to receive God the Creator of the world. Rather, they hated God who came to His own and rejected Him, and even crucified Him.

If God had appeared in His majesty with His angels, they would have recognized Him. Such a glorious appearance of God was deeply contemplated in the hearts of the Israelites. However, CONTRARY TO THEIR EXPECTATION, Christ came to this earth, being made lower than the angels.

Heb 2:6-8 ... "What is man that you are mindful of him, the son of man that you care for him? You made him a little lower than the angels; you crowned him with glory and honor and put everything under his feet." ...

How could the Israelites imagine God being made lower than the angels? Even though God Himself came to them, they spat in His face and struck Him with their fists. They searched hard for God in the synagogue, but they completely rejected God who came CONTRARY TO THEIR EXPECTATION. For they never thought that God would come as a man made lower than the angels. When Jesus came, becoming lower than the angels, even His own brothers did not believe in Him and His friends came to take charge of Him.

Thus, they didn't believe in Jesus Christ. The disciples repeatedly told them to believe in Him. If it had been easy for everyone to believe in Him, they would not have repeatedly said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus." Saying that, they preached Jesus Christ. This implies that it was so difficult to believe in Him. For He was a totally different God from what they had conceived or wished. Now, we need to be fully convinced that Christ is 'the mystery that has been kept hidden for ages and generations,' so that we may understand and receive Him.

Col 1:26-27 the mystery that has been kept hidden for ages and generations, but is now disclosed to the saints. To them God has chosen to make known among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Col 2:2-3 ...so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

All the prophets and the gospel writers testify that Christ is God who created all things (Isa 9:6; Col 1:16; Jn 1:1). The Almighty God came to this earth and was executed by so-called believers.

Why does the Bible describe their rejection of Jesus? For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us (Ro 15:4). Like them, most people today have a fixed idea about God; they never think that God will be made lower than the angels, and they are waiting for Christ to appear a second time in dreadful and terrifying majesty.

We must let go of our fixed ideas about God. Just as we believe, God is omniscient and omnipotent; He can appear in His majesty or in a form of a man; He can be born of a virgin or through physical parents. If we make up our own ideas about Christ, we will fail to receive Him in these last days.

Do not limit God to thinking the way we do

Most Korean people think that roosters cry 'kkokkio,' dogs bark 'meong meong' and cats say 'yaong.' However, Americans think that roosters cry 'cock-a doodle-doo,' dogs bark 'bow-wow' and cats cry 'meow.' The disparity exists not because those animals indeed cry different languages. Nevertheless the people in each country think that they cry differently from one country to another, because they have learned to hear the sounds that way from their childhood.

Think of a yellow pistil of a flower. It appears yellow to us, but to dogs it appears white (because dogs are color-blind and perceive things in only black and white) and to bees it appears red. Can we say confidently that the color we perceive is real? Can we truly believe that all our senses are basically reliable?

Think about the earth's revolution. The earth moves around the sun at a speed of about 108,000km per hour. However, our body doesn't feel any speed. Besides this there are a lot of things that we can't perceive with our senses. But most people acknowledge only the things that they can see and perceive with their senses and believe only what they think is right. How foolish they are!

By using our own senses, we can't discern between the true and the false. So God said, "Judge nothing before the appointed time; wait till the Lord comes" (1 Co 4:5). Nevertheless many interpret the Bible in their own ways. Each of them insists that only their interpretation is true, even denying the truth uttered by God Himself. What a blasphemous act!

We must not believe in only the visible. Instead of insisting upon our own ideas, we need to ask God to open our spiritual eyes to read the Bible with correct understanding. For we can't receive Christ fully with our own way of thinking.

From whose point of view should we look at Christ? We must see Him through the eyes of those who are saved, so that we can understand Him correctly and get salvation. For the goal of our faith is the salvation of our souls. Let's look at Christ through their eyes.

Rev 14:1-5 Then I looked, and there before me was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion, and with him 144,000 ... No one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. ...

From the view point of the 144,000 who have been redeemed, Christ dwells in Zion. We must find Zion and know her law in order to meet Christ. In the eyes of those outside Zion, Christ cannot be found. We should not look at the Bible in a church's view no matter what the church says, neither should we look at it from the point of view of a person.

Think of the yellow pistils of flowers. Only the human eye can perceive the color as yellow; neither the eyes of insects like bees nor the eyes of animals can see it the same way. Without understanding such a mystery, we can't understand God. We need to know at least a part of God's creation in order to understand the Bible. Many fall into error, because they try to look at God's word, a mystery of Wonderful Coun-selor, with a finite and very limited human mind or understanding.

Christ, the Mystery of mysteries, whom we meet in Zion

Revelation 14 shows us that Christ dwells in Zion. The Lamb dwells in Zion with the 144,000 who have been redeemed. Let's find out what Zion indicates.

Isa 33:20-24 Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals; ... There the LORD will be our Mighty One. ... For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; it is he who will save us. ...

Zion is the place where the Biblical feasts are celebrated. God is the Judge, the Lawgiver and the King of the people who dwell in Zion with Him. As there is a law by which a king rules over his people in the world, so there is the law of the new covenant by which God the King of Zion governs His people.

Every country has different laws. People in each country can't be easily adapted to foreign laws. Likewise, those who are not God's people are not willing to observe the laws of Zion which God has established. For they are not the people of the kingdom.

It is in the last days that God proclaims His law in Zion (Mic 4:1). Many will stream to Zion to find the way to salvation. In the Day of Judgment, those who do not know the law of Zion will be judged by that law [the new covenant]. Without abiding in Zion no one can know the law and avoid God's judgment. We should break free of the fixed ideas so that we can meet God whom the Bible testifies about. Now, let's find out what blessings God bestows upon His people in Zion.

Ps 132:13-14 For the LORD has chosen Zion, he has desired it for his dwelling: "This is my resting place for ever and ever; here I will sit enthroned, for I have desired it—"

Ps 133:1-3 How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity! It is like precious oil poured on the head, running down on the beard, running down on Aaron's beard, down upon the collar of his robes. It is as if the dew of Hermon were falling on Mount Zion. For there the LORD bestows his blessing, even life forevermore.

Thus, God has chosen Zion and made it His dwelling, where He bestows His blessing—life forever. Only from the point of view of the people in Zion can people recognize Christ, the greatest Mystery of all mysteries; only those in Zion can receive Him and have the blessing of eternal life. For God lets them look at everything from His standpoint and evaluate it according to His standards.

Only in Zion can we understand the Christ, who is the great mystery hidden for ages. God has given us, who are in Zion, the blessing of eternal life and the invitation into the kingdom of heaven. How precious God's invitation is!

There are our lost brothers and sisters who cannot recognize Christ because their spiritual eyes are not opened. Let's lead them quickly to Zion so that their spiritual eyes may be open to recognize Christ, the mystery of God. Let's share the blessings of salvation with them, by delivering God's invitations to them. Then we will receive God's praise when we go back to our heavenly home.

Brother Poland and sister Lizzie we have to be in Zion why do you waste your time here when they cannot understand what we preach over and over again.

By: warrior on June 10, 2008 at 7:44 pm

Do you know our mother said to give love and not fight and because of you two lost sheep on this blog our church got destroyed in the Myanmar cyclone. Even after having kept the Passover it did not let disaster pass over our church.

I hope you both put your time to good use and try to get people believe you rather than fight.

Keep the flame of love of our father and mother forever burning .

Reply

All,

I've been reading through a few posts and I wasn't going to post anything, but I wanted to get an understanding of something.

By: Dark Angel on June 10, 2008 at 8:01 pm

Reply

Lizzie, you mentioned in your post that Ahn Sahng Hong and Mother Jerusalem were in a picture together.

You said, "When it came to that day the people knew he was the 2nd coming Christ his wife claimed she was THE BRIDE. That's when General Pastor pulled out the picture. That's how our Mother came to be!"

Can you explain what you mean by, "When it came to that day the people knew he was the 2nd coming Christ".

1. When did "the people" realize that he was this second coming Christ? (I'm assuming that you mean the church congregation when you say "the people".)

2. Where was ahnsahnghong when they realized that he was the second coming christ?

3. Was he still alive when they realized that he was this second coming christ?

If you can, please explain and address those questions. Marcus/ Ryan, if you are around, do you confirm Lizzie's comments? Is this correct information?

Thanks.

Warrior is correct, one of your churches was destroyed by a natural disaster.

By: Dark Angel on June 10, 2008 at 8:06 pm

However, Lizzie and Poland are NOT the cause of that.

Reply

Warrior, it would appear that you are not saved by natural disasters after all.

Hmm that's quite a news. How come when I tried to search about it in the internet and I couldn't find information about it? Are the COG hackers are preventing the news to spread so they could keep making money out of it? They are really the true church.

By: Clark on June 10, 2008 at 8:52 pm

Reply

Poland, you continue to say "Sister Lizzie, why are they keep referring to men's opinion when we have the Bible so we could find out the will of God?" What you have to clear your thought process to Sister Lizzie? Is she Mutha J in cognito?

By: CoGinator on June 10, 2008 at 9:27 pm

Reply

That phrase is actually quite disturbing. It's like you have a blinder on and fail to realize that reading the bible and interpreting it...is ALL the opinion of men. Whether you choose the interpretation of the CoG or you choose the interpretation of Mainstream Christianity...it's all the opinion of man...based on the writings of the bible which is inspired by God.

You want us to be like the Pharasies, however there is a big difference. They didn't already have the Christ redeem them of all thier sins. Those of us who are believers in Jesus can't be like the Pharasies, because we have the Holy Spirt guiding us.

If I understand you correctly, you feel that Ansahnghongs interpretation is the right one, because he is Jesus, just in a different body.

However, ASH never claimed to be God or the second comming. Jesus on the other hand, did claim to be God. If the purpose of the Second Comming is to bring all the believers to Heaven and leave all the non-believers to suffer the Rapture, why do it in secret?

It wasn't until ASH died, that the story changed from a Pastor who followed the ways of SDA and incorrectly predicted the end of times (not once, but twice) to that of the story of him being the Holy spirit coming to round up the sheep.

Even with that, there are huge gapping holes to that story. First being, the holy spirit has never been testified in the bible as a being...it's a spirit. I'll give you the bennefit of the doubt and insult your intelligence by explaining the difference between a spirit and a person.

Secondly, ASH never talked about a Heavenly Mother as a God. That didn't get added to the church until after ASH passed away.

So if he really is God, why did he never announce himself or Mutha J while he was alive? Why did none of his predictions come true...and why do a hand full of people fail to see the inaccuracies and inconsistancies of the the teachings of the WMSCOG?

COGinator said "That phrase is actually quite disturbing. It's like you have a blinder on and fail to realize that reading the bible and interpreting it...is ALL the opinon of men.

By: Poland on June 11, 2008
at 1:43 am

Whether you choose the interpretation of the CoG or you choose the interpretation of Mainstream Christianity...it's all the opinon of man...based on the writings of the bible which is inspired by God."

Reply

Look at you still using the opinion of men to interpret the Bible. Your really in darkness and cannot see the light of the truth in the Bible COGinator.

2 Peter 1:18-21 – We ourselves heard this voice that came from heaven when we were with him on the sacred mountain(God's Zion). And we have the word of the prophets made more certain, and you will do well to pay attention to it(Word of God), as to a light shining in a dark place(men's opinion), until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. Above all, you must understand that NO PROPHECY OF SCRIPTURE came about by the PROPHET'S OWN INTERPRETATION. For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

COGinator said "You want us to be like the Pharasies, however there is a big difference. They didn't already have the Christ redeem them of all thier sins. Those of us who are believers in Jesus can't be like the Pharasies, because we have the Holy Spirt guiding us."

Clearly, COGinator have no clue about the prophecy in the Bible. No matter how you show him the truth, even if it is as clear as crystal, he couldn't understand it. COGinator, the Pharisee of the age of the Holy Spirit. This is what COGinator sees in the Bible like the Pharisees 2000 years ago.

Isaiah 43:10-11 – “You are my witnesses,” declares the LORD, “and my servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe me and understand that I am he.

Before me no god was formed, nor will there be one after me. I, even I, am the LORD, and apart from me there is no savior.

Ooopppsss. Aren't you missing something COGinator?

Isaiah 9:6-7 – For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And HE WILL BE CALLED WONDERFUL COUNSELOR, MIGHTY GOD, EVERLASTING FATHER, PRINCE OF PEACE. Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. HE WILL REIGN ON DAVID'S THRONE AND OVER HIS KINGDOM, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

COGinator, the Father Jehovah, the Son Jesus and the Holy Spirit Ahnsahnghong are One as God in different ages.

I guess you might perhaps read your Bible and learn the prophecies of it. I know either way, your going to use the will of men to interpret the Bible instead of listening to the Root of David which is Ahnsahnghong. I pity you.

COGinator, Ted, Dark Angel and company, KEEP THEM COMING! I MEAN YOUR OPINION ABOUT THE BIBLE WHICH IS IN THE WILL OF MEN. YOU GUYS SQUIRM A LITTLE BIT.

I pray for these lost sheep who continue to worship this false idol, also known as Ahnsahnghong. Shine your light upon their heads, Lord. Bless these lost sheep and pull them back into your light. They have troubles deep within their hearts. Heal them Lord and embrace them. Show them the error of their ways.

By: Sister Sarah on June 11, 2008 at 1:54 am

Reply

Amen.

Poland,

Is the information is Lizzie's post in reagrds to ahnsahnghong and mother jerusalem taking a picture together, true?

By: Dark Angel on June 11, 2008 at 3:14 am

Reply

Sister Sarah, we have received the Second Coming of Jesus Christ as prophecied in the Bible. I don't even think I can call you "Sister" since you still keep the tradition of men as God's commandments and don't do God's will according to the Bible. Sunday Worship, Christmas as Jesus Birthday, Easter, Holy Communion are all man-made traditions. If you wanna follow God, it should be

By: Poland on June 11, 2008 at 3:39 am

Reply

according to His words, the Bible.

John 10-27-30 – My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one can snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all; no one can snatch them out of my Father's hand. I and the Father are one."

God Bless you Sarah.

Dark Angel, aren't you looking for Marcus? Because you told me before that I am not very smart and I know that your smarter than me, IN THE WILL OF MEN. Marcus is my Brother with Jesus because we do the will of God according to the Bible.

By: Poland on June 11, 2008
at 3:46 am

Reply

Matthew 12:46-50 – While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him. Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

God bless you Dark Angel.

I never told you that, Poland. I said, Marcus is more knowledgeable in the COG's doctrine.

By: Dark Angel on June 11, 2008
at 5:06 am

Also, I figured if you loved ahnsahngHong, you would be able to confirm Lizzie's post.

Reply

If you're not sure, then I guess I have to wait for Lizzie or Marcus to respond.

I would rather Marcus because, he mentioned something to me on the cult-watch message board and I would like to ask him how it relates to Lizzie's comment.

So Marcus, if you're not too busy trying to hack into the cult-watch website, wink please respond because there are a few things that you have to clear up..actually not a few, more like alot.

Thanks.

Poland said, "Because you told me before that I am not very smart and I know that your smarter than me, IN THE WILL OF MEN. "

By: CoGinator on June 11, 2008
at 6:31 am

Well, based on your posting that clearly show you can't formulate a well put together arguement that provides facts... not opinions to prove your hypothosies...I tend to lean towards agreeing with the above statement.

Reply

I would be willing to to review short individual points that you feel back up your doctrine, but as far as the marathon...multifaceted postings...I'll just ignore them.

are we celebrating the Assentment of ASH?

By: Jaque on June 11, 2008
at 12:12 pm

I haven't heard of that.

We are only celebrating God's feast though.

Reply

I'm sorry my heart aches so much when someone persecute us.

If you say we are cult then I guess every church is a cult. They represent another GOD that different from the Scripture. GOD that worship on Sunday? Christmas etc.

Hi Jaque,
labeling an organisation a cult has nothing to do with bible, scriptures or dogma. It is more influenced by the behaviour of their leaders & members.

By: Tony on June 11, 2008
at 2:30 pm

When i was in world mission church of god, all i do was preaching, studying, spending time in church (zion...).. Everyone else not believing in father and mother is going to hell.. anything to do with cross is bad. sunday worship = seal of satan.. i couldnt even go to a friend's wedding in different church. i had cross and sunday phobia :) My whole life was dedicated to 'recruiting'.. finding lost children, bear fruit.

Reply

In the process, I did not realise that i have neglected my real family who really care for me. World mission society church of god really open my eyes that doctrines, festivals, rituals, feasts are merely made by man.. the important thing is to have respect and tolerance towards another fellow human. love is above all.

Oh quit it... the persecution thing is old...

By: CoGinator on June 11, 2008
at 2:47 pm

Just because someone has a difference of opinion of how the WMSCOG mis-interprets the bible scriptures doesn't mean you're being persecuted. Just means we don't agree with the opinion of the men at the WMSCOG.

Reply

Do you celebrate your or anyone else's birthday? That's not talked about in the bible. Have you celebrated someone's graduation...that's not in the bible either. Could that mean your celebrating the festivals of man?

Here's the bottom line...Just because Christians have rallied around a date to commemorate the birth of our Christ doesn't mean it's against the bible...nor does it indicate that anything is being added to the bible. It's simply an expression of worship and gratitude. Believing otherwise is showing an insecurity, which is not uncommon when the doctrine that one supports has so many inconsistencies.

Also, if you could point out the scripture that prove all the Gentiles are under the Laws of Moses, it would be greatly appreciated.

I'm surprised you haven't heard of the Assentation day. Are you new to the CoG? Are you aware the fig tree prophecy stems all the way back to Adam and Eve?

Anyone out there want to validate that the CoG celebrates an Assentation day?

Dark Angel, you can clearly see that the COG is a cult religious group just like any other denominations out there. That's why I prefer to believe in Science since it's based on proven facts.

By: Clark on June 11, 2008 at 3:27 pm

Reply

Many common religious terms lack a generally accepted, single, current definition. This leads to confusion over the meanings of certain religious terms, such as Christian, cult hell, heaven, occult, Paganism, salvation, Witch, Witchcraft, Unitarian, Universalist, Voodoo, etc. A reader must often look at the context in which the word is used in order to guess at the intent of the writer.

In the newsgroup alt.usage.english, terms like this one are often called "skunk words." They have diverse meanings to different people. They have so many meanings that they often cause misunderstandings wherever they are used. Unfortunately, most people do not know this, and naturally assume that the meaning that they have been taught is the universally accepted definition of the term.

The term "Unitarian" is a good example:

Pre-1776 CE: Belief in a single God and the rejection of the Christian concept of the Trinity.

Post-1775: A creedless and dogma-free religious organization. The Unitarian Universalist Association, (UUA) is an association of Unitarian congregations.

Utter confusion reigns when an author is using one definition of "Unitarian," while a reader assumes the other meaning. Misunderstandings also happen when an author assumes that both definitions refer to the same organization or belief.

One of the most confusing and dangerous religious term is "Cult". The word is derived from the French word "culte" which came from Latin noun "cultus." The latter is related to the Latin verb "colere" which means "to worship or give reverence to a deity." Thus, in its original meaning, the term "cult" can be applied to any group of religious believers: Southern Baptists, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Roman Catholics, Hindus or Muslims. However, the term has since been assigned at least eight new and very different meanings. The original meaning of "cult" remains positive; more recent definitions are neutral, negative, or extremely negative:

Positive Meaning: Theological usage: Oxford English Dictionary defined "cult" as: "worship; reverential homage rendered to a divine being or beings" "a particular form or system of religious worship; especially in reference to its external rites and ceremonies" devotion or homage to a particular person or thing."

This is the historical meaning of the word, but is rarely today heard outside of religious circles. A reference to the "Cult of Mary" appeared in a newspaper report on the Pope's 1999 visit to the Americas. It simply means that the Pope devotes special attention to the Virgin Mary.

Cultural usage: The word is often associated with cult films, cult bands, or cult TV programs. Here, the term "cult" refers to a small but devoted following of a movie, entertainment group or television program. Avid supporters of Star Trek may be referred to as devoted cultists.

Neutral Meanings: Sociological usage: A small religious group that exists in a state of tension with the predominant religion. Hinduism might be considered a cult in North America; Christianity might be considered a cult in India.

Additional sociological usage: An innovative, fervent religious group, as contrasted with more established and conventional sects and denominations.

The Observer: An English newspaper seemed to use the term to refer to any small religious group, no matter what its age or teachings. 1

General religious usage: A small, recently created, religious organization which is often headed by a single charismatic leader and is viewed as an spiritually innovative group. A cult in this sense may simply be a new religious movement on its way to becoming a denomination. The Christian religion, as it existed in 30 CE might be considered a cult involving one leader and 12 or 70 devoted disciples as followers. The Mormon denomination was started in the 19th century by Joseph Smith and a few followers; it met this definition of "cult" but has since grown to become an established denomination of about 15 million members.

Negative Meanings: Evangelical Christians and Counter-Cult Movement (CCM) usage: They define a cult as any religious group which accepts most but not all of the key historical Christian doctrines (e.g. the divinity of Jesus, virgin birth, the Trinity, salvation by faith, not works, etc.). The implication is that the cult's theology is invalid; they teach heresy. Under this definition, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (the Mormons), Unification Church, Jehovah's Witnesses, and many others would be cults. But the CCM would not classify Wicca as such, because it is not associated with Christianity. The earliest use of this meaning of the word "Cult" is believed to be a 1938 book "The Chaos of the Cults" by J.K. VanBaalen. On the other hand, new religious groups such as the Mormons, Unification Church and Jehovah's Witnesses generally regard themselves to be the true Christian church. They view all other denominations as being in error. Thus, one group's true church is another group's cult. One group's heresy is the other group's orthodoxy.

Fundamentalist Christian usage: Some Fundamentalists would accept the Evangelical definition of cult defined above. Others brand any religious group which deviates from historical Protestant Christian beliefs as a cult. This definition would include the LDS Church, Wicca, mainline and liberal Christian denominations, Islam, Hinduism, and all of the other religions of the world. The vast majority of humanity would belong to cults, by this definition.

Anti-cult movement usage: The anti-cult movement (ACM) attempts to raise public consciousness about what they see as dangerous and authoritarian mind control cults and doomsday cults. Most do not care about the faith group's theology. They target only what they see as deceptive practices, and dangerous psychological pressure techniques, such as brainwashing. The ACM appears to hold opinions about the effectiveness of brainwashing that are not shared by the mental-health community generally. They see mind control/doomsday cults as a widespread social problem.

Very negative meaning: Popular, media usage: A cult is considered a small, evil religious group, often with a single charismatic leader, that engages in brainwashing and other mind control techniques, believes that the end of the world is imminent, and collects large amounts of weaponry in preparation for a massive war. The earliest use of this meaning of the word is believed to have been in a 1965 book by Walter Martin "The Kingdom of the Cults"

We have seen "cult" used to refer to Evangelical denominations, the Roman Catholic Church, Unification Church, Church of Scientology, United Church of Christ, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Wiccans, other Neopagans and many other faith groups. The term is essentially meaningless.

Cited: <http://www.religioustolerance.org/cults.htm>

Hi everyone. Seems like everyone here is still arguing whether their belief is right or wrong. I don't think that's what Jesus Christ commanded us. Jesus said to "Love One Another". How can you guys say you love Jesus Christ when you guys don't love one another? Love God and Love Your Neighbor are Jesus Christ greatest commandments.

I am a Christian myself and have already accepted Jesus Christ as my personal savior. I don't discriminate someone based on their religious belief. I try to give advice and pray for them that they would accept Jesus

By: Frank on June 11, 2008
at 3:44 pm

Reply

Christ. That's pretty much what I can do as far as making someone to be a believer in Jesus Christ. Only Him can judge everyone since He is the Creator of all of us. I hope this helps for all of you.

John 14:6:

Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

Accept Jesus Christ as your personal savior because He is the only way to life.

Wow so this is the blog that one of my fellow Church of God member told me that Ted and the rest of his team hang out. I've been reading throughout the blog and I really feel sorry for those who cannot see God's truth in the Bible. Seems like my brothers and sisters have tried to show you guys the truth and still cannot see it.

By: Bright Angel on
June 11, 2008
at 5:09 pm

Reply

However, prayer is an indispensable part of Christian faith. Without earnest prayer, we can achieve nothing. Though invisible, prayer has a miraculous power to make the impossible possible.

Communicating with God by prayer

Let me tell you a story of an American family who had a problem with their telephone. The family's telephone worked well during the daytime, but during the nighttime it did not work at all.

Such a situation repeated itself for a long time, and they had to call the repairman to fix it. The repairman was at a loss for words when he found out the reason for the trouble, because it was such a stunning one. When he disassembled the telephone, he found lines delicately disconnected, although they looked like a line without any gap. So during the daytime, when the temperature went up, it was possible for them to use the telephone since the gap was filled up by the expansion of lines due to the heat. However, when the temperature went down during the nighttime, the gap between the two lines reappeared due to the shrinkage of the lines. As a result, they could not use the telephone during the nighttime.

As the family could communicate with others when the telephone lines are connected, so we can communicate with God when God and we are connected by prayer. In order to deliver our will and hope to God, prayer is absolutely necessary.

George Washington, the first president of the United States, held on to God day and night for the independence of America. Thomas Edison, the genius of invention, did not spare thousands of prayers for a single invention. That was why God gave him many ideas beyond human thought, so that he could contribute greatly to the civilization of mankind. The light bulb that lights up the darkness is one of the results of his prayer.

When we study the histories of the Bible, we can see many examples of the people who achieved great works by prayers. Israel enjoyed national prosperity under the reign of King David because he earnestly prayed to God all the time (2 Sa 7:18-29). King Solomon, the son of David, also received many blessings through a thousand burnt offerings (1 Ki 3:4-13). Nehemiah was able to reconstruct Jerusalem by earnestly asking God's help for his fallen nation (Ne 1:1-11). Daniel did not only save his own life, but also made the king of Babylon repent who worshiped a foreign god, by interpreting the king's dream through his sincere prayer to God (Da 2:17-19). When we talk of prayer, we cannot exclude Jesus. He set an example of praying day and night to accomplish the gospel work for our salvation. He had the power to achieve our salvation without prayer, but to set us an example He prayed earnestly to God, saying that God listens to the sincere prayers (Lk 11:9-13).

When we read all 66 books of the Bible, we cannot find any book that does not talk about prayer; all the stories in the Bible contain prayer. This shows how important prayer is in our faith.

High level of prayer for high level of desire

However, sometimes we do not pray as often as we should, even though we feel the necessity of constant prayer. This happens when we do not set a higher standard or establish a higher level of hope in the process of pursuing eternal heaven.

Let's think of mathematics which we felt in our school days was difficult. In those days, you might question why you had to learn confusing differentiation, integration, permutations and combinations, even though only four arithmetical operations—adding, subtracting, multiplying and dividing—would be enough for everyday life. However, the higher mathematics is necessary to the people who have an aim at a higher dimension and have the spirit of inquiry. Ordinary people need only ordinary mathematics. In order to launch rockets, build space stations, or shoot up artificial satellites to outer space for taking a view of the earth, higher dimensional mathematical calculation is indispensable.

A person with a higher goal needs a higher level of mathematics. In the same way, if we have a higher level of hope in the religious life, we should not just stay at the level of conventional prayer such as just thanking for daily bread or thanking for allowing us to attend the church without any problems. Rather, we should offer more various and higher level of prayers.

When I first received the truth, I prayed just because the Bible said so; I prayed during the prayer weeks of the feasts; I offered just formal prayers when I woke up in the morning; and before I went to bed, I prayed to God, thanking Him for keeping me safe all day. It would be the same for everyone at first. Now, we should not merely stay at this level of prayers. We should set a high goal and pray for it endlessly as our faith grows.

We cannot launch a manmade satellite just with the four arithmetical operations, nor can we build a bridge over a river. In the same manner, whoever has a higher goal and tries to dedicate himself to the great gospel work, the corresponding prayer is required. Since we are planning to accomplish the worldwide Reformation, we must continually ask God with various and higher dimensional prayers.

Pray always and continually

There is a proverb, 'Too much is as bad as too little.' Likewise, it is not good to be excessive on anything in this world. However, prayer is an exception. The Bible enlightens us on the importance of prayer, saying, "Pray always" or "Pray continually."

Lk 18:1-7 Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up. He said: "In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor cared about men. And there was a widow in that town who kept coming to him with the plea, 'Grant me justice against my adversary.' For some time he refused. But finally he said to himself, 'Even though I don't fear God or care about men, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will see that she gets justice, so that she won't eventually wear me out with her coming!'" And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out to him day and night? ..."

Jesus told us not to be disappointed or give up easily even if we do not get any answer after praying once or twice. Jesus said: "Will not God bring about justice for his beloved children, who cry out day and night, when even an audacious unjust judge vented the widow's spite after the continuous plea?" Even a vicious man can't refuse an earnest plea but listens to it. How much more will God answer the prayers of His children asking His help for righteous things?

If we pray wholeheartedly and continually until our prayers are answered, God will surely listen to our prayers. If you feel that God has not answered your prayers yet, pray once more right now. Do not ever think that your prayers will not be answered. If you pray about everything and have a firm belief that God will answer your prayer, you will experience amazing miracles just like Daniel, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego did.

Whenever we pray, we should remember the word, "Pray always, without ceasing." God is bringing about justice for His children, and He is spreading the gospel without rest even to the ends of the earth. So, let's continually pray to God until we find all members of our heavenly family scattered worldwide, 'Please help us to find all our lost brothers and sisters.'

1 Th 5:16-25 Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus ... Broth-ers, pray for us.

Rejoice always; pray without ceasing; give thanks in everything. This is God's will for us. His will for us is to pray continually, not to give up, even though our prayers are not answered after trying once or twice. We are to continue in prayer until we find all the 144,000.

Prayer for our lost brothers and sisters

The best gift for a brother in Zion is to pray for him. If you see a brother of an ungracious disposition, please pray for him.

For the past 20 years, I have constantly asked God to help us find all of our heavenly family members. I am sure that it is the same to you. As a result of prayer, many people from different countries are now rushing into Zion.

Since the same prayer has been repeated for the past 20 years, I can actually feel that God is answering my prayer: He is helping us to set up our Churches in many faraway countries; people who are dead without knowing the glory of Zion come to life as soon as they receive the word of God; wherever the good news of the new covenant and the new name are delivered, all become alive.

As the result of our prayer, God has helped us to find many of our lost brothers and sisters in a short period of time. If we have given up after praying once or twice, God might have not answered our prayers, thinking that our will is weak and that we are still not worthy to receive what we ask for. We have been praying persistently, and God has answered our united prayer; He has been continuously sending us our spiritual family. We should always pray and not give up.

If we pray before trying to do something, God will lead us to the right way and change all the bad conditions into the beneficial ones. Since it is God's will for us to pray continually with all our heart, we should never stop praying until the day our Father comes back; we should ask God to help us to preach the good news even to the ends of the earth and find all of the lost ones.

Let's pray earnestly to our Father. The unjust judge answered the widow's prayer because she asked Him day after day. Then, will our heavenly Father not listen to our prayers if all of us ask Him earnestly day and night? He will answer all His children's prayers even though He may need to change the cosmic system slightly.

God answers His children's prayer

It is shameful for me to say, but when I was young, I used to press my parents. They granted almost all my requests when I pestered them. When I pray to the heavenly Father, I often ask Him importunately: "Please make this fulfilled within a year." As a result of pressing God in this manner, He has answered almost all my prayers even before His intended time for it.

It was not because the widow was fluent or respectable that the judge gave her legal protection, but because she kept bothering him day after day. Nobody can compete with a person who keeps bothering him every day.

Lk 11:5-13 " ... Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened. Which of you fathers, if your son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead? Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? If you then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

It is natural for parents to become softhearted toward their children when they continue to pester them. Why would our heavenly Father not give the Holy Spirit to the children who continually ask Him for it? Ask God earnestly, and all your prayers will be answered in accordance with the love and grace of our heavenly Father and Mother.

Let's make it a habit to pray before doing even a very trivial thing. When we drive, let's pray before start. When we preach the gospel, let's pray first, then we will get a much better outcome.

Those who do not pray work on their own. However, those who pray always depend on God's help. What if a farmer still uses a plow to cultivate even though many effective machines have already been invented and used for the job? It may take more time than a week or ten days at least for him to finish the job by using the plow. However, it can be finished within a day when a machine is used.

The most effective way to fulfill the gospel is prayer. Through prayer we receive strength from our Father and Mother so that we can work effectively and powerfully.

In the Early Church, a powerful evangelization was accomplished through prayers. The saints in those days did not rely on themselves but mobilized the power of God through their prayers. We are to learn the effective method used by the saints about 2,000 years ago.

Let us remember the words of Jesus in Luke 18. If God has not answered our prayers yet, it is because we have not prayed enough. Let's think over this fact once more, and try to store up the spiritual power through our earnest prayers. Even the unjust judge granted the request of the widow. How much more will our God, who made our ears, give ear to our prayers and care for us when we are troubled! He is indeed listening to all our prayers and watching over us all the time.

It is our Father's will for us to pray continually. Let's pray diligently, especially for world evangelism, so that the gospel may be preached in the whole world. When we pray together with one mind and go into all the world, God will surely and quickly accomplish the gospel in these last days. I hope all the members of Zion will continue to pray, always asking our heavenly Father and Mother to find all of our lost brothers and sisters.

So now there are more CHILDREN OF ELOHIM, MEMBERS of CoG => I hope that maybe this time we may open up the eyes of @least 1. I know that sometimes men cannot understand

By: Lizzie on June 11, 2008
at 7:06 pm

the will of God, but his thoughts are higher than ours (Isa 55:9). God explained how he wanted his ppl to act. He told us his will so that we may follow it. Apostle John told us that he came in the FLESH (John 1:1-14)... This was to show us how to follow him, what to call him.

Only after Jesus came did they pray in the name of the FATHER (Matt 6:9). He told us about the Sabbath in the flesh as Jesus. He showed us thru actions by keepin the Sabbath as was his custom (Luke 4:16). He taught us how to pray (Matt 24:14). He taught us to preach continually, if we weren't welcomed in one place, move on to the next (Matt 10:14). Never lose hope. He told us not everyone is a Child of Light... There are Satans children as well who refuse the truth (John 8:44). Those who try to deceive other from following God. He came again to REMIND us as it was prophesied (John 14:26). WITH A NEW NAME!!! (Rev 2:17)

Reply

Over and over God has told us of his will, so that there will be no excuses (John 15:22). He taught us what the TRUE church should have:
Sabbath Day (Ex 20:8)
Feasts of God (Lev 23)
Veil (1 Cor 11:3-5)
Fastin on Fathers Ascension (Mark 2:20)
New Songs (Rev 14:3)
New Name & New Jersusalem(Rev 3:12)
etc etc etc

But yet still many here cannot see this... WHY?
I still believe that I can find my borthers and sisters here. I believe that I am not doing this in vain. I pray for the unbelievers. I write letters to our Mother and ask her to please open up the eyes of those who are still in the dark.
More brothers are coming to this site... which tells me that somewhere in here there is a brother who is in the dark and wishes to come to the Light.

Warrior said that Poland and I are at fault for the disaster that occured @ Myanmar not so long ago.

"Brother Poland and sister Lizzie we have to be in zion why do you waste your time here when they cannot understand what we preach over and over again.
Do you know our mother said to give love and not fight and because of you two lost sheep on this blog our church got destroyed in the myanmar cyclone.
Even after having kept the passover it did not let disaster pass over our church."

I never thought I would say this but Dark Angel, THANK YOU FOR ACTUALLY TELLING HIM THAT WE ARE NOT AT FAULT.

"Warrior is correct, one of your churches was destroyed by a natural disaster.

However, Lizzie and Poland are NOT the cause of that.

Warrior, it would appear that you are not saved by natural disasters after all."

Do you know the real reason that the cyclone disaster destroyed that church? They kept sinning even after taking the Passover. There was alot of SEXUAL IMMORALITY, THEY DESECRATED THE SABBATH, THEY WERE NOT IN THE TRUTH AND LACKED FAITH! I am sorry but I am not GOD and I cannot make a whole church BE SEXUALLY IMMORAL! I do not have the power to tell anyone, let alone a WHOLE CONGREGATION to take the Sabbath as a Joke, to not have sufficient FAITH. Mother called the church and asked the Pastor DO THEY KEEP THE SABBATH?, DO THEY HAVE FAITH? and the Pastor told her NO. She then warned him and told him to leave right away, to go back hime.
Like the story of LOT and SODOM & GAMORRAH. An angel of God warned Lot of the disaster coming upon the sin city and asked him to LEAVE and DONT LOOK BACK.

Genesis 13:13

Now the men of Sodom were wicked and were sinning greatly against the LORD.

Genesis 19:12-17

12 The two men said to Lot, "Do you have anyone else here—sons-in-law, sons or daughters, or anyone else in the city who belongs to you? Get them out of here, 13 because we are going to destroy this place. The outcry to the LORD against its people is so great that he has sent us to destroy it."

14 So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were pledged to marry [a] his daughters. He said, "Hurry and get out of this place, because the LORD is about to destroy the city!" But his sons-in-law thought he was joking.

15 With the coming of dawn, the angels urged Lot, saying, "Hurry! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away when the city is punished."

16 When he hesitated, the men grasped his hand and the hands of his wife and of his two daughters and led them safely out of the city, for the LORD was merciful to them. 17 As soon as they had brought them out, one of them said, "Flee for your lives! Don't look back, and don't stop anywhere in the plain! Flee to the mountains or you will be swept away!"

The Passover isnt a sure fire way to have eternal life, you need faith with deeds, you need to keep ALL OF FATHERS COMMANDMENTS. (James 2:20-26)
Now all of you non-believers, WHY WOULD MOTHER HAVE THE POWER TO BRING ABOUT NATURAL DISASTERS IF SHE IS NOT GOD?!

Here's a testimony of ex-cult member:

By: Clark on June 11, 2008
at 7:52 pm

wow-I just got out of this cult. The guy ansahnghong predicted second coming christ in 1985.(which would mean baptism at 2015 to fullfill prophecy of being baptised at 30. then he would have to serve 37 yrs. But when I mentioned that they segregated me and said I was like poison.Why for thinking with my own mind that God gave me? They always say God gave us a mind for a reason but to question the church is like questioning God. My poor best friend is still in it and thinks I'm damned sinner for leaving. The bible says if ANYONE says look there is the christ, do not go there ,he is false. They claim to have God in the flesh in Korea.They claim the end of the world in 2012.And we were supposed to be happy about it. If you weren't happy about it you must be a damned sinner who doesn't belong. I was brainwashed. You must watch videos. You must go and tell others in the same age group who will be able to "serve" in the gospel.(have jobs, must also preach and find more newcomers,look presentable)It was toxic. You have to listen to only there music.

Reply

Cited:

<http://brendoman.com/wardwords/2005/11/21/cult>

June 10 2008 @ 4:47

Well, well, I'm glad that finally there are some people in that cult are opening their eyes to the reality. I'm sure ex-cult member can smell the good things in life now. Dark Angel, there's something wrong with my computer and I'm trying to give ex-cult member an advice. Also Dark Angel, since your talking to him go ahead and give him the cult-watch site so we can gather some information about COG, M.J., and his full experience about it. I can't wait to see Donnie's questions get answered, hahaha!!!.

I also have an advice to all the COG members. Learn from ex-cult member's experience and hopefully you guys will also see the reality of life.

Hmmm I see a lot of new people in this blog. I'm also happy to see that my brothers and sisters are trying to show everyone here the truth of God's will. Wow, Sister Lizzie, that's quite interesting to find out that the Church of God in Myanmar is not really keeping God's commandments and making a joke of it. Clearly, the Bible testifies that what happened before is to teach this generation. Those who do not keep God's words always perish. Even in the time of Noah where people think it would never rain since it never happened before, God's words always prevail and those who keep it are always saved.

By: brofromzion on
June 11, 2008
at 8:06 pm

Reply

I actually miss COGinator who calls me bozofromzion and the things he does to Church of God. I just hope someday his spiritual ears will hear and understand God's will according to the Bible. COGinator, I'll be waiting when we become spiritual brothers. I'll keep praying for you. God bless you all.

Well, that "telephone story is full of BS.....I have a family member who works for the telephone company and said that is a bunch of BS.....just another lie to get more blind followers to give money to the church....

By: mommadukes on June 11, 2008
at 8:19 pm

Reply

Brothers and Sisters of Church of God, let's keep preaching the truth to those who are lost and bring them in God's Heavenly barn.

By: Elijah on June 11, 2008
at 8:19 pm

Reply

Nowadays, if one were to ask a Christian if they have received salvation, most would respond by saying "yes" and often answer it confidently. However, if they are asked "Do you celebrate the Passover?" most of them would hesitate in answering or may even ask "isn't that a Jewish holiday?" Actually, according to the Bible, without the Passover no one can be saved. While most people are unaware that the Passover is one of God's commandments that should be celebrated, the Church of God is the only church in the world that celebrates the Passover of the new covenant. They celebrate it even at its appointed time which is the fourteenth day of the first month at twilight by sacred calendar (Lev.23:4) One may ask, "How is it that Church of God is the only church that is able to keep the Passover?" Well, while the Passover was established two thousand years ago by Jesus Christ, it was restored nowadays by second coming Christ, AhnSahngHong and brought to the Church of God. The Passover is continuously mentioned throughout the Bible as being one of God's most important Feasts, in which He grants us the gift of eternal life and the forgiveness of sins.

God not only promises eternal life through the Passover, but also gives the promise that we can escape from any disasters that occur. As surreal as that may seem, the Old Testament clearly gives us evidence of this fact. Those who celebrated the Passover would never be harmed by any plagues, while those who didn't celebrate it, were always destroyed.

In other words, if we do not celebrate the Passover, we cannot have the forgiveness of sins or eternal life, nor can we be saved from the last disasters. The Church of God, which strongly believes in the prophecies of the Bible, celebrates the Passover, the truth of the Early Church, following the teachings of Christ AhnsahngHong.

