SUPERIOR COURT OF NEW JERSEY
LAW DIVISION: BERGEN COUNTY

Docket No.: L-3489-12

Civil Action

ORDER

This matter having been opened to the Court by the Law Offices of Jan Meyer & Associates, P.C., co-counsel with Nesenoff & Miltenberg, LLP for Plaintiff World Mission Society Church of God, by way of application for an for a Order pursuant to R. 4:10-3(a),(b),(d)&(g) that certain discovery not be had and that responses to other discovery demands be subject to a Confidentiality Order, and the Court having read and considered the legal documents as submitted, and the opposition, if any, for good cause appearing;

IT IS on this _____ day of October 2013;

ORDERED as follows;

1. Plaintiff's motion is granted.

2. Plaintiff is not required to respond to Defendant's Document Demands No. 13, 18-23, 53, 68-79, and documents responsive to No. 26 to the extent that they would disclose the identity of any members of Plaintiff.

3. The response to Defendant's Document Demands No. 24, 25, 27 – 35, 41 – 51, 65, 66, 121 – 128, 136 – 140 and 143 – 145 ("Discovery Materials") may be used for the purposes of this litigation only and shall not be disclosed or disseminated to any third parties, other than counsel, witnesses, and the Court.

4. Except as may be otherwise agreed to by the parties, or ordered by the Court, disclosures of Discovery Materials or the information contained therein shall be limited to counsel, counsel's legal and clerical assistants, the Court and Court personnel (including court and deposition stenographers), actual and prospective witnesses, and/or consultants or experts retained by the parties or counsel, as may from time to time reasonably be necessary, but only in the prosecution or defense of this action.

5. Counsel shall advise all persons to whom Discovery Materials are disclosed pursuant to this paragraph of the existence of this Order, and persons (other than counsel and their legal and clerical assistants, the Court and Court personnel) to whom disclosure is made shall agree to be bound thereby. No disclosure of Discovery Materials, other than those authorized by this Order, is permitted.

6. Deposition testimony by any party to this case or any employee or agent of a party to this case containing or discussing Discovery Materials may be designated as "confidential" by a statement to that effect at the time of the deposition or within seven (7) days thereafter. The use and disclosure of testimony designated "confidential" shall be subject to all the limitations and requirements of this Order.

7. The non-producing party shall not file any Discovery Materials or testimony designated “confidential” with the Court except under seal.

~~8. The public record of these proceedings shall be sealed and no party shall publicize or disclose any document filed with the Court in this case.~~

9. This Order is binding upon the parties hereto, their agents and employees, all counsel for the parties and their agents and employees, and all persons to whom disclosure of discovery material or testimony pursuant to the terms hereof is made.

10. Not later than ninety days after the judgment in this action becomes final and all rights of appeal have been exhausted (the “final judgment”), the parties agree that the producing party may make a written request for the return of all Discovery Materials, which will be returned to the producing party promptly thereafter at the producing party’s expense. Nothing contained herein shall obligate any party to return copies of any pleadings or other Court filings, or documents containing and/or constituting attorney-client communications or attorney work product.

11. Plaintiff’s counsel shall serve a copy of this Order within seven days of receipt on all parties that appeared in this action.
