Instructions

Although a church, its integrated auxiliaries, or a convention or association of churches is not required to file Form 1023 to be exempt from Federal income tax or to receive tax-deductible contributions, such an organization may find it advantageous to obtain recognition of exemption. In this event, you should submit information showing that your organization is a church, synagogue, association or convention of churches, religious order or religious organization that is an integral part of a church, and that it is carrying out the functions of a church.

In determining whether an admittedly religious organization is also a church, the IRS does not accept any and every assertion that such an organization is a church. Because beliefs and practices vary so widely, there is no single definition of the word "church" for tax purposes. The IRS considers the facts and circumstances of each organization applying for church status.

The IRS maintains two basic guidelines in determining that an organization meets the religious purposes test:

1. That the particular religious beliefs of the organization are truly and sincerely held, and
2. That the practices and rituals associated with the organization's religious beliefs or creed are not illegal or contrary to clearly defined public policy.

In order for the IRS to properly evaluate your organization's activities and religious purposes, it is important that all questions in Schedule A be answered.

The information submitted with Schedule A will be a determining factor in granting the "church" status requested by your organization. In completing the schedule, consider the following points:

1. The organization's activities in furtherance of its beliefs must be exclusively religious, and
2. An organization will not qualify for exemption if it has a substantial nonexempt purpose of serving the private interests of its founder or the founder's family.

CREED

The basic principles of the World Gospel Missionary Council of Church of God

1. God

He, being omnipotent, created the earth and everything in it; He is an absolute being who oversees the providence of the universe.

2. Men

Men were originally children of God in the heavenly kingdom but they have become fallen angels as they were driven out of heaven to the earth after yielding themselves to temptation of devils. God, however, waits for men to return to heaven upon repentance of sin (Luke 15:7)

3. Angels

Angels are heroes of heaven. They are the beings used by God for the purpose of dominance by God. They were entrusted with various missions and roles. One of their roles is to protect the saved children (Hebrews 1:14)

4. The Kingdom of Heaven and Hell

The Kingdom of Heaven is a perpetual paradise. It is a glorious kingdom governed by God. In the Kingdom of Heaven, there is no death, no more sorrow, no more pain, or no more sadness, and joy is created on daily basis (Revelation 21:4)

5. Sin

The history of sin is originated from heaven (Judges 14:12-15, Ezekiel 28:11, Revelation 12:7-9) therefore once our sin is forgiven we are allowed to return to the Kingdom of Heaven.

6. Commandments of God

There are commandments of God and commandments of men. For our salvation to be completed, we must follow the commandments of God to enter the Kingdom of Heaven (Mark 7:6-9).

7. Holy Scripture

The Holy Scripture is the absolute source of word of God, the manual and the guide book for humanity that leads to salvation. The Bible supercedes any law there is and must be respected so (II Timothy: 3:14-17)

8. God Serving Truth

Man's duty is to follow the teachings of truth by God, the truth which has been revealed to humanity.

- A) Be baptized (Mark 16:16)
- B) Observe the Passover (Matthew 26:18)
- C) Observe the Sabbath (Luke 4:16)
- D) Observe the special days of the new covenant (Hebrews 9:15)
- E) Women cover heads during worship service (I Corinthian 11:6)
- F) God is a heterosexual being (Genesis 1:26)