The origin of the Passover

In the Old Testament times, the Israelites had been under slavery in Egypt for four hundred and thirty years and yearned to be free. Because of this, God sent Moses to bring about their emancipation.

When Moses was eighty years old, God commanded him to ask Pharaoh to let the Israelites go. However, Pharaoh paid no attention to his request because he wanted the Israelites to serve him. In fact, he began to afflict the Israelites more severely. As a result, God was enraged at Pharaoh and the Egyptians and so decided to bring terrible plagues upon the whole land of Egypt: the plague of blood, the plague of frogs, of flies....of darkness. Although the Pharaoh did not want to face these plagues, he surprisingly became more adamant on not letting the Israelites go. It was actually God who hardened his heart so that he may judge Egypt.

Finally, God decided to send the tenth plague, the plague of the firstborn, on the fourteenth day of the first month by sacred year. This plague is when God decides to destroy all firstborn of Egypt, both men and animals. Since the Israelites were God's people, God did not want them to be destroyed along with the Egyptians. Although a strange command at the time, He ordered the Israelites to take the blood of a year-old lamb and put it on the tops and sides of their door frames.

Ex. 12:1-14 ..."The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect ...Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the people of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight... This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; it is the LORD's Passover...The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt. This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD-a lasting ordinance."

Since the Israelites had the blood of the lamb on their houses, they received the "sign" that God promised and were fortunate enough to escape the plague. This day was called the Passover, because the plague literally would "pass over" those who kept it.

On that day, the Israelites put the lamb's blood on their doorframes, ate its roasted meat, and prepared to go on a journey. That night, as the Israelites waited, loud wailing could be heard. All of the firstborn of Egypt were killed, and that did not exclude the firstborn of Pharaoh. Pharaoh was furious after the death of his son, so during the night he summoned Moses and Aaron and told them to leave Egypt. At this point, the Egyptians grew tired of suffering from plagues and wanted the Israelites to leave quickly. Yet, before the Israelites left, God caused the Egyptians to be favorably disposed towards them, giving them articles of silver and gold, and even clothing.

The Passover was the day when God freed the Israelites from the slavery of Egypt. However, the Old Testament is not just Israelite history, but a shadow or a prophecy. In the New Testament times, the Passover is the only feast through which God's people can receive the forgiveness of their sins and can be saved from all disasters.

God promised to give us eternal life through the Passover

Everybody would agree that they desire to have eternal life, but are unsure of how to receive it. Just as only God was able to save the Israelites during the Exodus, then it is only God that can reveal how to receive eternal life.

1 John 5: 20 We know also that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true. And we are in him who is true-even in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

Then, how will God grant us eternal life? In the Old Testament, it was the blood of the lamb that saved the Israelites from slavery during the time of the Exodus. In the New Testament, Christ came as the Passover lamb (1Co5: 7) so it is only through His blood that we receive salvation.

John 6:53-55 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink."

Jesus promised that whoever eats His body and blood will receive eternal life. Then through which Feast did he promise his body and blood?

Matt. 26:17-28 ...So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover...While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body." Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins."

Jesus Christ himself promised that if we receive his Body and Blood through the Passover, we can live forever. That should be reason enough to want to celebrate the Passover!

However, when Jesus Christ spoke about eternal life, He made it conditional. "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you" (John 6:53). Then unless we celebrate the Passover, how can we receive eternal life?

The Passover that God established with the Israelites during the time of the Exodus is considered the old covenant Passover. When Jesus Christ established it two thousand years ago, He called it the new covenant Passover.

Luke 22:7-20 Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed...When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer."...And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you."

No man can reveal how to receive eternal life so Jesus Christ came to show us that the only way to receive it, is by keeping the Passover of the new covenant.

Being freed from sin through the Passover

Most Christians would agree that they are sinners. However, few people know that the sin was actually committed in heaven and we were cast down to this Earth as a result. Then the only way to return to Heaven is to be forgiven of our sins through the Passover.

Luke 4: 17-21 The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him..."He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind..."... and he began by saying to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."

This verse explains how Jesus came to free the prisoners, but who are these prisoners he's speaking of? Actually, once we sinned, we became slaves to sin and death and became captive to Satan. Through the precious blood of Jesus Christ, the Passover Lamb, we can be freed from slavery.

Rom 6:22 But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves to God, the benefit you reap leads to holiness, and the result is eternal life.

The history of the Israelites celebrating the Passover, being freed from slavery, and entering the desert is a prophecy that shows us what will happen to those who keep the Passover in the New Testament times. After receiving Jesus' flesh and blood they will be freed from their sins and enter the spiritual desert (1 Cor. 10:1-12).

The last plagues and the Passover

The Bible prophecies that many disasters are to come, and the only way to escape them is by keeping the Passover.

Matt. 24:37-39 "As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man."

1 Thess. 5:1-3 Now, brothers, about times and dates we do not need to write to you, for you know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, "Peace and safety," destruction will come on them suddenly, as labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

During the days of Noah, Noah warned the people that a flood was going to come. However, the people had never experienced one before, so they just mocked him and continued to live their lives, ignoring the news of salvation. Nowadays, we can see all around us that many disasters are occurring and many more will come. The most urgent thing now is for us to listen to the news of salvation. Besides, there are many prophecies in the Bible that speak of the last disasters. More importantly, God gives us to way to escape them.

Just as those people who were destroyed by the flood in Noah's time, those who do not listen to the message of salvation nowadays, cannot receive eternal life. Although the Bible gives to way to escape disasters, men try to escape them by their own means. They'll even go to the extreme such as making an underground shelter, going to another planet by rocket, fleeing to a peaceful country, or hiding within an atomic submarine under a North Pole iceberg. Even though they may be able to escape temporarily, eventually they will also have to face the disaster. Even the prophets long ago, prophesied about men who would do such things.

Zeph. 1:18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the LORD's wrath.

Amos 9:2-4 "Though they dig down to the depths of the grave, from there my hand will take them. Though they climb up to the heavens, from there I will bring them down. Though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, there I will hunt them down and seize them. Though they hide from me at the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent to bite them. Though they are driven into exile by their enemies, there I will command the sword to slay them. I will fix my eyes upon them for evil and not for good."

We are living in a crucial age in which we must study the prophecies of the Bible and follow the way of salvation. After all, who does not want to be saved? Any attempt made by man to escape disasters will fail, but if we follow the path that God left us, then we will receive salvation. To those who believe prophecies, God gave showed through ancient times what would happen at the end of the age.

Ex. 12:12-14 "On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn-both men and animals-and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt. This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD-a lasting ordinance."

In Hebrews 11:28, it is written, "By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel." This means that no destructive plague was brought upon the houses where the blood of the Passover lamb had been sprinkled, because it became a sign.

God's last plagues will be brought upon this sinful world. At that moment, who on earth can escape? Can't the people who have the blood of Jesus, who have celebrated the Passover, escape? The power of the Passover will be revealed when the last plagues are brought upon the earth. Those who have not celebrated the Passover will regret it, and they will face God's wrath and punishment.

Christ Ahnsahnghong, who restored the Passover of the New Covenant

The Passover was abolished at the Council of Nicaea in A.D. 325. At that time, the Passover completely disappeared from the world. Who on earth can have eternal life if the truth of life was abolished? Therefore, Jesus said that He would come a second time to restore the Passover.

Heb. 9:28 ...so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

Ahnsahnghong restored the Passover of the new covenant that had been abolished by Satan. Then, who do you think Ahnsahnghong is?

Isa. 25:6-9 On this mountain the LORD Almighty will prepare a feast of rich food for all peoples, a banquet of aged wine-the best of meats and the finest of wines. On this mountain he will destroy the shroud that enfolds all peoples, the sheet that covers all nations; he will swallow up death forever. The Sovereign LORD will wipe away the tears from all faces; he will remove the disgrace of his people from all the earth. The LORD has spoken. In that day they will say, "Surely this is our God; we trusted in him, and he saved us. This is the LORD, we trusted in him; let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation."

Ahnsahnghong, who restored the Passover of the new covenant, is the Second Coming Christ-God-who appeared in accordance with all of the prophecies of the Bible. The saints of the Early Church had cherished and celebrated the Passover of the new covenant! Christ Ahnsahnghong came in the flesh and restored the Passover so that we may be saved from the impending plagues. The Passover of the new covenant is the very gospel of Christ.

Our Father said, "The army moves on at the sound of the trumpet, and God's people at the sound of the prophecy."

By: Robert on June 11, 2008 at 8:22 pm

Then, what prophetic sound should we now pay attention to? It is the word, "Fulfill the gospel, helping one another." Studying the Bible, let's come closer to God's will contained within the prophecy.

Follow Christ's Example

God wishes us to be of the same mind with one another according to Jesus Christ.

Ro 15:5-6 May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you a spirit of unity among yourselves as you follow Christ Jesus, so that with one heart and mouth you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus, our Teacher, always set examples of what we Christians should do, saying, "I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you." Among many examples, let's take a close look at the example of preaching: From early in the morning until late at night Jesus continued His preaching (Mk 1:35-39).

Christ came to save souls destined to die due to sin; His whole life was a continual preaching. When Jesus finished His ministry on earth and went up to heaven, He gave His last command to us: "Preach the gospel to every creature.”

If we are going to imitate Christ, we should strive to preach the gospel with one mind. Preaching is an expression of our faith in God. It is a way to save the world through testifying to the will of God. Now, we should be united in mind in saving the world. Moving at the sound of the prophecy, we are to help one another and participate together in preaching.

The Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard

We can find the will of God who wants us to be united, through the following parable given by Jesus.

Mt 20:1-16 “For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who sent out early in the morning to hire men to work in his vineyard. He agreed to pay them a denarius for the day and sent them into his vineyard. About the third hour he went out and saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. He told them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.’ So they went. He went out again about the sixth hour and the ninth hour and did the same thing. About the eleventh hour he went out ... ‘You also go and work in my vineyard.’ When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and going on to the first.’ The workers who were hired about the eleventh hour came and each received a denarius. So when those came who were hired first, ... ‘These men who were hired last worked only one hour,’ they said, ‘and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the work and the heat of the day.’ But he answered one of them, ‘Friend, I am not being unfair to you. Didn’t you agree to work for a denarius? Take your pay and go. I want to give the man who was hired last the same as I gave you. ...’”

In the days of Jesus, the hours of daylight were divided into twelve from sunrise to sunset. According to present time, the third hour corresponds to nine o’clock in the morning, the sixth hour to noon, the ninth hour to three o’clock in the afternoon, and the eleventh hour to five o’clock.

In the parable, the landowner gave an opportunity to work in his vineyard to all who were standing outside doing nothing. The workers entered the vineyard at different times of the day—some early, some at nine o’clock in the morning, some at noon, some at three o’clock in the afternoon, and others at five o’clock. However, all of them received the same amount of pay.

It is natural to expect that when a man works longer he deserves to be paid more, isn’t it? However, the owner, God, gave an equal amount to all of the laborers from the last hired to the first.

God is just and upright (Dt 32:4). He gives to everyone according to what he has done (Rev 22:12). The God of justice gave the same amount to those who worked only one hour, as was paid to those who worked all day. Through this we can make sure that though they worked for different lengths of time, they did the same amount of work after all.

Complete the New Jerusalem Temple in Unity

Considering the above parable, we must not be proud of being called early. If we have already received the truth and become leaders in the Church, we should help later comers work well, instead of being conceited, so that we may all receive blessings and rewards in the kingdom of heaven. This is God's will for us.

We are the materials for the building of God's spiritual temple, the Jerusalem Temple: In God we are being built together (Eph 2:20-22). Those who have entered the vineyard early in the morning are the pillars, major supporters, in the New Jerusalem Temple. Those who have entered the vineyard at five o'clock in the afternoon are the materials used in the finishing process.

In building a house, basic construction materials and finishing materials have fundamentally different functions. If we have the function of basic building materials, we are not given the function of finishing materials. We can't have both functions at once. We, the materials for the heavenly New Jerusalem Temple, have our own functions. It is impossible for us to carry out all other functions.

We, who have been called earlier, are obligated to help those who come later so that they can faithfully follow the will of our Father and Mother. Helping one another and fulfilling the gospel commission together with one accord—this is the will of God for us.

In the parable of the workers in the vineyard, the later comers did large amounts of work within a short time, and they also received a denarius. Maybe there were lots of help from many people. The earlier comers probably supported them in their work, sharing their skills and experiences with them. Likewise, our family members in Zion are working together in unity for the gospel work, so the Father and Mother are pleased with us and give the same blessing—the promise of heaven—to all of us.

Those who have come earlier and labored more than others will be blessed for their long lasting endurance. When the Lord settles spiritual accounts with us, some of us will receive a reward for sharing love, some a reward for helping others, and some a reward for bearing much fruit. Then God will greatly recommend us, saying, "You are really worthy of My children."

We Are One Family

We are members of the heavenly family. However, we can't fully perceive a deep emotional relationship of love among ourselves, because we are still veiled in our flesh. Does anyone hate his family members because they diligently do housework?

Certainly not. What about us? Are we not jealous of brothers and sisters who work hard? If we pursue our own little self-absorbed desires, instead of having a spiritual ambition to enjoy eternal joy in our heavenly home after quickly finding our lost brothers and sisters, we may become jealous of brothers who have more talent than ourselves.

None of us must care only for ourselves, our own group, and our own local church. If we do, we are not worthy members of the heavenly family. As the first, we must have mature faith and help our spiritual younger brothers and sisters do more work. Even though they may act thoughtlessly sometimes, we are to help them correct their undesirable behaviors and live in accordance with the will of our Father and Mother.

As their reliable supporters, we should help them do even more. When they wander off without knowing where to go, we have to guide them. In the process of entering heaven, we must help our loving spiritual family, so that all of us can enter the kingdom of heaven together.

We are one body, since we have partaken of the bread and wine of the Passover symbolizing the body and blood of Christ (1 Co 10:16-17). In the Talmud, there is a story about a two-headed man. This story suggests the wisest way to discern whether or not it is one person with two heads or two people with one body. It is to pour hot water over one head.

When the other head bellows in pain, it is evident that the two heads are part of one person; however, if it feels no pain, they are certainly separate people, not one. We are part of one body. God said, "If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it."

1 Co 12:12-27 The body is a unit, though it is made up of many parts; and though all its parts are many, they form one body. So it is with Christ. For we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body ... and we were all given the one Spirit to drink. Now the body is not made up of one part but of many. If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body. ... If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be? But in fact God has arranged the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be. ...

Even though the hand, the eye and the foot have different functions, they are parts of the same body. We, members of Zion family, are all one body. There should be no division in the body; its parts should have equal concern for each other.

Bear the Gospel Fruit in Unity

The gospel of the kingdom cannot be fulfilled unless we preach together, helping one another. If we do not work together in unity, we can't be God's soldiers who move on at the trumpet of the prophecy.

Psalms 126:3-6 ... Restore our fortunes, O LORD, like streams in the Negev. Those who sow in tears will reap with songs of joy. He who goes out weeping, carrying seed to sow, will return with songs of joy, carrying sheaves with him.

Now, the family of Zion is sowing the seed of God's word in the midst of hard-ship, expecting to reap fruit in joy. Brothers who are beside us now are the fruit reaped from suffering. They are our precious family we've found in Babylon. No one should grumble, whether he began work very early in the morning or at five o'clock in the afternoon. What is important is not the time or length of the work in the vineyard, but the fact that we are all members of the heavenly family.

We are given opportunities to work in God's vineyard. When we work together in cooperation with one another, we can bear much fruit. The gospel work will be accomplished more quickly when we support our spiritual younger brothers so that they can do the work well. If an elder brother who started work early in the morning feels a little exhausted, the younger brother who entered the vineyard at noon can work harder; if he becomes somewhat weary, the third one who entered at three o'clock in the afternoon can make more effort; if he gets tired, the youngest one who entered at five o'clock in the afternoon can complete the work.

When we help one another, we can cultivate the vineyard to produce good fruit that is pleasing to our Father and Mother. Those who fully realize this fact are blessed by God more greatly.

Serve One Another in Love

God has told us, who are longing for the eternal kingdom of heaven, not to exalt ourselves but to serve one another in love.

Gal 5:13 You, my brothers, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the sinful nature; rather, serve one another in love.

Parents want their children to be honored by others. God wishes His children to be honored as kings in the kingdom of heaven. However, He wants them to serve one another in this earth.

Those who have been called first are likened to the elder brother in the family. When the first child is born, parents pour out their love into their firstborn. However, when their second baby is born, they put their energy into their second. Both the firstborn and the second-born are precious to their parents. Usually, however, a younger child needs more care than the older one. That's why parents pay more attention towards the youngest; not only his/her parents but also all his/her elder brothers and sisters take care of him/her.

We have been called earlier. If we still want to be served by our family members in Zion, instead of supporting them, we are like an elder brother who wants to be served by the younger. Can a little baby serve his/her elder brother or sister? We are to care for our younger brothers and sisters. This is the will of our Father and Mother. The Bible says that the elder shall serve the younger.

Php 1:27-28 Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firm in one spirit, contending as one man for the faith of the gospel without being frightened in any way by those who oppose you. This is a sign to them that they will be destroyed, but that you will be saved—and that by God.

When we help and serve one another, we can become one. If all our family members in Zion become united in mind, helping one another in everything, this is a sign to our enemy the devil that he will be destroyed, but that we will be saved—and that by God.

God wants His children to be together in one mind and one accord in Zion, just as described in Psalms: "How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity" (Ps 133:1-3). God's people are to move at the sound of the prophecy. All the brothers and sisters of the Churches of God, who are under God's reign, must fulfill the beautiful unity.

As parts of the body, as materials for the New Jerusalem Temple, we are to faithfully carry out our functions. There may be a dissimilarity of character among ourselves. We need to see our differences like the various parts of one body and be subject to one another, so that we can go to heaven together.

Let's help our family members, especially those who entered the vineyard at five o'clock in the afternoon, reach a level of faith pleasing to God. Let's encourage them and assist them to bear fruit. Then this gospel will spread rapidly to the ends of the earth this year. We are to endure and spare no labor until all the prophecies are fulfilled. Dear brothers and sisters in Zion! Let's serve one another, instead of expecting to be served. Then God will fulfill our wishes and allow us to bear abundant gospel fruit.

Seems like our fellow brothers and sisters are coming in this blog to preach more and bear fruit. Clearly, the prophecy is being fulfilled that the gospel of God will be preach to the whole world, even in the internet. Good job brothers and sisters.

By: Poland on June 11, 2008
at 8:26 pm

Reply

Matthew 28:19-20 – Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father(Jehovah) and of the Son(Jesus) and of the Holy Spirit(AhnsahngHong), and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Hello, I'm a cult expert currently investigating this group's involvement in a recent spate of New Jersey recruitments.

By: Rick on June 11, 2008
at 8:27 pm

I would very much like to get in touch with ex members of this group, prefereably around the Ohio or Jersey area. If anyone has any information please email me at:

Reply

rickross@rickross.com

Thank you.

Hi Rick,

I would like to get in touch with ex-COG members from the Bloomingdale Illinois church. My son is currently attending it, and is on the way to ruining his life. He currently earns around 6 figures, but mysteriously has no money. His wife doesn't want him in the church, and he has refused to disclose his finances to her. They have only been married a short time, but she very clearly sees what they are doing to him, yet he is so brainwashed that he doesn't see it at all. He does, however, want her to make her life savings available to him, though he won't disclose what he has to her. It appears that he will eventually lose his job and his wonderful, beautiful, intelligent wife. Nothing anyone can say to him will get him to be rational, although he keeps stating he is entirely rational. How can I get in touch with ex members? My son will not read anything critical of the church and their operations. He won't listen to reason, even though he can't answer the tough questions about the church that he has been asked. It is a total brainwashing operation, and they seem to have him. My daughter in law needs help, and we live in Montana, and are too far away to help her through things. My son has forbidden us to talk to her about anything that would "upset" or "worry" her, which means the church. Well, she was already at her wit's end, and had turned to me for help. Is there a support group? My e-mail is harwoodmt@hotmail.com

By: mountainmom on November 15, 2009
at 12:39 am

Reply

Ted, please stop what your doing. We here in the Church of God has been praying that you see the truth of the will of God. You are always welcome if you decided to follow the commandments of God. Salvation of our soul is the most important thing and only God can give eternal life.

By: Bright Angel on June 11, 2008
at 8:30 pm

Reply

Bozofromzion said, "I actually miss COGinator who calls me bozofromzion and the things he does to Church of God. I just hope someday his spiritual ears will hear and understand God's

By: CoGinator on June 11, 2008
at 9:36 pm

will according to the Bible. COGinator, I'll be waiting when we become spiritual brothers. I'll keep praying for you. God bless you all."

Reply

Well, I'm glad you came back to see me. :)

I think your prayer can be answered very soon, about you and I being spiritual brothers. Infact all you need to do is repent and ask the Lord for forgiveness for the sin of occultism for worshiping the false gods of ASH and Mother J. Then we'll be brothers in the one and only Christ called Jesus.

For Lizzie, I agree you and Poland didn't cause the myanmar cyclone disaster. Nor do I think God was punishing the behavior of the CoG there. (I heard both members were Ok, and it was just the physical building).

Furthermore, there are a lot worse sexually inappropriate areas that if God was going to unleash his wrath upon you'd know.

But if you choose to beleive God punished them, then you should be asking yourself why he doesn't do that to all the Christians that participate in Sunday Worship and Christmas. Could be that be an indication that he supports the notion of Sunday Worship and Christmas? If that's true, then the CoG doesn't have much validation of being the only Church that is in favor with God.

Also, I'm going to throw the CoG a bone. If you really want to effectively recruit people here...you have to shorten your posts, because when they get too long, us non-believers just scroll past them to get the next point. But if they were shorter we may actually read and think about what was posted. Unfortunately, doing so may make the points your stringing together easier to analyzie and dispute.

Oh yeah Frank...don't assume we don't love our neighbor here...infact the mere act of being here and dialoging with our neighbor about thier mis consceptions and false doctrines is the action behind our love. You can love them and disagree.

Lizzie said,

By: Dark Angel on
June 11, 2008
at 9:46 pm

Reply

"Do you know the real reason that the cyclone disaster destroyed that church? They kept sinning even after taking the Passover. There was alot of SEXUAL IMMORALITY, THEY DESECRATED THE SABBATH, THEY WERE NOT IN THE TRUTH AND LACKED FAITH! I am sorry but I am not GOD and I cannot make a whole church BE SEXUALLY IMMORAL! I do not have the power to tell anyone, let alone a WHOLE CONGREGATION to take the Sabbath as a Joke, to not have sufficient FAITH. Mother called the church and asked the Pastor DO THEY KEEP THE SABBATH?, DO THEY HAVE FAITH? and the Pastor told her NO. She then warned him and told him to leave right away, to go back hime.
Like the story of LOT and SODOM & GAMORRAH. An angel of God warned Lot of the disaster coming upon the sin city and asked him to LEAVE and DONT LOOK BACK."

Lizzie, I guess you are welcome. I didn't see a reason why two individuals should be blamed for something as petty as posting on a blog.

Also, you said they were sinning in the church. First, I think that story is very bogus. Out of all of the COG branches, that church, is the only one to do such things?

You said, "Mother called the church and asked the Pastor DO THEY KEEP THE SABBATH?, DO THEY HAVE FAITH? and the Pastor told her NO. She then warned him and told him to leave right away, to go back hime."

Lizzie, why is Mother Jerusalem asking questions? She omniscient remember. She called the pastor and asked if they had faith? Doesn't she know who has faith and who doesn't?

What would be the purpose is praying to her if she doesn't know who has faith in her or not. That is a bogus story, Lizzie. You might as well have accepted the blame that Warrior had put on both you and Poland.

Lastly, you said, "She then warned him and told him to leave right away, to go back hime."

So are you saying that she is the cause of the cyclone? She herself destroyed the church? Whether you want to believe it was her or ahnsahngHong, the point is, why destroy your own church and not destroy a Catholic church, a Jehovah Witness church, a Seventh Day Adventist church or any other church that is not a wms cog>

That is not possible for if any member of the COG were to do anything in your story, they would have been kicked out.

Those actions are not tolerated in your church. For my family member to get numerous phone calls and being humiliated in front of the congregation simply because she missed one sabbath day, well, I would have to say the story is nothing but BS.

You COG members having too much fear for god to even commit such things and that fear is instilled in all members, which is the fear that Mother Jerusalem is omniscient and she knows everything, even how much faith you have.

You COG members are too superstitious to even THINK about going against your own doctrine, better yet actually do it.

That story Lizzie, is a load of crap.

Also Lizzie,

By: Dark Angel on

Is the story about ahnsahnghong and Mother jerusalem taking a picture together, true?

June 11, 2008
at 10:00 pm

Reply

You all claim that I'm misinformed which I find weird because most of my information comes from you COG members. So, I want to make sure that it's correct.

Because if it is, you are basically saying that no one in the congregation knew who that ahnsahnghong was the "second coming" when he was alive, which I must say that Marcus/Ryan, told me something totally different some time ago on the cult-watch message board.

Unfortunately, Marcus/Ryan took the time to delete ALL of his comments, then, perhaps a week later the cult-watch message board was hacked and ALL posts and user accounts were deleted.

The good thing is that I remember what he posted. I've also asked him the same question here on this blog, he just happened to give me an answer on the cult-watch message board.

So Marcus, if you are around, let's talk about what you said please.

Thanks.

Poland, Bro from zion, Lizzie, Elijah why must you lie. I do not see any other brother or sister besides you'll here who are fighting with the anti-cog. I feel you all are making a mess of everything. You'll cannot tackle the questioning. You must understand well the teachings of the Cog but kept repeating the same post which allows them to have more doubts on our truth. This is not what Ahnsahnghong & mother taught us we need have more sheep. But do not be argumentative. We have father and mother and they do not need defenders? What have we to fear when we have the truth from the bible even if our cog gets destroyed. Ahnsahghong fulfilled all prophesy.

By: warrior on June 11, 2008
at 10:14 pm

Reply

Another thing I also noticed on one of our blog

<http://heaven144.blogspot.com/>

Our brother writing this:

God himself will teach us how to walk in his ways!!!!

The Law will come from Jerusalem!!!! The only Church that has fulfilled this prophecy is The Church of God

World Mission Society.

God Ahnsahnghong taught us how to walk in his ways!!!!

God Ahnsahnghong established Zion!!!

God Ahnsahnghong lead us to our heavenly Mother, the New Jerusalem!!!!

Christ Ahnsahnghong truly is my SAVIOR

These words our brother has posted above the picture of a donkey wearing 2 different pair of shoes

Doesn't this make us feel like donkeys. If we are the true spiritual brother and sister of Cog why don't we concur with each other and think well before we write or speak. we are under persecution and some anti-cog emails me that Joo cheol should change the title of his book "My sheep listen to my voice " to "My donkeys only listen to my voice"

Its very hurtful. May our father and mother open up their eyes

Lizzie and Poland,

By: Dark Angel on
June 11, 2008
at 10:18 pm

Here's what Warrior is saying about you two on the Brendoman site. Maybe you both need to address him. That is what I mea about you members not agreeing with one another. Some members believe one thing and other members believe another, then I'm blamed for being misinformed. Reply

"Poland, with me as a deacon of the Cog I feel Lizzie and you have made a mess of everything. You both could not tackle the problem of their questioning. You must understand well the teachings of the Cog but kept repeating the same post which allows them to have more doubts on our truth. This is not what Ahnsahnghong & mother taught us we need have more sheep. But you have taken it as an argument. Does our mother God need a defender?

Another thing I noticed on one of our blog

(He states the "Heaven144 blog")

God himself will teach us how to walk in his ways!!!!
The Law will come from Jerusalem!!!! The only Church that has fulfilled this prophecy is The Church of God World Mission Society.

God Ahnsahnghong taught us how to walk in his ways!!!!
God Ahnsahnghong established Zion!!!
God Ahnsahnghong lead us to our heavenly Mother, the New Jerusalem!!!!
Christ Ahnsahnghong truly is my SAVIOR

These words our brother has posted above the picture of a donkey wearing 2 different pair of shoes Doesn't this make us feel like donkeys. If we are the true spiritual brother and sister of Cog why don't we concur with each other and think well before we write or speak.

we are under persecution and some anti-cog emails me that Joo cheol should change the title of his book "My sheep listen to his voice " to "My donkeys have listened to my voice"
Its very hurtful. May our father and mother open up their eyes."

Oh WOW!
I cant believe that a DEACON of the CoG is

By: Lizzie on June 12, 2008

at 7:32 am saying such things! Its like when the anti-CoG crew believe that certain unbelieving bloggers are CoG members in disguise.

I personally am following the commands of Christ. Preaching at every opportunity!

I agree with CoGinator about the shorter posts being more captivating, but you have to understand that the CoG members are actually giving you studies in this website. Those are full blown studies. And the reason they do this is to shed some light in this very dark website.

I also sometimes skip all of them myself (theyre way too long) I even do that to the unbelievers posts. I like something that is to the point.

I guess some members of the CoG (or are they?) are talking behind brothers backs on other websites =(How sad it is that we arent in unity!!!

Ps 133:1-3 How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity! It is like precious oil poured on the head, running down on the beard, running down on Aaron's beard, down upon the collar of his robes. It is as if the dew of Hermon were falling on Mount Zion. For there the LORD bestows his blessing, even life forevermore.

1 Co 10:16-17 Is it not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is it not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

Well this isnt a teaching of Christ. I believe our Mothers teachings include:

"As Abraham was blessed with the better when he gave in for his nephew Lot, so we are blessed more greatlywhen we give in for brothers"

"As the sea receives all the dirt and purifies it, we should have the broad and beautiful mind enough to cover up even the brothers' faults"

"When we praise brothers, the praise returns to us"

I guess some of the so called brothers dont follow our Christs and Mother New Jerusalem teachings. I am here for 1 thing alone. To support my brothers and sisters (I started w Ryan/Marcus) and now I am here to try my hardest to bare fruit or at least open the eyes of the unbelievers who are in the dark. Our Christ came to bring light to shine the light onto the darkness.

John 3:19

This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but men loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil.

John 9:5

While I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

Reply

John 12:46

I have come into the world as a light, so that no one who believes in me should stay in darkness.

Ephesians 5:8

For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light

1 Thessalonians 5:5

You are all sons of the light and sons of the day. We do not belong to the night or to the darkness.

1 Peter 2:9

But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

1 John 1:5

[Walking in the light] This is the message we have heard from him and declare to you: God is light; in him there is no darkness at all.

I pray that God Blesses all on this website (whether it be Jehovah/Jesus?AhnsahngHong) and bring all the unbelievers to repentance!

Thank you Poland/brofromzion/and all the others who are supporting us.

Hi Lizzie,

in regards to your post about ahnsahngHong and mother jerusalem taking a picture together, is that information correct?

By: Dark Angel on
June 12, 2008
at 8:31 pm

Reply

Also, is mother jerusalem omniscient?

Thanks.

Wow...

We are all truly blessed. The Lord is doing miraculous things on this blog. I am reading the CoG members posts and there is doubt and confusion being generated amongst the members of the WMSCOG.

By: CoGinator on June 12, 2008
at 9:14 pm

Reply

You all are starting to see how the doctrine is circular and can't stand up on its own. Further you see that different branches teach things differently. This is helping you see why you don't agree with the doctrine that has been presented to you.

One reason for that confusion is that the duplication process that originates at the top gets messed up at some branch and then continues to duplicate wrong. See if the fundamentals were understood instead of the repetitive studies being memorized you would have a more consistent understanding.

Lizzie said, "I agree with CoGinator about the shorter posts being more captivating, but you have to understand that the CoG members are actually giving you studies in this website."

The studies are designed to move quickly and make wrong assumptions and then move on to a different scripture as to not question the previous one. If we slowed down to discuss them then we'd have time to talk about other possibilities and how they fit into not only the point that is tried to be proven, but about the situation and time frame the author was in and all the environmental variables that help us understand what the author was conveying.

Any bets on who renounces thier affiliation with the WMSCOG first? Poland, Lizzie, Brofromzion, warrior, or clark? (Just kidding Clark).

One thing I notice about the teachings of the WMSCOG is that they choose to accpet some aspects of the Mosaic Law and not other. For example the worshipping on the Sabbath is highly regarded as a must...and as we've read, if a member doesn't do it, they get chastised in front of the congregation. Why are you taught to keep the sabbath, but you can eat pork. the Mosaic law has always been one entity and you can't separate and pick and choose which laws you keep and which you can ignore (i.e. the religion of the smorgusborg...a little of this and a little of that).

By: CoGinator on June 12, 2008 at 9:24 pm

Reply

I believe one reason for choosing to keep the Sabbath is that it goes against the grain and really shows and proves who in the collective group is believing the doctrine that is being fed to you.

Secondly, it is a time long debated aspect of Christianity and Juddism that doesn't seem outrageous.

Thirdly, the WMSCOG originated out of Seventh Day Adventist, so much of thier original doctrine is applied.

But, One of the profound emphases of the New Testament, especially the epistles of Paul, is that Christians are no longer under the rule of the Mosaic law. This truth is stated in no uncertain terms and in various ways (see Rom. 6:14; 7:1-14; Gal. 3:10-13, 24-25; 4:21; 5:1, 13; 2 Cor. 3:7-18), but in spite of this, there have always been those who insist that the Mosaic Law, at least the Ten Commandments, are still in force for the Christian. In regard to the relation of Christian ethics to the Mosaic Law.

con't from above...

By: CoGinator on June 12, 2008 at 9:32 pm

There are Christian teachers of repute who consider the Mosaic law to be the present-day rule of life for the Christian.1 A view not infrequently found among earnest, orthodox believers is that although we are not saved by the law, once we have been justified by faith, then the Mosaic law becomes our rule of life. Those holding such a view generally make a sharp division of the Mosaic law into two parts, which they distinguish as the moral and the ceremonial. The ceremonial portion they consider as having found its fulfillment in Christ at His first advent, and thus as having now passed away. But the moral portion of the Mosaic law, say they, is still in force as the believer's rule of life. The treatment given to Christian ethics by some highly respected authors is indeed but little more than an exposition of the Decalogue.

Reply

It seems exceedingly strange that Bible-believing Christians should advocate such a view, when the New Testament makes it abundantly clear that the believer in Christ is not any longer under the Mosaic law in its entirety... Indeed after having been delivered from the law, to deliberately place ourselves once again under its [control] is said to be "falling from grace."

But let it be immediately understood that this does not mean to say that we should necessarily behave in a manner just opposite to what the Mosaic law commands—that we should kill, steal, bear false witness, etc. Long before the law was given through Moses, it was utterly wrong to do such evil things. . . .

By contrast, the age in which we live, the church age, has often and rightly been called the age of grace. This is not because God's grace has not been manifested in other ages, but because in the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ we have the ultimate manifestation of God's grace.

Titus 2:11-12. For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all people. It trains us to reject godless ways and worldly desires and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age,

Grace becomes an absolutely inseparable part of the believer's life in Christ. In the coming of Christ and His death on the cross, the Mosaic Law as a rule of life was terminated. The believer is now to live in the liberty and power of God's grace by the Spirit, not the rule of law. This new liberty must never be used as an occasion to indulge the flesh or sinful appetites (Gal. 5:13) nor does it mean the Christian has no moral law or imperatives on his life, but simply that he or she is to live righteously by a new source of life as asserted in Romans 8.

Romans 8:2-4. For the law of the life-giving Spirit in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and death. 3 For God achieved what the law could not do because it was weakened through the flesh. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and concerning sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, 4 so that the righteous requirement of the law may be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

So for the sake of argument, let's just assume for a minute that ASH doesn't exist. All your understanding of this as has to be filtered as if you are a new person and you don't have belief in the second coming arriving already.

From Lizzie "Do you know the real reason that the cyclone disaster destroyed that church?

They kept sinning even after taking the Passover. There was alot of SEXUAL IMMORALITY, THEY DESECRATED THE SABBATH, THEY WERE NOT IN THE TRUTH AND LACKED FAITH! I am sorry but I am not GOD and I cannot make a whole church BE SEXUALLY IMMORAL! I do not have the power to tell anyone, let alone a WHOLE CONGREGATION to take the Sabbath as a Joke, to not have sufficient FAITH. Mother called the church and asked the Pastor DO THEY KEEP THE SABBATH?, DO THEY HAVE FAITH? and the Pastor told her NO. She then warned him and told him to leave right away, to go back home.

Like the story of LOT and SODOM & GAMORRAH. An angel of God warned Lot of the disaster coming upon the sin city and asked him to LEAVE and DONT LOOK BACK.

The Passover isnt a sure fire way to have eternal life, you need faith with deeds, you need to keep ALL OF FATHERS COMMANDMENTS. (James 2:20-26)
Now all of you non-believers, WHY WOULD MOTHER HAVE THE POWER TO BRING ABOUT NATURAL DISASTERS IF SHE IS NOT GOD?!"

Lizzie, I guess those churches that keeps Sunday worship, Easter Sunday, Christmas are the true church since they are not destroyed by a disaster. Dark Angel and COGinator clearly have a point. Why would M.J. destroy her own church? Makes me wonder that she would destroy her own church instead of other churches that the COG calls 'Weeds' according to their Weeds and Wheat study. Shouldn't the members of COG questioning M.J. by now? Well what can you do if they are brainwashed.

By the way, it is not M.J. who destroyed the COG in Myanmar. It is called Cyclone.

In meteorology, a cyclone is an area of low atmospheric pressure characterized by inward spiraling winds that rotate counter clockwise in the northern hemisphere and clockwise in the southern hemisphere of the Earth. The generic term covers a wide variety of meteorological phenomena. These include tropical cyclones and extratropical cyclones, so meteorologists rarely use "cyclone" without additional qualification.

There are a number of structural characteristics common to all cyclones. Their center is the area of lowest atmospheric pressure, often known in mature tropical and subtropical cyclones as the eye. Near the center, the pressure gradient force (from the pressure in the center of the cyclone compared to the pressure outside the cyclone) and the Coriolis force must be in an

By: Clark on June 12, 2008
at 10:03 pm

Reply

By: Clark on June 12, 2008
at 10:05 pm

Reply

approximate balance, or the cyclone would collapse on itself as a result of the difference in pressure. The wind flow around a large cyclone is counterclockwise in the northern hemisphere and clockwise in the southern hemisphere as a result of the Coriolis effect. (An anticyclone, on the other hand, rotates clockwise in the northern hemisphere, and counterclockwise in the southern hemisphere.)

Cold-core cyclones (most cyclone varieties) form due to the nearby presence of an upper level trough, which increases divergence over an area that induces upward motion and surface low pressure. Warm-core cyclones (such as tropical cyclones and many mesocyclones) can have their initial start due to a nearby upper trough, but after formation of the initial disturbance, depend upon a storm-relative upper level high to maintain or increase their strength.

Each of the six main types of cyclone has further characteristics which define it as either a Polar cyclone, Polar low, Extratropical, Subtropical, Tropical, or Mesoscale.

By: Clark on June 12, 2008
at 10:37 pm

Reply

Polar cyclone

Polar or Arctic cyclones are vast areas of low pressure. A polar cyclone is a low pressure weather system, usually spanning 1,000–2,000 kilometers, in which the air circulates in a counterclockwise direction in the northern hemisphere, and a clockwise direction in the southern.

Polar low

Polar low over the Barents Sea on February 27, 1987
Main article: Polar low

A polar low is a small-scale, short-lived atmospheric low pressure system (depression) that is found over the ocean areas poleward of the main polar front in both the Northern and Southern Hemispheres. The systems usually have a horizontal length scale of less than 1,000 km and exist for no more than a couple of days. They are part of the larger class of mesoscale weather systems. Polar lows can be difficult to detect using conventional weather reports and are a hazard to high-latitude operations, such as shipping and gas and oil platforms.

Polar lows have been referred to by many other terms, such as polar mesoscale vortex, Arctic hurricane, Arctic low, and cold air depression. Today the term is usually reserved for the more vigorous systems that have near-surface winds of at least 17 m/s.

Extratropical

A fictitious synoptic chart of an extratropical cyclone affecting the UK and Ireland. The blue arrows between isobars indicate the direction of the wind, while the "L" symbol denotes the centre of the "low". Note the occluded, cold and warm frontal boundaries.
Main article: Extratropical cyclone

An extratropical cyclone, sometimes inaccurately called a cyclone, is a synoptic scale low pressure weather system that has neither tropical nor polar characteristics, being connected with fronts and horizontal gradients in temperature and dew point otherwise known as "baroclinic zones".

The descriptor "extratropical" refers to the fact that this type of cyclone generally occurs outside of the tropics, in the middle latitudes of the planet. These systems may also be described as "mid-latitude cyclones" due to their area of formation, or "post-tropical cyclones" where extratropical transition has occurred, and are often described as "depressions" or "lows" by weather forecasters and the general public. These are the everyday phenomena which along with anti-cyclones, drive the weather over much of the Earth.

Although extratropical cyclones are almost always classified as baroclinic since they form along zones of temperature and dewpoint gradient, they can sometimes become barotropic late in their life cycle when the temperature distribution around the cyclone becomes fairly uniform with radius.

Subtropical

A subtropical cyclone is a weather system that has some characteristics of a tropical cyclone and some characteristics of an extratropical cyclone. It can form in a wide band of latitude, from the equator to 50°.

By: Clark on June 12, 2008
at 10:44 pm

Reply

Tropical

A tropical cyclone is a storm system fueled by the heat released when moist air rises and the water vapor in it condenses. The term describes the storm's origin in the tropics and its cyclonic nature, which means that its circulation is counterclockwise in the northern hemisphere and clockwise in the southern hemisphere. Tropical cyclones are distinguished from other cyclonic windstorms such as nor'easters, European windstorms, and polar lows by the heat mechanism that fuels them, which makes them "warm core" storm systems.

