Instructions

Although a church, its integrated auxiliaries, or a convention or association of churches is not required to file Form 1023 to be exempt from Federal income tax or to receive tax-deductible contributions, such an organization may find it advantageous to obtain recognition of exemption. In this event, you should submit information showing that your organization is a church, synagogue, association or convention of churches, religious order or religious organization that is an integral part of a church, and that it is carrying out the functions of a church.

In determining whether an admittedly religious organization is also a church, the IRS does not accept any and every assertion that such an organization is a church. Because beliefs and practices vary so widely, there is no single definition of the word "church" for tax purposes. The IRS considers the facts and circumstances of each organization applying for church status.

The IRS maintains two basic guidelines in determining that an organization meets the religious purposes test:

1. That the particular religious beliefs of the organization are truly and sincerely held, and
2. That the practices and rituals associated with the organization's religious beliefs or creed are not illegal or contrary to clearly defined public policy.

In order for the IRS to properly evaluate your organization's activities and religious purposes, it is important that all questions in this schedule be answered accurately.

The information submitted with this schedule will be a determining factor in granting the "church" status requested by your organization. In completing the schedule, consider the following points:

1. The organization's activities in furtherance of its beliefs must be exclusively religious, and
2. An organization will not qualify for exemption if it has a substantial nonexempt purpose of serving the private interests of its founder or the founder's family.

- 10 Does the organization have a school for the religious instruction of the young? Yes No
- 11 Were the current deacons, minister, and/or pastor formally ordained after a prescribed course of study? Yes No
- 12 Describe the organization's religious hierarchy or ecclesiastical government.
The Church will have a pastor, elders, deacons and members (brothers & sisters)
- 13 Does the organization have an established place of worship? Yes No
If "Yes," provide the name and address of the owner or lessor of the property and the address and a description of the facility.

If the organization has no regular place of worship, state where the services are held and how the site is selected. Services are held in spaces provided by the members and the church welcomes the generosity of its members.
- 14 Does (or will) the organization license or otherwise ordain ministers (or their equivalent) or issue church charters? Yes No
If "Yes," describe in detail the requirements and qualifications needed to be so licensed, ordained, or chartered. Must be baptized in the name of JESUS CHRIST. Must study the bible for 6 months intensely. Must experience Gospel Ministry for 3 years and attended worship for atleast 1 year.
- 15 Did the organization pay a fee for a church charter? Yes No
If "Yes," state the name and address of the organization to which the fee was paid, attach a copy of the charter, and describe the circumstances surrounding the chartering.
- 16 Show how many hours a week the minister/pastor and officers each devote to church work and the amount of compensation paid to each of them. If the minister or pastor is otherwise employed, indicate by whom employed, the nature of the employment, and the hours devoted to that employment.
There is no compensation at the moment as the church is just being organized. However, the pastor is already spending atleast 60hrs a week organizing the church with no other employment.