Depending on their location and strength, there are various terms by which tropical cyclones are known, such as hurricane, typhoon, tropical storm, cyclonic storm and tropical depression.

Tropical cyclones can produce extremely strong winds, tornadoes, torrential rain, high waves, and storm surges. The heavy rains and storm surges can produce extensive flooding. Although their effects on human populations can be devastating, tropical cyclones also can have beneficial effects by relieving drought conditions. They carry heat away from the tropics, an important mechanism of the global atmospheric circulation that maintains equilibrium in the Earth's troposphere.

Mesoscale

A mesocyclone is a cyclonic vortex of air, between approximately 2 and 10 km diameter within a convective storm. They can often be

By: Clark on June 12, 2008
at 10:47 pm

found in association with updrafts in supercells, where tornadoes may form. The term refers only to mesoscale cyclones found within convective storms, and does not apply to other cyclones on the mesoscale. Storms with mesocyclones can feature strong surface winds and severe hail.

Reply

Extraterrestrial cyclones

Cyclone on Mars, imaged by the Hubble Space TelescopeCyclones are not unique to Earth. Cyclonic storms are common on Jovian planets, like the Small Dark Spot on Neptune. Mars has also exhibited cyclonic storms. Jovian storms like the Great Red Spot are usually mistakenly named as giant hurricanes or cyclonic storms. However, this is inaccurate, as the Great Red Spot is, in fact, the inverse phenomenon, an anticyclone.

The citation of these is Google, then Cyclone, then WikiPedia.

I had to post it in partial sections to make it more clear and easy to read. Science shows facts. COG teachings shows myths.

I agree with COGinator. That's the reason why now it doesn't matter if you worship on any day or any religious ritual because after Jesus Christ died on the cross, He fulfilled all of the Law of Moses. Jesus Christ in the only way through salvation if you accept Him even on your last dying breathe.

By: Frank on June 12, 2008 at 11:35 pm

Reply

Clark,

Thanks for the lesson in Cyclones, however it was way over kill, which I imagine to be your passive aggressive approach further your opinion that all Christianity is a cult.

By: CoGinator on June 13, 2008 at 7:06 am

Reply

To which my response is almost all things are a cult in some way, shape, or form. For example the Marine Corps is a cult. There are cultural rituals, specific language, and behavioral expectations that are reprimanded if not adhered to. Even clubs like toast masters or tipping groups all have protocols and click-like behavior.

So I say, if you are going to be part of a cult...and we all are... make it be one that is beneficial and productive towards the lifestyle that you desire.

I think what separates mainstream christianity from the WMSCOG, aside from the differences on how to interpret the meaning of the bible, which is one aspect of what I feel compelled to defend, is the end result. Generally speaking mainstream christianity helps people live better lives, while the WMSCOG causes destruction and separation by teaching rules and rituals and not life principles.

Oh yeah...Frank nailed it in the most concise posting to date! Way to go Frank!!

By: CoGinator on June 13, 2008 at 7:09 am

Reply

Thanks COGinator. I have been preach by a Church of God member showing me their doctrines. However, I disagree in some of their teachings. If you carefully read the Bible, clearly Jesus Christ gave us the the new commandment which is Love God and Love your neighbor. I don't think it matters when do you keep the Passover or the Sabbath day. These are not commandments literally. These are just some things he showed but the reality of salvation is found is Jesus Christ. Believe and accept Jesus Christ as your personal savior and He will save you no matter how many sins you did.

By: Frank on June 13, 2008 at 6:09 pm

Reply

I actually agree with COGinator. Every beliefs out there can be labeled as cult. That's why picking a cult believe must be carefully analyze. Of course, it's gonna depend on what you really want. For me, I always think that I'm only going to live once. So I might as well enjoy it. For me, having a religious belief is like being hand cuff from behind and I couldn't do what I really want in life.

By: Clark on June 13, 2008 at 8:51 pm

Reply

As for Christians, including COG(like they are in the mainstream Christianity), a lot of them are liars. They say they follow the Bible yet they are still sinning. Don't they think it's disrespectful to their God to say the follow the Bible but keeps breaking His commandments? So I choose to live my life. I am happy with my college degree, making six figures a year, take vacations whenever I can. Just enjoy life.

However, it's funny that when I see something wrong or I have a problem, a lot of times I say "Oh my God". It's just an expression for me but to some of my Christian friends said that Jesus is knocking in my heart and all I have to do is accept Him. I guess I believe in Jesus after all.

But for COG, it's even harder to believe that they are worshipping God that is "a man and a woman". I have some of my friends that have family members that left them because their love ones wanna follow God in COG. If you look at the Bible, as Frank said, I don't think the COG is following Jesus commandments which is Love God and your neighbor. How can it be love when it breaks family? It's even more harder to consider COG being a Christian. Also, there are so many things you can see that the COG makes a false church. First off, they don't agree with their doctrines. Each of their church has a different story of ASH and M.J. Second, they can't answer simple questions thrown at them. They would rather believe the answer is in the Bible which clearly it's not the right answer their giving. Finally, how can ASH be Jesus when he can't even rise from the dead just as written in the Bible that Jesus rose from the dead. ASH even prophesied the "Second Coming of Jesus" in 1988 and it was failed.

COG=FAIL!

Clark, I know exactly where you are coming from. Before I became a Christian, I shared the exact same philosophy about religion. I think my exact words were "It's good for those people who need it."

By: CoGinator on June 13, 2008 at 10:12 pm

Reply

And yet, even though I tried to resist it, I ultimately had a change of heart, through the works of hundreds of different people that came into my life within a 5 year span.

Clark you said, "For me, having a religious belief is like being handcuffed from behind and I couldn't do what I really want in life."

I know what you mean by that! I too thought that by being a Christian means you suddenly have to give up all your freedoms and live this perfect life. And yet, when you do attempt to live a sinless life (we all attempt and we all fail in some way shape or form), you suddenly feel more free and have less bondage around your life. It's a hard thing to describe, and it's totally counterintuitive, but I do feel that attempting to live my life according to the word of Jesus that I am more liberated than when I was trying to be my own god, so to speak.

Also, and maybe you don't want to answer this, what do you want to do in life that being a Christian would prevent you from doing? (Serial Killer? Look at the BTK killer, he was a Christian :)).

I think everyone has a God-sized hole in their heart that they are looking for, but some don't realize it, or some try and resist it because they see it as a weakness. Sometime sexual immorality is tried to fit in that hole, sometimes it's drugs or alcohol, or even recreation.

Clark, feel free to believe whatever you want (as I'm sure you will). Just know, that your Christian friends love you regardless of what you choose, and while it may seem annoying that they preach the gospels to you (especially when you're close enough to see their faults and sins and perceive them as hypocrites), they do it because you are worth it in their eyes.

I just thank you for your support in helping prove and show that the CoG is not doing any families any good, when they mis-understand the Bible as we know it.

CoGinator, it's just common sense. If you want to follow God, make sure it's the right path. I only know the Bible a little bit because I was still raised from a Christian family. Even in the Bible says that a good tree cannot bear bad fruit just as a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. If you look at the COG closely, you can clearly see that they are a bad tree meaning a bad church since they broke families and their so called Elohim God cannot even make the right prophecy.

By: Clark on June 13, 2008 at 10:45 pm

Reply

According to the Bible, everything Jesus said happened and not a single words He said failed. So how is ASH be Jesus when he prophesied the Second Coming of Jesus in 1988 and it failed? Correct me if I'm wrong but that's what I found out about ASH. Also, why are the members of COG are avoiding the simplest questions thrown at them? Is the personal life of ASH and M.J. are written in the Bible? Then how come you can find out the personal life of Jesus in the Bible? I'm talking about what He did like He was a carpenter, etc. All the COG members say that ASH and M.J. fulfilled the prophecy as Spirit and the Bride in the Revelations. That's pretty bogus. It really makes me wonder. Even out of all Christian denomination out there, the COG has the most intriguing things and unbelievable things they do to their member's love ones, including brainwashing them. Why can the COG members would wake up one day and realize the facts about their church? I challenge any COG members to answer the simplest questions thrown at them correctly. Ted, COGinator and Dark Angel have tried to make you guys see your church fruits and yet you guys don't wanna listen. If you guys want us to believe you, answer all questions thrown at you then you guys would probably bear fruit.

Wow Clark is now a follower of Ted and company. Ted, good job in brainwashing Clark. Now you have an atheist member. You must be happy Ted. Again, you guys are expecting us to answer you questions which has nothing to do with what is actually testified in the Bible. I don't wanna waste my time showing you guys the truth of the Bible since you guys already made up your mind that the Church of God World Mission Society is a false church. I feel sorry for you guys when Judgement Day comes. Don't worry, I'll pray that Father and Mother would open the eyes of the blind in the Bible's truth members of Ted's company.

By: Poland on June 13, 2008
at 10:53 pm

Reply

Poland are you that naive to think that Clark is a follower of Ted simply because they share a common view point. It doesn't work that way.

By: CoGinator on June 14, 2008
at 2:36 am

Yes, we've come to a decision about the mode operation that the WMSCOG (not even the "Church of God") operates in...and the fruit that it bares is tainted...just look at the number of familes that are in conflict in ratio to the number of members of the WMSCOG. It's astronomical!!!!

Reply

What you claim is "testified in the bible" is really "twisted from the bible".

A great deal of confusion exists over the issues of law and grace and the place of the Mosaic law in the New Testament believer's life. However, the basic principle is that the "fusion" of law and grace brings a "confusion" which results in sterile legalism. Because of man's natural bent toward either legalism or license, the place and function of the Law has been an issue in the Christian community since the very early days of the church. There have always been those who have sought to put the Christian back under the Law or make the Law necessary for both salvation and sanctification. As a result large sections of the New Testament are written directly to this issue (see Acts 15 and the council at Jerusalem; Romans 5:10; 6:14; 7:1f; 2 Cor. 3:6-18; and the entire book of Galatians). These passages were written against a legalistic use of the Law, one which promotes works to gain points with either God or people; works of self-effort rather than a life lived by the power and personal leading of the Holy Spirit.

Other parts of the New Testament are written against license and the misuse of liberty (Gal. 5:13ff. Rom. 6:1ff; 8:4ff; Tit. 2:11-14). But the answer is never to put the Christian back under the Law, but rather a proper understanding and appreciation of God's grace to us in Christ. Christian liberty is not the right to do as one pleases, but the power, desire, and will to do as one ought in and by the power of God and a regenerated life.

This is ultimately the focus of Titus 2:11-14. The glorious manifestation of God's grace in Christ instructs and trains believers in how to live. This grace provides the incentive, the motive, and the means.

WMSCOG'ers, I encourage you to continue to challenge the doctrine put fourth in front of you from your church. Stop for a moment, being on the defensive of your churches theory's, and do some outside investigation and play both sides of the fence so you can better understand why we feel the WMSCOG's doctrine doesn't add up correctly. I am 100% confident that if you really looked into it (which is going to be difficult, because your surroundings and the people you associate with are going to be under the influence of culture and thoughts of the church), you will come to the same conclusions that we too have come to. Keep in mind, your not getting the full story from your decons and elders at the church.

God Bless all!

BTW

To whomever believes I will convert to a Sunday/Idol loving religion, YOU ARE SOOO WRONG! Those who desecrate the Lords Sabbath will be put to death... SO YEAH I THINK THATS A COMMANDMENT THAT MUST BE KEPT!!

By: Lizzie on June 14, 2008 at 3:07 am

Reply

I will never renounce my love for the CoG! So you are all wrong. You failed if those were your intentions or beliefs. I will always be a true follower of the 2nd Coming Christ and of the Heavenly Mother which has come down from Heaven.

If our Father and Mother fulfilled all prophesies (which no one has to date, but them) and established the Church of God as mentioned in the Bible, that only GOD will do (whic is the WMSCOG) this is where I am going to be, not in some SUN GOD CATHOLIC derived church.

About the PASSOVER in John 6:53 It says UNLESS YOU EAT THE FLESH OF THE SON OF MAN AND DRINK HIS BLLOD (the Passover) YOU HAVE NO LIFE!

Jesus (God Himself) came from heaven leaving his thrown behind to save the SOULS of his lost sheep. He came to preach repentance & to give us life. He even told the Disciples to do as he did...

It was highly imperitive for him to keep the PASSOVER as stated in Luke 22:15. He has EAGERLY been waiting. He knew without it we had no chance of eternal life. So thats another command I THINK IS NEEDED TO HAVE ETERNAL LIFE. DUH!!!

But you all are ignorants that cannot see the truth. I am so sorry for you. I will pray for you to open your eyes, because prayer is the most powerful spiritual weapon we possess. The Lord promised us to come a second time and all of you who "claimed" to be eagerly awaiting for him to come in the clouds [meaning FLESH], and when he gets here you reject him. You didnt even know your God.. How sad is that?? But its was already prophesied!

John 1:10

He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him.

Acts 13:27

The people of Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognize Jesus, yet in condemning him they fulfilled the words of the prophets that are read every Sabbath.

But once again Father warned us about you...

1 John 4:6

We are from God, and whoever knows God listens to us; but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. This is how we recognize the Spirit of truth and the spirit of falsehood.

You know whats funny... I NEVER CLAIMED I WAS WAITING FOR HIM TO COME FROM THE CLOUDS IN SOME GLORIOUS WAY. But yet I was one of those lost sheep he called. I am one of his chosen and called ones. You must be mad that he didnt call on you.

2 Peter 1:3

His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness.

Actually he has called on you... over and over, even here in this very website, but you turn us away and even put us down and make fun of us and our belief in the true Christ. We are the LAST TRUMPET SOUND CALLING OUT

TO YOU. =(PLEASE LISTEN

Frank,
Youre right...

"Jesus Christ in the only way through salvation if you accept Him even on your last dying breathe."

Even on your last dying breathe, if you accpet that Christ has come a second time as prophesied you will have salvation!

I am not any more special than any of you... I just accepted his calling. I figured 1 and 1 makes 2. If its prophesied in the Bible (the HOLY book) and FULFILLED by ASH than he must be God.

Only God can open the way to salvation because it was he who blocked in the begining. Remember the Adam & Eve Garden of Eden Story where the Tree of Life was blocked by 2 cherubim w flaming swords? Jesus came to bring the keys to the heavenly kingdom but no one listened, just a few. And only after his death Christianity was formed... why didnt they believe when the Apostles called out with a trumpet call? Its happening again! But this time there wont be a 3rd time... This time the end will come!
I will pray for all of you.

COG members, don't think that we're doing this because we hate you or something like that. We are just showing you the 'facts' about your church. As a matter of fact, just like ex-member cult from the Brendoman site, he finally wakes up and see the truth of the COG. Any member of COG should be able to question the church. Just look at the apostles in the Bible, didn't they continiously ask questions to Jesus? Don't let the leaders of COG brainwash you guys. For example, if ASH failed to prophecy about Jesus Second Coming in 1988, don't let your deacons and elders say "Oh the reason it didn't happen because there are prophecies that needs to be fulfilled in order for these and these to happen". That's brainwashing method. Anyone has the right to question anyone for their own good. I'm glad there are people like COGinator, Ted and Dark Angel who are patient enough to save the members of COG from throwing their life for nothing.

Now members of COG, again if you guys are really the true church you guys say, answer all the questions that are asked to you guys. There are people who are very picky as far as choosing a belief. That's even how you guys are gonna lose propective members. Of course it's common to people if they hear something they have never heard before to ask questions before they decide if it is good for them or not. It's just the way it is. For example, if I want to save money on buying a new car that I want, I check different dealers to see which ones have the best deals. I wanna make sure I have all the details before I decide. Same in choosing a religious belief or everything else. I hope this helps the family of

By: Clark on June 14, 2008
at 3:11 am

Reply

the members of the COG.

Lizzie said "Even on your last dying breathe, if you accpet that Christ has come a second time as prophesied you will have salvation!"

By: Frank on June 14, 2008
at 3:22 am

If this is the case then Lizzie, you just admitted that the only thing necessary to do is accept Jesus Christ as your personal savior. Lizzie if your dying and you wanna have salvation from Jesus, do you think you have to celebrate the Passover at that very moment? Lizzie the person is dying and I don't think Jesus will judge the person if he/she did the Passover right before he/she dies. Only by believing and accepting Jesus Christ is the way to the true salvation just as He promised. God bless you Lizzie.

Reply

Hi everyone. We, the World Mission Society Church of God, are workers approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel and to participate in His great mission. Then, what is our attitude toward the gospel? It is a very important matter.

By: Robert on June 14, 2008
at 3:30 am

As spiritual harvesters who spread the seed of the gospel and gather the wheat, which spirit do we have, the spirit of slavery or the spirit of sonship? Do we not work with the spirit of slavery, just treading the courts? There is a great difference between the spirit of slavery and the spirit of sonship.

Reply

A man with the spirit of sonship shares in God's sufferings so that he may also share in His glory

Let us suppose that there is a servant in a rich farm. Thinking that it is enough just to receive his wages, the servant does not faithfully do the work of sowing seeds and making them grow well but spends every day lazily. He shrinks his work on the pretext of wind, heat or rain. However, a son faithfully sows seeds and tends them so that they may bear fruit. Even under the scorching hot sun, he works joyfully, expecting the fruits in autumn; for he himself is the owner of the fruits, earned by his sweat during the heat of summer. Thinking that the golden-yellow autumn grains and fruits are his own, he does not find his work laborious even in the summer's heat.

Thus, there is a fundamental difference between the spirit of slavery and the spirit of sonship. Keeping this in mind, let's think over what should be our attitude toward the gospel.

Ro 8:14-18 because those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. ... The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. Now if we are children, then we are heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory. I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us.

We are the children of God—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ—who are to share in Christ’s sufferings in order to also share in His glory. Now, we have to ask ourselves whether we have the spirit of slavery or the spirit of sonship as the gospel workers. Every member of our Church is quietly doing what is entrusted to him and carries out every part of his duty. The Bible says that there are many things that may cause suffering or anger in the process of doing the work of the gospel. It also says that there are two kinds of people: those who have the spirit of sonship and endure hardship for the sake of the kingdom of heaven, and those who have the spirit of slavery and spend their days lazily, counting on receiving their monthly wages. Those who have the spirit of sonship are God’s heirs, Christ’s heirs. They endure their present sufferings gladly for the glory that they will receive. As God’s sons, they think that they can attain something only through suffering. They endure all difficulties and hardships so that they may have a bright future—to receive their inheritance. However, those who have the spirit of slavery refuse to suffer. They just passively do what they are told. They are unwilling to suffer, thinking that there is no need to suffer. So they can never receive the glorious inheritance in heaven.

The spirit of sonship is the spirit of Christ

Let’s think of the Apostle Paul who suffered for the sake of the gospel of the kingdom of heaven; he had often gone without food and sleep, and had been cold and naked and flogged. He certainly had the spirit of sonship. As he was a son of God, he endured all kinds of difficulties and devoted his life to preaching the gospel, longing for his heavenly inheritance.

Gal 4:6-7 Because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, the Spirit who calls out, “Abba, Father.” So you are no longer a slave, but a son; and since you are a son, God has made you also an heir.

We shall inherit the kingdom of heaven through God. Everything we do for the sake of the heavenly kingdom is for our own inheritance and glory reserved in heaven, not for others. Inheritance belongs to a son, not a slave. A farmer’s son works hard in the summer heat, irrigating the field, spraying weed killers, He works so hard because all fruit crops belong to his father and will be given to him as an inheritance after all. How about you? Do you want to be a son or a slave? A son works harder to bear more fruit, while a slave idles away his time. As ministers of the gospel, we have received the spirit of sonship, not the spirit of slavery, so that we may receive the infinite blessing of heaven. Jesus showed Himself to be a son, not a slave; He was an example of sonship while He was in the flesh.

Heb 5:7-10 During the days of Jesus’ life on earth, ... Although he was a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered and, once made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him and was designated by God to be high priest in the order of Melchizedek.

The Apostle Paul said, "Although he was a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered." If He had been a slave, He would not have suffered. For a slave receives his wages on the regular payday and he doesn't feel the need to suffer.

As for a son, however, he doesn't work for wages. He puts all his heart and energy into his work, hoping for a good harvest. With the spirit of sonship, Jesus perfectly obeyed the will of God, leaving us the glorious seed of salvation.

Isa 53:1-5 Who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed? He grew up before him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground. He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. ... But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed.

Jesus suffered greatly for our sins; He was despised and rejected by men, even though He did not deserve such treatment. He willingly walked the thorny path, the path of obedience, for His loving children, because He couldn't save them without sacrificing Himself.

Those who have the spirit of bondage cannot become like Christ. He set the perfect example of sonship by walking the way of suffering, so that we should follow in His steps. Only after overcoming difficulties and hardships can we experience the brilliant glory of heaven and inherit the kingdom of God as His sons and daughters. Only after overcoming the pain and suffering, we can improve our level.

Be ready like a wise servant

The fruit of the gospel has been produced more abundantly in hot summers and cold winters than in warm springs and cool autumns. In other words, we've found more brothers and sisters under inferior circumstances than under favorable conditions. Considering this, we can realize that God sees whether we, His workers, have the spirit of sonship or the spirit of slavery.

In the following parable, Jesus gives us a good example of sonship.

Mt 24:44-47 "So you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him. Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master has put in charge of the servants in his household to give them their food at the proper time? It will be good for that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns. I tell you the truth, he will put him in charge of all his possessions."

In the above parable, 'the faithful and wise servant' represents the person who has the spirit of sonship. When his master returns and finds him giving his household their food at the proper time, he will put him in charge of all his possessions. He willingly does the hard work assigned to him. Isn't he a true son and heir? Many verses record that only God's children, His heirs, are allowed to receive all of His inheritance. They will inherit the eternal kingdom of God. For they work diligently day and night, preaching the gospel, taking care of every little thing. They are really worthy of God's sons, heirs of heaven.

Now, let us check ourselves whether or not we have the spirit of sonship, so that we will not weep and gnash our teeth, being thrown out into the outer darkness as worthless servants, on the day when God's children inherit the kingdom of heaven. If anyone is a son but has the spirit of slavery, let him change his spirit that he may not be branded as a wicked servant just as described in the Bible.

Mt 24:48-51 But suppose that servant is wicked and says to himself, 'My master is staying away a long time, and he then begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards. The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of. He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

A wicked servant idles away his time, eating and drinking. He does not correctly understand his master's will and fails to practice it, and consequently he deserves punishment. So God tells us to be wise and faithful servants, showing two types of people—those who have the spirit of slavery and deserve eternal fire in hell, and those who have the spirit of sonship and deserve eternal inheritance in heaven. From the parable of the good servant and the wicked servant, we need to learn a spiritual lesson.

We are all sons of God, called by Him to do the work of the gospel in the last days. Let us participate in the gospel with the spirit of sonship, so that we may receive the crown of glory and all the blessings prepared for us. Loving brothers and sisters! Let us accomplish the gospel with the spirit of sonship, as sons and daughters of the Spirit and the Bride, giving thanks to Them for Their sacrificial love towards us, so that our Father will come quickly.

Imao.

Lizzie what is your job?

By: LOLAGEISM on June 14, 2008
at 3:36 am

Reply

COGinator said "What you claim is "testified in the bible" is really "twisted from the bible"."

By: Elijah on June 14, 2008
at 3:37 am

COGinator, what the Church of God preaches is the truth of the Bible or what is really the Bible testifies, not a twisted doctrine. The reason you do not understand it is because maybe it's not meant for you COGinator. I hope someday you will understand God's will before He comes with fire. God bless you COGinator.

Reply

Lizzie you said,

By: Dark Angel on
June 14, 2008
at 5:43 am

"BTW

To whomever believes I will convert to a
Sunday/Idol loving religion, YOU ARE SOOO WRONG!
Those who desecrate the Lords Sabbath will be put to death... SO YEAH I THINK THATS A COMMANDMENT THAT MUST BE KEPT!!

Reply

I will never renounce my love for the CoG! So you are all wrong. You failed if those were your intentions or beliefs. I will always be a true follower of the 2nd Coming Christ and of the Heavenly Mother which has come down from Heaven."

Lizzie, the story of mother jerusalem destroying the church in the cyclone is bogus because many cog members feel the exact way you feel as your statement above.

The fear of god wouldn't allow them to do such things as your story indicate.

The fact is, the church was destroyed because it is just a building. There is no god protecting it.

Lizzie, you sound like a true Kool-Aid drinker...
Just remember, when you are worshiping on Saturday...it's Sunday somewhere in the world.
And if ASH and Mutha J aren't idols of yours...

By: CoGinator on June 14, 2008
at 3:03 pm

well, then you are way to confused to have an educated conversation with. BTW, if your following your second comming, he's in the Grave...maybe they can make some room in casket by shoving his rotting corps to the side and you can make that your new zion.

Reply

Robert, your post was too long, so I skipped it...

Elijah, so according to the WMSCoG, not everyone is worth saving....doesn't sound like the Gospels to me.

LOLAGEISM, I LMAO too!

Dark Angel...I agree!

That's funny COGinator. For these COG members, the actual land where their second coming is buried is 'Holy land' so they could probably establish their main zion office there.

By: Clark on June 14, 2008
at 5:52 pm

Reply

Dark Angel, I agree that all the COG's churches are just a mere building just like any other building in the world that can be destroyed by natural disaster. It's nothing special.

Lizzie, can you please answer LOLAGEISM'S question above. What's your job? I hope you still have one. Thanks.

Robert, you said your also part of the Freemasons. Well your attitude doesn't show that you are one. Or maybe your just brainwashed by the COG so you would defend it.

Elijah, that statement above that you said it's not meant for everyone is totally crap. That's not the attitude of Jesus and the Apostles according to the Bible. You think your always right and everyone else is wrong. Doesn't sound like a Christ-like attitude.

Ted, COGinator, Dark Angel, and Clark, are you guys enjoying this blog? If you Church of God haters don't know by now, we are just letting you squirm a little bit. Because once we start destroying your men's opinion, you guys get mad quickly. We'll keep you running this blog for a little bit. Then later on we'll start using our sword, the Word of God, to destroy all the Church of God hater's intelligent opinion in the will of men. KEEP THEM COMING.

By: Poland on June 14, 2008
at 8:12 pm

Reply

Poland,

If someone asked ahnsahngong, when he was alive, if he were god and he said no, then, wouldn't your god be a liar?

By: Dark Angel on June 14, 2008
at 10:09 pm

Reply

If men are not to be trusted, why should your god?

What would have willed your god to lie about who he is?

If I were to ask mother jerusalem, face to face, if she were god, and she said yes then, I would say to her, ok since you can hear prayers then read my mind.

If ahnsahngong denied his "divinity" then your god is not trustworthy. If everything that comes from god is the truth, then, even the "lie" would be considered the "truth".

Meaning, (if) he denied his indentity by saying no, then his answer is the truth. He is NOT god or a god.

If you are simply "letting us squirm" then you all have no idea what you are talking about. You simply want to change stories.

You can not cover up the fact that mother jerusalem is not omniscient. It's very obvious. It's impossible for an omniscient Being to deny itself information that it already knew before creation.

It's impossible for an all truthful omniscient Being to deny itself.

That's called a paradox.

To answer your dumb question, which nothing to do w God
I am a Child Applied Behavior Psychologist w a BA working for the school system... WHAT ARE YOU?

By: Lizzie on June 14, 2008
at 10:23 pm

Reply

I graduated w Honors from a University. Is that what you wanted to know???

What you need to do is ask yourself if mother jerusalem can hear your prayers.

By: Dark Angel on June 14, 2008
at 10:39 pm

Reply

What makes her a god?

What has she done to deserve anyones worship besides just claiming to be a god and accepting silly awards?

The answer for both questions is...nothing.

Just "believing" that she's a god is not going to make her one.

Please don't get me started on the cyclone story because I have yet to go in depth with that fairy tale. And if that story is something to "keep us squirming" then I wouldn't expect anything less coming from us guys...seriously.

If you say that you are proving through the bible that those two people are gods, then, physical proof of their divinity should also be available.

She claiming that scripture points to her doesn't make her a god.

Again I ask, is mother jerusalem, (that woman who is sitting rich in korea) an omnscent Being?

I'm not even sure if Marcus will ever return, I still have to address him on the comments that he made about ahnsahnghong's congregation knowing that he was god when he was alive.

and to be honest, you all are starting to bore me with your stories. Neither one of your gods deserve my worship.

Your gods should be praising me for giving them my attention for the past two yrs. Which I will add was a waste of time.

So yes, Poland. Keep your stories coming. When you all are still here posting in 2012 about how god "changed his mind" about ending the world, then, I'll simply come to the conclusion that you are all gullible people who needs to follow other people, like little puppies.

You might as well worship me, Poland. Atleast if I don't know the answer to something, I will tell you that I don't know instead of just telling you to have faith.

You can call me "arrogant" all you want. Fact is, i'm not claiming to be a god and I'm not having people worship me. So me being arrogant, would not be the truth.

Robert, are you fully familiar with the Freemasons?

By: CoGinator on June 15, 2008 at 12:19 am

<http://www.theforbiddenknowledge.com/symbology/1o5.htm>
Reply

Lizzie, with your background you'd do well researching adult behavior with regards to religious cults and see if your churches doctrine fits the mold and if other churches don't.

Dark Angel, your time has hardly been waisted...I've learned a great deal from your research and insight and imagine there are thousands of others who have too.

"I am a Child Applied Behavior Psychologist"

By: LOLISTIC on June 15, 2008 at 12:57 am

LMAO...oh the IRONY.

Reply

Lizzie its a pity your education did not help you in anyway. Looks like you may need a psychiatrist

By: Jose on June 15, 2008 at 3:44 am help and so do the rest of the members. No wonder mother keeps showing all her dentures because she knows in her mind that her false doctrine has helped so many donkeys walk in the ways of her ex-lover Ahsahnghong LOL

Reply

And now its time that the members also do the same like their God "Commit Adultery" and eat the passover. Well at the moment there's marriage in the air among their own brother's sisters or sisters'/ Brother or friends Bro or sis.

Moonies have mass marriage. Here it is through introduction while on a visit to korea, get married by local pastor and go back to take mother's blessing in korea.

I was watching a video on you tube that shows one of the female cog members crying so bitterly and saying mother came to earth and had to be so humble and she washed my bathroom. Sorry Mum. I laughed like anything. I appeared as though the member felt sorry for having messed up the bathroom.

Nince entertainment. Hey Lizzie see if yu can get some help and then help all these Cog funny characters out there.

COGinator,

By: Dark Angel on

June 15, 2008
at 3:32 pm

The COG are a waste of time to me. Debating whether if mother jerusalem is a god or not is just ridiculous.

Reply

If any COG member can prove that she is omniscient, then i'll reconsider.

She's a useless old bag that is just as ignorant as any other Human Being.

The stories about ahnsahnghong are nothing but fairy tales.

I'll check in every now and then but I'm not wasting my time on these people who worship fools.

Theyre better of worshipping themselves.

It is frustrating when you see the error of ones ways, offer assistance, only to have it refused with the message of..."I like it messed up."

By: CoGinator on June 15, 2008
at 10:13 pm

Reply

You said it, COGinator.

I just want to catch up on some books I've been wanting to read. I'll be around the cult-watch message from time to time.

By: Dark Angel on June 16, 2008
at 1:52 am

Reply

You mean to tell me that god came to earth and didn't help not one child who cried out to him?

Children who were kidnapped, abused, the killed?

No, god was worried about "climbing up mountains", "losing sleep" and purposely "deny himself food" so that he could write silly books.

"god" was worried about breaking rocks, as if what this guy did was the hardest thing in the world to do.

What the COG people need to get through their thick skulls is, there were slaves not too long ago who endured a whole lot more than their god. What their god endured was childs play.

If he didn't like his job, he should have quit and become a farmer.

In some countries, there is still slavery. Would their god know that, oh wait, she is omniscient so she must know, and if she knows, then she is basically an accomplice to all of the things that happen to women and children.

How about putting those "powers" to some good use, instead of fore-telling doom and destruction. Anyone can fore-tell doom and destruction, knowing that it happens atleast once every year.

How about helping the police solve unsolvable murders or help parents find their missing children or atleast bring peace between muslim and christian. How about putting an end to racism and hatred.

How about putting an end to superstitious beliefs and lies and contradictions. This woman mother jerusalem offers no kind of words of wisdom. She offers NOTHING. Atleast the Dalai Lama made an effort.

Dude, I don't want to hear any more about those two clowns. They have a "god" sitting in korea doing nothing, but I guess doing nothing is prophecy to them.

If she doesn't know the exact time of existence of jesus christ, then she is no god. She is an ignorant human being that subscribes to "men's opinions" or the concepts of men.

Anyway, catch ya on the flip side, COGinator.

Applause!

By: Jonah on June 16, 2008
at 2:13 am

Well said Dark angel. People visiting this site will see for themselves the 100% truth the COG's have.

Reply

To me it sounds more of a rehabilitation centre for all the divorced & helpless souls. All the mother God can give them is a broad smile through her dark red painted lips a hug and loving pat on the back. It makes them feel good. The Bible is just a tool to suck in more dudes.

Jamie you were right =COG fail

COGinator, do you know what Freemasonry really is? You have no idea. If you want to be one, you have to seek the light. For me, I'm done with them. I want to please God Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem to have eternal life.

By: Robert on June 16, 2008
at 3:26 am

Reply

Dark Angel, you can never understand God's will if you wanna keep insisting it in the will of men. Only the Bible can make Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem God. That includes Jesus. The Bible is the Word of God.

By: Poland on June 16, 2008
at 3:28 am

Reply

"The Bible is the Word of God."

By: LOLISTIC on June 16, 2008
at 6:30 am

lol, Amen.

And the Bible says nothing about the Ahnsahnghong cult. Reply
Only brainwashed worshipers of satan who follow the will of the men believe in female demon Gods and false Korean idols.

"I want to please God Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem to have eternal life."

By: LOLISTIC on June 16, 2008 at 6:32 am

LMAO. The only thing false idols give you is a empty bank account.

Reply

Dark Angel,

By: CoGinator on June 16, 2008 at 11:58 am

Go take some well earned time off, recharge, and refresh. Who knows, maybe getting off these sites could be the best thing for you. Don't be a total stranger.

Reply

For everyone else, the verb teaching encompasses the whole concept of growth—discipline, maturing, obedience, progress, and the like. This involves denial of improper things and direction into proper channels. These five terms—godliness, worldly lusts, soberly, righteously, godly—do not describe the content of grace teaching so much as they indicate the object and purposeful goal of that teaching. And this intent is, according to this passage, the ultimate purpose of the Incarnation of Christ. He came to display the grace of God in the changed lives of his people. The final cause of the revelation of the grace of God in Christ is not creed but character.

In Romans 6:14, Paul gives us a fundamental principle as it relates to the Christian's understanding and the place of the Law in a believer's life. "For sin will have no mastery over you, because you are not under law but under grace." Romans 6 deals with the believer's walk or sanctification. In this regard, under grace is never to be taken as an excuse to sin as one pleases since he is under grace (6:1-2) and it is placed in strong contrast with under law. Two things are prominent here: (1) these two (law and grace) are set forth as complete opposites, and (2) the text also makes it clear that the only way the believer is going to experience true sanctification (victory over sin plus the production of positive righteousness) is by grace (the work of God in Christ) and never by law. The reasons, which will be set forth below, are bound up in two issues, the weakness of man's flesh and the nature of the Law and its inability because of man's weakness to produce a truly holy life. This is not to say that the Mosaic Law is not good and holy and does not have a function, but this too will be set forth below.

So just what is the meaning, nature, and place or function of the law in the New Testament?

The Meaning of the Term "Law"

By: CoGinator on June

16, 2008
at 12:03 pm

In the Old Testament, the word "law" is used to translated the Hebrew word torah, "instruction."

The Hebrew word for "law" probably comes from the causative form of the verb yarah, "to throw," "to shoot (arrows)." In the hiphil stem, the verb horah means "to point, guide, instruct, teach." Hence, the law is that which provides authoritative guidance. In the New Testament, the Greek word used for law is nomos. Nomos means "that which is assigned," hence, "usage, custom," and then "law," or "a rule governing one's actions."

Reply

Thus God's law is His system of rules by which He shows and instructs in His will and administers the affairs of the world. Obviously the definition allows for and even implies that there might be differing systems of rules at various times, depending on what particular aspects or how much of His will God wishes to show at a given time....A system of rules may be tailored for different times, peoples, or purposes. . .

As a result, in the progress of God's revelation to man, we can see a number of different systems of law in the Scripture. These are:

The Law of Nature (Natural or Inherent)

This is the law Paul mentions in Romans 2:14, "For whenever the Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature the things required by the law, these who do not have the law are a law to themselves." (emphasis mine) The law of nature is one which contains natural revelation of God's eternal power and divine nature (Rom. 1:20) and is sufficient to condemn those who reject this revelation, but not sufficient to save. Those who do not receive this natural revelation through nature demonstrate they are unable to receive the additional light (special revelation of Scripture) needed for salvation. "If a man rejects the revelation of God in the law of nature, he fails to qualify for the further revelation which will lead him to Christ." This natural law perhaps also falls under the category of the eternal law of God for the moral principles of the Mosaic Law (the Ten Commandments) did not begin with Sinai, but are as eternal and immutable as the very holy character of God Himself (see 1 Pet. 1:16).

The Law of Eden

While the term "law" is never specifically used of Adam and Eve's relationship with God in the Garden, by the definition of "law," a system of principles or rules that instructs man as to God's will and direction, there was a law given to Adam. He was instructed to "dress and keep" the garden, and to eat freely of all the trees except the "tree of the knowledge of good and evil."

The Law of the Patriarchs

Again, because there was very specific revelation and instruction given to the patriarchs, there was a law given to these Old Testament believers. Though very little detail of this is given, God's instructions to them still represent His law, the system of principles and rules designed to direct their lives. This is illustrated in Genesis 26:5 which says, "Abraham obeyed Me and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes and My laws."

The Law of Moses Given to Israel

The Mosaic Law is what we are most concerned about in relation to the New Testament believer. This consisted of 365 negative commands and 248 positive for a total of 613 commands. These may also be divided into three parts or sections (see below)—the moral, the social, and the ceremonial. As such, it covered every possible area of the life of Israel. It should be stressed that the moral principles embodied in the Mosaic Law given at Sinai were merely the codified expression of the eternal moral law of God as it was given to Israel to govern her life as a nation in order to experience God's blessing under the Abrahamic covenant. For more on this aspect, see below.

Human Law as Prescribed by Man

There are obviously various forms of human laws, those prescribed by man through human government or custom (see Luke 20:22; Acts 19:38). While human government is an institution ordained by God's will or law, some of the laws of man are direct expressions of the will of God, but still constitute laws by which men are often bound by the governmental system in which they live. Of course, where such laws conflict with God's laws, then we are obligated to obey God instead (Acts 4:19-20).

The Law of Christ, the Law of the Spirit of Life

The fact that the Mosaic law has been terminated does not mean that there is no law in this age of grace even though the nature of this law is quite different from the standpoint of incentive, motivation, and means. In fact, the epistles speak of "the perfect law of liberty (Jam. 1:25), "the royal law" (Jam. 2:8), the Law of Christ (Gal. 6:2), and the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus (Rom. 8:2). This consists of the many imperatives found throughout the epistles which comprise this law. These too cover all areas of the believer's life to direct him in the will of God in today's world.

The moral principles embodied in the law of Moses Paul calls "the righteousness of the law" (Rom 8:4), and shows that such principles are the goal of the Spirit-directed life in the same context in which he teaches the believer is not under the Mosaic law (Rom 6–8).

The Law of the Kingdom

The New Testament clearly speaks of and anticipates the reign of Christ on earth when He will rule in perfect righteousness and justice (Isa. 11:4-5). This will naturally mean many laws that will govern the life of citizens of the Kingdom. One only needs to consider Isaiah 2:3 which reads,

2:3 many peoples will come and say, "Come, let's go up to the LORD's mountain, to the temple of the God of Jacob, so he can teach us his requirements, and we can follow his standards." For Zion will be the center for moral instruction, the LORD will issue edicts from

Jerusalem. (NET Bible)

The Significance of these Various Laws

We can see from this that God is the administrator of the world. In the progress of His revelation and the development of His plan, there have been various economies (dispensations) administered by God with different regulations or laws giving precise instruction for each administration. The way God has run each economy or dispensation has varied, however, in each case, different people were addressed with the commands differing in quantity and character, but always with specific instruction.

Hi everyone Elohim bless us all. Father and Mother will be please if we keep preaching the truth of God's will.

By: Bright Angel on
June 16, 2008
at 3:23 pm

The concept of "Trinity" means that God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit are not different entities, but are one God. The Trinity? God the Father [Jehovah], God the Son [Jesus], and God the Holy Spirit [Ahnsahnghong]? are one. In order to understand why the members of the Church of God believe in Christ Ahnsahnghong as the Holy Spirit, please study the truths of "the Second Coming Christ."

Reply

To better understand the Trinity, let's first consider the transformation of water. Water is a liquid, but when its temperature falls below 0° C, the water will turn into ice, a solid. When the water is boiled, it turns into vapor, a gas. Water, ice, and vapor have different names and different forms, but their substance is the same: H₂O.

It is similar to when an actor in a monodrama plays three different characters? a father, a son, and a grandson? all having different voices. Although there are three different voices and three different roles, there is only one actor.

Like this, even though God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit may look different, have different names, and have appeared during different ages, the three are one God. The Trinity reveals that God administers His salvation work while playing three roles.

For six thousand years God has carried out His salvation work in the names of Jehovah, Jesus, and Ahnsahnghong, each according to its age.

God the Father, Jehovah = God the Son, Jesus
Let's confirm that God the Father, Jehovah, and God the Son, Jesus, are one God.

Isaiah prophesied about Jesus as follows:

Isa. 9:6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Jesus is referred to as the "Son," but the Bible revealed that the son would be called "Mighty God," and "Everlasting Father." Apostle Paul clearly understood that Jesus' nature was that of God the Father, as follows:

Phil. 2:5-7 Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man...

Rom. 9:5 ...Christ, who is God over all, forever praised! Amen.

We can also confirm that God the Father, Jehovah, and God the Son, Jesus, are one God by studying the history of the Creation.

Isa. 44:24 I am the LORD, who has made all things, who alone stretched out the heavens, who spread out the earth by myself...

God the Father?Jehovah?said that He had created everything by Himself, but Jesus said that it was He who had created the world.

Col. 1:16 For by him [Jesus] all things were created...

The Bible states that God the Father, Jehovah, created the world, but it also says that God the Son, Jesus, created the world. Therefore, God the Father [Jehovah] and God the Son [Jesus] are clearly one God.

Isa. 44:6 "This is what the LORD says?Israel's King and Redeemer, the LORD Almighty: I am the first and I am the last...

God the Father said, "I am the first and I am the last."

Rev. 22:13 "I [Jesus] am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End."

God the Son also said, "I am the First and the Last." Therefore, God the Father, Jehovah, and God the Son, Jesus, are one God.

God the Father, Jehovah = God the Holy Spirit, AhnsahngHong
Let's confirm that God the Father, Jehovah, and God the Holy Spirit are one God.
In the Bible, there are frequent references to "the (Holy) Spirit." The Bible teaches us that God is spirit, and that God is holy. Thus, the spirit of God is holy, too. We call the spirit of God "the Holy Spirit."

John 4:24 God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in spirit and in truth.

Apostle Paul wrote?in the book of Corinthians?that God is the Holy Spirit.

1 Cor. 2:10-11 ...but God has revealed it to us by his Spirit. The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God. For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the man's spirit within him? In the same way no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.

The (Holy) Spirit could search even the deep things of God (the Father), the things which no one could know. If "the Holy Spirit" and "the spirit of God" were different, how could the Holy Spirit possibly know the thoughts of God? Only the spirit of God?the Holy Spirit?knows the thoughts of God. Therefore, God the Father and the Holy Spirit are one.

2 Tim. 3:16 All Scripture is God-breathed...

2 Pet. 1:20-21 Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation. For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

The Bible is "God-breathed" and it was written by the prophets, "as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit." This clearly testifies that God the Father, Jehovah, is the Holy Spirit.

The Bible = God-breathed book

The Bible = A book written by prophets being carried along by the Holy Spirit
Therefore the Holy Spirit is God.

Therefore, the Holy Spirit, Ahnsahnghong, and God the Father, Jehovah, are one God.

God the Son, Jesus = God the Holy Spirit,
Ahnsahnghong
Let's confirm that God the Son, Jesus, and God the Holy Spirit, Ahnsahnghong, are one God.

Isa. 9:6 ...a son ...will be called Wonderful Counselor...

John 14:26 "But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things..."

The Son is the Counselor, and the Counselor is the Holy Spirit, so we can easily conclude that the Son, Jesus, is the Holy Spirit.

Therefore, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are not separate, but are one. God the Father?Jehovah, God the Son?Jesus, and God the Holy Spirit?Ahnsahnghong, are one God.

The Holy Spirit Is a personal being
The Holy Spirit is not a kind of energy or an electric wave. The Holy Spirit is a personal being who has feelings (Rom. 15:30), who grieves (Eph. 4:30), who speaks (Rev. 2: 7), who groans (Rom. 8:26), who intercedes (Rom. 8:26), who testifies about God (John 15:26), who teaches (John 14:26), who gives commands (Rom. 8:29), who keeps us from preaching in certain places (Acts 16:6-7), who thinks (Rom. 8:27), and who has been blasphemed (Matt. 12: 31-32).

John 14:26, NASB "But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said to you.

The Holy Spirit is referred to as "He," meaning that the Holy Spirit is a personal being.

Matt. 28:19 "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,"

If the Holy Spirit was not a man with character, but merely an invisible, active power?like an electric wave, or energy?how would it be possible for the Holy Spirit to have a name? The fact that the Holy Spirit has a name proves that the Holy Spirit is a man, with character.

God commanded us to be baptized in the name of the Father, the name of the Son, and the name of the Holy Spirit, because He would administrate His salvation work with three names (of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit) according to each age. By calling out the three names through which God showed His authority, God's prophets are to baptize people and commemorate God.

God's name was "Jehovah" when He played the role of the Father, and it was "Jesus" when He worked as the Son. Then, how should we call upon God when He is working as the Holy Spirit?

The name of the Holy Spirit is AhnsahngHong.

Since God told us to "baptize (people) in the name of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit," we need to understand that the "Trinity"?God the Father [Jehovah], God the Son [Jesus], and God the Holy Spirit [AhnsahngHong]?are one God. By this understanding we can receive abundant blessing and we can participate in God's administration of salvation, which has been carried out through the Trinity.

Amen Brothers and Sisters of God's Zion.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

By: Poland on June 16, 2008
at 3:26 pm

Reply

No dear brothers and sisters of Zion do not jump to conclusion that the Church of God won't always.
If we did we should have answered their

By: warrior on June 16, 2008
at 6:38 pm

questions. Once again we do the same thing keep posting all the entire bible but fail to answer their simple questions.

Reply

These are also our brothers and sisters and they have a good point. Didn't people put questions to Jesus but he had the right answers to them all?

We preach about passover that is supposedly letting disasters pass over us. But If our members do not follow it well how easily we put off by saying that his or her faith wasn't strong or he did not keep the passover well but what went wrong with the church that is built by God Ahnsahghong and it gets destroyed in cyclone.

Our sister cries abd says on the youtube" Mother is so humble she cleaned bathroom for us, Sorry Mum" Isn't it so ridiculous of our sister to behave in such a silly manner. There are better ways of expressing mother to the world.

Don't we all do this kind of jobs in our daily life and worst of all is washing our own bottoms. I am sure mother does that too. So what is really so unique about such kind of actions that we make a show about it? We must learn from our mothe to smile and be patient. We must humble ourselves and accept the defeat rather than argue out here.

I am a Cog member but I suggest you should not hang on here if you cannot answer them. Instead we should train our existing members well so that this church of God of the end times appears more realistic than the rest of the cults.

We are so weak in trying to prove from the bible our real God. But it has not helped by those selective scriptures. It is time we prove with some documents like the RC church does. They have evidence. We are just making a fool of ourselves. Aren't we?

Sister lizzie or the rest of you cannot understand or recognize me as one of you. Satan will do anything to set us apart. But what I mean to say is when we place our hands over our head and make a shape of heart and say " We love you" is not what it means. The anticog consider that sign as "Look at our brains they are well washed" But Mother means we should take her teachings to our hearts.

"To better understand the Trinity, let's first consider the transformation of water. Water is a liquid, but when its temperature falls below 0° C, the water will turn into ice, a solid. When the water is boiled, it turns into vapor, a gas. Water, ice, and vapor have different names and different forms, but their substance is the same: H O."

By: OMGLOLISM on June 16, 2008
at 8:02 pm

Reply

LMAO...welcome class, to religion for pre-schoolers.

Brother warrior, thanks for your concern. As Brothers in Christ, we have to listen and help each other to preach the truth of God's will to everyone. Isn't it clear that you cannot understand God's word using men's opinion? That's what Ted, COGinator, Dark Angel, Clark and the rest of those who persecute us. That's why they are trying to understand the Bible using men's opinion. I pity them. Let them squirm a little bit.

By: Poland on June 16, 2008
at 8:33 pm

Reply

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

warrior, thanks for that mediation.

By: CoGinator on June 16, 2008
at 9:09 pm

Are you able to answer the questions about Mother that have been posted earlier?

Reply

And, can you answer why we are no longer under Mosaic Law?

It's depressing how we debate about who is God and who isn't. We at the CoG we know who is our True God. Like I have said various times before... I am sorry that you refuse to the the beautiful knowledge given to us by our Glorious God. Its in the Bible in black and white.

By: Lizzie on June 16, 2008
at 11:05 pm

Reply

This isnt a rehabilitation center for lost souls as said by a fellow blogger, Jonah on the 16th at 2 am.

"To me it sounds more of a rehabilitation centre for all the divorced & helpless souls."

We have honored and awarded police officers and lawyers that are members of the CoG. Smart men and women who have realized the truth. We have happily married couples, infact Ryan/Marcus/John or whatever it is you wanna call him, is a very much happily married man. I met him and his wife personally.

Both my deacons are happily married. One of my deacons' wife is right now with our Heavenly Mother.

I do not know of a family member of the CoG that is in agony por distress of any kind because their husband/wife/son/daughter/mother/father is part of this "cult"...

My mother for instance couldnt be more proud and happy of my choice of religion or church. She isnt distressed or torn apart.

I am sorry and I pray to God that you see the truth. If this church was of men and not of Gods will we would have been destroyed instead of awarded and honored. God has given his TRUE church much praise.

On the other hand there are the other churches that only receive grief before the eyes of the ppl. For instance the Catholic Church are always being accused of sexual abusing their altar boys. Their 'fathers' have committed suicide, their conscience is that dirty. We hear of this over and over. But we, the CoG members have patience and we truly believe that somewhere in this blog is a CoG member waiting to be baptized or else we wouldn't be here. The end is here, There is no "God had pity & changed his mind" anymore!

The disasters are before our eyes... and you cannot see it as the end, but God had already prophesied that when you see this then you will know that the end is near.

Now, there are so many disasters everywhere in the world: wars between nations, ethnic conflicts, terrors, famines, earthquakes, and deadly heat or floods caused by changes in the weather patterns. Whenever such things occur, people tremble with fear, not knowing who or what they should set their hearts on.....

The Bible already prophesied about the coming disasters — the Last Days.

Matthew 24:6-7

6You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. 7Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places.

Luke 21:11

11There will be great earthquakes, famines and pestilences in various places, and fearful events and great signs from heaven.

2 Peter 3:10-13

10But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare.

11Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives 12as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming. That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the heat. 13But in keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, the home of righteousness.

There is also a record in the Old Testament as follows:

Malachi 4:1-3

1 "Surely the day is coming; it will burn like a furnace. All the arrogant and every evildoer will be stubble, and that day that is coming will set them on fire," says the LORD Almighty. "Not a root or a branch will be left to them. 2 But for you who revere my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. And you will go out and leap like calves released from the stall. 3 Then you will trample down the wicked; they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day when I do these things," says the LORD Almighty.

Zephaniah 1:14-18

14 "The great day of the LORD is near—near and coming quickly. Listen! The cry on the day of the LORD will be bitter, the shouting of the warrior there.

15 That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness,

16 a day of trumpet and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the corner towers.

17 I will bring distress on the people and they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD. Their blood will be poured out like dust and their entrails like filth.

18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the LORD's wrath. In the fire of his jealousy the whole world will be consumed, for he will make a sudden end of all who live in the earth.

"

Many Prophets prophesied about the end of the age. This is an age of hopelessness and despair; people are in a serious spiritual predicament & dilemma.

However, when the alarming news comes, the good news of salvation also comes.....

Zephaniah 2:1-3

1 Gather together, gather together, O shameful nation, 2 before the appointed time arrives and that day sweeps on like chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD comes upon you, before the day of the LORD's wrath comes upon you.

3 Seek the LORD, all you humble of the land, you who do what he commands. Seek righteousness, seek humility; perhaps you will be sheltered on the day of the LORD's anger.

The most urgent thing to do now is to listen to the news of salvation that the CoG preaches. The Bible testifies how we can escape the last disaster whatever it may be:
The earth will meet its doomsday, either by a world war or by God's mighty power. There are prophecies about the end of the age in the Bible. Whoever absolutely believes in GOD and follows the prophecies will be saved.
Listen to what God has to say thru his messengers

If anyone doesn't believe the message of salvation given to us by our God of Elohim, he cannot obtain eternal life, even though he tries to seek salvation with his own methods (the methods of men as underground shelters, going to another planet, submarines etc...)

Amos 9:2-4

2 Though they dig down to the depths of the grave, from there my hand will take them. Though they climb up to the heavens, from there I will bring them down.

3 Though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, there I will hunt them down and seize them. Though they hide from me at the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent to bite them.

4 Though they are driven into exile by their enemies, there I will command the sword to slay them. I will fix my eyes upon them for evil and not for good.

"

Now, the time has come to study and follow the way of salvation according to the guidance of God, following the prophecies of the Bible, instead of seeking man's ways or their opinions like Coginator/LOLism/Dark Angel/Jonah and other anti-CoG and non believers are doing.

ONLY God saves souls**

Please take this seriously; we're living in the Last Days.

God Bless You!!!

Good job Sister Lizzie. I will continue to please Father and Mother by keeping their commandments. God bless you all.

By: Poland on June 17, 2008
at 3:46 am

Reply

I have been reading the blogs for some time know. So far it looks like COG against the world. But as a fellow COG member i says this to those who are studying with our church members, follow your heart! If you belive in the Bible listen to what the bible says not man.

By: Elohim144 on June 17, 2008
at 3:55 am

Reply

Have you ever seen a scripture that says Jesus went to the synagogue on the 1st day of the week? No! Have you ever seen Christmas or Easter in the bible? No!

Acts 5:38 Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if thier purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail. 39 but if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God.

Fact is if you cant prove the COG wrong & show through the bible what we are doing wrong, then you need to think, "Have I been following Man made teachings or the teachings of the bible?"

Matt 7:21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord,Lord' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the WILL of my Father who is in heaven.

The only way you can find out Gods will is through the Bible not from the mouth of man. If you can't find "SUN" day, Christmas, or Easter in the bible, it's man made & it's not Gods will. Wide is the gate that leads to destruction & following the traditions of man & man made commandments will lead you thier (Matt 7:13-14). Get off the path of destruction by studying Gods word so you can understand the diffrence between the COG & other churchs & God will bless you.

Much Love & GB

Elohim144

Elohim says

Fact is if you cant prove the COG wrong & show through the bible what we are doing wrong, then you need to think, "Have I been following Man made teachings or the teachings of the bible

By: warrior on June 17, 2008 at 5:22 am

Reply

Th fact is our brother coginator, dark angel Donnie have put forth many important questions regarding the gods we worship and seek details which we have evaded so many times. Why have we done so because what is taught to us is men's opinion

We have lied and so has Lizzie come up with all her funny stories and each time poland to back her up says I will continue to please Father and Mother by keeping their commandments. Do you know your commandments well Poland. To play a role of a Deacon I have lied to my physical mother nor bothered about my 2 sisters or brother. They do not exist for me anymore. The Cog members are my new family. So how do we keep the commandments?

Lizzie I am sure you too might have had some bad experiences in life and joining the cog has brought a great change in your life that makes your mum feel good for you it does not matter what you are in to.

We have nothing to worry about except disasters, preach, and prepare for the end time set date 2012. Wonder if we are doing the right thing. As for my family members oh yes they are loving and really worried for me. But I have always been very stubborn since childhood and an impressionist. I have always made a mess of my life. My family has always prayed for my well being. I am to be blamed for my broken marriage and right enough got caught by the COG pastor who pulled me in. So there I go again repeating mistakes.

Now there's no turning back cause I will feel awkward to face my family back if our prophesy does not get fulfilled.

This is exactly what I'm trying to tell our members we have no answers we just preach the verses as taught to us by man and eat the passover whether it saves us from disasters or not. We just hold on tight to our Bible as a defensive tool.

Actually our watv has an internet department. We use to call it a satan to anyone of our members visited these blogs. But now we are instructed to start as many as we can. Our mother is very flexible. Thankyou mum for cleaning my system Sorry cuginator I too like these brothers and sisters have no answers to your questions.

As Lizzie put in "We have honored and awarded police officers and lawyers that are members of the CoG. Smart men and women who have realized the truth" She forgot to mention we also have scientist and army personnel. That's more than enough to show you the standard of our Cog. We have all highly intelligent people with screwed up brains but unable to answer your simple questions

So cog fails in that respect

"If this church was of men and not of Gods will we would have been destroyed instead of awarded and honored. God has given his TRUE church much praise."

By: LOLISMTISTIC on
June 17, 2008
at 7:54 am

Reply

LMAO. God destroys false churches and praises only the true church? LOL. Are you stupid?

2012 is not the end of the world.

Dial 1800-BRAINWASHED and seek help.

LOLISMTISTIC, perhaps you should dial the number that you posted above.

By: Poland on June 17, 2008
at 6:43 pm

Reply

1800-BRAINWASHED is for you LOLISMTISTIC.

COG haters, KEEP THEM COMING. You guys will fail in the end if you guys keep insisting the will of men to follow God's will.

Most churches today claim to hear the word of God. Actually, they do not understand the meaning of God's word. The Bible says that they have an uncircumcised ear. How about us?

By: Robert on June 17,
2008
at 8:41 pm

Reply

We have eyes to see, ears to hear and minds to understand. Giving thanks to God, let's see what the uncircumcised ear means, through the Bible.

Those who have an uncircumcised ear

People commonly say of the person who is slow in understanding what others say, "He has a bad ear." Likewise, the Bible says of him who does not understand what God says, "He has an uncircumcised ear."

Many people around us claim to believe in God, but they do not make out what God's will is and take it wrong. God said, "Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy" (Ex 20:8). However, they keep other day, not understanding God's word. That's why the Bible says that they have an uncircumcised ear.

Jer 6:10-15, KJV To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it. Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days. ...

Through the Bible, God showed us the way to the truth and salvation. However, those who have an uncircumcised ear do not understand what God's true will is. They are not concerned to obey God's word, which is offensive to them. So God's anger against them burns and He says that He cannot hold it in any longer. See today's churches! Do they obey God's word? If they obeyed, how could they ignore the word, "Worship no idol" or "Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy?" If they obeyed, how could they easily turn away from God's holy feasts?

Isa 42:18-20 "Hear, you deaf; look, you blind, and see! Who is blind but my servant, and deaf like the messenger I send? Who is blind like the one committed to me, blind like the servant of the LORD? You have seen many things, but have paid no attention; your ears are open, but you hear nothing."

Mt 13:14-17 "In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah: 'You will be ever hearing but never understanding; you will be ever seeing but never perceiving. For this people's heart has become calloused; they hardly hear with their ears, and they have closed their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them.' But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear. For I tell you the truth, many prophets and righteous men longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it. "

Those whose ear is uncircumcised do not give ear to God's word or pay attention to it. They are the deaf in spirit. However, God's people whose ear is circumcised listen to His voice. It is really blessed to hear the words of truth.

Miserable end of the spiritual deaf

Jesus showed in advance the end of the spiritual deaf as follows:

Mt 7:21-23 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!”

If they heard God’s voice, they would recognize God the Father and God the Mother who have come into this earth and hear Their voice and celebrate all the feasts of the new covenant just as we do.

However, they reject all the truth; though hearing many things, they pay no attention. It’s because their ear is uncircumcised. So, Jesus plainly said that they would never enter the kingdom of heaven, though they loudly call Him ‘Lord, Lord.’

Jer 8:7-14 Even the stork in the sky knows her appointed seasons, and the dove, the swift and the thrush observe the time of their migration. But my people do not know the requirements of the LORD. “How can you say, ‘We are wise, for we have the law of the LORD,’ when actually the lying pen of the scribes has handled it falsely? The wise will be put to shame; they will be dismayed and trapped. ... So they will fall among the fallen; they will be brought down when they are punished, says the LORD. ... ‘Why are we sitting here? Gather together! Let us flee to the fortified cities and perish there! For the LORD our God has doomed us to perish and given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against him.’”

Those whose ear is uncircumcised cling to deceit and refuse to return to God. What is the end of those who reject God’s words? It’s destruction. They will see such a miserable end coming upon them.

Considering all these things, we are bound to give thanks to God for giving us eyes to see and ears to hear. We, too, were the blind and the deaf in spirit. However, God has come into this earth and opened our spiritual eyes and ears, so that we can see and hear God’s words. God said, “He who has ears, let him hear.”

Hear God’s voice and open the door

Through the long period of the Dark Ages, many have lost their ears to hear God’s voice. Now is the time for their eyes and ears to be circumcised, so that they can see and hear God. For God Himself has come into this earth to save mankind. He is knocking on the door of our hearts, uttering His voice. In this age, we can directly hear God’s voice since God Himself has come into the earth.

Rev 3:20 “Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me.”

If a stranger knocks at the door, we will not open it easily. However, what if our father or mother tells us to open the door? We will hear his or her voice and open the door.

People have not heard God’s voice for a long time, and they’ve forgotten His voice. So when they hear God’s voice, some of them open the door, but some shut it more tightly. Unfortunately, even God’s children, who have not heard His voice for so long, do not easily recognize the voices of their Father and Mother.

God's children are supposed to open the door of their hearts when they hear the voices of the Father and Mother and to receive them. When we, all God's children, recognize the voices of our Father and Mother and open the door, we will go back to our heavenly country. We should hasten the coming of the day, shouldn't we? Let's quicken our pace and preach the gospel more diligently.

God's sheep listen to His voice

Jn 10:16 "I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock and one shepherd."

Jn 10:27 "My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me."

Jn 8:47 "He who belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

God's sheep know His voice. So in order to lead them to the Father and Mother quickly, we must speak only with God's voice, not with our own.

Now, God has come into this earth and is knocking at the door: Those who listen to His voice will receive Him, and those who do not hear will shut the door more tightly. By this, God will separate His people from those who are not His own.

Let's preach God's word to others with great boldness, as God told us. We don't need to think, 'Will they understand the word?' or 'What will they think of me when I tell the truth?' If we have such a thought in preaching the gospel to them, we may fail to lead them. Let's preach, having no doubt that God's sheep will listen to His voice.

Let the trumpet sound a clear call

Jn 18:37 ... Jesus answered, "You are right in saying I am a king. In fact, for this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me."

1 Jn 4:5-6 They are from the world and therefore speak from the viewpoint of the world, and the world listens to them. We are from God, and whoever knows God listens to us; but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. This is how we recognize the Spirit of truth and the spirit of falsehood.

Jesus distinguishes the Spirit of truth and the spirit of falsehood through whether they listen to God's voice or not. He plainly said, "He who belongs to God hears what God says." Let's preach God's word with boldness, leaving everything to God.

Looking upon our past days, there was a great difference in results between the two cases—when we preached God's word confidently and when we preached it without boldness.

God told us to let the trumpet sound a clear call. Of course, God's people are to hear His voice. However, when the preacher gives an uncertain sound, they cannot easily recognize God's voice and it will take them much time to receive the truth. Whatever we preach, if we speak with God's voice, they will clearly understand. A brother in Zion told me about his experiences during the preaching. He got an opportunity to speak God's words to an old lady living next door to him. At first, he told her about the vanity of life, but she seemed to be little interested in it. So he changed the subject and told her about God's commandments. Then she was surprised, and received the truth with great joy, saying that she found the true church at long last. I've heard that she is very eager to keep God's commands with a passionate heart like young adults. In another case, some received God immediately after hearing about the last secret described in the Bible.

Thus, our lost brothers and sisters are returning to Zion one after another, hearing the voices of the Father and Mother. God is our reason to be proud; let's boast of God all the more. Even those who have shut their minds tightly will surely hear God's voice and open the door if we preach confidently to them.

God's voice—"Celebrate the Passover"

Our Father said, "The more you practice the truth, the more you are renewed inwardly. If you do not practice the truth, your hearts become darkened and finally you will deny God."

2,000 years ago, God put great emphasis on the Passover. In these last days, too, He emphasizes repeatedly that His children should celebrate the Passover. We've already heard this voice of God. Let's preach more eagerly and lead many people to Zion.

Jn 6:53-57 Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me."

This is God's promise of life. God's sheep are sure to hear this word. Jesus promised His flesh and blood on the Passover (Mt 26:17-28; Lk 22:19-20). He saved our souls from death by giving us eternal life through the Passover—which is the recipe necessary for the salvation of all men. Let's sound a clear call and lead them to hear God's voice; let them open their spiritual eyes and ears. Now, the appointed time has come when God's children hear the voice of God and come out of Babylon. Believing the prophecies, let's sound the trumpet. He who has an ear hears God's voice. Let's blow the trumpet of the gospel loudly and lead many souls to salvation. Then the glory of God our Father and Mother will be proclaimed to the ends of the earth.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

LOLISMISTIC"

LOL. No it is for YOU!!

YOU=BRAINWASHED

2012= NOT END OF WORLD

MJ=LADY WITH BIG HAIR

"Most churches today claim to hear the word of God. Actually, they do not understand the meaning of God's word."

Imao. Oh? The COG cult claims to hear the word of God. Actually, they are money making scam for dummys.

COG=CULT SCAM

Colossians 2:16: Therefore, let no one judge you in matters of food and drink or with respect to a festival, a new moon, or Sabbath days.

Isa 42:18-20 "Hear, you deaf; look, you blind, and see! Who is blind but my servant, and deaf like the messenger I send?"

By: LOLISMISTIC on June 17, 2008 at 9:11 pm

ROBERT=BLIND and DEAF
ROBERT=SERVANT to SCAMMERS

Reply

Robert, I had to skip your posting...as 1. it was too long and 2. was just a repetitive cut and paste.

By: CoGinator on June 17, 2008 at 9:35 pm

Warrior, thanks for talking civilized and not so brainwashed and arrogant. Let focus on a couple of points that you can help us understand. If Ahnsahnghong never claimed to be God, and all of his teachings, writings, and demeanor were not that of one claiming to be God, why would it make sense at all to believe the story that he's the second coming. Logically, it makes more sense to believe it's a made up story of Joo, to support and keep alive the WMSCOG. The proof in the bible is not proof at all, but merely alternately interpreted scriptures to loosely cover the story of him being Christ.

Can you answer me that?

Reply

BORING!!! You guys are boring me with your man made accusations. Give it up already! Look at this w spiritual eyes. The bible isn't something to be seen w physical eyes.

By: Lizzie on June 18, 2008 at 2:10 am

Remember that's what the Pharicees did 2000 years ago! Do you want the same fate for you? I hope not!

Reply

Warrior, you don't seem to be of the Church of God, because instead of backing your brothers and sisters in the truth, you attack us just like an unbeliever/CoG hater. How little do you listen to the words of our Heavenly Mother or the teachings of Christ. Is that what you have learned? That's not the message I've received from Christ.

Mothers Teachings #8 & 9

When we praise brothers, the praise is returned to us
As the sea receives all the dirt and purifies it, we should have the broad and beautiful mind enough to cover up even the brothers' faults.

Christs' Teachings

Matthew 7:1~5

Judging Others

1"Do not judge, or you too will be judged. 2For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you. 3"Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? 4How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? 5You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye

Warrior, you sound just like CoGinator. We are trying to open up the eyes of the lost sheep, that was Jesus/Ahnsahnghong/Mothers' teaching and commandment. Love as I have loved you! But, you sit here and talk about how wrong it is and how we evade their questions.. Blah Blah Blah.

You're either with us or not. I have answered their questions that only derive from mens opinions, they see with physical eyes not spiritual. They just refuse to listen and accept the truth, because they are afraid to accept failure. They want an answer to destroy the CoG's integrity. I can't provide what is false, I am sorry! I only provide what is truth thru the bible teaching. The HOLY BOOK of the WORDS of GOD!

Another question I am going to answer is from Warrior himself:

"Lizzie I am sure you too might have had some bad experiences in life and joining the cog has brought a great change in your life that makes your mum feel good for you it does not matter what you are in to.

We have nothing to worry about except disasters, preach, and prepare for the end time set date 2012. Wonder if we are doing the right thing. As for my family members oh yes they are loving and really worried for me. But I have always been very stubborn since childhood and an impressionist. I have always made a mess of my life. My family has always prayed for my well being. I am to be blamed for my broken marriage and right enough got caught by the COG pastor who pulled me in. So there I go again repeating mistakes."

My life wasn't messed up when I decided to become a CoG member. I did it because I saw the truth before my eyes. Because I longed for the eternal life, I quenched it. My soul was awakened at that very moment. I wasn't even a member of any denomination or church. Satan had me shut from the world in fear that he would lose another soul to the truth. I am a big girl and I know how to distinguish truth from falsehood. It's all in black and white in the Bible. And for the count, my mother feels good because she is happy for me just because I am happy. My mother has always supported my decisions, and when I am not on the right path she will let me know! I have never made a "mistake" in my life, enough to make it seem as if it's the end. I am not saying I am perfect, no one is perfect but our Christ, who was without blemish or defect. I am VERY sorry about your broken marriage and how you leaned on the CoG for help with what obviously was your fault. It sounds as if you are blaming CoG for your failed marriage. I pray for you to be happy. Finding the source of Eternal Life should be reason enough to be happy. You seem very grumpy and unsatisfied. May you find the love necessary in your heart to be grateful and happy!

That is a true heart of a brother. To pray and wish happiness, not to judge. The reason I am here is to make others as happy as I am. Not only am I happy with my career and my family life, I have found the truth and I am going to heaven with my brothers and sister. Whether the world ends in 2012 or not. Brother be grateful and do as Paul did. Crucify yourself

Galatians 2:20

I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

God Bless You Brother Warrior

May Elohim shine from within you so that you may become one with your brothers and sister!

And I will end with this scripture

1 Corinthians 10:17

Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

I pray that our Mother & Father will fully awaken us all up from the sleep of death at a sooner time. Brothers & Sisters, the day of Atonement & the feast of Tabernacles is near.

this is the time when we must pray more earnestly, study more & preach the New Covenant to every soul we can so we can truly understand how to love God with all our heart, mind, soul & strength. Without love we can not enter God's rest. & even though people go against the TRUTH, Mother says to love them as well. All we can do is pray for them. Maybe the people who are persecuting our church will be apart of the hundred eighty million people that will come to the COG at the end of this year.

By: Elohim144 on June 18, 2008 at 3:43 am

Reply

Elohim144,

You are so right! We must pray earnestly so that those in the dark may open up their eyes and those in the Truth do not fall. We must keep in mind that those who persecute the Truth of God could be part of the 180 million that we are to find this year, with the help of Father & Mother. I have faith & hope that just maybe one of them may be found in the website. Maybe even have the opportunity to return into Mothers arms.

I have been given the FREE gift of the Water of Life and I want to share it with those who are still in the dark. God had pity and mercy on me, and showed this sinner the path to the Kingdom of Heaven. It's only fair I show others the same love given to me by Christ and show them way there.

It is written in the Bible that the only way to receive life from the Tree of Life... The Passoevr/Jesus Flesh & Blood. Our Father came once more not only as Jesus, but as the 2nd coming Christ, to remind us of the Tree of Life.

We must always pray for the los sheep. Jesus said "My sheep listen to my voice"

Thank you for the reminder...

Much Love

Lizz

By: Lizzie on June 18, 2008
at 5:31 am

Reply

Hey you guys are great, dumb as hell, but its funny...

By: Chad on June 18, 2008
at 2:08 pm

Reply

This video sums up why talking to CoG Members is a waste of time.

Advertisement

I can see more and more of our Brothers and Sisters from God's Zion are coming into this blog. The World Mission Society Church of God is really the true church built in the foundation of the First and Second time Christ that came into this world. We are really blessed to be chosen by God to

By: Robert on June 18, 2008
at 3:30 pm

Reply

carry out and preach the good news of eternal salvation through the Passover of the new covenant.

I was once captive by Satan, fooling me that being a Freemason is the light but really it's darkness once your in there. They give you the world but clearly the Bible says that we should seek God's Heavenly Kingdom.

Matthew 16:26 What good will it be for a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeits his soul? Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul?

Let's continue to proclaim the love of Father Ahnsahnghong and Mother Jerusalem.

Thank you Sister Lizzie.

By: Poland on June 18, 2008
at 3:40 pm

1 Corinthians 10:17

Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

Reply

We at the Church of God partake the Passover body and blood of Christ the give eternal life just as Jesus and Ahnsahnghong promised. COGinator and company, there's still time. We can become Brothers with Christ if you repent and follow God's will. God bless you all.

Hi everyone. I miss you all including Ted, COGinator, Dark Angel and the rest of those who persecute Church of God. I hope someday they will see the truth of the Bible so they can also have eternal life. May Father and Mother bless us all.

By: Elijah on June 18, 2008
at 3:44 pm

Reply

Many people have used the verse Colossians 2:16 to prove that they do not have to observe any Feasts of God (Sabbath, Passover, Unleavened Bread, etc.). Let's take a look at this verse to get an idea of why people would think that.

By: Bright Angel on June 18, 2008
at 3:50 pm

Reply

Colossians 2:16- "Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day. These are a shadow of the things that were to come; the reality, however, is found in Christ."

Now it is very easy to take this verse and say that we don't have to keep any of God's feasts if you don't understand the context of this verse and also the second sentence of this verse.

At this time, Apostle Paul was speaking to Christians in Colosse. Colosse is located in present day Turkey and at the time, the Christians there were being persecuted because the popular beliefs at this time were influencing Christ's teachings. Eastern mysticism and asceticism (belief that abstinence from certain physical activities such as eating or drinking will allow some sort of mind-body transformation) were the main philosophies that were intruding on Christ's teachings.

Apostle Paul was not telling the Church of God in Colosse to stop keeping God's feasts, he was telling the church not to let other people judge them because they keep God's feasts.

Let's confirm through the Bible. We have to see if Paul was really instructing the people not to keep God's feasts.

Acts 17:2- "As his custom was, Paul went into the synagogue, and on three Sabbath days he reasoned with them from the Scriptures,"

Paul's custom was to keep the Sabbath, he was in Thessalonica at this time for only three weeks so he was at this synagogue for only three weeks. Let's see another verse for confirmation.

Acts 18:4- "Every Sabbath he reasoned in the synagogue, trying to persuade Jews and Greeks."
Clearly keeping the Sabbath was a custom of Apostle Paul. However, was it just Apostle Paul's custom?

Luke 4:16- "He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. And he stood up to read. The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him."

Jesus Christ's very own custom was to keep the Sabbath. Christ came to show us the example of how to worship God (John 13:15). Then we should in fact keep the Sabbath day because it God's true day of worship.

Jesus kept the Sabbath 2,000 years ago, our Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong also kept the Sabbath, and now our Heavenly Mother continues to keep the Sabbath as an example for us.

Colossians 2:16 says that these feasts are a shadow of the things to come and that the reality is found in Christ. Jesus Christ kept the Sabbath and our Heavenly Father Christ Ahnsahnghong also kept the Sabbath. Then we must follow Christ who is the reality. Thanks to Christ Ahnsahnghong and Heavenly Mother for showing us all the truth in the Bible and giving us understanding.

By: LOLISMTISTIC on
June 18, 2008
at 7:25 pm

Advertisement

Reply

Ohhh, thats a great video. Reminds me of several brainwashed nutcases I know. LOL.

I pray for these lost sheep who continue to worship this false idol, also known as Ahnsahnghong. May God shine his light upon their heads. Wrestle them away from these demons, Lord. Bless these lost sheep and pull them back into your light. They have troubles deep within their hearts. Their eyes are closed and can not see your truth. Heal them Lord and embrace them.

By: SisterSarah on
June 18, 2008
at 7:31 pm

Reply

Amen.

Sister Sarah said:

"I pray for these lost sheep who continue to worship this false idol, also known as Ahnsahnghong. May God shine his light upon their heads. Wrestle them away from these demons, Lord. Bless these lost sheep and pull them back into your light. They have troubles deep within their hearts. Their eyes are closed and can not see your truth. Heal them Lord and embrace them."

By: Bright Angel on
June 18, 2008
at 8:41 pm

Reply

Sarah, why are you praying for the Church of God? Didn't you know that it is God's Zion and the church that is built in the foundation of Jesus Christ and Apostles. It was abolished by Constantine in 321 AD and was restored by Christ Ahnsahnghong in 1948 when Israel gained it's independence as prophecied in the Bible. The World Mission Society Church of God follows all God's commandments, not man made traditions that is used to worship God. Sunday worship, Christmas, Communion came from Constantine which majority of False Christians follow. Only the Church of God follows all of God's commandments and not just a partial of it.

Matthew 15:6-9

6he is not to 'honor his father[c]' with it. Thus you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition. 7You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you:

8" 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

9They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men.'[d]"

Also in the Bible, those who keep all God's commandments and not just a partial of it are the ones who love Him according to His words, the Bible.

John 14:21

21Whoever has my commands and obeys them, he is the one who loves me. He who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love him and show myself to him."

John 5:39-42

39You diligently study[c] the Scriptures because you think that by them you possess eternal life. These are the Scriptures that testify about me, 40yet you refuse to come to me to have life.

41"I do not accept praise from men, 42but I know you. I know that you do not have the love of God in your hearts.

Luke 6:46-49

46"Why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do what I say? 47I will show you what he is like who comes to me and hears my words and puts them into practice. 48He is like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid the foundation on rock. When a flood came, the torrent struck that house but could not shake it, because it was well built. 49But the one who hears my words and does not put them into practice is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The moment the torrent struck that house, it collapsed and its destruction was complete."

Sarah, Ahnsahnghong fulfilled all the prophecies of the Second Coming Christ testified in the Bible. You keep studying the Bible and giving praise to the Lord yet you don't follow His will according to the Bible. Clearly those who keep God's commandments absolutely are the ones who really love Him according to the Bible and if we keep God's commandments we can have His eternal life promised through Jesus Passover body and blood. I'll keep praying for you Sarah. God bless you Sarah.

Bright Angel said, "Sarah, why are you praying for the Church of God? Didn't you know that it is God's Zion and the church that is built in the foundation of Jesus Christ and Apostles. It was abolished by Constantine in 321 AD and was restored by Christ Ahnsahnghong in 1948 when Israel gained it's independence as prophesied in the Bible. The World Mission Society Church of God follows all God's commandments, not man made traditions that is used to worship God. Sunday worship, Christmas, Communion came from Constantine which majority of False Christians follow. Only the Church of God follows all of God's commandments and not just a partial of it."

By: CoGinator on June 18, 2008 at 9:16 pm

Reply

Actually, you don't have your historical facts correctly...or were you clear on what you're talking about. "it" as you are inferring to is the Passover...and no Constantine didn't abolish it. What he did do is make a law that the Jewish Passover and Easter couldn't be on the same day. he did this not because he wants to suppress the church...on the contrary. He did this because he was an anti-Semite and didn't want anything to do with the Jews.

Please look up your facts prior to spewing the misconceptions and falseness that the WMSCOG teaches. Thank you.

Also Please answer this question as it's important to understand the WMSCOG. Do you eat pork? That was one of the original commandments from God as part of the Mosaic law that you claim you follow. So do you eat Pork?

Lizzie, you said, "BORING!!! You guys are boring me with your man made accusations. Give it up already! Look at this w spiritual eyes. The bible isn't something to be seen w physical eyes. Remember that's what the Pharisees did 2000 years ago! Do you want the same fate for you? I hope not!"

By: CoGinator on June 18, 2008 at 9:29 pm

Reply

First of all, these aren't man made accusations as they are logical questioning to find out if there is any truth in what the WMSCOG claims. You say to look at this with spiritual eyes, but that doesn't mean to put on blinders... after all Christ predicted there will be many false religions that try and emulate Christianity. So we must carefully test and challenge anything that doesn't look right.

You say the bible isn't something to be seen w/physical eyes and yet you have to use your physical eyes to read it. Last time I tried to absorb the bible via osmosis it didn't work very well....I actually had to read it, use a Strong's concordance to learn word meanings and how they are used, and I had to pray about what I read. This is why I have a hard time accepting anything that comes from the WMSCOG...it's not what God is leading me to accept.

There are too many problems with the doctrine that the WMSCOG members are claiming as truth. It doesn't fit in what Jesus taught. On the surface what is claimed by the WMSCOG seems viable, but then as you dig deeper the lies become abundantly clear. I guess the members find it easier to refer to anyone who doesn't believe as a Pharisee than it would be to do a little more research and farther in depth study to find out that much of what is taught isn't what the bible is about.

I think a better historical comparison would be the WMSCOG and the Branch Davidians from Waco Tx.

I think a better use of your time would be not to post the studies from your church but rather test the studies from your church to that of what the rest of the world claims and see if it holds any water. I think if you actually did that in a non-bias capacity you would start to understand the real intention of the gospel and not the cult-made one.

Sorry if my words appear to be harsh, but you must know that what you claim to be truth is very skewed from the reality of what the bible is really teaching.

You see, this is the reason why I have to question you guys, because of posts such as Bright Angel's.

By: Dark Angel on
June 18, 2008
at 9:48 pm

Bright Angel, please answer three questions for me.

Reply

1. Did Jesus have gentiles at the table with him at his last supper? If not, why?

2. Were the gentiles who Paul preached the word to, circumcised?

3. According to Acts 21:17–26, why did Paul have to partake in the Jewish ritual of cleansing or purification called Mikvah, in order to disprove rumors of him teaching Jews to forsake the Mosaic Law, including circumcision?

You do know that in order for gentiles to partake in the passover observance, they would have to be circumcised and convert to Judaism, right?

Right.

Acts 21:25, is clear about whether gentiles can partake in the Mosaic Law, in which James and the elders were observing. However, rumors spread that Paul was not observing them. Which is why he had to "purify" himself in Mikvah.

Bright Angel, does your church practice Mikvah?

I mean c'mon people, you can't have one foot in the old testament and the other in the new testament.

By: Dark Angel on
June 18, 2008
at 9:55 pm

Then, claim that one is a shadow and the other is the "reality".

Reply

COGinator said:

By: Bright Angel on
June 18, 2008
at 10:53 pm

"First of all, these aren't man made accusations, as they are logical questioning to find out if there is any truth in what the WMSCOG claims. You say to look at this with spiritual eyes, but that doesn't mean to put on blinders...after all Christ predicted there will be many false religions that try and emulate Christianity. So we must carefully test and challenge anything that doesn't look right."

Reply

Matthew 7:13-15

13"Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. 14But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it. 15"Watch out for false prophets. They come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves.

Majority of Christians are false, giving praise to the Lord but doesn't keep His commandments. Catholic calls them Protestant because they are derived from them that keeps Sunday worship, Communion, Christmas and many more man made traditions used to please God. Clearly, only the few will find the narrow gate, the one that really keep God's will and that is the World Mission Society Church of God.

Dark Angel said:

"You do know that in order for gentiles to partake in the passover observance, they would have to be circumcised and convert to Judaism, right?"

Clearly, Jesus and the Apostles set us the examples of how to keep God's will. As a matter of fact, Jewish is not keeping Baptism just as Jesus did. Jesus came to seek those who are lost, His chosen people that were predestined to be blameless in His sight according to the Bible.

Ephesians 1:3-14

3Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. 4For he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight. In love 5he[c] predestined us to be adopted as his sons through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure and will— 6to the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves. 7In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace 8that he lavished on us with all wisdom and understanding. 9And he[d] made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he purposed in Christ, 10to be put into effect when the times will have reached their fulfillment—to bring all things in heaven and on earth together under one head, even Christ.

11In him we were also chosen,[e] having been predestined according to the plan of him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will, 12in order that we, who were the first to hope in Christ, might be for the praise of his glory. 13And you also were included in Christ when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation. Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit, 14who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession—to the praise of his glory.

COGinator, I respect you for doing your best to please God but we have follow His words instead of pleasing God on our own. Dark Angel, I hope you'll become 'Bright Angel' like me, knowing God's will. God bless you COGinator and Dark Angel.

I have missed you guys! All of you have become like a close fiend/family member. Including the non believers. I think I will start to miss you if I stop coming.

So I am going to keep coming even if I don't post. I am tired of the questions. I think its about time WE ask some questions.

By: Lizzie on June 19, 2008
at 12:05 am

Reply

1. CoGinator/Dark Angel, whats your real name? Infact, what is everyones real name (including CoG members) Just the first will do. Everyone knows mine is Liz

2. CoGinator/Dark Angel/The rest of the unbelievers, who claim to love us so much they want to open our eyes so we can see its a cult, what is your religious belief? Are you Christian, Baptist, Catholic?

3. What is YOUR job?

4. Are any of you bible scholars/students? Any degrees in Religion?

5. How much do you REALLY knw about the CoG? Is there a member of the family/ex Cog members, or you yourselves were members?

My name is Tony, im from the Colorado COG branch. Where are the rest of my fellow brothers & sisters located?

By: Elohim144 on June 19, 2008
at 1:32 am

Reply

Bright Angel said,

"Clearly, Jesus and the Apostles set us the examples of how to keep God's will. As a matter of fact, Jewish is not keeping Baptism just as Jesus did. Jesus came to seek those who are lost, His chosen people that were predestined to be blameless in His sight according to the Bible."

By: Dark Angel on June 19, 2008
at 2:59 am

Reply

Bright Angel, "Baptism" is not a custom of Judaism. However, Mikvah is. In a sense, the concept of "baptism" is derived from Mikvah, because in the time Jesus exist and prior to that, there were no other religions with such a practice.

If you were to compare Mikvah and Baptism, you will see the similarities. Mikvah, is a practice from the Laws of Moses. "John the baptist" used the concept in his time for his own idea of spiritual cleansing.

Hi Lizzie, i'm sorry but I have no interest in knowing who you are and what you do. It doesn't matter to me if you are using your real name or not. What matters to me is sharing information and getting an understanding.

Bright Angel, you quoted Matthew 7:13-15 and then said, "Majority of Christians are false, giving praise to the Lord but doesn't keep His commandments. Catholic calls them Protestant because they are derived from them that keeps Sunday worship, Communion, Christmas and many more man made traditions used to please God. Clearly, only the few will find the narrow gate, the one that really keep God's will and that is the World Mission Society Church of God."

By: CoGinator on June 19, 2008 at 3:52 am

Reply

First of all, we can each interpret that scripture to point to each others belief, but the reality is it doesn't prove anything. So let's set it aside for now.

Secondly, you feel the majority of Christianity is false. I can understand how you feel that way based on what you've been told by your church. But have you really looked into those claims deeper than what you church as preached to you?

To prove what your church says is true, it needs to be supported by a third party verification...meaning you can use what your church says as the proof. I think we can all agree that as you read the bible, especially on an individual basis, it's easy to tie an alternate meaning to that one scripture. So without using the teaching of the WMSCOG. Where is the third party verification that thier understanding is correct.

To do so, you can't point back to another teaching of the WMSCOG to support a different view. For example to prove it's the Mosaic Law is in what God expect for his children, you can't point to Ahnsahnghong as God to support it. Each of those theory's rely on each other and nulls the support for each.

Can your doctrine support the scrunity of all bible scholars?

If not at some point you have to acknowlodge that the teachings of your church are in total isolation of the rest of the world...and tha in of it's self should throw a huge red flag up!!

If your content and like the direction your life is going then continue to do what you are doing. But at some point your going to get tired of people avoiding you, and people telling you that your belief don't match up with the teachings of Jesus.

My earlier question is still out there. any and all CoG members can feel free to answer it. Do you eat pork?

Lizzie, sure I'll answer your questions:

By: CoGinator on June 19, 2008 at 4:11 am

1. Whats your real name? CoGinator. Some things are safer left unknown.

Reply

2. What is your religious belief? I am a non demoninational Christian.

3. What is YOUR job? I am self made Millionaire. I own a number of companies and I like to travel quite a bit. It gives me a lot of time to study the bible and really research the true intention of the scriptures. I need to make sure I am grounded and following the word of God as it's intended as I've been intrusted with a lot of responsiblity and resources.

4. Are any of you bible scholars/students? Any degrees in Religion? see answer above

5. How much do you REALLY knw about the CoG? Is there a member of the family/ex Cog members, or you yourselves were members?

I have a close friend who has gotten involved. I was courious about the teaching as a few of the things he/she mentioned to me did not sit right. After doing extensive research as well as attending in secret (as in an alias), I've been able to understand how and what they teach goes against the true nature of both the New and Old testements. I started with the mindset that what the WMSCOG teaches could be true and then crossed check the teachings against multiple sources to see if it could support itself. I generally think the people associated are really nice and generally are well intended, but thier bible knowlege was not strong so the things they were taught seemed to make sense. The process that the WMSCOG uses to teach is very repetitive, very time consuming, and explains why people really hold on to their viewpoint. It's been engrained and supported with group think. Say what you want about Catholic and other Protestant Christians, there's always the mindset that you are free to believe what you want and you'll decide to choose the Christian lifestyle not because you are hounded to do so, but because it's where you heart is leading you.

Bright Angel,

Paul came across a guy named Timothy who has a Jewish mother and a Greek father. Paul circumcised Timothy, why didn't he "baptize" him?

By: Dark Angel on June 19, 2008 at 6:55 am

Reply

First off, I want to thank CoGinator for answering my questions... It gave me alot of insight on him and why he thinks the way he does.. THANK YOU

By: Lizzie on June 19, 2008 at 10:24 am

Reply

Now off to Dark Angel,

Colossians 2

9For in Christ all the fullness of the Deity lives in bodily form, 10and you have been given fullness in Christ, who is the head over every power and authority. 11In him you were also circumcised, in the putting off of the sinful nature,[a] not with a circumcision done by the hands of men but with the circumcision done by Christ, 12having been buried with him in baptism and raised with him through your faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.

Thats why we no longer have the regulation of circumcision.

Mikvah is also known as baptism as you explained above.

Acts 16:3

Paul wanted to take him along on the journey, so he circumcised him because of the Jews who lived in that area, for they all knew that his father was a Greek

He circumcised him because of the Jews that lived there. Paul had a way of preaching to save souls...

1 Corinthians 9

19Though I am free and belong to no man, I make myself a slave to everyone, to win as many as possible. 20To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law), so as to win those under the law. 21To those not having the law I became like one not having the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law), so as to win those not having the law. 22To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all men so that by all possible means I might save some. 23I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

So there is your answer DA

Hello Lizzie,

By: Dark Angel on
June 19, 2008
at 12:20 pm

Remember, the mosaic law is a collection of commandments that god gave to the israelites. The mosaic law begins with the ten commandments and includes the laws of observance found through the torah/old testament.

Reply

You posted Colossians2 in regards to circumcision and why it was no longer practiced by some jews who were christians.

Thanks for posting it because my point is that all of these laws were for the jews, not gentiles.

The early gentile christians were aware of this, through Paul.

What connection would gentiles have with the passover or any of the jewish feasts?

None, because they have no connection or reason to observe them.

James, the elders, and the rest of the jews who followed christ were Judaizers.

The split in christianity started with the judaizers and the gentile christians.

Paul, did not object to the observance of the Mosaic Law, as long as it did not interfere with the liberty of the gentiles, but he adhered to it's laws.

As mentioned when he took the Mikvah, which is a part of the mosaic law.

In regard to the Passover the people of Israel were commanded to observe its rituals, not gentiles.

Now, start to consider why the "early church" split.

By: Dark Angel on June 19, 2008 at 12:33 pm

Let me just say that in the beginning, judaizers out numbered the gentile christians. However, that changed through time and the gentile christians dominated the church.

Reply

Whatever "laws" that were changed, were changed by them, because.....they were genitiles and had no use for jewish holidays and traditions, unlike the judaizers who were actual jews.

Here's some information on the division of the early church.

It's labelled "Early Divisions"

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Christianity_and_antisemitism

I recommend reading the whole page.

I whole heartedly agree with what Dark Angel has posted above.

By: CoGinator on June 19, 2008 at 2:30 pm

Reply

That's Christian history Dark Angel and I agree with you. Those are the facts that's why it is not by rituals we are saved. It is by the grace that Jesus Christ gave us which is eternal life and by believing in Him we can be save just like when He was crucified and the other guy also crucified beside Him and he ask Jesus to take him also in Heaven. Jesus Christ saved his soul even though he didn't celebrated the Passover. Only through Him and in Him, Jesus Christ, we can have eternal life.

By: Frank on June 19, 2008 at 9:51 pm

Reply

To the COG members, why do you guys avoid

By: Clark on June 19,

real facts and still insist your invented stories? Dark Angel and COGinator presented the facts in this blog and you guys avoided it. That's really sorry and blinders on their eyes. Good job Dark Angel and COGinator. Keep it up.

2008
at 9:54 pm

Reply

God bless everyone. We hear the glad news that the flame of the gospel is burning throughout the world and our heavenly family members, both nationwide and worldwide, are bearing abundant fruit. Such good news is a result of the positive thought of all our brothers and sisters in Zion who strive for the gospel, depending on God's word, thinking, 'Everything is possible in God.'

Through all ages, world history has been made by those who positively think, 'Everything is possible.' Thomas Edison, a famous scientist, made great achievements in science through constant experiments, with the thought—'It's possible.' He sat on eggs like a hen to hatch chickens; and he had his friend inhale hydrogen gas to realize his dream of flying in the sky. Such thoughts brought about scientific advances through many trials and errors. As a result, today a lump of metal of several hundreds of tons flies in the sky or floats on the waters.

On the other hand, those who thought, 'It's impossible,' have not produced any achievements or advances for mankind, because of their overworrying about everything—even about little things. History proves that. At this moment, the kingdom of heaven is forcefully being advanced by those who have positive faith—'I can do.' Let's find out how to forcefully advance the kingdom of heaven, through the Biblical teachings.

The positive thinking, 'I can do'

Mt 11:12 From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been forcefully advancing, and forceful men lay hold of it.

The kingdom of heaven is forcefully advanced by those who strive for the gospel; it is not given to those who just wait for it, doing nothing. Not a portion of the kingdom is for a man who does not attack it. A man like Judas Iscariot, who keeps company with God in favorable conditions but betrays Him in unfavorable situations, can never enter the heavenly kingdom.

Think of some ancients who kept their faith in God to the end; even a blazing furnace could not destroy their faith. Such a faith came from their strong will to forcefully advance the kingdom of heaven. In the Early Church, there were many martyrs including Apostle Paul; some were burned alive, some became food for the wild animals, some were sawed in two, and others were beaten with rods. Despite that, they kept their faith to the end and entered the kingdom of heaven. It was because they tried to forcefully lay hold of it.

Even at this moment, the kingdom of heaven is being forcefully advanced. By whom? By those who reluctantly go to church, without any fervor for the gospel? To them, the kingdom of heaven is an impregnable fortress.

By: Robert on June 19,
2008
at 9:58 pm

Reply

The kingdom of heaven is being advanced forcefully and gradually by those who make every effort to enter, trying to receive spiritual blessings like Jacob, though losing worldly things. It is unceasingly advanced by more people throughout the world—by young adults including college and university students, soldiers and office workers, and by middle-aged and older adults, both male and female. The kingdom of heaven is forcefully advanced by all who have the positive thought, 'Everything is possible in God.'

Do you still hesitate? If you do, please have this faith—'I can do.' Everyone can bear the fruit of the Holy Spirit if he has a strong will to surely enter the kingdom of heaven.

God has given opportunities equally to all individuals, from children to adults. Is it impossible for a child to preach? No. We often see children lead their fathers or mothers to the truth.

'Nobody can do,' and 'Everybody can do'

A song titled 'Nobody' was popular in the United States at one time. This song expressed defiance against the age in negative terms. It was a worldwide popular song to arouse sympathy from a large number of people. How regrettable!

These are the words of the song: "Who is fit for the presidency in the world?" "Nobody." "Who can stop wars?" "Nobody." "Who is respectable in the world?" "Nobody."

Like this, this song contains negative words—nobody, nothing, or impossible. Considering it was so popular among the youth, we can guess how spiritless and pessimistic they were in those days. Why did they come to have such negative and pessimistic thoughts? It's because they did not seek God but worldly pleasure and gratification. That's why such a song with negative words became popular in the world. How sad! People with such negative thinking cannot make any progress in history.

How about us? What shall we answer if anyone asks us, "Who is fit for the presidency?" We will answer, "Everybody." "Everybody is fit for the presidency," we will say. If anyone asks us, "Who can stop wars?" Then we will answer, "Everybody." If anyone asks us, "Who is respectable?" We will also answer, "Everybody." We will say: Everybody is fit for the presidency; everybody can stop wars; everybody is respectable.

All of us in Zion are a royal priesthood, aren't we? We are all fit for pastoral duties and evangelization. We can do everything; nothing is impossible for us.

The switch of faith does not work when we do something with the thought—'It's impossible.' God said everything that does not come from faith is sin. Can we save souls, committing sin? Certainly not.

Remember that the kingdom of heaven is being forcefully advanced at this moment. We should be more devoted to the gospel, wherever we are. Let's take pride in everything we do for the kingdom of heaven even though it is a small thing, whether we are on the front line or on the sidelines or behind backs in the gospel work.

Php 4:10-13 ... for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do everything through him who gives me strength.

Apostle Paul aimed only at saving souls. That's why he could have a positive thought, "I can do everything." It is against God's teaching to think, 'I can do nothing' or 'I have no ability to preach like him/her,' isn't it?

Everything is possible if we do it with the belief—"I can do everything through Him who gives me strength." However, if we hesitate or give up with the thought, 'I can't do,' we are unable to make history or lead the world. We cannot step forward with the negative thought, 'I can't do.'

Nothing is impossible if we depend on God, not ourselves. God is with us in Zion and helps us. Sometimes we forget that and come to think, 'We can't' or 'Nobody is fit for the work.' That's the spirit of 'Nobody.'

"Who is fit for the work?" "Nobody." "Who can bear much fruit?" "Nobody." If the church members have the spirit of 'Nobody,' can they forcefully advance the kingdom of heaven according to God's will? Never. Let's burn up the thought, 'Nobody,' by the fire of the Holy Spirit and have the thought, 'Everybody.'

Heb 11:1-6 Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see And without faith it is impossible to please God ...

The Good News Bible says, "To have faith is to be sure of the things we hope for, to be certain of the things we cannot see" (Heb 11:1, Today's English Version). With faith everything is possible. Faith makes the impossible possible.

Has God ever commanded inanimate objects to produce fruit? No. He has told us, living beings, to bear fruit, because we can do it. If our thought is changed from the negative 'Nobody' to the positive 'Everybody,' we will surely be able to bear fruit. With such a positive faith, we shall display the glory of God all the more.

Faith is required to enter the heavenly Canaan

On New Year's Day morning, I watched a TV program about a success story of a famous woman. She was a Korean with short stature, who became a rare millionairess in the United States; she gained success after going through all kinds of troubles. The one and only secret of her success was the creed—"I can do." She said that she was always sharing her creed—"He can do, she can do, why not me?"—with the people whom she met, as well-wishing remarks.

Thus, everything is possible for the person who thinks, 'I can do'; he/she can build a large city even in a desert land. What about the person who thinks, 'I can't do'? He can never make the desert fertile; it will remain desolate forever.

We are called by God to awaken the people of the world to repent, so they may qualify to enter the kingdom of heaven. This is not an impossible thing at all. From nothing, God made the light, created the heavens and the earth, made the sea, created all the living creatures of the sea according to their kinds, and made all the wild animals and the livestock of the earth and the birds of the air. They were non-existent in the world; but God created them all. Which is difficult, to make something out of nothing or to bring what is already created? Compared with God's creating man, it is really not difficult to bring back the 144,000 God has already created.

The Bible shows us there is a great difference in the results between those who hold the faith, 'I can do,' and those who think—'I can't do'—and give up. Considering the opposite results obtained by the two, we can recognize that the kingdom of heaven is given only to those who have a positive faith, along with a firm resolution that they will surely enter it.

Nu 13:30-14:30 Then Caleb silenced the people before Moses and said, "We should go up and take possession of the land, for we can certainly do it." But the men who had gone up with him said, "We can't attack those people; they are stronger than we are." And they spread among the Israelites a bad report about the land they had explored. ... That night all the people of the community raised their voices and wept aloud. All the Israelites grumbled against Moses and Aaron, and the whole assembly said to them, "If only we had died in Egypt! Or in this desert! Why is the LORD bringing us to this land only to let us fall by the sword? Our wives and children will be taken as plunder. Wouldn't it be better for us to go back to Egypt?" ... Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had explored the land, tore their clothes and said to the entire Israelite assembly, ... "And do not be afraid of the people of the land, because we will swallow them up. Their protection is gone, but the LORD is with us ..." The LORD said to Moses and Aaron: "... In this desert your bodies will fall—every one of you twenty years old or more who was counted in the census and who has grumbled against me. Not one of you will enter the land I swore with uplifted hand to make your home, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun."

As you know, this is a story about the twelve spies. Ten of them gave up early, repeating the word, 'Nobody.' "Who can enter the land of Canaan?" "Nobody." "Who can live in the land of Canaan?" "Nobody." At the spies' disheartening words, all the Israelites wept bitterly. When the thought—"I can't do"—prevailed among the Israel-ites, there arose a kind of defeatism and hopelessness: 'If only we had died in this desert!' A sense of inferiority—"They seemed like giants, but we are like grasshoppers"—began to weigh heavily on their hearts.

All of them gave up, and God didn't allow them to enter the land of Canaan. He rewarded them according to their thought and faith.

Only two persons, Joshua and Caleb, cried out, 'Everybody can enter the land of Canaan.' They set an example of faith for us today, giving us a lesson that we can do everything under any circumstances because God is with us.

The kingdom of heaven is given to the person who thinks, 'I can do'

The gospel can advance when there are many who think, 'I can do.' What happened to the Israelites in the desert is an example for us today. Considering the history, it is clear that those with the positive thought—'I can do'—will ultimately enter the eternal kingdom of heaven. Now, let's dismiss the negative thought, 'We can't do,' or 'It is impossible for our church or group to do it.' The thought—'I can't do'—makes us shrink back and plunges us into destruction. Let's forcefully advance with the thought—'I can do,' depending on God, like Joshua and Caleb.

Those who think, 'I can do,' achieve their goal if there is a 1 percent possibility. However, those who think, 'I can't do,' are unable to accomplish it even though there is a 99 percent possibility. So God said, "If you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there' and it will move" (Mt 17:20). If we believe that we can do, depending on God, nothing is impossible for us. Let's change our thought from now on. If we have the same faith as Joshua and Caleb, Babylon will be fallen soon, as was Jericho. Though Jericho seemed impregnable, it fell like piles of sand before God—it was blown away like chaff and perished as nothing.

Babylon appears powerful now, but it will be as nothing and consumed like stubble before our Almighty God. With great boldness and strong faith, let's forcefully advance the kingdom of heaven.

Isa 14:24 The LORD Almighty has sworn, "Surely, as I have planned, so it will be, and as I have purposed, so it will stand."

God spoke through prophecy that everything would be accomplished. To us, who believe in God, the Bible gives this passage: 'I can do everything through him who gives me strength.' Remember the words of Jesus, "According to your faith will it be done to you." Have a firm faith and resolution to fill the heavenly barn with good fruit that pleases our heavenly Father and Mother.

The world belongs to those who think that they can do. Likewise, the kingdom of heaven belongs to those who have positive thinking and faith. Those who think, 'I can't do,' may just occupy their own sitting room. However, those who think, 'I can do,' will take the whole universe and become a royal priesthood in heaven, ruling over the galactic system (1 Pe 2:9).

Dear brothers and sisters, let's do the gospel work with strong and affirmative faith—'I can do everything through Him who gives me strength.' Do not think in a negative way—'I'm not capable of preaching,' but in a positive manner—'Everything is possible because God is with me; if I fail to do it, there must be something wrong with myself.' I hope all of you will accomplish everything by doing it with faith.

The kingdom of heaven is forcefully being advanced even at this moment. Let's leave our mark on it. Let us all forcefully advance the kingdom of heaven and enter it with joy, meeting our Father with abundant fruit when He comes.

Robert,

By: Lizzie on June 20,

Seriously, you have to stop posting long blogs. Even I skip through them! I am a CoG Member and I just can't sit there and read 1000+ words. Most of the unbelievers of the 2nd Coming just skip it too. I understand you're trying to preach the words that lead to eternal life... but they aren't listening. Why don't you answer their questions instead. Prove to them that we are right, that Father came again & established Mother. Prove that he really is God.

2008
at 12:40 am

Reply

Altho most of you don't want to believe it (or accept it), DA actually has made some good points. I am not saying he is right, or that I am falling for it, but he has some good argumentals and debate topics there!

Fathers is coming... you can tell by what's happening to the world around us. It's falling apart. There is word of WW3, and just as prophesied in the Bible, it is coming from the north.

We still have a chance to bring them to repentance. Buut don't forget those brothers and sisters that are out there, those that believe and are waiting for the Holy Words.

It's happening all too soon. There are 180,000 out there that must be found this year. Those that have a chance of entering heaven. Many will stay behind, but just as sister/brother posted...

Matthew 7:13-15

13"Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. 14But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

Not all will find it. We are blessed.

God Bless you all... I hope that you will repent before the end. You still have time.

Lizzie said: "Fathers is coming... you can tell by what's happening to the world around us. It's falling apart. There is word of WW3, and just as prophesied in the Bible, it is coming from the north."

By: Ted on June 20,
2008
at 1:30 am

Reply

Actually, in terms of "war" and the "world falling apart" nothing has changed. Statistically, the rate of war and armed conflict throughout history is relatively unchanged. The number of wars and conflicts remain the same, the only thing that changes is our ability to more accurately document every single one of them.

Every year there are about 25 small scale armed conflicts worldwide, and 9 larger scaled conflicts. These include civil wars, proxy wars and conventional wars. Historically, every single year in mankind's history has had conflict and war. On average, there is only widespread peace once every 25.8 years. And even these periods only last a number of months.

Every generation thinks they are living in a "more violent time" when in fact they simply were unborn or too young to remember or understand when the last conflict took place.

Every single conflict in the world going on today, has happened before. You are probably simply too young to remember.

Even the Bible warns us of wrongly using "tales of war" as a benchmark:

Mark 13:7: But when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, stop being alarmed. These things must take place, but the end hasn't come yet

Cults often use "fear tactics" or "we are living in the end times" tactics to keep their members in check. But the fact is, now is not a "more violent time". War is human nature. Creation and destruction go hand in hand.

Thank you Lizzie for pointing out the length of Roberts posting. It was way too long to be useful, which is a shame as he seems like a good motivational speaker.

By: CoGinator on June 20, 2008 at 4:33 am

Reply

From what I did read of Robert's post, there were some assumptions that I don't agree with. First being, he assumed that Judas didn't make it to heaven. Now I can honestly say that I don't know if he did or didn't, but I can say for sure, he might have. Jesus and God new he was going to do what he did...maybe he was even following Gods personal commandment. We don't know, so we can't assume one way or another. But we do know about "grace" as it's been testified through out the entire New Testament. So it wouldn't be unreasonable to think that he did ask for forgiveness and repented his actions to God, who then granted him access to Heaven. As Dark Angel pointed out, the criminal next to Jesus on the cross was given Grace so we can clearly see how the Lord works.

Secondly, it sounded like, or rather I interpreted your statement of loosing things like Jaccob to mean that "you'll have to loose and give up things to enter Heaven." Yes we need to give a little to get a lot. It's the lords way of teaching us compasssion and sharing. But you don't have to give up or loose everything to go to heaven. Faithful tithers are rewarded with more resources. Faithful servants are rewarded with more time. But don't miss this important point. it's not mandatory to give up everything to enter the kingdom of heaven. Just don't let worldly things define you.

And lastly Ted hit the nail on the head. It's easy to point to the disasters of the world and spin that into something it's not. It appears that there is more things going on in the world, but our technology and ability to quickly disseminate information has given a false perception that there is more going on than there used to be. Albeit, I would agree that the world as a whole is less sensitive to violence due to the media culture.

Are we in the final days...maybe...maybe not. Would depened on what measurement of a day the lord is looking at. I for one don't think we are near to end based on human time measurements. Regardless, we should live each day to it's fullest and never live in fear. Don't make decisions based on fear.

Fear is a tool of the devil.

I agree CoGinator...

Fear is a tool of the devil. Luckily I have no fear of anything. I don't fear God's coming supposedly in 4 years. In fact I wish he'd delay longer (heck he's done it for 2000 yrs). I have too many things in my life to live for to just say "fu it" I cant sit here and believe my kids won't see their 20's!But one thing I do believe:

I believe that eventually he will come in his own good time. Might be today, might be tomorrow. Or he might not just come in my lifetime.

I do believe in living life to it's fullest. I do so everyday of my life. I believe God has blessed me with an IQ of 120 and a 3.85 GPA. I don't sit and loathe about how the world is going to end in 4 years, but I do know that its ending... Can't tell you when tho. Either by his hands or our own!

The fear tactic you speak of Ted, was not embedded in me by no cult, what I said, was said because I use REALITY.

700 years ago no one thought that an Atomic Bomb was ever to become a reality, so don't sit there and feed me the BS that its always been this way, or that I was too young. It hasn't always been this way. Its getting worst everyday. And I have a dead cousin to prove it.

If you want to live blindfolded, thats all you! I personally am not a statistic to what this society wants you to believe.

I just hope and pray that when this happens.. whether it be now or in 100 years, that you are ready to explain why you havent kept the Lords commandments.

Even if you chose not to go to a CoG.. atleast keep his Sabbath and the 7 feasts of 3 times. Don't worship the false idol (Ahnsahnghong & MJ) but do't fall short either. I personally do not know of Judas' whereabouts, and I am sure you don't either. Maybe he is in heaven, maybe not. But he was always a pawn in Gods great plan. God knew from the get go that he was going to use Judas as an instrument for fulfillment. I am guessing if the murderer that was on Jesus right @ the crucifixion went to heaven maybe Judas is? I have no clue. Maybe you should ask Ahnsahnghong!

Another question to you all non believers. If Ahnsahnghong isn't the second coming... what is Jesus' new name?

When the twigs get tender he will come back w a new name... SO WHAT IS HIS NEW NAME?
Twigs got tender in 47-48... So whats his new name?

Matthew 24

By: Lizzie on June 20, 2008
at 9:04 am

Reply

Fig Tree Parable

30"At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory. 31And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other. (winds means war)

32"Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. 33Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it[d]is near, right at the door. 34I tell you the truth, this generation[e] will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. 35Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

What is the fig tree?

Luke 13

5I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish."

6Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree, planted in his vineyard, and he went to look for fruit on it, but did not find any. 7So he said to the man who took care of the vineyard, 'For three years now I've been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree and haven't found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?'

The man w the fig tree was Jesus, the fig tree is Israel. He found no fruit within the 3 years of preaching.. So he cut off Israel 12I watched as he opened the sixth seal. There was a great earthquake. The sun turned black like sackcloth made of goat hair, the whole moon turned blood red, 13and the stars in the sky fell to earth, as late figs drop from a fig tree when shaken by a strong wind. 14The sky receded like a scroll, rolling up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place.

Thereceding like a scroll is the nuclear bomb and wind is war..

Amos 1:14

I will set fire to the walls of Rabbah that will consume her fortresses amid war cries on the day of battle, amid violent winds on a stormy day.

So WW2 came about Israel was restored and 2nd Coming Jesus was to be at the door

I hope you were ready for him and according to prophesy you will know his new name
GB

Hi Lizzie,

you said, "Another question to you all non

By: Dark Angel on
June 20, 2008
at 10:29 am

believers. If Ahnsahnghong isn't the second coming... what is Jesus' new name?

When the twigs get tender he will come back w a new name... SO WHAT IS HIS NEW NAME?

Twigs got tender in 47-48... So whats his new name?"

Reply

That's a good question, Lizzie. If I were to say there is no literal "new name", you might laugh, so I won't say it.

If ahnsahnghong is the "revealer of mystery", what did he say the new name was?

It was not the name "ahnsahnghong", that's for sure. If memory serves me right, he said the name was "Jesus".

From what I've read in his book, he did not declare a "new name".

He said, (now don't quote me on this) "When the second coming returns, his name will be Jesus".

I can tell you which book he said that in tomorrow.

Perhaps I misunderstood him, so I will post it and if you can, please try to explain what he means and explain why he never revealed a new name, if he is indeed someone who is supposed to reveal mysteries.

thanks.

Hello Lizzie,

I have no time to post tomorrow, so I'll post the information now.

By: Dark Angel on
June 20, 2008
at 4:45 pm

Reply

The following is taken from his book

"The Mystery of God and the Spring of the Water of Life"

Chapter 12

The Name Jesus Means Savior

In the Old Testament, it is written many times that there is no savior besides the Lord [Jehovah].

Isa. 43:11 "I, even I, am the Lord, and apart from me there is no savior"

Isa. 45:21 "...And there is no God apart from me, a righteous God and a Savior, there is none but me."

And it is written in the book of Hosea..

Hos. 13:4 "But I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of Egypt. You shall acknowledge no God but me, no Savior except me."

Ahnsahnghong says: "But in the New Testament, it is written that there is no savior besides Jesus."

Acts 4:11-12 "He is 'the stone you builders rejected, which has become the capstone.' Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved."

Matt. 1:21 "She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." The name Jesus means savior.

Ahnsahnghong says: "By the way, as Jesus prophesied that false Christs would appear in the last days, now many false Christs appear and say, "I am the Christ." But only Jesus can be the Savior's name not only at his first coming but even in the last days."

Lizzie, what did ahnsahnghong mean by,

"But only "Jesus" can be the Savior's name, not only at his first coming, but even in the last days".

If you have the book handy, please reference the chapter and if you can, explain what he meant and why ahnsahnghong never mentioned the "new name".

I am aware that ahnsahnghong also wrote about names of the "Father, Son, and Holy Spirit" in the same book, yet still, no mention of the "new name".

I have more questions for you but for now, just explain what he meant by that.

Thanks.

Lizzie said: "700 years ago no one thought that an Atomic Bomb was ever to become a reality, so don't sit there and feed me the BS that its always been this way, or that I was too young. It hasn't always been this way. Its getting worst everyday. And I have a dead cousin to prove it. If you want to live blondfolded, thats all you!"

By: Ted on June 20, 2008 at 8:43 pm

Reply

It has always been this way. The rate of death to wars and conflicts has always been consistent. The atomic bomb actually killed less than the primitive Mogual invasions, Ming wars or Roman wars. In terms of bloodshed, the A-bomb was a very minor incident.

If you draw a timeline of all recorded human conflicts, and then charter the amount of deaths and amount of conflicts, it demonstrates a consistent pattern. Nothing changes. Each generation simply forgets the experiences and woes of generations before it.

Also, though we have the atomic bomb, we have better medical care and medicine. During the early 20th century the life expectancy of an average human being was 30-35 years. During the Medieval times, few saw life outside of their 20s. In contrast, today we typically live to our 70s. You might say that for every person living today, we live the lives of 2 people merely 100 years ago.

So while you cry about man's capacity to destroy with "evil technology", remeber that this same technology is giving us "extra life". Now is not a "more dangerous time" nor do our ability to make "atomic bombs" make us more violent.

Human beings have largely stopped evolving. Instead, our tools evolve for us. We create technology and tools to overcome our problems, instead of our bodies adapting to overcome problems for us. While most animals biologically adapt to their environments, we create tools to adapt the environment to us. The result is the psyche of the average human being is largely the same primitive beast it was thousands of years ago. As a society, our balance between violent barbarianism and empathic compassion has always been the same.

Lizzie said: "I don't fear God's coming supposedly in 4 years."

Supposedly? Don't you believe the teachings of the COG? Or have they started preparing their members to be disappointed?

Hi everyone I appologize for the long post if it bothers you guys. Even my Heavenly Sister thinks it's too much to read.

By: Robert on June 20, 2008
at 9:04 pm

To all my Brothers and Sisters in Church of God, I'm always here if you guys need help. I will do everything not to let you guys down. I'll pick you guys up you any of you fall down. Our bondness and togetherness should always be there if we keep the brotherly love to each one of us. Let's also not let any of our bro's and sis' to walk in darkness because they are going to stumble. Keep everybody in the light of truth which comes from the Supreme Being, our God. The Great Architech of the Universe, God, who created everything gave us the guidance to walk in the right path of eternal salvation through the Bible. Father and Mother will be pleased if we keep their words.

Reply

Lizzie you said, "I believe God has blessed me with an IQ of 120 and a 3.85 GPA."

By: CoGinator on June 20, 2008
at 9:10 pm

You'd think with that high of an IQ you'd be a 4.0 GPA. Just kidding. That's an excellent accomplishment.

Reply

I agree with Dark Angel about the words "new name". Who says when the scripture says a "new name" it's meant in the literal translation as in a human name. Often times when stating something coming in a new name it means a new purpose. For example, a super hero can state "I come in the name of Truth and Honesty?" That doesn't imply their name is "Truth" and "Honesty". In the case of Jesus, the new name he coming back for isn't to spread the word as he did the first time, but he's coming in the name of Revelations... meaning he's bringing the Christians to the Kingdom.

I find it a bit ironic that you don't believe in what the CoG teaches about the EOTW being 2012. And you made reference to Ahnsahnghong and MJ being false idols.

So if that's the case, then it sounds like your big motive for attending the WMSCOG is because it makes sense to support the concept of the sabbath.

But how do you justify that we are no longer under the law?

In the Old Testament, the word "law" is used to translated the Hebrew word torah, "instruction." The Hebrew word for "law" probably comes from the causative form of the verb yarah, "to throw," "to shoot (arrows)." In the hiphil stem, the verb horah means "to point, guide, instruct, teach." Hence, the law is that which provides authoritative guidance. In the New Testament, the Greek word used for law is nomos. Nomos means "that which is assigned," hence, "usage, custom," and then "law," or "a rule governing one's actions."

Thus God's law is His system of rules by which He shows and instructs in His will and administers the affairs of the world. Obviously the definition allows for and even implies that there might be differing systems of rules at various times, depending on what particular aspects or how much of His will God wishes to show at a given time....A system of rules may be tailored for different times, peoples, or purposes. . .

It is common to divide the Mosaic Law into three parts as illustrated below, but though this is helpful for analysis and the study of the Mosaic Law and the way it functions, such a division is never stated as such in Scripture. Rather it is seen as a unit. Arguments for this will be given below.

* Part 1: The Moral Law or the Ten Commandments. This part of the Law governed the moral life giving guidance to Israel in principles of right and wrong in relation to God and man (Exodus 20:1-17).

* Part 2: The Judgments, or the Social Law. This part of the Law governed Israel in her secular, social, political, and economic life (Exodus 21:1-23:13).

* Part 3: The Ordinances or the Ceremonial Law. This was the religious portion of Law which guided and provided for Israel in her worship and spiritual relationship and fellowship with God. It included the priesthood, tabernacle and sacrifices (Exodus 25:-31: Leviticus).

Several passages of Scripture clearly establish that the coming of Christ has brought an end to the Mosaic Law. Paul specifically states that "Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes" (Rom. 10:4). This instituted a new law or principle of life, i.e., the law of the Spirit, the one of liberty and grace (Rom. 8:2, 13). This fact was also clearly settled by the Jerusalem Council in Acts 15. A council was convened in the church at Jerusalem to look into the issue of the Law and its place in the life of believers because some were saying "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved," and because even certain of the Pharisees who had believed were also saying "It is necessary to circumcise the Gentiles and to order them to observe the law of Moses." The conclusion of the council, consisting of apostles and elders, was to reject the concept of placing New Testament believers under the yoke of the Law (15:6-11). The only thing the Jerusalem Council asked was that Gentile believers control their liberty in matters that might be offensive to Jewish believers, but they did not seek to place the believers under the yoke of the Law for they realized the Law had come to an end.

Finally, the book of Hebrews demonstrates that the old covenant of the Mosaic Law was only temporary and has been replaced by the coming of Christ whose ministry is based on (1) a better priesthood, one after the order of Melchizedek which is superior to Aaron's, and (2) a better covenant with better promises (see Heb. 7-10). The old covenant was only a shadow of heavenly things, and if it had been able to make men perfect before God there would have been no occasion for a second or new covenant (see Heb. 7:11-12; 8:1-13). This change in the priesthood also necessitates a change in the Law. Such a change shows the Law has been terminated or done away.

Also, notice no one has answered me if they eat pork or not. I suspect this is because they do eat pork, yet that is part of the Mosaic law. So why get all high and mighty on the Sabbath, yet spit in God's face by eating pork?

Well, well, well, look at what I have found. One of the members of COG, brofromzion, is spamming the Jehovah Witness Discussion Forum. Funny how brofromzion is arguing with 'another cult' like the JW. brofromzion posted about the 'Secret of Forgiveness of Sins, Sabbath Day, Veil'. He is actually nailing those JW but somehow my fellow atheists is stopping his COG doctrines from spreading in that forum. Here's the website:

By: Clark on June 20, 2008
at 9:13 pm

Reply

<http://www.jehovahs-witness.com/12/159211/1.ashx>

I also noticed that brofromzion loves to 'copy and paste' from a COG member blog after I analyze his postings there.

COG=FAIL!

"But only "Jesus" can be the Savior's name, not only at his first coming, but even in the last days”.

By: CoGinator on June 20, 2008

at 9:18 pm

- Ahnsanghong

Reply

BAM!! Looks like we have ourselves a smoking gun!

By the way, here's an interesting post from BurnTheShips on Jun 19 2008:

By: Clark on June 20, 2008
at 9:28 pm

Regarding the Sabbath:

Reply

Colossians 2:16-17

Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day. These are a shadow of the things that were to come; the reality, however, is found in Christ.

Sunday is the day of the Resurrection, from earliest times it has been the traditional day of Christian worship, however, you can worship any day of the week.

Regarding Sunday worship we are told in Acts 20:7,

“Now on the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul, ready to depart the next day, spoke to them and continued his message until midnight.”

Why did they come together on the first day of the week? Here we see the church in the first century came together on the first day of every week to break bread, which is the Lord's Supper. Their primary reason of coming together on the first day of the week was to partake of the Lord's Supper.

1 Corinthians 16:1-2, “Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given orders to the churches of Galatia, so you must do also: on the first day of the week let each one of you lay something aside.”

Other early witnesses attesting to the early date of Sunday worship:

The Didache, 70AD

“But every Lord's day . . . gather yourselves together and break bread, and give thanksgiving after having confessed your transgressions, that your sacrifice may be pure. But let no one that is at variance with his fellow come together with you, until they be reconciled, that your sacrifice may not be profaned”

The epistle of Barnabas, 74AD

“We keep the eighth day with joyfulness, the day also on which Jesus rose again from the dead”

Ignatius' Letter to the Magnesians, 110 AD

"Those who were brought up in the ancient order of things have come to the possession of a new hope, no longer observing the Sabbath, but living in the observance of the Lord's day, on which also our life has sprung up again by him and by his death"

Etc. There are many other early witnesses of the practice of worship on Sunday.

BTS

I can honestly say that the COG fail big time.

COG=FAIL!

COGinator and Dark Angel, you guys are doing a good job. You guys patiently showed the members of COG of how of a cult their group are. Keep it up so we could help those families that the COG destroyed.

By: Clark on June 20, 2008
at 9:41 pm

Reply

COGinator that's very clear straight from Ahnsahnghong. Even him claims that only Jesus Christ is the Savior. Jesus Christ is the only way, the truth and the life. Whoever believes in Him has eternal life.

By: Frank on June 21, 2008
at 12:31 am

Reply

COGinator said "BAM!! Looks like we have ourselves a smoking gun!"

By: Poland on June 21, 2008
at 12:33 am

COGinator, are you having fun? You still don't understand by now that Jesus and Ahnsahnghong are One as God in different age. KEEP THEM COMING.

Reply

Robert,
I think that your last post was beautiful and should be posted over and over to show the TRUE heart of Fathers Children. It was enlightening!

By: Lizzie on June 21, 2008
at 12:57 am

Reply

"To all my Brothers and Sisters in Church of God, I'm always here if you guys need help. I will do everything not to let you guys down. I'll pick you guys up you any of you fall down. Our bondness and togetherness should always be there if we keep the brotherly love to each one of us. Let's also not let any of our bro's and sis' to walk in darkness because they are going to stumble. Keep everybody in the light of truth which comes from the Supreme Being, our God. The Great Architech of the Universe, God, who created everything gave us the guidance to walk in the right path of eternal salvation through the Bible. Father and Mother will be pleased if we keep their words."

I am sorry about repremanding you yesterday. I am only telling you to please not waste Father & Mothers' precious words of eternal life on those that don't want to listen, There are others that are waiting for it, but here in this blog, when it is too long they will skip thru the teachings of God. I already know them, I just want to listen to what THEY have to say about our teachings (thats why I skip thru). I wonder if they would have done the same to Jesus 2000 years ago. Father said dont throw your pearls to pigs (Matt 7:6) They think these words of God are the sole teachings of the CoG, but what they can't see is, it's the teachings of THE ONLY God, their same God, infact. It was written in the Holy Bible thousands of years ago.

Ahnsahnghong didn't make up the words of the bible, he just taught us how to read it.

So lets have the TRUE love of brothers and sister. I agree with you 200%. I am sorry for that.
May Father and Mother Bless You

Poland said, "You still don't understand by now that Jesus and Ahnsahnghong are One as God in different age. KEEP THEM COMING."

By: CoGinator on June 21, 2008 at 1:42 am

With all due respect, that post has zero value. There is no information, nothing tangible to sink our teeth in and discuss. Infact the only thing that post did, was prove to everyone that when there is nothing to rebute, the cult persona is force to a stance of..."your not smart enough".

Reply

So my question is, if Ahnsahnghong didn't believe the second comming of Christ would be any other than Jesus himself (from his own words printed in his own book). What makes you think that the people who hijacked his church would know better.

You can say all day long that I don't get it, and I guess that is true...because the Gospel, the historical facts, and Ahnsahnghong himself all prove otherwise.

I'll agree that if you've believed this for so long, it's a difficult change to make. There are people who you love and enjoy who are deeply convinced too of those same thoughts. I'm sure you want to resist the embarrassment of admitting that maybe this whole time you were wrong. It's ok, we all make mistakes. We all have the wool pulled over our heads from time to time. The great news is you can change. You can start making a difference by teaching the truth. You can repent and ask for forgiveness. Our God is god of Mercy and Grace. It's not too late.

Baby steps...the first step is to denounce ASH and MJ as Gods, then repent your sin and ask for forgiveness. Don't worry about the Sabbath for now...keep attending a sabbath service if that's what you desire. We can talk about that later, but you must get right with the Lord!!!

So I've noticed that when there is a simple, quick and easy question that everyone in the WMSCOG, who comes to this blog, could answer they avoid it like the plague.

By: CoGinator on June 21, 2008 at 1:56 am

Reply

I wonder if they don't know how to answer, because there hasn't been a study on it. I can almost see everyone looking at the question and then trying to figure out the best way to answer so that it best supports their position. Kind of like playing chess and looking for the perfect move in response to the last move.

Here's an idea... JUST ANSWER THE QUESTION!

Here it is and I'll type slow, so everyone can understand.

Q U E S T I O N :

"Do you eat pork? Yes or No?"

Any bets if this goes unresolved?

Lizzie, you have a high IQ...I'm sure you completely understand the question. Are you willing to be the first person to actually answer it?

Yes I will be the first with my HIGH IQ and answer your question.

By: Lizzie on June 21, 2008 at 4:26 am

Reply

I know why you are asking us to answer that, because of the following verse, where it states that we shall not eat from its meat.....

Deut 14:8

The pig is also unclean; although it has a split hoof, it does not chew the cud. You are not to eat their meat or touch their carcasses.

I have never been told not to eat of it because those are regulations of the Mosaic Law in the Old Testament... the law written on stone kinda thing...

The New Testament which is what Jesus taught & Paul proclaimed states the following:

Acts 15:19~21

19"It is my judgment, therefore, that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to God. 20Instead we should write to them, telling them to abstain from food polluted by idols, from sexual immorality, from the meat of strangled animals and from blood. 21For Moses has been preached in every city from the earliest times and is read in the synagogues on every Sabbath."

I hope I answered your question since everyone has been evading it!

I think its safe to say that I am not under the written law which kills but the law of the Spirit that gives life.

By: Lizzie on June 21, 2008
at 4:44 am

2 Corinthians 3: ~11

4Such confidence as this is ours through Christ before God. 5Not that we are competent in ourselves to claim anything for ourselves, but our competence comes from God. 6He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant—not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

7Now if the ministry that brought death, which was engraved in letters on stone, came with glory, so that the Israelites could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of its glory, fading though it was, 8will not the ministry of the Spirit be even more glorious? 9If the ministry that condemns men is glorious, how much more glorious is the ministry that brings righteousness! 10For what was glorious has no glory now in comparison with the surpassing glory. 11And if what was fading away came with glory, how much greater is the glory of that which lasts!

Reply

Ted,

By: Dark Angel on June 21, 2008
at 6:07 am

I agree. My father, my father's father, and so on have been hearing the same crap about "end of the world" and it will always continue with each generation.

Reply

Poland,

If you feel as though no one understands, why not try explaining it in full detail, while being clear and concise.

Hi Lizzie,

If you can, please explain why ahnshanhgong meant in regards to what I posted earlier.

Marcus/Ryan/John tried to explain it some time ago but his explanation just did not add up for many reasons. I do not remember what he said, he deleted all of his posts, then, coincidentally the message board was hacked and all of the information posted was wiped clean.

I want to get down to the bottom of what this man said because for a "god", he is not being clear and concise.

You know DA, that's a question you are going to have to ask him.... Marcus/Ryan/John, because I cannot give a men's opinion on the matter. I wil have to read up on/study the book you are mentioning and then I can give you a precise answer or MY OPINION. It wont be fair to you/me/CoG/Ahnshanhgong/MJ and everyone else that is involved. I have answered a majority of the questions thrown at the CoG but I will withhold for now.

By: Lizzie on June 21, 2008
at 8:32 am

Reply

I am sorry if that dissapoints you.
I will even ask my Pastor and Deacon to see what it is,
and THEIR answer compared to mine.
I will get back to all of you later.

Oh and to Tony...
I am from the Florida Chapter

Fair enough, Lizzie.

By: Dark Angel on
June 21, 2008
at 10:17 am

I just want to understand what he means, it's not a jab at the COG, it's something that did not fit into the stories that I've heard.

Reply

There's been so many things said about ahnsahnghong, that it would simply be impossible for someone to come
"in secret".

Whether "secret" is being defined as:

1. him not coming through clouds in a chariot or whatever

or

2. no one knowing who he was when he was alive.

Both definitions are being used apparently, which I find very weird. As though someone were trying to cover both ends or fill in all of the possible holes.

One moment someone is using "secret" in defintion 1 and the next moment another person is using definition 2 to describe "secret".

Then some are saying that he was persecuted like jesus and others are saying something different.

Anyway, thanks again and thanks for addressing my post.

DA,
Another thing that I wont say is that he was "persecuted" like Jesus. I am not a family member of his and I never lived in his neighborhood. I personally didn't see him get "persecuted". Unless I see it, I wont put my hand in the fire for it.

By: Lizzie on June 21, 2008
at 11:39 am

Reply

I believe that this church teaches the truth. I believe this is the ONE & ONLY church that follows the commandments given by God, everyone else keeps it in their own way. They have changed the laws to fit their ways. I believe this church was built and taught by Christ himself, since he fulfilled all prophesies. But I will not testify to him being persecuted like Jesus. I didn't see it.

The definitions you mentioned above are also something I will not comment on. All I do know is that the coming in the clouds is in the flesh, but that is another story all on its own.

Hi Lizzie,

By: Dark Angel on
June 21, 2008
at 12:32 pm

I understand that you do not want to speak on something that you do not know about, unless you were a witness to the event, however, you do believe Jesus was persecuted, yet, you were not there as well.

Reply

You believe alot of things about ahnsanhgong without being a witness to the stories that are told of him.

That is what I meant a while ago in my post about fairy tales being told of him.

For example: claims of him ascending.

Not too long ago, members believed that he "ascended bodily". Only until the information about his burial site and grave came to the surface, that is when the stories changed to how he "ascended in spirit".

But thanks again for taking the time to share information, means alot.

Lizzie,

By: CoGinator on June 21, 2008
at 1:21 pm

Thanks for answering the question. Can I assume from your answer that because you have not been told not to eat pork that you do eat pork.

Reply

Also, your posts regarding the written law is supporting the notion that the sabbath is not required as it too was written in stone.

For the letter of the law (mosaic) specified worshiping on the Sabbath. But in the spirit, any day that is set aside for the Lord will suffice. Jesus superseded the law.

You can't have it both ways. Either the law is in effect or it's not...and you've clearly posted that it's not.

Poland you said,

By: Dark Angel on
June 22, 2008
at 1:32 pm

"COGinator, are you having fun? You still don't understand by now that Jesus and Ahnsahnghong are One as God in different age. KEEP THEM COMING."

Reply

Now according to COG's concept of the trinity:

1. God the Father, Jehovah = God the Son, Jesus
2. God the Father, Jehovah = God the Holy Spirit, Ahnsahnghong

3. God the Son, Jesus = God the Holy Spirit,
Ahnsahnghong

4. The Holy Spirit is a personal being

Basically, ahnsahnghong are all three Beings. Now that concept may seem rational to many cog members, but it is very irrational to someone who may who may read Mark 13:32, stating that no one knows of the end, not even the son (Jesus).

Now, ahnsahnghong is the father, the son, and the holy spirit.

According to the cog's trinity concept, shouldn't ahnsahnghong know when the end is if he is the father?

How does he not know when the end is, yet, is able to know when the end is, at the same time?

How can he withhold information from himself?

That's very weird to me.

If he's the father then he should know but he doesn't know because he's the son and the holy spirit, hence his wrong predictions?

Poland, can you explain that?

Dark Angel, right now I don't know the answer but don't worry I'll ask God to give me the answer and it's in the Bible. I thank you for your patience.

By: Poland on June 23, 2008
at 3:17 am

Reply

COGinator said "You can't have it both ways. Either the law is in effect or it's not...and you've clearly posted that it's not."

COGinator, only God can decide what laws are in effect according to His words the Bible, not your opinion that nobody can't have it both ways.

Acts 10:9-16 – About noon the following day as they were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray. He became hungry and wanted something to eat, and while the meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance. He saw heaven opened and something like a large sheet being let down to earth by its four corners. It contained all kinds of four-footed animals, as well as reptiles of the earth and birds of the air. Then a voice told him, "Get up, Peter. Kill and eat." "Surely not, Lord!" Peter replied. "I have never eaten anything impure or unclean." The voice spoke to him a second time, "Do not call anything impure that God has made clean." This happened three times, and immediately the sheet was taken back to heaven.

COGinator, the World Mission Society Church of God follows the law of Christ because it is the reality of all God's laws.

Colossians 2:16-17 – Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day. These are a shadow of the things that were to come; the reality, however, is found in Christ.

1 Corinthians 9:19-23 – Though I am free and belong to no man, I make myself a slave to everyone, to win as many as possible. To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law), so as to win those under the law. To those not having the law I became like one not having the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law), so as to win those not having the law. To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all men so that by all possible means I might save some. I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

Now COGinator, do you know the law of Christ regarding of eating pork?

Matthew 15:10-20 – Jesus called the crowd to him and said, "Listen and understand. What goes into a man's mouth does not make him 'unclean,' but what comes out of his mouth, that is what makes him 'unclean.' " Then the disciples came to him and asked, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this?" He replied, "Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be pulled up by the roots. Leave them; they are blind guides. If a blind man leads a blind man, both will fall into a pit." Peter said, "Explain the parable to us." "Are you still so dull?" Jesus asked them. "Don't you see that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and then out of the body? But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart, and these make a man 'unclean.' For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, slander. These are what make a man 'unclean'; but eating with unwashed hands does not make him 'unclean.' "

COGinator, God bless you and KEEP THEM COMING!

Ok Poland, thanks.

I'm looking forard to reading your response, as well as Lizzie's.

By: Dark Angel on
June 23, 2008
at 5:47 am

Reply

Dark Angel said:

"I understand that you do not want to speak on something that you do not know about, unless you were a witness to the event, however, you do believe Jesus was persecuted, yet, you were not there as well."

By: Bright Angel on
June 23, 2008
at 4:02 pm

Reply

Dark Angel, the Bible testifies that Jesus was persecuted. Remember the Bible is the "Word of God". That's why I believe that Jesus was persecuted and also prophesied that the Son of Man will suffer, die and resurrect from the dead.

As for Ahnsahnghong, like Lizzie said, there's no witness for Him being persecuted like Jesus. The difference is what the Bible testifies and it's pretty much black and white that Jesus was persecuted and put to death.

Now let's look at the Bible about the Second Coming of Christ.

Hebrews 9:28

so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

The Second Coming Christ purpose is not to bear sin, meaning He will not suffer the way Jesus did. Now here let me show you this verse from the Bible.

John 14:15-21

"If you love me, you will obey what I command. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counselor to be with you forever— the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Before long, the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. Whoever has my commands and obeys them, he is the one who loves me. He who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love him and show myself to him."

skipping to verse 25-31

"All this I have spoken while still with you. But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid. "You heard me say, 'I am going away and I am coming back to you.' If you loved me, you would be glad that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. I have told you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe. I will not speak with you much longer, for the prince of this world is coming. He has no hold on me, but the world must learn that I love the Father and that I do exactly what my Father has commanded me. "Come now; let us leave.

Clearly Jesus is talking about His Second Coming here. Jesus testified that "And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counselor to be with you forever— the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him" Not a lot of people accept AhnsahngHong as the Second Coming Christ because it neither sees him nor knows him when AhnsahngHong fulfilled all the prophecies of the Second Coming Christ. AhnsahngHong will not suffer like Jesus because AhnsahngHong is not to bear sin. But still the world won't accept Him as prophesied in the Bible. AhnsahngHong brought back salvation through Jesus Passover of new covenant and reminded us the true teachings of Jesus and the Apostles that was abolished by Constantine, thinking that it is a Jewish and Gentiles customs issue. I hope this helps a little bit regarding of AhnsahngHong suffering like Jesus. I'll keep reading the Bible and will give you more insight Dark Angel. God bless you.

Hi Bright Angel,

By: Dark Angel on
June 23, 2008
at 4:58 pm

Here's some comments made by cog members, about ahnsahngHong being persecuted. Tell me if you believe them or not (even though you nor they were not there).

Reply

cog member 1,

"2000 years ago, Jesus Christ was persecuted, mocked, ridiculed and crucified. In the same way 2nd coming Christ must undergo all these difficulties to fulfill prophecy."

cog member 2,

"Fathers life was full of sacrifice for us. He came in the flesh a Second time to grant us salvation, he did not hesitate to do it. He prayed, fast, walked the thorny path for us, he was beating, mocked for our iniquities. And on top of that, he preached the Gospel with all his heart in order to find his children."

cog member 3,

"One can only imagine how many comments our Father Christ AhnSahngHong received during his 37 years of ministry! As everyone knows, the apostles 2000 years ago were regarded as a sect/cult (Acts 24:7)."

cog member 4,

"Father AhnSahngHong suffered so much in his lifetime, he worked as a stone mason for many years. Father never complained but rather worked even harder for his children. Only a true Father would undergo so many severe trials in this world. Thank you Father for allowing us to understand a little of your sacrifice."

cog member 5,

"Father AhnsahngHong's life in this earth was nothing but hardships. He worked a very strenuous job to support Himself and all the church members at the time."

He traveled on foot long distances without eating to preach to someone who would reject His concern for their soul. Father endured the pain of seeing His own children suffering in this world and also the persecution of all who denied Father's teachings.

Father's life in this earth was painful, but He did it happily because it meant our salvation. Thanks forever Father Christ AhnSahnghong!"

cog member 6,

"When Jesus Christ came two thousand years ago, all people did was accuse him of wrongdoing and persecuted him even though he wanted to give the people eternal life. It is the same with Christ AhnSahnghong. He fulfilled all the prophecies in the Bible and came to this earth for 37 years preaching, sacrificing, and enduring hardship and persecution just so sinners could have salvation. How can anyone scrutinize that?"

Bright Angel,

By: Dark Angel on
June 23, 2008
at 5:11 pm

Do you agree with those comments? I don't know about you, but I've come across words that say "persecution", "suffer", "sacrifice", "hardship".

Reply

The question is, by whom?

If he was just an ordinary man preaching the gospel like every other guy then, why was he beaten and mocked?

Who was he beaten and mocked by?

If he was persecuted for simply talking about the bible, then, you might as well say that all missionaries were beaten and mocked in South Korea.

Which includes:

Catholic missionaries

Protestant missionaries,

Seventh Day Adventist missionaries and so on, simply for preaching the gospel.

Heck, even the missionaries within his own church should have been beaten and mocked along with him and if that were the case, then his "persecution" is no greater than anyone else who received the same treatment.

If all of those comments are fabricated from the members own imagination, then maybe I shouldn't take those comments literally.

Purposely denying himself food doesn't make him special.

Let me just fill you in on something. Marcus/Ryan once posted to me that when Ahnsahnghong was alive, there were members in his congregation who denied his "divinity".

By: Dark Angel on June 23, 2008 at 5:29 pm

Reply

He also mentioned that there were members who mocked him and even stole a few of his books.

Unfortunately, Marcus/Ryan deleted all of his posts from the old cult-watch board. So now, I can not post what he said.

Last comment,

"Looking the life our Father Christ Ahnsahnghong is the same way as Jesus Christ. Of course they are the same!!!!!! Also, it so amazing to see how our Father took the same humanity like us so that we understand about his love and sacrifice."

Thanks for the response Dark Angel. Honestly your post above about the testimony from different Church of God members shows that not everyone is getting the right information. I have never heard of Ahnsahnghong being crucified like Jesus. As for me, the only reason I believe in Ahnsahnghong as the Second Coming Christ is because of the prophecies He fulfilled in the Bible. But like my last response to you Dark Angel, nowhere in the Bible that says about the Second Coming Christ being persecuted and crucified like Jesus. What it said in the Bible is that the world cannot accept Him because it neither sees nor knows Him. I might have to do some extensive research about this. I apologize Dark Angel for the actions of some of my brothers and sisters and not giving you the right answers. If I get the correct information, I'll send it to you as clear as crystal. God bless you Dark Angel.

By: Bright Angel on June 23, 2008 at 7:48 pm

Reply

To all my Brothers and Sisters in Church of God, be careful in dealing with Ted, COGinator, Dark Angel, Clark and those who are against us. They are gathering information for their quest to make war against our church. If they don't understand it, it's not meant for them so don't beat the dead horse.

By: Elijah on June 23, 2008 at 8:08 pm

Reply

Matthew 7:6 "Do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and then turn and tear you to pieces."

Bro's and Sis', we all know that in the end, the World Mission Society Church of God will prevail as testified in the Bible. I hope you guys understand what I'm talking about. Only preach to our lost brothers and sisters, not to those who already made up their mind to persecute us verbally.

"Thanks for the response Dark Angel. Honestly your post above about the testimony from different Church of God members shows that not everyone is getting the right information."

By: Ted on June 23, 2008
at 8:24 pm

Reply

The COG has propoganda videos which use a Korean actor as "ahnsahnghong". These videos go on to show how much "hardship" and "persecution" he suffered.

"I have never heard of Ahnsahnghong being crucified like Jesus."

He wasn't crucified. The COG belief is that he suffered and was persecuted. This too is a lie, as he lived a normal life as a pastor.

"As for me, the only reason I believe in Ahnsahnghong as the Second Coming Christ is because of the prophecies He fulfilled in the Bible."

You've inserted Ahnsahnghong into the Bible. Where the Bible speaks of Jesus or the OT Jewish God, you read a Korean man into it, creating false prophecies to validate your belief.

"But like my last response to you Dark Angel, nowhere in the Bible that says about the Second Coming Christ being persecuted and crucified like Jesus."

The COG believe Ahnsahnghong was persecuted, chased from villages and made to break and carry stones up mountains. They also believe that Mother was made to clean toilets. There were several of these propoganda videos on youtube, but the COG lawyers threatened to sue the users and forced them to take these videos down.

Jesus didn't use lawyers and corporate threats.

"What it said in the Bible is that the world cannot accept Him because it neither sees nor knows Him."

"Him" and "Father" refer to Jesus and the OT God of Judaism. The Bible does not speak of Ahnsahnghong in the future tense. The COG distorts timelines and mixes verses to create the illusion that Ahnsahnghong and a female God was prophecised.

"I might have to do some extensive research about this."

What do you mean by research? Are you going to consult your pastor?

"If I get the correct information, I'll send it to you as clear as crystal."

The problem is that your source is providing you with false information wholesale. What you perceive to be "crystal clear" is just "bite size" and simplistic pseudo-religion.

Ted, what is your problem? We're trying make things clear and here you are assuming things your not even sure. Ted, are you the only one who can interpret the Bible? Not according to the Bible. What about the other denominations out there? Ted, you hate the Church of God so much but it's ok for you if the Muslims kills Christians. I say we ignore Ted's ignorant comments.

By: Robert on June 23, 2008
at 9:12 pm

Reply

On the other hand, COGinator and Dark Angel are trying to get things clear regarding information about Church of God. Ted is just a hater and ignorant. COGinator and Dark Angel, how can you guys put up with Ted's ignorance? Ted, don't let me see you in person. If you continue to be an ignorant in this blog, I will make sure you fall on your knees and stay down in the grassy field and keep you drowning there. I apologize to everyone for my words against Ted's ignorance.

Poland said, "COGinator, only God can decide what laws are in effect according to His words the Bible, not your opinion that nobody can't have it both ways."

By: CoGinator on June 23, 2008
at 9:22 pm

Reply

my posting was based on what God has said as stated in the bible...not what you've been taught by the opinon of men from WMSCOG.

Colossians 2:16-17 – Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day. These are a shadow of the things that were to come; the reality, however, is found in Christ.

–Meaning don't let anyone (like WMSCOG) judge you because you don't follow Mosaic Law customs that were the shadow to the gift that Jesus performed on the cross which is the reality.

The word "These" in Colossians 2: 17 is referencing the old law (food/Drink requirements, festivals, and yes the Sabbath too) that "were" (noticed the past tense) to come. The word "however" indicates there has been a change.

Bro. Robert thanks for pointing out Ted's mind on Church of God. Ted the Erratic Cheese is running like a ratatoulie and looking for more cheese so he could use it against God's Zion. He has so much "cheese of lies" that he doesn't know where to hide now. Ted brace yourself. Make sure you have enough cheese for your coming meals.

By: Bright Angel on June 23, 2008
at 9:25 pm

Reply

Bright Angel, in John 14:15-21 he's obviously talking about the holy spirit, and his definition of the Holy Spirit is that of not a human...not a

By: CoGinator on June 23, 2008
at 9:38 pm

person, but that of a spirit...as ghost like entity that we can not see. To try and classify ASH in that capacity is heracy.

Reply

Elijah, what about all the lost sheep?

Robert, wow! I think Ted struck a nerve with you. I think his comments added value seeing that he was a Decon and did the things the WMSCOG members here are doing. But Ted saw the truth and managed to break free of the group mindset.

Your threats are not Christ like!

COGinator said "—Meaning don't let anyone (like WMSCOG) judge you because you don't follow Mosaic Law customs that were the shadow to the gift that Jesus performed on the cross which is the reality.

By: Poland on June 23, 2008 at 9:39 pm

Reply

The word "These" in Colossians 2: 17 is referencing the old law (food/Drink requirements, festivals, and yes the Sabbath too) that "were" (noticed the past tense) to come. The word "however" indicates there has been a change."

COGinator I understand that. Again the Church of God follows the law of Christ, not the law of Moses. I don't want to be rude but your not getting what I showed you above. Yes COGinator, there's been a change. Christ is the reality of the laws of Moses. Here COGinator, I have some questions to you:

Did Jesus and the Apostles keep the Passover?

Yes the Passover bread and wine which gives eternal life, not the Passover of the Old Testament where you eat lamb.

Did Jesus keep the Sabbath Day?

Yes.

Did Jesus clearly said that what goes into your mouth does not make you 'unclean'?

Yes, it's not what you eat but what comes out of your heart makes you unclean.

COGinator, I agree with you. There has been change in the laws and Christ made them perfect. Now if you still wanna insist that it is for Jews then you already know that Jesus examples are for everyone including Gentiles. God bless you COGinator.

Robert and Bright Angel,

By: Dark Angel on

June 23, 2008
at 9:42 pm

Ted has a valid point. There are videos of ahnsahngHong and not only have my family member watched them, even a cog member have commented on them.

Reply

I can post if you like.

You guys say that none of this stuff members of the cog mentioned happened at all. However, other members believe that it did.

It's not about what I believe, it's about what most members of the cog believes because they are the ones spreading this false info.

Any actual videos of him walking up mountains and doing the things that you believe he did should be questioned.

(If) he made videos of himself, the question would be... why?

Robert said,

By: Dark Angel on
June 23, 2008
at 9:51 pm

"Ted, don't let me see you in person. If you continue to be an ignorant in this blog, I will make sure you fall on your knees and stay down in the grassy field and keep you drowning there."

Reply

Hehe. Take a deep breath man, it's not that serious.

COGinator and Dark Angel, your buddy Ted speaks out of ignorance. He must learn where his place is at and that is looking at what is being discussed and not criticizing God's Zion.

By: Robert on June 23,
2008
at 11:10 pm

Some of my brothers and sisters are trying to answer your concerns on Church of God and here is Ted speaking blasphemy about Church of God. I respect your opinion about my attitude and I apologize. It's not you guys, it's Ted. I'll keep a watchful eye on Ted. The end of the Proctor is sharp, pointed at Ted. Let's see what Ted is going to do.

Reply

Brother Robert, COGinator and Dark Angel is right. Your attitude is not Christ-like and that is what we have to keep to show that we love God. Robert, Ted can't do a damn thing on Church of God. We all know that he's just using the "opinion of men". God is with us Robert and you know that. Let Ted squirm.

By: Poland on June 23,
2008
at 11:14 pm

Reply

Robert and Poland,

By: Dark Angel on
June 24, 2008
at 12:24 am

What part of Ted's post did you find offensive?

Reply

Poland,

By: CoGinator on June 24, 2008 at 2:34 am

I do understand what your are saying, however as I understand it, there are assumptions and not facts that you are basing your opion upon.

Reply

You asked, "Did Jesus and the Apostles keep the Passover?"

Yes, but keep in mind they kept the Jewish passover since they were all Jewish. At the passover when Jesus was redefining the meaning of bread and wine, the intial intent of all the attedees was to celebrate the Jewish Passover. There were no Gentiles present. So to assume that the message was that everyone is to continue to do as Jesus did (remember Jesus was Jewish) as Jewish Tradition is not accurate.

You also asked, "Did Jesus keep the Sabbath Day?"

Again, Jesus was a Jew and followed all the Jewish traditions and beliefs, since he had not chaged the playing field. It wasn't until his crusafixtion that laws were fullfilled by him. That is an important time and clearly the moment in which things changed. So the real question is does Jesus keep the Sabbath now that that he fullfilled the law? I don't think either one of will know that for sure.

Poland, you said, "Yes, it's not what you eat but what comes out of your heart makes you unclean." Was this directed towards Robert?

You said, "COGinator, I agree with you. There has been change in the laws and Christ made them perfect. Now if you still wanna insist that it is for Jews then you already know that Jesus examples are for everyone including Gentiles. God bless you COGinator."

Well, we can agree on something. As far as Jesus' examples. There are definately two ways to understand it. First way is because Jesus did it then I should do it. And secondly way to understand it is Jesus did it as a Jew, but he clearly spoke of fullfilling the Mosaic Law, so that we aren't under it any longer. I would also emphasize, that the book of Acts supports more stongly the later.

Dark Angel asked, "Robert and Poland, What part of Ted's post did you find offensive?"

By: CoGinator on June 24, 2008 at 2:38 am

Answer: The Truth.

Reply

HA HA HA I just had to say it :)

Rev 12:17, Then the dragon (Satan) was

By: Elohim144 on June

enraged at the woman (Mother) & went off to make war against the rest of her offspring- those who obey Gods commandments & hold to the testimony of Jesus.

24, 2008
at 5:15 am

Reply

I agree with brother Elijah. We need to put our attention on people who want to know the TRUTH, not those who come to COG in secret to find faults. While they look at only physical apperances like the teachers of the Law, & Jews 2,000 yrs ago. Use your spiritual eyes & you will see the TRUTH.

Matt 13:15, In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah: "You will be ever hearing but never understanding; you be ever seeing but never perceiving. 15 For this people's heart has become calloused; they hardly hear with their ears & they have closed their eyes. Otherwise they might see with thier eyes & hear with their ears, understand with their hearts & turn, & I would heal them.

16, But blessed are your eyes because they see, & your ears because they hear. 17 For I tell you the TRUTH, many prophets & righteous men longed to see what you see but did not see it, & to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

Their are people out there that are our Brothers & Sisters who have been waiting for use to preach the Gospel of the New Covenant to them. Lets find our 180 million lost Brothers & Sisters. Wipe the dust from your feet & keep moving.

Much Love & God Bless,
Elohim144

180 million is sure alot of people. You all are practically trying to save the world.

By: Dark Angel on
June 24, 2008
at 6:50 am

It's almost as if it's sales without commission.

Reply

I take it you guys have surpassed the 144,000 quota.

Elohim144, good luck on your mission.

We don't need luck, we have faith in Mother & Father's words & i pray those who are against the TRUTH will be apart of the 180 million.

By: Elohim144 on June 24, 2008
at 9:14 am

Much Love & God Bless

Reply

Hi all, i'm new here... been reading from top to bottom.. finally arrive here to make comment.

By: fanfan on June 24, 2008
at 9:39 am

144000 is already plenty.

1 week $5 (just 1 x offering for saturday worship)

5 * 144000 = $720000 turnover per week!!! $$$

Reply

dont mess with these guys!

Everybody is welcome, visit us at ahnsahng hong.biz/forum

By: rick on June 24, 2008
at 12:05 pm

Reply

Elohim144, you said "Use your spiritual eyes & you will see the TRUTH." As I said before, use spiritual eyes, but don't put blinders on. I can understand how someone without a strong knowledge of the bible can be taught incorrectly to believe the doctrine of the WMSCOG. But don't feel you have to be a puppet to be accepted. Eventually, if you ask enough questions about the things that don't make sense, you'll understand why we don't feel the WMSCOG is benefiting anyone other than MJ and Joo.

By: CoGinator on June 24, 2008
at 2:36 pm

Reply

Also, the prophecy in Isaiah, that is quoted in the book of Mathew is about Jesus not the second coming. So while the words seem like they fit your purpose, the meaning is something different. This is a common tactic of the WMSCOG to try and prove their faulted doctrine.

By the way the 180 Million is dollars...not people. :)

Elohim144, thanks for proving my point to our brothers and sisters in God's Zion. Let's not waste time here in this blog, shake off those dust, and move on. Ted, COGinator, Dark Angel, Clark and their followers are trying to trick our brothers and sisters so they could gather information and find faults using men's opinion. They couldn't understand God's will. Lizzie, Poland, Robert, Bright Angel, let's look at Marcus/Ryan and brofromzion. They know that Ted and his followers are gathering every detail they can get from us. So please stop preaching in this blog and preach to our lost brothers and sisters waiting for the truth of God's will.

By: Elijah on June 24, 2008
at 3:19 pm

Reply

Matthew 10:11-14

11"Whatever town or village you enter, search for some worthy person there and stay at his house until you leave. 12As you enter the home, give it your greeting. 13If the home is deserving, let your peace rest on it; if it is not, let your peace return to you. 14If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake the dust off your feet when you leave that home or town.

Ohh Elijah, are you a puss? We have proven you guys to be wrong and we pointed the contradictions of your cult. Ted, Dark Angel, COGinator you guys are the man! Only you guys are brave enough to point out the misinterpretation of the COG. Later and peace.

By: Clark on June 24, 2008
at 3:57 pm

Reply

COG=FAIL!

What up Church of God hatahs. Ya all keep messing with mah brothas and sistahs and mah crew? Ya all betta stop before I slap the shit of all of you. Yeah say something and I'll beat the shit out of ya all, you know what I'm saying nigga. What? Whachu problem Church of God hatahs? If all ya ain't wanna follow God Ahnsahnghong and Jerusalem Mother, then don't. We ain't forcing ya all to follow.

By: Anti-Enemies of Church of God on June 24, 2008 at 4:49 pm

Reply

To all my brothas and sistahs, we all need to preach to those who are worthy, our lost brothas and sistahs. Let's all bring them back to Zion of God. The faster our lost brothas and sistahs receive the Seal of God, the quickah we can go to our Heavenly Home with God. God bless ya all.

Church of God's truth=Won Always!

You guys have seriously lost your minds.

By: Dark Angel on June 24, 2008 at 5:35 pm

Elijah, the information gathered is all over the internet posted by your "brothers" and "sister" and more so on the proclaim ahnsahnghong message board.

Reply

You guys need to hack into that board and delete the posts contradicting your doctrine.

We all know that ahnsahnghong was not persecuted on any level, especially not like Jesus.

No one said anything about him being crucified, so that shouldn't be in the discussion. I just find it odd that members would believe that he was persecuted and suffered.

We are all aware that the videos about him are obviously reenactments based on the stories told of him. Who in their right mind would video tape their own pastor or any pastor, breaking rocks, climbing up mountains, traveling long distances, etc., without asking, WHAT IS THE POINT OF ALL OF THIS?

Why do you want me to video tape you doing all of this stuff?

Also, if he was so poor, why waste more money buying expensive equipment OR paying a camera man to video tape you doing meaningless things? So that notion of him actually being in the video is obviously flawed.

No matter how much you all try to avoid it, you can not hide the holes. You guys have set up blogs and message boards posting your information for everyone to read.

Instead of preaching your word to others, try preaching them to your brother and sisters on the proclaim ahnsahng hong messge board who are making comments that ahnsahng hong was persecuted and how much he suffered (i didn't say crucified, i said persecuted).

Elohim144, aren't you a member of that board, then, you should know what I am talking about then.

No, ahnsahng hong was not crucified or persecuted, we knew that.

Anti-enemies of cog, there's no room for ebonics and "street slang" in heaven.

Poland,

By: Dark Angel on
June 24, 2008
at 5:58 pm

I hope that you are still going to explain the trinity concept before you leave this blog.

Reply

Because according to your church's website, a good analogy of the cog's concept would be similar to an actor playing three different roles:

"It is similar to when an actor in a monodrama plays three different characters-a father, a son, and a grandson-all having different voices. Although there are three different voices and three different roles, there is only one actor."

Again, if this analogy is true, how is it possible that ahnsahng hong who played the roles of the "son" and the "holy spirit", did not know when the end would be, if he also played the role of the "father"?

So now an omniscient Being can forget information that he already knows, only to remember it all again once the role of the character that he is playing, is over?

How can an omniscient Being ignore information that he knows exist?

In other words, how can an omniscient Being choose NOT to know something?

It can not be ignorant because it is omniscient, however, it can "pretend" that it doesn't know.

So basically, this Being would be in a state of denial, which wouldn't mean that it doesn't know all or know of it's own existence.

If I am using the "opinions of men" to define the characteristics of an all powerful god, then please give me your definition of what it is "using the bible".

I can guarentee you will find good examples of an omniscient, omnipotent, omnipresent Being.

Well except for in the garden of Eden where he doesn't seem to "know all".

Also, Lizzie, before you leave, I would you that you respond to my post about what ahnsahngong said in regards to the Jesus' "new name".

Dark Angel said: "Anti-enemies of cog, there's no room for ebonics and "street slang" in heaven."

By: Anti-Enemies of Church of God on June 24, 2008 at 6:58 pm

Dark Angel you racist muthafucker. You have a problem because I'm black? Fuck you Dark Angel. I'll fucking bust yo head you fucking cunt racist! Say something nigga and I ain't gonna leave ya alone you piece of shit!

Reply

Amazing! Quite a lot of post. Sorry had been researching on my own for a while after having read well through this blog.

By: warrior on June 24, 2008 at 7:10 pm

Sister Lizzie does not seem to understand that I did not blame the cog for my broken marriage but myself. In the first place I came to know of cog only after my separation with my ex-wife when pastor came knocking on the door looking for lost brothers. I was the target. After my mind was well programmed I visited Korea twice and became a deacon and now married again to a Korean girl recently.

Reply

Sister Lizzie thanks for your prayers anyway. I think I may have to pray for you and our brothers here more because you still need to know the teachings of M.J and Ahn well

I warned you guys not to hang on when you do not have the right answers and instead of recruiting more members to work more on our existing members who have started so many blogs and write and post B.S images related to our cog. They have been literally making fun of our Gods on their website and have different opinions about our teachings, which today has made the hole so clear for others to prove us as cults

Anti-enemies why must you call them cog-haters. Don't we do the same with the RC. SO we are also RC-haters. This people only ask us questions and want us to clear their doubts. They do not accuse us as we do preach about mother Mary. Pope, Sabbath. Aren't these are initial study chapters striking the RC outright more than any our denominations. Looks like you are in mighty hurry to get to Zion and whom do you wish to collect and preach the lost brothers and sisters like me? There are plenty out there. Poland. Elijah, Robert please stop behaving like kids. How long are we going to make mum cry and wash our toilets?

Well Dark Angel, coginator Ted I must admit. It was not the opinion of men but the right spirit working through you. Thanks for the time you have taken to open the eyes. We talk of spiritual eyes but they are still blinded and unable to see the flaw in the doctrine the spiritual ears are blocked so we do not hear the true words because we are taught to have faith only in M.J and Father.

As the Lord's servant, you must not quarrel. You must be kind toward all, a good and patient teacher, who is gentle as you correct your opponents, for it may be that God will give them the opportunity to repent and come to know the truth. And then they will come to their senses and escape from the trap of the Devil, who had caught them and made them obey his will. 2 Timothy 2:24-26

Have nothing to do with the unfruitful works of darkness. Instead, expose them for what they are. Ephesians 5:11

To my cog bro/sis Never say anything that isn't true. Have nothing to do with lies and misleading words. Proverbs 4:24

In the book of Matthew, Jesus talks about words and their effect at judgment. You might find it interesting in light of your question. Matt 12: 33-37 Words spoken, whether they are weighed or off guard, will be used against you, so Christians need to be careful how they speak. Also we are warned about many words. Pro. 10:19 Eccl 5:3

By: warrior on June 24, 2008 at 7:29 pm

Reply

Anti-enemies I think you should make a visit to korea and hug mum as this is all she can give to you. I am sure mother will cry for you "poor-mouthing" or the adverse effects it has on you of her teachings. Stop eating the passover and focus well on your bible and commandments. This is what I meant by teaching well the bible to our members. A few minutes back you speak of zion and llook at your point of frustration. And did you ever notice any such abusive language from these guys?

Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. Ephesians 4:25

In the book of Matthew, Jesus talks about words and their effect at judgment. You might find it interesting in light of your question. Matt 12: 33-37 Words spoken, whether they are weighed or off guard, will be used against you, so Christians need to be careful how they speak. Also we are warned about many words. Pro. 10:19 Eccl 5:3

By: warrior on June 24, 2008 at 7:31 pm

Reply

Anti-enemies I think you should make a visit to korea and hug mum as this is all she can give to you. I am sure mother will cry for you "poor-mouthing" or the adverse effects it has on you of her teachings. Stop eating the passover and focus well on your bible and commandments. This is what I meant by teaching well the bible to our members. A few minutes back you speak of zion and llook at your point of frustration. And did you ever notice any such abusive language from Dark angel, Ted, coginator? It is indeed very shameful to degrade our cog in this manner.

Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. Ephesians

4:25

Thank you Deacon warrior. That's why I'm trying to show to our brothers and sisters that what's happening in this blog is some of our brothers and sisters are starting to be proud and show off how righteous they are. Doesn't Jesus told us the parable of the lost sheep, leaving the 99 righteous and finding the 1 lost sinner so the sinner can go back with the righteous? God used Ted, COGinator and Dark Angel to open the eyes of our brothers and sisters who are about to go astray, quarreling instead preaching with kindness.

By: Elijah on June 24, 2008
at 7:44 pm

Reply

Proverbs 4:13-16

Hold on to instruction, do not let it go; guard it well, for it is your life. Do not set foot on the path of the wicked or walk in the way of evil men. Avoid it, do not travel on it; turn from it and go on your way. For they cannot sleep till they do evil;
they are robbed of slumber till they make someone fall.

Brothers and Sisters, stop wasting time in this blog please. Let's please Father and Mother by holding to their instruction for it is our life. God bless you all.

"Dark Angel you racist muthafucker. You have a problem because I'm black? Fuck you Dark Angel. I'll fucking bust yo head you fucking cunt racist! Say something nigga and I ain't gonna leave ya alone you piece of shit!"

By: Dark Angel on
June 24, 2008
at 7:49 pm

Reply

You need anger management and no I am not racist. You have a foul mouth, clean up your comments.

Yo DA a.k.a. Dark Angel, if ya have a problem with mah accent, den you are a racist DA. I ain't no need anger management. Niggas like you DA is the reason why segregation of black and white exist. You betta say sorry for your racist comment on mah black accent. Say something stupid DA and you'll see know what I'm saying.

By: Anti-Enemies of Church of God on June 24, 2008
at 8:19 pm

Reply

Bro. Anti-Enemies of Church of God, you need some guidance from your brother. Dark Angel is just assuming about Heaven and you know that. God accepts anyone no matter what your accent is. Just let it go bro. Dark Angel, I apologize for my brother's action towards you. I know your not a racist and maybe it's just how he perceive it from you. I hope you understand him. God bless you Dark Angel.

By: brofromzion on June 24, 2008
at 8:26 pm

Reply

"In the first place I came to know of cog only after my separation with my ex-wife when

By: Ted on June 24,
2008 pastor came knocking on the door looking for lost brothers. I was the target. After my mind was well programmed I visited korea twice and became a deacon and now married again to a korean girl recently."

at 8:30 pm

Reply

It's interesting that you joined the COG only after your separation with your wife.

Many people join cults after the loss of a loved one or after a broken relationship. This is not "destiny" or God "choosing you", it simply means that you are now more emotionally vulnerable to being exploited.

Cults offer a quick and easy sense of love and affection. People, especially young adults, increasingly join cults in order to find a "family". This new family gives them a sense of belonging that they might otherwise not find in a biological or romantic relationship.

Cults also give a sense of acceptance and self-worth. People who feel, for one reason or another, that they don't belong in society (or in the church) are especially attracted to cult organisations. They feel alienated, or isolated, and they lack a positive and healthy sense of personal identity. The cult gives them a sense of purpose and belonging.

When I was in the COG, many of my "brothers" were likewise there after suffering a painful breakup with a boyfriend or girlfriend. The COG consoled them and helped them out of their confusion, depression or waywardness.

But the point is, people who come across the COG typically see this event as being "destiny" or "God's plan".

The truth is, cult recruiters are always out there, like busy bees, talking and trying to recruit people. Whether or not you connect with them is all down to your emotional psychology and how vulnerable you are at the time. In warrior's case, he said "yes" to them, simply because he had broken up with his wife earlier.

Others have told me that they said "yes" to the COG, simply because they were adopted children or in a country completely alien to them.

Cults cast nets, and only certain fish jump in. They are not "chosen" or "more holy fish", but rather they are more vulnerable fish.

To Ted, COGinator, Dark Angel, I have visited your website. I understand that you guys are doing this for your family love ones who are a member of our church. They are my spiritual brothers and sisters whether you guys accept it or not. You guys have nothing to worry about them. We at the

By: Elijah on June 24, 2008
at 8:35 pm

Reply

World Mission Society Church of God keeps brotherly love to everyone, helping each one in need. I understand your opposition on Ahn Sahng Hong and Mother Jerusalem. But if you guys only knew God's truth, you guys will be proud to your love ones that they are chosen by God to do His will.

Anti-enemy,

I'm not going to apologize to you because YOU want to use curse words and the N-word to express yourself in an angry manor.

By: Dark Angel on
June 24, 2008
at 8:36 pm

Reply

For all I know, you could have been hispanic, so I am not commenting because "you are black".

I never, ever said heaven is not for people of a certain race. However, are you going to go into your heaven and acknowledge your god by saying, "yo yo what's up my n-word?"

No, you're not. If you are going to communicate with people, do it in a way where everyone understands and can relate without getting offended.

Thanks.

Ted said:

"Cults offer a quick and easy sense of love and affection. People, especially young adults, increasingly join cults in order to find a "family". This new family gives them a sense of belonging that they might otherwise not find in a biological or romantic relationship.

By: Bright Angel on
June 24, 2008
at 8:52 pm

Reply

Cults also give a sense of acceptance and self-worth. People who feel, for one reason or another, that they don't belong in society (or in the church) are especially attracted to cult organisations. They feel alienated, or isolated, and they lack a positive and healthy sense of personal identity. The cult gives them a sense of purpose and belonging."

Ted do you even understand what you are saying here? Basically, your saying that cults are groups that give love no matter what is your background. Then you just said that all other groups out there are cults.

Ted, can you explain to me if the military is a cult or not? My brother joined the Navy because back in high school he is always pick on and he wanted to make a change for himself and be accepted so he told me that he is going to join the Navy and he did. So Ted, is the Navy a cult? Are governments are cults? Are other churches other than Church of God are cults?

You what Ted, evaluating your comment above, I say that you just have hatred on Church of God. You want Church of God not to exist but it's ok for you if other groups, even the government or other churches exist. What's up Ted? Why do you hate Church of God? Please answer. Thanks Ted.

Brofromzion you said,

By: Dark Angel on
June 24, 2008
at 8:58 pm

"Bro. Anti-Enemies of Church of God, you need some guidance from your brother. Dark Angel is just assuming about Heaven and you know that. God accepts anyone no matter what your accent is."

Reply

Speaking that way is one thing but typing that way you speak and calling it an "accent" is another.

Also, his accent is broken english. Anti-enemy is very capable of speaking proper english. There's nothing holding he/she back from saying "My" instead of "Mah".

That's all.

DA a.k.a. Dark Angel, so what's the problem with mah accent? Am I not gonna be accepted by God if I'm black? You betta be careful because you don't know what background I came from. DA do you even know the N word?

By: Anti-Enemies of Church of God on June 24, 2008
at 9:02 pm

Didn't I said nigga? Nigga is ok because it means what up brotha or what up homie know what I'm saying. But if ya say nigger, then we have a problem. All niggas out der are gonna hunt you know what I'm saying.

Reply

DA next time be careful because there are niggas out der that will hunt you for saying the N word incorrectly. Aight DA holla at you lata! Thanks to brofromzion. Later niggas.

Dark Angel and Anti-Enemies of Church of God, it's best if we just leave it as it is than to keep letting the fire spread all over.

By: brofromzion on June 24, 2008
at 9:10 pm

Dark Angel, you must understand that everyone is different so don't just assume that everyone is what you expected. There's always gonna be few differences that sometimes it's pretty hard to explain. Thank you for understanding.

Reply

Anti-Enemies of Church of God, please next time try not to also assume that the person talking to you is racist. Your my brother and that's why I'm concern for you. As your spiritual brother showing brotherly love to you, please apologize to Dark Angel for the harsh words threw at him. Thank you and Father and Mother will be please.

"Didn't I said nigga? Nigga is ok because it means what up brotha or what up homie know what I'm saying. But if ya say nigger, then we have a problem. All niggas out der are gonna hunt you know what I'm saying."

By: Dark Angel on
June 24, 2008

at 9:45 pm

Reply

sigh.. whatever you say, Anti-enemy. Hopefully one day you won't find any use for the word. No matter how you want to spell it.

Elijah said, "Brothers and Sisters, stop wasting time in this blog please. Let's please Father and Mother by holding to their instruction for it is our life. God bless you all."

By: CoGinator on June 24, 2008
at 9:50 pm

Reply

They are not waisting their time. Actually it's very useful, they are seeing first hand how the doctrine that the WMSCoG is flawed. The arguement that it's merely "opinions of men" can be used, but logically it can't be supported in any way shape or form. Since ASH is a man, and it's his opinion that is followed it qualifies as "the opinion of men".

Secondly, it's not really even ASH's opinion that is being followed. ASH's opinion was that the second coming of Jesus's would be called Jesus. He said it, he wrote about it, and he believed it. It wasn't until Joo and MJ got a hold of his church after he died that they gave their opinion that ASH should be the Holy Spirit, who came in secret. Nevermind that the Spirit is a non human being. They told you believe or else your not spiritual...they said you have to believe first before you understand, they tell you to worship false idols so the can further line their pocketbooks.

They say use your spiritual eyes but what they mean is "shut up don't question or you won't fit into the group".

I really hope what you get out of being a member of the WMSCoG is worth it. Because worshiping proven false idols and spiting into the face of the real God will ultimately have ramifications. May the Lord have mercy on you.

It's not too late to repent your sins and ask God for forgiveness. Learn the truth of the Gospels and set yourself free.

"Ted do you even understand what you are saying here? Basically, your saying that cults are groups that give love no matter what is your background."

By: Ted on June 24, 2008
at 10:06 pm

Reply

No, I said that a very specific type of person is recruited into cults. Therefore, cults most definitely do not give love "no matter your background".

Though cult recruiters approach many people, only very vulnerable people accept what the cult is selling. So very specific people are chosen. People with a specific history and emotional psychology.

"Ted, can you explain to me if the military is a cult or not?"

Many cult experts have begun writing about the military. In the US, some claim that groups like the Marines are extremely cultic and exploitative. These are high pressure groups that use brainwashing techniques perfected by the Chinese and Korean army. The levels of spousal abuse, unemployment and homelessness within the Marines is also abnormally high. Something like 88 percent of ex marines fall into this category. So a group like the Marines does "use you" and then "throw you away". It creates a cult persona, a sort of split personality, specifically for its own purposes.

Of course there is no "God" in the marines, but they are a tight family of brothers, and the members are brainwashed into believing that they are "chosen ones", "more special" and fighting for a higher cause (blind patriotism). Whether you want to call this a "cult" or not is difficult. Most New Age Religious (Moonies, COG etc) use brainwashing techniques perfected by Eastern military bodies. The USA is now starting to use these very same techniques to quickly recruit and cheaply create soldier drones.

"So Ted, is the Navy a cult?"

No. The airforce, navy etc are all low pressure jobs. There is no coercion involved.

The word "cult" is problematic, but when I use it, it refers to a high pressure group that is exploitative, manipulative and concerned with targeting you, lying to you, and changing you psychologically to accomplish their own goals.

In the United States, the only branch of the military that I'd deem cultic are the Marines. The way young men are recruited and trained, especially over the past 30 years, is quite barbaric. They're essentially breeding psychopaths and cultivating psychopathic traits and then throwing these young men away once their terms of service are over.

"Are governments are cults?"

Some. You get cults of personality in which leaders are blindly worshipped and obeyed. This happens a lot in China and all those fascist countries.

"Are other churches other than Church of God are cults?"

Yes, for example another high pressure Korean cult are the UBF which use (at least in the 80s) fairly intense 1 on 1 training programmes to hook their recruits. Then you have the Moonies, Scientology, the TTT Chinese Christian cult who worship a dead guru as God.

"You know what Ted, evaluating your comment above, I say that you just have hatred on Church of God."

I would say you are wrongly evaluating my comments based on your own prejudices. Consider this definition:

Whistle-blowing: exposure of fraud and abuse. A whistleblower is an employee, former employee, or member of an organization, who reports imorality, or misconduct to people or entities outside or within the organisation. Generally the misconduct is a violation of law, morals, rule and/or regulation."

If nobody spoke out, unjust practises would always continue. COG members are just regular human beings with the same dreams, hopes and feelings as everyone else. It's really the unseen leaders of the COG who are at fault and acting immorally. You all are just doing what they tell you to do and beliving what they tell you to believe.

"You want Church of God not to exist but it's ok for you if other groups, even the government or other churches exist. What's up Ted? Why do you hate Church of God? Please answer. Thanks Ted."

No, all immoral groups should be properly challenged, until they are fixed or replaced.

We who have special insight into the COG and how they mislead people are speaking out. We are putting together all our information so that in the future young adults can be warned and helped. Human beings are fragile creatures and it's unfair that big organisations should prey upon, lie to, and manipulate them, purely for financial profit.

"I'll keep a watchful eye on Ted. The end of the Proctor is sharp, pointed at Ted. Let's see what Ted is going to do."

I assume, Robert, that you're the same person emailing me all those legal threats. Remember, all false idols hide behind lawyers and courtrooms.

Ted said "I assume, Robert, that you're the same person emailing me all those legal threats. Remember, all false idols hide behind lawyers and courtrooms."

By: Robert on June 24, 2008
at 10:36 pm

Reply

Ted it's not me yet. Relax. You haven't found yourself darkness yet. Once you find yourself having a hard time living, maybe it's me. Ted, you can't see Proctor pointing at you and the Ruler measuring you. Everywhere you go, there's a Grand Lodge of Freemasons. Relax Ted.

Brothers and Sisters please. Let's not waste time preaching in this blog. Ted, COGinator and Dark Angel already made up their mind and that is to make war against God's Zion. Ted and his followers will fail in the end as prophecied in the

By: Elijah on June 24, 2008
at 10:38 pm

Reply

Bible.

Bro fro zion you should be concerned not just for anti-enemy but all your bros/sis out there in cog. They do not know what they speak. You guys are so brainwashed that even simple language ihas become so difficult for you to understand. That's the same thing what warrior has been telling you. He speaks sense. A part of his mind still seems to be enlightened that he knows what he is really into.

By: jonah on June 24, 2008 at 10:39 pm

Reply

Elijah even you display a lack of understanding. Have you read carefully warrior's post he ask anti enemy to stop eating passover. He is trying to guide you for making fools of yourself by being a part of cog

If we get to see such reactions from cog members over little clarifications I can imagine the ourcome when they know how they have been deceived and Zion is way off.

Wow M.J and Joo cheol what fruits you bear. Stop playing with these poor souls and enjoying riches at their costs. Bro of zion does mother hear confessions. I think anti enemy needs to visit her. Make sure she wears the hearing aid.

Ted said:

It's interesting that you joined the COG only after your separation with your wife.

By: warrior on June 24, 2008 at 11:14 pm

Reply

Many people join cults after the loss of a loved one or after a broken relationship. This is not "destiny" or God "chosing you", it simply means that you are now more emotionally vulnerable to being exploited.

You are very right Ted that's my weakness which made me fall into a ditch each time. It was just after my annulment was through and my bad experiences with the RC church during the process of divorce I fell into the trap of cog. I was made to feel it was God's call and I was the chosen one.

And I am trying hard to free myself from this B.S work that I have been doing in cog for the past 4 years. I must thank you for showing not only me the truth but also Clark and appreciate your hardwork in trying to save so many others like me. I pray that Jesus christ brings them into light. I thought there was no turning back for me

Thanks Dark angel and coginator too. Looks like you are now under persecution. Remember what Jesus said."You will be hated for my name sake" Cheer up!In the Name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit

To the brotha "Anti-Enimes of churh of God".

Look bro have you been practicing Mothers

By: Elohim144 on June 24, 2008 at 11:58 pm

Teaching? We need to reveal Mother & Fathers glory by reflecting their attitude to others. Bra, im from the streets as well. But one thing I have learned in the Year 1/2 in COG is only those who have a loving heart (Heart of flesh not stone) may enter the kingdom of God.

Reply

Please, as a brother in christ i would encourage you to pray to Father & Mother to help you change before time runs out. I myself have plenty of faults, but atleast try. first step to change is to recognize what the problem is. When you get a chance read 1 Cor 13, the hole chapter.

Eph 5:3-5 But among you there must not be even a hint of sexual immorality, or of any kind of impurity, or of greed, because these are improper for God's holy people. Nor should there be obscenity, foolish talk or coarse joking, which are out of place, but rather thanksgiving. For this you can be sure: No immoral, impure or greedy person—such a man is an idolater—has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ & of God.

Much Love & God Bless
Elohim 144

Elijah said, "Ted, COGinator and Dark Angel already made up their mind and that is to make war against God's Zion."

By: CoGinator on June 25, 2008 at 3:09 am

Actually we haven't made up our mind, but the teaching in the bible has done it for us. Clearly the glasses (CoG) in which you gain your understanding of the scriptures are not the correct perscription and cause you misunderstand the true intent. It's much easier to accept the teaching of the CoG than it is to set out on your own quest and learn the truth. I challenge all of you to take the harder road and study what the RC (ie. Real Church) has to say about the concepts and doctrines that you find yourself in the minority about. Do fall prey to random scripture that seem like they are talking to you....when in reality are being used to manipulate you. Be stronger than the collective group and return to your own thinking. If you've ever questioned and wondered what are you doing...now is the time to explore that opportunity. Feel free to PM on the <http://ahnsahngghong.biz/forum> site. I'm more than willing to do one on one discussions to help you.

Reply

God Bless,

CoGinator

COGinator said "Actually we haven't made up our mind, but the teaching in the bible has done it for us. Clearly the glasses (CoG) in which you gain your understanding of the scriptures are not the correct perscription and cause you

By: Elijah on June 25, 2008 at 3:58 pm

Reply

misunderstand the true intent. It's much easier to accept the teaching of the CoG than it is to set out on your own quest and learn the truth. I challenge all of you to take the harder road and study what the RC (ie. Real Church) has to say about the concepts and doctrines that you find yourself in the minority about. Do fall prey to random scripture that seem like they are talking to you....when in reality are being used to manipulate you. Be stronger than the collective group and return to your own thinking. If you've ever questioned and wondered what are you doing...now is the time to explore that opportunity."

COGinator, you guys haven't prove that the Church of God World Mission Society is not God's Zion. You guys keep using the 'opinion of men' but spiritually you guys can't understand God's will. No matter how much we try to show you guys the truth, it's not meant for you guys and I'm sorry for you COGinator.

To all my brothers and sisters, again we don't have time for guys like Ted, COGinator, Dark Angel and Clark that all they do ALL DAY is find faults on God's words. Let's analyze this. Have the Church of God haters have proven that Christ Ahnsahnghong is not the Second Coming Christ? No. Christ Ahnsahnghong, the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, the One who brought back Jesus Passover that gives eternal life when the Fig Tree's twigs got tender, the Root of David, the One who came in the Order of Melchizedek and many more. Why should we keep throwing our pearls from God to pigs like Ted, COGinator, Dark Angel and Clark?

Matthew 10:19-22

19But when they arrest you, do not worry about what to say or how to say it. At that time you will be given what to say, 20for it will not be you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

21"Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; children will rebel against their parents and have them put to death. 22All men will hate you because of me, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved.

Brothers and Sister, only those who hold firm and keep God's words will be save. Let's continue to preach the good news of salvation, not in this blog, but to our lost brothers and sisters. God bless you all.

Elijah,

I've been using the opinions of other cog members. Do you disagree with their comments in regards to ahnsahnghong being persecuted and that he suffered?

By: Dark Angel on
June 25, 2008
at 4:46 pm

Reply

I've also used an excerpt from one of ahnsahnghong's books. Is that an opinion of man too? I would say yes, but I want your..."opinion".

Also, please define the term "opinions of men".

Dark Angel said "I've been using the opinions of other cog members."

By: Elijah on June 25, 2008
at 5:36 pm

Aha. Dark Angel, you are using the opinion of men. You don't know God's will or perhaps you have heard it but you don't wanna accept it. It's not meant for you Dark Angel.

Reply

2 Timothy 4:3-4

3For the time will come when men will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear. 4They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths.

Dark Angel, God's words is weightier than 'your opinion'. Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Second Coming Christ because He fulfilled all the prophecies in the Bible for the Second Coming Christ. Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Holy Spirit, the Root of David. I don't have time for you Dark Angel. God bless you.

Well Elijah,

By: Dark Angel on June 25, 2008
at 6:06 pm

Perhaps you should preach to your fellow brothers and sisters who said those things. They obviously were not my words and many have used the bible to make their comment valid.

Reply

Clearly, many of you are confused with your own doctrine or else there wouldn't have been comments made by other members about him being persecuted or that he suffered.

You say your doctrine is not meant for me but, if I were to accept it, then, it would be for me.

So the comment about your doctrine not being for me makes no sense what so ever.

When ahnsahnghong talks about constantine "abolishing" the passover in 325 AD.

Where did he get that information from? Where is this information written and who wrote it?

It's obvious ahnsahnghong isn't a genius, so where did that information come from?

Elijah, when you can explain what ahnsahnghong meant from the excerpt in chapter 12, then I'll start to consider if you are really worth MY time.

The thought of someone explaining what their god meant shows his lack of divinity and wisdom as a god.

So go and ask a pastor or deacon, let's hear their "opinion".

You all believe one of his many abilities were to explain the "mysteries of the bible", yet his own words need further explanation.

Explain the trinity concept that I meentioned a few posts above. That explanation was set for Poland, but it would be best if you were to explain it instead.

You realise the irony of a man saying he is right solely because he is God?

By: Ted on June 25, 2008
at 10:30 pm

Consider this...

Reply

Ted: I am God.

Coginator: That is crazy! Prove it!

Ted: I am God because the Bible proves it!

Coginator: The Bible does not say that!

Ted: Because I am God, only I can interpret the Bible!

Coginator: So you are God because you say the Bible says you are God and only you can interpret what the Bible says?

Ted: Yes. Worship me and give me your money.

Coginator: walks away

The fact is, the Bible has nothing to do with Ahnsahnghong. The "opinion of men" defence is the last line of defence for all cults. They're basically saying "we cannot counter your points, we just believe our God because you are evil and you are evil because our God tells us so". It's a closed loop. Another attempt at thought stopping.

Ted said "The fact is, the Bible has nothing to do with Ahnsahnghong. The "opinion of men" defence is the last line of defence for all cults. They're basically saying "we cannot counter your points, we just believe our God because you are evil and you are evil because our God tells us so". It's a closed loop. Another attempt at thought stopping."

By: Elijah on June 25, 2008
at 10:43 pm

Reply

Ted, you smart-ass opinion has nothing to do with the prophecies in the Bible. Christ Ahnsahnghong is the One who FULFILLED ALL THE PROPHECIES IN THE BIBLE. You can't change that Ted. Keep trying. Christ Ahnsahnghong, the One who brought back Jesus Passover that gives eternal life just as Jesus promised when the Fig Tree blooms again, the Root of David, who came in the Order of Melchizedek. Your really wasting my time Ted. I'll keep praying for you. God bless you Ted.

Brother Elijah, your absolutely right. Preaching in this blog is a waste of time. Ted the Erratic Cheese and his followers are using the "opinion of men" to criticise the Word of God. They don't understand God's will. We follow Christ Ahnsahnghong, the Root of David and the only One who can bring God's will that was hidden in scrolls of the

By: Robert on June 25, 2008
at 10:53 pm

Reply

Bible.

Revelations 5:2-5 'And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, "WHO IS WORTHY TO BREAK THE SEALS AND OPEN THE SCROLL?" BUT NO ONE IN HEAVEN OR ON EARTH COULD OPEN THE SCROLL OR EVEN LOOK INSIDE IT. I wept and wept because no one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the ROOT OF DAVID, has triumphed. HE IS ABLE TO OPEN THE SCROLL AND IT'S SEVEN SEALS."

The reason why Ted and his followers couldn't understand God's will is because they don't believe in Ahnsahnghong. Funny how Ted try to use the bible scholars to interpret God's words. Ted, I'll be watching you with the eagle's eyes. I'll eventually find you and the Proctor is very sharp to make your life miserable. Don't let me find you Ted.

Bro. Robert, I say we leave Ted alone. Just let him fall in his own trap. He'll realize it in the end.

By: Elijah on June 25, 2008
at 10:59 pm

Matthew 7:21-26

21"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' 23Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'

Reply

24"Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock. 25The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock. 26But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand. 27The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash."

Brothers and Sisters of Church of God, let's keep putting God's words into practice so that our foundation will be kept strong until we make the eternal change and return home with God. God bless you all.

Bro. Elijah and Robert, what are you guys still doing in this blog? Let's go where we need to preach, not in this blog, but to those places where we have lost brothers and sisters. Let Ted, Dark Angel, COGinator, Clark and Jaime celebrate in this prison. I can't wait to return to our Father and Mother's Heavenly Home.

By: brofromzion on June 25, 2008
at 11:06 pm

Reply

Elijah, you said, "COGinator, you guys haven't

By: CoGinator on June

prove that the Church of God World Mission Society is not God's Zion. You guys keep using the 'opinion of men' but spiritually you guys can't understand God's will. No matter how much we try to show you guys the truth, it's not meant for you guys and I'm sorry for you COGinator."

25, 2008
at 11:14 pm

Reply

Nor have you proven that it is. I have to admit I hate the defensive comment of 'opinion of men' when interpretations from all sides are 'opinion of men'. Please, put that comment to rest as it really makes you sound like a broken Fembot from the Austin Powers movies.

In response to your other comments:

You said, "...again we don't have time for guys like Ted, COGinator, Dark Angel and Clark that all they do ALL DAY is find faults on God's words."

Why not...didn't, we are making time for you. You seem important enough to share the the real understanding of the Gospel. Are we not that important.

You said, "Let's analyze this. Have the Church of God haters have proven that Christ Ahnsahnghong is not the Second Coming Christ? No. Christ Ahnsahnghong, the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, the One who brought back Jesus Passover that gives eternal life when the Fig Tree's twigs got tender, the Root of David, the One who came in the Order of Melchizedek and many more."

First of all don't call us haters, just because we don't agree with the doctrine. That doesn't imply hatred. That is taught to you to try an create an us/them mentality. I'm sure Ted could talk more about the psychology of the cult mind as to why that is taught to you.

Secondly, we have clearly proven that Ahnsahnghong is not the second coming.

- a. he never claimed it.
- b. he wrote in his book that the second coming would be no other name than Jesus.
- c. he is burreid in the ground in korea
- d. his lifestyle was not that of a God...ie multiple wives/lovers
- e. he inaccurately predicted the end of the world not once, but twice.
- f. he has never performed any miracles
- g. his name is not in the bible.

Elijah you said, "Why should we keep throwing our pearls from God to pigs like Ted, COGinator, Dark Angel and Clark?"

Pigs...is that how the WMSCOG teaches you talk to your brothers and sisters? Have you no respect for all mindkind? I find that very much going against the very thing Jesus said was the most important things to adhere to. What you call pearls are pearls, but you've managed to tarnish them in fecal matter. We are simply trying to clean off the sludge that you added."

God bless you!

"Christ Ahnsahnghong is the One who FULFILLED ALL THE PROPHECIES IN THE BIBLE."

By: Ted on June 25, 2008 at 11:37 pm

No, there are no prophecies relating to Ahnsahnghong. Again it's simply the case of a cult leader inserting himself into the Bible by claiming he fulfilled prophecies that he himself created.

Reply

"Ted and his followers are using the "opinion of men" to criticise the Word of God."

The "opinion of men" defence is the last line of defence of all cults. You're basically saying that your religion makes no sense. You can't claim to be God by saying that the prophecies which prove you to be God are truthful simply because you are God. That's silly.

"Ted, I'll be watching you with the eagle's eyes. I'll eventually find you and the Proctor is very sharp to make your life miserable. Don't let me find you Ted."

Would you like my address? Maybe you can set my house on fire and beat up my children as well? I'm sure you'd really like that. God's "chosen few" indeed.

You said:

"Matthew 7:21-26: "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'"

You do understand that Mathew is hinting that the Jewish Rabbis who denounced Christ will not enter heaven because they don't acknowledge the name Jesus? The Jews commonly "cast out demons" and "performed miracles" in the name of Yahweh.

This has absolutely nothing to do with Ahnsahnghong. All cults play with timelines to insert their Gods into the Bible.

Elijah, you said, "Dark Angel, God's words is weightier than 'your opinion'. Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Second Coming Christ because He fulfilled all the prophecies in the

By: CoGinator on June 25, 2008 at 11:48 pm

Bible for the Second Coming Christ. Christ Ahnsahnghong is the Holy Spirit, the Root of David. I don't have time for you Dark Angel. God bless you." Reply

If you are going to rely on the defense that ASH is the 2nd coming because he fulfilled man interpreted prophecies, then I guess you better be prepared to worship many...for I too have fulfilled the prophecies as you defended them for ASH. Does that make me the Second coming too?

Elijah, you said, "Your really wasting my time Ted".

By: CoGinator on June 26, 2008 at 12:04 am

Let's take responsibility here Elijah...you came here on your own accord. You chose to enter a dialog here. Don't pass the buck to Ted or anyone else. You made choices in life, that have landed you here. Take responsibility. You choose to enter the Cult... and you can choose to exit it. Reply

I can sense from your frustration that you want to to prove the thoughts that have been placed in your head to be true and when they don't add up frustration increases. You start to resort to name calling and justifying that others can see it because they aren't choosen to. I know you know that's not true.

Your frustration is because things aren't adding up and you are getting confused. That's normal when you are starting the see the farce that you've been rooked into. You can be brave and you can make the decsion to leave the group think and enter into the life of using your own mind to make decsicons and undertand concpets. I'm here for you if you need someone to pray with!

Brothers & Sisters, it is pointless to argue with these people. Stop it! Let them see for them selves what is gonna happen. Wipe the dust from your feet & keep moving. Their only fullfilling Bible prophecy by waging war against Mother & her children (Rev 12:17). We know we keep Gods Commands & if they can't see that, then it was never ment for them to see.

By: Elohim144 on June 26, 2008 at 11:42 am

Reply

Only those who dwell in ZION (keep Gods feast's) can be forgiven of sin. We need to hit the streets & proclaim the gospel to the people in our local areas. DO NOT WASTE YOUR TIME WITH COWARDS THAT HIDE IN OUR CHURCH & ON THE COMPUTER, WAITING TO FIND SO CALLED DEFFECTS. ELOHIM WILL DEAL WITH THEM WHEN THE TIME COMES.

The TRUTH was hidden from them for a reason. Know is the time to wake up from the sleep of death & blow our trumpets in the city streets loud.Tru children (Soldiers) of God, its time to sharpen our swords.

Much Love & God Bless

Elohim 144

I hope one you guys run into me in person and try to preach your doctrine.

By: Dark Angel on
June 26, 2008
at 12:20 pm

I'll ask you the same questions that I've been asking you all on here.

Reply

There will be no way to avoid answering it then.

So ultimately cog=fail

No answers available. Even your pastors and deacons could not help you right. Accept that you are a part of the cult. We can already see what is going to happen Elohim. There is going to be a lack of pschiatrist to treat the brainwashed cog members

By: Jose on June 26, 2008
at 12:45 pm

Reply

Elohim says:

DO NOT WASTE YOUR TIME WITH COWARDS THAT HIDE IN OUR CHURCH & ON THE COMPUTER, WAITING TO FIND SO CALLED DEFFECTS. ELOHIM WILL DEAL WITH THEM WHEN THE TIME COMES.

The very fact your God was unable to inspire to face us with the right answers that you now sound very coward asking the rest to leave as you always have been doing. I think it was your very God that hid in the cave and tampered with the bible, make you set up as many blog on the computer wating to trap the poor souls with your defective doctrine.

Wherever you keep moving there shall we be

Have nothing to do with the unfruitful works of darkness. Instead, expose them for what they are. Ephesians 5:11

God in his mercy has given us this work to do, and so we do not become discouraged. We put aside all secret and shameful deeds; we do not act with deceit, nor do we falsify the word of God. In the full light of truth we live in God's sight and try to commend ourselves to everyone's good conscience. For if the gospel we preach is hidden, it is hidden only from those who are being lost. 2Corinthians 4:1-3

The wisdom of the prudent is to give thought to their ways, but the folly of fools is deception.
Proverbs 14:8

Hi..

I haven't been posting for a lil while (2-3 days). I just read all the posts I have missed. VERY Interesting is all I have to say!!

By: Lizzie on June 26, 2008
at 3:36 pm

Reply

First of all I have no clue who this new character is the "brutha from Zion". I know that I shouldn't take sides and all, but DA has way better manners than you! I mean your nettiquette SUX!

We have been coming here to "DEBATE" our beliefs not to threaten eachother with how we are gonna beat eachother to a pulp.

I am sorry to say Father & Mother will be very disappointed w you.

I shouldn't judge is the teachings of God, but dude seriously someone has to stop you now!

I agree w DA in his posts to you! I can't believe I just said that!!!!

I have been coming here for a while now and not once did DA or GoGinator or any non-believer, for that matter, ever need to use any curse words to prove their points. I seriously don't care if you're black or white... we are all supposed to be the same color inside. It's not about racismt guy! You really make yourself sound bad. Wow!! I don't even want to quote any verses tonite.. I am just astonished at this guys mannerism. May Father & Mother help you, cause you truly don't have the patience thing down packed.

My God is that what Mother taught you? Are those the teachings of Jesus? Checkc yourself b4 posting anything like that. I dont care if you are a CoG member or a non-believer in disguise, you need to cool down and seriously go to anger management classes.

I pray for you!

God Bless You all tonight!!

~~Lizzie

Thank you Bro. Elohim144. What Ted, COGinator, Dark Angel, and those who persecute us verbally is to make war against Mother and her children. Guys like Ted and his followers are fulfilling the prophecy in the Bible. Let Father and Mother take care of them when that day comes.

By: Elijah on June 26, 2008
at 3:41 pm

Reply

Psalms 31:1-40

1 [a] Do not fret because of evil men or be envious of those who do wrong;
2 for like the grass they will soon wither, like green plants they will soon die away.

3 Trust in the LORD and do good;
dwell in the land and enjoy safe pasture.

4 Delight yourself in the LORD and he will give you the desires of your heart.

5 Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him and he will do this:

6 He will make your righteousness shine like the dawn,
the justice of your cause like the noonday sun.

7 Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him;
do not fret when men succeed in their ways,
when they carry out their wicked schemes.

8 Refrain from anger and turn from wrath;
do not fret—it leads only to evil.

9 For evil men will be cut off, but those who hope in the LORD will inherit the land.

10 A little while, and the wicked will be no more;
though you look for them, they will not be found.

11 But the meek will inherit the land and enjoy great peace.

12 The wicked plot against the righteous and gnash their teeth at them;

13 but the Lord laughs at the wicked, for he knows their day is coming.

14 The wicked draw the sword and bend the bow to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose ways are upright.

15 But their swords will pierce their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.

16 Better the little that the righteous have than the wealth of many wicked;

17 for the power of the wicked will be broken, but the LORD upholds the righteous.

18 The days of the blameless are known to the LORD, and their inheritance will endure forever.

19 In times of disaster they will not wither;
in days of famine they will enjoy plenty.

20 But the wicked will perish:
The LORD's enemies will be like the beauty of the fields, they will vanish—vanish like smoke.

21 The wicked borrow and do not repay, but the righteous give generously;

22 those the LORD blesses will inherit the land, but those he curses will be cut off.

23 If the LORD delights in a man's way, he makes his steps firm;

24 though he stumble, he will not fall, for the LORD upholds him with his hand.

25 I was young and now I am old, yet I have never seen the righteous forsaken or their children begging bread.

26 They are always generous and lend freely; their children will be blessed.

27 Turn from evil and do good;
then you will dwell in the land forever.

28 For the LORD loves the just and will not forsake his faithful ones.
They will be protected forever,
but the offspring of the wicked will be cut off;

29 the righteous will inherit the land and dwell in it forever.

30 The mouth of the righteous man utters wisdom, and his tongue speaks what is just.

31 The law of his God is in his heart;
his feet do not slip.

32 The wicked lie in wait for the righteous, seeking their very lives;

33 but the LORD will not leave them in their power or let them be condemned when brought to trial.

34 Wait for the LORD and keep his way.
He will exalt you to inherit the land;
when the wicked are cut off, you will see it.

35 I have seen a wicked and ruthless man flourishing like a green tree in its native soil,

36 but he soon passed away and was no more;
though I looked for him, he could not be found.

37 Consider the blameless, observe the upright;
there is a future [b] for the man of peace.

38 But all sinners will be destroyed;
the future [c] of the wicked will be cut off.

39 The salvation of the righteous comes from the LORD;
he is their stronghold in time of trouble.

40 The LORD helps them and delivers them;
he delivers them from the wicked and saves them, because they take refuge in him.

God bless you all.

Brother Elijah, you are cutting the throats of Ted, COGinator, Dark Angel and those hate us.
They will fulfill these words from the Bible if they don't keep God's will. They are the wicked that is talked in verse 7:

By: Robert on June 26, 2008
at 4:04 pm

Reply

7 Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him;
do not fret when men succeed in their ways,
when they carry out their wicked schemes.

Thank you Brother Elijah for the enlightenment. Let's keep doing God's will and showing our love to Him by keeping His commandments.

BTW..

I truly don't believe TED has any followers, but just non-believers who are also trying to so call—open our eyes and help us see we are in a cult.

By: Lizzie on June 26, 2008
at 4:08 pm

Reply

So, stop saying he has followers... None of the non-believers here have "followers" just others who AGREE with what they are saying. Only Christ had followers. Geez!!

All you guys are pathetic. I cant believe the BS I am reading tonite. I even feel like cheering on the other side tonite. (>_<)

If Father really came today, he would flip!! Alot of us would have alot of explaining to do with that attitude. I am not saying I am perfect, I am far from that! I am just as bad a sinner as ALL on this blog. If we weren't a sinner we would be in heaven! But yet we are here on this crummy prison we like to call earth. It doesn't take a rocket scientist to figure that out!

Once again.. May God Elohim Bless You All

~Lizzie

I will pray to all my brothers and sisters tonite, even the non-believers!

Ted said "Would you like my address? Maybe you can set my house on fire and beat up my children as well? I'm sure you'd really like that. God's "chosen few" indeed."

By: Robert on June 26, 2008
at 4:12 pm

Reply

Ted, if I do that I would be in jail and it's good for my side. That's not what I meant if you didn't understand it. I can assure you though that every Freemason out there will give you a hard time. You'll find your life starting to be miserable. But when Brother Elijah posted his comment above, I say let God take care of you when time comes. I know you won't be able to handle if the Proctor points at you. God bless you Ted.

Sister Lizzie has a point. We also need to be careful on our actions because it's an impression to others. If we say bad words, that reflects our image. If we are the children of

By: brofromzion on June 26, 2008
at 4:29 pm

Reply

God, let's start to be one. That's why I told Anti-Enemy that his words not only shows his own but the rest of our brothers and sisters. Actually, except for Ted, COGinator and Dark Angel have done a great job on the way the use words. They didn't spoke bad and cursing words. COGinator only said 'bozofromzion' which is a joke but not like Brother Anti-Enemy using the 'F' word. That's sad. Father and Mother will not be please. I hope this is a lesson learned for all our brothers and sisters in God's Zion. God bless you all members and non-members of Church of God.

Isn't this sweet...we are all getting along so well.

By: CoGinator on June 26, 2008
at 9:16 pm

I think I'm getting a bit verklempt.

Reply

It's a shame that all the CoG members understand the psalms so well, and yet can't understand the truth behind the 2nd coming and who ASH is (or rather isn't). How can the blinders be put up so easily when he himself clearly said that the second coming name would be Jesus?

See Psalm 31:40

Robert: "I can assure you though that every Freemason out there will give you a hard time. You'll find your life starting to be miserable."

By: Ted on June 26, 2008 at 10:45 pm

Why am I not surprised that you believe in Freemason conspiracies too...

Reply

Anyway, the point of this message board is to discuss the COG's doctrines, but that's difficult when you all keep changing the topic or pasting tangential verses.

Each discussion boils down to the COG either:

1. Running away from the argument.
2. Changing the topic.
3. Unable to rebutte contesting points and simply hiding behind the "those are the interpretations of men" defence.

So essentially, you are right simply because "you have the word of God" and "we have the word of men", which is another way of saying "there is no solid proof for what we believe".

You have no truth, you simply have blind faith, just like every other religion. The difference is that in all these New Age Cults, the "truth" is so small and simplistic (in order to be quickly conveyed so that many people may be recruited efficiently), that the "faith" has compensate by being extremely strong and extremist. Thats why cults rely so much on coercive techniques and thought stopping practises.

"We have been coming here to "DEBATE" our beliefs not to threaten eachother with how we are gonna beat eachother to a pulp."

But all you folk do are threaten and cause havok. I'm constantly emailed rude threats, from both regular COC members and those claiming to be "COG lawyers". Not to mention the countless hacking the COG do. Are the COG head chiefs back in Korea paying for expert hackers or is this simply the work of a small group of really passionate Ahnsahnghong believers?

Robert: "I know you won't be able to handle if the Proctor points at you. God bless you Ted."

Don't be a hypocrite. You can't wish someone dead then say "God bless you".

"Ted and his followers are using the "opinion of men" to criticise the Word of God."

You understand the paradox here? You can't claim to be God by saying that the prophecies which prove you to be God are truthful simply because you are God. Anyone can do that.

Ted and COGinator, you guys make me laugh. The fact that Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled the prophecies in the Bible of the Second Coming Christ which you guys couldn't prove to be 'false and wrong'.

By: Elijah on June 26, 2008 at 10:58 pm

Reply

Ted said "You understand the paradox here? You can't claim to be God by saying that the prophecies which prove you to be God are truthful simply because you are God. Anyone can do that."

Ted, what don't you be the Second Christ, be baptize at 30 and preach for 37 years. Oooppssss! Too late the Fig Tree already blooms and only Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled that. Sorry Ted, your are a false Christ.

By the way Ted, only the Bible can testify. For example, the Bible prophesied about the coming of God in flesh. Only Jesus fulfilled that and that's why He is God. Jehovah used the prophets to testify the coming of the Christ. Ted, I can show you every single prophecies Jesus fulfilled but why waste time since you hate Church of God?

By: Elijah on June 26, 2008 at 11:10 pm

Reply

John 5:30-32

30By myself I can do nothing; I judge only as I hear, and my judgment is just, for I seek not to please myself but him who sent me.

31"If I testify about myself, my testimony is not valid.
32There is another who testifies in my favor, and I know that his testimony about me is valid.

God the Father Jehovah testified about the coming of Jesus using the prophets. Same thing about Christ Ahnsahnghong, Jesus and the Apostles testified about Him. Christ Ahnsahnghong, the One who open the way to Tree of Life, the Root of David. Your sorry Ted. Stop using the opinion of men and follow God's will.

"Ted, I can show you every single prophecies Jesus fulfilled but why waste time since you hate Church of God?"

By: Ted on June 26, 2008 at 11:49 pm

Go ahead. List all the prophecies Jesus fulfilled and list then all the prophecies Ahnsahnghong fulfilled. Tell me if you notice anything funny.

Reply

Elijah said, "Ted and COGinator, you guys make me laugh. The fact that Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled the prophecies in the Bible of the Second Coming Christ which you guys couldn't prove to be 'false and wrong'."

By: CoGinator on June 27, 2008 at 1:50 am

Reply

How dense can one be? We've clearly proven that that which the WMSCOG teaches contradicts that of what was written (as in proof) by Ahnsahnghong. ASH testified indirectly that he is not the second coming and directly testified that the second coming will be in the name of 'JESUS' and only the name of Jesus.

So anyone who claims to follow ASH because that is what is taught to you by the WMSCOG, but doesn't follow what ASH has taught is in complete hypocrisy or denial. Which are you in?

It can't be both ways.

The house of cards has fallen!

Repent now for your sins before it's too late.

Secondly, Ahnsahnghong inaccurately predicted the end of the world...TWICE.

By: CoGinator on June 27, 2008 at 2:10 am

So, in old times if a prophet was not correct, I believe the punishment was death. This could explain why ASH died of a brain aneurism.

Reply

Hi everyone. I still see you guys are arguing about what is the truth. I don't wanna take sides but I only believe the Jesus Christ is the only way.

By: Frank on June 27, 2008 at 6:10 pm

Reply

To Elijah, you said Ahnsahnghong is the Root of David. I have never read his name in the Bible. However, the Bible clearly said that Jesus is the root of David as He claimed it.

Revelations 22:16 "I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give you this testimony for the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, and the bright Morning Star."

Elijah only Jesus Christ is the Root of David. It's black and white in the Bible.

Also COGinator have a point. Ahnsahnghong said only Jesus is the savior and no one else, not even him. That's pretty clear.

Cult of Greed with a God that speaks one language and can show us no proof of divinity. It preys upon the weak and naive. It sells fear.

By: Rebecca on June 28, 2008 at 9:58 pm

Reply

In the Bloomingdale, IL chapter they are baptizing children without the parents knowledge while the parents are off performing various duties and cleaning the church like good little brainwashed sheep.

My nephews, 9 and 14 were surrounded by a group of members and the churchs pastor and pressured into being baptized while the parent was elsewhere in the church... the kids couldn't refuse the pressure of course... they were even told they would be condemned if they didn't come to church every week now... madness & brainwashing.

What would Jesus do?

By: LOLISTICISM on June 30, 2008
at 6:36 pm

<http://www.freedomofmind.com/resourcecenter/groups/w/world-mission-society-church-of-god/#critical-links>

Reply

LOLAGE.

It's been a whole weekend and only 3-4 posts...
I AM SHOCKED!

By: Lizzie on July 1, 2008
at 5:22 am

I just past by to see how it was going in the non-believer website. There is nothing to debate, for now. I will have to wait until something interesting comes about. I hope COGinator or DA post something soon. They are my fave to debate w here. Well the smartest. What happened to Poland? Anyhow, I will most def get back to you guys later. I am glad to see that there isnt anymore foul language => I am so proud of you guys!! Anywho... please post something interesting! ~ ~Lizzie

Reply

Hi Lizzie,

By: Dark Angel on July 1, 2008
at 1:07 pm

Please visit the new cult watch message board. COGinator and the rest of us have been posting there.

Reply

You don't have to post anything if you do not want to, but atleast read the information that's posted.

<http://ahnsahng hong.biz/forum/>

I'm not sure if Poland and the rest of those guys will respond to my questions, but i usually check in to see if they have.

Hope to see you at the new cult watch forum. There is a COG member there as well, perhaps you can assist him? Either way, there is useful information there.

thanks.

Lizzie, there is also the:

By: CoGinator on July 1, 2008 at 1:40 pm

<http://brendoman.com/wardwords/2005/11/21/cult>

Reply

site that we visit from time to time...infact I replied to Poland there. I'd be curious to here your take the subject.

I think most of the WMSCoG members don't think we are worth trying to save any longer because we aren't chosen to see. Doesn't sound like the teaching from the Jesus I know...but then again, not much of what WMSCoG teaches sounds like it's from Jesus.

COGinator said "I think most of the WMSCoG members don't think we are worth trying to save any longer because we aren't chosen to see. Doesn't sound like the teaching from the Jesus I know...but then again, not much of what WMSCoG teaches sounds like it's from Jesus."

By: Elijah on July 1, 2008 at 3:00 pm

Reply

I really feel sorry for you COGinator. Even if I show you the truth of God's will, you won't understand it.

Matthew 10:11-14

11"Whatever town or village you enter, search for some worthy person there and stay at his house until you leave. 12As you enter the home, give it your greeting. 13If the home is deserving, let your peace rest on it; if it is not, let your peace return to you. 14If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake the dust off your feet when you leave that home or town.

COGinator, this is what Jesus and the Apostles' example of preaching the good news of God's will. Clearly COGinator, you don't understand this. I'll just keep praying for you and your buddies Ted, Dark Angel and those who criticize Church of God. God bless you all.

Lizzie, its brother Ryan/Marcus here. I have been reading all of the posts.

By: marcus on July 1, 2008 at 3:13 pm

Do not fall into the trap of the false prophets. Obviously they are not understanding the simplest of prophecies.

Reply

They want to know why Christ Ahnsahnghong said that the name of the savior in the last days would be Jesus. Of course I can answer this for them, but would it satisfy them?

Their intention of asking questions is to figure out more ways they can manipulate the truth of the Bible. The Root of David has revealed all the precious truth that has been hidden for ages.

Now the scoundrels want to know it and trample on it.

Do not give it to them. Let them accuse us of believing in fairy tales.

Matthew 10:23 — When you are persecuted in one place, flee to another. I tell you the truth, you will not finish going through the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

Mark 6:11 — And if any place will not welcome you or listen to you, shake the dust off your feet when you leave, as a testimony against them."

Let us listen to the words of our Father.

Brothers and Sisters, let us find our lost family members quickly and make Mother the praise of the earth!!

Marcus said,

"They want to know why Christ Ahnsahnghong said that the name of the savior in the last days would be Jesus. Of course I can answer this for them, but would it satisfy them?"

By: Dark Angel on July 1, 2008 at 4:15 pm

Reply

Marcus, you have already given your answer, which didn't make sense then, so why would it answer make sense now?

The point is, you guys have a study on the "new name" which points to ahnsahnghong being this "new name".

However, when ahnsahnghong was alive, his name was not mentioned as the "new name". He personally did not reveal this information. For he had, then it would have been a declaration of himself claiming to be a god.

So basically, this study of the "new name" that points to ahnsahnghong, did not exist.

If it did not exist, then, who did ahnsahnghong say the "new name" of Jesus would be?

You might say that he told everyone not to use his name until after his death and that his name did not go into "effect" until after he died, because Jesus' ("age of the son") name was still in effect.

I believe you mentioned that in your answer some time ago. If he did mention that to his congregation, then yes, that is considered claiming to be a god if you are telling people to pray in your name.

Marcus, go find your lost billion or trillion and good luck doing so.

Elijah said, "Brothers and Sisters, let us find our lost family members quickly and make Mother the praise of the earth!!"

By: Dark Angel on July 1, 2008 at 4:21 pm

Elijah, everyone on Earth would have to agree that she is a god in order for her to be the "praise of the Earth".

Reply

Good luck with that.

Thank you Brother marcus. That's what I told our Brothers and Sisters on my comment above and it seems that they are listening to Father's words. Ted, COGinator, Dark Angel and the rest of their company our gathering all the information from Church of God and it's teachings to find faults and use it against us. I told our Brothers and Sisters what Father promised us in the whole chapter of Psalms 31. I agree with you Brother marcus. If they think that we preach a fairy tale then let them believe that. We clearly preach the truth of God's will.

By: Elijah on July 1, 2008 at 4:24 pm

Reply

The information will always be here for people to compare. Well, until you guys hack other message boards and delete all of the information.

By: Dark Angel on July 1, 2008 at 4:38 pm

Reply

Other than that, let your information be known, as well as ours, for the people and just leave it at that.

No hacking into websites and message boards, Marcus. (if that's you)

Dark Angel said "Other than that, let your information be known, as well as ours, for the people and just leave it at that."

By: Elijah on July 1, 2008 at 7:05 pm

Reply

Dark Angel, our information is the truth of God's will. It is very precious and it is not to be given to scoundrels like you. You wanna trample on it huh Dark Angel. Your not gonna get everything if you don't follow Father's guidance. Only Father Ahnsahnghong can reveal it to you because He is the Root of David.

As for your information Dark Angel, it is just a mere opinion of men and it doesn't interest me at all. You Dark Angel, Ted, COGinator have so much hatred on Church of God. You guys need to stop before it's too late. Dark Angel, please don't loose your salvation given by God.

"Dark Angel, our information is the truth of God's will. It is very precious and it is not to be given to scoundrels like you."

By: Ted on July 1, 2008 at 7:39 pm

Reply

Cult's operate below the radar and always in the shadows. They don't like the world knowing that "god is here". In fact, if a recruit asks the cult recruiters who they worship, the cult member will just smile and change the topic. This information can only be told once the recruit is properly prepared for indoctrination.

Instead they lure young adults in with promises of “truth” and “mysteries”. The new recruit feels enticed. They feel chosen or special. What could this mystery be? What is this secret? Let me go and find out.

The cult then proceeds to tantalize the recruit, offering little glimpses at the “secret”. Gradually the “secrets” become more and more illogical, until the recruit is completely brainwashed.

I remember one recruit, a young man, entered a COG church and looked up a picture of Mother and Ahnsahnghong. Who is that? he asked. His recruiter just smiled. Do not worry, I will teach you in another lesson. But I want to know now, he said. The COG deacon just smiled. We will study it when you are ready.

Cults can not proudly state the name of their God, because this destroys the mystery and the “step by step” indoctrination process. For a recruit to believe in the cult God, a very systematic brainwashing process has to be followed. It’s a series of gradual little steps.

Notice in public statements, high ranking COG board members never claim to follow a female or Korean God. Instead they say they are the only church to obey the Sabbath, or that they are the only church to obey the passover...never that they are the only church to have the one true Mother God as their living leader.

If the COG were to claim to have God, then people would turn up their noses. The “secret” would be out, and recruits wouldn’t fall for the trap.

It works this way...

Unknown Secret: recruit eagerly soak up and believe information, hoping for the final revelation of the mystery.

Known Secret: recruit objectively studies the information, because he knows what the final mystery is.

If you’ve seen a magic trick once, the next time you see it, you find yourself studying it carefully to see how the magician is doing it. The COG rely on their members not knowing what the magic trick is.

Yes its very true. My sister was a part of this COG cult and while on her visit to korea she was given a script on how she should go about with this brainwashing procedure and trap as many weaklings she could.

By: Genius on July 1, 2008 at 8:34 pm

Reply

Just imagine a living God has to stage shows and not just that they make them dress like clowns, have football activity on Sundays. Its a total mind control organization and its a pity to see them lose all the sense of logical thinking.

Our family is glad to have our sister back who is undergoing counselling. Praise to Jesus Christ!! Dark Angel they try as possible to hack all sites. They do not have any truth but its deception and these members like Elijah, poland, Robert are here just to defend the false truth of their church. This video is no longer available at the youtube where their brainwashed member says: "MOTHER HAD TO COME DOWN AND BE SO HUMBLE, SHE CLEANED TOILETS FOR US. I.m so sorry Mum". Looks like they found it very humiliating that displays the extent of stupidity.

This is how they use the techniqe of recruiting members

Let's complete overseas mission with Harmony and cooperation

Characters:

Chairman Park Jaeum

Man O Daegun

Women Lee Heyoung

Chinese 1 Lee Hyunjeong

Chinese 2 Kim Yujin

Sister 1 Lee Hejeong

Sister 2 Lee Mina

Sister 3 Yung Jaeum

Sister 4 Yu Jiyeong

Fellow worker Hong Seonggyu

Youth Ahn Gihoon

Black Man Choi Changgoo

French Man Kim Bongseon

Heresy Pastor Jin soocheol

Ad paper man Jeong Yongseung

By: Genius on July 1, 2008
at 8:42 pm

Reply

Opening music is on as dark lighting becomes brighter.
The chairman comes onto the middle of the stage

Chairman: (she nods) Men, Women and the youth.
Thank you for coming here even though you are all busy.
There is a simple survey for brothers and sisters. Umm..
The question is about what we have to prepare and our mental attitudes for overseas mission. And please write which country you would want to go if you had chance to go for overseas. Umm..It has a star mark. It must be an important question. Then please write it carefully after praying. Because you might be able to preach the gospel in the country you want to go.

Mysterious music is on. As the lighting becomes brighter.
Chinese traditional music is on. There are ad papers. A man and women appear.

Women: (She reads an ad paper on the street) "Report immediately if you see anyone who has a religion."
Honey-look at this~

Man: It happens at all the time~

Women: I'm worried about our brothers and sisters here.
We have a little while until the pastor comes. I'm so worried about if they stagger at these things.

Man: God is with us~!! What are you so worried about?

Women: Yes~ you're right. My mind was weakened for a while. Anyway~ we've got to hurry and get ready before the pastor comes.

to be contd.....

Man: Yes.right.It was very hard to be adapted when we first arrived here. Electricity, gas~ we had nothing that we used to use in comfort in Korea. Even sleeping was uncomfortable and it was hard to eat a meal properly.

By: Genius on July 1, 2008
at 8:45 pm

Reply

Women: Yes, it took us 1 year to adapt ourselves here. So let's help the prophets who come here so that they can concentrate only on finding the fruits.

Man: I agree with you. It is important that we bear fruits. But if we occupy a lot and preach the gospel it is a work for the gospel as well. Then a church will be built here and the gospel of God will spread quickly.

Women: You are right! Let's do our best~!!

At this moment a Chinese enters the stage from other side, running.

Chinese 1: They are such a beautiful couple.

Chinese 2: who are they?

Chinese1: You know those who talked with us saying that they are from church of God, remember?

Chinese2:Yeah.. and... what about them?

Chinese1: They make much of each other and love each other. It is so beautiful. There are not many couples like them these days.

Chinese2: Really?

Chinese1: They are always smiling and they don't complain at all. And they are not proud. They look like angels who have come from heaven. I can't stop them talking about the bible. What they said showing the bible came home to my heart

Chinese2: Really?

Chinese1: Yeah~ would you go and listen to them with me?

Chinese2: You are praising them so much. I wonder who they are and why you are praising them like this.

Chinese1: I heard that a pastor from Korea comes today. I think he is the pastor of the church where the couple goes. Want to go and hear the bible. Let's go together!

Chinese2: Shall I?

They disappear nodding their heads.

Chairman: Oh ~ ~ they are a couple who were posted overseas. Let me see.. Oh~ they wanted to preach the gospel in china~. They are a couple who occupied the lot in a strange country and who made the seeds of gospel grow. There were more than 30 people who were baptized last month. Wow. It's great~ they seem to have pleased God with their beautiful minds.

By: Genius on July 1, 2008 at 8:48 pm

Reply

At this moment sisters appear from the other side of the stage.

Sister1: Oh, no~ we are late. It's time for studying the word of God. It is not a grace to be late.

Brothers and sisters are studying at the other side of the stage. They greet them delightfully Sister 2: Now we have studied the word of God. Shall we go to preach the gospel?

Sister 3: Yes~ Let's go. Mother will be happy if we find our lost brothers and sisters and go to heaven soon.

They get ready to go out, and then they see sister 1 who is studying.

Sister 2: Sister! It's hard to study, isn't it?

Sister 1: No. No. Its ok.

Sister 2: (Holding her face) Sister! You know that you are not mother's daughter if you lose your heart. You know that~

Sister 1: (weeping) No~ I am mother's daughter

Sister 3: If you want to be Mother's daughter. Say, "I love you. I love you. I Love you." Three times a day.

Sister 2: Yes~ Cheer up! Sister. Yap!!

Sister 1: Yap!! (Brothers and sisters go out) Yes~ Let's think about the time when I first arrived here. How hard did I try to do overseas mission? I've come to America where I wanted to come so much. I should do my best.

Cindy appears.

Cindy: Hi~ Yeongmi

Sister 1: Hi Cindy

Cindy: Have you heard about it? The Tornado. It's so scary~!!! A lot of people died Sister 1: Really?

Cindy: Aren't you scared?

Sister 1: Never~ God is with me~ what should I be scared for?

Cindy: Yeah ~ I believe in God but...

By: Genius on July 1, 2008 at 8:50 pm

Sister 1: Cindy~ Have you heard about the Passover?

Reply

Cindy: Passover?

Sister 1: Yes, the Passover. The feast of God that we can escape from disasters!

Cindy: No

Sister! (Showing the Bible) See Understand?

Cindy: Wow~ ~its surprising. Why I haven't known till now? Your God is surprising.

Sister: Of course

Cindy: Yeongmi!! I want to keep the Passover as well. Then God will protect me right?

Sister 1: Of course

Cindy: I will tell my family about this right away. Yeongmi we don't have time to be here. Hurry and let's go to church.

Sister 1: Yeah~ (They disappear smiling)

Chairman: Oh~ She is the one who wanted to go overseas mission to AMERICA. She bears a lot of fruits as many as she has passions. The passions for preaching the gospel!!! God must be very pleased with her.

At this time a fellow worker in a neat suit appears Fellow worker: wow~ It's really hot here.

Youth: Of course. It's Africa

Fellow worker: Oh~ brother, here have some water

Youth: (He sees that there is not much water left) Well, how about you then? If I drink it all.

Fellow worker: Don't worry about me. I had some before

Youth: No it was I who drank it before.

Fellow worker: Ah. I drank before it

Youth: You have some first.

Fellow worker: No brother. You drink it. There is not much left, so you can drink it all. I am not even thirsty.

By: Genius on July 1, 2008 at 8:52 pm

Youth: It's more than 50 degrees here. It's impossible to be not thirst here. Reply

While they are offering water to each other, a foreigner comes then their eyes change...

Fellow worker: Ah brother, Let's preach the gospel to him (They go to the black man)

Fellow worker: Hello~ Please listen to God's words

Youth: (He opens the bible and tries to explain) Well deacon. I don't think he understands us.

Fellow worker: Doesn't he?

Youth: What shall we do? Ah! I've got an idea (He whispers in his ears)

They take off their clothes. The youth holds flashes on his shoulders and the fellow worker shouts "WE LOVE U" with some motion

The black man recognizes what they are doing

Black man: Ah~~you are those whom I met in Korea! Nice to meet you!

Youth: He recognizes us.

Black man: It was so impressive. We love you. We owe you much for your kindness. So it's time to repay your kindness. And the members of the church of God are so nice~~I want to go there too. I too have many friends. I will introduce you to my friends.

They pray with delight.

Chairman: Their warm mind that takes care of each other and worries about each other is such difficult process seems to have please God. Church of God has been built even in Africa. Does it mean that the words of God have been preached to the end of the earth? Finally, the end of the mission seems to be seen.

Sister 4: 1 year has already passed since I came to France. There is no church of God here yet. I thought that the French would have great sense. France is an advanced country, but no one would even listen to me. There must be a reason why I've come here. God said that He wants to make certain that none of the ones he has given me will be lost. There must be some people who want to listen to the words of God. Let's cheer up~

At this moment a unique music is on a French in gay costume enters.

Sister 4: Hey~wait a minute please. Would you listen to the words of God?

French: Oh No

Sister 4: It's good news.

By: Genius on July 1, 2008
at 8:56 pm

French: Be quite~ Where are you from?

Sister 4: From Korea.

Reply

French: Oh Korea no no no~ they eat dogs smelly kimchi~ I hate it no no I hate you too.

Sister 4: Wait!! (This time a heresy pastor comes from other side)

Sister 4: Do you know about Melchizedek?

Pastor: Of course~ Melchizedek It means that that the name of zedek is Melchi~

Sister 4: Ah! Then how about 666?

Pastor: Of course I know 666. It's a fool. "Who fools everyone on earth" 666 is a fool.

Sister 4: Then do we know the name of this age?

Pastor: Today's key point! It's an important question!! New name~ it's a bird. New means bird in Korean. We call it dove or eagle sometimes.

He passes her coolly.

Sister 4: She is disappointed for a while. But she put forth her strength and prays again.

Chairman: Brothers and sisters have eagerness to preach the words of God in Samaria and to the ends of the earth but it is impossible because Mother prays continually for them.

The lighting becomes darker and Mother appears. Mother prays on the corner of the stage. When she finishes praying the stage gets bright. The couple preacher who went to China appears.

Women: Sister~!! We've come

Sister4: Oh! How come you are here? You are supposed to be in China~

Man: The mission in China has been completed.

Sister 4: What?

Man: So we have come to help you. It will finish more quickly if we preach the gospel together

American brothers and sisters appear. Sister 1,2 and 3 appear with Cindy.

Sister 1: Sister~ we will help you.

Sister 4: Oh~? You are sisters from America~

Sister 2: The mission in America has been completed too. There is church of God in all 50 states.

Sister 1: Of course. There is no place where doesn't have church of God.

Cindy: We've come to help you. We've got complete the mission as soon as possible so that mother doesn't have to suffer.

Sister 4: (She nods her head being moved)

At this moment the brothers and sisters of Africa and the fellow workers and the Youth appear.

Fellow worker: Sister!! We've come too. The mission in Africa has been completed by the grace of mother. Europe is the only one left.

Bother: You are not alone. Nothing is impossible when we get together and help each other. Europe!! You are in my hand~ Ha Ha Ha~~

Sister 4: Thank you~ Father, Mother. I give thanks to you.

Black man: We don't have much time. Let's go and preach~ I want to complete the mission as soon as possible so that we can see mother being very pleased.

All: Yeah~!!

Everyone preaches the gospel in the street

Chairman: Go and teach them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.

The ending music is on, all the brothers and sisters who were preaching gather together.

All: The least of you will become a thousand, the smallest a mighty nation. I am the Lord: in its time I Will do this swiftly.

New Song "The light of Life of the new Jerusalem" is on, everyone sings along.

Stage blackout

I apologize for the long post but had to get this

By: Genius on July 1, across. I will be on vacation for a while.

2008
at 9:11 pm

The script has the Korean version too.
Have fun. It's very hilarious as you read through

Reply

Elijah,

By: Dark Angel on July 1, 2008
at 10:02 pm

Your god was taught through the "opinions of men".

Reply

In his book, Ahnsahnghong quotes Constantine, "In A.D.
321, Constantine, a Roman emperor, decreed an edict:
All judges, city-people and craftsmen shall rest on the venerable day of the Sun."

This information was revealed to him by the SDA.

"Seventh-day Adventists teach that there is no evidence of the Sabbath being changed to Sunday in the Bible.
They teach instead that it was changed by gradual acceptance of Sunday worship gatherings kept by the early church in Rome to distinguish themselves from the Jews and to align themselves with political authorities.

This change became more universally accepted with the establishment of Roman emperor Constantine's Sunday law of 321 AD and the decree at the Council of Laodicea that in canon 29 declared that Christians should avoid work on Sunday."

The SDA taught him the fundamentals, their way.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Seventh-day_Adventist_theology

I have a family member who is a SDA as well, so this is something that they teach.

So when you say "opinions of men", to me, it means that you only accept information written by other men, if it is hand-picked by your church and presented to you.

Also, Ellen White originally claimed the Pope started "Sunday worship".

By: Dark Angel on July 1, 2008
at 10:17 pm

She then changed her mind and said that Emperor Constantine introduced "Sunday worship" in 325
AD. Reply

Today, the SDA blame the interaction of Sunday worship on Christians in 135 AD and not the Pope or Constantine.

Dark Angel said "Your god was taught through the "opinions of men"."

By: Elijah on July 1, 2008
at 11:43 pm

Dark Angel, you are really blind of God's will in the Bible. At least your wife understand God's will. You should start getting the studies from her. I don't wanna waste my time anymore. God bless you Dark Angel.

Reply

Well I think I will be on my way..
Thanx for being great. I will come every now and then and reply to posts I find interesting. This is beginning to look like a kids playground. It's ridiculous already!

By: Lizzie on July 2, 2008 at 3:50 am

Reply

DA thnx for the other forum I will check up on it. Coginator thanx for the other forum. I have too much work to do for the moment. I wish I could stay and debate a little more, sorry. I promise to try my hardest and come back soon!
Much Love
~ ~Lizzie

Elijah said, "I really feel sorry for you COGinator. Even if I show you the truth of God's will, you won't understand it."

By: CoGinator on July 2, 2008 at 4:06 am

Your making an assumption which you have not proven... that what you teach is the truth. I believe that we've shown more compelling proof that what the WMSCoG teaching is not in alignment with what the gospels are about. So really it is you have have a block on the truth. Try this...start attending some different churches to see if there is any truth in what we are teaching you. Get into some more discussions with Christians that have an understanding of the bible...don't prey on the Christians who don't have an understanding...because in the end all you'll have a mindless Christian that furthers the agenda of the cult we call WMSCoG.

Reply

Elijah said, "Dark Angel, you are really blind of God's will in the Bible. At least your wife understand God's will."

By: Dark Angel on July 2, 2008 at 4:22 am

Elijah, I am not talking about the bible. I am talking about ahnsahnghong's book "The Mystery of God and the Spring of the Water of Life".

Reply

Ahnsahnghong didn't write the bible.

So if I say "ahnsahnghong's book", it means the stuff that HE wrote...not the bible.

Elijah, are you Wai Yu Lai?

By: Dark Angel on July 2, 2008 at 5:38 am

You mentioned my wife and I never said anything about my wife on this blog.

Reply

Just curious.

It would seem as if there is an untrusting spirit

By: CoGinator on July amongst the WMSoG. I would pray to the real God and not the fake gods that you worship for forgiveness and repentance.

2, 2008
at 12:51 pm

Reply

To assume we're haters just because we are seeking answers to things that don't make sense proves you're untrusting.

So far all roads lead to "nanny nanny boo boo...we're not telling you because you ask too many questions". Usually if a person is untrusting it's because they too are someone not to be trusted. If you want to hide behind that...be my guest.

COGinator said "Your making an assumption which you have not proven...that what you teach is the truth. I believe that we've shown more compelling proof that what the WMSCoG teaching is not in alignment with what the gospels are about. So really it is you have have a block on the truth. Try this...start attending some different churches to see if there is any truth in what we are teaching you. Get into some more discussions with Christians that have an understanding of the bible...don't prey on the Christians who don't have an understanding...because in the end all you'll have a mindless Christian that furthers the agenda of the cult we call WMSCoG."

By: Elijah on July 2, 2008
at 1:57 pm

Reply

Are you kidding me COGinator. What the Church of God teaches is the truth of the Bible. So your saying that Jesus was lying when He said that unless you eat His body and blood which is the Passover of the new covenant you have no life in you? How blind are you COGinator. Now to say that Communion is the body and blood of Christ then that's an opinion of men thinking it's okay to celebrate the Passover anytime they want. Wow do you know better than Jesus and the Apostles examples COGinator? Unbelievable. By the way, I have been in many arguments with other denominations out there and they all seem to give up. Clearly only World Mission Society Church of God follows all God's wills according to the Bible. Once I made those members of Seventh Day Adventist, Jehovah Witness, Baptist, Born Again, and many more realize that they are not keeping all God's wills, they just start to mock at me since they have no more proofs from the Bible to show that they are the true church keeping all God's wills. The Parable of Weeds and Wheat is really being fulfilled just as Jesus told the Apostles about it. Also, so far COGinator you have only used the opinion of men and really not prove Church of God is a false church according to the Bible. Keep trying, search the Bible well COGinator and maybe you have something from the Bible that proves the Church of God doesn't keep God's wills.

Dark Angel said "Elijah, are you Wai Yu Lai?

You mentioned my wife and I never said anything about my wife on this blog.

Just curious."

Thanks for asking Dark Angel and I am NOT Wai Yu Lai. I actually went to Rick's forum which you Dark Angel, Ted, COGinator seems to enjoy since it is built against Church of God. Looks like Wai Yu Lai is destroying all of you Church of God haters there. When it comes to preaching the truth, I really don't wanna waste time to people who are not interested in God's truth and more interested in opinion of men.

Okay I'm done here. I have some other people who are interested in knowing God's truth and not the opinion of men and I have no problem showing them the truth. God bless you all.

Good luck on your mission, Elijah.

By: Dark Angel on July 2, 2008 at 2:52 pm

Reply

Elijah, you said, "Are you kidding me COGinator. What the Church of God teaches is the truth of the Bible. So your saying that Jesus was lying when He said that unless you eat His body and blood which is the Passover of the new covenant you have no life in you?"

By: CoGinator on July 3, 2008 at 9:10 am

Reply

I'm waiting for the day when the WMSCoG interprets this to mean actually eating flesh and drinking blood of sacrificed humans...that's about as far fetched as interpreting Jesus wanted us to continue the practice of the Jewish Passover. (which by the way Jesus had his last supper two days before the Passover...so there goes your theory that that is what he wanted).

I'll just leave it at that. You say we believe men...I say you believe in men too...it was Joo and Cheol that claimed ASH to be the Christ. He did not, has not, and will not (since he's dead).

And we've proven that to all who are not mind melted, time and time again.

One more thing Elijah, it would appear that you are angry...I wonder what travesty occurred in your life that brought you to the WMSCoG.

By: CoGinator on July 3, 2008 at 9:49 am

Based on the comments, language and tone of the postings it would seem more that your the hater than any non WMSCOG member. WWJD?

Reply

so, if MJ told the cog people to take heroin to bring them closer to their "god" they'd do it?

By: mommadukes on July 3, 2008 at 8:51 pm

Just don't drink the kool aid.....

Reply

watch this video

By: thomas on July 5, 2008
at 10:03 pm

Advertisement

Reply

Not much difference between COG or this guy who claims he's Jesus.

I was told that even Hyundai company donated car to MJ and well we have cheol wear Rolex watch

The COG works in secret and keeps a low profile.

Nowadays christians believe in anything. and it is the brainwashed members that help build churches for their cult leaders across the globe.

The cog does not want to be exposed too soon like the rest of the cults. Therefore under Mj's instructions they ensure that every anti-cog videos and websites are hacked or destroyed.

If ASH died of a brain aneurism one can imagine what awaits M.J and Cheol for misleading and destroying many souls.

Every race has a messiah or savior. Nothing surprising.

By: Dark Angel on July 6, 2008
at 2:54 am

Reply

(July 6) – Survival groups around the world are gearing up and counting down to a mysterious date that has been anticipated for thousands of years: Dec. 21, 2012.

By: Lizzie on July 7, 2008
at 1:43 pm

Reply

Across the United States, Canada and throughout Europe, apocalyptic sects and individuals say that is the day that the world as we know it will end, ABCnews.com reports.

Ancient Mayan societies, known for their advanced mathematics and astronomy, followed a "long count" calendar that lasted 5,126 years. When their charts are translated to the Gregorian calendar, the international standard used today, time runs out on Dec. 21, 2012.

Believers say there are other links besides just the Mayan calendar that portend catastrophe. The sun will be aligned with the center of the Milky Way for the first time in about 26,000 years on the same day, which marks the winter solstice. Some say that will disrupt the energy flow to Earth, or that the high rate of sunspots or sun flares that NASA has predicted for 2012 could affect Earth magnetic fields.

Scientists have tried to squash the doomsday scenario as another empty prophesy, but it's clear there are thousands who consider the possibility of a worldwide catastrophe occurring on that date very real.

"You have to understand, there will be nothing, nothing left," Patrick Geryl told ABC News. "We will have to start an entire civilization from scratch." Geryl, a 53-year-old former laboratory worker who lives in Belgium, quit his job two years ago after he saved up enough money to last him until December 2012. He's now stocking survival supplies, a list of which runs 11 pages long.

Geryl is certainly not the only one. Searching for "2012 the end of the world" on Google brings up nearly 700,000 hits. More than 6,500 video posts about the day have been posted on YouTube. There are also countless books on the topic, many published in the wake of the success of Daniel Pinchbeck's "2012: The Return of Quetzalcoatl," which has been selling thousands of copies each month since it was released last May.

But what do believers think will happen on Dec. 21, 2012? Some say a polar reversal, where the north pole becomes the south, where the sun rises in the west, triggering natural disasters around the world. Others say the date marks a worldwide spiritual awakening.

Experts laugh off these notions. "These prophecies of doom really don't have any basis in what we know about the Maya," said Stephen Houston, an anthropology professor at Brown University and an expert in Maya hieroglyphic writing. "The Maya descriptions barely talk about this event." He said the Mayans saw their calendar coming to an end on the date, but then starting over without any catastrophes.

"Really, it's a conversion of people's anxieties about our times, and finding some remote mythological precedent or prediction of it," he said. "People like to believe that ancient wisdom is somehow predicting this time of upheaval."

I had to post this when I read it... This is for those that believe the world will end in 2012 and those that don't!

When the New Testament lists sins, Sabbath breaking is conspicuously absent:

- In Mark 7:21-22 13 sins are listed. Jesus did not mention breaking the Sabbath.
- In Romans 1:29-32 20 sins are listed and not one of them is Sabbath breaking.
- In Galatians 5:19-21 a list of 15 sins are given,
- In 2 Timothy 3:1-4 there's a list of 18 sins, but not once is Sabbath breaking mentioned!

By: exsda on July 7, 2008
at 2:01 pm

Reply

-Why is it that nowhere in the New Testament is failure to keep the Sabbath day condemned as sin?

-Why is the fourth commandment itself not repeated even ONCE in the New Testament?

-If the Sabbath keeping is so important for a disciple of Christ, why was it not mentioned in His sermon on the Mount or in ANY of His teachings?

-Why didn't Jesus command Sabbath keeping?

-Why didn't any of the Apostles command Sabbath keeping?

-Why didn't the Jerusalem counsel command Sabbath keeping or condemn Sabbath breaking? (Acts 15)

[i] "I had to post this when I read it... This is for those that believe the world will end in 2012 and those that dont!" [/i]

By: Ted on July 7, 2008
at 8:12 pm

Reply

The world won't end in 2012.

1999 was supposed to be a similar END TIMES date.

Then we had Y2K.

Early Christians thought the year 1899 would be the final year.

It's all just superstition fuelled by myth.

And by the way, the Mayans did not believe that the world would end in 2012, this is a misunderstanding of their writings. They Mayan calender has 20 calendar cycles. Each cycle lasts 400 tropical years and is thought of as 1 unit of time. The next Mayan cycle will start in 2012.

In other words, we're living in the 13th Mayan calendar cycle, and in 2012, we enter the 14th Mayan cycle. The world doesnt end, the 13th calendar cycle simply ends. 2012 is not some Mayan apocalyptic "END TIMES" event, it's simply just another repeated calendar cycle.

So basically, 2012 is 1999 to the Mayans. It's when we shift from one "millenium" to another "millenium". The Mayan's did not believe the world would end in 2012, this is just a myth spread by conspiracy theorists and nutcases.

[i] "When the New Testament lists sins, Sabbath breaking is conspicuously absent" [/i]

Because it's not a sin. Just another legalistic doctrine used by cults to keep their members focussed on physical repetition.

Lizzie said: "Scientists have tried to squash the doomsday scenario as another empty prophesy, but it's clear there are thousands who consider the possibility of a worldwide catastrophe occurring on that date very real."

By: Ted on July 7, 2008

at 8:19 pm

Reply

And of course the COG ignore the scientists and instead believe the "thousands of nutcases" who think 2012 will be a worldwide catastrophe.

Lizzie said: "Experts laugh off these notions. "These prophecies of doom really don't have any basis in what we know about the Maya," said Stephen Houston, an anthropology professor at Brown University and an expert in Maya hieroglyphic writing. "The Maya descriptions barely talk about this event." He said the Mayans saw their calendar coming to an end on the date, but then starting over without any catastrophes."

Did you even read what you posted Lizzie? The Mayans did not believe the world would end in 2012.

Do you really believe that Ahnsahnghong is fulfilling a Mayan Prophecy...a prophecy that doesn't exist ANYWHERE in Mayan culture.

This is very similar to how the COG believes that Ahnsahnghong fulfilled prophecies...prophecies which do not even exist in the Bible.

People make prophecies without understanding the facts of the cultures they derive their beliefs from.

Lizzie said: "Really, it's a conversion of people's anxieties about our times, and finding some remote mythological precedent or prediction of it," he said. "People like to believe that ancient wisdom is somehow predicting this time of upheaval."

Exactly.

Ted said "This is very similar to how the COG believes that Ahnsahnghong fulfilled prophecies...prophecies which do not even exist in the Bible."

By: Elijah on July 7, 2008

at 8:40 pm

Reply

Ted before you go further why don't you read the Bible. I guess the Fig Tree Lesson from Jesus Christ Himself is a b.s. to you Ted huh? Even the Root of David, Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled that so Ted, don't say that the prophecies Ahnsahnghong fulfilled didn't exist in the Bible. Thank you Ted.

Hi Elijah.

By: Ted on July 7, 2008

Yes, it's BS just like the Mayan 2012 myth. The Mayans did not believe the world would end in 2012. People create myths and prophecies without understanding the culture from which their beliefs are derived.

at 9:02 pm

Reply

The Mayan myth of 2012 was started by people who didn't understand Mayan culture, just like the the COG's prophecies of Ahnsahnghong were started by people who don't understand Judaism.

I just posted something I read... that's why I clearly stated at the end "This is for those that believe the world will end in 2012 and those that dont!"

By: Lizzie on July 8, 2008

at 2:54 am

Moron..... I didnt say it was to fulfill any prophesies, that is what YOU ASSUMED! Didn't anyone teach you it is wrong to assume!

Reply

Anyway, this is just something I wanted to share.

And the Sabbath keeping is mentioned in the New Testament, just because you are blind to see that JESUS kept the SABBATH and so his Apostles.

Luke 4:16

He [Jesus] went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. And he stood up to read.

Acts 17:2

As his custom was, Paul went into the synagogue, and on three Sabbath days he reasoned with them from the Scriptures, and here are more Sabbath keeping verses:

Mark 1:21

They went to Capernaum, and when the Sabbath came, Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach.

Mark 6:2

When the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were amazed.

Luke 23:56

Then they went home and prepared spices and perfumes. But they rested on the Sabbath in obedience to the commandment.

Acts 13:14

From Perga they went on to Pisidian Antioch. On the Sabbath they entered the synagogue and sat down.

Hebrews 4:1

[A Sabbath-Rest for the People of God] Therefore, since the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us be careful that none of you be found to have fallen short of it.

So I don't agree with you about the Sabbath not being a COMMANDMENT in the NEW TESTAMENT!

Let's not forget Jesus words concerning his FATHERS LAWS and NOT KEEPING THEM

Matthew 7

21"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but ONLY HE who does the WILL OF MY FATHER who is in heaven. 22Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' 23Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'

The planetary alignment was supposed to destroy the planet too.

By: Dark Angel on July 8, 2008 at 7:21 am

Does anyone remember that?

Reply

It's weird how people tend to forget these things only to feed into another. There will be something else after the 2012 thing blows over and religious sects will take advantage again once more.

Mark 2:27-28: The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. So the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.

By: exsda on July 8, 2008 at 8:25 am

Let's look at the context of Mark 2 to see what Jesus' purpose was in saying what he did in verses 27 and 28. One Sabbath, Jesus and the disciples were picking heads of grain (verse 23). Jesus' action and that of his disciples was immediately challenged by the Pharisees. "Why are they doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?" they demanded to know (verse 24). The Pharisees had set themselves up as religious authorities, defining what could or could not be done on the Sabbath.

Reply

What the Pharisees objected to was Jesus and his disciples picking the heads of grain on the Sabbath. They regarded this as reaping. It was one of the many acts the teachers of the law had decided should be forbidden on the Sabbath. The people challenging Jesus in Mark 2:27-28 would all have rightly assumed that the Law of Moses commanded them to keep the Sabbath. As the old covenant people of God, they were obligated to observe it. The question for these people – not us – was how to keep it under certain circumstances.

To answer this question, Jesus countered their challenge with a question and an example of his own about David and his companions. He pointed out that on one occasion, because they were hungry, they ate the consecrated bread, which was unlawful for anyone to eat but the priests (verses 25-26). By his reference to this example, Jesus was pointing out that while David technically broke the Law of Moses, he was not condemned because such violations under certain conditions of need might be warranted. Jesus had applied this principle to what he and the disciples were doing when picking the heads of grain on the Sabbath.

Jesus' point was that although the action of David was contrary to the Law of Moses, he was not condemned for it. The issue in this passage, then, is how to interpret the Mosaic Law, and who has the ultimate authority to do so. Nothing is said about which group of people, or whether everyone, is commanded to keep the Sabbath as "holy time."

Paul on Galatian also mentioned:

Galatians 4:9-11 "But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how is it that you turn back again to the weak and worthless elemental things, to which you desire to be enslaved all over again? You observe days and months and seasons and years. I fear for you, that perhaps I have labored over you in vain."

This corresponds to:

Colossians 2:16-17 "Therefore let no one act as your judge in regard to food or drink or in respect to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath day—things which are a mere shadow of what is to come; but the substance belongs to Christ."

Finally:

Romans 14:5

"One man regards one day above another, another regards every day alike. Let each man be fully convinced in his own mind."

Spirituality is not about days, festivals, ceremony .. all those things are merely doctrines and dogma. It is like you are eating the menu instead of eating the food when you go to a restaurant..

I hope we can all love one another without prejudice.

and back at you..

Matthew 7

21"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but ONLY HE who does the WILL OF MY FATHER who is in heaven. 22Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?' 23Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'

Elijah said, "Ted before you go further why don't you read the Bible. I guess the Fig Tree Lesson from Jesus Christ Himself is a b.s. to you Ted huh? Even the Root of David, Christ Ahnsahnghong fulfilled that so Ted, don't say that the prophecies Ahnsahnghong fulfilled didn't exist in the Bible. Thank you Ted."

By: CoGinator on July 8, 2008 at 2:49 pm

Reply

It's the CoGs interpretation that's BS. As far as I can tell, ASH has not root in David, but Jesus did. So clearly the prophecy was for Jesus and not for ASH. Thank you Elijah.

Why are Christian sects using Mayan information anyway, the Mayans were Pagans.

By: Dark Angel on July 8, 2008 at 4:35 pm

Wouldn't that be injecting Paganism into Christianity?

Reply

Isn't that what the COG accuse Constantine of doing?

That's weird.

Since the Cult Watch message board is down, thought I'd post a question here in regards to Communion.

By: Dark Angel on July 10, 2008 at 11:57 am

I'm not even going to make any assumptions at this point, I'll find out later if the forum was hacked into or not.

Reply

Anyway, Paul's words...

1Corinthians 10:14 – Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee fro idoltry 1Corinthians 10:15 – I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

1Corinthians 10:16 – The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the Communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the Communion of the body of Christ?

